RATES OF POSTAGE, AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

INLAND LETTERS.

The prepaid rates of postage are as follows, viz. :—

For a letter not exceeding 1 oz.,	1d.
“ above 1 oz. but not exceeding 2 oz.,	1½d.
“ “ 2 oz.,	2d.
“ “ 4 oz.,	2½d.
“ “ 6 oz.,	3d.
“ “ 8 oz.,	3½d.
“ “ 10 oz.,	4d.

A letter exceeding the weight of 12 oz. is liable to a postage of 1d. for every ounce, beginning with the first ounce. Thus a letter weighing between 14 and 15 ounces must be prepaid 1s. 3d.

A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; and a letter posted insufficiently prepaid is chargeable with double the deficiency.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN LETTERS.

No letter may exceed the dimensions of 18 inches in length, 9 inches in width, and 6 inches in depth, unless it be sent to or from one of the Government offices.

The rates of postage on letters to foreign countries and the colonies are entered in the Table of Foreign and Colonial Postage. To some countries prepayment is compulsory, and to some the whole of the postage cannot be prepaid, but to all other countries prepayment is optional.

A letter posted unpaid, or paid only in part, directed to go by a route by which prepayment is compulsory, is returned to the writer, unless there is another route to send it by which prepayment is not required. Letters, however, for Australia and New Zealand, if partly prepaid, are forwarded, charged with the deficient postage and an additional rate.

A letter posted insufficiently prepaid for a place to which prepayment is optional, is sent forward charged, the value of the stamps, however, being taken into account.

Letters posted unpaid (wholly or in part) for the Cape of Good Hope or Natal are charged 6d. each in addition to the deficient postage, and those for St Helena and British West Indies (except British Guiana, British Honduras, Jamaica, and Trinidad), are charged 1s. each in addition to the deficient postage. In all other cases unpaid letters are charged double the prepaid rate, and those partially prepaid are charged with double the deficiency.

The same rates are chargeable in this country upon unpaid or insufficiently paid letters received from the above-named places.

No letter for any colony or foreign country may be above 2 feet in length, or 1 foot in width or depth.

Letters not specially directed by a particular route are forwarded by the route immediately following the name of the place in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage:

- Exceptions.*—1. Letters for Aden and India are sent viâ Southampton, if that route be indicated by the postage; letters for Borneo, Ceylon, China, Japan, Java, Labuan, Philippine Islands, and Singapore, are sent by first packet, whether British or French, according to the route indicated by the postage.
2. Letters for Egypt and Cape de Verds are sent in the first mail despatched. Those for Gibraltar, posted or received in London on Thursday morning in time for the mail viâ Southampton, are forwarded by that route.
3. Letters for Canada posted after the despatch of the mail by Canadian packet on Thursday, are forwarded viâ the United States on Saturday.
4. Letters for Bermuda are sent by the first mail.
5. Letters for the Argentine Republic and Uruguay are sent in the first mail despatched by British or French packet after the time of posting; those for Brazil, Hayti, and the United States of Colombia, and Venezuela are sent by the first packet viâ Southampton or Liverpool. Those for Mexico by the first packet, viâ Southampton, Liverpool, or France.

Letters, etc., for Brazil, Monte Video, Peru, Bolivia, and Chili, if specially directed 'by Supplementary Mail viâ Bordeaux,' and posted in time for despatch from London by the day mail of Friday, will in due course overtake, at Bordeaux, the packet despatched from Liverpool on the previous Wednesday. The postage viâ Bordeaux is the same as viâ Liverpool.

Letters for places on the Persian Gulf are forwarded viâ Bombay, if specially directed by that route and prepaid the Indian rate of postage.

Letters for Russia should have the name of the town added in either English, French, or German; and they should bear as a part of their address the name of the province or government in which they are situated. In addressing all letters, etc., for Russia, the name of the place of destination and government must be correctly given, and the address plainly written. If these conditions are not complied with, the Russian Post Office declines to undertake delivery.

No letters containing gold or silver money, jewels, or precious articles, or anything liable to customs duties, can be sent, even if registered, to any country of the Postal Union.

INLAND CARD POST.

Official post cards, impressed or private post cards, embossed with a halfpenny stamp, are available for transmission between places in the United Kingdom.

The front (or stamped) side is intended for the address only. There must be nothing else written, printed, or otherwise impressed on it, nor must there be any writing or printing across the stamp. On the reverse side, any communication, whether of the nature of a letter or otherwise, may be written or printed. Nothing whatever may be attached; nor may the card be folded, cut, or otherwise altered. If any of these rules be infringed, the card will be charged 1d. on delivery.

When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with without distinction, post cards may be kept back until the next despatch or delivery.

No card other than one of those issued by the Government, or a private card impressed with the halfpenny stamp, will pass under a halfpenny stamp, if it bear on it a written communication of the nature of a letter.

Post cards are sold at the rate of 7d. and 8d. per dozen.

For information as to the conditions under which private cards are impressed with a halfpenny stamp, application must be made to the office of Inland Revenue.

FOREIGN POST CARDS.

Foreign post cards, 1d. and 1½d. each, may be sent to most of the countries in the Postal Union.

INLAND NEWSPAPERS.

Under the Post Office Act, 1870, any publication fulfilling the conditions hereafter named can, upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office to pass within the United Kingdom as a newspaper for a postage of one halfpenny. Without such registration, no newspaper is entitled to be sent through the post at less than the book rate of postage.

Registration for inland circulation includes registration for transmission abroad.

The conditions are as follows:—

The publication must consist wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements.

It must be printed and published in the United Kingdom, must be published in numbers at intervals of not more than seven days, and must be printed on a sheet or sheets unstitched.

The full title and date of publication must be printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title and the date of publication at the top of every subsequent page; and this regulation applies to 'Tables of Contents' and 'Indices.'

A supplement must consist wholly or in great part of matter like that of a newspaper, or of advertisements, printed on a sheet or sheets, or on a piece or pieces of paper, unstitched; or wholly or in part of engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the newspaper. The supplement must in every case be published with the newspaper, and must have the title and date of publication of the newspaper printed at the top of every page; or, if it consist of engravings, prints, or lithographs, at the top of every sheet or side.

For each inland newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, the postage, when prepaid, is one halfpenny; but a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate of postage than would be chargeable on a book packet of the same weight—viz. one halfpenny for every 2 oz. or part of 2 oz.

A newspaper posted unpaid, and a packet of newspapers posted either unpaid or insufficiently paid, will be treated as an unpaid or insufficiently paid book packet of the same weight.

The postage must be prepaid either by an adhesive stamp or by the use of a stamped wrapper.

No newspaper can be sent through the post a second time for the original postage; for each transmission a fresh postage is required.

Every newspaper or packet of newspapers must be posted either without a cover or in a cover entirely open at both ends, and in such a manner as to admit of easy removal for examination. A newspaper must not be fastened in its cover by means of gum, sealing-wax, postage-stamp, or otherwise. If this rule be infringed, the newspaper or packet will be treated as a letter.

Every newspaper must be so folded as to admit of the title being readily inspected.

A newspaper, or a packet of newspapers, which contains any enclosure except the supplement or supplements belonging to it, is charged as a letter, unless the enclosure be such as might be sent at the book rate of postage, and the entire packet be sufficiently prepaid as a book packet, in which case it is allowed to pass.

A newspaper which has any letter, or any communication of the nature of a letter, written in it or upon its cover, will be charged as an unpaid or insufficiently paid letter.

No packet of newspapers must exceed 14 lbs. in weight, nor may it exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN NEWSPAPERS.

The rates of postage to the colonies and foreign countries on newspapers registered for transmission abroad will be found in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage. Each newspaper is liable to a separate rate of postage, whether sent singly or in a packet; and if above 4 oz. in weight, it is liable to two rates of postage, and so on.

The conditions of registration for transmission abroad are the same as those for inland transmission; excepting that for foreign transmission a newspaper may be published at intervals of thirty-one days, and that it may be printed (but not its supplement) on sheets stitched together. Moreover, 'prices current' and 'market reports,' but not private price-lists or trade catalogues, are admitted to the same privileges as newspapers for foreign transmission, provided they are published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days.

Publications registered for transmission abroad must be posted within eight days from the date of publication, including that date; but if posted later, must be prepaid the book rate of postage.

The collected numbers issued during the month of a weekly or fortnightly publication are not allowed to pass as a monthly publication.

The postage must be prepaid with postage labels only.

Every newspaper or packet of newspapers must be posted either without a cover or in a cover entirely open at both ends, and in such a manner as to admit of easy removal for examination.

Every newspaper must be so folded as to admit of the title being readily inspected.

No newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, may contain any enclosure except the supplement or supplements belonging to it.

There must be no writing or other mark on a newspaper sent abroad but the name and address of the person to whom it is sent; nor anything on the cover but such name and address, the printed title of the publication, the printed name and address of the publisher or vendor who sends it, and words indicating the date on which the subscription to the newspaper will end.

No packet of newspapers must exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth. For limit of weight, see Table of Colonial and Foreign Rates.

INLAND BOOK POST.

The postage is one halfpenny for every two ounces or part of that weight.

A packet posted wholly unpaid will be charged with double the book postage; and if posted partially prepaid, with double the deficiency.

A book packet may contain any number of separate books or other publications, photographs

(when not on glass or in cases containing glass or any like substance), drawings, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, or any other substance in ordinary use for writing or printing upon; and the books or other publications, prints, maps, etc., may be either printed, written, engraved, lithographed, or plain, or any mixture of these. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, etc., or of a portion thereof, is allowed, whether such binding, etc., be loose or attached; as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise) in the case of books, pens or pencils in the case of pocket-books, etc., and, in short, whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of such articles, or usually appertains thereto; but the binding, rollers, etc., must not be sent as a separate packet.

Circulars, i.e. letters which are intended for transmission in identical terms to several persons, and the whole or the greater part of which is printed, engraved, or lithographed, may also be sent by book post.

Every book packet must be posted either without a cover or in a cover entirely open at both ends, and in such a manner as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination; otherwise it will be treated as a letter.

A book packet may not contain any letter, or communication of the nature of a letter (whether separate or otherwise), unless it be a circular letter, nor any enclosure sealed or in any way closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not allowed. (Entries, however, merely stating who sends the book, etc., or to whom it is given, are not regarded as a letter.) If this rule be infringed, the entire packet will be charged as a letter.

No book packet may exceed 5 lbs. in weight, or 18 inches in length, 9 inches in width, and 6 inches in depth, unless to or from one of the Government Offices.

When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with without distinction, book packets may be kept back till the next despatch or delivery.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN BOOK POST.

