CONTENTS.

PART I.

Page.

EDINBURGH, LEITH, AND NEWHAVEN, DIVIDED INTO FIFTY-FIVE DISTRICTS, WITH THE NAMES OF THE INHABITANTS PLACED IN CONNECTION WITH THE NUMBERS OF THEIR HOUSES, . . . 1

PART II.

A CLASSIFICATION OF TRADES, PROFESSIONS, AND OCCUPATIONS, TITLES AND DESIGNATIONS, ... 145

APPENDIX.

PROSPECTUS OF THE BOOK, AND A VARIETY OF ADVERTISEMENTS. . 269

OBSERVE,

The word "Mr" placed before the name of any Tradesman, as Grocer, Haberdasher, &c. indicates that the conjoined address is the residence, not the place of business, of the individual. The same thing is also indicated in other cases, by "of" so and so; the Christian name being then used.

The names of closes, courts, wynds, &c. are all given in their respective places, whether the names of any persons residing in them are given or not; and their exact situations, as well as those of places of greater importance, are exhibited in a very simple manner, which, without any explanation will be easily understood at sight.

TUITION.

☞ This classification is very imperfect, in consequence of the parties themselves not being in the habit of intimating, in any Directory, the particular branches of the profession to which they belong. Another year will mend this: here are the heads, which, with a few additions, only require to be filled up to render the arrangement complete.

MERCHANTS.

The indiscriminate use that is made of the word "Merchant" in Scotland, renders it impracticable to form any very complete classification under this head. Corn, coal, and wine merchants excepted, to all grades of which the word is applied, a merchant means in London one whose trade consists wholly or chiefly of transactions with foreign countries; whereas "merchant" here is synonymous with "dealer." A merchant, therefore, since it is impossible to know every body, must not be surprised, or offended, at finding his name placed by the side of that of a pedlar, should it chance to be so in the following somewhat random attempt at classification:—

APPENDIX.

APPENDIX.

PROSPECTUS.

It is usual, in presenting the public with the first number of a new periodical publication, to say something by way of introduction and recommendation. In the present instance, there is perhaps but little necessity for either, unless it be because it is sometimes well to point to objects, which, however plain when our attention is once directed towards them, have been previously unobserved, and to remind people of that which they already know, but do not think of. The uses of a street and classified directory are, however, rather numerous than individually great, and to enumerate them would be tedious, and, in many instances, frivolous; but the largest bodies are composed of minute particles, and there can be no doubt that, at the year's end, every purchaser of this Directory will deem himself amply repaid its cost by the utility it will have been of to him.

The first part of this volume contains the names of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, Traders, and principal inhabitants of Edinburgh, Leith, and Newhaven, arranged in fifty-five districts; each of which consists of a continuous range of streets, and the fifty-five comprise the whole of the three towns.

In the formation of these districts considerable pains have been taken. Having upon a former occasion subdivided the town in a similar manner for the purposes of the North British Advertiser, I had in the publication entitled "Circulation" of that paper, the work roughly done to my hand; but those districts, twenty-seven in number, were formed for a particular purpose, and it has been found that, with a view to more general utility, it was necessary to make a much more perfect division.

Accordingly, after making a general outline from the aforesaid book, with the assistance also of the best plans of Edinburgh and Leith, I first divided the town into fifty-five districts from actual survey, and then, having finished the work, I went over the whole of the town a second time to revise and correct it. And, not an inch of ground, as I believe, being missed either in Edinburgh, Leith, or Newhaven, I can confidently recommend these districts, or divisions, to those who may have use for them, as being very completely formed, though still perhaps capable of some improvement: the desideratum being that, book in hand, a man who continues to walk with it for his guide, may pass the door of every individual inhabitant of the three towns with as little walking as possible. And I guarantee that any one is now enabled to accomplish this, if not with as little walking as possible, certainly with as little as may be suitable for any business purpose whatever. Time, indeed, is lost only in passing from the end of one district to the beginning of another, which will be no loss wherever a man is employed to each district; and when otherwise, walking may be saved, by passing from the end of one district to the end of another, instead of to the beginning of it. See Districts two and three for example. This hint may be useful to the publishers of newspapers and others, who, for their especial purposes, may either reduce the number of the districts by putting two or three into one, or still farther multiply them by a more minute subdivision, as occasion may require.

The first arrangement will, it is believed, be of incredible utility to all persons who have occasion to distribute hand bills, circular letters, cards, &c. Presenting, as it does, at one view the names of the inhabitants of every street respectively, and that too in the order in which circulars may be most easily delivered, it will enable tradesmen to distribute intimations through the whole town with the utmost facility, and in the most correct and systematic manner.

The second part consists of a reprint of the former one, under a totally different arrangement. Here individuals are classified into trades, professions, and occupations, titles, and designations. This division will be of great utility to persons connected with wholesale trades, and others who deal with particular classes of society. As a general medium of information, too, where any and every marketable commodity or service is to be obtained, it will prove to be of every day use to merchants, tradesmen, housekeepers, and private individuals of every class and denomination.

With respect to this part, it may be observed, that in consequence of the names not having been expressly written for insertion in a classified Directory, the classification is necessarily very incomplete, and capable with this year's example before the public, of great improvement in ensuing publications. With the very imperfect designations that were before me, I have this year done the best I could, but in many instances I must have erred, though in no one from carelessness, or the want of due endeavour to be correct.

The Appendix this year—it will next year contain also other matter—is devoted entirely to advertisements, which are a double advantage to the public. In themselves, they are both useful and ornamental; but another and great advantage is, that the charge made for their insertion enables me to offer for sale a very cheap book: it being almost superfluous to remark, that the average price of books of this size, and quantity of contents, is much higher than four shillings.

The advertisers themselves cannot fail to attain their object, as upwards of thirteen hundred copies of the book will pass immediately into the hands of the public, including a great proportion of the first people in Edinburgh.

Some half dozen of individuals have sent me letters of complaint of the lateness of this publication. I will now answer them collectively:—

It was distinctly stated in my prospectus—the signing of which prospectus constituted the giving of an order for a copy of the book—that it would "contain all the names in the Edinburgh and Leith Post Office Directory twice over, namely," &c.

To implement this engagement, it was impossible to begin the business of forming or preparing the copy of this book until the other was finished and published. The other Directory was published on Tuesday, the 5th of June. Since which day, with such assistance as the nature of the work admitted of—which, so far as preparing the copy is concerned, was very little—I have, from an alphabetical directory, formed the two foregoing classifications and arrangements, superintended the printing of the work, read and revised all the proofs, &c.

July 9. It is now precisely thirty-five days since this operation was begun, and, from the nature of the case, it is evident that it could not be begun sooner. It is now finished, and in a day or two the book will be out.

