To the Reader.

His Book being brought unto me to peruse and to confider of, I thought it my Part not only to allow of it to the Print, but also to commend it to the Reader, as a Treatife most comfortable to all afflicted Conficiences exercifed in the School of Christ. The Author felt what he spake, and had Experience of what he wrote, and therefore able more lively to express both the Affaitts and the Salving, the Order of the Battle, and the Mean of the Victory. Satan is the Enenny, the Victory is by only Faith in Christ, as John recordetb. If Chrift justify, Who can condemn? faith St. Paul. This most necessary Doctrine the Author bath most substanti. ally cleared in this his Commentary. Which being written in the Latin Tongue, certain godly learned Men have most fincerely translated into our Language, to the great Benefit of all fuch as with humbled Hearts will diligently read the fame. Some began it according to fuch Skill as they had. Others godly affected, not suffering so good a Matter in handling to be marred, put to their helping Hands for the better framing and furthering of fo worthy a Work. They refuse to be named, seeking neuber their coun Gain nor Glory, but thinking it their Happinefs, if by any Means they may relieve afflicted Minds, and do good to the Church of Christ, yielding all Glory unto God, to whom all Glory is due.

ÉBWINUS LONDON.

To all Afflicted Conficiences, which grone for Salvation, and wrefile under the Crofs for the Kingdom of CHRIST, Grace, Peace and Victory in the LOAN JESUS our Saviour.

N few Words to declare what is to be faid for the Come mendation of this Work, altho' in few Words all cannot be expressed that may be faid, yet briefly to fignify that may fuffice, this much we thought good to certify thee. godly Reader ; that amongft many other godly English Books in these our Days printed and translated, thou shalt find but few, wherein either thy Time thall feem better bestowed, or thy Labour better recompenfed to the Profit of thy Soul, or wherein thou mayeft fee the Spirit and Voin of St. Paul more lively represented to thee, then in the diligent reading of this prefent Commentary upon the Epiftle of St. Paul to the Galatians. In which as in a Mirrour or Glafs, or rather as St. Stephen in the Heavens being opened, thou mayeft fee and behold the admirable Glory of the Lord, and all the Riches of Heaven, thy Salvation freely, and only by Faith in Chrift ; his Love and Grace towards thee to opened, thy Victory and Conquest in him to proved, the Wrath of God fo pacified, his Law fatisfied, the full Kingdom of Life fet open, Death, Hell, and Hell-gates, be they never fo ftrong, with all the Power of Sin, Flefh and the World vanquished, thy Confdience difcharged, all Fears and Terrors removed, thy fpiritual Man fo refreshed and fet at Liberty, that either thy Heart muft be heavier then Lead, or the reading hereof will lift thee up above thyfelf, and give thee to know that of Chrift Jefus, that thyfelf thalt fay thou never kneweft before tho' before thou knewelt him right well.

Such Epiritual Comfort, fuch heivenly Dochine, fuch Experience and Practice of Conficience herein is contained, fuch triumphing over Stata, and all his Itower infernal, fuch Contempt of the Law compared with the Golpel, fuch an holy Pride and Exatytian of the believing Man (whom here he maketh a Perfon divine, the Son of Cod, the Heit of the whole Earth, Conqueror of the World, of Sin, of Death, and the Devil) will bluch Practice and Speeches of high Contemplation, of Christ, of Grace, of Juffineation and of Faith (which Faith, Linth hey transflorerb a Man into Chrift, and coopleth him, more near unto Christ Sen the Hatshad is coupled to his Wife, and maked(a Mina) more then a Man, ) with fuch other mighty Voices, full of fpiritual Glory and Majelly, as the like hath not been used lightly of any Writer fince the Apolle's Time, neither durth be even have used the fame hings falf, had not great Experience and Exercise of Confeience by inward Conflicts and profound Agonies framed him thereunto, and minifired to him, both this Knowledge of Spirit and Boldners of Speech.

And this commonly is the working and proceeding of God's Vocation, ever to work Things by the contrary ; of Infidelity to make Faith, of Poverty to make Riches, in Milery to fhew Mercy, to turn Sorrow to Solace, Mourning to Mirth, from Afflictions to advance to Glory, from Hell to bring to Heaven, from Death to Life, from Darknefs to Light. from Thraidom to Liberty, in Wildernefs to give Waters, the Barren to make Fruitful, of Things that be not to make Things to be; briefly to make all Things of nought, I Sam. i. Ifa. xli. 2. 2 Cor. i. Thus began God first to work, thus he proceeded, thus he continueth, and fo will unto the Worlds End. The first Seed of Premile next to Eve. was given to Sarab ; Yet in what Cafe was Eve before the had the Prod mile ! And in what Barrennels and Delpair was Sarah before the enjoyed her wellbeloved Ifase ? The like is to be faid of the two Mothers of two most excellent Children, Samuel and John Baptift ; And yet what Griefs and Sorrows palt over their Hearts, being both paft all Hope in Nature, before the Goodness of God did work ? How long did Jacob the, Patriarch ferve in miferable Thraklom for his Rachel ? In what excellent, Glory was Jojeph exalted ; Yet what fuffered he before of his Brethren. and how long Imprifonment ? In what and how long Servitude were the Sons of Ifrael before Mofes was fent unto them ; and afterward in what Diffress were they compafied on every Side when the Sea was forced to give them Place ; After that again, What an excellent Land was promifed and given unto them, flowing with Milk and Honey ? But how were they foourged before in the Defert, and yet had not they the Land, but their Children ? To overpais many Things here by the Way, What an excellent Work was it of God to fet up David in his Kingdom ? Alfo what excellent Promifes were given to his Throne ? Yet how hardly eleaped he with Life ? How did the Lord mortify and frame him to his Hand before he placed him in quiet ? Infinite it were to recite all. Briefly, in all the Works of God this is ufual to be-feen, that he worketh evermore most excellent Things by Infiruments most humble, and which feem most furthest off. Which of all the Apostles did ever think when Chrift was to humbled and crucified upon the Tree, that they fhould ever fee him again ? Altho' he foretold them of his rifing before; infomuch that Thomas did fearcely believe when he with his Eyes faw him. What Man would ever have thought that Paul in the raging Heat of his perfecuting Spirit, would have turned from a Pefecutor to fuch a a Ptofeffor, from fuch Infidelity to fuch a Faith, infomuch that Ananias would fearcely believe the Lord when he told him ? Such is the Omnipotency of the Lord our God, ever working lightly by the contrary, specially when he hath any excellent Thing to work to his own

After like Sort may we efterm alfo of Martin Luther, who being firft a Frier, in what Blinduefs, Superstition and Darknefs, in what Dreams and Dregs of Monkith Idolatry he was drowned, his Hiftory declareth. Witnet's recordeth, and this Book alio partly doth fpecify. Whole Religion was all in Popifi Ceremonies, his Zeal without Knowledge, understanding no other Justification but in Works of the Law and Merits of his own making, only believing the Hiltory (as many do) of Chrift's Death and Refuirection, but not knowing the Power and Strength thereof. After he had thus continued a long Space, more pharitaical and zealous in these Monkish Ways then the common Sort of that Order ; at length it fo pleafed Almighty God to begin with this Man, first to touch his Confeience with fome Remorfe and Feeling of Sin, his Mind with Fears and Mildoubts, whereby he was driven to keek further ; fo that by fearching, feeking, conferring, and by reading of St. Paul, fome Sparkles of better Knowledge began by little and little to appear, which after in Time grew up to a greater Increase. But here it happened to him as commonly it doth to all good Chriftians : the more that the true Knowledge of Chrift increased, the mote Satan the Enemy flirred with his fiery Darts, with Doubts and Objections, with falle Terrors and fubtile Affaults, feeking by all Means poffible how to opprefs the inward Soul which would fain take his reft in Chrift. In these foiritual Conflicts and inward Wrestlings, how grievously he was incumbred, fighting against Incredulity, Error and Defperation, marvellous it is to confider, infomuch, that three Days and three Nights together he lay upon his Bed without Meat, Drink, or any Sleep, like a dead Man (as forme do write of him) labouring in Soul and Spirit upon a certain Place of St. Paul in the third Chapter to the Romans, which was Ad offendendam Justitiam fuam ; that is, to thew his Justice ; thinking Chrift to be fent to no other End but to fhew forth God's Juffice as an Executor of his Law, till at length being answered and fatisfied by the Lord touching the right Meaning of these Words, fignifying the Jullice of God to be executed upon his Son, to fave us from the Stroke thereof. he immediately upon the same started up from his Bed, fo confirmed in Faith, as nothing afterward could appal him ; befides other manifold and grievous Tentations (which I fpeak not of ) of all Sorts and Kinds, except only of Avarice, with the which Vice only he was never tempted nor touched, as of him is written by them that were conversant with him. In this meanwhile, during these Conflicts and Exercises of Mr. Luther,

In this meanwhile, during thefe Conflicts and Exercises of Mr. Lather, which notwithflanding did him no hart, but rather turned to his more Fartherance in fipirual Knowledge, Pape Lee the Tenth fant a jubity with hus Partons abroad thro' all Chritikan Restant aged Dominiour, whereby he gathered together innumerable Riches and Thestine. The Collector whereof promifed to every one that would past fen Shiftings in the Box, Licence to cat white Mears and Fleft in Lest, and Power to don from all his Sins, were they never fo hanous. But if is were but can for all his Sins, were they never fo hanous. But if is were but can folding the Aborination whereof was is hortble, that shifts and pollings. The Aborination whereof was is hortble, that shifts and other Man durff fpeak, yet Luther could not of Confcience hold his Peace, but drawing out certain Articles, defired gently to diffoute the Matter, writing withal a most humble Admonition to the Pone, Submitting himfelf in most lowly Wife to his Cenfure and Judgment. But the Pope thinking great Scorn to be controlled of fuch a Frier, took the Matter fo hot, that he and all his Cardinals, with all the Rabble of Manks and Friers, Bilhops and Archbilhops, Colledges and Universities, Kings and Princes, with the Emperor alfo himfelf, were all upon him. If the omnipotent Providence of the Lord from above had not fullained him, What was it for one poor Frier to have endured all these tharp Affaults of Satan, all the Violence of the whole World, having no lefs then the Sun, the Moon, and the Seven Stars (as they fay) against him ? Being hated of Men, impugned of Devils, rejected of Nations, by fo-Jemn Authority condemned, diffreffed with Infirmities, and with all Manner of Tentations tried and proved. And yet for all these Tentations fuch was his Life, that (as Erafmus writing to Cardinal Wolfey affirmeth) none of all his Enemies could ever charge him with any Note of juft Reprehension. Again, fuch were his Allegations out of the Scripture, that Roffenfis writing to Erofmus, confesseth himfelf to be aftonied at them.

VI

And thus much by the Way of Preface touching the Conflicts and Exercifes of this Man. Which we thought good to inlinuate to the Chriffian Reader for fundry Purpofes : Firft, To note the merciful Clemency of Chrift our Saviour, in calling to fuperflitious and idolatrous a Frier fo gracioully to fuch a Light of his Golpel, his Grace in jullifying him, his Might in preferving him, his Help in comforting him, his Glory in profpering him, one against fo many, and fo profpering him, that the whole Kingdom of the Pope had no Power either to withfland him, or to maintain itfelf: Secondly, For this Refpect alfo and Purpole, that the Reader confidering the marvellous working of the Lord in this Man, may the better credit the Dochine that he teacheth. And tho' his Doctrine as touching a little Circumflance of the Sacrament cannot be throughly defended, yet neither is that any great marvel in him, who being occupied in weightier Points of Religion, had no Leifure to travel in the fearching out of this Matter, neither ought it to be any Prejudice to all thereft which he taught fo foundly of the weightier Principles and Grounds of Chrift's Gofpel, and our Juftification only by Faith in Chrift. And yet in the fame Matter of the Sacrament, notwithflanding that he differeth fomewhat from Zuinglius, flicking too near to the Letter; yet he joineth not fo with the Papifls, that he leaveth there any Transubflantiation or Idolary. Wherefore the Matter being no greater then ic, nor directly againft any Article of our Creed, let not us be fo nice, for one little Wart to call away the whole Body. It were doublefs to be winded, that in good Teachers and Preachers of Child, theire were no Defect or Imperfedian. But he that can abide nothing with his Blemith, let him if he can, name any Dodor, or Witter (the (the Scripture only except) Greek or Latin, old or new, either beyond the Alps, or on this Side the Alps, or himfelf allo whatfoever he be which hath not erred in fome Sentence or elfe in fome Expolition of holy Scripture. But if he cannot to do, then let him learn by himfelf to bear with other, to take the beft and live the world, (altho' there is no fuch Matter in this Book to be feared, forafinuch as we having a Respect to the Simple, have purposely sponged out, and omitted fuch Itumbling Places being but few, which might offend) and to give God Thanks for any Thing that is good, and namely for this which he hath given to us by Luther, in opening to us his Grace, Mercy and Good-will in his Son, fo excellently thro' the Preaching of this Man; who If he had not taught the Difference between the Law and the Go-Spel, and fet out to us our Jultification, Victory and Liberty by Faith. only in Chrift fo plainly, fo plentifully and fo affuredly as he hath done, Who ever durft have been to bold to open his Mouth in fuch Words, or fo confidently to fland in this Doctrine of Faith and Grace ? For if there have been any fince the Time of Luther, and be yet fome, which openly defend that Works be neceffary to Salvation, where he before fo m ghtily hath taught the contrary; What then would these have done if Luther had not been ? Who also did forewarn us of the fame, prophefying that after his Time this Doctrine of Juftification would be almost extinguished in the Church, as in certain Places Experience beginneth partly to prove.

Wherefore, fo much as the Lord fhall give us Grace, let us hold confantly the comfortable Doctrine of Faith and Jultification, and not lofe that the Lord fo freely hath given, calling upon the Lord with all Obgdience and Diligence, to give us Grace with St. Paul, not to relute the Grace which he beftoweth upon us, nor to be offended with this joyful Doctrine, as many be. And therefore as our Duty was for our Part to fet it abroad, fo our Counfel is no lefs to every fludious Reader thereof, to pray for Grace rightly to underfland that he readed by Ppr elle, unlefs the special Grace of Chrift do help, hard it is to Flefh and Blood to comprehend this myflical Doctrine of Faith only. So itrange it is to carnal Reafon, fo dark to the World, fo many Enemies it hath, that except the Spirit of God from above do reveal it, Learning cannot reach it, Wildom is offended, Nature is altonied, Devils do not know it, Men do perfecute it. Briefly, as there is no Way to Life fo cafy, fo is there none fo hard ; eafy to whom it is given from above; hard to the carnal Senfe not yet infpired. The Ignorance whereof is the Root of all Errors, Sects and Divisions, not only in all Christendom, but alfo in the whole World. The Jew thinketh to be faved by his Mofe-Law, the Turk by his Alcoran, the Philosopher by his moral Vertues. Befides these cometh another Sort of People, not fo ill as the Jew, nor to Heathen as the Philosopher, but having some Part of both, which refuse not utterly the Name of Chrift, but with Chrift do join, partly the Law of Mofer; partly the moral and national Difcipline of Philofophy, and partly their own Ceremonies and Traditions, to make a perfect Way to Heaven. And these here in this Commentary are called

Patrite

Perfits: of the Pope their Author, being divided within themsleves more then into a bundred divers Seft, Orders and Prefettions of Cardinals, Friers, Maski, Nanz, Priefs, Hermitz, and other Vourier. All which ferm to fpring up of no other Caufe has only upon Ignotine of this Doctrine. And no marvel: for take away this Doctrine of Julf dication by Faithonly in Chrift, and leave a Man to his own Investions, What End will there be of new Device? Such aperiloss Thing it is to err in the full Foundation ; whereupon the higher ye build the greater is the Fall. And yet fuch Builders are no without their Props to hold up their Workmanflip of Works againft this Doffrine of Jufffying Bairh, pretending for their Defence the Telfinnony 68. Jamer, where he ferms to attribute Juffification to Works and not to Faith outy.

Touching which Matter of Juffification, for as much as in the Sequel of this Treatife the Author hath difcourfed upon the fame at large, it shall not be much needful to use many Words at this prefent. This briefly may fuffice by the way of Preface, in a Word or two to advertife the Chriftian Reader, who fo taking in Hand with Profit and Judgment to fead this Book, that in him two Things are fpecially to be required ; firlt to read it wholly together, and not by Pieces and Parts here and there, but to take it in order as it lieth, conferring one Place with another, whereby to underifand the better the right Meaning of the Writer, how and in what Senfe he excludeth good Works, and how not ; how he neglecteth the Law, and how he magnifieth the Law. For as in Cafe of jultifying before God, the free Promife of the Gofpel admitteth no Condition, but Faith only in Chrift Jefus ; fo in Cafe of dutiful Obedience. Luther here excludeth no good Works, but rather exhorteth thereunto, and that in many Places. Thus Times and Cales difcreetly must be diftinguished.

The fecond Thing to be required is, that in reading hereof, he that Teeketh to take Fruit hereby, do bring fuch a Mind with him to the reading, as the Author himfelf did to the Preaching thereof; that is, he had need to have his Senfes exercifed fomewhat in fuch fpiritual Conflicts, and to be well humbled before with the Fear of God and inward Repentance, or elfe he thall hardly conceive the excellent Sweetneis either of this Writer or any other. For albeit moft true it is, that no greater Comfort to the Soul of Man can be found in any Book next to the holy Scripture, then in this Commentary of Mr. Luther ; fo this Confort hath little Place, but only where the Confcience being in Heavinels bath need of the Phylician's Hand. The other, who feel themfelves whole and are not touched in the Soul with any Sorrow, as they little care for thefe Books, fo have they little Understanding of this Doctrine when they read it. And this is the Caufe in my Mind, why the Pope and his Papifis have fo little feeling and liking of Luther's Doctrine, and all becaufe they commonly are never greatly vexed in Spirit with any deep Affliction, but rather deride them that are beaten down with fuch Conflicts and Tentations of Satan, as they did by Luther, whom becaule God fuffered to be tried and excreifed with the Bullies of the Enemy, they fay therefore that he learned his Divenity of the Devil. But how he learned his Divinity, let us hear what he himilefi in this Book, Page 334. Lhe 14, confielth, highly f yrants and Setleries, and invaridy usive ferrors and the farty Darit of the Devil, Raud Jould for an objecte and unhumu nuts us, as he base in Timer path so the World and yes is to the Papilt, the Antaioptifit, and other our Attacejaries. The reflect was done unto us, as he base in Timer path so the World and yes is to the Papilt, the Antaioptifit, and other our Attacefaries. Therefore the Grif of the Interpretation of the Screptures and was Studier, together with our inward and outward Tenterions, epsil with in the Maanny of Paul, and the Screptures.

Buffets

But let thefe ignorate Papift whichever they be, tatle a little the fame, or like as Lather did, and then Lee what they will flay. Experience giveth Demonifration. For how many of them do we fee, for all their auricular Confelion, which puffelt them up in all Sceniry, but at length when they by at the Forint of Death, where Death on the one Side, and God's Julitics on the other Side is before their Byes, for the molt Part either they defair, or effe leaving all other Helps, heyer, only flick to Faith and the Blood of Chrift Jeins, and in very Deed many of them are gisled on ite Latherian however they hand Lather for Fare. And what thall we fay then of this Defrice of Lather's If the Papifit themfolews be glad to die in it, Why are they nawling to live in it? And if it be true at one Time, How can Alteration of Timemake that fills whick is once true ?

And therefore where these Men fo floutly withfland this Doctrine of Juffication by Faith only, they are much deceived. And when they alledge St. James for them, that is foon answered if we rightly difcern the Meaning of St. James and of St. Paul ; of whom the one ipeaketh of Man's Righteoufnels or Juffification only before Men, which is a true Demonstration of a true Faith or a true Believer before Man, rather than the working of true Juffification before God. And fo is it true which St. James faith, how that Faith without Works doth not juffify. Whole Purpofe is, not to fhew us what maketh a Man jult before God, but only to declare the neceffary Conjunction of good Works in him that by Faith is juffified. The other speaketh of Righteousness or Juffification, not before Men, but only before God ; meaning not to exclude good Works from true Faith, that they fhould not be done; but to teach us wherein the true Stay and Hope of our Salvation ought to be fixed, that is, in Faith only. And fo it is true likewife that St. Paul faith, that Faith only without Works doth juffify.

The which Proposition of St. Paul the better to underfland and to join it with St. James, here is to be noted for the faitifying of the cavelling Advertary, that the Proposition is to be taken full and whole, as St. Paul doth mean it, fo that with the right Subject we join the right Predicatum, as the School-men term it; that is, fo that Faith on Chriff in julifying, ever have Relation to the true penitent and hamening Sinner. And fo is the Article moft true, that Faith only without Works doth julify. But whom doth it julify? The Wordling ? The licencious Roffina ? The voluptious Epiceus ? The carnal Golpellst ? Paul mean-eth no fuch Thing, but only the mourning and labouring Soul, the grieved Confcience, the repenting Heart, the mending Sinner. And in him the Propolition is true, according to the Doctrine of St. Paule Gredenti in eum gai juffificat impium, Fides ejus imputatur al Juffitiam : that is. To him that believeth in him which jullifieth the Unpally. This Faith is counted for Righteou/nefs, Rom. iv. 2. Contrariwife, let Fanh have Relation to the obflinate and wilful Rebel, who contrary to Confcience continueth and delighteth in Sin, and in him is true likewife that St. Tames faith on non ex Fide tantum, that is, and not by Faith only. Tames ii. 24. Meaning thereby, that Faith availeth not to Juffification, but only in fuch Perfons as have a Good-will and Purpole to amend their Lives; not that Repentance and turning from Iniquity doth fave them ; but that Faith in Chrift worketh Juftification in none but only in fuch as heartily repent and are willing to amend. So that's Credite Evangelio, believe the Gofpel, Mark i. 15. hath ever, agile prenitensiam, repent and amend, Matth. jii. 2. going withal. Not that Repentance fayeth any Malefactor from the Law, but only fheweth the Perfon whom Faith in Chrift doth fave and juftify. But of this enough, and more than greatly needed, efpecially feeing the Book itfelf here following will fatisfy the Reader at large in all fuch Doubts to this Matter appertaining. And thus cealing to trouble thee, gentle Reader, with any longer Preface, as we commend this good Work to thy godly Studies ; fo we commend both thee and thy Studies to the Grace of Chrilt Jefus the Sun of God, heartily withing and craving of his Majefty, that thou mayeft take no lefs Profit and Confolation by reading hereof, then our Purpole was to do thee good in fetting the fame forth to thy Comfort and Edification, which the Lord grant. Amen, Amen.

The Preface of MARTIN LUTHER upon the Epifile to the Galatians.

ALL ALL ALL ALL

( xi

My fell can feared's believe that I was fo plentifal in Words when I did publickly expound this Epillel of St. Paul to the Galatian, as the Book fleweth me to have been. Notwithflanding, 4 perceive all the Cogitations which I find in this Tractic by fo great Diligence of the Brethrein galhered together, to bemine ; fo that I mdfl needb confifs either all or penhaps more, to have been uttered by me in this publick Treatife. For in my Heart this one Article reigneth, even the Faith of Chrift : from whom, by whom, and unto whom all my divine Studies Day and Night have Recourse to and fro continually. And yet I perceive that I could not reach any Thing near unto the Height, Breadth and Depth of fuch high and ineffimable Wifdom ; only certain poor and bare Beginnings, and as it were Fragments do appear: Wherefore I am afhamed that my fo barren and fimple Commentaries should be fet forth upon fo worthy an Apostle, and Elect Veffel of God. But when I confider again the infinite and horrible Profanation and Abomination which always hath raged in the Church of God, and yet at this Day ceafeth not to rage against this only and grounded Rock, which we hold to be the Article of our Juftification (that is to fay, how, not by ourfelves, neither by our Works, which are lefs then ourfelves, but by another Help, even the Son of God Jefus Chrift, we are redeemed from Sin, Death, the Devil, and made Partakers of eternal Life ;) I am compelled to caft of all Shame, and to be bold above Mcafure.

This Rock did Statu flake in Paradife, when he perforded our firf. Parents that by their own Wildom and Power they fload be like onro God, Goi. iii. 5. forfaking rue Pain' in God, who hard given them Life, promidel the Continuance thereof. By and by after, this Lier and Murderer, which will be always like unto limitell, fittered up the Brother to the Murdering of his Brother, Geri, iv. 8. and for none other cuele, but for that his godly Brother by Paint had offired up amore excellent Sacrifice : and he offering up his own Works, without Faith, had not pleated God. After this, againft the fame Faith followed a molt minderable Perfectation of Satu by the Sociol Gorin, matil God was confirmined at once by the Flood to purge the whole World, For: vi. and to defend Aload the Preacher of Rebetoundes, 2 Pot. it. g. This notwithfluiding Statin confinued his Seed in Ham, the third Son of Nucl. Gen x: 6, 6c. But who is able to reckon up all Examples? After theig Things the whole World warked mad againft this Failth, finding out an infinite Namber of Idols and Itrange Religions, whereby every one (as St. Paul Jinth) walled his own Way, trulled by their Worlds, fome to pacify and pleafe a God, fome a Goddefs, fome Gods, fonge Goddefs, to redeem themselves from all calamities and from their Sins, as all the Examples and Mongenets of all Nations do fulficiently whites?

But those are nothing in comparison of that People and Congregation of God, Ifrael ; which not only had the fure Promise of the Fathers, and afterward the Law of God given unto them, from God himfelf by his Angels, above all other : but always and in all Things were also certified by the Words, by the Miracles, and by the Examples of the Prophets. Notwithstanding even among them also Satan (that is to fay, the mad and outragious Opinion of their own Righteoufnels) did fo prevail, that afterwards they killed all the Prophets, yeaeven Chrift himfelf the Son of God the promifed Meffiab, for that they had taught that Men are accepted and received into the Fayour of God, by Grace only and not by their own Righteoufnels. And this is the Sum of the Doctrine of the Devil and of the World from the Beginning ; we will not feem to do evil, but yet whatfoever we do, that mult God allow, and all his Prophets must confent to it, which if they refuse to do, they thall die the Death. Abel thall die, but Cain thall flourish. Let this be our Law (fay they) and even fo it cometh to pafs.

But in the Church of the Gentiles, the Matter is and hath been to vehemently handled, that the Fury of the Jewish Synagogue may well form to have been but a Sport. For they (as St. Paul faith) did not know Chrift their Anainted, and therefore they crucified the Lord of Glory. But the Church of the Gentiles hath received and confelled Chrift to be the Son of God, being made our Righteoufnefs, and this doth the publickly record, read and teach. And yet not with ftanding this Confellion, they that would be accounted the Church, do kill and perfecute, and continually rage against those which believe and teach, and in their Deeds declare nothing elfe, but that Chrift is the felf-fame Thing that they themfelves (tho' with feigned Words and hypocritical Deeds) ate conftrained mauger their Heads, to allow and confess. For under the Name of Chrift at this Day they reign. And if they could without the Name of Chrift hold that Seat and Kingdom, no doubt but they would express him to be fuch a one openly as in their Hearts they efteem him Scretly. But they efteem him a great deal lefs than the Jews do, which at the least think him to be Thola, that is to fay, a Thief worthily hanged on the Crofs. But these Men account him as a Fable, and take bim as a feigned God among the Gentiles, as it may plainly appear at Rome in the Pope's Court, and almost throughout all Italy.

Becaule therefore Chrift is made as it were a Mock amongft his-Chriftians ( for Chriftians they will be called ) and becaufe Cain

doth kill Abel continually, and the Abomination of Satarn 7 new chickly reigneth, it is very neceffary that we fhould o diligently handle this Article, and fet it againft Satarn, ti whether we be race or eloquent, learned or unlearned. d For this Rock mult be published abroad, yea tho every to Man fhould hold his Peace, yet even of the very Rocks

After that Mr. Luther had once publickly expounded this Epifile, he took in Hand to interpret the fame again, in fuch Sort as in this Treatife hereafter doth enfue, the Caufe whereof he doth declare in few Words following.

Have taken in Hand, in the Name of the Lord, get once a gain to explaind this kyllle of Paul to the Galatana wat bee a ward he do adfire to tach new Thangs, or fach as a bave me heard before, alpecially fince that by the Grace of Corff. Foul

Wherefore it is very necessary that this Doctrine be kept in continual Prostife and publick Exercise both of reading and bearing. And altho it be mever jo Will known, never to exactly learned, yet the Devil, which continually rangeth about feeking to devour us, is not dead. Likewile our Etelb und old Man is yet alive. Grace, Forgivenels of Sins, or Chriftian Righteonfacts, to the End that we may have a perfect Knowledge and Difference between Chriftian Righteoufnels, and all other Kinds of Righteoufnels. For there be divers Sorts of Righteoufnels. There is a po-How many litical or civil Righteoufnels, which Emperors, Princes Kinds of the World, Philosophers and Lawyers deal without Righteoufnels there are and School Marles may teach without Danger, berents and School Marles may teach without Danger, becathe they do not attribute urto it any Power in Afrika

Refides thefe, shore is another Refidteoufnets, which is called the Rightcoulnefs of the Law, or of the Ten Commandanents, which Mg/s sealesth. This do we also teach also the Dodfine of Faith.

There is yet another Righteenfinds, which is show-all befor, we way, the Righteenfields of Faint or Clarifient splitteenfords, the which we multi-diligantly differn from the other aftire rehearded, for they are quite contravy to this Righteenfields, both because they flow out of the La se of Emperors, the Traditions of the Pope, and the Gommahdments of God, and allo because they confil in our Works, and may be wronght offus either by our pure narrow listeners (is an her Poply is termity) or elle by the Gift of God. For thele Kinds of Righteenfiels are allo the Gift we God, like as tother god Things are which were on phy-neceiving; like as the Righteoufnels of the Law is called the active Righteoufnels, becaufe is confiltent in doing and working. fore it feemeth good unto me to call this Rightcoulnels of Faith or Chriffian-Righteoufuct, the paffive Righteoufneis ....

This is a Righteoufnels hidden in a Myllery, which the World doth not know, yes Christians themfelves do not throughly understand it, and can bandly take hold of it in their Tentations. Therefore it must be diligently taught and continually practifed. And who fo doth not understand or apprehend this Rightcoulnels in Affictions and Terrors of Confcience, mult needs be overthrown. For there is no Comfort of Confcience to firm and to fare as this puffive Righteoufpels is.

But Man's Werka is and Mifery is fo great, that in the Testors of Conficience and Danger of Death, we be-The Infirhold nothing elfe but our Works, our Worthinels and mity of Man the Law : which when it fleweth unto us our Sin, by and by our evil Life palt cometh to Remembrance. Then the poor Sinner with great Anguilh of Spirit groaneth, and thus thinketh with himfelt : Alas, How desperately have I lived ? Would to God I might live longer, then would I amend my Life. Thus Man's Reafon cannot reftrain itfelf from the Sight and Beholding of this active or working Righteoufnels, that is to fay, her own Righteoufnels; por lift up her Eyes to the Beholding of the palfive or Chriftian Righteoufnels, but refteth altogether in the active Righteoufnels ; fo deeply is this Evil rooted in us.

On the other Side, Satan abufing the Infirmity of our Nature, doth. increase and aggravate these Cogitations in us Then can it not be -but that the poor Confcience mult be more grievenly troubled, terrified and confounded. For it is impossible that the Mind of Man of infelf thould conceive any Comfort, or look up unto Grace only in the Feeling and Horrour of Sin, or conftantly reject all difputing and reafoning about Works. For this is far above Man's Strength and Capacity, yea, and above the Law of God allor True it is, that of all Things in the World, the Law is most excellent ; yet The Law as it not able to quiet a troubled Confeience, but increaseth cannot com-Temors, and driveth it to Desperation ; For by the Law, fort us in Sin is made above Measure sinful, Rom. vii. 7. Afflictions.

Wherefore the afflicted and troubled Conficience bath no Remedy against Desperation and eternal Death, unless it take hold of the Forgivenels of Sins by Grace, freely offered in Chrift Jelus, that is to fay, this paffive Righteonfacts of Faith or Chriftian Righteoufnels. Which if it can apprehend, then may it be at quiet, and boldly fay : I feek not this aftive or working Righteoufnels ; altho' I know that I ought to have it, and alig to fulfil it. But be it fo that I had it, and did fulfil it indeed ; yet notwithflanding I cannot truff unto it, neither dare I fet it against the Judgment of God. Thus I abandon myfelf from all active Righteoutnets, both of mine own and of God's Law, and embrace only that paffive Righteoufnels, which is the Right teousnels of Grace, Mercy, and Forgivenels of Sins. Briefly, I reft on-Ly upon that Righteouffiels which is the Righteoufnels of Chrift and of the Holy Ghoft. Twent which , had a much a -

The Law is, n t given to a righteous Man; but to the lawlefs and difobedient,

But it is a Thing very firange and unknown to the World, to teach Chriff ans to learn to be ignorant of the Law, and 1s to live before God, as if there were no Law; notwithflanding except thou be ignorant of the Law, and, be affuredly perforded in thine Heatt that there is now to Law nor Writhhof God, but slidgether Grace and Neecy tor Chrift's Sake thou cafift not be faved; for by the Law coment the Knowledge of Sin. Contraining. Worlds

World the Law is given to terrify and kill such, and to exercise the old Ming and and both the World of Grace and of Wrath, mult be rightly divided according to the Apolite, at Twe. iii.

Here is then required a wile and faithful Dipoler of the Word of God which can fo moderate the Law, that 'the may be kept within the Buildies. The that teacher that Men are 'glifficied Ecker God by the Of froation of the Law, paffeth the Bounds of the Law, and confounded, thefe two Kinds of Rigmonular, aftive end paffice, and is our and of the control of the Law and Works to the old Man, which has have to the fourthe Law and Works to the old Man, which he benefic and the start of Sins, and God's Merey to the new Man, divident the Word well. ( xxi )

"This is our Duvinity, whereby we teach how to put a Diff rence besureon thefe two Kinds of Righteonfacts, active and paffive : to the End that Manners and Faith, Works and Grace, P licy and Religion fould. not be confounded, or taken the one for the other. Both are neceflary, but both mult be kept within their Bounds : Chriftian Righteoufnels pertaineth to the new Man, which is born of Flefh and Blood. Upon this old Man, as upon an afs, there mult be laid a Burden that may prefe him down, and he muft not enjoy the Freedom of the Spirit of Grace, except he first put up in him the new Min by Faith in Chrift (which notwithfanding is not fully done in this Life. ) then may he enjoy the Kingdom, an ineffimable Gift of Grace.

This I fay, to the End that no Man fhould think we. Good Works tried or forbid good Works, as the Papifls do in A falle- not forbidly flander us, neither underflanding what they themfelves den. fay, nor what we teach. They know nothing but the, Righteoufnels of the Law, and yet they will judge of that Doctrine. which is far above the Law, of which it is impoflible that the caroal Man should be able to judge. Therefore they mult needs be offended, for they can fee no higher then the Law. What foever then is above the Law, is to them a great Offence. But we imagine, as it were, two Worlds, the one heavenly and the other earthly. In thefe we place these two Kinds of Righteoufnels, being feparate the one far from the other. The Righteoninels of the Law is earthly, and hath to do with earthly Things, and by it we do good Works. But as the Earth bringeth not forth Fruit except first it be watered and made fruitful from above ; even fo by the Righteonfnels of the Law, in doing many Things we do nothing, and in fulfilling of the Law we fulfil it not, except first without any Merit or Work of ours, we be made righteous by the Chriftian Righteaufnels, which nothing pertaineth to the Rightcoulnels of the Law, or to the earthly and active Righteoufnels. But this Righ-...

counces is twavenly; which (as i faid) we have not Chriftian of ourfelves, but receive it from Heaven ; which we Rightcoulwork not; but which by Grace is wrought in us, and ap-, nels not prehended by Faith; whereby we mount up above all Laws and Works ... Wherefore like as we have born us, but (as. St. Paul faith) the Image of the earthly Adam ; fo wrought in he us bear the Image of the heavenly, I Cor. XV. 49. 115. which is the per Map in a new World, where is

Why, do we then nothing ? Do we work nothing for the obtaining of this Righteoufnels ? I answer, nothing at all. For this is perfect Righreoufnels, to do nothing, to hear nothing, to know nothing of the Law, or of Works ; but to know and believe to this only, that Chrift is mone to the Father, and is not now fsen ; that he fitteth in Heaven at the Rightmend of his Father, not as a Judge, but made unto us of God, Wildern, Righteoufnefs, Holinefs and Redemption : Briefly, that he is our High-Prieft, intreating for us, reigning over us and in us by Grace. In this heavenly Righteoufnefs, Sin can have no Place ; for there is ro Law ; and where no Law is, there can be no Transpression, Rom. iv. 15. " Sceing then that Sin hath here no Place, there can be no Anguith of "Conficience, no Fear, no Heavinefs. Therefore St. John faith ; He shas is born of God, cannot fin, 1 John v. 18. But if there be any Fear or Grief of Confcience, it is a Token that this Righteoufnefs is withdrawn, that Grace is hidden, and that Chrift is darkned and not of Sight. But where Chrift is truly fcen indeed, there muft needs be full and perfect Joy in the Lord, with Peace of Confcience, which most certainly "thus thinketh : Altho' I am a Sinner by the Law, and under the Condemnation of the Law, yet I difpair not, yet I die not, becaufe Chrift liveth, who is both my Righteoufness and my everhalting Life. In that Righteoufnels and Life I have no Sin, no Fear, no Sting of Confcience, no Care of Death. I am indeed a Sinner as touching this prefent Life; and the Righteoufnels thereof, as the Child of Adam ; where the Law acculethme, Death reigneth over me, and at length would devous me. But I have another Righteoufnels and Life above this Life, which is Chrift the Son of God, Rom. viii. 9, 10, 11, Scc. who knoweth no Sin hor 'Death,' but is Righteoufnels and Life eternal ; by whom this my Body being dead and brought into Duft, shall be railed up again, and deliwered from the Bondage of the Law and Sin, and shall be fanctified to. 'gether with the Spirit.

So both these continue whils we have live. The Pieth is accused, exercised with Tempations, oppedied with Heavines and Sorrow, builds by his active Rightenomes of the Law 1 both to Spritteragneth, septemb, and is faved by this pative and Christian Righteodrafts, bescaste it knowsth that is hash a Lord in Heaven at the Rightendraft is Pather, who lath abolished the Law, Sin, Death, and hash trodden under Food all Evils, led them captive, and triumphed over them in himentic set. Therefore do we fo earneftry fet forth and fo often repeat this Doos trine of Faith or Chriftian Righteoufness, that by this Means it may be keet in continual Exercise, and may be plainly differend from the active Rightcoufnefs of the Law. Wherefore I do admonifh you, especially such as shall become Instructers and Guiders of Conficiences, and alfo every one a Part; that ye exercife yourfelves continually by Study, by Reading, by Meditation of the Word, and by Prayer, that in the Time of Temptation ve may be able to initruct and comfort both your own Confciences and others, and to bring them from the Law to Grace, from the active and working R ghieoufrefs, to the paffive and received Righteoufnefs; and to conclude, from Moles to Chrift. For the Devil is wont in Affliction and in the Conflict of Conficience, by the Law to make us afraid, and to lay against us the Guilt of Sin, our wicked Life past, the Wrath and Judgment of God, Hell and eternal Death, that by this Means he may drive us to Defperation, make us Bond-flaves to himfelf, and pluck us from Chrift. Furthermore, he is wont to fet againift us those Places of the Gofoel, wherein Chrift himfelf requireth Works of us, and with plain Words threasnesh Damnation to those that do them not. Heb. iv. 8. Now, if here we be not able to judge between these two Kinds of Righteoufhels, if we take not hold of Chrift by Faith fitting at the Right hand of God, who maketh Interceffion anto the Father for us. wretched Sinners, then are we under the Law, and not under Grace, and Chrift is no more a Saviour, but a Law-giver ; fo that now there remaineth no more Salvation, but certain Defperation and everlafting Death, except Repentance follow.

Let us then diligently learn to judge between these two Kinds of Right teoufnels, that we may know how far we ought to obey the Law. Now, we have faid before, that the Law in a Chriftian ought not to pafs his Bounds, but ought to have Dominion only over the Fleih, which is in Subjection unto its and remaineth under the fame. When it is thus, the Law, is kept within his Bounds. But if it shall prefume to Creep

Give no more to the Law than is convenient, but fay thou : O Law, thou wouldeft climb up into the Kinedom of my Conficience, and there reign and reprove it of Sin, and wouldeft take from me the loy of my Heart which I have by Faith in Chaift, and drive me to Defociation, that I might be without all Hope, and utterly perifs. This thou doeff befides thine Office : keep thyfelf within thy Bounds, and Exercise thy Power upon the Fleth but touch not my Conference, for I am baptized, and by the Goffel am called to the Paraking of Righteoufnels and everlafting Life, to the Kingdom of Chrift, wherein my Confcience is at reft. where no Law is, but altogether Forgivenet's of Sin. The EPISTLE of PAUL the APOSTLE to the GALATIANS.

CHAP. I.

Verse 1. Paul an Apostle (not of Men. neither by Man. but by Fefus Chrift, and God the Father, who raifed him from the Dead.)

OW that we have declared the Argument and Sum of this Epiftle to the Galatians, we think it good before we come to the Matter itfelf, to fhew what was the Occafion that St. Paul wrote this Epifile. He had planted among the Galatians the pure Doctrine of the Gofnel, and the Righteoufnels of Faith ; but by and by after his Departure, there creent in certain falle Teachers, which overthrew all that he had planted and truly taught among them. For the Devil cannot but furioufly impugne this Doctrine with all The Devil Force and Subtility, neither can he reft fo long as he feeth any Spark thereof remaining. We also for this only Gofpel, and Caufe that we preach the Gofpel, do fuffer of the World, the Dovil and his Ministers, all the Mischief that they wicked Men can work against us, both on the Right-hand and on againft it. the left.

The Doctrine of the Gospel. For the Gofpel is fach a Dodtrine as teacheth a far higher Matter then is the Wildom, Righteoufnels, and Religion of the World, that is to fay, free Remillion of Sins thro' Chrift, czc. It leaveth thole Things in their Desree to be as they are, and commendent them as the good Creatures of Ged. But the World preferrent thefe Creatures before the Creator, and moreover by them would put away Sin, be deliwered from Death, and deferve everlating Life. This doth the Gofpel condemn. Contrarising the World cannot fulfer thole Things to be condenued, which is mole effective and bell liket of and therefore is chargeth the Golgel that it is a feditious Doctrine and full of Errors, that it overthrowsth Common wealths, Countries, Dominons, Kingdoms and Empires, and therefore offendeth both againft God and the Emperor, abolitheth Laws, corrupter ig good Manners, and fetteth all Men at Liberty to do what they fift. Wherefore with juft Zeal and high Service to God (as it would feem) it perfectute this Doctrine, and abhorreth the Teachers and Profefors thereof, as the greateft Plague that can be in the whole Earth.

The Effect of the Gofpel. Moreover, by the preaching of this Doftrine, the Devil is overthrown, his Kingdom is deflroyed, the Law, Sin and Death (wherewith, as molt mighty and invincible Tyrants, he hath brought all Mankind in Subjection under his Dominion) are wrefled out of his Hands, briefly, his Prifoness are translated out of the Kingdom of Darknafs into the Kingdom of Light and Liberty, Gd. i. 12. Should the Devil (later all this? Should not the Pather of Lies employ all his Porce and fubil Pollicies, to darken, to corrupt, and uterly to root out this Doftme of Salvation and everiafing Life? Indeed St. Paul complaineth in this and all other his Epifles, that even in his Time the Devil flewed bimelfa comming Workman in this Buffnefs.

We thought good to fixew here by the Way, that the Golfel is furth a Doctrine as condemneth all Manner of Righteoufinefs, and preacheth the only Righteoufnefs of Chrift, and to them that embrace the fame, it bringeth Peace of Confeience and all good Things; and yet notwith "Manding, the World hateth and perfecture bit molf bitterty".

I faid before that the Occafion why St. Paul wrote this Epifile was for that by and by after his Departure, falfe Teachers had deftroyed

TheAuthority of the false Apostles. thole Things among the Celatians, which he with long and great Travail had builded. And thele faile Apofles being of the Circumcilion and Sett of the Pharifes, were Men of great Elimation and Authority, which bragged among the People that they were of that holy and cholen Stock of the Jews, that they were directively of the Seed of Abraham, John will 32, Rom. iv: 4, 5, 6, that they had the Promifes and the Fathers; and Monily, that they were the Minifers of Chrift, and the Apoftles Schollars, with whom they had been conversiont and had feen their Miracles, and perhaps had alf wrought fome Signs dr Miracles themfelves : For Chrift wintefficht at the Wiracle allo do VERSE I.

work Miracles, Matth, vii, 22, Moreover these false Apostles by all the crafty Means they could devife, defaced the Authority of St. Paul. faying, Why do ye fo highly effeem of Paul? Why have ye him in fo great Reverence? Forfooth he was but the laft of all that were converted unto Chrift. But we are the Difciples of the Apoffles, and were familiarly converfant with them. We have feen Chrift working Miracles, and heard him preach. Paul came after us, and is inferiour unto us; and it is not peffible that God fhould fuffer us to err which are of his holy People, the Minifters of Chrift, and have received the Holy Gholt. Again, we are many and Paul is but one, and alone, who neither was converfant with the Apoftles, nor hath feen Chrift ; yea he perfecuted the Church of Christ a great while. Would God (think ye) for Paul's Sake only, fuffer fo many Churches to be deceived ?

When Men having Such Authority come into any Country or City, by and by the Pcople have them in great Admiration, and under this Colour of Godline's and Religion, they do not only deceive the finiple. but alfo the learned, yea, and those alfo which feem to be fomewhat confirmed in the Faith, especially when they brag (as these did) that they are the Offspring of the Patriatchs, the Minifters of Chrift, the Apostles Schollars, &c. Even fo the Pope at this Day, when he hath no Authority of the Scripture to defend himfelf withal, ufeth this one Argument continually againft us, The Church, the Church : Thinkeft thou that God is fo offended, that for a few Heretickes of Luther's Sect, he will caft off his whole Church? Thinkeft thou that he would leave his Church in Error fo many hundred Years? And this he mightily maintaineth, that the Church can never be overthrown. Now, like as many are moved with this Argument at this Day; fo in Paul's Time these falle Apostles thro' great bragging and setting forth of their own Praises, blinded the Eyes of the Galatians, fo that Paul left his Authority among them, and his Doctrine was brought into Sufpicion.

Against this vain bragging and boafting of the fall? Apostles, Paul with great Conftancy and Boldness fetteth his Apoftolick Authority, highly commending his Vocation, and defending his Miniftry. And ( altho' eliwhere he never Joth the like) he will not give Place to any, no not to the Apostles themfelves, much less to any of their Schollars. And to abate their Pharifaical Pride and thamelefs Boldnefs, he maketh Mention of the Hiftory done in Antioch. where he withflood Peter himfelf. Befides this, not regarding the Offence that might rife thereof, he faith plainly in the Text, that he was bold to accuse and reprove Peter himfelf the chief of the Apoftles, who had feen Chrift, and had been most familiarly conversant with him. I am an Apostle (faith he) and such an one as pass not what others are ; yea, I was not afraid to chide the very Pillar of all the reft of the Apoliles. # And to conclude, in the first two Chapters he doth in a Manner, nothing elfe but fet out his Vocation, his Office and his Golpel, affirming that it was not of Men. and that he had not received it by Man, but by the Revelation of jefus Chrift: Alfo, that if he, yea, or an Angel form Heaven fhould bring any other Golpel, then that which he had preached, he fhould be holden accurfed.

The Certainty of Calling.

The Minifter of God must be fure of hisCalling. B Utwhatmeaneth Paul by this his boafting? I anfwer : This common Place ferveth to this End, that every Minifter of God's Word fhould be fure of his Calling, that before God and Man he may with a bold Confeience glory herein, that he preached the Golfel as one that is called and fent: Even as the Embaffador of a King glorieth and vaunteth in this, that he cometh not as a private Perfon, but as the King's Embaffador, he is honoured, and fet in the highef Place : Which Honour fhould not be given unto him, if he came as a private Perfon. Wherefore let the Preacher of the Golfe be certain that his Calling is from God. And it is expedient that according to the Example of Paul, he fhould mapify this his Calling, to the End, that he may win Credit and Authority among the People ; like as the King's Embaffador magmifeth his Office and Calling. And thus to glory, is not a wain, but a needifary kind of glorying. because he glorieth not in himfelf. but in the King which hath fent him, whole Authority he defireth to be honoured and magnifed.

The glorying of Paul as touching his Vocation neceffary and holy.

The Preachers are to bereceived as Meffengers from God, bywhofeMiniffry God himfelf fpeaketh. Likewife when Paul fo highly commendeth his Calling, he feek then the iso on Praife, but with a neceffiry and a holy Pride her magnifieth his Minifity, as to the Rom, xie 12, he hinth, has are made at learn the Applie of the Gentiles. Imagnify mine Office; That is to fay, I will that Mea receive me, not as Paul of Tarlat, but as Paul the Apolle or Embaliador of Jelus Chrift, "And this fine doth of Neceffity to maintain lis Authority, that the People in hearing this, might be more attent and willing to give ear unto him. For they hear not only Paul, but in Paul Chrift himfelf, not God the Father fending him out in his Meffage; whofe Authority and Majelty, like as Men ought religioudly to honour, to ought they with great. Keverence to receive and to hear his Meffangers bringing his Word and Meffage.

This is a notable Place therefore, whetcin Paul fo glorieth and boalleth as touching his Vocation, that he defpifeth all others. If any Man after the Manner of the World fhould defpife all others in respect of himfelf, and attribute all unto himfelf alone, he fhould not only fitew himfelf a very Fool, but also grievoully offend. But this Manner of boafting is ne-

Verfe I. Paul an Apostle not of Men, &c.

Here in the very beginning he toucheth thole fulls Teachers, which boafted themfelves to be the Dificiples of the Apolites, and to be fant of them, but defpifed Paul as one that was neither the Apolites Schollar, nor fant of any to preach the Golferl, but came in forme other Way, and defindeth his Calling, faying, My Calling fermeth bale to your Preachfers: But wholever they be which have come uuto you, are fant either of Men or by Man; That is to fay, they have entred either of themfelves beingnotalled, ordelic called by others. But my Calling instituof Men nor by Man, but it is above all Manner of Calling that can be made by the Apolles, for it this y Jefas Christian by Galling that can be

He calleth us to the Miniftry of his O Word at this Day, not immediately by himfelf, but by J other Means, that is to fay, by Man. But the Apolles were called immediately of Chrift himfelf, as the Prophets in the old Finne were called of God himfelf. Therefore when Paul faith, Not of Man, mither by Man, he bearch down the falle Apolles. As the'do would fay; Albeit theol Vippers brag more formuch, What can they brag more then that they are either come from Man, that is to fay, of themfelves without any Calling, or, by Man, that is to fay, fort of others? I pals not upon any of thefe Things, noither ought you to regard them. As for me, I am called and fent neither of Men, norby Man, but without Mards, that is, to mit, by Jolics Christ himfelf, and my Calling is like in all Points to the Calling of the Apolles, and I am indeed an Apolfte. TheCertainty of Calling.

They which be not cal-Jed. do kill and deftrov.

This is the first Assault that Poul maketh against the falfe Apofiles, which ran when no Man fent them. Calling therefore is not tobe defpifed. For it is not enough for a Man to have the Word and pure Doctrine, but alfo he muft be affured of his Calling, and he that entreth without this Affurance, entreth to no other End but to kill and to deftroy. For God pever profpereth the Labour of those that are not called. And altho' they teach fome good and profitable Matters, yet they edify not. So our Phantaftical Spisits at this Day have the Words of Faith in their Mouths, but yet they yield no Fruit, but their chief End and Purpose is to draw Men to their falle and perverse Opinions. They that have a certain and holy Calling, muft fuffain many and great conflicts : As they muft do whole Doctrine is pure and found, that they may conftantly abide in their lawful Calling, against the infinite and continual Affaults of the Devil and Rage of the World. Here what should he do whole Calling is uncertain and Doctrine corrupt ?

This is therefore our Comfort, which are in the Ministry of the Word, that we have an Office which is heavenly and holy, to the which we being lawfully called, do triumph against all the Gates of Hell. On' the other Side, it is an horrible Thing when the Confcience faith, This haft thou done without any lawful calling. Here fuch Terror fhaketh a Man's Mind which is not called, that he would wilh he had never heard the Word which he teacheth. For by his Difobedience he maketh all his Works evil, were they never fo good, in fo much thateven his greateft Works and Labours become his greateft Sins.

We fee then how good and neceffary this boafting and glorying of our Miniftry is. In Times pait when I was but a young Why Paul Divine, me thought Paul did unwifely in glorying fo oft fo exalteth of his Calling in all his Epifiles : But I did not underftand his Purpofe. Paul is fo enfiamed here with Zeal, that he cannot tar-The Sum of ry till he come to the Matter itfelf, but forthwith in the the Epiftle very Title he burfteth out, and uttereth what he hath in to the Galahis Heart. His Intent in this Epiftle is, to treat of the tians. Righteoufnefs that cometh by Faith, and to defend the fame: Again, to beat down the Law and the Righteoufnels that cometh by Works. Of fuch Cogitations he is full, and out of this wonderful and exceeding great Abundance of the excellent Wifdom and Knowledge of Chrift in his Heart, his Mouth fpeaketh. This Flame, this great burning Fire of the Heart cannot be hid, nor fuffer him to hold his Tongue : And therefore he thought it not enough to fay that he was an Apostle fent by Jefus Christ, but also addeth, by God the Father, who railed him from the Dead.

But it feemeth here that the adding of these Words, And God the Father, &c. is not necessary. But because (as I faid) Paul speaketh out of the Abundance of his Heart, his Mind burneth with Defire to fet forth even in the very Entry of this Epiftle the unfearchable Riches of Chrift, and to preach the Righteoufnels of God, which is called the Refurrection of the Dead. Chrift who liveth and is rifen again, fpeaketh out of him, and moveth him thus to fpeak : Therefore not without Caufe he addeth, that he is also an Apostle, by God the Father, which hath raifed up Jefus Christ from the Dead. As if he should fay ; I have to deal with Satan and with those Vipers the Inftruments of Satan, which go about to fpoil me of the Righteoufnefs of Chrift, who was railed up by God the Father from the Dead : By the which alone we are made Righteous, by the which alfo we shall be raifed up at the Laft-day from Death to everlasting Life. But they that in fuch Sort go about to overthrow verthrow the Righteoufnels of Chrift, do refift the Father and the Son and the Work of them both.

What Paul goeth about in this Epifile.

Chrift's Victory is ours.

Thus Paul, even at the first Entrance, burfteth out into the whole Matter whereof he intreateth in this Epifile. For (as I faid) he treateth of the Refurrection of Chrift, who role again to make us righteous, Rom. iv. 24. 25. and in fo doing he hath overcome the Law, Sin. Death, and all Evils. Chrift's Victory then is the overcoming of the Law, of Sin, our Flefh, the World, the Devil, Death, Hell, and all Evils ; And this his Victory he hath given unto us. Altho' then that thefe Tyrants and these Enemies of ours do accuse us and make us afraid: yet can they not drive us to Defpair, nor condemn us. For Chrift whom God the Father hath raifed up from the Dead, is our Righteoufnefs and Victory. But Thanks be to God, which give ib us the Victory, thro' our Lord Felus Chrift, 1 Cor. XV. 57.

But mark how fitly and to the Purpofe Paul here fpeaketh. He faith not, by God which hath made Heaven and Earth, which is Lord of Angels, which commandeth Abraham to go out of his own Countrey, which fent Moles to Pharaoh the King, which brought Ifrael out of Egypt, (as the falle Apoftles did) who boafted of the God of their Fathers, the Creator, Maintainer and Preferver of all Things, working Wonders among his People : But Paul had another Thing in his Heart, namely the Righteoufnefs of Chrift, and therefore he fpeaketh Words that make much for this Purpole, faying, I am an Apostle, not of Men, neither by Man, but by Jefus Chrift, and God the Father, who raifed him from the Dead. Ye fee then with what Fervency of Spirit Paul is led in this Matter, which he goeth about to establish and maintain against the whole Kingdom of Hell, the Power and Wifdom of the World, and againft the Devil and his Apoftles.

Verse 2. And all the Brethren which are with me.

This maketh much for the flopping of the Mouths of these false Apostles. For all his Arguments tend to the advancing and magnifying of his Ministry, and contrariwife to the difcrediting of theirs. As if he fhould thus fay : Altho' it be enough, that I thro' a Divine Calling am fent as an Apostle by Jefus Christ, and God the Father, which hath raifed him up from the Dead, yet left I should be alone, I add over and befides (which is more then needeth) all the Brethren which are not Apofiles, but Fellow-foldiers ; they write this Epifile as well as I, and bear Witnefs with me that my Doctrine is true and godly. Wherefore we be fure that Chrift is prefent with us, and that he teacheth and fpeaketh in the Midft of us and in our Church. As for the falle Apoltles, if they be any Thing, they be but fent either of Man, or by Man; but I am fent of God the Father, and of Jefus Chrift, who is our Life and Refurrection; John xi. 25. My other Brethren are fent from God, howbeit by Man, that is, to wit, by me.

Verse 2. Unto the Churches of Galatia.

Paul had presched the Gofgel throughout all Galatia, and albeit he had not wholly converted it unto Chrift, yet he had many Churches in it, into the which the falfe Apofiles, Satars Miniftershad crept. So likewife at thisDay the Phantaftical Anabaptifls come not to the Places where the Adverfaries of the Gofgel bar Rule: but where Chriftians and good Men are, which love the Gofgel. With fuch they wind in themletives even in the Dominions of Tyrants and Perfect setters of the Gofgel : Where they, creeping into Houfes under carlity Presence, pour out their Polion to the Subvertion of many? But why go they not rather into the Cities, Countries, and Dominions of Papitis, and there profes and maintain their Dockrine in the Prefece of wicked Princes, Billops, and Doctors in the Univerfities, as we by God's Help and Affiflance have done? Thefe tender Martyrs will adventure no Peril, but they refort thinker where the Goffeel hath an Harbour already, where they may live without Danger in great Peace and Quitenties. So the falls Apoffles would not endanger themfelves to come to Jerufalem to Caiophan, or, to Rome to the Emperor, or to other Places where no Man had preached afore, as Paul and the other Apoffles did : But they came into Galatia, which was won unto Chriftalreadyby the Labourand Travailof Paul, and into A, fat, Grimith, and fuch other Place, where good Men were and profefied the Name of Chrift, perfoculing no Man, but fuffering all Things quietly. And here we may learn that it is the Lot of all godly Teachers, that befules the Perfecution which they fuffer T of the Wicked and unthankful World, and the great Travail which they fuffan in planting of Churches, they are I commelled to uffer that Thing which they of long Time

Is it (faith he) becaufe Paul writeth to the Galatians, that were perverted and turned back from Chrift and from Grace, unto Mofes and the Law? Hereunto I answer, that Paul calleth them the Churches of Galatia, by putting a Part for the whole, which is a common Thing in the Scriptures. For writing in like Manner to the Corinthians, he rejoiceth on their Behalf, that the Grace of God was given them in Chrift, namely, that they were made rich thro? him in all Utterance and Knowledge : And yet many of them were milsled by falfe Apoftles, and believed not the Refurrection of the Dead.

teach, preach, fung, and fet out by writing. For if we neglect the Article of Jufification, we lofe all together. Interefore molt necellary it is chiefly and above all Things, that we teach and repeat this Article continually : Like as Mojes faith of his Law; for it cannot be beaten into our Ears enough or too much. Yea, tho' we learn it and underfland it well, yet is three none that taketh hold.

of it perfectly, or believeth it with his whole Heart; fo frail a Thing is our Fleih, and difobedient to the Spirit.

The greeting of the Apoftle is firange unto the World, and was never heard of before the preaching of the Gofpel. And thefe two Words Grace and Peace comprehend in them whatfoever belongeth to Chriftianity. Grace releafeth Sin, and Peace maketh the Confeience quiet, The two Fiends that torment us, are Sin and Confcience. But Chrift hath vanquifhed thefe two Monfters, and troden them under Foot, both in this World and in the World to come. This the World doth not know, and therefore it can teach no Certainty of the overcoming of Sin, Confcience and Death, † Only Chriftians have this Kind of Doctrine, and are exercised and armed with it, to get Victory against Sin. Defpair and everlasting Death. And it is a Kind of Dostrine neither proceeding of Freewill, nor invented by the Reafon or Wifdom of Man, but given from above. Moreover these two Words, Grace and Peace, do contain in them the whole Sum of Chriflianity. Grace containeth the Remiffion of Sins : Peace a quiet and joyful Confeience. But Peace of Confeience can never be fad, unleft sin be firth forgiven. But sin is not forgiven for the fulfilling of the Law; for no Man is able to faitify the Law; but the Law donh rather flew Sin, accude and terrify the Confeience, declare the Wrath of God, and drive to Defiperation. Much lefs is Sin taken away by the Works and Inventions of Men, as wicked Worfhippings, firange Religions, Vows and Bigginges. Finally, there is no Work that can take away Sin, but Sin is rather increated by Works. For the Juliciaries and Meriimongers, the more they labour and faveat to bring themfolleves out of Sin, the deeper they are plueged therein. For there is no Means to take away Sin Si but Grace alone. Therefore Paw in all the Greetings of le his Epifiles, fetteth Grace and Peace againff Sin and an b will Conficience. This Thing muft be diligently mark be

ed. The Words are eafy; but in Temptation it is the hardest Thing that can be, to be certainly perfwaded in our Hearts that by Grace alone, all other Means either in Heaven or in Earth fet apart, we have Remiffion of Sins and Peace with God.

The World knoweth not the Doftrine of true Godlinefs.

Only by Grace is the Confeience onieted.

The World understandeth not this Doctrine, and therefore it neither will nor can abide it, but condemneth it as heretical and wicked. It braggeth of Free-will, of the Light of Reafon, of the Soundness of the Powers and Qualities of Nature, and of good Works, as Means whereby it could deferve and attain Grace and Peace, that is to fay, Forgivenels of Sins and a quiet Confcience. But it is impossible that the Confcience should be quiet and iovful, unless it have Peace thro' Grace, that is to fay, thro' the Forgiveness of Sins promised in Christ. Many have carefully laboured by finding out divers and fundry religious Orders and Exercises for this Purpole, to attain Peace and Ouietness of Confcience : but by fo doing they have plunged themfelves in more and greater Miferies; for all fuch Devices are but Means to increase Doubtfulness and Despair. Therefore there shall. he no Reft to my Bones or thine, unlefs we hear the Word of Grace, and cleave unto it ftedfaftly and faithfully; then fhall our Confcience undoubtedly find Grace and Peace.

The Apofile doth fitly diffinguish this Grace and Peace from all other

So the Grace or Favour of the The Favour World giveth us leave to enjoy our Goods, and cafteth us not out of our Polleffions. But in Affliction and in the Hour of Death, the Grace and Favour of the World cannot help us, they cannot deliver us from Affliction, Defpair and Death. But when the Grace and Peace of God are in the Heart, then is Man ftrong, fo that he can neither be caft down with Adverfity, nor puffed up with Profperity, but walketh on plainly and keepeth the high Way. For he taketh Heart and Courage in the Victory of Chrift's Death, and the Confidence thereof beginneth to reign in his Conficience over Sin and Death, becaufe thro' him he hath affured Forgiveness of his Sins; which after he hath once obtained, his Confeience is at reft, and by the Word of Grace is comforted. So then a Man being comforted and heartned by the Grace of God, that is, by Forgivenels of Sins and by this Peace of Confcience, is able valiantly to bear and overcome all Troubles.

A Rule to be observed, that Men ought to abstain from the curious fearching of GOD's Majefty.

BUt why doth the Apofile add moreover in this Salunot enough to fay, And from God our Father? Why then from our Lord doth he couple Jefus Chrift with the Father ? Ye have oftentimes heard of us, how it is a Rule and Principle in

The Jew thinketh thus, If I keep those Things which the Law commandeth, I shall find God merciful unto me, and fo shall I be faved. So alfo a Sort of fond Heads at this Day, bragging of the Spirit of Revelations, of Vilions, and fuch other monstrous Matters I wot not what, do walk in Wonders above their Reaches. These new Monks have invented a new Crofs and new Works, and they dream that by doing them they pleafe God. To be brief, as many as know nat the Article of Justification, take away Chrift the Mercy-feat, and will needs comprehend God in his Majefty by the Judgment of Reafon, and pacify him with their own Works.

Veile A. Who gave himself for our Sins.

Paul in a Manner in viry Word bandleth the Argument of this Epifile. He hath nothing in his Mouth but Chrift, and therefore in every Word there is a Fervency of Spirit and Life. And mark how well and to the Purpofe he fpeaketh. CHAP. L.

