P R E F A C E .

IN compiling this Course of Gaelic Grammar I have adopted the plan which I have followed during the last seven years in teaching the Students of the Gaelic Class in the High School of Glasgow. It is chiefly intended as a Text Book for Highland Schools and Pupil Teachers, and is designed to meet the requirements of the Scotch Education Code. Any departure from established usage has been made only in such particulars as experience has taught me would be of advantage to the student. Instead of relegating Syntax to a late stage of the work, as in most Grammars, the rules of Accidence and Syntax are dealt with pari passu. The rules are given briefly, with corresponding illustrative examples. There are many points (of minor importance) omitted which could not be embraced in a work of limited compass. The ordinary student of Gaelic will find here sufficient material to enable him to acquire a good knowledge of Gaelic Grammar. Pages 1 to 8—dealing with the sounds—are intended for acquirers of the language, and may be passed over by those knowing it colloquially.

The exercises are carefully graded, and the selections for reading towards the end are from the standard works of some of the best writers of Gaelic prose and poetry. A perusal of Joyce's excellent Irish Grammar has given me several useful suggestions.

I have to acknowledge, with best thanks, my indebtedness to my life-long friend—Mr. DUNCAN RANKIN—for his valuable assistance in revising proof-sheets and suggesting improvements.

VOCABULARY—
Gaelic-English, -	- 117-143
English-Gaelic, -	- 143-148

A COURSE OF
GAELIC GRAMMAR.

LETTERS.

1. In the Gaelic Alphabet there are eighteen letters, of which five are vowels, viz. : a, o, u, e, i ; and thirteen are consonants, viz. : b, c, d, f, g, h, l, m, n, p, r, s, t.

VOWELS.

2. The vowels have a long and short sound. A long-sound vowel is distinguished by a duration mark over it; a short-sound vowel has no such mark.

Short-sound vowels thus : a, o, u, e, i.

, Long-sound vowels : à, ò, ó, ù, è, é, í.

The vowels are divided into two classes :

(1) BROAD, a, o, u ; (2) SMALL, e, i.

DIPHTHONGS.

3. Ai, ao ; ea, ei, eo, eu ; ia, io, iu ; oi, ua, ui.

TRIPHTHONGS.

4. Aoi, eoi, iai iui, uai.

CONSONANTS.

5. The consonants may be classified according to the organs of speech by which they are sounded : Palatals, c, g ; Labials, b, f, m, p ; Linguals, d, l, n, r, s, t.

The Labials b, f, m, p, have but one uniform sound ; the other consonants have a broad (or open) and small (or slender) sound, according as they are preceded or followed by a broad or small vowel. The letter h, being a mere breathing, is called the aspirate letter ; and in combination with b, c, d, f, g, m, p, s, t, it forms the aspirates bh, ch, dh, fh, gh, mh, ph, sh, th.

Sharp consonants, - p, c, t, f, ch.

Kindred flat consonants, b, g, d, bh, mh, gh, dh.

The letters sg, sm, sp, st, have no aspirated form.

SOUNDS.

6. The sounds of a language are subject to certain changes. Some are more difficult to pronounce than others, such as gutturals which frequently pass into easier sounds as spirants ; and they sometimes disappear altogether. It happens that one sound is preferred to another, and dialects are often distinguished by their partiality to particular sounds.

There are two great divisions of sounds—VOWELS and CONSONANTS. The vowels are the open sounds of a language. In a vowel sound the emission of breath is not actually interrupted by the contact of any of the articulating organs. The consonants, which are closer in sound than the vowels, are produced by the contact of one or other of the organs of speech, whereby the breath is partially or wholly interrupted.

It is impossible to represent accurately all the Gaelic sounds by English equivalents, and the following are, in some cases, mere approximations. They can be better learned by ear, and the student can more readily acquire the pronunciation by hearing them pronounced than by written representations.

Diphthongs and Triphthongs might be conveniently classified under two heads—PROPER and IMPROPER—the Proper Diphthongs being those wherein one Vowel Sound passes into another, the Improper being those which have but one Simple Sound.

The use of the letter i in some of the Diphthongs and Triphthongs is to qualify the sound of the Consonant which follows it, and has no distinct sound of itself. Ao, eu, though classed among the Diphthongs have but one Simple Sound which is always long.

CONSONANT SOUNDS.

10. B, is sounded almost as sharp as p in English.

Bh. is like v; in the middle of some words it is silent.

In some parts of the Highlands, the articulation of bh, when in the middle and at the end of certain words, passes into the sound of u.

F, is like f in English.

Fh, is silent, except in fhéin, fhuir and fhasthast, when it is like h.

M, is like m in English.

Mh, is like v, but more nasal than bh.

In the middle of certain words it is silent, and imparts a nasal sound to the preceding vowel.

P, is like p in English.

Ph, is like f in English.

C, is always hard ; before a, o, u, it sounds like c in can ; *after a, o, u, like chk ; before e, i, and after i, like c in came.

*NOTE : In some parts of the Highlands, c final is, like the initial c, pronounced without the aspiration.

Ch, preceded or followed by a, o, u, has a strong guttural sound, like ch in loch ; preceded or followed by e, i, it has a less guttural sound, like ch in the German word ich.

G, has a flatter sound than c ; before and after a, o, u, it is like g in got ; before and after e, i, it sounds nearly like g in get.

Gh, is flatter, and less harsh in sound than ch ; before and after e, i, it sounds like y in English ; before and after a, o, u, it has a much broader sound. In the middle and at the end of certain words it is silent.

T, has a flatter sound than the English t ; before and after a, o, u, the sound is produced by placing the tip of the tongue against or between the teeth, and is like th in than, only more forcible ; before or after e, i, the sound is like ch in church.

Th, beginning a word has the sound of h ; it is silent in the pronoun thu, and in certain tenses of some irregular verbs when preceded by d'. In the middle of some words it is silent, in others it has a faint aspiration.

D, is the flat sound of t; in the same position it has almost the same sound as t, only softer.

Dh, is equal to gh in the same position.

S, before or after a, o, u, is like s in English; before or after e, i, like sh; after t- (with a hyphen) it is silent.

Sh, has the sound of h, and is always initial; so (this) is generally pronounced sh; the verb is is pronounced iss.

L, before or after, and ll after a, o, u, has a flatter sound than l in English, and is produced by pressing the tip of the tongue against the teeth, as in pronouncing th in though; in conjunction with e, i, the sound is more liquid, like ll in million. It has also a plain sound after i, like the English l.

N, in conjunction with a, o, u, is like n in English; nn has a flatter sound; with e, i, it has a liquid sound, like n in pinion, and in certain words like n in English; after c, g, m, t, it resembles the sound of r.

R, rr, like r in English.

L. N. R.

11. The letters l, n, r, have, like other consonants, an aspirated as well as a plain sound, though the aspiration mark or letter has not been used by most writers. In order to aid the student in distinguishing the ASPIRATED sound of these letters, a SMALL DOT placed over them will be used as the MARK OF ASPIRATION; thus, lion (unaspirated), fill; lion (aspirated), did fill; lean (unaspirated), follow; lean (aspirated), did follow.

The aspiration of l, n, especially when followed by e, i, is more pronounced than that of r. The aspirated power of the latter being weaker, it is scarcely discernible from its plain sound.

These letters have a broad and slender sound according to the quality of the adjacent vowel; and they are the only letters that admit of being doubled.

SPELLING.

12. Gaelic spelling is chiefly regulated by the Rule :

Leathan ri leathan, agus caol ri caol.

Broad to broad, and small to small.

RULE.—In words of more than one syllable, the last vowel of the first syllable, and the first vowel of the next syllable must be of the same quality ; i.e., if the last vowel of a syllable be broad, the first vowel of the next syllable must be broad also ; but if small, a small vowel follows.

If, contrary to this rule, a consonant were preceded by a broad and followed by a small vowel, or vice versa, it might be doubtful whether the consonant should be pronounced with its broad or small sound. To remove this uncertainty, and to regulate Gaelic spelling, the above rule has been almost universally adopted.

In conformity with this rule, a broad or small vowel is introduced, as the case may be, although it serves no purpose in respect of derivation or pronunciation. Thus, Sùilean is the plural of Sùil : an is the plural termination, and the introduction of the e makes no difference in the sound, but is inserted in conformity with the above rule.

ASPIRATION.

13. ASPIRATION takes place under the following conditions :—

- (1.) After the possessive pronouns mo, my ; do, thy ; a, his.
- (2.) After the prepositions do, to ; fo, under ; bho, o, from ; mar, like, as : troimh, through ; roimh, before ; de, of ; mu, about.
- (3.) After the intensive particles fiòr, ro, gle, sàr, very.
- (4.) After the numerals aon, one ; da, two ; an ceud, a' cheud, the first.

- (5.) After the article a'; and after 'n before b, c, f, g, m, p. An aspirates f.
- (6.) In compound words the first consonant of the second word of the compound is aspirated.
- (7.) The initial consonant of the noun is aspirated when preceded by an adjective.
- (8.) An adjective qualifying a feminine noun is aspirated in the Nominative and Dative singular.
- (9.) An adjective qualifying a noun whose Genitive singular is like the Nominative plural, is aspirated in the Nominative plural.
- (10.) The vocative—singular and plural—of nouns of both genders.
- (11.) The verb is aspirated after the particles ma, if; cha, not: relative a; conjunction ged and the Infinitive of the verb after the particle a: the past tense Indicative and past Subjunctive of the verb are aspirated.
- (12.) The initial of words not beginning with d, t, is aspirated after bu.

DIVISIONS OF SPEECH.

14. The main divisions of speech in Gaelic are:—

Article,	}	Declinable.
Noun,
Adjective,
Verb,
Pronoun,
Prepositional-pronoun,
Adverb,	}	Indeclinable.
Preposition, Conjunction,

DEFINITION OF THE DIVISIONS OF SPEECH.

15. The ARTICLE is placed before a noun to limit its meaning ; as an duine, the man.

The article is evidently a contracted form of the numeral aon, one (as the indefinite article an in English is a contraction of the English numeral one), and is simply a distinguishing adjective.

The NOUN is the name of a person or object ; as righ, a king ; clach, a stone.

The ADJECTIVE is a word joined to a noun to express a certain quality, and is generally placed after the noun ; as, duine móir, a great man.

The VERB denotes action : it precedes its subject, and affirms or says something of it ; as, Thuit an tigh, the house fell.

The PRONOUN is used instead of a noun, and prevents a too frequent repetition of the noun ; as, Tha an t-each crosda, bhreab e mi, the horse is cross, he kicked me.

The PREPOSITIONAL-PRONOUN is made up of a simple preposition and a personal pronoun, so incorporated as to form a single distinct word ; as, Thug e sgian dhomh, he gave a knife to me—dhomh being made up of the preposition do and the pronoun mi.

The ADVERB is used to express time, place, manner or degree of an action, and is simply an adjective preceded by a particle, chiefly gu. Adverbial phrases are made up of two or more words. Rinn e sin gu math, he did that well.

The PREPOSITION is a word placed before a noun to express relation, and the relation is chiefly time and place. Simple prepositions govern the Dative case ; as, Bhuail e mi le cloich, he struck me with a stone.

The CONJUNCTION joins words or sentences. The simple conjunctions are but few ; such as, agus, and ; ach, but. Compound conjunctions or copulative phrases are more numerous ; as, do bhrigh gu, by reason that.

Dative.—	An, a', 'n; (an t-before s, followed by a vowel, or by l, n, r)=to, from, by, with, on, &c., the.	Same as Masculine.	Same as Nomina-tive.

CHANGE OF FORM.

17. The Gaelic Article is an, and is equivalent to the English Article the. It is inflected, or suffers a change in its form, according to the gender, number, or case of the noun with which it is joined.

An changes into am before the plain labials b, f, m, p.

n is generally left out before bh, ch, gh, mh, ph, and its place supplied by an apostrophe.

a is left out in the Dative singular, when preceded by a preposition ending in a vowel, and its place supplied by an apostrophe.

EXAMPLES.

An.—An cù, the dog; an cat, the cat; an ceann, the head; an gual, the coal; an gille, the lad; an damh, the ox; an dòrn, the fist; an druim, the back; an tarbh, the bull ; an tìr, the land ; an lamh, the hand ; an lìon, the net ; an nead, the nest ; an ràmh, the oar ; an sgian, the knife ; an sruth, the stream ; an obair, the work ; an fhuaim, the sound ; an earb, the roe ; an eala, the swan.

Am.—Am bàta, the boat ; am bòrd, the table ; am pòsadh, the marriage ; am fear, the man ; am fàradh, the ladder ; am maide, the stick ; am màl, the rent.

A'.—A' bhean, the woman ; a' bhròg, the shoe ; a' chearc, the hen ; a' chlach, the stone ; a' ghaoth, the wind ; a' ghrian, the sun ; a' mhuc, the sow ; a' mhuir, the sea ; a' phòg, the kiss ; a' phìob, the pipe.

'N.—Do'n duine, to the man ; O'n tigh, from the house ; fo'n bhòrd, under the table ; do'n bhaile, to the town.

CHANGES PRODUCED BY THE ARTICLE.

18. The initial form of the noun undergoes a certain change when preceded by the article.

(1.) Masculine nouns beginning with b, c, f, g, m, p, are aspirated in the Genitive and Dative singular ; and feminine nouns beginning with the same consonants, are aspirated in the Nominative and Dative singular.

(2.) To nouns beginning with s followed by l, n, r, or by a vowel, t- (with hyphen) is prefixed in the Genitive and Dative singular masculine, and in the Nominative and Dative singular feminine ; and the s is entirely silent.

(3.) To nouns beginning with a vowel t- is prefixed in the Nominative singular masculine ; and h- in the Genitive singular feminine, and in the Nominative and Dative plural of both genders.

Nouns retain their plain form in the other cases.

When a noun governs another in the Genitive, the article is used before the governed noun only. Example, sgian a' ghille, the knife of the lad,—not an sgian, &c.

EXAMPLES.

A' bhanais, a wedding; aig a' bhanais, at the wedding; a' choille, the wood; anns a' choille, in the wood; air a' bhòrd, on the table; aig a' chraoibh, at the tree; ris a' ghréin, to the sun; òran a' bhàird, the song of the poet; lamh a' phàisde, the infant's hand; an t-slàinte, the health; an t-slige, the shell; an t-uamh, the lamb; na h-uain, the lambs; an t-each, the horse; na h-eich, the horses; aig taobh an t-srutha, at the side of the stream; làmh na h-oighe, the hand of the maiden.

THE NOUN.

GENDER.

