RATES OF POSTAGE, AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

INLAND LETTERS.

The prepaid rates of postage are as follows, viz.:—
For a letter not exceeding 1 oz., 1d.
" above 1 oz. but not exceeding 2 oz., 1½d.
" " 2 oz. " " 4 oz., 2d.
" " 4 oz. " " 6 oz., 2½d.
" " 6 oz. " " 8 oz., 3d.
" " 8 oz. " " 10 oz., 3½d.
" " 10 oz. " " 12 oz., 4d.

A letter exceeding the weight of 12 oz. is liable to a postage of 1d. for every ounce, beginning with the first ounce.

A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; and if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

No letter may exceed in dimensions 18×9×6 inches, unless to or from a Government office.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN LETTERS.

The rates of postage on letters to foreign countries and the colonies are entered in the Table of Foreign and Colonial Postage.

A letter posted unpaid, or paid only in part, to any country where prepayment is compulsory, is returned to the writer.

A letter posted unpaid, or insufficiently paid, to or from Australia, New Zealand, Cape Colony, or Natal, is charged 6d. in addition to the deficient postage, and for St Helena double the deficiency.

Unpaid letters to or from countries in the Postal Union are charged double the prepaid rate, and those partially prepaid with double the deficiency.

No letter for a colony or foreign country may be above 2 feet in length, or 1 foot in width or depth. Letters not specially directed by a particular route are, as a rule, forwarded by the first mail despatched.

Letters, etc., for the Argentine Republic, Brazil, Chili, and Uruguay (also Peru and Bolivia, if specially addressed), 'by Supplementary Mail via Lisbon, and posted in time for the 5.30 P.M. despatch from Edinburgh on Friday, will in due course overtake, at Lisbon, the packet despatched from Liverpool on the previous Wednesday.

Letters for Russia should have the name of the town and province added in English, French, or German.

POST CARDS.

Official post cards impressed, or private post cards embossed, with a halfpenny stamp, or reply cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp on each, are available for transmission between places in the United Kingdom.

The front (or stamped) side is for the address only. There must be nothing else written, printed, or otherwise impressed on it, nor must there be any writing or printing across the stamp. On the reverse side, any communication, whether of the nature of a letter or otherwise, may be written or printed. Nothing whatever may be attached; nor may the card be folded, cut, or otherwise altered. If any of these rules be infringed, the card will be charged 1d. on delivery if addressed to (any place in) the United Kingdom, but if for abroad such cards are not forwarded.

When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with without distinction, post cards may be kept back until the next despatch or delivery (unless paid for and posted as late letters).

No card other than one of those issued by the Government, or a private card impressed with the halfpenny stamp, will pass under a halfpenny stamp, if it bear on it a written communication of the nature of a letter (unless it be a circular letter).

The conditions under which private cards are impressed with a halfpenny stamp, can be ascertained at the Inland Revenue Office.

Inland.—Post cards are sold at the rate of 7d. and 8d. per dozen; reply cards, 7d. and 8d. per half dozen.

Foreign.—Post cards (1d., 1½d., and 2d. each) or inland post cards paid the foreign rate may be sent to any of the countries in the Postal Union.

Reply post cards for certain places abroad are issued with impressed stamp of 2d., 3d., and 4d. respectively. For countries, see Table of Foreign and Colonial Postages (page 689).

INLAND NEWSPAPERS.

For each inland newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, the postage, when prepaid, is one halfpenny; but a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate of postage than would be chargeable on a book packet of the same weight—viz. one halfpenny for every 2 oz. or part of 2 oz.

A newspaper posted unpaid, and a packet of newspapers posted either unpaid or insufficiently paid, will be treated as an unpaid or insufficiently paid book packet of the same weight.

Every newspaper or packet of newspapers must be posted either without a cover or in a cover entirely open at both ends, and in such a manner as to admit of easy removal for examination, or otherwise it will be treated as a letter.

Every newspaper must be so folded as to admit of the title being readily seen.

A newspaper, or a packet of newspapers, which contains any enclosure except the supplement or supplements belonging to it, is charged as a letter, unless the enclosure be such as might be sent at the book rate of postage, and the entire packet be sufficiently prepaid as a book packet.

A packet must not exceed 14 lbs. in weight, or exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

Any publication fulfilling the following conditions can, upon payment of an annual fee of 5s. be registered at the General Post Office to pass within the United Kingdom as a newspaper for a postage of one halfpenny. Registration for inland circulation includes registration for transmission abroad. An unregistered newspaper is liable to the book rate of postage.

The conditions are as follows:—

The publication must consist wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements.

It must be printed and published in the United Kingdom, and must be published in numbers at intervals of not more than seven days.

The full title and date of publication must be printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title and the date of publication at the top of every subsequent page; and this regulation applies to 'Tables of Contents' and 'Indices.'

A supplement must consist wholly or in great part of matter like that of a newspaper, or of advertisements, printed on a sheet or sheets, or on a piece or pieces of paper, unstitched; or wholly or in part of engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the newspaper. The supplement must in every case be published with the newspaper, and must have the title and date at the top of every page; or, if it consist of engravings, prints, or lithographs, at the top of every sheet or side.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN NEWSPAPERS.

The rates of postage to the colonies and foreign countries on newspapers registered for transmission abroad will be found in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage.

The conditions of registration for transmission abroad are the same as those for inland transmission; excepting that for foreign transmission a newspaper may be published at intervals of thirty-one days. Moreover, 'prices current' and 'market reports' (but not private price-lists or trade catalogues), are admitted to the same privileges as newspapers for foreign transmission, provided they are published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days.

Publications registered for transmission abroad must be posted within eight days from the date of publication, including that date; but if posted later, must be prepaid the book rate of postage.

The collected numbers issued during the month of a weekly or fortnightly publication are not allowed to pass as a monthly publication.

A newspaper, whether posted without or in a cover, must not be fastened so as to prevent it being easily removed for examination, and every newspaper must be so folded as to admit of the title being readily seen.

No newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, may contain any enclosure except the supplement or supplements belonging to it.

There must be no writing or other mark on a newspaper sent abroad but the name and address of the person to whom it is sent; nor anything on the cover but such name and address, the printed title of the publication, the printed name and address of the publisher or vendor who sends it, and words indicating the date on which the subscription to the newspaper will end.

No packet of newspapers must exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth. For limit of weight, see Table of Colonial and Foreign Rates.

INLAND BOOK POST.

The postage is one halfpenny for every two ounces or part thereof.

If posted unpaid, will be charged with double rate; and if partially paid, with double the deficiency.

A book packet may contain any number of separate books or other publications, photographs (when not on glass or in cases containing glass or any like substance), drawings, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, or any other substance in ordinary use for writing or printing upon; and the books or other publications, prints, maps, etc., may be either printed, written, engraved, lithographed, or plain, or any mixture of these. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, etc., or of a portion thereof, is allowed, whether such binding, etc., be loose or attached; as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise) in the case of books, pens or pencils in the case of pocket-books, etc., and, in short, whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of such articles, or usually appertains thereto; but the binding, rollers, etc., must not be sent as a separate packet; neither may it contain any letter, or communication of the nature of a letter (whether separate or otherwise), unless it be a circular letter, nor any enclosure sealed or in any way closed against inspection. (Entries, however, merely stating who sends the book, etc., or to whom it is given, are not regarded as a letter.) If this rule be infringed, the entire packet will be charged as a letter.

Circulars, i.e. letters which, from internal evidence, appear to be intended for transmission in identical terms to several persons, and the whole or the greater part of which is produced by ordinary type, engraving, or lithography, or any other mechanical process, may also be sent by book post.

Every book packet must be posted either without a cover or in a cover entirely open at both ends, and in such a manner as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination; otherwise it will be treated as a letter. It may, however, be tied with string.

No book packet may exceed 5 lbs. in weight, or 18 inches in length, 9 inches in width, and 6 inches in depth, unless to or from a Government Office.

When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with without distinction, book packets may be kept back till the next despatch or delivery.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN BOOK POST.

Articles which may be sent to places abroad under the Book Post Regulations consist of two classes, as follows:—

(a) Commercial Papers, under which are comprised all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of Legal procedure, Deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of or extracts from Deeds under private seal (and whether written or printed on stamped or unstamped paper), Way Bills, Bills of Lading, Invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of Insurance and other public Companies, all kinds of manuscript Music, the manuscript of Books and other literary works, and other papers of a similar description.

(b) Printed Papers, including periodical works, books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, sheets of music (printed), visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing (with or without the manuscript relating thereto), engravings, photographs (when not on glass or in frames containing glass), drawings, cardboard drawing, models stamped in relief (except for Russia and Sweden), plaus, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, whether printed, engraved, or lithographed, and in general all impressions or copies obtained upon paper, parchment, or cardboard by means of printing, lithographing, or any other mechanical process easy to recognise, except the copying press, and anything usually attached or appurtenant to any of the before-mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post which shall be contained in the same packet; also printed, engraved, or lithographed circulars, notwithstanding that such circulars may be letters or communications in the nature of a letter.

The two classes are subject to the same rates of postage except that when addressed to countries in the Postal Union, the minimum rate for commercial papers is higher than for printed papers. If there be any mixture of the two in the same packet, the whole packet is subject to the higher rate.

Every packet must be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise), or in a cover entirely open at both ends so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination; otherwise it is treated as a letter. For the greater security of the contents, however, it may be tied at the ends with string; Postmasters being authorised to cut the string in such cases, although if they do so they must again tie up the packet.

The limit of size and weight and rates of postage are given in the Table of Foreign and Colonial Postages.

The following information relates to Books and Photographs for the United States:—

The only Books absolutely free from Customs Duty under the United States laws are those which have been printed more than 20 years; and Pamphlets, Periodicals, and other like publications, for the personal use of the individual to whom they are addressed. Nevertheless any book valued at not more than one dollar is also considered as exempt from Customs Duty; and so are Photographs, when sent in limited numbers, for the private use of the person to whom they are addressed, or for distribution to relatives or friends.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN PATTERN AND SAMPLE POST.

There is a Pattern and Sample Post to the foreign countries and the colonies generally; but it is restricted to bonâ fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise. Goods sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually patterns or samples, can only be forwarded as letters.

No article liable to Customs Duties can be sent as a sample of pattern.

The rates of postage will be found in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postages (page 689).

Patterns or samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination. But samples of seeds, drugs, and such like articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind, may be posted enclosed in boxes or in bags, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

There must be no writing or printing upon or in any packet except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender, a trade mark or number, and the price of the articles. But a packet for a country in the Postal Union may have enclosed in it any of the articles designated as 'Commercial Papers' if the rate applicable to such be paid for the whole packet.

Samples of saleable value must not be sent to any foreign country, or to any British possession included in the Postal Union. Samples of eider down, raw or thread silk, woollen or goats' hair thread, vanilla, saffron, carmine, or isinglass, are considered to fall under this rule if they weigh more than three ounces.

Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, may be sent, provided that they be packed and guarded so as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and the officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined. Liquids, glass, anything of a greasy nature, indigo, explosives, and powders of all kinds are strictly prohibited.

The limit of weight is not the same to all countries. See Table of Colonial and Foreign Postages.

INLAND PARCEL POST.

In order that a packet may go by Parcel Post, it must be tendered for transmission as a parcel, and should bear the words 'Parcel Post' clearly written in the left-hand top corner. The name and address of the Sender should also appear on the parcel.

The size allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel is—Greatest length, 3 ft. 6 in.
Greatest length and girth combined, 6 ft. 0 in.

For example:—A parcel measuring 3 ft. 6 in. in its longest dimension, may measure as much as 2 ft. 6 in. in girth, or, if shorter, may be thicker.

The rates of postage are,—

Not exceeding 1 lb. in weight,	3d.
Exceeding 1 lb. and not exceeding 3 lbs.,	6d.
" 3 lbs. " " 5 lbs.,	9d.
" 5 lbs. " " 7 lbs.,	1s.

No parcel is accepted which weighs more than 7 lbs., or is not sufficiently paid. The postage must, in all cases, be paid in advance, and by ordinary postage stamps, which must be affixed by the sender. In posting a parcel it should be handed over the counter, and care taken to let the officer who accepts it know that it is intended for transmission by Parcel Post. In no case should the parcel be posted in a letter box.

If a packet bearing the words 'Parcel Post' is not posted in accordance with the regulations, it is treated as a letter or book packet, if it is fully prepaid at the rate proper to either, and is otherwise in accordance with the letter or book post regulations; but if not fully prepaid at the letter or book post rate, it will be treated as a parcel, and charged on delivery with a fine of 3d.

Parcels which bear on the outside any writing or drawing of an indecent or offensive nature, or within which any contents of a like nature may be observed, and parcels containing gunpowder, cartridges, lucifer matches, or anything explosive or liable to sudden combustion, bladders containing liquid, live animals, grossly offensive or filthy matter, and anything in a condition likely to injure other parcels, or any officer of the Post Office, are prohibited.

Parcels containing fish, game, meat, eggs, etc., or razors, scissors, needles, knives, forks, or other sharp instruments, are not accepted unless securely packed so as to guard against risk of injury to other parcels. Liquids or semi-liquids, such as jellies, pickles, paint, varnish, etc., are not accepted unless in bottles or cans securely stoppered; nor powders, unless so packed that they cannot escape in transmission. Bottles or glass in any form can be accepted only when so packed as to be secure from breakage.

Parcels for the Channel Islands are not accepted unless a declaration be made of the contents upon a special form provided for the purpose.

To offices where letters may be addressed 'to be called for,' parcels may also be so addressed; such parcels are liable to a demurrage charge of 1d. a day after the first.

