GREENOCK:

PRINTED BY JOSEPH BLAIR, BROAD CLOSE.

1851.

A D D R E S S.

IN issuing the present Edition of the GREENOCK DIRECTORY, the Publishers offer their best thanks to their numerous Subscribers for their very extensive patronage. Its appearance has been delayed beyond the time intended, in consequence of the alterations that have recently taken place in the re-numbering of the houses. This delay, however, has afforded them an opportunity of bestowing on it that labour and attention so essential to the perfecting of a work of this description: and they trust that, on perusal, it will be found as free from errors as any of its predecessors.

DIRECTIONS FOR THE RECOVERY OF THE DROWNED.

When the cold corse shall have been brought to land,
Strip off its clothes with an industrious hand ;
Cleanse well the mouth, th' obstructed nostrils clear,
And let each passage drink the vital air ;
Wipe dry the body, wrap a blanket round,
Or some such covering as can best be found—
Nay, lend thy coat—'tis sweet a life to save,
And snatch a brother from a watery grave.
Then on a plank, with head and shoulders high,
Convey the body to some cottage nigh.

Now let good order and good sense prevail,
And no confusion make thine efforts fail.
With common air the breathless lungs inspire ;
Blow the faint sparks of unextinguished fire,
(For yet perhaps some embers may remain,
Ready to kindle into life again) ;
Rub well each limb—a genial warmth impart
Around the stagnant regions of the heart ;
Then down the gastric tube a cordial throw,
Some draught to make the internal organs glow ;
Should thy best judgment pierce the jug'lar vein,
Take head ! IN TIME the vital stream restrain.
Lest thou too much from nature's fountain pour,
And so destroy the life thou wouldst restore.
Thus on proceed to rouse the dormant breath ;
Ply the strong oar, and struggle hard with death ;
Nor cease thy toil till life's bright flame return,
Or till the lamp at length refuse to burn.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1st. Each purchaser of a Site or Lair in the Cemetery will be furnished with a Registry Certificate, describing the Burying-place so purchased; which certificate must be recorded in the Corporation Books, and the name of the person so recorded shall be considered the Proprietor.

2d. One person only shall be recorded as the Proprietor of a Site or Lair, and joint Proprietorship is specially prohibited. To prevent confusion, the following shall be held as the order of succession:— (1.) If a Proprietor die, leaving lawful Children and a Widow, such Children so long as they remain unforisfamiated and such Widow shall have right of sepulture in the Lair for themselves only; and the right of property in said Lair shall descend to the eldest son. Failing sons, the eldest daughter shall succeed; Heirs portioners being specially excluded. (2.) Failing Children, the eldest representative in the next degree, according to the rules of succession of the law of Scotland, shall succeed. (3.) The Proprietor shall, notwithstanding, have it in his power to bequeath the Site or Lair to any one member of his family, or to any stranger; but declaring that if he shall bequeath the Site or Lair to a plurality of individuals, the assignation in that case shall be disregarded, and the above rules as to the succession shall be applied and take effect. (4.) No person claiming right to succeed to a deceased Proprietor shall be entitled to have his claim recognised, or his name inserted in the record as Proprietor, without adducing to the Town Council of Greenock, or the Cemetery Committee, evidence to their satisfaction that he or she is entitled to succeed. Declaring that the decision of the Town Council shall be final, and shall not be subject to review. When application is made by a party claiming to succeed, the Town Council or the Cemetery Committee may order such public or other notice of the application to be made as they may judge proper, and the expense, if any, in that event shall be paid by the applicant. (5.) No transfer by an inter vivos Deed shall have any strength or effect unless sanctioned by the Committee on the Cemetery or by the Town Council, who shall have a right of pre-emption and power to accept of the Site or Lair in case a transfer by way of sale is intended. (6.) No party claiming a Lair, either by succession or transfer, shall be recognised or have his name inserted without the production of the certificate or document granted to the original Proprietor. (7.) Assignations by a Proprietor, deceased, of any Site or Lair, must be recorded in the Corporation Books within twelve months after the death of the last recorded Proprietor, otherways the deed, in so far as regards such Site or Lair, shall be nugatory.

3d. A Proprietor or Representative, as above, requiring to use the ground, must give a written request to the Chamberlain, who shall thereupon issue an order to the Superintendent, as without such order the Superintendent may refuse to permit interments. If, however, three or more interments have taken place in any one Lair within ten years, no order shall be given for an additional interment within that period without a Certificate from the Superintendent that such interment may be permitted.

4th. Notice of interments must be given to the Superintendent by the parties, or by the Undertaker of the Funeral, as early as possible, and not later than Twelve o'Clock of the lawful day immediately preceding the day fixed for the interment. Such notice shall be made by filling up and subscribing the form which will be obtained at the office of the Chamberlain, stating the name, designation, age, residence, trade or profession, if any, of the deceased, the disease or the cause and date of death, and the particular day and hour fixed for the interment. The necessary orders for digging the grave will then be issued upon payment of the charges. When the bottom of the ground is formed of rock earlier notice must be given so as to ensure the work being properly and timeously done. Undertakers are not to give directions to, or in any way to interfere with the Cemetery servants after the coffin is laid in the grave.

5th. Proprietors are prohibited interring in their grounds any other than members of their own family, without having previously obtained the consent of the Committee on the Cemetery; which consent they are authorised to grant, on paying to the Chamberlain double fees of interment.

6th. No Coffin shall be permitted to be laid nearer to the surface than three feet, measuring from the upper part of the coffin; and no grave, in which a coffin has been laid so near as three feet from the surface, shall be allowed to be opened within ten years thereafter, without the special consent had and obtained of the Committee. And no more than three full sized coffins shall be allowed to be interred in one grave, unless at the first opening the grave shall have been made of an extra depth; and no coffin shall be permitted to be removed from any grave with the view of making room for a new interment.

7th. No Tomb, Monument, Inscription, Rail, Fence, Chain, or Erection of any kind whatever, nor Planting of any description, shall be permitted to be erected on the Sites or Lairs until approved of by the Convener of the Committee, to whom or to the Town Clerk a special written Statement and Drawing of what is proposed shall be submitted. Tombs, Monuments, &c., must be founded at such depth, and in such manner as may be approved of by the Superintendent of the Grounds. No Monument, or other erection, shall be built or fitted in the wall, nor when, if erected near the wall, shall such erection exceed the height of the wall itself.

8th. The Proprietors must keep the Tombs, Monuments, &c., in good order and repair, to the satisfaction of the Superintendent of the Cemetery; and should they fail to do so, the Superintendent may either get the repair done, or cause the Tomb or other erection to be removed, at the Proprietor's expense, and recover the cost of doing so at common law; and no interment in such grounds shall be permitted until the expense be first paid. The Committee may prune all planting, and even remove the same, if it shall be the opinion of the Superintendent of the Grounds that, by the spreading of the roots, branches or otherways, injury may be done to the adjoining Grounds. Proprietors are prohibited removing or disposing of the plants or shrubs, without the special consent of the Superintendent.

9th. The hewing or dressing of Stones, or operations of any other description, except in the dressing of the Sites or Lairs, will on no account be permitted within the Cemetery or in the Approaches thereto; and all rubbish or refuse remaining after the erection of Monuments or other operations duly sanctioned must be immediately removed, at the sight and under the direction of the Superintendent of the Cemetery, at the expense of the owners of the ground, or of the person executing the work. The dressing and decorating of the Burial Places shall be done only by the servants of the Committee, and at the expense of the Proprietor of the Sites or Lairs.

10th. Visitors to the Cemetery shall on no account walk or trespass upon the Shrubby or Grass, or pull the Flowers, or in any way injure the Shrubs or Trees. No person to enter upon or depart from the Grounds by any other way than the entrance Gate. No person having a basket or parcel admitted to visit the Grounds; and children under twelve years of age visiting the Grounds must be accompanied by their parents or guardians. Visitors are particularly requested to confine themselves to the Walks. Any person trespassing shall be liable to be prosecuted. No Dogs to be admitted within the Grounds on any pretext whatever; and Horses with funerals only shall be permitted within the Gate.

11th. The Committee shall have the exclusive right, subject to the approval of the Town Council, of fixing the times of admission of Visitors to the Cemetery; and the Superintendent, or other person in charge for the time being, shall be entitled to remove any person or persons who may conduct themselves improperly, and prevent persons entering at prohibited times.

12th. None of the Servants of the Cemetery shall be entitled to accept of any gratuity whatever on pain of dismissal.

13th. All the Workmen and others employed in the Cemetery shall be subject to, and under the immediate control of, the Superintendent of the Cemetery, who may summarily remove them from the Grounds when he sees cause; and he shall also regulate the hours of admission and departure of the parties employed in Cemetery.

14th. The Committee, with consent of the Town Council, shall be at liberty to alter all or any of the Rules, Rates, and Fees of Interment when they see cause, and to enact others in their room and place.

JOHN KERR GRAY, Town Clerk.

INNERKIP STREET AND DUNCAN STREET
BURYING GROUNDS.

REGULATIONS.

I. A proprietor, or representative of a proprietor, of a lair or burying-place, requiring to use the ground, must give a written request to the Chamberlain, who shall thereupon issue an order to the Superintendent of the Grounds to open the grave, which shall be at least six feet deep, as without such order the Superintendent shall refuse to permit any interment.

II. Before any order be given for opening the ground for interment, the rates or charges, as after-mentioned, for digging and filling up the grave, must be previously paid to the Chamberlain.

III. No coffin shall be permitted to be laid nearer to the surface than three feet from the upper part of the coffin.

IV. No disinterment or removal of a coffin from a grave shall be permitted without the consent of the committee specially obtained.

V. Attendance at the Grounds will be given when necessary by the men employed as grave-diggers; but due notice of interments must be given at the office of the Chamberlain, twenty-four hours at least before the hour fixed for the interment, that time may be afforded for properly digging the grave; but in extreme cases, of which the Chamberlain shall be the judge, a shorter notice may be received. The Superintendent shall cause to be buried or removed, all pieces of coffins or stones which may, from time to time, be dug out of the graves; and under no pretence whatever, shall he allow pieces of coffins to accumulate in heaps, or to be burned on the Grounds. Cattle of every description are strictly prohibited from grazing, or clothes or yarn from being bleached or dried in the Burying-grounds.

