Paid Letters to go by the Mails that are dispatched before 8 a. m. must be put into the Office, the previous evening, at 10 o'clock, at which time the Office Bar shuts, and at 6 p. m. on Sunday.

SHIP LETTERS.—Letters arriving from abroad, except the EAST INDIES, &c. in Vessels, not Packet Boats, are liable to a sea postage of 8d if single, 1s. 4d. if double, and so on over and above all inland rates.

INDIA.—Letters from the CAPE of GOOD HOPE, the MAURITIUS, CEYLON, the EAST INDIES, NEW SOUTH WALES, and VANDIEMAN'S LAND, are liable to a sea postage of 4d. each, if not exceeding three ounces, and one shilling per ounce above that weight, in addition to the inland rates.

Letters to the above Parts, may be sent through the Post-Office, at a sea postage of twopence each, under the weight of three ounces, and one shilling per ounce, if above that weight, in addition to the inland rates, to be paid at the time of putting the letters into the Post-Office.

Newspapers, Printed Prices Current, and Printed Papers, duly stamped, may be conveyed to the above Parts, at one penny each packet, not exceeding one ounce, and one penny per ounce over and above that weight, provided the same be open at the sides. By an Act, passed last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to extend the accommodation by the Post to and from Foreign Parts, and for other purposes relating to the Post-Office," it is enacted—

After an agreement shall have been made with the Post-Office of any Foreign Kingdom or State, it shall be optional with persons sending Letters by Post to such Foreign Kingdom, to pay both the British and Foreign Postage thereof, at the time of sending the same, or to send the same without payment of any part of the Postage, or to pay the British Postage only, as heretofore.

Persons residing in such Foreign Kingdoms will have the same option with regard to Letters addressed to the United Kingdom.

No Letters liable to any Foreign rates of Postage can be sent or received free from the Duties of Postage, save and except the public Dispatches of His Majesty's Secretaries of State to and from the British Embassies and Legations abroad, being bona fide on the Public Service.

The Postmaster-General is empowered at any time hereafter, at his discretion, to register Letters and Packets sent by the Post, on payment of certain additional rates; but such registration will not render the Post- master-General, or the Post-Office Revenue, liable for the loss of any such Letters, or the contents thereof.

The above Enactments will not take effect until after the necessary arrangements have been made with the Post-Offices of Foreign countries, of which due notice will be given to the Public.

The following Enactments come into immediate operation.

Letters by Private Ships.

The present rates of Ship Letter Postage from the United Kingdom for Places beyond the Seas are repealed, and in lieu thereof, Letters posted at the Port from which the Ship shall sail, are made liable to the reduced rate of eightpence, single; if posted at any other part of the United Kingdom, one shilling, single; and so on in proportion, to be paid at the time of posting the same.

Letters may be sent from any Port, by any Ship or Vessel, to any place out of the United Kingdom, otherwise than through the Post-Office, except by Vessels carrying Mails; but this provision does not extend to the Inland conveyance of Letters otherwise than by Post, or to any collection of Letters contrary to the Laws now in force.

Letters may be sent through the Post-Office by private Ship or Vessel, from any Port or Place in Great Britain or Ireland to any other Port or Place within the same, or either of them, on payment of a rate of Postage of eightpence, single, in addition to any rates for Inland conveyance. Persons desirous of availing themselves of this mode of conveyance, must specify the same on the direction of their Letters, or on delivering them to the Postmaster. The payment of Postage at the time is optional with the sender.

The Ship Letter Laws in Great Britain and Ireland are assimilated; and the provisions of the former Acts of Parliament for regulating the conveyance of Letters to and from the EAST INDIES, at a reduced rate of Postage, are extended to Ireland.

Letters to and from GREAT BRITAIN and IRELAND by Private Ships, are liable to a Sea Postage of eightpence, over and above any Inland rate, the previous payment of which is optional with the sender.

There is no alteration in the Law with respect to Letters brought into GREAT BRITAIN by Private Ships, nor those sent to the CAPE OF GOOD HOPE, the EAST INDIES, and NEW SOUTH WALES.

Newspapers, to and from His Majesty's Colonies and Possessions by Private Ships, are liable to a rate of postage of one penny each. The Postage on those from the United Kingdom is to be paid at the time of putting them into the Post.

Newspapers, to and from His Majesty's Colonies and Possessions beyond Seas by Packet, are not liable to any Postage. There is no alteration in the Postage upon Newspapers to the CAPE OF GOOD HOPE, the EAST INDIES, and NEW SOUTH WALES.

Newspapers, to and from Foreign Parts by Private Ships, if to and from those Countries which have agreed to circulate Newspapers to and from Great Britain free, are liable to a Postage of one penny only, to be paid to the Master of the Vessel conveying the same. Newspapers, to or from those Countries with which there is no such agreement, are liable to a Postage of twopence each.