Articles which may be sent to places abroad under the Book Post Regulations consist of two classes, as follows:—

Commercial Papers, under which are comprised all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of Legal procedure, Deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of or extracts from Deeds under private seal (and whether written or printed on stamped or unstamped paper), Way Bills, Bills of Lading, Invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of Insurance and other public Companies, all kinds of manuscript Music, the manuscript of Books and other literary works, and other papers of a similar description.

Printed Papers, including periodical works, books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, sheets of music (printed), visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing (with or without the manuscript relating thereto), engravings, photographs (when not on glass or in frames containing glass), drawings, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, whether printed, engraved, or lithographed, and in general all impressions or copies obtained upon paper, parchment, or card-board by means of printing, lithographing, or any other mechanical process easy to recognise, except the copying press, and anything usually attached or appurtenant to any of the before-mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post which shall be contained in the same packet; also printed, engraved, or lithographed circulars, notwithstanding that such circulars may be letters or communications in the nature of a letter.

The two classes are subject to different rates of postage when addressed to countries in the Postal Union, the rate for printed papers being lower than for commercial papers. If there be any mixture of the two in the same packet, the whole packet is subject to the higher rate.

Every packet must be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise), or in an open cover so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination; otherwise it is treated as a letter. For the greater security of the contents, however, it may be tied at the ends with string; Postmasters being authorised to cut the string in such cases, although if they do so they must again tie up the packet.

The limit of size and weight and rates of postage are given in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage.

The following information relates to Books and Photographs for the United States:—

The only Books absolutely free from Customs Duty under the United States laws are those which have been printed more than 20 years; and Pamphlets, Periodicals, and other like publications, for the personal use of the individual to whom they are addressed. Nevertheless any book valued at not more than one dollar is also considered as exempt from Customs Duty; and so are Photographs, when sent in limited numbers, for the private use of the person to whom they are addressed, or for distribution to relatives or friends. Further, if any Books or Photographs received in the Mails from the United Kingdom are found to be liable to Customs Duty, they will be returned to this country.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN PATTERN AND SAMPLE POST.

There is a Pattern and Sample Post to colonies and foreign countries generally; but it is restricted to bonâ fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise. Goods sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually patterns or samples, are not admissible.

No article liable to Customs Duties can be sent as a sample or pattern.

The rates of postage will be found in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postages.

Patterns or samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination. But samples of seeds, drugs, and such like articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind,—but such articles only,—may be posted enclosed in boxes or in bags of linen or other material, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

There must be no writing or printing upon or in any packet except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender, a trade mark or number, and the price of the articles. But a packet for any country in the Postal Union may have enclosed in it any of the articles designated as 'Commercial Papers' if the rate applicable to Commercial Papers be paid for the whole packet.

Samples of saleable value must not be sent to any foreign country, or to any British possession included in the Postal Union. Samples of eider down, raw or thread silk, woollen or goats' hair thread, vanilla, saffron, carmine, or isinglass, are considered to fall under this rule if they weigh more than three ounces.

Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, provided that they be packed and guarded in so secure a manner as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and the officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined, may be sent as samples to places abroad. Indigo cannot be sent to any place abroad.

The limit of weight is not the same to all countries. See Table of Colonial and Foreign Postages. A packet of patterns or samples sent to any place in the Postal Union must not exceed 8 inches in length, 4 inches in width, and 2 in depth. The size in all other cases is limited to 24 inches in length by 12 inches in width or depth.

INDIAN PARCEL POST.

Parcels can be sent to any part of British India, through the Indian Parcel Post Agency—established under authority of the Director-General of the Post Office of India—at 122 Leadenhall Street, London, E.C.

Insurance may be effected at the rate (to be prepaid) of 1s. up to £3 value, 2s. 6d. up to £10 value, and 5s. up to £20 value. Indian customs duty (if chargeable) will be realized from the addressee.

N.B.—Parcels containing books or articles treated as books under the British Inland Book Post rules will be charged at half rate, viz. 6d. per lb.

The maximum weight, size, and value of a parcel are:—weight 50 lbs., size 2 feet long by 1 foot broad and 1 foot deep, value £20.

The following articles are forbidden contents:—Any liquids, or articles of a dangerous, damaging, or fragile nature.

Parcels must be entirely closed and securely packed and fastened; a covering of cloth or waterproof sewn at the edges being required if the parcel measures over a cubic foot or upwards. Any article liable to suffer from crushing must be in a strong wooden case, not less than half an inch thick. The Indian address should be legibly written, with the superscription, 'By Indian Parcel Post.'

A letter of advice, stating name and address on parcel, contents and value for Custom House clearance, with legible signature and address of sender, should be sent to the agency with each parcel, accompanied by payment, if it be desired to prepay or insure the parcel.

Parcels forwarded from the country to the office in London should have the Indian address, eu-closed in an outer covering, bearing the address, 'Indian Parcel Post Agency, 122 Leadenhall Street, London, E.C.' The charges for carriage to London are additional to charges for transit or insurance to India, and may be prepaid to the local carrying agent, or left to be paid on delivery in London, and subsequently collected from the addressee. Cheques or money orders in payment for transit or insurance should be made payable to A. M. Bethune.

SPECIAL RATES OF POSTAGE, AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

ADDRESSES TO THE QUEEN, AND PETITIONS TO PARLIAMENT.

Petitions and addresses to Her Majesty, forwarded direct, are exempt from postage; and such petitions and addresses, as also petitions to either House of Parliament, if sent to a member of either House, are likewise exempt, provided they do not weigh more than two pounds, and are without covers, or in covers open at the ends. No letter or other enclosure, however, must be inserted; and if one be found, such enclosure, unless it bear the proper number of postage stamps, will be charged as an unpaid letter. There is no limit to size.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

Printed proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, sent without covers, or in covers open at the ends, may circulate within the United Kingdom at the rate of 3d. for every two ounces or fraction of that weight.

The words 'Parliamentary Proceedings' must be written or printed on the cover of the packet; otherwise it will be treated as an ordinary book packet.

Prepayment, when the circulation is within the United Kingdom, is optional; and when paid in part, the amount deficient only is charged.

Parliamentary proceedings may be sent, under the book post privilege, to all the colonies, and to those foreign states between which and this country there is a book post.

The limit of size prescribed for ordinary book packets does not apply to printed parliamentary proceedings.

PARLIAMENTARY NOTICES.

Parliamentary notices may be forwarded through the post under the following regulations:—

The words 'Parliamentary Notice' must be legibly printed on the face of the letter; and in order to secure the speedy return of any notices which may be undelivered, the name and address of the solicitor issuing such parliamentary notice should also be legibly printed or written on the face of the letter; though this is not imperative.

These notices must be posted at any Post Office at which money order business is transacted.

All notices which, by the standing orders of either House of Parliament, are required to be served on or before the 15th December, must be posted not later than the 12th December, unless the 12th fall on a Sunday, when they must be posted not later than the 11th; but those notices which, by the same orders, may be served after the 15th, must be posted not later than the 18th, unless the 18th falls on a Sunday, when they must be posted not later than the 17th December.

The postage chargeable on these notices, and the registration fee of 6d. on each, must be prepaid by stamps.

The notices must be posted at the Post Office window, accompanied with duplicate lists of the addresses; the notices being arranged, for the convenience of comparison, in the order of the list. These lists will be examined by the officer in attendance at the window; and if they correspond with the addresses, he will sign and stamp every sheet of each list. One of the duplicate lists will then be returned to the person who brought the letters, and the other forwarded to the Secretary, General Post Office, London.

The hours for receiving such notices are the same as those for the registry of ordinary letters, unless they be presented at such a time as to interfere with the other duties of the office; in which case the postmaster may appoint any other time within the next twenty-four hours for receiving the same, provided that, when the notices are to be served on or before the 15th December, such arrangement do not delay the posting beyond the 12th. Re-directed parliamentary notices are, like letters, liable to an additional rate of postage.

The senders of parliamentary notices should, if possible, arrange on the previous day with the postmaster as to the most convenient time for posting them, and state the probable number.

LETTERS FOR NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, SOLDIERS, AND SEAMEN IN HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE.

Non-commissioned officers, bandmasters, army schoolmasters (not being superintending schoolmasters or schoolmasters of the 1st class), schoolmistresses, private soldiers, or seamen belonging to Her Majesty's ships, whether serving on sea or land, and whether in a British possession or foreign country, as also enrolled pensioners in Canada, can send and receive letters by packet or man-of-war, for a postage of 1d.; but if any such letters have to pass through a foreign country, they are subject, in addition, to the foreign postage, whatever that may be. Thus, the postage to the under-mentioned countries (including the British charge of one penny) is as follows

To or from—	s. d.
China, Ceylon, India, Japan, or Australia, via Brindisi . . . . .	0 3
Mauritius, by French packet . . . . .	0 3
Chili, Peru, or any other place in the South Pacific, via Southampton and Panama . . . . .	0 2

The person claiming the privilege must at the time be actually employed in the service of Her Majesty, and must not be either a commissioned officer or warrant officer, viz. assistant engineer, gunner, boatswain, or carpenter, the privilege not extending to these officers.

If the letter be posted within the United Kingdom, the penny must be prepaid, as must any foreign postage that may be chargeable; and if sent by a private ship, the gratuity of one penny to the captain must also be prepaid. If posted abroad, prepayment is not compulsory; but if the letter be sent unpaid, it is on delivery charged twopence, together with any foreign postage or gratuity to a sea captain that may be due.

The letter must not weigh more than ½ oz., and must relate entirely to the private concerns of the soldier or seaman.

The name of the soldier or seaman, with his class or description, must appear in the direction, and the officer having the command must sign his name, and specify the ship or regiment, corps or detachment, to which the soldier or seaman belongs; the name of the ship or regiment being entered in full. The foregoing particulars must be given in one of the following forms:—

SEAMEN.

From A. B., Seaman, H.M.S. _____
(Here the direction of the letter to be inserted.)
C. D., Captain (or other Commanding Officer),
H.M.S. _____

To A. B.,
Seaman, H.M.S. _____
(Here the direction of the letter to be finished.)

SOLDIERS.

From A. B., Sergeant, etc., — Regt. _____
(Here the direction of the letter to be inserted.)
C. D., Colonel (or other Commanding Officer),
_____ Regt. _____

To A. B.,
Private (or Sergeant, Corporal, etc.) — Regt. _____
(Here the direction to be finished.)

If the letter be posted in the United Kingdom for a place abroad, unpaid or insufficiently paid, or if the class or description of the soldier or seaman be not written in the address, it will be detained, and returned to the writer for payment of the postage.

LETTERS FOR PASSENGERS ON BOARD MAIL PACKETS.

Letters for passengers on board the packets for America touching at Queenstown, or on board the Mediterranean packets about to sail from Southampton or Brindisi with the mails for India, Australia, China, etc., may be posted up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received.

