A SPECIAL EDINBURGH EXHIBITION YEAR ISSUE is now being prepared for the International Event to be held in the Metropolis during 1908.

Special Editions of the Introductory Portions have been printed in the International Language, and Circulated Throughout the World with much acceptance.

See Opinions of the Press

Following upon this success, there is already being prepared in the "Lingvo Internacia" another brochure, extracted from the appended pages, entitled "The Scot Abroad," giving "glints" at the enjoyments of our kith and kin ayont the seas.

Many foreigners wish to see views of the varied scenery they read about, and those who visit our shores also wish to carry away with them similar souvenirs of the places they have seen. We have prepared (in commemoration of the Esperanto Congress, held in Great Britain this year) a special booklet of with succinet descriptions in both Esperanto and English languages. 6d.

SCOTLAND PIONERED THE INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE!

While the international language which is likely to be universally adopted is only 20 years old, and only four years ago introduced into Great Britain, it is 250 years ago since two well-known, travelled, and far-seeing Scots made serious attempts to create a universal means of communications between persons of different nationalities, but the time was not then ripe for the million. We will remember these pioneers at the Edinburgh International Exhibition in 1908 (to commemorate the union of Scotland with England) by issuing this Book of Views of Scottish Scenery, with, perhaps, important additions, if the enterprise is as much appreciated in this country as it is beyond it.

These booklets can be had from the Publishers (postage $\frac{1}{2}$ d and 1d), or from any Caledonian, Burns, Scott, Carlyle, or other Scots Worthy or Clan Society, or any British or Foreign Esperanta Groupo throughout the World.

MAP OF BUTE

PREFACE TO 1907-8 EDITION.

WE have again much pleasure in giving the honours of the Press to a new issue of this useful Buteshire reference book—thoroughly overhauled and brought up to date.

All the previous sections are continued, and to facilitate the search for information the different portions are again printed on distinctively coloured papers—a change of acknowledged benefit.

Our Advertising friends and the Prominent Business Firms in the District have appreciated the distribution of their announcements facing the text of the book, and we hope the continued prompt receipt of orders will enable us to make this decided benefit permanent.

Our desire is to overlook no one, and with that view we respectfully solicit notices of alterations or additions as early as possible, so that they may be given effect to.

This Directory is a more important publication than many imagine. It is not only found at all times throughout the county, but also in the libraries of Glasgow, Edinburgh, London, Dublin, Cambridge, Oxford, &c., and in numerous business houses and agencies in busy centres throughout the kingdom, so we are particularly anxious that nothing of benefit to Buteshire be omitted, but that every interest has a good show, and everything be brought thoroughly up to date.

Our best thanks are again accorded to those who have in any way helped us in this compilation. It takes long and careful vigilance to ascertain and give effect to the continual changes, and prompt information and orders are, consequently, particularly acceptable and valuable.

COUNTY OF BUTE.

THE COUNTY OF BUTE comprises the seven islands in the Firth of Clyde, viz.: —BUTE, the most populous; ARRAN, the largest; the GREAT and LITTLE CUMBRAES, off the Ayrshire Coast; HOLY ISLE and PLADDA, off Arran; and INCH-MARNOCK, off Bute.

The total AREA OF THE COUNTY (land and water, exclusive of tidal water) is 139,658 acres, of which 53,510 are mountain and heath lands used for grazing. 3,806 acres are under plantations, and 794 are covered with water. There are 25,981 acres under all kinds of crops, bare fallow and grass, which is a gradual inroad on the mountain heath and hitherto uncultivated land.

The principal INDUSTRIES are agriculture, horticulture, and fishing. The islands possess great and varied natural attractions, and are in the forefront as holiday resorts.

The POPULATION of the COUNTY (including its Burghs of ROTHESAY and MILLPORT) in 1801 was 11,791; 1831, 14,151; 1861, 16,331; 1881, 17,657. In 1891 it was 18,248 (8,057 males and 10,197 females); and in 1901, 18,786 (8,412 males and 10,374 females)—being an increase of 255 in the ten years—2.1 per cent. There were 4,270 inhabited houses in the islands.

