THE

Chriftian's Pocket-Book:

OR, A BUNDLE OF

FAMILIAR EXHORTATIONS.

TO THE

PRACTICE OF PIETY.

SCCINCTLY AND ADVISEDLY ADAPTED TO THE MEANEST CAPACITIES BOTH AS TO STYLE AND MATTER.

BY A MINISTER OF THE GOSPEL.

I THESSALONIANS IV. I. 'e befech you, and exhort you by the Lord Jefus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to pleafe God, fo ye would abound more and more.

HEBREWS XIII. 22. peficech you, fuffer the word of Exhortation, for I have. written unto you in few words.

TO WHICH ARE ADDED, IRECTIONS FOR READING THE BI-LE; and fhewing its Worth and Excellency.

EDINBURCA .

PREFACE.

HERE are many who either ar not able to buy books of grea price. or not willing to carry about wit them books of great bulk : therefore w have caft into this fmall portable Pock et book, the following Bundle of Ex hortations, which, we hope, compendi oufly contain the chief substantials o practical religion; which are of most common ufe, and that people should most carefully mind, and be daily exer cifed in : We have advifedly contracted matters into fmall bounds, and expressed them in plain terms, fo that we expect none will grudge either the price the pay for this fchedule, or their pains in perufing it We would not have the Reader fatisfy himfelf with once read ing, or viewing it over, to pleafe his cu rious or critical fancy anent what is writ ten; it is not the feeding of fancy which the Author defigns, but propofing duty and exhorting to the daily practice of it and frqeently tol ook over these exhorta tions, and to form your daily walk and convertation agreeably thereto. San wanter

ABundle of Familar Exhortations,

EXHORTATION I.

CONSIDER your foul concerns with the earefl ferioufnefs; all other concerns re but trilles and vanities in comparion hereof: inconfiderations is the bane nd ruin of fouls, it is the parent of floth and fecurity, and the great hinderance of needful refolution: and fpecially conider, that you have precious and imnortal fouls, which after the end of this hort life, will live for ever, either in everlafting happinefs, or everlafting miery. It is your chief concern to fee the alvation of your fouls, as you would not be foun dinconfiderate fools, or flupid ots, Mat. xvi. 20. Hof. ii. 12.

Exh. 2. Lay deeply to heart your naural flateof fin and mifery: bethink you hat befides your original guilt, and the orruption of your whole nature, which was brought to the world with you, that ou are also guiltyof innumerable actual ins, by breaking all the commands of Ood, in thought, word, and deed: for all which you deferveGod's heavy curfe and and wrath to purfue yeu, both in this world, and that which is to come : and neither can you relieve yourfelves out of this dangerous condition. Pfal. li. 4 5: Rom. v. 8, 16 Gal. iii. 10.

Exh. 3. Flee fpeedily to Chrift Jefus, the only Son of God., and the only Saviour of finners; renouncing your own righteoufinefs, by true faith, ref and rely upon his merits, and imputed righteoufinefs firmly expecting to be juftified, pardoned and faved thereby. Rom, v. 22, 24, 25. Rom. x. 4, 5.

Exh 4. Reflect ferioufly on your baptifinal vows and covenant, whereby you are faft bound to the Lord, and to renounce and refift the devil, the world, and the flefth, as the great enemies of your peace and falvation, and make conficience of keeping your folemn engagements, as ye defire and hope to partake of Chrift and his benefits. Alfo, fet apart fome fhare of time on purpofe to renew your babtifmal covenant, in your own perfons, expressly accepting Chrift Jefus for your Propet, Prieft and King; for your portion, guide, guard, and all in all, and and devoting yourfelves to him, to be his fubjects and fervants as long as ye, ive frequently renew your perfonal coenan; with him, and faithfully keep it. Ifa. xWv, 5. Rom. xii 2. Exod. xix, 5.

POCKET-BOOK.