The letters must be registered, and be addressed to the 'care of the commander of the packet.'

Letters for passengers by the Canadian packets touching at Londonderry may be posted up to the same time as ordinary registered letters for Canada, and must be addressed to the 'care of the officer in charge of the mails.'

Letters directed to the care of the packet agent at Suez, and despatched by the mail via Brindisi, will probably reach passengers for India, etc., who have sailed in the packet from Southampton the previous week.

LETTERS BY PRIVATE SHIPS.

Letters intended to be sent by private ship must be addressed 'By Private Ship;' and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added. The postage of a letter by a private ship is as follows:—

Country.	For a prepaid Letter.	Fine if not wholly prepaid per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz.
*Ascension, . . . . .	6d.	—
*Australia, . . . . .	6d.	6d.
British West Indies (except British Guiana, British Honduras, Jamaica, and Trinidad), . . . . .	3d.	3d. each.
Cape of Good Hope, Natal, Countries comprised in the) Postal Union, . . . . .	6d. same as mail 1 kt.	6d. each. —
St. Helena, . . . . .	4d.	4d. each.
*All other countries, . . . . .	6d.	—

Letters cannot be sent unpaid to the countries marked thus (\*). The postage for letters weighing more than  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. advances in the same manner as that for letters sent by mail packets. Unpaid letters coming into this country are charged the same rates as unpaid letters going out of it.

Book packets and patterns may be sent for the same postage as by mail packets to all places to which there are mail packets.

Newspapers by private ships must be prepaid 1d. each per 4 oz.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, ETC.

MODES OF PREPAYMENT.

Inland letters, newspapers, and book packets must be prepaid by means of stamps, either adhesive or embossed or impressed, except at the General Post Office, Edinburgh, where letters and book packets may, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., be prepaid in money, provided the amount be never less than £1, and that the letters and book packets be tied in separate bundles of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction.

Letters to places abroad must be prepaid wholly in stamps. This rule applies also to registered letters.

Newspapers, book packets, and sample packets for places abroad can be prepaid only by means of stamps; and in their case prepayment is always compulsory.

British postage stamps, though available for all letters, etc., going out of this country, are not, as a general rule, available for letters, etc., coming into it; the principal exception being in the case of letters posted by naval officers, marines, and seamen serving abroad, which, if posted in the ship's bag, must be prepaid by means of British postage stamps.

REGISTRATION (INLAND AND FOREIGN).

The fee for registering a letter, newspaper, or book packet passing between any two places in the United Kingdom is 2d.

No letter or postal packet addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered, unless addressed to the care of a person or firm. Every letter presented for registration must be securely fastened, and if coin be sent such must be packed in such a way as to move about as little as possible.

The fee chargeable to places abroad will be found in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage. To some countries a letter can be registered only to the port of arrival, and to a few countries there is no arrangement for registration.

Registered letters, etc., must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

Every letter, etc., to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it, and should on no account be dropped into the letter-box. If, contrary to this rule, a letter marked 'registered' be dropped into the letter-box, it will, if directed to any place in the United Kingdom or the British colonies, be liable to a registration fee of 8d., instead of the ordinary fee of 2d.

Registered letters require to be posted at General Post Office thirty minutes, and receiving offices fifteen minutes, before the closing of the box for ordinary letters; but upon payment of a late fee of 4d. they may be registered at General Post Office until the closing of the letter-box for ordinary letters for each despatch.

The registration of a packet makes its transmission much more secure, inasmuch as, under ordinary circumstances, a registered packet can be traced through its whole course; and thus the loss of a registered packet is a very rare occurrence. Nevertheless, large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, as the machinery of the department is not arranged with a view to such transmissions. If sent unregistered valuable articles are exposed to risk, and offer a temptation which ought not to be created.

Inland letters which contain coin, watches, or jewellery, even though they be posted without registration, are treated as registered, and charged on delivery with a registration fee of 8d. in addition to the ordinary postage; and any such letters which cannot be registered in time to be forwarded by the mail for which they are posted, are detained for the next despatch.

Letters containing coin, watches, or jewellery, cannot be accepted for registration for any foreign or colonial country in the Postal Union.

Letters containing coin for any of the British colonies not in the Postal Union can be registered, and if posted unregistered, they are treated as inland letters under similar circumstances.

By law the Postmaster-General is not responsible for the safe delivery of registered letters or packets, but he is prepared to make good the contents of a registered letter lost while passing through the post to the extent of £2 in certain cases, provided—

1. That the sender of the letter duly observed all the conditions of registration required;
2. That the letter was securely enclosed in a reasonably strong cover; and if it contained money, that it was enclosed in one of the registered letter envelopes sold by the Post Office for the purpose;
3. That application was made to the Secretary of the Post Office immediately the loss was discovered;

[When the complaint is that the contents of a letter have been abstracted, the envelope must accompany the application, otherwise the question will not be entertained.]

4. That the Postmaster-General, whose decision shall be final, is satisfied that the loss occurred while the letter was in the custody of the British Post Office, and was not caused by any fault on the part of the sender.

No town letter-carrier is allowed to take a letter to be registered; but in country places where no Post Office is near, letters will be registered by rural post messengers on their walks, whenever it is practicable for them to do so.

RE-DIRECTION AND DELIVERY.

Every inland re-directed letter, post card, or other postal packet, is liable to an additional postage (at the prepaid rate) for each re-direction, unless both the original and the second address be within the delivery of the same Post Office, and the re-direction be made by an officer of the Post Office. Thus, on a paid or unpaid letter not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, re-directed, either by officer of the Post Office, or by any one else, to a different delivery, an additional postage is levied of one penny; and if the weight be more than 1 oz., but less than 2 oz., of three halfpence, and so on.

An inland registered letter, when re-directed to any place within the United Kingdom, is only liable to the same additional charges as an ordinary letter.

Letters, etc., received from a country of the General Postal Union and re-directed to any country within the Union, are not liable to any additional charge, nor, if registered, to an additional registration fee; such, however, as have been in the first instance addressed to a place in the country where they were posted, are chargeable on re-direction with the inland rate of the country to which they are re-directed, but, if registered, without additional fee.

Letters, etc., addressed from one part of the United Kingdom to another, and then re-directed to a country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional colonial or foreign rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee for registration.

Letters, etc., received here from a country not in the Postal Union, and re-directed to another country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional colonial or foreign rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee: if re-directed to some place within the United Kingdom, they are liable to an additional inland rate; and, if re-directed to any country of the Postal Union, they are liable to the inland rate of that country. In the two latter cases, letters, if registered, are not liable to any additional fee.

Letters, etc., received from any country of the Postal Union, and re-directed to a country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional colonial or foreign rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee.

If an inland registered letter, when re-directed, instead of being taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter, is dropped into the letter box as an ordinary letter (the word 'registered' not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it is surcharged with a registration fee of eightpence, less the value of any stamps affixed for registration.

Exceptions.—No charge for re-direction is made on Government letters; nor is any charge for re-direction made on newspapers from any place abroad, unless they have been opened, in which case they are liable to postage as books.

Further: Letters addressed to commissioned officers in the army, navy, or ordnance, or to schoolmasters or schoolmistresses in the army, or non-commissioned officers, private soldiers, or seamen employed on actual service in any of Her Majesty's colonies, or on any foreign station, and who, before receiving the letters, may have started on their return home or to another station, may be re-directed to such officers, private soldiers, or seamen, etc., when these have removed upon service, and will be delivered to them without any charge for re-direction. The same privilege extends to the letters of non-commissioned officers, schoolmasters in the army (of all but the first class), schoolmistresses in the army, private soldiers, and seamen (but to these only), re-directed from one part of the United Kingdom to another, or from the United Kingdom to a place abroad, provided the original postage is prepaid and the letters do not exceed half an ounce in weight.

Notices of removal and applications for letters to be re-directed must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed; printed forms of notice can be obtained at the General Post Office. Persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention.

No person living within the town free delivery, unless he rent a private box, can obtain his letters at the General Post Office.

Private Boxes and Bags.—The fee for a private box is £3 per annum, and if for a private bag, £1 additional, payable in advance.

POSTAGE, TELEGRAPH, AND RECEIPT STAMPS.

Postage labels are of the respective values of  $\frac{1}{2}$ d., 1d.,  $1\frac{1}{2}$ d., 2d.,  $2\frac{1}{2}$ d., 3d., 4d., 6d., 8d., 1s., 2s., and 5s.

Telegraph labels are of 1d., 3d., 4d., 6d., 1s., 3s., 5s., 10s., £1, and £5; stamped book 20s., and interleaved 2d. extra. The embossed envelopes are of four sizes, viz.  $4\frac{3}{4} \times 3\frac{1}{8}$ ,  $5\frac{1}{4} \times 3\frac{3}{8}$ ,  $5\frac{1}{4} \times 3$ ,  $4\frac{3}{4} \times 2\frac{3}{8}$ , and are sold thus: the largest size at 2s. 4d., other sizes at 2s. 2d., per packet of 24. Registered Letter envelopes are of five sizes, viz.:  $5\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{3}{8}$ , and  $6 \times 3\frac{3}{8}$ , sold at 2½d. each, or 2s. 2½d. per doz.;  $8 \times 5$ , at 2½d. each, or 2s. 7d. per doz.;  $10 \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ , and  $11\frac{1}{2} \times 6$ , at 3d. each, or 2s. 10d. per doz. Halfpenny stamped wrappers are sold at 8 for 4½d., and penny stamped wrappers at 8 for 8½d.; inland post cards at 7d. and 8d. per doz., or 3½d. and 4d. per half doz. Foreign post cards at 1d. and 1½d. each.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of postage stamps which have been cut, torn, or otherwise rendered imperfect; or of embossed or impressed stamps, cut out from the envelopes, cards, or wrappers on which such were embossed or impressed.

Applications for allowance on spoiled stamps which have not been used, should be made to the office of Inland Revenue, London.

Every rural messenger is authorized to sell penny postage stamps, and when any person applies to him for postage labels, the messenger must either supply them, or (if he have none in his possession) must, without extra charge, receive the postage in money, and on his arrival at the post office obtain labels for the amount, and affix them carefully to the letters.

All postmasters in the United Kingdom at whose offices money order business is transacted, are permitted, though not compelled, to purchase postage stamps from the public (provided the stamps be not soiled or otherwise damaged), at a charge of 2½ per cent.; the charge, however, never being less than one halfpenny. Under this arrangement the charges are as follows: For stamps not exceeding 1s. 8d. in value, ½d.; 3s. 4d., 1d.; 5s., 1½d.; 6s. 8d., 2d.; 8s. 4d., 2½d., and so on. No separate stamps can be purchased, or less than two adhering to each other.