The 1901 Census showed that in Buteshire there were 86 persons to the square mile, 7.4 acres to each person, and 204 yards approximate or distance in linear yards between person and person. The proportion of females to every 100 males is 123.32; the number of families is 4,422; inhabited houses, 4,263; rooms, 19,433; 4.25 persons to each family; 1.04 families to each house; 4.41 persons to each house; 4.56 rooms to each house; 4.40 rooms to each family; 1.97 persons to each room, and 20 persons speak Gaelic only.

Farms in Buteshire.—A Government return showing the number of occupiers of farms (whether owners or tenants) in each county and parish in Scotland, with the gross rental according to the Valuation Roll, for the year ending Whitsunday, 1906, has been prepared at the instance of the Secretary for Scotland. It is explained that in this return the following are included:—1, Occupiers of lands used for any farming purposes, whether with or without a house. 2, Occupiers of glebes used for any farming purpose. 3, Occupiers of all lands used for dairy farming. The following are excluded, viz.:—1, Occupiers of lands used only for market or nursery gardens. 2, Parks occupied by butchers and others for merely temporary grazing, and not for farming. Any occupier of more than one farm situated in the same parish is returned only once, and as occupier of land of the aggregate value of the total rental of such farms. Where there are joint occupants of one and the same farm they are returned as one occupier.

Parish of North Bute.

THIS is the northern portion of the island of Bute. Port-Bannatyne, its principal village, is two and a-half miles from Rothesay, with which it is connected by tramway. Kames Castle, in the vicinity, is said to be the oldest inhabited castle in the country, and was the ancient seat of the Bannatynes. The village was named after that family—two brothers of whom (John and Gilbert)—received a charter from King Robert the Bruce, for services rendered at Bannhockburn. At the last census, there were 367 inhabited houses (1627 windowed rooms) and 192 uninhabited in the parish, and 373 separate families—793 males and 940 females—giving a total of 1733. The Port-Bannatyne ward (from Pointhouse to the other end of the village and back to Gortans and Bannatyne Mains) contained 473 males and 627 females—1100 in all; the North Bute ward, 125 males and 140 females; and the Cummermenoch ward, 195 males and 173 females. The total ten years ago was 1583, which shows an increase of 150 on the decimal period. Parliamentary constituency, 1906-7, 393

(For Courts and Court Officials, Justices of the Peace, and County Boards, see County Lists).

Assessments for 1906-7—Poor rate, 4d; registration, $\frac{1}{2}$ d; burial, $\frac{1}{2}$ d; education, $3\frac{1}{2}$ d; and park, $\frac{1}{2}$ d—8 $\frac{3}{4}$ d per £0: a reduction of $\frac{3}{4}$ d off previous year.

The Bute County Directory

is the only Publication of the kind printed and published in Buteshire. Its data is carefully compiled, and much time and attention is devoted each year to the careful investigation and noting the necessary alterations in the personnel of the occupants of public offices, the correct addresses of the general inhabitants, and the latest changes amongst those engaged in trade.

The earliest publications connected with Rothesay were Directories, and they are interesting reading even at this time of day.

Our publication not only includes Rothesay, but embraces the whole County of Bute, and though it has increased in usefulness and circulation, its price and advertisement tariff have remained the same.

The Isle of Arran.

THIS island, the largest in the group, is famous for the grandeur of its scenery and the variety of its geological deposits. The island is twenty miles in length, twelve in breadth, and is divided into two parishes—Kilbride on the east, and Kilmory on the west. The King and Queen spent a very pleasant holiday in the island after their Coronation in August, 1902, and witnessed interesting sheep dog trials

Karakteriza Letero.

