PREFACE.

The Publishers of the Post-Office Greenock Directory beg to return their acknowledgments for the liberal patronage bestowed on the Publication which, for thirteen years, they have had the honour to conduct, and which has now become indispensable.

During the past century the Town has increased in population from about 4,000 to perhaps 40,000. It is believed that the coming census will even shew that the number of the inhabitants is considerably greater than that named. It may be proper to remark, however, that hitherto the increase has not been steady, from year to year, but that it appears to depend chiefly on the prosperity of the Shipping Trade more than on any other branch of commerce. Although every additional Factory which is built has doubtless an influence in encouraging builders and capitalists to erect dwelling-houses, still it is obvious that the building of ships and the making of machinery continue to be departments of trade on which the increase of the population mainly depend. When the general trade of the country receives an impetus, the effect on this port, so far as the demand for the labour of skilled artizans is concerned, is by no means immediate, but follows as a result after a year or more. Ships and steamers are not seemingly prepared in anticipation of busy times, but only come to be ordered when other trades and enterprises have been for some time in a thriving condition. It is this peculiarity which renders the trade of the Port dull at the present time, and houses not in great demand; but as the trade of the country is prosperous, that circumstance will soon re-act favourably on this community. The trade of Greenock may be viewed as an index of what this maritime country suffers by being at war. The long French wars added much to the population of this Town, stimulated the enterprise of the merchants, and gave high wages to artizans and sailors; but much of the gains were fictitious, as the whole community felt when the unhealthy stimulant thereby given to commerce was removed. In the heat of the war there was not an unoccupied house in the Town. Immediately after the first peace the population decreased. Again, the American war quite paralysed the trade of the port, and, indeed, quite changed the trade of the Clyde. What it lost was transferred to Liverpool, and mainly contributed to the rapid rise of that town. What the ship-building and engineering trades gained by the Russian war was lost by the effect on the tonnage market caused by the transports that were thrown idle, which stopped the building of ships for general traffic; and at this time the artizans of the Port are not well employed, because the tonnage disengaged by the Spaniards, on making a peace with the Moors, has not yet been altogether absorbed by trade, and hence the orders for new ships are very limited. In publishing another yearly volume, therefore, these explanatory remarks are not out of place. If we cannot adduce evidence that the Burgh is more populous and more prosperous than it was last year, we have at least shewn that that is no proof of its being in a state of decadence, but merely that it is subject to fluctuations now as it was a century ago, and periodically since that time, and in that respect it is unlike inland or manufacturing towns; nevertheless its size and trade increases.

It is not within our province to do more than note that an unusually large number of new dwelling-houses have been built during the year, and if that be no proof of the increase of the population and trade of the Port, it clearly proves that the builders have confidence in the future.

The Harbour revenue continues steadily to increase. To meet and encourage trade, the Trustees resolved to make a new harbour, and applied to Parliament for leave to commence new works. Circumstances, however, induced them to withdraw the Bill, and this important measure has been delayed for a season.

The inhabitants continue to take a lively interest in the management of the Town's affairs, as well as in public questions affecting the politics and defences of the country. In this respect the tone of feeling is decidedly healthy and indicative of progress. The high state of discipline and efficiency attained by the local Volunteer Rifle and Artillery Corps shew that they are worthy of their townsmen, who took the field—two hundred strong—for CHARLES II. in 1651, and for the HOUSE OF HANOVER, in much greater numbers, in 1715 and 1745.

The PUBLISHERS have now confidence in their work, and in the Public, for whose service this useful compilation is yearly prepared; but still they admit it could be made more perfect, although on no former occasion have greater exertions been made to arrive at accuracy. They have, therefore, again to request that those who take an interest in the welfare of the undertaking will be pleased to communicate anything they have to suggest for improving the work as a local book of reference. All such communications will be respectfully received, and considered.

The Directory continues to be esteemed by Advertisers as a medium for keeping their professions, trades or enterprises before the public, and their orders have been faithfully obeyed.

The information which this issue contains respecting the mails, local statistics, trade of the port, and its institutions, is in this more ample than the Publishers have been able to furnish in any preceding volume; and the public are respectfully informed that the Directory will continue to be sustained to deserve an extended and liberal patronage from every one resident in the locality, or having business or other connexions therewith.

STAMP DUTIES.

(INLAND BILL) DRAFT OR ORDER, after the 10th October, 1053, for the payment of any sum of money to the bearer, or to order, on demand, 1d. And the following instruments shall be deemed and taken to be drafts or orders for the payment of money within the intent and meaning of this Act, and of any act or acts relating to the stamp duties on bills of exchange, drafts or orders, and shall be chargeable accordingly with the stamp duties imposed by this act or any such act or acts, viz.: All documents or writings usually termed letters of credit, or whereby any person to whom any such document or writing is or is intended to be delivered or sent, shall be entitled, or be intended to be entitled to have credit with or in account with, or to draw upon any other person for, or to receive from such other person any sum of money therein mentioned.

Exemptions from the Duties on Drafts or Orders.—All drafts or orders for the payment of money to the bearer on demand, drawn upon any banker or bankers, exempt from stamp duty at the date of the act 17 and 18 Victoria, chap. 59. These are drafts on bankers who shall reside or transact the business of a banker within the distance of 15 miles of the places where such drafts or orders shall be issued, and not direct the payment to be made by bills or promissory notes. In reference to this exemption, the Act 17 and 18 Vict., chap. 83, sec. 7, provides that they shall not be remitted or sent to any place beyond fifteen miles in a direct line from the bank or place at which the same are made payable or be received in payment, or as a security, or be otherwise negotiated or circulated at any place beyond that distance. Penalty on persons sending or receiving such drafts, £50. Section 8th provides, that unstamped drafts, received within 15 miles, on the adhesive stamp being affixed and cancelled, may be received and negotiated beyond that distance.

INLAND BILL, DRAFT, OR ORDER for the payment of any sum of money, though not made payable to the bearer, or to order, if the same shall be delivered to the payee, or some person on his or her behalf, the same duty as on a bill of exchange for the like sum, payable to bearer or order.

INLAND BILL, DRAFT, OR ORDER for the payment of any sum of money weekly, monthly, or at any other stated periods, if made payable to the bearer, or to order, or if delivered to the payee, or some person on his or her behalf, where the total amount of the money thereby made payable shall be specified therein, or can be ascertained therefrom, or shall be indefinite, the same duty as on a bill payable to bearer or order on demand.

PROMISSORY NOTE for the payment of any sum of money by instalments, or for the payment of several sums of money at different days or times, so that the whole of the money to be paid shall be definite and certain, the same duty as on a promissory note, payable otherwise than to the bearer on demand, for a sum equal to the whole amount of the money to be paid.