Fromifes of the old Law, that our Sins are taken away by no other Mean. then by the Son of God delivered unto Death. With fuch Gun fhot and fuch Artillery muft the Papacy be deltroyed, and all the Religions of the Heathen, all Works, all Merits, and fuperfitious Ceremonies. For if our Sins may be taken away by our own Works. Merits and Satisfactions. What needed the Son of God to be given for them ? But feeing he was given for them, it followeth, that we cannot put them away by our own Works.

Again, by this Sentence it is declared, that our Sins are fo great, fo infinite and invincible, that it is impossible for the whole World to fatisfy for one of them : And furely the Greatness of the Ranfom (namely, Chrift the Son of God, who gave himfelf for our Sins) declareth fufficiently, that we can neither fatisfy for Sin, nor have Dominion over The Force and Power of Sin is fet forth and amplified exceedingly īt.

The Greatnefs of Sin is to be effeemed by the Greatness of whereby it is sholifhed.

by these Words, Who gave bimfelf for our Sins. Therefore here is to be marked the infinite Greatness of the Price beftowed for it, and then will it appear evidently, that the Power of it is fo great, that by no Means it could be put away, but that the Son of God muft needs be given for it. He that confidereth these Things well. understandeth that this one Word Sin, comprehendeth God's everlafting Wrath, and the whole Kingdom of Satan, and that it is a Thing more horrible than can be expreffed ; which ought to move us and make us afraid indeed. But we are carelefs, yea we make Light of Sin, and a Matter of nothing; which altho' it bring with it the Sting and Remorfe of Confcience, yet notwithstanding we think it not to be of fuch Weight and Force, but that by fome little Work or Merit we may put it away.

This Sentence therefore witneffeth, that all Men are Servants and Bond flaves to Sin. and (as Paul faith in another Place) are fold under Sin, Rom. vii. 14. And again, that Sin is a most cruel and mighty Tyrant over all Men; which dingall Men cannot be vanquifhed by the Power of any Creatures, whether they be Angels or Men, but by the Sovereign and Infinite Power of Jefus Chrift, who hath given himfelf for the fame.

Furthermore this Sentence fetteth out to the Confciences of all Men which are terrified with the Greatness of their Sins, a fingular Comfort. For albeit Sin be never fo invincible a Tyrant; yet notwithstanding, forafmuch as Chrift hath overcome it thro' his Death, it cannot hurt them that believe in him. Moreover, if we arm our-which will abolify and overcome Sin by their own Traditions, Works preparative, Satisfactions, drc. Here forthwith we judge all thofe Seets to be wicked and premicious; whereby the Glory of God and of Chrift is not only defaced, but alfo utterly taken away, and our own advanced and elblifthed.

But weigh diligently every Word of Paul, and fpecially mark well this Pronoun, Our. For the Effect altogether confiltent in the well applying of the Pronouns, which we find very often in the Scriptures, wherein alfa there is ever fome Vehemency and Power. Thou will eafly fay and believe that Chrift the Son of God was given for the Sins of Peter, of Paul, and of other Saints, whom we account to have been worthy of this Grace. But it is a recy hard Thing that thou which judgeft thy felf unworthy of this Grace, fhould from thy Hard fay and believe, that Christ was given for thine invincible, infinite and horrible Sins. Therefore generally and without the Pronoun, it is an eafly Matter to magnify and anpiling the Benefit of Christ, namely, That Christ was given for Sins, but for other Mens Sins which are worthy. But when it cometh to the putting to of this Pronoun Our, there our weak Nature and Reafon flarteth back, and dare not come near unto God, nor promife to herfelf that for great a Treafure flouldbe truly given unto here, and therefore the will not have to do with God, except firft fibe be pure and without Sin. Wherefore altho' fibe read or hear this Sentence. Who goes himfelf for our Sins, or finch like, yet doth fibe not apply this Pronoum (Our) unto herfelf, but unto others which are worthy and holy, and as for herfelf, fibe will tarry till fibe be made worthy by her own Works.

This then is nothing elfe, but that Man's Reafon fain would that Sin were of no greater Force and Power, then the herfelf dreameth it to be. Hereof it cometh that the Hypocrites being ignorant of Chrift, altho' they feel the Remorfe of Sin, do think notwithflanding that they shall be able eafily to put it away by their good Works and Merits, and fecretly in their Hearts they with that thefe Words, Who gave himfelf for our Sins, were but as Words fpoken in Humility, and would have their Sins not to be true, and very Sins indeed, but light and fmall Matters. To be fhort ; Man's Reafon would fain bring and prefent unto God a feigned and a counterfeit Sinner, which is nothing afraid, nor hath any feeling of Sin. It would bring him that is whole, and not him that hath need of a Phyfician, and when it feeleth no Sin, then would it believe that Chrift was given for our Sins.

The whole World is thus affected, and effectially they that they that would be counted more holy and religious than o- cannot hear, there, as Monky, and all Jufficiaries. Thefe confels with their Mouth that they are Simers and they confels allo that they commit Sins daily, howbeit not fo great and many, but that they are able to put them away by their own Works : Yea, and befides all this, they will bring their Righteoufnefs and Deferts to Chrift's Judgment-Seat, and demand the Recompence of eternal Life for them at the Judges Hand. In the mean while notwithstanding ( as they pretend great Humility ) because they will not vaunt themfelves to be utterly void of Sin, they feign certain Sins, that for the Forgiveness thereof, they may with great Devotion pray with the Publican, God be merciful to me a Sinner, Luke xviii. 12. Unto them these Words St. Paul, for our Sins, feem to be but light and triffing. Therefore they neither underfland them, nor in Temptation when they feel Sin indeed, can they take any Comfort of them, but are compelled a flatly to defpair.

The chief Wifdom of Chriftians.

This is then the chief Knowledge and true Wildom of Chriftians, to count thefe Words of Paul, that Chrift was delivered to Death, not for our Righteoufnefs or Holinefs, but for our Sins ( which are very Sins indeed great, many, yea infinite and invincible ) to be most true, effectual and of great Importance. Therefore think them not to be finall, and fuch as may be done away by thine own Works: Neither yet defpair thoù for the Greatnefs of them, ' if thou feel thyfelf oppreffed there with, either in Life or Death : But learn here of Paul to believe that Chrift was given, not for feigned or counterfeit Sins, nor yet for fmall Sins, but for great and huge Sins; not for one or two, but for all, not for vanquifhed Sins (for no Man, no nor Angel is able to overcome the leaft Sin that is ) but for invincible Sins. And except thou be found in the Number of those that fay, Our Sins, that is, which have this Doctrine of Faith, and teach, hear, learn, love and believe the fame, there is no Salvation for thee.

Labour therefore diligently, that not only out of the Time of Tentation, but also in the Danger and Conflict of Death, when thy Confcience is throughly afraid, with the Remembrance of thy Sins paft, and the Devil affaulteth thee with great Violence, going about to overwhelm. thee with Heaps, Floods, and whole Seas of Sins, to terrify thee, to draw thee from Chrift, and to drive thee to Defpair: That then I fay, thou mayft be able to fay, with fure Confidence; Chrift the Son of God was given, not for the Righteous and Holy, but for the Unrighteous and Sinners. If I were righteous and had no Sin, I should have no Need of Chrift to be my Reconciler. Table; as not to yield Honour to my Parents, not to obey the Magiffrates, to covet another Man's Goods, his Wife, and fuch like: Albeit that thefe be light Faults in refeed to thode former Sins. And admit that I have not committed Murder, Whoredom, Theft, and fuch other Sins againft the facond Table, in Fad; yet I have committed them in Heart, and therefore I am a Transferefor of all God's Commandiments, and the Multitude of my Sins is fo great that they cannot be numbred; for I have finned above the Number of the Sands of the Sea.

Befides this, Satan is fuch a cunning Jugler, that he S can make of my Rightcoufnefs and good Works, great v Sins. For for much then as my Sins are for weighty, fo c infinite, fo horrible and invincible, and that my Rightetoufnefs doth nothing further me, but rather hinder me i before God : therefore Chrift the Son of God was eiven

Satan is wont to changeRight teoufnefs into Sins.

to Death for them, to put them away, and fo fave all Men which believe. Herein therefore confiftent the Effect of eternal Salvation, namely, in taking thefe Words to be effectual, true and of great Importance. I fay not this for nought, for I have oftentimes proved by Experience, and I daily find what an hard Matter it is to beleve (effectially in the Conflict of Conficience) that Chrift was given, not for the holy, righteous, worthy, and fuch as we this Friends, but for wicked Sinners, for the unworthy, and for his Enemies, which have deferved God's Wrath and evertailing Death.

Let us therefore arm ourfelves with the and fuch like Sentences of the Holy Scripture, that we may be able to answer the Devil (accuffing us and faying. Thou art a Sinner, and therefore thou art dammed) in this Sort, becaufe thou fryell 1 am a Sinner, therefore will I be righteous and faved. Nay (faith the Devil) thou failt be dammed. No (fay'I) for I fly unto Chrift, able hath gi-How we ver himfelf for my Sins. Therefore Statu hou failt no ure himfelf for my Sins. Therefore Statu hou failt no in fetting forth the Greamefs of my Sins, and fo to bring difputing difputing difputing difputing difputing cft, I am a sinner, thoù givell me Armour and Wespón againt hyfelf, that with thine own Sword I may cat thy Threat, and tread thee under my Feet, for Chrisf died for Sinners. Moreover thou thyfelf preachel unto me the Glory of God : For thou puttell me in Mind of God's fatherly Love towards me wretched and damned Sinner, For God forlower like Wirld, that he gove his only begatter San : that wholener ber,likewith in Jim, fauld and preight, but have excluding Life, John in 1. 6.Allo as often as thou objedleft that I am a Sinner, fo often thou calleftme to Remembrance of the Benefix of Chrift my Redeemer, upon wholeShoulders, and not upon mine, ly all my Sins; For the Lord halt laidon hm the inguity of au all. — For the Transferifion of my Peeple uauis flinken, Ih. III. 6., — S. Wherefore when thou fixelf I am aSinner, thou doft not terrify me, but comfort me abyeet Nexigure. Who fo knoweth this one Point of canning well, fhall eafly avoid all the Engines and Snares of the Devil, who by putting Man in Mind of his Sins, drivels him to Defpair, and deltroyeth him, unlefs he withfland him with his canning and with this keavenly Wildom, whereby only Sin, Death and the Devil are overcome. But the Man that putteth pot away the Remembrance of his Sin, but keepeth in fill, and tormenteth himfelf with his own Cogitations, thinking either to help himfelf by his own Strength and Policy, or to tarry the Time till his Confeience may be quieted, falleth into Starah's Snares and miferably affidteth himfelf, and at length is overcome with the Continuance of the Terration 3.

The trueDefinition of Chrift. for the Devil will never ceafe to accufe his Confeience. Againft this Tentation we mult ufe thefe Words of Paul, in the which he giveth a very good and a true Definition of Chrift in this Manner: Chrift is the Son of God and of the Virein, delivered and put to Death for our Sins. Here if the Devil alledge any other Definition of Chrift, fay thou, The Definition and the Thing defined are falle; therefore I will not receive this Definition. If peak not this without Caufe; 'for I know what moveth me to be for earnell that we fhould learn to define Chrift out of the Words of Paul. For indeed Chrift is no create Exactor, but a Forgiver of the Sins of the whole World. Wherefore if thou be a Sinner (as indeed we are all) for not Chrift down upon the Rain-bow as a Judge (for fo fhalt thou be terrified and defpair of his Mercy) but take hold of his true Definition, namely. That Chrift the Son of God, and of the Virgin is a Perfon, nor that terrifieth, not that affildeth, nor that condemnelu us of Sin, nor that terrifieth for our Sin, and with one Oblation hath put away the Sins of the whole World, hat failted them apon the Crofs, and put them clean eut by himfelf, Gad. it. 14.

Let every Man learn to apply this Pronoun (vur) unto himfelf. Learn this Definition diligently, and efpecially fo exercife this Pronoun (sur) that this one Syllable being believe ed, may feallow up all thy Sins; that is to lay, that thou mayeft know affuredly that Chrift hath taken away the Sins, not of certain Men only, but allo of thee, yea, and of the whole World. Then let not thy Sins be Sins only, but even thy own Sins indeed; that is, 10 wit, believe thou that Chrift was not only given for other Mens

Sins, but alfo for thine. Hold this faff, and fuffer not thyfelf by any Means to be drawn away from this moff fweet Definition of Chrift, which rejoiceth even the very Angels in Heaven ; that is to fay, that Chrift according to the proper and true Definition, is no Mofest, no

The true Picture of Chrift. Law giver, no Tyrant, but a Mediator for Sins, a free Giver of Grace, Righteoufinefs and Life; who gave himleft, not for our Merits, Holinefs, Righteoufinefs and godly Life, but for our Sins. Indeed Chrift doth interpret the Law, but that is not his proper and principal Office.

Thefe Things, as touching the Words, we know well enough and can tak of them; but in Practice and in the Conflict, when the Devil goeth goeth about to deface Chrift, and to pluck the Word of Grace out of our Hearts, we find that we do not yet know them well, and as we thould do. He that at that Time could define Chrift truly, and could magnify him and behold him as his most fweet Saviour and High Priest. and not as a ftrait Judge, this Man had overcome all Evils, and were already in the Kingdom of Heaven. But this to do in the Conflict, is of all Things the most hardest. I speak this by Experience; for I know the Devil's Subtilties, who at that Time not only goeth about to fear us with the Terror of the Law, yea and alfo of a little Mote maketh many Beams, that is to fay, of that which is no Sin he maketh a very Hell (for he is marvelous crafty both in aggravating Sin, and in puffing up the Confcience even in good Works), but also is wont to fear us with the very Perfon of the Mediator, into the which he transformeth himfelf, and laying before us fome Place of the Scripture or fome Saying of Chrift, fuddenly he ftricketh our Hearts and fheweth himfelf unto us in fuch Sort, as if he were Chrift indeed, leaving us flicking to faft in that Cogitation, that our Confcience would fwear it were the fame Chrift whole Saving he alledged. Moreover, fuch is the Subtilty of the Enemy, that he will not WhatSnares fet before us Chrift entirely and wholly, but a Piece of Satan layeth Chrift only, namely, That he is the Son of God, and Man for usborn of the Virgin; and by and by patcheth thereto.fome other Thing, that is to fay, fome Saying of Chrift wherewith he terrificate the imperiate Sinners, fuch as that is in Lake sitis. So, Except yeres, ye final all likewic perifi; and fo corrupting the true Definition of Chrift with his Poilon, he bringeth to pais that albeit we believe him to be Chrift the true Mediator, yet in very deed out roubiled Conference feelett and judgeth him to be a Tyrant and a Judge. Thus we being decived by Stan, do eafly lofe that fweet Sight of our High Priel and Saviour Chrift; which being once loft, we flum him no lefs then the Devil himfelf.

And this is the Caufe why I do for earnefly call upon you, to learn the true and proper Definition of Christ out of thefe Words of Paul, Mbs gave hingfif for cur Sins. If he gave himfelf to Death for our Sins, then undoubtedly he is no Cafter down of the Affilded, but a Raifer up of thofe that are fallen, a merciful Reliever and Comforter of the heavy and broken hearted - tile flouid Paul ites in faying, Who gave himfelf for our Sins. If I define Chrift thus, I define him rightly, and take hold of the true Chrift, and policis him indeed. And here I let pais all curious Speculations touching the Divine Majelfy, and I fay mylelf in the Humanity of Chrift, and fo I learn truly to know the Will of God. Here is then no Fear, but alongsthere Sweetnefs, Joy, Peace of Conficience and fuch like. And herewithal there is a Light opened, which fleweth me the true Knowledge of God, of mylelf, of all Creatures, and all the Iniquity of the Devil's Kingdom. the Apolles and all godly Teachers have taught before us. And would to God we could fo teach and effablish them, that we might not only have them in our Mouth, but alfo well grounded in the Bottom of our Heart, and effocially that we might be able to ufe them in the Agony and Conflict of Death.

Verse 4. That he might deliver us from this present evil World.

Why Paul calleth the World prefent and evil.

The World the Kingdom of the Devil. In thefe Words also Paul bandleth yet möre effettually the Argument of the Spifle. He callett huis whole World, which hath been, is, and fhall be, the projent World, to put a Difference between this and the everlafting World to come. Moreover he callett it evil, becaufe that whatfoever is in this World, is fuliped to the Malice of the Devil reigning over the whole World. For there is in it nothing but Ignorance, Contempt, Bläfhemy, Harred of God, and Difbedienee againft all the Words and Works of God. In and under this Kingdom of the World are we.

Sins are not taken away by Works. Here again you fee that no Man is able by his own. Works, or his own Power to put away Sin, becaule this prefent World is evil, and as St. John faith, ir jet apor Mijchief. As many therefore, as are in the World, are the Bond-Jueves of the Devil. confittained to ferve him.

and do all Things at his Pleafare. What availed it that no fet up for many Orders of Religion for the abolithing of Sin ? To devife for many great and moth painful Works, as to wear Shirts of Hair, to beat the Body with Whips till the Blood followed, to go on Pilgrianges to St. James in Hamefs, and fuch other like ? Be it fo that thou doft all thefe Things, yet now inflanding this is true, that thou art in this prefen

That the Ungodly with all their Gifts do ferve the Devil. evil World, and not in the Kingdom of Chrift. And if thou be not in the Kingdom of Chrift, it is certain that thou belongeft to the Kingdom of Satan, which is this evil World. Therefore all the Gifts either of the Body or of the Mind which thou enjoyedt, as Wifdom, Righteoufnefs, Holinefs, Eloquence, Power, Beauty and Riches, are but the flavill Infiruments of the Devil, and with all thefe thou art compelled to forve him and to advance his Kingdom.

Firsh, With thy Wildom thou darkneft the Wildom and Knowledge of Chrift, and by thy wicked Dodrine leadeli Men out of the Way, that they cannot core to the Grace and Knowledge of Chrift. Thou fatteft out and praileft thine own Rightcourses and Holigats; but the Righteouthefs of Chrift by which only we are julified and quickned, thou doft hate and condern as wicked and devilifit. To be brief, by thy Powiar thou deltroyeft the Kingdom of Chrift, and abufeft the fame to root out the Golpel, to perface and aking the Minigters of Chrift, and fo many as hear them. Wherefore if thou be without Chrift, this thy Wifdom is double Foolihneft, thy Righteouthefs double Sin and Impiety, because it knoweth not the Wifdom and Righteouthefs of Chrift: Moreover it darkneth, bindreth, blafabeneth and perfecuent the fame : Therefore Paul doth rightly call if the evil or wicked World : For when it is at the beft, then is it work. In the religious wife and learned Men the World is at the beft, and yet in very deed in them it is double Evil. I overpafs thole grofs Vices which are againly the fectord Table, as Difobedience to Parents; to Magilitates, Adulteries, Wheredoms, Covetoufiefs, Theits, Murders, and Malicioufiefs, wherein the World is altogether drowned ; which notwithlanding are light Faults if ye compare them with the 'Wilddm and Righteonfnels' of the Wicked, whereby they fight againft the first Table. This white Devil which forceth Men to commit fpiritual Sins, that they may fell them for Righteonfnels, is far more dangerous than the black Devil, which only enforce them to commit fieldly Sins, which the World acknowledgeth to be Sins.

By thefe World then, That he might dativer us, &c. Paul heven what is the Argument of this Epiflle, to wir, that we have Need of Grace and of Chrift, and that no other Creature, neither Man nor Angel, can deliver Man out of this prefent evil World. For thefe Works are only belonging to the Divine Majelfy, and are not in the Power of any, either Man or Angel, that Chrift hash put away Sin, and hath delivered us from the Tyranny and King, dom of the Devil, that is to fay, from this wicked World, which is an obedient Servant and a willing Follower of the Devil his God. WhatGover that Murdere and Father of Lies either doth or fpeaketh, that the World, as his molt loyal and obedient Son, dilgently followeth and performeth. And therefore it is full of the Ignorance of God, of Hatred, Lying, Errors, Blafphemy, and of the Contempt.

of God : Moreover of groß Sins, as Murders, Adulteries, W Fornications, Thefis, Robberies, and fuch like, becaufe are he followeth his Father the Devil, who is a Liar, and W a Murderer, And the more wife, righteous and holy that Men are without Chrift, fo much the more hurt they do to the Golpel. So we allo that were religious Men, were double wicked in the Papacy, before God did lighten us with the Knowledge of his Gofpel,

They that know not Chrift, the more wife and righteous they are; the more do they hate and perfecute the Gofpel.

fpel, and yet notwithstanding under the Colour of true Piety and Holinefs.

Let these Words then of Paul remain as they are indeed, true and

Let it nothing at all move thee, that in a great Number of Men there be many excellent Virtues, and that there is fo great a Shew of Holinefs in Hypocrites. But mark thou rather what Paul faith Out of whofe Words thou mayft boldly and freely pronounce this Sentence againfi the World, that the World with all his Wildom, Power and Righeoufiefs, is the Kingdom of the Devil, out of the which God alone is able to deliver us by his only begotten Son.

Therefore lef us praife God the Father and give him hearty Thanks for this his unmeafureable Mercy, that hath delivered us out of the Kingdom of the Devil, (in the which we were holden Gaptiver) by his own Son, when it was impolfible to be done by out own Strength. And let us acknowledge together with Paul, that all our Works and Righteoufnels (with all which we could not make the Devil to floop one Hair-breacht) are but lofs and dung. Publ. itil 8. Alfo let us caft under our Feet, and utterly abhor all the Power of Free-will, all Pharificial Wildom and Righteoufnels, all the Power of Free-will, all Pharificial Wildom and Righteoufnels, all the religious Orders, all Maffer, Contrarivie let us extot and magnify the Gloy of Chrilt, who hathdelivered us by his Death, not from this World only, but from this evil World.

The Kingdom of the World.

The Kingdom of Chrift. Paul then by this Word Evil, fineweth that the Kingdom of the World, or the Devil's Kingdom is the Kingdom of La World, or the Devil's Kingdom Jones, other Side, the Kingdom of Chrilt is the Kingdom of Equity, Light, Grace, Remilfion of Sins, Peace, Confolation, Saving health, and everlaling Life, into the which we are translated by our Lord Jefus Chrilt, to whom be Glove World without End. So be it.

Verfe 4. According to the Will of God, and our Father.

Here Paul Go placeth and ordereth every Word, that there is not one of them but it fighteth againft thole falle Apolles for the Article of Jafification. Chrift (Gith he) hath delivered us from this wicked Kingdom of the Devil and the World. And this hath he done according to the Will, good Pleafure and Commandment of the Father. Wherefore we be not delivered by our own Will er Cunning, nor by our own Wildom or Policy, but for that God hath taken Mercy upon us, and hath loved loved us: Like as it is written alfo in another Place, Herein i; Love; not that we leved God, but that he loved us, and fent hir Son to be the Proprioritation for our Sins, 1 John iv. 10. That we then are delivered from this prefer tevil World, it is of mere Grace, and no Defert of ours. Peak is for plentificia and be vehement in amplifying and extolling the Grace of God, that he tharpneth and directleth every Word again the faile Apolles.

"There is also another Caufe why Paul here maketh mention of the Father's Will, which also in many Places of Saint John's Goffei is declared, where Chrift commending his Office, calleth us back to his Pathers Will, that in his Words and Works we floodd not for much look upon him, as upon the Pather. For Chrift came into this World and took Man's Nature upon him, that he might be made a Sacrifice for the Sins of the whole World, and fo reconcile us to God the Father, that he alone might declare unto us how that this was done thro'the good Pleature of his Father, that we by fallning our Eyes upon Chrift, might be drawn and carried fraight upto the Father.

It is a great Confolation to know that Chrift is given for us by the Will of his Father.

For we must not think (as before we have warned you) that by the curious fearching of the Majelty of God, any Thing concerning God can be known to our Salvation, but by taking hold of Chrift, who according to the Will of the Father hath given himfelf to Death for our Sins. When thou fhalt acknowledge this to be the Will of God thro' Chrift, then Wrath ceafeth, Fear and Trembling vanisheth away, neither doth God appear any other then merciful, who by his determinate Counfel would that his Son fhould die for us, that we might live thro' him. This Knowledge maketh the Heart chearful, fo that it stedfalt-Jy believeth that God is not angry, but that he fo loveth us poor and wretched Sinners, that he gave his only begotten Son for us. It is not for nought therefore, that Paul doth fo often repeat and beat into our Minds, that Chrift was given for our Sins, and that by the Goodwill of the Father. On the contrary Part, the curious fearching of the Majefty of God and his dreadful Judgments, namely, how he deftroyed the whole World with the Flood, how he deftroyed Sodom, and fuch other Things, are very dangerous; for they bring Men to Defperation, and caft them down Head-long into utter Destruction, as I have shewed before.

Verle 4. Of God and our Father.

This Word OUR, muß be referred to both, that the meaning may be this, of our God and of our Father. Then is Chrift's Father and our Father all one. So in John XX. 17. Christ Häuth to Mary Magddeze, Go to my Breitren, and joy unis benn, I of cased unit ony Father, and your Father, To my God, and your God. Therefore God is our Father, and our God, but thro' Chrift. And Godisacommon Father both to Chrift and to us.

CHAP. I.

this is an Apoftolick Manner of Speech, and even Paul's own Phrafe, who indeed fpeaketh not with fuch picked and gay Words, but yet very fit and to the Purpole, and full of burning Zeal.

Verfe 5. To whom be Glory for ever and ever, Amen.

The Hebrews are wont in their Writings to intermingle Praife and giving of Thanks. This Caillom the Hebrews and Apollies themilives do oblerve. Which Thing may very often be feen in Paul. For the Name of the Lord ought to be had in great Reverence, and never to be named without Praife and Thankfigving. And thus to do is a certain Kind of Worfmp and Service of God. So in worldly Matters, when we mention the Names of Kings, or Princes, we are wont to do it with fome councly Gelture, Reverence and Bowing of the Knee; much more, ought we, when we fpeak of God, to bow the Knee of our Heart, and to name the Name of God with Thankfulnefs and great Reverence.

Verse 6. I marvel,

Ye fee here how Paul handleth the Galatians, which were fallen away and feduced by the falle Apostles. He doth not at the first fet upon them with vehement and rigorous Words, but after a very fathering Sort, not only patiently bearing their Fall but alfo in a Manner excufing the fame. Furthermore he fheweth towards them a motherly Affection, and speaketh them very fair, and yet in such Sort, that he reprove th them notwithflanding; howbeit with very fit Words and wifely framed to the Purpole. Contrariwife he is very hot and full of Indignation against those false Apostles their Seducers upon whom he layeth the whole Fault : And therefore forthwith, even in the Entrance of his Epiftle, he burfleth out into plain Thunderings and Lightnings against them. If any Man (faith he) preach any other Gofpel unto you, then that ye have received, let bim be accurfed, Gal. i. o. And afterwards in the v. Chapter and 10. Verle he threatneth Damnation unto them, But be that troubleth you, shall bear his Judgment, whofoever he be. Moreoverhe curfeth them with horrible Words, faying, I would they were even cut off which trouble you, Gal. v. 12. Theie are dreadful Thunder-claps against the Righteousness of the Flesh or the Law.

He might have handled the Galaties' more uncourteoully, and have enzyed against them more roughly after this Manner ; Out upon this Backfilding. I am shaimed of you, your Unthankfulnefs grieveth me, I am angry with you; or elfe thus magically have cried out against them, O ungracious World10 o wickedDealinge! Gr. But for as much as his Purpofe is to raife up them that were fallen, and with a fatherly Care to call them lacks again from their Error to the Pauling of the Gofuel, he leaveth those rough and sharp Words, efpecially in the first Entrance, and most gently and mildly he fpeaketh unto them. For feeing he went about to heal them that were wounded, it was not meet that he should now further vex their green Wound by laying to it a fharp and a fretting Plaifter, and to rather hurt the wounded than heal them. Therefore of all the fweetest and mildest Words, he could not have chosen any one more fit then this, I marvel, whereby he fignificth both that it grieved him, and alfo difpleafed him that they had fallen away from him.

And here Paul is mindful of his own Rule, which he giveth hereafter in the vi. Chapter and I Verle, where he faith. Brethren. if a Man be overtaken in a Fault, ye which are (piritual, restore such an one in the Spirit of Meekness, confidering thyself, left thou also be tempted. This Example must we also follow, that we may shew ourfelves to . bear like Affection towards fuch as are milled, as Parents bear towards their Children, that they may perceive our fatherly and motherly Affection towards them, and may fce that we feek not their Deftruction but their Welfare. But as for the Devil and his Minifters, the Authors of falle Doctrine and Sects, against them we ought by the Example of the Apoftle to be impatient, proud, fharp, and bitter, detefting and condemning their falle Juglings and Deceits with as much Rigour and Severity as may be. So Parents when their Child is hurt with the Bitting of a Dog, are wont to purfue the Dog only, but the weeping Child they bemone, and fpeak fair unto it, comforting it with moft fweet Words.

The Spirit therefore that is in Paul, is wonderful cunning in handling the afflicted Confciences of fuch as are fallen. Contrariwife the Pope (because he is led with a wicked Spirit) breaketh out violently like a Tyrant, and rappeth out his Thunder-claps and Curfings againft the miferable and terrified in Confcience : Which Thing may be feen in his Bulls, and efpecially in that Bull touching the Lord's Supper. The Bifhops also do their Duty never a The Study whit better. They teach not the Gofpel, they are not careful for the faving of Men's Souls, but only they feek Lordship and Sovereignty over them, and therefore their Speakings and Doings are altogether to maintain and fupport the fame. In like Manner are all the vain glorious Doctors and Teachers affected.

Difficulty a perfect People is gotten to the Lord. A Man may labour half a foore Years ore he finall get fome little Church to be rightly and religioufly ordered, and when it is fo ordered, there creepeth in fome Mad-brain, yes and a very unlearned Ideot, which can do nothing?elfo but fpeak finaderoufly and fpirfelilly against fincere Preachers of the Word, and he in one Moment overthroweth all, Whom would not this wicked and outragious Dealing move?

We by the Grace of God have gotten here at Wittenberg the Form of a Chriftian Church. The Word among us is purely taught, the Sacraments are rightly uled, Exhortations and Prayers are made allo for all Eflates; and to be brief, all Things go forward profperoully. This mong happy Courief of the Goftel form end Head would foon (too, and

He had won the Churches of Galaties with great Care and Travail, which the faile Apolles in a thort Time after his Departure overthrew, as this and diverfe others of his Epifles do wittefs. So great is the Weaknefs and Wretchednefs of this prefent Life, and we fo walk in the midfl of Satar's Snares, that one fantificial Head gnay deftry and utterly overthrow in a fhort Space, all that which many tree Minifers, Iabourine Nicht and Dav, have builded up many Years before. This we learn at this Day by Experience to our great Grief, and yet we cannot remedy this Enormity.

A true Picture of phantaffical bragging and glorious Spirits. Seeing then that the Church is fo folf and fo tender a Thing, and is fo fon overthrown. Men mult watch carefully againft thefe fintaficial Spirits ; who when they have heard two Sermons, or have read a few Leaves in the Holy Scriptures, by and by they make themfelves Mafters and Controllers of all Learners and Teachers, contrary to the Authority of all Men. Many fuch all oitloug mayeff find at this Day among handy crafts Men, bold and malaper Fellows, who because they have been tried by no Tentations, did never learn to fear God, nor had any Tafle or Feeling of Grace. Thele for that they are void of the Hold Scholt, teach what liketh themfelves bell, and fuch Things as are plaufible and pleafant to the common People. Then the unskilful Multitude, longing to hear News, do by and by join themfelves unto them; yea and many alfo which think themfelves well feen in the Doftrine of Faith, and after a Sort have been tried with Temptations, are feduced by them.

TheChurches are overthrown while the Teachers fleep. Since that Paul therefore by his own Experience may teach us, that Congregations which are won by great Labour, are cally and foon overthrown, we ought with fingular Care to watch againft the Devil ranging every where, left he come while we flegg, and fow Tares among the Wheat ; for tho' the Shepherds be never lo watchful and diligent, yet is the Chriftian Flock in Danger of Satan. For

Verse 6. Ye are removed away

Here once again he uleth not a sharp, but a most gentle Word, He Maith not. I marvel that ye fo fuddenly fall away, that ye are fo difobedient, light, inconftant, unthankful, but that ye are fo foon removed : As if he fhould fay, Ye are altogether Patients or Sufferers : for ye have done no Harm, but ye have fuffered and received Harm. To the Intent therefore that he might call back again those Backfliders, he rather acculeth those that did remove, then those that were removed, and yet werv modeltly he blameth them alfo, when he complaineth that they were removed : As if he would fay, Albeit I embrace you with a fatherly Affection, and know that ye are deceived, not by your own Default, but by the Default of the false Apostles; yet notwithstanding I would have wished, that we had been grown up a little more in the Strength of found Doctrine. Ye took not hold enough upon the Word. Hye rooted not yourfelves deep enough in it, and that is the Caufe that with to light a Blaft of Wind, ye are carried and removed. Jerome thinketh that Paul meant to interpret this Word [Galatians] by alluding to the Hebrew Word Galath, which is as much to fay, as fallen or carried away : As though he would fay, Ye are right Galatians both in "Name and in Deed, that is to fay, falien or removed away.

Verse 6. From him that called you into the Grace of Christ.

A double Exposition upon this Place.

The Drift and Purpofe of Paul in this whole Epiftle. This Place is formewhat doubful, and therefore it hath a double Underflanding. The first is, From that Chrift that hath called you in Grace: The other is, From that, that is to for from Cod which hath called you in the Grace of Corif. I embrace the former: For it liket me, that even as Paul a little before made Chrift the Redeemer, who by his Death delivered us from this prefert evil World, allo the Giver of Grace and Peace equally with God the Father; fo he flowed make him here alfo the Caller in Grace: For Paul's (pecial Purpole is, to beat into our Minds the Benefit of Chrift by whom we come unto the Falher. There is also in these Words. From him that called us into Grace, a

So we also complain at this Day with Paul, that the Blindnefs and Perverfenefs of Men is horrible, in that none will receive the Doctrine of Grace and Salvation. Or if there be any that receive it, yet they quickly flide back again and fall from it, whereas notwithftanding it bringeth with it all good Things, as well ghoftly as bodily, namely, Forgivencis of Sins, true Righteoufneis, Peace of Conscience, and everlasting Life. Moreover it bringeth Light and found Judgment of all Kinds of Doctrine and Trades of Life. It approveth and eftablisheth civil Government, Houfe-hold Government, and all Kinds of Life that are ordained and appointed of God. It rooteth up all Doctrines of Error, Sedition, Confusion and fuch like, and it patteth away the Fear of Sin and Desth, and to be fhort, it difeovereth all the fubtil Slights and Works of the Devil, and openeith the Benefits and Love of God towards us in Chrift. faile Apollies, who by the Law of MyGr called you not unto Grace, but unto Wrath, to the Hating of God, to Sin and Death. But Chrift's Calling bringeth Grace and faving Health. For they that be called by him, initead of the Law that worketh Sorrow, do gain the glad Tidings of the Golpel, and are translated out of God's With into his Favour, out of Sin into Righteoinfiels, and out of Death into Life. And will you fulfer yourfelves to be carried, yea and that fo foom and fo cally snother Way, from fuch a living Fountain, full of Grace and Life? Now, if Migrie call Men to God's Wrath and to Sin by the Law God, Whither fhall the Pope call Men by his own Traditions? The other Senfe, That the Father called in ith Grace of Chrift, is allo God , but the former Senfe Concerning Chrift, ferveth more fully for the comfarttine of affiled Confeience.

Verse 6. Unto another Gospel.

Here we may learn to efy the early slights and Subilities of the Dewit. No Hereick concell under the Titte of Errors and of the Devil, meither doth the Devil which we fack of before. Yea even the black Devil, which forceth Man to manifelt Wickednels, maketh a Lloke for them to cover that Sin which they commit or purpole tocommit. The Marderer in his Rage facth nor that Marder is fo great and hornible a Sin as it is indeed, for that he hash a Cloke to ever the fame. Whoremongers, Thieves, coverous Perfons, Drutkards, and facth other tave, wherewith to fatter themfelves and cover their Sys. So the scale Devil allo cometh our dignied and counterfait in all his Works

into an An-

and Devices. But in foiritual Matter, where Satan cometh forth not black, but white in the Likenels of an Angel or of God himfelf, there he paffeth himfelf with molt crafty Diffinulation and wonderful Slights, and is wont to fet forth to Sale his moft deadly Poifon for the Doctrine of Grace, for the Word of God, for the Gofpel of Chrift. For this Canfe Paul calleth the Doctrine of the falfe Apoffles Satan's Minifters, a Gofpel alfo, faving, Unto another Gofpel, but in Derifion. As tho' he would fay. Ye Galatians have now other Evangeliffs and another Golpel: My Golpel is now defpiled of you, it is now no more in Eflimation among you.

Paul's Doctrine condemned by the falle Apostles.

Hereby it may eafily be gathered, that these false Apostles had condemned the Gospel of Paul among the Galatians, faying, Paul indeed hath begun well, but to have begun well it is not enough; for there remain yet many higher Matters. Like as they fay in Acts xv. 1. It is not enough for you to believe in Chrift or to be baptized, but it behoweth alfo that ye be circumcifed: For except ye be circumcifed after the Law of Moles, ye cannot be faved. This is as much to fay, as Chrift is a good Workman, which hath indeed begun a Building, but he hath not finished it, for this must Moles do.

The Nature of Hereticks lively painted out.

So at this Day, when the Phantastical Anabaptists and others cannot manifeftly condemn us, they fay, Thefe Lutherans have the Spirit of Fearfulness, they dare not frankly and freely profess the Truth, and go thorough with it. Indeed they have laid a Foundation, that is to fay, They have well taught Faith in Chrift, but the Beginning, the Midft and the End muft be joined together ; to bring this to pafs, God hath not given it unto them, but hath left it unto us. So these perverse and devilish Spirits extol and magnify their curfed Doctrine, calling it they deceive many. For the Devil will not be ugly and black in his Miniflers, but fair and white. And to the End he may appear to be fuch a one, he fetteth forth and decketh all his Words and Works with the Colour of Truth, and with the Name of God. Hereof is fprung that common Proverb among the Germanes. In God's Name beginneth

the Word God, and fo under the Colour of God's Name,

Wherefore let us learn, that this is a fpecial Point of the Devil's cunning, that if he cannot hurt by perfecuting and deftroying, he doth it under a Colour of correcting and building up. So now a Days he perfecuteth us with Power and Sword, that when we are once taken away and difpatched, he may not only deface the Gofpel, but utterly overthrow it. But hitherto he hath prevailed no. thing, for he hath flain many, who have conftantly confeffed this our Doctrine to be holy and heavenly, thorough whole Blood the Church is not deflroyed, but watered. Forafmuch therefore as he could prevail nothing that Way, he fürretlu up wicked Spirits and ungodly Teachers, which at the firft allow our Dockrine, and teach the fame with a common Confent together with us. But aferwards they fay that it is our Vocation to teach the firft Principles of Chriftian Doctrine, and that the Myfleries of the Scripture are revealed unto them from above by God himfelf, and that they are called for this Porpofe, that they flould open them to the World. After this Manner doth the Devil himder the Courfe of the Gofpel, both on the Kight-band and on the Left, but more on the Right-hand (as I faid before) by building and correcting, then on the left by perfecting and deftroy-

ing. Wherefore it behoveth us, to pray without cealing, to read the holy Scriptures, to cleave fail unto Chrilf and his holy Word, that wemay overcome the Devil's Subtilities, with the which he affaileth us both on the Right-hand and an the Left, For waverefle net againft Field and Bloch, but againft Principalities, againft Powers, againft the Rulers

And on the other Side, that the Godly do reprove and condemn the Ungodly.

The Patills and the Phantaltical Spirits, do at this Day hate us deadly, and condemn our Doctrine as wicked and erronious. Yea, moreover they ly in wait for our Goods and Lives. And we again do with a perfect Hatred deteft and condemn their curfed and blafphemous Doctrine. In the mean Time the miferable People are at no Stay, wavering hither and thither, as uncertain and doubtful to which Part they may lean, or whom they may fafely follow. For it is not given to every one to judge Chriftianly of fuch weighty Matters. But the End will fhew which Part teacheth truly, and juftly condemn the other. Sure it is that we perfecute no Man, oppress no Man, put no Man to Death, neither doth our Doctrine trouble Men's Confciences, but delivereth them out of innumerable Errors and Snares of the Devil. For the Truth hereof we have the Teffimony of many good Men, who give Thanks unto God, for that by our Doctrine, they have received certain and fure Confolation to their Confeiences. Wherefore like as Paul at that Time was not to be blamed that the Churches were troubled, but the falfe Apoftles : So at this Day it is not our Fault, but the Fault of the Anabaptifts and fuch Frantick Spirits, that many and great Troubles are in the Church.

Every one which teachéth that Works do juftify, is a Troubler of Men's Confciences.

cumcifion and the keeping of the Law was necessary to Salvation. The which Thing Paul himfelf witneffeth in the 5 Chapter following : And Luke in the xv. of the Acts and I Verfe declareth the fame Thing in thefe Words. And certain Men which came down from Judea, taught the Brethren, and faid, Except ye be circumcifed after the Manner of Mofes, ye cannot be faved. Wherefore the falle Apoltles molt earneftly and obfinately contended that the Law ought to be observed. Unto whom the fliff-necked Fews forthwith joined themfelves, and fo afterwards eafily perfwaded fuch as were not stablished in the Faith, that Paul was not a fincere Teacher, becaufe he regarded not the Law, but preached fuch a Doctrine as did abolith and overthrow the Law. For it feemed unto them a very ftrange Thing, that the Law of God fhould be utterly taken away : and the Tews which had always until that Time been counted the People of God, to whom alfo the Promifes were made, thould now be rejected. Yea it feemed yet a more ftrange Thing unto them, that the Gentiles being wicked Idolaters, fhould attain to this Glory and Dignity, to be the People of God without Circumcifion, and without the Works of the Law, by Grace only and Faith in Chrift.

These Things had the falle Apostles amplified and fet forth to the utermost, that they might bring Paul into more Hared among the Galatians. And to the End they might fet The falle them the more fharely againg him, they faid that he Aposles

Grace, without the which notwithftanding it is impoffible for the Confcience to find Reft and Quietnels.

It appeareth alfo by these Words of Paul, And would pervern the Go-Spel of Chrift, that the falle Apostles were exceeding bold and shameles, which with all their Might fet themfelves against Paul. felf, my Brethren, yea and the very Angels from Heaven alfo, fhould be holden accurfed, then that my Gofpel fhould be overthrown. This is indeed a vehement Zeal, that he dare fo boldly curfe not only himfelf and his Brethren, but also even an Angel from Heaven.

The Greek Word Anathema, in Hebrew Herem, fignifieth a Thing accurfed, execrable and deteftable : which hath nothing to do, no Paricipation or Communion with God. So faith Joshua, Cursed be the Man before the Lord, that rifeth up and buildeth this City Jericho, Josh. vi. 6. And in Leviticus it is written, None devoted, which (ball be devoted of Men, shall be redeemed ; but shall furely be put to Death, Lev. xxvii. 29. So God had appointed Amalech, and certain other Cities accurfed by God's own Sentence, should be utterly rafed and destroyed. This is then the Mind of Paul : I had rather that myfelf and other my Brethren, yea and an Angel from Heaven should be accurfed, then that we or others fhould preach any other Gofpel then that which we have preached already. So Paul first curfeth himfelf ; for cunning Artificers are wont first to find Fault with themfelves, that they may the more freely and fharply afterwards reprove others.

Paul therefore concludeth, that there is no other Go-The Gofpel pel befides that, which he himfelf had preached. But of Paul. he preached not a Gofpel which he had himfelf devifed.

foever, namely, all those false Teachers his Adversaries. Here appeareth an exceeding great Fervency of Spirit in the Apolite, that he dare curfe all Teachers throughout the whole World and in Heaven, which pervert his Gofpel and teach any other. For all Men must either believe that Gofpel which Paul preached, or elfe they mult be accurfed and condemned. Would to God this terrible Sentence of the Apostle might strike a Fear into their Hearts that feek to pervert the Gofpel of Paul; of which Sort at this Day (the more it is to be lamented) the World is full.

The changing of Perfons is here to be marked. For Paul speaketh otherwife in his first curfing then he doth in the second. In the first he faith, But the' we, or an Angel from Heaven, preach any other Gofpel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you : In the fecond, than that ye have received. And this he doth of Purpole, left the Guiatians should fay, We, O Paul do not pervert the Gospel that thou halt preached unto us; we underflood thee not rightly, but the Teachers that came after thee, have declared unto us the true Meaning thereof. This (faith he) will I in no Cafe admit. They ought to add nothing, neither to correct it; but that which you heard of me, is the fincere Word of God, let this only remain. Neither do I defire myfelf to be any other Manner of Teacher then I was, nor you other Difciples. Now feeing the Church might receive and allow fuch and fo many Gofpels as it would, therefore the Church is above the Gofpel; a goodly Argument forfooth. ## Verfe 10. For do I now perfwade Men, or God?

These Words are spoken with the same Vehemency of Spirit that the former were. As if he should say, Am I Paul Sounknown amongs you, which have preached to openly in your Churches? Are my bitter Conflids, and so many tharp Battles against the Jews, yet unknown un-

For if we fpeak againlt Men, or any Thing elfe that pertaineth to their Glory, it cannot be, but that cruel Hatted, Perfections, Excommunications, Murders and Condemnations mult needs follow.

To teach the Things that are of God. If then (faith Paul) they fee other Matters, Why fee they not this allo, that I teach the Things that are of God, and not of Men? That is to fay, That I feek no Man's Favour by my Doftrine, but I fet out God's Mercy offered unto usin Chill. For if I fought the Favour of Men, I would not condemn their Works. Now for as much as I condemn Men's Works, that is to fay, becaufe I thew God's Jadgment out of his Word (whereof I am a Minitler) againft all Men, how that they are Sinners, Uarighteous, Wicked, Children of Wrath, Boydflaves of the Devil and Damned, and that they are not made righteous by Works or by Circumcifon, but by Graec only, and Faith in Chill : Therefore I procure unto myfell the deadly Hatred of Men. For they ean abide nothing lefs, then to hear that they are fach: Nay, rather they would be praifed for wife, righteous and holy. Wherefore this witneffeth fufficiently, that I teach not Man's Dockrine. After the fame Mannet Chrift Iperketh allo im John vii. 7. The World cannot hate you ; but me it bateth, becaufe I relify of it, that the Work thereof are evil. A nd in form ill. 19. And this is the Candenmation, that Light is come into the World, and Man leved Darkneft rather then Light, becaufe their Deedware exil.

Signs that teltify Paul's Doctrine to be true. Now, that I teach the Things which are of God (faith the Apofile) hereby it may fufficiently appear, that I preach the only Grace, the Mercy, the Goodnefs and the Glory of God. Moreover, he that fpeaketh (as Chrift faith) thole Things which his Lord and Mafter hath commanded him, and glorifeth not him/Rift, but him whole Melfenger he is, bringeth and teacheth the true Word of God. But T teach thole Things only which are commanded me from above : Neither glorify I mylell, but him that fent me. Befides that, I fur up againfi myfell the Wrath and Indignation of both the Jews and Gentlies, therefore my Dodrine is true, fincere, centrai, and of God, neither can there be any other, (much lefs any better) then this my Dodrine is. Wherefore, whatfoever Dodrine elfe teacheth not at mine doth, that all Men are Sinners, and are jultified by Faith only in Chrift, moit needs befalfe, wicked, biafphermous, accuried and devilih: And even fuch alfo are they which teach or receive it.

So we with Paul do boldly proneunce all fuch Doctrine to be accurfed as agreeth not with ours. For neither do we feek by our Preaching the Praife of Mea, or the Favour of Princes or Bithops, but the Favour of God alone, whole only Grace and Mercy we preach, delpiting and treading under Foot whatloever is of ourfelves. Wholever he be then which thall teach any other Colfpel, or that which is contrary to ours.

Verse 10. Or do I seek to please Men?

That is, do I ferve Men or God; he hath always a Glance at the falfe Apoftles. Thefe (faith he) must needs feek to pleafe and to flatter Men : For by this Means they feek, that they again may glory in their Flefh. Moreover, becaufe they will not bear the Hatred and Perfecution of Men, they teach Circumcifion, only to avoid the Perfecution of the Crofs, as followeth in the v Chapter.

So at this Day ye may find many which feek to pleafe Men, and to the End they may live in Peace and Security of the Fleih, they teach the Things which are of Men, that is to fay, wicked Things, or elfe they allow the Blafphemies and wicked Judgments of the Adverfaries, contrary to the Word of God against their own Confcience, that they may keep still the Favour of Princes and Bishops, and enjoy their Goods. But we, becaufe we endeavour to pleafe God and not Men, do ftir up againft us the Malice of the Devil and Hell itfelf : We fuffer the Reproaches and Slanders of the World. Death and all the Mifchiefs that can be devised against us.

So faith Paul here, I feek not to pleafe Men, that they may praife my Doctrine, and report me to be an excellent Teacher, but I defire only that my Doctrine may pleafe God : And by this Means I make Men my mortal Enemies. Which Thing I find by Experience to be moft true: For they requite me with Infamy, Slander, Imprifonment and Sword. Contrariwife the falfe Apoftles teach the Things that are of Men, that is to fay, fuch Things as be pleafant and plaufible to Man's Reafon, and that to the End they may live in eafe, and purchase the Favour, Goodwill and Praise of the People. TheReward And fuch Men find that they feek for: For they are praifed of falfe and and magnified of Men. So faith Chrift alfo in Matth. vi. Ungodly That Hypocrites do all Things to be praised of Men. And Teachers. in John v. 44. he tharply reproveth fuch, How can ye believe (faith he) which receive Honour one of another, and leek not the Honour that cometh from God only? The Things which Paul hath hitherto taught, are in a Manner Examples only. In the mean Time notwithflanding he is very earnest every where in proving his Doctrine to be fincere and found. Therefore he exhorteth the Galatians that they forlake it not for any other Doctrine.

Verfe. 10. For if I yet pleased Men, I should not by the Servant of Chrift. Thefe

Thefe Things are to be referred to the whole Office and Miniftry of Paul, to thew what a Constrainty there was between his Convertision before in the Jewy & Law, and his Convertision now under the Golfel. As if he weald fay, Do ye think that I go about fill to pleafe Men, as I did in Times pault is to be heaketh afterwards in the v Chapter and 11 Verfs, If I yet presed Circumifies, why do Jyst Joffer Performing? Thefe Things they cacify formified, that Paul by the Commandment and Authority of the Apoffles was confirmed to do: Which notwithfanding he had kept as indifferent, bearing with the Infirmity of the weak Brethren (which yet underflood not the Chriftian Liberty,) left they fhould be offended. To whole Cavillations thus he aniverent : How true it is which the falls choffles forge again fin effort he verthrowing of my Galpel, and fetting up of the Law and Circumcifion again, the Matter itdelf fufficiently declaret. For if I would preach the Law and Circumcifion, and commend the Stiength, the Power, and the Will of Man, I flouid not be for olious unto them, but flouid pleafe them.

Verfes 11, 12. But I certify you, Brethren, that the Gofpel which was preached of me, is not after Man. For I neither received it of Man, neither was I taught it but by the Revelation of Felus Chrift.

Here is the principal Paint of all this Matter; which containtent a Confutation of his Adverfines, and a Defance of his Doctting, to the End of the fecond Chapter. Upon this he Parofeof Pasef in this that he learned not his Golejol of any Man, but received Diffutation. may believe him, and alfo, that they should give no Ear to the falle A. poffles: whom he reprove has Liars, because they had faid that he learned and received his Gofpel of the Apoltles,

Where he faith that his Gofpel is not after Man, he meaneth not, that his Gofpel is not earthly ( for that is manifelt of itself, and the falle Apoftles bragged alfo that their Doctrine was not earthly but heavenly,) but he meaneth that he learned not his Paul's Doc-Gofpel by the Ministry of Men, or received it trine was not by any earthly Means (as we all learn it, either by after Man. the Ministry of Men, or elfe receive it by fome earthly Means; fome by hearing, fome by reading, and fome by writting ;) but he received the fame only by the Revelation of Jefus Chrift. If any Man lift to make any other Diffinction, I am not againft

it. Here the Apoffle fleweth by the Way, that Chrift is not only Man, but that he is both God and very Man, when he faith that he received not his Gofpel by Man.

Now Paul received his Gofpel in the Way as he was going to Damalcus, where Chrift appeared unto him and talked with him. Afterwards also he talked with him in the Temple at Jerula-

lem, but he received his Gofpel in the Way, as Lake reciteth the Story in Acts is. 6. Arife, (faith Chrift) go into the Gity, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. He doth not bid him go into the City, that he might learn the Goffeel of Ananias : But Ananias was bid to go and baptize him, to lay his Hands upon him, to commit the Ministry of the Word unto him, and to commend him unto the Church, and not to teach him the Gofpel, which he had received afore ( as he glorieth in the fame Place ) by the only Revelation of Jefus Chrift. And this Ananias himfell confelfeih. laying, Brother Saul, the Lord even Jelus that appeared to thee in the Way that thou cameft bath fent me, that thou mightell receive thy Sight, and be filled with the Holy Gholt. Therefore he received not his Doctrine of Ananias, but being already called, lightned and taught of Chrift in the Way, he was fent to Ananias that he might allo have the Teftimony of Men, that he was called of God to preach the Golpel of Chrift,

This Paul was constrained ro recite, to put away the Slander of the falle Apoftles, who laboured to bring him into Hatred among the Galatians, faying, that Paul was inferior to the reft of the Apofiles Schollars ; who had received of the Apofiles, that which they taught and kept ; whole Conversation also they had feen a long Time, and that Paul himfelf had also received the same Things of them, altho' he did now deny it. Why, then would they rather obey an inferior, and defpife the Authority of the Apoftles themfelves, who were hot only the Fore-Elders and Teachers of the Galatians, but alfo of all the Churches throughout the whole World?

This Argument, which the falle Apofiles grounded upon the Authority of the Apoffles, was firong and mighty, whereby the Galatians were fuddenly overthrown, elpecially in this Matter. I would never have believed, had I not been taught by these Examples of the Churches of Galatia, of the Corinthiand others, that they which had received the Word of God in the Beginning with fuch Joy (among whom were many notable Men) could for quickly be overthrown. O good Lord, what horrible and infinite Mifchief may one only Argument cafily bring ? Which fo pierceth a Man's Confeience when God withdraweth his Grace, that in one Moment he lofeth altogether. By this Subtility then the falle Apoftles did eafly deceive the Galatiant, being not fully effablished and grounded, but as yet weak in the Faith.

So great is the Weaknefs even of the Godly that they are hardlydrawn toGod's Promiles tho' they bertoft certain.

The Office of the Law.

Moreover, the Matter of Juffification is brickle: not of itfelf ( for of itfelf it is molt fure and certain ) but in refpect of us; whereof I myfelf have good Experience. For I know in what Hours of Darknefs I fometimes wraftle. I know how often I fuddenly lofe the Beams of the Gofpel and Grace, as being fhadowed from me with thick and dark Clouds. Briefly I know in what a flippery Place even fuch alfo do ftand, as are well exercifed, and feem to have fure Footing in Matters of Faith. We have good Experience of this Matter, for we are able to teach it unto others, and this is a fure Token that we underftand it. But when in the very Conflict we should ufe the Gofpel, which is the Word of Grace, Confolation and Life, there doth the Law, the Word of Wrath, Heavinefs and Death prevent the Gofpel and beginneth torage, and the Terrors which it raifeth up in the Confcience, are no lefs then was that horrible Shew in the Mount Sindi, Exod. xix. 18. So that even one Place of the Scripture containing fome Threatning of the Law, overwhelmeth and drowneth all Confolations belides, and fo fhaketh all our inward Powers, that it maketh us to forget Juffification, Grace, Chrift, the Gofpel and altogether.

The Con-

Therefore in refpect of us, it is a very brickle Matter, becaufe we are brickle. Again, we have against us even the one half of ourfelves ; That is to fay, Reafon; and all the Powers thereof. Belides all this the Flefh refifteth the Spirit, Gal. v. 17. which cannot believe affuredly that the Promifes of God are true. It fighteth therefore against the Spirit, and (as Paul faith ) it holdeth the Spirit Captive, Rom vil. 23. fo that it cannot believe fo ftedfaftly as it would. Wherefore we teach continually that the Knowledge of Chrift and of Faith is Faith is the no Work of Man, but fimply the Gift of God, who as he

Gift of God. createth Faith, fo doth he keep it in us. And even as he first giveth Faith unto us thro' the Word, fo afterwards he exerciseth, increaseth, ftrengthneth and maketh perfect the fame in us by the Word. Therefore the greateft Service that a Man can do unto God, and the very Sabbath of Sabbaths, is to exercise himself in true Godlinefs, diligently to read and hear the Word. Contrariwife

VERSES II, 12. To the GALATIANS.

there is nothing more dangerous then to be weary of the Word. He therefore that is fo cold, that he thinketh himfelf to know enough, and beginneth by little and little to loath the Word, that Man hath loff Chriff and the Gofpel, and that which he thinketh himfelf to know, he attaineth only by I bare Speculation : And he is like unto a Man, (as St. James faith) Who beholding his na-tural Face in a Glass, goeth his Way, and straightway forgetteth what Manner of Man he was. James i. 23. 24.

Wherefore let every faithful Man labour and frive with all Diligence to learn and to keep this Doctrine : And to that End let him use humble and hearty Praver. with continual Study and Meditation of the Word. And when we have done never fo much, yet shall we have enough to keep us occupied. For we have to do with no fmall Enemies, but ftrong and mighty, and fuch as are in continual War against us, namely, our own Flesh, all the Dangers of the World, the Law, Sin, Death, the Wrath and Judgment of God, and the Devil himfelf, who never ceafeth to tempt us inwardly by his fiery Darts, and outwardly by his falfe Apoftles, to the End that he may overthrow, if not all, yet the most Part of us.

This Argument therefore of the false Apostles had a goodly Shew and feemed to be very ftrong; which alfo at this Day prevaileth with many, namely, that the Apostles, the holy Fathers and their Successors have fo taught, that the Church fo thinketh and believeth : Moreover that it is impossible that Chrift should fuffer his Church fo long Time to err. Art thou alone (fay they) wifer then fo many holy Men ? Wifer then the whole Church ? After this Manner the Devil being changed into an Angel of Light, fetteth upon us craftily at this Day by certain peftiferous Hypocrites, who fay, we pals not for the Pope,

we abhor the Hypocrify of Monks and fuch like ; but we would have the Authority of the holy Church to remain untouched. The Church hath thus believed and taught this long Time. So have all the Doctors of the Primitive Church, holy Men, more ancient and better learned then thou. Who art thou, that dareft diffent from all thefe, and bring unto us a contrary Doctrine? When Satan reasoneth thus, confpiring with the Flesh and Reason, then is thy Confcience terrified and utterly despaireth, unless thou constantly return to thyfelf again, and fay, Whether it be Cyprian, Ambrole, Augustine, either St. Peter, Paul or John, yea or an Angel from Heaven that teacheth otherwife, yet this I know affuredly, that I teach not the Things of Men, but of God ; that is to fay, I attribute all Things to God alone, and nothing to Man.

DoctorStaupitius a Favourer of Luther's Doctrine, when he began to preach.

The Doctrine of the Gofpel attributeth all Things unto God, and nothing to Man

When I first took upon me the Defence of the Gofpel. I remember that Doctor Staupitius a worthy Man, faid thus unto me, This liketh me well that this Doctrine which thou preacheft, yieldeth Glory and all Things elfe unto God alone, and nothing unto Man ; for unto God there cannot be attributed too much Glory, Goodnefs, Mercy, dc. This Saying did then greatly comfort and confirm me. And true it is, that the Doctrine of the Gofpel taketh from Men all Glory, Wildom, Righteoufnefs, erc, and giveth the fame to the Creator alone, who made all Things of nothing. We may also more fafely attribute too much unto God then unto Man. For in this Cafe I may fay boldly ; Be it fo that the Church, Augustine and other Doctors, also Peter and Apollo, yea even an Angel from Heaven, teach a contrary Doctrine, vet my Doctrine is fuch, that it fetteth forth and preacheth the Grace and Glory of God alone, and in the Matter of Salvation it condemneth the Rightcoufnels and Wifdom of all Men. In this I cannot offend, becaufe I give both to God and Man, that which properly and truly belongeth to them both.

But thou wilt fay, The Church is holy, The Fathers are holy: It is true; notwithflanding, albeit the Church be holy, yet it is compelled to pray, Forgive us our Trefpaffes, Matth. vi. 12. So, tho' the Fa-

Neither Angels nor Apofiles, nor any other are to be believed, if they teach any Thing againft the Word of God. there be holy, 'yet are they faved thro' the Forgivenels of Sins. Therefore neither am I to be believed, nor the Church, nor the Fathers, nor the Apollies, no nor an Angel from Heaven, if we teach any Thing againft the Word of God, but let the Word of God abide for ever; for effet this Argument of the falfe Apolles had mightily prevailed againtl Paul's Doftrine. For indeed it was a great Matter, a great Matter I fay, to fer before the Galations the whole Church, with all the Company of the Apolfles againt Paul view. but lately formug up and of finall Authority. This was therefore a (trong Argument and concluded mightily: For no Man faith willingly that the Church erreth, and yet it is needlary to fay that it erreth, if it teach any Thing belides or against God's Word.

The Error of Peter. Peter the chief of the Apolites taught both in Life and Doctrine befides God's Word, therefore he erred and was deceived. Neither did Paul diffemble that Error, (altho' it fermed to be but a light Fault) becaufe he faw it would turn to the Hurt of the whole Church, but withflood him even to his Face, becauje be was to be blaned, Gal. in. 1t. Therefore neither is the Church, nor Peter, nor the Apollies, nor Angels from Heaven to be heard, unlefs they bring and teach the pure Word of God.

This Argument even at this Day is not a little prejudicial to our Caufe. For if we may neither believe the Argument gainfl us.

VERSES 13, 14. To the GALATIANS.

Pone, nor the Fathers, nor Luther, nor any other, except they teach us the pure Word of God, Whom thall we then believe? Who in the mean while shall certify our Confciences which Part teacheth the pure Word of God, we or our Adverfaries; for they brag, that they alfo have the pure Word of God and teach it. Again, we believe not the Papills, because they teach not the Word of God, neither can they teach it. Contrariwife, they hate us most bitterly, and perfecute us as molt peftilent Hereticks and Seducers of the People. What is to be done in this Cafe ? Shall it be lawful for every Phantaltical Spirit, to teach what himfelf lifteth, feeing the World can neither hear nor abide our Doctrine? For altho' we glory with Paul, that we teach the pure Gospel of Christ, yet we profit nothing, but are compelled to hear, that this our glorying is not only vain, rafh and arrogant, but alfo devilifin and full of Blasphemy. But if we abafe ourfelves and give Place to the Rage of our Adverfaries, then both the Papills and Anabaptifts wax proud. This Thing (O ve Galatians) ought to have perfwaded you, not to believe these Deceivers, which magnify the Righteouinels of the Law, as a Matter of great Importance, whereas, if there were any Caufe to glory in the Righteoufness of the Law, I have more Caufe to glory then any other.

In like Manner fay I of myfelf, that before I was lightned with the Knowledge of the Golpel, I was as zealous for the Papiflical Laws and Traditions of the Fathers, as ever any was, most earnestly maintaining and defending them as holy and neceffary to Salvation. Moreover, I endeavoured to observe and keep them myfelf as much as was possible for me to do, punishing my poor Body with falling, watching, praying, and other Exercises, more then all they which at this Day do fo bitterly hate and perfecute me, becaufe now I take from them the Glory of juftifying by Works and Merits. For I was fo diligent and fuperflitious in the Observation hereof, that I laid more upon my Body then without Danger of Health it was able to bear. I henoured the Pope of mere Conficience and Unfeignedly, not feeking after Prebends, Promotions and Livings : But whatfoever I did, I did it with a fingle Heart, of a good Zeal, and for the Glory of God. But those Things which then were gainful unto me, now with Paul I count to be but Lofs, for the Excellency of the Knowledge of Jefus Chrift my Lord, Phil, iii, 8. Paul here making Mention of Flefh and Blood, fpeaketh not of the Apostles. For by and by he addeth, Neither went Lup to Jerufalem, to them which were Apostles before me. But this is Paul's Meaning, that after he had once received the Revelation of the Golpel from Chill, he confulted not with any Man in Damafcus, much lefs did he defire any Man to teach him the Gofpel : Again, that he went not to Terufalem, to Peter and the other Apolities to learn the Gofoel of them, but that forthwith he preached Jefus Chrift in Damafcus, where he received Baptilm of Ananias, and Impolition of Hands; for it was necellary for him to have the sutward Sign and Teftimony of his Calling. Law and he circumcifed. To the End therefore that he might flop the Mouths of these Cavilleers, he rehearfeth this long Hiftory : Before my Convertion (faith he) I learned not my Gofpel of the Apoftles, nor of any other of the Brethren that believed. (for I perfecuted extremely, not only this Doctrine, but also the Church of God, and wasted it,) neither after my Conversion ; for forthwith I preached not Moles with his Law, but Jefus Chrift at Damafcus, confulting with no Man, neither as yet having feen any of the Apoltles.

