Vessels to and from Ireland, or Coastwise, are not allowed to convey letters, under a heavy penalty.

Letters for the penny-post delivery must be under 4 ounce weight.

Single letters from any seaman in his Majesty's navy, or from any sergeant, corporal, soldier, &c. in his Majesty's service, within any part of his Majesty's dominions, on his own private concern only, not to be charged more than one penny each, to be paid when put into the Post-office :—the name of the writer, his class or description, and the name of the ship, regiment, &c. must be given by himself ; and the officer actually having the command must sign his name, and the name of the ship, regiment, &c. he commands.

pointed to receive the same, under the hand-writing of his commanding officer.

Not to extend to commissioned or warrant-officers, midshipmen, masters' mates, captains' clerks, or schoolmasters in the navy; or to commissioned or warrant officers in the army.

One half of any of the above sums to the use of his Majesty, the other to the informer, recoverable before any Justice of the Peace where the offence is committed; in default of payment, to be committed to the house of correction, for any space not exceeding one month, or till the penalty be paid.

Bank Notes and Drafts.—Persons wishing to send bank notes or drafts by post, are advised to cut such notes or drafts in halves, and send them at two different times, waiting till the receipt of one half is acknowledged before the other is sent.

Money, Rings, or Lockets, &c.—When money, rings, or lockets, &c. are sent by the post from Edinburgh, particular care should be taken to deliver the same to the Clerk, at the window at the General Post-Office; and when any such letter is to be sent from the country, it should be delivered into the hands of the Post-master; but it is to be observed, that this office does not engage to ensure the party from loss.

REGULATIONS.

1st. The regulations and table of fares enacted upon the 19th day of June 1811 years, are hereby repealed; and the before-mentioned general rules, the following regulations, and annexed table of fares, made according to these general rules, are substituted in place thereof.

2d. That each coach or chariot, before plying for hire, shall be inspected by a magistrate; and, if approved of, will be licensed by him, when a number will be issued to the owner, who must affix the same, together with his name, in letters at least one inch in length, on each door of the coach or chariot, immediately below the window. That there shall not be the same number on two coaches or chariots; and that no coach or chariot wanting such number or name shall be allowed to ply.

3d. That no insufficient coach, or chariot, or horses, shall be allowed to ply; and when any of the proper furniture of steps, springs, blinds, glasses, or check-strings for stopping the coachman, are broken or wanting, or the harness shall not be in good repair, it shall be lawful to detain from the hire 1s., or the whole hire, if it shall not amount to more. The coachman shall always keep the check-string in his left hand when driving, under a penalty not exceeding 5s.

4th. That there shall not be fewer than six coaches or chariots on the stance in Princes Street, every morning at nine o'clock, taking this duty by rotation, beginning at No. 1, and going on progressively, under a penalty of 10s. for every coach or chariot absent. All coachmen attending for a fare, at any stand, shall either sit on the coach-box, or stand at the horses' heads, under the penalty of 2s. 6d. for each offence.

5th. That each coachman shall be cleanly in his person, and wear a ticket on the front of his coat, with a number corresponding to that on his coach or chariot, under a penalty of 5s. for each offence.

6th. That when a company shall take a coach between the hours of ten and twelve o'clock, P.M. in that case, fare and a quarter shall be paid; between the hours of twelve and one o'clock, fare and a half shall be paid; and after one o'clock, double fare shall be paid, with the exception of the Theatre, where the usual charge only shall be paid.

7th. That the stances for the coaches and chariots shall be as follows; viz. Tron Church,—Princes Street, east end,—George Street, between Hanover and Frederick Streets,—Princes Street west end, facing Hope Street; or at such other places as the magistrates from time to time may appoint; and that there shall not be fewer than four coaches at the stand facing Hope Street.

8th. That coachmen are not on any account to inquire where a company are going, previous to engaging, or to plead prior engagements, when their services are required; nor shall they be allowed to draw off the stance, under pretence of being engaged, so as to have their choice of work; but their coaches or chariots, being on or near the stance, shall be considered as proof of their being disengaged; and on their refusing to take a fare, they shall be liable in a penalty of 10s. unless they can adduce evidence, to the satisfaction of the Magistrates, that they were actually engaged.

