It was issued before and in commemoration of the Second Congress, and is now appreciated wherever seen. Price 1d, post free, 1½d. A free copy given with every six ordered by gesamideanoj.
- SKOTLANDA PEJZAG'O, Views Characteristic of SCOTTISH SCENERY. beautifully printed from Photographs. Issued in Commemoration of the Third Congress. - LA ENAMIG'O DE LA NACIOJ (The Courtship of the Nations).—This is a collection of articles, written in the Neutral Language, by representatives of the different Nations, on the characteristics of their lands, for the information of others wishing better acquaintance. Courtship is not terminated at the first meeting, and we anticipate many issues of this enterprise: containing not only articles from nations not represented in the preceding issues, but also by other writers in the countries already contributing -- giving descriptions from a different point of view. There is, of course, to be nothing acrimonious written, and the collections ought to be very pleasant and profitable reading.

Mems. for the Wayfarer.

- THE ESPERANTA ALFABETO, with examples of pronounciation. 1d per doz.
- PRONOUNS CLASSIFIED. Devised to refresh the memories of the busy business men, enabling them to take a more intelligent grip of their own language, and discover the simplicity, logical uniformity, and universal adaptability of the international code. This is an incentive to brush up the old and adapt the new. 1d per doz.
- CORRELATED WORDS, being a tabulated reproduction of the cleverly-arranged adjectives, pronouns and adverbs, culled from chaos in other languages, and methodically arranged by Dr Zamenhof; with additional guiding-lines for the assistance of others than Classical Scholars. Price, 2d per doz.
- THE SUPPLE JOINTS OF ESPERANTO, being Word-Building Tabulated, showing at a glance the usefulness and efficacy of the Prefixes, Affixes, Nouns, Adjectives, Plurals, Adverbs, Verbs and Participles. Extremely handy for reference by students. Price, 4d per doz.

MAP OF BUTE

PREFACE TO 1908-9 EDITION.

WE have again diligently and carefully collected and arranged useful information regarding Buteshire as it is to-day, and once more have much pleasure in giving it the honours of the Press.

The previous four sections of the Directory are continued, and to facilitate the search for information the different portions are again printed on distinctively coloured papers—a feature of acknowledged benefit for expeditious reference.

Our Advertising friends appreciate the distribution of their announcements facing the text of the book, and we hope, with continued prompt receipt of orders, to be enabled to make this decided benefit permanent.

Our desire is to overlook no one, and with that view we respectfully solicit notices of alterations or additions as early as possible, so that they may be given effect to.

This Directory is a more important publication than many imagine. It is not only at hand for reference at all times throughout the county, but also in the libraries of Glasgow, Edinburgh, London, Dublin, Cambridge, Oxford, &c.; and in numerous business houses and agencies in busy centres throughout the kingdom, so we are particularly anxious that nothing of benefit to Buteshire be omitted, but that every interest has a good show, and everything be brought thoroughly up to date.

Our best thanks are again accorded to those who have in any way helped us in this compilation. It takes long and careful vigilance to ascertain and give effect to the continual changes, and prompt information and orders are, consequently, particularly acceptable and valuable.

COUNTY OF BUTE.

THE COUNTY OF BUTE comprises the seven islands in the Firth of Clyde, viz.: —BUTE, the most populous; ARRAN, the largest; the GREAT and LITTLE CUMBRAES, off the Ayrshire Coast; HOLY ISLE and PLADDA, off Arran; and INCH-MARNOCK, off Bute.

The total AREA OF THE COUNTY (land and water, exclusive of tidal water) is 139,658 acres, of which 53,510 are mountain and heath lands used for grazing. 3,806 acres are under plantations, and 794 are covered with water. There are 25,981 acres under all kinds of crops, bare fallow and grass, which is a gradual inroad on the mountain heath and hitherto uncultivated land.

The principal INDUSTRIES are agriculture, horticulture, and fishing. The islands possess great and varied natural attractions, and are in the forefront as holiday resorts.

The POPULATION of the COUNTY (including its Burghs of ROTHESAY and MILLPORT) in 1801 was 11,791; 1831, 14,151; 1861, 16,331; 1881, 17,657. In 1891 it was 18,248 (8,057 males and 10,197 females); and in 1901, 18,786 (8,412 males and 10,374 females)—being an increase of 255 in the ten years—2.1 per cent. There were 4,270 inhabited houses in the islands.