And now let the said complainers set their wits to work, and calculate, going the nearest way about it, how long a time should be reasonably expended in the forementioned process; and, if the result be less than thirty-five days, on being informed thereof, I will, with all due humility, write them an humble apology each, for the unreasonable delay that will have been so shewn to have taken place. In the interim, I deny that there has been any delay, and affirm that, on the contrary, there has been expedition, as well in Thistle Lane, where the work has been printed—well printed too, don't you see?—as at No. 7, Henderson Row; and I do not believe that, with due regard to accuracy and proper arrangement, the thing could have been done more expeditiously by any of the said complainers, or by all of them put together.

I have one other subject to mention, and, in doing so, I shall endeavour to be as brief as may be convenient. Avoiding all mention of names, it is not unknown to the public, that I was some time since engaged in a very unpleasant controversy. The public have just this much to do with the matter,—as they have been informed by both parties of a dispute, there can be no impropriety in informing them also of its arrangement.

Certain matters have been placed in the hands of impartial and intelligent arbiters, to whom the parties-disputants, and their affairs, are more intimately known than to any other persons whatever, excepting only themselves. The said arbiters were empowered to cancel an existing contract of copartnery; to take a review of the whole circumstances of the case, past, present, and, as far as man can see into them, the future also; and to do justice, entire justice, and nothing but justice, between the parties, by drawing up a new contract of copartnery in such terms as they should see fit; which contract the parties-submitters mutually agreed to sign. To enable them to do this the more effectually and completely, each of the parties-disputants furnished the arbiters with a draft copy of copartnery, containing his view of the rights of the case; and from these two documents, unlimited power being tendered to the arbiters, a contract was to be drawn up by them, to do which, than one of whom at least, no person was more competent as respects the law, as well as the justice of the case. A new contract of copartnery has in consequence been drawn up by the said arbiters; and as they were neither of them nominated, though entirely approved of by me, I have the more satisfaction in saying, that with the award they have given I am perfectly satisfied.

This sentence requires a single qualification. Man can do much, which no human power can undo or compensate; and an arbiter can only take in hand a case as it is, and make the best of it. This has been done.

One observation more upon this subject. The management of the North British Advertiser is now placed in the hands of my partner, for a brief term of years, with my entire consent and approbation, upon such terms and conditions as I consider to be just and reasonable; and he is also entitled by the said contract to carry on, if it shall be deemed advisable to do so, for the benefit of the firm, the general business of a printer. But, as a belief has, by some means or other, got into existence to the contrary, I deem it necessary to add, that I am still an equal partner in that business, to the extent of one-half of whatever advantage may accrue from it, the principal part of which is, however, assigned to others, chiefly my own friends, until losses, occasioned by no fault or imprudence of mine, shall be repaid.

The long period during which the aforesaid matters remained unsettled, prevented me from engaging in any work of this kind earlier, or indeed in any thing whatever; but as the approbation of the public of the plan of the present publication has been prompt and unequivocal, and finding it, as I hardly expected I should, when I first issued a prospectus of it, well worth following as a principal branch of employment, it is now respectfully announced, that in accordance with the original intention, this publication will be continued annually, and that it will re-appear not later than the fourteenth day of June, 1833, with many and great improvements.

And, moreover, finding it indispensably necessary to collect the names myself, without doing which, not only is an early publication after the term impracticable, but the proper designation of the parties respectively altogether unattainable, I now withdraw the declaration I formerly made, of my intention of confining the work to a mere classification of trades and streets. On the contrary, life and health being spared, I shall next year endeavour to bring out, without reference to any other interests than those of the public and my own, the best Directory of, and for Edinburgh, Leith, and Newhaven, which I can devise and execute, prior to the 14*th day of June,* 1833. And I make this declaration, with the full intention of devoting the best part of the next twelve months to the endeavour to bring out a good one.

In making this statement, I am actuated by no spirit of opposition, or hostile feeling towards any one. The field is entirely open; for a good Directory, or, indeed, any thing beyond a mere alphabetical list of names, has never existed in this metropolis. In the endeavour to supply one, therefore, I take possession of open and unappropriated ground; and possession being nine points of the law, I call it my own, and will do the best I can to maintain it as such. I make this statement, with a knowledge of the fact, that, a few years since, some parties who were dissatisfied with the then existing Directory, endeavoured to mend matters — by bringing out a worse.

It is usual, in documents of this description, to tender acknowledgments for favours received, and to express hopes and expectations of others to come. I care not for customs of any kind, farther than as they are recommended by reason and utility; but I cannot conclude this paper, without stating that the purchase (orders obtained) of my Directory, almost upon the instant of its announcement, by upwards of a thousand persons, has added an additional proof, if any were wanting, that enterprize and speculative industry, whenever judiciously directed, will never fail to meet their reward in the city of Edinburgh. To those persons, amongst whom are several to whom I am indebted for numerous favours, I beg to tender my most grateful acknowledgments. But a still stronger claim upon my gratitude, exists in the constant and steady support, through fair weather and foul, stormy and tranquil, which has been bestowed on the North British Advertiser. I trust that it will long continue to be "the medium" of communication between buyer and seller for Scotland, whilst its more humble cousin, the Directory, hopes he "won't intrude," by just popping but once a year, into the same path.

JOHN GRAY.

EDINBURGH, July 9, 1832.

TO CONSUMERS OF CANAL COAL,

AND THE INHABITANTS OF EDINBURGH AND VICINITY GENERALLY.

JOHNSTON and THOM, grateful for the liberal share of Patronage they have so long experienced in the Coal Trade at the Canal, take this opportunity of respectfully informing their Customers and the Public, that they will continue to receive throughout the year extensive supplies of the Best Coal that can be procured, the different kinds of which they will always sell on the most moderate terms; and as their personal attention is exclusively devoted to this business, in all its departments, the Public may rely on being punctually and faithfully served.

As it is often inconvenient to send to the Office at the Canal, orders sent per post will be carefully attended to; and as there are now three deliveries in the course of the day, Families may have their Coal forwarded on the shortest notice.

MANUFACTORIES supplied with excellent Dross Coal, well adapted for Steam Engines, Furnaces, and Stoves, on the most reasonable terms.

☞ New Seams of Coal have just been opened up, the quality of which is giving great satisfaction.

COAL WHARF, No. 11, CANAL NEW BASIN,
Edinburgh, July, 1832.

THE RUSSELL GRATE,

(INVENTED BY A SCIENTIFIC GENTLEMAN OF THAT NAME IN THIS CITY,)
J. SIBBALD AND SONS, PATENT.

SIBBALD & SONS have now the pleasure of presenting to the Public this beautiful Invention, of which they are the sole Proprietors, and for which they are now fully prepared to execute orders to any extent.

In the RUSSELL GRATE will be found to be united all those good qualities which have been individually the subjects of inventions and patents, from the time of Count Rumford to the present day.

Its superiority arises from the following circumstances: —

I. It gives out the heat of the fuel from a greater surface of the fire than any other grate.

II. All the heat given out by the fire is thrown into the room directly by reflection, and indirectly by heated air, instead of a great part of it passing up the chimney, as in common grates.