9th. That when a coachman is required to wait, either upon setting down or taking up a party, he must on no account refuse, under the penalty of 5s. and the forfeiture of his hire; but he shall be entitled to charge for the first fifteen minutes sixpence, and a like sum for each successive fifteen minutes he may be detained.

10th. That if a coachman shall be sent from a stance to any house to take up a company, he shall immediately announce his arrival, and remain in waiting during the pleasure of the company; for which he shall be entitled to charge the same allowance from his arrival as in the preceding regulation.

11th. That no fares higher than those in the annexed tables shall be demanded or taken: And if hired to any spot or place, not specified in the annexed table, (such as) from a change of the name, a new place, or beyond the limits, &c. in that case no fare higher than those in the before-mentioned general rules shall be demanded or taken: The coachman having it in his option to take either for the length of ground or time, but not for both. And if any coachman shall be convicted of imposing on his employers, or abstracting the fares from his master, he shall be liable in a penalty of four times the amount of the fare, and imprisoned until payment.

12th. That every coachman, when on duty, shall have in his pocket a printed copy of these regulations, to be kept in a tin box, with the number of the coach or chariot painted on it; and shall show the same to his employer, when required, under a penalty of 5s.

13th. That any coachman being convicted of drunkenness or abusive language, the Magistrates may revoke his license, or impose a penalty of 10s. and order him to be imprisoned till the same is paid.

14th. That the coachman (master or servant), after setting down a company, shall drive to the nearest stance; and if the number of coaches or chariots ordered to stand there is not complete, he shall remain for the service of the public.

15th. That any person wanting a coach or chariot, shall take one from the nearest stance to his residence; but if none shall be there at the time, and one shall be procured from another stance, there shall be paid for every stance beyond the nearest, in addition to the fare, the sum of 6d. This to be only applicable to fares under 2s. 6d.

16th. That there shall be no additional charge made for taking up or setting down any part of a company, unless the coach or chariot shall be detained ten minutes, which time for attendance shall be allowed to each fare, and not exceeding.

17th. That parties returning by the same coach or chariot, from any place, whether in town or at a distance in the country, shall pay one half fare additional, as back hire.

18th. That the fares are exclusive of the King's duty and tolls, which are to be paid by the company.

19th. That the regulations respecting the fare to Musselburgh will not be insisted on during the race week, for two hours before, and two hours after the horses have started for running.

20th. All parcels, or articles of any kind, to be immediately returned to the owner, if known; if not, to be lodged in the Council Chamber.

21st. At least one-fourth of the coaches to attend at the stand east end of Princes Street, on Sunday, from ten o'clock morning, to ten o'clock at night.

22d. That these regulations may be enforced by the Magistrates in the Council Chamber, or Judge in the Police Court.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

There are few persons to whom the advantages of Life Insurance are more applicable than to gentlemen in the learned professions, or in public offices, and to officers in the army and navy; even gentlemen of large landed property, whose estates are entailed on the eldest son, have, in many instances, of late years, adopted this mode of making provision for younger children, or of increasing the income they are desirous of leaving to their wives.

Persons holding lands by lease on lives, may assure the lives on which the lease depends. A creditor may assure the life of his debtor for the amount of his debt; and arrangements in the cases of loans may, by such means, be made highly convenient to the borrower, and afford security to the lender. The line in which estates are to descend often depends upon survivorships; if the person in expectation does not survive the person in possession, the estate perhaps goes into another family; in this case it is prudent, in those interested, to assure the life of the person through whom they may expect to inherit, against that of the person in possession; and as this is generally the case of a young life against an old one, a large sum may be secured for a moderate advance.

It can only be from a want of information of the principles of assurance, that lives on which so much depends should remain unassured by the persons interested in their continuance; and what removes every difficulty in point of expediency, is the advantage which the Atlas Company holds out of purchasing the interest of the Assured, at any time, at an equitable rate. The facility offered of transacting the business through a Committee of Proprietors acting for the Company, without applying to a professional agent, or correspondent in London, must operate as a great inducement for persons not to neglect so salutary a precaution.

