ESTABLISHED IN 1831 FOR MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE.

President.

HIS GRACE THE DUKE OF BUCCLEUCH AND QUEENSBERRY, K.T.

Vice-President.

SIR GRAHAM GRAHAM MONTGOMERY OF STANHOPE, BART.

THE SOCIETY has now been in existence for 63 years, and is steadily growing in popular favour, as is shown by the figures in the following table:—

Year.	Number of Policies in Force.	Existing Assurances.	Income.	Total Funds.
1879	13,314	£8,412,367	£317,147	£2,402,544

At the Fifteenth Division of Profits, made as at 1st March 1893, a Compound Bonus was declared at the increased rate of 30s per cent. per annum on the original sums assured, and on the previous bonns additions.

THE PREMIUMS are calculated by half-years of age.

NEW PLAN OF IMMEDIATE BONUS POLICIES.

Special attention is directed to this New Scheme, the rates under which are less than the usual Non-Profit rates. The yearly premium payable at age 30 for an Ordinary With-Profit Policy for £1,000 will assure £1,300 under this new plan, thus securing an Immediate Bonns of £300.

ANNUAL PREMIUMS to assure £100, subject to further reduction, as mentioned in Special Prospectus, if the Society's rate of Bonns exceeds 25s per cent.:—

AGE NEXT BIRTHDAY.

£1 12s. £1 18s 8d. £2 12s 2d. £3 15s 10d. The sums assured under these Policies being absolutely guaranteed, they are particularly suitable for Marriage Settlements, &c., when it is desired to obtain the largest possible Assurance for the smallest present outlay.

ENDOWMENT ASSURANCE POLICIES issued on unusually favourable terms.

THE GUARANTEED MINIMUM SURRENDER VALUE IS ENDORSED

ON EACH POLICY ISSUED.

Complete and liberal Non-Forfeiture Regulations.—The Society has adopted the principle of Non-Forfeiture to its fullest extent; and there is now no possibility of a valuable policy being forfeited through an accidental omission to pay the premium.

CLAIMS are payable immediately after proof of death and title.

Loans granted in connection with Life Assurance on Life Interests, Reversions, and other approved security. Reversions purchased.

further progressive addition of £1 per Cent. per Annum.

DUNDEE DIRECTORY,

GENERAL NOTICE.

FROM year to year we have had occasion to refer to the progressive state of our city—the overflowing of old landmarks, its extension in each direction, its increasing social amenities, and its growth under circumstances which, from a commercial standpoint, might have been calculated to have had a retarding effect. Dull, fluctuating trade, and all that appertains thereto, has been flaunted before us for years, and yet the city, from an outward standpoint, looks as prosperous to-day, if not more so, than it did while in the zenith of its early success. We have become accustomed to the cry that our mercantile prestige is virtually in a state of collapse, that its commercial energies are hollow and unreal, and that in a comparatively short time it will succumb to young communities and vigorous competition abroad. has been pointed out over and over again that owing to untoward influences little else than absolute decay awaits our good old town; that the mercantile fabric, which has been so substantially built up, will crumble to pieces, and that, unless the unexpected happens, something like defeat and ruin stares us in the face. With this outcry we unhesitatingly state we have no sympathy. We have not lost hope that Dundee will surmount the difficulties that have so long threatened its integrity and resources. It is not to be denied that the outlook is unsatisfactory; that has been the case for years; but that the end will result in a general upheaval we beg to express our doubts. We have not lost faith in the enterprise, the energy, and, above all, the skill and experience of our merchants and traders. We believe, on the contrary, in their recuperative powers, and that in the long-run they will be able to hold their own against all outside competitors.

The people of Dundee have been justly proud of their city—not so much on account of its historic associations, and these are many, as upon the fact that it is the pivot round which the jute industry has centred. Probably it is herein the main source of weakness lies. We are too much bound up in the production of a specific material. We have no variety. Other cities have in their midst numerous industries, each of which contribute a quota of stability. Efforts, it is true, have been made to introduce into Dundee other mercantile features, but any action in this respect has been so limited that their influence in relieving the staple trade has scarcely if ever been felt. Nevertheless, these steps have been in the right direction, and it is to be hoped that other efforts on a larger scale will be attended with deserved success. There is another element that will materially assist Dundee in the future. In India at present there is no limitation to the hours of labour in jute factories. Public opinion on this matter is spreading, and legislative measures based on the lines of our own Factory Acts will be sure to be introduced with a view to the regulation of the working hours in that country. Were that done, Dundee will have little cause for fear; and, with the introduction of textile schools and the spread of technical education our operatives will be able to become as skilful and as dexterous as those in other jute working communities, be they on the Continent of Europe or in India.

As an offset against the cry of fluctuating and decaying markets, over-competition, rash speculation, and in one or two instances distinct failure, Dundee from other standpoints is forging ahead. As in former years, new buildings are being erected, and, to make way for an ever-increasing population, streets, in most instances wide and spacious, are being opened up in all parts of the suburbs. It is to be noted that architects and others interested in the housing of the people are realizing every day the importance of introducing such improvements into dwellings as will increase the comfort and protect the inmates, as far as possible, from many disorders that arise from ill-constructed and badly ventilated houses. Some of the finest tenements now being built are excellent specimens of domestic architecture. The internal arrangements are commensurate with the outward adornments of style-compact, commodious, and fitted up with a certain degree of elegance. Other buildings of a lower grade, whilst they do not possess the same ornate features, are likewise undergoing great changes in the same direction. In many respects they are vastly superior to those erected some years ago. The demand for the foregoing classes of houses has been exceptional, and, as a consequence, localities such as various parts of Maryfield, west corner of Windsor Street, Bellefield Avenue, and Magdalen Green, have afforded excellent sites for this distinct kind of property. In Lochee, a noted suburb of the city, the number of new buildings erected has been abnormal; but, as there are perhaps more of the old-fashioned unhealthy houses in that locality than in any other part of Dundee, these and such like improvements should receive every encouragement.

The public buildings mentioned in our last issue as being under construction in some instances are nearly completed. The Smallpox Hospital is finished, and the branch Public Baths and Reading Rooms at Lochee are expected to be opened about September. At the East and West Poorhouses considerable additions have been made for administrative purposes, and the church in Ward Road, which is being built for Long Wynd Baptist Congregation, will be opened in a short time. Baxter Park Free Church was ready early in the year. Of other less notable public buildings dealt with during the year, it may be pointed out that in addition to the finishing of Tay Street and Hawkhill Public Schools, other wings have been added to Mitchell Street and Liff Road Schools. The extension of the Royal Hotel, which includes what was known as Thistle Hall, is now completed. This building has been vastly improved, and forms one of the most attractive edifices in the centre of the city. During the year the Barrack or Dudhope Park has undergone extensive The roadway from Garland Place to Gardner's Lane has been opened for foot passengers and light traffic, and the sloping banks fronting Lochee Road have been planted with trees and The plateau or square in front of the Castle has been levelled up, and will be used for a variety of public uses. On the west side the old dilapidated offices have been cleared away, and the ground has been laid out for recreation purposes. An open-air Gymnasium, the first of its kind in is to be erected in a convenient situation in this section of the Park. This work will be gone on with immediately, so that advantage may be obtained from it during summer and autumn, The walls of the Park, with the exception of a portion fronting west wing of Royal Infirmary, have not been interfered with. By another year it is expected the whole of the walls-particularly that fronting Lochee Road—will be demolished, and afterwards rebuilt in the form of a low parapet surmounted with iron railing. The buildings in centre of Park have not as yet been utilized for any special purpose, but on 6th June, on the suggestion of Lord Provost Low, it was agreed by the Town Council to allocate the old Castle to the use of Manual Instruction, which will embrace training in woodwork and modelling in clay. It is expected that ere long the other buildings will be used for some equally useful purpose. The formal reopening of the Park will take place in the course of a few weeks. The Industrial School for Girls at Blackness Road, on the Balgay Estate, is now well advanced, and will be formally opened in a short time. The new Post Office, which is to be built at the junction of Constitution Road with Meadowside, has been in abeyance for a time, but it is understood that arrangements for its construction have been so far advanced that the preliminary stages of the work will soon be entered upon.

Apart from its material well-being, Dundee, during the past year, was brought into prominence by the visitation of notable people. On 25th October the Duchess of Albany, who was accompanied by the young Prince and Princess and suite, honoured us with their presence; and on 2nd November Sir George Trevelyan, a distinguished legislator and man of letters, was enrolled as a burgess, and had the freedom of the city conferred upon him. These distinguished personages were entertained to luncheon by Lord Provost Low in the Albert Galleries, in presence of a large gathering of the leading citizens.

Conspicuous among the many public ceremonials that have taken place during the year was that given to Lord Provost Low and his good lady. Since his elevation to the civic chair his lordship has discharged his duties in a way that has won for him the respect of the whole community. His object has been to advance the dignity and honour of the city, and his services were recognized by the citizens presenting his lordship and his lady with gifts of costly description. The presention ceremonial took place at a banquet given in the Albert Galleries on 20th December.

This part of Forfarshire was visited by an unprecedented snowstorm on 6th February. All traffic in town and country was much impeded, and snow lay to a depth of several feet on the roads and streets. The wind was the fiercest that had been experienced in the memory of the oldest inhabitant, and in the course of the day it assumed the form of a blizzard. Dundee for a time had the appearance of a city submerged in snow.

In May last a new form of legislation replaced the old method of Poor Law relief. In that month the local Parish Council, a popularly-elected body, met for the first time, ex-Bailie Macdonald being its first chairman. Complete lists of the Parish Councils in Dundee and in the suburban and rural districts around the city will be found in this issue of the Directory. Lists of the School Boards in the rural districts have also been added at the end of the Rural Directory.

Throughout the year many notable people—men who for long held distinguished places in our city, and who, in their day and generation, had helped to raise it to commercial distinction—have passed away. Amongst these might be mentioned Mr Joseph Grimond, Mr William Cox, Mr Joseph J. Barrie, Mr Peter Matthew, ex-Bailie Buchan, Miss Harris (the latter a most esteemed lady), Mr John Sharp, and Mr Edwin Weston Bell. Mr William Blair, a well-known town councillor, died on 27th April, and Bailie Foggie on 19th May.

Whilst Dundee has been quietly going forward, Carnoustie, Monifieth, Broughty Ferry, Newport, Wormit, Tayport, and Downfield have been outstripping her in the march of progress. Perhaps more than at any former period have our well-to-do citizens shown a desire to become permanent residenters in these places. Villas and cottages are being built on the most acceptable sites, and even large tenements are being substituted for the old-fashioned low-roofed cottage of a former day. In Monifieth steps are being taken to introduce a sewage scheme, and the amenities of the village are being well looked after. At Newport, in addition to the erection of many attractive villas, a Memorial Chapel is about to be erected by Sir John Leng, in memory of his wife, Lady Leng. The building is to be of the most artistic design, and the details are likely to be of a very elaborate description.

With the extension of the tramway lines to Fairmuir increased facilities have been given to townspeople to take up their residence at Downfield. The connection between that interesting suburb and the tramway system at Fairmuir has been maintained by means of the ordinary omnibus. An agitation, however, is going on amongst the inhabitants of Downfield for the construction of a tramway connection from Fairmuir to the centre of that village, and it is understood that satisfactory arrangements will be made between the Tramway Company and interested parties for the furtherance and promotion of that desirable improvement.

Every article presented for registration must be enclosed in a strong cover, securely fastened. It must be given to an Agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it. If, contrary to this rule, an article marked "Registered" be dropped into a letter-box, it will be liable to a registration fee of 8d (less any amount prepaid for registration).

