August 17th, 1893.

Please send as soon as possible Six dozen Reliever. It has been a great success here since I introduced it. Many of my customers tell me they could not sleep if they thought they had not a Tin in the house.

CAVE STREET,
Hull, Oct. 15th, 1894.

Please send another tin of your Asthma Reliever. My wife has found it very beneficial for Chronic Bronchitis, and desires me to tell you that she would not be without it for the world.

Part of a letter received by a lady in London from her friend in Bridport.

BRIDPORT, DORSET,
Nov. 5th, 1894.

Have you ever tried Hinksman's Asthma Reliever? It is exactly what it professes to be, it relieves Mr Reid more than anything he has ever tried, and though he has been using it fully four years (more I think) it does not seem to lose its powers. He has recommended it to so many, all of whom say it is most comforting.

CORNHILL TERRACE,
Leith, 28th Nov., 1894.

Be kind enough to send three Tins of Asthma Reliever. I may say how pleased I am with it, it is such a comfort to have it, and is the means of giving me many a night's rest.

COAST GUARD STATION,
ELIE, FIFE,
Dec. 31st, 1894.

Please forward a Tin of your Asthma Reliever. I find it a most valuable relief for shortness of breath.

ROTHESAY :
HIGGIE & COY., PUBLISHERS,
BRIDGE STREET.

P R E F A C E .

THE Previous edition of this popular handbook and vade mecum having done duty for two years, got out of line with the importance of this many-sided county.

The present edition has been carefully corrected up to date, and its appreciation has called for the incorporation of extended business lists.

For the benefit of subscribers at a distance, we introduce short descriptive sketches with this issue, and hope the reference to the samples will induce an immigration to enjoy the stock.

Our best thanks are due to the public for their assistance: to those who supplied or revised our information, and to advertisers—through whose generosity we are again enabled to give our compilation the honours of the press.

We have a desire to supplement the information given by a concise account of the various institutions mentioned, and will welcome information thereanent.

It will facilitate the work of compilation if secretaries will kindly send us notification of changes in the officers of their respective societies.

HIGGIE & COY.

June, 1895.

N.B.--We are delighted to know that Buteshire is increasing in popularity with visitors, and that professional and amateur journalists and litterateurs are making the place a happy hunting ground for "copy," which, we trust, will be for the permanent good of the place. There is bitter with the sweet, however: we have received many complaints regarding the conduct of unknown directory canvassers. They are variously equipped, and even copies of our last issue have been detected in their hands—from which to get correct (?) addresses. More antique literature than that has evidently been tapped, as some of these ventures are a libel on the place. We suspect (from the amount of "bumming" which has been about) that the bogus rent collecting fiend has been at it, and nothing more will be heard or seen of some of the wonderful publications.

Several traders, who are not up to advertising, have been wheedled out of shillings in the belief that it was some compulsory tax they were asked to pay—every name was registered; and, of course, everything had to be paid for, but the charge was only 1s. Officials and householders are, as a rule, not called upon. Orders have been picked up (and payment also), believed to be for us, and, as we insert the information for nothing which other directories exact payment for, many of those who have thus paid will be under the impression that nothing has been amiss. More than that, some business houses have been entered during the absence of the principals, a copy of a miscellaneous directory produced, and payment demanded. A lady was generally in charge at such a visit. The deliverer was smart, had lots of work to overtake, was very sorry the principal was out, but could not really wait or call again. A pencilled order, purporting to be signed by the proprietor, was produced, with the threat that if payment was not made there and then, the book would be left and payment forced. That too often ended in the visitor leaving with a half-crown. The principals were indignant when they learned what had been done. They assured us they never ordered the publication, and were they not so positive that they did not, they could have admitted that the signature was their's—it was so like the genuine.

To avoid such annoyances in the future, we recommend the placing of orders in the hands of experts—known advertising agents and booksellers. The oily tongue of the canvasser is no criterion of the genuineness of his statements. "A word to the wise is sufficient"

There is another matter. In order to have our publication out as soon as possible after the removal term, we have got the sheets printed in three different offices. This issue is an improvement on last, but those with even a rudimentary knowledge of printing will see at a glance that a portion of the up-making has "touched bottom."

ISLE OF BUTE

Is 16 miles long, with an average breadth of four miles. It is rocky in the north and south but fertile in the intervening districts. The climate is milder and more equable than on the mainland and islands; and the place is, in consequence, a favourite health resort. Through the kindness of the Marquess of Bute, numerous beautiful roads and walks have been added in recent years for the benefit of residents and visitors, and all around the botanist, geologist, florist, photographer, and the otherwise scientific or inquisitive may roam at their sweet wills. Good views are obtained from its eminences, and permission to fish in the streams and lochs may be procured. We do not intend to blossom into a guide here, but this brief summary would not be complete without special reference to the richness of the island in historical relics. The antiquarian will find enough and to spare in Druidical remains, ruins of old chapels, castles, vitrified and other forts, &c.