VI. Proprietors and others are prohibited from hewing grave-stones, or any other stones in the burying-grounds. Every facility, however, as to the placing of such stones, repairing the monuments, stones, and railings, shall be given, when necessary, without any charge therefor; but proprietors or lair-holders shall be bound immediately to remove, at their own expense, all stones and rubbish which may be left after the repairs or ornaments are finished. If not immediately removed, the Superintendent may do so at the lair-holder's expense.

VII. No tomb, monument, rail, or any erection whatever, nor any planting, shall be permitted to be erected in the Burying-grounds until approved of by the Convener or the Committee of the Town Council appointed to manage these Grounds, to whom or to the Town Clerk, a special written statement, accompanied with a drawing of what is proposed, shall be submitted.

VIII. Tombs, monuments, &c., must be fitted up at the sight of the Superintendent of the Grounds.

IX. No monument, or other erection, shall be built or fitted up in the wall, without the consent of the committee on the Grounds, nor when, if erected either in or near the wall, shall such erection exceed the height of the wall itself. All monuments and erections fitted up without the consent of the committee shall be removed at the expense of the proprietor or proprietors.

X. The lair-holders shall keep the tombs, monuments, &c., in good order, and repair the same at the sight, and to the satisfaction, of the Superintendent of the Grounds.

XI. All idle and disorderly persons are prohibited from loitering in or about the Burying-grounds at funerals, and the Superintendent, or officer, or other person in charge, shall prevent all persons not connected with funerals from entering within the gates.

Sheriff—Hercules Jas. Robertson. Sheriff Sub.—Claud Marshall. Clerk—William Barr.—Depute Clerk—James Inglis. James Crookshanks, Bar-Officer.

 FORM OF PROCEEDING IN THE RECOVERY OF SMALL DEBTS.

Debts may be recovered in a summary form, before the Justice of Peace Court, to the extent of £5; and, before the Sheriff Courts, to the extent of £8 6s. 8d.

The first step is to set forth in a complaint or libel, agreeably to a prescribed form, (the Clerks of Court will provide the necessary forms,) the origin of the debt, or ground of action; and to cause the same, with a copy of the account, if any, to be served on the defender.

A warrant will, at the same time, be obtained to cite witnesses, and to use arrestments.

The parties may appear either by themselves or by members of their families, or others whom the Court may authorise; but in no case by persons practising the profession of the law, without special leave.

If the defender fail to appear, after being cited personally, he will be held as confessed, and judgment will be given against him.

In the Justice of Peace Court, if the defender has not been cited personally, he will receive a second citation; after which, whether given personally or not, he will be held confessed, as above; but in the Sheriff Court only one citation is given.

But when a decree is given in absence against the defender, he may, before a charge is given, or in the event of a charge being given, before implement has followed, but not to exceed three months, apply for a re-hearing, on consigning the sums decerned for, and 10s. to meet further expenses.

If decree in absence be given against the pursuer, he may, within one month, obtain a re-hearing, on consigning 2s 6d., if the case be before the Justices ; and the expense decerned for, with 5s. to meet further expenses, if the case be before the Sheriff.

The case will be adjourned, upon the pursuer or defender offering a suitable excuse, or if any witness be absent.

If decree be given against the defender in his personal presence, diligence may proceed against him by arrestment instantly ; and by poinding and sale, at the end of ten days.

If decree be given against the defender in his absence, poinding and sale, as above, can only follow after a charge of ten days.

The defender on shewing cause, may be allowed to pay the sums decerned for by instalments.

The decrees of the Sheriff may be executed in any county, on the same being endorsed by the Clerk of such county.

Any arrestments used in cases before the Sheriff, must be used within sixty days after the warrant is obtained, and renewed every three months ; and such arrestments may be loosed, on offering sufficient caution, or on showing evidence of absolvitor, or payment, or on consigning the sums demanded, if before decree.

The above forms will apply to any action of forthcoming whatever, before the Sheriff, for making effectual arrestments ; but in such actions both the defender and arrestee must be cited to appear in Court on the same day.

Decrees, pronounced in this summary form, by the Sheriff, will only be reviewable by the next Circuit Court of Justiciary, or, if there be no Circuit Court, by the High Court of Justiciary, at Edinburgh, on the ground of corruption, or malice, or oppression, on the part of the Judge.

Such decrees, when pronounced by the Justices, will only be reviewable by a reduction before the Court of Session, on the ground of malice and oppression on the part of the Justices ; and such reduction will only be competent for one year, and finding caution for costs.

No person shall be exempted from the jurisdiction of Justices or Sheriffs, in such cases, by reason of privilege as a member of the College of Justice.

HARBOUR REGULATIONS.

REGULATIONS BY THE PARLIAMENTARY TRUSTEES OF THE PORT AND HARBOURS.

The Trustees for improving the Port and Harbours of Greenock, Repeal all former Rules, Regulations, and Bye-Laws enacted for the Government of the said Port and Harbours, and in virtue of the powers committed to them by the Acts of Parliament 13 Geo. III., cap. 28; 29 Geo. III., cap. 43; 41 Geo. III., cap. 51; 43 Geo. III., cap. 87; 50 Geo. III., cap. 167; 57 Geo. III., cap. 32; and 5 Vict. cap. 54, enacted and ordained, and hereby Enact and Ordain, the following Regulations and Bye-Laws, to be strictly observed and enforced from and after the day on which the same shall be approved of by the Sheriff. The Repeal of all former Rules, Regulations, and Bye Laws to take effect also from that date.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

I. Vessels arriving at the Port must come to in the Roads, and be moored with a bower anchor each way across the tide, in such manner as to give a clear berth to other Vessels previously moored, and also to keep clear of the entrances to the inside of the Harbours, so that the communication between the warping buoys and the said entrances may not be interrupted. Inattention to this Regulation will subject the owner, or the master, or other person in charge of such vessel so improperly moored, in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, as well as be liable in all damages that may be thereby caused, and also in the expense of shifting the vessel to such place as the Harbour-master may appoint, and which he is hereby specially empowered to do.

II. The date of arrival of all ships and other vessels, excepting lighters or such small craft, shall, within four hours after arrival in the Port, be entered in a book to be kept open and patent at all times in the Harbour-master's Office ; and the Harbour-master shall, according to the rotation of such booking, assign a berth for such ship or other vessel ; and all masters or other persons in charge of such ship or other vessel neglecting to enter the vessel's arrival as aforesaid, shall not be entitled to claim a berth for such ship or other vessel, until booked ; and the master or other person in charge of such ship or vessel not observing this Regulation, shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

III. No vessel shall be allowed to enter any of the Harbours, except lighters or other small craft, until the Harbour-master shall have assigned a berth for her : and the jib-boom, spritsail-yard, martingale, spanker or main boom, davits, and all out-riggers must be rigged in ; the studding sail booms and crances taken off the yards, and the lower and topsail yards peaked up and down, and all anchors taken in on deck immediately on arrival at the Port. The master or other person in charge of the vessel contravening any part of this Regulation shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

IV. Vessels inward bound, having cargoes on board requiring to be weighed at the Queen's scales, shall in rotation have a preference to inside berths ; but such vessels may be removed to another berth by orders of the Harbour-master at the expense of the vessel, should he find it requisite to do so for the purpose of placing another vessel in the berth.

V. Every person having the command or charge of a vessel in the Harbour shall be obliged to remove the same when, and as often, as he shall be ordered by the Harbour-master to do so, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence ; and if any person in command or charge of a vessel refuse to remove such vessel when so ordered, the Harbour-master may employ men at the expense of the owner or person in charge of the vessel, and remove her to any berth in the harbour he may see proper ; and any commander or other person in charge of a vessel removing the vessel from one berth to another without the permission of the Harbour-master shall be liable in the like penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

VI. Vessels unemployed or to be laid up, shall be taken by the master or other person in charge of the vessel to such berths or places as shall be appointed by the Harbour-master, and there shall always be a sufficient number of persons on board each such vessel, at least two hours before and one hour after high water for the purpose of removing her when so ordered. And all other vessels in the harbours shall constantly have on board one or more persons to receive orders from the Harbour-master, and keep the vessels so trimmed as to draw the least possible draught of water in order to admit of such vessels being easily removed from one berth to another. Neglect of any part of this Regulation shall subject the owner, or the master, or other person in charge of the vessel, to a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, besides any expenses which may be incurred by the Harbour-master in removing the ship or such vessel otherways.

VII. All vessels resorting to the harbours shall use brushwood or other fenders to the satisfaction of the Harbour-master. Neglect thereof shall subject the master or other person in charge of the vessel, to a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

VIII. On no account whatever, shall hardwood or other kind of timber which will not float, be discharged inside of any of the harbours ; but all such timber must be discharged upon soles of light floating timber, or otherways to the satisfaction and with the written permission of the Harbour-master, and at such berths as shall be allotted by him. Any person acting in contravention of this Regulation shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence, besides being bound instantly to remove the timber; and failing his so doing, the Harbour-master shall be, and is hereby authorised, forthwith to remove the same at the expense of the owner thereof, or of the master of the vessel, or of the agent for the importer of such timber. And should any of the timber so allowed to be discharged, as aforesaid, sink, the owner or master of the vessel discharging such timber, shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, for each log or piece of timber so sunk; and shall forthwith lift the same, and failing his so doing within three tides after sinking, the same may be lifted by the Harbour-master, at the expense of such owner or master, and he shall also be liable in all damages which may be caused thereby.