In consequence of representations made to the Post Office by various firms, that there is reason to believe that their postage stamps were purloined by persons in their employ, the department has recommended that the name or initials of firms, etc., be either printed on the back of the stamps (by arrangement with the Inland Revenue Office, Somerset House), or perforated through the stamps by means of a machine devised for the purpose, so that, the sale of such stamps being thereby rendered difficult (postmasters having been instructed not to purchase any of them), there may be little or no temptation to steal them.

ARTICLES NOT ALLOWED TO BE SENT BY POST.

It is forbidden to forward by post any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book, or card, or any other indecent or obscene article, or any letter, newspaper, publication, packet, or card having thereon any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character. Anything posted contrary to this prohibition will not be forwarded.

Postmasters are instructed not to receive any letter which there is good reason to believe contains anything likely to injure the contents of the mail bag or the person of any officer of the Post Office. If such a packet be posted without the postmaster's knowledge, or if at any time before its despatch he should discover any such packet, he is directed not to forward it, but to report the case, with the address of the packet, to the Surveyor-General. The following are examples of the articles referred to:—

A glass bottle, or glass in any form; leeches, game, fish, meat, fruit, or vegetables; bladders or other vessels containing liquids; gunpowder, lucifer matches, or anything which is explosive or liable to sudden combustion. Razors, scissors, needles, forks, or other sharp instruments are also forbidden, except when sent in packets of samples to the foreign countries mentioned in the section of Colonial and Foreign Pattern Post.

The transmission of letters or other packets containing gold or silver money, jewels or precious articles, or anything liable to customs duties, through the post to any country of the General Postal Union is prohibited.

The laws of Costa Rica and Peru also forbid the transmission by the post within these countries of letters or other packets containing coins, watches, jewellery, or other articles of value which are liable to customs duties; and any such packets, if forwarded, are liable to confiscation. Packets containing jewellery or other articles of value for the Cape of Good Hope or Queensland, are liable to be detained, and not delivered to the addressees until the customs duties have been paid; and letters or packets containing jewellery (which is liable to customs duties) sent to Victoria, are liable, with their contents, to be forfeited.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a post office except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public.

Provision having been made, by means of the British Postal Guide (with local Postal Guides in large towns) and the Postal Official Circular, to supply full and authentic information on all postal matters, the public should abstain, as much as possible, from applying for such information to postmasters and other officers of the department.

Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter or other packet to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon.

Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorized to demand change; and when money is paid at a post office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public, but they may do so if their duty be not thereby impeded.

If a letter be forwarded under cover to any postmaster with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the letter, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words 'posted at ———, under cover, to the Postmaster of ———.'

To facilitate the delivery of letters, a letter-box should be affixed to every house door.

Every address should be legible and complete, and every letter should contain the full address of the writer, in order to ensure its return if the person to whom it is directed cannot be found.

The practice of sealing letters passing to and from the East and West Indies, and other countries with hot climates, with wax (except such as is specially prepared), is attended with much inconvenience, and frequently with serious injury, not only to the letters so sealed, but to the other letters in the mail, from the melting of the wax and adhesion of the letters to each other. The public are therefore recommended in all such cases to use either wafers or gum, and to advise their correspondents in the countries referred to to do the same.

MONEY ORDERS.

Money Orders are issued and paid at General Post Office, from 10 to 4; Saturdays, 10 to 1; and at the Receiving Offices, 9 to 6; Saturdays, 9 to 5.

When applying for Money Orders, the public should use the printed 'Application Forms,' which are supplied gratuitously at all Money Order Offices.

The commission on Inland Money Orders is:—

For sums under 10s.	2d.
" of 10s. and under £2	3d.
" " £2 " "	3
" " 4 " "	4
" " 5 " "	5
" " 6 " "	6
" " 7 " "	7
" " 8 " "	8
" " 9 " "	9
" " 10 " "	10
" " 10 " "	11d.
" " 10 " "	1s.

No single Money Order can be issued for more than £10 (except in payment of Government taxes, and in favour of the Receiver-General of Inland Revenue), neither can an order contain a fractional part of a penny.

No Money Order can be issued, unless the applicant furnish, in full, the surname, and at least the initial of one Christian name, both of the remitter and the payee, together with the remitter's address.

In the case of Foreign Orders, the full address of the payee must be given; and if the order be payable to a native in British India, the tribe or caste and the father's name must also be furnished.

Exceptions.—If the remitter or payee be a peer or a bishop, his ordinary title is sufficient; and the usual designation of a firm is sufficient, except in the case of a company trading under a title which does not consist of the names of the persons composing it, as the 'Carron Company;' but even a designation of this nature may be accepted provided that the order at the time of issue be crossed for presentation through a bank. The remitter is also at liberty to desire at the time of issue that the order be crossed like a cheque thus, & Co., and be made payable only through a bank, in which case it is left to his option to give or withhold the name of the payee.

The holder of a Money Order is always at liberty to direct, by crossing it, that it be paid through a bank, even although not originally intended.

When application is made for a Money Order payable in London, or at any other town where there is more than one Money Order Office, the remitter should say at which of such offices he wishes it to be paid; otherwise the order can be cashed only at the Head Office. It is not incumbent on a postmaster to supply such information relative to local or provincial offices.

An order once issued cannot be cancelled; and should repayment or transfer to a different office be required, the remitter or payee must apply to the paying postmaster.

In order to enable the remitter to obtain an acknowledge of the receipt of a Money Order before the money is paid, it is arranged that he may make his order payable ten days after date, provided that, in the presence of the postmaster, when he obtains the order, he affixes thereto, in the space after the request C., a penny receipt stamp, and write his signature across the stamp.

When an order is presented for payment (otherwise than through a bank), the postmaster has first to see that the signature of the payee be in agreement with the advice. He has then to call on the applicant to give the name of the remitter; and if the reply be correct, the order will be paid, unless the postmaster have good reason for believing that the applicant is neither the rightful claimant, nor deputed by him. When an order is paid through a bank, it is sufficient that it be receipted (without regard to any discrepancy between the signature and the name in the advice), and that it be presented (crossed with the name of the receiving bank) by some person known to be in the employment of the bank.

Money Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

Although at the end of twelve months from that in which it was issued, a Money Order, if still unpaid, becomes legally void, nevertheless, when a good reason can be given for the delay in presenting it, an application for payment, subject to a certain deduction, is entertained.

No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the non-payment of a Money Order at the expected time.

After once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the office is not liable to any further claim.

To guard against any person, even if he obtain possession of a Money Order fraudulently, getting it cashed, the remitter is recommended—

1. When he is well known to the payee, to sign the letter enclosing the order with his initials only.
2. When this is not the case, either to make the order payable ten days after date, or to register the letter enclosing it, or to make the order payable through a bank by crossing it like an ordinary cheque.
3. When it is not considered expedient to adopt either of these courses, to send the remitter's name (without a knowledge of which payment cannot be obtained) in a separate letter from that containing the Money Order; although this latter precaution is much less effective than either of the others.

Payment of an order cannot be demanded on the same day as that on which the order was issued.

In case of the miscarriage or loss of an inland Money Order in transmission through the post, a duplicate is granted on a written application giving particulars to the Controller of the Money Order Office in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be, where the original order was issued; but for an order otherwise lost, a charge of 1s. for sums not exceeding £5, and 2s. for sums not exceeding £10 is made for a duplicate order. If it be desired to stop payment of an inland order, application must be made at the office where the order is payable, and a second commission must be paid. If alteration in the name of the payee or remitter of an inland Money Order should be required, application must be made by the remitter to the postmaster of the office at which the order was issued, and a second commission must be paid. Should transfer of payment of an inland order from one office to another in the United Kingdom, or repayment of the amount of an order, be required, an application enclosing the order must be made to the postmaster at whose office the order is payable, who will transmit in exchange a new order payable at the place desired, but for a less sum than the original order by the amount of the second commission charged for the re-issue. Proper printed forms for making applications in all these cases may be obtained at any Money Order Office. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the necessity for an application, entailing the payment of a fresh commission, is attributable to the Post Office, the charge will be remitted to the applicant, and imposed on the officer in fault.

A postmaster is required to give information how to apply for a duplicate order, etc., and must furnish the prescribed form of application. If payment of an order be refused in consequence of the replies to the questions respecting the remitter, or the signature on the order, not corresponding with the entries in the advice, the applicant for payment should communicate with the remitter, and request him to apply personally to the issuing postmaster.

No letter-carrier, rural messenger, or other servant of the Post Office is bound to procure a Money Order for any person, or to obtain payment for one; but such services are not forbidden.

Money Orders are issued in the United Kingdom on the undermentioned countries and agencies:—

The issue of a duplicate order, or the stoppage of payment of an order issued by a colony or foreign country on the United Kingdom, will be made on application to the Controller of the Chief Money Order Office, London, provided an additional commission be enclosed as follows:—For Duplicate Order not exceeding £5, 1s.; above £5 and under £10, 2s.; and for stoppage of payment, the commission is the same as for inland rates. Postmasters in the United Kingdom have power to transfer to other offices in the United Kingdom payment of colonial and foreign orders originally drawn on their own offices.

Orders issued in the United Kingdom on Belgium, Denmark, Switzerland, Holland, the Dutch East Indian Possessions, India, Norway, and Egypt, are payable for twelve months after the month of issue. Orders issued in the United Kingdom on the German Empire and the United States of America are subject to the regulations which govern the payment of Money Orders in those countries. Orders issued in France on the United Kingdom cannot be paid after three months from the date of issue without the authority of the French Post Office, and orders issued in the United Kingdom on France cannot be paid after three months from the month of issue without the authority of the Chief Office, London. Orders issued in the United Kingdom on Italy and vice versa cannot be paid after three months from the month of issue without the authority of the Chief Office of the country of issue. Orders issued in the United Kingdom on the Island of Heligoland are subject to the same rules as those issued in the United Kingdom upon the German Empire.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

Post Office Savings Banks are established at all Money Order Offices, and are open for bank business during the same hours as for money orders.

Deposits of one shilling, or of any number of shillings, may be made, but no one may deposit more than £30 in one year ending 31st December, or make any further deposit when the amount standing in his name, exclusive of interest, has reached £150. When any depositor's principal and interest amount together to £200, all interest will cease so long as the balance of the account continues to amount to the said sum of £200.

Interest, calculated yearly at the rate of £2, 10s. per cent. per annum, will be allowed on every complete pound deposited, reckoned from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which a complete pound shall have been deposited or completed up to the first day of the calendar month in which the moneys are withdrawn. The interest thus calculated will be at the rate of one halfpenny per calendar month for every complete pound. The interest will be reckoned to the 31st December in every year, and will then be added to the principal.