III. There is a saving of at least one-half in coals, so that this stove will speedily recover its original cost, which is not greater than that of an ordinary register stove of equal appearance.

IV. It is the best adapted for curing smoke of any stove in use.

J. S. & S. speak thus confidently of the RUSSELL GRATE, because its plan is the result of accurate principles and extensive experiments, and they are perfectly sure, that those who may honour them with orders for it will find that its merits have not been overstated.

In order to make room for a stock of the RUSSELL GRATES, J. S. & S. are selling their present stock of REGISTER STOVES, at reduced prices; and they have as usual a handsome collection of TEA URNS, and TEA TRAYS, in Papier Machée, Iron, &c.

64, SOUTH BRIDGE, opposite the College,
July, 1832.

EDINBURGH AND DALKEITH RAILWAY.

THE GREAT DEPOT, which is entered from St Leonard's Street, now contains Sir John Hope's Newcraighall Coal, the Marquis of Lothian's Coal, the Arniston Coal, and the Edmonstone Jewel Coal, which is the same as the Sheriff-hall Jewel Coal; so that all the best kinds of Coal in the county, and in the country, are to be had there. The Coal of the Railway Depot is also carefully selected and freed from the coarser parts before leaving the Coallieries.

There are twelve Coal Merchants who hold offices from the Railway Company, and who have been selected with a due regard to respectability of character. They have, however, no coal yards attached to their offices, so that they have not the power, though they had the desire, to mix and adulterate the Coal.

The Company's Weighing Establishment consists of a Chief Weigher, an Assistant Weigher, and a Constable. The first signs all the Certificates of weight; his Certificate also attests that the Coal is of the kind that it is stated to be in the Coal Merchant's account or invoice. For, in the Railway Depot, the Coal is all taken, as it is ordered, directly from the Store Yards of the Coal Proprietors, whose interest it is that their Coal should be sold in a pure state, and maintain a good repute. Hence, it is easy for the Weighers to know one kind of Coal from another. The Assistant Weigher and the Constable watch the carters, to see that no coals are plundered in the narrow streets, and to see that quantities less than a ton are not sold for more than they weigh. Many of the inhabitants can already bear testimony to the efficiency of this preventive establishment, though few are willing to prosecute the dealers whose frauds have been exposed to them.

Consumers of Coals should attend to the following directions; they have been published in all the papers, yet very many, especially housekeepers and servants, are paying no attention to them: —

1st, Never receive a cart of Coals without the Weigher's certificate; his name is ROBERT GIBB, and if he should be changed, notice shall be given by advertisement.

2dly, Attend to the hour marked in the certificate, and if more than an hour after that has elapsed before the Coals are delivered, reject them, for the carter may have been disposing of a part of his load.

3dly, Always keep or destroy the Weigher's certificate, for if it remain with the carter, he may use it on the same day a second time to pass another cart of Coals of inferior weight or quality.

4thly, Any person receiving a Cart of Railway Coal may assure himself of its weight and quality, by calling at the Depot, and examining the entry in the Weigher's book.

Those who are not acquainted with any Coal Merchant of the Railway Depot, may address orders for Coal to the Railway Office, and they shall be handed to respectable agents for execution.

RAILWAY OFFICE, July, 1832.

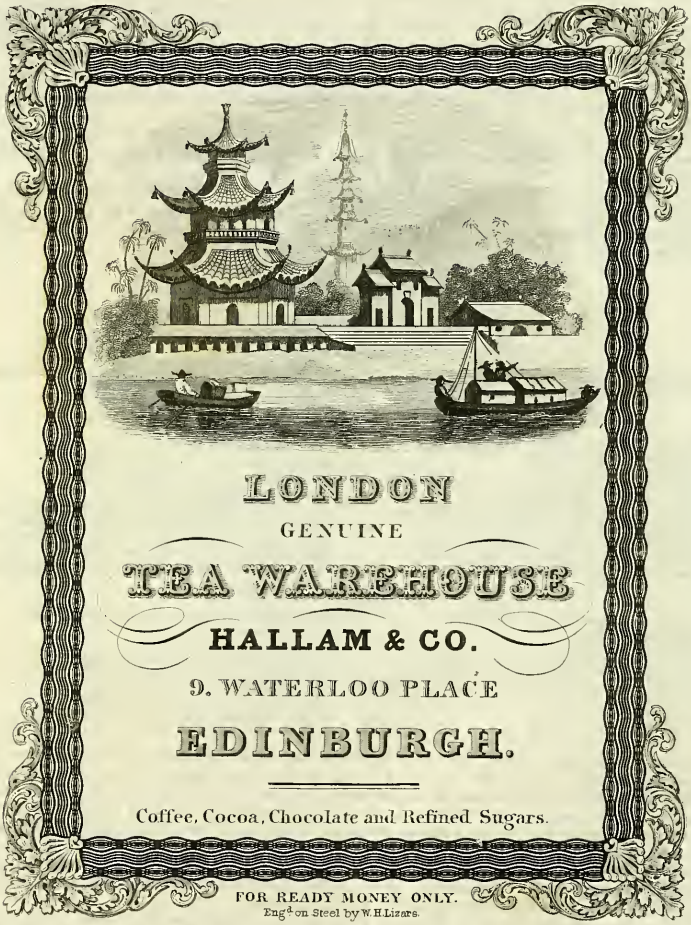
HALLAM & COMPANY present their most respectful thanks to the Nobility, Gentry, and their Friends generally, for the very liberal patronage with which their establishment has been honoured, during the two years they have been in business at Waterloo Place, and beg to say, that the same superior TEAS will be sold, and the same strict attention paid to commands, as hitherto, and which have obtained them such distinguished preference.



HALLAM & Co. have at all times on hand a selection of the FINEST TEAS imported, comprising all the varieties of SOUCHONG, FLOWERED and ORANGE SCENTED PEKOES, HYSON, and GUNPOWDER HYSON; also an extensive assortment of strong full-flavoured CONGOUS, which are well worth the attention of Families, being selected chiefly for their strength.

H. & Co. sampling the Teas previous to, and attending personally at, each Sale, are thereby enabled, not only to select the best qualities, but also to buy such as sell below their value, enabling them to offer to the Public—if not the lowest priced—the cheapest Teas in Edinburgh.

SCOTTISH WIDOWS' FUND AND LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY,

FOUNDED, A. D. 1815.

ON THE ORIGINAL MODEL OF THE EQUITABLE SOCIETY OF LONDON.

The EIGHTEENTH ANNUAL GENERAL COURT of this Society was held at Edinburgh, within the Waterloo Tavern, on Monday, 16th January current; the Right Honourable the EARL of ROSEBERY, President of the Society, in the Chair.