IX. The floating timber and spars may be discharged into the basin of the harbours by permission of the Harbour-master from ships and other vessels inside of the harbours, and the first two days of the discharge of each such ship, or other vessel, shall be allowed to proceed without interruption; but if, at the end of that period, the timber and spars discharged on the first of the said two days, shall not be removed from the harbour, the further discharge of the ship or other vessel shall be stopped until the whole of the quantity discharged on the first day be removed; and on the first day's discharge being removed, the discharge of the third day may be allowed to be proceeded with; but before another day's discharge commence, the quantity which shall have been put out on the second day of the discharge must be removed from the said harbour, and so on throughout, until the discharge of the ship or other vessel be completed, so as no more than two day's discharge of any ship or other vessel shall be within the harbour at one and the same period; but provided that such discharge of any one or more days shall only be permitted in the event of the Harbour-master being of opinion that the trade of the port will not be impeded by the discharge being proceeded with; and all timber or spars discharged from any ship or other vessel shall be removed from the harbour within two days after the completion of her discharge; and in the event of the said timber not being removed as aforesaid, the importer or importers thereof, or other person or persons having charge of the timber, shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence or neglect to remove the same; and if the said timber and spars be not removed within two days after the conviction of the defaulter, he shall be liable in a further penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every successive period of two days during which the said timber or spars, or any part thereof, shall remain within the said harbour, or on the quays or wharfs thereof.

X. It shall not be lawful to bring floating timber within any of the harbours without the permission of the Harbour-master. Any person acting contrary shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, besides being bound forthwith to remove the timber, and failing his so doing within six hours after being requested by the Harbour-master to remove the same, he shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every day during which the said timber brought in as aforesaid shall remain in the harbour; or it shall be in the power of the Harbour-master to remove the timber at the risk and expense of the owner or other person in charge thereof.

XI. The master of every vessel loading or discharging ballast, coals, limestones or other stones, bricks, cinders, manure, rubbish, or other loose matter, or thing, must have, to the satisfaction of the Harbour-master, a sufficient tarpaulin cloth, or canvas cloth or shoot, so fastened to the ship's side as effectually to prevent the said articles or other thing, or any part thereof, from falling into the harbour, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence; and all ballast, coals, limestones or other stones, bricks, or other loose matter or thing, whether discharged from or to be put on board of any vessel, shall be laid down at the distance of at least six feet from the edge of the quay, and either immediately carted off or put on board, as the case may be, under the like penalty, not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence.

XII. Machinery and other heavy articles are prohibited being deposited, under any circumstances, upon any of the timber platforms, but the same shall at once be placed upon the quays, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

XIII. Deals and other timber shall not be piled upon any of the platforms higher than six feet, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; and if any party shall pile timber higher, the Harbour-master shall be entitled to remove the quantity exceeding the six feet in height, and place the same in a store or yard at the risk and expense of the party having charge of the timber.

XIV. Deals, staves, &c., may be piled on the quays, but in such way and manner only as the Harbour-master may direct. Any person acting in contravention of his orders in this respect, shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, besides being obliged to remove the deals, staves, &c.

XV. When a vessel requires to be smoked for the destruction of vermin or drying the hold, the master or other person in charge shall make application in writing to the Harbour-master, who shall give directions for the vessel's being taken to a clear berth, where the operation may be performed with safety, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence, and the owner of the vessel shall be liable in all damage which may be done by such permission being granted.

XVI. Steamers, passage-boats, and lighters, and all vessels of easy draught of water, shall be obliged to lie by or remove by order of the Harbour-master when ships or other vessels of larger draught depending on the tide for removal have their ropes run out and are actually removing. The person in charge of any steamer, passage-boat, lighter, or any such vessel, neglecting this order, shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings, besides being subjected to removal when the Harbour-master orders the same.

XVII. No boats, casks, or barrels are to be repaired, or spars made on the quays or under the sheds, nor are stones to be hewn, or staves or slates dressed, under the sheds nor on the quays, nor are staves, deals, hoops, timber, or any other article to be piled up under the sheds or on the quays; nor on any account whatever be allowed to remain on the quays beyond forty-eight hours, excepting by permission of the Harbour-master. A breach of this regulation, or any part thereof, will subject the party offending in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence.

XVIII. No pitch, tar, or any other combustible matter shall be boiled or heated for the use of any ship or vessel, or for any purpose whatever, either on board of any ship or vessel or on any of the quays or piers, excepting at the Dry Docks or other places appointed by the Trustees for that purpose, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; and if any fire be lighted for such purpose at any other place than the said Dock, the same shall be extinguished immediately by order of the Harbour Master.

XIX. The master, mate, or other person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel landing, discharging, or loading any cotton or other combustible goods on or from any of the quays, who shall smoke or burn tobacco, or shall permit or suffer any person or persons employed by them in landing and discharging or loading such goods to smoke or burn tobacco or any other thing near to or amongst such combustible goods, whereby the security of the same may be endangered, shall for each offence forfeit any sum not exceeding Five Pounds. And any other person or persons who shall smoke or burn tobacco, or any other thing, near to or amongst cotton or any other combustible goods lying and being on the quays or on board of any vessel within the harbour, shall for each offence forfeit any sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

XX. If any person having the charge of any vessel shall make fast ropes to any of the chain posts or quay fenders, or any rope, chain, or tackle of any kind to the lamp posts, or to the pillars of any of the sheds, or to the roof of any part of such sheds, he shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for each offence, besides being bound to pay the expense of repairing any damage which may arise by neglecting this prohibition.

XXI. Vessels loaded with coal to be sold by retail from the vessel are to be berthed at the Breast, betwixt the Mid Quay and Cross-shore, with the bow to the Breast, under a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for each offence.

XXII. No dung, or manure of any description, to be laid down on any part of the quays or breasts, or to be shipped from any part thereof, during the months of April, May, June, July, August, and September, between the hours of ten o'clock of the forenoon, and eight o'clock of the evening; and during the months of the year, such articles shall only be shipped or laid down at such times as the Provost and Bailies may appoint. And when dung or manure is shipping a shoot shall be employed, whereby the same may be immediately emptied from the cart into the vessel. Any person contravening this regulation, or any part thereof, shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for each offence.

XXIII. None of the sheds, nor any part of the quays or breasts shall be used, without permission of the Harbour-master, for selling ship-wrecked stores or other articles, excepting the area at the back of the Customhouse, or the Breast at the foot of Cathcart Street, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

XXIV. That as several screw anchors are laid down near to the Sand Bank for the convenience of vessels warping from the Harbours into the stream, no vessels, upon any pretence whatever, without special leave of the Harbour-master, shall make fast to the buoys attached to these anchors, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence, besides being liable for all damage that may be incurred by contravening this order.

XXV. No ship or other vessel, after being discharged, can retain the same berth for loading, if wanted by any others which may have been previously booked for a loading berth, but must wait and take her turn in rotation: and all ships for discharging or loading, must be booked for such, at the Harbour-master's office, and at the time of booking, such vessel must be within the bounds of the Port. Persons contravening this regulation will be subject to a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds. Any vessel booked as aforesaid failing to take her turn in the order of booking, the next in rotation shall be entitled to the berth, and so on progressively until the entries are exhausted.

XXVI. No persons in charge of any ship or vessel, except small craft, shall shift the ship or vessel from one place to another in the harbours without leave of the Harbour-master, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence.

XXVII. No fires shall be lighted or permitted on board of any ship or other vessel lying at any of the quays, piers, or breasts, or within any of the harbours, without permission in writing had of the Harbour-master, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, to be paid by the master or other person in command or in charge of such ship or other vessel.

XXVIII. No master of a vessel, or other person, except the Harbour-master, shall cut or loose any vessel's fasts, either from the palls or from vessels, unless specially authorised by the Harbour-master to do so, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence, besides paying all damages.

XXIX. The master or commander of every vessel arriving within the port or harbours, shall within twelve hours after arrival of such vessel, deliver to the person appointed to collect the rates and duties authorised by the foresaid Acts of Parliament to be levied, a note containing the name of the consignee or agent of the cargo, or part of the cargo to be unshipped within the port, and a copy of the bill of lading or manifest of such vessel, or if part only of the cargo of such vessel is intended to be so unshipped, a true account, in writing, of the kinds, weights, and quantities of the several goods, articles and things intended to be so unshipped: And every such master or commander shall, if required by the person appointed to collect the dues, as aforesaid, give to such person twelve hours' notice of the time at which the cargo of such vessel or any part of the same is intended to be unshipped; and if any master or commander of any vessel, the cargo, or a part of the cargo of which shall be intended to be unshipped within the said port, shall fail to furnish the note or to give any of the particulars before required to be delivered, or give any false particulars or notice, shall, for every such offence, be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, besides paying the dues aforesaid.

XXX. The master or commander of any vessel on board of which any goods, articles, or things, shall be shipped, shall give to the person, for the time being appointed by the Trustees, to collect the rates and duties authorised by Acts of Parliament, a true account signed by the consigner or agent of the kinds, quantities, and weights of the goods articles, or things, before the same shall be shipped in such vessel, and any master or commander who shall fail to give such account, or shall give a false account of any such goods, articles, or things, shall respectively, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

XXXI. If any master or commander of any vessel, or any person on board such vessel, shall hinder the said Harbour-master, or any person employed by him, in mooring, unmooring, placing, or removing any vessel, such master or commander, or other person, shall forfeit for every such offence, a sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

XXXII. It shall be lawful for the Harbour-master to remove any wreck and other obstructions to the said harbours and approaches, and also any floating timber, which may impede the navigation or working of the Harbours; and the expense of removing any such wreck, obstructions, or floating timber shall be immediately repaid by the owner of the same.

XXXIII. Aquafortis, oil of vitrol, or other goods of a dangerous quality, shall be distinctly marked on the outside of the package containing the same, and the person who shall send, or cause the same to be sent for shipment or deposit at the port, shall give notice in writing to the Harbour-master, at the time of so sending or causing the said goods to be sent for shipment or deposit as aforesaid; and if any person shall neglect or refuse so to mark his goods, or give such notice, he shall, besides being liable to the penalty mentioned in the Act of Parliament for such neglect, pay to the Trustees a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

XXXIV. Every person who shall pick up or obtain possession of any anchor or cable, or any boat, rope, or tackle of any ship or other vessel, or any log or logs of timber, or any other article or thing whatever, within the limits of the said port or harbours, shall, within 24 hours thereafter, give notice to the said Trustees, or to the Harbour-master, and shall deposit the same in such place, within such time as they or he may direct; and any person who shall fail to give such notice, and deposit such articles as aforesaid, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding Five Pounds; and the Provost of Greenock, or any one of the Bailies, shall have power to fix the amount of salvage to be paid for picking up any of the said articles or things.