The Postmaster-General is not liable to make good any claim in respect of a lost or damaged parcel.

PARCEL POST TO INDIA.

The Indian Parcel Post is not connected with the British Post Office, but is an arrangement between the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Co. and the Post Office Departments of India, Ceylon, and Straits Settlements to receive parcels for delivery at any post town or district throughout India and Ceylon at a uniform rate of 1s. per pound (hooks excepted), and the Straits Settlements at 1s. 4d. per pound on all parcels. Jewellery, gold, and silver ware, watches or precious stones, are charged an additional ad valorem rate of 1s. on every £5 or fraction of £5, which must be prepaid.

This charge covers the conveyance from London to the address in India, etc. (but does not include duty), and may either be prepaid or paid on delivery.

Parcels for this conveyance must be sent either to the Company's Office, 122 Leadenhall Street, E.C., or to the Branch Office, 25 Cockspur Street, S.W., London, by noon, on Mondays, legibly addressed to their destination in India, marked 'To be forwarded by Indian Parcel Post.' If sent to the Company's Office by post or other conveyance, the Indian address must be put on an inner cover. In all cases they must be accompanied by a letter of advice to the Company, stating name and address of each package, and value and contents, for Custom-house clearance; and also distinctly stating whether carriage is to be prepaid or not. If for prepayment, a cheque or P.O. Order for the amount must be enclosed in the letter, payable to Mr. A. M. Bethune, Secretary, or when sent to Cockspur Street, to Mr. F. H. Firth, Agent. Particular attention is requested to these regulations in order to save any delay in the despatch of parcels.

Parcels conveyed under these regulations must not exceed 50 pounds in weight, and 2 ft. × 1 ft. × 1 ft. in measurement, nor be more than £50 value. They should be entirely closed, and any articles liable to suffer from crushing must be in a strong wooden case not less than half-inch thick (tin lining optional). Packages not in wood must have an outer covering of stout canvas if measuring one cubic foot and upwards.

Senders of parcels from the country will receive a receipt for them in due course; and if required, the Company will effect insurance against sea and land risks. The charge for insurance, which must in all cases be prepaid, will be 1s. for every £5 value or fraction thereof on each parcel.

Packages of a fragile nature, or containing liquids, or articles of a dangerous or damaging nature, will not be received.

Reduced Rates for Books.—The rate for books is 6d. per lb. or fraction of lb., Straits Settlements excepted.

If any other article is found enclosed in the book packet when examined by the Customs at Bombay, an extra rate of 2s. per lb. on the package will be charged to the addressee.

No letter must, under any circumstances, be enclosed in these parcels.

If a receipt is required, a stamped and directed envelope must be enclosed in the advice.

An advice note must accompany each package, otherwise it will be liable to be charged at the 1s. rate.

Remittances from the country must be by cheque, post-office order, or penny stamps, if the amount does not exceed 1s.

SPECIAL RATES OF POSTAGE, AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

ADDRESSES AND PETITIONS TO THE QUEEN AND PARLIAMENT.

Petitions and addresses to the Queen, forwarded direct or through a member of either House of Parliament, are exempt from postage. Petitions to members of either House so addressed are also exempt, provided they do not exceed 2 lbs. in weight, and, if in covers, are in open covers. There must be no enclosure; any enclosure, unless it bear the proper number of postage stamps, will be charged as a letter. There is no limit to size.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

Printed votes or proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, sent in open covers, having the words 'Parliamentary Proceedings' written or printed thereon, may be sent within the United Kingdom and to the Colonies and those Foreign States to which there is a book post, at the book rate, prepayment as regards inland packets being optional, —the limits of size and weight are not applicable to printed parliamentary proceedings.

PARLIAMENTARY NOTICES.

Parliamentary notices may be forwarded under the following regulations, and posted at any Money Order Post Office in the United Kingdom:—

The words 'Parliamentary Notice' must be written or printed on the face of the letter; and in order to secure the speedy return of any notices which may be undelivered, the name and address of the solicitor issuing such parliamentary notice should also be printed or written on the face of the letter; though this is not imperative.

Notices which, by the standing orders of either House of Parliament, are required to be served on or before the 15th December, must be posted not later than the 12th December, and on the 11th, if the 12th be a Sunday; but those notices which, by the same orders, may be served after the 15th, must be posted not later than the 18th, and on the 17th, if the 18th be a Sunday.

The postage chargeable on these notices, and the registration fee of 6d. on each, must be prepaid by stamps.

The notices must be posted at the Post Office counter, accompanied with duplicate lists of the addresses; the notices being arranged in the order of the list; and if they correspond with the addresses, the sheets will be signed and stamped, and one of the duplicate lists will then be returned to the person who brought the letters, and the other forwarded to the Secretary, General Post Office, London.

The hours for receiving such notices are the same as those for the registry of ordinary letters, unless they be presented at such a time as to interfere with the other duties of the office; in which case the postmaster may appoint any other time within the next twenty-four hours for receiving the same, provided that, when the notices are to be served on or before the 15th December, such arrangement do not delay the posting beyond the 12th. Senders should, if possible, arrange on the previous day with the postmaster as to the most convenient time for posting.

LETTERS FOR NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, SOLDIERS, AND SEAMEN IN HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE.

Non-commissioned officers, schoolmasters, school-mistresses, private soldiers, seamen, writers in H.M. Army or Navy, whether serving on sea or land, in a British possession or foreign country, as also enrolled pensioners in Canada, the Cape Mounted Rifles, Cape Field Artillery, and Cape Infantry Regiment, can send and receive letters, not exceeding half an ounce, for a postage of 1d.; but if any such letters have to pass through a foreign country, they are subject, in addition, to the foreign postage, whatever that may be. Thus, the postage to the under-mentioned countries (including the British charge of one penny) is as follows:—

To or from—	s. d.
Australia, Hong Kong, India, etc., via Brindisi , Chili, Peru, or any other place in the South Pacific, via Southampton and Panama , and Bahamas and Bermuda, via New York	0 2

The person claiming the privilege must at the time be actually employed in the service of Her Majesty, and must not be either a commissioned officer or warrant officer in the army, or assistant engineer, gunner, boatswain, or carpenter in the navy, the privilege not extending to these officers.

If the letter be posted in the United Kingdom, the postage must be prepaid.

The name of the soldier or seaman, with his class or description, must appear in the direction, and the officer having the command must sign his name, and specify the ship or regiment, corps or detachment, to which the soldier or seaman belongs; the name of the ship or regiment being entered in full. The foregoing particulars must be given in one of the following forms:—

LETTERS FOR PASSENGERS ON BOARD
MAIL PACKETS.

Letters for passengers on board the packets for America touching at Queenstown, or on board the Mediterranean packets about to sail from Brindisi with the mails for India, Australia, China, etc., may be posted up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received. They must be registered, and addressed to the 'care of the commander of the packet.'

Letters for passengers by the Canadian packets touching at Londonderry may, under similar conditions, be posted up to the same time as ordinary registered letters for Canada, and must be addressed to the 'care of the officer in charge of the mails.'

Letters directed Post Restante, Suez, and despatched by the mail viâ Brindisi, will probably reach passengers for India, etc., who have sailed in the packet from Gravesend the previous week.

LETTERS BY PRIVATE SHIPS.

Letters intended to be sent by private ship must be addressed 'By Private Ship,' and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added. The postage of a letter by a private ship is as follows:—

Country.	Prepaid Letter, per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz.	Fine if not wholly prepaid.
*Ascension and Australia, .	6d.	—
Cape Colony and Natal, .	6d.	6d. each.
Ceylon, Hong Kong, India, .	4d.	4d. each.
Straits Settlements, .	4d.	double deficiency.
St. Helena, .
Postal Union countries, except Ceylon, Hong Kong, India, and Straits Settlements, .	same as mail packets.	—
*All other countries, .	6d.	—

Letters cannot be sent unpaid to the countries marked thus (*). The postage for letters weighing more than $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. advances in the same manner as that for letters sent by mail packets.

Book packets and patterns may be sent for the same postage as by mail packets.

Newspapers must be prepaid 1d. each per 4 oz.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, ETC.

MODES OF PREPAYMENT.

Inland letters, newspapers, and book packets can only be prepaid by means of postage stamps, except at the General Post Office, Edinburgh, where letters and book packets may, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., be prepaid in money, provided the amount be not less than £1, and that the letters and book packets be tied in separate bundles of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction. The amount for parcels must not be less than 5s.

REGISTRATION (INLAND AND FOREIGN).

The fee for registering a letter, newspaper, or book packet passing between any two places in the United Kingdom is 2d. The fee chargeable to places abroad will be found in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage. To some countries a letter can be registered only to the port of arrival, and to a few countries there is no arrangement for registration.

No letter or postal packet addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered, unless addressed to the care of a person or firm. Every article presented for registration should be enclosed in a strong cover securely fastened, and if coin be sent such must be packed in such a way as to move about as little as possible.

The sender of a registered article addressed to any foreign country or British colony in the Postal Union may obtain an acknowledgment of its due receipt by the addressee on paying a fee of 2½d. at the time of registration.

Registered letters, etc., must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

Every letter, etc., to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it, and should on no account be dropped into the letter-box. If an article marked 'registered' be dropped into the letter-box, directed to any place in the United Kingdom, it will be liable to a registration fee of 8d., instead of the ordinary fee of 2d.; and if posted containing coin, watches, or jewellery, without being registered, will be treated in like manner.

Letters containing coin for any of the British colonies not in the Postal Union can be registered, and if posted unregistered, they are treated as inland letters under similar circumstances.

Letters containing coin, jewellery, or precious articles, cannot be accepted for registration to any country in the Postal Union.

Registered letters require to be posted at General Post Office thirty minutes, and receiving offices fifteen minutes, before the closing of the box for ordinary letters; but upon payment of a late fee of 4d. they may be registered at General Post Office until the closing of the letter-box for ordinary letters for each despatch.

The registration of a packet makes its transmission much more secure, inasmuch as, under ordinary circumstances, a registered packet can be traced through its whole course; and thus the loss of a registered packet is a very rare occurrence. Nevertheless, large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, as the machinery of the department is not arranged with a view to such transmissions. If sent unregistered valuable articles are exposed to risk.

By law the Postmaster-General is not responsible for the safe delivery of registered letters or packets, but he is prepared to make good the contents of a registered letter lost while passing through the post to the extent of £2 in certain cases, provided—

1. That the sender of the letter duly observed all the conditions of registration required;
2. That the letter was securely enclosed in a reasonably strong cover; and if it contained money, that it was enclosed in one of the registered letter envelopes sold by the Post Office;
3. That application was made to the Secretary of the Post Office immediately the loss was discovered;

[When the complaint is that the contents of a letter have been abstracted, the envelope must accompany the application, otherwise the question will not be entertained.]

4. That the Postmaster-General, whose decision shall be final, is satisfied that the loss occurred while the letter was in the custody of the British Post Office, and was not caused by any fault on the part of the sender.

[The word 'loss' here does not include damage to an article which in fact reaches its destination, or destruction by fire or shipwreck, or by the dishonesty or negligence of any person not in the employment of the Post Office.]

N.B.—The several postal administrations of the countries belonging to the Postal Union undertake to pay an indemnity of fifty francs in the event of its being proved to their satisfaction that a registered letter itself has been lost whilst in their custody, but no question of compensation is entertained by them for, or in respect of, the loss of the enclosure of any such letter.

No town postman is allowed to take a letter to be registered; but rural postmen can do so on their walks.

RE-DIRECTION AND DELIVERY.

Every inland re-directed letter, post card, or other postal packet, is liable to an additional postage (at the prepaid rate) for each re-direction, unless both the original and the second address be within the delivery of the same Post Office, and the re-direction be made by an officer of the Post Office.

If an inland registered letter, when re-directed, instead of being taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter, is dropped into the letter-box as an ordinary letter (the word 'registered' not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it is surcharged with a registration fee of eightpence, less the value of any stamps affixed for registration.

Letters, etc., sent to or received from a country of the General Postal Union and re-directed to any place in the United Kingdom or to another country within the Union, are not liable to any additional charge, nor, if registered, to an additional registration fee; such, however, as have been in the first instance addressed to a place in the country where they were posted, are chargeable on re-direction with the inland rate of the country to which they are re-directed, but, if registered, without additional fee.

Letters, etc., addressed from one part of the United Kingdom to another, and then re-directed to a country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional colonial or foreign rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee for registration.

Letters, etc., received here from a country not in the Postal Union, and re-directed to another country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional colonial or foreign rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee: if re-directed to some place within the United Kingdom, they are liable to an additional inland rate; and, if re-directed to any country of the Postal Union, they are liable to the rate to that country. In the two latter cases, letters, if registered, are not liable to any additional fee.

Letters, etc., received from any country of the Postal Union, and re-directed to a country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional colonial or foreign rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee.

No charge for re-direction is made on newspapers from any place abroad, unless they have been opened, in which case they are liable to postage as books.

Letters posted in the United Kingdom for commissioned officers, non-commissioned officers, soldiers, or seamen on actual service, re-directed from one foreign station to another, or from a foreign station to this country, or from one part of the United Kingdom to another, are delivered free, if under half an ounce.

Notices of removal and applications for letters, etc., to be re-directed must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed; printed forms of notice can be obtained at the General Post Office. Persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention.

No person living within the town free delivery, unless he rent a private box, can obtain his letters at the General Post Office.

Private Boxes and Bags.—The fee for a private box is £3 per annum, and if for a private bag, £1 additional, payable in advance, and if for parcels, an additional fee.

STAMPS.