N.B.—The duties on Foreign Bills drawn out of the United Kingdom, are to be denoted by adhesive stamps. The amount of duty on adhesive stamps is impressed on two parts. The Board of Inland Revenue recommend that the cancellation should be one of the parts, and the other left legible.

If a Foreign Bill payable abroad, and as to which the provision "drawn in sets of three or more" apply, shall be drawn in a single bill, the duty will be the same as on an Inland Bill, and if in a set of two, the duty on each will be the same as on an Inland Bill. This is in accordance with the opinion of the Board of Inland Revenue. But the Board have given an opinion that a Foreign Bill drawn abroad and payable in this country in duplicate or triplicate only represents one transaction, and is liable to the duty on one Inland Bill of the same amount—that is, if one of the parts have the full duty, the others may be unstamped. The schedule of the act does not provide for such a Bill being drawn in sets. Bills bearing to be drawn out of the United Kingdom are to be deemed Foreign Bills so drawn, although they may in reality be drawn in the United Kingdom, 17 and 18 Vict. c. 83, § 4. A person in the United Kingdom drawing and issuing a Bill payable out of United Kingdom in a set, must draw the whole set, and a person transferring or negotiating such Bill must transfer and deliver, stamped, the whole number of the set. Penalty £100. A person taking such bill must get the whole set, stamped, or otherwise he cannot recover on it or make it available, ib. § 6. This applies only to bills drawn within and payable out of the United Kingdom.

FOREIGN BILLS OF EXCHANGE, drawn in but payable out of United Kingdom, when drawn single same as Inland Bills.

POSTAGE STAMPS.

Every Postmaster and Letter Receiver is required to have on hand a sufficient stock of postage labels and penny stamped envelopes, and to sell them to the public at the following prices:

Stamped Labels.

Penny Labels,	1d each	Fourpenny Labels	4d each
Twopenny do.	2d each	Sixpenny do.	6d each

Shilling Labels.....1s each.

Stamped Penny Envelopes.

12 to be sold for	1s 1½d	6 to be sold for	0s 6¾d
8 do.	0s 9d	4 do.	0s 4½d
2 do.	0s 2¼d	1 do.	0s 1¼d

Two kinds of stamped envelopes are now issued; one with a thread passing through the stamp, and the other without any thread, but made with thicker and better paper. Every person can have the kind he prefers.

Every Rural Messenger is authorized to sell postage labels and stamped envelopes at the same price at which Postmasters are empowered to sell them, and when any person applies to him for such labels the messenger must either supply them, or (if he have none in his possession) he must, without extra charge, receive the postage in money, and, on his arrival at the Post Office obtain stamps for it and affix them carefully to the letters.

Prepayment of inland letters, &c., must be by stamps.* Letters to the colonies and foreign countries may be prepaid in money. Except in the case of Letters posted in Malta, Gibraltar, Constantinople, the British Colonies in the West Indies under the control of the Postmaster General, and by sailors in Her Majesty's service, British postage stamps are not available for the payment of letters, &c., coming into this country.

* Prepayment in stamps must always be made by affixing outside the letter, etc. before it is posted, and number of stamps equal in value to the amount of postage.

When adhesive stamps are used they should be examined to see that they firmly adhere*, since they fall off, the Letters &c. will be charged with postage, which in the case of inland letters, is double the prepaid rate. To some places abroad also, double prepaid rate is chargeable in such cases; and in other instances the letters &c., are liable to be detained for the deficient postage. The stamps should be placed on the front of the letter, and upon the right-hand corner of the upper side.

Arrangements have been made by which paper and envelopes taken by the public to the Office of Inland Revenue, Somerset House, can be impressed with postage stamps, under the following regulations :—

When the stamps required do not amount to £10 worth, one shilling is charged, in addition to the postage stamps, for each distinct size of paper.

When the stamps amount to £10 worth no fee is charged provided one size of paper only be sent.

When the stamps amount to £20 worth no fee is charged, provided not more than two sizes of paper be sent.

When the stamps amount to £30 no fee is charged, provided not more than three sizes of paper be sent.

When the stamps amount to £40 no fee is charged, provided four sizes of paper only be sent, and no more than four sizes can be received on a single warrant.

No folded envelopes can be stamped, and therefore, paper whether intended for envelopes or letters, must be sent unfolded and without being creased.

* In the opinion of the practical officers of the department the best mode of affixing postage stamps to letters is first slightly to damp the corner of the envelope and then to apply the stamp, quite dry, gently pressing it upon the paper until it is firmly fixed, and removing any excess of moisture with blotting paper or any other absorbent. Stamps should never be immersed in water, as by this means the gum is frequently removed before they are applied. By the use of envelopes bearing an embossed stamp (which can be purchased at any Post Office) all risk of stamp being detached may be avoided.

Every distinct size and form of envelope or paper must be marked so as to indicate the place on which the stamp is to be impressed, in order that it may appear in the proper position, according to the rules of the Post Office, when the envelope or letter is folded and made up.

No coloured paper can be received for stamping nor any paper which is too thin to bear the impression of the dies.

Envelopes provided by the office of Inland Revenue, with the proper stamp thereon, will be substituted for any of those sent in which may be spoiled in the operation of stamping.

The warrants (or requisition forms) used in applying for paper to be stamped are obtainable on application at the office of Inland Revenue, Somerset House.

REGISTRATION.

By the prepayment of a fee of sixpence* any letter, newspaper, book, or other packet on which the postage has been prepaid in stamps, may be registered to any place within the United Kingdom. To foreign countries letters only can be registered. The registration of a packet makes its transmission more secure by rendering it practicable to trace it, when inland, from its receipt to its delivery; and when colonial, if not to its delivery, at least to the port of despatch. The Post Office does not guarantee the safe delivery of the letter, &c., though the officers are of course responsible to the Postmaster-General, who will call to strict account any one neglecting his duty on this point, and, if his Lordship think proper, will require him to make good any loss that may be sustained thereby.

The postage and registration fee of registered letters must be prepaid; and if the letter be inland, such prepayment must be by stamps.

Every letter to be registered should be presented at the window, and a receipt obtained for it, and must on no account be dropped into the letter-box. If, contrary to this rule, a letter marked "Registered" be dropped into the letter-box, it will, if directed to any place in the United Kingdom, be liable to a registration fee of one shilling, instead of the ordinary fee of sixpence. No letter Carrier or Rural Messenger is required to take letters from the public for the purpose of registering them.

*This fee, in the case of a letter addressed to a place abroad, may be paid either in money or stamps; but in all other cases it must be paid in stamps.

RATES OF POSTAGE AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

*Inland Letters.

The rate of postage on all inland letters is regulated by weight, irrespective of distance, and, with the exception afterwards mentioned) is as follows :—

PREPAID LETTERS.