The 1901 Census showed that in Buteshire there were 86 persons to the square mile, 7.4 acres to each person, and 204 yards approximate or distance in linear yards between person and person. The proportion of females to every 100 males is 123.32; the number of families is 4,422; inhabited houses, 4,263; rooms, 19,433; 4.25 persons to each family; 1.04 families to each house; 4.41 persons to each house; 4.56 rooms to each house; 4.40 rooms to each family; 1.97 persons to each room, and 20 persons speak Gaelic only.

Farms in Buteshire.—A Government return showing the number of occupiers of farms (whether owners or tenants) in each county and parish in Scotland, with the gross rental according to the Valuation Roll, for the year ending Whitsunday, 1906, has been prepared at the instance of the Secretary for Scotland. It is explained that in this return the following are included:—1, Occupiers of lands used for any farming purposes, whether with or without a house. 2, Occupiers of glebes used for any farming purpose. 3, Occupiers of all lands used for dairy farming. The following are excluded, viz.:—1, Occupiers of lands used only for market or nursery gardens. 2, Parks occupied by butchers and others for merely temporary grazing, and not for farming. Any occupier of more than one farm situated in the same parish is returned only once, and as occupier of land of the aggregate value of the total rental of such farms. Where there are joint occupants of one and the same farm they are returned as one occupier.

The Italian Warehouse.

Is there any lady in Rothesay who is other than glad when the hour arrives for the Afternoon Cup of Tea? We should be disposed to think that there is not. And after all there is nothing to be surprised at in the fact that this popular refreshment is so eagerly looked forward to, and so heartily welcomed when it does at last arrive. It is rest, refreshment, and re-cuperation at once, both of body and mind, and as a social function it is unequalled in popularity.

We would like the ladies of Rothesay to give our famous 1/6 Tea a trial. We are convinced that one such experiment would result in their using it regularly for the future.

Parish of North Bute.

THIS is the northern portion of the island of Bute. Port-Bannatyne, its principal village, is two and a-half miles from Rothesay, with which it is connected by tramway. Kames Castle, in the vicinity, is said to be the oldest inhabited castle in the country, and was the ancient seat of the Bannatynes. The village was named after that family—two brothers of whom (John and Gilbert)—received a charter from King Robert the Bruce, for services rendered at Bannockburn. At the last census, there were 367 inhabited houses (1627 windowed rooms) and 192 uninhabited in the parish, and 373 separate families—793 males and 940 females—giving a total of 1733. The Port-Bannatyne ward (from Pointhouse to the other end of the village and back to Gortans and Bannatyne Mains) contained 473 males and 627 females—1100 in all; the North Bute ward, 125 males and 140 females; and the Cummernenoeh ward, 195 males and 173 females. The total ten years ago was 1583, which shows an increase of 150 on the decimal period. Parliamentary constituency, 1906-7, 393

HIGGIE & CO'S, PUBLICATIONS.

A FEW OPINIONS OF THE PRESS ON RECENT ISSUES.

"Esperantists, as true pioneers of a natural international language, cannot expect to be content with guide-books written in the clumsy, unscientific language of the country. Accordingly, for their use and that of their disciples, the Introduction to the A B C Guide to the Health, Profit and Pleasure of Bonnie Scotland, published by Messrs Higgie & Co., Rothesay, has been turned into the Esperanto tongue, and issued under the name of Kondukanto al Belega Skotlando, while Skotlanda Pejzaĝo is a collection of views, characteristic of Scottish scenery."—"Scotsman," 15th June, 1908.

"Messrs HIGGIE & Co, Rothesay, are an enterprising firm. Under the double title of 'Scottish Scenery' and 'Skotlanda Pejzaĝo' they have published a booklet of admirably reproduced scenes in Scotland, with the descriptive letterpress in English and Esperanto, while in the new language they have also published a neat little penny guide to 'Belega Skotlando,' which, being interpreted, means 'Bonnie, Bonnie Skotland.' It was a happy idea. The same firm have also sent out another issue of their well-known book entitled 'A B C Introduction to the Health, Pleasure and Profit Resorts of Bonnie Scotland,' which contains a vast amount of information in small bulk, along with racy chapters, which bear evidence of having been written by a fervid Scot."—"Evening Times," Glasgow, 16th June, 1908.

