Fit the Foot

WHAT is the great idea about
BOOTS, that they should
FIT THE FOOT . . . . .

. Our Boots are cut on strict Anatomical lines, and there are very few feet we cannot fit exactly and comfortably, without sacrificing anything to the outline beauty of the Boot . . . . .
. We should like you to call and see. .

SIR WALTER FOSTER has applied to Japan a description which will last—"The Jack the Giant-Killer among nations."

ONE test for distinguishing diamonds from glass and paste is to touch them with the tongue. The diamond feels much the colder.

THE study of history cultivates imagination; and imagination is our special need in view of the monotony of modern work.

AMONG many Indian tribes it is in the highest degree improper for a mother-in-law to speak to her daughter's husband.

HATS were first made by a Swiss. They were introduced in Paris in 1404, and in England in 1510. Silk hats were introduced in 1820.

WE are much inclined to boast of our civilisation, forgetting that 2,000 years ago there were other countries as civilised as we are to-day.

IN the beginning of 1872 there was not a single mile of railroad track in the entire Empire of Japan. To-day there are nearly 6,000 miles of track.

NEXT to grape wine, it is believed that Japanese saki, or rice wine, is the oldest alcoholic beverage known to man, its use in Japan dating back over 2,000 years.

THE creation of the British Museum was rendered possible by the will of Sir Hans Sloane, who died in 1753, leaving the treasures of his museum to be disposed of for the sum of £20,000.

The following words have no perfect rhyme in the English language:—Silver, shadow, planet, filibert, squirrel, beetle, statue, trellis, month, forest, angel, poet, window, budget, open, almond, bayonet; blossom, something, and nothing.

"Many a True Word is spoken in Jest."

"Laugh and grow fat."

Mary: "Do you think it would be conceited for me to tell my friends that I made this dress myself?" Edith: "Not conceited, my dear—superfluous."

Doctor: "There is one thing more. Your wife must not speak another word to-day. Tell her that." Patient Husband: "W-would you mind telling her yourself?"

Miss Thirtyodd: "I want to give my fiancé a surprise on his birthday. Can't you suggest something?" Miss De Flypp: "Well, you might tell him your age."

Young Wife (worn out by attending crying baby): "Dear, dear! I do wish people had their second childhood first; then they'd be old enough to know better than to cry so."

Mistress: "Now, remember, Bridget, the Joneses are coming to dinner to-night."

Cook: "Leave it to me, mum. I'll do me worst! They'll never trouble yez again!"

"MARRIAGE," remarked the moraliser, "is a lottery," "Yes," rejoined the demoraliser, "but it's one of the games of chance, that clergymen do not try to discourage."

"It's a big advantage not to know French." "How?" "Why, it saves you wasting a lot of time trying to make yourself understood by these people in their own language."

"Why is it," they asked, "that you let your husband have his own way in everything?" "Because," she replied, "I like to have someone to blame when things go wrong."

She: "Cousin Harold thinks of having his poems published shortly in book form." He: "Well, that's the best way of putting them where they won't bother anybody."

First Youngster: "It's very kind of you to invite me to tea." Second Youngster: "Not at all. You see, my sister's baking her first cake to-day, and she must try it on someone."

Mrs. Wickwire: "The idea! Here is a story in the paper about a woman suing for £1,000 for the loss of only a thumb." Mr. Wickwire: "Perhaps it was the thumb she kept her husband under."

She: "Before we were married you used to bring me chocolates every time you came." He: "Yes, my dear, and it cost a good deal less than the meat and potatoes I bring you now."

"PROMISE me that you will be true to me while I am away," said the youth to the object of his affections. She: "I promise, but don't make me break my word by staying away three or four days."

Professor: "Which is the most delicate of the senses?" Pupil:

"The touch."

"Prove it." "When you sit on a pin, you can't see it, you can't hear it, you can't taste it, but it's there."

Young Widow:

"Yes, I lost my husband and my spaniel the same day." Lady Friend: "How unfortunate!" Young

Widow: "Yes! Such a nice dog."

Mrs. Brown: "Jane, has Mr. Brown come home yet? I thought I heard him just now."

Jane: "No, mum. That was the dog that was growling."

Wise Father (to married son): "You are living very nicely, I see; but are you saving any money?" Wise Son (whispering): "Yes, but don't tell my wife."

The Author (after the first performance):

"Well, what do you think of my play?"

Feminine Friend:

"It was just splendid. Who designed the lovely dresses?"

Preacher: "Have you seriously considered the great question of life, Mary?" Girl Parishioner: "None of the young men has asked me as yet, sir."

First Belle: "Then both Mr. Smith and Mr. Jones had made her an offer of marriage; which was the lucky man?" Second ditto: "Mr. Smith. Mr. Jones married her."