Besides ordinary persons, deposits may be made—

(A.) By a trustee on behalf of another person, in the joint names of such trustee and the person on whose account such money shall be so deposited; but repayment of the same, or any part thereof, will not be made without the receipts of both parties. A person may act as trustee in any number of accounts, and at the same time have an account in his own name.

(B.) By two persons jointly on their own behalf, provided neither of them is already a depositor.

(C.) By, or for the benefit of, children, but will not be repaid until they attain the age of 7 years; but in the event of death before the age of 7 years, the money will be payable, on a month's notice, to their personal representative or relatives in the same manner as of a deceased depositor.

(D.) By the trustees or treasurer of any legally established friendly, charitable, or provident society, or penny savings bank, provided such trustees or treasurer make application by post to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, accompanied by a copy of their rules. Such societies, etc., are allowed to invest considerably beyond the usual limit, or even without restriction as to amount, according to circumstances.

(E.) In the name of the Registrar of any County Court. Under the 24th sect. of the Act 30 and 31 Vict. c. 142 (County Courts Act), 'trust moneys' not in excess of £500 may be thus deposited; and under the 26th sect., money paid into a County Court in 'equitable proceedings' may be deposited by the Registrar without restriction as to amount.

Deposits made by a married woman, or by a woman afterwards married, will be repaid to her unless her husband shall give notice, in writing, of such marriage, and furnish proof thereof, to the Postmaster-General, requiring payment to be made to him, provided always that such deposits shall not come under the provisions of the 'Married Women's Property Act, 1870,' which became law on 9th August 1870. By section 16 the Act does not extend to Scotland.

Once in each year, on the anniversary of the day on which the first deposit was made, the depositor must forward the deposit book to the Controller of the Post Office Savings Bank Department in London, in order that it may be compared with the books of that department, and the interest due to the depositor inserted in it.

When a depositor wishes to withdraw the whole or any part of the sum due to him, he must make application for the same in a form which may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. On receipt of this form at the G.P.O., London, a warrant for the amount required, payable at the Post Office Bank named by the depositor, will be sent him by return of post.

Postmasters and other officers of the Postmaster-General employed in the receipt or payment of deposits, are strictly forbidden to disclose the name of any depositor, or the amount deposited or withdrawn, except to the Postmaster-General, or to such of his officers as are appointed to assist in carrying on the business of the Post Office Savings Banks.

A full statement of the regulations of the Post Office Banks may be seen at any Money Order Office.

GOVERNMENT INSURANCE AND ANNUITY OFFICE.

The Postmaster-General is empowered, under the Act 27 & 28 Vict. c. 43, to insure the lives of persons of either sex, between the ages of 16 and 60, for not less than £20 or more than £100. He is also empowered, under the same Act, to grant immediate or deferred annuities of not more than £50 on the lives of persons of either sex, and of the age of 10 years and upwards. The persons whose lives are insured, or to whom annuities are granted, by the Postmaster-General, have direct Government security for the payment of the money at the proper time.

Tables of the premiums to be charged for the insurance of lives, for the grant of immediate annuities, for the grant of deferred annuities or deferred monthly allowances, without return of purchase money, or for the grant of deferred annuities or deferred monthly allowances, with return of purchase money, may be seen at the G.P.O.

PREMIUMS CHARGED FOR THE INSURANCE OF LIVES.

The life of a man or woman in his or her 30th year may be insured for £100—

	£	s.	d.
By a single payment of . . . . .	43	3	7
Or by an annual payment, throughout life, of . . . . .	2	6	7
Or by a fortnightly payment, throughout life, of . . . . .	0	2	2
Or by an annual payment, until the insured person reaches the age of 60, of . . . . .	2	13	10
Or by a fortnightly payment of . . . . .	0	2	6

Smaller sums may be insured by proportionate payments, but no one of the periodical payments must be of less amount than two shillings.

No one life can be insured for less than £20 in the whole; but when a life has been insured for £20, further insurances may be effected on the same life from time to time, for any amount, until the whole sum for which it is insured amounts to £100.

If, after having duly made his payments for a period of five years, the insured person shall be unable to continue, or shall desire to discontinue, such payments, a portion of the premiums paid by him, which portion will in no case be less than one-third of the whole sum paid by him, will be returned to him.

The sums to be charged for the purchase of immediate annuities will vary with the age and sex of the person on whose life the annuity is to depend:

Thus, a man aged 65 can purchase an immediate annuity of £10, payable half-yearly, for . . . . .	£88	18	4
A woman of the same age can purchase a like annuity for . . . . .	103	16	8
A man aged 70 can purchase an immediate annuity of £10, payable half-yearly, for . . . . .	73	3	4
A woman of the same age can purchase a like annuity for . . . . .	84	19	2

The sums to be charged for the purchase of deferred annuities or deferred monthly allowances will vary with the age and sex of the person on whose life the annuity or monthly allowance is to depend, and with the length of the term for which the annuity is deferred (or in other words, with the number of years which are to pass before the commencement of the annuity), and with the conditions of the contract as to the mode of purchase, mode of payment, and return or non-return of purchase money.

When the condition of the contract is to be, that no part of the purchase money shall in any event be returned:

A man aged 30 may purchase a deferred annuity of £10, to commence on his reaching the age of 60, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an immediate payment of . . . . .	£21	3	4
Or by an annual payment, until he reaches the age of 60, of . . . . .	1	8	4
A woman of like age may purchase a like annuity by an immediate payment of . . . . .	32	8	4
Or an annual payment, up to 60, of . . . . .	1	17	6

and a man aged 30 may purchase a deferred allowance of £2, 7s. 3d. per month, to commence when he reaches the age of 60, by a payment until he reaches that age of 8s. per month; and a woman of like age may, by a like payment of 8s. per month, purchase a deferred allowance of £1, 16s. 7d., to commence when she reaches the age of 60.

When the condition of the contract is that, in the event of the death of the person on whose life the annuity or allowance is to depend before the commencement of the annuity or allowance, the purchase money is to be returned to his representatives, and that if the purchaser at any time before the commencement of the annuity or allowance is unable to continue, or wishes to discontinue, the purchase, the purchase money shall be returned to him, the price charged will be higher than when no such condition is made.

Under this condition, a man aged 30 may purchase a deferred annuity of £10, to commence when he attains to 60 years of age, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an immediate payment of . . .	£40 9 2

Or by an annual payment, until he attains to 60 years, of . . .	2 0 10
And a woman of like age may purchase a like annuity, either by an immediate payment of . . .	47 0 10
Or by an annual payment of . . .	2 7 6

and a man aged 30 may purchase an allowance of £1, 14s. 2d. per month, to commence when he attains the age of 60 years, by a monthly payment of 8s.; and a woman of like age, by a like payment until she reaches the age of 60 years, may purchase an allowance of £1, 9s. 4d. per month.

The annuity or monthly allowance granted on any one life must not exceed £50 per annum, or £4, 3s. 4d. per month; but purchasers need not purchase the whole amount of such annuity or allowance at one time. They may begin by purchasing such part as they can afford to purchase, and go on increasing their purchases from time to time as their circumstances will permit.

Husband and wife may each be insured to the full amount of £100, and may each purchase an annuity of £50, or a monthly allowance of £4, 3s. 4d. Any two persons may purchase an annuity on their joint lives, with or without continuance of the annuity to the survivor.

Persons contracting for the insurance of their lives, or for the purchase of annuities or monthly allowances, will be allowed to pay their periodical premiums or instalments of purchase money at such of the post offices which have been or may hereafter be opened for the purpose, as will suit them best.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 1s. for the first twenty words, and 3d. for every additional five words, i.e. for every additional group of not more than five words, the names and addresses of the sender and receiver not being counted.

Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person or firm in the same free delivery will be delivered separately at an additional charge of 3d. per copy.

Telegrams written in plain language in any European tongue are charged for according to the number of words they contain, but all unintelligible words not forming part of any European language are charged for at the rate of five letters to a word.

When the terminal telegraph office, i.e. the office from which the message is delivered, is a Head Post Office; the amount paid for the transmission of a message covers the cost of delivery within the town postal delivery of that office. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free only within the limit of one mile.

When the addressee resides beyond the above-described limits, portage is charged at the rate of 6d. per double mile (that is, a mile out and a mile back), or any part thereof, provided the whole distance to be traversed does not exceed three miles out and three miles back; but the charge is calculated from the boundary of the district within which no portage is levied.

If the addressee resides at a greater distance than three miles from the terminal telegraph office, portage is charged for delivery by mounted messenger at the rate of 1s. per mile, except in Ireland, where the charge is 8d. per double mile.

If the sender requires his telegram to be forwarded by post or by train from the terminal telegraph office, he must write the words 'by post' or 'by train' at the end of the address of the party to whom it is sent.

A deposit of 5s. is required upon all telegrams addressed to persons on board ship (unless the ship be lying in the dock) to cover any expense incurred in their delivery; but application can be made to the Secretary for any surplus.

Telegrams may be repeated at the request of the sender, if he desires to adopt this extra security against risk of error. The charge for repetition is one-half the ordinary tariff; fractions of threepence being reckoned as twopence.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission to him. The money will, however, be refunded if an error has been found in transmission.

The cost of a reply to a telegram may be prepaid; and a Prepaid Reply Pass will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply, from any telegraph office, at any time within two months after the date of the original telegram. If the pass be not used, application for the return of the money, accompanied by the Prepaid Reply Pass, may be made to the Secretary, G.P.O., London. A Prepaid Reply Pass, however, need not necessarily be used for the reply to a message, but may be used for another message containing the same number of words.

Persons who wish to avoid sending so far as to a telegraph office may, without additional charge, post a telegram form, enclosed in an envelope addressed 'Telegraph Office,' in a wall or pillar box, or in the letter-box of a receiving office or sub-post office. Telegrams so posted are sent on to the nearest telegraph office by the first collection from the letter-box in which deposited. The period of arrival at the postal telegraph office is regarded as the time of receipt from the public.

Telegrams so posted, but insufficiently prepaid, are forwarded to their destination, the difference of charge being obtained from the addressee; but unpaid telegrams are not forwarded.

No combination of two or more words is counted as one word, with the exception of those words which are ordinarily coupled by hyphens, such as 'mother-in-law,' 'non-delivery,' 'O'Neil,' 'MacDonald,' 'Newcastle-on-Tyne,' etc.

The following exceptional compound words are charged for as one word:—Midday, midnight, noon-day, se'nnight, cannot, to-day, to-night, to-morrow, yesternight, yesterday, halfpenny, twopence, and so on.

Abbreviations of auxiliary verbs designated by apostrophes (such as can't, won't, don't, I'll, you'll, couldn't, shouldn't, etc.) are charged for as one word. By writing words in this way, however, there is a greater risk of error.

