REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD.

VICTORIA CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette dated 30th December, 1916.)

War Office,

30th December, 1916.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Victoria Cross on the under mentioned Officers:—

Capt. William Anderson Bloomfield, Scouts Corps, S. African Mtd. Brig.

For most conspicuous bravery. Finding that, after being heavily attacked in an advanced and isolated position, the enemy were working round his flanks, Captain Bloomfield evacuated his wounded, and subsequently withdrew his command to a new position, he himself being amongst the last to retire.

On arrival at the new position he found that one of the wounded—No. 2475 (Corpl. D. M. P. Bowker—had been left behind. Owing to very heavy fire he experienced difficulties in having the wounded Corporal brought in.

Rescue meant passing over some 400 yards of open ground, swept by heavy fire, in full view of the enemy.

This task Capt. Bloomfield determined to face himself, and, unmindful of personal danger, he succeeded in reaching Corpl. Bowker and carrying him back, subjected throughout the double journey to heavy machine-gun and rifle fire.

This act showed the highest degree of valour and endurance.

Temp. Lt. Eugene Paul Bennett, Worc. R.

For most conspicuous bravery in action when in command of the second wave of the attack. Finding that the first wave had suffered heavy casualties, its commander killed, and the line wavering, Lt. Bennett advanced at the head of the second wave, and by his personal example of valour and resolution reached his objective with but sixty men.

Isolated with his small party, he at once took steps to consolidate his position under heavy rifle and machine gun fire from both flanks, and although wounded, he remained in command directing and controlling.

He set an example of cheerfulness and resolution beyond all praise, and there is little doubt that but for his personal example of courage, the attack would have been checked at the outset.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 13th January, 1917.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Men:—

No. 12 21 Pte. John Cunningham, E. York. R.

For most conspicuous bravery and resource during operations.

After the enemy's front line had been captured, Pte. Cunningham proceeded with a bombing section up a communication trench. Much opposition was encountered, and the rest of the section became casualties. Collecting all the bombs from the casualties, this gallant soldier went on alone. Having expended all his bombs, he returned for a fresh supply and again proceeded to the communication trench, where he met a party of ten of the enemy. These he killed and cleared the trench up to the enemy line.

His conduct throughout the day was magnificent.

No. 7709 Pte. David Ross Lauder, R. Sc. Fus.

For most conspicuous bravery when with a bombing party retaking a sap.

Pte. Lauder threw a bomb, which failed to clear the parapet and fell amongst the bombing party. There was no time to smother the bomb, and Pte. Lauder at once put his foot on it, thereby localising the explosion. His foot was blown off, but the remainder of the party through this act of sacrifice escaped unhurt.

War Office.

10th January, 1917.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the appointments of the under-mentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty in the Field:—

2nd Lt. Norman Breenley, M.C., L'pool R. and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. With another pilot he gallantly attacked seven ho-tile machines. Later, although severely wounded, he displayed great courage and determination in reaching our own lines.

Maj. (temp. Lt.-Col.) William Denman Croft, R. Scots.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He showed great courage and initiative in organising and supervising a successful attack. He established posts before dawn and joined them up the following night under heavy fire. He has previously done fine work.

Maj. (temp. Lt.-Col.) Gilbert Burrell Spencer Pollett, M.F.O., C. Gds.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although wounded, he inspected the front-line trenches under heavy fire. Later, he remained with the battalion until they were relieved. He has on many previous occasions done fine work.

Maj. (temp. Lt.-Col.) Charles Harman, Leins R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led his battalion throughout the action with great courage and initiative. He set a splendid example to his men, and materially assisted in the success of the operations.

Temp. Capt. Frederick Elliott Hotblack, M.C., Intelligence C., att'd M. Gun C.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He guided a Tank into action by walking in front of it under very heavy fire. He displayed great courage and determination throughout.

Temp. Capt. Arthur Plater Nasmith, Bord. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He displayed great courage and initiative in organising and leading a successful attack. He set a splendid example throughout.

Capt. George Alec Parker, M.C., North'n R. and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He attacked hostile aeroplanes on three occasions during the same fight, killing an enemy observer. On another occasion he drove off three enemy machines, pursuing one of them down to 750 feet, three miles behind the enemy's lines.

Temp. 2nd Lt. (Actg. Capt.) Richard Pennington, Linc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led his men in the attack with great courage and initiative, himself killing at least seven of the enemy. He set a splendid example throughout, and materially assisted in the success of the operations.

Capt. (temp. Maj.) Josiah James Robertson, Sea Highrs.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He re-organised several small parties under heavy fire, and drove off an enemy bombing attack. He formed with twenty men a strong post in the enemy's second line. Later, he led the men forward again and consolidated an advanced defensive line. He set a splendid example throughout.

AUSTRALIAN IMPERIAL FORCE.

Captain William John Rendall Scott, Aust. Inf.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He organised the troops in the vicinity and formed a strong point, and by the judicious use of machine guns kept off several threatened enemy attacks, thereby saving a critical situation.

CANADIAN FORCE.

Maj. George Emanuel Drow, Can. Fd. Art.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although crippled by rheumatism, he continued to command his battery under very trying conditions. He set a splendid example of courage and determination throughout the operations.

Lt.-Col. Cameron Macpherson Edwards, Can. Inf.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He organised his battalion for attack, and carried out a dashing assault in a snowstorm with conspicuous success. He set a splendid example of courage and initiative throughout.

Lt.-Col. Reginald William Frost, Can. Inf.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He carried out a successful attack under very trying conditions. The entire objective was gained, and a strong patrol was sent forward, remaining out for 24 hours until ordered to withdraw. He set a splendid example of courage and coolness throughout.

Maj. Valentino Vivian Harvey, Can. Inf.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He showed great coolness and power of organisation during preparation, also in reorganising and directing the consolidation under very heavy fire. He set a splendid example throughout, and materially assisted in the success of the operations.

Lt.-Col. Arnold Henry Grant Kemball, C.B., Can. Infy.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led his battalion in the attack with conspicuous success, and carried out every task allotted to him. He set a splendid example of courage and good leadership throughout.

Capt. Thain Wendell MacDowell, Can. Inf.