"Those whose perigrinations are to be confined to Scotland will find ample matter for cogitation in the crisp notes and comments on Bonnie Scotland's Resorts, in the little volume of that title published by Messrs Higgie & Co., Rothesay (2d, 6d and 1s). Skotlanda Pejzaĝo (6d), a book of very fine Scottish Views, published by the same firm, with notes in Esperanto and English, is an interesting novelty in the way of guide-book literature."—"Glasgow Herald," 18th June, 1908.

The Isle of Arran.

THIS island, the largest in the group, is famous for the grandeur of its scenery and the variety of its geological deposits. The island is twenty miles in length, twelve in breadth, and is divided into two parishes—Kilbride on the east, and Kilmory on the west. The King and Queen spent a very pleasant holiday in the island after their Coronation in August, 1902, and witnessed interesting sheep dog trials is the only Publication of the kind printed and published in Buteshire. Its data is carefully compiled, and much time and attention is devoted each year to the careful investigation and noting the necessary alterations in the personnel of the occupants of public offices, the correct addresses of the general inhabitants, and the latest changes amongst those engaged in trade.

The Bute County Directory

The earliest publications connected with Rothesay were Directories, and they are interesting reading even at this time of day.

Our publication not only includes Rothesay, but embraces the whole County of Bute, and though it has increased in usefulness and circulation, its price and advertisement tariff have remained the same.

This DIRECTORY now-a-days contains the information distinctive of both the DIRECTORY and the ALMANAC of past years, and the date of its issue is gradually becoming midway between the original dates of issue of these two publications. We begin our researches early enough, but the airy Summer publications must hustle out while the sun shines. The DIRECTORY, although very useful to the fluctuating visiting population, is not necessarily a fine-weather publication, but a hardy permanent resident.

Our aim, in this publication, is not to record the passing names and achievements of visitors and those who come to cater for them, but something of far greater importance—the recording of the names, standing and businesses of the the resident population, for the information of all having an interest in Buteshire, its burghs and rural districts.

Although the pages containing the official information are annually increasing, we do not strive to give the names of all the householders—some do not wish it, and there is an increasing number of unoccupied houses during winter. The burgh police “had their eye on” over 750 such last winter.

The Directory is, of course, not only for the remaining portion of the year in which it is issued, but continues the only printed reference book for the county of Bute until its successor appears.

One edition of the Directory is no sooner off than we begin to note alterations (and prepare for probable additions) for the next—so as to be unmistakeably up to date.

We are far from being able to publish everything that we desire, and we throw out the hint that the outlying districts of the county would be benefited if their capacities were made known through the Bute County Directory.

This Directory is not only found all over Buteshire, but in the libraries and other places of public resort in, “the adjacent islands of Great Britain and Ireland.”

HIGGIE & CO.

FORWARD ESPERANTO!

We have a feeling that our popular Publications,
BONNIE SCOTLAND,
(BELEGA SKOTLANDO),

The first guide-book in the world printed in Esperanto;

SCOTTISH SCENERY

(SKOTLANDA PEJZA ĜO),

and the one now in the Press,

THE SCOT ABROAD

(LA SKOTO ALLANDE),

will, perhaps, give the impression that we are narrow-minded and egotistical. That is not so. These are only starting-points, and our wide sympathies and increasing knowledge of the world induces us to go forward, and when we get our plans matured, expect to issue a much more pretentious and universally-appreciated publication, to be entitled, the

Courtship of the Nations,

(La Enamiĝo de la Nacioj),

and, like the International Publications of the future, will be printed in the neutral language, Esperanto.

HIGGIE & COY., Publishers,
Rothsay, Scotland.

An International Delegation appointed at the Paris Exhibition in 1900 (where the want of a mutually-understood language was very much felt), consulted eminent men and institutions throughout the world for seven years, when it was rumoured that they had recommended adoption of Esperanto—with some suggested alterations. Now, this neutral language has already established itself in the hearts of people in all countries, and has been, is now, and ever shall be used as a valuable and eminently satisfactory means of communication between all of them and those who take the time to learn, but there is to be no change introduced from the outside. At the Esperanto Congresses is the only time and place where such can be considered, and all "samideanoj" (fellow workers) see that no alteration would be worth the trouble, and, besides, a re-arrangement would lead to confusion, if not a break-up, like Volapuk.