Postage labels (also available for telegrams) are of the respective values of $\frac{1}{2}$ d., 1d., $1\frac{1}{2}$ d., 2d., $2\frac{1}{2}$ d., 3d., 4d., 5d., 6d., 9d., 1s., 2s. 6d., 5s., 10s., and £1, stamped telegraph book 20s., interleaved 2d. extra. The embossed envelopes are of three sorts, and sold thus, viz. $4\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$, at 1s. 2d., and $5\frac{1}{2} \times 3$, at 1s. 1d. per dozen. 'Commercial' at $10\frac{1}{2} \times 10$. Registered Letter envelopes are of six sizes, viz. $5\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$, and $6 \times 3\frac{1}{2}$, sold at $2\frac{1}{2}$ d. each, or 2s. $2\frac{1}{2}$ d. per doz.; 8×5 , and 9×4 , at $2\frac{3}{4}$ d. each, or 2s. 7d. per doz.; $10 \times 7\frac{1}{2}$, and $11\frac{1}{2} \times 6$, at 3d. each, or 2s. 10d. per doz. Halfpenny stamped wrappers are sold at 7 for 4d., or £1, 2s. 10d. per parcel of 480, and penny stamped wrappers at 8 for $8\frac{1}{2}$ d.; inland post cards at $3\frac{1}{2}$ d. and 4d. per half doz.; reply post cards, 7d. and 8d. per half doz. Foreign post cards, 1d., $1\frac{1}{2}$ d., and 2d. each, and reply cards at 2d., 3d., and 4d. each. Bill stamps and other Inland Revenue stamps are sold at the General Post Office and Branch Offices.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of postage stamps which have been cut, torn, or otherwise rendered imperfect; or of embossed or impressed stamps, cut out from the envelopes, cards, or wrappers on which such were embossed or impressed.

Every rural messenger is authorized to sell penny postage stamps and registered letter envelopes; and when any person applies to him for postage labels, the messenger must either supply them, or (if he have none in his possession) must, without extra charge, receive the postage in money, and on his arrival at the post office obtain labels for the amount, and affix them carefully to the letters.

All postmasters in the United Kingdom at whose offices money order business is transacted, are permitted, though not compelled, to purchase postage stamps from the public (provided the stamps be not soiled or otherwise damaged), at a charge of $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.; the charge, however, never being less than one halfpenny. Under this arrangement the charges are as follows: For stamps not exceeding 1s. 8d. in value, $\frac{1}{2}$ d.; 3s. 4d., 1d.; 5s., $1\frac{1}{2}$ d.; 6s. 8d., 2d.; 8s. 4d., $2\frac{1}{2}$ d., and so on. No separate stamps can be purchased, or less than two adhering to each other.

In consequence of representations made to the Post Office by various firms, that there is reason to believe that their postage stamps were purloined by persons in their employ, the department has recommended that the name or initials of firms, etc., be either printed on the back of the stamps (by arrangement with the Inland Revenue Office, Somerset House), or perforated through the stamps by means of a machine devised for the purpose, so that, the sale of such stamps being thereby rendered difficult (postmasters having been instructed not to purchase any of them), there may be little or no temptation to steal them.

The perforation of the stamps on post cards, wrappers, and embossed envelopes with initials is also not objected to.

ARTICLES NOT ALLOWED TO BE SENT BY POST.

No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book, card, or other article, nor any letter, newspaper, publication, packet, or card having thereon any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character.

In all countries of the Postal Union—coin, jewellery, precious and dutiable articles; and in Italy and United States of America—anything relating to foreign lotteries.

In Costa Rica—coin, jewellery, watches, precious and dutiable articles.

In the Cape of Good Hope and Queensland—jewellery and precious articles, if dutiable, are liable to detention until the duty is paid.

In Spain and Victoria—jewellery, being dutiable, is liable to confiscation.

Postmasters are instructed not to receive any letter which there is good reason to believe contains anything likely to injure the contents of the mail bag or the person of any officer of the Post Office.

(See also under Foreign and Colonial Pattern and Sample Post.)

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a post office except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public.

Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter or other packet to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon.

Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorized to demand change; and when money is paid at a post office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public, but they may do so if their duty be not thereby impeded.

If a letter be forwarded under cover to any postmaster with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the letter, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words 'posted at ———, under cover, to the Postmaster of ———.'

To facilitate the delivery of letters, a letter-box should be affixed to every house door.

Every address should be legible and complete, and every letter should contain the full address of the writer, in order to ensure its return if the person to whom it is directed cannot be found.

Letters which cannot be delivered are kept from one to three days, according to circumstances, before being returned, unless addressed 'to be called for,' when they are retained one month, and if addressed to a ship, two months before being returned.

Letters addressed to club houses, hotels, and other places where letters are received to be called for, should be returned to the Post Office as soon as it is evident that they will not be called for.

MONEY ORDERS.

Money Orders are issued and paid at General Post Office, from 10 to 4; Saturdays, 10 to 1; Branch Offices, 9 to 7; and at the Receiving Offices, 9 to 7; Saturdays, 9 to 5.

When applying for Money Orders, the public should use the printed 'Application Forms,' which are supplied gratuitously at all Money Order Offices.

The commission on Inland Money Orders is:—

For sums under 10s.	2d.
" of 10s. and under £2	3d.
" " £2 " " 3	4d.
" " 3 " " 4	5d.
" " 4 " " 5	6d.
" " 5 " " 6	7d.
" " 6 " " 7	8d.
" " 7 " " 8	9d.
" " 8 " " 9	10d.
" " 9 " " 10	11d.
" " 10 " " "	1s.

No Money Order can be issued, unless the applicant furnish, in full, the surname, and at least the initial of one Christian name, both of the remitter and the payee, and the remitter's address.

In the case of Foreign Orders, the full address of the payee must be given; and if the order be payable to a native in British India, the tribe or caste and the father's name must also be furnished.

Exceptions.—1st. The remitter of an Inland Order may direct, at the time of issue, that the order be crossed like a cheque thus, '& Co.' and thus be payable only through a bank. In that case he may give or withhold the name of the payee. The designation of the bank need not be furnished.

2nd. If the remitter or payee be a peer or a bishop, his ordinary title is sufficient.

3rd. The usual designation of a firm is sufficient, except when a company trades under a title which does not consist of the names of the persons composing it, as the 'Carron Company;' but even a designation of this nature may be accepted provided the order be crossed for presentation through a bank.

The holder of an inland Money Order may direct, by crossing it, that it be paid through a bank, even although not originally intended.

When application is made for a Money Order payable in London, or at any other town where there is more than one Money Order Office, the remitter should say at which of such offices he wishes it to be paid; otherwise it can be drawn only upon the Head Office. It is not incumbent on a postmaster to supply such information relative to local or provincial offices.

An order once issued cannot be cancelled; and should repayment or transfer to a different office be required, the remitter or payee must apply to the paying postmaster.

The remitter of an order has full control over the money until payment has been made. He may make his order payable ten days after date, provided that, in the presence of the postmaster, when he obtains the order, he affixes thereto, in the space after the request C., a penny receipt stamp, and write his signature across the stamp.

When an order is presented for payment (otherwise than through a bank), the postmaster has first to see that the signature of the payee be in agreement with the advice. He has then to call on the applicant to give the name of the remitter; and if the reply be correct, the order will be paid, unless the postmaster have good reason for believing that the applicant is neither the rightful claimant, nor deputed by him. When an order is paid through a bank, it is sufficient that it be receipted (without regard to any discrepancy between the signature and the name in the advice), and that it be presented (crossed with the name of the receiving bank) by some person known to be in the employment of the bank.

Money Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

Although at the end of twelve months from that in which it was issued, a Money Order, if still unpaid, becomes legally void, nevertheless, when a good reason can be given for the delay in presenting it, an application for payment, subject to a certain deduction, is entertained.

No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the non-payment of a Money Order at the expected time.

After once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the office is not liable to any further claim.

To guard against fraud, the remitter is recommended—

1. When he is well known to the payee, to sign the letter enclosing the order with his initials only.
2. When this is not the case, either to make the order payable ten days after date, or to register the letter enclosing it, or to make the order payable through a bank by crossing it like an ordinary cheque.
3. When it is not considered expedient to adopt either of these courses, to send the remitter's name (without a knowledge of which payment cannot be obtained) in a separate letter from that containing the Money Order.

Payment of an order cannot be made on the same day on which it is issued.

In case of the miscarriage or loss of an inland Money Order in transmission through the post, a duplicate is granted on a written application giving particulars to the Controller of the Money Order Office in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be, where the original order was issued; but for an order otherwise lost, a charge of 1s. for sums not exceeding £5, and 2s. for sums not exceeding £10 is made for a duplicate order. If it be desired to stop payment of an inland order, application must be made at the office where the order is payable, and a second commission must be paid. If alteration in the name of the payee or remitter of an inland Money Order should be required, application must be made by the remitter to the postmaster of the office at which the order was issued, and a second commission must be paid. Should transfer of payment of an inland order from one office to another in the United Kingdom, or repayment of the amount of an order, be required, an application enclosing the order must be made to the postmaster at whose office the order is payable, who will transmit in exchange a new order payable at the place desired, but for a less sum than the original order by the amount of the second commission charged for the re-issue. Proper printed forms for making applications in all these cases may be obtained at any Money Order Office. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the necessity for an application, entailing the payment of a fresh commission, is attributable to the Post Office, the charge will be remitted to the applicant, and imposed on the officer in fault.

A postmaster is required to give information how to apply for a duplicate order, etc., and must furnish the prescribed form of application. If payment of an order be refused in consequence of the replies to the questions respecting the remitter, or the signature on the order, not corresponding with the entries in the advice, the applicant for payment should communicate with the remitter, and request him to apply personally to the issuing postmaster.

No postman or other servant of the Post Office is bound to procure a Money Order for any person, or to obtain payment for one; but such services are not forbidden.

Money Orders are issued in the United Kingdom on the undermentioned countries and agencies, at the following rates for sums not exceeding:—

In the case of orders to and from Denmark, Danish West Indies, Iceland, Egypt, Germany and Heligoland, Holland, Dutch East Indies, Norway, Portugal, Sweden, Switzerland, and India, the original order should be retained by the remitter, a new order in the currency of the country of payment being issued by the Chief Office of that country, and sent to the payee.

In the case of Belgium, France, Italy, the United States, Canada, and the British Possessions and Colonies generally, India excepted, the order should be sent to the payee by the remitter.

The issue of a duplicate order, or the stoppage of payment of an order issued by a colony or foreign country on the United Kingdom, will be made on application to the Controller of the Chief Money Order Office, London, provided an additional commission of 1s. for sums not exceeding £5, and 2s. for sums above £5 and not exceeding £10 be enclosed. For stoppage of payment, the commission is the same as for inland rates. Postmasters in the United Kingdom have power to transfer to other offices in the United Kingdom payment of colonial and foreign orders originally drawn on their own offices.

Orders issued in the United Kingdom on Belgium, Denmark, Danish West Indies, the Dutch East Indian Possessions, Egypt, France, Holland, Italy, Japan, Norway, Portugal, Sweden, Switzerland, United States, and the British Colonies and Possessions, are payable for twelve months after the month of issue. Orders issued on the German Empire, Heligoland, and India are subject to the regulations which govern the payment of Money Orders in those countries.

POSTAL ORDERS.

The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the poundage payable in respect of each order:—

1s. or 1s. 6d.,	½d. each.
2s., 2s. 6d., 3s., 3s. 6d., 4s., 4s. 6d.
5s., 7s. 6d., 10s., or 10s. 6d.,	1d. each.
15s. or 20s.,	1½d. each.

The person to whom a Postal Order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and may fill in the name of the Money Order Office at which the amount is to be paid. The person so named must, before payment can be made, sign the receipt at the foot of the order, and must also fill in the name of the Money Order Office, if that has not been already done.

Every person obtaining a Postal Order should keep a record of the number, date, and office of issue to facilitate inquiry in case of loss.

If a Postal Order be crossed ' & Co.,' payment will only be made through a banker, and if the name of a banker is added, payment will only be made through that banker.

A Postal Order presented by, or through a banker for payment will not (in the absence of an express arrangement between such banker and the Postmaster-General to the contrary) be paid until after such order has been examined at the Chief Office.

After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster-General will not be liable for any further claim.

If any erasure or alteration be made, or if the order is out, defaced, or mutilated, payment may be refused.

After the expiration of three months from the last day of the month of issue, a Postal Order will be payable only on payment of a commission equal to the original poundage, and an additional poundage will be charged for every period of three months, or portion thereof; and the commission thus paid must be affixed in postage stamps.

These orders are only payable in the United Kingdom, Constantinople, Gibraltar, and Malta.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

Post Office Savings Banks are established at all Money Order Offices, and are open for bank business during the same hours as for money orders.

Deposits of one shilling, or of any number of shillings, may be made, but no one may deposit more than £30 in one year ending 31st December, or make any further deposit when the amount standing in his name, exclusive of interest, has reached £150. (The limits of £30 and £150 are irrespective of any sums, not exceeding £100, deposited for the purpose of immediate investment in Government Stock.)

Any person desirous of saving one shilling by means of penny contributions, may do so by purchasing with every penny so saved a Penny Postage Stamp, and affixing it to a form to be obtained at any Post Office. When twelve such stamps have been so affixed, the form may be taken to any Post Office Savings Bank, where it will be received and accepted as a deposit of one shilling.

Interest at the rate of £2, 10s. per cent. per annum is allowed until the sum amounts to £200, when interest ceases. The calculation is made from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which a complete pound shall have been deposited or completed up to the last day of the calendar month preceding the day on which a warrant for repayment is issued; and after 31st December the interest is added to the principal.

