The Local Directory.

(A Few Opinions of Previous Issue.)

"The Bute County Directory being now a long-established publication, it is well-known to those interested."--Rothesay Chronicle, July 30th, 1904.

"Indeed in this book is to be found all the information which the most inquiring person requires to know about the county. The matter is well arranged and there is a map. Such a book is a necessary part of the equipment of every office which does business with islands whose interests are so closely associated with those of Glasgow."--Evening Times, Glasgow, 3rd August.

"It is really a valuable little volume for the inhabitants of the County of Bute."--Largs and Millport Weekly News, 6th August.

"The Bute County Directory is thoroughly replete with Bute information and up-to-date."--Dunoon Observer, 6th August.

An Arran Postmaster writes:--"I am much obliged for your courtesy in sending me the Bute County Directory, and the Coast Guide, but do not think it reasonable that I should have all the benefit of the information you have compiled with so much care and expense, entirely free of charge, so I take the liberty of enclosing postal order for 1s 4d for cost and postage.

PREFACE TO 1905-6 EDITION.

WE have again much pleasure in producing another edition of this popular Buteshire reference book, thoroughly overhauled and brought up to date.

All the former sections are continued, and to locate them, and facilitate the search for information, the printing of each part on a different coloured paper is maintained.

Our desire is to overlook no one, and with that view we respectfully solicit notices of alterations, or possible omissions, so that such may be rectified.

This Directory is a more important work than many imagine. It is not only found at all times throughout the county, but also in the libraries of Glasgow, Edinburgh, London, Dublin, Cambridge Oxford, &c., and in numerous business houses and agencies in busy centres, so we are anxious that nothing of benefit to Buteshire may be omitted, and that everything be up-to-date.

Our best thanks are again given to those who have in any way helped this compilation for the public good. It takes a long and careful vigilance to secure and give effect to the continual changes, and prompt information and orders are, consequently, particularly acceptable and valuable.

[An extra List of Householders specially arranged in Streets is still held in abeyance.]

HIGGIE & CO., PUBLISHERS.

COUNTY OF BUTE.

The COUNTY OF BUTE comprises the seven islands in the Firth of Clyde, viz.:— BUTE, the most populous; ARRAN, the largest; the GREAT and LITTLE CUMBRAES, off Ayrshire Coast; HOLY ISLE and PLADDA, off Arran; and INCHMARNOCK, off Bute.

The total AREA OF THE COUNTY (land and water, exclusive of tidal water) is 139,658 acres, of which 53,510 are mountain and heath lands used for grazing. 3,806 acres are under plantations, and 794 are covered with water. There are 25,981 acres under all kinds of crops, bare fallow and grass, which is a gradual inroad on the mountain heath and hitherto uncultivated land.

The principal INDUSTRIES are agriculture, horticulture, and fishing. The islands possess great and varied natural attractions, and are in the forefront as holiday resorts.

The POPULATION of the COUNTY (including its Burghs of ROTHESAY and MILLPORT) in 1801 was 11,791; 1831, 14,151; 1861, 16,331; 1881, 17,657. In 1891 it was 18,248 (8,057 males and 10,197 females); and in 1901, 18,786 (8,412 males and 10,374 females)—being an increase of 255 in the ten years—2.1 per cent. There were 4,270 inhabited houses in the islands.

The recent Census showed that in Buteshire there were 86 persons to the square mile, 7.4 acres to each person, and 20.4 yards approximate or distance in linear yards between person and person. The proportion of females to every 100 males is 123.32; the number of families is 4,422; inhabited houses, 4,263; rooms, 19,433; 4.25 persons to each family; 1.04 families to each house; 4.41 persons to each house; 4.56 rooms to each house; 4.40 rooms to each family; 1.97 persons to each room, and 20 persons speak Gaelic only.

BERMALINE.

(With apologies to W. H. Longfellow.)

The century was dying fast
As through a northern city passed
A man, who bore as in a vice,
A brown loaf with a strange device,
Bermaline.

In many homes he saw the light
Of household fires gleam warm and bright,
Yet indigestion claimed its own
For there that bread was still unknown,
Bermaline.

"Try not this place," the bigot said,
"The people here but eat white bread,
And any other will be decried,"
But loudly that valiant voice replied,
"Bermaline."

"Stay," the dyspeptic cried, "and blest
Be he who can at all arrest
Dyspepsia, and make life a pleasure.
For that," he said, "this bread's a treasure,"
"Bermaline."

"Beware of imitations poor,
They follow, but can not endure,
The bread to make Dyspepsia flee,
And universally used shall be,
"Bermaline."

The Bute County Directory

is the only Publication of the kind printed and published in Buteshire. Its data is carefully compiled, and much time and attention is devoted each year to the careful investigation and noting the necessary alterations in the personnel of the occupants of public offices, the correct addresses of the general inhabitants, and the latest changes amongst those engaged in trade.

The earliest publications connected with Rothesay were Directories, and they are interesting reading even at this time of day.

Our publication not only includes Rothesay, but embraces the whole County of Bute, and though it has increased in usefulness and circulation, its price and advertisement tariff have remained the same.

Parish of North Bute.

This is the northern portion of the island of Bute. Port-Bannatyne, its principal village, is two and a-half miles from Rothesay, with which it is connected by tramway. Kames Castle, in the vicinity, is said to be the oldest inhabited castle in the country, and was the ancient seat of the Bannatyne. The village was named after that family—two brothers of whom (John and Gilbert)—received a charter from King Robert the Bruce, for services rendered at Bannockburn. At the last census, there were 367 inhabited houses (1627 windowed rooms) and 192 uninhabited in the parish, and 373 separate families—793 males and 940 females—giving a total of 1733. The Port-Bannatyne ward (from Pointhouse to the other end of the village and back to Gortans and Bannatyne Mains) contained 473 males and 627 females—1100 in all; the North Bute ward, 125 males and 140 females; and the Cumbermenoch ward, 195 males and 173 females. The total ten years ago was 1583, which shows an increase of 150 on the decennial period

ESPERANTO

The International Literary Platform.

THIS NEUTRAL LANGUAGE was evolved in Central Europe—where many people meet and interchange each other. To learn the language of every one's choice to do business or fraternize with is impossible, but to learn that universal tongue in addition to one's own, the confusion of Babel is at last overcome and the "world's coming" is hastened.

In London, the language difficulty is practically unknown, but in some of the world's important cities (where, of course, S. S. ships are to be found), between 20 and 30 different tongues are spoken. It would be a distraction to learn the lot, but however pleasant a prospect, or profitable the business which would accrue, life moves too quickly these days to admit of a complete analysis of the construction of the railway.

The expedition and ease with which Esperanto makes international communication possible is marvellous. There was an International congress as a limited study of year at Boulogne, but another, with representatives from all parts of the earth, is to be held at that environment port this season.

(* A successfully arranged key language, meaning "a hoping.")

Esperanto Literature and Instruction may be had from