Verfes 18, 19. Then after three Years I went up to Jerulalem, to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen Days. But other of the Apostles faw I none, fave lames the Lord's Brother.

Paul granteth that he was with the Apoftles, but not with all the Apoffles. Howbeit he declareth that he went up to Terufalem to them, not commanded, but of his own Accord, not to learn any Thing of them, but to fee Peter. The fame Thing Luke alfo writeth in Atts ix. 27. that Barnabas led Paul to the Apoftles, and declared to them, how that he had feen the Lord in the Way, and that he fpake unto him, alfo that he had preached holdly at Damafcus in the Name of Jefus. This Witnefs beareth Barnabas of him. All his Words therefore are fo framed, that they prove his Gofpel not to be of Man. Indeed he granteth that he had feen Peter and James the Brother of our Lord, but none other of the Apofiles befides thefe two, and that he learned nothing of them.

He granteth therefore that he was at Jerufalem with the Apoftles ; and this did the falfe Apofles only report. He granteth moreover that Matter lieth in this Word, to fee : I went (faith he) to fee Peter, and not to learn of him. Therefore neither is Peter my Maller, nor yet James. And as for the other Apolles, he utterly denieth that he faw any of them.

But why doth Paul repeat this 60 often, that he learned not his Golpel of Men, nor of the Apolles themfelves? His Parpole is this, to perfixede the Churches of Calatia which, were now led away by the falle Apolles, and to put them out of all doubt, that his Golpel was the true Word of God, and for this Caufe he repeatent it fo often. And if he had not prevailed herein, he could never have flooged the Mouths of the falle Apolles. For thus they would have objected againft him; we are as good as Paul, we are the Difciples of the Apofiles as well as he; moreover, he is but one alone, and we are many; therefore we excel him, both in Authority and in Number alfo.

Here Paul was conftrained to glory, to affirm and fwear, that he learned not his Gospel of any Man, neither received it of the Apostles themfelves. For his Ministry was here in great Danger, and all the Churches likewife which had used him as their chief Paftor and Teacher. The Necessity therefore of his Ministry and of all the Churches required, that with an holy Pride he should vaunt of his Vocation, and of the Knowledge of the Gofpel revealed unto him by Chrift, that their Confciences might be throughly perfwaded that his Doctrine was the true Word of God. Here had Paul a weighty Matter in Hand ; namely, that all the Churches in Galatia might be kept in found Doctrine ; yea, the Controverly was indeed, as touching Life and Death everlafting. For if the pure Word of God be once taken away, there remaineth no Confolation, no Life, no Salvation. The Caufe therefore why he reciteth these Things, is to retain the Churches in true and found Doctrine. His Purpole is therefore to fhew by this Hiftory, that he received the Gofpel of no Man. Again, that he preached for a certain Time, namely the Space of 3 or 4 Years, both in Damafeus and Arabia, by Revelation from God, before he had feen any of the Apoftles, even the felf-fame Gofpel that the Apoffles had preached.

Notthflanding the believing frew which were yet weak and bare a Zeal the Law, hearing that Circumcifion was not neceflary to Righteouris could underfined this no otherwife, but that it was alogether unbitable and dumnable. And this fond Opinion of the weak frew the life Apolites did increafe, to the End that the Hearts of the People bef. fürsted ya againfl Paul by this Occation, they might

Things; but we teach that by the Exercises we do not obtain Remiffion of Sins. When the People hear this, by and by they judge us to freak again good Works. And this Option the Papills do confirm and increase by their Preachings and Writings. But they ly, and do us great wrong. For many Years pass there was never any that taught more found and godly Dockrine as touching good Works, then we do at this Day.

What Paul determined in that Conference of the Apoltles.

Paul therefore did not fo condemn Circumcifion, as the it were Sin to receive it or keep it, for the Jews would have been highly offended, but it was decided in this Conference and Counfel, that it was not neceffary to Jufification, and therefore not to be forced upon the Genilles. So this Moderation was found, that for the Revence of the Fathers, and Charity towards the weak in Faith, the Jew fhould keep the Law and Circumcifon fill for a Time; notwithfinding they fhould not thereby feek to be juffiled. And moreover that the Gentiles fhould not be burdened therewith, both becaufe it would have been to them a very firange Thing, and allo a Barden ustellerable, Ach xv. to. briefly that none fhould be confirained to be circumcified. or any refirmate from Circumcifion.

Paul therefore compelled none that would be circumcifed to remain uncircumcifed, fo that he knew Gircumcifion not to be neceffary to jufificiation. This Configurati would Paul take away. Therefore he fuffered the fews to keep the Law, fo that they did it with a free Conficence: For he had ever taught, as well the fews as the Genilles, that in Configuree they ought to be free from the Law and Circumcifion 5 like as all the Paritarkhes and all the Faithball in the old Teflament twee

Why Paul would not fuffer Titus to be circumcifed. free in Conficience and julified by Faith, and not by the Law or Giscumcifion. And indeed Paul might have lifeteed 71 as to be circumcifed; but becaule he faw that they would compel him thereunto, he would not. For if they had prevailed therein, by and by they would have gathered that it had been neceffary to julification, and fo throthis Suffrance they would have triumphed again [12].

Now as the falle Apollies would not leave Circumclion and the Obfervation of the Law indifferent, but required the fame as necefirity to Salvation, 6 at this Day our Adverfaries do oblinately contend, that Mens Traditions cannot be omitted without Peril of Salvation; and thus of an Example of Charity, they make an Example of Faith, when notwithflanding there is but one Example of Faith, which is, to believe in Jelüs Chriff. And this, as it is alone neceflary to Salvation, fo doth is allo indifferently pertain to all Men. Notwithflanding the Adver-

faries would rather worthip the Devil ten Times inflead of God, then they would fuffer this. Therefore they are daily hardned more and more, and feek to eliabilith their Impieties and Blafphemies againft God, defending the fame by Force and Tyranny, and will not agree or confame fent unto us in any Point. But what then ? Let us go on boldly in the Name of the Lord of Holls, and for all this, let us not ceafe to fet forth the Glory of Jefus Chrift; and let us fight valiantly against the Kingdom of Antichrift by the Word and by Prayer, That the Name of God alone may be fan Elified, that his Kingdom may come, and that his Will may be done, Matth. vi. 9, 10. And that this may speedily come to pals, we defire even from the Bottom of our Hearts, and fay, Amen. Amen.

This Triumph of Paul therefore was very glorious; The Trinamely, That Titus which was a Gentile, altho' he were in the Midft of the Apoftles and all the Faitl #1, where this Queftion was fo vehemently debated, was not yet conftrained to be circumcifed. This Victory Paul carriftles. eth away, and faith that in this Conference it was decided by the Confent of all the Apoffles, the whole Church alfo approving the fame, that Titus should not be circumcifed. This is a ftrong Argument and maketh very much against the false Apostles. And with this Argument, Neither was Titus compelled to be circumcifed, Paul was able to reprefs and mightily to convince all his Adverfaries: As if he hould fay, Why do these counterfeit Apostles to fally report of me. faving, that I am compelled to keep Circumcifion by the Commandnent of the Apoftles, feeing I have the Witness of all the Faithful in Terusalem, and moreover of all the Apostles themselves, that by my Purfuit and Travail the contrary was there determined, and that I did not only there prevail that Titus should not be circumcifed, but that he Apoftles also did approve and ratify the fame? Your counterfeit Aoffles therefore do ly deadly, which flander me under the Name of the postles, and thereby deceive you; for I have the Apostles, and all the aithful, not againft me, but with me. And this I prove by the Exmple of Titus.

Notwithstanding, Paul (as I have often faid) did not condemn Circumfion as an unprofitable Thing, nor conftrained any Man thereunto. or it is neither Sin nor Righteousnels to be circumcifed or uncircumfed, as it is neither Sin nor Righteoufnels to eat or drink. For neiber if we eat, are we the better; neither if we eat not, are we the urfe, t Cor. viii. 8. But if any Man should add thereto either Sin Righteousness, and fay. Wherefore the Devil himfelf speaketh in the rfon of the Pope in all the Popes Decrees. For if Saltion confifteth in keeping the Popes Laws, What need we we of Chrift to be our Juftifier and Saviour ? Verles 4, 5. And that because of falls Brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spie out our Liberly, which we have in Chriss Pelus, that they might bring us into Bondage: To whom we gave Place by Subjection, no not for an Hour; that the Iruth of the Golpel might continue with you.

Here Paul fixewebt is Caufe why he went up to ferulaten, and there conferred his Gojen with the other Apofiles, and why he would not circaractife Tilus: Not that he might be the more certain, or confirmed in the Gofpel by the Apofiles, for he nothing doubled thereof, but that the Truth of the Golpel might continue in the Churches of the Galatian, and in all the Churches of the Gautien. We fee then that the Buchnefs of Paul was no light Matter.

Now, where he fpeaketh of the Truth of the Gofpel, he fheweth that there be two Gofpels, a true and a falle Gofpel. Indeed the Gofpelof itfelf is fimple, true and fncere; but by the Malice of Satan's Miniftry it is corrupt and defaced. Therefore where he faith, The Truth of the

As if he would fary, The faile Apoffles do alfo preach a Faith and a Gofpel, but they are both falle, therefore have I fet myfel fo conftantly againfl them: And in that I would more give Place unto them, this have I brought to pafs, that the Truth of the Gofpel continueth with you. So the Pope and Anakopiffs do brag at this Day, that they teach the Gofpel and Faith in Chrift. True it is, but with fuch Fruit as the falle Apoffles once did, whom Paul calletb before in the fail Chapter, Trubles of the Church and Subverters of the Golpel of Chrift. 'On the other Side he faith that he teacheth the Truth of the Golpel. As if he fhould fay, Thole Things which the faife Apofiles teach, bragthey never fo much that they teach the Truth, are nothing elle but flark Lies. So all Herelicits pretend the Name of God, of Chrift, and of the Church. Allo they pretend that they will not teach Errors or Lies, but moft certain Truth and the pure Gode of Chrift.

TheCorruption of the Gofpel.

The Doetrine of the Papifls concerning Faith. Now, the Truth of the Golfeel is, that our Righteoufnefs cometh by Faith alone, without the Works of the Law. The Corruption or Fallehood of the Golfeel, is, that we are julified by Faith, but not without the Works of the Law. With the like Condition the falle Apolles allo preached the Golfeel. Even focd our Pepilli at this Day. For they fay that we mult believe in Chrift, and that Faith is the Foundation of our Salvation; but it juthicht not, except it be funalhed with Charity. This is not the Truth of the Gofpel, but Falfehood and Diffimulation. But the true Golpel indeed is, that Works or Charity are not the Ornament or Perfection of Faith ; but that Faith of itfelf is God's Gift and God's Work in our Hearts, which therefore justifieth us.

becaufe it apprehendeth Chrift our Redeemer. Man's Reafon hath the Law for his Object, thus thinking with itfelf ; This I have done, this I have not done : But Faith being in her own proper Office, hath no other Object but Jefus Chrift the Son of God, delivered to Death for the Sins of the whole World. It looketh not to Charity. It faith not, What have I done? What have I' offended? What have I deferved? But what hath Chrift done? What hath he deferved? Here the Truth of the Gofpel anfwereth thee, he hath redeemed thee from thy Sin, from the Devil, and from eternal Death, Faith therefore acknowledgeth, that in this one Perfon Jefus Chrift, it hath Forgivenels of Sins and eternal Life. He that turneth his Eyes away from this Object, hath no true Faith, but a fantaly and a vain Opinion and turneth his Eyes from the Promile to the Law, which terrifieth and driveth to Defperation. Wherefore those Things which the Popils Schoolmen have taught concerning the juffifying Faith being furnished with Charity, are nothing elfe but mere Dreams. For that Faith which apprehendeth Chrift the Son of God, and is furnished with him is the same Faith which iustifieth. and not that Faith which includeth Charity. For a true and ftedfaft Faith muft lay hold upon nothing elfe but Chrift alone, and in the Affections and Terrors of Confcience it hath nothing elfe to lean unto, but this + Diamond Chrift Jefus. Wherefore he that apprehendeth Chrill by Faith, altho' he be never fo much terrified with the Law and oppreffed with the Weight of his Sins, yet may he be bold to glory that he is righteous. How or by what Means? Even by that precious Pearl Chrift Jefus, which he polfeffeth by Faith. This our Adverfaries understand not, and therefore they caft away, this precious Pearl Chrift, and in his Place they fet Charity, which they fay is their precious Diamond. Now, when they cannot tell what Faith is, it is impoffible that they thould have Faith ; much efs can they teach it unto others. And as for that which they will feem to have, it is nothing elfe but natural Reaion, an Opinion, a very Dream and no Faith.

This I fay, to the End ye may perceive and note, that by these Words, The Truth of the Golpel, Paul vehemently reproveth the Cobrary. For he reprehendeth the falle Apoliles, because they had taught falfe Gofpel, requiring Circumcifion, and the Obfervas they went about by wonderful Craft and Subtility to entrap Paul; for they watched bin narrowly to fee whether he would circumcife Thur or no; also whether he durit withfland them in the Prefence of the Apollles, and for this Caulé he reprehendent them bittedy. They used about (faith he) to fpie au our Liberty, which we have in Chriff Jofat, that they might bring au into Bondage. Wherefore the faile Apollles armied themfelves on every Side, that they might convince and bondout lim before the whole Congregation: Befoles hits, they went about to abufe the Anthonity of the Apollles, in whole Prefence they acculd lim, faying, Paul hath brought Titus being uncircumcifed, into the Company of all the Faithful : in detempt in your Abence among the Graitiex.

Wherefore when he perceived that he was focrafilly alfailed, he flrongly withflood the faffe Apoltes, faying, We did not foffer our Laberty which we have in Chrift Jefus to come in Danger, altho' the faffe Brethren fought by all Means to fnare us and put us to much Trouble; but we overcame them even by the Judgment of the Apoltes themfelves, and we would not yield unto them, no not one, Hour (for, no doubt, their Drift was to have caufed Paul to furceafe from this Liberty for a Time) fithens we faw that they required the Obfervation of the Law as needfary to Salvation. But if they had alledged nothing elfe but charitable bearing with the Brethren no doubt but Paul would have given them Place. But it was another Thing that they fought, to wit, That they might bring Paul and all that fluck to his Dockrine into Bondage. Therefore he would not yield unto them, no not the Space of one Moment.

Luther was content in the Time of Blindnefs to bear with thofe Things which now in the Light of the Gofipel are utterly to be rejected.

† The Popes Thunderbolts.

In like Manner do we also offer to the Pabilis all that is to be offered, yea, and more than we ought. Only we except the Liberty of Confcience which we have in Chrift Jefus. For we will not fuffer our Confciences to be bound to any Work, fo that by doing this Thing or that, we fhould be righteous, or leaving the fame undone we fhould be damned. We are contented to eat the fame Meats that they eat, we will keep their Feafts and fafting Days, fo that they will fuffer us to do the fame with a free Confcience, and leave thefe threatning Words, wherewith they have terrified and brought under their Subjection the whole World, faying, + We command, we charge, we charge again, we excommunicate, Gc. But this Liberty we cannot obtain ; like as Paul also could not in his Time. Therefore we do as he did : For when he faw that he could not obtain this Liberty, he would not give Place to the falle Apoftles, the Space of one Hour.

Wherefore, like as our Adverfaries will not leave this free unto us, that only Faith in Chrift julifieth; fo on the other Side, neither will we, nor can we give Place unto them, that Faith furnished with Charlty julifieth. Here we will and we ought also to be rebellious and obffinate against them, for elfe we should lose the Truth of the Gospel; we should lose our Liberty which we have, not in the Emperor, not in Kings and Princes, not in that Monfter the Pope, not in the World, not in Flefh, Blood, Reafon, erc, but which we have in Chrift Jefus. We should lofe Faith in Chrift. which (as before I have faid) apprehendeth nothing elfe but that precious Diamond Chrift Jefus. This Faith whereby we are regenerate, juflified, and engrafted into Chrift, if our Adverfaries will leave unto us found and uncorrupt, we offer unto them that we will do all Things, fo that they be not contrary to this Faith. When Faith is found, alf Things are fafe:

the Matter which we have in Hand is weighty and of great Importance. even touching the Death of the Son of God; who by the Will and Commandment of the Father was made Flefh, was crucified and died for the Sins of the World. If Faith here give Place, then is this Death and Refurrection of the Son of God in vain, then is it but a Fable that Chrift is the Saviour of the World, then is God found a Liar, because he hath not performed that he promised. Our Stoutnefs therefore in this Matter is godly and holy. For by it we feek to preferve our Liberty which we have in Chrift Jefus, and thereby to retain the Truth of the Gofpel : which if we lofe, then do we also lofe God, Chrift, all the Promifes, Faith, Righteoufnefs, and everlafting Life.

But here will fome Man fav, The Law is divine and holy. Let the Law have his Glory, but yet no Law be at never fo divine and holy, ought to teach me that I am sultified and shall live thro' it. I grant it may teach me that I ought to love God and my Neighbour ; also to live in Chastity, Sobemels, Patience, Gc. but it ought not to fhew how I fhould be delivered from Sin, the Devil, Death and Hell. Here I must take Counfel of the Gospel, I must hearken to the Gofpel which teacheth me, not what I ought to do, (for that is the proper Office of the Law ) but what Jefus Chrift the Son of God hath done for me ; to wit, That he fuffered and died to deliver me from Sin and Death. The Gospel willeth me to receive this, and to believe it. And this is the Truth of the Gofpel. It is also the principle Article of all Chriftian Doctrine, wherein the Knowledge of all Godline's confifteth. Most necessary it is therefore that we fhould know this Article well, teach it unto others, and beat it into their Heads continually : For as it is very tender, for is it foon hurt. This Paul had well tried, and of this have all the Godly alfo good Experience.

without this Addition, there is no Danger. If the Pope would in this Sort require of us the keeping of his Traditions, as there Ceremonies, it fhould not be for grievous unto us to keep them, is but to bind Mens Confeiences to thefe Ceremoines, and to make of them an high and acceptable Service unto God, yes and moreover to add, that Lifs and Salvation, or Death and Danmaion conflicted in the Obfervation hereof, is a devilift Superfittion, and fall of Blafphemy. Verfe 6. But of thefe, who feemed to be fomewhat, (whatfoever they were, it maketh no Matter to me:

Why Paul giveth not unto the Apofiles any glorious Title. This is a vehement and flrong Confutation. For be given not to the true Apolle's themeliver any glorious Title; but as it were abafing their Dignity, be faith, Who feemed to be formulat; that is, which were in Authority, upon whom the Determination of all Matters depended. Notwithfanding the Authority of the Apofles was indeed very great in all the Churches. And Poul also did not feek any whit to diminish their Authority, but he thus contemptuoully answerch the falle Apolles, which fet the Authority and Dignity of the Apolles againt Pousi in all the Churches, that there by they might weaken his Authority, and bring his whole Minifty into Contempt. This Poul might not fulfs. To the End therefore that the Truth of the Golpel and Liberty of Confeience in Christ might continue among the Galatian, and in all the Churches of the Gentles, he answerch locally to the fails. Apolles, that he palled not how great the Apolles were, or what they had been in Times pall; and whereas they alcleded the Authority of the Name of the Apolles save indeed formewhat, and that their Authority is to be overlarown. Notwith Fanding his Golpel and Minilty ought not to be overlarown for the Name or Title of any, whatfoever he be, an Apofile or an Angel from Heaven.

Wherefore they hould now confider which of these they ought more to believe : Paul which was but one and alone, and alfo but a Difciple, yea and one of the laft of all; or the chiefeft and most excellent Apostles, which long before Paul were fent and confirmed by Chrift himfelf.

To this Paul answereth, What of all this? This Argument concludeth nothing. Let the Apoffles be never fo great, yea let them be Angels from Heaven, it is no Matter to me. The Controverly is not here concerning the Excellency of the Apofiles, but concerning the Word of God, and the Truth of the Gofpel. This ought to be kept pure and uncorrupt ; this ought to be preferred above all Things. Therefore how great Peter and the other Apofiles have been, what great Miracles they have wrought, it is no Matter to me. This is it that I only feek, even that the Truth of the Golpel may continue among you. This feeneth to me but a liender Anfwer of Paul, when of Purpole he fo contemneth the Authority of the Apoftles, which the falle Apoftles alledged againft him, and giveth no other Solution to their mighty Argument then this, It is no Matter to me. but it was most necessary that such fearful Examples should be shewed, and alfo be written. For this Vice is naturally grafted in us, that we highly effeem the Perfons and outward Appearance of Men, and more regard the fame then the Word of God. Contrariwife God will have us to fix our Eyes, and to reft wholly upon the Word itfelf: he will not have us to reverence and adore the Apoftlefhip in the Perfons of Peter and Paul, but Chrift fpeaking in them and the Word which they bring and preach unto us.

+ Every Creature of God may be called the Vail of God. becaufe God is, as it were, covered and thathowed under it.

or Perfons.

Theoutward Vails are God's good but to truff in them is wicked.

This the natural Man cannot fee: but the foiritual Man only difcerneth the Perfon from the Word, the + Vail of God from God himfelf. Now this Vail of God is every Creature. Moreover, God here in this Life dealeth not with us Face to Face, but covered and fhadowed from us : that is, as Paul faith in another Place, Now we fee thro' a Glafs, darkly ; but then Face to Face, 1 Cor. xiii, 12. Therefore we cannot be without Vails in this Life. But here Wildom is required, which can difern the Vail from God himfelf, and this Wifdom the World hath not. The covetous Man hearing that Man livetb not by Bread only, but by every Word that proceedeth out of the Mouth of God, Deut. viii. 2. Matth. iv. 4. cateth the Bread, but he feeth not God in the Bread, for he beholdeth the Vail only and outward Shew. So he doth with Gold and other Creatures, trufting to them fo long as he hath them; but when they leave them, he defpaireth. And thus he honoureth not the Creator, but the Creatures ; not God, but his own Belly. This I fpeak left any Man should think that Paul utterly condemneth thefe outward Vails

For he faith not that there ought to be no Perfon, but that there is no Refpect of Perfons with God. There must be Perfons and outward Vails: God hath given them, and they are his good Creatures, but we mult not truft in them. All the Matter is in the right using of Things, and not in the Things themfelves, as before I have faid. There is no Fault in Circumcifion or Uncircumcifion (for Circumcifion is nothing, and Uncircumcifion is nothing) but in the Ufe thereof. To put Righteoufnefs in the one and Unrighteoufnefs in the orher, that

Ule is damnable and ought to be taken away ; which being removed, Circumcifion and Uncircumcifion are Things tollerable.

So the Prince, the Magiltrate, the Preacher, the School-mafter, the Schollar, the Father, the Mother, the Children, the Mafter, the Servant are Perfons and outward Vails, which God will have us to acknowledge, love and reverence as his Creatures, which also must needs be had in this Life; but he will not have us fo to reverence them or truft unto them. that we forget him. And to the End that we should not too much magnify the outward Perfons, or put any Truft in them, God leaveth in VERSE 6.

them Offences and Sins, yea great and foul Sins, to teach us what Difference there is between the Perfon and God himfelf. David that good King becaufe he fhould not feem to be a Perfon upon whom Men fhould truft, fell into horrible Sins, Adalutery and Murther. Peter that excellent Apolle denied Chrift. Thefe and fuch like Examples, whereof the Scripture is full, ought to warn us that we repofe not our Truft in the Perfon and outward Vail, nor think that when we have the outward Shew and Shadows, we have all Things; as it is in Popery, where they judge all Things according to the outward Vail, and therefore all Popery is nothing elfe but a meetrefpeding of Perfons and outward Shews.

God fuffereth his dear Saints to fall into great Vices, that we fhould not cleave to their Perfons.

God hath given his Creatures to our Ufe and to do us Service, and not as Idols that we fhould do Service unto them. Let us then ufe Bread, Wine, Apparel, Poffelfions, Gold, Silver, and all other Creatures; but let us not truft or glory in them; for we mult truft and glory in God alone. He only is to be loved, he only is to be feared and honoured.

Paul calleth here the Apoftlefhip or Office of the Apoftles ( which wrought many and great Miracles, taught and converted many to the Faith, and were also familiar with Christ ) the Perfon of Man.

Briefly, this Word Perfon comprehendent the whole outward Converfation of the Appfiles which was holy, and their Authority which was great. Notwithfanding (faith he) God effeemeth not thefe Things; not that he eltermeth them not at all, but in the Matter of Jufification he regardent them not, be they never fo great and fo glo rious." For we muß dilgently mark this Dillindion, that in Matters of Divinity we muß fipelak far otherwife than in Matters of Policy. In Matters of Policy (as I have fiel) God will have us to honour and reverence thefe outward Vails or Perfons as his Inflruments by whom he governeth and prefervent he World : But when the Quefilon is as stouching Religion, Confeience, the Fear of God, Faith and the Service of God, we muß not fear thefe outward Perfons, we muß put no Truß in them, look for no Comfort from them, or Hope for Deliverance by them either corporally or foiritually. For this Caule God will have no Refrect of Persons, in Judgment; for Judgment is a divince Thing. will fo be feared and adored, as cannot be done without Offence to the Majefty of God. Here fince we mult needs lofe the one let us lofe the Perfon and flick to God. We could be content to fuffer the Dominion of the Pone : but becaufe he abufeth the fame fo tyrannoully against us, and would compel us to deny and blatuheme God, and to acknowledge him only as our Lord and Mafter, clogging our Confciences and fooiling us of the Fear and Truft which we should have in God, therefore we are compelled by the Commandment of God, to refift the Pope; for it is written, That we must rather obey God than Man. Acts iv. 19. Therefore without Offence of Confcience ( which is our fingular Comfort) we contemn the Authority of the Pope.

There is a certain Vehemency therefore to be noted in this Word [ Gad ] For in the Caule of Religion, and the Word of God, there muft be no Respect of Persons. But in Matters of Policy we must have Regard to the Perfon ; for otherwife there must needs follow a Contempt of all Reverence and Order. In this World God will have an Order, a Reverence and a Difference of Perfons. For elfe the Child, the Servant, the Subject would fay, I am a Chriftian as well as my Father, my School-mafter, my Mafter, my Prince; Why then should I reverence him? Before God then there is no Refpect of Perfons, neither of Grecian nor of Tew, but all are one in Chrift, altho' not fo before the World,

Thus Paul confuteth the Argument of the falle Apofiles as touching the Authority of the Apofiles, and faith that it is nothing to the Purpofe. For the Queftion is not here concerning the Respect of Persons, but there is a far weightier Matter in Hand, that is to fay, a Divine Matter concerning God and his Word, and whether this Word ought to be preferred before the Apolleship or no; whereunto Paul answereth : So that the Truth of the Gofpel may continue, fo that the Word of God and the Righteoufnels of Faith may be kept pure and uncorrupt, let the Apoflefhip go, let an Angel from Heaven, let Peter, let Paul altogether perifh.

Verfe 6. For they who feemed to be fomewhat, in Conference added nothing to me.

As tho' he would fay, I did not fo conferr with the Apofiles that they taught me any Thing; For what fhould they teach me, fince Chrift by his Revelation had before fufficiently taught me all Things ? And moreover fince I have now preached the Gofpel the Space of eighteen Years among the Gentiles, and Chrift hath wrought fo many Miracles by me, whereby he hath confirmed my Doctrine; wherefore it was but a Conference and no Difputation. Wherein I learned nothing, neither did I recant, nor yet defend my Caufe, but only declared what Things I have

I have done ; to with that I had preached to the Gentiles What Paul Faith only in Chrift without the Law, and that by this preaching of Faith the Holy Gholt came down upon the Gentiles, which immediately foake with divers

Tongues. Which Things when the Apoftles heard, they witneffed that I had taught the Truth. Wherefore the falle Apollies do me great wrong which pervert and turn all these Things clean contrary. Now, if Paul would give no Place to the falle Apoftles which fet the Authority of the true Apoftles against him ; much less ought we to give Place to our Adverfaries, which have nothing elfe to brag of, but the Authority of their Idol the Pope. I know that the Godly ought to be humble ; but against the Pope I will and I ought to be proud with a holy Pride, and fay, Thou Pope, I will not be fubject unto thee, I will not take thee for my Mafter, for I am fure that my Doctrine is true and godly. But the Pope will not hear this Doctrine.

did in that Conference.

The holy Pride of the Godly againft the Pope.

Nay he would force us to obey his Laws and his Decrees, and if we will not, he will by and by excommunicate, curfe and condemn us as Here-ricks. Such Pride therefore against the Pope is most neceffary. And if we should not be thus stout and proud and in the Holy Ghoff utterly condemn both him with all his Doctrine, and the Devil the Father of Lies speaking in him, we should never be able to defend this Article of he Righteoufness of Faith. We do not then contemn the Authority of the Pope becaufe we would bear Rule over him, neither do we go about to exalt ourfelves above all fovereign Power, fince it is evident that we teach all Men to humble and fubmit themfelves to the higher Powers * ordained of God; but this is it that we only feek, that the Glory of God may be maintained, and the Righteoufnefs of Faith nay be kept pure and found.

Wherefore if the Pope will grant unto us that God alone by his mere Brace thro' Chrift doth juffifie Sinners, we will not only carry him in ur Hands, but will also kils his Feet. But fince we cannot obtain this, we again in God are proud against him above Measure, and will give no Place, no not one Hairs Breadth to all the Angels in Heaven, not to Peter, nor to Paul, not to an hundreth Emperors, not to a thousand opes, nor to the whole World. But be it far from us that we fhould ere humble ourfelves, fince they would take from us our Glory, even Sod himfelf that hath created us and given us all Things, and Jefus Trift who hath redeemed us with his Blood. Let this be then he Conclusion of all together, that we will fuffer our foods to be taken away, our Name, our Life, and all that Curfed is te have; but the Golpel, our Faith, Jelus Chrift, we will aver fuffer to be wretted from us. And curled be that fumility which here abaleth and fubmitteth itfelf. Nay ther let every Christian Man here be proud and spare bt, except he will derry Chrift,

Why the Godly are proud againft the Pope.

CHAP. II.

Wherefare, God affiling me, my Forehead fhall be more hard then all Mens Foreheads. Here I take upon me this Title, according to the Proverb, Gedo mulit, I give Place to none, yet I am glad even with all my Heart in this Point to be called rebellious and obligante. And here I confest that I am and ever will be flout and flern, and will not one Inch give Place to any Creature. Charity giveth Place, Beareth all Things, believeth all Things, hopsth all Things, networth all Things,

Love fuffereth all Things, but Faith can bear with nothing.

1 Cor. xiii. 7. But Faith giveth no Place, yea it can fuffer nothing, according to this ancient Verfe. Non patiture ludwin Fama, Fister, Zoula: "That is Man's good Name, his Faith, and his Eye will not be dallied withal. Wherefore a Chriftian, as touching his Faith, can never be too proud nor too flout, neither multhe releat nor give Place, no not the Breadth of one Hair. For Faith maketh a Man here like unto God. Sur God fufferent nothing, he giveth Place to none, for he is immutable. So is Faith immutable, and therefore may fuffer nothing, give Place to no Man. But as touching Charity, let a Chriftian man yeild and fuffer all Things, for therein he is but a Man.

Verles 7, 8. But contrariwife, when they faw that the Gofpel of the Uncircumcifon was committed unto me, as the Gofpel of the Circumcifon was unto Peter; (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the Apofle/hip of the Circumcifion, the fame was mighty in me towards the Gentiles.)

With these Words Paul mightily confuteth the false Apostles. For here he challengeth to himfelf the fame Authority which the falle Apoftles attributed to the true Apoftles. And he ufeth here a Figure which is called an Inversion, returning their Argument against themselves. The falfe Apoftles ( faith he ) do alledge againft me the Authority of the great Apostles, to maintain their Caufe. But I contrariwife do alledge the fame against them for my Defence, for the Apostles are on my Side. Wherefore O my Galatians believe not these counterfeit Apostles, which brag fo much of the Authority of the Apofiles againft me. For the Apofiles when they faw the Golpel over the Uncircumcifion to be committed to me, and knew of the Grace that to me was given, gave to me and Barnabas the Right-hands of Fellowship, approving my Ministry and giving Thanks unto God for the Gifts which I had received. Thus he returneth the Argument of the falle Apoffles upon themfelves. And in these Words there is an ardent Vehemency, and more contained in Matter, then in Words is able to be expressed.

What meanch Paul when he faith, that the Golpel over the Uncircumcifion was committed unto him, and ocommitted, wer the Gircumcifion unto Peter, when notwithflanding the Golpel over Circumcifion, and to Paul over Uncircumcifion.

Paul almost every where preached to the Tews in the Synagogues, and Peter likewife to the Gentiles ? There are Examples and Teftimonies of both in Afts x. 2. Peter converted the Centurian with his Family, which was a Gentile. He wrote also to the Gentiles, as his first Epiftle testifieth. Paul preaching Christ among the Gentiles, entereth notwithstanding into the Synagogues of the Jews, and there preached the Gofoel, Acts ix. 20. And our Saviour Chrift in Matth. xxviii. 19. and Mark xvi. 15. commandeth his Apofiles to go throughout the whole World, and preach the Gofpel to every Creature. Paul likewife faith. The Golbel preached to every Creature which is under Heaven. Col. i. 22. Why then doth he call himfelf the Apostle of the Gentiles, and Peter with the other, the Apolles of the Cir- Paul of the cumcifion ?

Peter the Apostle of the Tews and Gentiles.

Paul hath Respect unto this, that the other Apofiles remained specially in Jerufalem, until God called them unto other Places. Thus flood the Matter then for the Time, that whiles the political State of the Tews continued, the Apoftles ftill remained in Judea. But when the Deftruction of Jerufalem approached, they were difperfed throughout the whole World. But Paul, as it is written in Alts xiii. 2. by a fingular Vocation was chosen to be the Apostle of the Gentiles, and being fent out of Judea, he travelled thro' the Countries of the Gentiles. Now were the Jews difperfed almost throughout the whole World, and dwelt here and there in Cities and other Places among the Gentiles. Paul coming thither was wont (as we read in the Acts ix. 10.

to go into the Synagogues of the Jews, and by this Occa- Paul preachfion he fitft brought unto them, as the Children of the ed allo to Kingdom, this glad Tidings, that the Promifes made un- the Jews. to the Fathers, were accomplifhed by Jefus Chrift. When they would not hear this, he turned to the Gentiles, as Luke witneffeth, where he bringeth in Paul thus boldly speaking against the Jews. It was neceffary that the Word of God should first have been spoken to you : But seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting Life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles, Alts xiii. 46. And in Acts xxviii. 28. Be it known therefore unto you, that the Salvation of God is fent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it. Wherefore Paul was fent fpecially unto the Gentiles. But because he was a Debitor unto all, and became all Things unto all Men, therefore Occasion being offered he went into the Synagogues of the Jews, where not only the Jews, but also the Gentiles heard him preaching Chrift, Rom. i. 14. Other whiles he preached publickly in the Market Place, in Houfes, and by the Rivers Sides. He was specially then the Apostle of the Gentiles; as Peter was of the Jews; who notwithftanding preached Chrift to the Gentiles also when Occasion was offered.

And here he calleth Uncircumcifion the Gentiles, and Uncircumci-Circumcifion the Jews, by a Figure named Synecdache, fion. which under a Part comprehendeth the whole ; which Circumci-Figure is commonly used in the Scripture; the Gospel

Upon the EPISTLE

then over Uncircumcifion is that which was appointed to be fent unto the Gentiles. This Gofpel, faith he, was committed unto him, as the Golpel over Circumcifion was unto Peter. For as Peter preached the Gofpel among the Jews, fo did he among the Gentiles.

Paul receiveth not his Gofpel of the other Apoftles.

This he often repeateth, that Peter, James and John, which feemed to be the Pillars of the Church, taught him nothing, nor committed unto him the Office of preaching the Gofpel, as having Authority and Rule over him. But they themfelves ( faith he ) did fee that the Gofpel was committed unto me, but not by Peter. For as I did not receive or learn any Golpel of Man. So did I re-receive no Commandment by Man to preach the fame, but both the Knowledge and the Commandment to preach it among the Gentiles, I received immediately from God ; like as the Charge was given of God

did, neither did he appoint to others their Charge and Office, but there was an Equality among them all, for they were all taught of God, that is, both their Vocation and Charge was wholly and immediately from God. There was none therefore greater then other, none that had any Prerogative above other. And therefore where the Pope vaunteth that Peter was the Chief of the Apoflics, that thereby

This Place witneffeth very plainly that the Apofles had like Calling, like Charge, and all one Gofpel. Peter preached no other Gofpel then the reft of the Apollies he might confirm and eftablish his usurped Primacy, it is an impudent Lie.

Verfe 8. For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the Apostleship of the Circumcision,

This is a Confutation of another Argument of the falle Apostles. Why do the falfe Apoftles boaft ( faith he ) that the Gofpel of Peter was mighty, that he converted many, that he wrought many and great Miracles, raifed up the Dead, and with his Shadow healed the Sick ! Alls v. 15. I grant all these Things to be true; but Peter received this Power from Heaven. God gave a Vertue to his Word, fo that many did believe him, and great Miracles were wrought by him. The fame Power had I also which I received not of Peter, but the fame God and the fame Spirit which was mighty in Perer, was mighty to me alfo. I had the fame Grace, I taught many, I wrought many Miracles, and thro' my Shadow alfo I healed the Sick. And this Luke testifieth, in these Words, And God wrought Special Miracles by the Hands of Paul : So that from his Body were brought unto the Sick, Handkerchiefs or Aprons, and the Difeafes departed from them, and the evil Spirits went out of them, Acts xix. 11, 12. Read more hereof Acts xini, 16, 20, 28.

To conclude, Paul will be counted in no Point inferior to the reft of the Apollies, and herein he glorieth with a godly and holy Pride. New

ceffity confirmined him floutly to withfland Peter, and The Stoutthe burning Zeal he had for the Glory of God, mov- nefs of Paul ed him fo to do. Certain prophane Spirits, as Julianus is not carnal. and Porphrisu. not confidering this, thought it to be but a carnal Pride that canfed Paul thus to do; fuelt as at this Day we fee in the Pope and his Generation. But Paul had not here his own Bufinels in Hand, bat a Matter of Faith. Now, as concerning Faith we ought to be invincible, and more hard if it might be, then the Adamant-Hone. But as touching Chairty, we ought to be foft, and more facilible then the Reed or Leaf that is fhaken with the Wind, and ready to yield to svery Thing. Therefore the Controverfy was not here touching the Glory of Paul, but the Glory of God, the Word of God, her true Working the End that Religion, and the Righteouffiels of Faith, to the End that thefe Things might full remain pure and uncorrupt.

Verfe 9. And when James, Cephas, and John, who feemed to be Pillars, perceived the Grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the Righthands of Fellow/hip; that we fhould go unto the Heathen, and they unto the Circumcifion.

That is to fay, when they heard that I had received my Calling and Charge from God to preach the Golpel among the Genuilet, and that od had wrought fo many Miracles by me; moreover, that fo great a Number of the Genuilet were come to the Knowledge of Chrift thro' my Minility, and that the Gentiler had received the Holy Golfwithout he Law and Circumcifion by the only Preaching of Faith, they glorified isoff or this forace which was given unto me.

He calleth Grace here whatfoever he had received of iod, to wit; that of a Perfecutor and Wafter of the Church e was made an Apolite, was taught by Jefus Chrift, and nriched with fpirrtual Gifts. And herewithal he thewth that Peter gave Telfinowny unto him, that he was a ue Apofile, fent and taught, not by himfelf nor by the her Apofile, fent and taught, not by himfelf nor by the digded the Minility and Authority of Paul, and the Gifts The Spirit which were in him, as heavenly Things, but 36 approved and confirmed the fame, and yet not as a

Verle 9. The Right-hands of Fellowship;

As if they fhould have faid, We (O Poul) in preaching the offel, do agree with thee in all Things. Therefore in Docime we are Companions, and have Fellowship together therein; that is

CHAP. II.

Paul and the other Apoftles taught all one Gofpel. is to fay, we have all one Dottrine, for we preach one Golpel, one Baptilm, one Chrift, and one Faith. Wherefore we can teach or enjoy nothing, fince there is one mutual Confent betwixt us in all Things. For we do not teach any other or more excellent Things then thou doft but the fame Giffs which we have. we fee to be in

Hitherto Paul hath proved by manifeft Witneß not only from God, but alfo from Man, that is to fay, the Apoftles, that he had truly and faithfully preached the Gofpel. Therefore he fheweth that whatfover the faife Apoftles fait to diminith his Authority, is but feigned and for-

Verfe 10. Only they would that we should remember the poor; the fame which I also was forward to do.

A good Minifter muft be careful for the Poor. After the Preaching of the Golpel, the Office and Charge of a true and faithful Pallor is, to be mindful of the Poor. ## Verfe 11. But when Peter was come to Antioch. I withfood him to the Face, because he was to be blamed.

Paul goeth on fill in his Confutation, faying, that he not only hath for his Defence the Teffimony of Peter and the other Apolles which were at Terufalem, but also that he withflood Peter in the Prefence of the whole Church of Antisch. He sheweth here a Matter, not done in a Corner, but in the Face of the whole Church. For ( as before I have faid ) he hath here no triffing Matter in Hand, but the chiefeft Article of all Chriftian Docrine. The Utility and the Majefty whereof who fo righty effeemeth, to him all other Things shall feem but vile and nothing worth. For what is Peter? What is Paul?

CHAP. II.

Verfe 12. But when they were come, he withdrew, and feparated himfelf, fearing them which were of the Circumcifion.

Here them we fee Peter's Offince, as Pad plainly fotteht it forth. Pad accude this line not of Malice or Ignorance, but of Diffimultion and Infimity, in that he abfined from Meats forbidden in the Law, fearing leaf the Jew which came from Jamus, should be offended thereby, and had more Refpect to the Jew than to the Gentiles. Hereby he gave Occasion, as much as in him was, to overthrow the Chriftian Liberty and Truth of the Colpel. For in that he did withdraw and utterly fee parate himfolf, ablaining from Meats forbidden in the Law ( which nowithfittanding he had each of before ) he minifitted 'a Scruple' of

What the believing Jews gathered of Peter's abstaining. Configurate to the Faithful, thus to gather upon his Example; Peter ablaineth from Meats forbidden in the Law; therefore he that eateth Meats forbidden in the Law; fin-neth and tranfgreffeth the Law; for elfe would not Peter have withdrawn himfelf. But becaufe he did fo; and of Purpofe refored those Meats which before he did at;

is a fure Argument that fuch as eat againft the Law do fin, and fuch as abftain from Meats which the Law forbiddeth, do keep the Law and are juffified thereby.

The Fact is one Thing, and the End thereof is another. Here note, that the End of this Fadt of P ster is reproved a Paul, and not the ratifield, for the Fadt in it fall was not evilt. To est and drink, or not to eat and drink is nothing, but the End that is, If thou eat thou finnelt, if thou abfrain thou art righteout, is evil. So Circumcifion of it fall is cool, but this End is evil, if thou be not circumcified after bood, but this End is set, if thou be not circumcified after the Law of  $M_0(x)$ , thou can host be faved. Also to can Meate prohibited in the Law, is not evil; but this shrinking and Dilimulation of Peter is evil. For it might be faid, Peter ablaineth from Meats forbiden in the Law, wherefore if thou, doft not likewise ablain, thou can no be faved. Verfe 13. And the other Jews difembled likewife with him; infomuch that Baunabas alfo was carried away with their Diffimulation.

Here you may plainly fee that Paul chargeth Peter with Diffimulation. If Peter diffembled, then did he certainly know what was the Truth and Dillimulation what it is. what was not. He that diffembleth finneth not of Ignorance, but deceiveth by a Colour which he knoweth himfelf to be falle. And the other (faith he) diffembled likewik with Peter, infometh that Barnabas allo (who was Pau's Companion, and had now a long Time preached among the Genilies, Faith in Chrift without the Law, together with Paul y was carried away with their Digitmulation. Ye have here then Peters Offence planty definited to be mere Diffimulation, which afterwards had been an Occation of the Ruin of the Golpel, then newly received, if Paul had not refilted him.

And this is a wonderful Matter, that God preferved the Church, being yet but young, and the Gofpel itfelf, by one only Perfon. Paul alone

So fometime one Man is able to do more in a Council than the whole Council befides, which Thing the Papifis themfilves do whiteff: and for Example they alledge + Papifism who withflood the whole Council of Nice ( which was the beft of all that were after the Council of the Apofiltes at Jang Jand overcime it.

This I fay, to the End that we flould differently learn the Article of Jofficiation, and make a plan Difference between the * Law and Goffel, and that in this Matter we should do nothing by Diffimulation, or give Place to any Man, if we will test in the Truth of the Goffel and Philh found and uncorrupt, which as I have faid are ison burt. Wherefore in this Cale away with Reafon, which is an it Enemy to Paith, which allo in Tentations of Sin and Death, leaneth not to the Righteoufnels of Paith ( for thereof it is utterly ignorant) but to her own Righteout nels, or at leaft, to the Righteoufnels of the Law. Now as foon as the Law and Reafon, And thefe twee feith her Virginity . For nothing fightent more frongly aweinf Paith than the Law and Reafon. And thefe

Thus the Gofpel cadeth us beyond and above the Light of the Law and Reafon, into the deep Secrets of Faith, where the Law and Reafon have nothing to do. Notwithstanding we must nearken alfo unto the Law, but in Place and Time, Mois while he was in the Mountain, where he talked with God Face to Face, had no Law, made no Law, ministred to Law: but when he was come down from the Mounsin, he was a Lawgiver, and governed the People by the aw. So the Confeience must be free from the Law, but he Body must be obedient to the Law.

CHAP. II.

This is a wonderful Example of fach excellent Men and Pillars of the Church. There is none but Paul that hath his Eyes open, and feeth

Peter knoweth not his Error, the Offence of Peter, of Barnabar and the other Jews which diffembled with Peter. On the other Side, they do not fee their own Offence, nay they rather think that they do well in bearing with the Infirmity of the weak Peus-Wherefore it was very neceflary that Paul floud reprove their Offrace and not diffemble it, and herefore he accufich Peter, Barnakas and othest, that they went not the right Way to the Truth of the Gofpel, that is to fay, they fwarved from the Truth of the Gofpel. It is a great Matter that Peter should be accufed of Paul as one that was fallen from the Truth of the Gofpel. The could not be more grievoully reprehended. Yet he fuffered it patiently, and no doubt but he gladly acknowledged his Offence. I faid before, that many have the Gofpel, but not the Truth of the Gofpel. For hair many have the Gofpel, but not the Truth of the Gofpel. So Paul faith here, that Peter, Barmakas and ather of the Jews went at the right Way to the Truth of the Gofpel, that is to fay, they had the Gofpel, but they walked not uprightly according to the Gofpel. For albeit they preached the Gofpel, yet thro' their Diffimation (which could not find) with the Truth of the Gofpel, they effabilithed the Law; but the effabilithing of the Law is the abolithing of the Gofpel.

Who fo then can rightly judge between the Law and the Gofpel let him thank God, and know that he is a right Divine. In the Time of

The Difference of the L,aw and the Gofpel ought moft diligently to be learned.

Tentation, I confess that I myfelf do not know how to do it as I cought. Now the Way to different the one from the other, is to place the Golpel in Heaven and the Law on the Earth; to call the Righteoufiels of the Gofiel heavenly, and the Righteoufiels of the Law earthly, and to put as great Difference between the Righteoufiels of the Golpel and of the Law, as God halt made between Heaven and Earth, between Light and Darknefs, between Dav and Nicht. Let the one is as the Light and the Day, and the other as the Darknefs and the Night. And would to God we could yet further feparate the one from the other. Wherefore if the Queftion be concerning the Matter of Faith or Confcience, let us utterly exclude the Law, and leave it on the Earth; but if we have to do with Works, then let us lighten the Lantern of Works and of the Righteoulnels of the Law. So let the Sun and the ineftimable Light of the Gofpel and Grace fhine in the Day, and the Lantern of the Law in the Night. Wherefore, if thy Confcience be terrified with the Senfe and Feeling of Sin, think thus with thyfelf, Thou art now remaining upon Earth, there let the Afs labour and travel, there let him ferve and carry the Burden that is laid upon him, that is to fay, let the Body with his Members be fubject to the Law. But when thou mounteft up into Heaven, then leave the Afs with his Burden upon the Earth; for the Confcience hath nothing to do with the Law, or Works, or with the earthly Righteousness. So doth the Afs remain in the Valley, but the Conficience afcendeth with Hace into the Mountain, knowing nothing at all of the Law or Works thereof, but only looking to the Remiflion of Sins and pure Righteoufnels offered and freely given unto us in Chrift.

If we mark well this Diffinction, neither the one nor the other finall pafs his Bounds, but the Law final abide without Heaven, that is, without the Heart and Conficience, and contrariwife the Liberty of the Golfel final abide without the Earth, that is to fay, without the Body and Members thereof. Now therefore, as foon as the Law and Sin come into Heaven, that is, into the Conficience, let them by and by be caft out.

For the Conficience being feared with the Terror of the Wrath and Judgment of God, ought to known nothing of the Law, and Sin, but of Chrift only. And on the other Side, when Grace and Liberty come into the Earth, that is, into the Body, then fay. Thou oughter has to dwell in the Dregs and Dunghil of this corporal Life, but thou belongent unto Heaven.

The Law hath nothing to do with the Confcience.

This Diffindion of the Law and the Gofpel Peter confounded the' bis Diffinulation, and thereby perforded the believing Jews that they mult be jultified by the Gofpel and the Law together. This might not Paul folfer, and therefore he reproved Peter; not to put hims to any Reproveh, but to the End that he might again effablish a plain Difference between thefe two; namely, that the Gofpel jultifieth in Heaven, and the Law on Petrot. The Pope hath — The Pope not only mixed the Law with the Gofpel, but allo of the mail Gofpel hath made mere Laws, yes and fuch as are eercmonial only. He hath allo confounded and mixed polifield and ecclefatilical Matters together, which is a devilih and hellik Confution.

This Place touching the Difference between the Law and the Goftel, is very neceffary to be known; for it containeth the Sum of all Chrifian Dochrine. Wherefore let all that love and fear Goft, diligently learn to differen the one from the other, not only in Words, but in Deed and in Preficie, that is to fay, in Heart and Confeiree.

For as touching the Words, the Diffindion is eafy, but The Goffel in Time of Temptation thuo fhalt find the Goffel but a Stranger in as a Stranger and a rare Gueft in thy Conficience; but Tentations; Alle Law contrariwife thou finalt find a familiar and contitual Dwaler within the s; for Reafon that the Knowledge continual of the Law naturally. Verfe 14. I faid unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, liveft after the Manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, Why compelleft thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

To live like That is to wit, thou art a Jew, and therefore thou art the Jews. bound to live like a Jew, that is, to abftain from Meats forbidden in the Law. Notwithighting thou lived like a Contile; that is to Gy, thou doft contary to the Law, and tranfgredieth the Law. For as a Gentile which is free from the Law, thou eated common and ancient Meats, and therein thou doft well. But in that thou being afraid at the Prefence of the Brothren converted from the Jewijk Religion, abilished from Meats forbidden in the Law, and keepelt the Law, thou compelled the Jewu likewife to keep the Law; that is, thous-confirment them of Neceffity to observe the Law. For in that thou obtained from profise Meats, thou gived Docafion to the Gentile such ceat, which he als lo hindle before did ext; therefore we

Peter thro' his Diffimulation, compelled the Gentiles to live like the Jews.

Things in- f different may not clog Mens Confeiences. ought likewife to avoid the fame, and to live after the Manner of the Jewig, otherwife we cannot be julified or faved. We feethen that Peal reproves hoot Ignorance in Pater (for he knew that he might freely eat with the Geniles all Manner of Meats) but Diffimulation, whereby he compellent the Geniles to live like the Jews.

Here I by again, that to live as the Jean, is not evil of itfelf, for it is a Thing indifferent either to eat Swines Field, or any other Meass. But fo to play the Jean, that for Conference Sale thou abiliantly from certain Meass, this is to deny Chrift and to overtirow the Gofpel. Therefore when Paul faw that Peter's A& tonded to this End, he withflood him and faid. Thou knowcft that the keeping of the Law is not necellary to Righteen ouffoeds, but that we are juffified only thro' Faith in Ghrift, and therefore thon keepeft not the Law, but tranfgrefield the Law and eateft all Manner of Meats. Notwithflanding by thy Example thou confirminent the Gentiles to forfake Chrift, and to return to the Law. For thou giveft them Occafion thus to think. Faith only is not fufficient to Righteoufnels, but the Law and Works are also required. And this Peter teacheth us by his Example. Therefore the Observation of the Law mult needs be joined with Faith in Chrift.

if we will be faved. Wherefore Peter by his Example Peter'sError is not only prejudicial to the Purity of Doctrine, but alfo to the Truth of Faith and Chriftian Righteoufnels. For the Gentiles received this of him, that the keeping of the Law was necellary to Righteoufnefs; which Error in Cafe it be admitted, then doth Chrift profit us nothing at all.

Hereby it plainly appeareth to what End this Difcord between Paul and Peter tendeth. Paul doth nothing by Diffimulation, but dealeth fincerely and goeth plainly to Work, Peter diffembleth, but his Diffimulation Paul reproveth. The Controverly was for the Maintenance of pure Doctrine, and the Verity of the Gofpel; and in this Quarrel Paul did not care for the Offence of any. In this Cafe all People and Nations, all Kings and Princes, all Judges and Magiftrates ought to give Place. Since then it is fo dangerous a Thing to have to do with the Law, and that this Fall was fo fudden and fo great as if it had been from Heaven above, even down into Hell, let every Chriftian diligently learn to differn between the Law and the Gofpel. Let them fuffer the Law to rule over the Body and Members thereof, but not over the Confcience. For the Queen and Spoule may Liberty of not be defiled with the Law, but muft be kept without Conficience. Spot for her only Husband Chrift, as Paul faith, 2 Cor.

si. 2. I have espoused you to one Husband, &c. Let the Conscience then have her Bride-chamber, not in the low Valley, but in the high Mountain, in the which let Chrift ly and there rule and reign, who doth not terrify and afflict Sinners, but comforteth them, pardoneth their Sins and faveth them. Wherefore let the afflicted Confcience think upon nothing, know nothing, fet nothing against the Judgment of God, but the Word of Chrift, which is the Word of Grace, of Remillion of Sins, of Salvation and everlafting Life. But this to perform in Deed, is a hard Matter. For Man's before faith of himfelf in Chapter i. 14. Being more exceedingly zealous of the Traditions of my Fathers. Wherefore if we be compared to the Gentiles, we are no Sinners; we are not without the Law, and without Works like unto the Gentiles ; but we are Tews born, we are born rightcons and brought up in Righteoufnefs. Our Righteoufnefs beginneth even with our Birth, for the Tewif Religion is natural unto us. For God commanded Abraham to circumcife every Man Child the eight Day, Gen. xvii, 10. This Law of Circumcifion received from the Fathers, Males afterward confirmed. It is a great Matter therefore that we are Fews by Nature. Notwithstanding, altho' we have this Pretogative, that we are righteous by Nature, born to the Law and the Works thereof, and are not Sinners as the Gentiles, yet are we not therefore righteous before God.

Hereby it is evident that Paul speaketh not of Ceremonies, or of the ceremonial Law, as fome do affirm, but of a far weightier Matter, namely, of the Nativity of the Jews whom he denieth to be righteous, altho' they be born holy, be circumcifed, keep the Law, have the Adoption, the Glory, the Covenant, the Fathers, the true Worthip, God, Chrift, the Promiles, live in them and glory in the fame : As they fay, John viii. 33, 41. We be Abraham's Seed, alfo we have one Father, even God. And in Rom. ii. 17. Behold, thou art called a Jew, and refleft in the Law, &cc. Wherefore, altho' Peter and the other Apolites were the Children of God, righteous according to the Law, the Works and the Righteoufnels thereof, Circumcifion, the Adoption, the Covenants, the Promifes, the Apoltle-ftified and faved. This was not to be fuffered of Paul. For without Faith all Things are deadly. The Law, Circumcifion, the Adoption, the Temple, the Worthip of God, the Promifes, yea God and Chrift himfelf without Faith profiteth nothing. Paul therefore fpeaketh generally against all Things which are contrary to Faith, and

forver is not Grace, is the Law, whether it be judicial, coremonial, or the ten Commandments. Wherefore if thou could do do the Works of the Law according to this Commandment, Thea (balt lowe the Lard thy God with all thy heart, &c. (which no Man yet ever did or could do ) yet thou fhauldfin to be julified before God; for a Man is not julified by the Works of the Law. But hereof we will fpeak more largely hereafter.

The Work of the Law then, according to Paul, fignifieth the Work of the whole Law, whether it be judicial, ceremonial on moral. Now, if the Work of the moral Law, do not julify, much lefs doth Gircumeifion julify, which is a Work of the ceremonial Law. Wherefore, when Paul faith (as he oftentimes doth) that a Mani is not julified by the Law, or by the Work of the Law, which are both one) he fpeakent generally of the whole Law, fetting the Righteoinfest of Faith, again the Righteoonfied of the whole Law. For by the Righteofnels of the Law (faith he) a Man is not pronounced rightcous before God: But the Righteonefs of Faith God imputent freely thro' Grace, for Chrift's Sike. The Law (no doub) is holy, rightcous and good, and confequently the Works of the Law are holy, rightcous and good, yet notwithlanding a Man is not julified thereby before God.

Now, the Works of the Law may be done either before julification or after, There were many good Men even among the Paguas, as Xemphin, Arifides, Fabius, Cizero, Pemponius, Atticus, and others, which before julifiacation performed the Deads of the Law, und did notable Works. But when Grace is obtained, the Work following deferveth everlaiting Life of due Debt and Worthinefs, which they call meritum de Condigno. As for Example, If a Man being in deadly Sin, without Grace, do a good Work of his own good natural Inclination ; that is, If he fay or hear a Mafs, or give Alms, and fuch like, this Man of Congruence deferveth Grace. When he hath thus obtained Grace, he doth now a Work which of Worthiness deferveth everlasting Life. For the first, God is no Debtor; but because he is just and good, it behoveth him to approve fuch a good Work tho it be done in deadly Sin, and to give Grace for fuch a Service. But when Grace is obtained. God is become a Debtor, and is constrained of Right and Duty to give eternal Life. For now it is not only a Work of Free-will, dono according to the Subflance, but also done in Grace, which maketh a Man acceptable unto God, that is to fay, in Charity.

The Doctrine of the Papifls blafphemous againft Chrift and hisRighteoufnefs.

This is the Divinity of the Antichriftian Kingdom, which here I recite to the End that the Diputation of Paul may be the better underflood, (for too contrary Thingsbeingflet together may be the better known:) And moreover that all Men may be choose far from the Truth thefe Blind-guides, and Leaders of the Blind have wandred, and hav bythiswicked and bligfhermous Dootrine they have notonly darkned the Goffel, buthavetaken ic lean asway, and burged Chrift uterly. For if Debindendly Sin can

Grace of Congraence, and when I have received Grace, I may do Works according to Grace, that is to fay, according to Charity, and get of Right and Davy eternal Life. What Need have I now of the Grace of God, for Forgivenefs of $$ins, of the Promife, and of the Death and Vidgory of Chrift ? Chrift is now to me unprofitable, and his Benefit of none Effect; for I have Free-will and Prover to do good Works, whereby I defirve Grace of Congruence, and afterwards by the Worthinels of my Work, eternal Life.

Wherefore we must properly and plainly define what a wicked Man ot a deadly Sinner is. He is fuch a holy and a bloody Hypotrite as Peal was when he went to *Danaf*cut, to perfecture Jefus of Nazareth, to abolifn the Doctrine of the Golipel, to marder the Faithful, and utterly

Yet could not Paul fee them : For he was fo blinded with a perverif Zeat of God, that be thought thefe Abominations to be perfect Rightcoulfnefs and high Service unto God ; And thall we fay that fuch as defend thefe horrible Sins to be perfect Rightcouling's, do deferve Grace?

Wherefore with Paul, we utterly deny the Merit of Congruence and Worthinels, and affirm that these Speculations are nothing else but mere Deceits of Satan, which were never done indeed, nor nutified by any Examples. For God never gave to any Man Grace and eventiling Life for the Merit of Congruence of Worthinefs. Thele Difputations therefore of the School-men touching the Merit of Congruence and Worthinefa, are nothing elfe but vain Toys and Dreams of del Brains, to no other End and Purpole but to draw Men from the true Worthip of God. And hereuspon is the whole Papicg grounded. For there is no religious Perfon, but he haft this Imagination; I am able by the Obfervation of my holy Order to deferce Grace of Con-

The true Way to Christianity.

N OW the true Way to Chriftianity, is this, that a Man do first acknowledge himfelf by the Law, to be a Sinner, and that it is impossible for him to do any good Work. For the Law faith faith, Thou art an evil Tree and therefore all that thou thinkelf, freakelf, or doft is againft God. Thou canft not therefore deferve Grace by thy Works, which if thou go about to do, thou doubleft thy Offence; for fince thou art an evil Tree, thou canft not but bring forth evil Fruits, Matth. vii. 17, that is to fay Sins. For what/sever is not of Eath is 15m, Rom. xiv. 23. Wherefore he that would deferve Grace by Works going before Faith, goth about to leafe God with Sins which is nothing elle but to heap Sin upon Sin, to mock God, and to provoke his Wrath. When a Man is thus tageint and influrded by the Law, then is he terrified and humbled, then he feeth indeed the Greatefs of his Sin, and cannot find in himfelf one Spark of the Love of God; therefore he julifiesh God in his Word, and confeitshubt he is gully of Death and eternal Damnation. The fird! Part then of Chrifianity is the preaching of Repentance, and the Knowledge of ourfleves.

The fecond Part is the preaching of the Forgivenefs of Sins.

He was crucified and died for thee and offered up thy Sins in his own Body. Here is no Conguence or Work done before Grace, but Wrath, Sin, Terror, and Death. Wherefore the Law doth nobling file but utter Sin, terrify and humble, and by this Means prepareh us to Jufilization, and driveth us to Chrift. For God hath revealed unto us by his Word, that he will be unto us a merciful Falter, and without our Deferts (fecing

The Meritmongers take from Godthe Glory of his Godhead. God giveth his Giffs freely unto all Men, and that is the Praife and Glory of his Divinity. But the Jufichtries and Merit-mongres will not receive Grace and everlafting Life of him freely, but will deferve the fame by their own Works. For this Gaufe they would uterfly take from him the Glory of his Divinity. To the End therefore that he may maintain and defend the fame, he is confirmined to fend his Law before, which as a light-

But here left they fhould feem to avouch contrary Things, they make a Difindition, and fay, that the Law is fulfilled two Manner of Ways: Firfl, According to the Subflance of the Deed. Thus we by a contrary Way, do drive Men from the Merit of Congruence and Worthinefs. Now, when a Man is humbled by the Law, and brought to the Knowledge of himfelf, then followeth true Repentance, ( for true Repentance beginneth at the Fear and Judgment of God ) and he feeth himfelf to be fo great a Sinner, that he can find no Means how he may be delivered from his Sin by his own Strength. Here then cometh in good Time the healthful Word of the Gofpel, and preaching of faith, Son, be of good Cheer, thy Sins be forgiven theer Matth. ix. 2. believe in Chrift Jefus crucified for thy Sins, If thou feel thy Sins and the Burden thereof, look not upon them in thyfelf, but remember that they are translated and laid upon Chrift, whole Stripes have made thee whole, Ifa. lin. 5.

This the beginning of Health and Salvation. By this Means we are delivered from Sin, jultified and made Inheritors of everlafting Life, not for our own Works and Deferts, but for our Faith, whereby we lay hold upon Chrift. Wherefore we alfo do acknowledge a Quality and a formal Righteoufnels in the Heart : Not Charity (as the Sophifters do) but Faith, and yet fo notwithstanding, that the Heart must behold and apprehend nothing but Chrift the Saviour. And here it is neceffary that you know the true Definition of Chrift. The Schoolmen being utterly, ignorant hereof, have made Chrift a Judge and a Tormentor, deviling this fond Fantafy concerning the Merit of Congruence and Worthinefs.

Chrift is no. Law-giver.