There is no alteration in the Law with regard to Newspapers conveyed to and from Foreign Parts by Packet.

Newspapers from Foreign Countries, to be conveyed at the rates above mentioned, must be printed in the language of such Countries. No Newspaper must contain any enclosure whatever, or any writing or marks on the Papers or the covers other than the address. Those from the United Kingdom must be put into the Post within seven days from the date thereof.

Newspapers, printed in the British Colonies, and brought to Great Britain and Ireland by Packet Boats, in covers open at the sides, shall be delivered free.

And if any other paper, or thing whatsoever, be enclosed or concealed in such Printed Papers, or if there be any Writing otherwise than the Superscription upon such Papers or their covers, the same will be charged with the treble postage of a letter.

Franks.

1st, The Peers of Parliament and the Members of the House of Commons are entitled to send and receive letters free of postage under certain restrictions.

2d, They cannot receive above fifteen, nor send above ten letters in any one day. For excess of number, those liable to the lowest rate of postage are to be charged.

3d, No letter must exceed the weight of one ounce.

4th, Letters cannot be delivered free to a Member unless he is at the place to which such letters are directed, excepting only those which are addressed to the usual place of his residence in London, or to the lobby of the House of Parliament to which such member belongs.

5th, Letters, sent by a Member, must, to entitle them to pass free, be superscribed wholly in the hand-writing of that member, and must have endorsed on them the name of the Post Town from which the same are intended to be sent, the day, month and year, when they are put into the Post-Office, the day of the month to be in words at length, and the Member must be within the said Post Town, or within twenty miles of it, on the day, or the day before the day, on which such letters are put into the Post-Office thereof.

Form of Proceeding in the Recovery of Small Debts.

Debts may be recovered, in a summary form, before the Justice of Peace Courts, to the extent of £5; and before the Sheriff Courts, to the extent of £8, 6s. 8d.*

The first step is to set forth in a complaint or libel, agreeably to a prescribed form, [the Clerks of Court will provide the necessary forms,] the origin of the debt, or ground of action, and to cause the same, with a copy of the account, if any, to be served on the defender.

A warrant will, at same time, be obtained to cite witnesses, and, when the case is before the Sheriff, to use arrestments.

The parties may appear either by themselves or by members of their families, or others whom the Court may authorise; but in no case by persons practising the profession of the law, without special leave.

If the defender fail to appear, after being cited personally, he will be held as confessed, and judgment will be given against him.

If the defender has not been cited personally, he will receive a second citation; after which, whether given personally or not, he will be held confessed, as above.

But, when decree is given in absence against the defender, he may, before the expiry of the charge, apply for a rehearing on consigning the sums decerned for.

If decree in absence be given against the pursuer, he may, within one month, obtain a rehearing on consigning 2s. 6d. if the case be before the Justices; and the expenses decerned for, if the case be before the Sheriff.

The case will be adjourned, upon the pursuer or defender offering a suitable excuse, or if any witnesses be absent.

If decree be given against the defender, in his personal presence, diligence may proceed against him by arrestment, poinding and sale, (and imprisonment, where the debt was contracted prior to 9th Sept. 1836,) after six free days, if the case be before the Sheriff, and at the end of ten days if before the Justices.

If decree be given against the defender in his absence, poinding, and sale and imprisonment, as above, can only follow after a charge of six days, if before the Sheriff, and ten days if before the Justices.

The defender, on showing cause, may be allowed to pay the sums decerned for by instalments.

The decrees of the Sheriff may be executed in any county on the same being indorsed by the Clerk of such county.

Any arrestments, used in cases before the Sheriff, must be used within sixty days after the warrant is obtained, and renewed every three months; and such arrestments may be loosed on offering sufficient caution, or on showing evidence of absolutor, or payment, or on consigning the sums demanded, if before decree.

The above forms will apply to any action of forthcoming whatever, before the Sheriff or Justices, for making effectual arrestments; but in such actions both the defender and arrestee must be cited to appear in Court on the same day.

Decrees, pronounced in this summary form, by the Sheriff, will only be reviewable by the next Circuit Court of Justiciary, or, if there be no Circuit Court, by the High Court of Justiciary, at Edinburgh, on the ground of corruption, or malice, or oppression, on the part of the Judge.

Such decrees, when pronounced by the Justices, will only be reviewable by a reduction before the Court of Session, on the ground of malice and oppression on the part of the Justices; and such reduction will only be competent for one year, and finding caution for costs.

No person shall be exempted from the jurisdiction of Justices or Sheriffs in such cases by reason of privilege as a member of the College of Justice.

Soldiers on the recruiting service, and not lodged in the Barracks, are billeted on the inhabitants in regular rotation, with the following exceptions, viz. Parish Ministers and Schoolmasters, Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons, Faculty of Procurators, Widows and Unmarried Ladies, not in business, and who do not keep Lodgers, and Paupers; and no inhabitant to have Soldiers billeted on them a second time until the whole are gone over.

