In case of the debtor removing to a different county, the decree may be enforced against him there, on being indorsed by the Sheriff-Clerk of the County to which he removes. ### Form of Proceeding in the Recovery of Small Debts.

Debts may be recovered in a summary form, before the Justice of Peace Court, to the extent of £5; and before the Sheriff Courts, to the extent of £8, 6s. 8d.

The first step is to set forth, in a complaint or libel, agreeably to a prescribed form, [the Clerks of Court will provide the necessary forms,] the origin of the debt, or ground of action, and to cause the same, with a copy of the account, if any, to be served on the defender.

A warrant will, at same time, be obtained to cite witnesses, and to use arrestments.

The parties may appear either by themselves or by members of their families, or others whom the Court may authorise; but in no case by persons practising the profession of the law, without special leave.

If the defender fail to appear, after being cited personally, he will be held as confessed, and judgment will be given against him.

In the Justice of Peace Court, if the defender has not been cited personally, he will receive a second citation; after which, whether given personally or not, he will be held confessed, as above; but in the Sheriff Court only one citation is given.

But, when decree is given in absence against the defender, he may, before the expiry of the charge, apply for a re-hearing, on consigning the sums decerned for.

If decree in absence be given against the pursuer, he may, within one month, obtain a re-hearing on consigning 2s. 6d. if the case be before the Justices; and the expenses decerned for, with 5s. to meet farther expenses, if the case be before the Sheriff.

The case will be adjourned, upon the pursuer or defender offering a suitable excuse, or if any witnesses be absent.

If decree be given against the defender, in his personal presence, diligence may proceed against him by arrestment instantly; and by poiding and sale, at the end of ten days.

If decree be given against the defender, in his absence, poiding and sale, as above, can only follow after a charge of ten days.

The defender, on showing cause, may be allowed to pay the sums decreed for by instalments.

The decrees of the Sheriff may be executed in any county, on the same being indorsed by the Clerk of such county.

Any arrestments, used in cases before the Sheriff, must be used within sixty days after the warrant is obtained, and renewed every three months; and such arrestments may be loosed on offering sufficient caution, or on showing evidence of absolvitor, or payment, or on consigning the sums demanded, if before decree.

The above forms will apply to any action of forthcoming whatever, before the Sheriff, for making effectual arrestments; but in such actions, both the defender and arrestee must be cited to appear in Court on the same day.

Decrees, pronounced in this summary form, by the Sheriff, will only be reviewable by the next Circuit Court of Justiciary, or, if there be no Circuit Court, by the High Court of Justiciary, at Edinburgh, on the ground of corruption, or malice, or oppression, on the part of the Judge.

Such decrees, when pronounced by the Justices, will only be reviewable by a reduction before the Court of Session, on the ground of malice and oppression, on the part of the Justices; and such reduction will only be competent for one year, and finding caution for costs.

No person shall be exempted from the Jurisdiction of Justices or Sheriffs, in such cases, by reason of privilege as a member of the College of Justice.

Regulations and Table of Fares for the City Porters.

By the Police Act, Section 103, no person is allowed to ply, or work on the streets of the City or liberties, for hire, as a porter, without first entering his name, and place of residence, in a book for the purpose, in the Town Clerk's Chambers, and without giving Bond for the faithful and honest discharge of his duty, under such penalty as to the Magistrates shall seem proper, and without having a badge or ticket containing his number.

Persons wishing to be admitted as Porters must apply to the Magistrates, by petition, stating their place of nativity, age, residence, and former employment, and produce satisfactory certificates as to character. On being admitted, and before being allowed to ply, each Porter must implement the above enactment ; and he shall thereafter strictly conform to and observe the following Regulations : —

1st, He shall renew his bond at the expiry of three years, and, on the decease of the Cautioner, or his removal from the City ; which decease or removal, he shall, within eight days thereof, intimate, in writing, to the Town Clerks, and Superintendent of Police, and he shall also, in the same manner, and within the said time, intimate his own removal or change of residence.

2d, He shall wear his badge or ticket conspicuously on the left breast of his coat, which badge shall be of brass, and have inscribed the words

“City Porter,” and the number, in the order of his admission; and he shall also have a transcript of said inscription painted legibly on the right side of his barrow or hurley.

3d, He shall not, when unengaged, refuse employment when offered, whether on his station or not; and, if he allege previous employment, he shall, when required, specify the nature and time of his engagement.

4th, He shall not demand higher fares than those specified in the subjoined Table; a copy of which Table, with these Regulations, and also a small plan of the City, divided into sections of a quarter of a mile, he shall always have in his possession, and produce to persons employing him, when required.

5th, When stations or districts are allotted to Porters, which shall be done by the Superintendent of Police, the Porters, except on extraordinary occasions, such as the Term time, when they are generally employed at fittings, shall not offer themselves for hire beyond the district assigned to them.