Besides, ordinary deposits may also be made—

(A.) By a trustee on behalf of another person, in the joint names of the trustee and such person; but repayment of the same, or any part thereof, will not be made without the receipts of both parties. A person may act as trustee in any number of accounts, and at the same time have an account in his own name.

(B.) By two persons jointly on their own behalf, provided neither of them is already a depositor.

(C.) By, or for the benefit of, children; but in the case of a child under the age of 7 years, the money is not repayable until he attains that age, except in the case of death.

(D.) On behalf of any legally established friendly, charitable, or provident society, or penny savings bank; application, with a copy of the rules, being first sent to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department. Such societies, etc., are allowed to invest considerably beyond the usual limits, and in some cases without restriction as to amount.

(E.) In the name of the Registrar of any County Court. Under the 24th sect. of the Act 30 and 31 Vict. c. 142 (County Courts Act), 'trust moneys' not in excess of £500 may be thus deposited; and under the 26th sect., money paid into a County Court in 'equitable proceedings' may be deposited by the Registrar without restriction as to amount.

Deposits may be made by married women. Particulars relating to such deposits may be learned at any Savings Bank Office.

Once in each year, on the anniversary of the day on which the first deposit was made, the depositor should forward the deposit book to the Controller of the Post Office Savings Bank Department in London, in order that it may be compared with the books of the department, and the interest due to the depositor inserted in it.

When a depositor wishes to make a withdrawal from his account, he should fill up and forward to the Savings Bank Department a notice of withdrawal, which he can obtain at any Post Office Savings Bank. He will then receive by post a warrant, which he should present together with his book at the Post Office where payment is to be made.

Postmasters and other officers of the Postmaster-General employed in the receipt or payment of deposits, are strictly forbidden to disclose the name of any depositor, or the amount deposited or withdrawn, except to the Postmaster-General, or to such of his officers as are appointed to assist in carrying out the provisions of the Post Office Savings Banks Act.

INVESTMENTS AND SALES OF GOVERNMENT STOCK.

A depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank who desires to invest in Government Stock, must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, together with his deposit book, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. Such investments can be made in Consolidated, Reduced, or New Three per Cent. Stock, or in Two and Three Quarters or Two and a Half per Cent. Stock.

Within seven days from the receipt of such application the depositor's account will be charged with the current price of the Stock purchased and the commission, the necessary entries being made in his deposit book; and the depositor will be credited in the Government Stock Register of the Post Office Savings Bank with the equivalent amount of Stock, and a certificate sent him.

The sum invested must not be less than £10, or the amount of the current price of £10 Stock with the addition of the commission, whichever sum is least, and not more than £100 Stock can be credited to an account in any year ending 31st December, or £300 in all.

For an immediate investment in Government Stock a deposit to an amount not exceeding the value of £100 Stock with the commission may be made in one year ending the 31st December.

Dividends in respect of Stock standing to a depositor's credit will be carried to his deposit account.

A depositor who desires to sell the Stock standing to his credit, or part of the Stock, must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, London, together with his deposit book and investment certificate, an application signed by him on a form obtainable at any Post Office Savings Bank.

Within seven days of the receipt of such application the sale will be effected at the current price of the day of sale, and a warrant will be sent the depositor for the amount realized, less commission.

The commission chargeable on investment, including the receipt of dividends, and on the sale of Stock, is 9d. for the first £25, and 6d. for every additional £25.

Particulars regarding Stock certificates may be learned at any Money Order Office.

GOVERNMENT INSURANCE AND ANNUITY OFFICE.

The Postmaster-General is empowered to insure the lives of persons of either sex, between the ages of 14 and 65, for not less than £5 or more than £100; or, if the amount does not exceed £5, not under the age of 8 years. He is also empowered to grant immediate or deferred annuities of not less than £1 or more than £100 to any person not under the age of 5 years.

Tables of insurance and annuities may be seen at any Money Order Office.

INSURANCES.

The following examples show various ways in which insurances may be effected:—

The life of a male or female between 21 and 22 years of age may be insured for £10—

By an annual payment throughout life
of £0 4 4

By an annual payment to the age of 60
of 0 4 8

By a single payment of 4 4 0

A sum of money may be insured on the attainment of the age of 60 years, or sooner in the event of death, by the payment of a single or annual premium, and a sum of money may be insured at the expiration of 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, or 40 years, or sooner in the event of death, by the payment of a single premium according to the age of the insured person.

Insurances for sums not exceeding £25 will be granted without a medical examination, but in such cases, if the insured should die before the second premium becomes payable, the amount of the first premium, and no more, will be paid to his representatives, and if he should die after the payment of the second premium and before the third premium becomes payable, half the amount insured, and no more, will be paid to his representatives. In either of these cases, however, if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that the death of the insured person was caused by accident, the full amount insured will be paid.

Persons proposing to insure for sums not exceeding £25 may undergo a medical examination, if they so desire, by payment of a fee of 2s. 6d. to the medical examiner, in which case they would be entitled to the full benefit of insurance immediately the policy is granted.

No one life can be insured for less than £5, but when a life has been insured for £5 further insurances may be effected on the same life from time to time for any amount until the whole sum for which it is insured amounts to £100.

If, after having duly made his payments for a period of two years, an insured should be unable to continue or should desire to discontinue the payments, such sum of money as the National Debt Commissioners shall specify will be returned.

Any two persons may purchase an immediate annuity on their joint lives, with or without continuance of the annuity to the survivor.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 1s. for the first twenty words, and 3d. for every additional five words, or part of five words. The names and addresses of the sender and receiver are not counted.

Telegrams written in plain language in any European tongue are charged for according to the number of words they contain; but all unintelligible words not forming part of any European language are charged for at the rate of five letters to a word.

Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person or firm in the same free delivery will be delivered separately at an additional charge of 3d. per copy.

When the terminal telegraph office, i.e. the office nearest to the address, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for the transmission covers the cost of delivery within one mile, or within the town postal delivery of that office if more than a mile. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free only within the limit of one mile.

When the terminal office is a sub-office, and that office is closed, exemption from portage is allowed for one mile only if the telegram is delivered from the Head Office, even though the address of the telegram be within the limits of the town postal delivery.

When the address is beyond the free delivery, portage is charged at the rate of 6d. per mile, or any part thereof, provided the whole distance does not exceed three miles; but the charge is calculated from the boundary within which no portage is levied.

If the address is more than 3 miles from the terminal office, portage is charged for by mounted messenger at the rate of 1s. per mile, except in Ireland, where the charge is usually 8d. per mile, the charge being reckoned from the office.

The sender is responsible for all charges incurred in delivery. When the exact distance is not known, a deposit must be paid to meet the charges.

If the sender requires his telegram to be forwarded by post or by train from the terminal office, he must write the words 'by post' or 'by train' at the end of the address, and in the latter case he must pay the cost, or deposit 1s. if the cost is not known.

A deposit of 5s. is required upon all telegrams addressed to a ship, unless the ship be alongside a wharf; any surplus is refunded.

Telegrams may be repeated at the request of the sender, by being signalled back from office to office. The charge for repetition is one-half the ordinary tariff; fractions of threepence being reckoned as twopence.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission, and the amount will be refunded if found to be incorrectly transmitted.

The cost of a reply to a telegram, not exceeding forty words, may be prepaid; and a Reply Form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply, from any telegraph office, at any time within two months. If the Form be not used, it may within the same period be sent to the Secretary, G.P.O., London, and the value will be refunded. A Reply Form need not necessarily be used for a reply, but may be used for another message.

Telegrams re-transmitted to a second address are liable to additional inland rate. In addition to the amount chargeable on each re-transmitted telegram, a fee of £1, 1s. per annum is charged for the registration of special instructions as to the re-direction of telegrams. Removals are registered, when requested, for a period of one month free of charge.

Persons not wishing to send to a telegraph office may post a telegram, addressed 'Telegram—Immediate,' in a wall or pillar box, or in the letter-box of a receiving office or sub-post office. Telegrams so posted are sent on to the nearest telegraph office by the next collection. The period of arrival at the postal telegraph office is regarded as the time of receipt from the public.

Telegrams posted insufficiently prepaid are forwarded to their destination, the difference of charge being obtained from the addressee; but unpaid telegrams are not forwarded.

No combination of two or more words is counted as one word, with the exception of those words which are ordinarily coupled by hyphens, such as 'mother-in-law,' 'MacDonald,' etc.

The following exceptional compound words are charged for as one word:—Midday, midnight, noon-day, se'nnight, cannot, to-day, to-night, to-morrow, yesternight, yesterday, halppenny, twopence, St Andrews, etc.

Figures are counted as so many words; and in fractions one word is counted for the mark of division.

When the sender of a telegram desires words to be underlined, or placed in a parenthesis, or within inverted commas, two extra words are charged for; and when the sender desires that special instructions be written on the envelope enclosing the telegram, such is charged for as part of the message.

Telegrams addressed to a Telegraph Office, to be called for, are kept for two days, and if not then claimed are sent to the Chief Office, London.

The department is not liable for losses incurred through the incorrect transmission, delay, or non-delivery of telegrams.

Telegraph offices are, as a rule, open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., and from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. on Sundays. There are, however, offices in several of the larger towns which are open longer; and at various offices in London and in the country the attendance is continuous. G.P.O., Edinburgh, always open.

FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

Foreign telegrams are divided into three classes—ordinary, code, and cypher. Ordinary telegrams are those composed of a series of words, or of words, figures, and letters conveying an intelligible meaning.

Code telegrams are those composed of words, the context of which has no intelligible meaning. Proper names are not allowed in the text of code telegrams, except in their natural sense.

In European code telegrams, any of the languages in use in Europe or Latin may be employed; but all the telegram must be in one language.

In extra-European code telegrams, only English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin may be employed; but the telegram may be in all these languages.

Cypher telegrams are those containing series or groups of figures or letters having a secret meaning; or words not to be found in a standard dictionary of the language. The portion in cypher must be composed exclusively of figures or exclusively of letters.

Cypher telegrams written in letters are not accepted for extra European places.

The address of the receiver must be paid for, and must not consist of less than two words, a name and town. Example: Hercules, Bombay.

The address of the sender is charged for, if transmitted; in any case, it must be written at the foot of the form.

In European telegrams, the length allowed for a word is 15 letters, in extra-European telegrams 10 letters; any additional letters being counted and charged for as extra words.

Ordinary compound words and names of persons and places, etc., written without break or interruption, are counted as single words. If joined by a hyphen, or separated by an apostrophe or other sign of punctuation, they are counted as so many separate words.

A telegram addressed to several persons in the same town, or to the same firm at different localities in the same town, is charged for as a single telegram, and a sum of 5d. must be prepaid for every extra copy to be delivered, if the number of chargeable words does not exceed 100; an additional sum of 5d. being charged for every additional 100 words or part of 100 words. In calculating the charge, all the names and addresses are included; but telegrams of this kind are not accepted for America.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, ETC.

The following is a list of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Act 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97 (amended by 34 Vict. c. 4, 34 and 35 Vict. c. 103, and 35 and 36 Vict. c. 20, and other Acts), with the Duty on Policies of Insurance, Patent Medicine, and Plate, and Inventory, Legacy, and Succession Duties, which remain under the former Acts. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule. When the sections are merely cited without the Act, they are the sections of 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97. All items in the schedule of the Act relating solely to England and Ireland are excluded. In the same session were passed the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. c. 98, Stamp Duties Management, and 33 and 34 Vict. c. 99, repealing certain enactments relating to the Stamp Duties. The Duties came into operation on the 1st January 1871.

The exemptions in other Acts in force are preserved (§ 3).

The attention of the public may be directed to the following matters:—

1. The general deed duty, or duty on a deed not otherwise charged, is reduced to 10s.

2. Progressive duty on words is not imposed.

3. Provisions are made for charging ad valorem duty on conveyances in respect of periodical payments or annuities.—§ 72.

4. An agreement for a lease for a term not exceeding 35 years is to be charged with the lease duty.—§ 96.

5. An instrument chargeable as a lease in consideration, in whole or in part, of produce or other goods—

Where it is stipulated that the value shall amount to or not exceed a given sum, ad valorem lease duty on such sum.

6. A notarial instrument is liable to the same duty as an instrument of seisin—to wit, 5s.

7. Any instrument specifically charged by any previous Act with the duty of 35s. is chargeable with the duty of 10s.—§ 4.

8. Instruments relating to the property of the Crown, and to the private property of the sovereign, are liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject.—§ 5.

9. Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of material.—§ 7 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of material is to be separately stamped.—§ 7 (2).

10. Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 8 (1). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 8 (2).

11. An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 9 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 9 (2).

12. All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, penalty on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 10.

13. Instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of money in foreign or colonial currency, the duty to be calculated on the value in British currency, according to the current rate of exchange at the date of the instrument.—§ 11.

PROPERTY LIABLE TO THE DUTY.—Generally—All personal property (heritable securities are personal property which include bonds of annual rent and bonds of annuity and real burdens on land, but not securities by absolute disposition qualified by back bond) belonging to the deceased in the United Kingdom, heritable securities, and bonds excluding executors, and also money secured by ex facie absolute dispositions. (48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38, etc.; 55 Geo. III. c. 184, Schedule, Part III.; 21 & 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 9, 12, 13, etc.; and 16 & 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8; 31 & 32 Vict. c. 101, §§ 3 and 117; 37 & 38 Vict. c. 94, § 30; and 23 & 24 Vict. c. 80.)

Personal Property—Absolute power of disposal.—

Personal estate which a person dying after 3d April 1860 shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or moveable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty. (23 Vict. c. 15, § 4.)