19. There are two Genders—Masculine and Feminine.

To an acquirer of the language, the distinction between the two genders is one of the main difficulties, and can only be acquired by practice. There are some general rules—subject to many exceptions—which will aid the student to distinguish the gender of nouns.

MASCULINE NOUNS.

(1.) Nouns signifying males are masculine, as, each, a horse; damh, an ox.

(2.) The young of animals irrespective of sex; as uan, a lamb.

(3.) Diminutives ending in an; as balachan, a little lad.

(4.) Derivative nouns ending in as; as maitheas, goodness; and those ending in air, ach, iche, ear, denoting personal agents; as oibriche, a workman; sealgair, a huntsman; marcaiche, a rider.

(5.) Names of native trees; as darach, an oak.

(6.) Most nouns of more than one syllable ending in a consonant or consonants preceded by a broad vowel.

FEMININE NOUNS.

- (1.) Names of females ; as piuthar, a sister.
- (2.) Names of countries, musical instruments, diseases, heavenly bodies, diminutives in ag, derivatives in achd, abstract nouns formed from the Genitive of adjectives, and many monosyllables in ua are feminine.

DECLEMNION.

20. Nouns have five cases in Gaelic : Nominative, Genitive, Dative, Accusative, Vocative. There are two numbers : Singular, Plural.

A noun or pronoun is in the nominative case when it is the Subject-word, such as the person or thing mentioned ; and in the Accusative case, when it is the Object-word, and governed by the action of the verb.

The Genitive case denotes the possessor, and is governed by nouns, compound prepositions, and the participle or verbal noun.

The Dative case follows a simple preposition.

The Vocative is used in addressing a person, or thing, and takes the particle a before it.

The Genitive singular is taken as the standard in comparing one declension with another.

The formation of the cases depends largely on the last vowel of the nominative singular. Case means a falling off ; and old grammarians considered the nominative the stem, or upright form, from which the other cases were fallings off or declensions.

THE FIVE DECLEMNSIONS.

21. There are five declensions of nouns, distinguished by the character of the Genitive case. Of these, four are regular, and one mixed or irregular.

INFLECTION OF NOUNS.

FIRST DECLEMION.

Character—The broad vowel of the Nominative is attenuated in the Genitive singular of both genders; final e is added to the Genitive of feminine nouns.

MASCULINE NOUNS.

- (1.) The Genitive singular is formed by attenuating the last broad vowel of the Nominative: this is done by putting the vowel i after the last broad vowel of the Nominative; or removing the broad vowel, or diphthongal part, and substituting a small vowel: as bàs, death; bàis, of death; mac, a son; mic, of a son; fear, a man; fir, of a man.
- (2.) The Dative singular is the same as the Nominative.
- (3.) The Accusative is always like the Nominative.
- (4.) The Vocative singular is like the Genitive aspirated.
- (5.) The Nominative plural is like the Genitive singular.
- (6.) The Genitive plural is like the Nominative singular aspirated.

(7.) The Dative plural is like the Nominative plural; or is formed by adding ibh to the Nominative singular.

(8.) The Vocative plural is like the Nominative plural aspirated, and sometimes a or an is added to the Nominative singular aspirated.

The ibh of the Dative, corresponds to the Latin Dative ibus, ubus, but it is not so generally used now as formerly.

Some polysyllables have their Nominative plural formed by adding an to the Genitive singular, and their Genitive plural like the Nominative plural.

Nouns in bh and mh generally have the Dative plural like the Nominative plural.

FEMININE NOUNS.

- (1.) The Genitive singular is formed by putting i after the last broad vowel of the Nominative, and adding e final; but if the last vowel of the Nominative is i, final e only is added ; as bròg, a shoe; bròige, of a shoe; cìr, a comb; cìre, of a comb.

In words of more than one syllable final e is not always added.

(2.) The Dative singular is formed from the Genitive by leaving out the final e.

(3.) The Accusative is like the Nominative, singular and plural.

(4.) The Vocative is like the Nomative aspirated, singular and plural.

(5.) The Nominative plural takes an to the Nominative singular.

(6.) The Genitive plural is like the Nominative singular aspirated.

(7.) The Dative plural is like the Nominative plural, or it ends ibh.

In many monosyllables of both genders belonging to this declension, the attenuation of the Genitive is considerably changed :—E.G.—a, o, u, into ui and oi; ea into i; ia into ei; io into i; eo into ui; as càrn, a cairn; cùirn, of a cairn; corp, a body; cuirp, of a body; beul, a mouth; beoil, of a mouth; nead, a nest; nid, of a nest; fiadh, a deer; féidh, of a deer; sìol, seed; sìl, of seed; seòl, a sail; siùil, of a sail.

SECOND DECLENSION.

23. Character—The Genitive in a.

The Genitive is formed by adding a final to the Nominative. If the last vowel of the Nominative is i, it is left out ; and the diphthongal part also suffers a change ; as feòil becomes feòla ; fuil, fala ; fiacail, fiacula.

The Dative is like the Nominative.

The Nominative plural is formed by adding an and annan to the Nominative singular. The other cases are similar to the first Declension.

EXAMPLES.

SINGULAR.		PLURAL.
	Gen.	Nom.
Nom and Acc.
Buaidh, victory ;	Buadha,	Buaidhean.
Cnàimh, a bone ;	Cnàmha,	Cnàmhan and Cnàimhean.
Fiacail, a tooth ;	Fiacla,	Fiaclan.
Beus, virtue ;	Beusa,	Beusan.
Guth, a voice ;	Gutha,	Guthan and annan.
Loch, a loch ;	Locha,	Lochan and annan.
Beum, a blow ;	Beuma,	Beuman and annan.
Cath, a fight ;	Catha,	Cathan and annan.
Lagh, a law ;	Lagha,	Laghannan.
Earb, a roe ;	Earba,	Earban.
Dùthaich, a country ;	Dùthcha,	Dùthchannan.
Druim, a back ;	Droma,	Dromannan.
Bior, a pointed stick ;	Biora,	Bioran.
Sruth, a stream ;	Srutha,	Sruthan.
Sùil, an eye ;	Sùla,	Sùilean.

Àth, a kiln ;	Àtha,	Àthan and annan.
Àm, a time ;	Àma,	Àmannan.
Tòrr, a heap ;	Tòrra,	Tòrran.

THIRD DECLENSION.

24. Character—Genitive in ach.

Nouns of this declension are mostly feminine; and the terminations of the Nominative are generally air, ir, eir, not signifying doers; and a few nouns in ail, eil, ain.

The Genitive singular is formed by leaving out the final vowel, or diphthongal part, and adding ach.

The Dative is like the Nominative.

The Nominative plural is generally formed by inserting i

after the last vowel of the Genitive singular, and adding ean; and a few add ean to the Nominative singular.

The other cases are similar to those of the First Declension.

EXAMPLES.

SINGULAR.		PLURAL.
Nom. and Acc.	Gen.	Nom.
Nathair, a serpent ;	Nathrach,	Nathraichean.
Cathair, a chair ;	Cathrach,	Cathraichean.
Acair, an anchor ;	Acrach,	Acraichean.

Dàil, delay ;	Dàlach,	Dàlaichean.
Togail, a building ;	Togalach,	Togalaichean.
Litir, a letter ;	Litreach,	Litrichean.
Còir, a right ;	Còrach,	Còraichean.
Faidhir, a fair ;	Faidhreach,	{ Faidhrichean, and Faidhrean.
Anail, a breath ;	Analach,	Anailean.
Barail, an opinion ;	Baralach,	Barailean.

FOURTH DECLENSION.

25. Character—All the cases are alike in the singular.

To this declension (with but few exceptions) belong such nouns as end in a vowel, or chd, rr, ein, idh; and disyllables in air, ear, eir, signifying doers (except household names, as mathair, &c.)

The inflectional suffixes in the plural are an, annan, innean, achan, ichean, in, tan, tean.

AGREEMENT OF THE ARTICLE AND NOUN.

28. (1.) The article precedes the noun, and agrees with it in number, gender, and case ; as am fear, the man ; na fir, the men ; na craoibhe, of the tree.

(2.) When one noun governs another in the Genitive case, the governed noun only, takes the article before it ; and when a possessive pronoun is used with the governed noun, the article is excluded altogether ; as ceann a' choin, the head of the dog, not an ceann, &c. ; nullach mo chinn, the top of my head, not am nullach, &c.

(3.) The article is used before a noun when followed by the demonstrative pronouns so, sin, ud ; as an tigh so, this house ; an cnoc ud, yonder hill ; when the noun is preceded by is and bu, and an adjective ; as is math an t-each e, he is a good horse ; and between the interrogatives, co, cia, ciod, and the noun ; as co am fear ? what man ?

(4.) The article is frequently used before abstract nouns, and nouns which represent their class or kind ; as an leisg, laziness ; an duine, man (signifying mankind) ; before names of certain countries ; as an Eadait, Italy ; an Roinn-Eòrpa, Europe ; an Fhraing, France.

What woman is at the door? The men were in the town. This woman's hand was under the stone. That man's horse is at yonder tree. The sound of the bell.

GOVERNMENT OF NOUNS.

29. (1.) When two nouns come together, denoting possession, the second noun is in the Genitive case; as leabhar a' bhàird, the poet's book; but if they denote the same person or thing, they generally agree in case; as Donnachadh Bàn, am bàrd. When, however, one noun stands in apposition to another, having the article or possessive pronoun before it, the apposite noun which serves as an explanatory medium, is in the Nominative, though its co-relative be in the Genitive case; as leabhar Dhonnachaidh Bhàin, am bàrd, the book of Duncan Bàn, the poet, not leabhar Dhonnachaidh Bhàin, a' bhàird.

(2.) Verbal nouns (usually called the Infinitive and Particles of Transitive verbs) govern the noun following in the Genitive case; as ag itheadh arain, eating bread (literally at eating of bread.)

(3.) When two or more nouns, denoting different things, are governed by a preceding noun, the last noun only, takes the Genitive case; as cas each Sheumais, the foot of James' horse, not cas eich Sheumais.

(4.) Proper names masculine are aspirated in the Genitive case; as cù Chaluim, Malcolm's dog.

(5.) Personal names feminine, are sometimes plain, and sometimes aspirated in the Genitive—the form varying according to dialectic provincialism; as bròg Màiri, and bròg Mhàiri, Mary's shoe.

(6.) The numerical nouns from dithis to deichnear, inclusive, govern the nouns which they precede, in the Genitive plural; as ceathrar mhac, four sons.

(7.) A noun used as an adjective in English, is generally put in the Genitive case in Gaelic; as fainne òir, a gold ring; tom fraoich, a heather bush; cìr mheala, a honey-comb.

*(8.) When two nouns are joined by a hyphen—thus forming a compound word—the first noun governs the other in the Genitive case, as cearc-fhraoich, a moor-hen.

*The first noun is declined in the usual way; the second agrees with it like an adjective, only retaining the Genitive termination throughout all the cases.

EXERCISE IV.

Illustrative of paragraph 29.

Tir nam beann. Tir nan gleann. Glas an doruis. Seòl na luinge. Cas na cathrach. Teas na lasrach. Lamh Màiri. Leabhar Dhonnachaидh, am bàrd. Tigh mac Sheumais. Each Dhomhnuill, an saor. Ceann tigh Iain mhòir. Tha fainne òir air meur na mnatha. Tha Alasdair, an t-iasgair, air druim a' bhàta. Tha bean Dhonnachaيدh, mo bhrathair, aig an dorus. Tha an leanabh a' sineadh a lamh. Tha na fir ag itheadh arain, agus ag òl fiona. Triùir bhan. Ceathrar dhaoine. Solus na gréine. Sgiath na circe-fraoich.

My father's house. My grandfather's house is in the country. The man was striking the door. The maiden was singing a song. The house of James, my brother. Two sons. Ten men. The wing of John's bird. The daughter of John, the mason. Ann, the shoemaker's wife, is in my father's house.

THE ADJECTIVE.

INFLECTION OF ADJECTIVES.

30. Adjectives change their form according to the number, gender, or case of the nouns to which they are joined, and are declined nearly in the same way as nouns of the first and fourth declensions.

(1.) The Genitive and Vocative singular masculine are aspirated.

(2.) All the cases in the singular feminine are aspirated except the Genitive, which is always plain.

(3.) An adjective is aspirated in the Nominative plural when it is joined to a noun having the Genitive singular like the Nominative plural.

(4.) Adjectives of one syllable generally have their plural in a or e, according to the quality of the preceding vowel.

(5.) Adjectives of more than one syllable and a few ending in a vowel have their plural like the Nominative singular.

(6.) Some adjectives of more than one syllable are contracted in the Genitive singular feminine; as bodhar, deaf; Gen., fem., buidhre.

FIRST DECLENSION.

The Nom. and Dat. plural have also the aspirated form, according to the quality of the noun with which the adjective is joined, though the unaspirated form only, is given in the following examples.

Examples.

Gen.,	Bheò.	Beò.	Beò.
Dat.,	Beò.	Bheò.	Beò.
Voc.,	Bheò.	Bheò.	Beò.

DECLENSION OF ADJECTIVE AND NOUN.

33. (1.) The initial form of the adjective depends on the gender and termination of the noun with which it is joined, and on the presence of the article.

(2.) Adjectives beginning with a lingual frequently resist aspiration when they follow a noun ending in a lingual, as, an nighean donn, the auburn maid; ceann a' choin duibh, the black dog's head; air mo chois deis, on my right foot.

(2.) The following examples show the initial and terminal forms of the adjective declined with the noun, with and without the article.

34.

COMPARISON OF ADJECTIVES.

35. COMPARISON is a change of form which the adjective undergoes to express degrees of quantity or quality.

Adjectives have, besides their simple form, two inflections to express comparison ; these may be called FIRST, and SECOND COMPARATIVE.

FORMATION.

36. The First Comparative is formed like the Genitive singular feminine, in e final ; as geal (simple form), gile (First Comparative).

The Second Comparative is formed by changing the final e of the First Comparative into id ; as gile (First Comparative), gilid (Second Comparative).

Many adjectives, especially those of more than one syllable, do not admit of a Second Comparative.

How EXPRESSED.

37. The First Comparative is expressed by the verb bi and is. When used with the verb bi, it takes na 's before it, and na (than) after it ; as tha mise na 's bàine na thusa, I am fairer than thou. Bithidh Seumas na 's àirde na Iain, James will be taller than John.

When used with is and bu, the First Comparative takes na after it ; as is sine Seumas na Domhnall, James is older than Donald ; bu ghile e na 'n sneachd, it was whiter than snow.