Exh. 5. Make an entire refignation of yourfelves to God, and of all that you enjoy, and have an affection for; referring frankly to his will, wildom and goodnefs, to difpofe of you and yours in all things, in all cafes, and at all times, as feemeth good and right in his fight: live a life of dependance on him, and truft in him, who can make all things work together for good to you. Math. vi. 10: Rom. viii 18.

Exh. 6. Daily read fome portion of the holy foriptures, diligently meditate on what you read, and ftudy to undertand and remember what you meditate; that thereby you may come to snow both fin and duty, and how to be both holy and happy; read allo other good practical books; andfeek the Lord's blefling on your readings. John v. 39. ? Tim, iii. 15, 16, 17.

Exh. 7. Pray daily unto God Almighty morning and evening at leaft; and fee you be not formal or lazy in your devotions; and, befides fecret clofet prayer, alfo make conficience of fan.'ly duties; fet up, and keep up the workhip of God in your families, by reading in the Bible, and by prayer and praifes to God. who only can blefs you and yours in al your actions and interefts prayerlefs perfons, are furely to be looked on as Godlefs perfons. Pf, lv. 17. Mat. vi 6, 7-

Exh. 8. Exercise yourfelves also fometimes to fpiritual meditations; think of. ten of the joys of heaven, of the torments of hell, of the fweetuels of God's promifes, of terriblenefs, of his threatnings, of the hatefulnefs of fin, of the beauty of holinefs, of the vanity of the world, of the advantages of real godlinefs, of your hazards through manifold temptations, and of the readinefs and ability of Jefus Chrift to help and comfort you in all cafes, &c. When ye rife up or lye down when you walk in the ftreets, or in the fields, when you are employed in any part of your lawful calling, even at all times and every place, by night or by day, ou may have good thoughts toward God, nd about your foul concerns Gen. xxiv. 3. Pfal 1xiii. 9, and civ. 34. Phil, iv. 8. Exh. 9. Entertain and nourifh tenderythe motions and impulfesof God's Spiit on your fpirits : when ye find kindly aclinations to duty, fall in with them ; hen you feel inward checks and fears yith refpect to fin, improve them to retrain you from all iniquity ; take fpecial leed you do not fmother convictions, or villfully refift and quench the Spirit's vorkings in your hearts. Pom. viii 1. 5. 3. 1 Theff. v. 16, 20.

POCKET BOOK.

Exh '10. Wait punctully on public ordinances, and always prepare for appearing before the Lord in the fanctuary; hear the word reverently Let it be your arneft defire to meet with God, and to get your fouls edified in to the grace and cnowledge of Chrift Jefus; make partiular application both of promifes and hreatenings agreeablely to your cafes. When you are returned home, meditate and confer on what you have been hearing; and frequently pray that God may give you good of his word: Neglect not to mind your minifier in your fupplications, that he may be bleffed with divine affiftance and fuccels. Pfal. 1xiii. 1, Mat. xv. 10. Luke viii. 15, 18.

Exh. 11. Frequetly take the facrament of the Lord's fupper, but cre you venture on that holy ordinance, prepare carefully by examining yourfelves anent the flate of your foul, try if you be in a boly, humble, lively, and tender frame ; penitently mourn over your fins: refolve on amendment and newness of life; renew your perfonal covenant, and use the facrament as a feal of it; ferve a bill of divorce agains all your idols and ftrange lovers, that have courted and carried your affections off Chrift ; hunger and thirft for close communion with hine: in the act of communicating, watch narrowly over your treacherous hearts, that they gad not and go aftray from the Lord. And after you have communicated, try what good ye have gotten, let it appear in your after walk, that ye have been with Jefus, feafting with him, and upon him. I Cor xi. 20.

Exh 12 Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, not only by public wor-fhip but by religious duties in your families, and in fecret: put away all vain impertinent, and earthly thoughts; talk not of wordly affairs neither do, any wordly bufinefs, but what works of mercy and neceffity may call you to; mifpend no part of the Lord's day either in dile diffeourfe, loitering at home or ficolling in the fireets and fields. Ex. will 20.