Persons interested in Life Policies for the whole term, will, at the close of every period of seven years, be entitled to participate in the surplus Premiums, to be then ascertained by actual valuation; and the average addition to the sum insured for the last period was 65 per cent of the premiums paid, which is GREATER THAN HAS BEEN MADE BY ANY OTHER INSURANCE OFFICE.

As to the Rates charged by the Company, it may suffice here to say, that the Tables adopted by the Directors were originally framed upon the sound principles of mathematical computation; and the practice of the Equitable Society has put them to the unerring test of long and extensive experience.

If any new offices have ventured to reduce these rates, they may, perhaps, have done so without transgressing the bounds of bare security; but their prudence is at least questionable; and the Atlas has no inclination to follow their example. The means of accumulating money at compound interest, without risk, are open alike to all; and if in the exercise of those means the Atlas shall be found to have collected greater funds than their actual engagements require, the security of the Assured is placed beyond all question, and the surplus is preserved for the future benefit of those who had contributed to create it; and therefore, constituted as this Company is, it will be more for the interest of parties having Life Assurances to effect, to assure a less sum, at premiums which have been found fully adequate to meet losses, than a larger one at premiums speculatively reduced. In effect, the reduction of premium is only nominal; for the comparison to be drawn is not between the two rates of premium, but between the premium and the sum ultimately to be obtained in return.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The assurance of every species of property from loss or damage by fire, is undertaken by the Company on highly favourable terms; and policies for £300 and upwards will be entitled to participate in the surplus premiums every fifth year; the amount thereof in several late years has been from Twenty to Twenty-Five per cent.

The following are the rates for all policies where the premium exceeds 5s.

Common Risks,	1s. 6d. per cent.
Hazardous ditto,	2s. 6d.
Doubly Hazardous,	4s. 6d.

A payment for rent is made by the Company in case of Loss on Buildings, without any extra premium.

Proposals, fully explanatory of the principles and rates of the Company, may be had at the Company's Office, No. 59, George street, Edinburgh, where all letters on the subject of Assurances may be addressed to the Committee, or to their chairman, Mr Campbell.

The distinguishing feature of this Company is to effect Insurances on lives, on the lowest possible terms, consistent with the security of the public. This Company is not founded on the principle of Mutual Insurance, nor does it, like many others, profess to share the profits with the Assured in any other way than by a diminution of the rates of Insurance. In this plan, the Assured, without being made partners, are in fact participators in the profits; because they are only required to pay the very lowest possible rate of premium, and thus enjoy all the important advantages attending Insurance, the least possible diminution of income. Of this a comparison of the Company's Tables with those of other offices, will readily satisfy every one.

The rates are at least 18 per cent lower than those commonly charged, which may be illustrated by the following example.—A person aged 30 insuring £100, to be paid at his death, is required to pay an annual premium of only £2, 5s. While in other offices he is charged £2, 13s. 5d., being upwards of 18 per cent more than this Company demands.

Persons wishing to discontinue their Policies may dispose of them to the Company at a fair price.

The Policies of the Company may be at any time sold or mortgaged, and no notice of such transaction is required to be given at the office.

No charge is made for entrance, nor for Policies, except the stamp.

Annuities are purchased and granted by this Company on terms peculiarly advantageous to the public, and Endowments for Children are also granted on the most liberal terms.

Printed particulars may be had gratis, and every information obtained, from Mr Edwards, as above, or from any of the Company's agents, in every city and town of the united Kingdom.

The following may be mentioned among the advantages which attend insuring with this Company:—

The assured participate in the profits or savings of the Company, to the extent of two-thirds, and without any responsibility.

The participation may be applied, in the option of the assured, either to their own immediate benefit, by a diminution of the yearly premiums, or to the benefit of their heirs, by additions being made to the sums insured.

In case the assured should wish at any time to discontinue their policies, the Directors are authorized to purchase them.

An ample capital being provided by the Proprietors, the most undoubted security is afforded for the prompt discharge of the Company's engagements.

The objects of the European Company are,—The Insurance of Lives—the Sale of Annuities—the effecting Endowments for Children and others. The sums thus received will be placed out on annuities secured on land, or the funds of government, which, with the additional profit derived from Premiums taken from Life Insurances, secures the sum thus lent, and will enable this Company to afford to its Insurers, Annuitants, and Investors, greater advantages than any hitherto offered to the public.