Indian Promissory Notes—Ships.—Indian Government promissory notes and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for the purpose of such registration, before the death of the owner; also Indian Government promissory notes with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate and bona notabilia in England of the deceased person (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1): Also any ship, or any share of a ship, belonging to a deceased person, registered in any port in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding such ship at the time of the death may have been at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port at which she may be registered (27 & 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

Specialty Debts.—For probate and administration duty, debts and sums of money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of the deceased within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England or Ireland in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death. (25 Vict. c. 22, § 39.)

Foreign Bonds and Stocks.—Documents of the debts of foreign governments and foreign companies which pass from hand to hand are property where the documents may be. Debentures or bonds by foreign companies and governments, and the title to stocks of foreign companies and governments, are property in this country if in the possession of any person in this country, and can be sold in the market, and the title of the purchasers completed to them in this country. See Attorney-General v. Bouwens, 4 Meeson and Welsby 171.

Companies—Colonial Registers.—Companies under the Companies Acts whose objects comprise business in a Colony may have a branch register of members resident in said Colony. The share of a deceased member registered in such Colonial register shall be part of the estate of such deceased member for inventory duty, in like manner as if the registration had been in the registered office of the company. (46 & 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (b).)

Rents of Heritage.—If the deceased survive Whitsunday, one moiety of the rents of the crop of that year is personal estate. If he survive Martinmas, the whole rents of that crop fall into the executory. In addition, from and after 1st August 1870, the Act 33 & 34 Vict. 1870, c. 35, would seem to give the executor a proportion of the rents from the term preceding the date of death to the date of death. That Act would also seem to give a proportion of the term's rents of quarries, minerals, and houses, and also feu-duties current at the death. The executor's right to house rents would not therefore be to the half-year's rents current at death, but to a proportion only to the date of death.

Property taken as a donation mortis causa, or by inter vivos Disposition or Transfer within three months before death—Property, the beneficial interest in which accrues by survivorship—Property passing under voluntary settlement, an interest for life or an absolute power of revocation being reserved to the Settlor.—Such property, being that of a person dying on or after 1st June 1881, is liable to stamp duties at the like rates as charged on inventories. (44 Vict. c. 12, § 38.)

The duties are payable on an account, forms of which and relative affidavit may be obtained at the Inland Revenue Office (Legacy and Succession Duty Department).

MODES IN WHICH DUTY MAY BE PAID.

When deceased domiciled in Scotland.—In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory required to be recorded in the Sheriff Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property situated in Scotland, including heritable securities made moveable by the Act 31 & 32 Vict. c. 101, § 117, and duty may be paid on a 'special inventory' of the heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

When deceased domiciled furth of the U. K.—In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.

In exhibiting inventories after 1st June 1881, the amount of debts due and owing by the deceased to persons in the United Kingdom, and funeral expenses, may be deducted from the value of the estate for the purpose of paying the inventory duty. The amount of such to be delivered with or annexed to the inventory.

The debts not to include debts payable on death, or payable under instruments not bona fide delivered three months before death. The Commissioners of Inland Revenue, within three years, may call for evidence of the contents of, or particulars verified by, the inventory.

Where the gross estate of a deceased person dying after 1st June 1881 does not exceed £300, and the estate exceeds £100, if an inventory shall be given up in accordance with the special provisions of the Act, the duty to which the inventory is liable is 30s. (44 Vict. c. 12, § 34.)

Additional and Corrective Inventories.—If there shall be any omission in the inventory inferring the payment of further duty, an additional inventory is required to be exhibited (48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38; 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8). The stamp on the additional inventory is required to be of an amount sufficient to make up the stamp duty in respect of the total amount of all the estate. If the estate shall be over-estimated, or if something shall be improperly included in the inventory, a corrective inventory, duly stamped, requires to be exhibited. Allowance of the original inventory as a spoiled stamp will be obtained within six months after the recording of the second inventory.

RETURN OF INVENTORY DUTY.

The inventory duty and probate and administration duty are paid on the whole personal property, without deduction of debts; but the Act 5 & 6 Vict. c. 79, § 23, provides for a return being given on proof of the constitution and payment of the debts. This return must be claimed within three years; but the time will be prolonged on application to the Board of Inland Revenue. No return to be granted in respect of a voluntary debt due from a person dying after 28th June 1861, expressed to be payable on the death of such person, or payable under an instrument which shall not have been bona fide delivered to the donee three months before the death of such person. (24 & 25 Vict. c. 92, § 3.)

Note.—Forms of inventory and additional inventory will be found in the Juridical Styles, vol. III. App. pp. 8–11. Forms of inventories, and also regulations for return of inventory duty, may be obtained at the Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh.

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May 1858 are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 & 17 Vict. c. 51); and annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13.)

The duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment. (43 Vict. c. 14, § 11.)

power to accept a composition for legacy duty under a will. (44 Vict. c. 12, § 43.)

Estates not exceeding £300, and deceased dying on or after 1st June 1881—payment of fixed duty of 50s. on inventory to be in full of claim to legacy duty on estate to which such inventory relates. (44 Vict. c. 12, § 36.)

Printed forms and regulations for payment of the legacy duty may be obtained gratis, on application at the Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh; and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.

SUCCESSION DUTY.

(16 and 17 Vict. c. 51.)

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and moveable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY is charged on the annual value, after allowance of the necessary outgoings (§ 22), as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to the Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty according to the value of the succession; and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is charged as personalty (§ 1).

RATES OF SUCCESSION DUTY.

- (a.) Whether it is chargeable with any duty;
- (b.) With what amount of duty it is chargeable.
- (2.) If the commissioners are of opinion that the instrument is not chargeable with any duty, such instrument may be stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty.
- (3.) If the commissioners are of opinion that the instrument is chargeable with duty, they shall assess the duty with which it is in their opinion chargeable, and if or when the instrument is duly stamped in accordance with the assessment of the commissioners, it may be also stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is duly stamped.
- (4.) Every instrument stamped with the particular stamp denoting either that it is not chargeable with any duty, or is duly stamped, shall be admissible in evidence, and available for all purposes, notwithstanding any objection relating to duty.
- (5.) Provided as follows:—
 - (a.) Instrument to be stamped according to opinion.—An instrument upon which the duty has been assessed by the commissioners shall not, if it is unstamped or insufficiently stamped, be stamped otherwise than in accordance with the assessment of the commissioners.
 - (b.) Securities without limit not to be adjudicated.—Nothing in this section contained extends to any instrument chargeable with duty, and made as a security for money or stock without limit.
 - (c.) Also instruments which cannot be stamped.—Nothing in this section contained shall be deemed to authorize the stamping after the execution thereof of any instrument prohibited by law from being so stamped.

Persons dissatisfied may appeal.—§ 19 (1.) Any person who is dissatisfied with the assessment of the commissioners made in pursuance of the last preceding section may, within twenty-one days after the date of such assessment, and on payment of duty in conformity therewith, appeal against such assessment to Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in England, Scotland, or Ireland, according to the country in which the case has arisen, and may for that purpose require the commissioners to state and sign a case, setting forth a question upon which their opinion was required, and the assessment made by them.

Mode of proceeding.—(2.) The commissioners shall thereupon state and sign a case accordingly, and deliver the same to the person by whom it is required, and on his application such case may be set down for hearing in the proper court.

(3.) Upon the hearing of such case (due notice of which is to be given to the commissioners) the court shall determine the question submitted, and if the instrument in question is in the opinion of the court chargeable with any duty, shall assess the duty with which it is so chargeable.

- (4.) If it is decided by the court that the assessment of the commissioners is erroneous, any excess of duty which may have been paid in conformity with such erroneous assessment, together with any penalty which may have been paid in consequence thereof, shall be ordered by the court to be repaid by the commissioners to the appellant, together with the costs incurred by him in relation to the appeal.
- (5.) But if the assessment of the commissioners is confirmed by the court, the costs incurred by the commissioners in relation to the appeal shall be ordered by the court to be paid by the appellant to the commissioners.

The commissioners may call for and refuse to proceed without evidence.—§ 20 (1.) In any case of application to the commissioners with reference to any instrument, the commissioners may require to be furnished with an abstract of the instrument, and also with such evidence as they may deem necessary, in order to show to their satisfaction whether all the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of the instrument to duty, or the amount of the duty chargeable thereon, are fully and truly set forth therein, and may refuse to proceed upon any such application until such abstract and evidence has been furnished accordingly.

Affidavit not to be used otherwise. Person paying full duty relieved of penalty, etc., for omission to state truly in instrument.—(2.) Provided that no affidavit or statutory declaration made in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person making the same in any proceeding whatever, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and every person by whom any such affidavit or declaration is made shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable, be relieved from any penalty, forfeiture, or disability he may have incurred by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid.

(See Note b.)

No discount is allowed at the office of a distributor or sub-distributor on the purchase of stamps to be impressed on forms or plain paper provided by the purchaser. No discount is allowed on the purchase of postage stamps (including cards, wrappers, envelopes, etc.) or appropriate medicine labels at any Inland Revenue office, nor on appropriated forms, except receipts, cheques or drafts, bills of exchange, and bills of lading.

b. EXCHANGING SPOILED STAMPS.

STAMP DUTIES MANAGEMENT ACT, 1870 (33 and 34 Vict. c. 98).

Allowance for Spoiled Stamps.—§ 14. The commissioners may make regulations regarding allowance for stamps spoiled in the following cases, viz.:

Instruments not executed.—(1.) Inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated, or by any means rendered unfit for the purpose intended:

Adhesive Stamps.—(2.) Any never used nor affixed to any material, but inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled or rendered unfit for use:

Bills and Notes.—(3.) Signed by the drawer, but not delivered out of his hands to the payee, or any person on his behalf, or deposited with any person as a security for the payment of money, or in any way negotiated, issued, or put in circulation, or made use of in any other manner whatever, and which being a bill has not been accepted by the drawee, and does not bear any signature intended as or for the acceptance.

(4.) Signed by or on behalf of the drawer thereof, but which from any omission or error has been spoiled or rendered useless, although the same, being a bill of exchange, may have been presented for acceptance or accepted or endorsed, or, being a promissory-note, may have been delivered to the payee, provided that another completed and duly stamped bill or note is produced identical in every particular, except in the correction of such error or omission as aforesaid, with the spoiled bill or note:

(5.) The stamp used for any of the following instruments, that is to say—

(a.) Presentation to an ecclesiastical benefice not followed by institution:

(b.) Executed Instruments.—Executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found to be absolutely void in law from the beginning:

(c.) Executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found unfit by reason of any error or mistake therein for the purpose originally intended:

(d.) Executed by any party thereto, but which, by reason of the death of any person by whom it is necessary that it should be executed, without having executed the same, or of the refusal of any such person to execute the same, or to advance any money intended to be thereby secured, cannot be completed so as to effect the intended transaction in the form proposed.

(e.) Executed by any party thereto, which, for want of the execution thereof by some material and necessary party, and his inability or refusal to sign the same, is in fact incomplete and insufficient for the purpose for which it was intended:

(f.) Executed by any party thereto, which, by reason of the refusal of any person to act under the same, or by the refusal or non-acceptance of any office thereby granted, totally fails of the intended purpose:

(g.) Executed by any party thereto, which, for want of enrolment or registration within the time required by law, becomes null and void:

(h.) Executed by any party thereto, which becomes useless in consequence of the transaction intended to be thereby effected being effected by some other instrument duly stamped:

(i.) Executed by any party thereto, which is inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, and in lieu whereof another instrument made between the same parties and for the same purpose is executed and duly stamped:

Provided—

(1.) Executed Instruments—

(a.) The instrument is given up to be cancelled:

(b.) The application is made within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if not dated, within six months after the execution by the person by whom it was first or alone executed. Except, 1. Where from unavoidable circumstances any instrument for which another instrument has been substituted cannot be given up to be cancelled within the aforesaid period, and in that case within six months after the date or execution of the substituted instrument; 2. Where the spoiled instrument has become void for want of enrolment or registration, and in that case within six months next after it has so become void; 3. Where the spoiled instrument has been sent abroad, and in that case within six months after it has been received back in any part of the United Kingdom:

(c.) No action has been brought or suit commenced in which the instrument could or would have been given or offered in evidence:

(2.) Unexecuted Instruments.—In the case of stamped material, not having any executed instrument written thereon, and of an adhesive stamp not affixed to any material, the application is made within six months after the stamp has been spoiled.

Misused Stamps.—§ 15. Stamp used of greater value than was necessary, or stamp inadvertently used for an instrument not liable to any duty, application within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution. The instrument liable to duty to be restamped with the proper duty. The misused stamp to be cancelled and allowed as spoiled.

Allowance how to be made.—§ 16. The commissioners may give in lieu other stamps of the same denomination and value, or if required, and they think proper, stamps of any other denomination to the same amount in value, or, at their discretion, the same value in money, deducting the proper allowance on the purchase of stamps of the like description.

Stamps not wanted may be repurchased by the Commissioners.—§ 17. A stamp not spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which the person has no immediate use, the commissioners may, if they in their discretion think fit, repay the amount in money, deducting the proper discount. The stamp to be delivered up to be cancelled, and satisfactory proof to be given that it was purchased by him with a bona fide intention to be used, and that the applicant has paid the full value thereof without any deduction (except only the amount of such discount), and that the stamp was so purchased within the period of six months next preceding the application at the chief office or at one of the head offices, or from some person duly appointed to sell and distribute stamps, or duly licensed to deal in stamps.

As to the exchange of Sea Policies of Insurance, see 30 Vict. c. 23, § 17. The cases for allowing are—

(1.) Where policy shall be inadvertently filled up in an incorrect or improper manner;

(2.) Or be obliterated or otherwise spoiled, and rendered unfit for use;

(3.) Or shall be filled up for some insurances which shall not be proceeded in, and the same shall not be signed by any underwriter.