There were laid before the Court the Report of the Second Periodical Investigation of the Society's Affairs, as at 31st December last, and the orders pronounced thereon by an Extraordinary Court of Directors, held on the 13th current, allocating the Surplus Funds, in terms of the laws of the Society; all of which were, after an eloquent address by the Earl of ROSEBERY, unanimously approved of by the General Court.

On the motion of the Honourable Lord MONCREIFF, the thanks of the Court were unanimously voted to the Directors of the Society, Ordinary and Extraordinary, for their able and successful administration of the Society's affairs.

On the motion of GEORGE JOSEPH BELL, Esq. Professor of Scots Law, the Court unanimously approved of the arrangements recommended by the Extraordinary Court, relative to the Ordinary Court of Directors.

His Grace the DUKE of BUCCLEUCH and QUEENSBERRY, as a Member of the Society, then moved that the Direction for the current year be vested in the following Gentlemen, (all of whom, in terms of the laws, are Members of the Society of more than three years' standing,) which motion was unanimously carried, and the Direction filled up accordingly, viz.—

The Earl of ROSEBERY, on the motion of the Right Honourable the LORD JUSTICE-CLERK, having left the Chair, which, also on the motion of the LORD JUSTICE-CLERK, having been taken by His Grace the DUKE of BUCCLEUCH and QUEENSBERRY, the LORD JUSTICE-CLERK then moved that the best thanks of the General Court be given to the Earl of ROSEBERY, not only for his conduct in the Chair on this occasion, but for the uniform attention which, as Preses of the Society, his Lordship has paid to its business from its commencement down to the present time; which motion having been seconded by Sir JAMES GIBSON-CRAIG, of Riccarton, Bart., was carried by acclamation, and the thanks of the Court awarded accordingly; to which the Earl of ROSEBERY replied in acknowledgment.

The Chair having then been resumed by the Earl of ROSEBERY,

On the motion of Sir FRANCIS WALKER DRUMMOND, of Hawthornden, Bart. and PATRICK ROBERTSON, Esq. Advocate, the thanks of the Court were unanimously voted to the Manager, the Society's Auditor, PATRICK COCKBURN, Esq. and their Medical Officer, Dr DUNCAN, for their assiduous and faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices.—Thereafter the Court adjourned.

This National Institution comprises the principal influence in Scotland among its numerous Proprietary, and affords unquestionable security to the Public by the magnitude of its capital. Established on a broad and solid basis, it has been enabled, by the unexampled support which it has received, to conduct its operations on a larger scale than its competitors in North Britain.

The capital stock of the Scottish Union Company cannot at any period be endangered, according to any calculable human hazard; and all persons insured with this Company may rest in absolute certainty, that, whenever a claim shall arise, ample means will be always available to satisfy it with promptitude; and that the principles by which this Institution is regulated, will provide resources for the liberal adjustment of every demand.

From a variety of causes, there is, of late years, a decided increase in the mean duration of life, in many parts of Europe,—an improvement, however, which it is extremely probable has been exaggerated. It has been the earnest endeavour of the Directors and Manager to ascertain how far the results of experience might be rendered beneficial to the Public, without giving any cause to suppose, that, in so doing, they were actuated by a dangerous spirit of competition. In adopting, for the basis of Life computations, the Mean Standard Table of the Decrement of Life in Great Britain, in 1824, as published in the Philosophical Transactions, their motives cannot be questioned. A fair estimate of the duration of life, in the country wherein the persons to be assured reside, is attained on scientific principles; and the public is justly entitled to all the benefit of the investigation.

It will be found, on examination, that the Directors have thought themselves justified in making some reduction in favour of the public from the basis thus adopted, in consideration of local circumstances.

Young and middle-aged persons are, accordingly, assured at reduced rates, by which they derive, upon the best and most equitable footing, an immediate and certain advantage.

Prudence dictates to every man, who is anxious to provide for his family, to effect his Insurance at the lowest premium, combined with perfect security. If he become an insurer in this Company, his object will be completely attained. The Directors, therefore, have every confidence that the reduced rates, and the superior security of the Scottish Union Company, will obtain a continuance of that distinguished support from the public which it has hitherto experienced.

TABLES OF RATES, and explanation of any description of Fire and Life Assurance, may be had at the Company's Office, No. 47, George Street, Edinburgh, or from any of the Company's agents in the country, a list of whom is published in the Edinburgh Almanack.

F. G. SMITH, Secretary.

CIRCULATING LIBRARY OF MODERN PUBLICATIONS.

MESSRS R. & J. CHAMBERS propose making some alterations in their system of lending out books. Impressed with a sense of the inequality and injustice which enter into the whole plan of Subscriptions, and which affect the Customer and Librarian alike, they abandon that part of their system, except in respect of Country Readers, where it is unavoidable; and, in order to meet the convenience of those who generally read by Subscription, they will henceforth lend out their books at a cheaper rate per night. By this means they expect to obtain — what they have always felt to be grievously wanted in the management of a Circulating Library — an inducement for their Customers to detain no book longer than is necessary, and to take only as many volumes at a time as they require. No individual will now be able to obtain more of the general advantages of the Library than what is exactly to be paid for, and no one will have to complain that he is deprived of his proper share by the avidity of others. The general and most beneficial result must be a far freer circulation of the books, and an increased reputation to the Library, not only for reduction of charges, but also for its promptitude in gratifying the particular necessities of Customers.

The following is the new scale of prices at which Books will be lent: —

For every Volume of a Book published before the year 1825, 1d. per night.

For every Volume of a Book published later than 1825, and more than one year old, duodecimo, 1½d. per night; octavos, 2d.

SMITH'S HAM AND BEEF STORE,

No. 1, South St David Street.

JAMES SMITH begs to acquaint his Friends and the Public, that he has commenced the business of curing Beef, Mutton, Pork, &c. in the above named premises, and has at all times on hand a stock of the first quality in a cured state.

And having engaged Mr William Chalmers, whose abilities as a curer are established by more than twenty years' practice, both in Edinburgh and in the west, J. S. can confidently assure the Public, that he has it in his power to serve his customers, with Salted Rounds, Corned Beef, Mutton, Pork and Pickled Tongues, in their season, cured in so superior a manner, that he feels satisfied they will insure him a continuance of the favours of those who may honour his goods with a trial.

Rounds prepared on the shortest notice, and strict attention at all times given to execute orders promptly for ready money.

J. S. has only to mention farther, that the greater number of Hams sold in Edinburgh under the name of "Glasgow Hams," are of inferior quality, brought here on venture for sale, and but few of them are the salting of the respectable curers in the West.

THE MEDICAL HALL,

Conducted by Messrs Butler & Co. Chemists, No. 73, Prince's Street, opposite the Mound, Edinburgh, where Physicians' Prescriptions and Family Recipes are compounded with the utmost care.