Mrs. Newlywed: "John, I've lost our marriage certificate." Mr. Newlywed: "Never mind. Any one of these receipted millinery bills will prove the ceremony."

"THERE are two kinds of girls a fellow should never flirt with." "Yes?" "Girls who are so young they don't know any better, and girls who are so old they mean business."

ETON COLLEGE.

ETON COLLEGE.

ETON College, one of the chief public schools of England, was founded by Henry VI. in 1440, and dedicated to the Blessed Virgin. Parts of the College date from the years immediately following the foundation, but additions are constantly being made, according to the requirements of modern education. The playing fields of Eton are famous, and its cricketers often win renown afterwards at Oxford and Cambridge, while the facilities for boating on the Thames make the Etonian oarsmen invaluable recruits for University eights.

LEGAL TACT.

It is not necessary that a lawyer should be eloquent to win verdicts, but he must have the tact which turns an apparent defeat to his own advantage. One of the most successful of verdict winners was Sir James Scarlett. His skill in turning a failure into a success was wonderful. In a breach of promise case the defendant, Scarlett's client, was alleged to have been cajoled into an engagement by the plaintiff's mother. She was a witness on behalf of her daughter, and completely baffled Scarlett, who cross-examined her. But in his argument he exhibited his tact by this happy stroke of advocacy: "You saw, gentlemen of the jury, that I was but a child in her hands. What must my client have been?"

THE KING OF THE BEAN.

TWELFTH night, being the wind-up of the Christmas festivities, was observed with great ceremony by our ancestors. It was the custom to bake a cake on this day having a bean concealed in it. The cake was cut up into slices and distributed among the guests, and the one whose portion contained the bean was hailed as King of the Bean. He was invested with a tinsel crown and presided over the revels of the evening.

"HOW DO YOU DO?"

"How do you do?" That's English and American.

"How do you carry yourself?" That's French.

"How do you stand?" That's Italian.

"How do you find yourself?" That's German.

"How do you fare?" That's Dutch.

"How can you?" That's Swedish.

"How do you perspire?" That's Egyptian.

"How is your stomach? Have you eaten your rice?" That's Chinese.

"How do you have yourself?" That's Polish.

"How do you live on?" That's Russian.

"May thy shadow never be less?" That's Persian.

And all mean much the same thing.

ST. VALENTINES DAY.

AIM AT HIGH THINGS.

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

Sow beans and peas in the beginning and end of the month; a few early cabbages, red cabbages and savoy in the last week. Sow also early bean, carrot, Dutch turnip, onions for a full crop in light soils with a few leeks. Sow small salads every fortnight. Plant Jerusalem artichokes, horse-radish and early potatoes. Strawberries may be planted about the end of the month. Prune apricots, peaches and nectarines.

EARTHQUAKE IN JAMAICA.

THE KINGSTON EARTHQUAKE.

On January 16, 1907, the prosperous town of Kingston, Jamaica, was visited by a terrible earthquake, which resulted in great loss of life and property, and rendered some ten thousand people homeless. The coloured population suffered most, the whites being more prompt at turning out at the first tremor. Help soon poured in from the United States, and also from Great Britain, the Lord Mayor's Mansion House Fund alone bringing in some thousands of pounds. Amongst those who perished was Sir James Fergusson, whose whole life had been devoted to the service of his country, in the Army, Parliament, and the Colonies.

WHY NOT ADOPT THE MINISTRY ?

AN American writer tells of a coloured man in Alabama, who, one hot day in July, while he was at work in a field, suddenly stopped, and with face upwards to the skies, cried: "O Lord, de cotton am so grassy, de work am so hard, and de sun am so hot, dat I b'lieve dis darkey am called to preach."

A CANVASSER AT THE DOOR.

"I TELL you," said the canvasser, "you have no idea of the hard work there is in this business. It is either talking or walking from morning till night."

"Beg pardon," replied the victim. "I have a pretty distinct idea of the talking part of your programme. Now please favour me with an exhibition of the walking part."

A 'CUTE YANKEE.

THE American in the corner of the non-smoking first-class carriage insisted on lighting his cigar.

The indignant Britisher in the other corner protested, and protested in vain.

At the next station he hailed the guard, with hostile intent; but the placid American was too quick for him. "Guard" he drawled, "I think that you'll find that this gentleman is travelling with a third-class ticket on him."

Investigation proved him to be right, and the indignant Britisher was ejected.

A spectator of the little scene asked the triumphant American how he knew about that ticket.

"Waal," explained the imperturbable stranger, "it was sticking out of his pocket, and I saw it was the same colour as mine."

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.