Occupiers of houses at £3 and under £5 yearly rent, two men for any number of days under a week—at £5 and upwards, two men for two weeks, or the remainder of the month, which may happen to be seventeen days.

Government allows a return of 1d. each day to each soldier. 3d, Every Carter who shall refuse to work when not engaged, or who shall demand higher fares than those specified in the foregoing Table, shall be liable to a penalty of ten shillings for each offence. And every Carter, who says he is engaged, shall, upon being asked, specify the person by whom, and the hour at which he is engaged, and he shall not refuse to be employed in the interval between the time he is so asked, and the hour of his engagement, under a like penalty of ten shillings for each offence.

4th, Every Carter shall be furnished with, and shall always carry about with him, a copy of these Regulations and Fares, which he shall produce and show, when required, to his employers, under a penalty of ten shillings for each offence. And,

Regulations and Table of Fares for the City Porters.

By the Police Act, Section 103, no person is allowed to ply, or work on the streets of the City or liberties, for hire, as a Porter, without first entering his name, and place of residence, in a book for the purpose, in the Town Clerks' Chambers, and without giving Bond for the faithful and honest discharge of his duty, under such penalty as to the Magistrates shall seem proper, and without having a badge or ticket containing his number.

Persons wishing to be admitted as Porters must apply to the Magistrates by petition, stating their places of nativity, age, residence, and former employment, and produce satisfactory certificates as to character. On being admitted, and before being allowed to ply, each Porter must implement the above enactment; and he shall thereafter strictly conform to, and observe the following Regulations:—

1st, He shall renew his bond at the expiry of three years, and on the decease of the Cautioner, or his removal from the City; which decease or removal, he shall, within eight days thereof, intimate, in writing, to the Town Clerks, and Superintendent of Police, and he shall also, in the same manner, and within the said time, intimate his own removal, or change of residence.

2d, He shall wear his badge or ticket conspicuously on the left breast of his coat; which badge shall be of brass, and have inscribed the words,

“City Porter,” and the number, in the order of his admission; and he shall also have a transcript of said inscription painted legibly on the right side of his barrow or hurley.

3d, He shall not, when unengaged, refuse employment when offered, whether on his station or not; and, if he allege previous employment, he shall, when required, specify the nature and time of his engagement.

4th, He shall not demand higher fares than those specified in the sub-joined Table; a copy of which Table, with these regulations, and also a small plan of the City, divided into sections of a quarter of a mile, he shall always have in his possession, and produce to persons employing him, when required.

5th, When stations or districts are allotted to Porters, which shall be done by the Superintendent of Police, the Porters, except on extraordinary occasions, such as the Term time, when they are generally employed at filtings, shall not offer themselves for hire beyond the district assigned to them.

6th, Not more than four Porters shall stand at any corner of a street, or other station; and, as one station may be more advantageous for employment than another, they shall be so arranged as that each may have an equal opportunity of obtaining it. Thus, if the south corners of Glassford Street shall be deemed the most favourable, the four Porters who have been longest in the service shall take the west corner—the next four in order shall take the east corner—the next four shall take the west corner of Stockwell Street—and the next four the east corner of Stockwell Street; and, when a vacancy takes place, by the employment, or absence for a quarter of an hour, of any on the more advantageous stations, in this order—the Porter first on the next station, for the day, shall have the right of moving to it—that is to say, the first of the four at the west corner of Stockwell Street to the west corner of Glassford Street—and the first of the four at the east corner of Stockwell Street to the east corner of Glassford Street; or the first at the east corner of Stockwell Street may move to a vacancy at the west corner of Stockwell Street. The same rule shall be observed at the Cross, the south end of Candleriggs, and the north end of King Street; the south end of Buchanan Street; and the north end of St. Enoch Street; and at the other parts of the City where there are intersecting streets, or where there are two or more stations near each other.

7th, Not more than six porters shall resort to, or take up a station at any Coach Office, Inn, or other place at which Stage Coaches arrive. On the arrival of Coaches, the Porter shall stand in a line on the kirb-stones of the pavement; and they shall not leave the kirb-stone, or interfere with passengers' luggage, till singled out and engaged. They shall not importune, call out, or make any signal to passengers for employment; and, unless specially selected by passengers, they shall take hire in rotation, each in regular succession.

8th, The object of these arrangements being to insure good order on the one hand, and a fair opportunity of regular employment on the other, the Porters must strictly attend to their operation. For this purpose, they may establish rules among themselves, provided these are sanctioned by the Superintendent of Police, who may alter or rescind them, and provided they are not inconsistent with the regulations hereby enacted. In the event of dispute or misunderstanding among them, the same shall be determined by the Superintendent. And, as a corrective of improper conduct, the Superintendent may remove such as do not comport themselves with propriety, to an inferior station, and promote the next in order.