Butler's Cooling Aperient Powders produce a most refreshing and pleasant effervescing Draught, (more efficient than Seidlitz, Soda, or Seltzer Water,) at the same time a safe, mild, and Cooling Aperient, peculiarly adapted to relieve Indigestion, Heartburn, and Nausea, and counteract Acidity in the Stomach. When taken after too free an indulgence in the luxuries of the table, particularly after too much wine, the usual disagreeable effects are prevented. In boxes, 2s. 9d. and Cases, 10s. 6d. and Bottles, 4s. 6d. and 10s. 6d.

Butler's Pure Calcined Magnesia, prepared after a new process, whereby it is perfectly deprived of carbonic acid, freed from taste, smell, grittiness, and every unpleasant property, and the bulk required for a dose is reduced to one-third of that of Calcined Magnesia prepared in the usual way, which renders it more easily miscible in fluids, and less objectionable to Infants, or the weakly stomach of the Invalid. In 2s. 9d. and 10s. 6d. Bottles.

Dr Gregory's Mixture, or Aromatic Stomachic Powder, prepared by Messrs Butler, with their Pure Calcined Magnesia; which will be found much pleasanter to take than the ordinary preparations of this useful Medicine, and, at the same time, more efficacious as an Antacid and promoter of digestion. In 2s. 9d. and 10s. 6d. Bottles.

Camphor Lozenges, for depression of the Spirits, Sick Headach, Nervous Irritability, &c., and are a preventive against infection. Bottles, 2s. 6d. and 4s. 6d.

Aromatic Spirit of Camphor, possessing all the virtues of the common Camphorated Spirit, with those of the most esteemed Aromatics. It will be found exceedingly useful to families for making the Camphor Julep, a dessert spoonful to a pint of water instantly forming it. It is recommended by eminent Dentists as the best application for preserving the Teeth and Gums. Bottles, 2s. 6d. & 5s. 6d.

Butler's Preparation of London Paregoric Elixir, according to the last edition of the London Pharmacopœia, with the addition of the Oil of Aniseed, so generally known for its efficacy in Coughs, &c. Half Pint Bottles, 3s.

Acidulated Cayenne Lozenges, for habitual Sore Throat; they are also a protection to the Lungs in foggy and damp weather, and a refreshing stimulus during Field Sports, or any exertion accompanied with a sense of Fatigue. Boxes, 2s. and 4s. 6d.

Quinine Lozenges, prepared with the invaluable new remedy named Quinine, are recommended more particularly as a Tonic in cases of Dyspepsia and general Debility. Boxes, 2s. and 4s. 6d.

Butler's Fluid Extract of Jamaica Sarsaparilla, simple (or compound,) for making the decoction, as it may be required, and superior to that generally used. A dessert spoonful will make half a pint of decoction. It is highly esteemed as an Alterative in Scrofula, Scurvy, and Cutaneous Diseases, and as a remedy for the improper use of Mercury. In 4s. 6d. 8s. 6d. and 20s. Bottles.

Butler's Digestive and Tonic Pills, are recommended for all complaints which are occasioned by a loss of tone, or deficient action of the digestive organs,—as impaired appetite, a sense of pain and oppression at the stomach after eating, flatulence, heartburn, and acid eructations, affection of the head and sight, nervous irritability, and depression, costiveness, &c. &c.—Bilious and Gouty subjects, and persons who, from habitually constipated bowels, frequently require an active, at the same time a safe form of Medicine, may advantageously take Butler's Aperient and Antibilious Pills. A constipated habit is a fertile source of derangement of the digestive organs and nervous system, attended with febrile symptoms, bilious attacks, nausea and vomiting, piles, fistula, and numerous complaints frequently leading to fatal disease, and consequently demands timely attention. Two of these pills, taken occasionally at bed time when any of these symptoms are urgent, will be productive of the greatest benefit. Boxes, 1s., 2s. 6d., 4s. 6d., and 10s. 6d.

Butler's Citrated Kali, for making Saline Draughts, recommended for its economy and convenience for this purpose. Bottles, 2s. 6d., 4s. 6d., and 10s. 6d.

Carbonated Effervescing Harrowgate Salts. These Salts contain all the solid ingredients of the celebrated Springs of Harrowgate, with the important addition of the Volatile Gases in an immediate state of disengagement, by the addition of pure water, and will be found a valuable substitute, proper for all those invalids who are unable to reside at Harrowgate. In 4s. 6d. and 10s. 6d. Bottles.

Stomachic and Digestive Candy; of which the principal ingredients are Turkey Rhubarb, Ginger, an Antacid and Carminatives, in such proportions as render it a pleasant Aromatic Stomachic and powerful Digestive. It will be found most serviceable in all those affections originating in an impaired digestion; and also an agreeable gentle Aperient for children. Boxes, 2s. and 4s.

Butler's Morphia and Ipecacuanha Lozenges; made with the Muriate of Morphia, for recent, nervous, or chronic cough. Sold in 1s. and 2s. Boxes.

The above mentioned Medicines, &c. are prepared by, and will, when genuine, have the name and address of, "Butler and Co. Chemists to his Majesty in Scotland, No. 73, Prince's Street, Edinburgh," printed in the label, which is affixed to every Bottle or Box containing the same.

THE FOLLOWING PREPARATIONS

Are sold by appointment of their respective Proprietors, by Messrs BUTLER & Co. No. 73, Prince Street, opposite the Mound, Edinburgh :—

STOMACH COMPLAINTS. — DR HENDERSON'S STOMACHIC VEGETABLE ELIXIR. — The unprecedented demand for this Medicine, and the flattering accounts daily received from all quarters of the Empire, as to the beneficial effects experienced from its use in all cases of Derangement of the Digestive Organs, are the strongest proofs which could be given of its efficacy in every variety of Stomach Complaint; while, as an aperient, it is the pleasantest and the safest that can be taken, and may be used in every case in which opening Medicines are indicated.

Prepared only by Dr HENDERSON, whose name is subscribed in red ink on the labels attached. In pint Bottles, 4s. 6d. and half-pints, 2s. 9d.

Dr JAMES'S FEVER POWDER — is universally approved by the Profession and the Public, and is administered with equal success in Fever, Inflammatory Diseases, Measles, Pleurisy, Sore Throats, Rheumatism, &c. When given in Colds, Catarrhs, &c. it is generally found to check their progress, or shorten their duration. In Packets, 2s. 9d. and 24s.

CHING'S WORM LOZENGES. — The extraordinary efficacy of these Lozenges in cases of Worms, as well as in obstructions in the Bowels, and every disorder where cleansing physic is required, is so universally known, and has been publicly acknowledged by so many persons of distinction in society, that it is unnecessary here to enlarge on their peculiar virtues. In Packets, at 1s. 1½d. and 2s. 9d.

MORRIS'S BRUNSWICK CORN-PLASTER — is generally admitted to be one of the best emollient applications for Corns and Bunions, and is worthy of a trial on the part of tho who are afflicted with such unpleasant complaints. In Boxes, at 1s. 1½d. and 2s. 9d.