POCKET-BOOK.

Exh. 13. Look on fin to be the worft thing in the world, as being defiling to your confeiences, and damnable to both foul and body; and "which is worft of all, dithonourable and difpleafing to the great God of heaven. Jer. ii. 16.

Exh. 74. Shun and refift temptations, be fill upon your guard; watching over your deceitful hearts, keeping the door of your lips, and being circumfpect in all your ways; you are encompafied about on all hands with fnares and temptations. Mat. xxvi. 41. Prov. vi. 23. Pf. xxiix. 1, 2. Eph v. 15. 1 Pet. v. 8, 9.

Exh. 15 Daily repent of fin; you are daily fining in thought, word and deed, for which you fhould every evening take an account, of yourfelves; and what faults you find you are guilty of, confels them, mourn over them, relove; by God's grace not to do the like again; have a care your repeutance prove not a fighing and going backward: moreover, not only repent of your own faults, but over the fins of your relations, neighbours, and the places ye live in, 'Acts xvii. 30. Job xxxiv. 32. Pfal. cxix 136.

Exh. 16. Mortify and bear down the inward paffions and corrupt affections of your heart, fuch as anger, envy, malice, privy hatred, revenge, luffulnels, covetoufnels, pride, ambition, and all fecret inclinations to impiety; untill your fouls be purged of thefe, you cannot expect he Holy Ghoft will dwell in you as a temple. Col. iii. 5, 8 1 Cor. iii 16, 17.

Exb. 17. Keep at the utmoft diffance from the common lins of the times, from curfing, fwearing, drunkeanefs, ftealing, cheating. lying, reviling, furnication, bady-language, and all uncleannefs, deriding or mocking true godlinefs, or wifting evil to the godly, &c. For becaufe of thefe things comes the wrath of God on the guilty. Eph. v. 3, 4, 5.

POCKET-BOOK.

Exh. 18. Keep out of ill company, bad xamples corrupt good manners: Thing hame to converfe familiarly with openly profane and debauched perfons; this will aeither be for your credit, comfort, or proit, rather chufe virtueus, fober and godly beople to be your companions: Such a nan as ye would be, draw to like company. Prov. xxii. 24. Pfal. cxix*63.

Ex. 19. Lead a holy and religious life, walking fincerely according to the rightous commands of God: Set the Lord always before your face; content not yourelves with a bare form and outward fnew of godline(s without the power of it; be out entirely holy in all your ways. 1 Pet, . 15, 16. 2 Tim. ii. 5.

Exh. 20. Be good in all relations : not nly a good Chriftian in general, that daiy reads and prays, and runs to preachngs and communions; but be a good unband, a wife; be a dutiful parent, and in obedient child : be a righteous mafer, and diligent and honeft fervant, be good and peaceful neighbour; wrong uobody either with tongue or hands; thus be good and godly in all relations and ca12 pacifies. Rom. vii. 13. Col. iii. 13. ---24. Exh. 24. Ee firong in the grace that is, in Chrift; be not fatisfied with finall meafures of grace; use all proper means for growing in grace, and keeping it in lively exercife; a inhoat the exercife of grace ye can do nothing to purpole, either in performing duties, fubduing corruptions, refifting temptations, or bearing afflictions, &c. Haye a care of fpiritual floth, unwatchfulnefs: daily make use of Chrift for quickening your graces. John i. 16. 1 Pet. i. 5, ---0; 2 Pet. iii. 18.

Exh. 22. Look and fix your affections i right: love not the world, nor any earthly comfort immoderately: Giveyour heart's love to precious Chrift above all things, who is only worthy of your chief defires. Col iii, 1, 2. 1 John ii. 15, Mat. xxii 27.

