He was in garrison at Gibraltar in 1811 when the Spanish Army of General Ballasteros took refuge under the guns of that fortress. In Oct. and Nov. of the same year he was in Cadiz, part of the period during which the place was blockaded by the French. In Dec. he joined the Army in Portugal, and was immediately placed on the Quarter Master General's Staff, on which he continued to the end of the war; and attached to either the Head Quarters the 7th or the 1st Division, was present at most of the operations carried on in the north of Spain under the Duke of Wellington. He has received the War Medal with three Clasps for the battles of Salamanca, Vittoria, and the Pyrenees. In 1823 he was at Cadiz during its bombardment by the French fleet.

[2] General Wylde served in Holland in 1813 and 1814, and commanded a Battery before Antwerp and at the attack on Bergen-op-Zoom. Was attached to the Horse Artillery with the Army of Occupation in France. In April 1834 succeeded Lord William Russell as Military Commissioner at the Head Quarters of Don Pedro's Army in Portugal, and continued with them until the Convention of Evora Monte; and subsequently from November 1834 to 1840 at the head-quarters of the Spanish Army, and in all the general actions during that period, including the raising of the siege of Bilboa, for which he received the thanks of the Spanish Cortes. [3] General Chesney was employed, from 1829 to 1832, in examining the principal parts of Western Asia; during which time, assisted only by a few Arabs, he descended the river Euphrates upon a raft; and his reports to Government led to a Parliamentary vote to extend our commercial relations in that quarter, and open a communication with India through Arabia. His Majesty, through the Duke of Wellington, having conferred on him the rank of Colonel on a particular service, he sailed early in 1835 with a Detachment of Artillery, another of Sappers, a proportion of seamen, and thirteen military and naval officers; with whose assistance Colonel Chesney accomplished the extraordinary achievement of transporting two iron steam vessels across Syria, and floating them in a perfect state on the Upper Euphrates, not very far from Aleppo. In the early part of the navigation thus commenced, a fearful hurricane carried the smaller vessel and twenty of her men to the bottom, Colonel Chesney and eight others being saved by swimming. The Commander, however, persevered; and in the remaining vessel he not only completed the surveys of the rivers Euphrates, Tigris, and Kareen, but continued the undertaking until it was turned over in the following year to the East India Company. His late Majesty warmly approved of the intrepidity manifested in continuing the service after the calamitous loss of one half of his force, and the brevet rank of Major was bestowed on him by the King, which was followed by that of Lt.Colonel by command of the Queen.

[5] Sir William Fenwick Williams commanded the Turkish Army at the defence of Kars, and for his distinguished services was promoted Major General, nominated a KCB. and created a Baronet; has also received the 1st Class of the Turkish Order of the Medjidie, and is a Grand Officer of the French Legion of Honor.

[6] Sir John Edward Dupuis served on the north coast of Spain 1836, 37, and 38, in co-operation with the Spanish Army, including the field actions of the 10th, 12th, 14th, and 16th March, and the action of Hernani, on the 14th May 1837, besides various other minor affairs (1st Class of San Fernando). [1] Major General Grattan was actively employed on the frontiers during the rebellion in Canada in 1838. He served in China with the 18th Royal Irish (Medal), and was present at the storming of the Heights above Canton, and led the advance against the enemy's entrenched camp for which he was selected by Sir Hugh Gough as the bearer of his despatches, promoted to the rank of Major, and appointed Brigade Major of Fort St. George by Lord Hill. On his return to China—on board the Madagascar—in charge of Lord Auckland's despatches, the ship having caught fire during a gale of wind, he with a few others narrowly escaped the fate of fifty-seven souls who perished upon that occasion; he fell into the hands of the Chinese, and was detained 108 days in captivity; after which he was at the attack of Segoan, and commanded the 18th (after the fall of Lt.Colonel Tomlinson) at Chapoo, Woosung, and Changhai; and he was present at the storming of Chin Kiang Foo and the landing before Nankin. Served with the 18th Royal Irish in the last campaign in Burmah (Medal with Clasp).

[2] Colonel M'Kinstry served with the 17th Regiment in the Crimea from the 17th Dec. 1854 to the 11th July 1855, including the siege of Sebastopol and assault of the Redan on the 18th June—mentioned in despatches (Medal with Clasp, Brevet of Major, Sardinian and Turkish Medals, and 5th Class of the Medjidie).