If Paid in Advance—

Letter weighing	not more than ½ oz.†	... ...	1d
— —	more than ½ oz., but not exceeding	1 oz.	2d
— —	more than 1 oz., — —	2 oz.	4d
— —	more than 2 oz., — —	3 oz.	6d

and so on; twopence being charged for every additional ounce.

UNPAID LETTERS.

As a general rule, the postages, if not paid in advance, is double the foregoing; and if the payment in advance be insufficient, double the deficiency is charged. An inland letter, for example, weighing more than half an ounce, and not exceeding one ounce, if bearing a penny stamp only, is, on delivery, charged twopence. The unpaid additional postage, on re-directed letters, however, is not doubled, being the same as if such postage were prepaid. Unless three-quarters, at least, of the postage of a letter weighing more than 4 oz. be prepaid, the letter is not forwarded, but a notice of its detention is forwarded to the sender, or failing him to the person to whom it is addressed.

Parliamentary Proceedings.

Printed proceedings of the Imperial Parliament sent without covers, or in covers open at the ends, may circulate within the United Kingdom at the following rates or postage :—

Weighing	not more than 4 oz - - - - - - -		1d
„	more than 4 oz but not exceeding	8 oz	2d
„	more than 8 oz - - - - - -	12 oz	3d
„	more than 12 oz - - - - - -	16 oz	4d

and so on; one penny being charged for every additional quarter of a pound or fractionof a quarter of a pound.

*Inland letters are those which pass between places in the United Kingdom, including the Isle of Man, Orkney, Shetland, Scilly, and Channel Islands.

†If the weight be exceeded to the smallest extent, even though the balance be merely turned, the letter becomes liable to a higher postage. The same rule applies to letters going abroad To provide therefore for errors in scales, etc., it is well to allow a little margin, or to pay the Postage of the next greater weight.

The words Parliamentary Proceedings must be written or printed on the cover of the packet, otherwise it will be liable to the letter-rate of postage.

Prepayment, when the circulation is within the United Kingdom, is optional; and if it be made in part, the simple difference only is charged.

Parliamentary proceedings may be sent, under the Book Post privilege, to all the Colonies, and to those Foreign States between which and this country there is a book post.

Inland Book Post, &c.

Including Newspapers and other periodical publications, and also Parliamentary proceedings for which the foregoing special privileges are not claimed.

The following are the regulations of the Inland Book Post:—

Weighing not more than 4 oz*	- - - - - - -	1d
„ more than 4 oz and not exceeding 8 oz		2d
„ more than 8 oz	- - - - - 16 oz	4d
„ more than 1 lb	- - - - - $1\frac{1}{2}$ lb	6d

and so on, 2d being charged for every additional half pound or fraction of a half pound.

The postage must be prepaid in full, by means of postage stamps affixed outside the packet or its cover.

Every packet must be sent either without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sides; so as to admit of the enclosure being removed for examination. For the greater security of its contents, the packet may be tied at the ends with string; but in such case the Postmaster is authorised to cut the string, although he is required to refasten the packet.

A book-packet may contain any number of separate books and other publications (including printed letters and printed matter of every kind), prints or maps, and any quantity of paper, parchment, or vellum. And the books or other

* If the weight be exceeded to the smallest extent, even though the balance be merely turned, the book or printed paper becomes liable to a higher postage. To provide therefore for errors in scales, &c., it is well to allow a little margin, or to pay the postage of the next greater weight. It should be remembered that a newspaper when wet weighs more than when dry. Forgetfulness on this point sometimes causes groundless complaints about charges for newspapers—the Complainant having erroneously supposed on weighing the newspaper on its arrival and when it had time to dry that he had been overcharged. The foregoing observations apply also to books, etc., going abroad.

publications, prints, maps, &c. may be either printed, written, or plain, or any mixture of the three. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, &c., or of a portion thereof, will be allowed, whether such binding, &c., be loose or attached; as also rollers, in the case of prints or maps; markers (whether of paper or other), in the case of books; and in short, whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of literary or artistic matter, or usually appertains thereto; but no patterns, or books of patterns, (unless these consist merely of paper) can be allowed.

No book packet may contain any thing which is sealed or otherwise closed against inspection; nor must there be any letter, nor any communication of the nature of a letter, whether seperate or otherwise, unless the whole of such letter, or communication be printed. Entries, however, merely stating who sends the book, &c., or to whom it is given, are not regarded as a letter. The name and address of the sender, not only is the writing permitted but recommended; so that if the cover come off or for any other reason the packet cannot be forwarded, it may be returned.

No book packet must exceed two feet in length, width, or depth; and if any such packet be presented at a post office it will not be received.

Any packet which shall not be open at the ends or sides, or shall have any written letter or any communication of thenature of a letter written in it, or upon its cover, will be charged with the "unpaid" letter postage.

If a packet be found to contain any written letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other unauthorized enclosure, the letter or enclosure will be taken out and forwarded to the address on the packet, charged with the full postage, as an unpaid letter, together with an additional rate; and the remainder of the packet, if duly prepaid with stamps, will then be forwarded to its address.

If a packet be not sufficiently prepaid with stamps, but nevertheless bear a stamp of the value of one rate, it is forwarded, charged with the deficient book-postage together with an additional rate; but any packet which bears no postage stamp, is charged with the "unpaid" letter postage.

In every case in which the postage chargeable under these regulations is greater than the letter rate, the latter postage is substituted.

COLONIAL BOOK POST.

At the following rates, and on the same conditions as the foregoing (except that no packet weighing more than three pounds can be sent to the East Indies or to New South Wales, and that no book packet can be sent to any other part of the Cape Colony than Cape Town), book packets can be forwarded to every British Colony, to Liberia, and to other parts of the West Coast of Africa :—

To India, Ceylon, New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania, (Van Dieman's Land), South Australia, Western Australia, New Zealand, Mauritius, and Hong Kong, the rate is as follows :—

	via Southampton,	via Marseilles.
Weighing not more than 4 oz. - - - - - - - - - -	4d	— 6d
,, more than 4 oz. but not exceeding 8 oz.	8d	— 1s
,, ,, 8 oz. ,, ,, 1 lb.	1s 4d	— 2s
,, ,, 1 lb. ,, ,, 1½ lb.	2s	— 3s
,, ,, 1½ lb. ,, ,, 2 lb.	2s 8d	— 4s and so on ; two rates being charged for every additional half-pound or fraction of a halfpound.