XXXV. If any master or commander, or other person on board of any vessel which shall be moored or fastened within the said harbours, shall not, upon demand of the said Harbour-master, unloose or slacken the rope or chain, by which such vessel shall be moored or fastened; or, if there shall be no person on board of any such vessel so moored or fastened, it shall be lawful for the said Harbour-master to cut the rope or slacken the chain by which such vessel shall be so moored or fastened, as aforesaid; Provided always, that before the Harbour-master shall cut any rope or slacken any chain by which any vessel, without any person on board, shall be moored or fastened, he shall cause a sufficient number of persons for the protection of the same, to be put on board such vessel; and all expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the master or commander of such vessel.

XXXVI. No vessel shall enter the harbours or dry docks except the same shall be dismantled, as shall be directed by the Harbour-master: and if any vessel shall enter any of the harbours or dry docks without being dismantled in the manner required by the Harbour-master, after notice is given to the said master, or party having charge on board of such vessel, to dismantle the same in the manner aforesaid, such master or commander shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

XXXVII. It shall be lawful for the Harbour-master to regulate the lading of all vessels in regard to the draft of water in the said harbours as he shall think proper, and if he shall judge any act or proceeding in the lading of any vessel entering in or departing from the said harbours unsafe for such vessel, or likely to produce injury to other vessels, or to the said harbours or other works, it shall be lawful for him to give notice in writing (signed by him), to the master or commander of such ship to discontinue or alter the same; and if such master or commander shall not, according to such notice, discontinue or alter such act of proceeding immediately after such notice shall have been served on him, or some person on board the said vessel, every such master or commander shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

XXXVIII. Every vessel in the said harbours shall have substantial hawsers, tow lines, and fasts fixed to the dolphins, moorings, booms, buoys, or mooring posts, when required by the Harbour-master; and if any vessel be in the said harbours without such substantial hawser, tow lines or fasts fixed as aforesaid, the master or commander of such vessel shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

XXXIX. No vessel to be stationed or anchored in the mouth or entrance to the harbours; so as to occasion interruption to the free ingress and egress of vessels passing to and from the said harbours; and in the event of any vessel being anchored or stationed so as to occasion such interruption, it may be removed by the Harbour-master, in order to preserve at all times a free passage to and from the harbours; and any master, owner, or other person in charge of any such vessel refusing to remove the vessel, when required by the Harbour-master, to a situation so as not to occasion such interruption, such vessel may be removed by the Harbour-master at the expense of the master or owner thereof; and such master, owner, or other person, shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence, for refusing to remove such vessel when required.

XL. Before any vessel shall enter into the harbours such vessel shall have her sails lowered or furled, and the yards peaked up and down; and in case any master or commander, or pilot of any vessel, shall navigate the same under sail into or in the said harbours, or tow, or cause to be towed by steam, any vessel into the harbours, every such master or other person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

XLI. All vessels moored or lying at anchor opposite to the harbours, or sailing or plying in the river or firth of Clyde, betwixt Port-Glasgow on the East, and Gourock on the West of the said harbours, shall from sunset to sunrise have a light placed on board of such vessel, at least twelve feet above the deck thereof, and which light shall be kept constantly burning during the said period, and shall be so situated as it may be seen in all directions, and that under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, to be paid by the owner or master, or other person in charge of such vessel.

XLII. Vessels arriving at, or coming into any of the harbours in distress, or meeting with any misfortune in the harbours, shall receive a preference both as to berth and course of discharging; and the masters or other persons in charge of any vessels lying within the harbours, or at any of the quays, must on being required by the Harbour-master give preference to any vessel so arriving at or lying in the harbours in such circumstances; and every master or other person in charge of any vessel refusing or delaying to comply with the order shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, besides being liable in all damages which may arise from such refusal or delay.

XLIII. Any goods or merchandise, wood of any kind, masts, yards, pumps, boats, anchors, cables, casks, guns, paving stones, coals, or any other article or thing whatever (other than the materials necessary for the extension, improvement, and repairs of the harbours), shall not be allowed to lie or remain longer than forty-eight hours, upon or within any of the piers, breasts, quays, basins, sheds, or any other places built, made, formed, or erected, or to be built, made, formed or erected within the said port or harbours, or in any of the adjacent roads or avenues leading to the piers, breasts, quays, already built or to be built. In all cases where the said goods or other things aforesaid shall lie or remain beyond the space of forty-eight hours, the Harbour-master or any other person whom the said Trustees or the Harbour-master may appoint, may remove, and keep the same till payment of the charges of removal and detention, and of such consideration to the officer or other persons employed, for their trouble in and about the same, as the said Provost or any of the Bailies shall think reasonable. If the charges, expenses, and consideration be not paid by the owner or other person in charge of the goods, within five days after demand thereof made upon such owner or person aforesaid by the said Harbour-master or other person, the Harbour-master shall have the goods or other things sold to pay the same.

XLIV: It shall not be lawful for any person to land, discharge, or ship at or upon any of the quays, piers, breasts, or any other places, within the said harbours, any dung, manure, or rubbish of any kind, excepting at such places, and under such regulation as shall be appointed by the said Trustees, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

XLV. If any Harbour-master or other servant of the Trustees shall give any undue preference, or show any partiality in the loading or unloading any goods or otherways, at any wharf, quay, house, warehouse, landing place, crane, or machine belonging to the Trustees, he shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

XLVI. Tar, pitch, rosin, spirituous liquors, turpentine, oil, or combustible thing, are prohibited being on any of the quays, docks or wharfs, or on the deck of any vessel within the said harbours or dry docks, but the same shall be removed to a place of safety, within two hours after notice in writing to that effect, signed by the Harbour-master, shall have been served on the owner or person having the charge of such combustible thing, or on the master or other person in charge of the vessel from which the same was discharged; and every owner, master, or other person who shall neglect or refuse to remove such article or combustible thing after such notice, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings for every hour such combustible thing shall remain in any such place as aforesaid after the expiration of two hours from the service of the said notice.

XLVII. If any combustible thing shall remain on any of the quays, dry docks, or other works, or on the deck of any vessel within the harbours after day light, the owner or person having charge of the same, or in his default, the Trustees, at the expense of such owner or person may provide a sufficient number of persons to guard the same from one hour before sunset to one hour after sunrise; and such expense, if not paid to the Trustees on demand shall be ascertained and recovered in any Court competent.

XLVIII. All persons are prohibited throwing or putting any ballast, earth, dust, stones, or other thing, into the said harbours or dry docks, or approaches thereto, or into, or upon any of the said works, to the injury or prejudice thereof, or do any injury to the same, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

XLIX. If any person, other than the Harbour master, shall wilfully cut, break, or destroy any rope or other thing by which any vessel lying in the harbours or other works shall be moored or fastened, he shall, for such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

L. It shall not be lawful for the master, mate, or any other person having the charge of any vessel while in the Harbours, or in the roadsteads thereof, or in the River Clyde, nearer to the said harbours than the Garvel Point on the East, and the Whitefarland Point on the West, or for any person whatever, to discharge any gun or fire-arms of any description, on board any vessel, save and excepting a signal gun in case of distress, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each such offence: Provided always, that nothing shall prevent the discharging of any gun or fire-arms on board any vessel belonging to or in the employment of her Majesty, her heirs and successors, or prevent the discharging of any gun or fire-arms, by any person in the lawful defence of his property.

LI. The Harbour-master shall not be interrupted, hindered, or insulted, in the execution of his duty. Persons offending shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, for each offence. Any person thinking himself aggrieved by a Harbour-master, or by any order issued by him, on making application to the Provost and Magistrates, at the Council Chambers, shall have the case speedily determined.

LII. Every Pilot must have constantly in his possession, a copy of these regulations, and shall attend to the instructions as to the mooring of the ships on the roadstead, and also, as to taking the ship or other vessel within or out of the harbours, and to the shipment of gunpowder; and he shall see that the vessel while under his charge be made to conform to all the regulations and laws, and be berthed as directed by the Harbour-master. The Pilots shall also see that the clauses in the Acts of Parliament regarding the taking on board gunpowder, are observed. Any Pilot neglecting any part of this regulation shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, for each neglect.

LIII. No persons shall be permitted to ply for hire on the quays or within the port as Lumpers, or Stevedores, until they receive a license from the Provost and Bailies authorising them to act as such, and the Lumper or Stevedore so licensed shall be eligible to engage with the master or other in charge of any ship or vessel, either to load or discharge the same; and it shall not be in the power of the Lumper so licensed to depute his right to any other person or party, but must himself attend personally to the work, and the Lumpers shall be responsible to the master or other person in charge of the ship or vessel for the due and proper fulfilment of their respective engagements, and for the honesty and good behaviour of such labourers as they may find it necessary to employ to assist in the execution of the work, all under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, for every breach of any part of the foregoing Regulation; and the owner or master of any vessel, or other persons engaging or employing any person to load or discharge vessels other than such licensed Lumpers or Stevedores, shall also be liable in the like penalty.

LIV. All persons are strictly prohibited from smoking under the sheds or upon any of the piers, under a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings; and farther, no light of any kind shall be allowed after dark, either in the holds of vessels, or under the sheds for the purpose of loading, or discharging, or otherwise, unless the light be placed in a good and sufficient lantern to the satisfaction of the Harbour-master, under the like penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings.

STEAM VESSELS.