It is also expressed by a 's ; as is e Seumas a 's sine na Domhnall ; literally, it is James who is older than Donald.

To express a Superlative degree a 's is used, followed by the preposition de (of), and frequently by aig, ann, air ; as is esan a 's oige de 'n teaghlaich, he is the youngest of the family ; a' bheinn a 's àirde air an t-saoghal, the highest mountain in the world.

Intensive particles, such as ro, glé, fior, air leth, anabarrach, are frequently placed before adjectives in their simple form, to increase their signification ; as ro mhath, very good (too good) ; anabarrach móir, exceedingly great.

Though a Superlative degree is expressed in Gaelic the inflection of the adjective is the same as the First Comparative—the context generally determining the degree.

The Second Comparative is used after is and bu ; as is gilid e sin, it is the whiter for that ; cha bu mhisd e sin, he was not the worse for that.

It is evident that a 's is a contraction for a is, (who or which is) ; and that na 's—sometimes written ni 's—is a contraction for ni a is (the thing which is).

IRREGULAR COMPARISON.

38. The following adjectives are irregularly compared:—

Simple Form.	First Comparative.	Second Comparative.
Beag, little,	lughá,	lughaid.
Cumhang, narrow,	cuinge,	cuingid.
Duilich, difficult,	duilche,	duilchid.

Mór, great,	mò, (motha),	mòid, (mothaid).
Olc, } bad,	miosa,	misde.
Dona,
Teth, hot,	teotha,	teothaid.

EXERCISE V.

Tha am fear so na's mothà na thusa. Is e Iain a's mothà de'n teaghlaich. Is sine Seumas na a bhrathair. Tha Domhnall na's beartaiche na Alasdair. Tha an tarbh dubh dà chlach na's truime na 'n damh odhar. Tha Donnachadh clach na's truime na mise, ach is e am fear so a's truime de'n triùir. Cha truimid e sin. Tha mo bhrathair trì òirlich na's àirde na thusa, ach is mise a's àirde de'n chuideachd. Is deirge do ghruaidh na'n caorann. Is gile do chraicionn na canach an t-sleibhe. Is gile mo lámh-sa na do lámh-sa. B'fheirrd thu deoch bhainne. Cha bu mhisde mi deoch bhainne, agus crioman arain. Tha an leabhar sin ro mhath. Is sàr obair nam bàrd e. Tha obair an fhìr sin flor mhath. Is fearr an fhìrinn na 'n t-òr.

I am taller than thou. John is the tallest of the company. Whiter than snow. Sweeter than honey. The horse is stronger than six men. Kate is the wisest of the family. Your father is older than mine (my father). Mary's hair is fairer than Margaret's (hair), but Janet's (hair) is the fairest. What is heavier than gold? Kate is more beautiful than Mary.

NUMERICAL NOUNS.

41. The following are applied to persons only, and are formed from the numerals.

aonar,	alone, one person.
dithis,	two persons.
triùir,	three persons.
ceathrar,	four „ cóignear,	five „
sèanar,	six „
seachdnar,	seven „
ochdnar,	eight „
naoinear,	nine „
deichnear,	ten „

42. (1.) Numerals—Cardinal and Ordinal—precede their nouns; as trì eich, three horses; an ceathramh fear, the fourth man; except when the Cardinal number is employed to designate a particular person; as Righ Tearlach a Dhà, King Charles the Second.

(2.) The numerals dà, fichead, ciad, mile, are used with singular nouns only ; as fichead saighdear, twenty soldiers.

(3.) Dà governs the noun in the Dative singular. An adjective following a noun preceded by dà is in the Nominative singular, and sometimes (especially in poetry), in the Nominative plural ; as dà bhroig bheag, two little shoes.

After a preposition the adjective is in the Dative Case ; as, le dà laimh bhig, with two little hands. A noun following dà is in the Genitive singular when it is governed by another noun ; as buinn mo dhà bhròige, the soles of my two shoes.

(4.) Deug—the decimal termination—is from deich (ten), and is the same as teen in English. When joined to the digits it gives the Cardinal numbers from 11 to 19 both inclusive. When the numerals from 11 to 19 are used with the noun, the latter is placed between the digit and decimal termination ; as trì fir dheug, thirteen men.

EXERCISE VI.

NUMERALS.

Aon fhear. Dà mhac. Trì nigheanan. Ceithearn mìnathan. An ceud fhear. An treas each. An naoidheamh uair. Am ficheadamh saighdear. An treas duine deug. Seachd làithean. An seachdamh là. Ochd fir dheug. An còigearmh laoidh deug. Fichead uan. Trì coin deug. Rìgh Seumas a h-aon. Rìgh Eanruig a h-ochd. Dà fhichead caora. Deich 'us dà fhichead molt. Dà chloich. Ciad damh, agus trì fichead agh. Dà shlait bheag. Tha uisge anns an dà chuach bhig sin. Seachd uain deug thar fhichead. Cuignear bhan. An deicheadamh àithne. Làn dà laimhe.

Three horses. Four men and ten women. Six inches. Thirteen oxen and twenty bulls. The eleventh chapter. The seventh hymn. The thirteenth verse. Forty-one sheep. Two shoes. On two little shoes. On my two feet. A thousand soldiers. One hundred and ten sheep, and seventy lambs.

THE ADJECTIVE AND NOUN.

I.—POSITION, FORM AND AGREEMENT.

43. (1.) The adjective is placed after the noun: when in this position, and immediately joined to the noun as a qualifying or limiting term, it agrees with the noun in number, gender and case, as cnoc àrd, a high hill; mullach a'chnuic àird, the top of the high hill.

Here the relative position of the adjective and noun is such that an agreement takes place between them, but this agreement is not always maintained though their position may be contiguous.

(2.) When two or more nouns come together, followed by an adjective which limits each and all of them, the adjective agrees with the last noun only; as fear agus bean mhath, a good man and woman.

Here, the adjective mhath agrees with bean, the latter noun; but if the position of the nouns is reversed as, bean agus fear math (a good woman and man), the adjective math agrees with fear.

(3.) Some adjectives of one syllable are frequently placed before the noun—the transposition being intended to give poetical effect; as mór chuantan, great oceans; tiugh dhorchadas, thick darkness.

In this position, the adjective does not agree with the noun—the simple form of the adjective is retained, irrespective of the gender, number, or case of the noun.

(4.) When an adjective precedes the noun, it is frequently united with the noun, so as to form one compound word; and when thus connected, the initial of the noun is aspirated, and the initial form of the adjective undergoes the same change as if it were one simple word; as, mórshluagh, a great multitude; an t-seana-bhean, the old woman.

(5.) Such adjectives as droch (evil), deagh (good), sàr (choice), sean (old), are always used before the noun; as deagh obair, a good work; droch ghniomh, an evil deed.

EXERCISE VII.

THE ADJECTIVE LIMITING THE NOUN.

Each bànn. An t-each bànn. Na h-eich bhàna. Uan beag. An t-uain beag. Na h-uain bheaga. Ceann an uain bhig. Òrd mór. An t-òrd mór. Na h-ùird mhóra. Cas an ùird mhóir. Air druim an eich bháin. Adharc an daimh dhuinn. Slat bheag. An t-slat bheag. Na slatan beaga. Leis an t-slait bhig. Le slatan beaga. An sion-nach ruadh. Air lorg an t-sionnaich ruaidh. Sgiath na h-eala bhàin. Bròg a' bhalaich bhig. Brogan nam balach beaga. An cù glas. Ceann a' choin ghlaibh. A' chearc ghlas. Ubh na circe glaise. Tha an gille beag air druim an eich dhuibh. Air na beanntaibh àrda. Mullach na beinne móire. Mullaichean nam beann àrda. Gathan dearrsach na greine. Tha an earbag ruadh aig oir na coille móire. Tha an tarbh odhar aig dorus an t-sabhuill. Tir nam beann àrda. Each agus làir dhonn. Bean agus fear mór.

A cold day. A cold wind. A beautiful girl. A young girl. A young ox. A new shoe. New shoes. A high hill. The high hills. Good women. A rapid river. Rapid streams. The lame horse is in the field. The brown horse is in the little park. The little lambs are in the large field. The young calves are at the side of the stream. The young lad was on the top of the high mountain. The little ducks are in the pool. The grey goose is in the river. The wing of the grey goose. The black horse's bridle.

II.—THE ADJECTIVE PREDICATED OF THE NOUN.

44. (1.) When the adjective qualifies the action of the verb, i.e., when it is in the predicate of the proposition, it does not agree with the noun : the adjective is then used in its simple form whatever be the gender or number of the noun ; as, tha na fir glic, the men are wise.

The noun here is plural, but the adjective is in the singular number, because it is in the predicate of the proposition, and not directly limiting fir.

In the example, rinn an greusaich a' bhrdg bheag, (the shoemaker made the little shoe), the adjective bheag agrees with the noun bhrdg in every respect ; but if we say rinn an greusaich a' bhrdg beag, (the shoemaker made the shoe little), the adjective beag does not agree with bhrdg, but is ascribed to the noun by the verb rinn.

(2.) When the verb bi is used as a predicate, the following order is observed : verb, noun, adjective ; as, tha a' bhean math, the woman in good.

(3.) When the verb is is used, the order is, verb, adjective, noun ; as, is math a' bhean i, she is a good woman.

A noun beginning with a lingual preceded by an adjective ending in n resists aspiration ; as sean duine, an old man.

III.—GOVERNMENT.

45. (1.) Adjectives denoting Quantity, or a part of anything, govern the Genitive Case ; or the Dative with the preposition de (of), as làn gliocais, full of wisdom ; beagan arain, a little bread ; gann de dh-airgead, scarce of money.

(2.) When the article is joined with the noun, the preposition de is always used with such adjectives ; as, gabh beagan de 'n chàis, take a little of the cheese.

(3.) Adjectives signifying profit, likeness, pleasure, and their opposites, nearness, and certain qualities of mind, generally take the prepositions aig, le, air, do, ri, &c. ; as math aig an stiùir, good at the helm ; dlù do thir, near to land ; umhal d' a phàrantan, obedient to his parents ; airidh air cliù, deserving of praise ; cosmhail ri a mhathair, like his mother.

EXERCISE VIII.

Illustrating the Adjectives when connected with the noun by a verb—when denoting Quality, and when preceding the noun.

'Tha an leabhar math. Tha an òigh sin maiseach. Tha an duine sin aosda agus liath. Tha tiugh dhorchadas anns

Tha an iolair òr-bhuidhe air sgòrr na creige móire. Tha am fitheach dubh air druim an daimh dhuinn. Tha an t-agh ruadh anns a' ghàradh aig cùl an taighe. Tha na h-ùbhlan air a' chraoibh sin abuich. Tha nead na smearaich anns a phreas ud aig taobh an ùillt. Tha ceithear uibhean ann an nead an loin-duibh.

The fox is very cunning. The brown terrier is on the track of the wounded fox. The brown ox is in the wood. There is much fish in the fisherman's boat. There are many salmon in the pool. The otter is on the bank of the river. That man is a good swimmer. There are eight men and two horses in the ferry-boat. The fishing-boat is ashore. My horse is swifter than the farmer's horse, but the farmer's horse is stronger. Donald is a good oarsman and steersman. Smooth is the hand of that maiden. Strong was his hand at the helm. Sweet was the warbling of the birds on the branch tops.

THE VERB.

46. In the Gaelic Verb there are—

- (1) Three Persons—First, Second, Third.
- (2) Two Numbers—Singular, Plural.
- (3) Three Tenses—Present, Past, Future.
- (4) Three Moods—Indicative, Subjunctive, Imperative.
- (5) Two Voices—Active, Passive.

The Verb has two forms—the Independent or Absolute form, when the verb comes first in a sentence—the Dependent form, when it is preceded by conjunctive and interrogative particles. Verbs are Transitive and Intransitive.

FORMATION OF TENSES.

Active Voice.

47. The changes which verbs undergo in order to indicate time are called Tenses.

Verbs are inflected by initial and terminal changes.

The ROOT OR STEM is the SECOND PERSON SINGULAR of the IMPERATIVE, from which the tenses are formed; as, tog, lift thou ; ith, eat thou.

The PAST INDICATIVE is formed by aspirating the STEM ; as, thog mi, I lifted, I have lifted ; dh-ith e, he ate, has eaten.

The FUTURE TENSE is formed by adding idh or aidh to the STEM; as, ithidh mi, I shall eat; togaidh e, he will lift.

The PAST SUBJUNCTIVE is formed by adding inn or ainn to the aspirated STEM in the FIRST PERSON SINGULAR; amaid or eamaid in the FIRST PERSON PLURAL; and adh or eadh in the SECOND AND THIRD PERSONS SINGULAR AND PLURAL; as, thogainn, I would lift; thogamaid, we would lift; thogadh e, he would lift, &c.

The FIRST PERSON SINGULAR IMPERATIVE is formed by adding am or eam to the STEM; the THIRD PERSON SINGULAR, by adding adh or eadh; the FIRST PERSON PLURAL, by adding amaid or eamaid; the SECOND PERSON PLURAL, by adding ibh or aibh; and the THIRD PERSON PLURAL, by adding adh or eadh; as,

SINGULAR.	PLURAL.
1. togam , let me lift.	togamaid , let us lift.
2. tog thu-sa , lift thou.	togaibh , lift ye.
3. togadh e , i, let him or her lift.	togadh iad , let them lift.

The Pronoun is incorporated with the Verb in the First Person Singular and Plural of the Past Subjunctive; in the First Person Singular, and First and Second Persons Plural of the Imperative.

The INFINITIVE is an abstract noun formed from the verb, and is therefore a Verbal Noun; as a bhualadh, to strike; a' bualadh, striking (lit., at striking).

With certain prepositions it signifies Purpose, and makes up a form for the Participle; as, chaidh e g'a bhualadh, he went to strike him.

There is no participle for the Active Voice, but there is a Participle Passive, which is a Verbal Adjective; as briste, broken.

COMPOUND TENSES are formed by the aid of the Verb Bi (be), in conjunction with the Verbal Noun preceded by the particle ag; as tha mi ag itheadh, I am eating; bha e a' bualadh, he was striking.

The a of the particle ag is left out before words beginning with a consonant.

PASSIVE VOICE.

48. The PAST INDICATIVE is formed by adding adh or eadh to the aspirated STEM ; as thogadh mi, I was lifted.

The FUTURE, by adding ar or ear to the Stem ; as togare, he shall be lifted ; ithear e, it shall be eaten.

The PAST SUBJUNCTIVE by adding teadh to the aspirated STEM ; as dh-ittheadh e, it would be eaten.