But Chrift, according to his true Definition, is not Law-giver, but a Forgiver of Sins, and a Saviour. This doth Faith apprehend and undoubtedly believe, that he hath wrought Works and Merits of Congruence and Worthine's before and after Grace abundantly. For he might have fatisfied for all the Sins of the World by one only Diop of his Blood but now he hath fled it plentifully, and hath fatisfied abundantly. B his own Blood he entred in once into the holy Place, having obtained eterna Redemption for us, Heb. ix. 12. Also, Being justified freely by bit Grace, show the Redemption that is in Jefus Chrift: Whom God hat fet forth to be a Propitiation, thro' Faith in his Blood, Rom. iii. 24 25. Wherefore it is a great Matter, by Faith to lay hold upon Chrif

one. And whofoever shall be found having this Confidence in Chrift prehended in the Heart, him will God account for righteous. This the Mean, and this is the Merit whereby we attain the Remiffion of as and Righteoufnefs. Becaufe thou believeft in me. faith the Lord, d thy Faith layeth hold upon Chrift, whom I have freely given unthee that he might be thy Mediator and High-Priefl, therefore be ou justified and righteous. Wherefore God doth accept or account as righteous, only for our Faith in Chrift.

And this Acceptation or Imputation is very neceffary: If, Becaule we are not yet perfectly righteous, but whiles remain in this Life, Sin dwelleth ftill in our Flefh ; and s Remnant of Sin God purgeth in us. Moreover we are fometimes t of the Holy Ghoft and fall into Sins, as did Peter, buid and other holy Men. Notwithstanding we have ways Recourfe to this Article, that our Sins are coverand that God will not lay them to our Charge, Plal. xii. 1. and Rom. iv. 7. Not that Sin is not in us the Pupilts have taught, faving, that we must be albys working well until we feel that there is no Guilt of a remaining in us; ) yea, Sin is indeed always in us, d the Godly do feel it, but it is covered and is not imputed unto us God for Chrift's Sake: whom becaufe we do apprehend by Faith, all Sinsare now no Sins. But where Chrift and Faith be not, there is Remiflion or Covering of Sins, but mere Imputation of Sins and Conmnation. Thus will God glorify his Son, and will be glorified him-Fin us thro' him.

When we have thus taught Faith in Chrift, then do teach alfo good Works ; becaufe thou haft laid hold on Chrift, by Faith, thro' whom thou art made righte-Begin now to work well, love God, and thy Neighar, call upon God, give Thanks unto him, praife him, afels him. These are good Works indeed, which flow of this Faith and this Cheerfulness conceived in the art, for that we have Remiffion of Sins freely by Chrift.

The Doctrine of good Works muft be taught after the Doctrine of Faith.

Now, what Crofs or Affliction foever do afterwards infue; they are y ly born, and cheerfully fuffered. For the Yoke that Chrift laycth ion us, is fweet, and his Burden is eafy, Matth. xi. 20. When Sin inardoned, and the Confcience delivered from the Burden and Sting isin, then may a Chriftian bear all Things eafily ; because he feeleth Things within fweet and comfortable, therefore he doth and fuffereth all lings willingly. This Truft and this Confidence maketh film the Child of God, and Heir of his Kingdom; for in Hope he polf-fileth alneady everlafting Life, silfured unto him by Fromfie. Throf Faith in Chrift, therefore all Things are given unto us, Grace, Peace, Forgivenels of Sites, Salvation, and everlations Life, and not for the Merit of Comercence and Worthinefs.

Wherefore this Dockrine of the Schoolmen, with their Ceremonies, Maffes, and infinite Foundations of the Papilical Kngolom, are modishommable Blafphemies againf God, Sacriledges and plain Denisls of Chrilt, as Peter hath fore-told in the Works, Three flatt be (faith the) fulle Teachers among you: who privatly flatt bring in domable Hereflet, even damping the Lord that bagdot them, Sec. 2 Pet. ii. 1. As the' he would fay. The Lord that he desemd and bought us with his Blood, that he might juftify and fave us; this is the Way of Righteoutines and Sulvation. But there fhall come fulle Teachers, which denying the Lord, thall blafpheme the Way of Truth, of Righteoutines, and Salvation, they full find out new Ways of Palhboot and Defruction, and many fhall follow their damnable Ways. The Papacy Peter throughout this whole Chapter moft lively paintent out the Papacy, which neglecting and defpiling the Gofpel and Faith in Chrift, hath taught the Works and Traditi-

tions of Men; as the Merit of Congruence and Worthinefs, the Diffetence of Daya, Meats, Vows, Invocations of Saints, Folgrinages. Purgatory, and fuch like. In thefe Phantafical Opinions the Papfli are to nulled, that it is impofible for them to underfland one Syllable of the Golder, of Faith, or of Chrift.

And this the Thing itfelf doth well declare. For they take that Priviledge unto themfelves which belongsth uno Chrift alone. He only forgive the Sins, he only given Righteoufnels and evertaffing Life; and they molt impadently and wickelly do vaunt that they are able to eotain thefe Things by their own Merits and Worthineis before and after Grace. This faith Peter and the other Apolles; is to bring in damaable Horefies and Seets of Perdition. For by thefe Means they deny Chrift, tread his Blood under their Feet, blafpheme the Holy Ghoff, and delpife the Grace of God. Wherefore no Man can futficiently conceive how horrible the Idolatry of the Papills This. As ineffimable as the Gift is which is offered unto us try by Chrift, even fo and no lefs abominable are thefe Prophanations of the Papills. Wherefore they ought not to for Money, it might profit others. For he faith that the Maffing Prieft an Apoltata, denving Chrift and blafoheming the Holy Gholt, flanding at the Altar, doth a good Work, not only for himfelf, but alfo for others both Quick and Dead, and for the whole Church, and that only by the Work wrought, and by no other Means.

Wherefore even by this we may plainly fee the ineftimable Patience of God, in that he hath not long ago destroyed the whole Papacy, and confumed it with Fire and Brimthone, as he did Sodom and Gamorrah. But now thefe jolly Fellows go about, not only to cover, but highly to advance their Impiety and Filthinefs. This we may in no Cafe diffemble. We must therefore with all Diligence for forth the Article of Justification, that as a most clear Sun, it may bring to Light the Darknefs of their Hypocrify, and difcover their Filthinefs and Shame. For this Caufe we do fo often repeat, and fo earneftly fet forth the Righteoufnefs of Faith, that the Adverfaries may be confounded, and this Article eftablished and confirmed in our Hearts. And moft horrible it is that the Pope should ever be able to bring this to pass in the Church, that Chrift fhould be denied, troden under Foot, fpit upon, blafphemed, yea, and that even by the Gofpel and Sacraments, which he hath fo darkned, and hath turned into fuch an horrible Abufe, that he hath made them to ferve him against Christ, for the stablishing and confirming of his deteltable Abominations. In this Matter therefore we do generally cut off all Laws and all the Works of the Law.

But the Law is good, juft and holy. True it is. But when we are in the Matter of Jultification, there is no Time or Place to fpeak of the Law; but the Oueffion is, what Chrift is, and what Benefit he hath brought unto us. Chrift is not the Law, he is not my Work, or the Work of the Law, he is not my Charity, my Obedience, my Foverty, but he is the Lord of Life and Death, a Mediator, a Saviour, a Redeemer of those that are under the Law and Sin, in him we are by Faith, and he in us. This Bridegroom muft be alone with the Bride in his fecret, Chamber, all the Servants and Family being put apart. But afterwards, when the Door is open and he cometh forth, then let the Servants and Hand-maidens return to minister unto them, then let Charity do her Office, and let good Works be done.

We must learn therefore to difcern all Laws, yes even the Law of God, and all Works, from the Promife of the Gofpel, and from Faith, that we may define Chrift rightly. For Chrift is no Law, and therefore he is no Exactor of the Law and Works, but he is the Lamb of God. which taketh away the Sin of the Workd, John i. 29. This doth Faith alone lay hold of, and not Charity, which notwithstanding, as a certain Thankfulness must follow Faith. Wherefore Victory over Sin and Death, Salvation and everlafting Life come not by the Law nor by the Works of the Law, nor yet by the Power of Free-will, but by the Lord Jefus Chrift only and alone.

Faith only juftificth.becaule it only taketh hold of the Benefit of Chrift.

Verse 16. That we might be justified by the Faith of Chrift, and not by the Works of the Law :

CHAP. IJ.

Paul fneaketh of the whole Law.

Paul fpeaketh not here of the ceremonial Law only (as before we have faid) but of the whole Law : For the ceremonial Law was as well the Law of God as the moral Law was. As for Example, Circumcifion, the In-flitution of the Prieft-hood, the Service and Ceremonies of the Temple, were as well commanded of God as the ten Commandments. Moreover, when Abraham was commanded to offer up his Son Ifaac in Sacrifice, Gen. xv. 6. it was a Law. This Work of Abraham pleafed God no lefs than other Works of the ceremonial Law did, and yet was he not juffified by this Work, but by Faith; for the Scripture faith. Abraham believed Gotl, and it was counted to him for Righteou/ne/s, Rom. iv. 2.

But fince the revealing of Chrift (fay they) the ceremonial Law killeth and bringeth Death. Yea, fo doth the Law of the ten Commandments alfo, without Faith in Chrift. Moreover, there may no Law be fuffered to reign in the Confcience, but only the Law of the Spirit and Life, whereby we are made free in Chrift from the Law of the Letter and of Death, from the Works thereof, and from all Sins: Not becaufe the Law is evil, but for that it is not able to juftify us; for it hath a plain contrary Effect and Working. It is an high and an excellent Matter to be at Peace with God, and therefore in this Cafe we have need of a far other Mediator then Moles or the Law. Here we must do nothing at all, but only receive the Treafure which is Chrift, and apprehend him in our Hearts by Faith, altho' we feel ourfelves to be never fo full of Sin. These Words. therefore of the Apostle. That we might be justified by the Faith of Chrift, and not by the Works of the Law, are very effectual, and not in vain or unprofitable, as the Schoolmen think, and therefore they pafs them over fo lightly.

Hitherto ye have heard the Words of Paul, which he fpake unto Peter, wherein he hath briefly comprised the principle Article of all Chriftian Doctrine, which maketh true Chriftians indeed. Now he turneth to the Galatians, to whom he writeth, and thus he concludeth, Since it is fo that we are justified by Faith in Chrift, then by the Works of the Law shall no Flesh be justified.

Flefk therefore, according to Paol fignifieth all the Righteoufnefs, Wifdom, Devotion, Religion, Underitanding and Will that is pollible to be in a natural Man; to that if a Man be never for righteous according to Reafon and the Law of God, yet with all this Righteoufnefs, Works, Merits, Devotion and Religion, he is not julified.

This the Papills do not believe, but being blind and T obfinate, they defend their Abominations againft their own Confcience, and continue fill in this their Blafphe-Pmy, having in their Mouths thefe excrable Words; He to him we affaredly promife everlafting Life. It cannot be uttered what an horrible Blafphermy it is to attribute that to the Ducfrine of Devils, to the Ducrees and Ordinances of Men, to the wicked Traditions of the Pope, to the hypocritical Works and Merits of Monkins and Friers, which Paul the Apolle of Chrift taketh from the Law of God. For if no Fleh be judified by the Works of the Law, much lefs fhall it be judified by the Rule of Benedid, Francis, or Augufine, in the which there is not one Jot of true Faith in Chrift, but this ooly they teach, that whofoever keepeth their Things hash Life everlafting.

Wherefore I have much and often marvelled, that these Sects of Perdition reigning for many Years in for great Darknels and Errors, the Church could endure and continue as it hath done. Some there were whom God called by the Text of the Golpel and by Bantifm. Thefe walked in Simplicity and Humblenels of Heart, thinking the Monk and Frierr, and fuch only as were anoined of the Bifhops to be religious and holy, and themfelves to be profane and fecular, and not worthy to be compared unto them. Wherefore they finding in themfelves no good Works to fet againft the Wrath and Judgment of God, did fly to the Death and Paffion of Chrift, and were faved in this Simplicity.

Horrible and unfpeakable is the Wrath of God, in that he hath to long Time punihed the Contempt of the Golpel and Chrift in the  $P_a$ -

So God purifying Sim with Sin, Inwardly gave them over unto a reprobate Mind, and outwardly fuffered them to fall into fuch horrible Abominations, and that julify, becaufe they blafphemed the only Son of God, in whom the Pather would be glorified, and whom he deliverel to Deach, that all which believe in him, might be fryed by him, and not by their own execrable Rales and Orders. Him that homoureth me (fuith he) Juni dhemor, 1 Sam. it. 30. Men, and the Works of the Law do far excel, even the molt glorious Will-works of all the Meritmongers; and yet Paul faith, that neither the Law not the Works of the Law do juffig. Therefore we conclude with Paul, that Faith only juffifieth. This Propolition he goth about to conline in this Manger.

Verle 17. But if while we feek to be justified by Christ, we ourfelves also are found Sinners, Is therefore Christ the Minister of Sin? God forbid.

The fgrfd Ar-If this be true (faith be) that we are jufficid by Chrift, gument in be julified by the Law. On the contrary, if this be not true, but that we mail be julified by the Law and the works of the Law. it is then impatible that we fhould be julified by Chrift. One of thefe two muft needs be field. Either we are not juified by Chrift, or wa are not julified by the Law. But the Truth is that we are julified by Chrift, therefore we are not julified by the Law. He realoneth therefore after this Manner, Bat if while we feet to be julified by Chrift, &c. That is, if we feet to be julified by the U. It to be julified at yet found Sinner, Bat if while we feet to be julified by Bing Sinner; if we have need (I fay) of the Obfervation of the Law to julify us being Sinner; if we have need (I fay) of the Obfervation of the Law to julify us, for that they which are rightedus in Chrift are not righteoux, but have yet need of the Lawato julify them; or, if he that is julified by Chrift mult yet further be julified by the Law, then is Chrift nothing elfe but a Law-giver, and a Minilter of Sin. Therefore he that is julified and holy in Chrift, is not julified or holy, but hath yet need of the Righreoundes and Holmeis of the Law.

VERSE 17.

But we are indeed juffified and made righteous in Chrift: for the Truth of the Gofpel teacheth us that a Man is not juffified in the Law. but in Chrift. Now, if they which are justified in Chrift are yet found Sinners that is, do yet fill belong to the Law, and are under the Law, (as the falfe Apoffles teach) then are they not yet juffified; for the Law accufeth them, and floweth them to be yet Sinners, and requireth of them the Works of the Law as necessary to their Jultification. Therefore they that are juffied in Chrift, are not juffified : And fo it followeth that Chrift is not a Juffifier, but a Minister of the Law.

With these Words he vehemently chargeth the false Apostles and all Meritmongers, that they pervert altogether; for they make of the Law, Grace, and of Grace the Law, of Moles Chrift, and of Chrift Moles. For they teach, that befides Chrift and all the Righteoufnefs of Grace. Chrift, the Observation of the Law is necessary to Juffifi-

cation. And thus we fee that by their intolerable Perverfenefs, they make the Law Chrift ; for by this Means they attribute that to the Law. which properly belongeth unto Chrift. If thou do the Works of the Law (fay they) thou fhalt be faved; but if thou do them not, thou fhalt not be juftified, altho' thou do believe in Chrift never fo much. Now, if it be fo that Chrift fuffifieth not, but is the Minister of Sin (as it needs muft follow by their Doctrine ) then is Chrift the Law : for we have nothing elfe of him (fecing he teacheth that we are Sinners ) than that we have by the Law. So Chrift being the Minister of Sin. fendeth us to the Law and Mofes, as to our Justifier.

It cannot be therefore but that the Papifts, and all fuch as are ignorant of the Righteoufness of Chrift, or have not the true Knowledge thereof, must needs make of Christ Moles and the Law, and of the Law, Chrift, for thus they teach. It is true (fay they) that Faith in Chrift justifieth, but withal we must needs keep the Commandments of God. For it is written, If thou wilt enter into Life, keep the Commandments, Matth. xix. 17. Here even at the first Dash, Chrift is denied and Faith abolished, because that is attributed to the Commandments of God, or to the Law, which belongeth to Chrift alone. For Chrift, according to his true Definition, is a Juftifier and a Redeemer from Sins. If I attribute this to the Law, then is the Law my Juffifier, delivering me from my Sins, becaufe I do the Works thereof; and fo now the Law is Chrift, and Chrift utterly lofeth his Name, his Office and Glory, and is nothing elfe but a Minifler of the Law, reproveth, acculing, terrifying, prefenting, and fending the Sinner to another that may juffify him, which is the proper Office of the Law.

But the proper Office of Chrift is, after the Law hata pronounced a Man to be guilty, to raife him up again, and to loofe him from his Sins, if he believe the Gospel. For to all that do believe, Christ is the End of the Law for Righteou/nefs, Rom. x. 4. He is the Lamb of God that taketh away the Sins of the World, John i. 29. But the Papifts and Anabaptifts, because they understand not this Dochrine. do thing elfe but make Men, carelefs, idle and negligent. Thus are they become nothing elfe but Minifers of the Law, and Law-workers, calling back the People from Baptifm, Faith, the Promifes of Christ, to the Law and Works, turning Grace into the Law, and the Law into Grace.

The Difference of the Law and Grace is very eafy, but yet are they foon confounded and mixed together.

Who would ever believe that thefe Things could Ge eafily be confounded and mingled together? There is no Man fo infentible, which doth not perceive this Diffundion of the Law and Grace to be moll plain and manifelt. For the very Nature and Signification of the Words maketh this Diffundion and Difference. For who underflandeth not thefe Words, Law, and Graze, do differ in Name and Signification ? Wherefore it is a monitrous Thing, that this Diffunction plain, the Adverfaires flouid be for devillen and perverfa, as to mingle cogether the Law and Grace, and to transform Chrift into Misfer. Therefore 10 fortunes fav, that this Doftrine of Faith is very plain, and that every Man may eafily underfland this Diffinction of the Law and Grace as touching the Words, but as touching the Ufe and Practice, it is very hard.

The Pope confoundeth the Law and Grace together. The Psps and his School-Dodons do plainly confess that the Law and Grace are divers and dilinft Things, and yet when they come to the Ufe and Practice thereof, they teach clean contrary. Faith in Chrift (fay they ) whether it be gotten by the Strength, Operation and Qualities of Nature, or whether it be Faith infufed and poured into us of God, yet it is but a dead Faith, if Charity be not joined therewith. Where is now the Dillinfolion and Difference of the Law and Grace? Indeed they do diffinguith them in Name, but in Effect they call Grace Charity. Thus do all they which fo furgighty require the Obfervation of the Law, and attribute Juftification to the Law and Works. Wherefore whofever doth not perfectly underfland the Article of Juftification, muft needs confound and mingle the Law and Grace together.

Let every Man therefore diligently learn above all Things, to put a Difference between the Law and Grace in Deed and in Practifics, not in Words only, as the Pope and the Phantafical Anabapifit do, who as touching the Words, do confeit that they are two diffined Things: But in very Deed (as I have faid) they confound and mingle them together, for they will not grant that Faith juffifieth without Works. If his be true then Chrift profiteth me nothing. For tho' my Faith be sever fo perfect, yet after their Opinion, if this Faith be without Chaity, I am not juffified. And thus Chrift apprehended by Faith is not a Juffiter, Grace profiteth nothing, neither can Faith be true Faith without Christiv.

With this Doctrine thefe lying spinits and Sechs of Perlition do darken and deface the Benefit of Chrift at this Day; they take away from him the Glory of a Jultifier, and make him a Minifter of Sin; they are in all Things ike to the falk apolites. For even as they throughout II the Churches did require Circumcifion and the Obervation of the Law befices Faith in Chrift, informach hat without Circumcifion and keeping of the Law, they benied the fulfication of Faith, (for exceent ye be ciruncified, faid they, after the Law of  $M_0^2 r_s / yc$  cannot be faved ) een fo at this Day thefe ffrait Exactors of the Law, befields the Righsoufines of Faith, do require the keeping of the Commandments of Fod, according to that Saying. Do this, and thus fault live, Luke x. 8. Alfo, If thou will setter into Life, keep the Cosmachement, Matthiix, 7. Wherefore there is not one among them be he never fo wile, hat underflandth the Difference between the Law and Graze.

But we put a Difference, and fay, that we do not here difpute whener we cought to do good Works, whether the Law be good holy and with, whether it ought to be kept or no; for this is another Manner of Quefinen. But our Quefinen is concerning judification, and whether be Law do judify or no. This the Advertaries will not hear; they ill not antiver to this Queficion, nor make any Diffinction as we do, ut only cry out, that good Works ought to be doner that the Law ught to be obferved. We know that well enough. But becaule thefe re divers and diffield Matters, we will not fuffer them to be mingled agether. That good Works ought to be done, we will hereafter desare when Time thall ferve. But fince we are now in the Matter of ufficiation, we fit faide here all good Works, for the which the Adertaries do fo extendly fittive, afcribing unto them wholly the Office Fjulfifying, which is to take from Chrift his Glory, and to afcribe the me unto Works.

Wherefore this is a fitring Argument, which I have tentimes uled to my great Comfort: If then while we with the made righteaut by Chrift, &cc. As the? Paul ould fay, If we being julified by Chrift, arecounted yet not julified and righteoux, but as Simers which are at to be julified by the Law, then may we not feek Jufication in Chrift, but in the Law. But if luftification culpable and guilty thro' him. But if the Law do justify, then can it not be avoided, but needs it must follow, that we are made Sinners thro' Chrift, and fo Chrift is a Minister of Sin. The Cafe standing thus, let us then fet down this Proposition. Every one that believeth in the Lord Jefus Chrift is a Sinner, and is guilty of eternal Death, and if he fly not unto the Law, doing the Works thereof, he shall not be faved.

The Holy Scripture, efpecially the New Teltament maketh often Mention of Faith in Chrift, and highly advanceth the fame, which faith. that whofoever believeth in him, is faved, perifheth not, is not judged, is not confounded, hath eternal Life, &c. John iii. 16. But contrariwife they fay, he that believeth in him is condemned, Oc. John v. 24. becaufe he hath Faith without Works, which doth coudemn. Thus do they pervert all Things, making of Chrift a Deftroyer and a Murderer. and of Moles a Saviour. And is not this an horrible Blafohemy, fo to 16 teach that by good Works thou thalt be made worthy of eternal Life, but by believing in Chrift thou shalt be made culpable and guilty of eternal Death ? That the Law being kept and accomplished faveth, and Faith in Chrift condemneth ?

trine of the Papills.

The felf fame Words ( I grant ) the Adverfaries do ha not ufe, but in very deed fuch is their Doctrine. For the Faith infufed ( fay they ) which properly they call Faith the in Chrift, doth not make us free from Sin, but that Faith the which is furnished with Charity. Hereof it followeth that Faith in Chrift without the Law fayeth us not. This m. is plainly to affirm that Chrift leaveth us in our Sins and in the Wrath of God, and maketh us guilty of eternal in Death. On the other Side, if thou keep the Law and do the Works thereof, then Faith juffifieth thee, becaufe it hath Works, without the which Faith availeth nothing. Therefore Works jultify and not Faith. O horrible Impiety ! What pernicious and curfed Doctrine is this !

Paul therefore groundeth his Argument upon an Impoffibility, and a fufficient Division. If we being justified in Chrift are yet found Sinners, and caunot be juffified by another Mcan then by Chrift, that is, to wit, by the Law, then cannot Chrift juffify us, but he only accufeth and condemneth us, and to confequently it followeth that Chrift died in vain, and that these with other like Places are falle, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the Sin of the World, John i. 29. altogether, feeing they make nothing elfe but a vain Quality in the ioul, which without Chrift availeth nothing ? Why do they not fay in plain Words, that Works do juffify and not Faith? Yea, why do they not generally deny, not only Paul, but also the whole Golpel ( as in very Deed they do) which attribute Righteoufnels to Works, and not o Faith alone ? ### Verse 17. Is therefore Christ the Minister of Sin?

This is a Kind of Speech used of the Hebrews, which Paul in the Car. jii. doth alfo use : Where he most divinely and plainly speaketh f thefe two Ministeries: to wit, of the Letter and the

Now, a Minister of Sin is nothing elfe but a Law-giver, or a Schoolafter of the Law, which teacheth good Works and Charity, and that Man must fuffer the Crofs and Afflictions, and follow the Example of hrift and of the Saints. He that teacheth and requireth this, is a Mifter of the Law, of Sin, of Wrath, and of Death ; for by this Doctrine doth nothing elfe but terrify and afflict Mens Confci-ices and thut them under Sin. CHAP. H.

To be under Law. For the Law requireth perfect Obedience unto the Law. God, and condemneth all those that do not accomplish the fame. Now it is certain, that there is no Man living which is able to perform this Obedience, which notwithfanding God ftraightly requireth of us : The Law therefore justifieth not, but condemneth, according to that Saying, Curfet is every one that continueth not in all Things which are written in the Book of the Law to do them. Gal. iii. 10. Therefore he that teacheth the Law is a Minister of the Law.

The Miniftry of the Law, is the Ministry of Sin.

Wherefore it is not without good Caufe that Paul in the 2 Cor, iii, calleth the Ministry of the Law the Miniftry of Sin ; for the Law fheweth and uttereth Sin, which without the Law is dead. Now, the Knowledge of Sin (I fneak not here of that fpeculative Knowledge of Hypocrites, but of a true Knowledge, by the which we fee the Wrath of God againft Sin, and feel a true Tafte of Death) terrifieth the Heart, driveth down to Desperation, killeth and deftroyeth, Rom. vii. Wherefore these School-masters of the Law and Works, are called in the Scripture Oppreffors and Tyrants. For as the Task-maffets in Egypt did opprefs the Children of Ifrael with corporal Servitude, Exod, v. fo do thefe Law-givers and Task-mafters drive Men into foiritual and most miferable Bondage of Soul, and at length bring them to Defperation and utter Deftruction. These do neither know themselves nor the Force of the Law; neither is it pollible for them to have Quietness and Peace of Confcience in great and inward Terrors, and in the Agony of Death, yea tho' they have observed the Law, loved their Neighbours, done many good Works, and fuffered great Afflictions ; for the Law always terrifieth and acculeth, faying, Thou never didft accomplifh all that is commanded in the Law; but accurfed is he that hath not done all Things contained therein. Wherefore these Terrors remain fill in the Confcience and increase more and more. And if fuch School-mafters of the Law be not raifed up by Faith and the Righteoufness of Chrift, they are driven down headlong to De-

The Hiftory of the publifhing of the Law.

This alfo was notably figured when the Law was given, as we may fee in the xix and xx of Exadus, Mofes brought the People out of the Tents to meet with the Lord, that they might hear him fpeak unto them out of the dark Cloud. Then the People being aftonished and

To conclude, if the Law be the Ministry of Sin, then is it also the inistry of Wrath and of Death. For as the Law revealeth Sin, doth it terrify a Man, it sheweth unto him his Sin and the Wrath God, and thriketh into him a Terror of Death and ministion. For thus the Confidence by and by gestreth : Thou haft not kept the Commandments of od, therefore is God angry with thre. If he be an-W with these he will delively these and condemn these for er. And it thinkent this to be an infillable. Conuence, I have finned therefore I mult die. And toolloweith that the Miniftry of Sin is the Miniftry of rath and Condemnation. For after that Sin is revealby and by enfuent the Wrath of God, Death and minition. And hereof it content that many which are able to bear the "udgment and Wrath of God, which Law fetteth before their Eyes, do kill, hang, or drown miclives.

But the Believers ( $\sin h Pau$ ) have another School-mafter in their Confeiences, not  $My_{Cr}$ , but Chrift, which hath abolithed the Law and Sin, hath overcome the Wrath of God, and defired Poeth. For Chrift our Influedor is Lord over the Law, Sin and Death ; fo that they which, believe in him, are delivered from the fame. It is therefore the proper Office of Chrift to deliver from Sin and Death, And this Paul teacheth and repareth every where.

We are condemned and killed by the Law, but by Chrift we are juflifted and reftored to Life. The Law aftonifheth us, and driveth us from God : But Chrift reconcileth to God and maketh for us an *nterance, that we may boldly come unto him. For he is the Lamb of God that hat taken away the Sins of the World. Now, if the Sin of the Chrift hath taken away all Evils and hath brought unto us all good Things. World be taken away, then is it taken away from me alfo which do believe in him. If Sin betaken away, then is the Wrath of God, Death and Dammation taken away alfo And in the Place of Sin fuccedeth Righteoufnels, in the Place of Wrath, Reconciliation and Grace, in the Place of Death, Life, and in the Place of Dammation, Salvation. Let us learn to praclife this Dillingtion, not in World only. but in Life and lively Experience, and with an inward Peeling: For where Chrift is, there muft needs be Joy of Heart and Peace of Confeience; for Chrift is our Reconciliation, Rightcurdnels, Peace, Life and Salvation. Briefly, whatloever the poor affiided Confeience defireth, it findleth in Chrift abundantly. Now Paul goeth about to amplify this Argument and to performed as followeth.

Verse 18. For if I build again the Things which I destroyed, I make myself a Transgressor.

As if he fhould fay, I have not pseached to this Ead that I might build again those Things which I once delitoyed : For if I fhould for do. I thould not only labour in vain, but fhould make mytelf alto a Tranfgraffor, and overthrow all together, as the falle Apolles do, that is to from which thou canft be delivered either by Men or Angels. But now cometh the Golpel and preacheth unto thee Remiffion of Sins by Jefus Chrift who hath abolifhed the Law, and hath deftroyed Sin and Death. Believe in him ; fo falt thou be delivered from the Curfe of the Law, and from the Tyranny of Sin and Death, thou shalt become righteous, and have eternal Life.

Behold how I have deftroyed the Law by the preaching of the Gofpel, to the End that it fhould not reign in the Confcience any more. For when the new Gueft Chrift Jefus cometh into the new Houfe there to dwell alone, Moles the old Inhabiter must give

Place unto him and depart fome whither elfe. And where Moles giveth Chrift the new Gueft is come to dwell, there can Sin, Wrath and Death have no Place : But there now dwelleth mere Grace, Righteoufnels, Joy, Life, true Affiance and Truft in the Father, now pacified and reconciled unto us, pracious, long-fuffering and full of Mercy for his Son

Place to Chrift, and the Law to

Chrift's Sake. Should I then, driving out Chrift and deftroying his Kingdom, which I have planted thro' the preaching of the Gofpel, now build up again the Law, and fet up the Kingdom of Moles? Indeed this fhould I do if I fhould teach Circumcifion and the Obfervation of the Law to be neceffary to Salvation, as the falfe Apofiles do: And by this Means, in the Stead of Righteoufnels and Life, I should restore again Sin and Death, For the Law doth nothing elfe but utter Sin, procure God's Wrath, kill and deftroy.

What are the Pupifts (1 pray you) yes the best of them all, but Deftroyers of the Kingdom of Chrift, and Builders up of the Kingdom of the Devil and of Sin, of Wrath and eternal Death? Yea they deftroy the Church, which is God's building, not by the Law of Moles, as did the falle Apoftles, but by Mens Traditions and Doctrines

But we by the Grace of Chrift holding the Article of Juffification, to affuredly know that we are juffilied and reputed righ-cous before God by Faith only in Chrift. Therefore we o not mingle the Law and Grace, Faith and Works together ; but we separate them far asunder. And this Diinction or Difference between the Law and Grace, let eery true Chriftian mark diligently, and let him fuffer ne fame to take Place, not in Letters and Syllables, ut in Practife and inward Experience : So that when

We muft not therefore draw good Works into the Article of Julification, as the Monks have done, which fay, That not only good Works, but alfo the Punifhments and Torments which Malekators fuffer for

For thus they comfort them when they are brought to the Gallows, or Place of Execution: Thou mult fuffer willing: I'y and patiently this fhameful Death, which if thou do, thou fhat deferve Remiftion of thy Sins and everlafting Life. What an horrible Thing is this, that a watched Thief, a Murderer, a Robber, fhould be for miferably feduced in that extrem Anguith and Diffres, that even at the very Point of Death, when he is now ready to be hanged, or to have his Head cut off. he fhould refute the Gofpel, and feeet Promifes in Chrift, which are only able to bring Comfort and Salvation, and thould be commanded to hope for Pardon of his Sins, if the willingly and patiently endure that opprobious Deadki which he fuffereth for his mifcheroosa Deeds? What is this elfe but to heap upon him, which is already moff mifcharoly afficient, extream Perdition and Defirudition, and thro's falle Confidence in his own Death, to flew him the ready Way to Hell?

Hereby their Hyporities do plainly declare, that they neither teach por underfland one Letter or Syllable concerning Grace, the Colopel, or Chrift. They retain only in outward shew the Name of the Golpel and of Chrift, that they may beguile the Hearts of the People. Not withilanding they denying and rejecting Chrift indeed, do attribute more to the Traditions of Men, then to the Colpel of Chrift. Which Thing robe true, for many Kinds of failte Worthin, for many religious Orders, for many Ceremonies, and for many Will-Works do plainly wirafs; all which Things were influtured as available to derive Grace, Righter

Amco.

Ye hear the Merit of Chrift mentioned in thefe Words; but if ye weigh them well, ye shall perceive that Chrift is there altogether unprofitable, and that the Glory and Name of a Justifier and Saviour is squite taken from him, and given to Monkifb Merits. Is not this to take the Name of God in vain ? Is not this to confels Chrift in Words, and in very Deed to deny his Power, and blafphame his Name? I myfelf alfo was once entangled with this Error, I thought Chrift to be a Judge (altho' I confested with my Mouth that he fuffered and died for Man's Redemption ) and ought to be pacified by the Observation of my Rule and Order. ' Therefore when I prayed or when I faid Mafs, I ufed to add this in the End; O Lord Jefus, I come unto thee, and I pray thee that these Burdens and this Straightness of my Rule and Religion may be a full Recompence for all my Sins. But now I give Thanks unto God the Father of all Mercies, which hath called me out of Darknefs runto the Light of his glorious Gofpel, and hath given unto me plentiful Knowledge of Chrift Jefus my Lord, for whole Sake I count all Things to be but lofs, yea I effcem them but as Dung, that I may gain Chrift, and that I may be found in him, not having mine own Rightepufnels out of the Rule of Augustine, but that Righteoufnels which cometh by Faith in Chrift ; Unto whom with the Father and the HolyGhoft the Praise and Glory, World without End. Amen.

We conclude therefore with Poul, that we are jufified Faith withby Faith only in Chrift, without the Law. Now after out Works, that a Man is once jufified, and polleffeth Chrift by Faith and knowsth that he is his Righteoufnefs and Life, doublefs he will mot be ide, but as a good Tree he will bring forth good Pruits. For which believing Man hath the Holy Ghoft, and where the Holy Ghoft idwelleth, he will not fuffer a Man to be idle, but iffirsth him up to all "Exercise of Pietry and Goddinefs and of ruse Religion, to the Love of God, to the patient infirting of Afficients, to Prayer, to Thankfilving, to the Exercise of Charity towards all Men.

Hitherto we have handled the firft Argument, wherein Paul contendeth that either we cannot be julified by the Law, or elfe that Chrift muft needs be the Minilter of Sin. But this is impofible : Wherefore we conclude that julification cometh not by the Law. Of this Place we have largely intrested, as it is well worthy, and yet ean it not be tanght, and betten into Mens Heads fufficiently.

Verfe 19. For I thro' the Law am dead to the Law. that I might live unto God.

Paul's MannerofSpeech unknown to Man's Reafon.

Paul calleth Grace the Law.

Thefe are marvellous Words and unknown Kinds of Speech, which Man's Reafon can in no wife underftand : and altho" they be but few, yet are they uttered with great Zeal and Vehemency of Spirit, and as it were in great Difpleafure. As if he should fay, Why do ye boalt fo much of the Law? Whereof in this Cafe I will be ignorant. But if ye will needs have the Law. I also have the Law. Wherefore, as the' he were moved thro' Indignation of the Holy Ghoft, he calleth Grace itfelf the Law, giving a new Name to the Effect and Working of Grace, in Contempt of the Law of Moles and the false Apostles, which contended that the Law was neceffary to Juffification ; and to he fetteth the Law against the Law. And this is a fweet Kind of Speech and full of Confolation, when in the Scriptures, and specially in Paul, the Law is set against the Law, Sin against Sin, Death against Death, Captivity against Captivity, Hell against Hell, the Altar against the Altar, the Lamb against the Lamb, the Paffover against the Paffover.

Death againftDeath.

In Rom. viii. 2. it is faid, For Sin he condemned Sin, Pfal. lxviii. 18. and Eph. iv. 8. He bath led Captionty Captive, Hof. xill. 14. O Death, I will be thy Plagues; O Grave, I will be thy Destruction. So he faith

"here, that thro' the Law he is dead to the Law. As if he faid, The Law of Mofes accuseth and condemneth me : But against that accusing and condemning Law, I have another Law, which is Grace and Liberty, James i. 25. This Law accufeth the accufing Law, and condemneth the condemning Law. So Death killeth Death ; but this killing Death is Life itfelf : But it is called the Death of Death by a vehement Indignation of Spirit against Death. So Righteoufnefs taketh the Name of Sin, becaufe it condemneth Sin, and this condemning of Sin is true Righteoufnefs.

Paul's Herofy.

He that is dead to the Law, liveth to God.

The Doctrine of the Papifts.

And here Paul feemeth to be an Heretick, yea of all Hereticks the greatest, and his Herefy is ftrange and mon-Atrous. For he faith, That he being dead to the Low, liveth to God. The falle Apoffles taught this Doctrine, Except thou live to the Law, thou art dead to God, that is to fay, unless thou live after the Law, thou art dead before God : But Paul faith quite contrary, Except thou be dead to the Law, thou canft not live to God. The Doctrine of our Adverfaries at this Day is like to the Doctrine of the falle Apoltles of that Time, if thou wilt live to God (fay they) live to the Law or after the Law.

But contrariwife we fay, If thou wilt live to God, thou muft be utterly dead to the Law. Man's Reafon and Wildom under-

ftandeth not this Doftrine: Therefore it teacheth always the contrary, that is, If thou wilt live unto God, thou muft keep the Law: For it is written, De this, and thou fealt live. And A fpecial this is a fpecial Principle amongft all the Popifh Divines, she that liveth after the Law, liveth unto God. Paul liaith the contrary, that is, We cannot live unto God, unlefs we be throughly dead to the Law. Wherefore we mult mount up to this heavenly Altitude, that we may be affored that we are far above the Law, yea that we are uterly deal unto the Law. Now, if we be dead unto the Law, then bath the Law no Power over us, like as it hath no Power over Chrilt, who hath delivered us from the fame, what we might live unto God. All thefe Things tend to this End. to oprove that we are not jufilied by the Law, but by Faith only in Jefas «Chrift.

And here Paul speaketh not of the ceremonial Law The whole only (as before we have declared more at large) but of Law is abrathe whole Law, whether it be ceremonial or moral, which gated.

o a Chriftian is utterly abrogate, for he is dead unto it;

not that the Law is utterly taken away, nay in remaineth, liveth, and eigneth fill in the Wicked. But a godly Man is dead unto the Law, Sike as he is dead unto Sin, the Devil, Denth and Hell; which notwithtanding do fill remain, and the World with all the Wicked fhall fill bile in them. Wherefore when the Payel/ underflandth that the coemonial Law only is abolified, underfland thou that Paul and every Ultifilian is dead to the whole Law, and yet the Law remaineth lill. As for Example, Chrilf tring from Death is free from he Grave, and yet the Grave remaineth fill. Peter is Chrift free elivered from the Prifon, the Sick of the Palle from his from the sed, the young Man from his Coffin, the Maiden from er Couch, and yet the Prifon, the Bed, the Coffin, the Souch, do remain fill. Even fo the Law is abolifhed when I am not bljeft unto it, the Law is dead when I am dead unto it, and yet it reainenth fill. But becaufe I am dead unto it by another Law, thereore it is dead alfo unto me, as the Grave of Chrift, the Prifon of  $P_{e-}v_{e}$ , the Conch of the Maiden, éc. do fill tremain; and yet Chrift by is Refurcefion is dead unto the Grave, Peter by his Deliverance is lead from the Prifon, and the Maid thro? Life is delivered from the looch.

Wherefore the Words, I am dead to the Law, are very efficients or he faith not, I am free from the Law for a Time, or I am Lord over the Law, but fimply I am dead to the Law, that is to fay, I have noing to do with the Law. Paul could have uttend nothing more efclually again the Rightcounfies of the Law, then to fay, I and dead the Law, that is, I care nothing at all for the Law, therefore I am, w judified by it.

Now, to die to the Law, is, not to be bound to the What it is to now, but to be free from the Law and not to know it. die to the netefore let him that will live to God, endeavour that Law.

he may be found without the Law, and let him come out of the Grave with Chrift. The Souldiers were aftonished when Chrift was rifen out of the Grave, and they also which faw the Maiden raifed up from Death to Life, were amazed. So Man's Reafon and Wildom is after nifhed, and becometh foolifh when it heareth that we are not juftified except we be dead to the Law, for it is not able to reach unto this My, flery. But we know that when we apprehend Chrift by Faith inwardly in Confcience, we enter into a certain new Law, which fwalloweth up the old Law that held us Captives. As the Grave in which Chrift lay dead, after that he was rifen again was void and empty, and Chrift vanished away : So when I believe in Chrift, I rife again with him. and die to my Grave, that is to fay. The Law which held me Captive. to that now the Law is void, and I am escaped out of my Prifon and Grave, that is to fay, the Law, Wherefore the Law hath no Richt to accufe me, or to hold me any longer, for I am rifen again.

It is neceffary that Mens Confeiences flould be diligently infructed. that they may well understand the Difference between the Righteoufnels of the Law and Grace : The Righteoufnels of Grace or the Liberty of

Let the Flefh be fubject to the Law, but not the Confcience.

Confcience doth in nowife pertain to the Fleih. For the Flefh may not be at Liberty, but must remain, in the Grave, the Prifon, the Couch, it must be in Subjection to the Law, and exercised by the Egyptians. But the Christian Confeience must be dead to the Law, that is to fay, free from the Law, and must have nothing at all to do with it. It is good to know this, for it helpeth very much for the comforting of poor afflicted Gonfciences. Wherefore when you fee a Man terrified and caft down with the Senfe and Feeling of his

where is no Law nor Sin. And albeit the Law and Sin do ftill remain, yet they pertain nothing to thee, for thou art dead to the Law and Sin.

This is eafly faid; but bleffed is he which knoweth how to lay fure hold on these Things in Time of Diffress, that is, which can fay,

Indeed I grant that I have committed many Sins, yea and yet fill do commit Sins daily without Number. This toucheth me nothing, I am now deaf and cannot hear ; therefore thou talkeft to me in vain, for I am dead unto thee. But if thou wilt needs diforte with me as touching my Sins, get thee to my Flefh and Members my Servants, teach them, exercife and crucify them : But trouble not me, not me Confciences infcience. I fay, which am a Lady and a Queen, and have nothing to p with thee ; for I am dead to thee, and I now live to Chrift, with whom I am under another Law, to wit, the Law of Grace, which ruth over Sin and the Law. By what Means ? By Faith in Chrift, as aul declareth hereafter.

But this feemeth a ftrange and a wonderful Definition, hat to live to the Law, is to die to God; and to die to he Law, is to live to God. Thele two Propolitions are the Law, is can contrary to Reafon, and therefore no crafty Sophier, or Law-worker can understand them. But learn thou he true Understanding thereof. He that liveth to the aw, that is, feeketh to be juftified by the Works of the haw, is and remaineth a Sinner, therefore he is dead and ondemned. For the Law cannot juftify and fave him, at accufeth, terrifieth and killeth him. Therefore to

To live to todieto God. and contrariwife to die to the Law. is to live to God.

we unto the Law, is to die unto God; and contrariwife, to die to the waw, is to live unto God. Wherefore if thou wilt live unto God, thou ufc 'ie to the Law; but if thou wilt live to the Law thou shalt die God. Now, to live unto God, is to be juffified by Grace or by Faith r Chrift's Sake, without the Law and Works.

This is then the proper and true Definition of a Christian, that he is he Child of Grace and Remiffion of Sins, becaufe he is under no Law, at is above the Law, Sin, Death, and Hell. And even as Chrift is we from the Grave, and Peter from the Prilon, fo is a Chriftian free nom the Law. And fuch a Refrect there is between the juffified Conlience and the Law, as is between Chrift raifed up from the Grave, and Grave ; and as is between Peter delivered from the Prifon, and the -ifon. And like as Chrift by his Death and Refurrection is dead to e Grave, fo that it hath now no Power over him nor is able any senger to hold him, but the Stone being rolled away, the Scals broken, d the Keepers aftonifhed, he rifeth again and goeth away without any net, Matth. xxviii. And as Peter by his Deliverance is eed from the Prifon, and goeth whither he will ; even the Confeience by Grace is delivered from the Law: is every one that is born of the Spirit. But the Flesh noweth not from whence this cometh, nor whither it seth, for it cannot judge but after the Law. But on he contrary, the Spirit faith, Let the Law accuse me, let in and Death terrify me never fo much, yet I do not therefore defpair, r I have the Law against the Law, Sin against Sin, and Death 2finft Death.

Therefore when I feel the Remorfe and Sting of Confcience for Sin, beheld that brafen Serpent Chrift hanging upon the Crofs.

here I find another Sin against my Sin which acculeth Sin against id devoureth me. Now this other Sin, namely, in the efh of Chrift, which taketh away the Sins of the World,

Almighty, it condemneth and fwalloweth up my Sin. So my Sin

Manner I find Death in my Flefh, which afflicteth and killeth me: but I have in me a contrary Death, which is the Death of Death, for this Death crucifieth and fwalloweth ur my Death.

These Things be not done by the Law or Works, but by Chriff erweified, upon whole Shoulders ly all the Evils and Mileries of Mankind, the Law, Sin, Death, the Devil and Hell ; and all thefe do die is him, for by his Death he hath killed them. But we mult receive this Benefit of Chrift with a fure Faith. For like as peither the Law nor any Work thereof is offered unto us, but Chrift alone: fo nothing is required of us but Faith alone, whereby we apprehend Chrift, and believa that our Sins and our Death are condemned and abolifhed in the Sin and Death of Chrift.

Thus have we always molt certain and fure Arguments, which neceffarily conclude that Juftification cometh by Faith alone. For how " fhould the Law and Works avail to Juffification, feeing that Paul is for earnest both against the Law and Works, and faith plainly that we mult be dead to the Law, if we will live to God ? But if we be dead to the Law and the Law be dead to us, then hath it nothing to do with us. How then should it avail any Thing at all to our Justification ? Wherefore we must needs fay, that we be juffified by Grace alone, or by Faith alone in Chrift, without the Law and Works.

This the blind Sophifters do not underftand, and therefore they dream that Faith juffifieth not, except it do the Works of Charity. By this Means Faith which believeth in Chrift, becometh unprofitable and of none Effect ; for the Virtue of justifying is taken from it, except it be furnished with Charity. But let us now fet apart the Law and Charity until another Time, and let us reft upon the principal Point of this prefent Matter, which is this, that Ielus Chrift the Son of God died upon the Crofs, did bear in his Body my Sins, the Law, Death, the Devil and Hell. These invincible Enemies and Tyrants do oppress, yex and trouble me, and therefore I am careful how I may be delivered out of their Hands jultified and faved. Here

I find neither Law, Work nor Charity, which is able to deliver me from their Tyranny. There is none but the Lord Jelus only and alone, which taketh away the Law, killeth and deftroyeth my Death in his Body, and by this Means spoileth Hell, judgeth and crucifieth the Devil, and throweth him down into Hell. To be brief, all the Enemics which did before torment and opprefs me, Chrift Jefus hath brought to nought, And having spoiled Principalities and Powers, he made a Shew of them spenly, triumphing over them in it, Col. ii. 15. in fuch Sort that they can now rule and reign no more over me, but are confirained to obev me.

By this we may plainly fee that there is nothing here for us to do : Only it belongeth unto us, to hear that thefe Things have been wrought and done in this Sort, and by Faith to apprehend the fame. And this is the true formed and furnished Faith indeed : Now, when I have thus apprehended Chrift by Faith, and thro' him am dead to the Law, juffified from Sin, delivered from Death, the Devil and Hell, then I do good Works, I love God, I give Thanks to him, I exercife Charity towards my Neighbour. But this Charity or Works following do neither form nor adorn my Faith, but my Faith formeth and adorneth Charity. This is our Divinity, which feemeth strange and marvelous, or rether foolith to carnal Reafon, to wit, that I am not only blind and deaf to the Law, yea delivered and freed from the Law, but also wholly dead unto the fame.

This Sentence of Paul, Thro' the Law I am dead to the Law, is full of Confolation. Which if it may enter into a Man in due Seafon, and take fure hold in his Heart with good Understanding, it may fo work, that it will make him able to fland against all Dangers of Death, and all Terrors of Confcience and Sin, altho' they affail him, accuse him, and would drive him to Defoeration never fo much. True it is that every Man is tempted, if not in his Life, yet at his Death. There when the Law acculeth him and theweth unto him his Sins, his Confcience by and by faith, Thou haft finned. If then thou take good hold of that which Paul here teacheth, thou wilt answer, I grant I have finned. Then will God punish thee. Nay, he will not fo do. Why, doth not the Law of God fo fay ? I have nothing to do with that Law. Why fo ? Becaufe I have another Law which firiketh this Law dumb, that is to fay, Liberty. What Liberty is that ? The Liberty of Chrift, for by Chrift I am utterly freed from the Law. Therefore that Law which is and remaineth a Law to the Wicked, is to me Liberty, and bindeth that Law which would condemn me : And by this Means that Law which would bind me and hold me Captive, is now fast bound itself, and holden Captive by Grace and Liberw, which is now my Law, Which faith to that accufing Law, Thou thalt not hold this Man bound and captive, for he is mine; but I will hold thee captive, and bind by Hands that thou thalt not hurt him, for he liveth now unto Chrift, and is dead unto thee.

This to do, is to dash out the Teeth of the Law, to wreft his Sting and all his Weapons from him, and to fpoil him of all ais Force; and yet the fame Law notwithstanding continueth and remaineth ftill to the Wicked and Unbelievers; and to us also that be Weak, Deathkilled, and Death killing. Sin drive me never for much to defpair, yet flsying upon this Liberty which I have in Chrift, I confess hat I have finned, but my Sin which is as condemned Sin, is in Chrift which is a condemning Sin: Now this condemned, Sin Is ftronger then that which is condemned, for it is julifying Grace, Right-outfiels, Life and Salvation. Thus when I feal the Terror of Death, I fay, Thou haft nothing to do with me O Death, for I have nother Death which killeth thee my Death, and that Death which killeth, is ftronger then that which is killed, I John v. 4.

Thus a faithful Man by Faith only in Chrift, may raife p binnfelf, and conceive fack fure and found Configation, that he final not need to fear the Devil, Sin, Death, of any Evils. And altho' the Devil fet upon him with all Might and Main, and go about with all the Terrors of the Wold to opprefs him, yet he conceiveth good Hope even in the midfl therepi, and thus he faith, Sin Devil, I fear not thy Threamings and Terrors, for there is one whole Name is Jelis Chrift, in whom I believe, he hash abolihed the Law, condenned Sin, eanquithed Death, and deftroyed Hell : and her is thy Tornenoro. O Stata, for he hash bound thee and holden the Captive, to the End that thou finouldeft no more hirt me, or any that believed in him. This Faith the Devil tannot overcome, but is overcome of it. For this is the Victory (Sith S. John ) that successful the World, even are Faith. Who is it that overcometh the World, but he which believeth that Jefus Chrift is the Son of God ?

Paul therefore thro' a vehement Zeal and Indignation of Spirit, calleth Grace itfelf the Law, which notwithftanding is an exceeding

Moreover he given this approbrium Name unto the Law (to let us underfland for aur Confolation, that there is new a new Name given unto it. ) that it is not now alive any more, but deal and condemned. And bree ( which is a pleafant Sight to behold ) he bringeth forth, the Law, and fetteh it before us as a Thief and a Robber

So far off is it then, that the Law is

To the GALATIANS.

Since Chrift is rifen from Death, Why fhould he now fear the Grave ? Since Peter is delivered from the Prifon, Why Bloudd he now fear it? When the Maiden was at the Point of Death, then might fhe indeed fear the Bed, but being now raifed up, Why fhould the fear it? In like Manner, Why hould a Chriftian which enjoyeth and policikhch Chrift by Fairli fear the Law ? True it is that he feelest the Terrors of the Law, but he is not overcome of them, but flaying upon the Liberty which he hath in Chrift, he faith, I heat thee murnuring, O Law, that thou wouldefl accue fee and condem me, but this troubletme ne nothing at all. Thou art to me as the Grave was unto Chrift ; for I fee that thou art fait bound Hand and Poor, and this hath my Law done. What Law is that ? Liberty, which is called the Law, not becaufe it bindeth me, but becaufe it bindeth my Law. The Law of the Ten Commandments did bind me. But again ft hat Law I have another Law. even the Law of Grace, which notwithflanding is to me no Law, either doth it bind me, but featch me at Libetry. And this is a Law signift that accuding and condemning Law; which Law it fo bindeth, that it hath no Power to hurt me any more. So againfl my Death which bindeth me I have another Death, that is to Sy, Life, which quickmeth me in Chrift, and this Death looftch and freeth me from the Bonds of my Death, and with the fame Bonds bindetly my Death. So Death which bound me is now falt bound, which killed me is now killed by Death, that is to fay by Life itfelf.

Thus Chrift, with moft fweet Names, is called my Law, my Sin, my Death, againft be Law, againft Sin, againft Death, whereas in very Deed he is nothing elle but mere Liberty, Righteoufnefs, Life and everalfing Salvation. And for this Caule he is made the Law of the Law, the Sin of Sin, the Death of Death, that he might redeem from the Curfs of the Law, juffify me and quicken me. So then, whiles Chriff is the Law, he is also Liberty; whiles he is Sin, he is Righteoufnefs, and whiles he is Death, he is Life. For in that he fuffered the Law to accife him, Sin to condemn him, and Death to devour him, he abolihed the Law, he condemned Sin he defroyed Death, he jultified and faved me. So is Chrift the Poilon of the Law, Sin and Death, and the Remedy for obtaining of Liberty, Righteoufnels, and worlalting Life.

This Manner of Speech which Paul here ufeth, and is proper unto nim alone, is full of Confolation. Likewife in the vii. Chapter to he Romans he fetteth the Law of the Spirit against the Law of the Members. And because this is a firange and marvelous Manner of fpeaking, therefore is entered in the Mind far more earling into the Mind, and flicketh fafler in the Memory. Moreover, when he faith, I thro' the Law and Law of the Moreover dead to the Law, it foundeth more fivestly then if he floadd fay, I thro Liberty am dead to the Law. For he fetteth before us, as it were, a certain Pičleur, as if the Law were lighting againft the Law. As they he floadd fay, O Law, if thou canft accule net, terrify me, and bind me, I will fet above and againft thee another Law, that is to fay, another

When thou art thus bound, tormented and fuppreffed, then am I at Liberty. So then Grace is a Law, not to me (for it bindet me not) but to my Law:

which this Law fo bindeth, that it cannot hurt me any more.

Thus Paul goeth about to draw us wholly from the Scholding of the Law, Sin, Death and all other Evils, and to bring us unto Chrift, that there we might behold this joyful Conflict, to wir, the Law fighting againfl the Law, that it may be to me Liberty. Sin againfl Sin, that it may be to me Rightroeufinefs, Death againfl Evath, that I may obtain Life, Chrift fighting againfl the Devil, that I may be the Child of God; and defloying Hell, that I may enjoy the Kingdom of Heaven.

Verfe 19. That I might live unto God.

That is to fay, that I might live before God. Ye fee then that there

The Flefh fubject to the Law, but not the Confcience. is no Life unleft ye be without the Law, yea unleft ye be utterly dead unto the Law, I mean in Conficience. Not withflanding in the mean Scalon (as 1 have often faid) fo long as the Body liveth, the Fleßh mult be exercised with Laws, and vexed with Exactions and Penalities of Laws, as were the Egyptian. But the inward Man not fubiect to the Law, but delivered and freed from it, is as lively, a juft, and a holy Perfon, not of himfelf, but in Chrift, becaufe he believeth in him, as followeth.

Verle 20. I am crucified with Christ,

This he added to declare that the Law is a Devourer of the Law. Not only (faith he) I am dead to the Law throl' the Law, that I may live to God, but also I am crucified and dead unto the Law. Therefore also ara I Lord over the Law; for I likewife an crucified and dead unto the Law, for afmuch as I am crucified and dead with Chrift. By what Means? By Grace and Faith. Thro' this Faith becaufe I am now crucified and dead unto the Law, therefore the Law lofeth all his Power which is hed over me, even as it hath loft all hiv Power which it had ever Chrift. Wherefore, even as Chrift himfelf was crucified to the Law, song Dath, and the Devil, fo that they have no farther Power over him, even for I thro' Faith being now crucified with Chrift in Spirit, am crucified and dead to the Law, Sin, Death, and the Chrift in Spirit, am crucified and dead to the Law, Sin, Death, and the Devil, fo that they have no further Power over me, but are now crucified and dead unto me.

Paul fpeaketh not here of crucifying by Imitation or Example ( for to follow the Example of Chrift, is also to be crucified with him, ) which crucifying belongeth to the Fielh. Whereof Peter fpeaketh in his first Epiftle fecond Chapter, and 21 Verfe, Chrift also fuffered for us, leaving us an Example, that we (hould follow his Steps. But he speaketh here of that high crucifying, whereby Sin, the Devil and Death are crucified in Chrift, and not in me. Here Chrift Jefus doth all himfelf alone. But I believing in Chrift, am by Faith crucified alfo with Chrift, fo that all thefe Things are crucified and dead unto me.

Verse 20. Nevertheless I live ;

I speak not fo (faith he) of my Death and Crucifying, as tho' I now lived not : Yea I live, for I am quickned by this

Death and Crucifying, thro' the which I die, that is, for as much as I am delivered from the Law, Sin and Death, I now live indeed. Wherefore that Crucifying and that ful.

Death whereby I am crucified and dead to the Law, Sin, Death and all Evils, is to me Refurrection and Life. For Chrift crucifieth the Devil, he killeth Death, condemneth Sin, and bindeth the Law; and I believing this, am delivered from the Law, Sin, Death and the Devil. The Law therefore is bound, dead and crucified unto me, and again am bound, dead and crucified unto it. Wherefore even by this Death and Crucifying, that is to fay, by this Grace or Liberty, I now live.

Here ( as before I have faid ) we mult observe Paul's Manner of fpeaking. He faith that we are dead and crufified to the Law, whereas in very deed the Law itfelf is lead and crucified unto us. But this Manner of Speech e ufeth here of Purpofe, that it may be the more fweet nd comfortable unto us. For the Law, ( which notwithstanding continueth, liveth and reigneth in the whole World, which Ifo accufeth and condemneth all Men ) is crucified and wad unto those only which believe in Chrift; therefore them alone belongeth this Glory, that they are dead Sin, Hell, Death and the Devil.

The Faithful are crucified and dead to the Law.

The Glory of the Faithful.

CHAP. II.

We muft have Chrift only in Sight and before our Eyc. that nothing remain in my Sight, but Chrift crucified and raifed from the Dead. But if I behold myfelf only and fee Chrift adae, I am gone. For by and by I fail into this Cogitation: Chrift is in Heaven, and thouart on the Earth, How fhat thou now come unto him? Fordorth I will live holily, and do that which the Law requireth. fo thall I enter into Life. Here, returning to myfelf and confider

ing what I am, what I ought to be, and what I am bound to do, I lofe the Sight of Chrift, who is my Righteoufnefs and Life. Who being loft, there is no Counfel nor Succor now remaining, but certain Defperation and Defiruction mult needs follow.

Such is our Mifery, that in Tentations and Aflictions we fet Chrift afide, and look back into ourfelves, and our Life paft. And this is a common Evil among Men." For fuch is our Mifery, that when Tentation or Death cometh, by and by fetting Chrill fade, we confider our own Life pafi, and what we have done. Here except we be raifed up again by Faith, we mult needs perifi. Wherefore we mult learn in fuch Conflids and Terrors of Confideration of ourfelves, and fetting the Law, our Life pafi, and all our Works apart, which drive us to the Conflideration of ourfelves only to turn our Eyes wholly to the brazed Serpent Chrill, Jelus crudified, and affurely believe that he is our Righteoufnels and Life, not Faering the Threatings and Terrors of the Law, Sin, Death, and the Judgment of God. For Chrift, on whom our Eyes are fusel, in whom we live, who alio livet in ture, is Lord and Conqueror of the Law, Sin, Death and all Evils ; in whom moft certain and fure Confolation is fet forth unto us, and Victory given-

Verse 20. Nevertheless, I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me :

Where he faith, Neverthelefs, I live, he speaketh it, as it were, in his own Perfon. Therefore he by and by correcteth himfelf, faying, Tet not 1. That is to fay, I live not now in mine own Person, but Gbrill liveth in me. Indeed the Perfon liveth, but not in himfelf, nor for any Thing that is in him. But who is this I, of whom he faith, Yet not I. This I is he which hath the Law, and is bound to do the Works thereof, who alfo is a certain Perfon feparate from Chrift. This Perfon Paul rejecteth. For, as he is feparated from Chrift he belongeth to Death and Hell. Therefore he faith, Tet not 1, but Chrift loveth in me. He in my Form, my Furniture and Perfection, adorning and beautifying my Faith, as the Colour, the clear Light, or the Whitenels do garnifh and beautify the Wall. Thus are we conftrained grofy to fet forth this Matter. For we cannot fpiritually conceive, that Chrift is fo nearly joined and united unto us, as the Colour or Whitenels are unto the Wall, Chrift therefore (faith he) thus joined and united unto me and abiding in me, liveth this Life in me which I now live ; yea Chrift himfelf is this Life which I now live. Wherefore Chrift and I in this Behalf are both one.

Now, Chrift living in me abolifheth the Law, condemneth Sin, and deftroyeth Death; for it cannot be, but at his Prefence all these must needs vanish away. For Christ is everlast-The Works ing Peace, Confolation, Righteoufnels, and Life, and to, of Christ lithefe the Terror of the Law, Heaviness of Mind, Sin, ying in the Hell and Death, mult needs give Place. So Chrift living and abiding in me taketh away and fivalloweth up all Evils which yex and afflict me. This Union or Conjunction then, is the Caufe that I am delivered from the Terror of the Law and Sin. and feparate from myfelf, and translated unto Chtift and his Kingdom, which is a Kingdom of Grace, Righteoufnels, Peace, Joy, Life, Salvation and eternal Glory. Whilf I thus abide and dwell in him. What Evil as there that can hurt me ?

In the mean Seafon the old Man abideth without and is fubiect to the Law, but as concerning Juffification, Chrift and I must be entirely conjoined and united together, fo that he may live in me and I in him. And this is a wonderful Manner of Speech. Now, becaufe Chrift liveth in me, therefore look what Grace, Righteoufnefs, Life, Peace and Salvation is in me, it is his, and yet notwithftanding the fame is mine alfo, by that unfeparable Union and Conjunction which is thro' Faith ; by the which Chrift and I are made as it were one Body in Spirit. For as much then as Chrift liveth in me, it followeth, that as I mult needs be with him Partaker of Grace, Righteoufnels, Life and eternal Salvation, fo the Law, Sin and Death, can have no Place in me ; yea the Law is crucified and fwallowed up of the Law. Sin of Sin, and Death of Death. Thus Paul goeth about to draw us from the beholding of out lives, the Law and Works, and to plant in us true Faith in Chrift ; fo that in the Matter of Juftification we should think upon nothing elfe but Grace, feparating the fame far from the Law and Works, which in this Matter ought to have no Place.

Paul hath his peculiar Phrafe or Kind of Speech, which is not after the Manner of Men, but divine and heavenly, nor used of the Evangelifts, or of the reft of the Apofiles, faving only of John, who is alforwont fometimes To to fpeak. And if Paul had not first used this Phrafe, and fet forth the fame unto us in plain Words, the very Saints themfelves durft not have used it. For it feemeth a very ftrange and a monstrous Manner of speaking thus to fay; I live, I I live not : I am dead, I am not dead : I am a Sinner. I am not a Sinmaer ; I have the Law, I have not the Law. Which "Phrafe is fweet and comfortable to all those that believe The Faithin Chrift. For in that they behold themfelves, they have ful both both the Law and Sin, but in that they look unto Chrift, Righteous suchey are dead to the Law and have no Sin. If thereand Sinners ned of the Law, and dead beforeGod. For thou haft that Faith which (as the Sophiflers dream) is furnified with Charity. Thus I fpeak for Examples Sake. For there was never any one found that was faved by this Faith.

And therefore what Things' focure the Poplih Sephiflers' have written touching this Faith, are nothing elfe but vain Toys and mere Deceits of Satan. But let us grane that foot there be as have this Faith; yet are they not therefore julfifled. For they have but an hiftorical Faith concerning Ghrift, which the Devil alfo and all the Wicked have.