LV. All steam vessels resorting to the Port of Greenock shall have on board a captain or sailing-master, who is an experienced seaman; and shall also have a sufficient number of able-bodied and experienced seamen, for the safe navigation of the vessel, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence, to be paid by the person in command or charge of the vessel. And no steamboat whatever shall be manned with less than a master, two deck men and a pilot, exclusive of the engineers and fireman, under the like penalty of Five Pounds.

LVI. The Steam boat Harbour master shall have the sole and exclusive power of assigning berths to steam boats of all denominations at the portion of the Customhouse Quay allotted for the use of that description of vessels; and no steam vessel shall be entitled to a quay berth that has not proper gangways in her bulwarks cut down to the deck, either fore or aft the paddle boxes, which gangways shall be of sufficient width to admit passengers, luggage, coals, ashes, &c., to pass in safety to and from steam vessels lying outside thereof. Masters or others in charge refusing or delaying to attend to this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds. In stormy weather steamers may be allowed to occupy such berths inside the harbours as the Harbour master may point out, but while the fires are burning steam vessels must be kept as much separate from other vessels as possible.

LVII. The master or other person in charge of every steam vessel shall, within 200 yards of any of the quays or of any works of the Harbour Trustees, slow the engines, and keep at a slow rate, until such steam vessels shall have passed the quays or other works at least 200 yards, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each neglect. And all steam vessels shall, when a red flag is hoisted on board of any vessel in the river opposite the harbours, also slow their engines within 200 yards of the vessel where such flag is hoisted, under the like penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, to be paid by the master or other person in command or charge of such steam vessel, besides being liable in all damages incurred by neglect.

LVIII. No ballast, earth, dross, ashes, or other kind of rubbish, shall be thrown or put overboard from any sailing or steam-vessel into the river opposite the harbours, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence.

LIX. All steam vessels, whether entering or leaving the port or harbours, shall pass outside of the warping buoys, when ships or rafts are warping either into or out of the harbours, and in every case must avoid coming in contact with the warps of ships so situated, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence, besides being liable in damages.

LX. No forge bellows, lighted candles, lamps, or fires shall be allowed on board of any steam vessel, or other vessel whatever, in the harbour, after eight o'clock in the evening or before six o'clock in the morning, except the vessel has just arrived, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds sterling for each transgression; and the forge bellows, lights, or fires on board of any such vessels throughout the day, shall be carefully attended and watched by some person on board, under the like penalty. But upon applying to the Harbour-master, and sufficient cause being shown that the use of forge bellows on board during the night is absolutely necessary to enable the vessel to proceed on her next voyage at the time originally announced, it shall be allowed under the special care of an extra police watchman; the parties claiming the privilege paying for the watchman; and that several buckets of water shall be kept in readiness to quench any fire when danger is apprehended.

LXI. All masters or other persons in charge of steam vessels plying to the port shall, immediately upon fixing the hours of sailing of the said vessels from Greenock, intimate the same in writing to the Steam boat Harbour-master, at his office; and they shall upon no account, either upon the pretence of not arriving in due time or otherwise, alter the period fixed, but shall depart punctually at the times of sailing originally announced, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds sterling for each offence, excepting always cases of accidents happening to the vessels or machinery, in which events the time for sailing announced on the boards shall be immediately altered or suspended. The sailings shall be regulated by the public clock placed on the Steamboat Quay. Vessels engaged in the foreign or coasting trade may remain at the quay until they take on board all goods that may have been laid down from such vessels, which those in charge must do as speedily as possible, but so soon as the goods are on board the vessel must be backed outside another vessel. Masters or others in command refusing or delaying to comply with any part of this regulation, will be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

LXII. All passenger steam vessels shall, when it is dark, on their arrival at, or departure from, the quays, have and use sufficient lights, consisting in no case of less than two hand lanterns, so as to enable passengers to get on board or to land with safety; and all steam vessels, when passing up or down, shall, at least within 200 yards of the quays, reduce their speed, so as the loading or unloading of the vessels at the piers or quays may not be interrupted, or in any manner of way sustain damage. And all steam vessels shall, when leaving the quay, observe the like precaution of steaming slowly, until they have passed all the vessels lying at the outer piers, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

LXIII. The masters and crews of all steam vessels lying nearest the quay shall give free access over the decks of their vessels to all parties going to or from the steamers lying at the outside berth, and also free access for the conveyance of luggage, goods, coals, &c., to and from the said steamers; and all steam vessels shall, when not loading or unloading, have their hatchways and scuttles covered over. The master or other person in charge of the vessel, neglecting any of these orders shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for each offence.

LXIV. All steamers shall have a bowline hitch upon their hawsers or fastening lines, that the lines may be easily thrown over the palls, and which shall be so fastened so as not to trip or interfere with the passengers. Masters or others in charge of steam-vessels neglecting to comply with this regulation, shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

LXV. All masters, crews, and other persons are prohibited interfering with or interrupting passengers going to the steam boat, by endeavouring to induce them to take the passage by their respective boats; but the masters and crews are required to remain either on board their respective boats, or at their gangways previous to the hour of sailing; and masters and others shall not allow horns or bugles to be sounded until within five minutes of the hour of sailing of the respective boats. Any persons neglecting any part of this regulation, shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

BOATMEN.

LXVI. No person to ply for hire as boatmen at the port or harbours of Greenock, without being licensed by the authority of the Provost and Bailies of Greenock, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

LXVII. Boatmen licensed as such, and plying for hire within the port and harbours, shall have their respective names and numbers corresponding with the number of the license painted in legible characters, upon a conspicuous part of their respective boats, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

LXVIII. The Provost and Bailies shall, and they are hereby authorised from time to time, to fix the rates to be exigible by boatmen, and others licensed as aforesaid, and the boatmen and others licensed as aforesaid, shall not be entitled to charge higher rates than those specified in the table of rates, under a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for each offence.

LXIX. Boatmen licensed as such, shall be held responsible for the faithful discharge of the duty of the men employed by them, and shall, if required by the Provost and Bailies, be obliged to give bond for their good behaviour, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

CARTERS.

LXX. No carter, carman, barrowman, or porter, shall be permitted to apply for hire, on or around the quays or piers, without being licensed, by and under authority of the Provost and Bailies, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence.

LXXI. Carters and carmen shall have their name and number marked in legible characters on their respective carts or cars, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for neglect thereof.

LXXII. Carters and carmen must have at all times a sufficient number or quantity of waterproof covers for the protection of goods on their carts or cars, and every carter or carman neglecting to have the necessary quantity of covers, shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

LXXIII. All fines, forfeitures, penalties, damages and expenses, mentioned in the preceding regulations, shall (when not otherwise directed) be sued for and recovered at the instance of the Procurator-Fiscal of the Police-Court of Greenock, before the Provost or any one of the Bailies of the said Town ; and upon conviction of any offender it shall be lawful for the said Provost or any of the Bailies to pronounce sentence, subjecting such offender to imprisonment in the Prison or Bridewell of Greenock, or to fine, or to such lesser punishment as may be deemed adequate to the offence committed.

Extracted from the Minutes of the Parliamentary Trustees of the Port and Harbours of Greenock.

JOHN KERR GRAY,

Clerk to the Trustees.

The preceding Regulations Confirmed and Approved in terms of the Statute 5 Vict., Session 2d, Cap. 54, Section CLXXX.

H. J. ROBERTSON, Sheriff.

November 25, 1850.

REGULATIONS FOR PORTERS AND BARROWMEN.

The Magistrates and Town Council of Greenock, in virtue of the powers committed to them by the Acts of Parliament, 41 Geo. III. cap. 51, and 57, Geo. III. cap. 32, hereby enact and ordain the following Regulations, to be strictly observed and enforced from and after the 1st of June, 1826, until expressly altered, viz. :—

1st, That no Porter or Barrowman shall be permitted to ply for hire within the Town of Greenock, and on the Quays and Breasts thereof, without being first licensed pursuant to the said Act, and having found caution faithfully to observe and fulfil the present Regulations; and each Porter shall have constantly affixed to his breast a badge, specifying his number, and which shall be delivered to him on his being licensed;—and all persons contravening this Regulation shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence.

2d, That all Porters shall, with diligence and expedition, perform the services for which they were engaged, and shall not spoil or injure the property entrusted to their charge; and shall conduct themselves with civility and discretion, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence, besides being liable to the party injured for damages.

3d, That when a Steam vessel, just arrived at the harbour has taken a berth in the outside of another Steam vessel, no Porters or Barrowmen to stand on the paddle-box or on the side of the inside Vessel, but arrange themselves in the middle of that Vessel, but if the Vessel just arrived occupies an inside berth, they shall then arrange themselves on the Quay, at least four feet from the edge thereof, till called to be engaged, and permitted to pass on board by the officer attending for that purpose; nor shall any Porter on being engaged to carry Luggage or other Goods in the Town of Greenock, or from the Quays and Breasts thereof, attempt to transfer these to another Porter, but shall himself fulfil his engagement, and when required, accompany his employer; and all persons contravening this Regulation shall be subjected in a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence.

4th, That no Porter shall embark the Luggage of Passengers going on board of any Steam Vessel until the Passengers intending to land at the Harbour shall have first landed with their Luggage, under a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence.

5th, That the Wheel Barrows belonging to the Porters who ply on the Harbour appointed for the Steam boats, and in the Town of Greenock, shall be arranged and stationed each with the number of its Owner's Badge, and his name legibly painted thereon, in a situation to be fixed by the Officers appointed for that purpose, under a penalty not exceeding five Pounds for each offence.

6th, That Porters plying on the Steam boat Quay shall be careful not to permit boys or other idlers to go on board any of the Steam Vessels, and, if necessary, they shall call for assistance on the officer of the station, and on the masters and crews of the Steam Vessels, to aid them in keeping boys and idlers from going on board, and on forcing them when on board, on shore; and the officer, and the master, and crews of Steam Vessels, shall be bound to give such assistance; and all persons contravening this Regulation, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence.

7th, That no Porter shall demand or take a higher sum for his services than the fares stated in the Table hereunto annexed, and each Porter shall, when plying, have in his possession a copy of these Regulations, and the Fares annexed, and shall at all times produce the same to the person employing him when required, and that under a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for each offence.

