WAVERLEY PEN

1s. per Box, 1s. 2d. per Post.

THE WAVERLEY PEN.—Here is a genial sort of a thing. It goes along so agreeably that one is tempted to scribble away even after the thought is terminated. It is a positive luxury after the experience of the stiff, stubborn, spitting, and spiteful article with which writers have sometimes to work. There is a graceful bend at the top, which tells at once that it is a well-behaved and gentlemanly pen, and fit for the best society. The polite and agreeable bend of the “Waverley” has been secured by patent from vile imitatory, who would, doubtless, have made all sorts of contortions in imitation of its aristocratic qualities. Would that all our correspondents possessed these pens! We might then, at our ease, wax fat. The man who would make wretched scribbling with a “Waverley” ought to be “hauled-up” as a nuisance. Let every one who writes buy a shilling box of the “Waverley,” and thus secure pleasure to himself in writing, and ease to the reader in its perusal.—From the Banner of Ulster.

This Pen is the best Pen we have ever tried. By an arrangement of the point, it almost makes the hand run after it, so facile and so pleasant is it.—From the Greenock Herald.

Those who, like myself, scribble for the press, know the value of a good pen; but how to find one has always to me been a more difficult problem than that “asses’ bridge” which puzzled my young brain. I must say, however, that the “Q.E.D.” of the steel pen problem has at last been made clear. An article has been produced by MACNIVEN & CAMERON of Edinburgh, which bears the name of the “Waverley Pen,” that must ultimately supersede all others. It possesses all the flexibility and smoothness of the quill, and is the best steel pen I have ever written with. Those who try the “Waverley” once will, I am convinced, use it ever afterwards.—From the Newcastle Chronicle.

PREFATORY NOTE.

THE Projectors of the NEW EDINBURGH, LEITH, AND COUNTY DIRECTORY, in presenting the first year's issue to the public, respectfully solicit attention to the many original features it presents.

Special or Class Directories being the best mode of bringing the various members and institutions of a particular profession at once before the public eye, such Directories have been prepared, chiefly from official sources, of the LEGAL, MEDICAL, EDUCATIONAL, and FINE ART professions. And as these professions constitute the distinctive character of the metropolis, the Projectors have spared neither pains nor expense to make the information under these heads as full and as accurate as possible. In these Directories, as well as in all the others, the private addresses have been given, wherever they could be obtained—an arrangement which the Projectors believe to be an essential feature in a Directory. It must be noted also that very many names will be found in these SPECIAL DIRECTORIES which are not to be met with in the GENERAL or STREET DIRECTORIES.

The CHURCH, BANK, INSURANCE, and MILITARY and VOLUNTEER DIRECTORIES contain many improvements, and much original matter, which it is hoped will be found useful.

In the CONVEYANCE DIRECTORY, which the Projectors trust will prove of some value to the public, the routes and rates of passenger and goods conveyance to every place of importance having direct communication with Edinburgh and Leith have been given, as well as the like information regarding the principal places abroad.

In arranging the COUNTY DIRECTORY, the Projectors have recognised the claims of the burghs of PORTOBELLO and MUSSELBURGH to special attention, and have prepared for both of these towns separate and full Directories.

In the STREET DIRECTORY, the asterisk after the names indicates the voters; but in a very imperfect manner, as the public, either from reluctance or indifference, have not furnished sufficiently correct information.

The Projectors, in return for the support they have met with from the public, beg to state, that they have already made extensive arrangements for the production of next year's Directory; and that every section will be extended and improved, and a number of additional original features introduced. The volume will be printed on entirely new type, and a Map, specially prepared for the work by Messrs W. & A. K. JOHNSTON, will also be given.

The Projectors, in conclusion, beg to tender their thanks to those gentlemen who have so kindly given them information, and assisted them in the preparation of the various official Directories, and to the public generally for their very liberal support both as Subscribers and Advertisers.

VACCINATION.

By the Act 26 and 27 Vict., c. 108, vaccination is made compulsory in Scotland. The duty of having it effected is imposed on the child's father or mother, (in the case of an illegitimate child, on the mother,) and in the event of the death, illness, absence or inability of both father and mother, on the person who has the care, nurture, or custody of the child. Such father, mother, or other person must cause the child to be vaccinated by a registered medical practitioner. Certificates of vaccination by midwives and other non-registered medical practitioners are quite invalid, and will not be accepted by the registrar as evidence of the operation having been performed. Immediately after the successful vaccination of the child, the operator is required to deliver a certificate to the father, mother, or person in charge of the child, by whom it must be delivered or transmitted to the registrar of the parish (or district) in which the birth of the child is registered, within three days after its date, for the purpose of being recorded in terms of the Vaccination Act.

Where the medical practitioner considers the child to be in an unfit state for vaccination, he is required to deliver to the father, mother, or person in charge of the child, a certificate to that effect. This certificate remains in force for two months from the date of its delivery, but no longer. At the termination of that period, and of every succeeding period of two months, the certificate must be renewed until the child shall have been successfully vaccinated. If, after three successive vaccinations, the operator shall consider that the child is insusceptible of the vaccine disease, he is required to deliver to the father, mother, or person in charge of the child, a certificate stating that such is the case. These certificates must be delivered or transmitted to the registrar within the same time, and for the same purpose, as the certificate of successful vaccination. Where one or other of these certificates is not transmitted or delivered to the registrar within six months after the birth of any child taking place within his parish, (or district,) the registrar is required, within a period not exceeding one month, to intimate such failure, by a notice through the post-office, to the father, mother, or person in charge of the child; and if the required certificate is not furnished to the registrar within ten days from the despatch of the notice, the party at fault will be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Shillings, and the further sum of One Shilling to be paid to the registrar in respect of such notice. Failing the payment of either of these sums, the said party will be liable to imprisonment for a period not exceeding ten days.

MISS BALMAIN'S ESTABLISHMENT

FOR THE

BOARD AND EDUCATION OF YOUNG LADIES, 14 HERIOT ROW, EDINBURGH.

THIS Establishment is situated in the most healthy part of Edinburgh, having the beautifully laid-out gardens of Heriot Row immediately in front, to which it has admission, and a fine open exposure behind.

The whole arrangements and studies are under the immediate personal superintendence of Miss Balmain, whose long experience in the Education of Young Ladies fully qualifies her to meet the expectations of those Parents and Guardians who may intrust their Daughters or Wards to her care. The number of young ladies received as Boarders being very limited, the most careful attention is paid to each in regard to health, moral and religious training, the preparation of their various studies, and their comfort in every respect. The first Masters attend to give instruction in all the branches of a thorough education and accomplishments, and Miss Balmain is assisted by thoroughly qualified Governesses.

Prospectuses may be had on application to MISS BALMAIN.

MR CRERAR'S SCHOOL, 13 FORTH STREET.

IT is the object of this School to provide a thorough English education. Pupils of both Sexes are received and classified according to their state of advancement.

For Young Ladies, the course of instruction embraces ELOCUTION, ENGLISH LITERATURE, GRAMMAR, COMPOSITION, HISTORY, GEOGRAPHY, ELEMENTARY SCIENCE, BOTANY, FRENCH, GERMAN, DRAWING, PAINTING, MUSIC, (Vocal and Instrumental,) DANCING, &c.

Much dissatisfaction having been expressed by Parents and Guardians, by reason of the labour imposed upon them in the preparation of Lessons, MR CRERAR has for the last four years carried out the system of having several of them prepared at School, under his own superintendance, instead of at home. This has been found a very great assistance, and has helped considerably to lessen home work.

HACKNEY CARRIAGES IN EDINBURGH.

FARES BY DISTANCE.

1st, The distance to which any Hackney Carriage may be driven under these Bye Laws, shall be seven miles from the Cross of Edinburgh.

2d, When a Party not exceeding two grown-up persons, and without any luggage other than a carpet bag or the like, enters a carriage at a Stance, or when driving along disengaged, they shall be driven half a mile for 6d., and if they return they shall pay the same fare; the driver shall draw up to either side of the pavement when called, and if detained more than five minutes before starting he shall be entitled to sixpence for waiting,

N.B.—This rule shall not apply to Fares from Railway Stations.

3d, Excepting the Sixpenny Fare, the Fares by distance shall be shewn in the annexed Table of Fares. The charges in the Table shall include going from the Stance or Stable to the Hirer's Residence, and waiting ten minutes. But if the Carriage be detained, before starting, more than ten minutes, a charge of waiting at the rate of 6d. for each quarter of an hour, or part thereof, after the expiry of the ten minutes, shall be allowed, and if the place where the Hirer is to be taken up be beyond half a mile from the Stance or Stable whence the Carriage is taken, there shall be a charge of Sixpence for such distance.

4th, When any place is not mentioned in the Table, the Fare shall be the same as that to any place mentioned which may be in the immediate vicinity.

5th, When the Fare of any particular place not mentioned cannot be ascertained by reference to a place in the immediate vicinity, the Fare shall be 1s. for a distance from the Stance not exceeding a mile and a half, and Sixpence for every additional half-mile or part thereof.

6th, Half Fare returning with the party, excepting the half-mile drive.

7th, When parties return, (which they shall have the option of doing,) and the Fare going is 1s., the Carriage shall wait ten minutes without any charge for waiting; when 1s. 6d., fifteen minutes; when 2s., and upwards, twenty minutes. If the Carriage be detained longer, a charge shall be allowed for waiting, at the rate of 6d. for every twenty minutes, or part thereof, commencing at the periods when the free waiting expires.

8th, When a carriage is called but not used, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, if the place to which it is called be under half a mile from the Stance or Stable, and 1s. if beyond that.—Waiting as in Section 7th.

FARES BY TIME.

It shall be in the option of the Hirer to employ a Carriage within the Municipal Bounds by time, for bona fide SHOPPING, MAKING CALLS, and the like, where the driving is not continuous. The charge in such cases shall be 1s. for the first half-hour, and 6d. for every additional quarter of an hour.

For an AIRING into the Country within seven miles from the Cross of Edinburgh, and returning either by the same or a different road, the rate shall be sixpence for every ten minutes, or 3s. per hour. Unless the Hirer wishes a slower pace, the rate of driving when out an Airing shall be at least six miles an hour; and in the event of the driving being at a slower pace than six miles an hour, contrary to the wish of the Hirer, it shall be optional for the Hirer to pay the fare in the proportion of 3s. for every six miles so travelled. A drive round the Queen's Drive shall be at the rate of 3s. per hour.

WHETHER THE FARES ARE BY DISTANCE OR BY TIME.

1st, The Hirer pays Tolls.

2d, If there be more than four grown-up persons driven, a charge of 6d. extra shall be made for each additional grown-up person, or for each two children above Six years of age, and under Twelve. No additional charge for one child above Six to Twelve or children under Six years.

3d, From Twelve at Night till Seven Morning, double Fare.

4th, The above Fares are for One-Horse Carriages, and there shall be no additional charge when two horses are used.

5th, Owners or Drivers may agree to drive at lower Fares than those fixed. In that case, should they demand more than the Fare agreed on, they shall be liable as for an overcharge.

LUGGAGE.

For Luggage, exceeding 100 lbs. in weight, there shall be a charge of 6d. extra. But there shall be no charge for Luggage under that weight. The driver shall assist in loading and unloading in all cases when required.

And the following instruments shall be deemed and taken to be drafts or orders for the payment of money within the intent and meaning of this Act, and of any Act or Acts relating to the stamp duties on bills of exchange, drafts, or orders, and shall be chargeable accordingly with the stamp duties imposed by this Act, or any such Act or Acts, viz.:—All documents or writings usually termed letters of credit, or whereby any person to whom any such document or writing is or is intended to be delivered or sent, shall be entitled or be intended to be entitled to have credit with, or in account with, or to draw upon any other person for, or to receive from such other person any sum of money therein mentioned.

Exemptions from the duties on Drafts or Orders.—All letters of credit, whether in sets or not, sent by persons in the United Kingdom to persons abroad, authorising drafts on the United Kingdom, (16 and 17 Vict. c. 59.)

DRAFT or ORDER, after the 24th May 1858, for the payment of any sum of money to the bearer on demand, which being drawn upon any banker within fifteen miles of the place where such draft or order is issued, was formerly exempt from Stamp duty, (21 Vict. c. 20).....1d.

The following is from schedule of 23 Vict. c. 15, under BILL of EXCHANGE, DRAFT, or ORDER:—

“All Bills, Drafts, or Orders, for the payment by any banker, or person acting as a banker, of any sum of money, though not made payable to the bearer or to order, and whether delivered to the payee or not; and all Writings or Documents entitling or intended to entitle any person whatever to the payment from or by any banker, or person acting as a banker, of any sum of money, whether the person to whom payment is to be made shall be named or designated therein or not, or whether the same shall be delivered to him or not, shall respectively be deemed to be bills, drafts, or orders for the payment of money chargeable with Stamp duty, as if the same had been made payable to bearer or to order. Provided always, that any one Document or Writing, although directing the payment of several sums of money to different persons, shall be chargeable with Stamp duty, as one order only.”