POWER'S OINTMENT FOR RINGWORM. — The inventor of this remedy has for the last ten years cured several hundreds of persons gratuitously, until the demands have become so numerous, that he feels it a duty he owes to himself, his family, and the afflicted, to give it publicity. In Pots, at 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d.

PERRY'S ESSENCE FOR TOOTH AND EAR-ACHE has been found of such extreme service in relieving Tooth and Ear-Ache, that it has been commented upon most favourably in several Medical Journals. It affords instantaneous relief, and generally prevents any recurrence of pain. In Bottles, at 1s. 1½d. and 2s. 9d.

DIXON'S ANTIBILIOUS PILLS.—As a mild and effectual remedy in those affections which have their origin in a morbid action of the Liver and Biliary Organs, namely, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Headach, Flatulence, Heartburn, Constipation, &c. these Pills, (which do not contain Mercury in any shape,) have met with more general approval than any other Medicine. In Boxes, at 2s. 9d. 4s. 6d. 11s. and 22s.

BUTLER'S VEGETABLE TOOTH POWDER. — This Dentifrice, (Composed of Vegetables, without the admixture of any Mineral, or pernicious ingredient whatever,) has so long been in general use, and an appendage to the fashionable toilet, that it is unnecessary to offer any further recommendation in favour of it. In Boxes, at 2s. 9d.

Dr JAMES'S ANALEPTIC PILLS — are an excellent Alterative in Chronic Diseases of the Stomach and Bowels, and are applicable to Bilious and Dyspeptic Affections, Gout, &c. They are mild in their operation, and require no restraint or confinement during the use of them. In Boxes, at 4s. 6d. and 24s.

HICKMAN'S PILLS FOR GRAVEL, STONE, &c. — This Medicine has been long approved for the relief of Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, which are attended with the formation of Gravel, Calculus, and those pains of the Back and Loins, which accompany these affections; and are found to succeed, when most remedies of the kind have altogether failed. In Boxes, at 2s. 9d. and 11s.

BUTLER'S CAJEPUT OPODELDOC, used with much success in cases of Rheumatism, Sprains, Bruises, &c. also an excellent application for Chilblains, by allaying the Irritation. In Bottles, at 2s. 9d.

TOWER'S TONIC PILLS. — These Stomachic Aperient Pills have for many years received the most decisive marks of public approval. They are expressly designed to restore the tone and energy of the Digestive Organs, and to remove and correct Indigestion, a bad and defective Appetite, Depression of Spirits, Drowsiness, &c. In Boxes, 2s. 9d. 4s. 6d. and 11s.

MARSHALL'S UNIVERSAL CERATE, — an excellent remedy for broken Chilblains, Scalds, Burns, Wounds, and Ulcers, of every denomination, especially Sore and Ulcerated Legs. In Boxes, 1s. 1½d. and 2s. 9d.

VETERINARY MEDICINES.

The Public is respectfully informed, that the following Veterinary Medicines are kept by BUTLER & Co. 73, Prince's Street, Edinburgh. They are invariably formed of Genuine Drugs; and where the aloe enters into the composition, that of Barbadoes is the only kind used. The Recipes from which the Medicines are prepared, are the most approved of those recommended by Veterinary Practitioners of celebrity; and attention has been paid to such forms as remain unchanged by keeping, and are of easy solution in the stomach of the Horse: —

Mild Physic Ball; Strong Physic Ball; Mercurial Physic Ball for Worms; Laxative Alterative Ball; Diuretic Alterative Ball; Pectoral Cough Ball; Chronic Cough Ball; Cordial Ball; Strong Blister Ointment; Mild Liquid Blister; Leeming's Essence for Splints. The Medicines of Mr Blaine may be had at the Establishment; also, every article adapted to Veterinary Practice, or that is used by Graziers and Farmers, in the Diseases of Cattle.

G. & P. RITCHIE'S PATENT PRESS AND MACHINE MANUFACTORY,

No. 56, NICOLSON STREET, EDINBURGH.

G. & P. R.'s PRESSES FOR LETTER PRINTING, LITHOGRAPHIC PRINTING, LETTER COPYING, ARMING, STAMPING, SEALING, &c.

These Presses possess every property desirable in such machines; and are made in all their variety of sizes.

G. & P. R. warrant all Presses for Twelve Months.

The following are a few of the testimonials G. & P. R. have received in favour of their Presses: —

PRINTING PRESSES.

1, Mound Place, Edinburgh, June 20, 1831.

GENTLEMEN, — You have requested Mr Michael Anderson to give you his opinion of the merits of the Printing Presses which you made for him: I have therefore to state, for Mr Anderson, that these Presses have been worked in this house for upwards of twelve months, and that they have been found to realize the expectations previously formed of their capabilities. They are strong, without being clumsy in their appearance, expeditious, produce a powerful, clean impression on all parts of the sheet used at them, and fewer stoppages, from accidents, have occurred with them than any other description of Press which has come under my observation. I have, on every proper occasion, given it as my opinion, that your Press is, in every respect, highly deserving the notice of the trade, by which they would greatly benefit themselves, and confer a just reward on ingenuity. I am, Gentlemen, yours, &c.

Messrs G. and P. Ritchie, Machine Manufacturers. BENJAMIN GIBSON.

Caledonian Mercury Office, June 20, 1831.

GENTLEMEN, — In consequence of your request to know my opinion of the Printing Presses which you fitted up in this office, in March and April, 1830, I take the earliest opportunity of informing you, that they are of a kind that are highly recommendable for their durability, ease to the workmen, and, above all, for the clear, equal, and sharp impression which they give. They are also recommendable for the great ease and exactness with which the workmen can regulate the power, either for a light or heavy form, and the facility there is in taking them to pieces for cleaning. If any one wishes to see what they can do, he may inspect the new edition (the seventh,) of the Encyclopædia Britannica, a specimen of printing, from stereotype plates, equal, if not superior, to any thing of the kind. Gentlemen, yours, &c. THOMAS ALLAN, Junior.

Messrs G. & P. Ritchie, 56, Nicolson Street.

COPYING PRESSES.

From WALTER HORSBURGH, Esq. W. S. Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, 28, Pitt Street, July 11, 1831.

GENTLEMEN, — I can have no hesitation in giving the strongest recommendation of your Copying Press, for Letters, Accounts, &c. I have used one of them for several years, and have found it a most important saving, both of time and expense. The Letters are copied into a book (or on separate sheets of paper if wished) with the greatest expedition, and with the most perfect correctness. The Machine is simple in its construction, but is, at the same time, the best adapted to the purpose of any I have seen. The operation of copying is very easily performed, and, when with that are combined its rapidity and the absolute certainty of correctness in the copy, I consider it a very great advantage to all who keep copies of their letters, to use the Copying Press. In large offices it may save a clerk entirely. I have recommended your Press to a number of my friends, both professional and others, and they all approve most highly of it. I am, Gentlemen, yours, &c. WALTER HORSBURGH.