9th, No Porter shall appear on his station intoxicated; if he does, he shall be removed, and the next in order shall take his place. All Porters are prohibited from standing on the pavement or crossings, to the obstruction or annoyance of the lieges; as also from smoking, when upon their stations, or in any manner giving offence. In general they are enjoined to conduct themselves orderly among themselves, and discreetly towards the public; to obey the instructions of the Magistrates; and to assist the Police in cases of emergency, and on all occasions when required by the Superintendent, or the Officers acting under his authority.

ALMANACK AND TIDE TABLE,

July, 1836, to July, 1837.

THE following Tables, having been constructed on strictly scientific principles, will, it is presumed, be found as accurate as any Tables of the same kind yet offered to the public.

On the subject of the Tide, it may be noticed that the Tide wave rolling northward from the Atlantic Ocean, on its arrival at the British Isles, divides into three branches: one proceeds up the English Channel, another enters St. George's Channel, south, and the third flows round the west and north west coasts of Ireland, meeting the north branch near the Isle of Man. From the two latter branches our Tide is derived, and must therefore necessarily partake of the irregularities produced on THEM, by the action of high winds, giving rise to some anomolies that are sometimes observed, while no apparent cause is operating in the Clyde itself. The time and elevation of high water are also considerably affected by high winds in the Clyde. From the form and course of the Frith, it will be easily seen that a gale from N.N.W. or N.W. by opposing the flow of the Tide, will cause the time of high water to be earlier, and the height of the Tide to be less than it otherwise would be, while a gale from an opposite direction would have an effect quite the contrary, so as sometimes to make the Tide vary half an hour, or even more, from the time noted in the Table.

 CONCLUDING REMARKS.

IN the following Table are included the Watering places on our coasts, which, on account of the proximity, are chiefly interesting to the inhabitants of Glasgow, as places of Summer visiting, or retreat.

It exhibits the number of hours and minutes, what the time of high water, at the respective places, is sooner or later than the time shown by the Glasgow Tide Table.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

JOHN NEILSON

BEGS leave most respectfully to intimate that he continues to carry on business as BOOKBINDER, in all its departments, in the above premises; and, having made several important additions and improvements, he is enabled to give every facility to any orders with which he may be entrusted.

J. N. feels much pleasure in returning his best acknowledgments for the very flattering encouragement with which he has been honoured, and begs to state that, as none but the best materials are used in his business, this, he trusts, will be a sufficient guarantee for the durability and beauty of the workmanship.

Any orders with which he may be favoured will be done in the most approved style, and on very moderate terms.

Law Binding executed in a superior and substantial manner.

Gentlemen's Libraries bound from the plainest to the most splendid patterns. Music elegantly bound, and carefully repaired.

Those Gentlemen who are in possession of the Works of Lord Byron, Sir Walter Scott, Hannah Moore, &c. Lodge's Portraits, Swan's Views, &c. or the Illustrations of these Authors, may have them bound, uniformly, in the most elegant manner.

Life Department.

In addition to the immediate and substantial benefit afforded by a scale of Premiums considerably below those charged by other Offices, the Holders of all Policies, effected for the whole term of Life, are entitled to participate in the Surplus Profits of the Company every Fifth year. The surplus allotted to each Policy may either be added to the original Sum insured as a BONUS, payable therewith at the decease of the Life, or applied in REDUCTION of the future ANNUAL PREMIUMS.

The peculiar advantages of a Mutual Assurance Company are thus combined with the Stability and unquestionable Security which a highly influential and liberal Proprietary, a large subscribed and guaranteed Capital, and rapidly increasing Annual Revenue manifestly afford.

Free permission is given to persons (not being sea-faring persons in the course of their occupation) to pass and re-pass betwixt all parts of the United Kingdom; and also, in time of peace, in Steam-packets or Decked Vessels, from British to Foreign ports, within the limits of Europe, without licence from the Directors or extra charge.

In cases where Policies are discontinued after three or more annual payments have been made on the same, the Company will purchase the interest therein at an equitable valuation.

No Entrance-Money or Admission Fees are required, and no charge is made for Policies, except the Stamp-duty thereon. All claims upon the Company paid within three months after the usual proofs.

J. M. PAGAN, Esq. M.D., Medical Referee for Glasgow.

Agricultural Produce and Farming Stock may be insured without specification, and free of Duty. Manufactories, and other risks of extraordinary hazard, insured by special agreement, on the most liberal terms.

Half the Profits of the Fire Department are divided every Fifth year among persons insured for £300 and upwards, and whose Policies have continued in force the two preceding years.

No charge is made for Policies when the Annual Premium amounts to 4s.; nor for Endorsements, or on removal of Policies from other Offices.