Draft or Order, Writing or Document, for the payment, or for entitling any person to the payment, by or through any banker, of any sum of money, sent or delivered to the banker, and not to the person to whom payment is to be made, or any person on his behalf, to be held not to have been and not to be chargeable with any higher Stamp duty than one penny, although payable at any time after date. Duty may be denoted by adhesive stamp, to be cancelled as in the case of a draft on demand. (23 & 24 Vict. c. 111, § 17.)

Exemptions.—Any draft or order drawn by any banker upon any other banker, not payable to bearer or to order, and used solely for the purpose of settling or clearing any account between such bankers.

Any letter written by a banker to any other banker, directing the payment of any sum of money, the same not being payable to bearer or to order, and such letter not being sent or delivered to the person to whom payment is to be made, or to any person on his behalf; and all warrants or orders for the payment of any annuity granted by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, or for the payment of any dividend or interest on any share in the Government or Parliamentary stocks or funds; and all drafts or orders drawn by the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery in England or Ireland, shall be exempt from all Stamp duty. (23 Vict. c. 15.)

Note.—26 & 27 Vict. c. 105, repeals the Act 17 Geo. III. c. 30, and so much of any other Acts as continue or revive the said Act, or as prohibit or impose penalty for or on account of publishing, uttering, or negotiating in England any promissory or other note, not being a note payable to bearer on demand, bill of exchange, draft, or undertaking in writing, being negotiable or transferable, for payment of 20s., or above that sum, and less than £5, or on which 20s., or above that sum, and less than £5, shall remain undischarged, made, drawn, or endorsed in any other manner than as directed by the said Act of 17th year aforesaid, and also the 17th sect. and schedules C and D of an Act passed in the 8th and 9th year of Her Majesty's reign, c. 38, requiring or directing that all such notes, bills, drafts, or undertakings as aforesaid, which shall be issued in Scotland, shall be made, drawn, or indorsed according to the forms contained in the said schedules.

[The duty on drafts or orders may be impressed on the paper, or an adhesive stamp may be affixed. (16 & 17 Vict. c. 59, § 3.) See Adhesive Stamp.—Where an adhesive stamp is used, the maker of the draft to cancel the stamp by writing on it his name or initials. Penalty for omission, &c., £10. (16 & 17 Vict. c. 59, § 4 and 5.) The payer of the draft or order shall, when he pays it, write the word “paid” on the stamp. Penalty for omission, £20. (23 Vict. c. 15, § 12.) Banker may affix stamp to an unstamped draft and cancel it, and pay the draft, charge the person who ought to have paid it with the stamp, or deduct it from the sum. Note.—The duty on a Foreign Bill, on and after 3d April 1860, drawn or endorsed out of the United Kingdom for the payment of money on demand, is the same duty as on an Inland Bill of Exchange, for the payment of money otherwise than on demand. (23 Vict. c. 15.) See above.

The word "endorsed" is held by the Board of Inland Revenue to have no practicable effect. See Times, 20th and 22d April 1860.

Foreign Bill drawn in but payable out of the United Kingdom on demand, although to be endorsed out of the United Kingdom, if not drawn in sets, would be liable to duty of 1d.

[The duties on Foreign Bills, drawn out of the United Kingdom, are to be denoted by adhesive stamps. The holder to affix the adhesive stamp if one not on it before he negotiate it, and cancel the stamp by writing his name or the name of his firm, and the date on it. (17 & 18 Vict. c. 83, § 3.) If the Bill or Note be received by the holder with the adhesive stamp effectually obliterated and purporting, and appearing to be duly cancelled, the same, as regards such holder, shall be deemed to be so. If not cancelled, the holder may do so, as if he were the person first negotiating the Bill or Note. On his doing so, the Bill or Note shall be duly stamped. The person who ought to have cancelled the stamp not relieved of any penalty incurred by not cancelling the same. (24 & 25 Vict. c. 91, § 33.) The Act 23 Vict. c. 15, § 12, provides that the party paying the bill shall, when he does so, write the word "paid" upon the stamp. The amount of duty on adhesive stamps is impressed on two parts. The Board of Inland Revenue recommend that the cancellation should be on one of the parts, and the other left legible.]

If a Foreign Bill payable abroad, and as to which the provision "drawn in sets of three or more" apply, shall be drawn in a single bill, the duty will be the same as on an Inland Bill; and if in a set of two, the duty on each will be the same as on an Inland Bill. This is in accordance with the opinion of the Board of Inland Revenue, (see North British Daily Mail, 3d November 1854.) But the Board have given an opinion that a Foreign Bill drawn abroad and payable in this country in duplicate or triplicate only represents one transaction, and is liable to the duty on one Inland Bill of the same account,—that is, if one of the parts have the full duty, the others may be unstamped, (see Times, 6th November 1854.) The schedule of the Act does not provide for such a bill being drawn in sets. Bills bearing to be drawn out of the United Kingdom are to be deemed Foreign Bills so drawn, although they may in reality be drawn in the United Kingdom. (17 & 18 Vict. c. 83, § 4.) A person in the United Kingdom drawing and issuing a bill payable out of the United Kingdom in a set, must draw the whole set, and a person transferring or negotiating such bill must transfer and deliver, stamped, the whole number of the set. Penalty £100. A person taking such bill must get the whole set stamped, otherwise he cannot recover on it or make it available. (Ib. § 6.) This applies only to bills drawn within and payable out of the United Kingdom.

BILLS payable on demand, and endorsed out of the United Kingdom, wheresoever drawn, are held to be Foreign Bills, but chargeable with the same duty as inland bills not payable on demand. (27 & 28 Vict. c. 56, § 2.)

INLAND BILL, DRAFT, OR ORDER, for the payment of any sum of money, though not made payable to the bearer, or to order, if the same shall be delivered to the payee, or some person on his or her behalf, the same duty as on a bill of exchange for the like sum, payable to bearer or order.

INLAND BILL, DRAFT, OR ORDER for the payment of any sum of money, weekly, monthly, or at any other stated periods, if made payable to the bearer, or to order, or if delivered to the payee, or some person on his or her behalf, where the total amount of the money thereby made payable shall be specified therein, or can be ascertained therefrom, or shall be indefinite, the same duty as on a bill payable to bearer or order on demand.

PROMISSORY NOTE for the payment of any sum of money by instalments, or for the payment of several sums of money at different days or times, so that the whole of the money to be paid shall be definite and certain, the same duty as on a promissory note, payable otherwise than to the bearer on demand, for a sum equal to the whole amount of the money to be paid.

BILLS OF LADING.....6d.
[Bills of lading cannot be stamped after signing. The penalty for signing unstamped bill of lading is £50. (5 & 6 Vict. c. 79, § 24.)] ferred, or negotiated within the United Kingdom,—The same duty as on a bond in the United Kingdom.

This is not to apply to instruments bona fide made and issued out of the United Kingdom, as security for money raised on loan in foreign parts, and not lent by any person resident in the United Kingdom, and the interest whereon shall not be paid within the United Kingdom. (25 Vict. c. 22.)

above £20, both the lease duty and conveyance on sale duty. In the case of a lease to which the second and third columns apply, where there is a fine, premium, or grassum, and whatever the amount of rent, both the ad valorem lease duty and conveyance on sale duty. (13 and 14 Vict. c. 97; and 17 and 18 Vict. c. 83.)

LEASE or TACK made for any term or period less than a year, at a rent reserved or payable for the same, shall be chargeable with the same ad valorem duty as a lease or tack, at a yearly rent of the same amount as the sum so reserved or payable. (17 and 18 Vict. c. 83, § 23.)

And where any yearly sum is reserved in addition to or together with such produce, relative to the yearly amount or value of which there is no such stipulation or limitation, the ad valorem duty shall be charged in respect of such yearly sum.

And where both a certain yearly sum and also such produce relative to the yearly amount or value of which there shall be such stipulation or limitation is reserved, the ad valorem duty shall be charged on the aggregate of such yearly sum, and also of the highest yearly amount or value of such produce.

[Where a grassum or rent is in grain, it is to be charged according to the stipulated rate of conversion, and if none be stipulated, according to the fiars on an average of seven years. Where there are separate grassums or rents payable to separate pro indiviso proprietors in the same deed, the stamp is on the cumulo amount.]

able is "Settlement." By the statutory note under this head, it is provided that instruments containing settlements of lands or other property, or other matter or thing, besides the settlement of money or stock, shall be chargeable with duty in respect of such, as if contained in a separate deed. A marriage contract may therefore be liable to a number of different duties. If definite and certain sums, and shares of stocks, are settled so as an interest to any extent shall be given, which shall certainly take effect, and not be altogether contingent, these are liable to the ad valorem Settlement Duty. If an annuity is provided to widow or others, such is liable to Bond of Annuity Stamp Duty. Obligations to pay sums to widow, such as for mournings, are liable to ad valorem Bond Duty. All settlements of property, or other matters not liable to specific duty, will be covered by one general deed duty, over and above the other duties. An obligation by the husband to pay sums to the trustees for the children, if any, would be liable to the Bond Duty, not Settlement Duty, being contingent.

[The stamp duty of 5s. imposed by 55 Geo. III. c. 184, on a certificate of marriage, and on a certificate of reception of the holy sacrament, is repealed by the 28 and 29 Vict. c. 96, § 21.]

And where any such deed or instrument shall be made respectively as a security for the payment of any annuity, or any sum by way of repayment, or in satisfaction or discharge, or in redemption of any sum lent, advanced, or paid, as, or for, or in the nature of a loan intended to be repaid, discharged, or redeemed, in manner aforesaid,—The same duty as on a mortgage or wadset for the sum of money so lent, advanced, or paid.

RECEIPTS for money amounting to £2 or upwards,—1d.

The following provisions as to what shall be deemed a receipt, and the exemptions from receipt duty by 55 Geo. III. c. 184, are still in force.

Any note, memorandum, or writing whatever, given upon the payment of money, whether signed or not, shall be a receipt if it shall import or signify that any sum of money, debt, or demand, or any part thereof amounting to £2 or upwards, has been paid or settled; and like documents given upon payment by bills, drafts, promissory notes, or other securities for money, are also receipts.

According to decisions, a simple acknowledgment of a sum of money in loan, or of the correctness of a debt, or of a deposit of money, is not liable to stamp duty, either as a receipt or promissory note. The judges held it essential to render a receipt liable to duty that something formerly due had been discharged. On this principle a receipt for a sum of money as a donation to a religious or charitable purpose, not being anything formerly due, would not be liable. The Board of Inland Revenue have intimated that they are to regard such receipts as exempted.

Among the exemptions from receipt duty are—Receipts written on promissory notes, bills, drafts, or orders for the payment of money, duly stamped.

Receipts written on any bond, mortgage, or other security, or any conveyance, deed, or instrument whatever, duly stamped, acknowledging the receipt of the consideration money therein expressed, or the receipt of any principal money, interest, or annuity thereby secured.

The exemption of letters by the general post acknowledging the safe arrival of any bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other securities for money, is repealed by 17 and 18 Vict. cap. 83, § 13.

[Stamps may be impressed or affixed. Where adhesive stamps are affixed, the grantor is required to cancel the stamps by writing, stamping, or impressing in ink, his name or initials on them. Penalty for omission,—£10. Penalty for removing adhesive stamps, or using them a second time, or doing any fraudulent act to defraud of duty,—£20. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 3, 4, and 5; 24 and 25 Vict. c. 91, § 33.)] cultivation and management of any farm, &c., separate from and referred to in lease, bond, deed, agreement, &c., chargeable with any Stamp duty not exceeding 10s.—The same duty as shall be chargeable on such lease, bond, agreement, &c.; and where referred to in such, chargeable with a duty exceeding 10s.,—10s. Progressive duty,—10s.

SCRIP CERTIFICATE, after 4th August 1853, that is to say, any document denoting or intended to denote the right or title of the holder thereof, or any person, to any share or shares in any joint-stock or other company, or proposed or intended company, or any certificate declaring or entitling the holder thereof, or any person, to be or become the proprietor of any share or shares of or in any such company, where such certificate, or the right or title to such share or shares shall be, or be intended to be, transferable by the delivery of such certificate, or otherwise than by deed or instrument in writing,—1d. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 63.)

And if the same shall exceed £100, then for every £100, and fractional part of £100,—5s.

Bonds, debentures, policies of insurance, covenants, or contracts settled, or agreed to be settled, shall be deemed to be settlements of the principal sums of money in them. But in the case of policies of insurance, if no provision for keeping them up, the duty shall be charged only on the value of such policies. (27 Vict. c. 18, § 12.)