THE glory of St. Valentine's Day has departed, and lovers no longer send dainty presents to their sweethearts on this date.

St. Valentine's Day began somewhere about the opening of the third century. It is a quaint combination of religion and sentiment; it represents the dual worship of a great man of the church and Cupid.

Until about the middle of Queen Victoria's reign the festival was held in great repute, but it faded and dwindled in an unsentimental age. The joining of hearts was associated in the past with the pairing of birds:—

Muse, bid the morn awake,
And winter now declines;
Each bird doth choose a mate;
This day's St. Valentine's.

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

Sow main crops of peas, beans, cabbages, onions, leeks, carrots, parsnips, Brussels sprouts, broccoli, lettuces, and spinach. In the last fortnight sow asparagus, cauliflower, sea-kale, celery, etc. Small salads should be sown every ten days. Plant early potatoes in the first week and a main crop during the last fortnight. Propagate by slips the various pot-herbs, as mint, sage, etc.

OPENING OF THE CENTRAL CRIMINAL COURTS BY THE KING.

THE NEW "OLD BAILEY."

THAT famous landmark of historic interest, Newgate Prison, with the adjacent Central Criminal Court, has now disappeared, and in place of the gloomy walls which faced Newgate Street and Old Bailey a dignified handsome building has been erected, the figure of Justice which surmounts the dome being a prominent object for some distance around. The New Sessions House was opened by His Majesty the King on February 28, 1907, when our popular Sovereign, in a few graceful words, paid a handsome tribute to the independence and integrity of our judges and the legal profession, the proceedings terminating by the honour of knighthood being conferred on Mr. Bosanquet, K.C., the Common Serjeant, and Mr. Charles Mathews, Senior Counsel for the Treasury.

INSIDE A CHILD'S MIND.

SYSTEMATIC study of the contents of children's minds sometimes reveals an amount of ignorance one would hardly expect.

An educational examiner tells that in Boston primary schools, tactful and experienced questioners were convinced that fourteen per cent. of these six-year-old children had never seen the stars, and had no idea about them; that thirty-five per cent. had never been into the country; that twenty per cent. did not know that milk came from cows; fifty-five per cent. did not know that wooden things came from trees; that fourteen per cent. did not know the colours green, blue, and yellow by name; that forty-seven per cent. had never seen a pig; and sixty per cent. had never seen a robin.

TOSSING THE PANCAKE.

THE ancient ceremony of tossing the pancake is observed every Shrove Tuesday at Westminster School. About twelve o'clock the headmaster takes up his position at the end of the hall, with the invited guests, and boys from each of the fourteen forms of the school. At a given signal the doors are thrown open, and the cook with his attendants advances to the middle of the hall, when, swinging the frying pan thrice round, he flings the pancake over an iron bar which ties the timbers of the roof, right on to the heads of the expectant youngsters, who scramble for its possession. The youth who secures the largest piece of it at once rushes off to the deanery to claim from the Dean of Westminster the time-honoured reward of a guinea.

TRUE SUCCESS.

A MAN'S fortunes are the fruit of his character.—Emerson.

The only sure path to a tranquil life is through virtue.—Juvenal.

Choose what is best: habit will soon render it agreeable and easy.

It is not joy or repose which is the aim of life. It is work or there is no aim at all.

DISASTER TO THE G.E.R. STEAMER "BERLIN."

THE "BERLIN" DISASTER.

EARLY in the morning of February 20, 1907, the steamer "Berlin" was driven ashore by a storm at the entrance to the Hook of Holland. She broke in two soon after she struck the breakwater, and the fore part sank at once, but the stern portion kept up, supported by the jetty which runs some distance out to sea. In spite of heroic efforts, it was not until 48 hours had passed that any of those on board were rescued. Fourteen persons in all were saved out of a total of 143.

MAY DAY REVELS.

MANY were the sports and games in which the lads and lasses revelled during the days of good Queen Bess, especially when May-time crowned the year, and there were many shouts and horn-blowings and the twining of garlands. The may-pole, covered with flowers and gay ribbons, was raised on high with joyous shouts and glad songs, and then the youths and maidens, seizing the ends of the ribbons, danced gaily around it, intertwining the ribbons as they danced.

STREWING FLOWERS BEFORE THE BRIDE.

*Forth the lovely bride ye bring;
Gayest flowers before her fling,
From your high-piled baskets spread,
Maidens of the fairy tread!*

Strew about! strew about!

*Bright jonquil, in golden pride,
Fair carnations, freaked and dyed,
Strew about! strew about!*

*Dark-eyed pinks, with fringes light,
Rich geraniums, clustering bright,
Strew about! strew about!*

MISS MITFORD.

AN OLD COMPLAINT.