Application must be made within 6 months after the policy shall be spoiled or become useless.

A supply of forms of affidavits is kept at the Inland Revenue Office, and by the Distributors and Sub-Distributors of stamps, and certain Postmasters, and Claimants may attend at the Inland Revenue Office and have the affidavits taken; or they may get copies of the forms, and take the oath before a justice of the peace, and shortly afterwards lodge the affidavits and the stamps with any of the above officers. If not brought within ten days or a fortnight, the stamp will not be allowed without a fresh affidavit. If the claim be admitted at Edinburgh, a ticket is issued stating that application is to be made for the new stamps after the next Monday, and within six weeks from the date of the ticket. If the claim be lodged with a Distributor or Sub-Distributor, a ticket is issued stating that application is to be made for the said stamps after a specified date, and within six weeks from the date of the ticket. If application not made within that time, the claim will be forfeited, and no excuse will be accepted.

The stamps must be presented for allowance within six months after being spoiled. In all cases the stamps must be delivered up to be cancelled.

HACKNEY CARRIAGES IN EDINBURGH.

FARES BY DISTANCE.

The distance to which any hackney carriage may be driven under these Bye-laws shall be seven miles from the Cross of Edinburgh.

(1.) When a party not exceeding two grown-up persons, and without any luggage other than a carpet-bag or the like, enters a carriage at a stance, or when driving along disengaged, they shall be driven half a mile for 6d.; and if they return, they shall pay the same fare. The driver shall draw up to either side of the street when called; and if detained more than five minutes before starting, he shall be entitled to 6d. for waiting.

N.B.—This rule shall not apply to fares from railway stations.

(2.) Excepting the Sixpenny Fare, the fares by distance shall be shown in the annexed Table of Fares. The charges in the table shall include going from the stance or stable to the hirer's residence, and waiting ten minutes. But if the carriage be detained, before starting, more than ten minutes, a charge for waiting at the rate of 6d. for each quarter of an hour, or part thereof, after the expiry of the ten minutes, shall be allowed; and if the place where the hirer is to be taken up be beyond a mile from the stance or stable whence the carriage is taken, there shall be a charge of 6d. for such distance.

(3.) There shall be no charge for waiting while a hackney carriage is on the way to a destination unless the waiting before starting and the waiting by the way exceeds in all ten minutes; and when such waiting exceeds ten minutes it shall be charged for in terms of Section 2 of this bye-law. There shall be no charge for a short deviation from the direct route.

(4.) The fare to any place not mentioned in the table shall be the same as that to any place mentioned therein which is in the immediate vicinity.

(5.) When the fare of any particular place not mentioned cannot be ascertained by reference to a place in the immediate vicinity, the fare shall be 1s. for any distance not exceeding a mile and a half for one or two passengers; 1s. for any distance not exceeding one mile for three or four passengers; and 6d. for every additional half-mile, or part thereof, for any number of passengers not exceeding four.

(6.) Half fare returning with the party, excepting the half-mile drive.

(7.) When parties return (which they shall have the option of doing), and the fare going is 1s., the carriage shall wait ten minutes without any charge for waiting; when 1s. 6d., fifteen minutes; when 2s. and upwards, twenty minutes. If the carriage be detained longer, a charge shall be allowed for waiting, at the rate of 6d. for every twenty minutes or part thereof, commencing when the free waiting expires.

(8.) When a carriage is called but not used, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, if the place to which it is called be under half a mile from the stance or stable, and 1s. if beyond that.—Waiting as in Section 2.

FARES BY TIME.

It shall be in the option of the hirer to pay by time for a carriage employed within the municipal bounds, for SHOPPING, MAKING CALLS, and the like, where the driving is not continuous. The charge in such cases shall be 2s. for the first hour or part thereof, and 6d. for every additional quarter of an hour or part thereof.

For an AIRING into the country within eight miles from the Cross of Edinburgh, and returning either by the same or a different road, the rate shall be 3s. for the first hour or part thereof, and 1s. for every twenty minutes or part thereof. Unless the hirer wishes a slower pace, the rate of driving when out an airing shall be at least six miles an hour; and in the event of the driving being at a slower pace than six miles an hour, contrary to the wish of the hirer, it shall be optional for the hirer to pay the fare in the proportion of 3s. for every six miles so travelled. A drive round the Queen's Drive shall be at the rate of 3s. per hour.

WHETHER THE FARES ARE BY DISTANCE OR BY TIME.

(1.) The hirer pays tolls.

(2.) If there be more than four adults driven, a charge of 6d. extra shall be made for each, or for each two children above six years of age, and under twelve. No additional charge for one child above six to twelve, or children under six years.

(3.) Double fare—from twelve o'clock at night till seven o'clock morning. 1. When the hiring shall be by time the charge shall be double fare. 2. When the hiring shall be by distance, and the number of passengers shall not exceed four, the charge shall be double the fare as for one or two passengers. 3. For waiting, double charge shall be allowed. 4. The double charge shall not apply to luggage.

(4.) On Sunday the fares for such carriages as shall have been previously ordered or engaged, or hired elsewhere than on the public streets or stances, shall be fare and a half.

(5.) The above fares are for one-horse carriages, and there shall be no additional charge when two horses are used by the owner without being required to do so; but if two horses be used at the request of a hirer, the charge shall be fare and a half.

(6.) No owner or driver shall demand or receive more than the regular fare.

(7.) Owners or drivers may agree to drive at lower fares than those fixed. In that case, should they demand more than the fare agreed on, they shall be liable as for an overcharge.

LUGGAGE.

For luggage exceeding 100 lbs. in weight there shall be a charge of 6d. extra. But there shall be no charge for luggage under that weight. The driver shall assist in loading and unloading in all cases when required.

FARES MAY BE WITHHELD.

Any party shall be entitled to withhold payment of the fare—

1. When the name and number are not painted outside, or when there is no plate inside, in terms of Articles 2 and 3 of these bye-laws;
2. When the reference ticket is not given on demand.
3. When the bye-laws, table of fares, and driver's licence are not shown on demand.
4. When an overcharge is made.
5. When the driver fails or refuses to complete an engagement; but if payment of the fare be withheld, the party shall give the driver his full name, designation, and residence.

REDESS.

Complaints for breaches of the foregoing bye-laws should be made at the Procurator-Fiscal's Office, 7 City Chambers, immediately, or within eight days after the date of the offence, except in cases in which parties are prevented doing so by their absence from town.

THE SCOTTISH EQUITABLE is a Purely Mutual Office. There are no Shareholders to absorb any portion of the Profits, which are therefore wholly divided among the holders of Participating Policies at intervals of Five Years. Its leading features are—Unquestionable Security, Liberal Conditions of Insurance, and Early Participation in Profits.

NEW NON-FORFEITURE REGULATIONS.

The principle of Non-Forfeiture has recently been adopted by this Society to its fullest extent, so that when a Policy has acquired a surrender value (generally after payment of three years' premiums), that value will not be forfeited by failure to pay the premium, but, if not paid to the Policy-holder in cash, will be applied to keep the Policy in force, under certain conditions, either temporarily for its full amount until the value is wholly exhausted, or permanently for a reduced amount.

POSITION OF THE SOCIETY AT 1st MARCH 1884.

| The Annual Revenue was                                   | 358,073    |
| And the Accumulated Funds were                           | 2,744,842  |

The Accumulated Fund is 11·4 times the premiums of the year, and is 30·7 per cent of the existing assurances after deduction of the re-insurances of £548,372.

The Premiums on Whole-Life Policies are now calculated by half-years of age, so that those who insure within six months after a birthday will be charged a lower rate of premium than hitherto.

Most of the Policies after Five Years' endurance are freed from all conditions, except the payment of the Ordinary Premium.

SETTLEMENT POLICIES, with special advantages, are granted under the 'Married Women's Policies of Assurance (Scotland) Act, 1880,' free from all claims of creditors in the event of subsequent insolvency.

LOANS granted in connection with life insurance, on Life Interests, Reversions, and other approved Security. Reversions purchased.

IN entering on the Forty-sixth Year of the Association, the DIRECTORS have caused a careful revision to be made of the RATES of PREMIUM and CONDITIONS of ASSURANCE. The Rates have been recalculated on the most exact data available at the present time, and new Conditions have been introduced into the Contract of Assurance, conferring Liberal and Advantageous Privileges on the Assured.

It will be found that, in point of Economy, the New Rates compare favourably with those of any other office; and the attention of the public is particularly directed to the by which the Largest Amount of Immediate Assurance may be effected at the Lowest Present Outlay. Combined with the Extended Non-Forfeiture System of the Association, these Assurances present a very secure and highly advantageous method of Family Provision.

DEPOSITORS with this Company possess SECURITY of a high character. The Funds are lent over HERITABLE PROPERTIES WITHIN SCOTLAND. The Loans are, on the average, very moderate in amount, and in most cases are repayable by instalments embracing principal and interest, so that the margin of security is being steadily increased.

In addition to these Investments, the Company's UNCALLED CAPITAL, amounting to £180,000, furnishes a valuable Guarantee to Depositors; while the RESERVE FUND, amounting to £20,000, which is separately invested in BANK OF ENGLAND STOCK, affords a still further Security.

The Rate of INTEREST allowed on Deposits varies from 3 to  $7\frac{1}{4}$  per cent., according to the term for which the money is lodged.

The Arrangements with BORROWERS from the Company are simple and equitable. The Instalments (embracing Principal and Interest) by which Loans are repayable are moderate, and a portion of the sum advanced may lie at interest. No Commission or Fines are charged, and no Assessment made on Borrowers in name of additional interest dependent on the rise of the Bank Rates.

THE SHELTER FROM CRUELTY

is open at all times, and any child in need of protection may be brought by any person who believes it to be aggrieved; the only limit, arranged in order to prevent imposition, and to avoid placing the Directors in a false position, is, that the consent of the child's parents has been obtained, or, that the case has been brought under the notice of the Police. Upwards of Fifty cases have already been received. The visits of Ladies and Gentlemen interested in poor children are cordially invited.

THE STOCKBRIDGE DAY NURSERY is open every day except Sunday, from 6 A.M. to 8 P.M., for the children of mothers obliged to work out. Children of Two Months old and upwards are received, and well fed and cared for; and upwards of Fifty are at present in attendance.

LAUNDRY,
HOUSE OF MERCY, ST. CATHARINE'S CONVENT,
4 LAURISTON GARDENS,
EDINBURGH.

SPECIAL ATTENTION.—The Sisters of Mercy who conduct this LAUNDRY—opened three years ago, and now enjoying extensive patronage from Families resident in Edinburgh, Schools, and Hotels—solicit further Orders. Terms moderate. Printed Price List to be obtained by application to the Reverend Mother Superior at above address.

The Van collects and returns Washings in all parts of the City and Suburbs.

NEEDLEWORK AND KNITTING ARE ALSO DONE ON THE PREMISES.

The House of Mercy has been established to board, lodge, and train as domestic servants, girls who have no home or proper protection. Numbers of girls are being lost daily for want of those safeguards which a respectable home ensures, and which are so necessary for a girl in a city like Edinburgh. Those only who visit the very poorest and lowest localities can know the terrible dangers and temptations by which such girls are surrounded. It is idle to deplore the number of those who fall, and who, besides losing their own souls, bring many others to ruin, if strenuous efforts are not at the same time made to avert this evil. The SISTERS, therefore, confidently appeal to the charitable for assistance in a work which, they venture to think, can have no small claim on their sympathy and support.

Annual Subscriptions, however small, and Donations of Money, Food, or Clothes will be thankfully acknowledged by the Reverend Mother Superior, who will be happy to show Visitors over the Laundry on Thursdays and Fridays.

DANIEL MACKAY & CO.,
CAMERON BANK, NEWINGTON, EDINBURGH,

HAVE been employed as GARDEN ARCHITECTS in the various methods of designing and laying out KITCHEN and FLOWER GARDENS, PLANTATIONS, CARRIAGE DRIVES and other WALKS, and planting SHRUBS and TREES, over a period of Twenty-five years.

D. M. & CO. having acquired some experience, and having devoted considerable time during this long period to both Theory and Practice in the above vocations, are prepared to undertake the commands of any party requiring their service.

D. M. & CO. having found much difficulty in cases of planting to procure handsome Shrubs and Trees, resolved, in 1865, to grow these Plants, with the view of meeting the exigencies of their own trade specially, and have now succeeded in raising a small select Stock of Shrubs and Trees, thoroughly trained and frequently transplanted, which, for health, symmetry, and size, can be favourably compared with similar Plants in similar situations over Great Britain.

D. M. & CO. have great pleasure in recommending these Plants to all Parties about to plant. Those who may be disposed to inspect the Stock will find representatives of nearly all the Hardy Evergreen Shrubs worth cultivating.

THE GRAND HISTORICAL GALLERIES

OF

11 SOUTH BRIDGE, EDINBURGH,

WHICH HAS BEEN PRONOUNCED BY THE

PRESS AND PUBLIC

TO BE ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL SIGHTS IN THE CITY.

THIS SPLENDID COLLECTION CONSISTS OF CORRECT MODELS OF

KINGS, QUEENS, PRINCES, DUKES, WARRIORS, STATESMEN, POETS, CRIMINALS, ETC.

Museum of Relics, Curiosities, Paintings, Sculpture, Ancient Armour, Etc.

Within these grand palatial halls
A thousand sights are there,
Antiquities from many a clime,
And jewels rich and rare;
The relics of a bygone age—
Two thousand years ago—
Spears, breastplates, swords of Bruce's time,
That laid the Southern low.

And numerous waxwork figures, too,
Each looking true as life,
Portraying groups historical
In peace or bloody strife;
Grim-visaged warriors clad in mail,
And dames in silk attire;
Kings, Queens, Dukes, Warriors, and Divines,
Historians, and Esquires.

