[1] Lt.General Taylor proceeded in 1811 to join the 22nd Dragoons in the East Indies, where he served until their return to Europe and disbandment, 25th Oct. 1820. He was in the field in 1815 and 16, and during the whole of the Mahratta war in 1817–19; the published official records show that his conduct was conspicuous in the Brigade Cavalry actions of Bucktowlie and of Nagnore, and in that of Ashta (20th Feb. 1818), the enemy having charged, overthrew one Regiment and cut down the General commanding, he, as Brigade Major, incurred the responsibility of countermanding the retreat, of ordering measures which terminated in the entire defeat of the Peishwar, the death of his Commander-in-Chief (Gokla), and he rescued the Rajah of Satarrah, the influential events that terminated the war. At the siege of Capaul-droog, he commanded a Battery at the storm (13th May 1819), he blew open the first gate with a galloper gun of the 22nd Dragoons, and heading the Forlorn Hope, he stormed in succession the five distinct circles of fortifications, every man and officer of his party being either killed or wounded, he received at the summit of that strong hill fort, at the moment of success in its capture, a shot through his lungs and body that killed the Grenadier behind him. The Governor-General of India specially recommended him to favourable consideration for his services in India. In 1823–24 he was employed in the Cape Cavalry against the Caffres, and was recommended for promotion by the Governor and Commander-in-Chief. In Jan. 1841 he was relieved from a bullet which had been in his body since 1819. In Aug. 1846 his life was imperilled from a surgical operation consequent upon the passage of some cloth driven into him by a shot. In Nov. 1848 he was relieved from a piece of bone broken in his body by a shot. From April 1854 to Dec. 1857 he was a Colonel on the Staff at the Cape of Good Hope, where as a Brigadier at a "period of peculiar difficulty and imminently threatened war" he commanded a large force in Kaffraria with approbation and thanks publicly recorded. From April 1860 to April 1861 he was Commander of the of the Forces and Lieut.Governor of Jamaica and its Dependencies. In 1827 he was sent to England from Malta to to establish discipline in a corps that had fired at and nearly killed their Adjutant, their insubordination sustained by a turbulent mob at a period of popular excitement. He took command and the Battalion shot him three times on the public parade, they fired into his windows and shot through the cheek a field aide who stood behind him. Without calling in other Troops he suppressed the mutiny, and alone he overawed the fury of the mob. The approbation of his Major General was submitted by his Lieut.General to the Horse Guards, and elicited through the Adjutant General the Sovereign's record that "the decided and necessary punishment to which he had resorted had effectually repressed the spirit that prevailed when he assumed the command."

[2] Colonel Ross commanded a detached force on the Nepaul frontier in 1859; drove the rebels from the plains of Tilawara where there was a large Bazar, and next day attacked them in the Jungle of Pipurea, the whole rebel army in consequence retired to Botoul, where they were cut up by Sir R. Kelly—for general services on the frontier was highly complimented by the Commander-in-Chief and Sir R. Kelly (Medal).

[4] Major Travers served the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, and was present with the 10th Regiment during the whole of the siege operations before Mooltan, action of Soorjkoond, and surrender of the Fortress of Mooltan: afterwards present at the battle of Goojerat (Medal with two Clasps).

[6] Major Barclay served with the 12th Regiment in the Kaffir war of 1851–53 (Medal).

[7] Captain Munnings was on board the ship Eastern Monarch when burnt at Spithead on 3rd June 1859, and mentioned in Lt.Colonel Allen's despatch, and received a letter from Captain Morris, bearing testimony to his coolness and judgment on this trying occasion.

[8] Captain Crawfurd served with the 79th Highlanders in the Crimea from the 16th August 1855, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal). Also in the Indian campaign of 1858–59, including the siege and capture of Lucknow, attack on the Fort at Rooyea, action of Allygunge, capture of Bareilly, relief of Shahjehanpore, capture of the Fort at Bunnia, pursuit to the left bank of the Goomtee, destruction of Fort Mohumdee, taking of Rumpore Kussia, occupation of Sultanpore, passages of the Goomtee and Gogra, and subsequent operations to the Raptee (Medal with Clasp).

[9] Captain Hallowes served in the 38th Regiment in the Indian campaign of 1857–58, and was present at the storm and capture of Meeangunge, siege and capture of Lucknow, and affairs of Barree and Nuggur (Medal with Clasp).

[10] Captain Dunbar served with the 34th Regiment in the Crimea from the 12th July 1855, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol, and assault of the Redan on the 8th Sept. (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal.) Also in the Indian campaigns in 1857–59, including the actions at Cawnpore on 26th, 27th, and 28th Nov. 1857, siege and capture of Lucknow, relief of Azimghur, defeat of the rebels at Bootwul, and affair at Bhowanie (Medal with Clasp).

[11] Captain Thomas served with the 6th Regiment in the Indian campaign in 1858, including the operations in the Jugdespore Jungle (Medal).

[14] Quarter Master Hawkins served the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the battles of Sadoolapore, Chillianwallah, and Goojerat (Medal with two Clasps).

[15] Quarter Master Charters served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the passage of the Chenab and battles of Sadoolapore and Chillianwallah—severely wounded (Medal with Clasp).

Continuation of Notes to 25th Foot.

[4] Captain Cameron served with the 72nd Highlanders in the Crimea from 13th June 1855, including the expedition to Kertch, siege and fall of Sebastopol, and attack of the 18th June (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal). From the 9th Oct. 1855 to the 8th March 1856 he served as Assistant Engineer to the Highland Division. Served in the Indian campaign and received the Victoria Cross for conspicuous bravery on the 30th March 1858 at Kotah, in having headed a small party of men and attacked a body of armed fanatic rebels strongly posted in a loop-holed house with one narrow entrance; stormed the house and killed three rebels in single combat, having lost half of one hand by a stroke from a tulwar and received two bayonet wounds; was also present in the actions of Bunass and Pertabghur, at which latter he commanded two Companies of the 72nd, and was mentioned in despatches (Medal with Clasp).