Exb. 23. be not vain or proud of any temporal thing; neither riches or honour, beauty, firength of body, parts nor gifts of the mind, nay, not of gruce it(elf: all earthly pofieffions and goods are uncertain, vaia and liable to innumerable chances and changes Eccl. i. 2, 14.

Exh, 24, Be moderate in all things in, ur judgement of yourfelves, and oppion of others; be moderate in eating, at you be not gluttonous, in drinking, at it be not to excefs; in apparel, that be not prodigal; in your houfe keepg, that ye firetch not beyond your rank ability; in your recreations, milpend ot precious time; fobriety is always fafe ad commendable. Phili, iv. 5 'Ti, ii. 12. Exh 25. Make as much confeience of 1 and duty in fecret before God alone, openly in the fight of men; have a re of Pharifaical righteoufnefs. Gen. xix. 9. Mat vi. 1, 4, 5, 6.

POCKET-BOOK.

Exh. 26. Follow yonr lawful calling ligently, never be idle, but have your and always in a turn, the hand of the ligent maketh rich; yet be not fo much allowed up with your worldly affairs, to forget God, or your fouls, or juftle at religious duties; keep a good mind all your affairs, fwaylog to no extreme, ther of neglecting your lawful calling, aff the pretence of conflars devotion, of too much engagement in throng worldly bufinefs, under the pretence dutiful providing for your families: 12 every thing is beautiful in its feafon. Eccl ix. 10, Rom xii. 11.

IA

Exh 27. Look more to God's providence and bleffing for making you thrive and profper in the world, than to your own fkill or induftry; and as you would expect God's bleffing, be juft, upright and honeft in your dealings; cheating no man, defrauding no man by equivicating, lying, or over-reaching. Prov. xxii. ro.

Exh. 28 Be content with your lot, what ever be the circumflances and ingredients thereof; be not your own carver, left you cut your fingers; whatever God gives to you, whatever he takes from you, acquiefce in his will, which fhould never be quarrelled; own your needy dependance on his providence, and in all the changes of your condition, fay, Good is the will of the Lord. Heb xii 3. Job i 21.

Exh. 26 Bear afflictions patiently and fubmiffively, and be more concerned to get the factified ufe of your troubles, than how to be freed from them, look to the hand of God in all pains, ficknes, croffes, loffes, difappointments, reproaches and vexations ye meet with; in faith and hope

POCKE I-BOOK

A your and burdens upon the Lord. eb. vii. 3, 9, 11 I'f lv. 22. 1 Pet v. 7. Exh. 30. Thank God heartily for all e mercies you receive, whether with reect to your bodies or your fouls; freely knowledge you get more mercies than bu are worthy of, more than you imrove or guide well, more than you are itably thankful for, and more mercies an many others get, who are better and ore ferviceable to God than you: Recon it a great mercy that you are out of ell, and that you have the opportunity the precious gospel of Chrift : Notice nd record all the mercies of God; and times take a while on purpole to thank nd praise God for them. Pfal. ciii.

Exh. 31. Specially remark and treatre up fpiritual experiences; fuch as the nfwer of prayer, victory over temptatins, the fenfible ptefence of Gon in ornances and duties, &c. Never deny, ide. or fmother Chrift's kindnefs, this is aftard humility, and true ingratitude. [a]. xlii, 6, 8. and xlvi, 16, 17, 20.

Exh. 32. be charitable to the poor, as ir as you are able; if you cannot help 12 them with your purfe, help them with your prayers and fympathy, and fuch o fices of kindnefs and humility, as ma make the miferable to blefs you. Proxxii 9 and xix, 17. Job xiii 26.