The Profits derived by this Company will be distributed amongst the several persons connected with the Establishment, according to the contingency or certainty of their contract.

Shareholders, in consideration of forming a Capital for the Establishment of the Concern, will receive a dividend on the sums advanced, at the rate of 5 per cent per annum, with an increase thereto, according to the augmentation of their Stock, derived by a division of the Profits of the Concern, from time to time.

Life Insurers will derive an immediate benefit by the reduced rate of Premiums generally taken, with the prospect of a liberal addition to their Policies, or a farther reduction on the Premium in ten years.

No charge is made for Entrance, or for the Policy, beyond the actual cost of the stamp; the Assured are permitted to pass by sea in steam or decked vessels to or from any part of the United Kingdom; and in time of peace, to or from any part on the Continent, situated between the Elbe and Brest, without being required to pay any additional Premium, or to procure a license from the Directors.

Persons wishing to borrow Money, will not only be able to obtain it at a moderate rate, but will, on redeeming it, be entitled to a Policy of Insurance on the life or lives involved in the deed, chargeable only at the same rate of Premium, and admissible to the same amount of bonus, as would have been apportioned had the same life or lives been Insured at the time the deed was executed.

Persons wishing to increase their income by Annuity, will have the option of either procuring the utmost value of their Property immediately, or making a reserve for the benefit of their relations, as their necessities or feelings may dictate.

Persons insuring at this Office will derive two important advantages.—First, The most effectual security is provided for payment of losses. Secondly, Upon every policy effected for the whole term of life, the insurer will participate in the profits of the Company, by having periodical additions made to the sums insured, to the amount of two-third parts of such clear gains and profits.

At the same time, they will be protected by the ample capital above-mentioned from every chance of loss.

The business of the Company embraces Insurance on Single Lives, either for one or any definite number of years, or during the whole Life,—Joint Lives and Survivorships,—the granting and purchasing of Annuities, immediate, progressive, and deferred,—Endowments for Children, &c.

The following are a few of the Rates, from both Tables, for Single Lives.

With Profits.				Without Profits.
*Age	25	£2	5 4	*Age	25	£2	1 5
	30	2	10 7		30	2	6 6
	35	2	16 11		35	2	12 10
	40	3	4 11		40	3	0 9
	45	3	14 9		45	3	10 9
	50	4	7 10		50	4	3 7

This Company presents to the Public two modes of effecting an Insurance for the whole Life, either with or without a participation of Profits, according to two different Tables of Rates.

The Rates of the First Table are adapted to those who wish to participate in the Profits. They will thus enjoy the advantages of a mutual Insurance Society, while they are exempted from the risks and anxiety to which an association so modelled is for a number of years obviously exposed. At each periodical investigation of the Company's affairs, the Share of the Profits of those insured under the first Table, will either be applied to the increase of the sum insured, or the reduction of Annual Premiums, at their option.

The Rates in the Second Table are adapted to that class of persons, who, having no desire to participate in the Profits, only wish to secure a definite sum at the lowest Premium.

The Rates of Premium on Joint Lives, Survivorships, Annuities, Endowments, and every other department connected with Life Insurance, may be learned on applying at the Office.

On effecting an Insurance, no extra charge is made beyond the government stamp.

The Agents for the INSURANCE COMPANY OF SCOTLAND act as Agents for this Company.

* Example.—A person whose age does not exceed 25, may secure £100, payable on his death to his heirs or assignees, increased by a proportional share of the profits, by annual payments of £2, 5s. 4d., or without profits, by annual payments of £2, 1s. 5d.

London Union

ASSURANCE SOCIETY FOR FIRE, LIVES, AND ANNUITIES.

(INSTITUTED IN THE REIGN OF QUEEN ANNE.)