Faith fo knitteth us and Chrift together, that we become one with him. Faith therefore mult be purely taught, namely, that thou are to entitively and nearly joined unto Christifi, that he and thou art made as it were one Perfort. Fo that thou may effboldy fay, I am now one with Chrift, that is to fay. Christ's Nighteosifiels, Vickory and Life are mine. And again, Christ may fay, I am that Shoner, that is, his Sins and his Death are mine, becaufe he is united and joined unto me, and I unto him. For by Paith we are fo joined together, that we are become one Fieldh and one Bone;

Thefe are the maleions and proud Spinits which fuirfully and wittingly flander the Scriptures and Sayings of the Holy Ghoft, even as they flanded Paul whiles the Apofiles lived, to their own Cenfulion and Condemnation, as it is fadly a Pot, is it. Moreover the Weak which are not malicious, are offended when they hear that the Law and good Works are not to be done as neceffary to Justification. These must be holpen, and must be instructed how good Works do not justify, how they ought to be done, how not to be done. These ought to be done, not as the Cause, but as the Fruits of Righteoufnefs; and when we are made righteous, we ought to do them ; but not contrariwife, to the End that when we are unrighteous, we may be made righteous. The Tree maketh the Apple, but not the Apple the Tree.

He faid before. I am dead. &c. here the Prefumptuous and Malicious might take Occasion to cavil after this Manner. What fayeft thou Paul ? Art thou dead ? How then dole thou fpeak ? How doft thou write ? The Weak also might foon be offended and fay unto him, What art thou Paul? Do we not fee that thou art living, a double Life. The firl is mine, which is natural : The lecond is the Life of another, that is to fay, the Life of Chrift in me. As touching my natural Life I am dead. and now I live another Life, I live not now as Paul, but Paul is dead. Who is it then that liveth? The Chriftian.

Paul therefore as he liveth in himfelf, is wholly dead thro' the Law, but as he liveth in Chrift, or rather as Chrift liveth in him, he liveth by another Life ; for Chrift fpeaketh in him, liveth in him, and exercifeth all the Operations of Life in him. This cometh not now of the Life of Paul, but of the Life of the Chriftian and regenerate Perfon. Therefore thou malicious Spirit, where I fay that I am dead, now flander, my Words no more. And thou that art Weak, be not offended, but diftinguish and divide this Matter rightly. For ( as I faid ) there are two Lives; to wit, my natural Life, and the Life of another. By mine own Life I live not; for if I did, the Law would have Dominion over me, and hold me in Captivity. To the End therefore that it fould not hold me in Captivity and Bondage, I am dead to it by another Law, and this Death purchaleth unto me the Life of an other, even the Life of Chrift, which Life is not mine by Nature, but is given unto me by Chrift thro' Faith.

The Faithful live not their own Life, but the Life of Chrift.

Secondly, This Objection might have been made againft Poul - What fayelt thou Paul? Dolt thou not live by thine own Life, or in thine own Fleih, but in Chrift ? We fee thy Fleih, but we fee not Chrift, Wouldft thou then delude us by thine Inchantments that we should not fee thee prefent in Flefh living as thou didft before, and doing all Things in this corporal Life as others do ? He answereth :

Verfe 20. Who loved me, and gave bimfelf for me.

Here have ye the true Manner of Jultification for before your Eyes, and a perfect Example of the Affurance The true of Faith. He that can with a firm and a conflant Faith Manner of fay the Words with Paul, 1 live by Faith in the Son of JuffBication, Got, who loved me and gave bindlef for me, is happy in-

We mult therefore difgently weigh and confider thefe Words, The Son of God bood me, and gove hinglift for me. It was not I then that full loved the Son of God, and delivered myleff for him, as the Supfilter dram, that they love the Son of God, and deliver themfelves for him. For they teach that Man, et gover instantiation, that is, of his own puen atural Strength, is able to do meritorious Works before Grace, and into God and Chrift above all Things. The Fellows prevent the Love of God and Chrift, for they do that is in them (fay they ) that is, they do not only fulfil the Gommandments, but also they obferve the [Counfels, they do the Works of * Supererogation, and fail their fuperflauas Merits to Lay-men, and fo (as they dream ) they give they are the superflament of the superflament of the superflament them.

themfleves for Chrift, and thereby fave both themfleves and others, turning the Words of Paul, Who loved me, &c. clean contrary, and faying. We have loved Chrift and given our leves for him. Thus, whill the Wicked, being puffed up with the Wildom of the Flefh, imagine that they do what in them lieth, they love God, they deliver themfleves for Chrift, what do they elfe but aboilt the Corpel, deride, deny and blafpheme Chrift, yea fpit upon him and tread him under Foot? They confeis in Words that he is a Juflifer and a Saviour; in Very Deed they take from lim the Power both to juflify and fave, and give the fame to their own Rightconfnels and Works, and not in the Faith of the Son of God.

Wherefore this is not the true Way to attain Julification, to do that which in the listh, as the Poplin's Sphillers and School-DocRes do teach, which affirm, that if a Man do what in him listh, God will undoubtedly give unto him his Grace. But this Saying may not be fraightly urged, fay they, for if we do thofe Works which may be approved by the Julgment of any good Man, it is enough; for then Grace final Juley Jollow, becaufe God, in that he is good and julf, mult needs give Grace as a Recompence for fuch good Works. And hereof cometh this Verfe.

Ultra poffe viri non vult Deus ulla requiri. That is, God will no more require of Man, then of himfelf perform he can.

Indeed this is a good Saying if it be ufed rightly, and in Place convenient, that is, in the Government of Common-weales or Families. As if I being in the Kingdom of Reafon, do execute the Office of a Magir frate, or govern a Family, doing that in me lieth, I am excuted. This Kingdom hath his Bounds and Limits to the which all of thefe Saying lities of Nature are pure and perfect in him. To know these Things it is neceffary for you that ye may hold the Sincerity of the Doctrine of Faith, where they fay then that the natural Qualities of Man are found and uncorrupt, and thereof do infer, that a Man is able of himfelf to fulfil the Law, and to love God with all his Heart, applying thefe Qualities to the fpiritual Kingdom, I deny the Confeguence. And here I make a Diffinction between the natural and the fpiritual Qualities (which they confound and mingle together) and I fay that the fpiritual Qualities are not found but corrupt, yea utterly quenched thro'Sin both in Man and Devil, fo that there is in them nothing elfe but corrupt Understanding, and a Will continually friving againft the Willof God, which can think nothing elfe but that which is altogether against God. Notwithstanding, I grant that the natural Qualities are uncorrupt. But what Qualities are they ? That a Man being drowned in Sin and Iniqui-1v. and a Bond-flave of Satan, hath Will, Reafon and Power notwithflanding, to execute the Office of a Magistrate, to govern a Family, to guide a Ship, to build a Houfe, and to do fuch other Things as are fubject unto Man, for these Things are not taken from him. We do not then deny but that these Sentences are true in the corporal Kingdom, but if ye wreft them to the fpiritual Kingdom, I utterly deny them, for there ( as I faid ) we are clean overwhelmed and drowned in Sin. Whatfoever is in our Will is evil, whatfoever is in our Understanding is Error. Wherefore in fpiritual Matters Man hath nothing but Darknefs, Errors, Ignorance, Malice and Perverfnels both of Will and Understanding. How then thall he work well, fulfil the Law, and love God ?

Wherefore Paul faith here, that Chrift firth began and not we, He, count he (faith Paul) lowed me, and grove him/elf for me. As if he faid, He found in me no good Will or right Underftanding; but this good Lord had Mercy upon me. He faw me to be nothing elfe but wickel, going thrown down into Hell, with all their Rightcoulnels, Works and Morits, wather than the Truth of the Gofoel fould be blamifbed and the Glory of Chrift perifh. What mean they then, to brag fo much of Works and Merits ? If I being a Wretch and a damned Sinner could be redoemed by any other Price, What needed the Son of God to be given for me ? But bedaufe there was no other Price either in Heaven or in Earth, but Chrift the Son of God, therefore it was most necessary that he should be delivered for me. Moreover, this he did of ineftimable Love : For Paul faith, Who loved me.

Wherefore these Words, Who loved me, are full of Faith. And he that dah utter this Word Me, and apply it unto himfelf with a true and a conftant Faith, as Paul did, thall be a good Difputer with Paul against the Law. For he delivered neither Sheep, Ox, Gold nor Silver, but even God himfelf entirely and whelly for me, even for Me (I fay) a milerable and a wretched Sinner. Now therefore, in that the Son of God was thus delivered to Death for me. I take Comfort and apply this Benefit unto myfelf. And this Manner of applying is the very true Force and Power of Faith.

Thefe Words which (are the pure preaching of Grace and Chriftian Righreoufnels indeed) Paul letterh against the Righteoufnels of the Law. As if he had faid, Be it to that the Law is an heavenly Doctrine, and listh alfo his Glory ; yet notwithstanding it loved not ine, nor gave itfelf for me, yea it accufeth me, terrifieth and driveih me to Defparation. But I have now another which hath dellvered me from the Terrors of the Sinners, but Law, Sin and Death, and hath brought me into Liberty, the Righteoufnels of God, and eternal Life, who is called the Son of God, to whom be Praife and Glory for ever.

The Law loveth not accufeth them.

Faith therefore (as I have faid) embraced and wrappeth in itfelf Chrift Jefus the Son of God, delivered to Death for us, as Paul here teacheth, who being apprehended by Faith, giveth unto us Righteoufnels and Life. And here he fetteth out most lively the Prieft-hood and

Let us learn therefore to give atrue Definition of Chrift, not as the School-Divines do, and fuch as feek Righteoufnels by their own Works, which make him a new Law-giver, who abolithing the old Law, bath eftablished a new. To these Christ is nothing elic but an Exactor and a Tyrant. But les as define him as Post here doth ; mamely that he as the

Ye (I fay) that are young, may learn with much lefs Difficulty, to know Chrift purely and fincerely, if ye will. Let us learn therefore to put a Difference between Chrift and a Lawgiver, not only in Word but also in Deed and Prasitie, that when the Devil fhall come under the Shadow of Chrift, and fhall go about to trouble us under his Name, we may know him, not to be Chrift, but a very Fiend indeed. ### Verse 21. For if Righteousness come by the Law, then Christ is dead in vain.

Thefe Words of Paul ought diligently to be weighed and confidered in this wife. Is it true that Chrift fuffered Death or not? Again, did be fuffer in vain or not? Here we are confirmed so anlwer, except we be flark mad, that he fuffered in very Deed, and that he fuffered not in vain, nor for himfelf, but for us. If then he fuffered not in vain, it followth of Neceffiry that Rightcouloefs cometh not by the Law.

Then take away Chrift with all his Benefits, for he is atterily unprofitable. But why was he bean? Why was he cracified? Why did he fuffer? Why was he made my High-Prieft, loving me and giving himfelf an inclimable Satrifice for me? In vain (no Jouby) and to no Purpole at all, if Rightcouffed for me y no other Means then the Popifit sceach, for, without Grace and without Chrift, If. And no Kightcouffed for ther in myfelf or in the Law.

Is this horrible Blafphemy to be fuffered or diffembled, that the Ditrine Majetly, not fparing his own deat Son, but delivering him to Death for us all, fhould not do all thefe Things ferioufly and in good earnelt, part as it were in Sport? Before I would admit this Blaf-

shemy, I would not only that the Holinefs of all the Paifit and Mirrismogere, but alls of all the Saints and soly Angels fhould be thrown into the Bottom of Hell, and condemned with the Devil: Mine Eyes thall behold hothing ells but this ineffinable Price, my Lori, and laviour Chrift; he ought to be fuch a Trealure unto me haral other Things should be but Dang in Comparison of him; he ought to be fuch a Light unto me, that when have apprehended him by Faith, I floudd not know

Wherefore to reject the Grace of God is an horrible Sin and commonly reigning throughout the World, whereof it they are guilty which feck Rightconfice by their own Vorks. For whiles they feck to be julified by their own Vorks and Merits, or by the Lowe, they reject the Grace God and Chrift, as I have faid. Yet notwithltanding in this great Light of the Gofpel, the blind and obftinate Papifls do continue ftillen their wicked Opinions and doting Dreams, faving that the Qualities of Nature do remain found and uncorrupt, and that Men are able to prepare themfelves to Grace, or to deferve Grace by their own Works and Merits. And fo far off isl it that they will acknowledge their Impicty and Error, that they do yet ftill obstinately defend the same even against their own Confcience.

If the Law Chrift died in vain.

uffify. What can Reafon do (1 pray you) without the Law? What? Doubtlefs nothing elfe but that which the Pope with his dreaming Sowhilers and his whole Synagogue hath done, who with their own Traditions have darkned the Light even of the first Commandment. Whitefore there is not one of them that is soler rightly to ognetfrand any one Syllable of the Law, but every Man walketh in mere Darknefs of Man's Reafon. And this Terror is much more permicious and deadly, ther that which proceededh of the Dockrime of Works and the Law.

Thefe Words therefore are very effectual and full of Power, when an e faith, if Rightenijiefi came by the Law, there Ghrijf diving in wairs, he peaketh here nothing of Man's Strength, Reafon or Wildom, be it never is great (for the greater it is, the foomer it deceiveth a Man) but he faith binnly without all Condition, if for the Law, we are wherefore Reafon gottned, aided and directed by the Law, yea even by the Law of God, is fo unable to attain Righteouthef, that it draws th a Man from Righteuficefs and rejectent Orient, that it draws th a Man from Rightealfneds and rejectent Orient, that it draws th a Man from Rightealfneds and rejectent Orient, that it are a know nothing but Jefux jerint all Law, and with Paul, 1 Car. This thundring and lightning from Heaven against the Righteoufness of the Law and Man's own Righteoufnels, fhould make us to abhor it. And here with this Thunder-clap falleth down all the Orders of Monks, and Friers, with all fuch fuperflitious Religion. For who will not deteft his own Vows, his Cowls, his fhaven Crown, all Men's Traditions, yea the very Law of Moles alfo, if he hear that for thefe Things he rejecteth the Grace of God, and maketh the Death of Chrift unprofitable. The World hearing this, doth not believe that it is true. It thinketh that fuch horrible Wickedness cannot enter into any Man's Heart, that he should reject the Grace of God, and effeem the Death of Chrift as a Thing of nought : And yet this Sin commonly reigneth. For wholoever feeketh Righteoufnels without Chrift, either by Works, Merits, Satisfactions, Afflictions, or by the Law, rejecteth the Grace of God. and defpifeth the Death of Chrift whatfoever he protefteth with his-Mouth to the contrary.

e obferveth none, but as concerning the Spirit he ufeth a goodly Order: Now, after that he hath fufficiently proved, and with two frong Aruments confirmed this Article, that Chriftian Rightcoufnels cometh ot by keeping of the Law, but by Faith in Chrift, and withal hath onfuted the Doctrine of the falle Apofles : in the midft of this Difpurfe he turneth his Talk to the Galatians, and reproveth them, faying, Foolifh Galatians, &c. As if he fhould fay, Alas, from whence are ye Ilen, O ye miferable Galatians ? I have most carefully and diligently ught you the Truth of the Gofpel and ye also have received the fame of e with fervent Zeal and great Diligence. How then cometh it to pala, hat ye are fo fuddenly fallen away from it ? Who hath bewitched you? He reproveth the Galatians very fharply ( as it feemeth ) when he lleth them Fools, bewitched, and difobedient to the Truth. Now hither he did this of Zeal or Compation, I will not here contend, both ay be true. A carnal Man would interpret this to be a reviling, rather en a godly Reprehension. Did Paul then give an evil Example, or as he foiteful against the Churches of Galatia, because he called them plifh and bewitched ? No, not fo. For with a Chriftian Zeal it is vful for an Apoftle, a Paftor or Preacher, fharply to reprove the People mmitted to his Charge ; and fuch Reprovings are both therly, and godly. So Parents, of a fatherly and mointly Affection, do fitarply reprove and rebuke their ildren, which they would not bear if another fhould it. The School-mafter fometimes is appry with his

Wherefore tharp Chidings and bitter Words areas neceffary in every Kind of Life, as any other Vertue elfe. Yet notwithstanding this Anger must be fo tempered, that it proceed not of any Envy or Malice, but only of a fatherly Affection and Christian Zeal ; that is to fay, it ought not to be childifh or woman like, feeking Revenge, but only for the correcting of the Fault : As the Father correcteth not his Child

For the in chaftiling my Brother, my Child my Scholar or Subject in this Sort, I feek not his Deftruction, but his Profit and Welfare.

It may be then that Paul here rebuketh the Galatians. either of a very Zeal ( not to deftroy them, but by this Means to reduce a them into the Way again, and to amend them ) or elfe of Pity and Com paffion, as it were by way of Complaint, for that it grieveth him that they should be fo miferably feduced. In like Manner do we alfo reprehend the Miferable; not that a we tread them down, or upbraid them with their Milery, but as having Compassion on them, and feeking their Amendment. This I fay, lef any Man fhould cavil, that Paul railed upon the Churches, contrary to the Rule of the Gofpel.

In like Manner Chrift rebuketh the Pharifees, calling them Serpents in the Generation of Vipers, the Children of the Devil. But these are the Rebukings of the Holy Ghost. They we Rebukings are fatherly and motherly, and as the Chidings of a faith-ka ful Friend : As it is faid alfo in the Proverbs ; Faithful are the Wounds of a Friend ; but the Kiffes of an Enemy the are deseitful, Prov. xxvii. 6. But when Chrift and Paul do reprove, it is done with fingular Vertue and Commenda. tion ; but when a private Man shall do the like, it is in him a great w Vice. Therefore one and the felf-fame Word in the Mouth of Paul is the a Benefit ; but in the Mouth of another, it is a Reptoach, There Ber

There is a certain Vehemency to be noted in this Word Galatians : for he calleth them not Brethren, as elfewhere he is wont to do; but he calleth them by the Name which was proper to their Country. And it feemeth that it was the natural Vice of that Nation to be foolifh ; like as it was the Fault of the Cretenles to be Liars. As if he fhould fay : As ye are called, even fo are ye indeed, and fo ye continue, that is to fay, foolifh Galatians and fo you fhew yourfelves to be even now in the Bufinefs of the Gofpel (wherein notwithstanding ye ought to have been most wife ) yet ye continue still in your own Nature, and are no Changelings. Thus Paul by way of Correction, putteth the Galatians in Mind of their corrupt Nature.

Moreover, we are here admonifhed, that according to The Remnants of nathe Flefh, there are yet natural Vices remaining in the tural Vices Churches, and in the Godly. Grace maketh not fuch a remain in Change in the Faithful, that by and by they become althe Godly. together new Creatures and perfect in all Things; but there remain yet certain Dregs of their old and natural Corruption. As if a Man that is naturally inclined to Anger, be converted to Chrift, altho' he be mollified by Grace ( the Holy Ghoft fo framing his Heart that he is now become more meek and gentle ) yet this natural Vice is not utterly quenched in his Flefh. Likewife, fuch as are by Nature fevere and tharp altho' they be converted to the Faith, yet notwithflanding they cannot utterly forfake this Vice.

Hereof it cometh that the Holy Scriptures, which do contain all one Truth of divers Spirits are diverily handed. One in teaching is mild and gentle ; another more ough and rigorous. Thus the Spirit of God being pourid into divers Veffels, doth not quench at once the Vies of Nature; but by little and little during this Life, e purgeth that Sin which is rooted, not only in the Gaatians, but alfo in all Men of all Nations.

Albeit then, that the Galatians were lightned and did elieve, and had now received the Holy Ghoft by the Preaching of Faith, ptwithstanding this Remnant of Vice ( this Foolishness I mean ) and he original Corruption which afterwards did eafily burft out into the lame of falfe Doctrine, remained in them still. Where-are let no Man truft fo much in himfelf, as to think that then he hath received Grace, he is throughly purged bm his old Vices. Indeed many Things are purged us, and principally the Head of the Serpent, that is fay, Infidelity and Ignorance of God is cut off and uifed, but the flimy Body and the Remnants of Sin reain still in us. # Of the bodily and Spiritual Witchcraft.

P Aul calleth the Galatians foolifh and bewitched, comparing them to Children, to whom Witchcraft doth much harm. As tho' he Thould fay : It happened to you as it doth to Children, whom Witches, Sorcerers and Inchanters are wont to charm by their Inchantments and by the Illufion of the Devil. Afterwards in the 5 Chapter he rehearfeth Sorcery among the Works of the Flefh, which is a Kind of Witchcraft, whereby he plainly tellifieth, that indeed fuch Witchcraft and Sorcery there is, and that it may be done. Moteover, it cannot be denied

but that the Devil liveth, yea and reigneth throughout the whole World. Witchcraft and Sorcery therefore are the Works of the Devil, whereby he doth not only hurt Men, but alfo by the Permiffion of God, he fometimes deftroyeth them. Furthermore, we are all fubject to the Devil both in Body and Goods, and we be Strangers in this World, whereof he is the prince and god. Therefore the Bread which we eat, the Drink which we drink, the Garments which we wear, yea the Air and whatfoever we live by in the Flefh, is under his Dominion.

Satan bewitcheth Men fpiritually.

But he doth not only bewitch Men after this groß Manner, but alfo after a more fubtil Sort and much more dangerous, wherein he is a marvelous cunning Workman. And hereof it cometh that Paul applieth the bewitching of the Senfes to the bewitching of the Spirit. For by this fpiritual Witchcraft that old Serpent bewitcheth not Mens Senfes, but their Minds with falfe and wicked Opinions; which Opinions they that are fo bewitched, do take to be true and godly. Briefly, fo great is the Mallee of this Sorcerer the Devil and his Defire to hurt, that not only he deceiveth those fecure and proud Spirits with his Inchantments. but even those also which are Professions of true Christianity, and well affected in Religion : Yea, as touching myfelf, to fay the Truth, he fometimes affaileth me fo mightily, and oppreffeth me with flich heavy Cogitations, that he utterly fladoweth Luther's my Saviour Chrift from me, and in a Manner taketh him Confficts clean out of my Sight. To be brief, there is none of us with Satan. all which is not oftentimes bewitched with falfe Perfwafi.

ons; that is to fay, which doth not fear, truft, or rejoice where he ought not, or doth not fometimes think otherwife of God, of Chrift, of Faith, of his Vocation, erc. then he fould do.

Let us therefore learn to know the fubtile Slights of this Sorcerer. left if he find us fleeping in Security, he deceive us by his Inchante ments. True it is, that by his Sorcery he can do no hurt to our Miniltery, yet he is with us in Spirit : Day and Night he rangeth about, fecking how he may devour every one of us alone, and unlefs he find us fober and armed with fpiritual Weapons, that is to fay, with the Word of God and Faith, he will devour us.

This is the Caule that he oftentimes flirreth up new The Profit Battles against us. And indeed it is very profitable for us. that cometh that he thus affaileth us, and by his fubtile Trains exerto the Godly sifeth us : For by this Means he confirmeth our Docby the Tentrine, he ftirreth up and increaseth Faith in us. Indeed tation of we have been many Times caft down, and yet ftill are Satan. caft down in this Conflict, but we perifh not, for Chrift hath always triumphed, and doth triumph thro' us. Wherefore we hope affuredly, that we fhall also hereafter by Jefus Chrift obtain the Victory against the Devil. And this Hope bringeth unto us fure Confolation, fo that in the midft of our Tentations we take Courage, and fay; Behold, Satan hath heretofore tempted us and by his falfe Illufions hath provoked us to Infidelity, to the Contempt of God. Defpair, de. yet hath he not prevailed, neither shall he prevail hereafter ; Becaufe greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the World_ 1 John iv. 4. Chrift is ftronger, who hath and doth overcome that strong One in us, and shall overcome him for ever. Notwithstanding the Devil fometimes overcometh us in the Fleih, that we may have Experience of the Power of a ftronger against that ftrong One, and may lay with Paul; When I am weak, then am I frong.

Let no Man think therefore that the Galatians only were bewitched of the Devil; but let every Man thinkthat he himfelf might have been, and yet may be bewitched by him. There is none of us fo ftrong that he Men. is able to relift him, and efpecially if he attempt to do it only mighty in the Galatians, but he goeth about continually to deceive, if not all Men, yet as many as he can with his Illufions, and falfe Perswasions ; For he is a Liar, and the Father of Lies, John vili. 44.

Verfe I. Who hath bewitched you.

Here Paul excufeth the Galatians, and layeth the Fault upon the falle Apoftles. As tho' he fliould fay : I fee that ye are not fallen thro' Wilfulnefsor Malice, but the Devil hath fent the inchanting falfe Apoftles his Children amongft you, and they do fo bewitch you in teaching you that we are juffified by the Law that now ye think otherwife of Chrift then ye did afore when ye heard the Gofpel preached by me. But we labour both by preaching and writing unto you, to uncharm that Sorcery wherewith the falle Apofiles have bewitched you, and to fet at Liberty those which are fnared therewith.

So we also at this Day do labour by the Word of God against those fantastical Opinions of the Anabaptifis, that we may fet at Liberty those that are intangled there with, and reduce them to the pure Doctrine of Faith and there hold them. And this our Labour is not altogether in wain. For we have called back many whom they have bewitched, and have delivered them out of their Spares. Notwithstanding fuch there are as will not fuffer themfelves to be taught, efpecially the chief Sorcerers and Authors of this Witchery. They will hear no Reafon, nor admit the Scripture ; yea, they abufe and corrupt the Scripture, and avoid fuch Places as are alledged against them, with their falle Gloffes and devilish Dreams clean contrary to the Scripture ; which is a manifeft Sign that they are bewitched of the Devil. Wherefore they are nothing amended by our Admonitions, but are much more hardned and more obflinate then they were before. And furely I could never have believed, but that I have good Experience thereof at this, The Power Day, that the Power of the Devil is fo great, that he is of the Devil. able to make Fallhood fo like to the Truth. Moreover,

( which is yet much more horrible ) when he goeth about to overwhelm forrowful Confeiences with over-much Heavinefs, he can to cunningly and to lively change himfelf into the Likenefs of Chrift, that it is impossible for the poor tempted and afflicted Soul to perceive it; whereby many fimple and ignorant Perfons are deceived and driven down to Defperation, and fome alfo deftroy themfelves : for they are fo bewitched of the Devil, that they believe this to be a most certain Truth, that they are tempted and accused, not of the Devil, but of Chrift himfelf.

The Exam-Kraus.

Such a like Thing of late happened to that miferable Man ple of Dr. Doctor Kraus of Hall, which faid, I have denied Chrift, and therefore he flandeth now before his Father and accufeth me. He being blinded with the Illufion of the Devil, had fo Grongly conceived in his Mind this Imagination, that by no Exhortation, no Confolation, no Promifes of God he could be brought from it, whereupon he despaired and fo miferably destroyed himfelf.

Jo the GAT ATTANS.

This was a mere Lie, a bewitching of the Devil, and a The Devil's fantaffical Definition of a ftrange Chrift whom the Scrip- Definition of ture knoweth not. For the Scripture fetteth forth Chrift. of a falle not as a Judge, a Tempter, an Accufer, but a Reconciler, a Mediator, a Comforter, and a Throne of Grace.

But the poor Man deluded by the Devil, could not then fee this, and therefore against all Scripture, he thinketh this to be an undoubted Truth : Chrift accufeth thee before his Father, he ftandeth not for thee. but against thee, therefore thou art damned. And this Tentation is not of Man, but of the Devil, which that Inchanter most ftrongly imprinteth in the Heart of the Tempted. But unto us which are led and taught by another Spirit, it is a curfed Lie, and a bewitching of the Devil. But anto those that are thus bewitched, it is fo certain a Truth that none can be more certain.

Seeing then that the Devil is able to print in our Hearts fo manifest a Lie, that we would fwear a thousand Times it were an undoubted Truth, we must not be proud, but walk in Fear and Humility, calling upon the Lord lefus, that we be not led into Temptation, Worldly and fecure Men, which having heard the Gofpel once or twife preached, do by and by imagine that they have received Abundance of the Spirit, fall at length in like Manner, becaufe they fear not God, they are not thankful unto him, but perfwade themfelves that they are able

This bewitching then, and this Sorcery, is nothing elfe at a plain Illufion of the Devil, printing in the Heart a falfe pinion of Chrift and against Chrift, and he that is deded with this Opinion, is bewitched. It was bitterly fooken where he faid before, that they were fo bewitched, that they could not obey the Truth : But it is more bitterly faid, when he addeth that Chrift was fo lively defcribed before them, that they might handle him with their Hands, and yet they would not obey the Truth. Thus he convinceth them even by their own Experience. As tho' he would fay; Ye are fo bewitched and deluded with the devilish Opinions of the falle Apostles, that now ye will not obey the Truth. And whereas I have with great Travel and Diligence fet forth Chrift plainly before your Eyes, yet doth this profit you nothing at all. In these Words he hath Respect to the former Arguments, whereby he proved, that to those that will be justified by the Law. Christ is but the Minister of Sin, that such do reject the Grace of God, and that to them Chrift died in vain. Which Arguments he had before more vehemently profecuted and more largely amplified in their Prefence, even as if a Painter had pourtraied Chrift Jefus before their Eyes, Now being absent he putteth them in Mind of the fame Things, faving, To whom Jelus Chrift was defcribed in your Sight. As if he faid ; There is no Painter that with his Colours can fo lively fet out Chrift unto you as I have painted him out by my Preaching ; and yet notwithfanding ye still remain most miferably bewitched.

* This was undoubtedly an horrible Illufion of the Devil, wherehyshe hail beautiched almoft the whole Workl. And every Man, the more holy he would feem to be, the more he is faraed with that Witchery, that is to fay, with the peftilent Perfwalion of his own Righteouhnels. And this was the Caule that we could not know that Jeffw Chrift was our Mediator and Saviour ; but we thought that he was a fevere Judge, which fload be pacided cified by our own Works : which was nothing elfe but most horribly to blafoheme Chrift, and as Paul faid before, to reject the Grace of God, to make the Death of Chrift of none Effect, and not only to kill him, but allo most shamefully to crucify him again. And this is the right Meaning of that which Chrift alledgeth out of Daniel, That Abominations flandeth in the holy Place, Matth. xxiv. 15. Dan. xi. 21. Wherefore every Monk and religious Perfon, and every Jufficiary ficking Remiffion of Sins and Righteoufness by his own Works or by his Afflictions, is a Crucifier of Chrift now reigning and living altho' not in the proper Person of Chrift, yet in his own Heart and in the Hearts of others. And whofoever do enter into Monalteries to the End, that by keeping of their Rule they may be justified, do enter into the Dens of Thieves, and fuch as crucify Chrift again.

Wherefore Paul useth in this Place very fevere and tharp Words, to the End that he may fear and call back the Galatians from the Doctrine of the falle Apoftles. As if he fhould fay; Confider well what ye have done ; ve have crucified Chrift again ( and this do I fo plainly fhew and paint out before your Eyes, that we may fee it, yes and touch it with your Hands ) because ye feek to be justified by the Law. But if Righteoufnefs come by the Law, then is Chrift a Minifter of Sin, and his Death altogether in vain. If this be true, then must it needs follow that Chrift is crucified again in you.

And it is not without Caufe that he addeth this Claufe, in you, or, among you. For Chrift is no more crucified, he dieth no more in his own Perfon, as is faid, Rom. vi. 9. But he dieth in us. when we rejecting true Doctrine, Grace, Faith, free Remillion of Sins, feek to be juflified by our own Works, or elfe by the Works commanded in the Law. Here Chrift is crucified in us again. Now this falle and wicked Perfwafion, to feek Righteoufness by the Law and Works, is nothing elfe ( as I have before more amply declared ) but the Illufion of the Devil, wherewith Men are fo bewitched, that in no wife they can acknowledge the Benefit of Chrift ; yea in all their Life they can do nothing elfe, but deny the Lord who hath bought them, and in whole Name they were baptiled, and crucify him again in themfelves. Whofoever then hath any Fear of God or Love unto Chrift and his true Religion, let him fly quickly out of this Babylon, and let him tremble at the very Name of the Papacy. For the Impiety and Abomination thereof is fo horrible, that no Man is able to express it with Words, neither can it be otherwife feen, then with fpiritual Eyes only.

These two Arguments Paul profecuteth and beateth into the Heads of the Galatians very diligently : First, that they are so bewitched of the Devil, that they obey not the Truth most clearly fet forth before their Eyes': Secondly, that they crucify Chrift again in themfelves. Thefe feem to be fimple and plain Words, and without any high Elouence, but in very Deed they are fo mighty that they exceed all the Elequence of Man. It cannot therefore be comprehended but only in Spirit, how great an Impiety it is to feek to be jultified by the Righteoufnefs of the Law, or by the Righteoufnefs and Merits of Man. For as Paul faith here it is nothing elfe but to be bewitched of the Devil, to be difobedient to the Truth. and to crucify Chrift again. Are not these goodly Commendations of the Righteoufness of the Law, and Man's own Righteoufnels.

The Apoftle therefore is inflamed with a vehement Zeal, and with bitter Words he reproveth and condemneth the Prefumption of Man's own Righteoufnels, riling upon the Observation of the Law of God, and chargeth it with this Impiety, that it crucifieth again the Son of God. Seeing then it is fo dangerous a Thing, it can-

Words against it, that he spareth not the very Law of God; against the which he fo bitterly inveyeth, that he feemeth utterly to reject and condemn it. And this doth he, being conftrained by great Neceffity; for otherwife he could not withftand the falfe Apoftles, nor defend the Righteoufnels of Faith against them. Albeit then that the Law be holy, just and good, yet must it put on, as it were the Visour of an Hypocrite, feeking to be justified by Works. Now he preffeth them with an Argument, whereof they themfelves had good Experience, and which they could not deny.

Verfe 2. This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the Works of the Law, or by the hearing of Faith?

He fpeaketh thefe Words with a certain Indignation and Contempt of the falfe Apoftles. If I had nothing elfe againft you but even your own Experience ( faith he ) yet have I enough. As if he should fay ; Go too now, answer me I pray you, which am your Scholar ( for ye are fo fuddenly become Doctors, that ve are now my Mafters and Teachers : ) Received ye the Spirit by the Works of the Law, or by the hearing of Faith ? With this Argument he fo convinceth them, that they have nothing to reply again. For their own Experience is altogether against them ; to wit, that they had receive ed the Holy Ghoft, not by the Works of the Law, but by the Preaching of the Gofpel.

Paul Speaketh of the whole Law.

Here again I warn you, that Paul speaked not only of the ceremonial Law, but of the whole Law. For he groundeth his Argument upon a fufficient Division. If he should speak of the ceremonial Law only, it were not a fufficient Division. It is an Argument therefore flanding upon two Parts

VERSE 2. Jothe GALATIANS.

Parts, whereof the one muft needs be true and the other falls; that is, äther ye received the Holy Ghodi by the Law, or by the hearing of Raith. If by the Law, then not by the reackling of Paith. If by the Preaching of Paith, then not by the Law. There is no Mean betwixt these two. For all that is not the Holy Ghodi or the Preaching of Paith, is the Law. Here are we in the Matter of Julificati-on. But to attain to Juftification, there is no other Way, Two Ways out either the Voice of the Goßgel, or the Voice of the to Juftifica-Law. Wherefore the Law is here taken generally, as tion. wholly feparate from the Goßgel. But it is not the ce-cemonial Law only that is feparate from the Golpel, but also the moral Law or the Law of the Ten Commandments. Wherefore Paul speaksth here of the whole Law.

He groundeth bis Argument upon a fufficient Dillincion, airct hils Sort. Tell me, f lith he ) Resired gethe Spirit by the Works of the Law, or by the hearing of Faith? Anlwer me to this. Ye cannot fay that this was fame by the Law. For 16 long as ye were under the Law and did the Works thereof, ye never received the Hajd Gholt. Indeed ye taught and heard the Law of Haje: every Sabbab's but it hath not been heard or on that ever the Holy Ghoft was given to any, either before or Difiple, they the Presching of the Law. Moreover, ye are not only taught and heard the Law, but allo ye have holoured with all your Power to perform the fame by your Works, whereby ye hould molt of all have received the Holy Ghoft, if he had been given by the Law, feeing ye were not only Teachers and Hearers, but allo Doers of the Law; and yet ye cannot finew me that this was done at my Time. But as foon as the hearing of Faith or the Goffel came into you, by and by ye received the Holy Ghoft by the only hearing faith, before ye had done any Work, or thewed any Pruit of the Goffel. For as Luke witneffeth in the ARr x. 44. xi. 15. xir, 5, a the only Presching of Peter and Paul, the Holy Ghoft cam. upn thole which heard the Word, thro' whom alfo they received livers Gifts, to that they flake with new Tongues.

It is manifest therefore that by the only Preaching of Faith, ye reeived the Holy Gholt before ye did any good Work, or brought orth any Fruits of the Gospel. On the other Side the scomplifhing of the Law never brought the Holy shoft; much lefs could the only hearing of the Law do . Therefore not only the hearing of the Law, but at Affection and Zeal allo, whereby re go about to scomplifh the Law by your Works, is vain and un-not have come down upon them.

The Argument of the Book containing the Acts of the Apostles.

Wherefore we must diligently weigh and confider the Foice of this Argument, which is fo often repeated in the Afls of the Apolles, which Book is written to confirm and etholiful this Argument, for it teachedh nathing elfe but that the Holy Ghoft is not given by the Law, but by the hearing of the Golpel. For when Peter preached, the Holy Ghoft forthwith fell upon all thole that heard him, and in one Day three Thoufard which were prefeat at the Preaching of Peter, believed and received the Holy Ghoft, Afls ii. So Corralius received the Holy Ghoft, not by the Alms which he gave, but when Peter had opened his Mouth, and was yet in [peaking, the Holy Ghoft Afls all them which with Correction heard the Word, Afls z. 44. Thefe are manifelt Arguments, Experiences, and divine Works which cannot deceive us.

Luke also writeth of Paul in the 15 of the Acts, that where he had preached the Golpel together with Barnabas among the Gentiles, and was returned to Jerufalem, he fet himfelf against the Pharifees and Difciples of the Apoffles, which urged Circumcifion and the keeping of the Law, as neceffary to Salvation ; whole Mouths he fo ftopped (faith Luke) in fhewing what Things he and Barnabas had done amongst the Gentiles, that the whole Church was amazed at the hearing thereof, efpecially when they hear that God had wrought fo many and fo great Miracles and Wonders by them among the Gentiles ; and when they which bare a Zeal to the Law, did wonder how it could be that the uncircumcifed Gentiles, not doing the Law nor the Works thereof, nor having the Righteoufnels of the Law, fhould notwithftanding attain to this Grace, to be justified and receive the Holy Ghost as well as the Jews that were circumcifed; here Paul and Barnabas did alledge nothing elfe but manifeft Experience; wherewith they were fo confounded, that they had nothing to reply again. By this Means Paulus Sergius the Lieutenant, and all those Cities, Regions, Kingdoms and Countries where the Apostles had preached, by the only Preaching of Faith did believe, without the Law and the Works thereof.

In the whole Book therefore of the Afts there is nohing elfe handled in effect, but that it behoveth as well few is a Genyier, as well righteous as unighteous, to be ultified by Faith alone in Chrift Jefus, without the Law and the Works thereof. The which Thing doth appear is well by the Preaching of Peter, to Paul, of Stephen.

fPhilp' and the other Apolltes, as alfo by the Examples of the Gentiler and Jews. For as God gave the Holy Gholt to the Gentilets which lied without the Law, by the Preaching of the Golpel; fo did he give refame to the Jews, yet not by the Law nor by the Ceremonies and acrifices commanded in the Law, but by the only Preaching of Faithiow, if the Law had been able to julify, and the Righteoutinels of the aw had been neeeffary to Solvaion, then doubtled the Holy Gholf ad not been given to the Gentiles which kept not the Law. But Exerience itfelf doth plainly wirnels, that the Holy Gholf was given into them without the Law (and this did the Apolles, both Peter, 'aul, Barnabar and others fee ) therefore the Law doth not julify, but aith only in Chrift, which the Golpel feature for far.

Their Things are diligently to be marked, becaufe of the Advertaries hich do not confider what is handled in the Aftr of the Apofiles. I yield in Times pail allo read this Book, when indeed I underflood in nothing at all. Therefore when thon hearefl or readel; in the Aftr of e Apofiles, or whereflower it be in the Scriptures, this Word Genitier, ou mult think that it is not to be underflood literally of the common ature of the Gentler, but it carrieth with it a furitual Meaning, and is be taken, not for thefle which are under the Law, as were the Jewis, s before is faid in the fecond Chapter; We use are fewel by Nature; &c.) it for thofe which are without the Law.

what Means? Not by the Law and the Works thereof ( for they we no Law ) but freely and without any other Means, except only Hearing of the Gofpel.

So Carnelius and his Priends whom he had called to his Houfe, do thing, neither look they upon any Works going before, and yet as my as are prefent, receive the Holy Gholit. No Man fipeiketh but ter, they fitting by do nothing, they think not of the Law, much lefs do y keep it, they factifice not, they care out for the receiving of Ciramelian, but only are bent to hear that which Peter fpeaketh. He by Preaching brought the Holy Gholi into their Hearts, as it were viwy; For they factor into arguest and giving factor.

But fome Man may here civil and Ly. Who knowsth whether it is the Holy Ghoft or not ? Well let him cavil. Sure it is that the ly Ghoft fo bearing winels doth not lie, but hereby fleweth that he appeth the Gentil's for rightcos, and juftifieth them by no other Manis.

Both Jews and Gentiles are juffified by Faith only.

Means, then by the only Voice of the Gofgel, or hearing of Faith in Chrift preached. We may fee also in the ddr how greatly the  $f_{max}$ , marvelled at this new and firange Thing : For the Faithful which were of the Gircumeifion, and came with Faiter to Gefares, feeing the Gift of the Holy Gholt to be poared out also upon the Gentiles in the House of Carnalius, were aftonihed, Adx x, 4s. Alforhey that were at Jereylalew, complianted of Peter for that he went in to Men uncircumcifed and did eat with them,  $Adx x_i a_s$ . This Report therefore and this Fame, that God had given Salvation allo to the Gentles, was at the first not only intollerable, but allo a great Offence, even to the believing Jeur, which they could not cally links off; for they had this Prerogative above all other Nations, that they were the People of God. The Adoption, the Glory, the Worthip, Oc. belonged to them, Rom. ix. 4. Moreover, they accretife themfelves in the Righteoufnels of the Law, they laboured all the Day long, they bare the Burden and Heat of the Day. Moreover, they had the Promiles are solved.

Indeed they have behoused, but that was but one Hour, and by this Labour they are more refreshed then warried. Wherefore them hath God teomented us with the Law, if it avail nothing to the obtaining of Righteoufiels? He now preferreth the Genilar before us which have been fo long burdened with the Yoke of the Law. For we which are the Feople of God, have been vexed all the Day long; but they which are not the Feople of God, neither have any Law, nor have done any good at all, are made equal with us.

TheCouncil of the Apofiles. And for this Caule the Council of the Apofiles, upon great Neceffity was affembled at Jerufalem to faitify and pacify the Jews, who tho' they believed in Chrift, yet, was this Opinion potwithflanding deeply rooted in their

Hereby we may fee what is the Difference between the Law and the Golfeel. The Law never bringeth the Holy Ghoft, but only teacheth what we ought to do ; therefore it juffight not: But the Golfel bringeth the Holy Ghoft, becaufe it teacheth what we ought to receive. Therefore the Law and the Golfel are two contrary Doffrings. To put Rightcoulde's therefore in the Law. Is nothine elfe but Contraiving the Gople gives th feely and requireth of us nothing elfe, but to hold out our Hands, and to take that which is offered. Now to exact and to give, to take and to offer are Things contary, and cannot fland together; for that which is given, I take; but that which I give, I do not take, but I dfar it unto another. Therefore if the Goffel Eas Gift, it requires nothing. Contraiving, the Law giveth nothing, but it requires than d flanity exadeth of us, yea even imposible Things.

whole Book of the Alts; to wit, that the Law availeth nothing to Righteoufnefs.

Let this fuffice then for the Defence of the Article of Justification, that Gornelius was a Gentile. not circumcifed, not keeping the Law;

The Law helpeth not th Rightsoufness. was a Ocenie. Not entermined in the Law, but by the hearing of Faith. God julified by the Law, but by the hearing of Faith. God julifieth therefore without the Law, and fo confequently the Law availeth nothing to Right Rightcoulnefs; for otherwife God would have given the Holy Ghoft to the Jews only, which had the Law and kept it, and not to the God wrought clean contrary; for the Holy Ghoft was given to thera that kept not the Law, wherefore Rightenuthefs cometh not by the Law. By this Means the Objection of the Aiverfaries which do not underfland the true Manner of Jufthäczino, is anfwered.

Here again the Adverfaries object againft us, and fay ; Be it fo that Cornelius was a Gentile, and did not receive the Holy Gholt by the Law, yet nowithftanding forafinuch as the Text faith plainfy. It dat he was a yuf man, fearing God, giving Alm, Stc. it may feam that by thefe Works the deferred to have the Holy Ghold afterwards siven un-

But thefe Popula sophillers put no Difference between Faith in Chrift to come, and in Chrift which is already come. Wherefore if Gradius had died before Chrift was revealed, yet had he not been danned, becaule he had the Faith of the Fathers, which were faved by Faith only in Chrift to come, Ad3 zv. 11. He remained then always a Genile, uncipumnified and without the Law, and yet notwithlanding he workhipped the felf-fame God whom the Fathers wor-hipped by Faith in the Meffas to come. But now, becaufe the Meffaswas already come, neceffary it was that it fhould be fnewed unto him by, the Apoftle Peter, that he was not now to be looked for, but that he was already come.

And this Article concerning Faith in Chrift to be revealed, and in Chrift now revealed (Ant I may touch this allo by the Way ) is very pecifiary to be known. For freing that Chrift is now revealed, we must be faved by Faith in Chrift is come, but we mult believe that be is already core, hath (biffied all Things, and abolined the Law, Therefore necefiary it was alio that Coreliss flouid be brought to anoher Belief, not that Chrift way yet to Come, as he did believe before, pat that he was already come. Likeas then Cornelius was without the Law before Chrift was revealed, even fo after Chrift was revealed, he received neither the Law nor Circumcifion. And as he kept not the Law before, fo did he nor keep it afterwards. This Argument therefore concludeth Arongly ; Cornelius was justified without the Law, therefore the Law juffifieth not.

Naaman the Syrian.

I Ikewife Naaman the Syrian was ( no doubt ) a good and a godly Man, and had a religious and reverent Opinion of God. VERSE 2.

Therefore God, long before, when the Kingdom of Mofer was yet thanding and flourithing, did fhew that he juffifieth Men without he Law, as indeed he juffield many Kings in Egypt and in Bubjons Mo Job and many other Nations of the Eafl. Moreover, Nineech a great City was juffield, and received the Promife of God, that it fhoold so the deftroyed. By what Means? Not becaufe it heard and fulfilled the Law, but becaufe it believed the Word of God which the Propher. Finale Port Coll and preclaimed a Faft, and part on Sackloth, Jonah iii. -, hat is to fay, they repented. Our Adverfaries do craftily pafs over his Word Believed, and yet the Effect of all together relieth therein. Thou readelf not in Jonab 7 and the Noneiter received the Law, but elieving the Word, they repented in Sackloth and Afhes.

This was done before Chriff was revealed, when that Paith yet reigned, thich believed in Chriff to come. If then the Geniles were julified thout the Law, and received fecretly the Holy Gholi, when the Law us yet in Force, Why thould the Law be required as neceffary to Rightournes, which by the coming of Chrift in now ab lifted ? Wherefore is is a firong Argument, grounded upon the Experience of the Galattr : Received ye the Spirit by the Work of the Law, or by the hearing Feith ? Gal. it. 2. For they were compelled to grant that they heard philing of the Holy Ghoft, before the Preaching of Paul, but when he eached the Gole, then received they the Holy Ghoft.

So we also at this Day, convicted by the Tellimony of ar own Confisience, are confitained to confels, that the oly Gholt is not given by the Law, but by the hearing Faith. For many heretofore in the Pepay, have gone out with great Labour and Study, to keep the Law, peccess of the Fahters, and the Traditions of the ope; and forme with pairoll and continual Exercises in taking and praying, did fo weary and weaken their dies, that afterwards they were able to do nothing size are by notwithranding they gained nothing elle. but ist they milicably allifted and commented themfelves. They could were attain to a quiet Conference, and Peace in Chrift, but continualaddoubted of the Good-will of God towards them. But now, fince the "pel teachest that the Law and Work's do not juilify, but Paith alone jefus Chrift, hereupon followerh a melt certain Knowledge and Underading, a mot joyful Conference, and a true Judgment of every Kind Life, and f all Things elle whatfoever. The believing Man may now duy lugge, that the Papage with all the religious Orders and Traditions treed is wicked, which before he could not do. nefs reigned in the World, that we thought thofe Works which Men had devifed, not only without the Will of God, but illo contrary to his Commandment, to be much better than thofe, which the Magiltrate, the Houfe-holder, the Guild, the Servant did at the Commandment of God.

Indeed we ought to have learned by the Word of God, that the refigious Orders of the Papifls ( which only they call holy ) are wicked, fince there is no Commandment of God, or Teffumony in the holy Scrip-

The Condition of Servants allowed before God. tures is touching the fame. Contraining, other Orders of Life which have the Word and Commandment of God, ate holy and ordained of God. But we were then wrapped in fuch horrible Darknefs, that we could not truly judge of any Thing. But now, fince the clear Light of the Gafpel doth appear, all Kinds of Life in the World are undre our Judgment. We may boldly pronounce out of the Word of God, that the Condition of Servants, which before the World is moft vile, is far more acceptable unto God, then all thereligious Orders of the Papils. For by bis Word he commendent, approvent and adorneth the State of Servants, and fo doth he not the Orders of Monky.

Eriers and fuch others. Therefore this Argument grounded upon Exberience, sught to prevail with us alfo. For sikho' many Men in the Papacy wrought many and great Works, yet could they never be cartain of the Will of God towards them, but they were always in doubt;

The Certainty of true Believers. they could never attain to the Knowledge of God, of them felves, of their Calling; they never felt the Tellimony of the Spirit in their Hearts: Bot now that the Trath ofthe Gofpel appeareth, they are fully inftructed by the onty hearing of Faith, in all their Things.

It is not without Caufe that I do fo largely intreat of these Things.

By what Means the Holy Ghoft is given unto us. For it Geemeth to readon but a finall Matter, that the Höly Ghoft is received by the only hearing of Faith, and that there is nothing elfe required of us, but that we fetting apart all our Works, fibadid give ourfelves only to the hearing of the Gofel. Man's Heart doth not underfland nor believe that for great a Treafure, namely, the Holy Ghoft, is given by the only hearing of Faith; but reafoneth after this Manner; Forgivenels of Sins, Deliverance from Death, the giving of the Holy Ghoff, of Righteoufnels and everlafting Life, are grear Things, therefore if thou wilt obtain these inellimable Benefits, thou mult perform fome other greas and weighty Matter. This Opinion

The Disputation of Man's Reafon. the Devil doth well like and approve, and also increated the fame in the Heart. Therefore when Reafon beareth this, thou canfil do nothing for the obtaining of the Forgivenefs of Sins, but muit only hear the Word of God, by and by it crieth out, and faith, Ey, thou makefit too finall Account of the Rentifition of Sins, dre. So the ineffimable Greatness of the Gifts, is the Cause that we cannot believe it :

and becaufe this incomparable Treasure is freely offered, therefore it is defpifed.

But this we must needs learn, that Forgiveness of Sins, Christ, and the Holy Ghoft are freely given unto us at the only hearing of Faith preached, notwithstanding, our horrible Sins and Demerits. And we must not weigh, how great the Thing is that is given, and how unworthy we are of it (for fo thould the Greatnels of the Gift, and our Unworthinefs terrify us ;) but we muft think that it pleafeth God freely to give unto us this unfpeakable Gift, unto us (I fay) which are unworthy, as Chrift in Luke faith, Fear not, little Flock ; for it is your Fathers good Pleasure to give unto you : Lo, to give unto you (faith he) a Kingdom, Luke xii. 32. To whom ? To you unworthy which are

I must thus think, that he also is great of Heaven is and only great, which give hit : If he offer it and will given. give it, I confider not mine own Sin and Unworthinefs.

but his fatherly Good will towards me, which is the Giver, and I receive the Greatness of the Gift with Iov and Gladness, and am thankful for fo ineftimable a Gift given freely unto me, to me (I fay) unworthy, by the hearing of Faith.

Here again foolifh Reafon is offended, and reproveth us, faying ; Where ye teach Men to do nothing at all for the obtaining of fo great and ineffimable a Gift, but to hear the Word of God, that feemeth to tend to the great Contempt of Grace, and to make Men fecure idle and diffulute, fo that they flack their Hands and do no good at all. Therefore it is not good to preach this Doctrine, for it is not true ; but Men must be urged to labour and to exercise themselves unto Righteousness, and then thall they obtain this Gift. The felf-fame

Thing the Pelagians in Times paft obje fed againft the Chriftians. But hear what Paul faith in this Place. Te have received the Holy Ghol ; not by your own Labour and Travail, nor by the Works of the Law, but by the hearing of Faith. Briefly, hear what Chrift himfelf faith. and what he answereth to Martha, being very careful and hardly bearing, that her Sifter Mary, fi ting at the Feet of Jefus and hearing his Word, fhould leave her to minister alone. Martha, Martha, (faith he) thou art careful, and troubled about many Things : But one Thing is nee iful. And Mary hath chofen that good Part, which thall not

A Man therefore is A Man is made a Chriftian, not by working, but by hearing : Wheremade a fore he that will exercise himfelf to Righteousnels must first exercife himfelf in hearing the Golpel. Now, when he hath heard and received the Gofpel, let him give thanks to God with a joyful and a glad Heart, and alterwards let Faith.

hearing of Faith. So may he quietly walk in the Light which is Chrift, and boldy choofe and do Works, not hypocritical, but good Works indeed, fuch as he knoweth to pleafe God and to be commanded of him, and conterm all thofe hypocritical Shadows of Pree-will Works.

Our Adverfaries think that Faith, whereby we receive the Holy Ghoft, is but a light Matter; but how high and hard a Matter it is, I myfelf do find by Experience, and fo do all they which with me do earnefly subtrace the fame: It is foon faid that by the only hearing of Faith the Holy Ghoft is received; but it is not fo eafly heard, laid hold on, believed and retained, as it is faid. Wherefore if thou hear of me that Chrift is that Lamb of God factribed for thy Sins, fee allo that thou hear it effectually. Poul very aptly calleth it the Hearing of Faith, and not the Word of Faith, (altho' there be fmall Difference) that is, fuch a Word as thou hearing dof believe, fo that the Word be not only my Voice, but may be heard of thee, and may enter into the Heart, and be believed of thee; then is it traly and indeed the hearing of Faith, thro' the which thou receiveft the Holy Gboft; which after thou halt once reeviced, thou halt alfo mortify thy Fleft.

The Faithful do find by their own Experience, how gladly they would hold and embrace the Word when they hear it, with a full Faith, and abandon this Opinion of the Law and of their own Richtecoufiefs, but they feel in their Flefh a mighty Refinance againft the Spirit, for Reafon and the Flefh will needs work together. This Saying, Te migh be transmigled and keep the Law, cannot be utterly roated out of our Minds, but it tlicketh faft in the Hearts of all the Fwithful. There is in the Faith of li therefore a continual Conflict between the hearing of Faith and the Works of the Law; for the Conficience always murmureth, and thinketh that this is too cafy a Way, that by the only hearing of the Word, Righteounfect, the Holy Ghoft, and Life

everlafting is promified unto us. But come once to an earneft Trial thereof, and then tell me how eafy a Thing it is to hear the Worl of Faith, indeed he which give hi sgreat : Moreover, he give hh great Things willingly and ficely, and upbraideth no Man therewith; butthy Capacity is hard, and Faith weak, fiill firiving againft thee, fo that thou art not able to receive this Gift. But let thy Conficience murmur againft thee never fo much, and letthis (Muff) come never fo ficen into thy Mund, yet fland faft and hold out, until thou overcome this (Muff.) So as Faith increafeth by little and little, that Opinion of the Righteoufnefs of the Law will diminift. But this cannot be done without great Confides.

Verfe 3. Are ye fo foolifs? Having begun in the Spirit, Are ye now made perfect by the Flefs?

This Argument being concluded, how that the Holy Ghoft cometh not by the Works of the Law, but by the Preaching of Faith : He begianeth here to exhort and terrify them from a double Danger or In-commodity. The first is, Are ye fo fooligh? Having began in the Spirit, Are ye now made perfect by the Fleft? The other followeth, Have ye juffored to preat Thungs in wain? A so if he find : Ye began in the Spirit, that is, your Religion was excellently well. To begin in begun: As also a little after, he laith, Te ran well, &ce. the Spirit, But what have ye gotten thereby ? Forfooth ye will now end in the Flefh.

Paul fetteth here the Spirit againft the Flefh: He calleth not the Flefh (as before I have faid) flefhly Lulis, bealty Palfons, or fenfual Appetites; for he intreatest not here of Luft, and fuch other flefhly Defires, but of Forgivenelis of Sins, of juftifying the Conficience, of obtaining Righteoulacies before God, of Deliverance from the Law, Sin and Death; and yet notwithflamling he faith here, that they forfaking the Spirit, do now end in the Fleth. Fleth there-Wildow is here taken for the very Righteoulneis and Wildom fig of the Fleth, and the Judgment of Reafon, which feeketh th to be jultified by the Law. Whatfoever then is molt excellent in Man, the fame here Paul calleth Flefh, as the Wifdom of Reafon, and the Righteoufnefs of the Law itfelf.

And this Place mult be well confidered, becaufe of the flanderous and cavilling Papills, which wreft the fame againft us, faying that we in Popery began in the Spiti, but now having married Wires, we end in the Flelh. As tho' a fingle Life, or not to have a Wife, were a fipritual Life; and as tho' it nothing hindred their fipiritual Life, if a Man mot contented with one Whore, have many. They are mad Mcn, not undertlanding what the Spirit, or what the Fleth is: The Spirit is what Gover is done in us according to the Spirit: The Fleth what Gover is done in us according to the Hell without the Spirit. Wherefore all the Duties of a Chriftian Man, as to hove his Wife, to bring up his Children, to govern his Family, and fuch like (which unto them are worldly and carral) are the Fruits of the Spirit. Thefe blind Buzzards cannot differen Things, which are the good Creatures of God, from Vices.

The Spirit. The Flefh.

What the Papifls call worldly and carnal.

Here is allo to be noted the Munner of Speech which the Apollle uleth, when he faith, at carne conformation, fpeaking in the paffive Voice. As if he faid; Y cend, yes rather ye are ended in the Fleh. For the Rightcounfiels of the Law, which Paul here calleth the Fleh. For the Norm julifying, that they which after the receiving of the Holy Ghode here' the hearing of Faith, fall back again suroit, are ended in it, that is to fay, are uterly defitoyed. Therefore wholoever teach that the Law ught to be fulfilled to this End, that Men might be julified thereby, thiles they go about to quier their Conficences, they haut them, and this is they you dould julify them, they condemn them.

Paul hath always a Glance at the falle Apofiles: For The Docney fill urged the Law, faying, Faith only in Chrift takth not away Sin, pacifieth not the Wrath of God, jufilfalle Apoeth not; therefore if ye will obtain the Benefix ve files.

mult not only believe in Chrift, but therewith ye mult alfo keep the Law, be circumcifed, keep the Feafts, Sacrifices, circ. Thus doing ye fhall be free from Sin, from the Wrath of God, from everlating Death. Yea, rather (hith Peu/) by the felf-fame Things ye eliabilih Unrighteoufnefs, ye provoke the Wrath of God, ye add sin to Sin, ye quench the Spirit, ye full away from Grace, and uterly recet the fame, and ye together with your Difciples do end in the Flefth. This is the first Danger, from the which he terrifieth the Galatian, left in they fact to be judified by the Law, they loofe their Spirit, and forego their good Beginning Sor a wretelred End.

Verle 4. Have ye suffered so many Things in vain?

Another Danger from the which Paul terrifieth the Galatians. The other Danger or Incommodity is this, Have yee faffered fo many Things in vain 7 As the' he would fay; Confider, pot only how well yee began, and how milerably ye have farfaken your good Beginning and your Courie well begun; moreover, that nor only ye have loft the firfl Fruits of the Spirit, being fallen again into the Minithry of Sip and Death, and into a doleful and a milétable Bore dage of the Law; but confider this alfo, that ye have faft.

fered much for the Gofpel's Sake, and fur the Name of Child 1: to writ, the fpolling of your Goods, Rüllings and Reproaches, Dangers boolt of Body and Lives, Gr. All Things were in a happy Courfe and prest Towardnels with you. Ye taught purely, ye lived holily, and ye endured many Evils confinully for the Name of Chrill. Bat now all is loft, as well Doftme as Faith, as well doing as fuffering, as well the Spirit as the Fruits thereof.

What Incommoditiesthe Righteoufnels of the Law, or Man's own Righteoufnels bringeth. Hereby it appeareth fufficiently what Incommodity the Rightseutices for the Law and Man's own Rightcouch nefs bringeth, to wit, that they which tru(i in it, do lofe at once unfpeckable Benefits. Now, what a miferable Thing is it, to fuddenly to lofe facif unefitmable Glory and Affurance of Confeience towards Gool ? Alfo to endure for many great and grievous Afficions, as Lofo of Goods, Wife, Children, Body and Life, and yet notwithflanding to fuftain all thefe Things in vain. And out of thefe two Places much Matter may be guthered to fet forth and amplify at large the goodly Commendation of the Law and

Man's own Righteoufneft, if a Man would fland upon every Parfel by itfelf, and declare what Spirit it was wherewith they began ; what, how great, and how many the Affilicions were which they realured for Chrift's Sake. But not Eloquence can fufficiently far forth their Matters ; for they are inefitted be whereof Paul here intratent ; to wit, the Gloxy of God, Vielory over the World, the Flefh and the Devil, Righreputnefs and everlafting Life ; and on the other Side, Sin, Defperation, eternal Death and Hell. And yet notwithintanding in a Moment we lofe all thefe incomparable Gifts, and procare unto ourfelves thefe hourible and and endless Miferies, and all by falle Teachers, when they lead us away from the Truth of the Gofpel unto falle Doctrine. And this do they, not only very eafily, but also under a Shew of great Holinefs, bring to bals.

Verse 4. If it be yet in vain.

This he addeth as a Correction, whereby he mitigateth the Reprehenfion that goeth before, which was fomewhat fharp. And this he doth as an Apoftle, left he flould terrify the Gala-The Office tians too much. Altho' he chide them, yet notwithof an Apoftanding he always doth it in fuch Sort, that he poureth in file. fweet Oyl withal, left he fhould drive them to Defocration.

He faith therefore, If it be yet in vain. As if he would fay; Yet I do not take away all Hope from you. But if ye would to end in the Flefh, that is to fay, follow the To end in Righteoufnefs of the Law and forfake the Soirit, as ve the Fleih. have begun, then know ye, that all your Glory and Affiance which ve have in God, is in vain, and all your Afflictions are unprofitable. Indeed I muft needs fpeak fomewhat roughly unto you in this Matter : I must be fervent in the Defence thereof, and fomewhat sharp in chiding of you, efpecially the Matter being fo weighty and conftraining me thereunto, left ye thould think it to be but a Trifle to reject the Doctrine of Paul, and receive another. Notwithstanding I will not utterly diffourage you, fo that we repent and amend. For fickly and fcabbed Children may not be caft away, but must be tendred and cherifhed more diligently then they which are in Health. So that Paul here like a cunning Phylician, layeth all the Fault in a Manner upon the falfe Apofiles, the Authors and only Caufe of this deadly Difeafe. Contrariwife he handleth the Galatians very gently, that by his Mildnefs he might heal them. We therefore by the Example of Paul, ought in like Manner to reprehend the Weak, and fo to cure their Infirmity, that in the mean Time we leave not off to cherifh and comfort them, left if we handle them too fharply, they fall into Defperation.

Verse 5. He therefore that ministreth to you the Spirit, and worketh Miracles among you, Doth he it by the Works of the Law, or by the hearing of Faith preached ?

This Argument grounded upon the Experience of the Galatians, doth fo well like the Apoftle, that after he hath reproved and terrified them, fetting before them a double Danger, he now re-Paul mapeateth the fame again, and that with a more large Ampliketh often fication, faying, He which ministreth, &c. fay ; Ye have not only received the Spirit by the hearing of Faith, but whatfoever ve have either known or done, it came by the hearing of Faith. As tho' he would fay : It was not enough that God gave you once the Spirit ; but the fame God alfo hath enriched you with the Gifts of the Spirit, and increased the fame in you, to the end that when ye have once received the Spirit it might always grow and be more and more effectual in you. Hereby it is plain, that the Galatians had wrought Miracles, or at the leaft, had shewed fuch Fruits of Faith as the true Disciples of the Gospel are wont to bring forth. For the Apostle elfewhere faith, That the Kingdom of God is not in Word, but in

The Kingdom of God confideth not in Words but in Power.