From Horsburgh and Marjoribanks, Esqrs. Accountants, Edinburgh.

22, India Street, Edinburgh, June 21, 1831.

GENTLEMEN, — In reply to your note, requesting our opinion of your Copying Press, we beg to say, that we look upon it as the most simple, elegant, and perfect that we have yet seen. It was under this impression, and after using, for some time, a Machine by a different maker, that we ordered one from you, in 1828, of a larger size than you had previously been in the habit of making, and we have since that time continued to use it, not only for letters, but for accounts and states, with the most perfect success and satisfaction. The convenience and utility of the smaller size of your Press, are now becoming generally known; but, to the Accountant and Merchant, we consider the large Folio Machine quite invaluable. We are, Gentlemen, yours, &c. ROBERT HORSBURGH.
GILBERT MARJORIBANKS.

From Messrs Hutchison and Co. Merchants, Leith.

Leith, July 8, 1831.

GENTLEMEN, — In reply to yours of the 7th instant, requesting the favour of us to state our opinion of the Quarto Copying Press we bought from you about eighteen months ago, we have much pleasure in having it in our power to reply favourably to your request. From our having made use of various Copying Presses, we have no hesitation in stating, that we consider the principle yours is upon to be the best we have yet seen, and a most useful time-saving article to any Merchant. We are, Gentlemen, yours, &c. HUTCHISON & Co.

PRINTERS' INKING MACHINES, INKING TABLES, ROLLER MOULDS, COMPOSING STICKS, GALLIES, RULES, CHESSES, STEREOTYPE MOUNTING, &c. SCREW PRESSES, FLY PRESSES, and ROLLER MACHINES for Bookbinders.

MANGLES for the use of Families; they occupy little room, are simple in their construction, very powerful, easily wrought, and give a fine finish to the Linens.

STRAW HAT PRESSING MACHINES, useful articles for saving time and labour.

PROJECTING LETTERS for Signs &c. in every variety of size and pattern. These letters have many advantages, being of great durability, easily seen at a distance, and may be removed at pleasure.

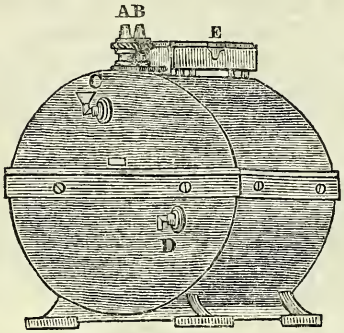
JAMES COCHRANE & CO.

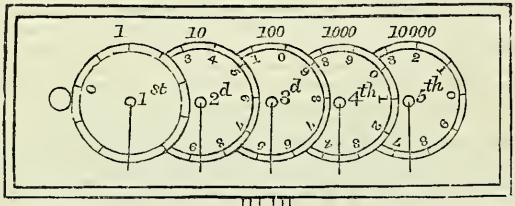
GENERAL BRASS FOUNDERS, GREENSIDE LANE, EDINBURGH,

Beg to intimate, that they continue to manufacture, and to sell, both wholesale and retail, Gas Fittings of all kinds; also Gas Meters and Block Tin Tubes; and that, in consequence of employing Steam Power, they are enabled to do their work in the best manner, and at moderate prices.

Dwelling Houses, &c. carefully fitted up in an expeditious and substantial manner. A variety of Lustres, Pendants, Lanterns, Brackets, &c. always on hand.

J. C. & Co.'s Gas Meters,—which are now materially reduced in price,—they can particularly recommend, having devoted much attention to their improvement. The internal working parts are of brass and block tin, which are not acted on by the Gas, and the outer case is of cast iron, which protects the interior from injury. They beg also to refer to the annexed cut and description:





A, Entrance pipe.
B, Exit pipe.

C, Water funnel.
D, Syphon pipe.

E, for Gas Company's Seal.

Let the Gas Meter be fixed perfectly level, where it will not be exposed to frost; then connect the service pipe to the coupling A, and the pipe for conveying the gas to the burners to the coupling B. Fill the Meter with water by the funnel C, till it begin to run at the syphon D. The water will then be at the proper level, and the Meter ready for use. A little water will require to be added occasionally, according to the temperature of the situation.

Each revolution of the first or highest wheel indicates one cubic foot of Gas consumed, the next 10 feet, the third 100, the fourth 1000, the fifth 10,000; and in large Meters, where the index consists of six wheels, the sixth indicates 100,000.

Edinburgh, Greenside Lane,
July, 1832.

NEW NATIONAL WORK.

DEDICATED, BY PERMISSION, TO HIS MOST GRACIOUS MAJESTY,

KING WILLIAM THE FOURTH.

To be completed in 24 Parts at 2s. or 8 half volumes, bds. 6s. 6d. each, embellished with Portraits,

ILLUSTRIOUS AND DISTINGUISHED SCOTSMEN.

FROM THE EARLIEST PERIOD TO THE PRESENT TIME,

Arranged in Alphabetical Order, and forming a complete

SCOTTISH BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY.

BY ROBERT CHAMBERS,

AUTHOR OF THE "PICTURE OF SCOTLAND," "TRADITIONS OF EDINBURGH," "HISTORIES OF THE SCOTTISH REBELLIONS," &c.

This Work is designed to contain a complete and succinct account of the Lives of all Natives of Scotland who have attained eminence, whether in the Literary, Scientific, Religious, or Political World; each to be treated at a length suitable to his particular merit or fame, and the whole to be arranged, for reference, in an Alphabetical Order.

In order to make the SCOTTISH BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY truly worthy of public favour, the Publishers have exerted themselves to secure, for the composition of its various sections, a varied array of talent and knowledge; each of the more important Lives being written by an individual whom they supposed best qualified, by his previous studies and cast of mind, to give it an appropriate merit. The greater part of the Work will be the composition, and the whole will be under the Literary Superintendence of Mr Robert Chambers, "who," to quote the words of the Author of Waverley "has added so largely and agreeably to the stock of our popular antiquities."

A limited number of Copies will be printed on Royal Paper, with Proof Impressions of the Plates, 3s. 6d. per Part.

REVIEWS.

"This Book, dedicated, by special permission, to the King, is most justly entitled, by its spirited publishers, a 'New National Work.' If these Biographies go on as they have commenced, and of this we entertain not the shadow of a doubt, they will form a most entertaining and useful compendium of the records of Scottish genius — a collection indispensable alike in the libraries of the educated classes, and by the ingle neuks of the peasantry — a work which will teach all hearts to beat high with a patriotic pride, at once enthusiastic and well founded, and nerve all minds to high enterprise. In short, we look confidently to its becoming in the new age what 'Wight Wallace' and the 'Scottish Worthies' were to our fathers."— Edinburgh Literary Journal.