Numbers expressed in figures in an inland telegram are counted as so many words, according to the number of figures employed; and in fractions one word is counted for the bar or mark of division.

When the sender of a telegram desires words to be underlined, or placed in a parenthesis, or within inverted commas, two extra words are charged for.

The department is not liable for losses incurred through the incorrect transmission, delay, or non-delivery of telegrams.

Telegraph offices are, as a rule, open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., and from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. on Sundays. There are, however, offices in several of the larger towns which are open longer; and at various offices in London and in the country the attendance is continuous. G.P.O., Edinburgh, always open.

Particulars as to foreign telegrams can be obtained at any postal telegraph office.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, ETC.

The following is a list of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Act 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97 (amended by 34 Vict. c. 4, 34 and 35 Vict. c. 103, and 35 and 36 Vict. c. 20, and other Acts), with the Duty on Policies of Insurance, Letters Patent, Patent Medicine, and Plate, and Inventory, Legacy, and Succession Duties, which remain under the former Acts. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule. New matter is put within brackets. When the sections are merely cited without the Act, they are the sections of 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97. All items in the schedule of the Act relating solely to England and Ireland are excluded. In the same session were passed the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. c. 98 Stamp Duties Management, and 33 and 34 Vict. c. 99, repealing certain enactments relating to the Stamp Duties. The Duties came into operation on the 1st January 1871.

The exemptions in other Acts in force are preserved (§ 3).

The attention of the public may be directed to the following matters:—

1. The general deed duty, or duty on a deed not otherwise charged, is reduced to 10s.

2. Progressive duty on words is not imposed.

3. Provisions are made for charging ad valorem duty on conveyances in respect of periodical payments or annuities.—§ 72.

4. An agreement for a lease for a term not exceeding 35 years is to be charged with the lease duty.—§ 96.

5. An instrument chargeable as a lease in consideration, in whole or in part, of produce or other goods—

Where it is stipulated that the value shall amount to or not exceed a given sum, ad valorem lease duty on such sum.

A statement in the lease in regard to the value of such produce or goods to be conclusive as to stamp duty, unless and until shown to be incorrect.—§ 97.

6. A notarial instrument is liable to the same duty as an instrument of seisin—to wit, 5s.

7. Any instrument specifically charged by any previous Act with the duty of 35s. is chargeable with the duty of 10s.—§ 4.

8. Instruments relating to the property of the Crown, and to the private property of the sovereign, are liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject.—§ 5.

9. Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of material.—§ 7 (1).

Every instrument on the same piece of material is to be separately stamped.—§ 7 (2).

10. Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 8 (1). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 8 (2).

PROPERTY LIABLE TO THE DUTY.—Generally—All personal property (heritable securities are personal property which include bonds of annual rent and bonds of annuity and real burdens on land, but not securities by absolute disposition qualified by back bond) belonging to the deceased in the United Kingdom, heritable securities, and bonds excluding executors, and also money secured by ex facie absolute dispositions. (48 Geo. III. c. 143, § 38, etc.; 55 Geo. III. c. 184, Schedule, Part III.; 21 & 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 9, 12, 13, etc.; and 16 & 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8; 31 & 32 Vict. c. 101, §§ 3 and 117; 37 & 38 Vict. c. 94, § 30; and 23 & 24 Vict. c. 80).

Personal Property—Absolute power of disposal.—

Personal estate which a person dying after 3d April 1860 shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or moveable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty. (23 Vict. c. 15, § 4.)

Indian Promissory Notes—Ships.—Indian Government promissory notes and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for the purpose of such registration, before the death of the owner; also Indian Government promissory notes with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate and bona notabilia in England of the deceased person (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1): Also any ship, or any share of a ship, belonging to a deceased person, registered in any port in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding such ship at the time of the death may have been at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port at which she may be registered (27 & 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

Specialty Debts.—For probate and administration duty, debts and sums of money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of the deceased within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England or Ireland in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death. (25 Vict. c. 22, § 39.)

Foreign Bonds and Stocks.—Documents of the debts of foreign governments and foreign companies which pass from hand to hand are property where the documents may be. Debentures or bonds by foreign companies and governments, and the title to stocks of foreign companies and governments, are property in this country if in the possession of any person in this country, and can be sold in the market, and the title of the purchasers completed to them in this country. See Attorney-General v. Bouwens, 4 Meeson and Welsby 171.

Rents of Heritage.—If the deceased survive Whitsunday, one moiety of the rents of the crop of that year is personal estate. If he survive Martinmas, the whole rents of that crop fall into the executry. In addition, from and after 1st August 1870, the Act 33 & 34 Vict. 1870, c. 35, would seem to give the executor a proportion of the rents from the term preceding the date of death to the date of death. That Act would also seem to give a proportion of the term's rents of quarries, minerals, and houses, and also feu-duties current at the death. The executor's right to house rents would not therefore be to the half-year's rents current at death, but to a proportion only to the date of death.

MODES IN WHICH DUTY MAY BE PAID.

When deceased domiciled in Scotland.—In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory required to be recorded in the Sheriff Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property situated in Scotland, including heritable securities made moveable by the Act 31 & 32 Vict. c. 101, § 117, and duty may be paid on a 'special inventory' of the heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

When deceased domiciled furth of the U. K.—In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.

In the case of estates not exceeding £150, if intestate, the widow, or any one or more of the children, or in the case of a widow dying intestate, any one or more of her children, and if testate the executor nominated in the will, may apply to the Commissary (or Sheriff) Clerk, and he shall prepare an inventory and oath and record the inventory and expedite confirmation according to statutory forms, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 41, and 39 & 40 Vict. c. 24.

Exceptions.—Inventory of the estate of any common seaman or soldier dying in service.

Additional inventory when the duty on the whole estate does not exceed that already paid on the former inventory.

RETURN OF INVENTORY DUTY.

The inventory duty and probate and administration duty are paid on the whole personal property, without deduction of debts; but the Act 5 & 6 Vict. c. 79, § 23, provides for a return being given on proof of the constitution and payment of the debts. This return must be claimed within three years; but the time will be prolonged on application to the Board of Inland Revenue. No return to be granted in respect of a voluntary debt due from a person dying after 28th June 1861, expressed to be payable on the death of such person, or payable under an instrument which shall not have been bona fide delivered to the donee three months before the death of such person. (24 & 25 Vict. c. 92, § 3.)

Note.—Forms of inventory and additional inventory will be found in the Juridical Styles, vol. III. App. pp. 8-11. Forms of inventories, and also regulations for return of inventory duty, may be obtained at the Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh.

LEGACY DUTY.

Legacies, Annuities, Residues, etc.

To children or their descendants,	Duty per ct.
or lineal ancestors,	£1 0 0
Brother or sister, or descendants,	3 0 0
Uncle or aunt, or their descendants,	5 0 0
Grand uncle or aunt, or their descendants,	6 0 0
All other relations or strangers,	10 0 0

The husband or wife of the deceased is not chargeable with duty. If the legatee's husband or wife is of nearer consanguinity than the legatee, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship. (16 & 17 Vict. c. 51, § 11.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or moveable estate, or out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any estate which he has power to dispose of, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereof) of the personal or moveable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy: And also for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate, directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument.

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May 1853 are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 & 17 Vict. c. 51); and annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52.)

Duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount.

Duty on legacies and residues in arrear—interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable. (31 & 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9.)

Printed forms and regulations for payment of the legacy duty may be obtained gratis, on application at the Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh; and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.

SUCCESSION DUTY.

(16 & 17 Vict. c. 51.)

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and moveable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY is charged on the annual value, after allowance of the necessary outgoings (§ 22), as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to the Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty according to the value of the succession; and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is charged as personality (§ 1).

RATES OF SUCCESSION DUTY.

Lineal issue, or lineal ancestor of the predecessor, £1 per cent.

Brothers and sisters of the predecessor, and their descendants, £3 per cent.

Brothers and sisters of the father or mother of the predecessor and their descendants, £5 per cent.

The husband or wife of the predecessor is not chargeable with duty (§ 18); and if the successor's husband or wife shall be of nearer consanguinity than the successor, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship (§ 11).

The following are also exemptions from the succession duty:—

Persons applying will be furnished with a schedule to be filled up and presented, along with the instrument. The amount of duty sought to be impressed is to be inserted in the schedule by the applicant before being presented, and the duty is to be paid at the time of the application.

Persons dissatisfied may appeal.—§ 19 (1.) The commissioners may call for and refuse to proceed without evidence.—§ 20 (1.) In any case of application to the commissioners with reference to any instrument, the commissioners may require to be furnished with an abstract of the instrument, and also with such evidence as they may deem necessary, in order to show to their satisfaction whether all the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of the instrument to duty, or the amount of the duty chargeable thereon, are fully and truly set forth therein, and may refuse to proceed upon any such application until such abstract and evidence has been furnished accordingly.

Affidavit not to be used otherwise. Person paying full duty relieved of penalty, etc., for omission to state truly in instrument.—(2.) Provided that no affidavit or statutory declaration made in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person making the same in any proceeding whatever, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and every person by whom any such affidavit or declaration is made shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable, be relieved from any penalty, forfeiture, or disability he may have incurred by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid.

HACKNEY CARRIAGES IN EDINBURGH.

FARES BY DISTANCE.

1. The distance to which any hackney carriage may be driven under these Bye-laws, shall be seven miles from the Cross of Edinburgh.

2. When a party not exceeding two grown-up persons, and without any luggage other than a carpet-bag or the like, enters a carriage at a stance, or when driving along disengaged, they shall be driven half a mile for 6d.; and if they return, they shall pay the same fare. The driver shall draw up to either side of the pavement when called; and if detained more than five minutes before starting, he shall be entitled to 6d. for waiting.

N.B.—This rule shall not apply to fares from railway stations.

3. Excepting the Sixpenny Fare, the fares by distance shall be shown in the annexed Table of Fares. The charges in the table shall include going from the stance or stable to the hirer's residence, and waiting ten minutes. But if the carriage be detained, before starting, more than ten minutes, a charge for waiting at the rate of 6d. for each quarter of an hour, or part thereof, after the expiry of the ten minutes, shall be allowed; and if the place where the hirer is to be taken up be beyond half a mile from the stance or stable whence the carriage is taken, there shall be a charge of 6d. for such distance.

4. When any place is not mentioned in the table, the fare shall be the same as that to any place mentioned which may be in the immediate vicinity.

5. When the fare of any particular place not mentioned cannot be ascertained by reference to a place in the immediate vicinity, the fare shall be 1s. for a distance from the stance not exceeding a mile and a quarter, and sixpence for every additional half-mile or part thereof.