This is one of the oldest offices in London (1714). Of the profits, which are divided, the Proprietors can never draw more than one-third, and the Insured are entitled to two-thirds, which are added, once in seven years, to the sums in the policies. Notwithstanding this small share of Profits divided among the Stock Proprietors, an opportunity of purchasing the Stock rarely occurs, and then it is so much sought after in London, that upwards of L.200 per cent is readily given for it, which is the best evidence of the public confidence in the stability and success of the Office. This office has never appeared in a Court of Law. From the large share of Profits divided among the Insured, every L.100 insured by a policy for the whole period of life, may become worth L.150 at the death of the person insured. The insured for limited periods do not participate in the profits, but the rates for such insurances are reduced 20 per cent below the usual rates. The rates for the whole period of life are equally low with those for short insurances, when the share of the profits, to which the insured are entitled, is taken into computation. The Assured for the whole period of life may, by the rules of the Society, pay off the whole annual premiums in one year, or any limited number of years—for which purpose the Society have had Tables calculated on the most equitable principles. This will be found to be of great advantage to many who cannot, with certainty, calculate on its being convenient to make an annual payment during life.

FIRE INSURANCE.—Those insuring against Loss by Fire, for seven years, are entitled to share in the profits in the same proportion as in the Life department, which generally amount to upwards of one-fourth of the total premium paid; while only six years premium and duty are required, payable when the insurance is effected. The terms for Septennial Insurance are therefore highly advantageous to the public. Annual Fire Insurances are done on the usual terms.

The business of this Society is extended, not only throughout Britain and Ireland, but also widely on the Continent of Europe—in the profits of all which the Assured in Scotland are entitled to participate as above, without any risk whatever. Besides the rates of Insurance, the other conditions, particularly of Life Insurance, will be found extremely liberal—such as subject the Assured to the least possible inconvenience.

The Society is under the direction of a Board of Management, formed of eminent Merchants in London, who meet regularly twice a-week.

Offices in London—Cornhill, and Baker-street, Portman-square.

Capital—Two MILLIONS.

Established March 1824.

JAMES BRIERLY, Esq. Chairman.
THOMAS HEYWOOD, Esq. Deputy-Chairman.
Besides twenty-two Directors.
JOSEPH MORTON, Esq. Secretary.

THE unexampled encouragement which this Company has met with since its establishment, is a sufficient proof that the principles upon which it is founded, combine the most perfect security, with advantages superior to those offered by any institution of a similar character.

The Capital amounts to Two MILLIONS, subscribed in shares of £100 each, upon which a deposit of 10 per cent has been paid. This deposit, and the accumulations thereon, form the present capital of the Company, with a further claim upon the subscribers to pay such sums as may be required to the extent of their respective shares.

The conditions of Assurance, both in the Fire and Life departments, will be found to be extremely liberal; the premiums are as moderate as is consistent with perfect security; and the strictest secrecy is observed in all the Company's transactions.

This Company insure the lives of persons going abroad—of delicate health, or predisposed to hereditary or constitutional maladies. Lives of females are insured at a less rate than those of males. The lives of persons who are not enabled to return perfect testimonials, or are uncertain of their date of birth, are also insured by this Company—the rates of premium in these and similar cases being determined as low as the paramount duty of security permits.

By the Deed of Settlement the assured are entitled to one-third of the profits in the Fire department; and two-thirds in that of the Life, without any liability on their part to the losses; and they have themselves the power of ascertaining and enforcing their rights.

Parties may arrange to pay their premiums by single, yearly, half-yearly, or quarterly payments. Policies of three years standing are bought by the Company, or a sum will be advanced to aid the assured in continuing their payments.

The Directors have, in their general principles, endeavoured to extend the utility, and improve the practice of Life Assurance, and they will, in all the details of the Office, meet as far as possible the convenience, and facilitate the business of parties assuring.

Arrangements are made whereby Life Assurances are transacted at once by the Agent in Edinburgh, in the same manner as at the head office at Manchester. The official requisites are conducted in the most simple form; delay and irrelevant discussion are avoided; and the parties proposing assurance can effect this object without subjecting themselves (as is the case in other offices) to the scrutiny of a Board of Direction.