Every article presented for registration should be marked "Registered," and with the amount of the fee proper to the value up to which the sender desires to secure compensation, thus—"Registered 2d," or "Registered 3d."

postage and registration fee.

The Postmaster-General will (subject to certain rules) give compensation for the loss and damage of Inland Registered Postal Packets of all kinds upon prepayment of a fee in addition to the postage. This fee either consists of, or includes in each case, the ordinary registration fee of 2d; and the scale of fees and the respective limits of compensation are as follows:—

Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction, except where the original and corrected addresses

Post Office Telegraphs.—Inland Telegrams.

The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 6d for the rst 12 words, and ½d for every additional word. Addresses are charged for. The telegram forms are of two kinds, the "A 1" form, embossed with a tamp, and the "A" form (given gratis), with no stamp. The "A1" forms any be purchased singly. They may also be had in books of 20, interleaved, nd with a sheet of carbonic paper, price 10s 2d each book.

When the terminal office, i.e., the office nearest to the address, is a Head ost Office, the amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery within ne mile or within the town postal delivery when that extends for more than mile. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free vithin one mile only.

When the addressee resides beyond the free delivery, porterage is charged at he rate of 6d per mile or part of a mile, provided the whole distance does not xceed three miles. If the addressee resides at a greater distance than three niles from the terminal office, porterage is charged, for delivery by mounted nessenger, at the rate of 1s per mile (except in Ireland, where the charge isually is only 8d per mile), the distance being reckoned from the office door.

Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person in the same free delivery are delivered at a charge of twopence per copy, in addition to a half-penny for each word in the address of the copy.

Persons not wishing to send to a Telegraph Office may post a telegram in an envelope addressed "Telegram, Immediate" (or not enclosed in an envelope), in a wall or pillar-box, or Sub-Post Office. Telegrams so posted are sent on by next collection to the Telegraph Office for transmission free of extra charge, provided that the proper amounts have been prepaid.

No combination of words is counted as one, with the exception of those which are ordinarily written as one, or coupled by hyphens, as "mother-in-law," "non-delivery," "almshouses," "forty-seven." Certain exceptional names, such as O'Neil, MacDonald, De la Rue, are charged for as single words. So, too, are names with the prefix "St," as St Pancras; but double names of persons, like Smith-Payne, are counted as two words.

Abbreviations of words, "can't," "won't, "don't," are counted as single words, but there is a great risk of error.

Figures are counted at the rate of five figures to a word. Fractions are counted according to the number of figures employed, one figure being added for the mark of division. In groups of figures a stop is counted as a figure. The symbols o/o, a/c, b/l, and c/o are each counted as one word. Ordinal numbers are charged in the same way as cardinal, with the addition of one word for the affix st, nd, rd, or th. Initial letters are each counted as one word, with the exception of the initials of the London Postal Districts, which are counted as one word for each group. Names of towns and villages in the United Kingdom are counted as one word each.

Anyone may have an abbreviated address, registered on payment of a guinea a year, but the registration of abbreviated addresses is not recommended.

The cost of a reply, not exceeding forty-eight words, may be prepaid, and a reply form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply, from any telegraph office, at any time within two months.

Telegrams can be repeated, if the sender desires it, by being signalled back from office to office. No copy is, in such case, given to the sender. charge for repetition is one-half the ordinary tariff. Telegrams containing mercantile quotations or figures, and telegrams written in cypher, or according to a preconcerted code, should always be repeated.

FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

Foreign telegrams are of two kinds, telegrams in plain language and telegrams in secret language. Those in plain language are composed of words, figures, and letters conveying an intelligible meaning. Those in secret language are divided into: (1) preconcerted language or code, (2) cypher.

Code telegrams are those composed of words, the context of which has no intelligible meaning. Proper names are not allowed in the text of code telegrams, except in their natural sense. Words of more than ten letters are not allowed. In Code telegrams only English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin, may be employed, but words of any or all of these languages will be allowed in the same telegram.

