War Services of the Medical Officers.

Inspectors General.

[1] Doctor Anderson served the Eastern campaign of 1854, and up to 13th June 1855, including the battles of Alma, Balaklava, and Inkerman, and siege of Sebastopol; was P.M.O. 4th Division at Balaklava and Inkerman (Medal with four Clasps, Knight of the Legion of Honor, and Turkish Medal). Was present at the capture of Canton in Dec. 1857 (Medal with Clasp).

[2] Doctor Dumbreck, prior to the breaking out of hostilities, was despatched on special service early in 1854 to the expected seat of war, and traversed on his mission Servia, Bulgaria, and part of Roumelia, crossing the Balkan on his route; he was subsequently for a short time Principal Medical Officer with the Army, and served with it in the field as Senior Deputy Inspector General, and was present in this capacity and was attached to Head Quarters at the affair of Bulganac, the Alma, capture of Balaklava, battles of Balaklava and Inkerman, and siege of Sebastopol (Medal with four Clasps, CB., 4th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal).

[3] Doctor Fergusson served in the American war.

[4] Mr. Franklin served in the Peninsula from Sept. 1808 to the end of that war in 1814, including the battles of Vittoria, Pampeluna, Pyrenees, Nivelle, Orthes, and Toulouse, and siege of Badajoz (War Medal with six Clasps). Served also in the American war, including the battle of Plattsburg. He served in India from April 1842 to June 1850, and was present at the battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat, in the Punjaub campaign (Medal with two Clasps, and CB.).

[5] Doctor Hume served at the siege of Sebastopol, and was Principal Medical Officer of the 3rd Division during the winter of 1855, and afterwards of the 4th Division until the end of the war (Medal with Clasp, 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal).

[6] Doctor Jameson served in the Kaffir war of 1846–47 (Medal). Served in Turkey and Russia from April 1854 to July 1856 (5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal).

[7] Sir Wm. Linton preceded the Army to the East in 1854 on a special mission of inspection throughout Roumelia. Served with the Army at Scutari and in Bulgaria; accompanied it to the Crimea, and was present at the affair of Bulganac, battles of Alma, Balaklava, and Inkerman, sortie on 26th October, opening of the siege of Sebastopol, and every succeeding bombardment until its fall: was noticed in Lord Raglan's despatches of 11th Nov. 1854, "for his able exertions as deserving of being most honourably mentioned" (Medal with four Clasps, CB., 4th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal).

[8] Mr. Mouat served the Eastern campaign of 1854–55 with the 6th Dragoons and on the Medical Staff, and was in medical charge of the General Field Hospital of the 3rd Division throughout the siege operations until the fall of Sebastopol, and subsequently as P.M.O. of Balaklava until the final evacuation of the Crimea 12th June 1856, having been present at the battles of Balaklava, Inkerman, and Tchernaya, and the night reconnaissance and attack on Russian outposts 19th Feb. 1865 (specially recommended for promotion for "distinguished conduct, zeal, and efficiency," Medal with three Clasps, Knight of the Legion of Honor, Turkish Medal, CB., and Victoria Cross). Served during the New Zealand war of 1860–61 throughout the operations under General Pratt (twice mentioned in despatches "for valuable services rendered at all times and in all positions"). Present in the field as P.M.O. throughout the operations in the Waikatoo, Tarauaki, and Tauranga districts in 1863–65 under Sir D. Cameron, and repeatedly mentioned in despatches (Medal). Received the thanks of the New Zealand Government for "special and valuable services rendered to the Colony." Again recommended for promotion and some special mark of Her Majesty's approbation.

[12] Doctor Scott served in the Peninsula from March 1813 to the end of that war in 1814.

[14] Mr. Taylor served with the 29th Regiment in the Sutlej campaign of 1845–46, including the battles of Ferozeshah and Sobraon (Medal and Clasp); and with the 80th Regiment in the Burmese war of 1852–53, including the capture of Martaban, the operations before Rangoon on the 12th, 13th, and 14th April, and capture of the Great Dagon Pagoda; also at the capture of Prome (Medal with Clasp for Pegu). Was in medical charge of the 3rd Division before Sebastopol from 20th March 1855 to the end of the war, including the assaults of the 18th June and 8th Sept. (CB., Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal).

[15] Mr. Williams has received the 5th Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal.

[16] Doctor Currie served with the 16th Lancers at the battle of Maharajpore, 29th Dec. 1843 (Bronze Star). Also in the Sutlej campaign in 1846, including the affair at Buddiwal, and actions of Aliwal and Sobraon (Medal and Clasp). Served as Field Medical Inspector of the expeditionary force in the north of China in 1860; present at the capture of the Taku Forts on 21st August, and minor actions resulting in the surrender of Pekin (CB., Medal with Clasps). REGULATIONS FOR THE OPEN C IPETITION OF 1870.

N.B.—The Regulations are liable to be a. ed in future years.

1. On Tuesday, April 5th, 1870, and following days, an Examination of Candidates will be held in London. At this examination not fewer than Candidates will be selected, if so many shall be found duly qualified. Of these, will be selected for the Presidency of Bengal [for the Upper Provinces, and for the Lower Provinces], for that of Madras, and for that of Bombay.* Notice will hereafter be given of the days and place of examination.

2. Any natural-born subject of Her Majesty, who shall be desirous of entering the Civil Service of India, will be entitled to be examined at such Examination, provided he shall, on or before the 1st of February, 1870, have transmitted to the Civil Service Commissioners, London, S.W.:— †

(a) A certificate of his birth, showing that his age on the 1st March, 1870, will be above seventeen years and under twenty-one years;

(b) A certificate, signed by a physician or surgeon, of his having no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity unfitting him for the Civil Service of India; ‡

(c) Satisfactory proof of good moral character; ‡

(d) A statement of those of the branches of knowledge hereinafter enumerated in which he desires to be examined.