Multaj ĵurnaloj en Eŭropo, Britaj Insuloj, la Kolonioj, kaj Amerikaj landoj, regule enpresas Esperantajn verkojn, kun traduko por siaj legantoj. La sekvanta eliraĵo el la "Stirling Sentinel," de 5a Marto, 1907, estas la traduko de antaŭ ne longe ricevita poŝt-karto, enhavanta propramovan ŝatesprimon pri tio, kio havas la distingigon esti la unua nacia gvid-libreto en la lingvo internacia.

"Al Sinjoroj HIGGIE kaj Ko., Publikigistoj; en Rothesay, Skotlando.

Estimataj Samideanoj,

Ne antaŭvidebla okazo permesis al mi tralegi libreton eldonatan de vi pri Belega Skotlando ("Bonnie Scotland's Resorts") en lingvo Esperanto. Tiun ĉi libreton mi legis kelkfoje; ĝi, per sia priskribo pri Skotlando, liveris al mi multan plezuron; per ĝi mi bone ekkonis vian belan landon; mi ekkonis karakteron de popolo skotlanda, ĝiajn morojn, ĝian religion; mi eksciis pri la grado de civilizacio skotlanda, pri ĝia literaturo, pri scienco kaj arto; pri komunaj organizacioj, kiel bankoj kaj poŝtoj; pri skota industrio, kaj pri multaj aliaj. Koran dankon al vi, sinjoroj, por tiel belaj eldonoj en lingva Esperanto. Per tia eldono vi provas ke Esperanto estas utila por internaciaj rilatoj kaj por fratigo de diversnaciaj popoloj.

Nun mi triumfas pri tiaj sukcesoj de Esperanto, sed antaŭe mi multe toleris de ĝia nomo. [Oni] min mokis, mallaudis, ĉagrenis, eĉ insultis, sed me obstine ĉion toleris kaj-predikis nian la ideon. Nun, mi jam ne estas mokata; mi estas laŭdata.

Prenu de mi, honorindaj sinjoroj, mian sinceran saluton.

St. Rahni, Lesovije, Špinkov, Podolskoj gub., Rusujo." T. E. MOSKOVČENKO.

Tio-ĉi montras kiom plenege praktika Esperanto estas, kaj kia profita kaj internacia estonto estas antaŭ ĝi. La suprecitita al Sroj. HIGGIE kaj aliaj Esperantistoj, ne estas malofita, sed ordinara okazo. Esperantisto havas la tutan mondon antaŭ si—sen rilato al kredo, lingvo aŭ lando—kaj ĉiu deziras esti pli bone konata reciproke.

TRANSLATION.

Several newspapers on the Continent, the British Isles, the Colonies and the Americas, regularly print Esperanto articles with a translation, for the benefit of their readers. The following is from the "Stirling Sentinel" of 5th March, 1907, being the translation of a recently-received post-card, containing a spontaneous appreciation of what has the distinction of being the first national guide-book in the international language.

"To Messrs HIGGIE & Co., Publishers in Rothesay, Scotland.

Esteemed friends,—An unforeseen opportunity has allowed me to read through the brochure published by you about Bonnie Scotland in the Esperanto language. This little book I have read several times: by its description of Scotland it has afforded me much pleasure: by it I have begun to know your beautiful country—the character of the people of Scotland, its manners, its religion. I have begun to know about the degree of Scottish civilisation, about its superior literature in science and art, its communal organisations, such as banks and public offices; about Scottish industry, and many other things. Hearty thanks to you, gentlemen, for so beautiful publications in the Esperanto language. By such a work you prove that Esperanto is useful for international relations, and for a fraternisation of the peoples of divers nationalities.

I triumph now for the success of Esperanto, but before I had to bear much for its name. People have mocked at me, blamed me, annoyed me, and even insulted me, but I bore everything obstinately; and preached our idea. I am no longer mocked at: I am praised. Accept from me, worthy sirs, my sincere greeting."

This shows how thoroughly practical Esperanto is, and what a beneficial and international future it has before it. The above is not a rarity to Messrs Higgie and other Esperantists, but an ordinary occurrence. An Esperantist has the whole world—irrespective of belief, language or country—before him, and all desire better acquaintance.