* Exh. 33. Study more to be well ground ed in the fundemental principles of relig on, than fpending yonr time about mat ters debetable, or difputable; fee you d nothing that may break the peace an unity of the church; go not without th bounds of your flation, under a pretene of zeil and public fpirit. John xvii : 1 Pet: iii. 15 Pfal. exxxi. 1, Exh. 34. Carry a due refpect both t magiftrates and minifters; obey them if all things lawiut, if in any thing you b public faulters and offenders, willing! fubject both to civil pur thment, and to church difcipline and cenfure; regar and reverence rulers as your fuperiors Rom xii t_1 —8. Heb xii t_3

Exh. 35. Do all you can in your fta tion for promoting the interefts of th golpel, as God doth call and enable you join not with any perfecutors, to troubly any one fortheir religion and confeicce ympathize with the perfecuted people f, God in foreign churches; daily pray by the blinded Jews and heathen nations, hat God may take pity and convert them nd make the light of the gofpel fhine hroughout the world. Acts ix 26, 29. Dbadiah,--18. Pfalm li. 18.

POCKET-BOOK

Exh 36. Refolve upon fufferings for Chrift; be at leaft martyss in refolution if you have a mind for Chrift and the rown, you muft alfo be content to take Chrift and the crofs; this is one of the pecial articles in his new covenant bargain with finners; prepare for trials, you now not what you may meet with ere ou go off the flage of time: Arm yourelves againft all peradventures Math. Kvi. 24

Exh 37 Mind religion as your main pufueds; and all your other affairs but is petty by bufinefles; be not as the bulk ind body of the blinded demented world, who live without God, without Chrift, and without hope; who live as if they vere not to die, as if there were neither reaven nor hell, nor a day of judgement after this life. Eph ii, 12 Tit is 10.

Exh $_{38}$ Propofe God's glory as the chief end of all your actions, and make his word the rule of them: take heed that bale, felfift by-ends be not your main end either in duties towards God, or towards man: He that walketh uprightly, walketh furely. I Cor x 31 Prov x 9

Exh. 39, Spend your time well and profitably ; time is a precious but a paffiug thing, and, when once paft, cannot be brought back again. When you ate to leave time, nothing will more gall you than the tormenting thoughts of having mispent it; on the other hand, nothing will be more comfortable, than the confideration of managing your golden hours profitably : Mind God will call you to an account for every minute of time, how you have improven that excellent gift, O what a valuable, yet what an abufed mercy is precious time. Eph, v, 16, Exh 40. Mind ferioufly ye are frail mortal creatures, liable to a thoufand dangerous accidents, : Must certain it is you must die, but when, where, or how, no body knows: Neither young nor old can comife themfelves a day, or an hour, eyond the moment they breath in ; erefore, account it the care of cares to repare for death judgment and eternity. udy to be aways ready, by making our peace with God, by fecuring an inreft in Chrift, by living near God in te daily practice of piety, and by avoidag all wickednefs, that when the Lord all fend you a fummons to remove to our long home, you may be fit to ftep tto eternity. Deut. xxiii 20. Pf. ia, 3, 12. Heb. ix 27. 1 Pet i. 14. Jam. iv. 8.

POCKET-BOOK

DIRECTIONS FOR READING THE BIBLE.

1. IN reading the Word of God, if ye could profit by it, then look to God for is bleffing upon it when you begin, and ray that he may blefs it to you, and to pen your ears and hearts to hear and omply with it as the voice of God.

2. Read it with reverence, not as the ford of man; but, as it is indeed, the vord of the great God.

Endeavour to get your hearts impreffed by his bleffed word. The doctrines, 2

DIRECTIONS ON

laws, and very Spirit of our Ribles thou be transcribed to our very fouls. L then God's word fland notionly in you Bibles, but dwell in your hearts

III. Have an eye to Chrift in ever thing ye read; for he is the end, for and fubftance of the whole Biblo; ar every thing in it is reducible to hir

IV. Mark the special passages of the word, either these that are of most impo in themfelves, or most applicable to yo Mark the duties enjoined, and fins fo bidden, with the promifesto the one, an threatenings against the other; Faste thefe upon your memories, and hid them in your hearts. Meditate on them and pray, that God may keep them i your minds, ready for use against th time of need. There are fundry evange lical laws and precepts in the word of God, which you fhould obferve; as, be lieving in God, doing all religious exer cifes in has name, depending upon hi merits, grace, and interceffion; looking only for acceptance in him; a perfua fion of the neceffity and ulefulnefs o his offices, as Mediator, Prophet, Prich

READING THE BIBLE

d King: An apprehention af your own borance, guilt, weaknefs, mifery, and thingnefs without Chrift, a relying on n in all his offices We alto thould nark concerning the Spirit, that he a Spirit of conviction, illumination, tyer, holinefs, conduct, comfort, and ling : So we would accept of his help, erish his motions, and influences.