Power, 1 Cor. iv. 20. Now, this Power is not only to be able to fpeak of the Kingdom of God; but also in very deed to fhew, that God thro' his Spirit is effectual in us. So, before in the fecond Chapter, he faith of himfelf; He that was effectual in Peter among the Jews, was alfo effectual in me; He that was mighty by Peter in the Aboffleship over the Circumcision, was also mighty by me towards the Gentiles.

When a Preacher then to preacheth, that the Word is not fruitlefs, but effectual in the Hearts of Hearers, that is to fay, when Faith. Hope, Lové and Patience do follow, then God giveth his Spirit and worketh Miracles in the Hearers. In like Manner Paul faith here, That God hath given his Spirit to the Galatians, and hath wrought Miracles among them. As the' he would fay, God hath not only brought to pafs thre' my Preaching, that ye fhould believe ; but alfo that ye fhould live holily, bring forth many Fruits of Faith, and fuffer many Afflictions : Alto by the fame Power of the Holy Ghoft, of Adulterers, of wtathful, impatient and covetous Perfons, and of very Enemies, ye are become liberal, chaft, gentle, patient and Lovers of your Neighbours. Whereupon afterwards he giveth Teffimony of them in the fourth Chapter, that they received him as an Angel of God, yea rather as Chrift Jefus, and that they loved him to entirely, that they were ready to have plucked out their own Eyes for him.

Now, to love thy Neighbour fo heattily, that thou art ready to beflow thy Money, thy Goods, thine Eyes, and all that thou haft for his Salvation, and moreover to fuffer patiently all Advertities and Afflictions, thefe (no doubt) are the Effects and Fruits of the Spirit, and thefe (faith he) ye received and enjoyed before these falls Teachers came among you; but ye received them not by the Law, but of God, who for

ministred unto you, and daily increaseth in you his Holy Spirit, that the Gofpel had a most happy Course amongst you, in teaching, believing, working and fuffering. Now, feeing ye know these Things (being convicted even by the Teftimony of your own Confcience) How cometh it to pass that ye fnew not the fame Fruits that ye did before ? That is, that ye teach not truly, that ye believe not faithfully, that ye live not holily, that ye work not rightly, and that ye fuffer not patiently. Finally, Who hath to corrupted you, that ye bear not to loving Affection towards wards me, as ye did before, that ye receive nor Paul now as an Angel of God, nor as Jefus Chrift, that ye will not pluck out your Eyes to give them unos me? How conseth it to pafs (I fay) that this fervent Zeal of yours waxeth to cold towards me, and that ye now prefer before me, the falk pottles, which do 10 miferably feduce you?

In like Manner it happeneth unto us at this Day. When we firft preached the Golpel, there were very many that favoured our Doftrine, and had a good and reverent Opinion of us, and after the Preaching thereof, followed the Fruits, and Effeds of Faith. But what enfield? A Sort of Light and brainfock Heads forung up, and by and by deftroyed all that we had in long. Time and with much Travail planted before, and alfo made us fo odious unto them which before loved us denty, and thankfully received our Doftrine, that now they hat nothing more then our Name. But of this Muchief the The Works Devil is the Author, working in his Members contrary of the Devil, Works, which wholly fight againft the Works of the Ho-W Gholf. Therefore faith the Apolite, your Experience (O ye Catation) ought to teach you, that thefe great and excellent Virtues proceeded not of the Works of the Law, for as ye had them not before the tearing of Faith preached, To have ye them not now, althout the faile Apolites reign in the Midly for you.

We likewife may fay at this Day to thole which vaunt themfelves to ze Golpelers, and to be freed from the Tyranny of the Pope. Have ye swercome the Tyranny of the Pope, and obtained Liberty in Chrift thro' he Anadoptiffs and fisch other fantafical Spirits, or thro' us which have preached Faith in Jefus Chrift? Here if they will confels the Truth, they mult needs fay i, no doubt by the Preaching of Faith-

And true it is, that at the beginning of our Preaching, the Dortrine of Faith had a moll happy Courfe, and down ell the Pope's Pardons, Purgatory, Vows, Maffes, and uch like Abominations, which drew with them the Ruin & All Popery. No Man could julify condemn us; for uur Doftrine was pure, railing up and comforting many toor Confilences, which had been long opprefield with dens Traditions under the Popacy, which was a plain Tyranny, a acking and crucifying of Confeiences. Many therefore gave thanks into God, that thro' the Golpel (which we firft, by the Grace of God hen preached) they were fo mightly delivered out of bole Snares, and this Shughter-houle of Conficiences. But then thele new found Heads fprang up (who went about y all Means to work our Differedit) the began our Docine to be evil thought off, for it was commonly bruted broad, that the Profellors thereof differed among themalves. om the Truth, putting the Papifli in Comfort, that we together with ur Doctrine, fhould fhurtly come to nought, and by this Means they could recover their former Dignity and Authority again.

Wherefore like as the falls Apolities vehemently contended that the

The Anabaptiffs the Authors of Tumults and Seditions, hindered much the Courfe of the Gospel. Itanding by the Elf-Eme Means they burdened them the more with Sins, (for Sin is not taken waye by the Law, neither is the Holy Ghoff given thro' it, but only it worketh Wrath, and driveth Men into great Terrors 3/ So at this Day thefe rafi Heads, which ought to provide for the Salety of the Catholick Chutch, and at once to drive down all Popery, have some on good, but much hurt in the Church ; they have not overthrown the Papar, but have more effabilited it.

The Anabaptiffs Enemies to the Article of Jultification. But if hey had (as they began) with a common Confent together with us, taught and diligently urged the Article of Julification, that is to fay, that we are julified neither by the Rightcoulinefs of the Law, nor by our own Rightcoulinefs, but by only Patish in Jelies Chrift, doubtles this one Article by little and little (as it becan) had overthrown the whole Papare, with all

But they leaving off the Preaching of Faith and true Chriftian Righteoutinefs, have gone another Way to work, to the great Hinderance both of found Doftine, and of the Churches.

Verfe 6. Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for Righteoufnefs:

Hitherto Paul resioneth upon the Experience of the Calutian, and with this Argument he urgeth them veherenelly. Ye (Ginh he) have believed and believing have done Miracles, and have fhewed many notable Signs; and moreover, ye have fuffered many Affictions, all which T imags are the Efficits and Operations, not of the Law, but of the Ho-Hy Ghoft: This the Galatians were confitained to confest; for they could not deny thefe Things, which were before their Eyes, and manifeft to their Senfes; and therefore this Argument grounded upon their own Experience is very fitting.

Now, he addeth the Example of Abraham, and rehearlish the Tellimony of the Scripture. The first is out of Genefis, Abraham believed Ged, Sec. Gen. xv. 6. This Place the Apollie here mightilly profecateth, as allo he did in his Epille to the Roman, For if Abraham (Gith he), were julified by Wark, he hash whereas to glory, but not be-

This Place doth Paul there notably fet forth and amplify, as it is moft worthy.

Paul by thefe Words, Abraham believed, of Faith in God, maketh the chiefest Worlhip, the chiefest Duty, the chiefest Obedi-

mcc, and the chiefk Sacrifice. Let him that is a Rheorician, amplify this Place, and he shall fee that Faith a maingiby Thing, and that the Power thereof it infinite and ineffimable: For it given the Glary unto God, shich is the highel Service that can be given unto lim. Now, to give Glory unto God, is to believe in him, to sount him true, wile, rightcous, merciful, altinghty s briefy to acknowledge tim to be the Author and Giver of all Goodnefs; this Reason dorh nor, but Faith. That is it which maketh us divine People, and (as a Man would Av) it is the Cerator of a certain Divinity, no in the Subtiance of God, but in us ; for without Faith God Iofeth in us his Glory, Wildom, Righteoufnels, Truth and Mercy. To conclude, no Majefly pr Divinity remaineth unto God, where Faith is not ; and the chiefet Thing that God requireth of Man is, that he give unto him. his Glory and his Divinity; that is to fay, that he take ham not for an Iool, but for Tod, who regarded him, hearedh him, fheweth Mercy unto him, and relpeth him : This being done, God heth his full and perfed Divinity y, that is, he hath wholever a faithful Heart can attribute unto him. To be able therefore to give that Glory unto God, it is the Wildom of Wildoms, the Righteoulnets of Righteoulneffes, the Religion of Religina, and Sacrifice of Sacrifices. Hereby we may perceive what an high and excellent Righteougnets Faith is, and fo by the contrary, what an uotrible and grievoas Sin Infidelity is.

Whofoever then believeth the Word of God, as Abraham did, is righreous before God, becaufe he hath Faith, which giveth

Bory unto God; that is, he given to God that which is ue to him. For Faith faith thus; I believe the (O iod) when thou fpeakelf. And what faith God! For what more abfurd, foolifh and impoffible, then when God faith a Morgham, that he thould have a Son of the barren and ead Body of his Wife Sarah.

So, if we will follow the Judgment of Resfon. God fetteth birth abfurd and imposfible Things, when he fetteth out uno us the Articles of the Chriftian Faith. Indeed it feemeth o Resfon an abfurd and a foolift Thing, that in the Lord's M

For this Caule Paul calleth the Golpel of Chrift crucified, the Word of the Großs and foulith Prezelting, which to the freu was offenfive, and to the Genites folding Dodirine, 1 Cer. i. 18. Wherefore Realon doth nor underfland that to hear the Word of God and to believe it is the chiefel Service that God requireth of us, but it thinketh that thofe Things which it chootes that add that a goad Intent (as they call it) and of 4 er own Devotion. Faith flayeth Reafon. But, Faith killeth Resfon, and flayeth that Beaft which the whole World and all Creatures cannot kill. So Abraham killed it by Faith in the Word of God, whereby Seed was promifed to him of Surah, who was barren and now pall Child-bear ing. Unto this Word Reafon yielded not flraightway in Abraham, but it fought against Faith, in him, judging it to be an abfurd, a foolish and an

Thus Faith wrelited with Reafon in Borlatam, but herein Faith got the Victory, killed and facrificed Reafon, that molt cruel and pelllent Enemy of God. So all the Godly entring with Bhraham into the Datknels of Faith do kill Reafon, faying, Reafon, thou art foolih, thou doft not favour thole Things which belong unto God: Therefore Ipeak not againft me, but hold thy Peace; judge not, but hear the Word of God and believe

And, in Comparifica of this sacrifice of the Faithful, all the Religions of all Navions, and all the Works of all Monks and Meritmongers, are nothing at all. For by this Sacrifice, firlt (as 1 faid) they kill Reafon, a great and mighty Enemy of God. For Reafon defpileth God, denieth his Wifdom, Juftice, Power, Truth, Mercy, Majelly and Divinity. Moreover, by the fame Sacrifice they yield Glory unto God; that is, they believe him to be juff, good, faithful, true, dre. they believe that he can do all Thinns, that all his Words are holy, true, lively and effice.

Contrariwife. The Jufficiaries and fuch as feek Righteoufnels by their own Works, lacking Faith, do many Things. They falt. they pray, they watch, they lay Croffes upon themfelves. But because they think to appeale the Wrath of God and deferve Grace by thefe Things, they give no Glory to God, that is, they do not judge him to be merciful, true, and to teep his Promife, erc. but to be an angry Judge, which null be pacified with Works, and by this Means they dif-

For they rejecting and defpifing the Word of God, do choose unto themselves fuch a Service of God, and fuch Works as God hath not commanded. They imagine that God hath a Pleafure therein, and they hope to receive a Reward of him for the fame. Therefore they kill not Reafon, that mighty Enemy of God, but quicken it ; and they take from God his Majefly and his Divinity, and attribute the fame unto their own Works. Wherefore only Faith giveth Glory to God as Paul witneffeth of Abraham, Abraham (faith he) was throng in Faith, giving Glory to God : And being fully perfivaded, that what he had promifed, he was able alfo to perform. And therefore it was imnuted to him for Righteoufnefs, Rom. iv. 20, 21. 22.

Chriftian Righteoulnels confifteth in Faith of the Heart, and God's Imputation. It is not without Caufe that he addeth this Sentence out of the 15 Chapter of Genefis, And it was counted unto him for Righteoufnefs. For Chriftian Righteoufnefs confilteth in two Things, that is to fay, in Faith of the Heart, and in God's Imputation. Faith is indeed a formal Righteoufnefs, and yet this Righteoufnefs is not enough ; for after Faith there remain yet certain Remnants of Sin in our Flefh.

This Sacrifice of Faith began in Abraham, but at the laft it was finished in his Death. Wherefore the other Part of Righteoufnefs must needs be added also, to finish the ame in us, that is to fay, God's Imputation : For Faith giveth not enough to God, becaufe it is imperfect, yea rather our Faith is but a little Spark of Faith, which beginmeth only to render unto God his true Divinity, we have received the first Fruits of the Spirit, but not yet the tenths. Befides this, Reafon is not utterly killed in this Life, which chay appear by our Concupifcence, Wrath and Impatiency, ind other Fruits of the Flefh, and of Infidellity yet remaining in us. Yes the holieft that live, have not yet a full and continual Joy in God, but have their fundry Paffions, of Chrift.

The Blindnefs of the School-men. The Popifit Sophiflers and School-men difpute alfo of Imputation, when they fpeak of the good Acceptation of the Work; but belides and clean contrary to the Scripture: for they wreft it only to Works. They do not confider the Uncleannefs and inward Poifon lurking in the Heart, as Incredulity, doubting, contemning, and hating of God, which moft pernici-

They confider no more but outward and groß Faults and Unrighteoufnels, which are little Rivers proceeding and ilfuing out of thofe Foontains. Therefore they attribute Acceptations to Works, that is to fay, that God doth accept our Works, not of Duty, but of Congruence. Contrainvilé, we excluding all Works, dog or to the very Head of this Beafl, which is called Reafon which is the Foontain and Head-Spring of all Mifchiefs. For Reafon fastert hour God, it loved hot God, it rur utileth not in God, but proadly conterment him. It is not moved either with his Threatings or his Promiles. It is not fighted with his Words or Works, but it murmareth againft him, it is angry with him, judgeth and hateth him, to be flort, it is an Benmy to God, not giving him his Glory, Res. will, or This perfiltent Besti (Reafan I fay) being once flain, all outward and großs Vices fhould be nothing.

Reafon muft be killed by Faith. Wherefore we mult firft and before all Things go about by Faith, to kill infidelity, the Contempt and Hating of God, murmuring againft his Judgment, his Wrath, and all his Words, and Works; for then do we kill Reafon, which can be killed by none other Means but by Faith, which it believing God, gived unto him his Glory, notwithlanding that he fpeaketh thole Things, which feem both foolin, abfurd, and impofible to Reafon is able either to judge or conceive, that is to fry, after this Manner: I will account and pronounce there as righteoux, not for the keeping of the Law, nor for thy Works and thy Menis, but for thy Eaith in felux Chrift mine only beguten Son, who was born, fuffered, was crucified and died for thy Sins; and that Sin which termsine hin thee, I will not impate unto thee. If Reafon then be not killed, and all Kinds of Religioagand Service of God under Heaven that are invented by Men to get Righteotifiels before God, be not condenned, the Righteotifies of Falth can take no Place.

When Resion heareth this, by and by it is offended ; it regent and attereth all her Malice againft God, faying. Are then my good Works rothing? Have I then laboured and born the Burden and Heat of the Day in vain? The Pope with all his popilh Rablement, will not feem to err, much lefs will he fuffer himfelf to be condemned.

A Definition Wherefore let those which give themselves to the Study of the holy Scripture, learn out of it this Saving : Abraof the Chriham believed God, and it was counted to him for Righffian Faith. teoufnefs, to fet forth truly and rightly this true Christian Righteoufnels after this Manner : that it is a Faith and Confidence in the Son of God, or rather a Confidence of the Heart in God thro' Jefus Chrift : And let them add this Claufe as a Difference : Which Faith and Confidence is accounted Righteoufnefs for Chrift's Sake. For thefe two Things ( as I faid before ) work Chriftian Righteoufnels ; namely, Faith in the Heart. which is a Gift of God, and afforedly believeth in Chrift, and also that God accepteth this imperfect Faith for perfect Righteoufnefs, for Chrift's Sake, in whom I have begun to believe. Becaufe of this Faith in Chrift, God feeth not my doubting of his Good-will towards me, my Diftruft, Heavinefs of Spirit, and other Sins which are yet in me. For as long as I live in the Flefa Sin is truly in me. But becaufe I am covered under the Shadow of Chrift's Wings, as is the Chicken under the Wing of the Hen, and dwell without all Fear under that most ample and large Heaven of the Forgivenels of Sins, which is fpread over me, God covereth and pardoneth the Remnant of Sin in me; that is to fay, because of that Faith wherewith I began to lay hold upon Chrift, he accepteth my imperfect Righteoufnels even for perfect Righteoufnels, and counterh my Sin for no Sin, which notwithstanding is Sin indeed.

So we throud ourfelves under the Covering of Chrift's Fleth, who is our cloudy Pillar for the Day, and our Pillar of Fire for the Night, Exod. xiii. 21. left God thould fee our Sin. And altho' we fee it, and for the fame do feel the Terrors of Confcience, yet flying unto Chrift our Mediator and Reconciler ( thro' whom we are made perfect ) we are fure and fafe : For all Things are in him, fo thro' him we have all Things, who alfo doth fupply whatfoever is wanting in us. When we believe this, God winketh at the Sins and the Remnants of Sin yet flicking in our Flefh, and to covereth them, as if they were no Sins. Becaufe ( faith be ) thou believest in my Son, altho3 thou have many Sins, yet notwithstanding they shall be forgiven thee, until thou be clean delivered from them by Death.

Let Chriftians learn with all Diligence to understand this. Paul's Divi-Article of Christian Righteoufnels. And to this End let nity. them read Paul, and read him again both often and with great Diligence, and let them compare the first with the last ;-yea let them compare Paul whoily and fully with himfelf, then shall they find it to be true, that Christian Righteoufnefs confifteth in these two Things ; namely in Faith which giweth Glory unto God, and in God's Imputation. For M 3 Faith

Chriftian nels confifteth in two Things.

CHAP. III.

Faith is wask (as I have faid) and therefore God's Imputation mult needs be joined witted, that is to fay, that God will not lay to our Charge the Remnant of Sin, that he will not pumihi it, nor condern us for it, but will cover it and will freely forgive it, as tho'it were nothing at all; not for our Sike, neither for our Worthinefs and Works, but for lefus Chrift's Sake in whom we believe.

A Christian is both righteoutend a Sinnt

Thus a Chriftian Man is built righteous and a Sinner, holy and profane, an Enemy of God and yet a Child of God. Theie Contrains no 5qb/lifer will admit, forthey know not the true Manner of Julification. Andthis was the Gaufe why they confituated Men to work Whereby they gave Occafion to many (which fliving with all their Endeuvour to be perfelly rightcoox, could not attain thereanto ) to become flark madi. Chriftians be Priefls.

The daily Sacrifice of the new Teftament. his Sin.

Here we fee that every Chriftin is an high Prick : For frift he offsreth up and killeth his own Reafon, and the Wilflow of the Fleht: Then he giveth Glory to God, what he is tiglicous, true, patient, puifal and mecifal. And this is that daily Sacrifice of the new Telament, which muft be offsred Evening and Morning. This Evening Excifice is to kill Reafon, it he M ening-facilities is to glorify God. Thus a Chriftian daily and continually is occupied eupied in this double Sacrifice and in the Exercife thereof. And no Man is able to fet forth fufficiently the Excellency and Dignity of this Chrifian Sacrifice.

This is therefore a fit ange and a wonderful Definition of Chritian Righteoufnefs, that it is the Impuration of God for Righteoufnefs or unto Righteoufnefs, becaufe of our Faith in Chrift, or for Chrift's Sake. When the Pepith

School men hear this Definition, they laugh at it. For they imagine that Righteonfuels is a certain Quality poured into the Soul, and afterwards fpread into all the Parts of Man. They cannot put away the vain Intaginationsof Reafion. Which teacheth that a right Judgment, and a Good will, or a good Intent is true Rightsoufnefs. This unfpeakable Gift therefore excellent all Reafon, that God dorth account and acknowledge him for rightsous without Works, which embraceth his Son by Fauh alone, who was fent into the World, was born, fuffered, and was crugcified for us.

This Matter, as touching the Words is eafy (to wir, that Rightcoufnefs is not effectively in us, as the Papith reason out of Aritylate, but without us in the Graceo Good only and in his Imputation; and that there is no effectively in the state of Rightcouffield in the state of the there of first Frails of Faith, whereby we have began to apprehend Chrift, and yet Sin in the mean Time remains we have began to apprehend Chrift, and yet Sin in the mean Time remains we have began to apprehend Chrift, and its no infill or light Matter, but weighty and of great Importance. For Chrift which was given for us, and whom we apprehend by Faith, hath done no final Thing for us, but (see Fault Sid before ) He lowed me, and gone binield for me, Gal. II. 20. Being made a Gurje for us, & & Gal. III. 12. And this is no vain Speculation, that Chrift was delivered for my Sins and was made accurded for me, that 1 might be delivered from evenlating Death. Therefore to apprehend that "Son by Faith, and with the Heart to believe in him, given unto us and for us of God, cauleth, that God doth account that Faith, altho' it be imperfect for perfort Righteoufficfs.

* For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given, Ifa. iz. 6.

And here we are altogether in another World far from Reafon, where we diffute not what we ought to do, or with what Works we may deferve Grace and Forgivenels of Sins ; but we are in a Matter of most high and heavenly Divinity, where we do hear this Gospel or glad Tidings, that Chrift died for us, and that we believing this, are counted righteous, tho' Sins notwithstanding do remain in us, and that great Sins. So our Saviour Chrift alfo defineth the Righteoufnels of Faith, out of the 15 Chapter of St. John's Golpel; The Father ( faith he ) loveth you. Wherefore doth he love you ? Not because ye were Phurin. fees unreprovable in the Righteoufnels of the Law, circumcifed, doing good Works, Fasting, Gc. but because I have chosen you out of the World, and ye have done nothing, but that ye have loved me, and believed that I came out from the Father. And, any yet norwithilanding in another Place he calleth them evil, and commandeth them to alk Forgivenes of their Sinse Thefe two Things are quite contrary is with, that a Chriftian is rightcous and beloved of God, and yet notwithinflanding he is a Sinner. Thus a Christian Man abideth in true Humility, feeling Sin in hime effectually, and confesting himfelf to be worthy of Wrath and Judgment of God, and everlafting Death for the fame, that he may be humbled do remain in us, which God utterly hateth. Therefore it is neceffary that we fhould have Imputation of Righteoufneds; which we obtain thro? Chrift and for Chrift's Sake who is given unto us and received of us by Faith. In the mean Time, as long as we live here, we are carried and nourified in the Bojom of the Mercy and Long-fufferance of God, unil the Bojo of Sin be abolihed, and we railed up as new Creaforers in that great Day; then thall there he new Heavens and a new Earth, in which Righteoufnets hall dwell: In the mean while under this Heaven Sin and wicked Men do dwell, and the Gody alfo have Sin dwelling in them. # Verle 7. Know ye therefore, that they which are of Faith, the same are the Children of Abraham.

This is the general Argument and whole Difputation of Paul against the Jews, that they which believe, are the Children of Abraham, and not they which are born of his Flefh and his Blood. Rem.

ix. 7, 8. This Difputation Paul vehemently profecuteth The Difpuin this Place, and in the ath and oth Chapters to the Rotation of mans. For this was the greateft Confidence and Glory of Paul againft the Jews, We are the Seed and Children of Abraham. He the Tews. was circumcifed and kept the Law : therefore if we will be the true Children of Abraham, we must follow our Father, de. It was (no doubt) an excellent Glory and Dignity, to be the Seed of Abrakam; for no Man could deny but that God fpake to the Seed and of the Seed of Abraham ; but this Prerogative nothing profited the unbelieving Tews. By Reafon whereof Paul, effectially in this Place, mightily friveth against this Argument, and wresteth from the Tews this Arong Affiance in themfelves; and this could he, as the Elest Veffel of Chrift, do above all other. Acts ix. 15. For if we at the beginning thould have diffuted with the Tews without Paul, peradventure we thould have prevailed very little against them.

So then Paul reasoneth against the Jews which flood fo proudly in this Opinion, that they were the Children of Abraham, faying, We are the Seed of Abraham. Well, what then ? Abraham was circumcifed and kept the Law, we do the fame. All this I grant ; But will ye therefore feek to be justified and faved ? Nay not By what fo; but let us come to the Patriarch Abraham himfelf, Means Aand let us fee by what Means he was justified and faved : braham was Doubtlefs, not for his excellent Vertues and holy Works; not because he forfook his Country, Kindred and Father's Houle ; not becaufe he was circumcifed and obferved the Law ; not becaufe he was about to offer up in Sacrifice at the Commandment of God, his Son Ifuac, in whom he had the Promife of Pofterity; but becaufe he believed, Gen. xii. 1. Gen. xvii. 24. Gen. xxii. 1, 2. Wherefore The was not juffified by any other Means then by Faith alone : If ye then will be justified by the Law, much more ought Abraham your Father to be justified by the Law. But Abraham could not otherwise be justified, nor receive Forgiveness of Sins and the Holy Ghoft, then by Faith alone. Since this is true by the Teffimony of the Scripture, Why fand ye fo much upon Circumcifion and the Law, contending that ye a have Righteoufnefs and Salvation thereby, when as Abraham himfelf, o your Father, your Fountain and Head-fpring, of whom ye do fo much glory, was juffified and faved without thefe, by Faith alone ! What can be faid againft this Argunent ?

begetting doth not make us the Children of Abrabam.

Paul therefore concludeth with this Sentence : They which are of Faith are the Children of Abraham, that corporal Birth or carnal Seed maketh not the Children of Abraham before God. As tho' he would fay : There is none before God accounted as the Child of this Abraham (who is the Servant of God, whom God hath cholen and made righteous by Faith) thro' carnal Generation : but fach Children mult be given him before God, as he was a Father : But he was a Father of Faith, was juffified and pleafed God, not becaufe he could beget Children after the Flefh, not becaufe he had Circumcifion and the Law, but becaufe he believed in God. He therefore that will be a Child of the believing Abraham, muft allo himfelf believe, or elfe he is not a Child of the Elect. the beloved and the justified Abraham, but only of the begetting Abraham, which is nothing elfe but a Man conceived, born, and wrapt in Sin, without the Forgivenels of Sins, without Faith, without the Holy Ghoft, as another Man is, and therefore condemned. Such alfo are the Children carnally begotten of him, having nothing in them like unto their Father, but Flefh and Blood, Sin and Death, therefore these are also damned. This glorious boalting then, We be Abraham's Seed, John viii. 33, 38. is to no Parpofe.

This Argument Paul fetteth out plainly in the oth to the Romans, by two Examples of the holy Scripture. The first is of I/bmael and I/aac, which were both the Seed and natural Children of Abraham; and yet notwithstanding Ilbmael (which was begotten of Abraham, as Ifaac was, yea and should also have been the first begotten, if carnal Generation had had any Prerogative, or could have made Children to Abraham) is fhut out, and yet the Scripture faith ; In Ifaac Iball thy Seed be called. The fecond is of Efau and Facob, who when they were as yet in their Mother's Womb, and had done neither good nor evil, it was faid, The elder Iball (erve the younger, Jacob have I loved, and Efau have I hated. Therefore it is plain, that they which are of Faith, are the Children of Abraham.

But fome will here object (as the Jows do, and certain cavilling Spirits at this Day) faying that this Word Faith in the Hebrew, fignifieth Truth, and therefore we do not rightly apply it : And moreover, that this Place out of Gen. xv. 5. fpeaketh of a corporal Thing, namely, of the Promife of Polterity, and therefore is not well applied of Paul to Faith in Chrift, but ought fimply to be underflood of the Faith of Abraham, whereby he believed according to the Promife of God, that he fhould have Seed ; and hereby they would prove that the Arguments and Allegations of Paul do conclude nothing. In like Manner they may cavil alfo, that the Place which Poul a little after alledgeth out of Hab. ii. 4. fpeaketh of Faith, as touching the full full accomplifting of the whole Vilion, and not of Faith only in Chrift, for the which Paul alledgeth it Likewife they may wreft all the 11th Chapter to the Hebrews, which speaketh of Faith and the Examples of Faith. By these Things fuch vain-glorious and arrogant Spirits do hunt for Praife, and feek to be counted wife and learned, where they leaft of all deferve it. But becaufe of the Simple and Ignorant, we will briefly answer to their Caviliations.

To the first I answer thus, that Faith is nothing elfe, but the Truth of the Heart ; that is to fay, a true and a right Opinion of the Heart as touching God. Now, Faith only thinketh and judgeth rightly of God, and not Reafon, and then doth a Man think rightly of God, when he believeth his Word : But when he will measure God without the Word, and believe him according to the Wifdom of Reafon, he hath no right Opinion of God in his Heart; and therefore he cannot think or judge of him as he thould do. As for Example, when a Monk imagineth that his Coul, his thaven Crown, and his Vows do pleafe God, and that Grace and everlafting Life is given unto him for the fame, he hath no true Opinion of God, but falle and full of Impiety. Truth therefore is Faith itfelf, which judgeth rightly of God, namely, that God regardeth not our Works and Righteoufnels, becaufe we are unclean; but that he will have Mercy upon us, look upon us accept us, jul

tify and fave us, if we believe in his Son, whom he hath feat to be a Sacrifice for the Sins of the whole World, I John ii. 2. This is a true Opinion of God, and in very deed nothing elfe but Faith itfelf. I cannot comprehend nor be fully affared by Reafon, that I am received into God's Fayour for Chrift's Sake : But I hear this to be pronounced by the Gofpel. and I lay hold upon it by Faith.

To the fecond Cavillation, I answer, that Paul doth rightly al'edge the Place of the fifteenth of Genelis, applying it to Faith in Chrift. For with Faith always must be joined a certain Affurance of God's Mercy. Now this Affurance comprehendeth a faithful Truft of Remiffion of Sins for Chrift's Sake. For it is impossible that thy Confcience should look for any Thing at God's Hand, except first it be affured, that God is merciful unto thee for Chrift's Sake. Therefore all the Promifes are to be referred to that first Promise concerning Christ ; The Seed of the Wiman (hall bruife the Serpents Head, Gen. iii. 15. So did all the Prophete. both understand it and teach it. By this we may fee that the Faith of our Fathers in the old Teffament, and ours now in the new is all one, altho' they differ as touching their outward Object. Which Thing Peter witneffeth in the Alts when he faith ; Which neither our Fathers, nor we, were able to bear. But we believe that thro' the Grace of the Lord Jefus Chrift, we thall be faved even as they. Acts

John vii. 76. Notwithflanding, the Faih of the Fathers was grounded on Chrift which was to come, as ours is on Chrift which is now come. Abraham in his Time was julified by Paith in Chrift to come, but if he lived at this Day, he would be julified by Paith in Chrift now revealed and prefers; Like as I have fid before of Cornelius, who are the fift believed in Chrift to come, but being influenced by Peter, he believed that Chrift was already come. Aft x. 1, 2, 3. Therefore the Divergivy of Times ne-

The Faith of the Fathers and ours both one. Adi x. 1, 2, 3. Therefore the Diverfity of Times never changeth Faith, nor the Holy Ghoft, nor the Giffs thereof. For there hath been, is, and ever thall be one Mind, one Judgment and Underflanding concerning Chrift, as well in the ancient Fathers, as in the Faithful, which are at this Day, and faall come hereafter. So we have as well Chrift to come and believe in him, as the Fathers in the old Teltament had. For we look for him to come again in the laft Day with Glory, to judge both the Qnick and the Dead, whom now we believe to be come already for our Salvation. Therefore this Allegation of Peul offendeth none but those blind and ignorant Cavillers.

Paul therefore (as I have faid) rightly alledgeth that Place out of Carefai, of Faith in Chrift, when he fpeaketh of the Faith of Abraham. For all the Promities path, were contained in Chrift to come. Therefore as well Abraham and the other Fathers, as allo we, are made rightcous by Faith in Chrift.: They by Faith in him then to come, we by Faith in him now preferst. For we intreat now of the Nature and Manner of Julification, which is all one both in them and in us, whither in be in Chrift to be revealed, or in Chrift now revealed and prefent. It is epough therefore that Paul/fixewith, that the Law jufifieth not, but only Paith, mcKrift to be end fit to come, or in Chrift atteady come.

To fome Chrift is come, to fome he is not yet come. At this Day alfo Chrift to fome is prefent, to other fome he is to come. To all Believers he is prefent; to the Unbelievers he is not yet come, neither doth he profit them any Thing at all : But if they hear the Golpel, and believe that he is prefent unto them, he juftiketh and faveth them.

Veric 7. Know ye therefore, that they which are of Faith, the fame are the Children of Abraham.

Who are the Children of Abraham.

Abraham a Father both of the Jews and the Gentiles. As if he would fay it know by this Example of Abraham, and by the plain Tellimony of the Scripture, that they are the Children of Abraham, which are of Faith, whether they be Jewn or Geniles, without any refpect either unto the Law, or unto Works, or to the camal Generation of the Fathers. For not by the Law, but by the Righteoufnets of Faith, the Promife was made unto Abraham, that he floudd be Heir of the World, that is to fay, that in his Seed all the Nations of the Earth floudd be bleffed, and that he fhould be called the Father of Nations. And left the Jews fhould hild y interpret this Word Nation, applying it unto themelows alone, the Scripture preventent hits, and fuith not only, a Father of Nations, Gen. xvii. iv. but a Father of many Nations have I made they Rom. iv. 17. Therefore Abraham is not only the Father of the Jews, but allo of the Gentiles.

Hereby we may plainly fee that the Children of Arabow are not the Children of the Pleth, but the Children of Faith, as Peul, Rom. iv. 16, 17, declareth, Who is the Father of may Nations Jeces before Eod whom he did believe: So that Paul marketh two Akeshoan, a beguting and a believing Advaham. A kirakam hat Children and is a Father of many Nations. Where ? Before God, where he believeth; not before the World, where he begetteth.

The Children of *A*braham are not of the Flefh but of Faith.

This

For in the World be is the Child of Adam and a Sinner, or (which is more ) he is a Worker of the Rightcouline's of the Law, living after the Rule of Reafon, that is, after the Manner of Men; but this pertaineth nothing to the believing Araham.

This Example therefore of Morebasm wrappeth in it the holy Scripture itfelf, which faith that we are counted righteous by Faith. Wherefore this is a fitting and mighty Argument two Manner of Ways, both by the Example of Airabasm, and alfo by the Authority of the Scripture.

Verse 8. And the Scripture forefeeing that God would justify the Heathen through Faith,

Such a Glory and I dech an excellent Telfmony alledge ye for yourfelves againft us, if ye can. To this anforcent Paul the Apofile of the Genilie; This your proud bragging and boaling in its on Purpole; for the Scripture prevented it, and forelaw long he tone the Law, that the Centile's this your proud bragging and boaling its to no Purpole; for the Scripture prevented it, and forelaw long before the Law, that the Centile's Hould not be juilitied by the Law, but by the Bieling of Alrabon's Seed, which was promiled unto him (as Paul faith alterwards) A30 before the Law was given. Now, the Law being given fo many Years alter, could not binger or sholgh this Promile of the Bieling mande unto Abraham, but it hash continued farm and thall continue for ever. Abraham was juftified before Circumcifion : And 430 Years before the Law. between me and you, &c. Gen. xvii. 10. With this Argument Paul mightiy convincent the falls Apolles, and the weth plainly that Alraham was jultified by Faith only, both without and before Gircomcifion, and alfo 430 Years before the Law. This fell fame Argument he handleth in the fourth Chapter to the Koman; to wit, that Rightoculines was impured to Alraham before Circumcifion, and that he was rightcow before yet Law.

Therefore (faith Paul) the Scripture dut well provide againft this your glorino bragging of the Rightrendhoffs of the Law and Works. When ? Before Gircumcifion and before the Law. For the Law and Scripture and the Law and before the Law, but was allo dead and burjed; and his Rightrendhefs without the Law did hor only flourith until the Law, but allo fhall alwaith even to the End of the World. If theat the Law and before the Law and brain was made rightreous without the Law and before the Law and brain was made rightreous without the Law and before the Law, much more are the Children made rightreous by the fime Means that their Father was. Therefore Rightreoulocks cometh by Fath only and not by the Law.

Yeric 8. Preached before the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all Nations he bleffed. lite or Stranger which worthippeth the God of the Tews and joineth himfelf unto them, is also bleffed. Therefore they think that Bleffing is nothing elfe but Praife and Glory in this World, in that a Man may glory and yaunt that he is of the Stock and Family of Abraham. But this is to corrupt and pervert the Sentences of the Scriptures, and not to expound them. By these Words, Abraham believed, Paul defineth and fetteth before our Eyes a fpiritual Abraham, faithful, righteous, and having the Promife of God ; an Abraham (I fay) which is not in Error. and in the old Flefh ; which is not born of Adam, but of the Holy Ghoft. And of this Abraham renewed by Faith and regenerate by the Holy Ghoft, fpeaketh the Scripture, and pronounceth of him, that he fhould be a Father of many Nations. Alfo that all the Gentiles fhould be given unto him for an Inheritance, when it faith, In thee (hall all the Nations of the Earth be bleffed. This, Paul vchemently urgeth by the Authority of the Scripture, which faith, Gen. xv. 6. Abraham believed God, &c.

The Scripture Alen attributeth no Righteoufned to Arabam, but in that be believeth, and it foreketh of furth an Arabam, as he is accounted before God. Such Sentences therefore of the Scripture do lef forth unto us a new Arabam, which is fegarate from the carnal Maring and Bed, and from the carnal Generation, and make him fuch an one as he is before God, that is to fry, believing and juilities that the sentences have God maked the Fromile becaule of the Faith, Four Bolt te et Faither of many Nations. Again, at the fload 1 the Nations of the Earth be field. And this is the Meaning of Paul, where he floweth how the Scripture preventeth the vain Prefumption and proud Brege of the forus at ouching the Law. For the Inheritance of the Genitzer, was given unto Arabam, not by the Law and Circumcifion, but long selecter the funce, by the only Righteouffiel of Faith.

Therefore, whereas the few will be counted and cal. It is a great idd bleffa, becaufe they are the Children and Seed of Glory to be Abraham, it is nothing elfe but a vain-florious Brag. It of *Abra*is (no doubt) a great Prerogative and Glory before the bans's Seed. World, yo be bon of Abrahams's Seed, as Pain [havet]. Rom. ix, but not fo before God. Wherefore the Jews do wickedly pervert this Place conterning the Bleffing, in applying it only to a carnal Bleffing, and do great Injuries to the Scripture, which fpeaketh mofi manifeltily of the fipirual Bleffing before God, and neither can nor ought otherwise to be underflood. This is then the true Menning of this Place, In these flall be bleffed. In which thes? In these Abraham believing, or in thy Faith, or in Chrift (thy Seed) to come, in whom thou believeft All the Nations of the Earth (I fay) shall be bleffed, that is, all the Nations fullable thy bleffed Children, even like as thou art bleffed, as it is written, SS faell thy Seed by Gen. x. c.

The Feuri look but thro's Vall into the Scripture, and therefore they underfland not what, or whereof the Promife is which was gnade to the Fathers i Which we notwithflanding ought to confider above all Things. So thall we, fee that God Speaketh to Abraham the Patriarch, not of the Law nor of Things to be done, but of Things to be believed, that is to fay, that God Speaketh unto him of Promifes which are apprehended by Faith. Now, what doth Afra-Ann? He believent hole Promites. And what doth God to that believing Adraham? He imputeth Faith unto him for Righteoufnefs, and addeth further many more Promites, as, 1 am thy Sheld, Gen. Xv. 1. Is thee fail al Families of the Earth be beligid. Gen. Xii. 3. That that he a Father of many Nations, Gen. Xvii. 4. So fault thy Seed be, Gen. Xv. 5. Thefe are invincible Arguments, againff the which nothing can be faid, if the Places of the holy Scripture be throughly confidered.

Verse 9. So then they which be of Faith, are bleffed with faithful Abraham.

All the Weight and Force hereof lieth in these Wolds, with faithful Abraham ; for he putteth a plain Difference between Abraham and Abraham, of one and the fell fame Person making two. As if he faid :

A working and a believing A. braham. There is a working, and there is a believing Abraham; with the working Abraham we have nothing to do; for if he be jufficed by Works, he hash to rejouce but not with God: Let the 'Jroug glory as much as they will, of that begeting Abraham, which is a Worker, is circumoifed, and keepeth the Lew; but we glory of the fishily' Abraham, of whom the Scripture faith, that he received the Bleffing of Righteoufnefs thro' his Faith, not only for himfelf, but also for all those hich believe as he did ; and fo the World was promifed to Abraham. ecaufe he believed ; therefore all the World is bleffed, that is to fave eceiveth Imputation of Righteoufnefs, if it believe as Abraham did.

Wherefore the Bleffing is nothing elfe but the Promife of the Gofnel : and that all Nations are bleffed, is as much as to fay, as all Nations mall hear the Bleffing, that is, the Promife of God fhall be preached and ublifhed by the Golpel among all Nations : And out of this Place the rophets have drawn many Propheties by a fpiritual Understanding : As P(al. ii. 8. Afk of me, and I shall give thee the Heathen for thine Inheriance, and the uttermost Parts of the Earth for thy Possefion. And agains Val. xix. 4. Their Line is gone out thro' all the Earth.

Friefly, all the Prophefies of the Kingdom of Chrift, and f the publishing of the Golpel throughout all the World, ave forung out of this Place : In thee fhall all the Natiis as of the Earth be bleffed. Wherefore, to fay that the Vations are bleffed, is nothing elfe, but that Righteoufefs is freely given unto them, or that they are counted ighteous before God, not by the Law, but by the hearng of Faith : for Abraham was not jultified by any other deans then by hearing the Word of Promile, of Bleffing, and of Grace. Therefore like as Abraham obtained Imputation of Rightcoufnels by the earing of Faith ; even fo did all the Gentiles obtain and yet do obtain he fame : For the fame Word that was first declared unto Abraham. was afterward published to all the Gentiles.

Hereby then we fee that to blefs, fignifieth nothing elfe but as I faid before ) to preach and teach the Word of the Golpel, to confels Chrift, and to fpread abroad the Inowledge of him among all the Gentiles : And this is he prieftly Office and continual Sacrifice of the Church in he New Teltament, which 'diltributeth this Bleffing by Preaching and y ministring of the Sacraments, by comforting the broken-hearted, by affributing the Word of Grace, which Abraham had, and which was also his Bleffing, which when he believed, he received the Bleffing. So we also believing the fame are leffed, and this Bleffing is a great Glory, not before the World, but before God : For we have heard that our Sins re forgiven us, and that we are accepted of God, that and is our Father, and that we are his Children, with whom he will Not be angry, but will deliver us from Sin, from Death and

I Evils, and will give unto us Righteoufnefs. Life and mernal Salvation. Of this Bleffing (as I have faid) do she Prophets preach in every Place, who did not fo coldo confider those Promises made unto the Fathers, as the ducked Jews did, and as the Popifh School-men and Sectaries do at this Day, but did read them and weigh them with great Diligence, and allo morew out of those Promises whatfoever they prophetied concerning Chrift " his Kingdom. So the Prophety of Hol. zili. 14. I will redeem them 1:00 from Death : O Death, I will be thy Plagues; O Grave, I will be thy Definition; and fuch like Places of the other Prophets, did all fpring out of thefe Promifes, in the which God promifed to the Fathers the Bruiling of the Serpent's Head, and the Bleffing of all Nations, Gen. iii, 15.

Moreover, if the Nations be bleffed, that is to fay, if they be accounted rightcous before God, it followeth that they are free from Sin and Death, and are made Partakers of Rightcoufnels, Salvation, and everialing Life, nor for their Works, but for their Faith in Chrift. Wherefore that Place of Gee, xii, s. In these fault all families of the Earth be bleffed, fpeaketh not of the Bleffing of the Mouth, but of fuch a Bleffing as belongeth to the Imputation of Rightcouffer, which is avail-

Now, this Bleffing is received only by Faith : For the Text faith plainly, Abraham believed God, and it was accounted unto him for Rightsen/mefs; wherefore it is a mere fpiritual Bleffing, and there is no Bleffing indeed, but this; which altho' it be accurfed in the World (as indeed it is) yet it is available before God. This Place therefore is of great Force, that they which are of Faith, are become Partakers of this Formile of the Bleffing made unto the believing Abraham. And by this Means Paul preventeth the Cavillation of the Jewr, which brag of a begetting ad working Abraham, and juft before Men, and not of a believing Abraham.

The Pope fettethChrift forth as an Example and not as a Gift.

Now, like as the f-wur do glory only of a working d-braham, even fo the Pope fetteth out only a working for the formation of the theorem and the sample of the that will live godly (faith he) muft walk as Chrift hath walked, according to his own Saying in febra xiii - is. the Example of Chrift, and to work well; but they fay that we are not juffified, thereby before God : And Paul doth not here realon what we

In the Matter of Jultification we must confider the Benefit, and not the Example of Chrift. ought to do, but by what Means we are made righteous. In this Matter we mult let nothing before our Eyes, but Jefus Chrift dying for our Sins, and riling again for our Righteoufnels, and him mult we apprehend by Faith as a Gift, not as an Example. This, Reafon underflandeth not; and therefore as the Jews follow a working, and not a balieving Abrabam, even for the Paylir and all that feek Righteoufnels by Works, do behold and apprehend, not a juitifying, but a working Chrift, and by this Means they fiveree from Chrift, from Righteouffredings and Sub-

tion: And like as the Jews which were faved, ought to follow the beliving Abraham, i fo we alfo, if we will be delivered from our Sins and be faved, mult take hold of the juftifying and faving Chrift, whom Abraham himfelf alfo by Faith did apprelend, and thro' him was bleffed.

It was indeed a great Glory, that Abraham received Circumcifion at the Commandment of God, that he was endeed with excellent Virtues :

that he obeyed God in all Things i as it is alfo a great Fraife and Felicity to follow the Example of Chrift working, to love thy Neighbour, to do good to them that hurt thee, to pray for thine Enemies, patiently to bear the Ingratitude of thole which trucher evil for good, but all this availed nothing to Rightcouffield before God. The excellent Deeds and Virtues of Afraham were not the Caufe that he was contact interverse before God: So likes wife the Imagination and following of the Example of Chrift, doth not make us rightneous before God. Fort, to make us rightneous before God, chere is a far more exterlent Prick required, which is neither the Righteoufnels of Man, nor yet of the Law. Here we mult have Chrift, and bleis us and fave us, like as Abraham allo had him for his Bleffer and Eaviour. How ? Not by Works, but by Faith. Wherefore sathere is great Difference between the believing and working Abraham ? Io fis there great Difference between Chrift bleffing and redeerning, and Chrift working and Yaving Example. Now, Paul fpekking here of Chrift redeening and Abraham believing, and not of Chriftpreing Example, of oi Abraham working. Therefore he addet huppoley, and that with great Veltemency; They which are of Faith, are bleffed with faithful Abraham.

Wherefore we mult fepatrate the believing and the working Abraham as far alunder, as there is Diffance betwikt Heaven and Earth. A Man believing in Chrift is altokether a divine Perfon, the Child of God, the Inherhior Di f he World, a Conquerior of Sin, Death, the World and the Devil, therefore he cannot be prified and mag-Bified enough. Let us not Unfier this fullful Abraham

Now, by the Words, field is light, Paul gathered in Argument of the contrary: For the Scripture is full 7 Oppofitions, as when two contraries are compared to when the Scriptures, and by them to expound a Benences thereof. As here, this Word (Blefing) mporteth allo the contrary, that is to fay, Malesičton, or when the Scripture fith, that all Nations which are I Frith, are blefield with fulfield Malesich, are accuried atially, that all, as well Jew as Centiler, are accuried when without Faith, or without this faithful Abraham. For the Promife of Bleffing was given to Abraham, that in him all Nations flouid be bleffed. There is no Bleffing then to be looked for, but only in the Promife made unto Abraham, now published by the Golfeel throughout the whole World. Therefore, whatfoever is without that Bleffing, is accurfed. And this Paul lheweth plainly when he faith;

Verse 10. For as many as are of the Works of the Law, are under the Curse:

The Law bringeth all Men under the Curfe which are without Faith.

Here ye fee that the Curfe is as it were a Flood, fwallowing up whatfoever is without Abroham; that is to fay, without Faith, and the Promife of the Blefing of Abroham. Now, if the Law infelf given by Moles at the Commandment of God, unaketh them fubject to the Curfe which are under it, much more fluil the Laws and Traditions fo do, which are devifed by Man. He therefore that will avoid the Curfe, mult hav hold upon the Promife of Bleffing, or upon-the Faith of Abraham, or elfe he finall remain under the Curile. Upon this Place therefore (final he bleffed in thee ) it followeth, that "all. Nations, whether they were before Abraham, in his Time, or after him, are accuried, and thall abide under the Curife for ever, unlefs they be bleffed in the Faith of Abraham unto whom the Promite of the Blefing was given to be published by his Seed, througheut the whole World.

The Righteoufnefs of Faith and civil Righteoufnefs. To know the Things'it is very neceflary, for they help greatly to comfort troubled and affilded Conferences, and moreover they teach us to feparate the Rightcoufine fo Faith from the Rightcoufine fo the Flefh, or civil Rightoufine fs. For we more that Paul is here in Hand, not with a Matter of Policy, but with a divine and fipti-tual Matter, leaft any mad Brain flould cavil, and fay, that he curfeth and condemneth politick Laws and Magiftrates. Here all the Sophifters and Popifh School-men are dumb and can fay nothing. Wherefore the Civil Laws and Ordinances are good and of God. Readers mult be admonified that in this Place there is nothing handled as touching civil Laws, Manners, or Matters political ( which are the Ordinances of God and good Things, and the Scripture elfewhere approveth and commendeth the fame ) but of a fpiritual Rigittouninefs, by the which we are jufified before God, and are called the Children of God in the Kingdong of Heaven. To be brief, there is nothing handled beer concerning the bodily Life, but concerning everlating Life, where no Blefing is to be hoped for, or Righteoufnefs to be fought either thro' the Law, or Traditions, or whatfoever can be named in this Life, befides the Promife of Abraham's Blefing Let eivil Laws and Ordinances abide in their Place and Order; let the Mighther make never 6 good and excellent Laws; yet notwithfland

ing they deliver no Man from the Curfe of God's Law. The Kingdom of Babylon ordained of God, and by him committed unto Kings, had excellent Laws, and all Nations were commanded to obey them ; notwithstanding this Obedience of the Laws did not fave it from the Curfe of the Law of God. In like Manner we obey the Laws of Princes and Magiltrates, but we are not therefore righteous before God; for here we are in another Matter.

It is not without Caufe that I do fo diligently teach and repeat this Diffinction; for the Knowledge thereof is yery necellary. are few that mark it or understand it indeed. Again, the confounding and mingling together of the heavenly and civil Righteonfnels, is very eafy. In the civil Righteoufnefs we must have regard to Law and Works ; but in the fpiritual, divine and heavenly Rightcoufnefs, we must utterly reject all Laws and Works, and fet the only Promife and Bleffing before our Eyes, which layeth before us Chrift the Giver of this Bleffing and Grace, and founded. our only Saviour. So that this foiritual Righteoufnels, feeluding the Law and all Works, looketh only unto the Grace and Bleffing which is given by Chrift, as it was promifed to Abraham, and of him believed.

The Righteoufnefs of Faith and civil Righteoufnefs are eafily con-

Hereby we may plainly fee, that this Argument is invincible. For if we must hope to receive the Blefind by Chrift alone, then it must needs follow on the contrary, that it is not received by the Law. For the Bleffing was given to faithful Abraham before the Law and without the Law. Now, like as Abraham believed in Chrift which was to come, the Giver of the Bleffing ; fo and by the fame Faith, we believe in Chrift which is come and prefent, and fo are we now juffified by Faith, as Abraham was then juffified by Faith. They therefore which are under the Law, are not bleffed, but remain under the Curfe.

This the Pope and his proud Prelates do not believe, How the nor can believe, neither can they abide this Doctrine. Adver faries Yet must we not hold our Peace, but must confess the pervert, and Truth and fay, that the Papacy is accurfed, yea all the flander our Laws and civil Ordinances of the Emperor are accurfed ; for according to Paul, whatfoever is without the Promife and Faith of Abraham, is accurfed. When our Adverfaries hear this, by and by they pervert and flander our Words, as tho' we taught that the Magistrates should not be honoured, but that we raife up Seditions against the Emperor, that we condemn all Laws, that we overthrow and deftroy Common-weals, &c. But they do us great wrong. For we put a great Difference between the corporal and the fpiritual Bleffing, and we fay that the Emperor is bleffed with a corporal Bleffing, For, to have a Kingdom, Laws and civil Ordinances, to have a Wife, Children, House and Lands, is a Bleffing. For all these Things are the good Creatures and Gifts of God. But we are not delivered from the everlating Curfe by this corporal Bleffing, which is but temporal and muft have an End. Therefore we condemn not Laws, neither do we flir up Sedition against the Emperor : but we teach that he must be obeyed, that he must be feared, reverenced and honoured, but yet civilly. But when we focak of the Bieffing after the Manner of Divines, then we fay boldly with Paul, that all Things which are without the Faith and Promife of Abraham, are accurled and abide under that everlaiting Curfe of God. For there we muft look for another Life after this, and another Bleffing after this corporal Bleffing.

Corporal Things are the good Creatures of God.

To conclude, we fay that all corporal Things are the good Creatures of God. Therefore ( as I have faid ) 10 have Wife, Children, Goods, to have politick Laws and Ordinances, are the good Bleffings of God in their Place ; that is to fay, they are temporal Blefings belonging to this Life. But thefe Bleffings the Jufficiaries and Lawworkers of all Apes, as the Fews, Papifls, Sectaries, and fuch like, do confound and mingle together. For they put no Difference between corporal and fpiritual Things Therefore they fay, we have a Law, and this Law is good, holy and rightcous; therefore we are

The Law of Sin, Wrath and Death.

Corporal Bleffings are to be feparale from foiritual Bleffings.

God beftoweth his Gifts both upon the good juffified thro' it. Who denieth but that the Law is good. holy and righteous ? But yet it is also the Law of Malediction, of Sin, of Wrath, and of Death. Wherefore we make here a Diffinction between the corporal and fpiritual Bleffing, and fay, that God hath a double Bleffing ; one corporal for this Life, and another fpiritual for everlafting Life.

Therefore to have Riches, Children, and fuch like, we fay it is a Bleffing, but in his Degree, that is to fay, in this Life prefent. But as touching Life everlafting, it is not enough to have corporal Bleffings ; for the very wicked do therein abound most of all. It is not fufficient that we have civil Righteoufnels or the Righteoufnels of the Law; for therein also the wicked do fpecially flourish. These Things God diffributeth in the World freely, and beftoweth them both upon the good and bad, like as he fuffereth the Sun to rife both upon the good and the evil, and fendeth Rain upon the righteous and unrighteous ; for he is liberal unto all. And to him it is a fmall Matter to put all Creatures under the Feet of the wicked, For the Greature was made fubjest to Vanity, not willingly, Rom. viii.

20. They therefore which have but only these corporal Bleffings, are not the Children of Gud, bleffed before God fpiritually, 25 was Abraham ; but they and under the Curfe, as Paul here faith ; Whofoever is under the Works of the Law, is under the Curfe.

Paul might have faid by a genetal Propolition ; whatfoever is without Faith, is under the Curfe. He faith not fo, but he taketh that which buildes Faith is the beft, the greatest and most excellent among all corporal Bleffings of the World ; to wit, the Law of God. The Law

(faith he) indeed is holy and given of God : Notwithstanding it doth nothing elfe but make all Men fubject to the Curfe, and

The Effects keen them under the fame. Now, if the Law of God do bring Men under the Curfe, much more may the fame be of the Law. faid of inferior Laws and Bleffings. And that it may be plainly understood what Paul calleth it to be under the Curfe, he declareth by this Teffimony of the Scripture, faving :

Verse 10. For it is written : Cursed is every one that continueth not in all Things which are written in the Book of the Law, to do them.

Paul goeth about to prove by this Teftimony taken out of Deut. xxvii. 26, that all Men which are under the Law, or under the Works of the Law, are accurfed, or under the Curfe, that is to fay, under Sin, the Wrath of God, and everlasting Death. For he speaketh not (as I have faid before) of a corporal, but of a fpiritual Curle, which must needs be the Curfe of everlasting Death and Hell. And this is a wonderful Manner of proving. For, Paul proveth this affirmative Sentence, which he borroweth out of Moles: Whofoever are of the Works of the Law, are under the Curfe; eth the affir-By this negative, Curfed is every one that continueth not in all Things, &c. Now, these two Sentences of Paul and Moles feem clean contrary, Paul faith : whofoever shall do the Works of the Law, are accurfed. Moles faith ; who-foever shall not do the Works of the Law, are accurled. How shall these two Savings be reconciled together ? Or elfe (which is more) How fhall the one be proved by the other ? Indeed no Man can well understand this Place, unlefs he alfo know and understand the Article of Justification.

Paul (no doubt) being among the Galatians, had before more largely intreated of this Matter; for elfe they could not have underftood it, feeing he doth here but touch it by the Way. But because they had heard him declare the fame unto them before, they being now again put in Mind thereof, do call it to Remembrance. And thefe two Sen-tences are not repugnant, but do very well agree. We alfo do teach in like Manner; That the Hearers of the Law are not just before God, but the Doers of the Law (ball be julified, Rom. ii. 12. And contrariwife ; They that are of the Works of the Law, are under the Curfe. For the Article of Justification teacheth, that whatfoever is without the Faith of Abraham is accurfed : And yet notwithstanding the Righteousness of the Law mult be fulfilled in us, Rom. viii. 4. To a Man that is ignorant of the Doctrine of Faith, these two Sentences feem to be quite contrary.

First of all therefore, we must mark well whereupon Paul intreateth in this Place, whereabout he poeth, and how he looketh into Mofes. He is here (as before I have often faid) in a fpiritual Matter, feparated from Policy and from all Laws, and he looketh into Moles with other Eyes NA

Sentences in the Scriptures fometimes feem to be contra-

then the Hypocrites and falle Applies do, and expoundeth the Law printually. Wherefore the whole Effect of the Matter confiltenth in this Word (to do.) Now, to do the Law, is not only to do it outwardly, but to do it truly and perfectly. There be two Sorts then of Doers of the Law : The full are they which are of the Works

Two Manner of Doers of the Law. of the Law, againft whom Paul envyeth throughout all this Epiffle. The other Sort are they which are of Faith of whom we will focat hereafter. Now, to be of the Law, or of the Works of the Law, and to be of Faith, are quite contrary, yea oven as contrary as God and the Devil, Sin and Righteoufnels, Death and Life. For they are of the Law, which would be juilted by the Law. They are of Faith, which do afforedly truft that they are julified thro' Mercy alone for Chriff's Sake. He which faith that Righteoufnels is of Faith, cuficth and condemneth the Righteoufnels of Works. Contrariwife, he which faith that Righteoufnels is of the Law, cufeth and condemneth the Righteoufnels of the Thith. Therefore they are a slogether contrary the one to the outer.

To do the Law.

A Doer of the Law according to the Papifts. He that confidereth this, fhall easily underfland, that to obfere the Law, is not to do that which is cammanded in the Law, in out of do that which is cammanded in the Law, in out of the the the the the the law in the the law find thin that will for accomptible the Law ? Let us fee him and we will praife him. Here our Adverfaries have their Anlwer ready, faying, But the Deers of the Law field be julified, Rom. it. 12. Very well. But let us fift define who be thefe Doers of the Law.

They call him a Doer of the Law, which doth the Works of the Law, , * Thefe be the Works preparatory, as the Papills call them, going before Juffification, as the efficient Caufe thereof.

The Error and Impicty of the Jufiliciaries, and fo by those Works * going before, is made righteous. This is not to do the Law according to Paul : For (as I have faid) to be of the Works of the Law, and to be of Faith, are contrary Things. Therefore to feek to be juftified by the Works of the Law, is to deny the Righteoufnefs of Faith. Wherefore thefe Jufficiaries and Lawworkers, when they do the Law, even in fo doing, deny the Righteoufnels of Faith, and fin against the first, the fecond, and third Commandments, yea even against the whole Law. For God commandeth that we fhould worthip him in Faith, and in the Fear of his Name. On the contrary, they make Righteoufnels of Works, without Faith and against Faith : Therefore in that they do the Law, they do clean contrary to the Law, and fin most deadly. For they deny the Righteoufnels of God, his Mercy and his Promifes; they deny Chrift with all his Benefits, and in their Hearts they flablish, not the Rightcousnels of the Law (which they underfland not, and much lefs do it;) but a mere Fanisfie and an Idol of the Law. Therefore we muft needs lay, that not only in doing of the Law they do it not, but also they fin, and deny deny the divine Majefty in all his Promifes. And to this End the Law was not given.

Wherefore, they, not understanding the Law, abufe the Law, and as Paul faid ; They being ignorant of God's Righteoufnefs, and going about to ellublish their own Righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the Righteoufnels of God, Rom. x. 2. For they are blind, and know not how they ought to judge of Faith and of the Promifes, and therefore without all understanding, they rush into the Scripture, taking hold but of one Part thereof : to wit, the Law, and this they imagine that they are able to fulfil by Works. But this is a very Dream, a bewitching and Illufion of the Heart ; and that Righteousness of the Law, which they think they do fulfil, is nothing elfe in very deed, but Idolatry and Blafphemy againtl God. Therefore it cannot be but they mult needs abide under

It is impefible therefore that we fould do the Law in fuch Sort as they imagine, and much lefs that we fhould be justified thereby. This Thing first the Law itself tellifieth, which hath a clean contrary Effect : For it increafeth Sin, it worketh Wrath, The Effect it acculeth, it terrifieth and condemneth. How then thould of the Law, it juftify ? Moreover, the Promife also sheweth the very fame Thing. For it was faid unto Abraham ; In thee (hall all Families of the Earth be bleffed, Gen. xii. 2. There is no Bleffing therefore but in the Promife of Abraham: and if thou be without that Promife, thou art under the Curfe. If thou be under the Curfe, thou fulfilleft not the Law ; because thou art under Sin, the Devil, and everlasting Death a all which do affuredly follow the Curfe. To conclude, If Righteoufnefs should come by the Law, then should the Promise of God be in vain, and in vain should he pour out his Bleffing in fo great Abundance. Therefore when God faw that we could not fulfil the Law, he provided for this long before the Law, and promited the Bleffing to Abraham, faying ; In thee Iball all the Nations of the Earth be bleffed. And fo hath he teftified that all the Nations fhould be bleffed, not by the Law, but thro' the Promife made unto Abraham. They therefore that lay hold on the Law, and feek to be justified thereby, despiling the Promife are accurled.

Wherefore [to do] is first of all to believe, and fo To fulfil the thro' Faith to perform the Law : We must first receive Law. the Holy Ghoft, wherewith we being lightned and made new Creatures, begin to do the Law, that is to fay, to love God and our Neighbour : But the Holy Ghoft is not is observed. received thro' the Law (for they which are under the Law, as Paul faith, are under the Curle ;) but by the hearing of Faith, that is to fay, thro' the Promife ; we must be bleffed only with Abraham in the Promife made unto him, and in his Faith. Therefore before all Things, we must hear and receive the Promise, which setteth out Chrift. and offereth him to all Believers ; and when they have taken hold ppon him by Faith, the Holy Ghoft is given unto them for his Sake : then do they lave God and their Meighbour ; then do they good Works, then do they carry the Crois patiently: This is to do the Law indeed, atherwife the Law remaineth always undonce. Wherefore, if thou wilt define truly and plainly what it is to do the Law, it is nothing elfe, but to believe in Jefus Chrift, and when the Holy Gholt is received thro' Failth in Chrift, to work thole Trungs which are commanded in the Law; and otherwife we are not able to perform the Law. For the Scripters failt, that there is no Bleffing without the Promife, no not in the Law. It is impolfible therefore to accomplift the Law without the Promife.

There is not one therefore to be found in all the World, unto whom this Name and Title, to be elled a Doer of the Law, appertunish without the Promife of the Gofpel. Wherefore this World [Doer of the Law] is a feigned Term, which no Man underflandeth unlefs he be without and above the Law in the Blefling and Faith of Abraham. So that the true Doer of the Law is he, who receiving the Holy Ghoft thro' Faith in Chrift, beginnet the love God and to do good unto his Nrighbour: So that this Worl [to do the Law] mult comprehend Faith allo which maketh the Tree, and when the Tree is made, then follow the Fruits, the Tree muft be fuft, and then the Fruit; for the Apples make not the Tree, but the Tree maketh the Apples.