A SUBSCRIBER to a provincial weekly sent this query recently:

"What ails my hens? Every morning I find one or more of them keeled over to rise no more."

The astute editor's reply was: "The fowls are dead—it is an old complaint, and nothing can be done except to bury them."

AN EXCITING GAME.

ATTENTION has been paid within the last few years to what is known as bumble peg tennis, a game which can be played in a very circumscribed area. It is a very simple game, and yet it affords any amount of physical exertion, and between two skilful players is productive of a great amount of excitement.

It consists simply of an upright pole, from which is suspended a tennis-ball, attached to a string. The two players face each other with ordinary rackets, but each player must remain within his own ground. The leading player strikes off, the art being to coil the string round and round until the ball is brought up taut to the pole.

The object of the opposing player is to drive the ball in the opposite direction. Whoever succeeds in first wrapping the line completely round the pole, scores.

A SUBMARINE MINE.

THE Levant Mine, situated near the Land's End, Cornwall, goes down vertically for 2,100 feet, and is worked laterally under the bed of the Atlantic, considerably over a mile from the foot of the cliffs. The mine gives employment to 515 men and 175 boys, and practically runs the village of St. Just.

JUNE 1908.

VIRTUE IS THE ONLY TRUE NOBILITY.

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

Sow peas and beans for late crops. Sow salading every ten days, also carrots and onions for drawing young. In the beginning of the month sow endive for an early crop. Pull and store winter onions if ripe. Train and prune the summer shoots of all descriptions of wall and trellis trees. Net over cherry trees to protect the fruit from birds. Destroy insects. Take up bulbs and tuberous roots and dry in the shade.

DESTRUCTION OF THE FRENCH BATTLESHIP "IÉNA."

ENGLISH ARCHERS.

THE English excelled in the art of archery from early times, and the victories of Crecy, Poitiers, and Agincourt were in great part due to the valiant English bowmen. The introduction of fire-arms naturally caused the decay of the art of archery, and after its abandonment as a military art it took its place as a recreation. In this capacity it enjoyed a long popularity, and is still in high favour with a number of devotees.

WHAT LAUGHTER DOES.

"LAUGH and grow fat,' is an old saying, and there is more than a little truth in it," asserts a doctor.

The convulsive movements which we call laughter exert a very real effect upon the bodily framework. They cause the arteries to dilate, so that they carry more blood to the tissues of the body, and the heart to beat more rapidly, so that the flow of the blood through the vessels is hastened. In other words, laughter promotes the very best conditions for an increase of the vital processes; the tissues take up more nutritive material and the waste products are more promptly removed.

A good laugh sends an increased flow of blood to the brain; this immediately causes that instrument of thought to work better, with the result that gloomy forebodings are sent packing.

Where every flower uncloses
To meet the kiss of noon.*

THE "IÉNA" EXPLOSION.

SELDOM is an explosion on a battleship so destructive as that which occurred on the French man-o'-war, the Iéna, on March 12, 1907. The ship was being overhauled in dry dock prior to putting to sea next day, when an explosion occurred in one of the magazines, quickly followed by others, and the vessel caught fire. The absence of water greatly hindered the work of arresting the flames, and it was not till the dock-gates had been opened by shell-fire from the Patrie that sufficient water could be obtained to check the fire. It was then found that 114 persons had been killed, including the Captain and the Chief of Staff of the Mediterranean squadron, whilst Admiral Mancera was severely wounded.

DOCTOR AND PATIENT.

THE DOCTOR (to a patient who has been using quack med cin's): "Oh you've been treating yourself, have you? Don't you know the old saying, 'He who treats himself has a fool for his doctor'?"

The Patient: "Oh, lor' now, doctor, I wouldn't go so far as to call you that!"

NOT AS RICH AS THEY SAY.

"MA," said an intelligent boy of nine, "I don't think Solomon was so rich as they say he was."

"Why, my dear, what could have put that into your head?" asked the astonished mother.

"Because the Bible says he slept with his fathers, and I think if he had been so rich he would have had a bed of h's own."

THE COLONIAL CONFERENCE, 1907.

THE COLONIAL CONFERENCE, 1907.

THE opening meeting of the Colonial Conference of 1907 took place on April 15, at the Colonial Office, London. The following Colonial Premiers were present:—Sir Wilfrid Laurier (Canada), Mr. Deakin (Australia), Sir J. G. Ward (New Zealand), Dr. Jameson (Cape Colony), Mr. F. R. Moor (Natal), and General Botha (Transvaal). Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman welcomed the Premiers in the name of the Government, and Lord Elgin, who presided, read a message of welcome from the King.

THE MORRIS DANCE.