5. Confider the worth and excellenof the word, and how fuitable it is any state or condition we may be in. It is a rich mine of heavenly treafures, tore-houfe of all fpiritual confolation; common shop of medicines for the Il, full of rich priviliges, promifes, and ge legacies to the people of God: It a ftaff and ftav to the old, an ornaent and guide to the young. In the ord of God, we read the love which d bears to his children from all eterty, and will continue to have for them, nen time shall be no more. Here are und the leaves of the tree of life nich God hath ordained for the healg of the nations. In a word, here is e true judge of controverfies, a ham mer for hereticks, a touch-ftone for doct trine, a rule for our lives, a comforter and counfellor in this house of our pilgrim age: a fovereign cordial in all our fouls diftreffes; David found it fo to his fwee experience, Pfalm exix. 50. "This is my " comfort in my afflictions, for thy word " hath quickened me." O! how excel lent is the word, and who can fet forth all its excllency? Iris a glafs to difcove our fpots, a lamp to guide us in the dark a fire to warm our cold affections, a ma gazine to fupply us with armour againf our spiritual enemies. Here are suitable cordials for all our various cafes, be i defertion, temptation, poverty, ficknef reproach or perfecution; here is the hea venly train, for making foft and tende hearts, here is meat for ftrong men, and milk for babes; which through the di vine bleffing will be both food and phy fic to our fouls.

DIRECTIONS ON

22

It is furely the Chriftian's duty to read and meditate much on God's moft hol word, and that with pleafure and delight the child delights to read his father" will and teftament, and fee what is be READING THE BIBLE. 23 eateed to him; citizens delight to read eir chatters, to fee their privileges; cmalefacture who is acquitted, delights read his pardon; and the prodigal that received into favour, delights to read e affectionate letters of his father to m: Then if ye are received into fasur, and born of God, you cannot but the lovers of his moft excellent word; d read and meditate on it both day d night. Plal, i. 2.

6. We are to contend for the fcripres; the precious jewel is too good to parted with, Prov iv. 13, ' Keep her e is thy life.' It is our duty, not only to ve, read and understand the scriptures, ht alfo to contend for the fame : Hereeks fight against it, we must therefore Intend for it, Jude, 3. The fcriptures e our book of evidence for heaven, shall part with our evidences? The faints old were both advocates and martyrs r the truth, they held faft by fcripture, ough it was at the expence of their es. David fpends the whole cxix Pfal, fhow his intimate affection to it : Mos efteems it above all the learning of other nations, Deut. iv. 5, 6. Solomor prefers it before pearls, Prov iii. 15. Jop prefers it before his food, xxii. 12. Jer remiah makes it his joy, Jer. xv. 16. It a word, all the children of God hav been great lovers of God's word, an could never be prevailed on to part with it, though perfectuted for the fame

DIRECTIONS, &c.

24

7: Read this excellent word with ap plication to yourfelves, as if God fpok to you by name and firname in ever line of it Read it as a love-letter let fraight from heaven to you, and to fli you up to faith and holinefs. Let us a cept of its reproofs and admonition with thankfulnefs: and fay what a grea mercy is it, that we may read our fath er's will in our mother tongue? And that God fpeaks his mind to plainly to us in his word, thewing us what we are tobelieve, what we are to do, and wha we are to pray for, in order to God's glo ry, and our own happinefs.

FINIS: