REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD.

VICTORIA CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette dated 19th April, 1915.)

War Office,
19th April, 1915.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the grant of the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer and Men for their conspicuous acts of bravery and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force:—

No. 15518 Private Edward Barber, 1st Battalion, Grenadier Guards.

For most conspicuous bravery on 12th March, 1915, at Neuve Chapelle. He ran speedily in front of the grenade company to which he belonged and threw bombs on the enemy with such effect that a very great number of them at once surrendered.

When the grenade party reached Private Barber they found him quite alone and unsupported with the enemy surrendering all about him.

No. 15624 Lance-Corporal Wilfred Dolby Fuller, 1st Battalion, Grenadier Guards.

For most conspicuous bravery at Neuve Chapelle on 12th March, 1915. Seeing a party of the enemy endeavouring to escape along a communication trench, he ran towards them and killed the leading man with a bomb: the remainder (nearly 50) finding no means of evading his bombs, surrendered to him.

Lance-Corporal Fuller was quite alone at the time.

Lieutenant Cyril Gordon Martin, D.S.O., 56th Field Company, Royal Engineers.

For most conspicuous bravery at Spanbroek Molen on 12th March, 1915, when in command of a grenade throwing party of six rank and file. Although wounded early in the action, he led his party into the enemy's trenches and held back their reinforcements for nearly 2½ hours, until the evacuation of the captured trench was ordered.

No. 7504 Private Henry May, 1st Battalion, The Cameronians (Scottish Rifles).

For most conspicuous bravery near La Boutillerie, on 22nd October, 1914, in voluntarily endeavouring to rescue, under very heavy fire, a wounded man, who was killed before he could save him, and subsequently, on the same day, in carrying a wounded Officer a distance of 300 yards into safety whilst exposed to very severe fire.

No. 7281 Private Ross Tollerton, 1st Battalion, The Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders.

For most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty on the 14th September, 1914, at the battle of the Alsne. He carried a wounded Officer under heavy fire, as far as he was able, into a place of greater safety; then, although himself wounded in the head and hand, he struggled back to the firing line, where he remained till his Battalion retired, when he returned to the wounded Officer and lay beside him for three days, until they were both rescued.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 28th April, 1915.)

War Office,
28th April, 1915.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the grant of the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Warrant Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer and Men, for their conspicuous acts of bravery and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force:—

No. 8665 Company Serjeant-Major Harry Daniels, 2nd Battalion, The Rifle Brigade (The Prince Consort's Own).

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—*contd.*VICTORIA CROSS—contd.

No. 3697 Acting Corporal Cecil Reznald Noble, late 2nd Battalion, The Rifle Brigade (The Prince Consort's Own).

For most conspicuous bravery on 12th March, 1915, at Neuve Chapelle. When their battalion was impeded in the advance to the attack by wire entanglements, and subjected to a very severe machine-gun fire, these two men voluntarily rushed in front and succeeded in cutting the wires.

They were both wounded at once, and Corporal Noble has since died of his wounds.

No. 6276 Private William Buckingham, 2nd Battalion, The Leicestershire Regiment.

For conspicuous acts of bravery and devotion to duty in rescuing and rendering aid to the wounded whilst exposed to heavy fire, especially at Neuve Chapelle, on 10th and 12th March, 1915.

No. 6016 Private Jacob Rivers, late 1st Battalion, The Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment.

For most conspicuous bravery at Neuve Chapelle on 12th March, 1915, when he, on his own initiative, crept to within a few yards of a very large number of the enemy who were massed on the flank of an advanced company of his battalion, and hurled bombs on them. His action caused the enemy to retire, and so relieved the situation.

Private Rivers performed a second act of great bravery on the same day, similar to the first-mentioned, again causing the enemy to retire. He was killed on this occasion.

No. 1685 Rifleman Gohar Sing Negi, 2nd Battalion, 39th Garhwal Rifles.

For most conspicuous bravery on 10th March, 1915, at Neuve Chapelle.

During our attack on the German position he was one of a bayonet party with bombs who entered their main trench, and was the first man to go round each traverse, driving back the enemy until they were eventually forced to surrender. He was killed during this engagement.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD.

ORDER OF THE BATH,

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 20th April, 1915.)