Book packets are forwarded to every other British Colony, to the Argentine Republic, Hayti, Liberia, and other parts of the West Coast of Africa at the following rates, viz :—

Weighing not more than 4 oz. - - - - - - - - - - - -	3d
,, more than 4 oz. but not exceeding 8 oz. - - -	6d
,, ,, 8 oz. ,, ,, 1 lb. - -	1s 0d
,, ,, 1 lb. ,, ,, 1½ lb. - -	1s 6d
,, ,, 1½ lb. ,, ,, 2 lbs. - -	2s 0d

and so on; 6d being charged for every additional half-pound or fraction of a half-pound.

The Head Postmaster who first receives a book packet is required, whenever he has ground for suspecting an infringement of any of the above conditions, and occasionally, even when there is no ground for suspicion, to open and examine the packet; and every book packet which is not open at the ends or sides, or which has any written letter or any communication of the nature of a letter written in it or upon its cover or which does not bear postage stamps, equal to a single book-rate, is ordered to be sent up, with as little delay as possible, to the Returned Letter Branch of the Circulation Office in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, as the case may be; but in the case of any other infringement of the regulation, the packet is dealt with by the Postmaster himself, in accordance with the above regulations.

To prevent obstacles to the regular transmission of letters, any Head Postmaster may, when necessary, delay forwarding a book packet for a period not exceeding twenty-four hours beyond the ordinary time; and at Post Offices the delay may, at the option of the Postmaster, be either for that period, or until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the book packet ought otherwise to be forwarded.

It must be borne in mind that the main business of the Post Office is the transmission of letters, and that the forwarding of books and newspapers (which no one is compelled to send through the Post Office) though an important is only a secondary object, for which no arrangement can be made which would interfere with the quick and regular conveyance and delivery of letters. Books therefore, which would be injured by being thrust into a bag and hurriedly pressed down like a bundle of letters should not be sent through the post.

NEWSPAPERS AND OTHER PERIODICAL PUBLICATIONS BEARING THE NEWSPAPER STAMP.—CIRCULATED INLAND.

Although provision is made for forwarding newspapers, books, and money through the post, it is not compulsory on any one to employ this mode of transmission; everything except letters may be sent in any other way.

All periodical publications, including newspapers, published in the United Kingdom, at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days, and which bear an impressed stamp or stamps denoting the stamp duty (of the kind formerly confined chiefly to newspapers), may be transmitted and re-transmitted through the post within the United Kingdom free of postage under the following regulations, viz. :—

Ist. They are subject to the same restrictions with regard to the number of sheets and superficial extent as were formerly applicable only to newspapers properly so called. These restrictions are shown in the following Table :—

Amount of Stamps impressed on the Publication.	Maximum Number of Sheets.	Maximum Superficial Extent of Letter-press on One Side.
One Penny - - -	Two - - - - - -	2.295 inches.
Three Halfpence, - -	Three - - - - - -	3,443 ,,
Two Pence, - - -	Four - - - - - -	4.591 ,,

2nd. No publication, or portion thereof, can pass through the post unless the impressed stamp which it bears be a stamp of the value at least of one penny.

3d. The title and date of the publication must be printed at the top of every page.

4th. The publication must be folded in such a manner that the whole of the stamp or stamps, denoting the full duty shall be exposed to view, and be distinctly visible on the outside; except that where there are more than two publications in the same cover it will be considered sufficient if the stamps be so arranged that they can readily be examined.

5th. It must not be printed on pasteboard or cardboard, or on two or more thicknesses of paper pasted together; nor must any pasteboard, cardboard, or such pasted paper be sent with it as a back or cover thereto, or otherwise.

6th. It must be posted within fifteen days from the printed date of issue.

7th. It must have either no cover or a cover open at the ends.

8th. It must not contain any enclosure.

9th. It must have no writing or other mark thereon, but the name and address of the person to whom it is sent; nor anything on the cover but such name and address, the printed title of the publication, and the printed name and address of the publisher or vendor who sends it. Thus if a newspaper, franked by a newspaper stamp, after having had the address of one person written upon the paper itself, be sent to another person, the first address must be cut off (obliteration not being sufficient), otherwise the paper will be charged as an unpaid letter.

10th. If the publication be addressed to any person within the free delivery of the place where it is posted, it will become liable to a postage of one penny, which must be prepaid by affixing a postage stamp.

11th. When a newspaper, &c., is so folded as not to expose the stamp or stamps, a postage of one penny is charged in addition to any other postage to which the publication, if properly folded, would be liable. If the newspaper, &c. be addressed to any person within the free delivery of the place where it is posted, and do not bear a penny postage label, it is liable to a further charge of 2d.

12th. In case of any other irregularity the publication is dealt with as an unpaid letter.

13th. It is suggested that every publication should have a notice to purchasers conspicuously printed, pointing out the necessity of exposing the stamp or stamps to view whenever the publication is sent through the post.

14th. Stamped publications can also be forwarded under the regulations of the Book Post; but when so sent the impressed stamp does not count as any part of the postage.

Newspapers Sent Abroad.

Newspapers sent abroad are liable to the same regulations as newspapers passing (under the newspaper privilege) between different parts of the United Kingdom, except as regards size, and except that, before going abroad, the name of the newspaper must have been registered at the General Post Office, and that, instead of requiring to have an impressed stamp (by which is meant the stamp specially used for newspapers), each newspaper, if sent to a foreign country, is liable to the postage entered in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage, and if sent to a British Colony, to a postage of 1d, with an addition (as shown in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage) when the newspaper has to pass through a foreign country; this additional postage being also payable stamps *in stamps only. In all cases of newspapers going abroad the impressed stamp stands for nothing. Publications registered for transmission abroad, although not strictly newspapers, are in all respects treated as such, so far as their transmission by the British office is concerned.

Newspapers for Russia.

According to information which has been officially communicated, it is forbidden to introduce into Russia, through the post, political newspapers, in covers open at the ends or sides; and the only means, therefore, by which persons residing in Russia can obtain newspapers from the United Kingdom is by subscribing for them at one of the Russian Post Offices. The admission also into Russia of newspapers not of a political character, is permitted only in those cases where they are addressed to the house of some established bookseller. Printed prices current, however, as well as printed circulars, in covers open at the ends or sides, are allowed to be addressed to any persons residing in Russia. In all cases where the above-mentioned printed papers are allowed to circulate by the post, they are chargeable in Russia, with a foreign rate of postage, in addition to the rate chargeable on their being posted in this country.

* Newspapers posted unpaid are retained at the Returned Letter Office for one week; and then, if the postage still remain unpaid, are destroyed

MONEY ORDERS.

The public are recommended, when applying for Money Orders, to use printed "Application Forms," which save time, and afford greater security, than verbal messages, against mistakes. These Forms are sold by Postmasters at the rate of ten for one penny, or of five or any smaller number for a halfpenny.

The commission on an inland Money Order not exceeding £2 is threepence, and on one above £2 it is sixpence; no order being granted for more than £5. The commission on Money Orders to Canada is fourfold these sums.

