Captⁿ. Baillies March. — South Fencibles.

A musical score for a piano piece, likely for a single piano (P.). The score is written on two staves, treble and bass clef, with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is in the treble clef, featuring a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some triplets. The bass clef provides a simple accompaniment of eighth notes. The piece is marked with a piano (P.) dynamic. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and a repeat sign.

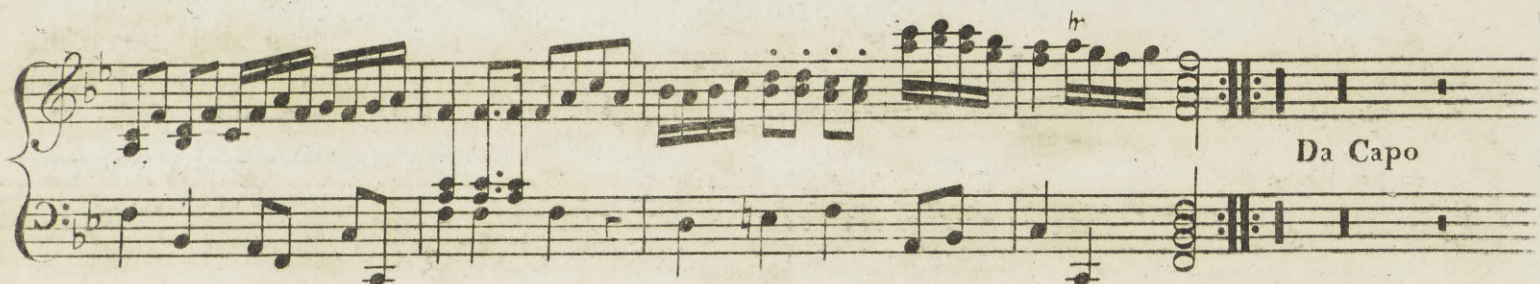

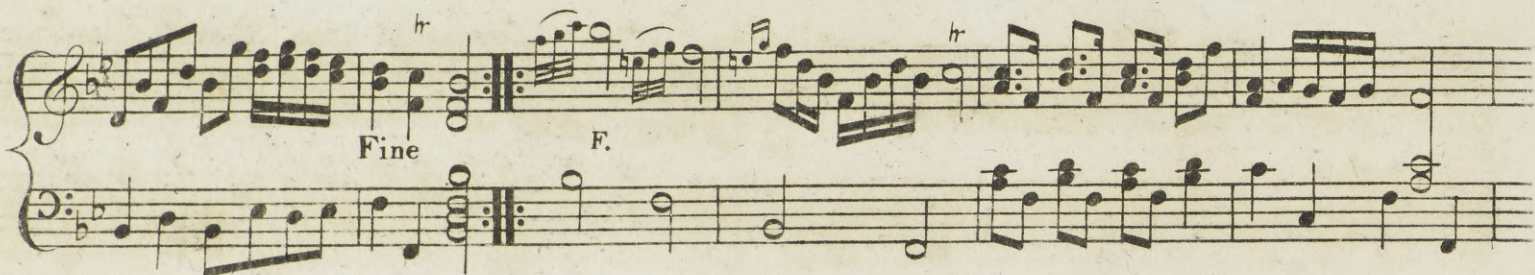

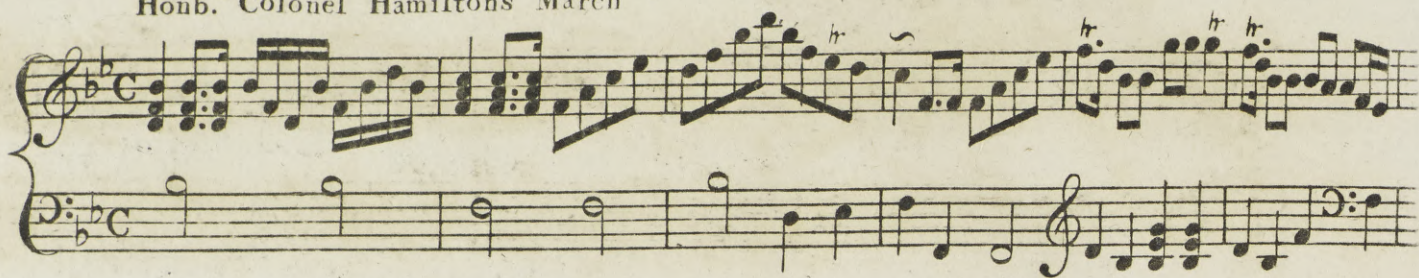

Captain Baillies Quick Step. S. F.