THE Morris Dance was a rustic dance of Moorish origin which became associated with the Robin Hood legend, and was frequently performed round the maypole. An old writer thus speaks of it:—"A company of morris-dancers approach; first comes a man dressed in a green tunic, with a bow, arrows, and bugle-horn. It is our old friend Robin Hood, and by his side, attended by her maids, walks Maid Marian. Will Stukeley, Little John, and other companions of the famous outlaw follow; and then comes the hobby-horse which careers about, prances, and curvets, now rushing among the crowd, and now kicking and rearing frantically at the sight of a formidable looking dragon, which hisses and flaps his wings. Then a circle is made round the maypole in which they perform their merry diversions."

SOME ENDINGS OF LETTERS.

THERE is a large choice for endings of letters, ranging from the official "Your obedient servant" to the friendly "Yours truly," "Yours sincerely," and "Yours affectionately."

James Howell, the historian (1720), used a quaint variety, such as "Yours inviolably," "Yours verily," "Yours really," "Yours in no vulgar way of friendship," "Yours, yours, yours!"

Walpole wrote "Yours very much," and to Hannah More, in 1789, "Yours more and more."

John Bright ended a controversial letter in the following biting terms:—"I am, sir, with whatever respect is due to you."

The habit of the old Board of Commissioners of the Royal Navy to subscribe their letters to officers, "Your affectionate friends," was discontinued when a distinguished captain replied to them in similar terms. He was desired to discontinue the expression, and in consequence he ended his next communication, "I am, gentlemen, no longer your affectionate friend."

THE FREAKS OF FORTUNE.

*Man is supreme lord and master
Of his own ruin and disaster;
Controls his fate, but nothing less,
In ord'ring his own happiness:
For all his care and providence
Is too, too feeble a defence
To render it secure and certain
Against the injuries of fortune;
And oft', in spite of all his wit,
Is lost with one unlucky hit,
And ruin'd with a circumstance,
And mere punctilio, of chance. BUTLER.*

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

Sow winter and spring spinach in the beginning and about the end of the month; parsley and winter onions, for a full crop, in the first week, small salads occasionally. Plant and earth up celery and endive. A few coleworts may still be planted. Net, in dry weather, gooseberry and currant bushes to preserve the fruit till late in the autumn. Use means to preserve the ripening fruit from insects.

DURHAM CASTLE.

DURHAM CASTLE.

THE most striking features of the ancient city of Durham are its cathedral and its castle. The cathedral is on a kind of peninsula running east and west, and almost surrounded by the Wear. The castle—now the University—was founded in 1072 by William I. A college was founded in 1290, but this fell into abeyance, until the Dean and Chapter applied for a charter, which was granted in 1837 for the University already founded in 1832.

HARVEST HOME.

HAPPY is the farmer who sees all his crops safely gathered in before the stormy weather of late autumn begins. It was a good old custom, which has not yet entirely died out, to celebrate the occasion with much feasting and merrymaking. The last wagon to leave the field was gaily decked with flowers, and was escorted home by the reapers with great rejoicing. The ancient custom of giving thanks in church for a bountiful harvest has been revived, and harvest thanksgiving services are now held all over the country.

Mrs. Heman's lines are well known:

*The valleys echo to the strains
Of blooming maids and village swains;
To Him they turn the lay sincere,
Whose bounty crowns the smiling year.
The sounds from every woodland borne,
The sighing wind that bend the corn,
The yellow fields around proclaim
His mighty, everlasting Name.*

A SURE SIGN OF A VISITOR.

IN West Cornwall a tea-leaf floating in the cup is by some people even now-a-days considered "a sure sign of a visitor." If two or more leaves float then there will be two or more visitors. If the leaf is hard, the visitor will be a gentleman; if soft, a lady. The leaf on being taken from the cup is placed on the back of the left hand and struck with the lower side of the right fist, the striker repeating at each stroke the words Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, etc. The day the name of which is repeated when first the leaf adheres to the right hand is that on which the visitor may be expected.

A CHOICE OF EVILS.

As a sweep was crossing a field one day he was chased by a savage bull. He immediately climbed up a tree. The bull kept him prisoner for some time, but at length wandered a little distance off, and espying another person coming he gave chase, and ran him up the same tree.

The second person did not climb up very high, and the sweep thinking the bull (who was bellowing and pawing on the ground) might reach him, said, "You had better come up a bit higher."

Upon looking up, the second person was horrified to see up amongst the branches the sweep's black face and white eyeballs.

With a scream of terror he rushed down the tree saying, "I would rather face the bull than the devil!"

GARDENING

FOR THE MONTH.

Sow a few small salads for late crops; lettuce and spinach, if not done last month, for spring crops. Plant endive and lettuce. If broccoli be too strong or tall to withstand the winter, lift them and lay them nearly up to the neck in the earth. Lift onions and lay them out on a dry border or gravel walk. Lift potatoes and store them. Finish the summer pruning and training of fruit trees. Plant evergreens.

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH

Sow small salads and radishes in the first week; mazagan beans and early frame peas in the last week, in the hope of a mild winter. Store potatoes, beet, carrots, parsnips, etc., by the end of the month. This is the best season for transplanting fruit trees. Store and lay up very carefully during the month all sorts of apples and pears, the longest keeping sorts not before the end of the month, if mild weather.

KING ALFONSO PRESENTING THE SPANISH HEIR.

HALLOWE'EN.

HALLOWE'EN, or All Hallows' Eve, is still much observed as a festival in Scotland. Burns' poem on the subject gives a very full list of the superstitions, spells, charms, and customs attached to the day. Witches and warlocks are supposed to walk abroad on this night, and many are the signs and omens wherewith young people try to find out what their future lot in life will be. Many a true word is spoken in jest amid the merry raillery of Hallowe'en ceremonies. Joke about witches, if you will, but Cupid often uses them as blinds from which to shoot his darts.

COUNTRY FAIRS.

FAIRS were originally religious festivals, then they gradually became markets, associated with feasting and holiday-making. Many of these fairs have lingered on, the ghosts of their former greatness; the trade of the country has drifted into other channels; but shorn of their former dignity the fairs remain, wherein shows and roundabouts have superseded the minstrels and morris-dancers, and only the traders are absent.

THE UNITED KINGDOM REPRESENTED.

SMITH: "Good morning, Jones. I hear you have a son and heir."

Jones: "Yes; our household now represents the United Kingdom."

Smith: "How's that?"

Jones: "Why, you see, I am English, my wife's Irish, the nurse is Scotch, and the baby wails."

THE SPANISH CROWN PRINCE.

ALL loyal Spaniards rejoiced when, on May 10, 1907, a Prince was born to the young King and Queen whose miraculous escape from a cruel death on their wedding day had aroused the sympathy of the whole civilised world. The Chapel Royal was thrown open to the Household several hours before the happy event, prayers being said continually by the Chaplains. The chief Ministers of the Crown and other important officials assembled in an ante-room to the Queen's chamber, and shortly after the birth the King entered, bearing the infant on a silver salver. The Minister of Justice drew up a deed of birth, and the title of Prince of the Asturias was given to the royal child.

A MARVEL OF MARVELS.

THE results of scientific research have shown us again and again that we live in a world of wonders, and perhaps the most wonderful thing we have yet ascertained is the prodigious speed with which light passes through space, for it has been conclusively shown that light passes through hundreds of thousands of miles almost before one can wink twice.

FOR THE MONTH

Protect endive, celery, artichoke, and scakale with stable-litter or ferns; mulch asparagus with hot-bed manure. Plant all sorts of fruit trees in fine weather, the earlier in the month the better. Commence and carry on the various operations of pruning and nailing when the weather permits. Plant dried tubers of border flowers, but the finer sorts had better be delayed till spring. Protect half-hardy plants.

THE FRENCH WINE GROWERS' REVOLT.

HAWKING.

HAWKING was a favourite sport of our ancestors before the invention of firearms. It was greatly indulged in by the Normans, and began to decline in the time of Elizabeth. Hawks or falcons were trained for the purpose, and were hoodwinked before being brought into the field; they were then unhooded and let loose on the prey. There are numerous species of hawks, and the name is usually applied to almost all the members of the falcon family.

READING ALOUD.

So wholesome is the practice of reading aloud that medical authorities agree in pronouncing it a healthy and invigorating exercise for the mind and the body. The late Sir Henry Holland says in his "Medical Notes" that persons who have a tendency to pulmonary disease should methodically practise "those actions of the body through which the chest is in part filled or emptied of air."

He advises that those whose chests are weak should read aloud at stated intervals, and even recite or sing, using due caution as to posture, articulation, and the avoidance of excess.

"These regular exercises of the voice," he adds, "may be rendered as salutary to the organs of respiration as they are agreeable in their influence on the ordinary voice."

A LUCKY FIND.

AN old painting, representing the Apostles, met the eye of a connoisseur in a shop in Belgium, and he bought it for £2. It proved to be a genuine Albert Durer, worth £40,000, stolen from the Royal Gallery at Munich.

THE WINE GROWERS' REVOLT.

AN extraordinary revolt broke out in June, 1907, among the vineyard proprietors of the French provinces of the Herault, the Aude, and the Eastern Pyrenées. To inability to find an adequate market for their wine and inability to face competition was added increased taxation. The people protested, organised demonstrations, and then, by way of forcing the Government to find a remedy, refused to pay taxes and stopped the work of local government. Riots ensued, the military were called out, and it was some weeks before the district was pacified.

IT DOES NOT FOLLOW—

It does not follow that a man is a clock-maker because he is always winding up his affairs.

Nor that a preacher is a teetotalter because his sermons are so dry.

Nor that a man makes nails because he is an old screw.

Nor that a man has taken to drink because he makes his living at the Bar.

Nor that a gardener is a man of culture because he is a man of agriculture.

Nor that the miner makes the best soldier because he is accustomed to drilling.

Nor that a girl would lead our forces to victory because she is a good general.

Nor that a man is superstitious because he is a firm believer in spirits.

Nor that a woman is a clever artist because she knows how to paint.

Nor that a perfumer is a particularly clever person because he is a man of scents.

GARDENING FOR THE MONTH.

Very few operations can as a rule be carried on this month, with the exception of trenching and digging in dry weather, operations which should by all means be attended to. Prune all sorts of fruit trees in mild weather. Mulch over the roots of tender trees, such as apricot and peach. Proceed with pruning and nailing wall-trees. Examine the fruit in the storeroom every week carefully.

MARKET SQUARE AND JAIL, BUCKINGHAM.

AN OLD COUNTY TOWN.

BUCKINGHAM is a town of great antiquity. It was fortified by Edward the Elder in 918, and was captured by the Danes in 1010. It is mentioned in Domesday, and in the reign of Henry VIII. it became a Parliamentary borough. It sent two members to Parliament till 1868, when its representation was reduced to one member, and since 1885 it sends none.

The river Ouse almost surrounds the town, and is crossed by three bridges. The town gave the title of Earl to William Gifford in William I.'s reign, and also to a son of Edward III., as well as to Marquises and Dukes of Buckingham of later dates.

THE CHRISTMAS TREE.

THE Yule log and the Christmas tree were two essential features of this season. Formerly the log was drawn home with great ceremony, but modern fireplaces are not constructed to hold the logs of ancient times, and so the custom has fallen into disuse.

For the Christmas tree, a short sturdy fir is the best; and it is not difficult to procure at this season. Too costly gifts should be avoided, and the articles should all be of about equal value, in order to prevent jealousy among the young folks, who have as much human nature about them as their elders. It is not always easy to fix the tiny candles on the boughs. A good plan is to push large strong pins through the twigs, with the points uppermost, and fix the tapers on these.

HOW CHILDREN ARE SOMETIMES CARRIED.

THE French carry their children on pillows.

The native women of Australia wear large bustles, upon which their children sit astride. A rope is tied under the arms of both mother and child to hold the latter secure.

In Papakai, New Zealand, the women fasten the children to their backs; whilst in Tarawepa, New Zealand, the children are carried on the shoulder or hip in such a manner as to leave the mother's arms entirely free.

In some parts of Sweden the women sling their children in dainty hammocks across their backs; whilst the New Guinea mother suspends the child in a netted bag in front of her.

But the Bedouins, curiously enough, prefer to have the weight swinging from their heads in bags which hang down their backs.

The Chinese baby lies with its face flat against the mother's back, which position, it is believed, accounts for the broad flat nostrils so common among the Mongols.

WHAT IS "SHODDY"?

THE popular interpretation of "shoddy" has come to be something that is base and dishonest. It has however been pointed out with truth, that shoddy is a perfectly respectable article.

It is old wool redressed by scientific and clean methods. It is a component of most of the woollen garments of to-day.

Registration and Compensation.

By the prepayment of a fee of twopence any postal packet (parcels included) may be registered to any place in the United Kingdom. Every packet to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it. The Postmaster-General will give compensation to a maximum limit of £400 for the loss and damage of Inland Registered Postal Packets of all kinds. The ordinary fee of 2d. secures £5; the payment of 3d. £20; 4d. £40; 5d. £60; 6d. £80; 7d. £100; 8d. £120; 9d. £140; 10d. £160; and so on. For the additional charges up to 15s. 10d., which secures £400, see the Postal Guide.

Post Office Savings Banks.

No deposit of less than a shilling is received, nor any penny, and not more than £50 in any year. No further deposit is allowed when the amount standing in depositor's name amounts to £200 inclusive of interest. Interest is allowed at the rate of 2½ per cent. (or sixpence in the pound) per annum—that is, at the rate of one halfpenny per pound per month.

Any sum not exceeding £1 can be withdrawn without notice at any Post Office transacting Savings Bank business.

At every Post Office in the United Kingdom forms for making small deposits are issued gratuitously. Each form has twelve divisions, in each of which a penny postage stamp can be placed; when the twelve are filled in, it is received at any Post Office Savings Bank as a shilling.