[1] Sir De Lacy Evans served in India in 1807, 08, 09, and 10. Portugal, Spain, and France in 1812, 13, and 14. America, part of 1814–15. Belgium and France in 1815, 16, 17, and 18. In Spain in 1835, 36, and 37. Present during the operations against Ameer Khan and the Pindarries, capture of the Mauritius, part of the retreat from Burgos, action on the Hormaza (wounded), battle of Vittoria, investment of Pampeluna, battle of the Pyrenees, investment of Bayonne (horse shot), actions of Vic Bigorre and Tarbes, battle of Toulouse (horse shot), battle of Bladensburg (two horses shot), capture of Washington, attack on Baltimore, operations before New Orleans (boarding and capture of American Flotilla), action 25th Dec. (wounded severely), unsuccessful assault Jan. (wounded severely), battle of Quatre Bras, retreat of 17th of June, Waterloo (horse shot and one sabred), investment and capitulation of Paris. Continued on Staff of Allied Army of Occupation in France. Accepted under an allied Power (1835) command of an auxiliary British and Spanish Corps of Army by sanction and desire of the English Government, and by order of the King in Council. Acted, while so employed, in conjunction with the British forces (under Lord J. Hay) and through mediation of British authorities:—raising investments of San Sebastian and Bilboa, action of Artaban, capture of port and castle of Passages. Defeated the enemy in general actions on the 5th of May, 6th of June, 1st of Oct. (wounded) 1836; also 10th and 15th of March 1837. Attacked near Heruani, 16th March, by the élite of the Carlist Army, 16,000 strong (about double the allied force), and obliged to retreat about one mile, but with a less loss in killed and wounded (600) than that of the enemy. Resumed the offensive the following month—capture of Hernani by escalade, 14th May—of Oyarzun, 16th May—of Yrun, by storm, 17th May—of Fontarabia by capitulation, 18th May. These and other minor affairs were, for the most part, severely contested, and cost (including those of the enemy) above ten thousand killed and wounded. Excepting occasionally two or three stragglers, generally without arms, the Legion never lost (under his command) prisoners, artillery, or equipage, though utterly contrary statements repeatedly appeared at the time—while he took from the enemy 100 officers, 1000 men, thirty pieces of cannon, several entrenched positions, fortified towns and posts, with an extensive and most important strategical tract of the insurgent territory, including their main line of retreat, communication, and supply. Thenceforth "the frontier was effectually closed against the entrance of resources to the Carlists, except by the small mountain passes, which are only accessible to foot passengers, or mules lightly laden"—(British Commissioners' Despatch, Parliamentary Paper)—and thus did this auxiliary Corps decisively contribute to the successful termination of the war. He holds the rank of Lieut.General in the national Army of Spain, by licence of a British Royal warrant; also, honoured by Her Majesty for these services with the Cross of Commander of the Bath, and by the Government of Spain with the Grand Crosses of St. Ferdinand and Charles III. Received his Company, Majority, and Lt.Colonelcy in the British service for conduct against the enemy. Sir De Lacy has received the War Medal with three Clasps for Vittoria, Pyrenees, and Toulouse. Commanded the 2nd Division in the Eastern campaign of 1854, including the battles of the Alma (wounded), Balaklava, and Inkerman, and siege of Sebastopol, comprising the repulse of the powerful sortie on the 26th Oct. 1854. Previous to entering the British service he served in Portugal, in the Pedroite Army, from 1833 to 1835, and was at the defence of Oporto, and in all the affairs from the raising of the siege to the termination of the war. He afterwards served in Spain under Sir De Lacy Evans, as Captain of Infantry, and under Espartero as Captain of Cavalry, and subsequently on the Staff of General Don Diego Leon, whose escort he commanded from 1836 to 1841. Was twice decorated with the Order of St. Ferdinand for charges of Cavalry at Allo and Berga, and with the Medals for the siege and capture of Irun and Morlela; once severely wounded. Was present in the following actions and affairs in that country:—Fuenterabia (reconnaissance on), Ametzagana, San Marcos, Loyola, Aguirre, Oriamendi, Hernani, Urnietta, Irun (siege of), Lazarte, Usurbil, Andoin, Vera, Perdon, Otiera (reconnaissance on), Sesma, Belascoain, Aroniz, Santa Barbara (reconnaissance on), Valle de Berruera, Allo, Allo y dicastillo, Collander, Maniella y pena Cortada, Genebrosa, Canadette, Agua Viva, Segura (siege of), Castleotte (reconnaissance on), Castleotte (siege of), Valle de Lladres, Morella (siege of), Berga and its twenty-two redoubts; charged, with seven Lancers, Bosque's Squadron, completely routing it, killing seven and capturing five horses.
