This is a Reprint of the First Glasgow Directory. Only one copy of the original is known to exist. It was in the valuable collection of the late ADAM SIM, Esq., of Cultermains, who, shortly before his death, intimated his intention of having it reprinted as a great Literary Curiosity. It now appears by the permission of Mr. Sim's Executors. The Volume is in every respect a faithful fac-simile of the original, which may be seen at the Publisher's, Robert Forrester, 142 Stockwell Street, Glasgow.

(Price 2/6, post free.)

May, 1871.

A D V E R T I S E M E N T.

THE Publisher of this Directory has endeavoured to supply the frequent complaints of strangers, as well as the Citizens, in taking upon him the arduous task of compiling a Complete Guide, for the easy finding out every inhabitant, of the least note, in this City and the other Towns and suburbs.

BUT, as the difficulty of a private person's knowing every one and his connections, without the assistance of the people themselves, must be apparent to every one; it cannot be expected, but that some errors and omissions will appear, which he hopes the indulgent public will excuse; notwithstanding, the publisher did make an actual survey of a great number of houses, shops, ware-rooms, &c, in Glasgow, with a view to be as exact as possible, but many had scruples of giving information, as they imagined it was for another purpose he was taking up their names.

Therefore, to render this Directory complete there will be an Appendix printed, and given Gratis to the purchasers of this, about the first of August next, rectifying the mistakes (if any be) wherein the names of those that have been omitted in this shall be carefully inserted, and the publisher will take it kind to have written information on this occasion, that the appendix and the subsequent editions may be as complete as possible.

As this Directory will annually require reprinting, on account of removals, deaths, new part-nerfhips, and other accidents, the publifher hopes, that thefe who are to move will give him proper notice thereof, before the firft May next, that they may be inferted accordingly.

The publifher at his fhop High ftreet, fells wholefale and retail moft kinds of ftationary, as writing paper and paper books of all kinds, wrapping papers, pens, ink, wax, wafers, letter cafes, and pocket books.

N. B. As he means to deal almoft folety in the article of paper, he intends to keep a very general affortment.

This publication having been delayed somewhat beyond the time expected, arising from unexpected and unforeseen difficulties, (it being the first of the kind attempted in this place), and from a desire of having it as complete and correct as possible. The Publisher hopes the Candid and Generous Public, and his numerous Subscribers, will excuse him.

Notwithstanding his diligence to have all the people concerned in business inserted, he may have omitted or misnamed some of them; to make all the amends he can, he will, as far as lies in his power, in the supplement he intends to publish about the month of August, rectify any mistakes, and insert these who have been omitted. For which purpose he earnestly requests the Gentlemen, &c. who may find themselves omitted, to send their names and places of abode to his stationary shop a little above the Cross, and they shall be properly inserted.