6th, Not more than four Porters shall stand at any corner of a street or other station; and, as one station may be more advantageous for employment than another, they shall be so arranged as that each may have an equal opportunity of obtaining it. Thus, if the south corners of Glassford Street shall be deemed the most favourable, the four Porters who have been longest in the service shall take the west corner—the next four in order shall take the east corner—the next four shall take the west corner of Stockwell Street—and the next four the east corner of Stockwell Street; and, when a vacancy takes place, by the employment or absence for a quarter of an hour, of any on the more advantageous stations, in this order—the Porter first on the next station, for the day, shall have the right of moving to it—that is to say, the first of the four at the west corner of Stockwell Street to the west corner of Glassford Street—and the first of the four at the east corner of Stockwell Street to the east corner of Glassford Street; or, the first at the east corner of Stockwell Street may move to a vacancy at the west corner of Stockwell Street. The same rule shall be observed at the Cross, the south end of Candleriggs, and the north end of King Street; the south end of Buchanan Street; and the north end of St. Enoch Street; and at the other parts of the City where there are intersecting streets, or where there are two or more stations near each other.

7th, Not more than six Porters shall resort to or take up a station at any Coach Office, Inn, or other place at which Stage Coaches arrive. On the arrival of Coaches, the Porters shall stand in a line on the kirb-stones of the pavement; and they shall not leave the kirb-stone or interfere with passengers' luggage, till singled out and engaged. They shall not importune, call out, or make any signal to passengers for employment; and, unless specially selected by passengers, they shall take hire in rotation, each in regular succession.

8th, The object of these arrangements being to insure good order on the one hand, and a fair opportunity of regular employment on the other, the Porters must strictly attend to their operation. For this purpose, they may establish rules among themselves, provided these are sanctioned by the Superintendent of Police, who may alter or rescind them, and provided they are not inconsistent with the Regulations hereby enacted. In the event of dispute or misunderstanding among them, the same shall be determined by the Superintendent. And, as a corrective of improper conduct, the Superintendent may remove such as do not comport themselves with propriety, to an inferior station, and promote the next in order.

9th, No Porter shall appear on his station intoxicated; if he does, he shall be removed, and the next in order shall take his place. All Porters are prohibited from standing on the pavement or crossings, to the obstruction or annoyance of the lieges; as also from smoking, when upon their stations, or in any manner giving offence. In general they are enjoined to conduct themselves orderly among themselves, and discreetly towards the public; to obey the instructions of the Magistrates; and to assist the Police in cases of emergency, and on all occasions when required by the Superintendent, or the officers acting under his authority.

10th, Porters contravening, or not conforming to these Regulations will subject themselves to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings; which penalty shall be awarded, and the Regulations enforced in a summary manner, by the Sitting Magistrate in the Council Chambers or Police Court, who may also dismiss from said employment, and deprive of their badge such as shall offend.

Paid Letters to go by the Mails dispatched before 9 a.m. must be posted the previous evening before 10-30 at the General Office, and before the latest collection at the different Receiving-Houses.

Unpaid and Stamped Letters, for the Edinburgh and London Evening Mails, may be dropped into the Receiving Box, at the General Office, without a fee up to 10 p.m.

Postage Stamps.

Stamps may be procured at the General Office, Glassford Street, Stamp Office, and at the several Receiving-Houses. Labels 1d. and 2d. each, and Covers  $1\frac{1}{4}$  and  $2\frac{1}{4}$  each.

When the Value of Stamps on the Letter is less than the Amount of the Postage to which it is liable, the Letter will be charged double the Amount of such difference on delivery.

Stamps may be used for Printed Votes and Proceedings in Parliament, and on Foreign, Colonial and Ship Letters, &c. outwards. If any letter, however, addressed to places beyond sea, bear an insufficient number of Stamps, it will be sent to the Dead Letter Office, to be returned, in all practicable cases, to the writer. Stamps are not permitted to be used on Letters arriving in the United Kingdom from the Colonies or Foreign Countries.

These Regulations are applicable to Newspapers in those cases where they are liable to Postage.

If the Stamps affixed to letters have been mutilated or defaced, the letters will be liable to the unpaid rate.

Members of either House of Parliament are entitled to receive free of charge petitions addressed to either House of Parliament, provided they are sent in covers open at the sides, and do not exceed the weight of thirty-two ounces. Addresses to Her Majesty go free of postage.

Printed Votes and Proceedings in Parliament are charged at the following rate between places in the United Kingdom, and between the United Kingdom and the Colonies, when conveyed by packet, but not through France nor to the East Indies.

Not exceeding 4 ounces, . . . . . 1d.

Exceeding 2 ounces and not exceeding 8 ounces, . . . . . 2d.

Exceeding 4 ounces and not exceeding 12 ounces, . . . . . 3d.

and so on in proportion. Pre-payment optional.

Letters of Soldiers and Sailors remain unaltered, with the exception, however, that this privilege is restricted to half an ounce in weight.