As to the mode of ascertaining the value of the foreign and colonial stocks, funds, and securities, and sums in foreign and colonial currency, see ib. § 13.

All such deeds which contain any settlement of lands or other property, or any other thing besides the settlement of such money or stock, shall be chargeable with such further duty as any separate deed containing such settlement of lands or other property, or other thing, would have been chargeable with, exclusive of the progressive duty.

And where there is more than one such deed chargeable with any such duty exceeding £1, 15s., one of them only shall be charged with the ad valorem duty; and also where any settlement shall be made in pursuance of any previous articles chargeable with, and which shall have paid any such duty exceeding £1, 15s., it is not chargeable with the ad valorem duty; and the deeds not chargeable with the ad valorem duty shall be charged with the duty to which they are liable under any more general description in the stamp schedules; and on the whole being produced duly executed and stamped, the latter shall also be stamped with a particular stamp for denoting the payment of the said ad valorem duty.

Exemption from this ad valorem duty.—

INVENTORY DUTY.

I. PERSONAL ESTATE :—

Exhibition of the Inventory, and mode of paying the Duty.

All and every person or persons who, as executor or executors, or otherwise, shall enter upon the possession or management, in whole or in part, of any personal or movable estate in Scotland of any deceased person, shall, within six months thereafter, exhibit upon oath in the Commissary Court an Inventory, duly stamped, of all the personal or movable estate and effects of the deceased. The Inventory and testamentary writings left by the deceased, if any, shall be recorded in the Books of the said Court. (48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38.)

Inventories and relative testamentary writings are to be given up and recorded in, and confirmations granted by, the Commissary Court of the county wherein the deceased died domiciled; and in the case of persons dying domiciled furth of Scotland, or without any fixed or known domicile, having personal property in Scotland, the Commissary Court of Edinburgh. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 3 and 8.)

Oaths and Affirmations to Inventories of personal estates, to be given up and recorded in any Commissary Court, may be taken either before the Commissary or his Depute, or the Commissary-Clerk or his Depute, or before any Commissioner appointed by the Commissary, or before any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace within the United Kingdom or the Colonies, or any British Consul. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, § 11.)

If the deceased person died domiciled in Scotland, it shall be competent to include in the Inventory of the personal estate in Scotland, the personal estate in England and Ireland. The estate in England and Ireland shall be separately stated in the Inventory, and the Inventory shall be stamped with a duty corresponding to the entire value of the estate situated within the United Kingdom. If confirmation be required, the domicile must be proved, and the Commissary must find it to be in Scotland. A Confirmation, in which shall be included personal estate in England and Ireland, on being produced in the Principal Probate Court in England, and the Court of Probate in Dublin, and a copy thereof deposited with the Registrar, together with a copy of the Interlocutor of the Commissary finding that the deceased died domiciled in Scotland, is to be returned sealed, and is thereafter to have the same force and effect in England and Ireland, as if Probate or Letters of Administration had been granted by these Courts. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 9, 12, and 13.)

The provisions of the Act are merely permissive to pay Inventory Duty on the whole personal estate in Great Britain and Ireland where the deceased died domiciled in Scotland, and the like provisions as to the payment of Probate and Administration Duty where the deceased died domiciled in England and Ireland. It is therefore still competent to pay Inventory Duty on the Estate situated in Scotland, and Probate or Administration Duty in respect of the estate in England and Ireland. In the case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom having personal estate situated in Scotland, this mode of paying the duty must be followed, as in that case there is no provision for payment of Stamp Duty, in respect of the personal estate in England or Ireland, on the Inventory, or obtaining confirmation in respect thereof.

Additional Inventory—Corrective Inventory.

If there be any omission in the Inventory inferring payment of further duty, an additional Inventory of such is required to be exhibited by 48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38; and § 40 provides that the same shall also specify the amount or value of the estate and effects of the same person comprised in the former Inventory. By 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8, such additional Inventory shall be chargeable only with such amount of Stamp Duty as, together with the Stamp Duty charged upon the former duly stamped Inventory of the estate and effects of the same deceased person, shall make up the full amount of Stamp Duty, in respect of the total amount of all the estate and effects of the deceased specified in the said additional and any such former Inventory. If the estate shall be over-estimated, or if something shall be improperly included in the Inventory, an Inventory on a stamp corresponding to the ascertained value must be exhibited, and the original inventory will be allowed on affidavit as a spoiled stamp, within six months after the recording of the second Inventory.

Personal Property disposed of by Will under an absolute power liable to Inventory Duty—Indian Government Promissory Notes, &c., Personal Property in England—British Ships at Sea—Property to be valued at the time the Inventory is sworn to, and the Inventory to include the proceeds accrued on the property down to that time.

Personal estate which a person, dying after 3d April 1860, shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or movable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of Inventory, Probate, or Administration Duty. (23 Vict. c. 15, § 4.) The duties shall be charged on the property in respect of which the same are payable, and shall be paid thereon by the trustees or owners thereof, to the executors, for the benefit of the persons entitled to the personal estate of the deceased, (Ib. § 5.) Indian Government Promissory Notes and Certificates issued or Stock created in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for the purpose of such registration, before the death of the owners; also Indian Government Promissory Notes with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and Certificates issued, or Stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate and bona notabilia in England of the deceased, (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1.) Also any ship, or any share of a ship, belonging to a deceased person, registered at any port in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding such ship at the time of the death may have been at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to have been at the time aforesaid in the port at which she may be registered, (27 & 28 Vict. c. 56,) and liable to Inventory, Probate, or Administration Duty. "The Inventory and additional Inventory of any person deceased, required to be exhibited and recorded in the proper Commissary Court in Scotland, shall be stamped with duty according to the value of the property contained therein at the time they shall be respectively sworn to, including the proceeds accrued thereon down to that time; and the duty, or deficient duty, according to such value and proceeds, and interest thereon at the rate of five per centum per annum, shall be a debt to Her Majesty by the person making oath to said Inventory and additional Inventory, and his heirs and successors; and if such Inventory and additional Inventory shall not be exhibited and recorded, the Inventory Duty on all the personal or movable estate and effects of the deceased, and interest thereon at the rate of five per centum per annum from the expiry of the period of six months after the death of such deceased person, shall be payable and shall be a debt to Her Majesty by the person who shall intromit with or enter upon the possession and management of such personal or movable estate and effects, or any part thereof, and his heirs and successors." (23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, § 5.)

II. MONEY SECURED ON HERITAGE, &c.

The Act 23 Vict. c. 15, § 6, (3d April 1860,) declared that money secured on heritable property in Scotland, and money secured by Scotch bonds in favour of heirs and assignees, excluding executors, should be chargeable with Inventory, Probate, or Administration Duty.

The Act 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, was passed to regulate the levying and collection of the said duty. Section 1 gives a description of the property which shall be liable to Inventory Duty under the Act of 23 Vict. c. 15; and section 8 further explains what shall be subject to duty. Section 9 of the Act 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, repeals the Act 23 Vict. c. 15, § 6, in so far as regards Probate and Administration Duty being chargeable in respect of the property, so that now in all circumstances such property is liable to Inventory Duty. Section 1 is in these terms:—

Description of Property liable to Duty, and Commencement of Duty.

"All money secured on heritable property in Scotland, and all money secured by Scottish bonds and other instruments, excluding executors, and all money secured by Scottish bonds and other instruments, the rights to which shall be taken excluding executors, constituting the succession, or part of the succession, of any person who shall have died on or after the 3d day of April in the year 1860, shall be liable to Inventory Duty under the said recited Act."

There are two modes of paying the duty provided for—23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, §§ 3 and 4:—

Two Modes of Paying the Duty.

1. By a "Special Inventory" of the property, to be lodged with the Solicitor of Inland Revenue at Edinburgh, (a form of which, with relative oath, is given in the schedule to the Act,) stamped according to the amount of property contained in it. The Inventory Stamp shall be testate or intestate according as the Stamp on the Inventory of the personal estate shall denote the testate or intestate rate of duty.

2. By adding the amount of the property to the Inventory of the personal estate, and paying Stamp Duty upon the aggregate amount.

This second mode will generally be the most advantageous for the tax payer; and will be followed when the interest in the heritable and movable estate is the same, or when the heir and executor can make an arrangement as to the payment of the duty. As to both modes of paying the duty, it is declared that the duty is ultimately to be borne by the parties proportionally according to their interests in the property.

Value to be at the date of the oath to the Inventory, and Inventory to include proceeds to that time.

The 5th section of 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, provides, that the Inventory Duty shall be payable on the property made liable by the Acts referred to, according to the value of such property at the time the Inventory containing it shall be sworn to, including the proceeds accrued thereon down to that time.

Act retrospective as to time of valuing Personal Estate.

It will be observed that the Inventory Duty on money secured on heritage, &c., is limited to such property constituting the succession of a person who shall have died on or after the 3d April 1860, (23 and 24 Vict., c. 88, § 1;) but the provision for valuing property at the date of the affidavit to the Inventory, and including the proceeds down to that time, is retrospective and universal in its operation, applying to all Inventories sworn to on or after the passing of the Act, (6th August 1860,) without regard to the date of death.

III. GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

Modes in which Duty may be paid when deceased domiciled in Scotland, and personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and money secured on Heritage.

In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland, having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also money secured on heritage, &c.:—I. Duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the Inventory required to be recorded in the Commissary Court; II. Or Inventory Duty may be paid on the personal property situated in Scotland, and Duty may be paid on a "Special Inventory" of the money secured on the heritage, &c., and Probate or Administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these several instruments.

Mode in which Duty may be paid when deceased domiciled furth of the United Kingdom.

In the case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an Inventory must be given up in Scotland, Probate or Administration taken out in England and Ireland, and Duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.

For Probate and Administration Duty, Debts and sums of money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased, on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of deceased within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England or Ireland in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death. (25 Vict. c. 22, § 39.)

2. Additional Inventory where the duty on the whole estate does not exceed that already paid on the former Inventory.

Note.—Forms of Inventory and Additional Inventory will be found in the "Juridical Styles," vol. iii., Appendix, pp. 8 and 11. Forms may also be obtained from the Solicitors of Inland Revenue, Edinburgh.

RETURN OF INVENTORY DUTY.

The inventory duty and probate and administration duty are paid on the whole personal property, without deduction of debts; but the Act 5 and 6 Vict., c. 79, § 23, provides for a return being given on proof of the constitution and payment of the debts. This return must be claimed within three years; but the time will be prolonged on application to the Board of Inland Revenue. A return of the duty paid on heritable securities may also be made in certain circumstances. See 23 and 24 Vict., c. 80, §§ 4 and 6. No return shall be given in respect of any voluntary debt due from any person dying after 28th June 1861, expressed to be payable on the death of such person, or payable under any instrument which shall not have been bona fide delivered to the donee three months before the death of such person. (24 and 25 Vict., cap. 92, § 3.)

LEGACY-DUTY.

On Legacies, Residues, &c.

	Duty per ct.
To children or their descendants, or lineal ancestors,	£1 0
Brother or sister, or descendant,	3 0
Uncle or aunt, or their descend- ants,	5 0
Grand uncle or aunt, or their descendants,	6 0
All other relations or strangers,	10 0

The husband or wife of the deceased is not chargeable with duty. If the legatee's husband or wife is of nearer consanguinity than the legatee, duty is payable according to such near relationship. (16 and 17 Vict., cap. 51, § 11.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or movable estate, or out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy: And also for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate, directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument. (55 Geo. III., cap. 184, schedule part III.)

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act, (16 & 17 Vict., c. 51;) and Annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the Tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act, (36 Geo. III., cap. 52.)

Duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty though each or either may be separately under that amount.

N.B.—Printed forms and regulations regarding all the succession duties will be obtained gratis, on application at the Inland Revenue Office, Edinburgh; and at the offices of the distributors of stamps in the country. Practical directions as to the settlement of the legacy duty will be found in "Juridical Styles," vol. ii., Appendix, p. 27.

SUCCESSION DUTY.—The duty commences on the death of persons dying after the 19th May 1853 (16 & 17 Vict., c. 51, §§ 2 and 54,) and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and movable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts. The duty on heritable property is charged on the annual value, after allowance of the necessary outgoings (§ 22), as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to the Act.

Personal property is liable to duty according to the value of the succession; and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is chargeable as personality (§ 1.)

The property chargeable with duty is called "Succession," (§ 1,) and "Successor" denotes the person entitled to it, and "Predecessor" the person from whom the interest of the Successor is derived, (§ 2.)

Rates of Succession Duty.

Lineal issue, or lineal ancestor of the predecessor,—£1 per cent.