Cypher telegrams are those containing groups of figures having a secret meaning. Telegrams consisting of groups of letters are not accepted, but groups of letters denoting trade marks are allowed in the midst of plain or preconcerted language and are then charged for as figures.

The address of the sender is charged for, if transmitted; in any case it must be written at the foot of the form.

In ordinary European telegrams the length allowed for a word is 15 letters, in extra-European telegrams 10 letters; any additional letters being charged for at the rate of 15 or 10 letters respectively to the word.

Subject to the limit as to number of letters, ordinary compound words and names of persons and places, &c., written without break or interruption, are counted as single words. If joined by a hyphen, or separated by an apostrophe, they are counted as so many separate words.

Compound numbers written in words and without break are also counted as single words subject to the same limit as to the number of letters. The name of the office, county, province, and country of destination in the addresses of telegrams are each charged for as one word whatever their length.

Every separate letter or figure is charged for as one word, and in European telegrams every group of five figures or letters is counted as one word, larger groups being counted at the rate of five figures or letters to a word, plus one word for any excess. In extra-European telegrams groups are counted at the rate of three to a word, plus one word for any excess. Bars of division, decimal points, and stops used in the formation of numbers are counted as figures. Letters added to figures to form ordinal numbers are counted as figures.

If the sender desires to prepay a reply of 10 words he must insert before the address of the receiver "R P," which is charged for as one word; but if he desires a reply of more or less than 10 words, he must insert "R P——", which are charged for as two. A less sum than 10d cannot be accepted in prepayment of a reply. More than 30 words cannot be prepaid.

GUARANTEED INVESTMENT POLICY.

The difficulty experienced in obtaining an investment which will yield a satisfactory as well as a fixed rate of interest, and at the same time preserve the Capital intact, was never more marked than at the present time.

To meet this difficulty the MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK is prepared to pay in the case of healthy male lives interest at the rate of 3 or 3½ per cent. per annum for life on the Capital Invested, and also a sum at death exceeding the amount paid. The intending Assurer chooses the rate of interest he will take, and the following table will show the amount payable at his death per £1000 sterling paid to the Company :-

Age at Entry.	Option A. An Annual Income of £30 during life and a Payment at Death of	Option B. An Annual Income of £35 during life and a Payment at Death of
,25	£1614	£1310
35	1458	1231
45	1286	1127
55	1135	1031

EXAMPLE.—A man, age 25, pays £1000 to the Company. He will receive an annual income of £30 for life, and at his death his representatives will be paid £1614. If he prefers to have an annual income of £35, the amount payable at death will be £1310. Consequently the Capital invested will be increased by £614 or £310, according to the amount of the annual income.

Quotations will be furnished for other ages and amounts, and, if desired, for higher rates of interest.

A New Prospectus containing Special Investment, Guaranteed Bonus, and other Important Features, can be obtained on application to

Dundee Burial Society

Was established on the 20th March 1862, for the purpose of enabling working people, by means of small weekly payments, to insure sums at death (according to age) so as to provide decent burial. It is the only Society of its kind having its head office in the city. It is solely managed by working men in their spare hours. Once every year the qualified members are called together, and the whole of the Society's affairs reported on, and office-bearers elected from the members present at the meeting. Any qualified member can be proposed for any vacant office. Since the commencement of the Society the membership has gradually risen, until now there are over 13,000 members on the register, with over £10,000 invested funds, and that after paying back in hard cash bonuses amounting in the aggregate to £7,933 2s 0d. Surely facts like the above should make working people belonging to Dundee stop and think before joining other Societies whose head office is not in the city.

Anyone calling at the Office, 2 Bain Square, between the hours of 7 and 8 p.m., every lawful day (except Saturday), will be provided with copies of Rules, and will be given all information regarding the working of the Society; or they can apply to any of the collectors, whose names and addresses are given on the opposite page.