In Divinity the Doer is made and framed thorough Faith before there be any Deeds.

The Godly are not made righteous by doing righteous Things, Gc.  makeh the Perfon, which afterward bringeth forth Works. Therefore to do the Law without Faith, is to make the Apples of Wood, and Earth without the Tree, which is not to make Apples, but more Fantafes. Contariwile, if the Tree be made, that is to fay, the Perfon or Doer which is made thro' Faith in Chrift, Works will follow : For the Doer mult needs be before the Things which are done, and not the Things which are done, before the Doer.

The Doer then is not fo called of the Things that are done, but of the Things that are to be done. For Chriftians are not made righteous in doing righteous Things, but being now made righteous by Faith in Chrift, they do righteous Things: In policit, Matters it cometh for to pake that the Doer or Worker is made of the Things which are wrought, as a Man in plying the Carpenter becometh a Carpenter; but in divine Matters At made of the Works going before, but the Perfors made and framed already by Faith which is in Chrift, are now become Doers and Workers. Of luch fpeaketh Paul, when he faith. The Doers of the Law (hall be juftified, Rom. ii. 13. that is, shall be counted rightcous.

The Doctrine of the Sophifters and Schoolmen. Yes, the very Sephiflers and School men are compelled to confes, and to they teach allo, that a moral Work outwardly doen, if it be not done with a pare Heart, a good Will, and true Intent, it is but Hypocrify. And hereof cometh the Proverb among the Germani ; such a Cowl coverent many a Knawe : For the yilefa and wick-

Jike fiewer they fermed to be in outward Shew. Wherefore they themfelves are confluined to grant that in pofact, the external Matters, Works do not jultify, unlefs there be joined withal an upright Heart, Will and Judgment. How much more are they compelled to confeis the fame in fpiritual Matters, where, before all Things there mult be a Koowledge of God, and Faith which may purify the Heart? They walk therefore in Works and in the Rightcoulnefs of the Law, as Judar did in the Works of the Apoller, not undertlanding what they fay, or what they afirm. And allow Paul faith plainly every where that the Law jufficient not, but cauleft Warth, uttretek Sin, revealedt the Indignation and Judgment of God, and threameth everlafting Death , yet nowithflanding reading thefe Things they fee them not, much lefs do they underfland them. Therefore they delerve not to be called Hyporties, but Vifours and Shadows of diguide Hyporties, molt miferably bewitched, in that they dream they are jufilied by the Works of the Law. Wherefore (as I have faid) this Word [Doer of the Law] as they define it, is an imagined Term, a very Monifer, and no where to be found.

Whetefore, when Paul proveth this Place, For as many as are of the Works of the Law, are under the Curfe, by this Sentence of Mofes; Curfed is every one that continueth not in all Things which are written in this Book, Gal. jii. 10. he provet in not one Paul doth contrary by another, as at the first Sight it may appear, but he provet it rightly and in due Order. For Mofer meaneth and teacheth the felf fame Thing that Paul doth, when he faith, Carfed is every met that continueth mat in therall, &c. But no Man doth them, a threefore whofever are of the Works of the Law, keep not the Law; if they keep it not, they are under the Carle. But foring there be two Sorts of Men that are Doers of the Law (as before I have faid) that is to fay, true Doers and Hyporriter, its thrue Doers mult be (eparated from the Hypogood True before the Pruit, Doers and Workers before the Works: Of thef fpeaketh  $M/gr \, allo$ ; and except they be faich, they are under the Carle. But the Hyporrites are not of this Sort; for they think to obfain Rightrounders by Works, and by them to make the Perion juft and acceptable: For thus they dream, we that are Sinners and unrighteous will be made rightcoss. fore they do even like as a foolifh Builder, which goeth about of the Roof

The Error and Impiety of Hypocrites. to make the Foundation, of the Fulls to make the Tree. For when they feek to be juffield by Works, of the Works they would make the Worker, which is directly againft Ma/es, which maketh fuch a Worker fubject to the Curfe, as well as Paul doth. Therefore whiles they go about to do the Law, they not only do it not, but alfo deny, (at I have faid) the first Commandment, the Promites of God, the promited Blefing of Abraham, they renounce Faith, and they go abour to make themfelves blefield by their one Works, that is to fay, to jultify-ahemfelves, to deliver themfelves from Sin and Death, to oversome the Devi, and violently to lay hold upon the Kingdom of Heaven; and this is plainly to renounce God, and to fet themfelves in the Place of God : For all thefe are the Works of the divine Majelly alone, and not of any Creature either in Heaven or in Earth.

Hereupon Paul was able eafily to foreflew out of the first Command-

The Worfhip of the firft Commandment. and was able cally to backet out of the full community ment, the About bring into the Church. For all they which teach that any other Workhip is necelity to Salvation, then that which God requirelt of us by the firlt Commandment, which is the Fear of God, Faith and the Love of God, are bain Antichtiks, and fet themfelves in the Place of God : That fuch fhould come, Chrift himfelf foretold, when he faith. Many thall come in my Name, laying, I am Chrift, Matth. xxiv. c. So we also at this Day may boldly and eafily pronounce, that whofoever feeketh Righteonfnefs by Works without Faith, denieth God, and maketh himfelf God: For thus he thinketh; if I do this Work, I fhall be righteous, I shall be a Conqueror of Sin, Death, the Devil, the Wrath of God, and of Hell, and shall obtain Life everlafting. And what is this elfe (I pray you) but to challenge that Work unto himfelf which doth belong to God alone, and to fhew indeed that he himfelf is God ? Therefore it is an easy Matter for us to prophely, and most certainly to judge of all those which are without Faith, that they are not only Idolaters, but very Infidels which deny God, and fet themfelves in the Place of God. Upon the fame Ground Peter alfo prephefieth when he faith, There fall be fulle Teachers among you, who privily fall bring in damnable Herefies, even denying the Lord that bought them, &c. and. make Merchandile of you, 2 Pet. ii. t .... 2.

And in the old Teltament all the Prophelies againft Idolatry fprang, out of the first Commandment. For all the wicked Kings and Prophers, with all the unfaithful People, did nothing elfe but TheIdolatry that which the Pope and all Hypocrites always do. They, of the Jews. contemning the first Commandment and Workip appointed of God, and defpiling the Promite of Atraham's Seed, even that Seed in whom all Nations fhould be bleffed and findified, ordained a wicked Worthip clean contrary to the Word of God, and fiid ; With this Worthip will we ferve God and fet out his Praife, which hash byooptit us cut of the Land of Egypt. two golden Calves and faid; Behold thy gods, O If-The two golrael, which brought thee up out of the Land of Egypt, 1 den Calves Kings xii. 28. This he faid of the true God which had of Feroboam. redeemed Ifrael, and yet both he and all his People were Idolaters : For they worshipped God contrary to the first Commandment. They only resarded the Work ; which being done, they counted themfelves righteous before God. And what was this elfe, but to deny God himfelf, whom they confeffed with their Mouths, and faid that he had brought them out of the Land of Egypt ? Paul speaketh of fuch Idolaters when he faith ; They profess that they know God ; but in Works they deny him. Tit. i. 16.

Wherefore all Hypocrites and Idolaters go about to do those Works, which properly pertain to the divine Majefty, and belong to Chrift only and alone. Indeed they fay not in plain Words, I am God, I am Chrift, and yet in very deed they proudly challenge unto themfelves the Divinity and Office of Chrift, and therefore it is as much in Effect as if they faid : I am Chrift, I am a Saviour, Chrift. not only of myfelf, but also of others. This the Manks have not only taught, but alfo have made the whole World to believe : to wit, that they are able, not only to make themfelves righteous thro their hypocritical Holinefs, but alfo others unto whom they communicate the fame ; whereas notwith flanding it is the proper and only Office of Chrift to jultify the Sinner. The Pope in like Manner, by publishing and spreading his Divinity throughout the whole World, hath denied and utterly buried the Office and Divinity of Chrift.

It is expedient that these Things should be well taught and well weighed, for thereby we may learn to judge of the whole Christian Doctrine, and the Life of Man : alfo to confirm Mens Confciences ; to understand all Prophefies and all the holy Scriptures, and rightly to judge of all other Things. He that knoweth all thefe Things rightly, may certainly judge that the Pope is Antichrift, becaufe he teacheth a far other Manner of Worthip, then the first Table fetteth out. He may perfectly know and understand, what it is to deny God, to deny Chrift, and what Chrift meaneth when he faith, Many Shall come in my Name, Saying, I am Chrift, Matth. xxiv. 5. What it is to be against God, and to be lifted up above all that is called God, or that is wor/bipped : What it fignifieth, that Antichrift fitteth in the Temple of God, thewing thim felf as God, 2 Theff. ii. 4. No Man therefore can express with Words, how exectable and horrible it is, to feek Righteonfnefs in the Law by Works, without the Bleffing. For it is the Abomination flanding in the boly Place which denieth God; and fetteth up the Creature in the Place of the Creator.

The true Doers of the Law.

The Doers of the Law therefore are not the Hypocrites. obferving the Law outwardly ; but the true Believers, who receiving the Holy Ghoft, do accomplifh the Law. that is to fay, they love God and their Neighbour, erc.

So that a true Doer of the Law, is to be understood, not in refpect of the Works which he worketh, but in refpect of the Perfon now resentrate by Faith. For according to the Golpel, they that are made righteous do righteous Things, but according to Philolophy it's not fo; but contrariwife, they that do righteous Things are made jult and righteous, Therefore we being jultified by Faith do good Works, thro' the which (as it is faid, 2 Pet. i.) our Calling and Election is confirmed, and from Day to Day is made more fure. But becaufe we have now only the first Fruits of the Spirit, and have not as yet the tenths. and the Remnants of Sin do ftill remain in us; therefore we do not the Law perfactly. But this Imperfection is not imputed unto us which do believe in Chrift, who was promifed to Abraham, and hath bleffed us. For we are nourifhed and tenderly cherifhed in the mean Seafon for Chrift's Sake, in the Lap of God's Long fufferance. We are that wounded Man, which fell into the Hands of Thieves, whofe Wounds the Samaritan bound up, pouring in Oil and Wine, and afterwards laying him upon "his Beaff, he brought him into the Inn, and made Provision for him, and departing commended him to the Hoft, faying, Take care of him, Luke x. 35. And thus we in the mean Time are cherifhed, as it were in an Inn, until the Lord put to his Hand the fecond Time (as Muiab faith) that he may deliver us, I/a. xi. 11.

Wherefore the Sentence of Moles; Curled is every one that abideth not in all the Things that are written in this Book, is not contrary to

Paul, who pronounceth all them to be accurfed, which are of the Works of the Law. For Moles requireth fuch What a Doa Doer, as may do the Law perfectly. But where shall er of the Law Moles we find him ? No where. For David faith, Enter not into Judgment with thy Servant : Fer in thy Sight Ihall no requireth. Ma:

Man living be juff ifed, Pfal. exliti. 2. And Paul faith, For what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do That we are I, Rom. vit. 15. Wherefore Mi/for together with Paul made Doers doth neceflarily drive us to Chrift, thro' whom we are of the Law made Doers of the Law, and are not accounted guilty of thro' Chrift, any Tranfigreellion. How to' Firft, By Forgivenes of Sins and Imputation of Righteoufness because of our Faith in Chrift. Secondly, By the Gift of God and the Holy Ghoft, which bringeth forth a new Life and new Motions in us, fo that we may alfo do the Law effectually. Now, that which is not done, is pardoned for Chrift's Sake: and moreover, what Sin foever is left in us, is not imputed. So Moles agreeth with Paul, and meaneth the felf-fame Thing that he doth, when he faith ; Curfed is every one that abideth not, &c. For he faith that they do not the Law, becaufe they would juffify themfelves by Works. and concludeth with Paul, that they are under the Curle. Therefore Moles requireth true Doers of the Law, which are of Faith, even as Paul condemneth those which are not true Doers of the Law, that is to fay, which are not of Faith. Herein is no Repugnance, that Moles foake negatively and Paul affirmatively, fo that you define rightly what is meant by this Word Do. So both Sentences are true, to wit, that all are accurfed which abide not in all that is written in this Book : And, that all they are accurfed, which are of the Works of the Law.

An Anfwer to those Arguments which the Adversaries alledge against the Doctrine and Righteonsness of Faith.

Since the second second

The School-men and all fach as underfland not the Article of Jufification, do know no other Righteoufnefs then the civil Righteoufnefs and the Righteoufnefs of the Law, which after a Sort the Gentiler alls do know. Therefore they borrow certain Words out of the Law and moral Philofopty, as [10 do, to work] and fuch like, and they apply the fame unto fpiritual Matters; wherein they deal melt perverily and wickedly. We muß put a Difference between Philofophy, and Divinity. The School-men themfelves grant and teach, that in the order of Nature, being goeth before working, for naturally the Tree is before the Fruit Again, in Philofophy they grant, that a Work worally wrought, is not good, except there be first a right Judgment of Reafon, and a Good will or a good Intent. So then they will have a right Judgment of Reafon, and a good Intent to go before the Work, that is to fay, they make the Perfon morally righteous before the Work. Contrariwife in Divinity, and in foiritual Matters, where they ought moft of all fo to do, fuch fenfiels Affes they are, that they pervert and turn all quite contrary, placing the Work before right Judgment of Reafon and Intent.

The Righteoufnefs of the Law was alfo known to the Heathen.

To do natutally, morally, and fpititually.

Wherefore, Doing is one Thing in Nature, another in moral Philophy, and another in Divinity. In Nature the Tree muff be firft, and then the Fruit. In mot ral Philosophy, Doing requireth a good Intent and a found Judgment of Reafon to work well, going befores

And here all the Philosophers are at a Stay, and can go no further. Therefore the Divines fay, that moral Philosophy taketh not God for the Object and final Caufe. For Arithtle, or a Sadducee, or a Man of any civil Honefty, calleth this right Reafon and a good Intent, if he feek the publick Commodity of the Common-wealth, and the Quietness and Honefty thereof. A Philosopher or Law-worker ascendeth no highers He thinketh not thro' a right Judgment of Reafon, and a good Intent to obtain Remiffion of Sins and everlafting Life, as the Sophilter or Monk doth. Wherefore the Heathen Philofopher is much better then fuch an Hypocrite. For he abideth within his Bounds, having only Cofideration of the Honefty and Tranquility of the Common-wealth, not mingling heavenly and earthly Things together. Contrariwife, the blind Sophifter imagineth that God regardeth his good Intent and Works. Therefore he mingleth earthly and heavenly Things together, and polluteth the Name of God. And this Imagination he learneth out of moral Philosophy, faving that he abuleth it much worfe then the Heathen Man doth.

The Popifh School-men think a right Judgment of Reafon and a good Intent without Faith, to be commend the Work.

Wherefore we must afcend up higher in Divinity with this Word Doing, then in natural Things and in Philofophy, fo that now it must have a new Signification, and be made altogether new, joined with a right Judgment of Reafon, and a Good-will, not morally, but divinely; which is, that I know and believe by the Word of the Gofpel, that God hath fent his Son into the World to redeem us from Sin and Death. Here Doing is a new Thing, unknown to Reafon, to Philosophers, to Lawworkers, and unto all Men; for it is a Wildom hidden in a Mystery. Therefore in Divinity the Work neceffarily requireth Faith going before.

How we mug anfwer ourAdverfaties, urging

Therefore when our Adverfaries do alledge against us the Sentences of the Scripture touching the Law and Works, when Mention is made of working and doing, thou muft answer them, that they are Terms pertaining to Divinity, and and not to natural or moral Things. If they be applied to natural or noral Things, they must be taken in their own Signification. But if they be applied to Matters of Divinity, they must include fuch a right Judgment, Reafon and Good-will, as is incomprehenfible

o Man's Reafon. Wherefore Doing in Divinity muft be always understood of a faithful Doing. So that this aithful Doing is altogether as it were a new Kingdom eparate from the natural or moral Doing. Therefore, when we that are Divines fpeak of Doing, we mult needs speak of that faithful Doing; for in Divinity we have no other right Judgment of Reason, no Good-will or Intent befides Faith.

This Rule is well observed in the 11th Chapter to the Hebrews. There are recited many and fundry Works A Rule to be of the Saints, out of the holy Scripture ; as of David, who killed a Lion and a Bear, and flew Goliath. There the Sophifter or School man, that foolifh Afs, looking upon nothing elfe, but the outward Appearance of the Work. fore he did this Work : Then shall we fee that he was fuch a Perfonwhole Heart trafted in the Lord God of Ifrael, as the Text plainly witneffeth. The Lord that delivered me out of the Paw of the Lion, and out of the Paw of the Bear, he will deliver me out of the Hand of this Phiilline. Moreover, Thou comeft to me with a Sword, and with a Spear, and with a Shield; but I come to thee in the Name of the Lord of Hofts, the God of the Armies of Ifrael, whom thou halt defied. This Day will the Lord deliver thee into mine Hand, and I will finite thee, and take thine Head From thee, &c. Because the Lord saveth not with Sword and Spear : For the Battle is the Lords, and be will give you into our Hands, 1 Same Rvii. 27, -- 45, 46, 47. You fee then that he was a righteous Man. beloved of God, firong and conftant in Faith, before he did this Work. This Doing of David therefore, is not a natural or moral Doing, but a aithful Doing.

So it is faid of Abel in the fame Epifile, that thro' Faith The Sacrihe offered up a better Secrifice unto God then Cain. If fice of Abel he School-men happen upon this Place, as it is read in and Gain. Sen. iv. 4. (where it is fimply fet out, how that both Cain and Abel offered up their Gifts, and that the Lord had Refpect unto Abel and his Offerings) by and by they take hold of these Words ; They offerd their Oblations unto the Lord : The Lord had Respect to the Offerings I Abel, and cry out, faying, here ye fee that God had Refpect to Offersags; therefore Works do juffify. So that thele filthy wine do think that Righteoufness is but a moral Thing, anly beholding the Vifor and outward Shew of the Work, and not the Heart of him that doth the Work ; whereas motwithstanding even in Philosophy they are constraind, not to look upon the bare Work, but the Good-will If the Worker. But here they stand altogether upon thefe

these Words, They offered up Gifts ; the Lord had Respect unto Abel and to his Offerings, and see not that the Text faith plainly in Genefis, that the Lord had Respect first to the Person of Abel, which pleased the Lord

What Works the Scripture Speaketh of. becaufe of his Faith, and afterwards to his Offerings. Therefore in Divinity we fpeak of faithful Works, Sacrifrees, Oblations and Gifts, that is to fay, which are offered up and done in Faith, as the Epiffle to the Hebreux declareth, faying: The' Faith Adel offered up a better Socrifice: The' Eaith Ende was taken away: The' Faith

Abraham obeyed God, &c. We have here then a Rule fet forth in the eleventh to the Hebreau, how we should fimply answer to the Arguments objected of the Adverfaries as touching the Law and Works, that is to fay, this or that Man did this or that Work in Faith; and by this Means thou gives a Solution to all their Arguments, and so thoppet their Mouths, that they can have nothing to revelve again.

The Work is nothing worth without Faith. Hereby it appeareth manifelly that in Divinity and divine Matters the Work is nothing worth without Faith, but thon much needs have Faith before thod begin to work, For without Faith it is impossible to please Goal, Heb. xi. 6. but he that will come unto God muth believe.

Wherefore in the Epifile to the Hebrew, it is faid, that the Sarifice of Abel was better than the Sachface of Cam, becaufe he believed ; Therefore the Work or the Sachface of Abel was faithful. Contrariwile in Cam, becaufe he was wicked and an Hypocrite, there was no Faith or Truft of God's Gree and Favour, but mere Prefumption of his own Righteunfinefs, and therefore his Work, whereby he went about to pleafe God, was hypocritical and unfaithful; wherefore the Adverfaries themfelves are compelled to grant that in all the Works of the Saints, Faith is pretuppofed or goeth before, for the which their Works to pleafe God, and are accepted of him. Therefore in Divinity there is a new Doing clean contrary to the moral Doing.

The Scripture fometime fpeaketh of Faith without Works, and fometime of Faith with Works. Moreover, we are also wont to diffinguish Faith after this Maner, that Faith is formetime taken without the Work, formetime with the Work. For like as an Artificer (peaketh divers) of the Matter whereupon he worketh, and likewife a Gardiner of the Tree being barren or furiful 1, even 6 the Holy Ghoti (peaketh divers) of Faith in the Scripture, fometime of an abfolute Faith, forcerate Faith. Now, an abfolate Faith is this, when the Scripture focketh abfolately of Julification or of the Jul-tilled, as is to be feen in the Epiffles to the Remark, and to the Calatians: But when the Scripture (peaketh of Rewards and Works, them it (peaketh eth of the Compound or incurate Faith. We will rehard forme Examples of this Faith; As, Faith which detarked by Love, Galever, G Do this, and thous flat lives, Loke x. 3.8. If then will enter this Life, keep the Commandments, Matth. xigs. 17. He that that b thef? Things I fail live in them. Rom: x. 5. Deter if rom evil, and do good, Faile. XXXXII azy

VERSE 10 . To the GALATIANS.

In thefe and fuch like Places (as there are many in the holy Scripture) where Mention is made of Doing, the Scripture always fpeaketh of faithful Doing. As when it faith : Do this. and thou thalt live, it meaneth thus : See first that thou be faithful, that thou have + a right Judgment of Reafon and a Good will, that is to fay, Faith in Chrift. When thou haft this Faith, work on a God's Bleffing.

What marvel is it then, if Rewards be promifed to this incarnate Faith : that is to fave to the working Faith, as was the Faith of Abel, or to faithful Works? And why fhould not the holy Scripture thus fpeak diverfly of Faith, when it fpeaketh divers Ways of Chrift, as he is God and Man ; that is to fay, fometime of his whole Perfon, fometime of his two Natures apart, either of his divine or of his human Nature ? If it fpeak of the Natures apart, it fpeaketh of Chrift abfolutely ; but if it fpeak of the divine Nature united in one Perfon to the human Nature, then it fneaketh of Chrift compound and incarnate. There is a common Rule among the School-men of the Communication of the Properties, when the Properties belonging to the Divinity of Chrift, are attributed to the Humanity ; which we may fee every where in the Scriptures. As in Luke ii. 11, the Angel calleth the Infant born of the Virgin Mary, the Saviour of Men, and the universal Lord both of the Angels and Men. And in Luke is 21. he calleth him the Son of God. Hereupon I may truly fay, that that Infant which lay in the Manger, and in the Lap of the Virgin, created Heaven and Earth, and is Lord of the Angels. Here I fpeak indeed of a Man; . but Man in this Propolition is a new Word, and (as the School men themfeives do grant) hath Relation to the Divinity, that is to fay, this God which was made Man, hath created all Things. Creation is attributed only to the Divinity Chrift creaof Chrift; for the Humanity doth not create, and yet notwithflanding it is truly faid, Man created, because the Divinity, which only createth, is incarnate with the Hu manity, and therefore the Humanity, together with the Divinity, is Partaker of the fame Properties. Wherefore it is well and godly faid a This Man Jefus Chrift brough Ifrael out of Eerpl, Bruck Pharaob, and wrought all the Wonders from the Beginning of the World.

Therefore when the Scripture faith ; If thou wilt enter into Life, keep the Commandments of God : Do this, and thou shalt live, &c. First, We mult fee of what Manner of keeping and doing he fpeaketh : For in thefe and fuch like Places (as I have faid) he fpeaketh of a compound Faith, and not of a naked and funple Faith : And the Meaning of this Place, Do this, and thou shalt live, is this ; Thou shalt live because of this faithful Doing, or this Doing shall give unto thee Life, because of thy Faith alone. After this Manner Juffification is attributed to Faith alone, as Creation is to the Divinity : And yet notwithfianding, as it is truly faid, Jefus the Son of Mary created all Things, fo alfo Julification is attributed to the incarnate Faith, or to the faithful Doing. Therefore we mult in no wife think with the Sophiflers and Hyporries, that Works do abfolutely julifly, or that Rewards are promiled to moral Works, but to faithful Works only.

Let us therefore fuffer the Holy Ghoft to fpesk as he dott in the Scriptures, either of naked, fimple and abfolute Faith, or of compound and incarnate Faith : All Things which are attributed to Works, do properly belong unto Faith. For Works mult not be looked upon morally, but faithfully and with a fpirital Egy ? Faith is the Divinity of Works, and is fo fpread throughout the Works of the Faithful, as is the Divinity throughout the Humanity of Chrift. Faith therefore doth all alone in the Works of the Faithful, Abraham is called faithful, becaule Faith is figured throughout the whole Perfon of Abraham ; fo that beholding him working. I fee nothing of the carnal or of the working Abraham, but of the believing Abraham.

The Places concerning Worksin the Scriptures, mult be expounded as the Epiftle to the He-brews expoundeth them. "Wherefore when then readed in the Scriptures, of the Fathers, Prophets, and Kings, how they wrought Righteoufinels, railed up the Dead, overcame Kingdoms, thou mult remember that thefe and fuch like Sayings are to be expounded, as the Epilte to the Heirere expondent them, that is, By Faith they wrought Righteonfield, by Faith they railed up the Dead, by Faith they fuldual King and Kingdoms, &c. Heb. xi. 33, 34, 35. So that Faith incorporate the Works, and given it this Perfections : And this the Adverfaires, if they be well in their Wits, cannot deny, neither have they any Thing to fay or obief againfit. Indeed they can cry out that the Scripture fpeaketh ofientimes of Doing and Working; and we always answer them again, that it fpeaketh also of faithful Doing. For firlt, Reafon mult be lightned by Faith, before it can work. Now, when it hat a true Opinion and Knowledge of God, then is the Work incarnate and incorporate into it; fo that whatfoever is attributed to Paith, is afterwards attributed to Works allo, but yet be caused of Faith only and along.

The Difference between moral Doing, and fpiritual Doing. Wherefore in reading of the Scriptures we mult learn to put a Difference between the true and the hyporitical, the moral and lipritual Doing of the Law : So (Ihall we be able to declare the true Meaning of all thofe Places, which feem to maintain the Rightcoulines of Works. Now, the true Doing of the Law is a faithful and a fpiritual Doing, which he bath not, that feekch Rightcoul nefs by Works: Therefore every Doer of the Law and every holy moral Worker is accurfed; for he walketh in the Prefumption of his own Righteoufnefs againft God, whiles he will be juftified by Man's Hypocrites do many Things, but without Faith.

Free will and Reafon, and fo in Doing of the Law, he doth it not. And this according to Paul, is to be under the Works of the Law, that is to fay, that Hypocrites do the

the Law, and yet in doing, they do it not; for they underfland this Word Doing, according to the literal Senfe of the Law, which in true Chriftian Divinity is nothing worth. Indeed they work many Things, but in the Prefumption of their own Righteoufisels, and without the Knowledge of God and Faith, as the Phorifee (di, Luke xwii, r1. and as Paul did belore his Convertion; therefore they are blind; and miferably err, and for emain under the Curfe.

Wherefore, again I admonifh you, that fuch Sentences as the Adverfaries do alledge out of the Scriptures concerning Works and Rewards, must be foiritually expounded ; as if they alledge this Sentence out of Dan. v. 27. Redeem thy Sins by Alms-deeds, thou must not here expound thefe Words morally, but fpiritually: So fhalt thou fee that this Word Redeem, fignifieth no moral, but a faithful Doing, that is to fay, it includeth Faith. For in the Scriptures the Work (as I have faid) requireth alfo a Goodwill and right Judgment of Reafon to go before, not moral as they would have it, but divine and fpiritual, which is Faith. By this Means thou shalt be able to ftop the Mouths of these peevish Supplifiers. For they themfelves are compelled to grant (and fo teach they also out of Arifoile) that every good Work proceedeth out of Man's Choice or Freewill : If this be true in Philosophy, much more must this Good-will and right Judgment of Reafon guided by Faith, go before the Work in Divinity and divine Matters. And this do all Words of the Imperative Mood, that is, all fuch Words as are commanding, fignify in the Scriptures, and all fuch Words also as teach the Law, as the Epiftle to the Hebrews doth plainly declare, By Faith Abel offered, &c.

Now, admit the Cafe that this Solution is "not fufficient (althot' it be indeed moff fure and certain i, y set nots, withflanding let this be the Argument of all Arguments, and the principal Mirrour of Chriftins to behold, againfl all the Tentations and Objections, not only of the Adverfaries, but allo of the Davil handfil, marely, to apphethend and to hold faft the Head, which is Chrift. Moreover, admit that the Sophiflers being more crafty and fabuil then I, fhould fo finare and intangle me with their Arguments, which they bring for the Maintenance of Works againff Faith, that I fhould know no Way how to wind myleif out, (which brotwithflanding it is impofi-

Wherefore, they muft be famply and plainly anforced after this Manner: Here is Chrift, three are the Tellmioneise of the Scripture touching the Law and Works. Now, Chrift is the Lord of the Scripture and of all Works: He allo is Lord of Heaven, the Earth, the Sabbash, the Temple, Righteoundies, Life, wrath, Sin, Dearbh, and generally of all Thirgs whatforver. And Paul his Apofile flowent that he was made Sign and became accurid for me, Gal. in; 13. Then then that I could by no other Means be delivered from my Sin, my Death, and my Malediction, but by his Death and Blood-fhedding. Wherefore I conclude that it behoveth Chrift himfelf to overcome my Sin. Death and Malediction in his own Body, and not the Works of the Law or mine own Works. And hereunto Reason is confirained to yield and fay, that Chrift is not the Work of the Law, or my Work ; that his Blood and Death is not Circumcifion, the Obfervation of the Ceremonies of the Law, and much lefs a Monk's Cowl, a fhaven Crown, Abftinence, Vows and fuch like. . Wherefore if he be the Price of my Redemption. if he be made Sin and Malediction that he might juffify me and blefs me ; I care not if thou bring a thousand Places of the Scripture for the Righteoufnels of Works, against the Righteoufnels of Faith, and 'cry out never fo much, that the Scripture is againft me : I have the Author and Lord of the Scripture with me, on whole Side I will rather fland. then believe all the Rabbiement of Law-workers and Meritmongers, Albeit it is impossible that the Scripture flould be against this Doctrine, unlefs it be among the fenfelefs and oblinate Hypocrites; but to the Godly and fuch as have Understanding, it giveth witnels for Jelus Chrift his Lord. See therefore how thou canft reconcile the Scripture, which thou fayeff, is againff my Doctrine. As for me, I will flick to the Author and Lord of the Scripture.

Therefore if any Man thinketh bimfelf not well able to reconcile fuch. Places of the Sciipture, or anfwer unto the fame fufficiently, and yet notwithfranding is confirmed to hear the Objections and Cavillations of

Heb. i. 4. Verse 11. But that no Man is justified by Rom. i. 17. the Law in the Sight of God, it is evident: For, The Just fhall live by Faith.

VERSE II.

phet Hafskluk. And it is a Sentence of great Weight and Authority's which Paul fetteth against all the Sentences touching the Law and Works. As if he flood fay: What need we any long Diffusition ! Here I bring forth a most evident Telfimony of the Prophet, againft the which no Ana can cavit : The juff Man Bahl here  $h_F stath$ . If he live by Faith, then he liveth not by the Law : For the Law is not of Faith. And here Paul excludent Works and the Law, as Things contrary to Faith.

The Sophifier; (as they are always ready to corrupt the Scripture) do wroft and pervert this Place after this Manner; The juli Man dob live of Faith; that is to fay, by a working Faith, or formed or made perfect with Charity; but if it be not formed with Charity, then doth i not julify: This Globs they themfelves have forged, and by the fame they do Injury to the Words of the Prophet. If they did call this formed or familhed Faith, the true Faith which the Scripture teacheth, this their Globs hould not offend me, for then Faith fould not be feparated from Charity, but from the vain Opinion of Faith, As we also put a Difference between a counterfeit Faith and a true Faith. The counterfeit Faith is that which heareth of God, of Chrift, and of all the Myfleries of his Incarnation and our Redemption; which allo apprehendeth and beareth away thofe Things which it heareth, yea and can talk goodly thereof, and yet there remaineth nothing ells in the Heart, but a naked Opinion and a Sound of the Gofpel : For it neither reneweth nor changeth the Heart ; it maketh not a new Man, but leaveth him in the Yanity of his former Opinion and Convertation; and this is a very pernicious Faith. The moral PhiloSopher is much better then the Hypocrite having fuch a Faith.

Wherefore, if they would make a Diffindion between Faith formed (and take it as the Scripture taketh it) and the falle or counterfeit Faith, their Defindion flouid nothing offend me. But they pleak of Faith formed and made perfect with Charity, and make a double Faith, that is to fay, formed and unformed. This peflicient and devilifi Globs I sutterly decift. Altho' (fay they) we have Faith infuffed, called (Fider info/a) which is the Gift of the Holy Ghoft, and alfo Faith gotten by our own Indultry, called (Fider acquified) yer both of them lack their Form and Perfection, which is Chairly, and are formed with Chairly. This is to to prefer Charity before Faith, and to attribute Righteoufnels, not to Faith, but to Charity. Wherefore when they do not attribute Righteoufnels to Faith, but to ally in refpect of Charity, they attribute to Faith, butting at all.

Of this Faith infufed, and what it is, read more, Page 112. Line 21.

Moreover, these Perverters of the Gofpel of Chrift do teach that even that Faith which they call Faith infufed, and not received by hearing, nor gotten by any working, but created in Man by the Holy Gholf, may fland with deadly Sin, and that the worfe Men may have this Faith. Therefore, fay they, if it be alone, it is idle and utterly unprofitable. Thus they take from Faith her Office, and give it unito Charity ; for that Faith is nothing, except Charity which they call the Form and Perfcotion thereof, be joined withal. This is a devilin and a blafphemous Kind of Dochrine, which utterly defacts and overthroweth the Dochrine of Faith, and carrieth a Man clean form Chrift the Mediator, and from Faith, which is the Hand and only Mean whereby we appresend him. For if Charity be the Form and Perfection of Faith (as they dream) then am I by and by confirmed to fay, that Charity is the principal Part of Chriftian Religion, and fo I lofe Chrift, his Blood, and all his Benefits, and now I reft altogether in a moral doing, even as the Pope, the heather Philofonder, and the Tutk doth.

But the Holy Ghoft which give th to all.Men both Mouth and Tongue, knoweth how to fpeak. He could have faid, (as the Sophiffers do wickedly imagine; ) The righteous Man shall live by Faith, formed and beautified or made perfect by Charity. But this he omitteth of Purpofe, and faith plainly ; The righteous Man liveth by Faith. Let thefe doltifh Sophifters go therefore, with this their wicked and peftilent Glofs. We will flill hold and extol this Faith, which God himfelf hath called Faith, that is to fay, a true and a certain Faith, which doubteth not of God, nor of his Promife, nor of the Forgiveness of Sins thro' Christ, that we may dwell fure and fafe in this our Object Chrift, and may keep ftill before our Eyes the Paffion and Blood of our Mediator and all his Benefits. Now, Faith alone which layeth hold upon Chrift, is the only Mean that we fuffer not these Benchts to be taken out of our Sight. Wherefore, rejecting this peftilent Glofs, we muft underftand this Place of Faith only and alone. And this Paul himfelf declareth, when he reafoneth against Faith formed with Charity, after this Sort.

Verse 12. And the Law is not of Faith:

The School-men fay ; The rightcous Man doth live, if his Faith be formed and advanted with Charity. But contrainive P and finits, The Law is not of Faith. But what is the Law ? Is it not allo a Commandment touching Charity ? Yea, the Law commandent nothing effe but Charity, as we may fee by the Text itdlf; Theu that have the Lord thy God, with all thy Scal, &c. Deut, vi, S. Matth, xxii, 37. Again, Shrwing Mercy and Ling fand that lose him and keep his Commandment; Exodo, xx. 6. Alfo, Ia they for Commandment: confifted the Law and the Prophets, Matth, xxii, 4. If the Law then, that commandeth Charity be contrary to Faith. It multi needs follow, that Charity is not of Faith. So Paul plainly confuteth that Glob which the Sophifter have forged; all of fat apart, with all that belob generate and fer apart, Charity is allo fet apart, with all that belob genet to the Law, and Faith only is left, which jultifieth and quickneth to everlatting Life.

Paul therefore reafoneth here out of a plain Tellimony of the Prophet, that there is none which obtaineth Julification and Life before God, but the believing Man, who obtaineth Righteowinefs and everlating Life without the Law and without Charity, by Faithalone. The Reafon is, becaufe the Law is not of Faith, that is, the Law is not Risin, or any Thing belonging to Faith, for it believeth not; neither are the Works of the Law Faith, nor yet of Faith; therefore Faith is a Thing much differing from the Law, like as the Promife is a Thing much differing from the Law. For the Promife is not apprehended by working, but by believing. Yet there is as great a Difference between the Promife and the Law, and confequently between Faith and Works, as then is Diffance between Heaven and Earth.

It is impoffible therefore, that Faith fhould be of the Law. For Faith only refleth in the Promife, it only apprehendeth and knoweth God. and ftandeth only in receiving good Things of God. Contrariwife the Law and Works confift in exacting, in doing, and in giving unto God. As Abel offering his Sacrifice, giveth unto God ; but he believing receiveth of God. Paul therefore concludeth mightily out of that Place of Habakkuk, that the righteous Man liveth by Faith alone. For the Law in no wife belongeth unto Faith, becaufe the Law is not the Promife. But Faith reffeth only upon the Promife. Wherefore as there is a Difference between the Law and the Promife : fo is there also between Works and Faith. That Glofs therefore of the School-men is falfe and wicked. which joineth the Law and Faith together, yea rather it quencheth Faith, and fetteth the Law in the Place of Faith. And here note, that Paul always fpeaketh of fuch as would do the Law morally, and not according to the Scripture. But whatfoever is faid of fuch good Works as the Scripture requireth, the fame is attributed to Faith alone.

Verse 12. But, The. Man that doth them shall live in them.

Paul here goeth about to fhew what is the very true Rightcoufneds of the Law and of the Goidpet. The Rightcoufneds of the Law is to fulfil the Law, according to that Saying; He that fhall do thefe Things thall low in them. The Rightcoulder's of Faith is to believe, according to that Saying; The righters Man doth fine by Faith. The Law therefore require that we flowed yield formewhat unto God. But Faith requireth no Works of as, or that we flowed give any Thing.

unto God, but that we believing the Promife of God, fhould The Office receive of him. Therefore the Office of the Law is to of the Law work, as the Office of Faith is to affent unto the Promife. and of Faith. For Faith is the Faith of the Promife, and the Work is the Work of the Law. Paul therefore flandeth upon this Word Daing ; and that he may plainly thew, what is the Confidence of the Law, and what is the Confidence of Works, he compareth the one with the other, the Promife with the Law, and Paith with Works. He faith, that of the Law there coment nophing elfe but and yoking, but Paith is a clean contary Thing, tamely, that which affenteth to the Promife, and layeth hold upon it.

Thele four Things therefore muft be perfedly diffinguithed., For as the Law bath his proper Office, fo hath the Promife. To the Law pertaineth Doing, and to the Promife, and Relieving, must be diffinguished.

CHAP. III,

Promife, Believing. Wherefore, as far as the Law and the Promife are foparate alonder, fo far alfo are Doing and Believing. By the which Diffindtion Paul here goeth about to feparate Clarity from Faith and to teach that Charity juftifieth not, becault the Law worketh or hepeth nothing to Judification. Faith alone therefore juftifieth and quicketch, and yet it flandeth not alone, that is to fay, it is not idle, albeit that in her Degree and Office it flandeth alone. Ye for the guarte Faith why Paul here alledgeth this Place, namely, that he may feparate Faith

Fides formata, informis, acquifita, are monftrous Terms devifed by the Papifis. and Charity far afunder.

Fy upon the Sophiflers therefore with their curfed Gloffes and their blind Diffindion of Faith formed and unformed. For their new forged Terms, Faith formed, Faith unform ed, Faith gotten by Man's Indulty, and (ach like, are very Monfters deviled by the Devil, to no other End but to delace and defroy the true Chinitian Doftrine and Faith, to blafpheme and tread Chrift under Foot, and to flabilih the Richteouffes of Works. Indeed Works mult follow Faith, but Faith muft not be Works, or Works Faith ; but the Bounds and the Kingdoms of the Law or Works, and of Faith muft be rightly diffinguifhed the one from the other,

When we believe therefore, we live only by Faith in Chrift, who is sife our Mercy-feat and Remifilon OS inc. Constraining, who is alfo our Mercy-feat and Remifilon OS inc. Constraining, who is alfo our for the Colice of the Law is not to julify and give Life, but to flow forth Sin, and to defiroy. Indeed the Law faith is, which loveth God with all bis Heart, and is, which loveth God with all bis Heart, and is, which loveth God with all bis Heart, and altho he go about to do it never for much, yet in doing it he doth it not, but believe hin Chrift he Juffield the Juffield the Juffield and live hore is the ability of the Juffield the Juffield and the Law for the substitution of the Law is the substitution of Law is the substitution

Paul therefore in this Place, and in the rolb Chapter to the Kamani, compared the Rightcouffield of the Law and of Faith together, where he faith 1, He that faeld do the/G Things, field live in them. As the 'he would fay, I were indeed a goodly Matteri i'we could accomplift the Law ; but beccufe no Man doth it, we mult fly unto Chrift, Whoir the Bad of the Law for Rightenglagits every are that believeth, Rom. X. 4 He was made ander the Law, that he might redgem than that were under the Law, Gal, iv. 4, 5. Believing in him we receive the Holy Ghoft, and we begin to do the Law, and that which we do not, is not imputed unto us becaufe of our Faith. For then we faill no more have Need for Still. But in the Life to come we fhall no more have Need of Paith. For then we faill no fee darkly thro's Glafs (as we now do) but we fhall fee Pace to Face, t Cor, xin 13. that is to fay, there fhall be a modi giorious Bightneffs of the energy nal Majefty, in which we shall fee God even as he is. There shall be a true and a perfect Knowledge and Love of God, a perfect Light of Reafon and a Good will; not fuch a moral and philolophical Will as the Popifh School-men dream of, but an heavenly, divine, and eternal Will. Here in the mean Time, in Spirit by Faith, we look for the Hope of Righteoufnefs. Contrariwife, they that feek for Righteoufnefs of Sins by the Law and not by Chrift, do never perform the Law, but abide under the Curfe.

Paul therefore calleth them only righteous, which are Who they juftified thro' the Promife, or thro' Faith in the Promife are that Paul without the Law. Wherefore, they that are of the Works calleth righof the Law, and will feem to do the Law, do it not. For teous. the Apofile generally concludeth, that all they which are of the Works of the Law, are under the Curfe; under the which they should not be, if they fulfilled the Law. Indeed it is true, that a Man doing the Works of the Law, thall live in them, that is, thall be blef. fed ; but fuch a one cannot be found. Now feeing there is a double Ufe of the Law, the one politick, and the other fpiritual, he that will understand this Sentence civilly, may do it after this Sort : He that . Iball do these Things, shall live in them : That is, if a Man obey the Magiftrate outwardly and in the politick Government, he shall avoid Punifhment and Death ; for then the civil Magiftrate hath no Power over him. This is the politick Ufe of the Law, which ferveth to bridle those that are rude and untractable. But Paul here foeaketh not of this Ule, but intreateth of this Place like a Divine, therefore there is a Condition neceffarily included. As if he faid; If Men could keep the Law, they fhould be happy. But where are they ? They are not therefore Doers of the Law, except they be jultified before and without the Law, thro' Faith.

Wherefore, when Paul curfeth and condemneth those which are of the Works of the Law, he fpeaketh not of fuch as are juftified thro' Faith, but of fuch as go about to be justified by Works, without Faith in Chrift : This I fay, left any Man should follow the fond Imagination of Ferome, who being deceived by Origen, understoood nothing at all in Paul, but took him as a mere civil Lawyer. Hereupon he reasoneth after this Manner : The holy Patriarchs, Prophets and Kings were circumcifed and offered Sacrifice. therefore they observed the Law. But it were a wicked Thing to fay, that they are under the Curfe ; therefore all they that are of the Works of the Law are not under the Curfe. Thus he fetteth himfelf againft Paul without all Judgment, making no Difference between the true

But Paul speaketh here nothing against those that are justified by Faith, and are true Doers of the Law indeed, for they are not of the Works of the Law; but against those which not only do not keep the Law.

Law, but alfo fin against the fame. For the Law commandeth that we fhould fear, love and worfhip God with a true Faith. A Picture of This they do not, but choose out new Kinds of Worthip and Works which were never commanded of God, by the which God is not pacified, but more provoked to Anger, according to that Saying, But in vain they do worfbip me, teaching for Doctrines the Commandments of Men, Matth. xv. o. Therefore they are full of Impiety, Rebels againft God and Idolaters, finning grievoully against the first Commandment above all the reft. Moreover, they are full of wicked Concupifcence, Wrath and other great Paffions. Briefly, there is no good Thing in them, but that outwardly they would feem to be righteous and to accomplish the Law.

So we also which are justified by Faith, as were the Patriarchs, Prophets and all the Saints, are not of the Works of the Law, as concerning Justification. But in that we are in the Flesh, and have as yet the Remnants of Sin in us, we are under the Law, and yet not under the Curfe, becaufe the Remnants of Sin are not imputed unto us for Chrift's Sake, in whom we believe : For the Flelh is an Enemy unto God, and that Concupifcence which yet remaineth in us, not only fulfilleth not the Law, but also finneth against the fame, rebelling against us, and leading us captive into Bondage, Rom. vii. Now, if the Law be not fulfilled in the Saints, but that many Things are done in them contrary to the Law, if evil Concupifcence and the Remnants of Sin are yet remaining in them, which do fo hinder them that they cannot fear and love God, they cannot call upon God with affured Truft, they cannot praife God and reverence his Word as they should do; much more is this true in a Man which is not yet justified by Faith, but is an Enemy unto God, and with all his Heart despifeth and hateth the Word and Work of God. Ye fee then that Paul speaketh here of fuch as will fulfill the Law, and be juffified thereby, altho' they have not yet received Faith, and not of the Fathers and Saints (as Ferome imagineth) which are justified by Faith already.

Deut. xxi. 23. Verle 12. Christ hath redeemed us from the Curfe of the Law, being made a Curle for us: For it is written, Curled is every one that bangeth on a Tree :

This Sentence which Paul reciteth out of Deut. is miferably wrefted and racked of the Papills.

Hear again Terome, and the Popifh Sephifters which follow him, are much troubled, and miferably rack this moft comfortable Place, feeking, as they would feem, with a godly Zeal to turn away this Reproach from Chrift, that he should be called a Curle or Execration. They shift off this Sentence after this Manner; that Paul fpake not here in good earneft; and therefore they most wickedly affirm, that the Scripture in Paul agreeth not with itfelf. And this they prove after this Manner: The Sentence (fay they) of Males, which Paul here alledgeth. fpeaketh not of Chrift. Moreover this general Claufe [whofeever] which Paul alledgeth, is not added in Moles. Again, Paul omitteth this Word fof God ] which is in Moles. To conclude, it is evident enough, that Mafes speaketh of a Thief or a Malefactor, which by his evil Deeds had deferved the Gallows, as the Scripture plainly witneffeth in the 21/ Chap. of Deut. Therefore they ask this Queftion, How this Sentence may be applied to Chrift, that he is accurfed of God and hanged upon a Tree, feeing that he is no Malefactor or Thief, but righteous and holy? This may peradventure move the fimple and ignorant, thinking that the Sophifters do fpeak it, not only wittily, but also very godly, and thereby do defend the Honour and Glory of Chrift, and give warning to all Chriftians to beware that they think not fo wickedly of Chrift. that he should be made a Curfe, Gr. Let us fee therefore what the Meaning and Purpole of Paul is.

But here again we muft make a Diffinition, as the Words of Paul do plainly thew. For the finit not, that Chrift was made a Carfe for himfelf, but for us. Therefore all the Weight of the Matter flonderh in this Word, For us. For Chriff is innoven as concerning his own Perfon, and therefore he ought not to have been hanged on a Tree; but becaufe, according to the Law of Miles.

every Thief and Malefactorought to be hanged, therefore Chrisf alfo according to the Law ought to be hanged, for he fuffanted the Perfon of a Sinner and of a Thief, not of one, but of all Sinners and Thieves. For we are Sinners and Thieves, and therefore guilty of Death and evertalfung Dammation. But Chrisf took all our Sins upon him, and for them died upon the Crois; therefore it behoved that he fhould become a Tranigreffur, (as I faiab the Propher faith, Chep, Iiii.) to be reckned and accouncid atmage Transferfors and Trefpelffers.

And this (no doub) all the Propher's did fore-fee in Spirit, that Chrift fhould become the greats if Tranfgreffor, Murderer, Adulterer, Thief, Rebel and Biaßhemer, that ever was or could be in all the World. For ite being made a Sacrifice for the Sins of the whole World, is not now an innocent Perfon and without Sins, is not now the Son of God, born of the Virgin Mary is but Sinner, which hath and carrieth the Sin of Paul, who was a Blafphemer, an Opprefifor and a Perfecutor; of Peter, which denied Chrift of David, which was an Adulterer, a Murderer, and cauded the Genüller to blafpheme the Name of the Lord, J/q, lin, > Matthe Null:  $\tau_{1}$ , and briefly, which hand bearest all the Sins of all Men in his Body; not that he himfelf committed them, but for that he received them being committed or done of us, and laid them upon his own Body, thus the might make Satisficition for them with his own Blood. Therefore this general Sentence of Mgfer comprehendent him him alfo (albeit in his own Perfon he was innocent) becaufe it found him smongf Sinners and Trangreffors : Like as the Magithate taketh him for a Thief, and punifheth him whom he findeth among other Thieves and Tranfgreffors, the'he never columitted any Thing worthy of Death. Now, Chrift was not only found amongft Sinners, but of his own Accord and by the Will of his Father he would alfo be a Companion of Sinners, Taking upon him the Fleh and Blood of thofe which were Sinners, Thieves and plunged in all Kinds of Sin. When the Law therefore found him among Thieves it condemned and killed him as a Thief.

What Incommodities follow the Doctrine of the Schoolmen. The Popilh Sphilers do (poil us of this Knowledge of Chrift and moth heavenly Comfort, (namely, that Chrift was made a Curfe, that he might deliver us from the Curfe of the Law) when they feparate tim from Sins and Simners, and only for him out unto us as an Example to be followed. By this Means they make Chrift, not only unprofitable unrou sk, but alfoa Judge and a Tyrant, which is angry with our Sins, and condemneth Sinners. But we mult as well wrap Chrift, and know him to be wrapped in our Sins, in our Malediction, in our Death, and in all our Evils, as he is wrapped in our Flefh and in our Rlood.

Chrift muft be wrapped as well in Sins, as in our Flefh and Blood.

But fome Man will fay; It is very abfard and flanderous, to call the Son of God a curfed Sinner. I anfwer, if thou will deny him to be a Sinner and to be accurfed, deny alfo that he was crucified and died. For it is no lefs abfurd to fay, that the Son of God (as our Faith confelfeth and believeth) was crucified and fuffered the Pains of Sin and Death, then to fay, that he is a are, but leave them in their own proper Signification : For God dallieth not in the Words of the Prophet, but fpeaketh earneftly, and of great Love ; to wit, that Chrift this Lamb of God Mould bear the Sins of us all. But what is it to bear !! The Sophifters answer, to be punished. Very well. But wherefore is Chrift punished ? Is it not because he hath Sin and beareth Sin ? Now that Chrift hath Sin the Holy Ghoft witneffeth in Plal. xl. 12. Mine Iniquities have taken hold upon me, fo that I am not able to look up : They are more than the Hairs of mine Head. In this Pfalm and certain others, the Holy Ghoft fpeaketh in the Perfon of Chrift, and in plain Words witneffeth, that he had Sins. For this Teftimony is not the Voice of an innocent but of a fuffering Chrift, which took upon whim to bear the Perfon of all Sinners, and therefore was made guilty of the Sins of the whole World.

Wherefore Chrift was not only crucified and died, but Sin alfo (thro' the Love of the Divine Majefty) was laid upon him. When Sin was laid upon him, then cometh the Law and faith ; every Sinner must die. Therefore, O Chrift, if thou wilt answer, become guilty, and fuffer Puhifhment for Sinners, thou muft alfo bear Sin and Malediction. Paul therefore doth very well alledge this general Sentence out of Moles as concerning Chrift ; Every one that hangeth upon the Tree is the accursed of God ; but Chrift hath hanged upon the Tree, therefore Chrift is the accurfed of God. And this is a fingular Confolation for all Chriftians, fo to clothe Chrift with our Sins, and to wrap him in my Sins, thy Bins, and in the Sins of the whole World, and fo to * behold him bearing all our Iniquities : For the beholding of him after this Manner, fhall eafily vanquifh all the fantaftical Opinions of the Papifls concerning the Justification of Works. For they do imagine (as I have faid) a certain Faith formed and adorned with Charity. By this (fay they) Sins are taken away, and Men are juffined before God : And what is this elfe (I pray you) but to unwwrap Chrift, and to Itrip him quite out of our Sins, to make him innocent, and to charge and overwhelm our-felves with our own Sins, and to look upon them, not in Chriff, but nin ourfelves ? Yea, what is this elfe but to take Chrift clean away, and nto make him utterly unprofitable unto us? For if it be fo that we put away Sin by the Works of the Law and Charity, then Chrift taketh them not away. For if he be the Lamb of Our Sins are God, oftenined from everlafting to take away the Sins of taken away aliahe World; and moreover, if he be fo wrapped in our by Chrift Sins, that he became accurfed for us, it must needs follow alone. minhat we cannot be juffified by Works : For God hath laid mour Sins, not upon us, but upon his Son Chrift, that he bearing the Puinnifament thereof, might be our Peace, and that by his Stripes we might sibe healed, I/a. liii. 5. Therefore they cannot be taken away by us. "To this all the Scripture beareth witness; and we also do confess the fame in the Articles of the Christian Belief, when we fay, I believe in Jelus Christ the Son of God, which fuffered, was crucified and died for us.

Hereby it appeareth that the Doctrine of the Gofpel (which of all other is most fweet and full of fingular Confolation) speaketh nothing

Of what Points the Doctrine of the Gofpel intreateth. of our Works, or of the Works of the Law, but of the inelimable Mercy and Love of God towards us molt wretched and miterable Sinners, to wit, that our moft mercifal Father feeing us to be opprefied and overwhelmed with the Curfe of the Law, and fo to be holden under the fame, that we could never be delivered from it by our own Paw-

Be thou Peter that Denier; Paul that Perfectors, Blafhemer, and cruel Opperfors; Deaid that Adulters; that Sinner which did eat the Apple in Paradife; that Thief which hanged upon the Crofs: And briefly, be thou the Perfon which hat committed the Sins of all Men : See therefore that thou pay

By this Means the whole World is purged and cleanfed from all Sins, and fo delivered from Death and all Evils. Now, Sin being vanquilhed and Death aboilided by this once Man, God would fice nothing elfs in the whole World if it did believe, but a mere cleanfung and Righteoufnefs. And if any Remnants of Sin fhould remain, yet for the great Glory that is in Chrift, God would wink as them and would not fee them.

The Article of Juftification and Chriftian Righteoufnefs.

† This Opposition is a comparingof two Contraries, Chrift and the World together. Thus we muft magnify the Article of Chrillian Righteenfacts againfit the Righteenfact of the Law and Works: Albeit no Elequence is able fufficiently to fct forth the inelimable Greatefic thereof. Wherefore the Argument octanianet this invancible of Oppofition, that is, if the Sins of the whole World be in that one Man Jelus Chrift, then are they not in the World. But if they be not in him, then are they yet in the World. But if they be not made guilty of all the Sins which we all have committed, then are we delivered from all Sins, but not by ourfelves, nor by our own Works or Merits, but by him. But if he be innocent and bear not our Sins, then do we bear them, and in them we full die and be damed. Bar refent, or to come, take hold upon him, go about to condemn him, od do indeed condemn him. But becaufe in the felf-fame Perfon, which the higheft, the greateft and the only Sinner, there is

Ho an everlafting and invincible Righteoulnefs : thereare these two do encounter rogether, the highest, the reateft, and the only Sin, and the higheft, the greateft, nd the only Righteoufnefs. Here one of them mult eeds be overcome and give Place to the other, feeing hey fight together with fo great Force and Power. The in therefore of the whole World cometh upon Righteulnels with all Might and Main. In this Combate, What is done? lighteoufnels is everlafting, immortal and invincible. Sin alfo is a holf mighty and cruel Tyrant, ruling and reigning over the whole World, fubduing and bringing all Men into Bondage. To conclude, in is a firong and a mighty God, which devoureth all Mankind, learn-H, unlearned, holy, mighty and wife Men. This Tyrant (I fay) flieth yon Chrift, and will needs fwallow him up, as he doth all other : But e feeth not that he is a Perfon of invincible and everlafting Righteufnels. Therefore in this Combate Sin must needs be vanquished and illed, and Righteoufnefs muft overcome, live and reign. So in Chritt Il Sin is vanquifhed, killed and buried, and Righteoufnefs remaineth a conqueror and reigneth for ever.

In like Manner, Death, which is an omnipotent Oueen ad Empress of the whole World, killing Kings, Princes, nd generally all Men, doth mightily encounter with Life, hinking utterly to overcome it, and to fwallow it up ; and at which it goeth about, it bringeth to pais indeed. But ecaufe Life was immortal, therefore when it was overome, yet did it overcome and get the Victory, vanquishg and killing Death. Death therefore thro' Chrift is anquifhed and abolifhed throughout the whole World, that now it is but a painted Death, which lofing his ing, can no more hurt those that believe in Christ, who is become he Death of Death, as Hofea the Prophet faith, O Death I will be y Death, Hof. xiii. 14.

So the Curfe, which is the Wrath of God upon the hole World, hath the like Conflict with the Bleffing; at is to fay, with Grace, and the eternal Mercy of God Chrift. The Curfe therefore fighteth against the Blef-He, and would condemn it and bring it to nought ; but cannot fo do: For the Bleffing is divine and everlafting; and therefore e Curfe must needs give Place. For if the Bleffing in hrift could be overcome, then fhould God himfelf alfo Sovercome. But this is impofible; therefore Chrift e Power of God, Righteousness, Bleffing, Grace and fe, overcometh and deflroyeth thefe Monfters, Sin, wath and the Curfe, without War or Weapons, in his on Body, and in himfelf, as Paul delighteth to fpeak;

Let us therefore receive this molf freez Doctrine and that Docfull of Confort, with Thankfgiving, and with an affured Faith, which teacheth that Chrift being made a Curfé for Golpel fets us (that is, a Sinner fublect to the Witath of God) did put upon him our Perfon, and laid our Sins upon his own Shoulders, faying: I have committed the Sins which all Men have committed. Therefore he was made a Curle indeed according to the Law, not for himfelf, but (ar Paul faith) for us. For unles he had taken upon himfelf my Sins and thine, and the Sins of the whole World, the Law had had no Right work him, which condemneth none but Sinners only, and holdeth them under the Curfe. Wherefore he could neither have been made a Curfe nor odie, fith the only Caule of the Curfe and of Desth is Sin, from the which he was free. It is the Work of God, to abolifh Death and to give Life.

Good-will; it behoved him to bear the Punishment and Wrath of God; not for his own Perfon (which was just and invincible, and therefore could be found in no ways guilty) but for our Perfon.

So making a happy Change with us, he took upon him our finful Perfon, and gave unto us his innocent and victorious Perfon; wherewith we being now cloathed, are freed from the Curie of the Law. For Chrift was willingly made a Curfe for us, faying; As touching mine own Perfon, I am blefled, and need nothing; but I will abafe myfelf, and will put upon me your Perfon, that is to fay, your human Nature.

Chrift is our Righteoufnefs, and our Sin is his. Pbil. ii. 7, and will walk in the fame among you, and will fuffer Death, to deliver you from Death. Now, he thus bearing the Sin of the whole World in our Perfon, was taken, fuffered, was crucified and put to Death, and became a Curfe for us. But becaule he was a Perfon dition of the second seco vine and everlafting, it was impossible that Death should hold him. Wherefore he rofe up again the third Day from Death, and now liveth for ever; and there is neither Sin nor Death found in him any more, but mere Righteounfiels, Life and everlafting Bleffednels.

An ineftimable Comfort for all poor Confciences beaten down with Sin. This Image and this Mirrouw we muft have continually before us, and behold the fame with a fledfaft Eye of Faith. He that doft fo, hath this Innocency and Victory of Chrift, altho' he be never fo great a Sinner. By Faith only therefore we are made righteous, for Faith layeth hold upon this Innocency and this Victory of Chrift. Look then how much thou believelt this, fo much thou doft enjoy it. If thou believes Sin, Death, and the Curfe to be abolifhed, they are abolifhed. For Chrift hath overcome and taken away thefe in himfelf, and will have us to believe, that like as in his own Perfon, there is now no Sin nor Death, even fo there is none in ours, feeing he hath performed and accomplifhed all Things for us.

A Remedy and a Comfort against the Terrors of Sin, &c. Wherefore, if Sin vex thee and Death terrify thee, think that it is (as it is indeed) but an Inargination and a falle Illulion of the Devil. For in very ded there is now no Sin, no Curfe, no Death, no Devil to hut us any more, for Chrift hath vanquible and abdited all thefe Things. Therefore the Victory of Chrift is molt coet tain, and there is no Defed in the Thing itfell. (Income ticle of Chriftian Rightroufacis deftroyeth Satan's Kingdom.

And

And that there is no more Sin, Death, or Malediction, fince Chrift now reigneth, we daily confess also in the Creed of the Apostles, when we fay : I believe that there is an boly Church. Which is indeed nothing elfe but as if we fhould fay ; I believe that there is no Sin, no Malediction, no Death in the Church of God. For they which do believe in Chrift are no Sinners, are not guilty of Death, but are holy and righteous, Lords over Sin and Death, and living for ever. But Faith only feeth this : For we fay, I believe that there is an holy Church. But if thou believe Reafon and thine own Eves, thou wilt judge clean contrary. For thou feeft many Things in the Godly which offend thee.

Thou feelt them fometime to fall into Sin, and to be weak The Weakin Faith, to be fubiect unto Wrath, Envy and fuch other nefs of the exil Affections: therefore the Church is not holy. I deay the Confequence. If I look upon mine own Perfon, or the Perfon of my Brother, it shall never be holy. But if I behold Chrift, who hath fanctified and cleanfed his Church, then is it altogether holy : For he hath taken away the Sins of the whole World.

Therefore where Sins are feen and felt, there are they ndeed no Sins. For according to Paul's Divinity, there is no Sin. no Death, no Malediction any more in the World out in Chrift, who is the Lamb of God that hath taken fed and broaway the Sins of the World ; who is made a Curfe that ken-hearted ae might deliver us from the Curfe. Contrariwife, according to Philosophy and Reason, Sin, Death and the is counted Curfe are no where elfe but in the World, in the Flefh, no Sinner. or in Sinners. For a fophiftical Divine can fpeak no oberwife of Sin, then doth the Heathen Philosopher. Like as the Coour (faith he) cleaveth in the Wall, even fo doth Sin in the World. in the Flefh, or in the Confcience ; therefore it is to be purged by conrary Operations, to wit, by Charity. But the true Divinity teacheth that there is no Sin in the World any more; for Chrift, upon whom the Father hath caft the sins of the whole World, hath vanquished and killed the ame in his own Body, Ifa. liii. 6. He once dying for in and raifed up again, dieth now no more. Therefore wherefoever is a true Faith in Chrift, there Sin is abolifh-

id, dead and buried. But where no Faith in Chrift is, there Sin doth hill remain. And albeit the Remnants of Sin be as yet in the Saints, secaufe they believe not perfectly, yet are they dead in that they are not imputed unto them, because of their Faith in Chrift.

This is therefore a ftrong and mighty Argument, which Paul here owrofecuteth against the Righteoufnels of Works. It is not the Law nor Norks that do deliver us from the everlasting Curfe, but Chrift alone. e therefore good Christian Reader, I befeech thee, that thou diffinwith Chrift from the Law, and diligently mark how Paul speaketh, and what he faith. All faith he which do not fulfil the Law, are nefarily under the Curfe. But no Man fulfilleth the Law, therefore all Men are under the Carfe. The addeth moreover another Propolition : Chrift hath redeemed us from the Carfe of the Law, being made: a Carfe for us; therefore it followeth, that the Law and Works do not redeem us from the Carfe, but bring us rather ander the Carfe. Charity therefore (which as the School men fay, giveth Form and Perfection, unto Faith) hath not only not redeemed us from the Carfe, but rather it wrapeth us more and more in the Carfe.

This Text then is plain, that all Men, yea the Apolles, Prophets and Patriarches had remained under the Curfe, if Chrift had not fet hinfelf againft Sin. Death, the Curfe of the Law, the Wrath and Jadgment of God, and overcome them in his own Body: For no Power of Fleih and Blood could overcome thele huge and hidous Monlfers. But now, Chrift is not the Law, or the Work of the Law, but a divine and human Perfon, suitch took upon him Sin, the Condennation of the Law and Death, not for himfelf, but for us. Therefore all the Weight and Force hereof confifteth in this Word, For us.