[5] Captain Henzell served in India in 1857–58 with the Left Wing 37th Regt.; was engaged in defence of entrenched position at Azimghur from 25th March to 15th April 1858; with Brigadier Douglas' Column in pursuit of Koer Singh and present in actions of 17th and 20th April; served with Colonel Turner's Force in Shahabad, including capture of Jugdespore, and actions of 17th, 18th, and 20th Oct.—severely wounded (Medal.)

[6] Captain Hope served with the 7th Fusiliers in the Crimea from 7th July 1855, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol and assault of the Redan on the 8th Sept. (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal.)

[7] Captain Coleridge served with the 42nd Highlanders the campaign of 1857–58 against the mutineers in India, including the actions at Cawnpore (6th Dec. 1857), Seriaghat, Khodagunj, and Shumsabad, siege and fall of Lucknow, attack on the Fort of Rooyah, action at Allyghur, attack and capture of Barcilly, and action at Sisseeyahghat (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp).

[10] Quarter Master Geoghegan served with the 89th Regiment in the Crimea from 5th Jan. 1855, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol, and attacks of the 18th June and 8th Sept. (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal). Served also during the suppression of the Indian mutiny in 1857–59, including the pursuit of the rebels under Tantia Topee in Rajpootana and Central Asia.

[1] Lt.General Townshend served with the 41st Regiment in the American war, and was present at the taking of Fort Niagara, Blackrock and Buffalo, battle of Lundy's Lane, and assault on Fort Erie 14th August 1814, where he was severely wounded through the left shoulder. He returned to Europe with the 41st Regiment in July 1815 and disembarked at Ostend, from whence he marched with the Army to Paris, and remained with it until reduced to half-pay in October of the same year. During the rebellion in Canada in 1837 and 1838 he was intrusted with various important commands both in the Lower and Upper Provinces, especially on the frontiers of Amherstberg and Niagara, where he held the local rank of Colonel, and was promoted to the Brevet of Lt.Colonel for his services in those localities.

[2] Major Todd served with the 1st Battalion Royals throughout the Eastern campaign of 1854–55, including the battles of Alma and Inkerman siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with three Clasps, and Knight of the Legion of Honor).

[3] Captain Horne served as Adjutant of the 48th Regiment in the Crimea from 27th April 1855, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol—wounded 18th Aug. (Medal with Clasp, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal.) Corporal Gourley and Private Downey, 48th Regiment, received the French War Medal for assisting Captain Horne in the attempt to bring into the Trenches a wounded soldier, who was lying in the enclosures in front of the left attack before Sebastopol, on the 19th June 1855.

[8] Lieut. Taylor served with the 17th Regiment in the Crimean campaign in 1855 and was present at the assault of the Redan on the 18th June (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal).

[9] Ensign Murray served with the 51st Light Infantry throughout the Burmese war of 1852–53; was on board the steam-frigate Ferooz during the naval action with and destruction of the enemy's stockades on the Rangoon river, and served during the succeeding three days' operations in the vicinity, and at the storm and capture of Rangoon, also at the repulse of the night attack on Prome (Medal with Clasp for Pegu).

[1] Sir Charles Windham served in the Canadian rebellion from 1838 to 1842. Landed in the Crimea as A.Q.M.G. to the 4th Division on 14th Sept. 1854, and continued without a day's absence with the Army until July 1856; was present at the battles of Alma and Balaklava, the repulse of the powerful sortie on 26th Oct. 1854, and with Sir George Catheart when he was killed at the battle of Inkerman, also at both assaults on the Redan,—at the latter assault on 8th Sept. 1855 commanded the storming party of the 2nd Division and was promoted Major General for "distinguished and intrepid conduct," having served as Brigadier General in the Trenches from 6th August. Was appointed Governor of the British portion of Sebastopol in Sept. 1855; in October named to the command of the 4th Division; in November was appointed Chief of the Staff to the Army, and in January 1856 given the local rank of Lieut.General (Medal with four Clasps, CB., Commander of the Legion of Honor, Commander 1st Class of the Military Order of Savoy, 2nd Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal). In August 1857 proceeded to India; commanded at Cawnpore and beat the Gwalior Contingent on the Pandoo Nuddee on the 26th Nov.; had severe actions with them on the 27th, 28th, and 29th Nov.; commanded a Division in the field under Lord Clyde during the advance to the Kallee Nuddee (and action there) and Futtehghur; subsequently appointed to the command of the Lahore Division (Medal, and KCB.).

[2] Lt.Colonel Catty served throughout the Kaffir war of 1850–53 (Medal); acted as Field Adjutant to the Infantry at the commencement of hostilities in the engagement in the Boomah Pass, and on the following day when incapacitated by wounds, was several times nearly taken prisoner. Present at Fort White when that post was stormed by a large force of the enemy, who were repulsed by a small garrison under Major Mansergh. In May 1851 he was appointed Commandant of an Irregular Corps of Europeans, designated "Catty's Rifles," and during thirteen months of the most active period of operations this Corps did good and gallant service, being engaged in nearly every patrol of the 2nd Division, the same being frequently acknowledged in general orders, and the various reports of Commanders of Divisions. On the disbandment of "Catty Rifles," he rejoined his Regt. (the 6th), and proceeded with the expedition against the paramount chief Kreli, and on his return to head-quarters was appointed to the command of Fort Grey, which he held till the cessation of hostilities, during which period, besides rendering the post perfectly defensible, waggons and cattle, which were on three occasions taken by the enemy and driven off, were recaptured by the garrison under Captain Catty. Was twice severely wounded by musket-balls in the Boomah Pass.

[3] Major Nicholas served with the 46th Regiment in the Crimea in 1854–55, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with Clasp, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal).