3. In any case in which a doubt may arise as to the eligibility of a candidate in respect of age, health, or character, such inquiries as may be necessary will be instituted by the Civil Service Commissioners.

4. The Examination will take place only in the following branches of knowledge:— §

	Marks.
English Composition	500
History of England—including that of the Laws and Constitution	500
English Language and Literature	500
Language, Literature, and History of Greece	750
,, ,, ,, Rome	750
,, ,, ,, France	375
,, ,, ,, Germany	375
,, ,, ,, Italy	375
Mathematics (pure and mixed)	1,250
Natural Science; that is (1) Chemistry, including Heat, (2) Electricity and Magnetism, (3) Geology and Mineralogy, (4) Zoology, (5) Botany	1,000
 The total (1,000) marks may be obtained by adequate proficiency in any two or more of the five branches of science included under this head.
Moral Sciences; that is, Logic, Mental and Moral Philosophy	500
Sanskrit Language and Literature	500
Arabic Language and Literature	500

5. The merit of the persons examined will be estimated by marks, and the number set opposite to each branch in the preceding regulation denotes the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it.

6. No candidate will be allowed any marks in respect of any subject of examination, unless he shall be considered to possess a competent knowledge of that subject.‖

7. The Examination will be conducted by means of printed questions and written answers, and by vivâ voce Examination, as may be deemed necessary.

8. The marks obtained by each candidate, in respect of each of the subjects in which he shall have been examined, will be added up, and the names of the candidates who shall have obtained a greater aggregate number of marks than any of the remaining candidates will be set forth in order of merit, and such candidates shall be deemed to be selected candidates for the Civil Service of India, provided they are in other respects duly qualified; and shall be permitted to choose, ¶ according to the order in which they stand, as long as a choice remains, the Presidency (and in Bengal, the division of the Presidency) to which they shall be appointed.

9. Selected candidates, before proceeding to India, will be on probation for two years, during which time they will be examined periodically, with the view of testing their progress in the following subjects:— *

	Marks.
1. Oriental Languages:
Sanskrit	500
Vernacular † Languages of India (each)	400
2. The History and Geography of India	350
3. Law	1,250
4. Political Economy	350

In these Examinations, as in the open competition, the merit of the candidates examined will be estimated by marks, and the number set opposite to each subject denotes the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it at any one Examination. The Examination will be conducted by means of printed questions and written answers, and by vivâ voce Examination, as may be deemed necessary. The last of these Examinations will be held at the close of the second year of probation, and will be called the "Final Examination," at which it will be decided whether a selected candidate is qualified for the Civil Service of India.

10. Any candidate who, at any of the periodical Examinations, shall appear to have wilfully neglected his studies, or to be physically incapacitated for pursuing the prescribed course of training, will be liable to have his name removed from the list of selected candidates.

11. No candidate will be permitted to proceed to India before he shall have passed the Final Examination, and received a certificate of qualification from the Civil Service Commissioners, or after he shall have attained the age of twenty-four years.

12. The selected candidates who, at the Final Examination, shall be found to have a competent knowledge of the subjects specified in Regulation 9, shall be adjudged to have passed, and to be entitled to be appointed to the Civil Service of India, provided they shall comply with the regulations in force, at the time, for the Civil Service of India, and shall be of sound bodily health and good moral character. The Civil Service Commissioners will require such further evidence on these points as they may deem necessary before granting their Certificate of Qualification.

13. The seniority in the Civil Service of India of the selected candidates shall be determined according to the order in which they stand on the list resulting from the Final Examination.

14. Applications from persons desirous to be admitted as candidates are to be addressed to the Secretary to the Civil Service Commissioners, London, S.W.

1 May 1869.

* The number of appointments to be made, and the number in each Presidency, &c., will be announced hereafter.

† The proper form of application may be obtained from the office of the Civil Service Commissioners.

‡ Evidence of health and character must bear date not earlier than the 1st January, 1870.

§ It should be understood that candidates are at liberty to name, at their pleasure, any or all of these branches of knowledge, and that no subjects are obligatory.

‖ "Nothing can be further from our wish than to hold out premiums for knowledge of wide surface and of small depth. We are of opinion that a candidate ought to be allowed no credit at all for taking up a subject in which he is a mere smatterer."—Report of Committee of 1854.

¶ This right must be exercised immediately after the result of the examination is announced, on such day as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissoners.

* Full instructions as to the course of study to be pursued will be issued to the successful candidates as soon as possible after the result of the open competition is declared.

† Including, besides the languages prescribed for the several Presidencies, such other languages as may, with the approval of the Commissioners, be taken up as subjects of examination.

NOTE.—(1.) The Secretary of State for India in Council has authorised the Civil Service Commissioners to state that it is his intention to allow the sum of £50 after each of the three first half years of probation, and £150 after the last half-year, to each selected candidate who shall have passed the required Examinations to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, and shall have complied with such rules as may be laid down for the guidance of selected candidates.

(2.) All selected candidates will be required, after having passed the second periodical Examination, to attend at the India Office for the purpose of entering into an agreement binding themselves, amongst other things, to refund in certain cases the amount of their allowance in the event of their failing to proceed to India. For a candidate under age a surety will be required.

(3.) After passing the Final Examination each candidate will be required to attend again at the India Office, with the view of entering into covenants and giving a bond for £1,000, jointly with two sureties, for the due fulfilment of the same. The stamps payable by civilians on these documents amount to £3 10s.

(4.) Candidates rejected at the Final Examination of 1872 will in no case be allowed to present themselves for re-examination.