8th, That the Magistrates, on sufficient cause shown, may declare the Bond of Caution granted for any Porter forfeited, and deprive the offender of his License or Badge.

9th, The Penalties incurred under the preceding Regulations, may be sued for before the Magistrates, and recovered, at the instance of the Procurator Fiscal of the Town of Greenock; and such proportion of these penalties to be awarded to the informer as the Court may in its discretion direct.

10th, That a printed copy of these Regulations, and Table of Fares annexed thereto, be placed in the Cabin and Steerage of each Steam Vessel, for the information and guidance of the Public.

POSTAGE STAMPS.

Stamps may be procured at the General Office, Church Place, the Stamp Office, and the two Receiving Houses.

The Penny Labels, at 1d. each.

The Twopenny Labels, at 2d. each.

The Tenpenny Labels, at 10d. each.

The Shilling Labels, at 1s. each.

The Penny Envelopes, 24 for 2s. 3d., or 2 for 2¼d.

The Twopenny Envelopes, twelve for 2s. 2d. or 3 for 6½d.

Stamped Half sheets of Paper, 1¼d. each, or 24 for 2s. 3d.

When the Value of Stamps on the Letter is less than the amount of the Postage to which it is liable, the Letter will be charged double the amount of such difference on delivery.

Stamps may be used for Printed Votes and Proceedings in Parliament, and on Foreign, Colonial, and Ship Letters, outwards. Letters for parts abroad, posted with Stamps of less value than the full amount of Postage, if addressed to places to which pre-payment is not compulsory, will be forwarded, charged with only such amount of Postage as shall be equal to the difference between the value of the Stamps and the proper rate of Postage; but letters addressed to places abroad, to which pre-payment is compulsory, if posted with Stamps of less value than the full amount of Postage, will be sent to the Dead-Letter Office, to be returned, in all practicable cases, to the writer. Stamps are not permitted to be used on Letters arriving in the United Kingdom from the Colonies or Foreign Countries.

These Regulations are applicable to Newspapers, in those cases where they are liable to Postage.

If the Stamps affixed to letters are mutilated or defaced, the letters will be liable to the unpaid rate.

A Stamp which has been cut from an envelope and affixed to a letter, entitles it to pass free of charge.

Re-directed Letters are charged an additional postage for each redirection, according to the Prepaid Scale.

Adhesive Stamps should be placed on the right-hand corner of the upper side of the letters, above the superscription. The most effectual plan is to dip the label wholly in water, to shake off the water immediately, and to press the label upon the letter with a piece of clean blotting paper. When the gum is dull in appearance, it will require rather more time and moisture to make it stick firmly, than when it is glossy. The purpose of wetting the label wholly is to counteract the tendency it has to curl up from the letter, when one side only is wetted; a tendency caused by the expansion of that side as it imbibes the moisture.

PREPAID RATES OF POSTAGE.

Letters not exceeding Half an Ounce in weight, One Penny—One Ounce, Twopence—Two Ounces, Fourpence—Three Ounces, Sixpence, and so on, two rates being added for every ounce. Inland Letters or Packets put unpaid into the letter boxes, are charged double the prepaid rates of postage. Letters insufficiently paid, either in money or stamps, are charged with double the amount of the difference between the money paid or the stamps affixed than the prepaid rates.

LIMITATION OF WEIGHT.

A letter to pass unpaid by the post may not exceed Four Ounces. All above that weight must be prepaid, either in money or by stamps. In the event of any unpaid letter above the weight of four ounces being posted, it will be charged with double the prepaid rates of postage; if insufficiently paid, either in money or by affixed stamps, it will be charged with double the amount of the difference between the money paid or the stamps affixed, and the prepaid rates, and thus charged, "shall and may be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination."—Treasury Warrant, 22d October, 1847.

LIMITATION OF SIZE.

A letter to pass by the post, either paid or unpaid, must not exceed the dimensions of twenty-four inches in length, or breadth, or width, or depth. Any letter above these dimensions may, if fully paid, be detained and opened, or forwarded at the option of the Postmaster.

General. Any letter unpaid, or insufficiently, will be taxed precisely after the scale mentioned in the preceding paragraph as applicable to unpaid letters exceeding four ounces, and thus charged, be either detained and opened, and returned to the sender, or forwarded, at the option of the Postmaster-General. The only exceptions to the foregoing regulations as to size and weight are in the case of—1, Parliamentary proceedings or Addresses to Her Majesty; 2, Petitions to either Houses of Parliament, forwarded to any Member of such House; 3, Printed votes or proceedings of Parliament; 4, Letters or Packets to or from public departments or public officers in Her Majesty's service; 5, Letters, &c., to or from places abroad.

All persons sending letters by the post unpaid, which, from any cause whatever, cannot be delivered to the parties to whom they are addressed, are liable to pay the postage charged thereon, which may be recovered with costs, by summary proceedings before a magistrate.

Printed Votes and proceedings in Parliament are charged at the following rate, between places in the United Kingdom, and between the United Kingdom and the Colonies, when conveyed by packet:

Not exceeding 4 ounces,	1d.
Exceeding 4 ounces, and not exceeding 8 ounces,	2d.
Exceeding 8 ounces, and not exceeding 12 ounces,	3d.
and so on in proportion. Prepayment optional.

Soldiers' or Seamen's Letters are liable to a postage of 1d, when prepaid, and not exceeding half an oz. ; when sent by private Ship, the gratuity of 2d, in addition must be paid. Letters to or from Soldiers or Seamen from abroad, when not prepaid are charged 2d. Soldiers' or Seamen's Letters are liable to Foreign rates in addition if sent to or through a Foreign Country, but to no further charge upon re-direction.

Printed Books, Magazines, Reviews, and Pamphlets, (whether British, Colonial, or Foreign may be transmitted by Post, within the United Kingdom, at the following rates:—

For each Packet, not exceeding 1 lb. 6d. Exceeding 1 lb., and not exceeding 2 lbs., 1s. Exceeding 2 lbs., and not exceeding 3 lbs., 1s. 6d. and so on. Provided, however, the following conditions be carefully observed—1st, Every such Packet must be sent without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sides. 2d, It must contain a single volume, (whether printed Book, Magazine, Review, or Pamphlet) the several sheets or parts thereof, when there are more than one, being sewed, or bound together. 3d, It must not exceed two feet in length. 4th, The Postage must be prepaid in full, by affixing outside the Packet or its cover the proper Stamps. The name and address of the sender may be written or painted upon it, and any other writing may be on any leaf of it, or on the binding; but all such last mentioned writing must be on one and the self same page or corresponding portion of the binding. If any of the above conditions be violated, the Packet will be charged as a Letter.

The following Instructions have been addressed to all Postmasters, and are strictly acted upon.

“GENERAL POST-OFFICE.—On and after the 1st January, 1845, should any Letter or Packet be tendered at your Office, which you may ascertain to contain, or which you have every reason to believe contains any of the following articles, viz.: Any Glass, Bottle; any Razor, Scissors, Knife, Fork, or other Sharp or Pointed Instrument; any Leeches, Game, Fish, Flesh, Fruit, Vegetables, or other perishable substance; any Bladder or other Vessel containing Liquid; or any article, matter, or thing whatsoever, which might, by pressure or otherwise, be rendered injurious either to the Officers of the Post-Office, or to the contents of the Mail Bags; you will refuse to receive such Letter or Packet.

“ In the event of any Letter or Packet being taken in by you, and you do not, until afterwards, discover that it contains any Article as above described, or should any such Letter or Packet be deposited in the Letter Box, you will not forward it to its destination, but you will detain it in your Office, and inform me, by the first Post, of the circumstances, stating the precise Address of the Letter or Packet, and its contents, or what you suppose them to be, when proper steps will be taken in this Department in the case, and you will be instructed in what manner to dispose of the Letter or Packet.

“ Should any Letter or Packet, containing any article as before mentioned, not be discovered by the Postmaster at whose Office, it may be posted, but be forwarded on to its destination, the Receiving Postmaster, to whose Town it may be addressed, upon discovering, or having every reason to believe, that its contents are such as those alluded to, will not send it out for delivery, but will detain it in his office, reporting the circumstance by the first Post, and stating the nature of its contents, when he will be duly instructed in what manner to dispose of it.”

NEWSPAPERS AND SUPPLEMENTS TO NEWSPAPERS.

ALL Newspapers must be sent in covers, open at the sides, and no words or communication may be printed or written on such papers or covers after the same shall have been published, other than the name and address of the person to whom they are sent; nor anything enclosed in either newspaper or cover. News-venders only may print their names and addresses thereon. Newspapers may be examined by the Officers of the Post-Office; and if there be any breach of the above regulations, the packet is chargeable with treble the amount of postage to which a letter of the same weight would have been liable. Any person contravening the law, may, at the option of the Postmaster-General, be prosecuted as for a misdemeanour.

Clause of the Act of 1st Victoria, cap. 34. sec. 32.

“ And be it further enacted, that in all cases in which a question shall arise, whether a printed paper is entitled to the privileges, of a Newspaper or other publication hereby privileged, so far as respects the transmission thereof by the Post under the Post-Office Acts, the question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision, with the concurrence of the Lords of the Treasury, shall be final.

MARKS OR WRITINGS ON NEWSPAPERS.

Writing or Marks are allowed on a Newspaper, passing by Post between any one Part of the United Kingdom, and any other Part, provided that a postage of one penny be paid, by means of a Stamp conspicuously fixed outside the cover or folded Newspaper. But the privilege is confined to writing or marks on the Newspaper itself, and is not to extend to the cover. Any writing or marks other than the address, on which, or (if the Postage be not prepaid as above) on the Newspaper itself, will subject the Newspaper to the same rate of Postage as that to which an unpaid letter of the same weight is liable.

NEWSPAPERS FROM THE BRITISH COLONIES.

are delivered free of Postage at any place within the British dominions. Those for persons who have removed, may be forwarded by Post, free of charge, provided they have not been opened at the place to which they were originally addressed.