No order is allowed to contain a fractional part of a penny.

With the subjoined exceptions, no Money Order can be issued unless the applicant furnish, in full, the surname and at least the initial of one Christian name, both of the remitter (the person who sends the order) and the payee (the person to whom the money is to be paid,) together with the remitter's address:—

1st. If the remitter or payee be a peer or a bishop, his ordinary title is sufficient; and if a firm, the usual designation of such firm will suffice*, except a company trading under a title which does not consist of the names of the persons composing it, as the "Carron Company" to which kind of company the above privilege does not extend.

2d. When the remitter notifies in writing that the order is to be paid through a bank, it is left to his option to give or withhold the name of the payee; and he may, if he wish it, substitute for the name of the payee any other designation or any modification of the name, as for example:—"The Cashier of the Bank of England,"—"The Chief Clerk of the Foreign Office,"—"The Publisher of the Times,"—"Messrs Longman & Co."

When application is made for a Money Order payable in London, or at any other town where there is more than one Money Order Office, the remitter should say at which of such offices he wishes it to be paid, otherwise the order can be cashed at the Head Office done.

An order once issued cannot be cancelled; and should repayment or transfer to a different office or alteration of name be required, the remitter must apply to the Metropolitan Office.

When an order is presented for payment (otherwise than through a bank) the Postmaster has first to see that the signature of the payee be as full as the name given in the advice, and be not in any way inconsistent therewith. He has then to call on the applicant to give the name of the remitter, and if the reply be correct, the order will be paid, unless the Postmaster have good reason for believing that the applicant for payment is neither the rightful claimant, nor deputed by him. When an order is paid through a bank it is sufficient that it be receipted (without regard to any discrepancy between the signature and the name in the advice, or to whether the receipt is given by the payee himself or by another person), and that it be presented (crossed with the name of the receiving bank) by some person known tobe in the employment of the bank.

The holder of a Money Order is always at liberty to direct, by crossing it, that the order be paid through a bank, even though its payment was not originally so restricted, and when the order is thus crossed, the question put on the presentation of an ordinary Money Order is dispensed with.

Money Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the nonpayment of a Money Order at the expected time; and after once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the Office is not liable to any further claim. The Public are therefore strictly cautioned—

1st. To guard against the loss of the Money Order.

2d. Never to send the money order in the same letter with the information required on payment thereof.

3d. To be careful on applying for a money order to state correctly the surname and at least the initial of the Christian name of the person in whose favour it is to be drawn.

4th. To see that the name of the person taking out the order is correctly known to the person in whose favour it is drawn.

Under no circumstances can payment of an order be demanded on the day of issue.

In case of the miscarriage or loss of a money order, a duplicate is granted on a written application (with the necessary particulars) to the Controller of the Money Order Office of the kingdom where the original order was issued; and by a similar application to the same officer, who (except as regards a temporary power to stop payment) can alone act in such cases, authority can be obtained to transfer the payment of an order from one office to another, or to stop payment, or to correct any error in the name of the remitter or payee,* or to repay the money to the remitter. Every such application, however, must contain, in postage stamps, a second commission (namely, threepence for an order not exceeding £2, and sixpence for an order above that sum), though one commission will suffice even when, in the same application, more things than one, relating to the same order, are asked for; as both an alteration in the name of the payee and payment at another office. Unless a sufficient resaon be given for an exception, the application must be either from the remitter or payee. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the necessity for an application entailing the payment of a fresh commission is attributable to the Post Office, the stamps transmitted in payment of the commission will be returned; and when it can be ascertained where the blame lies, the officer in fault will be required to pay the additional commission.

No Letter-carrier or other servant of the Post Office is bound to procure a Money Order for any person, or to obtain payment for one; but such services are not forbidden.

Money Orders are issued and paid at the Chief Offices in London, Dublin, and Edinburgh daily, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m., except on Saturdays, when the hours of business are from 10 a.m. till 1 p.m. Orders are issued and paid at most provincial Offices from 9 in the morning till 6 in the evening, and the time is never less than from 10 till 4.

The Deputy Postmasters General of Malta and Gibraltar are authorized to issue Money Orders on the several Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom and Canada; but no orders can be drawn upon Malta and Gibraltar.

Money Orders are issued at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and at Malta and Gibraltar, on Money Order Offiecs in Canada, and by the Canadian Offices on any Money Order Office in the United Kingdom, at the charge of 1s for any sum not exceeding £2, and 2s for any sum above £2 and not exceeding £5, beyond which amount no Order can be granted.

* In the case of orders granted and payable, the issuing Postmasters have power to effect alterations in the names of Payees or Remitters on the personal application of the Remitter, and the payment by him of a second commission in postage stamps.

The issue of Money Orders under the above arrangement is in all other respects on the same conditions as regulate their issue by one Office on another in the United Kingdom, except that in consequence of the distance between the United Kingdom and Canada, an interval of four instead of two months is allowed after the issue of an Order in one country payable in the other before such Order becomes lapsed.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS.

With the following exceptions, no letter, &c., can be forwarded by the post which is more than two feet in length, breadth, or depth; nor any unpaid packet which weighs more than four ounces, unless three quarters of the postage have been paid. The exceptions are:—

1st. Packets to or from places abroad.

2nd. Packets to or from any of the Government Offices or department or Public Officers.

3d. Petitions or addresses to the Queen, whether directed to Her Majesty, or forwarded to any member of either House of Parliament.

4th. Petitions to either House of Parliament, forwarded to any member of either House.

5th. Printed Parliamentary proceedings.

No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a Post Office* except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public.

Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon; as every letter must be delivered to the person to whom it is directed, and to him alone.

Late letters, &c.† are received till within five minutes of the

*The term "Post Office" applies to all Post Offices, whether Head Office Sub-Office, or Receiving Office, A "Head Office" is an office subordinate only to a Metropolitan Office. Both Sub-Offices and Receiving Offices are under Head Offices: but at Receiving Offices letters are received only not delivered.

† The term "Letters, &c.," is meant to include everything sent by the the post, whether letters, newspapers, books, or aught else. "Late letters" are such as are posted after the ordinary time, and which cannot therefore be sent forward by the mail then in preparation, unless extra payment be made.

despatch of the mails, except where the Surveyor may deem a longer interval necessary, and excepting that no office is to be kept open merely for this purpose after ten o'clock at night.

No late letters (except Government letters) are forwarded by the mail preparing for despatch unless prepaid, and that in stamps, so as to include both the ordinary postage and the late-letter fee; but in the case of Government Letters it is sufficient to prepay the fee.

Newspapers and books, &c., received from abroad and reposted to any other place abroad with which there is no Book Post, are chargeable with Letter postage.

A registered letter when re-directed is not subject to a greater additional charge than an ordinary letter.