Brothers and sisters of the predecessor and their descendants,—£3 per cent.

Brothers and sisters of the father or mother of the predecessor and their descendants,—£5 per cent.

Brothers and sisters of the grandfather or grandmother of the predecessor and their descendants,—£6 per cent.

Any other person,—£10 per cent.

The husband or wife of the predecessor is not chargeable with duty (§ 18), and if the successor's husband or wife shall be of nearer consanguinity than the successor, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship (§ 11).

The following are also exemptions from the succession duty:—

1. Successions from the same predecessor, passing on any death, not amounting in principal value to £100 (§ 18).
2. Any succession of less value than £20 in the whole (ib.)
3. Legacies and personal property charged with legacy duty, in respect of the same acquisition (ib.)

Note.—The collection of the succession duty forms a branch of the business of the Legacy Duty Department of the Inland Revenue. Forms of the accounts may be obtained at the Legacy Duty Office, Edinburgh, and at the offices of the distributors of stamps in the country. Practical directions as to the settlement of the succession duty will be found in "Juridical Styles," vol. ii. p. 38.

DISCOUNT ON THE PURCHASE OF STAMPS.

Purchasers of stamps (except receipt, labels for medicines, newspapers, and postage stamps) at London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, under the value of £10 each, but to the value of £30 or upwards in whole, are allowed discount at the rate of 30s. per cent. (12 and 13 Vict., c. 80.) The like discount is allowed to any person lodging at Edinburgh, for paper or forms containing printed matter only, to be impressed with stamp duties under the value of £10 each, but to the value of £30 or upwards in whole.

To persons who, at one time, shall produce at the office of Inland Revenue in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, paper to be stamped with, or shall purchase at the office in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, stamps to the amount of £2 or upwards, or of any distributor or sub-distributor of stamps at any place not within the distance of ten miles from the said offices respectively, stamps to the amount of £1 or upwards, denoting any rate of duty not exceeding 1s. on Bills of Exchange, Drafts or Orders, or Promissory Notes, or Stamps, for denoting the duty of one penny on any instrument or document whatever, (except postage stamps and customs stamps,) an allowance shall be made of tenpence for every 20s. of the amount of the duties denoted by such stamps. (23 and 24 Vict. c. 111, § 3.) Any person selling such stamps shall not make any charge for the paper whereon the same are impressed. Penalty for doing so, or demanding or receiving a greater price or sum than the amount of the stamp duty,—£10. (Ib. § 25.)

REGULATIONS AS TO EXCHANGING SPOILED STAMPS.

The Solicitor's Office, No. 5 in the Inland Revenue Office, is open for the allowance of spoiled stamps every Tuesday and Thursday, from 12 noon to 2 P.M. The distributors of stamps at the following places also receive spoiled stamps for allowance:—Aberdeen, Ayr, Banff, Cupar-Fife, Dumfries, Dundee, Elgin, Forfar, Glasgow, Greenock, Inverness, Peebles, Perth, Stirling, and Tain.

A supply of forms of affidavits is kept by the Solicitor and the above distributors, and claimants may attend at the Solicitor's Office, and have the affidavits filled up and taken; or they may get copies of the forms, and take the oath before a Justice of the Peace, and afterwards lodge the affidavits and the stamps with any of the above officers. If the claim be admitted, a ticket is issued, stating that application is to be made for the new stamps after Monday se'ennight, and within six weeks from the date of the ticket. If not made within that time, the claim will be forfeited.

The stamps, if belonging to parties resident in Edinburgh, or within ten miles thereof, must be presented for allowance within six months after being signed in the case of executed instruments, and six months after being spoiled in the case of unexecuted instruments. If the stamps belong to persons beyond that distance, six months in the former, and twelve months in the latter case.

Bills and notes delivered to payees, or negotiated or issued in any way, and bills accepted or tendered for acceptance, cannot be exchanged unless a new bill be produced, in all respects the same excepting the correction of the error.

As to the exchange of sea policies of insurance, see 54 Geo. III. c. 133.

Unsigned instruments are allowed if inadvertently spoiled. Signed, if void in law from the beginning; from error or mistake, unfit for the purpose originally intended; from death, or refusal to sign, of any person whose signature is necessary; from the want of the signature of some material and necessary party; from refusal to act under, or from non-acceptance—they shall be unfit for or fail of the purpose intended; or if the transaction be carried through by another instrument duly stamped. (See 53 Geo. III. c. 108.) In the case of transfers of stock signed by the seller alone, and other instruments if by one party, new deeds require to be produced to the proper officer of stamps, who, as to transfers, is instructed to certify in what particulars they differ from those spoiled.

Stamps of a different description may be obtained for any stamp spoiled if it be of the value of £6 or upwards. Application for this purpose to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue should be lodged with the affidavit. The Commissioners, by 3d and 4th Will. IV., c. 97, § 19, may, if in their discretion they think fit, refund, in money, the amount of spoiled stamps. They are also authorised to repay the amount of stamps for which the possessor has no immediate use, if applied for within three months after being purchased. In both cases is deducted the per centage allowed by law on the purchase of stamps.

STAMPING DEEDS AFTER BEING SIGNED.

Beyond Twelve Months.—The duty or deficiency of duty shall be due and payable to her Majesty, and also the penalty of £10. The deed will only be stamped on payment of the whole or (as the case may be) the deficiency of the stamp duty remaining payable on it, and over and above such duty a penalty of £10; and if the whole amount of said duty or deficiency shall exceed £10, then, in addition to said duty and penalty, there shall be paid, by way of additional penalty, interest on the duty or deficiency at the rate of five per cent. from the date or first signing of the deed; but such interest shall not exceed the amount of the said duty or deficiency of duty.

Within Twelve Months.—If the deed shall be brought to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue within twelve months after the first signing or executing, in order to be stamped, it may be stamped without payment of the penalty, or on payment only of a portion thereof, provided it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that the deed was not duly stamped previously to being signed, by reason of accident, mistake, inadvertency, or urgent necessity, and without any wilful design to evade or delay the payment of duty. (13 and 14 Vict., c. 97, § 12.)

Abroad.—If the deed shall be executed by any party abroad, it may be stamped without any penalty, if brought to be so within two calendar months from the time of being received in the kingdom, upon proof of the facts to the satisfaction of the Commissioners. (13 and 14 Vict., c. 97, § 13.)

Adhesive Stamps.—Where adhesive stamps may be affixed to any instrument, an officer of Inland Revenue, authorised by the Commissioners, may, on the instrument being produced to him, affix and cancel the adhesive stamp. The instrument shall thereupon be deemed sufficiently stamped. But this not to apply to instruments not allowed to be stamped after being made, signed, or issued, nor to instruments after the expiration of the period limited for stamping them. The penalty required to be paid on stamping of the instrument is not affected by this provision. (24 and 25 Vict., c. 91, § 32.)

N.B.—Instruments are received at the Solicitor's Office, Inland Revenue, Waterloo Place, Edinburgh, to be stamped, if within two months of the first date, (the Solicitor may, in certain circumstances, receive them within two months of the last date,) on payment of the duty; if beyond that date, on payment of the duty and penalty. Parties, on applying, will be furnished with a schedule, and after being filled up, it is to be presented, along with the instrument, at the Solicitor's Office, No. 5 Inland Revenue, between 10 and 12 o'clock, on Mondays and Wednesdays only. The amount of duty wished to be impressed on the instrument is to be inserted by the applicant before being presented at the Solicitor's Office; and afterwards he pays it, and the penalty, if any, to the cashier, No. 3, Lobby. As to stamping Agreements and Charter-Parties, (which are received at the Cashier's Office, No. 3 Lobby, between 10 and 1 o'clock from Monday to Friday, and on Saturdays between 10 and 12,) see Notes under these heads.

DOUBTS AS TO THE SUFFICIENCY OF STAMPS MAY BE REMOVED.

The opinion of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue as to the duty to which a deed, whether previously stamped or otherwise, is chargeable, may be obtained on the deed being presented at their office (Edinburgh) and a fee of 10s. paid. The duty or insufficient duty which the Commissioners may assess, and the penalty, if any, being paid, they shall stamp the deed with the duty so paid, and thereupon, and also in the case of the deed being previously sufficiently stamped, shall also impress the deed with a particular stamp to be provided for the purpose. The deed shall then be received in evidence notwithstanding any objection to it as insufficiently stamped. The provision does not apply to bonds or mortgages for unlimited amounts, nor to instruments after being signed, prohibited from being stamped. On the Stamp duties assessed being paid, and 40s. for costs being deposited, the opinion of the Commissioners may be appealed against to the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, if the deed has been presented for the opinion of the Commissioners at their office in Edinburgh; to the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, if the deed has been presented at London; to the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, if the deed has been presented in Dublin. (13 and 14 Vict., c. 97, § 14 and 15; 28 & 29 Vict., c. 96, § 22.) The Commissioners may also adjudge on deeds not liable to any stamp duty; and if any duty is assessed, the party may appeal. (16 and 17 Vict., c. 59, § 13.)

N.B.—Instruments are received for adjudication at the Solicitor's Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh, on the same conditions as to duty and penalty as instruments to be stamped merely, (see above.) The mode of proceeding is as follows:—The sum of ten shillings for the adjudication stamp is first to be paid to the Cashier, No. 3, Lobby. Then the schedule, (the duty to be impressed of course not being inserted in the schedule,) the instrument after execution, and a copy (written on foolscap paper) of it, (omitting the bounding description of lands, &c., and having appended to it a table giving the substance of the clauses and provisions, particularly dates and sums, and a reference to the page of the copy on which each commences,) are to be left at the Solicitor's Office, No. 5, on Mondays and Wednesdays, between 10 and 12 o'clock only. Between 10 and 12 o'clock on the Thursday following, a party, who can give explanation, must call on the chief clerk of the Solicitor's Department, No. 6; and he should be prepared to pay the proper duty, and penalty, if any, to the Cashier, No. 3, Lobby.

DUPLICATES OR COUNTERPARTS.

Duplicates or counterparts of instruments requiring to be impressed with the denoting stamp to render them valid, may be lodged at the Solicitor's Office, No. 5, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh, between 10 and 12 o'clock on Mondays and Wednesdays only. A transmission of them is made once a-week to the Head-Office.

The principal instrument, as well as the duplicate, must be lodged, and both must appear to be properly stamped, otherwise they will not be transmitted.

Mem.—The revenue takes no risk of loss or injury connected with the custody or carriage of the instruments received and transmitted to be stamped.

keeping a dog without a licence, § 8. The effect of this is, that the licence must be taken out on or before 24th May 1867, and will expire on 31st December 1867.

GENERAL POST-OFFICE, EDINBURGH.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL FOR THE UNITED KINGDOM,
HIS GRACE THE DUKE OF MONTROSE.

I.—RATES OF POSTAGE, AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

Inland Letters.

The rate of postage on all inland letters is regulated by weight, irrespective of distance; and is as follows:—

If paid in advance.

Letter weighing not more than half-an-ounce	1d.
” ” more than half-an-ounce but not exceeding one ounce	2d.
and so on 1d. for every half ounce, or fraction of half an ounce.

Unpaid Letters.

As a general rule, the postage, if not paid in advance, is double the foregoing; and if the payment in advance be insufficient, double the deficiency must be charged. An inland letter, for example, weighing more than half an ounce, and not exceeding one ounce, if bearing a penny stamp only, must, on delivery, be charged twopence. The unpaid additional postage on re-directed letters, however, is not doubled, being the same as if such postage were prepaid.

Colonial and Foreign Letters.

The rates of postage on letters to foreign countries and the colonies are entered in the Table of Foreign and Colonial Postage.

Addresses to the Queen and Petitions to Parliament.

Petitions and Addresses to Her Majesty, forwarded direct, are exempt from postage; and such petitions and addresses, as also petitions to either House of Parliament, if sent to a member of either House, are likewise exempt, provided they do not weigh more than two pounds, and are without covers, or in covers open at the sides. No letter or other enclosure, however, must be inserted; and if one be found, such enclosure, unless it bear the proper number of postage stamps, is charged as an unpaid letter.

Newspapers and other Periodical Publications bearing the Newspaper Stamp.