[4] Major Forde served with the 46th Regiment in the Crimea from the 8th Nov. 1854, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol, was Aide de Camp to Major General Garrett from 1st Dec. 1854 (Medal with Clasp, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal).

[5] Captain Knapp served with the 46th Regiment throughout the Eastern campaign of 1854–55, including the battles of the Alma, Balaklava, and Inkerman, siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with four Clasps, 5th Class of the Medjidie, Sardinian and Turkish Medals).

[6] Captain Hamond served with the 46th Regiment in the Crimea from the 8th Nov. 1854 to the 26th March 1856, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal).

[7] Captain Leach served with the 5th Fusiliers in the Oude campaign of 1858–59, including the action of Doundia Khera and defeat of the rebels under Benee Madho, capture of the Fort of Oomrea, and destruction of other forts (Medal).

[8] Captain Brookes served with the 46th Regiment in the Crimea from the 7th July 1855, including the siege and of Sebastopol (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal).

[9] Lieut. Murphy served throughout the Eastern campaign of 1854–55 (Medal with Clasps, and Turkish Medal).

[1] Lt.General Slade commanded the 90th Light Infantry throughout the Kaffir war of 1846 47 (Medal). In 1859 was nominated Lieutenant Governor of Guernsey. On being relieved from this command, in 1864, the States of the Island voted him a Statuette in Silver of the Prince Consort, value 300 guineas, and the Militia presented him with a Sword value 100 guineas. These tokens of esteem and regard were accompanied by addresses from all constituted bodies and from all classes of society.

[5] Lt.Colonel Lock served in the 50th Regiment throughout the Eastern campaign of 1854–55, including the battles of Alma and Inkerman, siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with three Clasps, Brevet of Major, Knight of the Legion of Honor, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal). Served also the several campaigns in New Zealand from 27th Jan. 1864 to 1866 (Medal).

[16] Captain Eden served in New Zealand from March 1865, and during the campaign of 1866 (Medal).

[18] Lieut. Preston served in New Zealand from 15th Nov. 1863 to 1866, and was present at the assault and capture of Rangiawhia (Medal).

[3] Colonel Weare served with the 32nd Regiment the Punjaub campaign of 1848, including the first siege operations before Mooltan (Medal with Clasp). Served the Eastern campaign of 1854 as D.A. Adj.General at Head Quarters, including the affair of Bulganak and battle of Alma (severely wounded, mentioned in despatches). In 1855 he served at the siege of Sebastopol, and was appointed A.Q.M. General (Medal with two Clasps, Brevets of Major and Lt.Colonel, Sardinian and Turkish Medals, and 5th Class of the Medjidie). Commanded the 50th Regiment during the New Zealand wars from 1863 to 1866, including the assault and capture of Rangiawhia on 21st Feb. 1864 (mentioned in despatches); the repulse of the enemy's attack on the Camp at Nukumaru on 24th Jan. 1865 (mentioned in despatches, and CB.). Commanded a Force of 1200 Cavalry, Artillery, and Infantry at Nukumaru and Waitotara, moving in conjunction with the force under Sir Duncan Cameron; also the Field Force in its advance into the enemy's country, for some time during the absence of the Brigadier General, including the action of Kakaramea. Commanded the Movable Column formed for keeping open the district in 1865–66, and with that Column opened the road to Taranaki until met by the force from that district (Medal).

[4] Colonel Hamley served in the 12th Regiment in the Kaffir war of 1851–53 (Medal). Served with the 50th Regiment in the New Zealand war from the 15th Nov. 1863 to 1866; commanded a co-operative Force of 400 men on the left bank of the Waipa 17th Jan. 1864, on the advance of the Troops on Pah Tcrangi; present at the assault and capture of Rangiawhia 22nd Feb. 1864, and at the repulse of the enemy's attack on the Camp at Nukumaru 25th Jan. 1865 (Medal). Consequent on the demise of Sir Dominick Daly, Lt.Colonel Hamley as senior Officer of the Troops was sworn in as Governor in Chief and Captain General of the Colony of South Australia on 19th Feb. 1868, and which Government he administered until the 16th Feb. 1869.

[6] Lt.Colonel Tupper served with the 50th Regiment throughout the Eastern campaign of 1854 55, including the battles of Alma and Inkerman, siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with three Clasps, Brevet of Major, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal). Served also in the New Zealand war in 1863 65, and was present with the 50th Regiment at the capture of Rangiawhia, and afterwards served as Aide de Camp to Brigadier General Carey (Medal).

[1] Sir Patrick Edmonstone Craigie served with the 2nd Battalion 52nd Light Infantry the campaign of 1813-14 in Holland under Lord Lynedoch, including both attacks on the fortified village of Merxem—in the latter of which he led the advance party of Major General Sir Herbert Taylor's Brigade; also in the subsequent bombardment of Antwerp. In May 1841 he embarked at Calcutta in command of the 55th Regiment for China (Medal), and served with the expeditionary force under Lord Gough till the end of the war, being senior Field Officer serving with the force in the field was consequently second in command from the period of its sailing from Hong Kong in August and during the whole of the active operations which took place during the following five months. He commanded a Brigade or Column of attack at the assault and capture of the fortified cities of Amoy, Chusan (second capture)—on which occasion it happened that the whole engagement of the land force devolved upon his Brigade—and Chinhae. Subsequently, when the head-quarters of the force proceeded to the Yeang-tze-Keang, he was appointed by Lord Gough to the responsible command of the island of Chusan, which he held for eight months until the return of the force after the treaty of peace had been signed at Nankin. For his conduct on the above occasions (as stated in Lord Gough's despatches) he was promoted to the rank of Colonel, and appointed an Aide do Camp to the Queen, and a Companion of the Bath.