TO THE BRITISH COLONIES AND FOREIGN PARTS.

Newspapers liable to the Stamp duty may be forwarded to the British Colonies and Possessions, by her Majesty's Packet boats, free of the Duty of Postage, provided the same be duly stamped, made up open at the ends, and put into any Post-Office within seven days after the day of publication.

Newspapers may also be forwarded to the Colonies, by Private Ships for a Postage of One Penny each, and to Foreign countries for a Postage of Twopence each, to be paid when posted, under the same regulations as to date, &c.

For days of despatch and Rates of Postage, see the Alphabetical List of Foreign Countries.

NEWSPAPERS FROM ABROAD.

Newspapers arriving from British Colonies or "Foreign Parts," to which they are despatched free, are delivered free of Postage. From places abroad, to which they are not despatched free, they are charged, on delivery, Twopence each; excepting those brought by the Closed Mail through France, which are charged Threepence or Fivopence each. All newspapers must be printed in the language of the Country from which they are sent.

PRINTED PRICES CURRENT, having obtained the sanction of the Lords of the Treasury, pass through the Post Office to the Colonies and Foreign parts at one penny each, provided they contain simply the names and prices of articles; the names and addresses of the parties dealing in such articles must be excluded. Each copy to be made up in the same form as a Newspaper, with covers open at the end.

The title of the publication must be written or printed immediately above the address; and any other writing than such address, name, initial, or mark for reference of any kind, calculated to convey information as to the party by whom such publication is forwarded, will subject the same to full letter rates of postage.

Every Price Current to be posted within seven days after each publication; and no one can be forwarded a second time without being charged with full letter postage.

All other Prices Current and Commercial Lists, published in the United Kingdom, if duly stamped, and under the weight of two ounces, will be treated as Newspapers, and enjoy the Newspaper privileges, the sanction of the Postmaster General having been previously obtained.

Printed Prices Current, and Commercial Lists from the British Colonies, France, Belgium, and Holland, are now admitted into the United Kingdom at the reduced rate of One Penny each, whether conveyed by Packet or Private Ship.

Printed Prices Current, and Commercial Lists, from any Foreign country, except France, Belgium, Holland, Prussia, and China, are admitted into the United Kingdom at the reduced rate of Twopence each.

Prices Current, and Commercial Lists, from the British Colonies, passing through France, Belgium, or Holland, to the United Kingdom, are liable to a Postage of Twopence each.

Printed Prices Current, and Commercial Lists, from China, via Southampton, 3d; via Marseilles, 5d each. To China, via Southampton, 2d; via Marseilles, 3d each. To India, via Marseilles, 3d; via Southampton, 1d each.

REGISTRATION.

Letters, whether containing Coin or not, can be registered, on payment of a fee of sixpence, in addition to the Rates of Postage, Inland, Colonial, or Foreign. On those for delivery in France, the charges besides the Registration fee will be the English rate to France, in addition to double the French rate. A printed Acknowledgment will be given to any person registering a letter. Registered Letters will be taken at the Bar Window and the Receiving Houses within half an hour of the closing of the Box for the particular Mail by which they are to be dispatched. Letters for Registration, addressed to places within the United Kingdom, must be paid by affixing a sufficient number of Stamps, and the fee of Sixpence in addition must also be paid in Stamps; when addressed to parts abroad they may be paid either in money or by means of Postage Stamps.

In cases of Foreign, Colonial, or Ship Letters, it must be clearly understood that Registration can only extend to the port of shipment. Letters, however, addressed to France, and Letters passing through France, are exceptions to this rule, the French Post Office undertaking to provide for their security till they have been delivered, if addressed to France, and as long as they remain in the French territory, if passing through France.

The arrangements for carrying out the system of registration have been made with the view of ensuring the safe delivery of Registered Letters. On their delivery, the parties to whom they may have been addressed will be required to acknowledge in writing their receipt. Parties transmitting Bank Notes, Bank Post Bills, Drafts, Jewellery, &c., should invariably secure their transmission by Registration; and persons having occasion to send by Post small sums are recommended to make use of

THE MONEY ORDER OFFICE.

Which is open every week-day, Fast-days excepted, from 9 a m till 6 p m. The charge for such Orders is threepence on sums not exceeding two pounds, and sixpence on sums between two and five pounds. No order will be given for sums beyond this amount; but if the sum to be transmitted exceeds five pounds, as many orders may be taken out as will make up the sum to be sent.

Orders cannot be granted unless the name of the person to whom they are made payable be given in full, neither can they be paid unless signed (Christian and Surname) in full; in cases of Firms the usual signature is sufficient.

When the personal attendance of the party to whom an order is made payable is inconvenient, if the order is properly signed, and the person presenting it be able to give full information as to the Christian name, surname, address, and occupation of the person who transmitted the money, the payment will be made, but not unless these conditions are strictly complied with.

A Money Order must be presented for payment before the end of the second calendar month after that in which it was issued (for instance, if issued in January, it must be presented before the end of March), otherwise a new Order will be necessary, for which a second commission must be paid; and if it be not presented for payment before the end of the twelfth calendar month after that in which it was issued, the money will not be paid at all.

After an order has been once paid, by whomsoever presented, the Office will not be liable to any further claim.

LETTERS POSTED BY MISTAKE

or otherwise, cannot be returned to the writer; neither is any person allowed to alter the address of a letter after being posted, as the instant a letter is committed to the post, it is no longer the property of the writer.

The towns upon which money orders can be drawn are marked in the lists.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN MAILS.

A single rate of Postage is given for each country.—See also Alphabetical List, page 88.

To those Countries marked "o" the payment is obligatory by the respective routes.

There being no bags despatched for London on Saturdays, except at 10 30 p m, when any of the dates for the London, Southampton, or Dover Packets fall upon that day, reference must be made to the alphabetical list for information whether the letters should be posted on the previous Friday or the ensuing Sunday.

Letters for Foreign Countries, the pre-payment of which is required, when put into the unpaid box, or left at the office with less than the full postage, are sent to the Dead Letter Office, and returned to the writer, when his address can be ascertained.

CARD.

JOHN CLARK,

TAILOR & TEACHER OF THE ART OF CUTTING,
14, HAMILTON STREET,

BEGS respectfully to return his sincere thanks to his Friends and the Public for the very extensive and spontaneous support he has received since commencing Business, and he gladly avails himself of the present opportunity of assuring his Friends and the Public, that he is determined to abide by those principles in conducting his Business which he announced when commencing, (and which has, no doubt, greatly added to his unprecedented success,) namely, of having all Orders entrusted to him Made on the Premises, in a clean, well-ventilated Workshop, by first-class Workmen, and under his own immediate inspection.

J. C. would beg further to state, that from his long practical experience in all the Fashionable Cities and Towns in the Kingdom, both in the Cutting and Making-up Departments, those who may patronize him, will find that he is able to produce a Garment superior to many, but second to none in Town.

TO THE TRADE.

J. C. begs to state that he has been appointed Agent for

Copland's Patent Corperimensor, Price £2 12s 6d,

An Instrument for Measuring and Cutting Coats of every Style, without any risk of Misfitting or Alteration, as it transfers not only the Measure, but the Make of the Man, to the Cloth, rendering the ordinary divisions of Measurement altogether unnecessary, so that if the Measure be correctly taken, a Misfit is impossible.

Also Agent for

BROOKS' DELINEATOR, Price £1 11s 6d.

By the adoption of this extraordinary Mechanical Invention, the Art of Cutting is rendered simple, and all Calculations superseded, by the Instrument being self-varying, and equally adapted for all Sizes Heights, and Positions, producing Shapes as infinitely varied as are the forms of the human figure, and at the same time without the least restriction as to Style.

IMPROVED HAIR FELT

FOR COVERING SHIPS' BOTTOMS

UNDER WOOD AND COPPER SHEATHING.

THE GREENOCK FELT WORK COMPANY respectfully bring under the notice of Ship-builders and Owners, their Stock of IMPROVED HAIR FELT, manufactured at their Works.

The quality of this article, since its introduction into the various Ports of Great Britain, the Colonies, and the British Possessions in the East Indies, has been fairly tested, and it is with confidence affirmed that it has proved a most valuable Sheathing for Ships' Bottoms, under Wood or Copper. It is softer, more adhesive, and capable of greater elasticity, either above or under water, than any other Felt hitherto in use, forming at once a security against Leaks, a protection against the destructive effects of the Sea-worm, and a preventive against the Corrosion of Metals.

It is manufactured solely by hand, is perfectly smooth on the surface, of a thin texture, and is furnished in Sheets of 42 inches by 22 inches.

PARTIES about to Insure would do well to consider the benefits which this old established Corporation gives to the Assured, both under the Mutual Plan (but without risk), and under the Non-Participation Plan. Under the former, about 84 per Cent. of the whole Profits are divided among the Insured: while the Non-Participation Rates of the Company, compared with the Rates of the Mutual ones, give at the age of 30 an annual return of £5 14s on an Insurance of £1200; or, in other words, an Insurance of £1475 may be effected with this Company for the same premium that an Insurance of £1200 would cost with the Mutual Companies at that age, exclusive of 10s per cent. of Entry Money, which this Company does not charge.

Parties Insured with other Companies which do not declare their Bonuses, for one or two years to come, may have these secured to them by an Insurance with this Company at a moderate rate.

GREENOCK GAS WORKS.

Regulations for Consumers of Gas by Meter.

I. WHEN Gas is supplied by measure, the charge will be 5s 10d per 1000 cubic feet, payable on the 15th November, 15th January, and 15th May of each year, subject to the undernoted graduating scale of Discounts, which will be deducted from the payment in May, viz. :—

When the Gas passing through any one Meter per annum amounts to

£1, and is under £10,.....	2½ per cent.
10, ,, 30,.....	5 ,,
30, ,, 60,.....	7½ ,,
60, ,, 100,.....	10 ,,
100, ,, 150,.....	15 ,,
150, and upwards,.....	20 ,,

No discount to be allowed unless the first payment be made on or before the 15th November, the second on or before the 15th January, and the third on or before the 15th May, OR AT THE FIRST CALL THEREAFTER; and if the accounts are not paid within a reasonable time after either of the aforementioned dates, the Committee may order the supply to be turned off until payment be made. The Committee likewise reserve power to demand security, or to exact payment in advance, whenever they think necessary.