'THE FLOWERS OF THE FOREST.'

Our ancient University has held its celebration,
And Scotland's intellectual growth had fit commemoration;
From Nature's Noblemen we turn to Nature's Forest Lords,
And seek to catch the lessons which the 'Greenwood Tree' affords.

The brave old Oak, the fragrant Birch, the hardy mountain Pine,
Will 'hold their own' where Forest Trees of many lands combine;
Our Scottish woods in grandeur to the traveller now appear (Including Leckie's Boot-Tree, which has flourished many a year).

If the Tory Vote of Censure does not shatter his position,
The Grand Old Woodman might come down to see our Exhibition;
But to get back without a seratch would need his utmost skill,
For the Ladies of Mid-Lothian have 'a craw' with plack' with Bill.

He tramples upon Woman's Rights, and will not heed her wrongs,
When seeking for the Suffrage, which to her of right belongs;
To meet a Lady Conference, the Premier would be slow,
Another 'Jenny Geddes' might arise, 'an' what for no'.

The Franchise Bill will shortly feel their Lordships' tender care,
And if the Skot should pinch them, they will have to grin and bear;
It was not made to fit them, and when comes Redistribution,
Two million votes will help to mend our ancient Constitution.

The Desert is but barren ground for winning Scottish fame,
Yet Highlanders would rally round a Gordon or a Graham.
The flavouring of Egyptian hash the Great Powers will amuse;
But where's the Politician that would stand in Gordon's Shoes?

'Within a mile o' Edinburgh' Toon' the Tourists, as of yore,
Regale themselves with beauty, and our City sights explore.
If the Maori Monarch comes to see our Highland 'Beas',
Let him avoid Glenlivet, as he journeys through the Glens.

Let the Ladies look for Comfort now to Leckie's Summer Boots,
Mankind has proved their merits in Life's various pursuits;
They may be termed Handsome Boots—Cueap, Durable, and Neat, Supplied by JOSEPH LECKIE, Number 50 Cockburn Street.

FAREWELL, depressing, doleful year, we give thee scanty praise;
But '85 has promised brighter hours and longer days.
A.M. and P.M. are defunct, but bonnie Scotland sees,
While one p.m. she loses, she will win twelve new M.P.'s.
A year of pride and poverty, with heightened Income-tax,
And trade depression adding to the burden on our backs;
But when six million sterling we have spent upon our Navy,
We're fit to send all other fleets to Mr. Jones (called Davy).
The closing year reminded us of Gladstone's natal day,
That vigorous youth of Seventy-five, who won the Franchise fray;
And when the Highland Crofters have secured a new Land Bill,
We'll praise him to the Skye (or skies) who works the People's will.
The Boundary Commissioners will shortly take our measure.
And try to fit our members into seats with ease and pleasure;
Like Leckie, who has seats for all, with fitting Neat and Eash,
Free-Trade and Fair-Trade in full swing—the very thing to please ye.
How fares it at New-year time with the horns of Khartoum?
We trust that warlike Wolseley will penetrate the gloom;
With a Black Watch on his movements, the ubiquitous Mahdi
Will find Sandy on the desert, and the Highlanders from Skye.
America's new President can reckon up his gains;
May he and his supporters ne'er be troubled with chill-Blaines;
May Chubmen and Frenchmen sign an armistice ere long;
May wily Bismarck get a cup of Congo hot and strong.
Death, Dynamite, and Earthquake led to woe and devastation;
Prince Leopold's untimely death brought sorrow to the nation;
The bold Buclench paid Nature's due; so did the Zulu King;
And blind, far-seeing Fawcett to the spirit land took wing.
The Universe can never touch our Universe-itee.
We had Gladstone in Mid-Lothian, we had the Forest-tree;
Royal Visitors and Tourists—who were very loth to leave us,
And some of them got perched upon the summit of Ben Nevis.
The London 'Healtheries' achieved magnificent success,
Like Leckie's Boots, which tend to health, and always must progress.
A Good New Year to one and all!—seek Comfort for your Feet

RHEUMATISM.

'THE NEW CLUB, KING'S ROAD, BRIGHTON, 23rd September 1884.

'MR. R. SMITH, DEAR SIR,—This morning I sent my own Belt and my little boy's "Lung Invigorator" to you to be remagnetized. I am very thankful to say your Belt has completely cured my leg, but I wish to have the Belt to wear, as I derive much benefit from it in addition to the good it has done my leg. I am by no means tired of recommending the use of these Appliances, which have proved within my own experience absolutely efficacious whenever fairly tried, and my hope is that this letter—which you are at perfect liberty to use as a testimonial—may lead many to at least try your Magnetic Appliances, for I have not the least doubt but that all who try them—though they may be as great unbelievers in their efficacy as I myself was—will eventually have as good reason to speak as loudly in their praise as has yours truly,

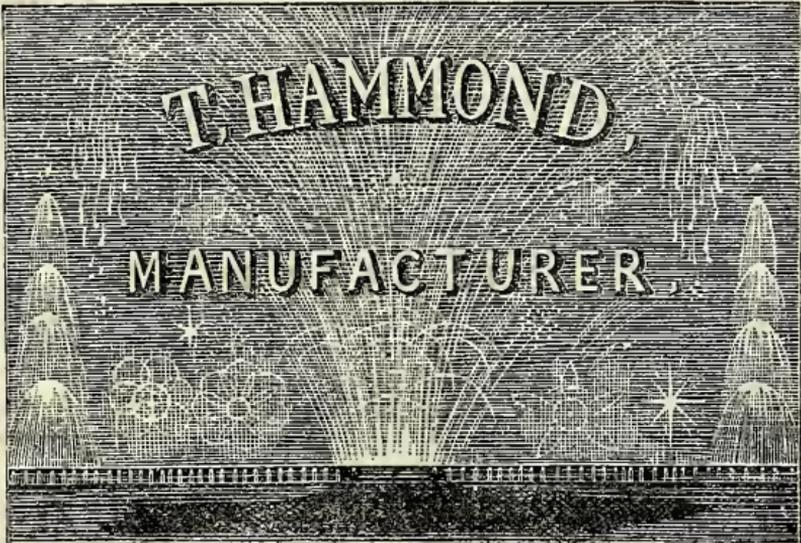

J. RADERMACHER.'

WORTHINGTON STEAM PUMPS

SIZE—9 × 5½ × 10 (fitted with extra side pipe and strainer).

THE valve motion is the important and characteristic peculiarity of this Pump, as being that to which it owes its complete immunity from noise or concussive action. Each pump has two steam cylinders and two double-acting plungers, and the slide valve of the one cylinder is worked by a lever which is actuated by the piston rod of the other, thus dispensing with the whole system of cranks, fly-wheels, loose tappets, and supplemental cylinders, all of which have been found in practice more or less objectionable.

The valve motion also allows of the plungers pausing at the end of each stroke sufficiently long to allow the water to fill the chambers and the valves to settle back in their places before the return stroke commences. This arrangement removes all shock and water-hammering, and makes the pumps peculiarly suitable for feeding boilers, and for other services where exceptionally high pressures have to be pumped against.

The 'WORTHINGTON' pumps are also positive in their action, the valve arrangement being such that they have no dead centre, but in every position of the stroke will start away the moment steam is admitted—a feature not to be met with in any single direct-acting or crank and fly-wheel pump.

Illustrated Catalogues and List of Prices may be had at the Office of the Company where also a 'WORTHINGTON' Steam Pump may be seen.

 No. 2.

Finished at top with Gothic Border, which gives it a finished-like appearance, and made in panels to suit walls. Prices on application.

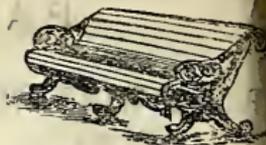

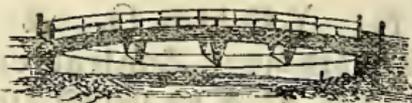

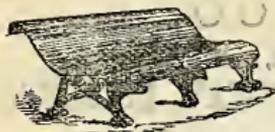

BAIN, YOUNG, & CO. most respectfully draw the attention of their Customers and others to their mode of Galvanized diamond Wire Trellising, for training Creeping or any other kind of Plants on front and side walls of Residences and Garden walls, for Fruit Trees, etc., or on any site where the same may be required. The above Trellising has been extensively supplied and erected by them for many years, and has given entire satisfaction to Professors, and other authorities on Horticulture, who recommend it as being the best in use for training Plants, Fruit Trees, etc. The material being light, yet strong enough for the purpose for which it is required, and the Trellising being kept out from the wall, and the heat of the sun being equally dispensed in the Trellising and Plants, produces a wonderful effect, greatly helping the growth and health of the Plants, which speedily cover the wall in a most pleasant manner. From their great experience in this class of work, B., Y., & Co. will be glad to take measurements: or if measurements be sent, prices will be given, thus enabling their Customers to know the entire cost previous to the work being done.

ASPHALT FLOORING is highly recommended for Stables, Byres, Barns, Cattle Sheds, Granaries, Cottars' Houses, and all kinds of Farm Buildings, on account of its being the most effective preventive to the ascent and spread of Damp, its complete exclusion of Vermin, its neat and cleanly appearance, its durability and cheapness in comparison with other descriptions of flooring and pavement, and its healthy and disinfectant properties. While it effects a great saving, by the exclusion of rats and smaller vermin, owing to the close texture of the composition, without seam or joining, it keeps the Grain in a sweet state, from the entire absence of damp or moisture; and wherever the Asphalt Flooring has been used, it has fully realized all the benefits held out by its adoption.

103 BATH STREET, GLASGOW

EXTRACT FROM "THE MERCANTILE AGE AND TEXTILE TIMES."
 London, Glasgow, and Manchester, 3rd November, 1884.

It surely must be regarded with a degree of astonishment that an art so admirably calculated to advance the truest interests of mankind should have been discovered at so late a period; for up to the middle of the fifteenth century we hear little or nothing of the embryotic art of printing. We think that we have before stated that the first book printed was the one on the game of chess, which was completed on the last day of March, 1474. In an interesting note, well known to all hunters after scarce books, Caxton explains to his readers that the work is printed, "not wretton with penne and inke, as other bokes ben, to thende that every man may have them att ones, ffor all the bokes of this story, named the Recule of the histories of Troyes, thus enprynted as ye here see, were begone in oon day and also finished in oon day." Notice the "finished in one day." That was considered a wonderful thing then; but what would Caxton say now were he to come to the upper world of light and literature? The beautiful type, the splendid machines, the number of books, would absolutely dumbfounder him.

The art of printing in its present proportions, however, would not surprise him so much as the attendant invention of lithography. The books he printed, when they were to have illuminated borders, or be otherwise illustrated, had to undergo a long process of handwork with, in many cases, very unsatisfactory results; the books now illustrated can be produced as easily as though they were not; and the finest pictures by masterhands can be reproduced on paper by mechanical processes, in such perfection as to rival the original. It is a wonderful, great, and educational invention, and has done much to foster in the minds of the multitude a taste for beauty.

This is, indeed, more marvellous when we consider that the lithographic art has developed to its present proportions within seventy-five years, for it is about that time since Seneffelder—a celebrated musician connected with the theatre of Munich—introduced his system of litho writing in script and ornamental work. He discovered that the art of taking impressions from writings or drawings, transferred to stone, depended on the readiness with which calcareous stone imbibes water; its great disposition to adhere to resinous or oleaginous substance, and the disposition those substances have to combine, and to repel water, or any other substance moistened with water.

Shortly after the invention of the lithographic art came that of chromo-type, employing blocks for various coloured inks, the earliest and simplest of which was the printing of the red-letter days in almanacs, or the rubric in the Church of England prayer book. This has now developed to such great perfection, both as to the artistic drawing of the design, engraving of the block, and perfect registration, impression and hot pressing of the sheet, that we are compelled to rank it among the fine arts of the period.

As Mr BARLOW is one of the largest block printers in this country, we are pleased to include his establishment in our series of British industries, in which we have tried to show the present position, rather than the past history, of our national trade. Mr BARLOW commenced business in 1846 as a pyrotechnist, and gradually added other branches—flag, banner and tent manufacturer; and so late as fifteen or sixteen years ago he added to his other large industries letterpress, lithographic, and block printing—an idea of the magnitude of which may be gained by the following facts: The printing works consist of a six storeyed spacious building crowded with the most modern plant of printing presses and type that it has been our pleasure to inspect. On the ground floor there are ten large machines—from a small Minerva to a double super-royal, which are worked by a 14-h.p. horizontal engine. The second floor is used as a composing room, where there is an unusual variety of type suitable for general work, especially theatrical and circus bills and posters. Whilst we mention these specialities, we would not ignore the other founts of type which are suitable for general jobbing, especially law stationery, &c. Following our cicerone we ascended to the third floor, which is the lithographic section, in which are the usual presses and inkmills, the latter being driven by a separate horizontal engine; for Mr BARLOW grinds his own colours. Amongst the machines in this department there is one very excellent quod-crown, by George Mann of Leeds, having all the latest improvements. The fourth storey is the block store-room. When we mention the astounding fact that there are at least 6000 engraved blocks in this room, all double-demy size, we shall be excused from describing them in minutiae. Ascending again, we were ushered on to the sixth storey, where Mr BARLOW's designers and engravers were busily at work.

We may mention that the whole building is heated by the waste steam from the large boiler, situate in the basement, where the engineers' and mechanics' shops are.