All periodical publications, including newspapers published in the United Kingdom, at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days, and which bear an impressed stamp or stamps denoting the stamp duty, (of the kind formerly confined chiefly to newspapers,) may be transmitted and re-transmitted through the post within the United Kingdom free from postage under the following regulations, viz. :—

1. They are subject to the same restrictions with regard to the number of sheets and superficial extent as were formerly applicable only to newspapers properly so called. These restrictions are shown in the following Table :—

Amount of Stamps impressed on the Publication.	Maximum Number of Sheets.	Maximum superficial Extent of Letterpress on One Side.
One Penny	Two	2295 inches.
Three Halfpence	Three	3443 „
Twopence	Four	4591 „

2. No publication, or portion thereof, can pass through the post, unless the impressed stamp which it bears be at least a stamp of the value of one penny.
3. The title and date of the publication must be printed at the top of every page.
4. The publication must be folded in such a manner, that the whole of the stamp or stamps, denoting the full duty, shall be exposed to view, and be distinctly visible on the outside, except that where there are more than two publications in the same cover, it will be considered sufficient if the stamps are so arranged that they can readily be examined.
5. It must not be printed on pasteboard, or cardboard, or on two or more thicknesses of paper pasted together; nor must any pasteboard, cardboard, or such pasted paper be sent with it as a back or cover thereto, or otherwise.
6. It must be posted within fifteen days from the date of publication.
7. It must either have no cover, or a cover open at the ends.
8. It must contain no enclosure.
9. It must have no writing or other mark thereon, but the name and address of the person to whom it is sent, nor anything on the cover but such name and address, the printed title of the publication, and the printed name and address of the publisher or vendor who sends it. Thus, if a newspaper, after having the address of one person written on it, be sent to another person, the first address must be cut off, otherwise the paper will be charged with an additional postage of 2d.
10. If the publication be addressed to any person within the free delivery of the place where it is posted, it becomes liable to a postage of one penny, which must be prepaid by affixing a postage stamp. If this be not done an additional postage of 2d. will be charged.
11. When a newspaper, &c., is so folded as not to expose the stamp or stamps, a postage of one penny is charged in addition to any other postage to which the publication, if properly folded, would have been liable. If the foregoing regulations are infringed, the publication is dealt with in accordance with the regulations of the book post.
12. It is suggested that every publication should have a notice to purchasers conspicuously printed, pointing out the necessity of exposing the stamp or stamps to view whenever the publication is sent through the post.
13. Stamped publications which have been issued more than fifteen days, can be forwarded within the United Kingdom and to most of the colonies under the regulations of the book post.

Newspapers sent abroad, whether to a British colony or to a foreign country, are liable to the 3rd, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, and 9th of the foregoing regulations; moreover the name of the newspaper must have been registered at the General Post Office. Every such newspaper is liable to the postage entered in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage, (British Postal Guide;) and this postage must be prepaid in stamps. As respects newspapers going abroad the impressed stamp stands for nothing. Publications registered for transmission abroad, although not strictly newspapers, are nevertheless, so far as the British Office is concerned, treated as such.

It is forbidden to introduce into Russia, through the post, political newspapers, in covers open at the ends or sides; and the only means by which persons residing in Russia can obtain newspapers from the United Kingdom is by subscribing for them at one of the Russian Post Offices. This prohibition does not, however, extend to political newspapers, or any other publication, addressed to members of the Royal Family of Russia, the Imperial Ministers, or members of the Diplomatic Corps. The admission into Russia even of newspapers not of a political character is permitted only when they are addressed to the house of some established bookseller, to the higher schools, to the Imperial Public Library, or to the Academy of Sciences in Russia. Printed prices current, however, as well as printed circulars, in covers open at the ends or sides, are allowed to be addressed to any persons residing in Russia.

Parliamentary Proceedings.

Printed proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, sent without covers, or in covers open at the ends, may circulate within the United Kingdom at the rate of one penny for every quarter of a pound, or fraction of a quarter of a pound.

Prepayment, when the circulation is within the United Kingdom, is optional; and if it be made in part, the simple difference is only charged. The abbreviation PAR. PRO. should be invariably written or printed on the cover.

Parliamentary Proceedings may be sent, under the Book Post privilege, to all the colonies, and to those foreign states between which and this country there is a Book Post.

Inland Book Post.

On the subjoined conditions, book packets may be sent:—

1. The postage is 1d. for every quarter of a pound, or fraction of a quarter of a pound, and must be prepaid in full, by means of postage stamps affixed outside the packet or its cover.
2. Every packet must be sent either without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sides.
3. A book packet may contain any number of separate books or other publications, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, parchment, or vellum (to the exclusion, however, of letters, whether sealed or open.) And the books or other publications, prints, maps, &c., may be either printed, lithographed, written, or plain, or any mixture of these. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, publication, &c., or of a portion thereof, will be allowed, whether such binding, &c., be loose or attached; as also rollers, in the case of prints or maps; markers (whether of paper or otherwise,) in the case of books; and, in short, whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of the packet, or usually appertains thereto, but no patterns or books of patterns can be admitted.
4. A book packet, whatever may be the postage paid thereon, must not contain any written letter, closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection. Entries, however, merely stating who sends the book, &c., or to whom it is given, are not regarded as a letter, and may therefore be made.
5. No book packet can be received, if it exceeds two feet in length, and one foot in width or depth, and, if posted, is returned to the sender.
6. Any packet which shall not be open at the end or sides, or shall have any written letter or any communication of the nature of a letter in it, or upon its cover, is charged with the "unpaid" or double letter postage.
7. If a packet be found to contain any letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other unauthorised enclosure, the letter or enclosure is taken out and forwarded to the address on the packet, charged with the full postage, as an unpaid letter, together with an additional rate of 1d.; and the remainder of the packet, if duly prepaid with stamps, is then forwarded to its address.
8. If a packet be not sufficiently prepaid with stamps, but nevertheless bear a stamp of the value of 1d., it must be forwarded, charged with the deficient book postage, together with an additional rate of 1d.; but any packet which shall bear no postage stamp is charged with the "unpaid" or double book postage.
9. In every case in which the postage charged upon a packet under these regulations would be greater than the letter rate, the latter postage is substituted.

Inland Pattern and Sample Post.

The following are the rules of the Inland Pattern and Sample Post:—

1. The postage is 2d. for every quarter of a pound, or fraction of a quarter of a pound.
2. No packet of patterns or samples must exceed twenty-four ounces in weight. Any packet above that weight is sent to the Returned Letter Branch.
3. The postage must be prepaid by means of postage stamps.
4. There must be no writing or printing on the packet or its cover in addition to the address of the person for whom the packet is intended, except the address of the sender, a trade mark and numbers, and the prices of the articles: otherwise the packet is treated as a letter.
5. There must be no enclosure other than the samples themselves. The particulars, which are allowed to be furnished under the preceding rule, must in all cases be given, not on loose pieces of paper, but on small labels attached to the samples or the bags containing them. Any loose enclosure is taken out and forwarded to the address on the packet, charged with the full postage as an unpaid letter, together with an additional rate of 1d.

6. The patterns or samples must be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination. Samples, however, of seeds, &c., may be enclosed in boxes, or in bags of linen, or other material, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened; or in bags entirely closed, provided that they are transparent, so that the officers of the department may be able to satisfy themselves as to the nature of the contents. If this rule be infringed, the packet is treated as a letter.
7. If a packet of patterns or samples be posted altogether unpaid, it is charged with double the postage which should have been prepaid. If a portion of the postage be prepaid, even although only a penny stamp be affixed, the packet is charged with the amount of the deficiency, together with an additional rate of 2d.
8. In order to prevent any interruption to the regular transmission of letters, a packet of patterns or samples may, when it is necessary, be kept back by any Head Postmaster for twenty-four hours beyond the time when, in the ordinary course, it would be forwarded.
9. The rule, which forbids the transmission through the post of any article which might injure the contents of the mail bags or the officers of the Post-Office, is so far relaxed as to permit the transmission of scissors, knives, razors, forceps, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, and such like, as samples, provided that they be packed and guarded in so secure a manner as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and the officers of the Post-Office, while at the same time the samples may be easily examined. If any packet containing such articles as these be posted, which is found not to be sufficiently guarded, it is stopped, and a notice of its detention is sent to the person to whom it is addressed or to the sender, who may then obtain it upon personal application; but the packet is charged with a fine equal in amount to the postage to which it was liable as a packet of patterns.
10. In every case in which the postage chargeable under these regulations is greater than the letter rate, the latter postage is substituted.

Colonial and Foreign Pattern and Sample Post.

Patterns and samples can be sent at the rates inserted in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage to such colonies and foreign countries as are marked in that Table with the letter "P." The conditions in these cases are for the most part the same as in the case of the Inland Pattern and Sample Post, the following being the only important exceptions:—

1. A packet of patterns or samples sent to Portugal, Madeira, the Azores, Cape de Verda, France, or to Turkey, Syria, or Egypt, by French packet, must not exceed 18 inches in length, width, or depth; a packet to any other place abroad must not exceed 24 inches in length or 12 inches in breadth or depth.
2. A packet of patterns or samples sent to Germany, Russia, or Belgium, or to any place via Austria, must not exceed eight ounces in weight, and the weight of a packet for Portugal, Madeira, the Azores, or Cape de Verda, is limited to one pound.
3. None of the articles named in Rule 9 above, may be sent as patterns or samples to any place abroad, except Germany, Belgium, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Portugal, Madeira, the Azores, Cape de Verda, and the British Colonies, and not to these places when addressed "via France."
4. Bags entirely closed, even though they be transparent, must not be used for the transmission of seeds to foreign countries; and samples of intrinsic value must not be sent to foreign countries.

Precautions against Fraud, &c.

It is the duty of Postmasters, whenever they have ground for suspecting an infringement of any of the above conditions, and occasionally, even when there is no ground for suspicion, to open and examine book packets posted at, or passing through, their offices.

To prevent obstacles to the regular transmission of letters, any Head Postmaster may, when necessary, delay forwarding a book packet for a period not exceeding twenty-four hours beyond the ordinary time: and at Packet Offices the delay may, at the option of the Postmaster, be either for that period, or until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the book-packet ought otherwise to be forwarded.

II.—REGISTRATION OF LETTERS.

1. By the prepayment of a fee of 4d., any letter, newspaper, book, or other packet on which the postage has been prepaid in stamps, may be registered to any place in the United Kingdom, the British Colonies, Italy, or the German States. To other foreign countries, only letters and packets prepaid at the letter rates can be registered; and to some countries, as shown in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage, there is no arrangement whatever for registration.

2. The registration of a packet makes its transmission much more secure; and the loss of a registered packet is a very rare occurrence. All inland letters, which unquestionably contain coin, even though they be posted without registration, are treated as registered, and charged on delivery with a double registration fee of 8d. in addition to the ordinary postage; and any such letters which cannot be registered in time to be forwarded by the mail for which they are posted are detained for the next despatch. As yet, however, this rule applies only to inland letters.

3. Every letter to be registered should be presented at the window, and a receipt obtained for it, and should on no account be dropped into the letter-box. If, contrary to this rule, a letter marked "Registered" be dropped into the letter-box, it will, if directed to any place in the United Kingdom, be liable to a registration fee of 8d., instead of the ordinary fee of 4d. A registered letter, if reposted as an ordinary letter with the word "Registered" unerased or erased in pencil only, will also be liable to a registration fee of 8d.

4. At all Post Offices the latest time for posting registered letters on the payment of the ordinary fee is entered in the notice exhibited in the office window; and at the General Post Office, Edinburgh, the time is half-an-hour before the closing of the letter-box. Upon payment of a late fee of 4d., in addition to the ordinary registration fee, letters, whether inland, foreign, or colonial, may be registered at the General Post Office, Edinburgh, and at all Provincial Head Offices, after the hours specified, until the closing of the letter-box for each despatch, (exclusive of the time during which late letters are received,) or until the office is closed for the night.

5. Registered letters must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; and if the letter be inland, such prepayment must be by stamps.

6. No letter-carrier, rural messenger, or other servant of the Post Office is allowed to carry a letter for any person to be registered.

Parliamentary Notices.

Parliamentary notices may be forwarded through the post under the following regulations:—

1. The words "Parliamentary Notice" must be legibly printed on the face of the letter; and in order to secure the speedy return of any notices which may be undelivered, the name and address of the solicitor issuing such Parliamentary Notice should also be legibly printed or written on the face of the letter; though this latter is not imperative.
2. These notices must be posted either at the General Post Office, St Martin's-le-Grand, in London; the General Post Office in Dublin; the General Post Office in Edinburgh; or at the chief office at one or other of the following towns:—

Aberdeen	Exeter	Liverpool
Athlone	Glasgow	Manchester
Belfast	Inverness	Newcastle-upon-Tyne
Birmingham	Leeds	Norwich
Bristol	Lincoln	Shrewsbury
Cork

3. All notices which, by the standing orders of either House of Parliament, are required to be served on or before the 15th December, must be posted on or before the 12th December, unless the 12th falls on a Sunday, when they must be posted not later than the 11th; but those notices which, by the same order, may be served later than the 15th, may be posted after the 12th of that month.
4. The postage chargeable on these notices, and the registration fee of 6d. on each, must be prepaid in stamps.
5. The notices must be posted at the Post-Office window, accompanied with duplicate lists of the addresses; the letters being arranged for the convenience of comparison, in the order of the list. These lists are examined by the officer in attendance at the window; and if each list correspond with the address, he will sign and stamp every sheet of each list. One of the duplicate lists will then be returned to the person who brought the letters, and the other forwarded to the Secretary, General Post Office, London.