[2] Colonel Hume served the Eastern campaign of 1854, and up to the 13th January 1855, and from the 29th May to the 30th Sept. 1855, with the 55th Regiment, including the battles of Alma and Inkerman (severely wounded), siege and fall of Sebastopol, repulse of the sortie of 26th October, and assaults of the Redan on the 18th June and 8th Sept.—severely wounded, and mentioned in despatches (Medal with three Clasps, Brevet of Major, Knight of the Legion of Honor, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal). Commanded the 55th Regiment in the Bhootan expedition, including the attack and recapture of Dewangiri in 1865.

[3] Lt.Colonel Brown served the Eastern campaign of 1854, and up to the 26th Feb. 1855, with the 55th Regiment, including the battles of Alma and Inkerman, and siege of Sebastopol (Medal with three Clasps, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal). Served also on the Bhootan expedition in 1866.

[4] Major John Hume served with the 55th Regiment the Eastern campaign of 1854, and from the 24th Jan. to the 22nd Sept. 1855, including the battles of Alma and Inkerman, siege and fall of Sebastopol, repulse of the sortie of 26th October, assaults of the Redan on the 18th June and 8th Sept.—severely wounded, and mentioned in despatches (Medal with three Clasps, Knight of the Legion of Honor, and Turkish Medal). Served also on the Bhootan expedition, including recapture of Dewangiri in 1865.

[5] Captain Richards served with the 55th Regiment throughout the Eastern campaign of 1854-55, including the battles of Alma (carried the Colours) and Balaklava, siego and fall of Sebastopol, and assaults of the Redan on the 18th June and 8th Sept.—wounded, and mentioned in despatches (Medal with three Clasps, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal).

[6] Captain Morgan served with the 55th Regiment in the Eastern campaign of 1854-55, including the battles of Alma and Inkerman, siege and fall of Sebastopol, and sortie of 26th October. During the latter months of the siego he was Aide de Camp to Brigadier General Warren, and as such was severely wounded at the assault of the Redan on the 8th September—mentioned in despatches (Medal with three Clasps, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal).

[7] Captain Temple served with the 55th Regiment in the Crimea, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal). Also served on the Bhootan expedition in 1865.

[8] Captain Sharpe served with the 55th Regiment in the Crimea from the 4th Sept. to the 11th Nov. 1855, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal).

[9] Captains Rowland and Riley, and Lieuts. Barnston, King, Wade, and Braddon, served on the Bheotan expedition, including the recapture of Dewangiri in 1865.

[11] Captains Bellamy, Theobald, Morton, Gillies, Harrison, and Kay, Lieuts. Teevan, Leo, Pitt, Drew, and Inglis, served on the Bhootan expedition in 1865.

[12] Major Burke served with the 55th Regiment in China (Medal), and was present at the taking of Amoy, the second capture of Chusan, occupation of Ningpo, repulse of the night attack on Chinhae, expedition to You-You up the Ningpo river, taking of Chapoo, and operations in the Woosung and Yang-tse Kiang-rivers. Served the Eastern campaign of 1854-55, including the battles of Alma and Inkerman, siege and fall of Sebastopol, repulse of the sortie of 26th Oct., and assault of the Redan on 8th September (Medal with three Clasps, 5th Class of the Medjidio, and Turkish Medal). Served on the Bhootan expedition in 1865.

[13] Quarter Master Dixon served with the 55th Regiment in the Crimea from the 25th Dec. 1854, and was present at the siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal). Also served on the Bhootan expedition, including the recapture of Dewangiri in 1865.

[1] Colonel Burne served with the 73rd Regiment in the Kaffir war of 1851–53 (Medal), including the operations in the Amatolas Fish River, Waterkloof, and Trans-Kei expeditions.

[2] Colonel Gawler served with the 73rd Regiment throughout the Kaffir war of 1850–53 (Medal, and Brevet of Major); commanded the Light Company in nearly all the principal actions in Kaffirland and in the Colony, as also at the battle of Berea; served at different periods during the operations as Field Adjutant, and as D.A.Q. Master General to the Divisions under Colonel Eyre, and was honourably mentioned eight times in official reports; was appointed District Adjutant of Natal at the close of the war. In Sept. 1855 was appointed special Magistrate to Umhala's tribe in British Kaffraria, just as that Chief was attempting the cattle-killing and corn-destroying insurrection; succeeded in bringing about a reaction among a large number of Kaffirs, who placed themselves under his authority in opposition to their chiefs, and who were thus formed into one friendly tribe under him as their chief; he procured evidence by their instrumentality to convict almost all the Kaffir leaders of treasonable practices; having thus broken up their power he was permitted to invade with his tribe the territory of the paramount chief Kreli, and succeeded in driving him beyond the Bashee—Kreli's territory was thus added to British Kaffraria, and occupied in villages by Lt.Colonel Gawler's Kaffirs. For the foregoing services he received the public thanks of the Cape Government' and was gazetted Lt.Colonel in the Army on 18th Feb. 1859. Served in the closing affairs of the Indian mutiny (Medal). Towards the end of 1860 he commanded as Brigadier a considerable field force against the Rajah of Sikkim, took the Rajah's residence, forced him to submit to the terms of a treaty dictated by the British Envoy, and penetrated to the Thibet frontier; for his "ability, energy, and good judgment," he received the thanks of the Governor-General in Council, "fully concurred" in by the British Government.

[3] Major Barnes served as Lieut. and Adjutant in Major Hogg's Battalion of Native Infantry in the Kaffir war of 1846–47; was present in several engagements, accompanied the expedition into the Tambookie country in August, and that over the Kei in Dec. 1846. Served with the 73rd Regiment in the Kaffir war in 1851 (Medal). Served also in the Indian mutiny campaign, including the operations in the Gorrickpore district in 1858, and on the Nepaul frontier in 1859 (Medal).

[4] Captain Waugh served as Adjutant of the 57th Regiment in the Crimea from 19th May 1855, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol, attacks of the Redan on the 18th June (with the storming Column) and 8th September, bombardment and surrender of Kinbourn (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal). Served also at the Waitara, New Zealand, in the operations against the rebel Maories at Teira Pah during the war in 1861 (Medal).

