A D D R E S S .

G. FOWLER in presenting to the Public the ninth edition of the Directory, returns his sincere thanks to those who have supported the Work since its commencement.

In the accuracy of details, and distinctness of arrangements, he is aware that the chief value of such a Work consists ; he has therefore spared neither pains nor expense in securing these. The Lists and Tables inserted in the appendixes are of the most useful description, and suitable not only to the Merchants and Traders, but to the Public generally, as a Directory is the only repository whereby a commercial people are enabled to become acquainted with each other.

The public are respectfully requested, when Removals and change of Firms take place, to send early notice to the Publisher, that the Lists may be made up by the 1st of May ;—The managers of those Institutions and Societies who wish them inserted in the Directory, will please send notice thereof to the Publisher, (for form see Directory.) Such notices require to be accurate, as they are inserted VERBATIM.

As much delay and unnecessary trouble has been occasioned by Societies and other public bodies not giving in their lists, the Publisher intimates, that UNLESS the same be regularly forwarded, he will not be accountable for OMISSIONS.

All Communications, post-paid, will be duly attended to.

2d. He shall wear his Badge or Ticket conspicuously on the left breast of his coat, which Badge shall be of brass, and have inscribed the words _____ and the Number in the order of his admission, and he shall also have a transcript of said inscription painted legibly on the right side of his barrow or hurley.

3d. He shall not, when unengaged, refuse employment when offered, whether on his station or not; and if he allege previous engagement, he shall, when required, specify the nature and time of his engagement.

4th. He shall not demand higher fares than those specified in the subjoined table; a copy of which table, with these Regulations, and also a small plan of the Town, divided into Sections of half a mile, he shall always have in his possession, and produce to persons employing him when required.

5th. No Porter shall appear on his station intoxicated. All Porters are prohibited from standing on the pavement, or crossings to the obstruction or annoyance of the lieges; as also from smoking, when upon their stations, or in any manner giving offence. In general, they are enjoined to conduct themselves orderly among themselves, and discreetly towards the public.

6th. Porters contravening, or not conforming to these Regulations, will subject themselves to a penalty not exceeding thirty shillings, which penalty shall be awarded, and the regulations enforced in a summary manner by the Sitting Magistrate, who may dismiss from said employment, and deprive of their badge such as shall offend.

DIRECTIONS

For the Recovery of the apparently Drowned or Dead.

BY THE PAISLEY HUMANE SOCIETY.

IN APPARENT DEATH three objects are constantly to be kept in view; 1st. to remove every hurtful cause; 2d, to regulate the temperature of the body; 3d. to restore breathing. For these purposes the following directions may be usefully employed, till medical assistance arrive, which ought instantly to be sent for in every case.

In a Case of Drowning.

Remove as quickly as possible all wet clothes from the body, dry it well, wrap it in any warm woollen covering, and convey it, with the head and breast moderately raised, to the nearest house, where none but useful assistance ought to be admitted. Let the body now be laid in a warm bed, or upon a warm blanket near a fire, but not exposed to a strong heat. Let the lost heat be restored by rubbing the surface with warm cloths or hands, by wrapping a piece of warm flannel or blanketting round the waist, and by applying warm substances, first and chiefly to the trunk and head, next to the limbs. The most convenient for this purpose are bottles or flasks filled with warm water, and bags or stockings filled with hot grain, chaff, bran, salt, or sand. Large glysters of warm water should also be exhibited. To restore the breathing, let a person firmly compress the nostrils with the fingers of one hand, then apply his mouth across the mouth of the body, and blow forcibly; let him now lift his head, and the air will escape. This operation is to be commenced as soon as possible, and continued till natural breathing return, or till the case appear hopeless. If water in the mouth and nostrils prevent inflation of the lungs, it ought to be discharged by blowing into the mouth while the nostrils are left open.

In a case of Strangling.

Remove every thing tight from the neck and breast, then proceed to inflate the lungs and restore heat, as directed above.

In a case of Suffocation from Impure Air.

Admit fresh Air, inflate the lungs, and if the body be cold, restore heat as directed above; if, as sometimes happens, it be warmer than naturally, reduce the heat by dashing the head, neck, and breast smartly with cold water.

In a case of Apparent Death from Lightning.

Besides using the same means as for suffocation, give large glysters of salt and water, and use friction over the whole body.

In a case of Apparent Death from Intense Cold.

Avoid placing the body at first near the fire, use friction rather than apply heat for a time; in other respects act as for drowning.

In a case of Excessive Intoxication.

If the breathing be suspended, act as for drowning, give large glysters of salt and water, endeavour to bring up the contents of the stomach by tickling the throat with feathers; for the same purpose when the power of swallowing is restored, give copious draughts of warm water.

To prevent Death from Loss of Blood.

If from a wound, apply firm pressure to the wound by the finger or a small pad, till medical assistance can be procured. If from a limb, twist a handkerchief tightly round the limb, nearer to the heart than the wound. If fainting has taken place, lay the patient in the recumbent position, and apply hartshorn to the nostrils. If the bleeding is from an internal part, apply cold wet cloths, and avoid all stimulants.

A Medical Apparatus lies in the Town's Hospital, another in the House of Recovery.

PARLIAMENTARY BOUNDARIES.

By the bill to regulate the boundaries of Scotch towns, returning, or joining to return Members to Parliament, under the new regime, the following are the boundaries assigned to Paisley and Renfrew. They are certainly ample, and will not be complained of as cutting too closely on the outskirts.

PAISLEY.

From the summit of Byres Hill, on the north east of the town, in a straight line to the point near Knockhill, at which the Renfrew road is joined by a road from Glasgow; thence in a straight line to the summit of Knockhill; thence in a straight line to the northern gable of the Moss toll house on the Greenock road; thence in a straight line in the direction of the chimney of Linwood cotton mill to the point at which such straight line cuts the Candren burn; thence up the Candren burn to the point at which the same is joined by the Braidiland burn at the bridge over the same on the Johnstone road; thence up the Braidiland burn to a point which is distant five hundred yards (measured along the Braidiland burn) above the said bridge; thence in a straight line to Meikleridge bridge over the Candren burn; thence in a straight line to the point at which the old Neilston road leaves the new Neilston road; thence in a straight line to the summit of Dykebar hill; thence in a straight line to a point which is one hundred yards due north-east of the summit of Bathgo hill; thence in a straight line to the first described.

RENFREW.