The hours for receiving Parliamentary Notices are the same as those for the registry of ordinary letters, unless they be presented at such a time as to interfere with the ordinary duties of the office; in which case the Postmaster may appoint any other time within the next twenty-four hours for receiving the same; provided that, when the notices are to be served on or before 15th December, such arrangement do not delay the posting beyond the 12th.

Whoever sends Parliamentary Notices should, if possible, arrange on the day before with the Postmaster as to the most convenient time for posting them, and state the probable number.

Poll-books.

When a poll-book is presented by any returning officer to be forwarded by post, the Postmaster is required to give to such officer an acknowledgment thereof in writing, stating therein the time when he received it.

No registration fee is demanded for poll-books, and prepayment of the postage is optional, without regard to weight.

III.—DELIVERY.

Letter-carriers and Rural Messengers are prohibited, under pain of dismissal, from demanding or receiving any payment beyond the postage on letters, newspapers, &c., which they are required to collect or deliver; or from distributing any letters, newspapers, &c., whether before beginning their rounds, whilst on their rounds, or after they may have completed them, except those which have been regularly posted.

Delivery at Window.

Except where the number of daily deliveries is considerable, and where, therefore, the Surveyor considers such a regulation unnecessary, letters are delivered at the window after the arrival of every mail (within office hours) as soon as they can be sorted. In all cases, however, when there is a corresponding delivery by Letter Carriers, the window delivery (whether to the holders of private boxes or to the public generally) does not begin till the Letter-Carriers have left the office, nor is it allowed in any way to delay the departure of the Letter-Carriers.

In order to prevent the additional trouble which is sometimes caused by letters being directed to a Post Office, although for persons residing within a free delivery from such office, but who have no private box, a postmaster is authorised, when such letters arrive by a mail for which there is a delivery from house to house, to refuse to deliver them at the window, and to send them out by the Letter Carriers, except letters addressed to the military in barracks.

Letters "To be Called for."

The Poste Restante being intended solely for the accommodation of strangers and travellers who have no permanent abode in Edinburgh, letters for residents in Edinburgh must not be addressed "Post-Office till called for." Letters addressed to "Initials," "Numbers," or "Fictitious Names" cannot be received at the Poste Restante; if so addressed they are returned to the writers.

Private Boxes and Bags.

Any person can have a private box who is willing to pay the appointed fee. Where this fee goes to the Revenue, it is fixed at one guinea per annum, to be paid in advance, and for a period ending 31st December; and where it goes to the Postmaster, he may demand the same terms, though he may, at his option, take less. The same also, in most cases, are the terms for a private bag, except that in addition there is the cost of the bag itself, and a charge for conveyance, the maximum of the latter being half-a-guinea per annum if by a foot-messenger, and two guineas if by a mounted one. As the service of a private bag, however, may possibly delay the despatch of a general bag, none must be allowed without the permission of the Surveyor.

mission be enclosed with the application; except in the case of lapsed Orders, when the additional commission will be deducted from the amount of the new Order issued by the Department; but the lapsed Order must be transmitted with the application for its renewal. Postmasters in the United Kingdom have power to transfer to other offices in the United Kingdom payment of the colonial orders originally drawn on their own offices.

For repayment of the amount of a Money-Order, or for the correction of any error respecting the name of the Payee or Remitter of an Order, the application on the subject, enclosing an additional Inland rate of Commission, must be addressed to the Controller of the Metropolitan Office of the country in which such Colonial Order was issued.

With the subjoined exceptions, no Money-Order can be issued unless the applicant furnish, in full, the surname and at least the initial of one Christian name, both of the remitter (the person who sends the order) and the payee (the person to whom the money is to be paid,) together with the remitter's address:—

1. If the remitter or payee be a peer or a bishop, his ordinary title is sufficient; and if a firm, the usual designation of such firm will suffice, except a company trading under a title which does not consist of the names of the persons composing it, as the "Carron Company."
2. Money-Orders for transmission by the Public to the Privy Council Office will be issued payable to "The Privy Council Office," the name of the payee not being required in these cases.
3. When the remitter notifies that the order is to be paid through a bank, it is left to his option to give or withhold the name of the payee; and he may, if he wish it, substitute for the name of the payee any other designation or any modification of the name; as for example:—"The Cashier of the Bank of England;" "The Chief Clerk of the Foreign Office;" "The Publisher of the Times."

When application is made for a Money-Order payable in London, or at any other town where there is more than one Money-Order Office, the remitter should say at which of such offices he wishes it to be paid, otherwise the order can be cashed at the Head-Office alone. Should repayment or transfer of an order to a different office or alteration of name be required, the remitter must apply to the paying Postmaster according to the directions printed on the back of the order.

In case of the miscarriage or loss of an inland Money-Order, a duplicate is granted on a written application (with the necessary particulars, and enclosing the amount of a second commission, in postage stamps) to the Controller of the Money-Order Office of England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be, where the original order was issued; and if it be desired to stop payment of an inland order, a similar application, with a like enclosure of postage stamps, must be made to the Controller of the Money-Order Office of that part of the kingdom in which the order is payable. If alteration in the name of the payee or remitter of an inland Money-Order should be required, application must be made by the remitter to the Postmaster of the office at which the order was issued, and a second commission must be paid. Should transfer of payment of an inland order from one office to another in the United Kingdom, or repayment of the amount of an order, be required, an application enclosing the order must be made to the Postmaster at whose office the order is payable, who will transmit in exchange a new order payable at the place desired, but for a less sum than the original order by the amount of the second commission charged for the re-issue. Proper printed forms for making applications in all these cases may be obtained at any Money-Order Office, and full instructions on the subject will be found printed at the back of the Money-Order. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the necessity for an application entailing the payment of a fresh commission is attributable to the Post Office, the charge will be remitted to the applicant, and imposed on the officer in fault.

The remitter of an order may make that order payable ten days after date, provided he sign the requisition "C" printed on the order, to defer payment until ten days after date, and affix a penny receipt stamp thereto.

When an order is presented for payment, (otherwise than through a bank,) the Postmaster has first to see that the signature of the payee be as full as the name given in the advice, and be not in any way inconsistent therewith. He has then to call on the applicant to give the name of the remitter, and if the reply be correct, the order will be paid, unless the Postmaster have good reason for believing that the applicant for payment is neither the rightful claimant, nor deputed by him. When an order is paid through a bank, it is sufficient that it be receipted (without regard to any discrepancy between the signature and the name in the advice, or to whether the receipt is given by the payee himself or by another person,) and that it be presented (crossed with the name of the receiving bank) by some person known to be in the employment of the bank.

The holder of a Money-Order is always at liberty to direct, by crossing it, that the order be paid through a bank, even though its payment was not originally so restricted; and when the order is thus crossed, the question put on the presentation of an ordinary money-Order is dispensed with.

Money-Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

Payment of an order, issued and payable in the United Kingdom, must be obtained before the end of the second calendar month after that in which it was issued (for instance, if issued in January, it must be paid before the end of March,) otherwise the order becomes lapsed, and a new order will be necessary, for which a second commission will be charged. The period for payment of orders issued in the United Kingdom, and payable in any colony authorised to transact Money-Order business, including Gibraltar and Malta, is six months, and orders granted at those places on the United Kingdom are also payable during six months after that in which they were issued. Any person presenting a lapsed order will be furnished with a copy of a printed notice headed "Lapsed Money-Orders," containing directions how to proceed. If the order be not paid before the end of the twelfth calendar month after that in which it was issued (for instance, if issued in January, and not paid before the end of next January,) all claim to the money will be lost.

No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the non-payment of a Money-Order at the expected time; and after once paying a Money-Order, by whomsoever presented, the Office is not liable to any further claim.

To guard against the loss of a Money-Order, the public are cautioned—

1. Never to send the Money-Order in the same letter with the information required on payment thereof.
2. To see that the name of the person taking out the order is correctly known to the person in whose favour it is drawn.

Under no circumstances can payment of an order be demanded on the day of issue.

A Postmaster is required to give information how to apply for a duplicate order, &c., and must furnish the prescribed form of application. If payment of an order be refused in consequence of the replies to the questions respecting the remitter not corresponding with the entries in the advice, or of a difference in the name in the receipt, the applicant for payment should communicate with the remitter, and request him to apply personally to the issuing Postmaster.

No Letter-Carrier or other servant of the Post Office is bound to procure a Money-Order for any person, or to obtain payment for one, but such services are not forbidden.

VI.—MISCELLANEOUS RULES.

With the following exceptions, no letter, &c., can be forwarded by the post which is more than two feet in length, breadth, or depth. The exceptions are—

1. Packets to or from any of the Government Offices or Departments, or Public Officers.
2. Petitions or addresses to the Queen, whether directed to Her Majesty, or forwarded to any member of either House of Parliament.
3. Petitions to either House of Parliament, forwarded to any member of either House.
4. Printed Parliamentary proceedings.

No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a Post Office except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public.

Letters must not be returned to Writers.

Postmasters are not authorised to return any letter, &c., to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon; as every letter, &c., must be delivered to the person to whom it is directed, and to him alone.

Late Letters.

Late letters, &c., are received till within five minutes of the despatch of the mails, except in those large towns where the Surveyor may deem an interval of ten minutes necessary, and excepting that no office is to be kept open merely for this purpose after ten o'clock at night. In Edinburgh, late letters are received for ten minutes after the closing of the box, except for the two London mails at 5.30 and 8.30 P.M., when the time is extended to twenty minutes.

Prepayment of late Letters.

No late letters, &c., must be forwarded by the mail preparing for despatch unless prepaid, and that in stamps, so as to include both the ordinary postage and the late-letter fee.

Re-directed Letters, &c.

With the subjoined exceptions, every re-directed letter, newspaper, or other postal packet, is liable to an additional postage, (at the prepaid rate,) unless the re-direction be made by an officer of the Post-Office, and be within the district belonging to the same Head Office. Thus, on a paid or unpaid letter, re-directed by an officer of the Post-Office to any other postal district in the United Kingdom, and weighing not more than half-an-ounce, an additional postage is levied of one penny; or if the weight be more than half-an-ounce but does not exceed an ounce, of twopence; and so on. Upon a book thus re-directed to any other postal district in the United Kingdom, and weighing not more than four ounces, an additional postage of one penny is levied; or if the book weigh more than four ounces, but not exceeding eight ounces, an additional postage of twopence; and so on. A registered letter, when re-directed, is not subject to more additional charge than an ordinary letter. Letters addressed to commissioned officers in the army, navy, or ordnance, employed on actual service in any of Her Majesty's colonies, or on any foreign station, may be re-directed to such officers when removed upon service, (whether at home or abroad,) and are delivered to them for the same amount of postage that would have been chargeable had they been delivered at their original address. The same privilege extends to the letters of the soldiers and seamen described in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage, except as regards foreign postage, which must be paid.

Every Postmaster is required to have a notice conspicuously placarded, giving information respecting the hours of attendance, the despatch and delivery of letters, &c.

During the time the office is open on Sunday, the public are allowed to prepay foreign or colonial letters, to purchase postage stamps, and to have letters registered; and all other duties as usual, except the issue and payment of Money-Orders, which on that day are wholly suspended.

At no office is there more than one delivery on the Sunday: and any person is at liberty to prevent even this, so far as relates to himself, as shewn in the following regulations:—

1. Any person can have his letters, &c., retained in the Post-Office on Sunday, by addressing to the Postmaster a written request, duly signed, to that effect.
2. Such request will be held to include newspapers, and all other postal packets, even such as may be marked "immediate," as no distinction can be allowed.
3. No letters, &c., the non-delivery of which by the Letter-Carrier on Sunday has been directed, can be obtained from the Post-Office window on that day.
4. Private box-holders have the option of applying for their letters at the office while it is open for delivery on Sunday, or of abstaining from so doing, as they may think proper, but no person can engage a private box for Sunday only.
5. To prevent the inconvenience and confusion which would arise from frequent changes in these instructions, no request can be entertained unless it extend to a period of at least three months, nor withdrawn, even after the lapse of that time, without a week's notice.

No Postmaster is bound to give change, or is authorised to demand change; and when money is paid at a Post-Office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight, can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

Except as regards foreign and colonial letters about to be prepaid in money, a Postmaster is not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public, though he may do so if his duty be not thereby impeded. Postmasters are instructed not to receive any letter, &c., which there is good reason to believe contains anything likely to injure the contents of the mail bag, or the person of any officer of the Post-Office. The following are examples of the articles referred to:—

A glass bottle, or glass in any form; razors, scissors, needles, knives, forks, or other sharp instruments; leeches, game, fish, meat, fruit, or vegetables; bladders or other vessels containing liquids; gunpowder, lucifer matches, or anything explosive or combustible.