Letters and packets exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, with the exception of those classes mentioned below, are sent to the Dead Letter Office to be returned to the sender.

EXCEPTIONS.

Parliamentary Petitions and Addresses to Her Majesty.

Parliamentary Proceedings.

Letters and packets addressed to, or received from places beyond sea.

Letters and packets to and from public departments, and to and from officers who formerly franked by virtue of their office.

Deeds, if transmitted in covers open at the sides. These may, however, be tied with string and sealed to prevent inspection of the contents, though they must be left open at the sides that it may be seen that they are entitled to the privilege.

RE-DIRECTED LETTERS are charged an additional postage for each re-direction according to the pre-paid scale.

BOTTLES,

Containing liquid, and articles of a brittle nature, should not be forwarded through the Post, as they are almost invariably broken, either by the operation of stamping or by the friction of Coaches. It is besides improper so to transmit such articles, as by accidents to them, the seals of Letters in the bags may be damaged, the Letters mutilated, or their addresses effaced. For similar reasons, articles having SHARP EDGES should not be transmitted through the Post.

REGISTRATION.

Letters, whether containing Coin or not, can be registered on payment of a fee of ONE SHILLING, in addition to the Rates of Postage on Inland, Colonial and Foreign Letters. On those for delivery within France, the charges, besides the registration fee of one shilling, will be the English rate to France, in addition to double the French rate to the place to which the Letter is addressed. A printed acknowledgment will be given to any person registering a Letter. Registered Letters will be taken until within half an hour of the closing of the Box for the particular Mail by which they are to be dispatched. Letters for Registration, bearing a sufficient number of Stamps, will be considered Paid Letters, but the fee of one shilling must always be paid in money.

In the case of Foreign, Colonial, or Ship Letters, it must be clearly understood, that Registration can only extend to the Port of shipment. Letters, however, addressed to France, and Letters passing through France, are exceptions to this rule, the French Post Office undertaking to provide for their security till they shall have been delivered, if addressed to France, and so long as they remain in the French territory, if passing through France.

The arrangements for carrying out the system of Registration have been made with the view of ensuring the safe delivery of Registered Letters; on their delivery the parties to whom they may have been addressed will be required to acknowledge in writing their receipt. Parties transmitting Bank Notes, Bank Post Bills, Drafts, Jewellery, &c. should invariably secure their transmission by Registration; and persons having occasion to send by Post small sums are recommended to make use of

THE MONEY ORDER OFFICE,

South side of the Bar Lobby, General Office, Glassford Street, where they will incur no hazard. The charge for such Orders will be three-pence on sums under two pounds, and sixpence on sums between two and five pounds.

No order will be given for sums beyond this amount.

Money orders can be granted on the towns in the following lists having the letters "m" or "o" prefixed.

List of Post Towns and Sub-Offices in Scotland;

With the hours at which the Box is closed at the General Office, Glassford Street.

When two places are mentioned, reference must be made to the latter for the hours of dispatch.

The single rate to places beyond sea, when conveyed by private ship, is 8d. under half an ounce, 1s. 4d. under an ounce, 2s. 8d. under 2 ounces, and so on.

Owners, Consignees, or Charterers, (resident in the United Kingdom,) and the Owners, Consignees, and Shippers of Goods on board vessels inward bound, are entitled to receive their letters free from sea postage, to the extent of six ounces. In case of vessels from Ceylon, Mauritius, the East Indies and the Cape of Good Hope, the privilege extends to twenty ounces in weight. The Owner, Charterer, or Consignee, must be described as such in the address; and in case of Owners, Shippers, or Consignees of Goods, it must appear, by the ship's manifest, that they have goods on board.

A penalty of ten pounds is incurred by parties falsely superscribing a letter as Owner, Shipper, Charterer, or Consignee.

Letters for Foreign Countries, the pre-payment of which is required, when put into the unpaid box, or left at the office with less than the full postage, are sent to the Dead Letter Office, and returned to the writer, when practicable.

Letters not to be Sealed with Wax.

The practice of sealing letters, passing to and from the East and West Indies, and other warm climates, with wax, is attended with inconvenience, and serious injury to the letters, in consequence of the melting of the wax and adhesion of the letters to each other. The public are therefore recommended in all cases to use wafers in preference to wax, in securing their letters sent to India or other warm climates, and also to advise their correspondents in those countries to pursue the same course.

French Lists.

Letters to or from France may be posted unpaid, leaving the British and French rates to be paid by the receiver.

There is given below a list of the Post Towns in France, with the French postages attached to each for letters weighing under a ¼ of an ounce; and these rates are increased, charging a single rate for each ¼ of an ounce above that weight.

The following instances will show the manner of charging French letters.

When paid to Calais, a uniform British rate of 1s. 8d for each ounce can be taken, leaving the French rates to be paid by the correspondent in France, for instance:—

Not exceeding ½ ounce,	. . . . .	10d.
Not exceeding 1 ounce,	. . . . .	1s. 8d.
Not exceeding 2 ounces,	. . . . .	3s. 4d.
Not exceeding 3 ounces,	. . . . .	5s.