This DIRECTORY now-a-days contains the information distinctive of both the DIRECTORY and the ALMANAC of past years, and the date of its issue is gradually becoming midway between the original dates of issue of these two publications. We begin our researches early enough, but the airy Summer publications must hustle out while the sun shines. The DIRECTORY, although very useful to the fluctuating visiting population, is not necessarily a fine-weather publication, but a hardy permanent resident.

Our aim, in this publication, is not to record the passing names and achievements of visitors and those who come to cater for them, but something of far greater importance—the recording of the names, standing and businesses of the the resident population, for the information of all having an interest in Buteshire, its burghs and rural districts.

Although the pages containing the official information are annually increasing, we do not strive to give the names of all the householders—some do not wish it, and there is an increasing number of unoccupied houses during winter. The burgh police “had their eye on” over 750 such last winter.

The Directory is, of course, not only for the remaining portion of the year in which it is issued, but continues the only printed reference book for the county of Bute until its successor appears.

One edition of the Directory is no sooner off than we begin to note alterations (and prepare for probable additions) for the next—so as to be unmistakeably up to date.

We are far from being able to publish everything that we desire, and we throw out the hint that the outlying districts of the county would be benefited if their capacities were made known through the Bute County Directory.

This Directory is not only found all over Buteshire, but in the libraries and other places of public resort in “the adjacent islands of Great Britain and Ireland.”

MR HIGGIE'S CLASSES FOR PRACTICAL INSTRUCTION are conducted during the six months from October till March.

Shorthand will continue to be taught with a view to its subsequent usefulness and not for any other purpose.

In Typewriting special attention will be devoted to Punctuation and Capitalisation, a thorough knowledge of which is absolutely necessary in Practical Printing, and cannot longer be neglected by those aspiring to be First-Class Typists.

Esperanto.—This wonderful International Language is already used for Business and Pleasure in all parts of the world.

Business Methods.—Instruction given in other Up-to-Date Business Methods. Advertisement Writing is a Envidable Profession, and the ground-work and minutæa have long been familiar to a practical Printer like Mr Higgle.

ESPERANTO

The International Literary Platform.

THE UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE is growing steadily in Great Britain, though here the confusion of tongues is not accentuated as elsewhere. Like the introduction of steam, gas and electricity, it discovered false and timorous prophets, who saw in the rising star a fleeting amusement like ping-pong or a craze for cranks. The flights of the imagination are wonderful! There are misgivings and hallucinations about an international language, but these are disappearing.

The London County Council was among the first of the public bodies to officially recognise the importance of this international code, and the humour of "Punch" on the occasion reflected more intelligence than in some places where practical wisdom is supposed to be encouraged.

Do not pack in your portmanteau
Books of classic verse;
Purchase guides in Esperanto,
Manuals of Erse.
Fogazzaro's tale Il Santo,
Walpole's Castle of Otranto,
Dante's most inspiring canto,
Grow more fine, more terse,
Rendered into Esperanto,
Versified in Erse.

From Lahirch to far Lepanto,
If equipped with Erse,
And in fluent Esperanto
Able to converse,
You will fare without confusion
Over land and sea—
Such at least is the conclusion
Of the L. C. C.

(PUNCH, October, 1906.)

From our insular position we as a nation are not conspicuous as linguists, but while, in 1902, there was in this language only one group in Britain (founded, by the way, by a journalist), there were eight under the British Esperanto Association in 1903, 14 more in 1904, another 14 in 1905, 35 new ones in 1906, and 1907 is doing well. The acquisition of the new language imposes no obligations and there are many classes and groups unattached to the British Esperanto Association.

There are, besides, hundreds of publications in the new lingo, and whether they are printed at home or abroad, they are easily read by all "samideanoj."

Classes for instruction will be conducted this winter again by GEORGE HIGGIE, 22 BRIDGE ST., ROTHESAY.