[5] Captain Sharp served with the 73rd Regiment in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1858–59, including the operations in the Shahabad district, and on the Nepaul Frontier (Medal).

[6] Quarter Master Scott served with the 73rd Regiment during the Kaffir war of 1850–53 (Medal), and was present in all the principal actions in Kaffirland; also at the battle of Berea—wounded. Served also in the Indian campaign of 1858–59 (Medal).

[1] Lt.General Walker landed at the Alma on the 22nd September 1854, and commanded the Scots Fusilier Guards in the subsequent campaign, including the battle of Balaklava, repulse of the sortie on the 26th October, battle of Inkerman, and siege of Sebastopol. At Inkerman, with his weak Battalion at the Sandbag Battery, he charged on three occasions heavy Columns of the enemy, driving them down the hill in confusion (received three wounds, one severe, and had his horse shot under him). On different occasions at the commencement of the siege he commanded as Colonel the right and left attacks. Was sent to command the right attack on the 18th October, vice Colonel the Honorable F. G. Hood, killed, to conform to which order he had to pass at mid-day over the open plain exposed to all the enemy's guns. Appointed General of the Trenches on the 15th January 1855, in which capacity he served until after the fall of the place. Commanded on several occasions the Divisions engaged before Sebastopol (Right Attack), frequently on very warm occasions, on one of which, the 30th August, he was wounded in the head by splinters of shell (mentioned in despatches, CB., Medal with three Clasps, Officer of the Legion of Honor, 3rd Class of the Medjidie, Turkish and Sardinian Medals).

[1] Sir George Buller served in the Rifle Brigade and commanded its 1st Battalion from 1841 to 1854. He served on the Eastern Frontier of the Cape of Good Hope in 1847–48–49; commanded one of the Columns which entered the Amatola Mountains in the campaign of 1847 against the Gaika Chief Sandilla, who surrendered himself to him. He commanded the troops, under Sir Harry Smith, which crossed the Orange river in 1848 to suppress the insurrection of the Dutch Boers—was severely wounded, and had his horse killed under him in the action of the 29th August at Boem Plaats, for which he was nominated a CB. Within a few months after the return of his Battalion to England he re-embarked with it in January 1852 for special service at the Cape; was engaged in all the operations in the Waterkloof in 1852–53, and commanded the 1st Division of the Army until the close of the Kaffir war (Medal). Returned to England in January 1854, and in April following embarked as a Brigadier General of the Army of the East—commanded a Brigade of the Light Division in the Eastern campaign of 1854–55, including the battles of Alma and Inkerman, and siege of Sebastopol; had two horses shot under him at Inkerman, and suffered a severe contusion of the leg (Medal with three Clasps, KCB., Commander of the Legion of Honor, 2nd Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal). In August 1856 appointed to the command of the Troops in the Ionian Islands.

[2] Sir Charles Yorke served in the Peninsula with the 52nd Regiment, and was present at the battles of Vimiera, Fuentes d'Onor, Salamanca, Vittoria, Pyrenees, Nivelle (wounded), Nive, and Orthes (severely wounded), and at the sieges of Ciudad Rodrigo and Badajoz (wounded), for which he has received the War Medal with ten Clasps. He served also the Waterloo campaign.

[3] Colonel Macdonald served with the Rifle Brigade in the Kaffir war of 1846–47 (Medal). Also throughout the Eastern campaign of 1854 as Aide de Camp to Sir George Brown, and present at the affair of Bulganac, capture of Balaklava, and battles of Alma and Inkerman; commanded the 2nd Battalion from May 1855 to the fall of Sebastopol, including the defence of the Quarries on 7th June, and assaults of the Redan on the 18th June and 8th Sept. (Medal with three Clasps, Brevets of Major and Lt.Colonel, CB., Knight of the Legion of Honor, Sardinian and Turkish Medals, and 5th Class of the Medjidie). Commanded the 3rd Battalion during the Indian mutiny, including the skirmish at Secundra, siege and capture of Lucknow, and subsequent operations (Brevet of Colonel, Medal with Clasp).

[4] Colonel Elrington served the Eastern campaign of 1854 with the Rifle Brigade, including the battles of Alma and Inkerman, and siege of Sebastopol (Medal with three Clasps, Brevet of Major, Knight of the Legion of Honor, 5th Class of tha Medjidie, and Turkish Medal).

[5] Lord Alexander Russell served with the Rifle Brigade in the Kaffir war of 1852–53 as D.A.Q.M.G. to the 1st Division, and was present at the battle of Berea (Medal, and Brevet of Major). Served also in the Crimea from the 13th July 1855, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with Clasp, Brevet of Lt.Colonel, Sardinian and Turkish Medals, and 5th Class of the Medjidie).

[6] Colonel Glyn served as Field Adjutant to the Force under Sir Harry Smith in the action with and defeat of the rebel Boers at Boem Plaats (horse killed). Served with the Rifle Brigade in the Kaffir war of 1852–53 (Medal). Also the Eastern campaign as a Brigade Major and Assistant Adjutant General in the Light Division, including the battles of Alma and Inkerman, and siege of Sebastopol (Medal with three Clasps, Brevets of Major and Lt.Colonel, Knight of the Legion of Honor, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal). Served the Indian campaigns of 1857–59, including the defeat of the Gwalior Contingent at Cawnpore on 6th December, final capture of Lucknow, action at Nawabgunge (commanded Battalion), and subsequent operations (Medal with Clasp, and CB.).