Lord of the Manor.—John Patrick Crichton Stuart, Marquess of Bute, K.T., Mountstuart House. Factor on Bute Estate, John Windsor Stuart, Rothesay. Baron Bailie of Mountstuart, Fred. Pitman, W.S., Edinburgh.

Bute Farmers' Society.—Hon. President, the Marquess of Bute, K.T. President, John Duncan, Rhubodach. Vice-President, Alex. M'Farlane, Meikle Kilchattan. Hon. Secretary, T. W. Alexander. Hon. Treasurer, James Fisher.

Bute National Rose and Horticultural Society.—Hon. President, the Marquess of Bute, K.T. President, the Provost of Rothesay. Secretaries, Daniel Miller and Robert Smith.

Archæological and Physical Society of Bute.—Museum, Chapelhill.—Hon. President, the Marquess of Bute, K.T. Secretary, A. D. Macbeth. Treasurer, Bailie M'Intosh. Meteorologist, James Kay, Barone Cottage. The annual report shows the mildness and equability of the climate of Bute.

Royal Northern Yacht Club.—Club House, Argyle Street, West Bay).—Commodore, Sir Michael Shaw Stewart, Bart. Hon. Secretary, T. F. Donald, 104 West George Street, Glasgow. Clubmaster, William Burton. Regatta, 29th June and 1st July.

Bute Sabbath School Union.—Meets monthly in the Stewart Institute.—President, Rev. James Cameron, B.D. Secretaries, Misses Reid and Smith.

Bute Women's Temperance Prayer Union.— Meets in the Norman Stewart Institute every Thursday afternoon at 3.30.—President, Mrs Mansfield. Treasurer, Miss M'Lellan. Secretary, Miss Thomson.

Bute Ornithological and Canine Society.— President, Bailie Aitchison. Treasurer, Thomas Falconer.

Coast Guard.—Three men at Rothesay. Head-Quarters, Seabank Buildings, West Bay.

Bute Golf Club.— Links, Kingarth. — President, John Windsor Stuart. Secretary, Rev. John Saunders.

PARISH of ROTHESAY.

The town of Rothesay, the capital of Buteshire, was originally a village in connection with the Castle: since, it became a place of considerable importance in fishing, coopering, and cotton spinning and weaving, and now it is noted as the most popular resort in Scotland. The Castle has been built at different times, but is believed to have been begun about 1098 by the Norwegians. On 12th January, 1400, the town was created a royal burgh by Robert III, and in 1584 its privileges were confirmed and extended by James VI. The town has never lacked enterprise. The first cotton mill in Scotland was opened here, and Rothesay became a busy manufacturing town. Its municipal magnates delighted to honour new and enterprising tradesmen. The manufacturing industries, however, have gravitated to more convenient and large commercial centres, but the public spirit of its inhabitants has remained, and found scope in developing and making known its attractions, and it is now famous as a first-class watering-place. The town contains about 10,000 inhabitants; and during "the season" art is enlisted to supplement nature, and its esplanades and shores teem with delighted holiday-makers, quiet strolls are had further afield, and entertainments of all kinds are provided for the delectation of its visitors. The first Aquarium in Scotland, and large adjoining pleasure grounds, are favourite rendezvous for grave and gay all day and evening, the Brescian Family give high-class costume concerts in the Public Halls (known during the season as "the Palace"); and besides the natural facilities for bathing, through the generosity of a worthy son, complete swimming baths have been provided. Rothesay is 40 miles south-west from Glasgow, and four railway and steamboat routes vie with each other in keeping up a most complete communication. There are numerous daily excursions by steamers to the surrounding coasts, and by vehicles throughout the island, so that those who like retirement rather than gaiety can have their tastes gratified also. The old Castle has been preserved and kept in order by the hereditary keeper, the Marquess of Bute. His Lordship's residence at Mountstuart is the most costly private residence in the world. Besides walks and drives, and steamboat sailings, there are fleets of small boats, golf links, bowling greens, tennis courts, and billiard saloons—in short, there is no lack of opportunities for recreation. Hotels, hydropathics (Rothesay, here again, took the lead in pioneering these popular establishments in Scotland), boarding-houses, and private dwellings offer ample and comfortable accommodation at reasonable rates to all comers.

On the 25th May, the landward portion of the parish of Rothesay was amalgamated with North Bute, so that henceforth, for secular purposes, the boundary of the parish will be the same as that of the burgh.

ISLE OF ARRAN.