Any farther information—forms of proposal, declaration, &c. may be obtained by personal application at either of the Offices of the Company, or by letter, addressed to the Secretary in Manchester, or the Agent in Edinburgh.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

The variety of cases in which, by means of Life Assurance, income is made to supply the place of capital, is becoming daily more generally understood, and must readily suggest themselves to all who perceive that the person who applies a part of his annual income to an insurance on his life, instead of lodging it in a bank, or applying it in his trade, for the purpose of accumulation, converts at once the prospective savings of a long course of years into testamentary capital for the benefit of his family; and thus effects immediately what, without the aid of Life Assurance, he could not accomplish, unless he should happen to attain a period of life which there is at best many chances against his ever reaching.

It is usual to have a precise sum insured at the lowest possible rate of premium; but the party insuring sometimes prefers to speculate on his longevity, by paying a higher rate of premium, in order that periodical additions may be made to his policy, proportioned to the success of the Office. The North British Insurance Corporation have therefore adopted two different plans for assurance upon lives,—one of them embracing assurances for short periods, and for all the other usual contingencies of life insurance; thereby combining, as far as is practicable, every advantage which is to be found in the various systems of life insurance hitherto offered to the public.

By one of these plans, the assured do not become partners, but have the benefit of a reduced scale of premiums, calculated at the lowest rate at which such risks can be safely undertaken. By the other plan, assurers for the whole duration of life are entitled to participate to the extent of two thirds in the profits of the Office, and are guaranteed from all responsibility by the capital of the Corporation.

The following extract from the Company's Tables of Rates shows the premiums exacted for the assurance of precise sums.

Annual Premiums for the Assurance of £100 on a single Life.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Property of every description is insured against loss or damage by fire, at the usual rates of premium, corresponding to the risk. Loss or damage by lightning is made good. Farm stocking is insured without the average clause, on a plan which saves the farmer from 20 to 25 per cent.

The Company's Tables of Rates or other information, may be had at the Office in Edinburgh, or by applying to any of the agents in the principal towns of Scotland and the North of England.

LIFE AND FIRE ASSURANCE SOCIETY,

OFFICE, 34 ST ANDREW SQUARE.

CAPITAL—TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

In this Institution greater benefits are secured to the public, both in the Life and Fire Departments, than have been offered by any other society.

In the LIFE DEPARTMENT, four-fifths (or 80 per cent) of the estimated profits will be added every seventh year, by way of bonus, to the Policies effected for the whole term of life, on lives insured under the age of fifty, or will be applied in reduction of future annual payments, at the option of the Assured.

In the FIRE DEPARTMENT, an equal apportionment of four-fifths (or 80 per cent) of the profits on Policies continued for seven years, will be septennially allowed to persons who have paid seven years' premium in a single sum, or by annual payments. The remaining profits in both Departments will be transferred to the Subscribed Capital, and preserved untouched, to form a continually-increasing guarantee to the Assured.

The Assured have all the advantages of a Subscribed Capital, with the efficient management and influence of a wealthy Proprietary; and they are secured an effectual protection against an improvident application of the Funds and Capital of the Society, by having that control over the Management of its affairs which their important interests demand. The holder of a Policy for the whole term of life for £1000,	will, after two annual payments, be	entitled to	-	-	-	-	-	One Vote.

£3000,	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Two Votes.
£5000,	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Three Votes.

A prompt payment of six years' premium entitles the Assured to the benefit of a seven years' insurance.

All claims on the Society paid without deduction or discount; and the Assured have the option of settling disputed claims by Arbitration.

Parties, by obtaining the settlement of a loss, do not lose their right to participate in the profits.

Losses by lightning will be made good.

Persons Assuring their lives in this Office may cross the sea in decked vessels between the Elbe and Brest, without any extra premium being required.

Pelican

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

FOR INSURANCE ON LIVES, AND GRANTING ANNUITIES.