The IMPERATIVE by adding tar (and sometimes ar) ; as togtar iad, let them be lifted.

CONJUGATION OF THE VERB Bi, Be.

This Verb is used as an auxiliary to other Verbs.

THE VERB Bi—DEPENDENT FORM.

50. In the following Synopsis of the Verb Bi, only the First Person Singular of the Indicative Mood is given—the forms of the verb in all the persons of each tense—singular and plural—being the same.

INDICATIVE MOOD.

AUXILIARY PARTICLES.	PRESENT.	PAST.	FUTURE.
INTERROGATIVE, Am, an.	am I? am bheil mi? { am beil mi? }	was I? an robh mi?	Shall I be? am bi mi?
INTERROGATIVE-NEGATIVE, Nach.	am I not? nach 'eil mi?	was I not? nach robh mi?	shall I not be? nach bi mi?
NEGATIVE, Cha, cha'n.	I am not. cha 'n 'eil mi.	I was not. cha robh mi.	I shall not be. cha bhi mi.
CONDITIONAL, Ma, ged a, na'n.	if I am, though I am. { ma tha mi. { ged a tha mi.	if I was, though I was. { ma bha mi. { ged a bha mi. { na'n robh mi (had I been)	if I shall be, though, &c. { ma bhitheas mi. { ged a bhitheas mi.

	if I am not, though I am not.	If I was not, though I was not.	If I shall not be, though I shall not be.
CONDITIONAL-NEGATIVE, Mur am, mur an, ged nach.	{ mur am bheil mi. ged nach 'eil mi. _____	{ mur an robh mi. ged nach robh mi. _____	mur am bi mi. ged nach bi mi. _____
	that I am.	that I was.	that I will be.
AFFIRMATIVE-CONJUNCTIVE Gu'm, 'n.	gu'm bheil mi. _____	gu'n robh mi. _____	gu'm bi mi. _____
	that I am not.	that I was not.	that I will not be.
NEGATIVE-CONJUNCTIVE, Nach.	nach 'eil mi. _____	nach robh mi. _____	nach bi mi. _____
	who, which, or that is.	who, which, or that was.	who, which, or that will be.
RELATIVE, A (3rd person).	a tha. _____	a bha. _____	a bhitheas. _____
	who, which, or that is not.	who, which, or that was not.	who, which, or that will not be.
RELATIVE-NEGATIVE, Nach.	nach eil.	nach robh.	nach bi.

SUBJUNCTIVE MOOD.

These auxiliary particles (par. 50) are prefixed to the verb in the Subjunctive mood in the same way as in the Indicative, but the form of the verb in the Subjunctive does not undergo so many changes. The verb is not aspirated after the particles am, an, nach, na'm, na'n, mur, gu'm, gu'n, ged nach; as am bithinn? would I be? nach bithinn? would I not be? &c. The initial of the verb is aspirated after cha, ged, a, and the interrogatives có, ciod, (dé); as cha bhitheamaid, we would not be; ged a bhitheadh iad, though they would be.

IMPERATIVE MOOD.

For the Imperative negative, the particle na is prefixed to the verb; as na bitheam, let me not be; na bithibh, be ye not.

INFINITIVE—a bhi, to be; gun a bhi, not to be; gu bhi, about to be.

PARTICIPLE—air bhi, (on) being; an deigh a bhi, after being, and after having been.

The form iar bhi is sometimes used to denote after having been. When the participial form of the verb is used as a subordinate prepositional clause the noun preceded by the preposition ao, or the prepositional pronoun is placed between the particle and the verb; as air do'n duine bhi falbh, on the man going away; air dhà bhi falbh, on his going away.

When the object of the Infinitive is a Pronoun, the Possessive and emphatic Personal pronouns are always used before it; as, dh-iarr e orm esan a' bhualadh, he told me to strike him; bha e'g a bhualadh, he was striking him.

When the object is a noun, it sometimes precedes, and sometimes follows the Infinitive; as, Dh-iarr e orm an duine a bhualadh, he told me to strike the man; chaidh e a bhualadh an duine, he went to strike the man.

EXERCISE X.

AUXILIARY PARTICLES.

51. Am bheil d' athair aig an tigh? Cha 'n 'eil. C' ait' am bheil e? Cha 'n 'eil fhios agam. Am bi e aig an tigh am màireach? Bithidh. Ma bhitheas e aig an tigh an nochd, abair ris gu 'm bi mise aig margadh nan uan am màireach. An robh thu anns an sgoil an diugh? Cha robh, bha mi a' buachailleachd nan caorach. Nach 'eil thu sgìth? Is mi nach 'eil. Mur am bheil (mur 'eil) thu sgìth, an cuir thu na caoraich ris a' mhonadh? An robh do bhrathair ag iasgach an dé? Bha, agus ged a bha, cha d' rug e air ceann. Na 'n robh an cù agam a nis, rachainn ri monadh. Na fan fada, tha ceò air a bheinn. Na bitheadh (biadh) càram oirbh, ged nach till mi gu feasgar. Na 'm faigheadh tu dhomhsa bata math daraich, bheirinn dhuit sgian. Bhris mi am bata calltuinn a fhuair mi o d' athair. Ma tha bata daraich anns a choille, gheibh mis' e. Am fear nach iarr, cha 'n fhaigh. Na bi air do mhealladh, is iomadh fear a fhuair an nì nach d' iarr e.

Were you fishing to-day? No, but I was fishing yesterday. If I had a good rod I would go to fish to-day. Will you buy me a knife? Have you not a knife? Yes, but it is not good. Though I would buy you a knife you would lose it. Tell your father that I will not see him to-morrow, but that I will see him on Tuesday at the market. He is not going to the market. If not, I will see him on Saturday, if he be at home. I expect he will be at home. Tell him I will be down about mid-day on Saturday.

THE REGULAR VERB

Is conjugated according to the three following models. To save repetition, the First Person singular only is given in the Dependent form of the verb. The conjugation of the verb Tog is typical of all regular verbs beginning with a consonant (except f followed by a vowel)—the verb FÀG, of all regular verbs beginning with f followed by a vowel—the verb IARR, of all regular verbs beginning with a vowel. The Gaelic verb has no simple Present Tense. It has a Present Compound Tense formed by the verb Bi and a verbal noun.

In the PASSIVE VOICE the auxiliary particles are prefixed in the same way as shewn in the Active Voice—see note on Subjunctive Mood of the verb Bi, as to aspiration.

{ Is eudar dhuinn, We must.
 { B' eudar dhuinn, We were obliged.

For the Dependent Form of these auxiliaries, the particles are prefixed in the same way as shown in the former examples of verbs.

THE VERBS Bi, Deàn, Rach.

71. The verb Bi, besides being used as an auxiliary in the conjugation of other verbs, is employed to denote possession in conjunction with the Prepositional-pronoun agam, or the simple preposition aig ; and in this combination is equivalent to the verb have in English ; as, tha leabhar agam, I have a book ; tha each aig an tuathnach, the farmer has a horse.

The same construction is used in Latin ; as, liber est mihi, I have a book—literally, a book is to me.

The irregular verb Deàn, when used before the verbal noun, is equivalent to the English auxiliary do; as, dean suidhe, sit thou—literally do a sitting; rinn mi mo gharadhbh, I warmed myself.

The irregular verb Rach, when used before the verbal noun corresponds with the Passive Voice; as, chaidh esan a bhualadh, he was struck; (passive, bhuaileadh e, he was struck). chaidh an duine 'chur 'am priosan, the man was sent to prison; (passive, chuireadh an duine 'am priosan).

IMPERSONAL FORM OF THE VERB.

72. A Passive verb takes an Impersonal form, when the subject is not expressed, but incorporated with the verb; as, chithear, sees, or shall see; thatar ag radh, it is said; thatar a' togail an taighe, the house is being built. The Impersonal form frequently takes the Prepositional pronoun leam; as, cluinnear leis guth binn na h-dighe, he hears the sweet voice of the maiden.

THE VERBAL-NOUN.

73. The verbal-noun is formed by adding a suffix to the stem. The inflectional suffix chiefly used is adh or eadh: as, taom, pour; a' toamadh, pouring.

Other suffixes which are commonly used are inn, sinn, ail, eil, achd, eachd, ich, aich.

Some verbal-nouns have no inflectional suffix, but retain their primary form; as, dl, drink; ag dl, drinking.

EXERCISE XI.

Mharbh an sealgair fiadh. Theich an eilid do 'n choille. Lean na coin an eilid. Lean thusa na coin, agus leanaidh mise thusa. Leum maigheach à tom fraoch. Cuir an cù dubh rithe. Tha an cù dubh crùbach. Bhreab an t-each donn e. An do bhris e cas a' choin? Cha do bhris. Is math nach do bhris; is cù math e. Am bheil e math air an t-sealg? Cha 'n 'eil na 's fearr. Gairm air a' chù-chaorach, tha mi 'dol ri monadh. Na fan fada air a' bheinn, tha coltas uisge air. Tillidh mi mu fheasgar. Mur till thu mu 'n tig an t-anamoch, beiridh an stoirm ort. Cha 'n fhaic mi mullach na beinne le ceò. Bi glic agus na rach ri monadh an diugh. Gabhaidh mi do chomhairle, agus fanaidh mi aig an tigh. Ma dhùisgeas tu mi aig briseadh an latha, theid mi do 'n bheinn an sin. Ni mise sin, ma bhitheas maduinn mhath ann.

The hare was in the garden. The dog killed the hare. Let us go to the hill to hunt the deer. Bring with you the two hunting-dogs and the brown terrier. Leave the sheep-dog at home. We saw a fox running into the wood. Did you set the dogs at him? No. We will wait until he comes out of the wood. Call in the dogs, and tie them to a tree. Keep your eye on yonder pass. The fox did not see us. If he did not see us, he heard the barking of the dogs.

EXERCISE XII.

RECAPITULATORY.

Nach binn ceileir nan eun air barraibh nan geug! Is taitneach a bhi 'g éisdeachd r' an ceòl. Is e so am mìos anns am bheil iad a' neadachadh. Chunnaic mi nead na smearaich anns a' phreas ud. Cia meud ubh a bha 'nns an nead? Cha do chunnt mi iad. Tha móran nead anns a' choille mhóir. Tha nead a' ghobhlain-gaoithe ann an anainn an taighe. Tha an gealbhonn gu dìchiollach a' cruinneachadh shop airson a nid. Tha eunlaith an adhair gu léir, a' deasachadh an àitean-còmhnuidh. Cluinnear iomadh fuaim thaitneach, agus chithear iomadh sealladh àillidh ann am mìosan an t-samhraidh. Gheibhear gach seòrsa measa ann an lìonmhòrachd. Gheibhear pailteas de gach nì a tha airson math duine agus ainmhidhe. Togadh an duine a ghuth ann an taingealachd airson gach maitheis.

Have you heard the sweet warbling of the birds? I hear them every morning. This is bird-nesting time. Have you seen the blackbird's nest in the hazel bush at the back of the house? I have; there are three eggs in the nest. Do not disturb the nest, and do not frighten the bird. How beautiful the country looks at this time! Every creature is happy and cheerful. The trees are covered with foliage, and the fields with a garment of green. Great and abundant are the blessings which the Creator bestows on us.

THE PRONOUN.

75. Pronouns take the place either of Substantives or Adjectives, and are divided into six classes:

Personal, Possessive, Relative, Demonstrative, Interrogative, Indefinite.

PERSONAL PRONOUNS.

Personal Pronouns agree with the noun for which they stand, in Gender, Number, and Case.

They are strengthened by having a syllable postfixed, and are therefore Simple and Emphatic.

The word féin or fhéin (self) is sometimes used to make the emphasis more forcible.

SINGULAR.

Simple. Emphatic.

- | | | | | | | |
|---|---------------------|---------------------------|---------------------------|---------------------|---------|--------------------|
| 1. Mi, | mise, I, me. | Sinn, | sinne, we, us. | | | |
| 2. Tu, | thu, tusa, | thusa, thou, thee. | Sibh, | sibhse, you. | | |
| 3. E, | i, | esan, ise, | he, him, she, her. | Iad, | iadsan, | they, them. |
| Mi-fhéin, myself; thu-fhéin, thyself; iad-fhéin, themselves. | | | | | | |

PLURAL.

Simple. Emphatic.

The Pronoun sibh (you) is frequently used in the Singular number, instead of thu, as a term of respect, when addressing a person senior in age or rank.

POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS.

76. SINGULAR.	PLURAL.
1. Mo, my .	Ar, our .
2. Do, thy .	Bhur, 'ur, your .
3. A, his, her .	An, am, their .

The Possessive Pronouns precede their nouns. They have (like the Personal) an emphatic form, but the strengthening particle is not closely joined to them as in the case of the Personal Pronouns.

The particle is placed after the noun which follows the Possessive Pronoun; and if an adjective follows the noun, the particle is put after the adjective—if more than one adjective, it is placed after the last.

When mo and do are followed by a word beginning with a vowel, or f aspirated, o is left out; a (his) followed by a vowel, or f aspirated, is also left out; ar and bhur take n- after them, and a (her) takes h-; as, m' uan for mo uan, my lamb; 'each for a each, his horse; a h-each, her horse; ar n-u-an, our lamb.

Mo and do after a preposition ending in a vowel, sometimes lose the o before a consonant; as, le m' laimh, with my hand, for le mo laimh; after the proposition ann, and the particle ag, mo and do are sometimes transposed into am and ad; as, ann am laimh (in my hand) for, ann mo laimh.

3. { A chÙ-san, his dog . { A cÙ-se, her dog .	An cÙ-san, their dog .
1. M' each bàn-sa, my white horse .	Ar n-each bàn-ne, our white horse .
2. D' each bàn-sa, thy white horse .	Bhur n-each bàn-sa, your white horse .
3. { 'each bàn-san, his white horse . { A h-each bàn-se, her white horse .	An each bàn-san, their white horse .

*Mo chù fhéin, my own dog ;
M' each bàn shéin, my own white horse, &c.*

The same meaning can be expressed by changing the construction, and substituting the Prepositional-pronoun agam for the Possessive Pronoun ; as, an cù agam-sa (my dog), for mo chù-sa ; an t-each bàn agairne (our white horse), for ar n-each bàn-ne.

RELATIVE PRONOUNS.

77. The Relative Pronouns are :

A, who, whom, which, that ; as, am fear a bhail, the man who struck.

Nach, who not, whom not, etc. ; as, am fear nach do bhail, the man who did not strike.

Na, what, includes in itself the relative and antecedent, and means that which, or the thing which ; as, thoir dhomh na dh-iarr mi, give me what I asked.