[7] Colonel Fyers served in the 40th Regiment throughout the operations in Candahar and Affghanistan in 1841 and 1842 (Medal), and was present in the actions at Kale Shukh, Kunje Kuk, Pangwaie, Tiloo Khan, and Baba Wallie; also at the relief of Khalat-i-Ghilzee; subsequently at Killa Aziem, Goaine, Ghuznee, and occupation of Cabool; and in all the affairs in which the Candahar Division of the Army of Affghanistan, under General Nott, was engaged in its progress through the Khoord Cabool, Tezeen, Jugdulluck, and Khyber Passes. Served the Eastern campaign of 1854–55 with the 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade, including the battle of Alma, siege and fall of Sebastopol, and attack of the Redan on the 8th September. In October 1854 he commanded a party of Rifles and 23rd Fusiliers from Piquets of the Light Division, and repulsed an attack made by the enemy's riflemen on our Piquets, and he commanded the Covering Party of 200 men on the attack of the Redan (Medal with two Clasps, Brevets of Major and Lt.Colonel, Knight of the Legion of Honor, Turkish Medal, and 5th Class of the Medjidie). Served in the Indian campaign of 1857–59, commanded a part of the 2nd Battalion in the actions at Cawnpore on 29th Nov. and 6th Dec. 1857, and was subsequently at the capture of Lucknow (mentioned in despatches, CB., Medal with Clasp).

Scale of Allowance in Addition to Half Pay.

1st Class.—11*s.* 0*d.* per diem. 2nd Class.—9*s.* 0*d.* per diem.

In the event of the Staff Officer of Pensioners being subject to additional expense in consequence of his employment in aid of the Civil Power at a distance from head-quarters, he will also receive a further allowance of five shillings a day while necessarily detained from home, together with the amount of travelling charges thus incurred by him.

Contingent Allowances.

For less than 100 enrolled men, one shilling a day; 100 and under 150, one shilling and sixpence a day; 150 and under 200, two shillings a day; for 200 and upwards, two shillings and sixpence a day; Officers with Brevet rank have two shillings a day in addition.

Memorandum for the Information of Officers who are Candidates for the Appointment of Staff Officer of Pensioners.

An Officer under or above the rank of Captain, or whose appointment would involve immediate Brevet rank, or who, having received the difference, is not prepared to repay it, or who has not completed Fifteen years' service on Full Pay as a Commissioned Officer, is ineligible for the appointment.

A Candidate should state the following particulars in his application:—

1st. His age.

2nd. Whether on Full or Half Pay; and whether serving abroad or at home.

3rd. The date of his Commission as Captain.

4th. Whether he received the difference when placed on Half Pay; and whether he retired at his own request, from ill health, or from wounds.

5th. Whether he has served as Adjutant, or Paymaster, or on the Staff in any capacity likely to qualify him for the duties of Staff Officer of Pensioners.

6th. Whether he has certificates of ability and fitness from Officers under whom he served.

Royal Warrant Regulating the Pay and Non-Effective Pay of Medical Officers.

Victoria R.

Whereas we deem it expedient to revise and amend the regulations for the pay and half pay of the Medical Officers of our Army, our will and pleasure is, that Articles 283 to 298 of our Royal Warrant of the 3rd February 1866, and so much of our Royal Warrant of the 1st October 1858, as affects the half pay and retired pay of the said Officers, be cancelled, and that, instead thereof, this our present warrant be established and obeyed as the sole authority on the matters herein treated of.

1. The daily rates of pay of the Officers of the Medical Branch of the Hospital Department of our Army shall be as follows:—

Medical Staff.	Pay daily. £	s.	d.	Charge Pay.

2. Every candidate to be admitted to the competitive examination for a commission as Assistant Surgeon to our Army shall be unmarried, and shall possess such a certificate or certificates as would qualify a civilian to practise medicine and surgery in Great Britain and Ireland; and before receiving a commission shall pass an examination in Military medicine, surgery, hygiène, and pathology, after attending the authorized course in a general Military hospital.

3. An Assistant Surgeon shall pass such examination as our Secretary of State for War may require, and shall have served on full pay with the commission of Assistant Surgeon for five years, of which two shall have been passed in or with a Regiment or Depôt Battalion before he can be promoted to the rank of Surgeon.

4. Assistant Surgeons shall, as a general rule, be promoted to the rank of Surgeon in the order of their seniority in the service, unless unfit for the discharge of their duties from physical or professional incompetence or misconduct. In cases of distinguished service, however, an Assistant Surgeon may be promoted without reference to seniority; and in such cases the recommendation detailing the services for which the Officer is proposed for promotion shall be published in the General Orders of the Army and in the Gazette in which such promotion shall appear.

5. A Surgeon after 20 years' service in any rank shall be styled Surgeon Major, but a Surgeon of less than 20 years' full pay service may be promoted to the rank of Surgeon Major for distinguished service. The recommendation detailing the services for which the Officer is proposed for promotion for distinguished service shall be published in the General Orders of the Army, and in the Gazette in which such promotions shall appear.

6. A Surgeon must have served 10 years in our Army with a commission on full pay, of which period two years must have been passed with the rank of Surgeon in or with a Regiment or Depôt Battalion, before he can be promoted to the rank of Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals.

7. All promotion from the rank of Surgeon or Surgeon Major to that of Deputy Inspector, and from the rank of Deputy Inspector to that of Inspector, shall be given by selection for ability and merit, the selection being made from the whole rank of Surgeons, whether styled Surgeons or Surgeons Major; and the grounds of such selection shall be stated to us in writing and recorded in the office of our Commander-in-Chief.

8. A Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals must have served five years at home, or three abroad, in that rank, before he can be promoted to the rank of Inspector General.

9. Our Secretary of State for War in cases of emergency may shorten the several periods of service above mentioned, as he shall deem expedient for the good of our service.

10. Good service pensions shall be awarded to the most meritorious Medical Officers of our Army, under such regulations as shall be from time to time determined by us, with the advice of our Secretary of State for War. Six of the most meritorious Medical Officers of our Army shall be named our Honorary Physicians, and six our Honorary Surgeons.