Retracing our steps, we come to the front building, which we will briefly describe. On the basement there are innumerable store-rooms for decorative lamps—for there are thousands of variegated glass lamps always in stock—tents, marquees, and tent-fittings, there being always in stock upwards of 120 marquees and tents ready for hire; flag and banner poles, at least a thousand of which can be had on hire at any time; and a stock of printed posters, etc., of which we will speak anon.

The ground floor, on which are the public and private offices of the warehouse, contains many stock and manufacturing departments, of which we will merely describe a few. In the silk-banner manufacturing room, in which are nine sewing-machines, we saw many beautiful banners in the course of completion. The general wholesale and retail shop, where you may, at a moment's notice, obtain flags of all nations—flags used in the code of international signals, house and decorative flags, and ecclesiastical banners. In fact, Mr BARLOW's heraldic bunting floats in all breezes; and has not only made for him an ubiquitous name, but also an enviable reputation as a flag and banner manufacturer.

We now wend our way through a series of stock-rooms, containing literally hundreds of tons of stock. When we say that the building has a frontage of forty feet and measures 113 feet longitudinally, being six storeys in the rear and six in the front, it will be understood that the magnitude of the stock is positively beyond description. We found 1030 kinds of posters—not ordinary double-demy posters, as some would imagine; but each poster containing from three to thirty sheets of double-demy-sized paper, printed in five colours.

We drove down to Mr BARLOW's fire-work factory, at Tenchar Hill, Govan, which covers about six acres, and is licensed by Act of Parliament. On the occasion of our visit, Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of explosives was taking a walk through the factory. After we had explained to us the modus operandi of producing Bombay lights, Roman candles, Signal rockets, golden fountains, and various other wonderful productions, including shells, whose report is equal to a twelve-pounder, and had carefully gone through the warehouse, packing-room, rocket-room, filling and charging shops, we concluded that it would be wise for us to keep as far away from describing, in minutiae, this wonderful and secret industry, as we did from the large magazine. Mr BARLOW having frequently to furnish these goods on very short notice, is prepared to dispatch goods at five hours' notice, and, if necessary, attendants for grand pyrotechnic displays at prices ranging from £5 to £1000. It would be a breach of confidence, had we the power to do so, to describe how these fire-works are produced. Mr BARLOW has devoted his life to this industry, and is, to-day, the universally acknowledged pyrotechnic artiste. Certainly, we were taken altogether by surprise when we saw the magnitude of his premises, and got to know the ramification of his trade. The numerous testimonials from the large corporate bodies, noblemen, and others, that can be seen on application, say far more than we can as to the great success Mr BARLOW has achieved.

NOTE.—Illustrated Catalogue sent Post Free on receipt of Post Card giving address where to be sent

The study of heraldry has in modern times fallen into discredit with the multitude, but it still has its practical uses, and a knowledge of the laws and principles of the art, or rather, science, has valid pretensions to be included in our curriculum of polite accomplishments. A precise acquaintance with all its details is not now required except from those whose professional duties have to deal with matters pertaining to mediæval art, but the education of a gentleman can scarcely be regarded as complete unless he is able to distinguish the armorial bearings of his own country and its sovereign, as shown in the various flags, coins, and emblems in common use. Heraldry, too, is a part of history, throwing light upon events which would be otherwise obscure. It is not, however, our purpose to deal with heraldry except so far as its principles are involved in the emblazonment of banners, pennons, standards, ensigns, pendants, flags, colours, and signals. It may be supposed that the single word "flags" should be sufficient to include the whole category; but heraldry is nothing unless it be precise, and it would be an unpardonable error to call the royal "standards" by any other designation, to confound the national "flag" with the "colours" of a regiment, or to transpose the names of "ensigns," "jacks," "house flags," and "signals." The generic name of "hunting" is applied to ship flags indiscriminately, but it is a term unknown to heraldry, and relates only to the material on which the ensigns are displayed.

Although banners and flags usually borrow their emblazonments from coats of arms, there can be little doubt that the use of the former preceded that of the latter. The Fourth Book of Moses supplies the proof in support of the theory. We are there told that the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron and ordered that "every man of the children of Israel banners at a very early period. There is no occasion to trace through every age a custom which soon became universal, and we may at once proceed to notice the uses of flags, their varieties, and their manufacture, as we find them in the present day, with special reference to those of our own country.

THE ROYAL STANDARD OF ENGLAND, is composed of the arms of ENGLAND, SCOTLAND, and IRELAND, and is displayed indifferently on sea and land, offering a contrast in this respect to the royal standards of other countries, notably that of Russia and Germany, whose Emperors have separate standards afloat and ashore. The members of the ROYAL FAMILY OF ENGLAND take the royal standard with their father's badge in the centre, and a label across showing the relationship. In this also our practice differs from that of other nations, where each member of the royal family and every grand duke has his own standard.

shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house." In the Bible Society's French version the phrases are rendered thus:—"Les enfants d'Israel camperont chacun sous sa bannière, avec les enseignes des maisons de leurs pères." A student in heraldry would no doubt prefer the latter rendering of the text, and it is certainly the more grammatical, but the two versions are sufficiently close to illustrate the use of standards, ensigns, or

The history of the UNION JACK is in some respects peculiar. It is really the national flag, and is the essential part of every ensign. It contains the ancient charge of the red cross of St. George, though not in its ancient simplicity, for it has been so amalgamated with the crosses of ST. ANDREW and ST. PATRICK that the integrity of each is somewhat compromised.

Experts in heraldry assure us that in effecting this compromise the principles of the science have been violated, but the authorities who sanctioned the successive alterations are certainly as worthy of confidence as the critics are. Prior to 1707 the Jack was charged with the single cross of St. George, but the Union with Scotland necessitated a change, which was effected by Act of Parliament, and thence forward the jack was technically described as "Azure, the saltire of ST. ANDREW, surmounted by the cross of ST. GEORGE, the latter fimbriated, argent." On the Union of Ireland at the beginning of the present century, the addition of the cross of ST. PATRICK became desirable, but there was a difficulty in the way, the crosses of ST. ANDREW and ST. PATRICK being identical in shape. How this was got over may be seen from the technical description of the flag as it now stands, which runs thus:—"Azure the crosses saltire of ST. PATRICK and ST. ANDREW, quarterly, per saltire, counterchanged, argent and gules, the latter fimbriated; of the second, surmounted by the cross of ST. GEORGE, of the third, fimbriated 'as the saltire." The three crosses are thus to be seen, although to the unobservant there appear to be only two.

The Duke of Edinburgh, as the Master of the Trinity House, hoists a flag composed of the St. George's Cross, quartered by four barges of the reign of Henry VIII., and in the centre a shield with the same emblem.

The flags most in use in the United Kingdom are UNION JACKS, AND WHITE, BLUE, AND RED ENSIGNS. The white is reserved for the sole use of the navy, the blue for the naval reserve, while the red is the common property of the nation, and may be used by any one. Yacht Clubs may have their own designs for flags, the Royal Yacht Squadron having an exclusive right to use the white ensign, while the blue is only allowed by special warrant. Clubs not having any special privilege must be content with the red. The Admiralty, the Customs, and other departments of the Government have distinguishing badges on their ensigns. That of the telegraphic branch of the Post-Office is peculiar, consisting as it does of a representation of Father Time with his hour-glass smashed by lightning. Different flags are also allotted to the several light-houses.

The Governor-General of India has for his standard the UNION JACK, with this motto in the centre—"Heaven's Light our Guide," surrounded by the sun and surmounted by a crown. Colonial flags consist of the Union Jack with the seal of the Governor in the centre. These flags are forty-eight in number, and seem of themselves to show the enormous scope of the empire. The flag of the Dominion of Canada has, in its centre, quarterings of the seals of the states of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick. The flag of Gibraltar has a castle and keys, that of Hong Kong junks and shipping, that of West Australia the Black Swan, that of Victoria the stars of the Southern Cross, that of Granada a sugar press, and that of the Leeward Islands of the West Indies a number of pines, the design of Sir Benjamin Pine. It has been jocularly said that a large pine in the centre is himself, and the three smaller ones to the right his family.

THE CODE OF INTERNATIONAL SIGNAL FLAGS was adopted about thirty years ago, chiefly through the exertions of the late Sir William Mitchell, the proprietor of the Shipping Gazette. It was for his services in this matter that he received the honour of knighthood. Previous to that time the code in most general use was known as Marryatt's. The new code requires the use of nineteen flags, which give by their various combinations 76,000 messages. In the Royal Navy, however, a special code is still in use, for which forty-five flags are required. In rapid signalling a halliard is rove for each flag. A totally different system of signals is employed in the army the flags being made of muslin, and the only colours blue and white, disposed on the principal of the Morse alphabet. There is yet another system employed for distant signalling, musketry practice, and judging distances, wherein the three colours, blue, white, and red, are used.

What are known as "HOUSE FLAGS" are adopted by all the large shipping firms and navigation companies, so that the ownership of a vessel may be distinguished at a glance. These house flags bear fanciful devices, which are often anything but artistic, and certainly are amendable to none of the laws of heraldry. But they are not designed for ornament, and the more outré they are the better they serve the purpose.

Having thus briefly reviewed the flags in most common use in the United Kingdom, it will be interesting to note a few of the peculiarities of foreign flags and standards. Saint George is the emblematic saint of Russia, but his encounter with the dragon is represented in a different way from that in which it is conventionally displayed in England. The standard of the Czar, in addition to the double-headed eagle, contains in the centre St. George and the dragon, as well as the badges of eight different states. That of the Emperor of Austria is similar, with the badges of eleven states. The Emperor of Germany displays a double-headed black eagle, with an iron cross bearing the modern motto, "Gott mit uns, 1870." The double-headed eagle represents the Eastern and Western Empire. The Polish eagle is white. The origin of all these eagles is traced back to A.D. 10, when Varus, commander-in-chief of the legions in Germany, was surprised and his army cut to pieces. The Romans lost two of their standards, a black eagle and a white one. The black was taken by the Germans, and the white by the Samaritans. It is also supposed that a third standard was lost to the Sclavi. The double heads must have been a subsequent invention. The Royal Standard of Spain has the peculiarity of being coloured purple. In the centre of the different states are quartered on a shield surrounded by the collar of the Golden Fleece. The flags of Norway and Sweden bear a resemblance to that of our own United Kingdom. The Standard of the Sultan of Turkey is crimson, embroidered with his signature, and is never used except for the purpose of signifying his presence. The flag of the United States has now thirty-seven stars, one for each state, and thirteen stripes, the number remaining the same as at the time of the Declaration of Independence. The flags of the South American Republic are simple in design, but eccentric in emblems: thus Mexico is known by its eagle and cactus, Brazil by its tobacco and coffee plant, Peru by its llama and horn of plenty, Bolivia by its mountain, sun, and stars, and Chili by its single star. The standard of Theban, King of Burmah, is characteristic of the man, the design being a peacock displayed. The Persian standard has for its device a lion and a sword in the full blaze of the sun. Siam displays its typical white elephant. China is represented by a five-toed dragon gazing at the sun. The Japanese standard is a yellow circle upon a damask ground, and the ensign is a crimson circle on a white ground.

We venture to think that from this slight sketch of flag history, which, if space permitted might be greatly extended, our readers will be impressed with the importance of the subject in its commercial bearing, very few having any idea of the extent of the manufacture and of the varied nature of the demand for flags. Reliable information on these points being a desideratum, we shall now give some particulars respecting a recent visit paid by us to a flag factory.

FLAGS are invariably made of bunting, a woollen fabric, which, from the nature of its texture, its great toughness and durability, is peculiarly fitted to withstand the hard usage to which it is subjected in the "battle and the breeze." It comes from the Yorkshire Mills in pieces of 40 yards, and in widths varying from 4½ to 36 inches. Government flags are made from a bunting of special strength as well of width and make. Silk is also used, but only in flags for royalty or for festive occasions, and then only of special quality made by the Spittalfields weavers.

In consequence of the great strain the flag has to undergo whilst flying in all weathers, attention has to be paid to the quality of the heading, that is, the strip of flax material to which the flag is sewn nearest the mast or staff and through which the flag-line is rove, as well as to the line itself, which is made of a special kind of flax thread of tested strength and make. Flags are either sewn or printed, but the latter process is only adaptable for flags of small size which admit of being printed in the piece, or where a sufficiently large number of the same description are ordered to warrant the cost of cutting the blocks for printing.

In regard to SEWN FLAGS, the very fact of sewing together the pieces which compose the flag adds materially to the strength of the whole, for the same reason that a spliced rope is nowhere so strong as in the splice itself. Very experienced cutters-out are required for the first part of this process, and the sewing of the flags and headings afford ample employment to a large number of hands, and also necessitating the extensive use of sewing-machines, while much of the work is given from the cutting-room to outdoor hands to make-up.

The PAINTING of DESIGNS on flags of silk or bunting is a distinct branch of itself, the art of laying colour on a material of such loose texture being a secret known only to a few. The artistic nature of the designs, many of which the firm are frequently called upon to furnish, make it requisite that a skilful artist and corps of assistants should be retained on the premises, their abilities being also called into action in the painting of flags of elaborated device. The printing works are carried on at some distance from the factory, and here again artistic assistants are required in the preparation of drawings, cutting of blocks, &c.

Of course the largest trade is done in Ensigns, Jacks, and Signals, and the fact that every ship to be properly equipped, should carry the two former, as well as a complete set of the latter, and her owners' house flag, will show our readers at once that a very regular demand exists for these description of flags throughout the year, and the stock kept is commensurate with the demand. The signals are in six sizes, viz., three for ships and three for yachts. There are about fifteen different sizes of jacks and ensigns, from one yard upwards, to suit vessels of every tonnage.

The manufacture of flags, of which we have given such an outline as is likely to interest our readers, is certainly one of national importance, and must always be so regarded.