The Relative follows its antecedent, and precedes the verb.

The Relative has no case inflection ; the context must therefore determine whether it be in the Nominative to the verb which follows it, or governed by it in the Accusative. Ex.: Am fear a bhail mi, the man who struck me, or the man whom I struck.

DEMONSTRATIVE PRONOUNS.

78. These are :

So, this, these ; as, am baile so, this town ; so an gille, this (is) the lad.

Sin, that, those ; as, am fear sin, that man ; na fir sin, those men.

Sid or Sud, ud, yonder ; as, sid am fiadh, yonder the deer ; na craobhan ud, yonder trees.

So and sin can be used with the Third personal Pronouns, as well as with a noun ; as, tha iad so a' tighinn, these are coming.

INTERROGATIVE PRONOUNS.

79. SIMPLE.

COMPOUND.

Co? Who? Co dhiù? Whether. Cia meud? } How many and how much?

Cia? Which? Có aca? } Which of Có dhiubh? } them?

Ciod? What? Có leis? Whose? De'n urad? How much?
Ciod è? What is it? Co è? Who is he? Co i? Who is she? Có iad? Who are they?

Ciod è? in common speech is corrupted into gu dé? and dé?
(What?)

Có? or Cia? is contracted into C' before airson, iùine, àite, as,
C' arson? Wherefore? C' uin? When? C' àite? Where?

Co, cia, ciód, are not always used interrogatively: as interrogatives, they come first in a sentence; but in the middle or towards the end of a sentence they are used as relatives; as, tha fhios agam Co (a) bhual thu, I know who (that) struck you.

INDEFINITE PRONOUNS.

80. SIMPLE.

COMPOUND.

Gach, each.

Càch, others, the rest.

Gach, iomadh, a h-uile, precede Singular nouns.

Eile, eigin, air bith, sam bith, follow their nouns.

EXERCISE XIII.

Chaidh an sealgair agus mi-fhéin do 'n mhonadh a shealg. Dh-éirich sinn moch 's a' mhaduinn. Chunnaic sinn dà dhamh agus eilid, ag ionaltradh ann an glaic uaignich aig taobh an ùillt mhóir. Feumaidh sinn a bhi sàmhach agus faicilleach. Tha damh mór nan cròc a' togail a chinn. Am bheil e 'g ar faicinn? Cha 'n 'eil, ach tha iad a' cluinntinn fuaim. Fan thusa 'n sin, cùm a stigh na coin, agus theid mise mu 'n cuairt gu oir na coille. Ma chluinneas tu urchair, leig as na coin. Thog an sealgair an gunna r' a shùil, loisg e, agus thuit an damh mór. An do mharbhadh am fiadh? Cha do mharbhadh, ach leonadh e. Dh-éirich e rithist agus thug e am monadh air. Cho luath 's a chuala mi an urchair, leig mi as na coin. Chaill mi sealladh air, ach tha na coin air a lorg. Am bheil thu 'g am faicinn? Cha 'n 'eil ach tha mi a' cluinntinn tathunnaich nan con aig bràigh a' ghlinne. Sid an damh a' dìreadh a' bhruthaich. Tha a luaths a' dol an lughad—tha na coin a' dlùthachadh air—tha e nis a' tighinn le leathad gu ceann an locha, agus a' gabhail an uisge. Leònta 's mar tha e, nach math air an t-snàmh, e? Gairm a stigh na coin, gheibh sinn e aig taobh thall an locha.

It is getting (growing) dark, let us go home. Let us take the bye-path through the wood. When will we reach the house? About seven o'clock, if we walk quickly. Are you hungry. I'm both hungry and thirsty. Will you go to fish to-morrow? I shall, if the day be suitable. Shall we bring with us the net? We will take with us the salmon-net and the rods. Are the sails in good order? Yes, but one of the oars is broken. Shall we mend it, or get an oar from one of the fishermen? We will mend it, if we have time. What time will you be ready in the morning? I shall be ready about nine o'clock. Good night.

PREPOSITIONS.

81. Prepositions are simple and compound.

Simple Prepositions govern the Dative case of nouns.

Compound Prepositions are, for the most part, made up of a simple preposition and a noun, and generally govern the Genitive case.

SIMPLE PREPOSITIONS.

ADVERBS.

84. Most adjectives can be converted into Adverbs by prefixing the particle gu to the adjective ; as, dileas, faithful; gu dileas, faithfully.

Compound Adverbs or Adverbial phrases are generally made up of the article and prepositions combined with nouns and adjectives.

Some of these Adverbial phrases, in certain circumstances, are regarded as prepositions.

Adverbs are expressive of Time, Place, Manner, etc.

The following are in common use :—

ADVERBS OF TIME.

Cian, long before.	An tràth so,	} just now.
Cheana, already.	An dràsda,

CONJUNCTIONS.

85. Conjunctions connect words and sentences.

Besides the simple conjunctions, there are conjunctional phrases consisting chiefly of simple conjunctions, combined with nouns and prepositions.

The conjunctions may be classified as follows :—

Copulative ; as agus, and.

Adversative ; as ach, but.

Explanatory ; as bho 'n, o'n, since.

Assertive ; as gu' n, that.

Negative ; as nach, that not.

The simple conjunctions and conjunctional phrases are expressive of Purpose, Place, Time, Result, Condition, Comparison, Reason.

Cho, co, with ri, or ris, are used to express comparison ; as, tha Seumas cho sean ri Domhnall, James is as old as Donald ; cho geal ris an t-sneachd, as white as the snow.

Cho sometimes takes agus, 'us, after it ; as, am bi sibh cho math agus deoch a thoirt dhomh? Will you be so good as give me a drink ?

SIMPLE CONJUNCTIONS.

Ach, but.

Gidheadh, yet, nevertheless.

Agus, 'us, and.

Gu'n gu'm, gur, that.

Bho'n, o'n, since.

Ma, na'n na'm, if.

Cho, co, so, as.

Mar, as.

Chionn, for, because.

Mu'n, before, lest.

Coma, however.

Mur, if not.

Eadhon, even.

Na, than.

Ged, though.

No, air neo, or.

Oir, for, because.

CONJUNCTURAL PHRASES.

A bharr, bharrachd, moreover. Ged nach, that not.

A chionn gu, because that. Ged tha, { notwithstanding.

Ach co dhiù, } but how- Ged tha, { though it be.

Ach coma co dhiù, } ever. Ionnus gu, insomuch that.

A chum's gu, in order that.	Mar gu, as if.
A chum's nach, { in order that not.	Mar nach, as if not.
Aon chuid, either.	Ma tà, matà, { if so, then.
Air an aobhar sin, therefore.	Tuille, { over and
Air chor's gu, so that.	A thuille air sin, { above that.
Air chor's nach, so that not.	Uime sin, therefore.

EXERCISE XIV.

An tì a bheir freagradh ann an cùis mu'n cluinn e i, is amaideachd agus nàire dha e.

Mar ùbhlann òir ann an dealbhaibh airgid, tha facal a labhrar gu h-iomchuidh.

Ciod air am bheil bunaitean na talmhainn air an daing-neachadh, no có a leag a' chlach-oisinn?

An tì a dh-earbas às a chridhe féin, is amadan e; ach esan a għluaiseas gu glic, saorar e.

Éisdidh mac glic ri teagast 'athar.

Leis gach uile dhichioll gléidh do chridhe; oir as a sin tha sruthannan na beatha.

A nis, uime sin, a chlann, éisdibh rium, agus na deal-aichibh ri briathraibh mo bheóil.

Ach tha slighe nam firean mar an solus dealrach, a dhealaicheas na's mò agus na's mò gu ruig an là ionlan.

EXERCISE XV.

RECAPITULATORY.

O Leabhar nan Cnoc.

Tha a' ghrian do 'n t-saoghal nadurra, mar tha spiorad na beatha do mhae an duine. Is e a teas a tha toirt fàis do luibhibh na machrach; agus an uair a sgaoileas i caomh-alachd na glòir-mhaidne mu 'n cuairt di, bithidh gach creutair sunndach le a làthaireachd, suilbhír agus aighearach le a tiodhlacaibh. Le a teas éiridh míltean de chuileagan sgiatrach gu beatha. Clisgidh na h-eòin o an cadal, agus dóirtidh iad a mach an ceileirean ceòlmhor ann an co-sheirm chiùil an uair a mhothaicheas iad a blàths. Le mèlich bheir na treudan buidheachas airson teachd na maidne ciùine, agus innsidh am buar le an àrd-gheumnaich an taingealachd. Aithrisidh na gleanntan an ceòl ceudna, agus freagraidh na cnuic do 'n fhonn. Bheir teas na gréine air gach luibh a tha air aghaidh na talmhainn, fàs gu h-ùrar agus gorm; còmhdaichidh e na craobhan le duilleach—a' mhachair le arbhar agus meas—na sléibhteann le buar agus treudaibh, agus cridhe an duine le gàirdeachas agus taingealachd . . .

Tha oibre Dhé ro-lionmhòr agus iogantach. Cha 'n urrainn do chreutair cruthaichte an tuigsinn no an àireamh. Tha an cunntas os ceann gach nì air an urrainn da smuaineachadh; agus tha an gliocas a dhealbh, agus an cumhachd a tha 'g an cumail suas, os ceann eòlas chloinn nan daoine.

IDIOMS.

86. In Gaelic there are certain phrases (peculiar to the language), the meaning of which is lost or obscured by a literal translation.

The verbs is and bi, in conjunction with prepositional-pronouns and adjectives, make up many of those expressions which are a source of difficulty to the acquirer of the language.

Bi (in all its forms), with the preposition aig, or with the prepositional-pronoun agam, etc., denotes Possession; as, tha oighreachd agam, I have an estate; tha sgian aige, he has a knife; na 'n robh tigh agam, if I had a house.

Bi, with the preposition air, or with the prepositional-pronoun formed therefrom, expresses certain feelings or affections of mind and body—also indebtedness; as, tha an t-acras orm, I am hungry; tha deich tasdain agam air an fhìcar sin, that man owes me ten shillings (literally, I have ten shillings on that man); tha am fiabhrus air, he has the fever.

Is, with the preposition le, or with the prepositional-pronoun leam, etc., denotes Ownership; as, is leam an t-each, the horse is mine; co leis an leabhar? Is leam-sa e; Whose book (is it)? It is mine. Na 'm bu le Iain an cù, if the dog were John's.

When the verb bi, in any of its forms, is used to affirm something between one noun or pronoun and another noun or pronoun, it requires the preposition ann, with one of the possessive pronouns, to strengthen it; as, tha Iain 'n a shedladair, John is a sailor (literally, John is in his sailor); tha mi ann am sheasamh, I am standing.

The verb is makes the assertion direct, without the aid of any particle; as, is cléireach mi, I am a clerk.

The preposition ann is used with is and bi to denote existence, and in this connection it sometimes corresponds to the English word there, or here; as, is misc a tha 'nn, It is I; (literally, it is I that is in it); am bheil thu ann? Are you there?

To ask or deserve anything is expressed by air; to part with a person or thing is expressed by ri; as, thaehair mi air Seumas, I met James; an do thaehair e ort? did he meet you? dhealaich mi ri m' airgead, I parted with my money; cha dhealaich mi riut gu bràth, I shall never part from you.

The word leth (half) is frequently used to express one of a pair; as thog mi sin le mo leth-laimh, I lifted that with my one hand (literally, with my half hand); chì mi sin le mo leth-shuil, I see that with my one eye.

To be alone, is expressed by leam and féin; also, by aonar, as, tha mi leam fhéin; tha mi 'n am aonar, I am alone.

87. The following are a few idiomatic phrases in common use. These can be used with the auxiliary particles, as shewn in the treatment of the Verb.

- Is àill leam, } I wish, or desire.
- Is miann leam, }
- Is aithne dhomh, I know.

Cuir dragh air, trouble him.
Rach air d'aghaidh, }
Rach air adhart, } proceed.
Is beag nach, almost.
Cha mhor nach, almost.
Is mó̄r am beud, it is a great pity.

GAELIC READINGS.

EIRIGH NA GRÉINE.

Cha'n'eil aon sealladh eile air aghaidh an t-saoghal gu léir a's àillidh na éirigh na gréine! Tha briseadh na h-òg-mhaidne a' leigeil ris duinn cruthachadh ùr. Thug dorchadas na h-oidhche air falbh o'n t-sealladh an talamh a bhos agus na speuran shuas; ach air pilleadh na maidne tha sinn a' léirsinn nàduir gu léir mar gum biodh e air ath-nuadhachadh le sgèimh dhreachmhor. Ann an camh-anaich na maidne tha neul liath-ghorm nan spéur ag atharrachadh. Chìtheart rughadh fann a' dùsgadh s'an aird-an-Ear. Tha na reultan a' teicheadh as an t-sealladh, 's a' folach an cinn. Tha àilleachd òr-bhuidh a' dìreadh nan speur uidh air n-uidh, a' toirt rabhaidh gu bheil a 'ghrian a' teachd. Chìtheart an saoghal a' teachd a' ris san fhradharc 'n a làn-mhaise. Tha na neòil shuas a gabhail dath an òir a's deirge dreach. Tha na beanntan mòra a' togail an cinn le aoibhneas. Tha 'choille 'g èiridh gu dosrach ùrar. Tha na machraighean féin, fo'n driùchd ghorm a tha air gach feòirnein maoth, a' deàlradh le soillse àghmhor. Ceum air cheum mar tha'n solus a' meudachadh, tha'n sealladh a' cinntinn na's maisiche, gus faidheòidh o shoillse gu soillse, am bheil an aon chuspair a's glòrmhoire r'a fhaicinn, Eirigh na gréine. Tha'n solus a' meudachadh, gnùis fhathail na gréine a' teachd am fradharc. Dh'éirich i nis air chùl nam beann 'n a làn-mhaise. Suas ghabh i air siubhal an àigh ann an glòir co dealrach, agus solus co boillsgeil, 's nach'eil e'n comas sùil chruthaichte beachdachadh oirre.