Any person can invest, at any Post Office Savings Bank, small sums in Government Stock. Not more than £200 can be invested in any one year. The amount held by the investor must not exceed £500.

REGISTERS OF BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, AND DEATHS.

Copies of these are kept at Somerset House, and may be searched on payment of a fee of one shilling. If a certified copy of any entry be required the charge for that, in addition to the shilling for the search, is two shillings and sevenpence, which includes a penny for stamp duty. The registers contain an entry of births, deaths, and marriages since 1st July, 1837. Copies can always be obtained from the Registrar for the district, or the Superintendent Registrar who has the custody of the registers (including those of persons married at the churches) when filled.

MARRIAGES.

In the case of marriage by banns, if the contracting parties reside in different parishes the publication must be made in the churches of each parish for three consecutive Sundays. If three months be permitted to elapse after the third time of publication, the banns become useless, and the parties must either obtain a licence or submit to the republication of the banns. Civil marriages can be performed before a duly licensed Registrar.

SCENES IN THE LIFE OF OUR LORD

Depicted in 24 Original Coloured Drawings by HAROLD COPPING (mounted on stout artistic paper).

DESCRIBED BY

THE LORD BISHOP OF DURHAM.

JOHN OXENHAM says:—'Mr. Copping has done what I have never found before—depicted Christ in a way that not only does not repel, but actually satisfies one.'

The Morning Post says:—'It is difficult to say whether the drawings or Dr. Moule's simple but always eloquent talks about them are the most impressive. The artist's characterisation is surprisingly forcible, his grouping is picturesque, and his colouring is brilliant, but never glaring nor unharmonious. Some of his pictures are to be prized indeed.'

The Daily News says:—'With a reverent imagination and artistic skill Mr. Copping has depicted twenty-four scenes in the life of Christ in such a manner as to leave the impression that just so must these events have happened. He has studied carefully the whole of the Bible text dealing with the incidents portrayed, and has pieced them together on the spot.'

ST. JUDE'S

By IAN MACLAREN.

Author of 'Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush,' etc., with Ten Full-page Illustrations by HAROLD COPPING.

IAN MACLAREN is seen in this book in the very maturity of his powers.

The old tenderness is here, the deep pathos, the playful sarcasm, the manly striving after high ideals, the many-sided knowledge of human life. It will find an echo in many a home.

RALPH CONNOR, Author of

'The Sky Pilot,' etc., says:—

'I turn the pages, and, reading, I find myself renewing my emotions of twelve years ago. . . . I discover new friends among Carmichael's flock, the old Inquisitor, Simeon MacQuittrick, of the delicious seven, the inimitable, majestic Mrs. Grimond; the soft-hearted Angus Sutherland; Murchieson, with his heart of limestone and lava.

THE WHITE PLUMES OF NAVARRE.

A ROMANCE OF THE WARS OF RELIGION.

By S. R. CROCKETT, Author of 'The Lilac Sunbonnet,' 'The Raiders,' etc. Illustrated. Cloth gilt, 6s.

The Scotsman says:—'It is one of the most powerful and engrossing stories that have come from Mr. Crockett's prolific pen.'

The Guardian says:—'It is a story full of adventure and sentiment.'

The Athenæum says:—'The characterisation is in Mr. Crockett's best form.'

The Daily Telegraph says:—'It is a lively, stirring story.'

The Birmingham Post says:—'It never loses its grip of the reader.'

The Tribune says:—'It is a straightforward tale of love and adventure.'

CASELL'S MAGAZINE.

The new volume of "Casell's Magazine" opens brilliantly with the CHRISTMAS DOUBLE NUMBER (price 1s.), which consists of 160 pages, containing stories by Horace A. Vachell, J. J. Bell, Mrs. C. N. Williamson, Robert Barr, Pett Ridge, and a number of other popular writers. A fine Photogravure of the beautiful picture, entitled "Wooing," forms the frontispiece, and Four Humorous Coloured Plates by G. L. STAMPA and many other illustrations appear in the number.

A series of very thrilling stories, entitled "Professor Van Dusen's Problems," which are the best mystery stories since those of "Sherlock Holmes," begins in the December Number and will continue in the new volume.

The aim of "Casell's Magazine" in 1908 will be to present each month an issue full of complete stories and interesting articles by the best writers. The note of the articles will be to deal with rising men and women in all ranks of life, and with the practical side of things, appealing especially to young people. The drama, music, art, commerce, and athletics will be dealt with by experts.

"Casell's Magazine" in 1908 will be the brightest magazine of the day. It will be beautifully illustrated throughout by the best work of leading artists and with reproductions of special photographs.