II.—A service-pipe will be laid at the expense of the Works, from the main pipe to line of street, and if necessary to continue it further, it will be optional to consumers either to pay for the same, or 7½ per cent. annually on the cost.

III.—All interior fittings of every description to be done at the expense of the Proprietor, by gas pipe fitters alone, who have been duly authorised as such by the Committee of Management. The gas pipe fitters on no account to proceed to fit up Meters, or to make any alteration in their situations, without a special order from the Manager. The fittings to be approved of before the gas is let on, and subject at any after period to the inspection of the Manager or any other person appointed by him for that purpose, who is to have access at all reasonable hours.

IV.—No gas meters will be allowed to be used but such as are furnished by the Works; the expense of fitting them up in all cases will have to be borne by the consumer. It will be optional for consumers either to purchase or rent the meter ; if purchased, it will be given at prime cost, and all repairs and cleaning will have to be borne by the Proprietor. When returned by him to the Works, a deterioration of 1s per annum for the smallest size (other sizes in proportion) will be deducted from the selling price of the meter at the time of re-purchase. If rented, the charges will be as follows: 10 in. 1s 6d—No. 1, 2s—No. 2, 4s—No. 3, 5s—No. 4, 6s—No. 5, 7s—all per annum ; in this latter case the cleaning and repairs will be at the expense of the Works.

V.—No transference of meters can take place until the amount of gas used by the previous occupant be paid for, at least to the extent of the value of the meter, when it belongs to the consumer.

VI.—The Manager, or any other person appointed by him, to have free access at all reasonable hours to ascertain the quantity of gas consumed ; to supply the meter with water ; to examine the same and, if necessary, remove and cleanse it at the expense of the owner. No person will be allowed, on any account, to remove or disconnect the meter, but the servants in the employment of the Works.

VII.—If at any time it be ascertained that the meter has not registered the quantity of gas consumed, or from any other cause it may be found necessary to supply gas temporarily without meter, the Manager to have the power to charge for the gas consumed during the time it was supplied, and not correctly registered, in the same proportion as the consumption was either before or after that time.

VIII.—The Committee of Management will not hold themselves responsible to consumers for loss arising from suspension of the supply of gas, whether such suspension is occasioned by accident to the Works or from any other unavoidable cause.

IX.—The Committee reserve power, in case of fraud by consumers, to discontinue the supply of gas, without any previous intimation being given.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CONSUMERS.

N. B.—During the continuance of severe frost, all meters placed in exposed situations should be wrapt round with a piece of flannel or woollen cloth, to prevent the water in the meter from freezing, and in order to insure a supply of gas.

All burners should be cleaned once every month, in order to preserve an equality in the height of flame and to prevent smoke. Argands, union, and single jets, may be cleaned with a piece of strong bristle ; batwings, with a piece of watch spring or cut paper. When a burner becomes enlarged through length of use or frequent cleaning, it should be removed and replaced by a new one.—If these instructions are not attended to, much smoke and a useless expenditure of gas will be the consequence.

It is particularly requested, that when a smell of gas is felt, immediate notice thereof, verbally or in writing, should be left in the Office at the Work, 27, Crawford Street, Glebe ; and every precaution should in the meantime be taken, to prevent any one approaching with a light the situation where the gas is accumulating, especially if the smell arises from a cellar or any other confined place.

Consumers are specially requested to shut the Stop-Cock before the Meter when not using Gas.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The only Office in which the advantages of Mutual Assurance or Participation in the Profits, are given in combination with a moderate rate of premium. The Assured are at the same time specially exempt from personal liability.

In many Offices Assurers are offered the choice of a moderate Scale of Premiums, without any claim to share in the profits—or, of a right to participate in these, at an excessive rate of Premium. Assurers with the SCOTTISH PROVIDENT INSTITUTION are the sole recipients of the Profits, and at rates of Premium equally moderate with those of the Non-participating Scale of the Proprietary Companies.

The principle on which the profits are divisible, is at once safe, equitable, and favourable to good lives—the Surplus being reserved for those Members alone who have made surplus payments; in other words, for those whose Premiums, with Accumulated Interest, amount to the sums in their Policies.

In all points of practice—as in provision for the indefeasibility of policies, facility of license for travelling or residence abroad, and of obtaining advances on the value of the Policies—the regulations of the Society, as well as the administration, are as liberal as is consistent with right principle.

Examples for Annual Premium for Assurance of £100 at Death.

By both Scales, the Assured are entitled to share in the Whole Profit.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Company effects FIRE AND LIFE ASSURANCES, and grants Annuities and Endowments on favourable terms.

LIFE ASSURANCE.

The Life Branch of the Office is so constituted as to combine all the advantages of the Mutual with the security of the Proprietary System; and the eminent success which it has experienced, together with the rapid progress it is still making, shows that it is duly appreciated by the Public.

THE PARTICIPATION SCHEME.

The Company's charge for Management and Guarantee being limited by the Act of Parliament to a small fixed per centage on the Premiums, and the whole of the Profits being thereafter divisible among the Assured. The Bonus already declared on all the Participation Policies opened previous to 30th April, 1846, varied from one-and-a-quarter to twelve-and a-half per cent. on the sums assured.

Parties taking out Policies on this Scheme, by a single payment of Premium, may, for a small present outlay, secure

A FUND OF CREDIT.

Thus—A person aged 35 may Assure his Life for L.1000, for a Single Payment of L.494 14s 2d. Of this payment he may immediately borrow from the Company L.470, or any smaller sum, to be repaid at convenience, or deducted from the amount assured when the Policy becomes a claim, while he will be entitled to rank at each division of profits for Bonus upon the whole L.1000, the only future payment required being the yearly interest on the amount lent.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

PARTIES may effect ASSURANCES with this Company either for a specific sum payable at death, on payment of a reduced rate of premium; or they may participate in the profit scheme of the Company, on payment of an increased rate.

NO ENTRY MONEY IS CHARGED.

Assurances may also be effected on the INCREASING or DECREASING Scales, and on JOINT LIVES and SURVIVORSHIPS.

TWO-THIRDS of the Profit arising on the Participating Class of Policies (without being subject to any charges for Management), are divided every FIVE YEARS among those entitled to participate, on the MOST EQUITABLE PRINCIPLES, viz., in the proportion each party has contributed to the fund.

The bonus declared upon Policies entitled to participate, effected prior to 1st August, 1846, averages more than One and Three-Quarters per Cent. per Annum on the original sums insured, as exhibited in the following

TABLE shewing the additions made to Policies of L.1000 each, which have been in existence Twelve complete years from 1st August, 1834:—

NEW RATES OF PREMIUM.—The Directors of this Society, with the view of meeting the wishes of the large class of persons who prefer the present advantages of reduced premiums to a prospective bonus in the shape of an addition to their policies, have constructed a new scale, based on the safest and most approved data, viz., the Experience Tables recently compiled by a Committee of Actuaries, from the records of seventeen of the leading London Offices.

The Society now offers the following advantages:—
The lowest Scale of Premium which can be safely adopted.

Example to Assure £100.

Age.	For one Year.			For seven years.			For whole Life.
20	0	15	11	0	16	6	1	13	1
30	0	18	5	0	19	6	2	2	10
40	1	2	8	1	4	10	2	18	7

Other ages at proportionate rates.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Undoubted security, guaranteed by a large capital; an influential proprietary; the long standing of the office, and the satisfactory results of its business

Facility in the settlement of claims.

Liberty to travel in any part of Europe without extra premium.

Loans equivalent to the value of the policies.

To those who desire to secure the advantages of a prospective bonus, by a small additional outlay, the deed of settlement assigns four-fifths of the profits.

Bonuses may be commuted for equivalent reductions of premium at the option of the assured, by which arrangement the amount originally assured may be kept up at a continually decreasing cost.

Insurances effected on joint as well as on single lives, for short terms or otherwise, and to meet any specified contingency.

The age of the life assured is admitted on the policy at the time of effecting the assurance or at any other time, on production of satisfactory proof.

Every information and assistance will be given to assurers, either at the offices, 7 Waterloo Place, London; or by the Society's agents, established in all principal towns.

THE Assured in this Society enjoy during their own lives the Surplus or Profits arising on the business. The divisible Surplus is ascertained every year, and is paid over in money to the Assured at the settlement of their next Annual Premiums. By this system Life Assurances are obtained at the lowest expense consistent with Security.

In 1845, 1846, and 1847, the surplus thus repaid to the members amounted to 30 per cent. of their Premiums, that is 6s. per £1. They were, therefore, required to pay only 14s. per £1 of their Premiums in each of these years. In 1848, 1849, and 1850, the surplus repaid amounted to 35 per cent. of the Premiums, that is 7s. per £1; and the members had, therefore, to pay only 13s. per £1 in these years. For example:—

A member whose annual premium is £10, has, this year, paid only £6, 5s. and another member whose annual premium is £25, has paid only £16, 5s.

The following are specimens of the Premiums payable in the present year by members of five years' standing.

Age at Entry.	Policies of L.100	Policies of L.500	Policies of L.1000	Policies of L.5000
20	L.1 4 0	L 6 0 0	L.12 0 0	L.60 0 0
30	1 11 7	7 17 11	15 15 10	78 19 2
40	2 2 4	10 11 8	21 3 4	105 16 8

 This mode of dividing the Surplus or Profits has been adopted by no other Assurance Office in Scotland.

During last year (the Eleventh of the Society's existence), 732 New Policies were issued for Life Assurances, amounting to £249, 000.

The Society have Agents in most of the towns in England and Scotland.

Prospectuses will be sent, post-paid, to any part of the Kingdom; and parties residing in Districts where there are no Agents of the Society, may readily effect Assurances by communicating with the Manager at the Head Office.