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

Lord Chamberlain's Office.
St. James's Palace, S.W.,
20th April, 1915.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the posthumous honour of a Knight Commander of the Military Division of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath being conferred on the late Colonel (temporary Brigadier-General) John Edmond Gough, V.C., C.B., C.M.G., A.D.C., who died on the 21st February, 1915 from wounds received in action;—in recognition of his most distinguished service in the field.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—contd.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER.

*(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 15th April, 1915.)*War Office,
15th April, 1915.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the appointment of the undermentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order, in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force:—

Major Henry William Newcome, 47th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

For the excellent work performed throughout the campaign, especially on the 10th and 11th March, 1915, during the action at Givenchy, when he directed the fire of his Battery from a ruined house with great skill whilst exposed to very heavy rifle fire.

The reports furnished by Major Newcome during the engagement were of the greatest value.

Major Andrew Hamilton Gault, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry.

For conspicuous gallantry at St. Eloi on 27th February, 1915, in reconnoitring quite close to the enemy's position and obtaining information of great value for our attack which was carried out next day.

On the 23rd February Major Gault assisted in the rescue of the wounded under most difficult circumstances whilst exposed to heavy fire.

Major Baptist Barton Crozier, 56th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

Rendered valuable service in observing our artillery fire during the actions of 10th and 11th March, 1915, at Givenchy, whilst exposed to the enemy's heavy rifle fire and our own shrapnel. Has been conspicuous for gallantry and coolness under fire throughout the campaign.

Major William Henry Donne, 2nd Battalion, The Bedfordshire Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry at Neuve Chapelle on 12th March, 1915, when he led a party of 20 men in a counter-attack under the most severe fire. All the 20 men were shot down, and he himself was seriously wounded.

Captain Wilfred Edward Nicol, 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards

For gallantry and ability at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March, 1915, when he was largely instrumental in the capture of the great number of prisoners by reason of his able handling of the hand grenade company.

Captain (temporary) William Arthur Cecil Sandere-Knox-Gore, 1st Battalion The King's Royal Rifle Corps.

For gallantry and conspicuous ability throughout the campaign. On the 27th February, 1915, he photographed the enemy's position at Givenchy and made an important reconnaissance—the enemy's emplacements being only 150 yards distant.

Captain Dick Macdonald Porteus, 1st Battalion, Princess Louise's (Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders).

For conspicuous gallantry on many occasions throughout the campaign. His very great daring and total disregard of danger on reconnaissance duty, especially at St. Eloi, on 19 February, 1915, were most noticeable.

Lieutenant Gerald Arthur Cammell, 44th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

For conspicuous gallantry at Neuve Chapelle on 10 Mar. 1915. When employed as observing Officer he saw that the 2nd line of the 1st Battalion, 39th Garhwal Rifles, had lost their British Officers and at once proceeded to lead the men. He went forward in the attack with 4 men under very heavy fire, but was wounded after going 20 yards—as were 3 of his 4 men.

Lieutenant (temporary) James Robertson Campbell Greenlees, M.B., 22nd Field Ambulance, Royal Army Medical Corps.

For his great gallantry and devotion to duty at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March, 1915, in attending on the wounded under very heavy fire.

Lieutenant Greenlees has been twice previously brought to notice for similar acts of gallantry.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—contd.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER—contd.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 28th April, 1915.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the appointment of the undermentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order, in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force:—

Captain John Henry Morria Arden, 1st Battalion, The Worcestershire Regiment (Reserve of Officers).

For conspicuous gallantry and ability at Neuve Chapelle on 12th March, 1915. When the Battalion on his right was driven from their trenches, he formed his Company under a heavy fire to a flank, counter-attacked the German right with great determination, and thereby enabled the Battalion to re-occupy their trenches.

Captain Reginald Bastard, 2nd Battalion, The Lincolnshire Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry at Neuve Chapelle on 10th March, 1915. In the attack on the German position he entered their trenches ahead of his Company, having had to force his way through the entanglements.

Major George Tupper Campbell Carter-Campbell, 2nd Battalion, The Cameronians (Scottish Rifles).

For conspicuous gallantry and ability at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 12th March, 1915.

He took over command of the Battalion on 10th March, and, although wounded, maintained with great determination the positions which had been gained.