"The first part of this truly national work is just published, and, from the highly creditable manner in which it is got up, augurs well for the success of those which are to follow. In accordance with the prevailing taste of the day, it is published in monthly parts; and we can assure those who wish to purchase, that, cheap as books are, this one exceeds the most of them."—Dumfries Courier.

"If ever Scotland could boast of an author whom she might call exclusively her own, it is Robert Chambers. The present work of Mr Chambers is by far the most serious and important that he has yet engaged with; and it is with singular pleasure, that, after a careful perusal, we give our conscientious opinion, that it is the one in which he has yet displayed the greatest share of ability and extent of information."— Dumfries Journal.

"The present is truly a national work, and ought to find a conspicuous place in the library of every son of Scotland, whose heart exults in the glory of his country, and the genius and virtues of his countrymen."— Aberdeen Journal.

"We would not be doing our duty to our readers did we not most warmly recommend these Lives of Illustrious and Distinguished Scotsmen to their notice."—Ayr Advertiser.

"We are glad to see a work of this description commenced; such a book was much wanted; and when completed will form one of the most valuable of our Scottish works. It is one which every Scotsman ought to possess, and which few, we are sure, who can afford to purchase it, will fail to procure."— Glasgow Free Press.

"A work of this description was much wanted, and, judging from the two numbers already published, it well deserves an extended popularity."— Perthshire Courier.

"This work is calculated for popularity by the nature of its contents; and from the specimens now before us, we feel ourselves entitled to say, that it amply deserves that popularity on account of its execution."—Spectator.

"We do not doubt that Mr Chambers' present effort will prove a 'National Work'—a work which while it commands an extensive circulation amongst the existing generation of Scotsmen, deserves to go down to posterity as a fitting record of the lives of our distinguished countrymen."—Scottish Literary Gazette.

"We trust that we shall at length have a Scottish Biographical Dictionary worthy of our country—worthy of those whose memories it is intended to perpetuate or snatch from oblivion."—Aberdeen Magazine.

STATE OF THE COMMERCIAL SOCIETY.

Recently Published by WILLIAM TAIT, Edinburgh; LONGMAN & Co. London; and by W. CURRY, jun. and Co. Dublin.

ELEGANTLY PRINTED IN OCTAVO, CLOTH BOARDS, PRICE 8s. 6d.

THE SOCIAL SYSTEM;

A TREATISE

ON

THE PRINCIPLE OF EXCHANGE.

BY JOHN GRAY.

THE specific object of this work is to state, to prove, to exemplify, and to endeavour to call the attention of the public to the important fact, that it would be by no means difficult to place the commercial affairs of society upon such a footing, that production would become the uniform and never-failing cause of demand; or, in other words, that to sell goods at a fair profit for money, without any limit or restriction, as respects quantity and value, may be rendered at all times precisely as easy as it now is to buy them with money.

CONTENTS OF THE WORK.

CHAP. I. — Introductory — Difficulties of the subject — Individual engagements — General distaste for the study of Social Science — Necessity of adapting parts to each other, so as to form a symmetrical whole — General disbelief in the possibility of substantial improvement, a serious obstacle to it — — Favourable circumstances of the present times — Theory and practice — Miscellaneous observations.

CHAP. II. — Definition — The principle stated, explained, and its importance insisted on — Land, labour, capital, and freedom of exchange, are the four ingredients of which wealth is composed.

CHAP. III. — Sketch of a Commercial Constitution — Appropriation of Land and Capital — Direction — Management — Wages — Salaries, and general principles of the Social System.

CHAP. IV. — Production — Labour the Source of wealth — Security of property — Division of employments — Capital — Description of the manner in which manufactures and agriculture may be so conducted that demand must ever keep pace with production.

CHAP. V. — Exchange — Exchange the parent of Society — The present plan of Exchange radically defective — Necessity for a measure of value — Gold, silver, and bank notes, as at present used, totally unfit for the purpose for which they are intended — The proper use and qualities of money defined — Description of an improved plan of Exchange — Plan of a National Bank — Gold, silver, and copper coin — Exportation and importation.

CHAP. VI. — Distribution — Observation upon the nature of the theory here advocated — Importance of considering the national debt in fixing the rate of wages — The proper average of wages defined — Wages — Salaries — National charges — National capital — Education — Insurances — Incapacity — Depreciation of stock — Unproductive labour — Change of employment — Taxes — National balance sheet — Business for Mr Hume — Conclusion of the Chapter.

CHAP. VII. — Prevention of Forgery — Opinion stated, that the Forgery of Bank Notes may be entirely prevented — Necessity for a public criterion of genuine notes — Insufficiency of the existing plans for the prevention of forgery — Bank Notes should be all alike — Description of a plan for the prevention of forgery — Reasons for believing that the plan now proposed would be effectual.

CHAP. VIII. — Professions — Distinction between Professional and Commercial members of Society — Modes of remunerating Professional Men — Demi-professional trades — Transfers of Private Property — Patents.

CHAP. IX. — Review of Society — Probable consequences of the Social System — Map of Society — General review of the employments of mankind, and the manner in which the wealth of the country is now distributed.

CHAP. X. — Population — Theory of Mr Malthus — It is opposed to the plainest dictates of Nature — It is contradicted by the evidence to which Mr Malthus appeals for its support — The assumed facts on which it is founded, are unreal — Even if it were true, it would be an additional argument for the establishment of the Social System — Theory of Mr Sadler — Some of his tables quoted — Effect of inequality in the ages of parents on the sexes of their children — Animals are subject to the same law — Emigration.

CHAX. XI. — Political Economy — A brief notice of the opinions of the Political Economists, exhibiting the difference, in some respects, between their views and those of the author of the Social System, and tending also to illustrate and defend the principle of the foregoing pages.

CHAP. XII. — Taxation — General observations upon the effect of taxation, with reference to the present system of Commerce — Increased production the effect of large sums of money being borrowed and expended by the Government — Under the Social System taxes would be an evil exactly proportionate to their amount.

Chap. XIII. — The public debt — Preliminary considerations — Comparison between the public and private debt — Estimated amount of property in the British empire — Summary view of the progressive increase of the national debt, from the period of the revolution to 1st February, 1813.

Chap. XIV. — Plan of commencement — Influence of the public press — Parliament should institute an inquiry into the causes of existing troubles, and into the character of the various remedies that have been proposed for the relief of distress — Progressive steps necessary to the formation of a National Commercial Association.

Chap. XV. — Concluding address — If we continue to suffer from the existing commercial errors of society, it is our own fault.

Appendix. — The theory of the Social System is the result entirely of observation and reflection — The Orbiston Co-operative Establishment — Quotation from A Word of Advice to its projectors — Observations upon the character of the late Mr Abram Combe — A memoir of him quoted — Origin of The North British Advertiser, a weekly newspaper published in Scotland, containing only advertisements — Plan of Mr Robert Owen of New Lanark — Conclusion of the appendix, and of the work.

THE END.