By the 1st Victoria, cap. 36 sec. 2, any person illegally conveying letters incurs a penalty of £5 for every offence, and £100 for every week the practice is continued. The sender also incurs a penalty of £5 for every offence, with full costs of suit.

The following are exceptions from the exclusive privilege of the Post-Office in the conveyance of letters:—

1. Letters sent by a private friend, so as such letters be delivered by such friend to the party to whom they shall be directed:
2. Letters sent by a messenger on purpose, concerning the private affairs of the sender or receiver thereof, commissions or returns thereof, and affidavits and writs, process or proceedings or returns thereof, issuing out of a Court of Justice:
3. Letters sent out of the United Kingdom by a private vessel (not being a packet-boat):
4. Letters of merchants, owners of vessels of merchandise, or the cargo or loading therein sent by such vessels of merchandise, or by any person employed by such owners for the carriage of such letters, according to their respective directions, and delivered to the respective persons to whom they shall be directed, without paying or receiving reward or profit for the same in anywise :

5. Letters concerning goods or merchandise sent by common carriers to be delivered with the goods which such letters concern, without payment for receiving or delivering such letters.

But the following persons are expressly forbidden to carry a letter, or to receive or deliver a letter, even though they shall not receive payment for the same.

- a. Common known carriers, their servants or agents, except a letter concerning goods in their carts or waggons, or on their pack-horses; and owners, drivers, or guards of stage-coaches.
- b. Owners, masters, or commanders of ships, vessels, steam-boats, or boats called or being passage or packet-boats, sailing or passing coastwise or otherwise between places within Great Britain or Ireland, or between ports within Her Majesty's dominions or territories out of the United Kingdom, or their servants or agents, except in respect of letters of merchants, owners of ships, or goods on board :
- c. Passengers or other persons on board any such ships, vessels, steam-boats, or passage-boats :
- d. The sailors or others on board a ship or boat passing on a river or navigable canal within the United Kingdom or other of Her Majesty's dominions.

"At Edinburgh, the First Day of January,
One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-nine years.

"Which day the Magistrates of the City of Edinburgh being assembled, did, and do hereby, in virtue of the 243d section of the Edinburgh Police Act, 1848, enact and ordain the following Bye-laws for regulating the Chimney-Sweepers of Edinburgh, acting as such within the limits of the said Act.

"WM. TULLIS, B."

BYE-LAWS AND FARES.

1. No person shall be permitted to act as a Chimney-Sweeper within the limits of the said Act, unless such person shall have been licensed by the Magistrates; and each person receiving a Badge as a Chimney-Sweeper shall accept it on the condition that he shall observe these Regulations, and any others the Magistrates may from time to time enact.

2. Before receiving such licence, he shall (if required) produce a certificate of his good character, and shall also find caution acted in the Burgh Court Books for his good behaviour, honesty, and intromissions, and to observe and obey these Regulations, or any others the Magistrates may think proper to make for regulating Chimney-Sweepers, under the penalty of Forty Shillings, attour performance; and when his cautioner dies, or leaves Edinburgh, the Chimney-Sweeper shall give intimation thereof to the Depute City Clerk, and find another cautioner.

3. When a chimney takes fire, only the two Chimney-Sweepers with Badges first present will be entitled to enter the premises for the purpose of extinguishing the fire, unless others are specially called by the occupiers, or by the Police, to assist; and no Chimney-Sweeper will be entitled to refuse his assistance in extinguishing fires when called for.

4. Chimney-Sweepers failing or refusing to shew their Badge when demanded may be denied admittance to any house, the chimney of which is on fire; and no person shall refuse admittance to the first two licensed Chimney-Sweepers who may present themselves, or to any others who may be required, whether Firemen or Chimney-Sweepers, for the purpose of extinguishing a chimney on fire in the premises.

5. Chimney-Sweepers wilfully injuring or destroying chimney-stalks or cans, or grates, will be liable in the penalty in the foresaid Act, and also in reparation and restitution of the property destroyed.

6. No licensed Chimney-Sweeper shall be entitled to refuse an engagement to sweep a chimney or chimneys when required.

7. Each Chimney-Sweeper shall wear his Badge on the breast of his outer garment, and shall always be provided with ropes, besoms, brushes, ladders, bags, and all other implements necessary for sweeping chimneys and extinguishing fires. He shall be ready on all occasions to serve the inhabitants; and shall always conduct himself in a civil and decorous manner. He shall also be provided with a copy of these Regulations, and shall shew the same and his Badge when and by whomsoever required. No Chimney-Sweeper shall transfer or lend his Badge to another.

8. All fares shall be charged according to the annexed Table; and any person committing any breach thereof, or of these Regulations, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings, besides deprivation or suspension of licence.

9. The City Officers and Constables of Police are authorised and enjoined to see these Regulations enforced, and all complaints arising out of any breach thereof shall proceed, at the instance of the Procurator Fiscal of the City, before the Magistrates.

ACCUMULATED FUND,.....£315,000

ANNUAL REVENUE,.....£110,000

THE COMPANY was established in the year 1837, for the transaction of all varieties of Life and Fire Assurance Business. Its subscribed Capital is £1,000,000 sterling, held in Ten Thousand Shares by a numerous and wealthy Proprietary widely scattered throughout England and Scotland.

THE COMPANY has obtained two special Acts of Parliament, conferring on it various powers and privileges; and is one of those approved of by the Postmaster-General for the Assurance of the Lives of the Post-Office Officials.

THE RAPID PROGRESS of the Company is seen in the fact that the New Life Business of the last quinquennial period, which closed on the 31st of December 1862, was 148 per cent. more than that of the preceding similar term; while the Fire Premiums were 185 per cent. more.

DURING THE YEARS 1863 to 1866, which constituted the first four of the current quinquennial period, the new Life Business done was £741,255; yielding in new Premiums £21,600; being a large increase on the previous business done.

ALL CLAIMS are settled with liberality and the utmost promptitude, in order that the full benefit of the assistance and relief which Assurance is designed to afford should be secured to Assurers or their representatives.

THE LARGE CAPITAL of the Company, the whole of which is available to meet Claims, and the Reserve Fund in hand, are guarantees of perfect security to Policy-holders, who are in no way involved in the mutual liabilities of Partnership.

A CASH BONUS of 22 PER CENT., equivalent to a REVERSIONARY BONUS of from 30 to 60 PER CENT., according to the age of the Assured, was declared at the last Division of Profits.

THE PREMIUMS charged by this Company will contrast favourably with those of other Offices.

LOANS from £50 to £1000 are granted by the Company on Personal Security, and the assignation of a Life Policy to be effected with the Company.

POLICIES issued on the CREDIT SYSTEM, in the case of Assurances for the Whole of Life for £250 and upwards. Half the Premium for five years, or one-third for the Whole of Life, may remain as a Debt on the Policy.

THE distinguishing feature of this Company is the equitable manner of dividing the Profits, whereby Policies become payable during the lifetime of the Assured at the ordinary whole life rate of Premium, which system is peculiarly favourable to young Assurers.

The POLICIES issued by this Company are more valuable than ordinary Policies, inasmuch as they are relieved of all unnecessary restrictions, and after three years are (without application) wholly indefeasible and indisputable, and extraordinary facilities are granted to the Assured to keep their Policies in force.

REDUCED RATES FOR THE EAST AND WEST INDIES, AND CHINA.

THE Directors have adopted a new Scale of Rates for the East and West Indies, and China, considerably lower than those formerly charged by this, or, they believe, any other Company, but differing from the old system, in respect that no reduction takes place on the assured returning to Europe or proceeding to any other part of the world not chargeable with an extra premium.

According to this method, the Assured, instead of being subjected to a heavy Extra Premium during the years of residence in the Tropics, has the option, by paying a fixed rate, of throwing the Extra over the whole currency of the Assurance.

ANNUITIES ARE SOLD ON VERY FAVOURABLE TERMS.

Premiums may be paid Yearly, Half-Yearly, or Quarterly, for a limited number of Years only, or by a Single Payment. No Entry Money or Stamp Duty charged.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

FIRE INSURANCES effected at the current rates of Premium. No charge is now made for Policy Stamp, and Losses are settled in a prompt and liberal manner.

TWO-FIFTHS of the PROFITS are periodically Distributed among parties Insuring in the Society. A BONUS of NEARLY FIFTY PER CENT. upon Current Premiums was paid to the Policy-holders on the last occasion.

THE RATES OF PREMIUM being in no case higher than those charged by the other principal Companies, the advantage secured by the Insured in this Office is obvious.

FIRE INSURANCES were effected by the NORWICH UNION during the last year to the Amount of

SEVENTY-FIVE MILLIONS;

and the DUTY PAID TO GOVERNMENT, at the Reduced Rate, for the same period, exceeded

SIXTY-ONE THOUSAND POUNDS;

while the Sum Insured on FARMING STOCK was upwards of

TEN MILLIONS;

which belongs to its Members, and has been created by the steady accumulation of the Premiums.

The result of the successful operations of the Society, during the Fifty-eight years of its existence, is best exhibited by the following:—

Amount of Assurances accepted, and Bonuses declared thereon, exceed .	£12,636,000
Amount paid to the Representatives of 8334 deceased Members	7,023,260
Amount assigned by way of Bonus	1,622,019
Number of Policies Issued	36,500

ALL CLAIMS ON THE SOCIETY ARE MOST LIBERALLY AND PROMPTLY MET.

The Rates of Premium are lower than those of some Offices by nearly Ten per cent.—a benefit in itself equivalent to an Annual Bonus; while the large amount of profits divided amongst the Policy-holders reduces still further the outlay required to effect an Insurance.

THE SCOTTISH EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY is an Institution peculiarly adapted for securing family provisions. It is a purely Mutual Assurance Society. The whole Profits are allocated every THREE YEARS amongst Policies of five years' duration. No part is, as in the case of a Proprietary Company, diverted from those who are assured, and paid away to Shareholders; and the additions which have already been made to Policies, afford the clearest evidence of the prosperity of the Institution, and the great advantages derived by its members.

THE ADVANTAGES WHICH THIS SOCIETY OFFERS ARE—

IMMEDIATELY, A GREATLY LARGER ORIGINAL ASSURANCE FOR THE SAME AMOUNT OF PREMIUM,—AND EVENTUALLY, TO GOOD LIVES, AS LARGE ADDITIONS AS WHERE THE ORDINARY HIGH RATE OF PREMIUM IS CHARGED.

For the same yearly sum as large an Assurance may generally be secured from the first, as can be looked for elsewhere only after many years' accumulation of Bonuses. Thus, a Policy for £1,200 or £1,250 may be had for the Premium usually charged to assure £1,000 only.

IN ADDITION TO THIS IMMEDIATE ADVANTAGE,

the whole Profits are secured to the Policy-Holders themselves, and the principle on which they are divided will commend itself as not only safe and equitable, but as the most satisfactory method on which the profits arising from moderate Premiums could be allotted. Instead of being given among all Policies indiscriminately—including those which have subsisted only a few years, and on which there may eventually be a heavy loss to the common fund—they are reserved for those Members who alone can have made surplus payments; in other words, for those whose Premiums, with accumulated interest, amount to the sums in their Policies.

Policies originally for L 1,000, which have shared at two Septennial Divisions, have thus already been increased to L 1,300, L 1,500, and even to L 1,700 and upwards—to be farther augmented at the Division of Profits about to be reported.

EXAMPLES OF ANNUAL PREMIUM FOR ASSURANCE OF £100 AT DEATH (WITH PROFITS.)

AGE.	25	30	35	40	45	50
Payable during life,	£1 18 0	£2 1 6	£2 6 10	£2 14 9	£3 5 9	£4 1 7
Limited to 21 years,	£2 12 6	£2 15 4	£3 0 2	£3 7 5	£3 17 6	£4 12 1

Thus a person of 30 may secure £1000 at death, with Profits, for a yearly Premium of £20, 15s., which in the other Scottish Mutual Offices would assure £800 only.

Or, if unwilling to burden himself with payments during the whole of his life, he may secure a Policy for £1000, with prospect of additions from the Profits, for a Premium of £27, 13s. 4d., limited to Twenty-One Payments, being nearly the same as most Offices require during the whole term of life.

To PROFESSIONAL MEN, and others whose income is dependent on the continuance of health and activity, this mode of Assurance is specially recommended.

Tables of Premiums to cease after 7, 14, or other number of years, may be had.