He had only one surviving Officer to assist him.

Captain Henry Douglas Harlington, 2nd Battalion, The Prince of Wales's Own (West Yorkshire Regiment).

For the ability and gallantry displayed on 12th March, 1915, at Neuve Chapelle. After the enemy had gained temporary possession of a portion of our trenches he brought a flank fire to bear on them, which saved the situation.

Major Leopold Charles Louis Oldfield, 33rd Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

For conspicuous ability and gallantry at Neuve Chapelle on 10th March, 1915, in command of his Battery in action, and for successful service in cutting wire entanglements.

He took one of his guns to within 700 yards of the enemy, and so greatly facilitated the advance of our Infantry.

Major John Francis Sartorius Winnington, 1st Battalion, The Worcestershire Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability from 10th to 12th March, 1915, at Neuve Chapelle, when he commanded the two leading Companies in several attacks, and subsequently commanded the Battalion.

Showed great foresight in correctly anticipating the desires of the Brigade Commander in regard to the advance of other Troops, at a time when Orders could not be conveyed to them.

MILITARY CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 15th April, 1915.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Military Cross on the undermentioned Officers in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force :—

Lieutenant T. H. Beves, 2nd Battalion, The Border Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry and exceptionally good work performed at Neuve Chapelle on 11th March, 1915.
He led his men with great ability in the attack and was twice wounded.

Lieutenant W. G. Colquhoun, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry.

For conspicuous gallantry and resource on numerous occasions, especially at St. Eloi on 26th January, 1915, when he rescued, with the assistance of one man, a mortally wounded officer after three others had failed in the attempt, being under very heavy close-range fire the whole time.
Again on 27th February, 1915, at St. Eloi, this officer rendered valuable assistance on reconnaissance duty under very difficult and dangerous circumstances.

Lieutenant N. W. Curran, 5th (Princess Charlotte of Wales's) Dragoon Guards.

For gallantry and ability on the night of 25th-26th February, 1915, when he carried out an excellent reconnaissance of the enemy's position, and also undertook a difficult task of ascertaining what sapping operations the Germans were carrying out, with complete success.
Lieutenant Curran encountered much difficulty in this duty from barbed wire fences, and was fired at from point blank range.

Lieutenant G. D. G. Elton, 2nd Battalion Princess Victoria's (Royal Irish Fusiliers).

For conspicuous gallantry at St. Eloi from 14th to 16th March, 1915, when he obtained valuable and very essential information relative to the enemy's position on four occasions, whilst exposed to heavy close-range rifle fire.

Second Lieutenant A. H. Hales, 1st Battalion, The Duke of Edinburgh's (Wiltshire Regiment.)

For conspicuous gallantry at Spanbroek Molen on 12th March, 1915, in leading the attack after being twice wounded, and subsequently for placing other wounded men under cover.

Lieutenant R. O. Hargreaves, 4th Battalion, The Rifle Brigade (The Prince Consort's Own).

For conspicuous gallantry at St. Eloi on 15th March, 1915, when he captured two of the enemy's barricades.
Has been noted for his enterprise in bombing the German saps and trenches, performing this dangerous work on several occasions when quite alone.

Second Lieutenant E. G. W. W. Harrison, 7th Mountain Battery, Royal Garrison Artillery.

For gallantry and initiative at Givenchy, on 10th March, 1915, when he rushed up his gun under heavy shell fire and close-range rifle fire, and destroyed a hostile machine gun.

Second Lieutenant W. S. Morrison, Royal Field Artillery (Special Reserve).

For conspicuous gallantry at Neuve Chapelle, from 10th to 14th March, 1915, when he accompanied the Infantry in the attack, and kept up communication with his Battery, although his wires were often cut.
He was wounded and knocked down twice by shells bursting near him, but continued performing his duties.

Lieutenant T. M. Papineau, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry.

For conspicuous gallantry at St. Eloi, on 28th February, 1915, when in charge of bomb throwers during our attack on the enemy's trenches.
He shot two of the enemy himself, and then ran along the German sap throwing bombs therein.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—*contd.*MILITARY CROSS—contd.

Lieutenant J. G. Prietly, M.B., Royal Army Medical Corps.