11. Medical Officers shall have the right to retire on half pay after 20 years' service; Medical Officers of the rank of Surgeon Major, Surgeon, or Assistant Surgeon, shall be placed on the retired list at the age of 55, and all Inspectors General and Deputy Inspectors General at the age of 65 years.

12. Our Secretary of State for War may, when he shall deem it fit, employ Officers of the Medical Branch of our Hospital Department in sundry situations at such daily rates of pay, in addition to half pay, as he shall from time to time determine.

13. A Medical Officer who having voluntarily resigned his commission has subsequently been permitted to re-enter the Army, shall not, except under very special circumstances, to be approved by our Secretary of State for War, be allowed to reckon his former service.

14. An Apothecary shall have the right to retire on half pay after 30 years' good service.

Service on the West Coast of Africa.

15. A Medical Officer volunteering for service on the West Coast of Africa shall, in order to come under the provisions of the two following articles, serve on the coast for a period of at least twelve months, and shall be governed by the following regulations.

16. Each year of such service shall be allowed to reckon towards promotion and retirement as two years of ordinary service, but it shall not so reckon towards increased pay, or qualification for the rank of Surgeon Major. If an Officer shall be permitted, at his own wish, to prolong his stay on the coast, his further service shall be allowed to reckon in proportion.

17. For each year's service on the coast, a Medical Officer shall be entitled to a year's leave at home, and for every additional period beyond a year he shall have an equivalent extension of leave.

Non-Effective Pay.

18. A Medical Officer placed on half pay by reduction of establishment, or on the report of a medical board, in consequence of wounds or ill-health caused in and by the discharge of his duties, or on account of age (under Article 11), shall be entitled to half pay at the following daily rates :—

,, ,,	,, 20 ,,	1	1	0	,, ,,	,, 5 ,,	0	8	0
					,, ,,	under 5 ,,	0	6	0

19. The rate of half pay awarded to Officers retiring for their own convenience, after 20 years' service on full pay, shall not exceed one-half of their full pay at the time of retirement.

20. Every Medical Officer who shall retire after a service upon full pay for 25 years, shall be granted a rate of half pay equal to seven-tenths of the daily pay he may have been in receipt of when thus retiring or proceeding on half pay, provided he shall have served three years in his rank or shall have served abroad for 10 years in all ranks, or for five years with an army in the field. An Officer of 25 years' full pay service, whose service falls within neither of these conditions, shall be entitled to only seven-tenths of the daily pay he was in receipt of prior to his last promotion.

21. A Medical Officer placed on half pay from any other cause shall be allowed only a temporary rate of half pay (not exceeding the rates specified in Article 18) for such period and at such rate as our Secretary of State for War shall decide with reference to the services rendered to the public by such Officer.

22. Medical Officers of 20 years' full pay service, placed temporarily on half pay under Article 21, on account of ill-health, may, however, be allowed to retire on permanent half pay at the rate fixed by Article 18, if after one year on half pay they shall be reported by a Medical Board to be permanently unfit for further service.

23. An Apothecary shall be granted pay at the following daily rate, if placed on half pay by reduction of establishment, or on account of age (under Article 14), or through ill-health, certified to the satisfaction of our Secretary of State for War to have been contracted in and by the service.

[1] Captain Gordon joined the Army in the Crimea in March 1855, having, when a Captain on half pay, been appointed by the Secretary of State for War to superintend the collection of surplus clothing and stores. In Aug. 1855 he was appointed Ordnance Storekeeper, and in that capacity on peace being proclaimed, was ordered to superintend the embarkation of the material and stores of the several departments of the Army, with the exception of that of the Commissariat, but including those of the Medical, Land Transport, and Army Works Corps, as well as the Railway, so that every article with the Army might be accounted for by him to the War Department.

[2] Mr. Tatum joined the Army at the Bosphorus in March 1855, as Ordnance Storekeeper, remained in charge of the Store Department at that station until the close of the Russian war, and until the whole of the Ordnance Stores in his charge had been shipped and duly accounted for.

[3] Mr. Young was in charge of the Field Train throughout the Crimean war (Medal with four Clasps, CB., Knight of the Legion of Honor, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal). Served with the forces in China from 1857 to 1860 (Medal).

[4] Mr. Rowland served in the campaign of 1860 in China (Medal).

[5] Mr. Bake served as Chief Commissary Field Train Turkish Contingent at Kertch in 1855 (Turkish Medal).

[6] Mr. King served in China from 1857 to 1858 (Medal).

[11] Mr. Scott has received the Medal for the Kaffir wars.

[12] Mr. Munro was in charge during New Zealand war of 1844–45. Served in the Crimea in 1855 (Medal with Clasp for Sebastopol, and Turkish Medal).

[13] Mr. Lilley served in the Field Train of the Royal Artillery the Eastern campaign of 1854–55, and was present with the 1st Division in the affair of M'Kenzie's Farm, battles of Alma, Balaklava, and Inkerman, thoughout the siege and at the fall of Sebastopol and capture of Kadikoi (Medal with four Clasps, Knight of the Legion of Honor, and Turkish Medal). In Dec. 1855 was appointed Deputy Storekeeper in the War Department, and assisted Captain Gordon in carrying out the duties until the evacuation of the Crimea.

[14] Mr. Hamley served in New Zealand from 1846 including two Native wars.

[15] Mr. T. S. C. R. Thomson served in the Turkish Contingent during the Crimean war (Turkish Medal). Also present at the taking of Canton in 1857, and was in charge of the Military Stores to the expeditionary force in China from 1857 to July 1858 (Medal).

[16] Messrs. Purkis, Gibbons, Silveira, and Booth have the Medal for the war of 1857 in China.

[17] Mr. Hewitt served throughout the Crimean campaign of 1854–55 (Medal with two Clasps, and Turkish Medal). Served also the campaign of 1860 in China (Medal with Clasps).

[18] Mr. Russell served throughout the Eastern campaign of 1854–55 (Medal with two Clasps, and Turkish Medal).