6. Half fare returning with the party, excepting the half-mile drive.

7. When parties return (which they shall have the option of doing), and the fare going is 1s., the carriage shall wait ten minutes without any charge for waiting; when 1s. 6d., fifteen minutes; when 2s. and upwards, twenty minutes. If the carriage be detained longer, a charge shall be allowed for waiting, at the rate of 6d. for every twenty minutes or part thereof, commencing at the periods when the free waiting expires.

8. When a carriage is called but not used, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, if the place to which it is called be under half a mile from the stance or stable, and 1s. if beyond that.—Waiting as in Section 7.

FARES BY TIME.

It shall be in the option of the hirer to employ a carriage within the municipal bounds by time, for SHOPPING, MAKING CALLS, and the like, where the driving is not continuous. The charge in such cases shall be 2s. for the first hour or part thereof, and 6d. for every additional quarter of an hour or part thereof.

For an AIRING into the country within seven miles from the Cross of Edinburgh, and returning either by the same or a different road, the rate shall be 3s. for the first hour or part thereof, and 1s. for every twenty minutes or part thereof. A drive round the Queen's Drive shall be at the rate of 3s. per hour. Unless the hirer wishes a slower pace, the rate of driving when out an airing shall be at least six miles an hour; and in the event of the driving being at a slower pace than six miles an hour, contrary to the wish of the hirer, it shall be optional for the hirer to pay the fare in the proportion of 3s. for every six miles so travelled.

WHETHER THE FARES ARE BY DISTANCE OR BY TIME.

1. The hirer pays tolls.
2. If there be more than four grown-up persons driven, a charge of 6d. extra shall be made for each additional grown-up person, or for each two children above six years of age, and under twelve. No additional charge for one child above six to twelve, or children under six years.

3. From twelve at night till seven morning, double fare.

Note.—From seven in the morning till twelve o'clock at night, single fare only shall be charged.

4. On Sunday the fares for such carriages as shall have been previously ordered or engaged, or hired elsewhere than on the public streets or stances, shall be fare and a half.

5. The above fares are for one-horse carriages, and there shall be no additional charge when two horses are used by the owner without being required to do so; but if two horses be used at the request of a hirer, the charge shall be fare and a half.

6. No owner or driver shall demand or receive more than the regular fare.

7. Owners or drivers may agree to drive at lower fares than those fixed. In that case, should they demand more than the fare agreed on, they shall be liable as for an overcharge.

LUGGAGE.

For luggage exceeding 100 lbs. in weight there shall be a charge of 6d. extra. But there shall be no charge for luggage under that weight. The driver shall assist in loading and unloading in all cases when required.

FARES MAY BE WITHHELD.

Any party shall be entitled to withhold payment of the fare—

1. When the name and number are not painted outside, or when there is no plate inside, in terms of Article Third of these bye-laws.
2. When the reference ticket is not given.
3. When the bye-laws, table of fares, and driver's licence are not shown on demand.
4. When an overcharge is made.
5. When the driver fails or refuses to complete an engagement; but if payment of the fare be withheld, the party shall give the driver his full name, designation, and residence.

REDESS.

Parties aggrieved will obtain redress on application to the Procurator-Fiscal at the City Chambers, within eight days after the date of the offence, except in cases when parties are prevented making such application by their absence from town.

TABLE OF CAB FARES FROM THE FOLLOWING STANCES.

To prevent disputes or loss of property, every party on entering a carriage should ask for a reference ticket, which the driver is bound to give. Any person refusing to pay the regular fare on demand is liable to a penalty not exceeding 10s.

THIS COMPANY are prepared to issue Debentures in amounts of £50 and upwards, for terms of three and five years at five per cent., and for seven years at five and a half per cent. interest, to be payable half-yearly.

The objects of the Company (which was founded in 1864, and has been highly successful) are to encourage the accumulation of Capital, and provide Funds from which the Owners of Real Estate (in Canada) may obtain Loans on the Security of their Property.

The Capital, $1,000,000, is nearly paid up. The Reserve Fund amounts to $240,000. The Dividend paid the Shareholders is at the rate of ten per cent., while the Stock is standing at a high premium.

There is a large outlet for investing of Money on Mortgage over Land in Canada, the Province of Ontario, where the Company does business, being the great field; and although a considerable amount has been borrowed in this Country, there is still ample room for further operations, for which a safe and valid Security offers.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.—The Directors considering it of paramount importance to provide the highest order of Security for the due fulfilment of the obligations of the Company, have adopted an exceptionally stringent basis of valuation (the Institute of Actuaries' Table, with interest at the low rate of three per cent.), and have even reserved a sum beyond the amount required by that standard. In illustration of the stringency of the principles adopted in the valuation, it may be stated that the Life Reserve is equal to nearly 75 per cent. of the whole Premiums received on existing Assurances.

The Life Assurance Fund is separately invested, and is liable solely for the obligations of the Life Department. An independent professional Audit of the whole Accounts is made, and the Securities are examined and reported on annually by a Committee of the Board and one of the Auditors.

Although the Premiums charged are lower than those of many other Offices, the Bonuses have been large, and have been increased at successive Valuations, as will be seen from the following statement of the Rates per cent. per annum on the sum assured declared:—

1843.	1850.	1857.	1864.	1871.	1878.

A Policy for £1000 effected in 1872 at age 25, and on which seven Annual Premiums of £22, 1s. 8d. had been paid, received in 1878 an addition of £96, 5s., equal to more than four Annual Premiums.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.—Insurances are granted on the most favourable terms. The Fire Reserve Fund, exclusive of Capital, is larger in proportion to the Premium Income than that of any other Scottish Office.

NON-FORFEITABLE POLICIES.

The ORDINARY POLICIES of this Company are issued under a Comprehensive Non-Forfeiture System, which protects the Assured against Loss in the event of Premiums being discontinued. For explanation see Prospectus, which may be had on application.

INCREASING BONUSES.

The EQUITABLE BONUS SYSTEM of this Company gives an increasing share of Profits to the Policy-holders as they advance in age. The Bonus declared in 1878 ranged from £1, 2s. 10d. per cent. per annum in the case of Policy-holders who entered the Septennial Period at the age of 20, to £10, 15s. 5d. per cent. per annum in the case of the oldest Policy-holder.

The Mode of dividing the Surplus or Profit in a Life Assurance Office is a matter of the highest importance to the intending assurer,—second only to the integrity of the Institution he proposes to join.

THE ASSOCIATION HAS TWO CLASSES OF POLICIES UNDER SEPARATE BONUS SYSTEMS.

AT the DIVISIONS OF PROFIT in CLASS A3 (New Series), the BONUSES are applied in TOTALLY EXTINGUISHING the premiums for the policies at the earliest possible period. An ORDINARY POLICY effected at the usual annual premium payable for life is thus, after a few years, transformed into a

PAID-UP POLICY or ABSOLUTE BOND

FOR THE WHOLE SUM ASSURED,

requiring no payments and no care to keep it in force, and carrying the specially high value and privileges of such a document. ENTRANTS at a medium age will probably be required to pay premiums for about TWENTY YEARS only, instead of for the whole of life; a shorter period sufficing for older lives, while a somewhat longer period may be required in the case of younger entrants. The sum assured, also, will thereafter go on increasing by Bonus Additions.

The POLICY-HOLDER has the option of having his Share of profit applied wholly in BONUS ADDITIONS to the sum Assured, similar to the ordinary Bonuses of other Offices.

The Policy-holders have the NON-FORFEITABLE PREMIUM SYSTEM, as well as many other FACILITIES AND PRIVILEGES.

IN CLASS B, by the operation of the BONUS SYSTEM, the Policies become highly to the assured who attain an average length of life.

The Bonuses being reserved exclusively for these, there is the certainty of all the participants realizing very large Profits, far exceeding what can be obtained under any other system or in any other Institution.

At the DIVISIONS OF PROFIT, the BONUSES are declared payable only in the case of those assured who survive the average life-time. Upwards of a half of the whole number of entrants will survive that period. The BONUSES can be applied, at the option of the policy-holder, either in increasing his sum assured by BONUS ADDITIONS, or in a

THE NEW PROSPECTUS explains the ADVANTAGEOUS CONDITIONS which the exceptional Position of this Company enables it to offer; especially the

EARLY BONUS SCHEME at Ordinary Profit Rates, the Policies being payable One Month after proof of Death, and becoming in Three Years WORLD-WIDE, INDISPUTABLE, NON-FORFEITABLE in case of omission to pay the Premiums, and entitled to rank for BONUS ADDITIONS; and the DEFERRED BONUS SCHEME, giving right to Profits at Rates of Premium which do not exceed, and at many ages fall short of the Non-Profit Rates of other Offices.

The Report to 31st December 1878 (which embraced an exceptional period of more than a year) stated that 2098 Proposals had been received for new Life Assurance, amounting to £1,265,000, and 1775 Policies issued for £1,006,170.

THE SCOTTISH EQUITABLE is a Purely Mutual Office. There are no Shareholders to absorb any portion of the Profits, which are therefore wholly divided among the holders of Participating Policies. Its leading features are—Unquestionable Security, Liberal Conditions of Insurance, and Early Participation in Profits.

By Resolutions recently passed, the conditions as to Foreign Residence and Travel have been made MUCH MORE LIBERAL and GREATLY SIMPLIFIED. Most of the Policies after Five Years' endurance are freed from all conditions, except the payment of the Ordinary Premium.

The Existing Assurances, including Bonus Additions, at 1st March 1878 were £8,392,565

The Annual Revenue was . . . . . 309,164

And the Accumulated Funds were . . . . . 2,352,846

At the General Meeting of the Society on the 24th June 1878, the Profit realized in the last Five Years was reported as £234,637. New Bonus Additions, amounting to £376,700, were made to the Policies, being at the rate of £1, 2s. 6d. per cent. per annum on the Sum Assured and Previous Bonuses, or equivalent to an average addition, calculated simply upon the original sum assured, at the rate of £1, 6s. 7d. per cent. for each year the Policy had been in force since the last Investigation. Policies issued in the first two years of the Society are now more than doubled in amount. The Directors are of opinion that the Members may confidently look forward to a further increase in the rate of Bonus at the next Division of Profits in 1883.

NON-FORFEITABLE POLICIES are now granted by the Society on a new and improved plan, which combines the advantages of Moderate Premiums payable for a limited number of years (11, 22, or 33), Ultimate Participation in the Profits, Fixed Surrender Values, and the issue of Fully Paid-up Policies without special application to the Directors.

LOANS are granted in connection with Life Insurance, on Life Interests, Reversions, and other approved Security. The Directors are also prepared to entertain proposals for the sale of Reversions to the Society.