This island, the largest in the group, is famous for the grandeur of its scenery and the variety of its geological deposits. Its highest mountain, Goatfell, is of three distinct formations, and is an epitome of the geology of the world. The loneliness and solemnity of its mountains and glens impress the visitor with wonder that such scenes can be enjoyed "so near and yet so far" "far from the madding crowd." The island is divided into two parishes—Kilbride on the east and Kilmory on the West. There is not yet proper house accommodation for all the summer visitors, so that strangers contemplating a sojourn in this picturesque spot had better secure, by correspondence, quarters in advance.

Parish of Cumbrae.

The Parish of Cumbrae comprises the islands of Great and Little Cumbrae off the Ayrshire Coast. The burgh of Millport, on the larger isle, is a popular watering-place. The larger isle is about 12 miles in circumference, with a good road round it. Cumbrae affords good scope for the botanist: and in the opinion of scientists, Millport is admirably adapted for a marine station, and efforts are being made to proceed with the erection of a permanent building.

SKULL'S OKONITE TRUSSES FOR HERNIA (RUPTURE).

AWARDS—

Gold Medal, Paris Exhibition, 1889; Gold Medal, "World's Fair," Chicago, 1893.

SKULL'S OKONITE TRUSSES for Rupture are in all respects the most perfect and unique instruments ever offered to the public as mechanical supports and remedial appliances for any form of Rupture or Internal Prolapse. These trusses are of the best possible manufacture; they are self-adjusting, light and comfortable. The external surface being completely covered with a non-absorbent material (Okonite), of a flesh colour, resembling ivory, they cannot be detected when bathing; they are absolutely impervious to moisture, perspiration, and the acid excretions of the skin, cannot rust or get out of order, cause no cutaneous irritation, will hold securely any size protrusion without pain, may be washed when necessary with impunity, and can therefore be worn any length of time in any climate without becoming offensive, as is the case with those constructed with leather, elastic and other objectionable materials of a porous character.

SKULL'S OKONITE TRUSSES for rupture weigh only a few ounces, and being practically indestructible, can be guaranteed to last a lifetime, thus involving no further expense to the purchaser beyond first cost: and the undoubted advantages they possess over every other truss extant constitute them as absolutely the best, and therefore the cheapest that can be produced. The following are a few extracts from the leading Medical Journals:—

The Lancet.—"Skull's Okonite Trusses are the most effective we ever noticed."

British Medical Journal.—"They are scientifically constructed, and give perfect support in all cases."

Medical Press and Circular.—"Will no doubt come into general use."

Illustrated Medical News.—"We can with every confidence recommend them to all sufferers from Hernia (Rupture) and Prolapsus."

Thousands of unsolicited Testimonials from all parts of the world.

NOTICE.—I employ no travellers or agents, and Trusses are only supplied direct, packed in wood cases, with plain address labels, by return of mail, on receipt of P. O. Order or Bank Draft made payable to THEODORE SKULL, Shaftesbury Avenue, W.

SKULL'S NEW OKONITE TRUSSES are manufactured in three distinct qualities at the following prices:

	Best Qty.	Med. Qty.	Com. Qty.
Single Truss for right or left side,	each 45/6	35/6	25/6.
Double Truss, for both sides,	91/-	71/-	51/-

MEASUREMENTS REQUIRED.—The entire circumference round the body two inches below the top of the hips, in a line with the protrusion. State if the rupture is on the right, left, or both sides, or at the navel, and about the size of protrusion, and any special characteristic of the displacement.

DINGWALL,
August 17th, 1893.

Please send as soon as possible Six dozen Reliever. It has been a great success here since I introduced it. Many of my customers tell me they could not sleep if they thought they had not a Tin in the house.

CAVE STREET,
Hull, Oct. 15th, 1894.

Please send another tin of your Asthma Reliever. My wife has found it very beneficial for Chronic Bronchitis, and desires me to tell you that she would not be without it for the world.

Part of a letter received by a lady in London from her friend in Bridport.

BRIDPORT, DORSET,
Nov. 5th, 1894.

Have you ever tried Hinksman's Asthma Reliever? It is exactly what it professes to be, it relieves Mr Reid more than anything he has ever tried, and though he has been using it fully four years (more I think) it does not seem to lose its powers. He has recommended it to so many, all of whom say it is most comforting.

CORNHILL TERRACE,
Leith, 28th Nov., 1894.

Be kind enough to send three Tins of Asthma Reliever. I may say how pleased I am with it, it is such a comfort to have it, and is the means of giving me many a night's rest.

COAST GUARD STATION,
ELIE, FIFE,
Dec. 31st, 1894.

Please forward a Tin of your Asthma Reliever. I find it a most valuable relief for shortness of breath.