Above 16,000 Policies issued. Subsisting Assurances upwards of Five and a Half Millions. Annual Revenue, £205,000. Accumulated Fund, arising entirely from Premiums, exceeds £1,240,000, all invested in unexceptionable securities in this Country.

THE LEADING FEATURE of the Society is its Mutual Principle, which Secures to the Policy-holders the Division of the whole Profits among themselves, without any deduction for Dividends to Shareholders, as in Life Assurance Companies of the Proprietary class. This single circumstance retains for the Policy-holders an Annual Sum equivalent to a substantial Bonus, which would otherwise BE LOST TO THEM.

SAVINGS AND DEPOSITS.

The Directors have opened a Branch for the Investment of SAVINGS and DEPOSITS, in connexion with their other operations. Sums of Money, from One Shilling upwards, are received. As the Funds of the Society are not invested in fluctuating Government or other Stock, but in heritable Securities only, which yield a comparatively high rate of interest, the Directors are enabled to allow at present FOUR PER CENT. per Annum on Deposits.

Prospectuses, Tables of Rates, and every information regarding the Society's operations, may be obtained at the Office, 37 George IV. Bridge, and also at the Solicitors', 62 Frederick Street.

OBJECTS OF INSTITUTION.

To establish a Show of Fat Stock, Poultry, Agricultural Implements, &c., to be held in Edinburgh yearly, in December. Such Show may be expected to draw to the Metropolis all the best specimens of Live Stock, &c., from the various Scottish Counties, as well as other parts of the United Kingdom; and thereby to institute a great National Show, where the meat-producing qualities of the various breeds of Cattle, Sheep, Pigs, and Poultry, as well as Agricultural Produce, will be fairly judged, and suitable prizes awarded. They will there come under the eye of purchasers in Edinburgh and Glasgow, and the large manufacturing towns of the West. A good show in Edinburgh will also draw a large number of buyers from England; and, by making the show early in December, the best specimens could be forwarded by their owners to the large shows of London, Birmingham, and Liverpool, and in this way be of great importance to the feeders and breeders of stock in Scotland.

JAMES MACKENZIE,
 Dispensing Chemist,
 49 GEORGE IV. BRIDGE,
 EDINBURGH,

RESPECTFULLY calls attention to his improved and economical Inhalers, for the application of hot vapour or special medicinal preparations for inhalation in the successful treatment of

INFLUENZA, COUGHS, COLDS, CHRONIC BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, HOARSENESS, AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE THROAT AND CHEST.

Inhalation has long been recognised as a valuable mode of relieving disease, and still continues to receive the highest medical support; but the want of suitable and inexpensive apparatus, together with proper preparations of medicines applicable for this purpose, have hindered its more general adoption.

J. M., having now succeeded in overcoming these difficulties, and the recommendation which his Inhalers have received, both from the medical profession and others who have used them, will, he trusts, be the means of still further extending their use.

For common Colds, where the simple use of hot vapour is so serviceable, or for special Inhalants prescribed by Physicians, these Inhalers are equally suitable.

THE IMPROVED ECONOMICAL INHALERS, 3s. EACH.

Also, a Variety of other INHALERS, from 4s. to 5s. each, kept in Stock.

ANODYNE, OR OTHER INHALANTS FOR ORDINARY USE, SUPPLIED IN VARIOUS SIZED BOTTLES.

MACKENZIE'S PEPSINE WINE,

FOR INDIGESTION AND IRRITABILITY OF THE STOMACH,

Prescribed and Recommended by the Principal Medical Practitioners in Edinburgh and throughout the Country.

The great advantage of this preparation is, that Pure Pepsine is presented in a most agreeable form, pleasant to the taste, and suited to the weakest stomach, while its action on the food assists the process of digestion, and under its use the functions of the stomach are restored to their natural condition. For Infants and Children it is also highly recommended, as it prevents their food from returning, and enables them to obtain the requisite nourishment from it.

This valuable natural Remedy has been specially recommended. See Edinburgh Medical Journal for November 1865, where its preparation and excellence is described.

SOLD IN BOTTLES, 2s. AND 4s. EACH.

ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

At the ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SHAREHOLDERS, on 10th August, 1866, the Report of the Directors announced the following highly satisfactory particulars of the position of the Company:—

Net Fire Premiums for the year	£414,733 13 0

Addition to Life Reserve for the year 1865	103,146 7 3

The Returns of Duty published by Parliament, on the motion of the Chairman of the Company, exhibit by far the largest measure of increase which the Company has ever, in its most prosperous times, experienced.

AUDITOR'S REPORT TO ANNUAL MEETING, AUG. 1866.

"All your books have been most carefully audited. There is not a single account belonging to the Company which has not passed through our hands, and been carefully examined. Every document, every voucher, your bank account, and every security, even to your title deeds, has been found correct.

SURVEYS of risks proposed for Insurance made free from Expense to Applicant.

LIABILITY during the DAYS OF GRACE unquestioned. NO CHARGE made for Policy.

SHORT PERIOD POLICIES, to cover temporary risks, at proportionate Premiums. ALL the advantages of the Reduced Duty given.

RENT.—Insurances may be effected to protect parties from the loss of Rent during the reinstatement of Property destroyed, or rendered untenanted by Fire.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

The advantages of LIFE INSURANCE in making immediate provision for a family or dependant in case of death; in preparing for various contingencies in connection with money transactions or property matters; or in the ready means it affords of providing for old age, are now universally admitted, and all classes sanction its use by their example. The Directors, in submitting the Claims of this Company for support, would state that in the Policies issued by them there is:—

- 1.—No liability of Partnership entailed.
- 2.—A Contract that will be faithfully met—the whole Proprietary being liable to make it good.
- 3.—A simple Document of its kind, free from dubious clauses.
- 4.—A stipulation to pay the sum assured one month after the proof of claim is admitted.

The Life Funds are kept in every way distinct from those of the Fire Branch, and the expenses of management being apportioned so that the Life Department has only a fair share of them, there is a certainty that the Participating Policies will receive valuable additions from time to time.

THE RATES of Premium, as given in the Tables, have been calculated with care, and will be found moderate and equitable.

THE PAYMENTS may be made Annually, Half-Yearly, or Quarterly.

SHORT PERIOD Insurances can be effected on satisfactory terms.

The Premiums may be paid within a defined number of years, at the end of which the Policies will be clear of all charge.

The Amount insured can be received during lifetime, on attaining the age of 50, 55, 60, or 65.

THE DAYS OF GRACE are thirty for yearly payments; and during that time the Company will be liable, provided the premium be paid before they expire.

ANNUITIES ARE GRANTED ON FAVOURABLE TERMS.

HISTORY OF SCOTLAND,

FROM AGRICOLA'S INVASION TO THE REVOLUTION OF 1688.

By JOHN HILL BURTON,

Author of the 'Scot Abroad,' the 'Book-Hunter,' &c.

To be completed in 6 Vols.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

Saturday Review.

In all these matters Mr Burton has given us, for its scale, one of the completest Histories that we ever saw of any country. . . . Mr Burton's merits as an historical writer are great. Through the greater part of his narrative he goes along at a good equable pace, never rising very high nor sinking very low, but always clear, sensible, and interesting. He writes throughout in a thoroughly straightforward and unaffected way. Vivid and picturesque description is not his strong point, but no one would carry away from his book the memory of any passage which is mean, ridiculous, or in any way unworthy of the subject. And towards the end of his book, when he has to deal with the great case of Queen Mary, his treatment of the subject becomes a model of argument, at once clear and powerful, but at the same time never overstepping the bounds of the judicial function of the historian. This last portion is the gem of Mr Burton's book. . . . We confess that, great as were the merits which we saw in Mr Burton's book throughout, yet the earlier portions did not lead us to expect anything like the impressive grandeur of this last chapter. . . . We recommend the book to all historical students, and we shall look with anxiety for the remaining volumes.

Daily News.

Should the succeeding volumes be as conscientiously composed as the four we have reviewed, this work will be not only the most complete and trustworthy History of Scotland yet written, but it will merit a high place among the historical works of our age. All students of history ought to read it with care. By those who are most thoroughly master of the subject, the historian's labours will be best appreciated. To those who have everything to learn, the work may be recommended as one from which they will derive a stock of well-digested information which will prove to be the more valuable to them, inasmuch as when they study the problems for themselves they will have little to unlearn and nothing to regret.

Pall Mall Gazette.

The great attraction of the 'History of Scotland' by Mr Hill Burton is the strong common-sense grip of everyday human interests about it. He writes like a man intent on bringing his subject into wide living relations; to whom old Scotland is interesting, not for its own sake only, but for that of the new Scotland which it has produced, and which feels some curiosity regarding it. Mr Burton has written a great deal, and busied himself about many things; and he takes a practical view of history, rather than the view of a speculative historical artist. His style is homelier than that of many historians—fresh, readable, hearty, more than symmetrically beautiful or refined; unequal too, and apt to drop from sonorosity into colloquialism at distant intervals; yet with snatches of striking picturesqueness and piquant grace. Common sense, enlivened by a quiet reference to humorous associations suggested rather than brought out, is Mr Burton's intellectual strong point.

The Spectator.

Mr Burton is an antiquarian and scholar of the most patient and learned kind, who has had access to every source of information which Scotland possesses, who has spent years over his work, who has an artificial but still thorough impartiality—artificial, we mean, because it is the result of mental restraint, not of mental whiteness—and who is therefore infinitely more likely to be in the right than the majority of his critics; just as likely, in fact, as a great judge is to sum up a case with reasonable fairness and more than ordinary acumen. That simile involves, in fact, our verdict on the book.

Athenæum.

Mr Burton, with his well-known facile and graceful pen, has, in the volumes before us, accomplished one-half of the task which he prescribed to himself, when he proposed to write a new History of Scotland. His former studies had well qualified him for the task. He had shown himself not merely possessing a taste for research, but patience in carrying it out, and a not common power and, so to speak, pleasantness in arranging his materials, turning them to account, and in so telling his story that even the dullest, yet inevitable, topic should have a charm for the ear of the listener, and remain, by simple grace of narration, fixed in his memory.

Times.

They contain, for the period embraced by them, the best account that has yet been published of the national being and life of Scotland. Mr Burton's knowledge is varied and deep, and his chapters upon the antiquities of Scotland, the pre-historic and Roman eras, the different races that held the country, and the gradual development of Scottish nationality, collect all that is known on these subjects. He has thrown much new light on the early political state of Scotland, and on her more mature institutions; and he has traced with real precision and learning the character of her ancient monarchy.

Sunday Gazette.

Of the very great value of the book, however, we can have no doubt, and we hope in this and a succeeding article to set before our readers so many of the points that are most successfully brought out in it as to make them of our opinion.

Scotsman.

This is a great work in almost all senses, and not least great in the highest sense. . . . Where others have assumed, Mr Burton has questioned and tested—where others have picked up what they found lying on the surface, he has dug deeply and widely. As a piece of labour, the book can scarcely be called less than tremendous. And Mr Burton brought to the task even greater qualities than industry, patience, and endurance. He brought thorough and varied learning—not only the knowledge to be drawn from books and manuscripts, but that which is written dimly, and therefore to be read cautiously, in all the material relics and vestiges of the past, great and small, fixed and movable. . . . He has worked up to a high idea of the historian's duties and obligations, sparing neither himself nor anything but truth. He has so made a great contribution to historical literature, and built a lasting monument to his own name.

Manchester Guardian.

There will not be two opinions of the great ability, learning, and research expended upon this new, and in all respects unique, History of Scotland, as there will be no diversity of feeling on its reception. General readers will discover in it another classical work to be placed alongside Hallam, and Macaulay, and Froude; while Scotchmen will speedily decide that it is the book they have been long seeking—an elaborate, reliable, and philosophical History of the land they so greatly love.

Manchester Examiner.

Incomparably the best History of Scotland that has yet appeared, and is likely to be without a rival for many generations to come.

Westminster Review.

A work which we must regard as a signally meritorious attempt to construct a true History of Scotland.

Blackwood's Magazine.

We do not remember to have read so reticent, so calm and dispassionate a History—a quality all the more remarkable, that it is his own country of which the historian treats, and latterly of a period which still rouses a warmth little short of passion in partisans on either side. Mr Burton's book fulfils the first and greatest requirement of historical teaching. He deals not with opinions, but facts. What was—the acts accomplished, the attempts made, the actual doings of our remote predecessors on this great stage—he sets before us with unquestionable care and pains. As for the inferences, he leaves his readers to draw them for themselves. When it is the Pictish question that is concerned, a certain humorous contempt for a great deal of solemn nonsense is in the manner of the setting forth. But when we come as far as Mary, there is no longer any room for humour. Grave as life and death can make it grows the story, but not less calm, unbiassed, and purely historical. We do not know what higher praise could be given to a national History.