Nan tigeadh an sealladh so air neach o mhullach beinne gun fhaicinn riamh roimhe gus a sin, ciod a smuainicheadh e, agus ciod a dheanadh e? Gun teagamh air bith thilgeadh se e féin sìos ann an ùmhachd iriosal, làn de urram agus de iongantas naomha, a' tairgse molaidh do'n Dia mhòr, Cruithfhear na gréine. Cha'n fhaodadh e gun éigheach a mach, O thusa, a Dhé ghlòrmhor! Ann an àilleachd na h-ùrmhaidne, tha mise 'g aideachadh do chumhachd, do ghliocais, agus do mhòralachd. Maille ris an riabhaig a dhìrich an diugh gu àirde nan speur, a chur fàilt' air an là, tha mise togradh a' d'ionnsuidh. Tha gàirdeachas an t-saoghal mu'm thimchioll, agus gach beò-chreutair a ta air 'uachdar 'g am aomadh gu m'anam a thogail a' d' ionnsuidh le déòthas naomha. Tha'n cruthachadh gu léir, air an àm so 'g ad' mholadh; agus an e gum bi mise 'm thosd? Tabhair, O m'anam! cliù do Dha. Ruigeadh laoidhean mo chliù na nèamhan àrda far am bheil thusa chòmhnuidh, a tha 'g àithneadh do'n ghréin éiridh, agus a tha le d' làimh 'g a stiùradh 'n a h-astar àrd.

DÀN DO'N GHRÈIN.

A ghrian na h-òg-mhaidne ! ag éiridh
 Air sléibhtibh soir le d' chiabhan òr-bhuidh ;
 'S ait ceuma do theachd air an aonach,
 'S gach caochan 's a' ghleann ri gàire.
 Tha croinn uaine ro' dhrùchd nam fras,
 Ag éiridh gu bras a' d' chòmhdhail,
 Is filidh bhinn nan coillte fàs
 A' cur fàilt ort gu moch le 'n òran.

Ach c'ait am bheil ciar-imeachd na h-oidhche
 (Ro' d' ghnùis) air sgiathaibh an fhìrein ?

C'ait am bheil aig duibhre a còmhnuidh,
 'S uamh chòsach nan reulta soillse ?
 Tràth leanas tu 'n ceuma gn luath,
 Mar shealgair 'g an ruagadh 's an speur ;
 Thusa dire' nan aonach àrd,
 'S iadsan air faoin-bheanntaibh fàs a' leum.
 'S aoibhinn do shiubhal, a sholuis àigh,
 A sgaoileas le d' dheàrsadh, gach doinionn ;
 'S is maiseach do chleachdan òir
 A' snàmh siar 's do dhòigh ri pilleadh.
 Le seachran an dall-cheò na h-oidhche,
 Cha ghlarcar thu 'chaoidh ann ad chùrsa ;
 'S doinionn nan cuanta gàbhaidh
 Cha séid gu bràth as d' iùl thu.
 Le gairm na ciùin-mhaidne bidh d' éirigh,
 'S do ghnùis fhaoilidh a' dùsgadh gean,
 A' fògradh na h-oidhch' o gach àit,
 Ach sùil a' bhàird nach faic do sholus.

FAOGHAID AN FHÉIDH.

Bu chiùin, àillidh a' mhaduinn air an cualas tathunn nan gadhar ann an àird Choire Lùnnndai. Dhùisg am fiadh air a leabaidh luachrach, thog e 'cheann fiadhaich, chual' e 'n fhuaim a' tighinn air àile glan nam beann. Dh' fhag e 'leaba luachrach 's an lagan uaigneach aig bun nan stùc, 's thug e air troimh 'n aisridh chumhaing, chais, gu bearradh nan creag. Le 'chuinnein fiadhta 's an t-soirbheas, agus a chròc chabarach àrd r'a faicinn eadar iad 's faire, mhothaich an t-sealg do'n fhiadh. Sheas e car tamuill,— ceò glas, tana na maidne a' snàmh seachad air,—sheas an laoch, ag amharc, mar gu 'm b'ann, le tàir air an fhaoghaid mhall-shiùbhach a bha teachid air a thòir ; ach co luath 's a thog iad ri uchd na sgàirneich air 'aisridh chorraich féin, thàr e as. Siùbhlar gu h-eutrom, uallach, troi'n mhòintich 's mu ghuaillibh bheann ag iaraidh dubhair, agus dìomhaireachd na coille ann an gleann a' bharraich. Ann an làn-earbsa á 'chàil agus a luathas féin, pillear gu grad air an t-slighe cheudna, a' ruith calg-dhìreach an coinneamh na seilg. Anns gach car 'us lùb 'us iathadh, tha 'n fhaoghaid 'g a lorgachadh agus gu dian air a thòir. Thionndaidh e romhpa agus thugar as le luathas nan eang, gu dian, siùbhach. Leagar a chròca mòra air a dhruim, agus sìnear as le luathas na gaoithe, làn-earbsach 'n a lùs féin, agus suarach mu'n fhaoghaid fhaoin a bha 'g a ruagadh. Tha na gadhair mall, ach neo-mhearachdach air luirg. Troimh mhóinteich a's bhruthaichibh, troimh choille 's troimh dhoire, troimh 'n fhàidh uile, gu seasmhach neo-sgitheil, faic iad air a luirg. Tha e 'n an sealladh, chual 'e'n tathunn, agus thug e as le luathas ùr. Faic e 'n a dheann-ruith sìos troi'n choire, a mach troimh bheallach nan bò, nùnn troimh shlochd nan sionnach, suas ri uchd a' mhill àird, agus faid-heòidh, gabhar fasgadh agus tàirngear 'anail ann an doire na Beinne-mòire. Ach ciod so an fhuaim tha 'ga ruigheachd ? Feuch an fhaoghaid a nis gu teann a' dlùthachadh ! Air a luirg tha gach gadhar a' ruith ; agus tha mac-talla o gach creig a' freagairt d'an tathunn. Ghabh am fiadh mòr-eagal, agus teichear air tòir na greigh. Am measg chàich, air leis gum biodh e tèaruinte, ach iadsan, suarach mu'n chor anns am faic iad e, seachnaidh e agus fògraiddh as a' ghreigh e gu tur. Air a thréigsinn le gach aon, agus fuaim nan gadhar 'n a chluais, tha e fo uamhas, tha e 'clisgeadh, tha e 'togail air a rithist, agus le uile luathas agus lùs nan eang, tha e 'teicheadh 's gun fhios c'àite. Tha 'chàil, a chridhe, a spiorad uile anns an t-siubhal. Mo thruaighe ! 's diomhain a shao-thair. Tha tathunn na h-oillt a' dlùthachadh, tha iad 's an t-sealladh, dh' fhalbh a mhisneach, tha 'chail air fannachadh, thainig a luathas gu moille. Faic e 's an lagan ud thall a' saoithreachadh troi'n allt le ceum anmhunn, le gluasad na crùbaiche. Tha uaislean na seilg, tha luchd na faoghaid a' mothachadh dha so, éisd an iolach àrd! tha beothachadh ùr ann an tathunn nan gadhar, tha iad aige! ciod so nì e? Cha'n'eil fàth dòchais. Fo chuthach theich an t-eagal, thionndaidh an laoch cabrach, 'an taic stuic seana chraobh dharaich; seasar, 's cuirear an fhaoghaid uile gu dùlan. Faic a' cheud ghadhar glas a ràinig e, air bàrr a chròice, éisd, donnalaich nan con!—tha'm fraoch dearg le'm fuil, 's tha ladhair an fhéidh a' saltairt 'n an gaorr; tha' dhòchas a rithist air dùsgadh, thug e aon chruinn-leum àrd thairis orra agus a mach uapa fhuair e; ach, mo thruaighe! b'i so an oidheirp mu dheireadh, tha iad fhathast 'n a dhéigh, cha 'n'eil tàruinteachd dha air tir; leigear e féin a mach air an t-sruth agus gabhar gu snàmh. Bha eilean bòidheach coillteach a mach o thir, agus deanar g'a ionnsuidh; ràinig e'n tràigh' air a chlaoidh gu goirt, gun chàil gun mhisнич a' feitheamh na faoghaid—faic e a' fannachadh le sgios, agus ag ospagaich le geilt. Tha'n t-sealg dlùth; thogadh caithream na buaidh; tha'n deur nach robh riamh roimhe air an t-sùil, a nis a' tuiteam; tha e 'gabhall aon sealladh eile air a' choille 's air an doire air an robh e eòlach, 's a thoaghail e ann an làithibh a shonais. Slàn leò gu bràth!—A chaoiadh cha siubhail e iad; tha luchd a chasgairt a nis r'a thaobh; strì cha'n 'eil 'n a chomas: tha'm buille dol g'a bhualadh; ach cò è uasal an àigh a tha le aon fhacal a' smachdachadh na faoghaid? Cò è tha tighinn a nìos 'n a dhian-ruith, tha 'faicinn an fhéidh, tha 'gabhall truais? Cò è a tha gairm, Leigibh as e! Faic gach gadhar air a cheangal suas; tha luchd na seilge balbh, 'n an tosd; tha cead nam beann aig an fhiadh; tha saorsa agus sìth, fasgadh agus tàruinteachd a nis 'n a shiubhal 's 'n a ghluasad! Ach cò è an t-uasal àrd? Thà an Rìgh d'am buin a' bheinn—Rìgh na dùthcha, 's e thubhairt, Caomhnaibh am fiadh; thugaibh saorsa dha!

CEAD DEIREANNACH NAM BEANN.

Bha mi 'n dé 'm Beinn-dòrain,
 'S 'n a còir cha robh mi aineolach,
 Chunna' mi na gleanntan,
 'S na beanntaichean a b'aithne dhomh ;
 B'e sin an sealladh éibhinn,
 Bhi' gimeachd air na slèibhtibh,
 'N uair bhiodh a' ghrian ag éiridh,
 'S a bhiodh na féidh a' langanaich.

B' aobhach a' ghreidh uallach,
 'N uair għluaiseadh iad gu farumach,
 'S na h-éildean air an fhuaran,
 Bu chuannar na laoigh bhallach ann ;
 Na maoislichean 's na ruadh-bhuic,
 Na coilich dhubb' is ruadha,
 'S e 'n ceol bu bhinne chualas
 'N uair chluinnt' am fuaim 's a' chamhanaich.

'S togarrach a dh'fhalbhainn
 Gu sealgaireachd nam beallaichean,
 Dol moch a dhìreadh garbhlaich,
 'S gu'm b'anmoch tigh'n gu baile mi ;
 An t-uisge glan 's am fàileadh
 Th'air mullach nam beann àrda,
 Chuidich e gu fàs mi ;
 'S e rinn domh slaint' 'us fallaineachd.

Fhuair mi greis a m' àrach
 Air àireanaibh a b'aithne dhomh,
 Ri cluiche, mire, 's mènran,
 'S bhi'n caoimhneas blàth nan caileagan ;
 Bu chùis an aghaidh naduir,
 Gu'm maireadh sin an tràth-s' ann,
 'S e b'eigin bhi 'g am fàgail
 'N uair thainig tràth dhuinn dealachadh.

Nis o'n bhual an aois mi,
 Fhuair mi gaoid a mhaires domh,
 Í Rinn milleadh air mo dheudach,
 'S mo lèirsinn air a dalladh orm
 Cha'n urrainn mi bhi treubhach,
 Ged a chuirinn feum air,
 'S ged bhiodh an ruaig a'm dhéigh-sa,
 Cha dean mi ceum ro chabhagach.

Ged tha mo cheann air liathadh,
 'S mo chiabhagan air tanachadh,
 'S tric a leig mi mial-chu
 Ri fear fiadhaich, ceannardach ;
 Ged bu toigh leam riamh iad,
 'S ged fhaicinn air an t-sliabh iad,
 Cha teid mi nis g'an iarraigdh,
 O'n chaill mi trian na h-analach.

Ri àm dol anns a' bhùireadh,
 Bu dùrachdach a leanainn iad,
 'S bhiodh uair aig sluagh na duthcha,
 Toirt orain ùr 'us rannachd dhaibh :
 Greis eile mar ri càirdean,
 'N uair bha sinn anns na campan,
 Bu chridheil anns an àm sinn,
 'S cha bhiodh an dram oirnn annasach.

'N uair bha mi 'n toiseach m'dòige,
 'S i ghòraich a chum falamh mi ;
 'S e fortan tha cur oirnne,
 Gach aon ni còir a ghealladh dhuinn ;
 Ged tha mi gann de stòras,
 Tha m'inntinn làn de shòlas,
 O'n tha mi ann an dòchas,
 Gu'n d'rinn nigh'n Deors' an t-aran domh.

Bha mi 'n dè 's an aonach,
 'S bha smaointeán mó'r' air m'aire-sa,
 Nach robh 'n luchd-gaoil a b'abhaist
 Bhi siubhal fàsaich mar rium ann.
 'S a' bheinn is beag a shaoil mi,
 Gu'n deanadh ise caochladh ;
 O'n tha i nis fo chaoraich,
 'S ann thug an saoghal car asam.

'N uair sheall mi air gach taobh dhiom,
 Cha'n fhaodainn gun bhi smalanach,
 O'n theirig coill 'us fraoch ann,
 'S na daoine bh'ann, cha mhaireann iad ;
 Cha'n 'eil fiadh r'a shealg ann,
 Cha'n 'eil eun no earb ann ;
 Am beagan nach 'eil marbh dhiubh,
 'S e rinn iad falbh gu baileach as.

Mo shoraidh leis na frìthean,
 O's miorbhailteach na beannan iad,
 Le biolair uaine 'us fior-uisg',
 Deoch uasal, riomhach, cheanalta ;
 Na blàran a tha priseil,
 'S na fàsaichean tha lìonmhòr,
 O's àit' a leig mi dhiom iad,
 Gu bràth mo mhile beannachd leo !

SEALLADH O MHULLACH BEINNE ANN AN EARRA-GHAEL, MU DHOL FODHA NA GRÉINE.

O'n is cuimhne leam beathach no duine, b'e mo thlachd a bhi siubhal nam beann ; agus is minic a ghabh mi seal-gaireachd mar leisgeul, chum an srath fhàgail, agus farsuing-eachd a' mhonaidh a ghabhail fo m' cheann. Tha toileachas-inntinn r'a fhaotainn air mullach beinne àird, leis an t-sealladh fharsuing a tha uaithe air muir agus air tir-mòr ; nach fhaod gun àrdachadh inntinn a dhùsgadh a tha air dòigh àraidh taitneach agus tarbhach. 'S ann uaith so tha e tachairt, gu bheil spéis mhòr aig gach aon do'n bheinn is dlùithe do'n àite 's an d'fhuaire 'àrach,—bàigh a leanas ris fhad 's is beò e ; agus thigeadh e dhachaidh á Innsibh na h-àird an Ear no'n Iar, cha bhi e 's a' choimhairsnachd gun togradh a dh'ionnsuidh an àite anns an d'fhuaire e, air leis, a' cheud bheachd air farsuingeachd an t-saoghail ; agus bithidh e déigheil mar an ceudna air 'eòlas ath-ùrachadh air gach glaic agus coire a b'abbhaist da thaghall 'n a òige, 'n uair bu lùthmhòr a cheum, agus a bu bheag a bha'n saoghal a cur air a chridhe de chùram. B'aluinn an là ann an céitein an t-sàmhraidh, 'n uair a dh'fhalbh mi gun duine maille rium, le rùn flor mhullach na beinne a ruigheachd, agus sealladh fhaotainn air dol fodha na gréine. Bha'n là 's an àm sin 'n a fhad 's 'n a bhlàths : bha gach eun a' seinn aig beinn 's aig baile, agus obair na cruitheachd fo shòlas. Dhìrich mi o ghuala gu guala, o choire gu coire, gus an d'ràinig mi an t-àite 's an robh an àiridh ri m' cheud chuimhne : bha làraichean nam bothan fathast r'am faicinn ; bha crò nam meann 'n a tholman uaine, an t-sòbhrach 's an neòinein a fàs air. B'aighearach an sùgradh a b'abbhaist a bhi 'n so moch-thrath agus feasgar an àm bleodhan na spréidhe. Bha 'n t-alltan beag a' siubhal gu sèimh troimh 'n àilein, le torman co tùchanach 's bu ghnàth leis. Shuidh mi car tamuill air a' bhruaich ag iarraidh fionnachd 'n a bhraonaibh tlàtha. Cha deachaidh mi seachad air aon tobar a chaisg iota m' òige gun fheuchainn, no air eas no leum-uisge gun seasamh aìr an cùl a dh' fheuchainn an robh co liutha bogha-frois r'a fhaicinn 's a b' abbhaist. Mar so chaidh mòran de'n latha seachad, ach ràinig mi fa dheireadh mullach na beinne. Shuidh mi 'm fasgadh an liath-chùirn a bh'air a mullach, agus dh'amhairc mi air an dùthaich mu'n cuairt—

B'aluinn a beinnean 's a srathan ;

B'éibhinn dath a gleanntan.

Bha tìr-mòr na dùthcha ri m' chùl, ach bha mach calg-dhìreach m'am choinneamh a' chuid bu mhò de Innse-Gall, an cuan mòr le 'chaoil 's le 'loingeas, agus a' ghrian ghlòr-mhor féin a' téarnadh o àirde nan speur ann an àilleachd an fheasgair.

Cha robh eilean eadar Caol-Ile mu dheas, agus an Caol-Sgiathanach mu thuath; cha robh sliabh eadar Beinn-an-òir an Diùra agus a Chullainn ann an Eilean-a-Cheò, nach robh gu soilleir a'm' bheachd. Bha Muile dorcha, le 'chaol-mara mar abhuinn àluinn ag iathadh mu'n cuairt da, dìreach fo m' shùil. Bha I nan Deòradh le 'làraichibh briste, ann an uaigneas sàmhach r'a thaic; Staffa ainmeil le uamh nan tonn mar dhuradan beag a mach air an fhairge; Tirì iosal an eòrna,—Cola creagach,—Eig, le 'sgòrr ri speur,—'s an t-Eilean Sgiathanach, ban-righ an iomlain; agus a mach air an cùl gu léir, ann an iomall na rioghachd, an t-Eilean-Fada mar mhile sgeir, ag éiridh air aghaidh a' chuain, smùid ghàirdeachais ag éiridh o gach aon diubh, 'n uair bha 'ghrian a' siubhal seachad os an ceann, 'g am fàgail mìle de mhìltibh 'n a déigh. Bu diomhain oidheirp a thoirt air a' choi'-lion smuain a bha taitneach, agus, tha dòchas agam, a bha tarbhach, a dhùisg suas leis an t-sealladh so. Air a leithid so a dh'äm cha ruigear a leas an inntinn a chumail fo smachd. Bu shona a bhiodh daoine nan giùlaineadh iad, am measg ùinich agus othail na beatha so, càileigin de'n aigne mhaith sin, a tha uaigneas agus sàmhchair a shamhuil so de àite a' tàrmachadh. Oir, gu cinnteach, mar a's mò a thàirngeas sinn air falbh o iorghiill an t-saoghal so, 's ann a's mò a ruigeas sinn air an fhonn spioradail sin, trid am bheil an t-anam air a chur air ghleus gu co'-chomunn àrd a chumail r'ar n-Athair nèamhaidh. Nam bu mhath leinn blasad air an aoibhneas so, cha bu neo-iomchuidh dhuinn air uairibh comunn an t-saoghal so fhàgail, agus a ràdh ris gach imcheist bhuaireasach a bhuineas dha, mar thubhairt Abraham r'a òganaich, Fanaibhse 'an so, agus théid mise suas a thairgse na h-ìobairt.

Bha 'ghrian a téarnadh gu luath; bha dath an òir air aghaidh nan speur; bha a leadan àillidh cheana 's a' chuan, agus an fhairge, mar gu'm b' ann, a' dùnadh mu'n cuairt dhi. Is blasd' a' chainnt a chleachd Bàrd na dùthcha so féin, 'n uair bha'n sealladh so aige, 's ma dh'fhaoidte, o'n mhullach cheudna, mar chi sibh 's an dàn a leanas. Ach bu dall sinne mur gabhamaid beachd a b' àirde air an t-sealladh so, na dh'fhaodadh esan fhòghlum o thugse àduir. An ti nach mothaicheadh o'n t-sealladh so glòir an Tì naoimh a chruthaich a' ghrian, agus a sgeadaich an saoghal le 'uile àilleachd, bu bhochd, gu dearbh, a chor, agus cha chulaidh-fharmaid a chridhe; oir, gu deimhin, bu ghlòrmhor an taisbean a bha'n so air cumhachd agus maitheas Dé. A bhi mothachadh do'n ghàirdein thréun sin air am bheil an domhan crochta, a' fosgladh air an dara làimh dhiom dorsa na h-oidhche do'n ghréin, 'g a cur a mach a shoillseachadh taobh eile 'n t-saoghail, 's a dhùsgadh nam miltean as an suain: 's a bhi faicinn a' ghàirdein cheudna a' togail na gealaiche dhuinne 'n a h-àite, an robh e comasach gun èigheach a mach, Is glòrmhor thusa, O Dhé uile-bheann-achte! tha nèamh agus talamh làn de d' ghlòir, a Thig-hearna nam feart; tha thu toirt dhuinne gach beannachd 'n a thràth, agus cha 'n 'eil thu, air àm sam bith, 'g ar fagail fo an-dòchas no dith! Chaidh a' ghrian fodha, agus shaoileadh tu gu'n robh an saoghal a' caoidh: bha'n drùchd tràm, mar dheòir na h-oidhche 'n a déigh, a' braonadh gu làr. Dh-fhalbh a' ghrian, ach bha fathast àirde nan speur air an òradh le gathannaibh àghmhor, a' lubadh a nuas gu fann fathast air an t-saoghail, 's 'g a bheannachadh le eadar-sholus an anmoich. Bha'n ceò a' sgaoileadh sios air an leacainn, agus bha 'n t-àm dhomh nis am monadh fhàgail. Bu bheannaicht' an t-sàmhchair a bha mach air feadh an domhain; bha còrr fhuaim ann, ach cha bu chulaidh-eagail no uamhais iad,—torman nan allt, mar bha iad a' tuiteam leis an aonach o chreig gu creig,—sgriach na h-iolaire, 's i 'g itealaich air bile na creachainn, ag iarraidh a h-àil air an aisridh chorraich ; an fheadag ghuanach o thòm gu tòm ; gogail a' choilich-ruaidh 'g am dhoichioll o'n bheinn ; a' chearc a' gairm a h-àil fo 'sgéith, agus miogadaich nan gabhar ag iarraidh nam meann. O ! cia lionmhor mile beò-chreutair air feadh an t-saoghail, smuainich mi, a bha, 's a' cheart àm so a' dol gu tàmh fo shùil-choimhead an Fhreasdail sin a bha faireadh thairis orra, agus a dh' uidheamaich àite taimh do gach aon aca fa leth. Tha sùilean nan uile ort, O ! Dhé ; tha thu toirt daibh gach sochair 'n a thràth. Agus ma tha Dia mar so a' buileachadh orrasan na h-uiread de chùram, an dean e dearmad air mac an duine ? "Feuch," a deir Criod, "eunlaith an adhair ; cha chuir iad, agus cha bhuaин iad, agus tha Dia 'g am freasdal ; agus nach fearr sibhse gu mór na iadsan !" Éisd so, O ! thusa air bheag creidimh ; giùlain na smuaintean so leat do d'leabaidh ; earb thu féin ri Dia, leis an dòchas a tha 'g éiridh uatha, is bithidh do chadal taitneach.

OISEIN DO'N GHRÉIN 'AN ÀM LUÍDHE.

An d' fhàg thu gorm astar nan spéur,
 A mhic gun bheud, 'us òr-bhuidh' ciabh ?
 Tha dorsan na h-oidhche dhuit réidh,
 Agus pailliuп do chlos 's an Iar.
 Thig na tonna mu'n cuairt gu mall,
 A choimhead fir a's gloine gruaидh ;
 A' togail fo eagal an ceann :
 Ri d'fhaicinn co àillidh a' d' shuain,
 Theich iadsan gun tuar o d' thaobh.
 Gabh 'sa cadal ann ad uaimh,
 A ghrian, 'us pill o d'chlos le h-aoibhneas.
 Mar bhoillsge' gréine 's a gheamhradh
 'S e ruith 'n a dheann le raon Lèna,
 Is amhuil sin làithe nam Fiann,

Mar ghrian eadar-fhrasach a' tréigsinn.
 Dh' aom neòil chiar-dhubh nan spéur,
 'Us bhuin iad 'n deò aoibhinn o'n t-sealgair :
 Tha lom-gheugan na coill' a' caoidh ;
 'S maoth lusrach an t-sléibh a' seargadh ;
 Ach pillidh fathast a' ghrian,
 Ri doire sgiamhach nan geug ùr,
 Us ni gach crann 's a' chéitein gàire
 'G amharc 'n àird ri mac nan spéur.

SGEUL MU CHOIRE-NA-SÌTHE.

Thachair dhomh, (a deir fear eòlais o'n d' fhuair sinn an sgeula,) bhi siubhal, o chionn beagan bhliadhnaichean, troimh Gharbh-chriocha na Gaeltachd, troimh mhonaidhean fiadhaich, far nach robh aon rathad, 'n uair a thuit domh, air feasgar samhraidh, bhi air mo chuairteachadh ann an ceò dùmhail, 'n uair bha mi gabhail ath-ghoirid thairis air guala beinne, cho àrd 's a bha 's an dùthaich. Mar bha àgh orm, bha fear-cuairteachaidh nan crìochan farsuing sin maille rium 's an àm, a thug mi leam gu m' sheòladh gu bearradh àrd, as am faicinn sealladh air a' ghleann chum an robh mi dol. Fada mu 'n d' ràinig sinn am bearradh so, thuit an ceò co dùmhail, 's gu'm b' amaideach smuaineachadh dol n'a b'fhaide air ar n-aghaidh. Bha Eachann Ruadh, saighdear a bha maille rium, 'n a dhuine tuigseach ; bha e fada 's an arm : chuir e suas an cota-dearg fo'n Cheanaard urramach sin Ailean an Earrachd. Bha e maille ris ann an iomadh cath cruaidh, agus b' f hiach e éisdeachd gach sgeul a bh' aige mu gach sealladh deistinneach a chunnaic e. 'N uair a thuig e nach robh e tèaruinte imeachd n' a b' fhaide air 'bile nan sgàirneach a bha fodhainn, threòraich e mi gu bun na frìthe, far an robh ionad dionach 's am faodamaid fuireach gu maduinn. 'N uair a bha sinn a' téarnadh, dh' fheòraich mi dheth an robh na creagan a bha 'n a bheachd fada uainn.

"Tha creagan ná's leòir far am bheil sinn, agus tha uamh phasgach goirid o'n àite so," ars' esan ; "ach's coma leam iad ; tha e co math dhuinn an seachnad. "S e so," a deir esan, ann an guth iosal, mar gu'm biodh e cagarsaich a' m' chluais, "S e so Coire-na-sìthe; agus, a dh'innseadh na firinn, b' fhéarr leam a bhi fliuch leis a' cheò, na fasgadh iarraidh anns na h-àiteachaibh grannda sin."—"Cha 'n fhaod e bhith," thubhairt mi ris, "gu bheil thusa, Eachainn, a' creid-sinn a leithid sin de dh-amaideachd ; gun teagamh cha'n'eil thu ach ri feala-dhà."—"Feala-dhà ann no as," deir esan, "is coma leam iad ; mar thubhairt an seann duine, Fhad's a dh' fhuiricheas an t-olc uainn fuiricheamaid uaithe. Thig air d'adhart, tha sinn dlùth do Uamh na h-ochanaich ; ach beannachd 'n an siubhal, 's 'n an imeachd, 's i 'n nochd Di-haoine, 's cha chluinn iad sinn."

Thug mi air seasamh car tamuill, 's thòisich mi air cur an céill da faoineachd a leithid sin de smuaintibh. Chual' e mi gu deireadh, gun stad a chur air mo sheanachas ; ach a socrachadh a bhreacain thar a ghualainn, 's a' toirt sgrogaidh a nuas air a bhoineid, għreimeich e n' a bu tinne am bata bha 'n a làimh, agus thug e ceum air aghaidh, ag ràdh, "Bi bruidhinn an dràsta, éisdidh mi riut am màireach ; gabhaimid seachad air an àm ; cha'n àite so gu móran seánachais a labhairt."—"Dean stad, Eachainn," thubhairt mi ris, "tha mi cur romham an oidhche chur seachad ann an Uamh na h-ochanaich,—fuirich leam, 's na fàg mi. Ach ma tha eagal ort"—"Eagal !" ars' Eachunn, 's e tionndadh air a shàil ; "bi air d' earalas, a dhuine chòir, agus tagh do chainnt ; ged nach tig dhòmh's a ràdh, 's tu féin a' cheud fhear a chuir eagal as mo leth." "Tha mi 'g iarraidh maitheanais," thubhairt mi ris ; "thig leam do'n uaimh, agus feuchaidh sinn ciod a th' agad ann an lùib do bhreacain, 's ni sinn réite."—"Théid mi leat," ars' an saighdear còir, "agus fuirichidh mi leat, ged a bhiodh e làn de na Frang-aich, gun teachd air na creutairibh leibideach, faoin sin, nach 'eil, 's ma dh' fhaoidte ann idir, ged tha leithid de sheanachas mu'n timchioll." Bha sinn a nis aig beul na h-uamha, agus sheas Eachann Ruadh. "Sin i agad a nis," a deir e; "'s urram na h-uaisle do'n choigreach, gabh air d'adhart." Chaidh sinn a stigh fo dhòn, agus shuidh sinn air a' cheud chloich chothromraig a fhuair sinn. Cha robh mo chompanach ro dheònach air móran cainnte: bha e sgioblachadh a bhreacain, 'n uair a ghrad thog e 'cheann mar gu'm buaileadh peileir e. "Ciod e so?" a deir e, 's e farcluas: "mur creid thu mise, creid do chluasan." Thàinig a nuas oirnn 's a' cheart àm sin ceòl tiam-haidh, binn, nach d' fhiosraich mi éisdeachd r'a leithid riamh roimhe; agus bha dearbh fhios agam nach b' ann o aon inneal-ciùil a b'aithne dhomh a thàinig e. Cha'n fhaodadh so gun mhòr ioghnadh a chur oirnn: bha 'n oidhche dorcha; bha 'n t-àite ùdlaidh uaigneach; bha sinn fada o thigheadas dhaoine, a measg garbhlach chreag, ann an coire fiadhaich. Eagal cha robh orm, oir bha mi làn-chinnteach gu'm bu cheòl saoghalt' a bh' ann, agus chur mi romham na 'm b' urrainn domh, fhaotainn a mach cia as a thàinig e. "An téid thu suas leam, Eachainn?" "Théid," ars' esan, 'us e cur seachad na bha e toirt as a bhreacan: "'s minic a thachair e mar so féin, eadar am bile 's an deoch. Shaoilinn gu'm biodh e co math fuireach gu maduinn; ach coma co dhiùbh, gabh air d' aghaidh, leanaidh mis' thu; ach cuimhnich am fear a théid 's an dris, gun iomair e teachd as mar a dh' fhaodas e." Ghabh sinn suas,— am feadh a bha an ceòl a' sìor fhàs n' a b' àirde: fa dheireadh, thàinig leus soluis oirnn: sheas Eachann beagan air-deireadh, 's 'n uair a chaidh mi timchoill stùchd creige, chunnaic mi sealladh nach téid gu luath as m'aire. Dh'fhan mo chòmpanach far an robh e, theagamh a' smuaineachadh g'um faca mi tuillidh 's a bu mhiann leam. Bha lasair chridheil theine aig ceann shuas na h-uamha o ghiuthas seachdta a bha pailt mu'n àite; agus 'n a shuidhe aig an teine bha leth-sheann duine làidir colgarra, currachd àrd molach air a cheann, anns an robh dos de ite an fhirein, agus a chóm uile air a chòmdachadh le béis fhiadh agus earb. Bha làn shealladh agams' air-san, ged nach b'urrainn dhà-san mis' fhaicinn. Bha e cluiche gu surdail air dà thruimb mhóir Abraich, a bha air an deanamh 's an àm sin gu h-ealanta, dlùth do sheana chaisteal dubh Inbherlòchaidh. An crochadh ris gach meur d'a làmhan, bha clag beag airgid a rinn fuaim anabarrach binn, agus o'n do thàrmaich a' cho-sheirm a chuir ormsa na h-urrad iongantais, agus na 'm faoidte ràdh, a chuir mo chompanach fo eagal co mór. "Thig air d'adhart," thubhairt mi gu sàmhach ri Eachann. "Am bheil iad an sin?" thubhairt e. "Am bheil iad a' dannsadh 's an t-solus, no ri fleadhachas cuirme?" Dhlùthaich e gu sgàthach ri m' thaobh, agus air dha a' cheud phlathadh fhaicinn de'n fhear-chiùil, thug e sitheadh seachad orm, a' glaodhaich a mach le aighear nach b'urrainn da cheannsachadh, "Iain mhóir nan creag, an tusa tha'n so? Mo bheannachd air do cheann molach, 's mi tha toilichte d' fhaicinn!" Dh-éirich Iain bochd, 's chuir e fàilte oirnn, a' tilgeil tuillidh mhaidean air an teine. Shuidh sinn mu'n cuairt air a' chagait; agus dh-aidich Eachann còir, oir cealg cha robh 'n a chóm, nach b'urrainn da gu bràth a bhi co taingeil 's a' bhuineadh dha, airson nach d' fhuair e cead tilleadh, mar bha rùn air 'n uair a chual' e'n ceòl. "Is ioma sgeul," thubhairt e, "a chuala mi riamh mu Choire-na-sithe; 's nam bithinn a nochd air tilleadh gun so fhaicinn, bha mo sgeula féin chum an dearbhadh. Cha tugadh am ministeir féin orm a chreidsinn nach robh na daoine-beaga ann an Uamh na h-ochanaich." Dh-sheòraich mi dheth, an robh da rìreadh eagal air? "Eagal!" deir esan, 's e suathadh air falbh an fhallais fhuair a bha fathast air a ghnùis; "air nàile bha, 's gu leòir dheth, barrachd 's a bha riamh orm a' dol sìos do'n bhlàr le Ailein an Earrachd: ach ma bha, cha bhi tuillidh mu'n ghnothuch cheudna."

Tha so a' leigeil ris duinn cia co faoin an nì o'n éirich seanachas dùthcha mu ni bha iad gnàthaicht' a chreidsinn : agus nan rannsaicheadh daoine gu mionaideach mu 'thim-chioll, thuigeadh iad gur e bh' ann, an àite a bhi 'n a chuis-eagail, culaidh-abhacuis agus fearas-chuideachd.

Fhuair mi mach o Eachann eachdraidh an duine bhochd so a bha 's an uaimh. Bu neò-dhuine gun mhath gun mhilleadh e : a nuas o 'dige, ged a bha e gun mhóran toinisg no tuigse, bha e'n a sheòl féin fo chàileigin de mheas 's an dùthaich. Bha e èolach air aisridh chumhang an fhéidh 's na h-earba, 's b'e 'thoileachas-inntinn an fhaoghaid a lean-tuinn le òigridh na tire. Cha rohh bearradh no bealach, no aithghearradh troimh mhonadh, no beul-àtha air abhainn, no càrn, no garaidh, air nach robh e mion èolach. Rè an t-samhraidh b'i uamh nan creag a chòmhnuidh : ghluais e o àiridh gu àiridh, 's cha deachaidh e riagh air falbh falamh o a h-aon diubh. Cha bhiodh e gun lòn fhad 's a bhiodh dearc air tom, meas no cnothan ann an coille ; cha 'n fhàil-nicheadh a leaba, am feadh 's a gheibheadh e fraoch badanach gorm, a' fàs gu dosrach anns gach àite ; agus mar thubhairt e féin, bha a chuid tromb soirbh r'an gleusadh.—Bha 'dhachdaidh anns gach àite far an luidheadh a' ghrian air ; agus còmhladh cha do dhruideadh riagh air. Cha robh 'mhàileid doirbh r'a giùlan, cha robh innte ach a' chlach theine agus am fada-spuinge,—sgian dubh a dh-fhionnadhan nam fiadh,—ribe a ghlacadh an fhìrein, agus cromag iaruinn a lùbadh nan geug. Ach ma bha 'n duine bochd so air bheag èolais, bu taitneach r'a fhaicinn an t-saothair a ghabh a phàrantan air ann an làithibh 'oige. Ghabh e dhuinn móran de laoidhibh agus do dhànaibh naomha : rinn e so le urrad chràbhaidh, agus air dòigh a bu stólda na iomadh fear a b' fhaide leughadh. Sheinn e iad le fonn tiamhaidh muladach, 's e ri turaman air ais agus air aghaidh, a rèinig mo chridhe. Mu 'n do leag e a thaobh ri lär, dh-earb se e féin ri Dia. Allabanaich bhochd ! thubhairt mi ri um féin, caidil gu tearuinte, gabhaidh Dia cùram dhiot. Truagh 's mar tha thu ann am beachd an t-saoghal, tha thu co priseil 'n a shealladh-san ris an righ a's mò air thalamh. Is lionmhor iad a tha air an oidhche nochd air an diteadh leat, d'an d'thug Dia tuigse, fiosrachadh, agus foghlum, a tha luidhe sìos air an leapaichibh rìomhach, gun suim dhàsan a tha os an ceann, o 'm bheil iad a' sealbhachadh gach beannachd.

DÀN AN DEIRG.

'S La dhuinn a' fiadhach na Leana,
 Chunnas loingeas breid-gheal crannach ;
 Shaoileas gu'm b'e Lochlann a dh'eirich,
 A thoirt Chrimin' air eigin thairis.
 Sin 'n uair thuirt Conan crion,
 " 'S coma leam strì gun fhios c'arson ;
 Feuchainbh an toiseach le suim
 Ciod an rùn am bheil dhuinn a bhean.
 Deargamaid falluinn a fir
 'Am fuil tuirc 's an fhireach àrd ;
 Giulaineamaid e rìs an riochd mairbh,
 'S chi sibhse ma's fior a gràdh."

Dh'eisd sinne, 's b'aithreach leinn,
 Comhairle Chonain a' mhi-àigh.
 Leag sinn an torc nimhe borb
 Anns a' choillidh dlù do'n tràigh.
 "Cumaibh rioms' e," deir Conan crion ;
 " 'S d'a dhìth, mo làmh, gu'm bi'n ceann.
 Chomhdaich sinn Dearg leis an fhuil,
 'S thog sinn air ar muin an laoch ;
 A righ ! bu tiamhaidh trom ar ceòl
 'G a ghiulan an cò-dhail a ghaoil.

Ruith Conan le bian an tuirc
 (Bha e titheach chum uilc a ghnà)—
 “Le m’ lainn thuit an torc a lòt d’fhear,
 ’N uair bhrist a shleagh air cheum fàs !”

Chuala Crimin’ an sgeul ;
 ’Us chunnaic i ’n cruth éig a Dearg ;
 Dh’fhàs i mar mheall éigh ’s an fhuachd,
 Air Mora nan cruidh learg.
 Tamull dhi mar sin ’n a tamh,
 Ghlac i ’n a laimh inneal-ciuil.
 Mheath i gach crì ; ach cha d’fhuiling
 Sinn do Dhearg e chorragh’ air uilinn.

Marr bhinn-ghuth eala ’n guin bàis,
 No mar cheolan chaich mu’n cuairt di,
 A’ gairm an taibhse bho lochan nan nial,
 ’G a giulan air sgiathaibh gaoithe ;
 B’amhuil sin caoidh Chrimine,
 ’S a Dearg ’n a shìneadh dlù dhi.

CAOIDH CHRIMINE.

“O thaibhse ! bho àirde nan nial
 Cromaibh a dh’iarraidh ’ur Deirg ;
 ’Us thigibh, òighean an Trein, o’r talla,
 Le ùr-fhalluinn leibh do m’ ghradh.

“C’uime, Dheirg, an robh ar crì
 Air an sniomh co dlù ’n ar com ?
 ’Us c’uim’ a spionadh thusa uam,
 ’S an d’fhàgadh mise gu truagh tróm ?
 Mar dhà lus sinn ’s an drùchd ri gàire,
 Taobh na creige ’m blàs na gréine,
 Gun fhreumh air bith ach an aon,
 Aig an dà lus aobhach aoibhinn.

“ Sheun òighean Chaothain na luis,
 Is boidheach, leo fein, am fàs !
 Sheun 'us na h-aighean eutrom ;
 Ged thug an torc do aon diu' 'm bàs.
 Is trom trom, 's a cheann air aomadh ;
 'N t-aon lus faoin tha fathasd beò,
 Mar dhuilleach air seargadh 's a' ghréin—
 O ! b'aoibhinn bhi nis gun deò.

“ ‘Us dh'iadh orm oidhche gun chrioch ;
 Thuit gu sior mo ghrian fo smal.
 Moch bu lannair air Mór-bheinn a snuadh,
 Ach anmoch chaidh tual an car.
 'S ma threig thu mi, sholuis m'aigh !
 Tha mi gu la bhràth gun ghean.
 Och ! mur éirich Dearn o phràmh,
 Is duibh-neul gu bràth a bhean !
 'S duaichnidh do dhreach ; fuar do chri' ;
 Gun spionn' ad làimh, no clì ad chois.
 Och ! 's balbh do bheul a bha binn ;
 Och ! 's tinn leam, a ghraidh, do chor !
 Nis chaochail rugha do ghruaidh,
 Fhir nam mor-bhuadh anns gach cath,
 'S mall, mar na cnuic air 'n do leum,
 A' chas a chuir eilde gu stad !

“ ‘Us b'annsa Dearn seach neach fo 'n ghréin o !
 Seach m' athair deurach, 's mo mhathair chaomh.
 Tha 'n suil ri lear gu tric 's an eigheach ;
 Ach b' annsa leamsa dol eug le m' ghaol.

“ ‘Us lean mi 'n céin thar muir 'us glinn thu,
 'S laidhinn sinte leat 's an t-slochd ;
 O ! thigeadh bàs no torc do m' reubadh,
 Neo 's truagh mo chàramh féin an nochd.

“ ‘Us rinneadh leaba dhuinn an raoir,
 Air an raon ud cnoc nan sealg ;
 'S ni 'n deanar leab' air leth an nochd dhuinn,
 'S ni n' sgarar mo chorp o Dhearg.

“ Tuirlibh, o thaibhse nan nial,
 O ionadaibh fial nam flath !
 Tuirlibh air għlas-sgiathaibh ‘ur ceò,
 ‘Us glacaibh mo dheò gun athadh !
 “ Oighean tha ’n tallaibh an Trein,
 Deilbhibh ceo-eideadh Chrimine)
 Ach ’s annsa leam sgiobul mo Dheirg ;
 A’d sgiobuls’, a Dheirg, biom ! ”

’Us mhothaich sinn ’g a treigsinn a guth,
 Mhothaich sinn gun lugh’ a meoir.
 Thog sinn Dearg, ach bu ro-anmoch ;
 Crimine bha marbh gun deò.

Thuit a’ chlàrsach as a laimh ;
 Dh’imich ’s an dàn a h-anam.

Thaisg an laoch i air an tràigh,
 Le Crimora, a cheud għrædh ;
 ’Us dh’ ullaich e ’s an àite cheudna
 An leac għlas fo ’n laidh e fein.

’S chaidh dithis deich samhraids mu ’n cuairt,
 ’Us dithis deich geanhraids le ’m fuachd o sin ;
 An cian ud tha Dearg ’n a uaimh,
 ’S cha ’n éisd e ach fuaim gun għean ;
 ’S tric mis’ a’ seinn da tra nòn,
 ’S Crimin’ air a ceo-soillse.