THE MANCHESTER FIRE ASSURANCE COMPANY was established in 1824, upon principles of public utility, and consists of a numerous and wealthy proprietary—possessing a large paid-up Capital, which, with the accumulations of Profits, offers to Insurers the most ample security. The cheerfulness and promptitude with which important losses have been paid by this Company are well known and admitted, it being the desire of the Directors to settle them with liberality and despatch.

By a system of the most complete classification, the result of each description of risk is ascertained annually; and the rates charged, being founded on an experience of half a century, are as favourable to the Insured as is consistent with the security of the Company.

No charge made for New Policies. Losses by Fire occasioned by Lightning are made good. The Policies of this Office extend to and cover Losses by Explosion of Gas.

Insurances effected for Seven Years will be charged for Six Years only; or if for any number of years more or less than Seven, a reasonable Discount will be allowed upon the Premium.

Insurances may be effected in Foreign Countries and in the Colonies, as well as throughout Great Britain.

Farming Stock and Implements of Husbandry on a Farm are Insured without the average clause.

DEPOSITS AND DEBENTURES.

THE ASSOCIATION receives Money on DEPOSIT or DEBENTURE BOND, at Rates varying from 3 to 4½ per cent., according to the market value of money at the time. If preferred, a uniform Rate of Interest will be given on Deposits for fixed periods of from one to five years, on terms to be arranged. The Debenture Bonds will be granted for five or seven years.

SAFETY OF DEPOSITS AND DEBENTURES.

The ASSOCIATION lends its Funds on HERITABLE PROPERTY only, and at rates corresponding to the market value of money. All the Loans are repayable by instalments, which adds greatly to their safety, any depreciation which might take place in the value of the security being more than met by the gradual diminution of the Loan. The risk arising from the Investments of the Company is thus small, and they are enabled to give comparatively high rates for Deposits. In addition to the Loans being secured on Heritable Property, Depositors have the further guarantee of the Company's large Subscribed Capital and Reserve Fund.

The Deposits at 31st December 1878 amounted to . . . . .	£976,976
And the Loans on Heritable Security to . . . . .	1,094,800

LOANS.

Loans are granted on Security of Land, Houses, Shops, and other Heritable Property.

The Loans are repayable in periods of from four to sixteen years. If desired, part only may be made repayable by instalments—the remainder bearing interest, payable half-yearly.

Borrowers, by arrangement with the Directors, can pay off their Loans at any time, either in whole or in part; or the period of repayment can be altered to one more suitable.

THE SCOTTISH PROPERTY INVESTMENT COMPANY was established in 1849. Conducted on liberal, yet safe and economical principles, it rapidly acquired, and has ever since retained, the confidence of the public. Since its commencement, it has made advances for the purchase of property to an extent exceeding ONE MILLION FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY THOUSAND POUNDS Sterling. The Directors are always prepared and disposed to treat liberally with intending Borrowers, and in large transactions they may allow part of an advance to lie at interest, while the remaining part is being redeemed according to the following Table:—

DEPOSITORS with this Company possess Security of an exceptionally high character. The Funds are lent solely over Heritable Properties within Scotland, under the careful supervision of a Committee of the Directors aided by Surveyors of skill and experience, the Loans being always considerably within the value of the subjects. The whole Investments were recently subjected to a detailed investigation, carried out by a Special Committee of the Directors, and their Report may be seen embodied in the Annual Report to the Shareholders, dated 5th March last.

In addition to the Investments thus carefully selected, the Company's Uncalled Capital, amounting to £180,000, furnishes a valuable Guarantee to Depositors, while the Paid-up Capital and Reserve Fund, amounting to £38,750, afford them a still further Security.

The Rate of Interest allowed on Deposits varies from 3 to 4½ per cent., according to the term for which the money is lodged.

The Arrangements with Borrowers from the Company are simple and equitable. The Instalments by which Loans are repayable are moderate, and a portion of the sum advanced may lie at interest. No Commission or Fines are charged, and no Assessment on Borrowers in name of additional interest dependent on the rise of the Bank Rates.

THE MORRISON SANATORIUM, open to the scrutiny of the whole Medical World, claims to be a purely Philosophical Institute, and as such seeks to settle by Science the Natural Philosophy of disease. Resistance to the through circulation of the fluids is held to be the true cause of disease, and the removal of this resistance—by Nature pure and simple—to be no less the true cure of disorder. To discover, by unerring electrical apparatus, the exact places of resistance, and, by the exercise of the full powers of all natural sympathies, to remove—out of Nature's way—this resistance is the object of the Sanatorium.

From the above, every thinker will now take a new view of pain, and will see that a broken balance of the fluids, due to our ignorance of Dynamics, is the true cause of disease; and that the restoration of the equilibrium, by Nature having all her own way, is the only Philosophical cure.

By the Morrison discoveries and inventions, any room, open to the atmosphere, may be converted into a Sanatorium, and 'at home.'

LECKIE'S

Boot and Shoe Warehouse,

A Shaded Picture.

FROM Arthur Seat to Dumbiedykes, and by the Wells o' Weary,
Auld Caledonia wanders lone, her face is sad and dreary;
And from the hill the 'coronach' comes wildly on the blast—
'Is Scotland's ancient honour lost, and is her glory past?'

'Not yet,' said Caledonia, as she buckled on her plaid,
And bravely faced the wintry blast, like a true 'Highland Maid;'
'No foreigner shall with truth impeach mine ancient honoured name,
Till the Castle Rock has lost its height and LECKIE'S BOOTS their fame.'

'They were only pampered upstarts who did these deeds of guile,
They were not honest labourers, they were not sons of toil;
For LECKIE, every day, without chicanery or deceit,
Can show the fruits of honest toil at 50 COCKBURN STREET.'

'From the "Canongate" of Peiwar came the message o'er the wave,
That Scotia's sons, as ever, are devoted, true, and brave;
The Highlanders were "to the front," as many an Afghan feels,
And the Ameer showed (like LECKIE'S BOOTS) a nice clean pair of heels.'

We've heard of Scotland's 'Banks' and 'Braes,' attractive to all ranks,
But now we hear that Scotland's 'Braes' are safer than her 'Banks.'

Many men have gone to 'Jericho,' and lost both 'pounds' and 'pence,'
May 'good Samaritans' be found, who have both 'wealth' and 'sense.'

And LECKIE, too, will do his part—he offers wondrous leather
At wondrously cheap prices, for the damp and wintry weather;
He hopes, too, that the rich and great will generously combine,
And smooth the poor man's weary way through 1879.

A Voice from Mons Meg.

FROM my high and airy platform I can carefully survey,
And contemplate in Princes Street the fashions of the day,
The manners and the customs of the Old Town and the New,
And the Boors of every Scotsman I have Daily to Review.

My voice was heard in thunder in the fighting time of yore,
But now I speak so seldom that you'll not think me a bore,
Nor load me with reproaches when I bring you welcome news
In the excellent report I give of LECKIE'S Boots and Shoes.

There's music in a woman's voice, unless when she gets crusty,
And well I wot my ancient throat is growing rather rusty;
My words may not be musical, but they should carry weight,
While my views of LECKIE'S Boots and Shoes I logically state.

They say that I am cracked, but there are many more like me
Between these frowning ramparts and my birth-place o'er the sea;
Though cracked I am not crazy, and can give a sound advice,
Which is—Try LECKIE'S Winter Boots, substantial, cheap, and nice.

Since first I knew 'Auld Scotland' many changes I have seen,
And oftentimes I think on 'what is now and what hath been;'
But here's a change which pleases me, and all may taste its fruits,
'Tis the change from old ill-fitting 'brogues' to LECKIE'S Stylish Boots.

On fashionable Boots I surely may my views advance,—
The 'Queen of Fashion,' as you know, belongs, like me, to France;
At LECKIE'S, 50 Cockburn Street, this fact will please you all,
That while my charge is very large, LECKIE'S is very small.

HARVEY HILLIARD,

Patentee and Sole Inventor of 'THE LOCKFAST HANDLE TABLE KNIFE,' 7 NICOLSON STREET, EDINBURGH (two doors from the University).

SEE ENGRAVING, which illustrates the principle of the Invention. The tang of the knife is barbed at right angles, and the bore of the handle being suitably grooved to admit the barb, the tang can be slipped down transversely into the bore; the blade being then forced round to its proper parallel position with the handle, the barb becomes embedded into the solid ivory, and the handle and blade are thus invisibly locked fast together so securely as to resist the possibility of loosening from frequent immersion in hot water, or from any severity of usage they may be subjected to.

HILLIARD'S IVORY 'LOCKFAST' KNIVES are specially distinguished for high-class quality, strength, and elegance, in testimony of which they were adjudged a Prize Medal at the Great International Exhibition.

DANIEL MACKAY & CO.,
 CAMERON BANK, NEWINGTON, EDINBURGH,

HAVE been employed as GARDEN ARCHITECTS in the various methods of designing and laying out KITCHEN and FLOWER GARDENS, PLANTATIONS, CARRIAGE DRIVES and other WALKS, and PLANTING SHRUBS and TREES, over a period of Twenty-five years.

D. M. & CO. having acquired some experience, and having devoted considerable time during this long period to both Theory and Practice in the above vocations, are prepared to undertake the commands of any party requiring their service.

D. M. & CO. having found much difficulty in cases of planting to procure handsome Shrubs and Trees, resolved, in 1865, to grow those Plants, with the view of meeting the exigencies of their own Trade specially, and have now succeeded in raising a small select Stock of Shrubs and Trees, thoroughly trained and frequently transplanted, which, for health, symmetry, and size, can be favourably compared with similar Plants in similar situations over Great Britain.

D. M. & CO. have great pleasure in recommending these Plants to all Parties about to Plant.
 Those who may be disposed to inspect the Stock will find representatives of nearly all the Hardy
 Evergreen Shrubs worth cultivating.

WILLIAM MACKENZIE,

BUILDER AND ASPHALTER,

HOPE PARK END HOUSE, EDINBURGH,

RESPECTFULLY intimates that he executes every description of Asphalting, and is ready to furnish Estimates for the same, in Town or Country, on Moderate Terms.

ASPHALT FLOORING is highly recommended for Stables, Byres, Barns, Cattle Sheds, Granaries, Cottars' Houses, and all kinds of Farm Buildings, on account of its being the most effective preventive to the ascent and spread of Damp, its complete exclusion of Vermin, its neat and cleanly appearance, its durability and cheapness in comparison with other descriptions of flooring and pavement, and its healthy and disinfectant properties. While it effects a great saving, by the exclusion of rats and smaller vermin, owing to the close texture of the composition, without seam or joining, it keeps the Grain in a sweet state, from the entire absence of damp or moisture; and wherever the Asphalt Flooring has been used, it has fully realized all the benefits held out by its adoption.