Postmasters are not bound to re-direct letters for inhabitants of the same postal district unless their places of abode should be left uninhabited or they have a private bag or a private box; and unless, in addition, a written application be received by the Postmaster from the person to whom the letters are addressed, requesting that they may be re-directed.

During the time the office is open on Sunday (viz. from 8 to 9 in the morning) the public are allowed to prepay foreign and colonial letters, to purchase postage stamps, and to have letters registered; and all other duties are performed as usual, except the issue and payment of Money Orders, which, on that day, are wholly suspended.

No postmaster is bound to give change, or is authorised to demand change; and when money is paid at a Post Office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

Except as regards foreign and colonial letters about to be prepaid in money, a Postmaster is not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public, though he may do so if his duty be not thereby impeded.

Postmasters are instructed not to receive any letter, &c. which there is good reason to believe contains anything likely to injure the contents of the mail bag or the person of any officer of the Post Office. If such a letter &c., be posted without the Postmaster's knowledge, or if at any time before its despatch he should discover any letter, &c., of the above description, he is directed not to forward it, but to report the case, with the address of the Letter, &c., to the Secretary.

Local Postal Guides, price one penny, containing information special to the locality, are issued at the Post Offices at Birmingham, Belfast, Bristol, Cork, Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Greenock, Leeds, Liverpool, Manchaster, and Sheffield.

Provision having been made by means of the British Postal Guide (with local Postal Guides in large towns.) to supply full and authentic information on all postal matters which concern the public at large, it is requested that persons will abstain, as much as possinle, from applying for such information to Postmasters and other officers of the Department. When information of any kind is asked for verbally the Department does not hold itself at all responsible for alleged errors in the reply.

Metropolitan clerks are both nominated and appointed by the Postmaster-General, but provincial clerks are nominated by the respective provincial postmasters. At the time of nomination every candidate either for a metropolitan or a provincial clerkship must be under 24 years of age, but not under 17. He must furnish a certificate of birth, the names and addresses of two referees to testify to his character, and a statement signed by himself and by a duly qualified medical man, showing that he has a sound constitution, and is in the enjoyment of good health. If nominated to a metropolitan office (or to a provincial office to which a medical officer is attached,) the candidate will afterwards be personally inspected by a medical officer of the department. The candidate is then examined by the Civil Service Commissioners; the examination being generally confined to penmanship, orthography, aud arithmetic, but extending in certain branches of the metropolitan offices to a wider range; and being in those offices competitive. If the candidate succed in passing this examination, he is then placed on probation for six months; at the end of whcih time if he be found duly qualified, his appointment is confirmed.

Metropolitan letter carriers are nominated and appointed by the Postmaster-General. Every candidate for the situation of letter carrier in London must be under 21 years of age, and not under 18; but in Edinburgh and Dublin it is sufficient if he be under 24, and not under 17. No one is appointed who is under 5ft. 3in. in height. On nomination the candidate must, like the candidate for a clerkship furnish a certificate of birth, the names and addresses of two referees to testify to his character, and a statement, signed by himself, and by a duly qualified medical man, showing, that he has a sound constitution and is then in the enjoyment of good health. He has subsequently to be inspected by the medical officer, and to pass an examination by the Civil Service Commissioners in reading, writing, and the first two rules of arithmetic; he has afterwards to undergo a probation of six months, and if he be then found qualified his appointment is confirmed.

Postmasters appoint their own letter carriers, and rural and other messengers whose wages are less than 10s a week, in England, or 8s a week, in Scotland and Ireland; but the Postmaster-General appoints rural post messengers whose weekly wager are 10s and upwards.

Persons nominated to those of the above situations to which wages 10s a week in England or 8s a week in Scotland and Ireland, or upwards, are attched, are required to pass an examination under the direction of the Civil Service Commissioners, and to obtain a certificate of qualification, before they can receive a probationary appointment.

For the appointment of letter carrier, the candidate must be under 24 years of age, but not under 17. In all other respects the qualifications for a a provincial letter carrier are the same as those for a metropolitan letter carrier.

For the office of rural messenger also candidates are not eligible unless they be under 24 years of age but not under 17; though the age is extended to 40 when the candidate is, for any previous service, whether civil or militaty, in the receipt of a pension from the Crown. Candidates must in all cases show that they are in good health, that they are able to write their own names and addresses, to read with ease the addresses of letters, and to add a few figures together; and they must not be under 5 feet 3 inches in height.

For the appointments of Postmasters' assistants, auxiliary sorters, and auxiliary letter carriers, also of letter carriers, and rural messengers receiving wages of less than 10s a week in England, and 8s a week in Scotland and Ireland, (including those who are employed by Postmasters on rural deliveries, &c. for which allowances of 5s a week in England, and 3s 6d a week in Scotland and Ireland, or upwards, are paid for providing for the duties,) Postmasters are not, however restricted to selecting persons within the above limits of age, or who may be able to pass a Civil Service examination. If candidates for these appointments be within the limits of age (17 and 24), and are prepared to undergo the necessary Civil Service examination, they are on obtaining the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners placed on the establishment of the department, and become eligible for promotion to superior appointments. All such candidates are inspected by a medical officer of the department, if there be one attached to the office to which they are nominated. The qualifications for assistants are the same as those for clerks, and the qualifications for auxiliary sorters the same as those for letter carriers. But those candidates who are beyond the limits of age, or who are not qualified to pass the examination, are not placed on the establishment of the department, and they are not eligible for promotion. And in order to avoid any mistake, they are required to state in writing that they clearly understand the terms upon which their services are engaged. The approval of the District Surveyor has to be obtained for the employment of such persons, and they cannot be removed without his sanction.

SUGGESTIONS TO THE PUBLIC.

Facility is given to the Post Office in the discharge of its daily duties, and greater security afforded to the Public, by careful attention to the following recommendations:—

1st. To post all letters, &c., as early as practicable; especially when sent in large numbers, as is frequently the case with newspapers and circulars. The trouble of the office is much diminished if circulars, before being posted, be tied in bundles with the addresses all in one direction.

2nd. To see that when several letters are sent by the same person for registration they be accompanied with a list (in duplicate) of the addresses; one list to be retained at the Post Office, and the other, when signed, to be returned by the bearer. This practice (which is adopted by many bankers) saves time both to the public and to the department.