We hear that this delegation's solution of the international language problem is to be an experiment with the manufacture of another language (!)—an entirely new one of their own making. That step is, in the opposite direction to that taken by Esperantists. Those working for the good of humanity set aside their private schemes and joined with others going in the same direction. Dr Zamenhoff gave the cause a present of his system. Mark the success of united effort among all peoples, and kindreds and tongues already!

There are hundreds (will soon be many thousands) of groups of Esperantists between Japan and Chili, and from Norway to New Zealand (all inclusive), and communication between them is clear and fraternal. In all the countries named, and in hundreds within the four corners of the world—if not also in the Pacific islands also,—numerous regular publications (special and ordinary), which print articles in Esperanto as well as the languages of the respective districts. Local guide-books with the descriptive matter printed in Esperanto as well as the vernacular, are now issued by up-to-date communities and business concerns.

International Publications.

(The Courtship of the Nations.)

International Publication par excellence. The articles are being written (in the neutral international language, Esperanto), by persons representing the different countries throughout the world. Each article will be characteristic of the land in which it is written, and as each place can be written about from several coigns of vantage, there is a likelihood of this publication appearing periodically with fresh articles—all tending to show that, notwithstanding diverse circumstances even in individual states, all are members of one great family, and there is genuine pleasure in better acquaintance.

LA SKOTO ALILANDE.

(The Scot Abroad.)

It is said that "a Scot is never at Home until he is Abroad," and this brochure (in the International Language), gives glimpses of the North Briton's perigrinations all over the world, and fraternizations with the inhabitants of other lands at their homes. This booklet, though written before the foregoing, is to succeed (at least the first edition)^s it in receiving the honours of the press. 1d.

KONDUKANTO AL BELEGA SKOTLANDO.

(Introduction to Bonnie, Bonnie Scotland.)

This booklet has the honour of being the first guide-book printed in Esperanto, and is a translation of the introductory pages to "Bonnie Scotland's Resorts." Published at 1d, it has a wide circulation, and is cordially welcomed by Esperantists everywhere.

SCOTTISH SCENERY — SKOTLANDA PEJZAĜO.

A handsomely-printed booklet of over 30 pages of photographs of views representative of Scottish scenery, with the descriptive letterpress printed in Esperanto as well as in English. This publication is much admired, and the dual language descriptive of places has since been adopted in this and other lands.

BONNIE SCOTLAND'S RESORTS.!

A "winsome little volume" of 128 pages of concisely-printed, succinct and interesting descriptions (in English), of between 400 and 500 Health, Profit and Pleasure Resorts, besides attractive introductory and appended pages. The idea of publishing this book was conceived while travelling abroad, and it has become the parent of the above-named international editions. Appreciated wherever seen. Prices, 2d, 6d, and 1s according to binding.

SWEET ROTHESAY BAY.

Seen from the Chapelhill.

Specially Attractive to Visitors.

The first-printed guide-book in the International Language Esperanto [now having secured a footing and established local publications in the new tongue all over the civilised world] was a brochure entitled "Belega Skotlando," being a translation of the introductory pages of that "Dainty (Literary) Dish" Messrs Higgle & Co.'s "Bonnie Scotland's Resorts."

Sweet Rothesay Bay was visited by the British and Foreign Esperantists after the Cambridge Congress. The well-known song was sung by the motley crowd on the Chapelhill, where the beautiful scene was enjoyed. The view here re-produced, with the following translation of the best-known verse, was presented to each person, and keeps in remembrance a pleasant holiday.

It's a bonnie bay at morning,
And bonnier at the noon,
But it's bonniest when the sun draps,
And red comes up the moon :

When the mist creeps o'er the Cumbræes,
And Arran peaks are gray, [kings,
And the great black-hills like sleeping
Sit grand round Rothesay Bay.

KARA GULFETO DE ROTSEO.

Estas bela golfo matene,
Pli bela sunaltiĝe,
Sed plej bela kiam falis sun'
Kaj ruĝas lun' leviĝe ;

Kiam nub' ekkovras Kumbre'n,
Kaj Aran mallumiĝas,
Kaj ĉirkaŭ la golfo de Rotse,
Reĝe montar' sidiĝas.