For gallantry and devotion to duty at Neuve Chapelle, on 13th March, 1915, when he continued attending on the wounded with great gallantry, although himself badly wounded.

Second Lieutenant R. H. Sclater, 1st Battalion, The King's Royal Rifle Corps.

For conspicuous gallantry at Givency, on 10th March, 1915, when he brought away the guns safely from near the enemy's wire entanglements after five of his men had been shot. He went out a second time under fire to bring in a gun which had been left in the open.

Snbadar Parbat Chand, 59th Scinde Rifles (Frontier Force).

For conspicuous gallantry and exceptionally good service at Neuve Chapelle, on 12th March, 1915, when he commanded his Corps for five hours with marked ability after the European Officers had fallen.

Subsequently this Officer took command of the Machine Gun Section after the British Officer had been killed.

* * * * *

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 28th April, 1915.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Military Cross on the undermentioned Officers, and Warrant Officer, in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force:—

Lieutenant E. B. Conybeare, 1st Battalion The Worcestershire Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability, from 10th to 14th March, 1915, at Neuve Chapelle.

He handled his trench mortars with dash and ability on 10th March, and did not retire until two of his guns had been damaged by shell fire and his powder exhausted; he then rejoined his battalion with the gun teams, and subsequently led forward his platoon very ably.

Lieutenant G. S. Dobbie, 1st Battalion the Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment

For conspicuous gallantry and resource at Neuve Chapelle.

Taking advantage of the confusion caused in the enemy's ranks from our bombs, he collected a few men and charged a greatly superior force, driving the enemy back to their trenches.

Lieutenant H. G. Gilchrist, Royal Engineers, Territorial Force, attached 8th Signal Company Royal Engineers.

For conspicuous gallantry in repairing telephone lines under heavy fire, from 10th to 14th March, 1915, at Neuve Chapelle.

Lieutenant A. J. Gordon, 2nd Battalion Princess Charlotte of Wales's (Royal Berkshire Regiment).

For conspicuous gallantry and ability on 10th March, 1915, at Neuve Chapelle. He commanded a machine gun section, blocking parties, and bomb-throwers, in a very able manner until he was severely wounded.

Lieutenant A. C. Hincks, 26th Field Ambulance, Royal Army Medical Corps, Territorial Force (2nd Wessex).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Neuve Chapelle, from 11th to 14th March, 1915, in collecting the wounded whilst under heavy fire.

On the night of 13th/14th March, whilst he was attending on a wounded man, a shell struck the ambulance wagon, killing the man and rendering Lieutenant Hincks unconscious. On recovering he at once proceeded to collect the wounded under fire, and continued doing so throughout the night.

Second Lieutenant F. R. F. Lankester, 1st Battery Royal Field Artillery.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability from 10th to 13th March, 1915, as forward observation Officer in the firing line, when he worked night and day to keep his telephone line open.

He repeatedly mended his broken wires under very heavy fire, and rendered great assistance to the artillery in conveying information, carrying back the messages himself when no other means of communication were available.

Second Lieutenant A. R. F. Lucas, "O" Battery, Royal Horse Artillery.

For the excellent work performed from 10th to 12 March, 1915, as forward observing Officer during the attack on Neuve Chapelle, when his information was always timely and accurate.

On the 12th March he continued to furnish valuable information, although his station was subject to heavy shell fire.

Lieutenant W. F. Somervall, 3rd Battalion, The Cameronians (Scottish Rifles), attached 2nd Battalion.

For conspicuous gallantry, marked ability and presence of mind at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March, 1915, when he ably seconded his Commanding Officer and performed excellent work on his own initiative.

On the evening of the 12th March he collected the men of his battalion and conducted them over unknown ground to a position for attack with very good judgment.

He brought his battalion out of action after the engagement on 14th March.

4978 Serjeant-Major J. Chalmers, 2nd Battalion, The Cameronians (Scottish Rifles).

For conspicuous gallantry and ability from 12th to 14th March, 1915, at Neuve Chapelle, in organizing carrying parties for ammunition, bombs, etc.

When Lieutenant Somervall was the only Officer left, this Warrant Officer rendered valuable assistance to him in the firing line, and also when taking the battalion out of action on 14th March.