3d. To make the address legible and complete, giving the name of the post town, and if there be more than one town in the kingdom of that name, or if the post town be not well known, adding the name of the county. Letters posted in one part of the United Kingdom and intended for another part (as, for example, letters posted in England and intended for Scotland) should have the name of the country to which they are sent added to the other part of the address. The number of the house, too, if in a street, is a great assistance. It must not be supposed that because a letter will eventually reach its destination without a number, the omission is not a cause of hesitation and delay in the process of sorting and delivery; and when such small delays occur again and again they tend greatly to retard the general distribution. In the case of letters for places abroad the name of the country as well as the town or city should be given in full. Attention to this latter precaution will often assist in deciphering the name of the town or city, and will prevent the letter from being mis-sent when there are towns of the same name in different countries: For example—a letter intended for London in Western Canada, North America, but simply addressed "London, W.C.," would be forwarded to the West Central District of the Metropolis in England, and thus be delayed.

4th. To see that every letter, newspaper, or other packet sent by post is securely folded and sealed. It should be remembered that every such packet has to be several times handled, and that even when in the mail bag it is exposed to pressure and friction. Unless, therefore, the article be light and pliant it should be enclosed in strong paper, linen parchment, or some other material which will not readily tear or break. The observance of this precaution is especially necessary whenever any fragile articles of value are forwarded by post. These should always be enclosed in a wooden or tin box. Owing to neglect of these precautions many postal packets burst open, causing much trouble to the department and risk to the owners, it being sometimes impossible to determine to what packet a particular article belongs.

5th. To fasten the covers of newspapers firmly so as to prevent them slipping out. When, for additional security, the address is written on the newspaper itself, such address (if the newspaper be franked by an impressed stamp) must, in case of re-transmission, be cut off; otherwise the newspapers will become subject to letter postage. It is not sufficient that the old address be obliterated, as the rules forbid writing or marks of any kind in addition to the true address. If, however, the newspaper be franked by a postage label, it is not necessary to cut off the address, since, in such cases, writing, not of the nature of a letter, is permitted.

6th. In affixing stamps, to wet slightly the corner of the envelope and the gummed side of the stamp, and then gently to press the stamp till it is firmly fixed. The practice of dipping the stamp in water is objectionable, because, unless the stamp be immediately withdrawn, and care be taken by the use of blotting paper, or some other absorbent to remove any excess of moisture, the gum may be washed off, or the stamp may be rubbed off the letter. By the use of envelopes bearing an embossed stamp (which can be purchased at any Post Office) all risk of the stamp being detached may be avoided.

7th. When dropping a letter, newspaper, &c., into a letter-box always to see that the packet falls into the box and does not stick in its passage.

8th. Never to send money or any other article of value through the post, except either by means of a money order or in a registered letter. Any person who sends money or jewellery in an unregistered letter, not only runs a risk of losing his property, but exposes to temptation every one through whose hands his letter passes, and may be the means of ultimately bringing some clerk or letter-carrier to moral ruin. Every letter which contains money or other valuable article, even when registered, ought to be securely sealed.

9th. To provide a letter-box.

10th. In case of removal, to furnish the particulars of the new address, in writing, either to the Secretary or to the Letter-carrier of the district.

11th. When complaint is made of letters or newspapers lost, miscarried, or delayed, to furnish information as precise as possible regarding all the facts of the case, and to enclose whatever documents may throw light upon it. The day and hour at which the letter or newspaper was posted, as well as the office at which and the person by whom this was done, should always be stated; and when possible, the cover or wrapper in an entire state should be sent in order that the place of delay may be ascertained by an examination of the stamps. Cases frequently occur in which complaint is made against the Post Office, and redress expected, although little or no means of tracing the error, and of guarding against a repitition of it, is supplied by those who alone are able to do so.

12th. To see that every letter contains the full address of the writer, in order to ensure the return of the letter if the to whom it is directed cannot be found.

Whilst trouble and loss are too often caused by the carelessness or dishonesty of some of the twenty-three thousand servants of the Post Office, yet the instances are not few in which it has been shown to the satisfaction even of the complainant that the fault attributed at first sight to the Post Office rested really in other quarters.

The publisher of one of the London papers complained of the repeated loss in the Post Office of copies of his journal addressed to persons abroad. An investigation showed that the abstraction was made by the publisher's clerk; his object apparently being to appropriate the stamps required to defray the foreign postage. In another case a general complaint having arisen as to the loss of newspapers sent to the Chief Office in St Martin's-le-Grand, the investigation led to the discovery of a regular mart held near the office, and supplied with newspapers by the private messengers employed to convey them to the post. Again, a man was detected in robbing a newsvender's cart by volunteering on its arrival at the entrance of this Office to assist the driver in posting the newspapers; instead of doing so, he walked through the hall with those intrusted to him, and upon his being stopped, three quires of a weekly paper were found in his possession.

Depredation so impudent and systematic is not likely, whoever the perpetrator may be, to remain long undiscovered; but isolated cases of theft by private hands are often brought to light, although necessarily very difficult of proof on the part of the Post Office, upon which no doubt the blame for a time rests; and it is greatly to be desired that those who have suffered loss should in the first instance, and whilst the circumstances are fresh, endeavour to ascertain with the utmost precision all particulars respecting the despatch or receipt of the letters or papers in question, and communicate that information to this Department. Indeed, generally speaking, it is only by careful inquiry into minute details that that the offender can detected, whether he be a servant of the Post Office or not.

The Post Office is a departmeut which admits of constant improvement and expansion; and the public by sending to the Post Office clear and correct information respecting faulty arrangements, may aid in the accemplishment of these objects. It is not, however, always borne in mind that changes in machinery so extensive and intricate as that of the Post Office must be made cautiously, and with much previous consideration.

The arrangements of the service, even in districts widely separated, are so much dependant upon each other, and economy of time (one of the first objects in all postal organization) requires that they should be so nicely adjusted, that no alteration can safely be made without a close examination of all its consequences, and the utmost completeness of preparation; for as on the one hand experience proves that almost every improvement made shows the way to further amendment, so on the other, it will be found that an ill-considered change, though it may give a partial advantage in one quarter, will almost invariablly lead to dislocation and confusion in others.

This, of course, involves a reference to every district or community which may be affected,—often distant from the metropolis; and entails the necessity of reports from various quarters, which must be considered, compared and in many instances tested by experiment before a safe decision can be arrived at. Even then negociations with railway companies or coach proprietors may have to be entered into, tenders invited, new contracts made, and old contracts, requiring notice of termination, got rid of, before the decision can take effect.

The proper execution of a great portion of these duties not only requires high ability, dilligence, and precision on the part of the officers intrusted with them, but is also (and it is this which more immediately concerns the public) a work of time. Hence it has frequently happened that the necessity for a change has been recognised in this Office, that investigation has been set on foot, and measures of improvement have been taken before any public demand has arisen; such demand even having been suggested by these very proceedings.

It is often assumed that a Mail conveyance, passing by or through a place, however small, ought of a matter of course to deposit the letters directed thereto; the practice being that until the mail arrives at the head post office of the district the letters in question are not separated from the other letters of the district. A slight consideration of the nature and objects of the Postal Service will show that such separation cannot be effected in any other way, unless, indeed, the Mail conveyance, even supposing it to be but a mail cart, were converted into a travelling post office, and furnished with clerks of unlimited local knowledge (which is plainly impossible), or unless every town and village in the kingdom having any correspondence with the place in question were to make up a bag for that place; in which case its Mail would contain nearly as many bags as letters.

It happens from time to time that, owing to the stream of postal communication having been diverted from the old mail road to a line of railway, or from other causes of like nature, it becomes desirable to reduce the post office of a town from the condition of a principal office to that of sub-office. This step not unfrequently gives rise to complaints; the inhabitants being under the impression that they will not in future be so well served. This is a misconception. The change is not made when it will subject the correspondence to delay; nor does it cause any withdrawal of accommodation in respect to Money Orders. It is, in fact, simply a departmental arrangement, which consists in carrying on the sorting of the letters for the new sub-office at some intermediate office, instead of sending the letters in direct bags.

Another misconception, which occasionally causes trouble and disappointment, consists in assuming that a discretionary power can be entrusted to subordinate officers to remit penalties or overcharges in special circumstances. Cases will undoubtedly occur in which strict observance of a general rule may inflict more or less injustice upon individuals, and where a dispensing power immediately at hand might furnish a remedy; but in an establishment as large and as widely spread as the Post Office there will always be many subordinate officers, some of them carrying on their duties beyond the easy reach of any supervising authority, who are not fit depositaries of such a power, affecting, as it would to a great degree, the public revenue. It therefore becomes necessary to lay down definite and precise rules from which no departure can be allowed, except under sanction of the Postmaster-General; and in the few instances in which these rules press hardly, appeal must be made to the General Post Office. It must be added, that in many instances even such appeal is necessarily fruitless, the Postmaster General being bound to a particular course by positive law.

In regard to the expense of railway conveyance, the public naturally supposes, as such conveyance is the cheapest for ordinary purposes and as the charges made for the carriage of the Mails are subject to arbitration, that it must be the cheapest for postal purposes, also; and, indeed, so cheap as to warrant the free use of the railways either as substitutes for other conveyance or for the multiplication of Mails. The fact, however, is very different. Except in certain instances where companies have entered into arrangements securing to the Post Office the use of their trains on moderate, though still highly remunerative terms, railway conveyance, with all its acknowledged advantages, has proved much more expensive than that which it has superseded.

In truth, under any modification of the law that could be made without injustice to the railway companies, the especial establishment of trains at hours unsuited to ordinary traffic (a measure often pressed upon the Postmaster General) must remain a source of very heavy expense, such as can be justified only by commensurate advantage to the public.

Interior fittings, of whatever description, to be done at the expense of the proprietor or consumer, by the party authorised by the Committee of Management.

V.—Meters may be rented or let out from the Works at the following yearly rates, viz. :—10 inch for 1s 6d.—No. 1, for 2s.—No. 2 for 4s—No. 3, for 5s—No. 4 for 6s.—No. 5, for 7s.

VII.—Every meter to be fitted up in the situation which the Manager or a person appointed by him may approve of; and it must not be removed without his sanction. VIII.—When the meter belongs to the owner, it must be tested by the Manager of the Gas Works before being fitted up.

IX.—The Committee will not be responsible to consumers for loss arising from suspension of the supply of Gas occasioned by accident to the Works, or by any other unavoidable cause, or while repairs or alterations are being made.

Greenock, 1st September, 1857.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CONSUMERS.

N.B.—During the continuance of severe frost, all meters placed in exposed situations should be wrapt round with a piece of flannel or woollen cloth to prevent the water in the meter from freezing, and in order to insure a supply of Gas.

All burners should be cleaned once every month, in order to preserve equality in the height of flame, and to prevent smoke. Argands, union, and single jets may be cleaned with a piece of strong bristle, batwings with a piece of watch spring or cut paper. When a burner becomes enlarged through length of use or frequent cleaning, it should be removed and replaced by a new one. If these instructions are not attended to, much smoke and useless expenditure of Gas will be the consequence.

In is particularly requested, that when a smell of Gas is felt, immediate notice thereof, verbally or in writing, should be left in the office at the Gas Works, 27, Crawfurd Street, Glebe; and every precaution should, in the meantime, be taken to prevent any one approaching with a light the situation where the Gas is accumulating, especially if the smell arises from a cellar or any other confined place.

Consumers are specially requested to shut the Stop-Cock before the Meter when not using Gas.

GREENOCK FELT WORK COMPANY'S PATENT

ASPHLATE FELT FOR ROOFING,

AS IMPROVED BY THE ORIGINAL INVENTOR AND PATENTEE,

And Patronised by Her Majesty's Woods and Forests, most of the Nobility, Gentry, and Agriculturists, and many Members of the Royal Agricultural Societies of England, Scotland, and Ireland.

THE PATENT ASPHLATE FELT is perfectly impervious to rain, snow, and frost, and a non-conductor of heat, and has been proved, by long and extensive experience, in all climates, to be superior to all other descriptions of Roofing, not only on its account of elasticity, lightness, economy and durability, but also because it is a perfectly weather-tight covering, and can be laid on with great facility by farm servants, or any unpractised persons.

Of the many purposes for which the Patent Ashphalte Felt has been used, the following may be mentioned:—For Roofing Churches, Houses, Cottages, Verandahs, Farm Buildings, Cattle and Sheep Sheds, and every description of Building, in lieu of slates, tiles, thatch, &c., and for lining Granaries and Stores (as rats or mice will not touch it), the inside and outside of Walls, Wooden Buildings, and for protecting Ceilings and Flooring from wet and damp, at the same time deadening sound.

For Covering Conservatories and Garden Sheds and Frames being (from its imperviousness to frost) a protective matetial for Plants, Seeds, Flowers, &c.; for Thatching Corn and Hay Ricks, making a permanent covering for many years, and thereby effecting an annual saving of straw.

The price of the Felt is only ONE PENNY per Square Foot, being considerably less than Half the Price of Slates, Tiles, Thatch, &c. There is also a very great saving in the wood work, as the Felt, from its lightness, does not require half the weight of timber that slates or tiles do, nor does it require nearly so much fall or descent; and there is a further saving in the expense of carriage and labour, in the latter particularly, as a moderate-sized house can be roofed in by the Felt in a few hours; nor is it, like slates, &c., liable to breakage. The Felt can be manufactured of any required length, by 32 inches wide

PATENT SHEATHING FELT.

For Ships' Bottoms, under Wood or Metal.

NON-CONDUCTING DRY HAIR FELT

For Covering Steam Boilers, Cylinders, Pipes, &c., which effects a Saving of Twenty-five per cent. in fuel.