The musical score for "The Bird Song" is presented in two staves. The top staff, in treble clef, contains the melody, which is marked with a forte 'f' and a 'g.' (grace note) at the beginning. The melody is characterized by eighth and sixteenth notes, with some slurs and a final cadence marked with a double bar line and repeat dots. The bottom staff, in bass clef, provides the accompaniment, also marked with a forte 'f' and a 'g.' at the beginning. It features a steady eighth-note accompaniment pattern. The piece concludes with a 'Fine' marking at the end of the second staff.

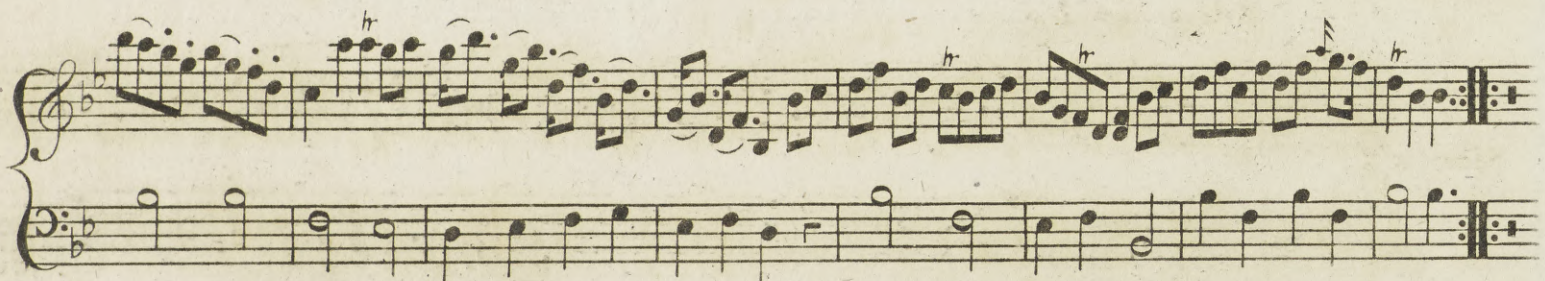

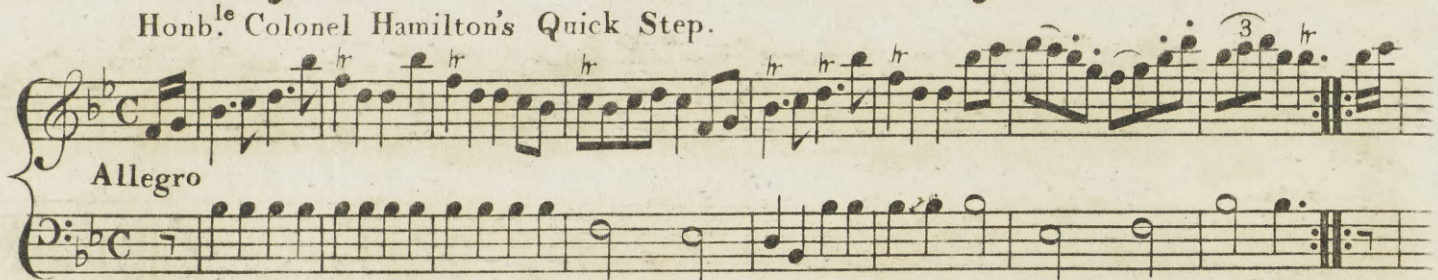

A handwritten musical score for the song 'The Rose Tree'. The score is written on two staves, a treble staff and a bass staff, both in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. The treble staff contains a melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, including triplets and grace notes marked 'hr'. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

A musical score for a piece titled "Da Capo". The score is written for two staves, likely representing a piano and a vocal line. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The bottom staff is in bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music features a variety of note values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign, followed by the text "Da Capo".