And so on in proportion.

When paid to their destination, the British rate as given in the foregoing instance must be added to the French rates, but it must be observed the French rates are not uniform like the British, but vary according to the distance from Calais; and that the mode of charging is likewise different, the French post-office charging a single rate for each quarter of an ounce.

 NEWSPAPERS AND SUPPLEMENTS TO NEWSPAPERS.

ALL Newspapers must be sent in covers, open at the sides, and no words or communication may be printed or written on such papers or covers after the same shall have been published, other than the name and address of the persons to whom they are sent; nor any thing enclosed or concealed in either newspaper or cover. Newsvenders only may print their names and addresses thereon. Newspapers may be examined by the Officers of the Post Office; and, if their be any breach of the above regulations, the packet is chargeable with treble the amount of postage which a letter of the same weight would have been liable to. Any person contravening the law, may, at the option of the Postmaster General, be prosecuted as for a misdemeanour.

* * * As the mere affixing a Newspaper Stamp on any new periodical publication will not entitle it, as a matter of course, to pass free by the Post, those who may be about to publish for the first time, any such paper, should submit a copy to the Postmaster General, in order that it may be determined whether the publication is of a nature that will entitle it to pass free of postage.

Clause of the Act of 1st Victoria, cap. 34, sec. 32.

“And be it further enacted, that in all cases in which a question shall arise whether a printed Paper is entitled to the privileges of a Newspaper or other publication hereby privileged, so far as respects the transmission thereof by the Post under the Post Office Acts, the question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster General, whose decision, with the concurrence of the Lords of the Treasury, shall be final.”

ALMANAC AND TIDE TABLE.

THE flowing and ebbing of the sea, one of the most remarkable phenomena in nature, is caused by the attraction of the sun and moon on the waters of the ocean. Each of these luminaries produces an elevation of the waters, which astronomers distinguish by the names of the Solar and Lunar Tides respectively. The Lunar is greater than the Solar Tide, in the proportion of three to one nearly.

At new and full moon the influence of these bodies conspire, and the sum of the two tides is called a Spring Tide; but when the moon is in the quadratures, the bodies then acting at right angles to each other, the high water produced is the difference between the Lunar and Solar Tide, and is called a Neap Tide.

Although at places situated near the ocean the coincidence between the computed and observed time of high water is exceedingly near, yet at inland situations, to which the waters flow, as it were, indirectly, the irregularities, both as to time and elevation, are very considerable.

The great tide wave, flowing from the Atlantic Ocean to the British Isles, on arriving at the South coast, divides itself into three branches, one of which flows up the English channel, another enters St. George's channel South, the third flows round the West and North coasts of Ireland, and enters St. George's channel North, where it meets with the second branch from which it parted some hours before. The Tide that flows up the Clyde is derived from these two branches combined, and it is easy to conceive how it must partake of all the irregularities produced on them by the action of high winds; and hence the reason of the anomalies that sometimes are observed, when no apparent cause is operating in the Clyde itself. High winds in the Clyde likewise affect the time and elevation of high water; and by considering the form and course of the Frith, it will be readily understood why a gale from a northerly direction, by opposing the flow of the tide, will cause the time of high water to be earlier, and the height of the tide to be less, than otherwise would be the case. While a gale from a southerly direction, acting in concert with the flowing tide, will produce a contrary effect.

In the following Table are included the watering places on our coast, which, on account of their proximity, are chiefly interesting to the inhabitants of Glasgow as places of summer visiting or retreat. It exhibits the number of hours and minutes that the time of high water, at the respective places, is sooner than the time shown by the Glasgow Tide Table.

THIS Company combines every system of Insurance now in use throughout the kingdom.

The Non-participation Rates are much below those of other Offices, and are intended for parties who prefer an immediate saving to prospective advantages. To those desirous of securing fixed sums upon Marriage Settlements, in payment of Loans and the like, the reduced Premiums will be found highly advantageous.

The Profits of the Participation Branch are divisible among the Assured of that class who are relieved from all responsibility by the large subscribed Capital, and by a numerous and wealthy body of Proprietors. The Company is thus enabled to divide among the Policy holders those accumulations which, in a great measure, are retained by Mutual Assurance Offices to form a guarantee fund, while, in addition to the periodical distribution of Profits, the Assured, at the very commencement realise a considerable Bonus by the great saving upon their annual Premiums.

The attention of the public is respectfully requested to the following Table, showing the Premiums required to insure £100 at the under-noted ages, and which should be compared with those taken by other Offices:—

Age.	Without Profits.	With Profits.
20.....	£1 14 7.....	£1 18 1
25.....	1 18 1.....	2 1 6
30.....	2 2 0.....	2 5 7
35.....	2 7 3.....	2 11 3
40.....	2 14 5.....	2 19 7
45.....	3 4 6.....	3 10 5
50.....	3 19 8.....	4 6 10

Parties desirous of receiving the sum assured, in their own life-time, will learn the Premiums upon application at the Company's Office.

Annuities are granted upon terms highly advantageous to the public. Life-rent and Reversionary Interests purchased upon liberal terms.

Loans to Heirs of Entail upon Redeemable Annuity.

THE AMOUNT OF ASSURANCES EFFECTED SINCE THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE SOCIETY IS VERY NEARLY FIVE MILLIONS AND A HALF;

THE TOTAL SUBSISTING ASSURANCES IS UPWARDS OF FOUR MILLIONS AND A HALF;

THE SUMS PAID TO THE REPRESENTATIVES OF DECEASED MEMBERS IS NOT FAR SHORT OF HALF A MILLION;

THE CAPITAL ACCUMULATED AND INVESTED IS ONE MILLION ONE HUNDRED & FIFTY THOUSAND POUNDS;

AND THE ANNUAL REVENUE IS UPWARDS OF ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY THOUSAND POUNDS.

OWING to the enormous amount of business done by this Society, to the economy with which all its affairs are conducted, to the careful selection of lives, and to other circumstances peculiar to itself, its Members are entitled to look for the greatest benefits which an Institution of this kind can bestow; and it is confidently believed that hitherto their expectations have not been disappointed; but as much depends not only on the extent of profits to be realised, but also on the mode in which these profits are distributed, it has been deemed proper to explain:—

1st, That, once in each period of Seven Years, the whole affairs of the Society are investigated. A valuation is made, on the one hand, of the funds present and prospective, i. e. of the fund realised and accumulated, which, as stated above, amounts now to upwards of One Million, One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Pounds, and of the funds in prospect, consisting of the present value of all annuities, premiums, &c. receivable at a future period; and on the other, of the engagements of the Society, consisting of the present value of all annuities and capital sums payable under Policies, &c. The surplus of the former valuation over the latter is then divided into three parts: two-thirds are immediately allocated, and the other third is set aside and accumulated until the next period of investigation, when a new valuation of the whole funds, including that third with its accumulations, again takes place, and the same process is gone through.

2d, That the two-thirds to be divided are allocated amongst the Policy-holders according to the amount of their Assurances, and the length of time that the insurance has subsisted—thus: At 31st December, 1838, when the last investigation took place, it was ascertained that they were such as would have admitted of a retrospective bonus being declared equal to a  $2\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. per annum for the preceding seven years, or  $17\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. not only on the original sums assured, but likewise on the amount of the previously declared bonus additions (which, it will be seen, are thus accumulated progressively at each period of investigation); but as, in terms of the Laws of the Society, it is necessary to set aside, out of the two-thirds, a sum to meet what is called the contingent prospective bonus, or a sum equal in value to an addition of like amount to the retrospective bonus declared for the preceding seven years, to be paid on all Policies which may lapse or emerge before the next septennial period arrives, i. e. during the seven years then commencing, corresponding to the number of premiums; the  $2\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. was reduced to 2 per cent.

The attention of the public is particularly requested to the peculiarity of this system, because in many offices professing to give large annual additions, no provision is made for this contingent prospective bonus, without which the system of division cannot be strictly equitable, since the heirs of the member who dies the day before a period of investigation, receives no more than the heirs of him who died the day after the preceding period of investigation, although the former has contributed for many years longer to the funds. In other offices, when contingent prospective additions are declared, they are not provided for out of the two-thirds, but are made payable out of the third set aside for guarantee. These are points that may not, perhaps, occur to casual observers, but they are of the highest importance in the actual, as contrasted with the apparent prosperity of an Assurance Society. Having explained this general principle, it is now only necessary to show its practical application in the following tabular view, from which it will be seen that the bonus additions vary according to the date at which the Policy was opened, from TEN PER CENT. to upwards of SEVENTY PER CENT. ON THE SUM ASSURED.

TABLE, showing the Amount of Additions declared at 31st December, 1838, on a Policy of £1000, opened in any of the preceding five years.

THE VERY GREAT SUCCESS of this Company, since its establishment, may be attributed, among other causes—1st, To the acknowledged ADVANTAGES afforded by its DIFFERENT PLANS OF ASSURANCE; 2d, To the COMPLETE SECURITY afforded by the Subscribed Capital of a large and influential Proprietary; 3d, To the AMOUNT OF BUSINESS secured by the Deed of Constitution from that Proprietary, INDEPENDENT OF EVERY OTHER SOURCE; and, 4th, To the ADOPTION OF PREMIUMS calculated at MODERATE and yet PERFECTLY SAFE Rates.

PARTIES MAY ASSURE ON THE PLAN OF PARTICIPATION IN THE PROFITS of the Company, and secure every advantage to be had in a Mutual Assurance Society, WITHOUT THE SMALLEST RISK OR RESPONSIBILITY. Or,

THEY HAVE THE OPTION OF ASSURING AT THE LOWEST SAFE RATE OF PREMIUM, if they wish merely to secure a certain fixed sum at the most favourable per centage, whether IN CONNECTION WITH LOANS or otherwise.

ASSURERS ARE ALLOWED TO ADOPT ANY PLAN IN THE PAYMENT OF THE PREMIUM most convenient for themselves.

In the DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS, they have the great and well-known advantage of EARLY CONNECTING THEMSELVES with a Company established within the last few years, which has not yet made a Division of Profits, and which has already secured a very large and increasing business.

EVERY ADVANTAGE will be given to Assurers in the NEGOTIATION OF LOANS, by Redeemable Annuity or otherwise.

TO PARTIES PROCEEDING ABROAD beyond the limits of Europe, EVERY FACILITY IN THE OBTAINING OF LICENCE will be afforded at RATES PROPERLY GRADUATED TO THE RISK.

NO ADMISSION FEE IS CHARGED AT ENTRY; and there is no additional expense whatever to Assurers, except the Policy Stamp.

IN ALL RESPECTS, the Company's Business is conducted in such a way AS TO AFFORD EVERY FACILITY AND ENCOURAGEMENT which can be offered for the extension of Life Assurance.

Specimens of the Tables of Premiums are subjoined, and all additional Information will be given at the HEAD OFFICE, at the OFFICE IN EDINBURGH, and at the COMPANY'S AGENCIES.

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY.

THERE is no man ignorant of the uncertainty of his life; but this universal uncertainty, in the case of individuals, diminishes, when applied to numbers; and although it cannot be said that this or that person will live one or two years, the numbers that will survive or die annually out of the mass may be foretold with great precision,—so much so, that it has been supposed probable that there will yet be discovered some exact law of mortality. Such is the general principle on which Life Insurance is founded. It is the uncertainty of life in the individual that leads him to desire a security to his family against the poverty in which his premature death might involve them. It is the uniform rate of mortality or vitality in the mass, that enables them to offer this comfort to the individual.—“ Though based upon self-interest,” says a writer on the subject, “ yet it is the most enlightened and benevolent form which the projects of self-interest ever took.”

Considering how many in this country of enterprise, mainly or solely support their families by personal knowledge or exertions, it might have been supposed that Life Insurance was universally practised; but this is far from being the case, and for one family who are saved from poverty by its blessings there are many who are plunged in misery from its neglect. Although this does partly arise from ignorance on the subject, it is probably less the result of any theoretical doubt of its advantages, than of procrastination and practical disbelief of the undeniable uncertainty of life—and health; for it must be kept in view that the latter is also precarious, and that if a person wait till he is warned by sickness of the duty of Life Insurance, the door may be closed against him; and the very circumstance of his inability to effect an Insurance, may tend to diminish his chance of long life. It was well remarked by a member of the Society at one of the general meetings, that "in his opinion, Life Assurance Societies were unquestionably, under Providence, the means of prolonging human existence, by promoting that comfort and peace of mind so essential to health, which arise from the consideration that we have made provision for our families, or near and dear relatives, whom we might leave at our death." The succeeding remarks of the gentleman alluded to, were so apposite to the general advantage of Life Insurance, that they are here transcribed. "In a moral point of view, therefore," he continued, "Life Assurance should not be overlooked by any class of society.—Many, and especially in this mercantile community, had not taken advantage of such institutions, from being unacquainted with their principles, and not reflecting how much the ease and comfort or affluence of their families was dependant on their life; their capital may now be yielding them 15 or 20 per cent., while at their death it might, when realised for their families, be invested in government or other securities, yielding comparatively a trifling annual return. He trusted the members would not only feel themselves convinced of these advantages, but true to the name of an 'Amicable Society,' endeavour to induce others to come forward and partake of its benefits. He would only add, that in thus providing for their wives and families, they were performing a religious as well as a moral duty, for 'he that provides not for his own, and specially for those of his own household, is worse than an infidel.'"

The very enunciation of the principle of Life Insurance suggests the idea of Mutual Association to secure its benefits. And although in the commencement of the system, and comparative ignorance of the subject, the guarantee of a proprietary might be viewed with favour, the immense profits made by proprietary companies, now form an additional practical argument for the Mutual System by which these profits are preserved for the assured. "It has been found," says a popular writer on the subject, "that by the plan of Mutual Assurance all desirable security is afforded, while the profits are divisible among the only parties who have any right to them—the Assurers. Mutual Assurance Societies are therefore rapidly supplanting Assurance Companies, most of which will probably in a few years cease to exist."

The Scottish Amicable Life Assurance Society has accordingly been established on the Mutual System, with no view to personal advantage among its promoters, farther than to obtain for themselves and their fellow-members, the full benefits which may be derived from their contributions.

In regard to the mode of division of the profits, that adopted by the Society has been found to be fair, simple, and popular, the additions being in proportion to the duration and amount of the Policies, calculated from the date of the Policy or previous investigation.

The additions which have already been made to the Policies, amount on those of thirteen years' standing to more than one-fifth of the sums insured, varying, if stated in reference to the Premiums, as is usual with many offices, according to the ages from fifty to twenty, from 35 to 75 per cent. of the premiums paid. To Policies of less duration, proportional additions have been made, with this reservation, that the additions made to Policies of less than five years' standing are not exigible if the parties die before the expiry of the five years. The following Table shows at different ages the effect on a Policy of £1,000 of Bonus additions at a similar rate, to what has been declared:—

At end of Years.	Policy of £1,000, with additions.	Sum of Premiums paid according to Ages at Entry.
		20.	27.	34.	41.	48.
6	£1090 0 0	£145 5 0	£167 8 4	£196 5 10	£235 19 2	£289 12 6
13	1204 9 0	290 10 0	334 16 8	392 11 8	471 18 4	579 5 0
20	1330 18 4	435 15 0	502 5 0	588 17 6	707 17 6	868 17 6
27	1470 13 3	581 0 0	669 13 4	785 3 4	943 16 8	1158 10 0
34	1625 1 8	726 5 0	837 1 8	981 9 2	1179 15 10
41	1795 14 5	871 10 0	1004 10 0	1177 15 0
48	1984 5 5	1016 15 0	1171 18 4
55	2192 12 3	1162 0 0

The above Table has been extended so as to show the effect, to parties entering at the ages stated, should they live to seventy-five. Of course, in the event of the early falling of a Policy, it must be more than the sum of premiums paid; but it will be observed, that supposing the parties to live to seventy-five, then even, as well as at every intervening period, does the Policy, with additions, greatly exceed the sum of the premiums paid.

That in all cases they will return their members more than their contributions, with accumulated interest, and at a high rate, the Directors will not, like the advertisements of some offices, pretend to insinuate. "Public ignorance is the principle to which these advertisements appeal," and the pretensions of that office are to be mistrusted, that seeks to mislead the public to suppose that all must gain. They would accordingly point out that, in the above statement, interest is not taken into account; but keeping this in view, they think that it strikingly illustrates the effects of the accumulation of interest, and the general profits of the business, in making the sacrifice to secure the comfort of Insurance, trifling even to the man whom Providence pleases to bless with long life.*

Such are the very great benefits which will result from a declaration of additions similar to what has been made; but an intending Assurer ought not to be satisfied merely with a statement of what additions an office has made, he ought to enquire how far the arrangements made by the office, for ascertaining and dividing its profits, are favourable for him as a new entrant,—in particular—1st, What portion, if any, of the previous profits has been reserved?

2d, What part of the profits, arising during his connection with the Society, will be divided before his Policy becomes entitled to participate in them?

3d, What claims will arise upon the profits at next investigation, on account of Policies in existence at the previous investigation, but to which no profits were then allotted?

4th, Does the mode of allotment of the profits give superior advantages to Policies of old standing, and consequently not allow the new entrants to draw their due share of the profits?

These are, perhaps, the main points requiring attention, and they are of far more importance than the simple amount of past Bonus declared. It is only by such considerations that any judgment can be formed of the probable future additions. It would be invidious to single out offices,—but no respectability of management appears to prevent the insinuation of the prospect of such additions, as it will be perfectly impossible to realise. On all these points, this office can give a favourable reply to a new entrant; and although they are aware that many members consider they have well-founded grounds for imputing to the Directors and constitution of the Society too much caution, in leaving * All will acknowledge the advantage of Life Insurance, to the family of the man who dies soon after having opened a policy on his life; but those who grumble at having to pay many premiums, should in this, see rather cause of thankfulness for the enjoyment of long life. The man who provides for his family against the consequences of premature death, is not to regret that he escapes this calamity.

undivided at the late investigation so large a proportion of the profits, they cannot refrain from again subjecting themselves to the same reflections, by pointing out the obvious argument of this objection, for the favourable position in which it places new entrants.

Upon these grounds, then, the Directors can confidently look forward, at future investigations, to as favourable results at least as at the past; and without making any special estimate of what the actual additions may be, they maintain, that with the large reservation of the profits that has been made, the present members and those who join them, are secured at future investigations in as great additions as can with propriety be made by any office.

There is another point which the Directors feel themselves called upon to notice,—that in terms of the constitution, the Directors, ordinary and extraordinary, must be members of the Society, by holding Policies of Insurance for Life with it of more than three years' standing. It is proper to state this, as it is notorious that in many Insurance Companies, names of parties appear as Extraordinary, and sometimes Ordinary Directors, who have no other connection with them, or at any rate are not Insured in the offices, and do not by their appointment show to intending Assurers that they have adopted the principles their names are brought forward to advocate, as is secured by the rule of this Society, under which the noblemen and gentlemen, who are Directors of it, have been appointed.

There are now subjoined

A FEW PRACTICAL REMARKS ON THE TABLES OF RATES.

TABLE I. contains the Annual Premiums payable during life for £100, with additions to be paid at death. This is the ordinary kind of Insurance. A person, it will be observed, at twenty, pays £2 : 1 : 6 per cent., so that for the payment of less than twenty guineas a-year, a young man of that age will secure £1000, with additions, at his death, whenever it happens; and should he attain to an advanced age, the sum in his Policy will in all probability, be more than doubled by the additions.

TABLE II. gives the single payment per cent. required to insure the same benefits as are secured by the annual payments in TABLE I. This is a peculiarly favourable mode for fundholders or landed proprietors, or others desirous of insuring, who are not making any large rate of interest for their money. For instance, a person of the age of twenty-nine, for a single payment of about £2000, will receive a policy of £5000, with additions. Supposing the same additions as have been made, and the return he has been obtaining on the £2000 to have been  $3\frac{1}{2}$  per cent., his annual loss of income will be £70, while he will secure at his death more than this amount in additions to his Policy, and £3000 besides.

This is also a very desirable species of insurance for a young man marrying, who is required to provide a sum for his wife or children at his death. Supposing his age to be, as in the previous instance, twenty-nine, and that his wife is possessed of £5000, he may, by paying down £2000, obtain the use of £3000, and secure the £5000 for his family at his death, together with the accumulating Bonuses on a Policy of £5000. This kind of insurance may be likewise very beneficially adopted by landed proprietors who can borrow on their estates at a moderate rate of interest.

TABLE III. gives the Rates per cent. to secure the same benefits as above by five, ten, fifteen, and twenty annual payments; also, by payments to cease at sixty or sixty-five. The Rates for any other number of years may be learned by application at the Office. A person, while his affairs are prospering, and having no pressing demands on his income, may be desirous of at once securing a sum for his family against all contingencies. At the age of thirty, £2000 with additions may be secured by five annual payments of £180; and should the party not wish to withdraw the Policy from his control, he will be able at any time to receive the whole sum paid, or nearly so, from the Office, in loan, should he require it.

The payment to cease at sixty or sixty-five, exceed, at most ages, very little those for the whole term of life. Many people are desirous to look forward to some period when their payments may cease, and this object may be obtained by adopting one of the scales now mentioned, by a very trifling addition to the premium for life.

Additions are made to the Policies in all the preceding classes, and along with the first payment, an entry-money of 10s. per £100 is payable, but may be remitted on the party giving up his right to participate in the profits of the Society for one year. No additions are made to the Policies in the following classes, nor is any entry-money charged.

TABLE IV. contains the Annual Premiums during life for £100, without additions, payable at death. This Table, calculated on the assumption of a permanent Annual Bonus less than what may be expected, has been framed with the view of meeting the few cases where a small present payment is more desired than a future addition.

TABLE V. combines the advantages of Insurance with provision for advanced age. It contains a Table of Annual Premiums, ceasing before a party attains the age of fifty-five, sixty, or sixty-five, or at death, for £100, without additions, to be paid twelve months after payment of the last Premium, should he reach the ages mentioned, or six months after death, whichever happens first. These Premiums are in some cases less than those for life, for £100, with additions. Besides other advantages of this scale, it would enable a party who had to give security for a debt, by insurance, to see the prospect of being relieved from the debt during his lifetime.

TABLE VI. contains the Rates for temporary Insurances, for one or seven years. This species of Insurance is adopted to secure temporary loans,—to secure property which will fall to the individual if he should survive a certain period,—sometimes by parties who are making large profits, and wish to secure a certain sum to their families in case of their death before they can realize them. Suppose a party of the age of thirty, is laying aside £500 a-year, and wishes to insure his family in £3500, he would pay for a seven year's Policy for £3500,—£43, 15s.; but by dropping £500 of the Policy every year, he would secure his object by paying in the

The Rates for any other term of years will be given at the Office. The decreasing kind of insurances now suggested is on a similar principle to what is recommended by Professor de Morgan. In the usual case of a Life Insurance, the Office acts both the part of a deposit-bank for savings, and of insurance against premature death; but by the plan alluded to, a party would still improve his own savings, and get the Office to insure against his not living to complete the accumulation he looked forward to. To a party who can so regulate his affairs, and who is making a high rate of interest by his money, this would be a desirable kind of insurance. The views of parties are, however, so different, that it would be impossible to frame Tables which would be generally applicable; and parties desiring this kind of insurance, would require to state their case to the Office for calculation, mentioning the sum they wish to provide at present, and the reduction on account of their expected savings they would wish to be made, annually or otherwise, on the sum in the Policy.

TABLE VII. contains the Rates per cent. for endowments for children; the single and annual payments payable to secure sums for children on attaining the ages of sixteen, eighteen, and twenty-one. A scale is also added, Table VIII, of Premiums payable, to be returned (without interest) in the event of the death of the nominee, before attaining the age named.