This Office was established in Lombard Street, London, in the year 1797, by a numerous and respectable Proprietary; and the Board of Directors, with confidence, arising from the increased prosperity and permanency of the establishment, as well as from the experience of its usefulness and benefit to the public, think it due to those who may be still unacquainted with the importance and advantages of LIFE INSURANCE, briefly to suggest some of its leading and peculiar recommendations to almost every degree and rank in society:—Life insurance is of manifest consequence to all who hold estates for life, situations and offices, civil, ecclesiastical, or professional; officers in the army and navy, &c., as, by payment of an annual premium, the party insured is enabled to provide for wife, children, or others, whose future welfare he may wish, in vain, by other means to promote. It affords a permanent ultimate security to those who advance money upon annuities or otherwise. It renders leases, determinable on one or more years, nearly equal in value to freehold estates, as an insurance of the amount of the fine, payable on the demise of a party nominated in such leases, will produce the sum required for renewal. It is a cheering refuge to parties engaged in extensive and speculative undertakings; it affords to persons in need the certain means of indemnification against a bad or doubtful debt; in short, life insurance, established in policy, sanctioned by Government, and confirmed by the test of experience, is become, to almost every situation of human life, a measure equally important, useful, and beneficial. Annuities are granted upon the most equitable terms, under a special act of Parliament granted to this office.

Scottish

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY,

(Founded on the original Model of the Equitable Society of London,)

2 SOUTH ST DAVID'S STREET, EDINBURGH.

This is the oldest Scottish Establishment for effecting assurances on lives and survivorships. From the nature of its constitution, (which is formed on the original model of the Equitable of London,) it presents advantages which no institution with which a body of proprietors is connected can possibly offer. The rates of premiums are lower than those of the Equitable, and most of the other London offices, and THE WHOLE PROFITS belong to and are divided periodically among the assured. From this, it is evident, that assurances are effected at this office on the lowest possible terms; any surplus funds, above what is required to answer the actual demands against the Society from losses, and the expense of an economical management, being returned to the members. The rules of distribution of the surplus funds have been formed upon the most equitable principles, by individuals of great skill and experience in such matters. At the first periodical investigation of the affairs of the Society, which took place at 1st January 1825, in terms of the articles of constitution, there remained, after setting apart one-third of the free surplus ascertained at that date, as a guarantee fund, a divisible surplus "sufficient for making additions of TWENTY-SIX PER CENT, to the whole benefits assured by policies issued prior to 1st January 1820, and entitled to additions, in terms of the articles of constitution." In this way, a policy opened prior to 1st January 1820, for £1000, is already increased to the sum of £1260, which will be paid on the decease of the party assured; and there is reason to think, that the future additions will be in proportion. Less considerable contingent prospective additions, in the event of a member dying between any two periods of investigation, have likewise been provided for. The office-bearers are chosen by the members of the Society, and must themselves be members, and of course personally interested in the Society.

Copies of the prospectus, containing an ample exposition of the principles and rules of the Society, together with table of rates, may be had gratis at the Society's Office, No. 2 South St David Street, where every information may be obtained.

The unprecedented support which this Company continues to receive from the Community in every part of Scotland, affords unequivocal proof of the public approbation, and success of this National Establishment.

The extent of Assurances which the numerous Proprietory of the SCOTTISH UNION have obtained is amply sufficient for the safety of the Institution,—while the magnitude of its Capital presents the most unquestionable security to the Assured, and frees them from all responsibility.

IN THE FIRE DEPARTMENT,

The Company have made the following reduction (with some exceptions) on the three ordinary classes of Insurance:—

1st Class is reduced from 2s. to 1s. 6d. per cent.

2d 3s. to 2s. 6d. do.

3d 5s. to 4s. 6d. do.

Property of a description involving more than ordinary hazard will be insured at such a rate of premium as experience demonstrates to be commensurate with the risk.

IN THE LIFE DEPARTMENT,

The rates of Premium either for short periods, or for the whole term of Life, are considerably lower than the rates exacted by nearly all the other Offices.

The difference between the reduced rates of this Company, and the rates usually required, is fully equivalent to an annual bonus, giving immediately to the Assured, upon the best and most equitable footing, that share of the profits which is only prospectively held forth by the Societies acting on the Return System.

By the conditions of this Company, in both departments, every reasonable advantage has been conceded to the Assured, who may rely on the utmost liberality in the adjustment of losses, and in all the transactions of the Society.

The Plan of the Life Department is fully explained in the Company's Proposals. Copies of which may be had at the Head Office, North Bridge Buildings, corner of Princes Street, Edinburgh; or from any of the Agents in the Country.