[19] Mr. Wright was present at the bombardment and capture of Canton in 1857.

[20] Mr. Ingram has served in New Zealand since 1861 during the whole of the late war.

[21] Mr. Blakeney served throughout the Crimean war of 1854–55 and was on the personal Staff of Lord Raglan at Alma (Medal with four Clasps, and Turkish Medal).

[22] Mr. Elphinstone Holloway served with the Field Train in the Crimean campaign of 1854–55 (Medal with two Clasps, and Turkish Medal).

[23] Mr. Wolfe has received the Kaffir War Medal.

[24] Mr. Relph served in charge of his Department throughout the operations in Quiah, Western Africa, and was present at the capture and destruction of Massougha on 10th Dec. 1861, was also present in charge of the Field Artillery at the capture of the stockades at Madonkia on the 27th, of the Fetish town of Robeah on 28th Dec. 1861, and accompanied the expedition up the Ribbio river on 17th Jan. 1862 (mentioned in despatches).

[28] Mr. Chambers served in the Royal Navy on board H.M.S. Neptune, Valorous, and Sanspareil, in the Baltic and Black Sea and was present at Bomarsund and Sebastopol (Baltic, Crimean, and Turkish Medals).

[29] Mr. Rawnsley served with the expeditionary force in China, and was present at the bombardment and capture of Canton in Dec. 1857 (Medal).

[30] Mr. Haldane served during the late war in New Zealand.

[31] Mr. Le Geyt served in the New Zealand war of 1863–66, and was present at the attack of the Orakau Pah, assault and capture of the Gate Pah, and action at Te Ranga.

[32] Messrs. T. Timbrell and James White served in the New Zealand war in 1864–66.

[33] Mr. J. Grant Elliott was present at the capture of the Kings and Chiefs of Pram Pram and Ningpo in Oct. 1867 (mentioned in despatches). Also present as English Commissioner at the storming and capture of the Forts of Commendah, Western Africa, in Feb. 1868 (mentioned in despatches).

Continuation of Notes of Barrack Department.

[4] Major Hon. E. S. Plunkett served at the siege of Sebastopol from 10th Dec. 1854 to July 1855, including the capture of the Quarries on 7th June, and present in the Trenches during the attack of the Redan on the 18th June (Medal with Clasp, Brevet of Major, and Turkish Medal); has also the 4th Class of the Medjidie for service in the late Osmanli Horse Artillery. Served in 1858 at the siege and capture of Awah (mentioned in despatches) and Kotah, battle of Kota ke Seria, and general action resulting in the capture of Gwalior (Medal with Clasp).

War Services of General Officers of Royal Marine Forces.

General Delacombe served on board the Tonnant covering the embarkation of Sir John Moore's Army at Corunna and afterwards in various boat affairs in Basque Roads, 1809, and at the defence of Cadiz the following year. In 1812 he was at the destruction of the batteries of Langulia, after charging with the bayonet and defeating a Battalion of the French 52nd Regiment of the Line of a very superior force. In 1813 he was on board the Imperieuse at the attack on the batteries and tower of post D'Anzo, after which he was landed and the enemy driven from their posts which were destroyed, and a convoy of 29 vessels laden with ship timber for Toulon brought out; he was afterwards at the attack on Leghorn under Sir Josias Rowley. Independent of the above, he has been employed on various and repeated boat services; partially engaged with the French Fleet off Toulon; and several times with the Neapolitan Squadron, gunboats, and batteries in the Bay of Naples. Has the General Officers' Pension for Distinguished Services.

[2] Sir Fortescue Graham served with the Army in the Battalion formed of the Marines of the Squadron at the taking of Walcheren in 1809. Also served in the 1st Battalion in Portugal and in operations on the North Coast of Spain, at the taking and defence of Castro. Proceeded with the Battalion to America, where it was brigaded under Sir Sydney Beckwith a the attack upon Norfolk, and the taking of Hampton, and several small places. The Brigade being broken up, he went with the Battalion to Canada; whilst there he was sent with a Detachment in command of a Division of gun boats to attack a battery at the head of Lake Champlain, with which they were engaged some hours. Returned with the Battalion to the coast of America, and was at the attack and taking of Fort Point Peter, and the town of St. Mary's, in Georgia; shortly after his promotion in 1837 he exchanged to join the Battalion in Spain. He was afterwards at the demonstration before Nankin in China (Medal). Commanded the R.M. Battalion in the Brigade under General Jones, acting in conjunction with the French Army at the bombardment and surrender of the forts at Bomarsund, Aland Isles in August 1854 (Medal, and CB.).

[3] General Brown's Services:—Attack on French Forts at Ciota June 1812, attack and capture of the town of L'Escalia, in the Bay of Rosas, 1812; partial engagement with the French Fleet, near Toulon, 1813; attack of Algiers; destruction of Greek Pirates at Porte Bono, Isle of Candia, June 1826. Has received the War Medal with one Clasp, as also the Turkish Medal for services on the Coast of Syria in 1840-41. When a Colonel had the Good Service Pension.

[4] Sir Anthony Blaxland Stransham served at the battle of Navarino, 21st October 1827 (War Medal with Clasp). Served on the China expedition in 1840-41 (Medal); was Adjutant and Brigade Major at the attack on Chuenpee, commanded the Royal Marines at the storming of the Whampoo Batteries, at the reduction of Macao Fort, which he garrisoned and commanded; at the capture of several small forts on 17th March 1841, he was severely wounded by an explosion, and mentioned for his gallantry; was Adjutant at the capture of Canton, and until the end of the war: for these services he received the Brevet rank of Major on obtaining his Company. Served with the combined expedition to the Baltic from March to July 1854 (Medal). When a Colonel had the Good Service Pension.

[5] Lt.General Anderson served with the Army of Occupation in Portugal and was for some time quartered at Fort St. Julian.