We mult not then imagine Chritt to be innocent, and as a private Perfon (as do the School-men, and almoft all the Fathers have done) which is holy and righteous for himfelf only. True it is indeed that Chrift is a Perfon moft pure and unfpotted; but thou mult not flay there; for thou haft not yet Chrift, althot thou know him to be God and Man; but then thou haft him indeed, when thou believeft that

How Chrift is truly known. this most pure and innocent Perfon is freely given unto thee of the Father to be thy High Prieft and Saviour, yea rather thy Servant, that he putting off his Innocency and Holmeft, and taking thy Inful Perfon upon him, might bear thy Sin, thy Death and thy Curfe, and might be made a Sacrifice and a Curfe for thee, that by this Means he might deliver thee from the Curfe of the Law.

Ye fee then with what an Apoftolick Spirit Paul handleth this Argument of the Bleffing and of the Curfe, whilft he not only maketh Chrift fubject to the Curfe, but faith alfo that he is made a Curfe. So in the a Cor. v. 21. he calleth him Sin when he faith ; He bath made him to be Sin for us, who knew no Sin ; that we might be made the Righteoufness of God in kim. And altho' these Sentences may be well expounded after this Manner : Chrift is made a Curfe, that is to fay, a Sacrifice for the Carfe ; and Sin, that is, a Sacrifice for Sin, yet in my Judgment it is better to keep the proper Signification of the Words, because there is a greater Force and Vehemency therein. For when a Sinner cometh to the Knowledge of himfelf indeed, he feeleth not only that he is miferable, but Mifery itfelf ; not only that he is a Sinner and is accurfed, but even Sin and Malediction itfelf. For it is a terrible Thing to bear Sin, the Wrath of God, Malediction and Death ; wherefore that Man which hath a true feeling of thefe Things (as Chrift did truly and effectually feel them for all Mankind) is made even Sin, Death, Malediction, Jc. Paul therefore handleth this Place with a true Apollolical Spirit. There is neither Sophifter, nor Lawyer, nor Jew, nor Anabaptift, nor any any other that fpeaketh as he doth. For who durft alledge this Place out of  $M_0^{\rm eff}$ ; Accurfed it very me that hangeth an a Tree; and apply it unto Chrift? Like as Paul then applied this Sentence to Chrift, even for may we apply unto Chrift, hot only that whole 27 Chap. of Deuteronomy, but alformay gather all the Curfes of  $M_0^{\rm eff}$ 's Law together, and expound the fame of Chrift. For as Chrift is innocent in this general Law, touching his own Perfors (5 his he alfoin all the reft. And as he is guilty in this general Law, in that he is made a Curfe for us, and is hanged upon the Croft as a wicked Man, a Blafphemer, a Murders and a Traitor; even fo is he alfo guilty in all others. For all the Curfes of the Law are hanged together and haid upon him, and therefore he did bear and fuffer them in his own Body for us. He was therefore not only accurfed, but alfo was made a Curfe for us.

This is to interpret the Scriptures truly and like an Apofile. For a Man is not able to fpeak after this Manner without the Holy Ghoff; that is to fay, to comprehend the whole Law in this one Saying, Chriff is made a Curif for us, and lay the fame altogether upon Chriff : And contrairwife to comprehend all the Promiles of the Scripture, and fay that they are all at once fulfilled in Chrift. Wherefore this is indeed an Apo-(Lolick and invincible Argument, not taken out of one Place of the Law, but out of the whole Law, which Paul allo ucfth as a fare Ground.

Here we may fee with what Diligence Paul read the holy Scipitzers, and how exactly she weighed every Word of this Place; In thy Seed thall all the Nations of the Earth be bidfied. Firft, Out of this Word Bleffing the gathereth this Argument : If Bleffing thall be given unto all Nations, then are all Nations under the Curfe, year the Jeau allo who have the Law. And he alledgeth a Teffinony of the Scripture, whereby he provent that all the Jeau which are under the Law, are under the Curfe, Scrift

Moreover, he diligently weigheth this Claufe; All Nations. Out of the which he gathereth thus; that the Blefing belongeth not only to the Jews, but allo to all the Nations of the whole World. Seeing then it belongeth to all Nations, it is impossible that it fhould be obtained, thro' the Law of My(e), for as much as there was no Nation that had the Law, but only the Jews. And altho' they had the Law, yet were they for far off from obtaining the Bleffing thro' it, that the more they endezwoured to accomplish it, the more they were fully eff to the Caufe of the Law. Wherefore there mugh needs be apo-

Finally, Thele Words, In thy Seed, he expoundeth after this Manner; that a certain Man flould illue out of the Seed of Abraham, that is to fay, Chrift, htrow 'ahom the Bleffing floudd come afterwards upon all Nations. Seeing therefore it was Chrift that floudd blefs all Nations, it was he alfo that floudd take away the Curfe from them: But he could not take it away by the Law, for by the Law it's more and more increafed. What did he then? He joined himfelf to the Company of the Accurded, taking unto him their Eldin and their Blood, and for thingfelf

But becaule he was the Son of God, he could not be holden of them, but overcame them, led them capitee, and triumphed over them; and whatfoever did hang upon Flefh, which for our Sake he took upon him, he carried it with him. Wherefore all they that cleave unto this Flefh, are bleffed and delivered from the Curfe, that is, from Sin, and everlafting Death.

But Chrift being made for us a Tranfgreffor of all Laws, guilty of all our Maledidion, our Sins, and all our Evils, cometh between as a Mediator, embracing us wicked and damnable Sinners. He took upon him and bare all our Evils, which floudd bave opprefield and tormented us for ever; and thelecall him down for a little while, and ran over his Head like Water, as the Prophet in the Perion of Chrift compainent, when he faith, To Indignation for prefizitions.

These are the reverend Mysteries of the Scripture, which Moles also fomewhat datkly in fome Places did fore-shew; which also the Prophets and Apostles did know, and did deliver to their Posteri-

Verfe 14. That the Bleffing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles thre Jefus Chrift;

Paul hath always-this Place before his Eyes, In thy Seed, &c. For the Bleffing promifed unto Abraham, could not come upon the Gentiles, but only by Chrift the Seed of Abraham, and that by this Means, that it behoved him to be made a Curfe, that this Promife made unto Abraham, In thy Seed thall all Families of the Earth be bleffed, might to be fulfilled. Therefore by no other Means could this be done that here is promifed, but that Chrift Jefus must needs become a Curfe, and join himfelf to those that were accurfed, that so he might take away the Curfe from them, and thro' his Bleffing might bring unto them Righteoufnefs and Life. And here mark (as I have also forewarned yon) that this Word Bleffing is not in vain, as the Jews dream, who expound it to be but a Salutation by Word of Mouth or by Writing. But Paul intreateth here of Sin and Righteoufnefs, of Death and Life before God. He fpeaketh therefore of ineftimable and incomprehenfible Things, when he faith, that the Bleffing of Abraham might same on the Gentiles thro' Jefus Chrift.

Ye fee moreover what Merits we bring, and by what Merins we obtion this Bieling. This is the Merit of Comprume and Worthinefs, thefe are the Works preparative, whereby we obtain this Righteonlack, that Chrift Jefox as make a Carfe for us: For we are ignorant of God, Earnies of God, dead in Sin, and accurfed': And what is our Delerthen? What can be deferve that is accurfed 's And what is our Delerthen. What can be deferve that is accurfed, ignorant of God, dead in Sins, and folged to the Warth and Judgment of God? When the Pope excommonicateth a Man, whatloever he doth, is counted accurfed. How much more then may we fay, that he is accurfed before God (as all we are before we know Chrift) which doth nothing elfe but curfed Things? Wherefore there is no other Way to avoid the Curfe, but to believe, and with affured Confidence to fay; Thou Chrift art my Sin and my Curfe, or rather, I am thy Sin, thy Curfe, thy Death, thy Wrath of God, thy Hell: And contrariwife.

trariwife, thou art my Righteoufnefs, my Bleffing, my Life, my Grace of God, and my Heaven. For the Text faith plainly, Chrift in made a Curfe for us. Therefore we are the Caufe that he was made a Curfe; may rather we are his Curfe.

This is an excellent Place, and full of fpiritual Confolation, and albeit it fatisfy not the blind and hard hearted Tews, yet it fatisfieth us that are baptized and have received this Doctrine, and concludeth moft mightily, that we are bleffed thro' the Curfe, the Sin, and the Death of Chrift, that is to fay, we are juffified and guickned unto Life. So long as Sin, Death and the Curfe do abide in us. Sin terrifieth, Death kil-Jeth, and the Cutfe condemneth us. But when thefe are translated and laid upon Chrift's Back, then are all these Evils made his own, and his Benefits are made ours. Let us therefore learn in all Tentations to tranflate Sin, Death, the Curfe, and all Evils which opprefs us, from ourfelves unto Chrift ; and again, from him anto ourfelves, Righteoufnefs, Mercy, Life and Bleffing. For he beareth all our Evils and our Miferies; God the Father caft the Iniopities of us all, as Ifaiah the Prophet faith, upon him ; and he hath taken them upon him willingly, which was not guilty : But this he did, that he might fulfil the Will of his Father, by the which we are fanctified for ever.

This is that infinite and unmealurable Mercy of God, which Paol would glady amplify with all Eloquence and Plenty of Words, but the lender Capacity of Man's Heart cannot comprehend, and much lefs utter that unfarchable Depth, and burning Zeal of God's Love towards us. ## Verse 14. That we might receive the Promise of the Spirit thro' Faith.

This is a Phrafe of the Hebrew, The Promife of the Spirit, that is to fay, the Spirit promifed. Now, the Spirit is Freedom from the Law, Sin, Death, the Curfe, Hell, and from the Wrath and Judgment of God :

That we might receive the Promife of the Spirit, not by Works, but by Faith.

This is indeed a fweet and a true Apoflolick Doftrine, which heweth that thole Things are fulfilled for us, and now given to us, which many Prophers and Kings ddired to fee and hear. And fuch like Places as this one is, were gathered together out of divers Sayings of the Prophets, which fore-faw long before in Spirit, that all Things thould be changed, repared, and governed by this Man Chrift. The Jew therefore altho' they had the Law of God, notwithflanding befiles that Law, looked for Chrift. That we might receive the Pramife of the Spirit by Faith ; Paul poureth out at once whatfoever he was able to fay. Therefore when he can go no further (for he could not utter any greater or more excellent Thing.) he breaketh off, and here he flayeth.

Verle 15. Brethren, I fpeakafter the Manner of Men; tho'it be but a Man's Covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no Man difannulleth, or addeth thereto.

CHAP. III.

After this Principle and invincible Argument, Paul addeth an other, grounded upon the Similiude of a Man's Teftament; which feemeth to be very weak, and fuch as the Apofile ought not to ufe for the Confirmation of a Matter of forgrat Importance. For in high and weighty Matters, we ought to confirm earthly Things by cartuly and worldly Things. And indeed it is true, that thede Arguments of all other are molt weak, but when we go about to prove and confirm heavenly Matters with earthly and corruptible Things, as Scates is wont to do. A Man (faith he) is able to have God above all Things, for he loweth himfelf above all Things: therefore much more is he able to lowe God ahove all Things. For a good Thing, the greater it is, the more it is to be loved, and hereof he inferreth, that a Man is able, ex puris naturalized, that is to fay, even of his own pure natural iterength, eality to fulfil that high Commandment; Thou fail toos the Lard thy God with all thy Heart, &c. For (laith he) a Man is able to love the leaft god Thing above all Things; yea he faiteth at naught his Life (of all other Things mold dear unto him) for a little wile Moneys 1 therefore he can much more do it for God's Gaule.

Ye have oftentimes heard of me, that civil Ordinances are of God ;

An Argument taken from God's Creatures holdeth. The often Ufe of Similitudes in the boly Scriptures.

for God hath ordained them and alloweth them, as he doth the Sun, the Moon, and other Creatures. Therefore an Argument taken of the Ordinance or of the Creatures of God, is good, fo that we use the fame rightly. So the Prophets have very often used Similitudes and Comparifons taken of Creatures, calling Chrift the Sun, the Church the Moon ; the Prechers and Teachers of the Word, the Stars. Alfo there are many Similitudes in the Prophets, of Trees, Thoras, Flowers, and Fruits of the Earth. The New Tellament likewise is full of fach Similitudes. Therefore where God's Ordinance is in the Creature, there may an Argument be well borrowed and applied to divine and heavenly Things.

"So our Saviour Chrift in Marth. "It 1- argueth from earth 'I Things to heavenly Things, when he finht, if ye them being exit, how thou to give good Gifts unto your Children, How much more fault your father which is in Heaven give good Diargs to then that afk him ? Likewife Paul faith, Affs v. a.g. We could be added a table the Mes. Jeremish alfs in the 35 Chapter faith, The Rechabits objed their Father : How much more eight ye to how objed on early could be the second ed of God, and are his Ordinances, that Fathers Thould give unto their Children, and that Children fhould obey their Patents. Therefore fuch Manner of Arguments are good when they are grounded upon the Ordinance of God. But if they be taken from Mens corrupt Affelions, they are manglett. Such is the Argument of Scotar; I how the left good Thing, thesefore I love the greater more. I deny the Confguence. quence. For my loving is not God's Ordinance, but a devilifi Corruption. Indeed it fhould be fo, that I loving myfelf or another Creature, fhould much more love God the Creator; but it is not fo. For the Love wherewith I love myfelf, is corrupt and againft God.

This I fay, left any Man should cavil that an Argument taken of corruptible Things, and applied to divine and fpiritual Matters, is nothing worth. For, this Argument (as I have faid) is ftrong enough, fo that we ground the fame upon the Ordinance of God, as we fee in this Argument which we have in Hand. For the civil Law which is an Ordinance of God, faith, that it is not lawful to break or to change the Testament of a Man ; Yea it commandeth that the last Will or Teftament of a Man be ftraitly kept ; for it is one of the holieft and molt laudable Cuftomes that are among Men. Now therefore, upon this Cuftom of Man's Teltament, Paul argueth after this Manner ; How cometh it to pafs that Man is obeyed and not God ? Politick and civil Ordinances, as concerning Teftaments and other Things, are diligently kept. There nothing is changed, nothing is added or taken away. But the Teltament of God is changed ; that is to fay, his Promife concerning the fpiritual Bleffing, that is concerning heavenly and everlafting Things, which the whole World ought not only to receive with great Zeal and Affection, but also ought most religiously to reverence and honour. This perfwadeth vehemently, when we fo argue from the Examples and Laws of Men. Therefore he faith : I fbeak after the Manner of Men ; that is to fay, I bring unto you a Similitude taken of the Cuftom and Manner of Men. As if he should fay ; The Testament of Men and fuch other corruptible Things are ftraitly executed, and that which the Law commandeth, is diligently observed and kept. For when a Man maketh his [alf Will, bequeating his Lands and Goods to his Heirs, and thereupon dieth, this laft Will is confirmed and ratified by the Death of the Telfator, fo that nothing now may be either added to it, or taken from it, according to all Law and Equity. Now, if a Mar's Will be kept with fo great Fidelity, that nothing is added to it or taken from it after his Death; How much more ought the laft Will of Good to be faithfully kept, which he promided and gare unto Abrabars and his Seed after him? For when Chrilt died, then was it confirmed in him, and after his Death the writing of his laft Telfament was opened; that is to fay, the promifed Biefing of Abrabars was preached among all Nations disperfed throughout the whole World. This was the laft Will and Teffament of God the great ATeftament or laft Will is confirmed by theDeath of him that maketh it.

The Teftament of God ought to be kept more faithfully then Man's Teftament.

Teftator, confirmed by the Death of Chrift, therefore no Man ought to change it or to add any Thing to it, as they that teach the Law and Man's Traditions do. For they fay, unlefts than be circumcifed, keep the Law, do many Works, and fuffer many Things, thou canft not be faved. This is not the laft Will and Tufament of God. For he full Vecle 17. And this I fay, that the Covenant that was confirmed before of God in Chrift, the Law which was four bundred and thirty Years offer, cannot dif. annul, that it should make the Promife of none Effect.

Here the Jews might object, that God was not only AnObjection content to give Promifes to Abraham, but also after four of the Jews, hundred and thirty Years he made the Law. God there-

And for the Law doth not abolit the Promife, but Faith in the Promife (whereby the Believers even before Chrift's Time were faved) which is now published by the Golpel throughout the whole World, deftroyeth the Law, fo that it cannot increase Sin any more, terrify Sinners, or bring them into Defperation, laying hold upon the Promife (tho'F Sith. And in this also lieth a certain Vehemency foccially to be noted, hat he exprelly fetteth down the Number of four hundred and thirty Years. As if he would fay ; Confider with yourfelves how long it was Between the Promise given, and the Law. It is plain that Abraham received the Promife a long Time before the Law; for the Law was given to the People of Ifrael four hundred and thirty Years after : And this is an invincible Argument gathered and grounded upon a certain Time. And he speaketh not here of the Law in general, but only of the written Law. As if he would fay ; God could not then have regard to the Ceremonies and Works of the Law, and give Righteoufnels to the Observers thereof : For as yet the Law was not given, which commandeth Ceremonies, requireth Works, and promifeth Life to those that observe them, faying, The Man that shall do these Things, shall live In them. And altho' it promife fuch Things, yet it followeth not therefore that we obtain these Promises : For it faith, plainly, The Man that Ball do thefe Things, &c. Now, it is certain that no Man can do them. Moreover, Paul faith that the Law cannot abolifh the Promife ; thereore that Promife made unto Abraham four hundred and thirty Years before the Law, remaineth firm and conftant. And that the Matter may be better underftood, I will declare the fame by a Similitude ; If a rich Man, not conftrained, but of his own Good-will, thould adopt one to be his Son, whom he knoweth not, and to whom he oweth nothing, and fhould appoint him to be the Heir of all his Lands and Goods, and tertain Years after that he hath beftowed this Benefit upon him, he should ay upon him a Law to do this or that; he cannot now fay that he hath eferved this Benefit by his own Works, feeing that many Years before; ne afking nothing, had received the fame freely and of mere Favour : so God could not respect our Works and Deferts going before Righteunfels, for the Promife and the Gift of the Holy Ghoft was four hunred and thirty Years before the Law.

Hereby it appearent that Arabam obtained not Righsouthefs before God thar'the Law, for there was yet no caw: If there were yet no Law, then was there neither Work nor Merit. What then? Hitherto I have rehearfed almost all, but specially the principal Arguments which the Apostle Paul handleth in this Epiffle, for the Confirmation of this Doctrine of Juftification. Among which, the Argument as touching the Promife made unto Abraham and to the other Fathers, is the weightieft and of greateft Efficacy, which Paul doth chiefly profecute both here and in the Epiftle to the Romans, the Words whereof he diligently weigheth, and moreover intreateth both of the Times and Perfons. Alfo he ftandeth upon this Word fortifieth the Article of Chriftian Righteoufness with flrong and mighty Arguments. On the other Side, he overthroweth the Arguments of the falle Apostles, which they used in Defence of the Righteousness of the Law, and turneth them upon their own Heads, that is to fay, whereas they contended that Righteoufnefs and Life is obtained by the Law. Paul sheweth that it worketh nothing but Malediction and Death in us. Ye contend (faith he) that the Law is neceffary to Salvation: Have ye not read that it faith, He that fall do thefe Things shall live in them ? Lev. xviii. 5. Now, who is he that performeth and accomplisheth them? No Man living. Therefore, as many as are of the Works of the Law, are under the Curfe, Gal. iii. 10. And again, in another Place, The Sting of Death is Sin; and the Strength of Sin is the Law, 1 Cor. XV. 56. Now followeth the Conclusion of all these Arguments.

Verfe 18. For if the Inheritance be of the Law, it is no more of Promile. &c.

So he faith in Rom. iv. 14. For if they which are of the Law be Heirs. Faith is made void, and the Promife made of none Effect. And it cannot otherwife be; for this Diffinction is plain, that the Law is a Thing las differing from the Promife. Yea natural Reafon, altho' it be never fo blind, is compelled to confess, that it is To promife one Thing to promife, and another Thing to require ; one and to re-Thing to give, and another Thing to take : the Law require, ate quireth and exacteth of us our Works ; the Promife of dittinet the Seed doth offer unto us the fpiritual and everlafting Things. Benefits of God, and that freely for Chrift's Sake. Therefore we obtain the Inheritance or Bleffing thro' the Pro-The Inherimile, and not thro' the Law. For the Promile faith, In thy Seed thall all Nations of the Earth be bleffed. Therefore he that hath the Law hath not enough, because he hath not yet the Bleifing, without the which he is compelled to shide under the Curfe. The Law therefore cannot julify, becaufe the Bleffing is not joined unto it. Moreover, if the Inheritance were of the Law, then fhoold God be found a Liar, and the Promife fhould be in vain. Again, if the Law could obtain the Bleffing, Why did God then make this Promife, In thy Seed, &cc ? Why did be not rather fay; Do this and thou fhair receive the Bleffing; or elfe, by keeping of the Law, thou mayeff defere versiting Lite? This Argument is grounded upon Contraries: The Inheritance is given by the Promife; therefore not by the Law.

Verfe 18. But God gave it to Abraham by Promife.

What the Bleffing is which is given us thro' Chrift. It cannot be denied but that God, before the Law was, gave unc Abraham the Inheritance or Bleffing by the Promife, that is to fay, Remifion of Sins, Rightcoufnels, Salvation, and everlafting Life, that we fhould be Sons and Heirs of God, and Fellow-Heirs with Chrift. to another Ufe, and attribute that unto it which I fhould not, then do. I not only pervert the Law, but also the whole Scripture.

Therefore Paul fighteth here against those pestilent Hypocrites, who could not abide this Sentence : The Law was added for Trangerefinnt. For they think that the Office of the Law is to julify. And this is the general Opinion of Mar's Reafon among the Sophiller, and throughout the whole World, that Righteoutinefi is gotten thro' the Works of the Law. And Reafon will by no Means fuffer this perincious Opinion to be wrelled from it, becaufe it underflandeth not the Righteoutinefs of Faith. Hereof it kometh that the Papille both foolihily and wickedly do fry , The Church hath the Law of God, the Traditions of the Fatters, the Decrees of Councils; if it live after them, it is holy. No Man fhall perforde the Man, that when they keep thefe Things, they pleafe not God, but provoke his Wrath. To conclude, they that trull in their own Rightcoolnefs, think to pacify the Wrath of God by their Will-worthip and voluntary Religion. Therefore this Option of the Rightcoolnefs of the Law is the Sink of all Evils, and the Sin of Sins of the whole World. For groß Sins and Vices may be known and fo amended, or elfe reprefied by the Punnifiment of the Magifitate. But this Sin, to wir, Man's Opinion concerning his own Rightcouffiefs, will not only be counted no Sin, but alfo will be effected for an high Religion and Rightcouff-

Of the double Use of the Law.

The Ufe of politick Laws. All Laws are given to bridle Tranfgreffions. Here ye mult underfland that there is a double Ufe of the Law: One is civil : For God hath ordained civil Laws, yea all Laws to punifi Tranfgrelinos. Every Law then is given to reflrain Sin. Hit refirmi Sin, then it maketh Men rightcoss. No, nothing lefs. For in that I do not kill, I do not commit Adultery, I do not theal, or in that I abflain from other Sins, I do it not willingity of for the Low of Vertue, but I far the Prifon, the Sword and the Hangman. Thefe do bridle and reftrain me that I fin not, as Bonds and Chains reftrain a Lion  $\sigma$  a Bear, that he tear and devour not every Thing that he meetah; therefore the reftraining from Sin is not Righteoufiefs, but rather a Signfication of Unrighteoufinefs. For as a mod or wild Beaf is bound left he fhould defroy every Thing that he meetath, even fo the Law don'th bridle a mid and a farious Man, that he fin not after his own Laft. This Reftraint flewesh plainly enough that they which have need of the Law (as all they have which are without Chrift) are not righteous, but rather wicked and mad Men, whom it is neeffary by the Bonds and Prifon of the Law for to bridle that they fin not. Therefore the Law (inficient not.

The first Use then of the Law is, to bridle the Wicked. For the De-

God hath ordained Magistrates, Parents, Laws, &c. that Sins might be bridled. vil reigneth throughout the whole Wurld, and enforceth Men to all Kinds of horrible Wickednefs. Therefore God hath ordsnied Magiltates, Parents, Minillers, Laws, Bonds, and all civil Ordinances, that if they can do no more, yet at the left they may bind the Devil's Hands, that he rage not in his Bond-daves after. his own Ludt. Like as therefore they that are poffelfed, in whom the Devil mightly reigneth, are kept in Bonds and Chains left they thould harr others; even foi in the World, which is poffelfed of the Devil, and carried bestellong into all Kinds of Wickedneis, the Magiftrate is prefent with his Bonds and Chains; that is to fay, with his Laws, binding his Hands and Feet that fie run not headlong into all Mifchief. And if he fuffer not himfelf to be bridled after this Sort, then he lofeth his Head.

This civil This civil Reftraint is very necelfary and appointed of God, as well for publick Peace, as also for the Prefervati-Reftraint of on of all Things, but especially left the Course of the the Law is Gofpel should be hindered by the Tumults and Seditions of wicked, outragious and proud Men. But Paul intreateth not here of this civil Ule and Office of the Law. It is indeed very neceffary, but it justifieth not. For as a poffeffed or mad Man is not therefore free from the Snares of the Devil or well in his Mind, because he hath his Hands and his Feet bound and can do no hurt : even fo the World, altho' it be bridled by the Law from outward Wickednefs and Milchief, yet it is not therefore righteous, but still continueth wicked ; yea this R-ftraint fheweth plainly that the World is wicked and outragious, furred up and enforced to all Wickedness by his Prince the Devil : for otherwile it need not to be bridled by Laws that it should not fin.

Another Ufe of the Law is divine and fpiritual, which is (as Paul faith) to increase Transgreffions; that is to fay, to reveal unto a Man his Sins, his Blindnefs, his Mifery, his Impiety, Ignorance, Hatred, and Contempt of God, Death, Hell, the Judgment and deferved Wrath of God. Of this Ufe the Apofule intreateth notably in the 7th to the Romans. This is altogether unknown to Hypocrites, to the Popifi Sophifters and School-divines, and to all that walk in the Opinion of the Righteoufnels of the Law, or of their own Righteoufnels. But to the End that God might bridle and beat down this Monfler and this mad Beaft ( I mean the Prefumption of Man's Righteoufnefs and Religion) which naturally maketh Men proud, and puffeth them up in fuch Sort, that they think themfelves thereby to pleafe God highly : it behoved him to fend fome * Hercules which might fet upon this Monfter with all Force and Courage to overthrow him, and utterly to deftroy him ; that is to fay, he was conftrained to give a Law in Mount Sinai, with fo great Majefty and with fo terrible a Shew, that the whole Multitude was aftonied, Exod. xix. and xx.

This, as it is the proper and the principal Ufe of the Law : So is it very profitable and also most necessary. For if any be not a Murderer, an Adulterer, a Thief. and outwardly refrain from Sin, as the Pharifee did which is mentioned in the Gofpel, he would fwear (because he is poffeffed with the Devil) that he is righteous, and therefore he continueth an Opinion of Righteoufnefs, and prefumeth of his good Works and Merits. Such a one God cannot otherwife mollify and humble, that he may acknowledge his Milery and Damnation but by the Law. For that is the Hammer of Death, the thundring The fpiritual Ufe of the Law unknown to

Wherefore the Law is that Hammer, that Fire, that mighty frong Wind, and that terrible Earthquake renting the Mountains, and breaking the Rocks, that is to fay, the proud and obfinate Hypoerites. Elias, no being able to abide thefe Terrors of the Law, which by these Things are fignified, covered his Face with his Manule. Notwithflanding when the Tempelt cealed, of which he was a Beholder, there came a forf and a gracious Wind, in the which the Lord was. But it behoved that the Tempelf of Fire, of Wind, and the Earthquake Hould pass, before the Lord floodld reveal himfelf in that gracious Wind, 1 Kingr xix. 11, 12, 13.

This terrible Shew and Majelly wherein God gave his Law in Mount. Sinai, did reprefent the Ufe of the Law. There was in the People of Jirael which area out of Egypt, a fingular Holinefs. They gloried and faid ; We are the People of God ; We will do all thefe Things which the Lord are God hash commanded. Excol.xix. 12. Moreover, Myos did landily the People, and bad them waft their Garments, refrain from their Wives, and prepare themfelves againf the third Day. There was not one of them botthe was full of Holinefs. the might hear his Voice. What followed then ? When the Children of Ifrael did behold the horrible Sight of the Mount fmoaking and burning, the black Clouds, and the Lightnings flashing up and down in this horrible Darknefs, and heard the Sound of the Trumpet blowing long and waxing louder and louder : And moreover, when why heard the Thunderings and Lightnings, they were atraid, and franding afar off, they faid unto Moles ; We will do all Things willingly, fo that the Lord freak not unto us, left that we die, and this great Fire confume us. thou us, and we will bearken unto thee, Exod. xx. 10. Deut. v. 24. I prayi you, What did their Parifying, their Holinefs, their white Garments, and refraining from their Wives profit them ? Nothing at all. There was not one of them that could abide this Prefence of the Lord in his Majefty and Glory ; but all being amazed and shaken with Terror, fled back as if they had been driven by the Devil. For God is a confuming Fire, in whole Sight no Flefh is able to fland, Deut. iv. 2 24.

The Law of God therefore hath properly and peculiarly that Office which it had then in Mount Sinai, when it was first given, and was first heard of them that were walhed, righteous, purified and chaft; and yet notwithltanding it brought that holy People unto fuch a Knowledge of their own Mifery, that they were thrown down even to Death and Defperation. No Purity nor Holine's could then help them ; but there was in them fuch a feeling of their own Uncleannefs, Unworthinefs and Sin, and of the Judgment and Wrath of God, that they fled from the Sight of the Lord, and could not abide to hear his Voice. For who is there of all Flefh, (fay they) that bath heard the Voice of the living God, feaking out of the midft of the Fire (as we bave ) and lived ? We have feen this Day that God dotb talk with Man, and he liveth, Deut. v. 24, 26. They fpeak now far otherwife then they did a little before, when they faid : We are the holy People of God, whom the Lord hath chofen for his own peculiar People before all Nations upon the Earth : We will do all Things which the Lord hath fpoken. So it happeneth at length to all Jufficiaries, who being drunken with the Opinion of their own Righteoulnefs, do think when they are out of Tentation, that they are beloved of God, and that God regardeth their Vows, their Faftings, their Prayers, and their Will-works, and that for the fame he must give unto them a fingular Crown in Heaven. But when that Thundring, Lightning, Fire, and that Hammer which breaketh in Pieces the Rocks, that is to fay, the Law of God cometh fuddenly upon them, revealing unto them their Sin, the Wrath and Judgment of God ; then the felf-fame Thing happeneth unto them which happened to the Jews flanding at the Foot of Mount Sinai.

The Tews were afraid at the Voice of the Law.

The fame happeneth to Hypocrites and fuch as put Righteoulnels in Works, that happened to the Jews ftanding at MountSindi.

CHAP. III.

Here I admonifh all fach as fear God, and especially fuch as shall become Teachers of others hereafter, that they diligently learn out of Paul to understand the true and proper Use of the Law; which (I fear) after

Very few understand the proper Use of the Law. our Time will be rodden under Foot, and uttely abolidied by the Enemies of the Truth. For even now, whiles we are yet living, and employ all our Diligence to for forth the Office and Ufe bosh of the Law and the Goip: by there be very few, year even among thole which will be counted Chriftians, and make a Profelion of the Goipel with us, that underfland thefe Things rightly, and as they fhould do. What think ye then fhall come to pais when we are dead and gone? I fpeak nothing of the Anabaspitill, of the new Arrian, and fuch other vain Spinite, who are no lefs ignorant of thefe Matters, then are the Peifl, althot they talk never for much to the contray. For they are revolted from the pure Doctrine of the Golpel, to Laws and Traditions, and therefore they teach not Chrilt. They breg and they focer that they feek nothing elfe but the Golry of Chrilt, and the Salvation of their Brethten, and that they teach the Word of God pureby ; but in very deed they corrupt it and wrell it to another Senle, for thet were it to found according to their own Imagination. Therefore under the Name of Chrift, they teach nothing elfe but their own Dreams, and under the Name of the Golpel, Cremonies and Laws. They are like therefore unto thenfelves, and fo they fill continue ; that isto fay, Manks, Workers of the Law, and Teachers of Cremonies faving that thry devilie new Works.

It is no final Matter then to underfland rightly what the Law is, and what is the true UGe and Office thereof. And forafunch as we teach thefe Things both diligently and faithfully, we do thereby plainly tellify, that we reject not the Law and Works, as our Adverfaries do faildy accelle us; but we do altogether flabilith the Law, and require the Works thereof, and we fay that the Law is good and profitable is but in his own proper UG = which is, first to bridle civil Transferifions, and then, to

The Light of the Law. reveal and to increase fpiritual Transgreffions. Wherefore the Law is allo a Light, which flowerth and revealeth, not the Grace of God, not Rightcoufnels and Life; but Sin and Death, the Wrath and Judgment of God. For,

as in the Mourt Simi, the Thundring. Lightning, the thick and dark Cloud, the Hill finokking and flaming, and all that terrible Shew did not rejoice nor quicken the Children of Jirek, but terrified and aflonified them, and fnewed how unable they were, with all their Purity and Holinefs, to abide the Majelyrof God fpeaking to them onto the Cloud; even fo the Law, when it is in his true Ufe, doth nothing elfe but reveal Sin, ingender Wrath, accufe and terrify Men, fo that it bringeth them to the very Brink of Deferration. This is the proper Ufe of the TheLight of the Gospel. Law, and here it hath an End, and itought to go no further. Contrariwife, the Goffel is a Light which lightneth, quickneth, comforteth and raifeth up fearful Conficiences. For it fheweth that God for Chrift's Sake is meriful unto Sinners, Sinners, yes and to fuch as are most unworthy, if they believe that by bis Death they are delivered from the Curle, that is to fay, from Sin and everla(ling Death ; and that thro' his Victory the Blefing is freely given unto them, that is to fay, Grace, Forgivenels of Sins, Righteoufnefs and everlafting Life. Thus putting a Difference between the Law and the Golpel, we give to them both their own proper Ufs and Office. Of this Difference between the Law and the Golpel, there is nothing to be found in the Books of the Mosky Cammilfs, School- men, no nor in the Books of the ancient Fathers. Auguline did fomewhat underftand this Difference and fhewed it. Jerome and others knew it not. Briefly, there was wonderful Silence many Years as touching this Difference in all Schools and Churches : And this brought Mens Confeinces into great Danger. For unleft the Goffel be plainly different from the Law, the true Chriftian Doftrine cannot be kept found and uncorrupt. Contrariwite, if this Difference be well known, and then it is an eafy Matter to differe Taith from Works, Chrift from  $M_0^2 c_F$  and all politick Works. For all Dings without Chrift are the Minifers of Death for the punding of the Wicked. Therefore Paul answereth to this Quefion after this Manner :

VERSE 19.

The proper Use and Office of the Gospel.

The Doctrine of Faith cannot remain found, unlefs the Lawbe rightly difeerned from the Gofoel.

Verse 19. It was added because of Iransgressions.

That is to fay, that Transgressions might increase and be more known and feen. And indeed to it cometh to pafs. For when Sin, Death. the Wrath and Judgment of God and Hell, are revealed to a Man thro' the Law; it is impoffible but that he fhould become impatient, murmur against God, and despife his Will. For he cannot bear the Judgment of God, his own Death and Damnation ; and yet not with ftanding he cannot escape them. Here he must needs fall into the Hatred of God, and Blafphemy against God. Before, when he was out of Tentamion, he was a very holy Man, he worshipped and praifed God, he bowed his Knee before God, and gave him Thanks, as the Pharifee did. Luke xviii. 11. But now, when Sin and Death is revealed unto him. the wilheth that there were no God. The Law therefore of itfelf bringneth a fpecial Hatred of God. And thus Sin is not only revealed and known by the Law, but alfo is increased and flirred up by the Law. Therefore Paul faith, Rom. vii. Sin that it might appear to be Sin, Inwrought Death in me by that which was good, that Sin might be out of Measure finful by the Commandment. There he intreateth of this Effect of the Law very largely.

Paul anfwereth therefore to this Queffion; If the Law T do not juffify. To what End then ferveth it? Aluho' (faith he) it juffify not, yet is it very profitable and L neceffary. For firft it civilly reftraight fuch as are carnal, rebellious and obfinate. Moreover it is a Glafs that fibeweth unto a Man himfelf, that he is a Sinner, guilty of Death, and worthy of God's everlating Wrath and Indignation. To what End ferveth this humbling, this bruifing and beating down by this Hammer, the Law I mean? To this End, that we may have an Entrance unto Grace. So then the Law is a Minifter that prepareth the Way unto Grace. For God is the God of the humble, the miferable, the afflicted, the opprefied and the defperate, and of those that are brought even to nothing ; and his Nature is to exalt the humble. In Ged the hum-gry, to give Sight to the blind, to comfart the milerable, the afflicted, the bruiled and bucken hearted, to juffly Sinners, to quicken the dead, and to fave the very delepente and dammed. For he is an almighty Greator, making all Things of nothing. Now, that pernicious and peflient Opinion of Man's own Righteonffrest, which will not be a sinmer, unclean, milerable, and damnable; but righteous and holy, fuffereth not God to come to his own natural and proper Work. Therefore God mult needs take this Maai in Hand, the Law I mean, to drive down, to beat in Picces, and to bring to nothing this Beaft, with her wain Confidence, Wildom. Righteoufaed and Power, that the max (b

Here now when the Confierce is thus terrified with the Law, then cometh the Dockrine of the Golpel and Grace, which rathen up and conforce the fame again, faving. Xiii. 3, but to preach the Golpel of guid Traings to the poor, to heal the breaken and contribe in Harry, to precise Ergistend? of Sint to the Capteves, &c. Math. Xii. 20.

But here lieth all the Difficulty of this Matter, that when a Man is not the fmosking and burning Mount Sinai, but the Mount Moria, where is the Throne, the Temple, the Merry-Seat of God, that is to fay, Chrift, who is the King of Righteouffnels and Peace. Three will heatken what the Lord fpeaketh unto him, who fpeaketh nothing elfe but Peace unto his People.

The Time of the Law, and the Time of Grace. terrified and calt down he may be able to raife up himfelf again, and fay; Now I am bruifed and afficited enough, the Time of the Law hash tormented and vexced me tharply enough. Now is the Time of Grace, now is the Time to hear Chrift, out of whole Mouth proceed the Words of Grace and Life. Now is the Time to lee.

Reafon flieth Nay not to the this Co Doctrine of Office : Grace in not lay Tentations eth mo but to the Doctrine of the Law.

Nay the Foolifanels of Man's Heart is fo great, that in this Conflict of Conficience, when the Law hath done hu Office and exercifed his true Minifty, he doth not only not lay hold upon the Dodrine of Grace, which promifeth moft affuredly the Forgivenels of Sins for Clariff 's Sakes

it feeketh and procureth to himfelf more Laws to fatisfy and quiet his onfcience. If I live (faith he) I will amend my Life, I will do this, I ill do that. Here, except thou do the quite contrary, that is to fay, except hou fend Moles away with his Law, to those that are fecure, proud and bifinate, and in these Terrors and this Anguish lay hold upon Chrift, ho was crucified and died for thy Sins, look for no Salvation.

So the Law with his Office helpeth by Occasion to Justification, in hat it driveth a Man to the Promife of Grace, and maketh the fame weet and comfortable unto him. Wherefore we do not abrogate the aw, but we fnew the true Office and Ufe of the Law, to wit, that it s a true and a profitable Minifter, which driveth a Man to Chrift. Therefore, after that the Law hath humbled thee, terrified thee, and atterly beaten thee down, fo that now thou art at the very Brink of Defperation, fee that thou learn how to use the Law right-

v. For the Office and Ufe of it is, not only to reveal in and the Wrath of God, but alfo to drive Men, unto Chrift. This Ufe of the Law the Holy Ghoft only feteth forth in the Gofpel, where he witneffeth that God is prefent unto the afflicted and broken-hearted. Wherefore if thou be bruifed with this Hammer, use not this pruifing perverfly, fo that thou load thyfelf with moe

Laws, but hear Chrift faving, Come unto me all ye that labour, and are beavy laden, and I will give you Reft, Matth. xi. 28. When the Law o oppreffeth thee that all Things feem to be utterly defberate, and thereby driveth thee unto Chrift to feek Help and Succour at his Hands, then is the Law in his true perfect Ufe Ufe, and thro' the Gofpel it helpeth to Juffification. And of the Law. this is the best and most perfect Use of the Law.

Wherefore Paul here beginneth afresh to intreat of the Law, and deineth what it is, taking Occafion of that which he faid before, to wit. that the Law juffifieth not. For Reason hearing this, by and by doth hus infer : Then God gave the Law in vain. It was neceffary therefore to feek how to define the Law truly, and to fhew what the Law is, and how it ought to be underflood, that it be not taken more largely or more (traitly then it fhould be. There is no Law (faith he) that is of itfelf neceffary to Jultification. Therefore when we reafon as touching Righteoufnels, Life, and everlafting Salvation, the Law must be uttery removed out of our Sight, as if it had never been, or never should be, but as tho' it were nothing at all. For in the Matter of Jultification no Man can remove the Law far enough out of his Sight, or behold the only Promife of God fufficiently and as he should do. Therefore I faid before that the Law and the Promife mult be feparate far afunder as touching the inward Affections and the inward Man, albeit indeed they are nearly joined together.

Paul therefore theweth by thefe Words, Unt." the Seed thould come. unto whom the Bleffing was promifed, how long the Law fhould endure litterally and fpiritually. According to the letter, it ceafed after the sleffed Seed came into the World, taking upon him our Flefh, giving the Holy Ghoft, and writing a new Law in our Hearts. But the foirirual Time of the Law doth not end at once, but continueth fast roored n the Confcience. Therefore it is a hard Matter for a Man which is exreifed with the fpiritual Ufr of the Law, to fee the End of the Law. For in thefe Terrors and feeling of Sin the Mind cannot conceive this Hope, that God is merciful, and that he will forgive Sins for Chrift's Sake ; but it judgeth only that God is angry with Sinners, and that he accufeth and rondemneth them. If Faith come not here toraife up again he troubled and afflicted Confcience, or elfe (according to that Saying of Chrift ; Where two or three are gathered

This is a little Digreffion from this Purpofe, which he neither demareth nor finisheth, but only toucheth it by the Way, and fo proceedh. For he returneth incontinent to his Purpofe, when he faith; What, the Law then contrary to the Promifes of Cod ? Now, this was the R

Occasion of his Digreffion. He fell into this Difference between the Law and the Golpel, that the Law added to the Promifes, did differ from the Golpel, not only in Refpect of the Time, but also of the Author and efficient Caule thereof. For the Law was delivered by the Angels, Heb. i, but the Gofoel by the Lord himfelf. Wherefore the Gofpel is far more excellent than the Law. For the Law is the Voice of the Servants, but the Gofpel is the Voice of the Lord himfelf. Therefore to abafe and to diminish the Authority of the Law, and to exalt and magnify the Gofpel, he faith that the Law was a Doctrine given to continue but for a fmall Time (for it endured but only until the Fulnefs of the Promife, that is to fay, until the bleffed Seed came which fulfilled the Promife : ) but the Gofpel was for ever. For all the Faithful have had alway one and the felf-fame Gofpel from the Beginning of the World, and by that they were faved. The Law therefore is far inferior to the Golpel, becaufe it was ordained by the Angels which are but Servants, and endured but for a fhort Time, whereas the Gofpel was ordained by the Lord himfelf, to continue for ever, Heb. i. For it was promifed before the World began, Tit. i. 2.

Moreover, the Word of the Law was not only ordained by the Angels being but Servants, but allo by ponther Servant fai inferiot to the Angela, namely, by a Man, that is (as here he faith) by the Hand of a Mediator, that is to fay,  $Mgi_{s}$ . Now, Chrift is not a Servant, but the Lord himfelf. He is not a Mediator between God and Man according to the Law, as Mg/sr was; but he is a Mediator of a better Teftament. The Law therefore was ordained by Angels as Servants. For Mg/sr and the People heard God fpeaking in the Mount Simis; that is to Say, they heard the Angels fpeaking in the Mount Simis; that is to Say, they heard, and hear Angel Speaking in the Mount Simis; that is to Say, they heard, the Angel speaking in the Mount Simis; that is to Say, they heard, and hear our kept it. Allo the Text in Exod. in: flaw weth plainly, that the Angel appeared unto Mg/sr in a Flame of Eire, and hear easily for the Buff.

Paul therewith fignifieth that Chrift is a Mediator of a far better Teflament then Majes. And here be allodeth to that Hildry in Majesconcerning the giving of the Law, which faith, that Majes led the People out of their Tents to meet with God, and that he placed them at the Foot of Mount Sinai. There was an heavy and an horible Sight. The whole Mount was on a flaming Fire. When the People faw this, they began to tremble; for they thought that they fload have been fuddenly defined that faw founding fire. When the People faw this, they began to tremble; for they thought that they fload have been fuddenly defined that Law founding for horibily out of Mount Simai, (so that terrifying Voice of the Law would have killed the People) they find unto Majes their Mediator; Come thou bither and hear what the Lord faith, and fpeak thou unto ut. And he an(werd; 1 myjeff (faith he) was a Mediator and ane that field between God and you, &cc. By thele Places it is plain emongh that Majes was appointed a Mediator between the People, and the Law for laws for the single the there was the People.

Wherefore Paul by this Hiftory goeth about to declare, that it is impolfible that Righteoufnefs flould come by the Law. As if he flould

To the GALATIANS.

ay, How can the Law juffify, feeing the whole People of Ifrael, being purified and fanctified, yea and Moles himfelf the Medi-ntor between God and the People, were afraid and trembled at the Voice of the Law, as it is faid in the Epiftleto the Hebrews : Here was nothing but Fear and Trembling. But what Righteoufnels and Holinels is this, not to be able to bear, yea not to be able or willing to hear the Law, but to fly from it, and fo to hate it, that

t is impoffible to hate and abhor any Thing more in the whole World? As the Hiftory most plainly testifieth, that the People when they heard he Law, did hate nothing more then the Law, and rather withed Death then to hear the Law.

So when Sin is difcovered, as it were by certain bright Beams which the Law firiketh into the Heart, there is nothing more odious and more intolletable to Man then the awis. Here he would rather choole Death, than be con-Brained to bear these Terrors of the Law never fo little a Time, which is a most certain Token that the Law uffifieth not. For if the Law did juffify, then (no doubt), Men would love it, they would delight and take Pleafure in it, and would embrace it with hearty Good-will. But where is this Good-will ? No there; neither in Mofes. nor in the whole People, for they were all aftonished and Hed back. And how doth a Man love that which he lieth ? Or how deligheth he in that which he deadly

As the' he would fay; Do re not remember that your Fathers were fo far unable to near the Law, that they had need of Mofes to be their Mediator ? And when he was now appointed to that Oflice, they were fo far off from loving of the Law, that they by a fearful Flight, together with their Mediator, thewed themfelves to hate the fame, as the Epiftle to the

Now therefore, if they be opt able to hear the Law, How though they be able to accomplifh it ? Wherefore, if the People that were under the Law, were confiraind of Necessity to have a Mediator, it followeth by att infallible intonfequence, that the Law juftified them not. CHAP. III.

All Men naturally hate the Law.

Offence might abound, Rom. v. 20. The Law therefore was a Light and a Sun which ftruck his Beams into the Hearts of the Children of Ifrael, whereby it terrified them, and fruck into them fuch a Fear of God, that they hated both the Law and the Author thereof; which is an horrible Impiety. Would ve now fay that these Men were righteous? They are righteous which hear the Law, and with a Good-will embrace the fame and delight therein. But the Hiftory of giving the Law withefleth that all Men in the whole World, be they never fo holy (efpecially feeing they which were purified and fan Stified could not hear the Law) do hate and abhor the Law, and with that the Law were not. Therefore it is impossible that Men should be justified by the Law; nay it hath a clean contrary Effect.

Altho' Paul (as I have faid) doth but only touch this Place by the Way, and doth not throughly weigh it, nor fully finish the fame, yet

he that shall diligently and attentively read it, may easily understand that he speaketh very well of both Mediators; that is to fay, of Moles and of Chrift, and compareth the one with the other, as hereafter we will declare. If he fhould have profecuted this Matter more largely, this only Place would have ministred unto him an Argument and Occasion plentiful enough to write a new Epiftle ; and that Hiftory alfo in the 19 and 20 of Exadus, concerning the giving of the Law, would minister Matter enough to write a great Volume, altho' it were read but flightly and without Affection : albeit it may feem to be very barren to those which know not the true Office and Ufe of the Law, if it be compared with other holy Hiftories.

Hereby we may fee that if all the World had flood at the Mount, as the People of lfrael did, they would have hated the Law and would have fled from it as they did. The whole World therefore is an Enemy to the Law and hateth it most deadly. But the Law is holy, righteous and good, and is the perfect Rule of the Will of God. How then can he be righteous which doth not only abhor and deteft the Law and fly from it, but moreover is an Enemy of God, who is the Author of the Law? And true it is that the Fielh can do no otherwife, as Paul witneffeth, The carnal Mind is Enmity against God : For it is not subject to the Law of God, neither indeed can be, Romi vill. 7. Therefore it is an extream Madnels fo to hate God and his Law, that thou canft not abide to hear it, and yet notwithftanding to affirm that we are made righteous thereby.

Wherefore the Sophifters and School-divines are flark blind, and understand nothing at all of this Doctrine. They look only upon the outward Vifour of the Law, thinking that it is accomplished by civil Works, and that they are righteous before God, which do the fame externally, not confidering the true and fpiritual Effect thereof; which is, not to juffify, and to quiet and pacify afflicted Confciences, but to increase Sin, to terrify the Confcience, and to ingender Wrath. They except his Face had been covered ? Therefore except the bleffed Seed come to raife up and comfort him which hath heard the Law, he perifheth thro' Defperation. in detefting of the Law, in hating and blafeheming of God, and daily more and more offending against God. For this Fear and Conclusion of Confeience which the Law bringeth, the deeper it pierceth and the longer it continueth, the more it increaseth Hatred and Blatchemy against God.

This Hiftory therefore teacheth what is the Power of Free-will. The People are firicken with Fear, they tremble and they fly back. Where is now Free-will ? Where is now that Good will, that good Intent, that right Judgment of Reafon which the Papifls do fo much brag of? What availeth Friewill here in these fanctified and holy Men? It can fay nothing : It blin wh their Reafon ; it perverteth their Will; it receiveth not, it faluteth not, it embraceth not with Joy the Lord coming with Thundring, Lightning, and Fire into the Mount Sinai ; it cannot hear the Voice of the Lord ; but contrariwile it faith ; Let not the Lord freak unto us left we die. Wo fee then what the Strength and Power of Free will is in the Children of Ifrael, who they were cleanfed and fanchified, could not abide the hearing of one Syllable or Letter of the Law. Therefore these high Commendations which the Papifls give to their Free-will, are nothing elfe but mere Toys and doring Dreams.

marvellous Brevity ; Yet fo notwithftanding, that he fatisfieth the attentive Reader, who, becaufe this Word Mcdiator is general, by and by underftandeth that Paul fpeaketh alfo of the Mediator generally, and not of Mofes only. A Mediator (faith he) is not a Mediator of one only; but this Word neceffarily comprehendeth two, that is to fay, him that is offended, and him that is the Of. fender ; of whom the one hath need of Interceffion, and the other needeth none. Wherefore a Mediator is not of one, but of two, and of fuch two, as be at Variance between themfelves; So Moles by a general Definition is a Mediator, because he doth the Office of a Mediator between the Law and the People, which cannot abide the true and fpiritual Ufe of the Law. The Law therefore muft have a new Face, and his Voice must be changed, that is to fay, the Voice of the Law must be made fpiritual, or the Law must be made lively in the inward Affection, and must put on a Visour or a Vail, that it may now become more tollerable, to that the People may be able to hear it by the Voice of Mafes.

Now

Now the Law leing thus covered, fieaketh no more in his Majefty, but by the Mouth of Majer. After this Manner it doth not his Office any more, that is, it tertifieth not the Confeience : And this is the Caufe that they do neither underfland, are regard it, is by Means whereof they become focuse, negligent, and prefumptuous Hyporries. And yet notwithlanding the one of thefe two muft needs be done, to wir, that either the Law muft be without his Ufe, and covered with a Vail, (but then, as I have faid, it maketh Hypofries), or clie it muft be in his Ufe without the Vail, and then it killeth. For Mar's Heart cannot abide the Law in his true Ufe, without the Vail. It behove the the therefore, if thew look to the End of the Law without the Vail, etter to lay hold on that bleffed Seed by Faith; that is to fay, thou mult look beyond the .End of the Law unto Chrift, which is the Accompliftment of the Law, which may fay unto thee; The Law hathermifed the enough; Be ofgood Comfort my Sin, thy Sins are forgiven thee, (whereof I will fpeak more amon;) or elfe furely thou mult have Mofes for thy Mediator with his Vail.

For this Cacle Paul faith ; A Mediator is ma a Mediator of one. For it could not be that Might mould be a Mediator of God alone, for God needeth no Mediator. And again, he is not a Mediator of the People only, but he doth the Office of a Mediator between God and the People, which were at Variance with God. For it is the Office of a Mediator to pacify the Party that is officaded, and to reconcile unto him the Party which is the Officader. NotwithHanding Might is toch a Mediator (gal T have faid) as doth nothing elife but change the Voice of the Law, and maketh it tollarable, to that the Feople may abide the hearing thereof, but he given no Power to accomplish the fame. To conclude, he is a Mediator of the Vali, and therefore he given ho Power to perform the Law, but only in the Vali. Therefore his Diciples, in that he is a Mediator of the Vali, maf always be Hypporite.

Therefore there muft come a far better Mediator then  $M_0(x_i)$  which may finisfy the Law, take away the Wrath thereof, and may reconcile unto God which is angrey, that poor Sinner, miferable, and guilty of eternal which is an arguery.

Death.

A Mediator is he that flandeth between the Offender and the Perfon offended. God of his Juftice cannot forgive Sin without Satisfaction, which isdone by Chrift. Of this Melistor Paul (peaketh briefly, when he fails a A Meditor is at a Meditor of one. For this Word Mediator properly (initiatified on one as don't the Office of a Mediator by tween the Party that is officated, and the Officator is We me the Officators; God with his Law is new which is offended : And the Officator is ford, that God cannot puldon it, gaither can we fathig for the fame. Therefore between God, who of Immédi is but one, and us, there is wonderful Diloted. Moreover, God cannot revoke his Law, but he will have it obferved and kept : And we which have trafgreffel the Law, cannot fly from the Prefence of God. Chrift therefore hash fet himfelf a Mediator between two, which are quite contrary and leparate admder with an infinite and everlafting Separation, and hash reconciled them together. And how hash he done this? He hath put away (as Paul faith in another Place) the Handwaring of Ordinances that was agaidf us, (that is, by the Law) which was zontray, out, and took it out of the Hay, nulling it to his Grif 3 And heaving finited Principalities and Powers, he made a Shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it, Gol. ii. 14, 15. Therefore he is not a Mediator of one, but of two, quitely diagreening between themfelves.

This is alfo a Place full of Power and Efficacy, to confound the Righteoufnefs of the Law, and to teach us that in the Matter of Juffificatim, it ought to be utterly removed out of our Sight Alfo this Word (Mediator) miniftreth fufficient Matter to prove that the Law juffeich not; For elfe what need fhould we have of a Mediator ? Seeing then that Man's Nature cannot abide the hearing of the Law, much lefs is it able to accomplif the Law, or to agree with the Law.

This Doctrine (which I do fo often repeat and not without Tediouffiels do fill beat into your Heads) is the true Doctrine of the Law, which every Chriftian ought with all Diligence to learn, that he may be able truly to define what the Law is, what is the true UG and Office, what are the Limits, what is the Power, the Time and the End thetcoff. For it hath an Effect clean contrary to the Jadgment of all Men, which have this petilizent and permicious Opinion naturally rooted in them, that the Law jultifish. Therefore I far left this Doftmine will be defaced and darkned again, when we are dead. For the World mußt be replenilhed with Borible Darknefs and Enrors before the Latter-Day come.

Who fo therefore is able to underfland this, let him The proper underfland it, that the Law in true Chriftian Divinity, Office of the and in his true and proper Definition, doth not juftify, Law. but hath a quite contrary Effect. For it fleweth and re-vealeth unió us ourfelvés, it fereth God before us in his Anger, it revealeth God's Wrath, it terrificht ns, and it doth not only reveal Sin, but alfo mightily increaleth Sin, fo that where Sin was before but litte, now by the Law which bringeth the fame to Light, it becometh exceeding infull; to that a Man now beginneth to hate the Law and to Ay from it, and with a perfect Hatred to abbor God the Maker of the Law. This is not to be juilfield by the Law (and that Readon itfell is compelled to grant) but to commit a double Sin againft the Law. Firlf, Not only to have a Will fo difigreeing from the Law that thou canli nor here it: but alfo to do contrary to that which it commarketh. And fecoldy, to the it that thou would with it were abolithed, together wild God Limfelf, who is the Author thereof and abolitedty god.

Now, what greater Blafphenty, what Sin more horrible can be imagined then to hate God, to abhor his Law, and not to fuffier the hearing thereof, which not withflanding is good and holy? For the Hiflory doth plainly witnels that the Peuple of J/real refulfed to hear that excellent Law, these holy and most gracions Words (namely, I am the Lord ith God, which here brought these out of the Land the Lord ith God, which here brought these out of the Land freak with us, (by they) held use die : Speak thus with us, &c. Doubtlefa it is a marvellous Thing that a Man cannot hear that which is his whole Selicity, namely, that he hat a God'yea and a merciful God, which will flew Marcy unto him in many Thoulands of Generations, dre. And moreover, in the cannot abide that which is his chief Safery and Defence, namely, Thue finit not kill: Theu field not commit Adultery: Thue field mer field : For by the Words the Lord hath definded and fortiled the Life of Man, his Wife, his Children, and his Goods, as' it were with a Wall again the Force and Violence of the Wicked.

The Law then can do nothing, faving that by his Light it lightneth the Confeinent that it may know Sin, Deuth, the Judgment, and the Wrath of God. Before the Law come, I am focure, I feel no Sin, but when the Law comells, Sin, Death and Hell are revealed unto me. This is not to be made righteous, but guilty, and the Lemmy of God, to be condemned to Death and Hell-Fire. The principal Point therefore of the Law in trace Chriftlen Divinity is, to make Men, not better, but worfe, that is to fay, it flewedth unto them their Sin, that by the Knowledge thereof they may be humbled, terrifed, bruiled and hocken, and by this Means may be driven to feek Comfort, and fo to come to that bleffed Seed.

Verfe 20. But God is one.

Here therefore (as I faid) rifeth is Objection, 1s' the Law againft the Promife of God ? This Objection aul toucheth by the Way and briefly answereth, faving,

Verfe 21. God forbid:

Why fo? Firft. For that God maketh no Promife unto us, heraufe our Worthinefs, our Merits, our good Works ; but for his own oodnefs and Mercies Sake in Chrift. He faith not to Abraham : all lations shall be bleffed in thee, becaufe thou hast kept the Law ; but then he was uncircumcifed, had no Law, and was yet an Idolater, he id unto him ; Get thee out of thy own Country, &c. Thefe are abfolute and there Promifes, which God freely giveth unto Abraham, without any condition or Refpect of Works, either going before or coming after.

This maketh fpecially against the Tews, which think that the Promifes of God are hindred, becaufe of their ins, God (faith Paul) doth not flack his Promifes, be- fesof God are aufe of our Sins, or halten the fame for our Righteouf- not hindred els and Mexits, he regardeth neither the one nor the o- becaufe of oher. acknowledge his own Corruption, and to confels his Si from the Bottom of his Heart, then it hath done his Offic truly, and his Time is accomplifhed and ended : and no is the Time of Grace, that the bleffed Seed may come t raife up and to comfort him that is fo caft down an humbled by the Law.

After this Manner the Law is not againft the Promifes of God. For firft, The Promife hangeth not upon the Law, but upon the Truth and Mercy of God only and alone. Secondly, When the Law is in his chie. End and Office, it humbleth a Man, and in humbling him, it maketh bim to figh and groap, and to feek the Hand and Aid of the Mediator, and maketh his Grace and his Mercy exceeding fweet and comfortable (as is faid, Plal. cix. 21. Thy Mercy is fweet) and his Gift precious and ineffimable. And by this Means it prepareth us, and maketh us apt to ap prehend and to receive Chrift. For as the Poet faith :

Dulcia non meruit, qui non gustavit amara ; that is, Whole hath not tailed the Things that are bitter, Is not worthy to take the Things that are fweeter.

There is a common Proverb, that Hunger is the belt Cook.

Like as therefore the dry Earth coveteth the Rain, even fo the Law maketh troubled and afflicted Souls to thirft after Chrift. To fuch Chrift favoureth fweetly; to them he is nothing elfe but Joy, Confolation and Life ; and there beginneth Chrift and his Bencht rightly to be known.

This is then the principal Ule of the Law; namely, when a Man can fo use it, that it may humble him and make him to thirst after Christ. And indeed Chrift requireth thirfty Souls, whom he most lovingly and graciously allureth and calleth unto him, when he faith ; Come unto me all se that labour, and are keavy laden, and I will give you reft. give Life, but only killeth. Therefore fuch Works as are done, not y according to the Laws and Traditions of the Pope, but alfo acding to the very Law of God, do not juffify a Man before God, but ike him a Sinner; they do not pacify the Wrath of God, but they ndle it ; they obtain not Righteonfnefs, but they hinder it ; they licken not, but they kill and deftray. Therefore when he faith : If a w had been given which could have brought Life, &c. he teacheth ninly that the Law of itfelf juffifieth not, but that it bath a clean conry Effect.

Altho' these Words of Paul be plain enough, yet are they obscure d utterly unknown to the Popifis. For if they did unritand them indeed, they would not fo magnify their ree-will, their natural Strength, the keeping of the Counfels, the Works of Supercrogation, Ge. But left by fhould feem to be manifeftly wicked and plain Inlels in denying the Words of the Apofile of Chrift fo apudently, they have this peltilent Glois always ready. whereby they pervert the Places of Paul concerning the aw, which revealeth Sin and ingendreth Wrath, that to fay, the Ten Commandments) that Paul speaketh hly of the ceremonial and not of the moral Law. But aul fpeaketh plainly, when he faith : If a Low had been iven, &c. and he excepteth no Law. Wherefore this closs of the Papific is not worth a Rufh. For the Laws the Ceremonies were as well commanded of God, and r fraitly kept as the moral Laws. The Tews also kept ircumcifion as precifely as they did the Sabbath-day. It evident enough therefore that Paul speaketh of the hole Law.

These Words of the Apostle are fung and faid in the apacy and in all their Churches, and yet notwithstandg they both teach and live quite contrary. Poul faith mply that no Law was given to quicken and to bring life; but the Popists teach the contrary, and affirm that hany and infinite Laws are given to quicken and to bring ife. Altho' they fay not this in plain Words, yet in ery deed fuch is their Opinion, as their Monkish Reliion doth plainly witnefs, beades many other Laws and raditions of Men, their Works and Merits before Grace nd after, and innumerable wicked Ceremonies and falfe Worshippings, which they have devised of their own Heads. had those only have they preached, treading the Gospel under their Feet, and affuredly promiting Grace, Remif-

But contrariwife, we affirm with Paul, that there is no Law, whethere it be Man's Law or God's, that given Life. Therefore we put as great

The Judgment of Men as touching the Law.

What Profit cometh by knowing the Difference between the Law and the Gofpel. fo to affirm, is that plain and evident Place of P at, when he faith, that the Law is not given to julify, to give Life and to fave, but only to kill and to defirely, contrary to the Opinion of all Men; for naturally they can judge to otherwise of the Law, but that it is given to work Righteoufness, and to give Life and Salvation.

This Difference of the Offices of the Law and the Gofpel, keepeth all Chriftian Doffrine in his true and proper Ufe. Alfo it maketh a faithful Man judge over all Kinds of Life, over the Laws and Decrees of all Men, and over all Doffrine whatforever, and it giveth them Power to try all Manner of Spirits. On the other Side, the Papift, becaufe they confound and mingle the Law and the Golpel together, can teach no Certainut touching

Now therefore, after that Paul hath profecuted his Confutations and

The true and perfect Use of the Law. when it maketh them guilty, terrifeth and bringeth them to the Knowledge of Sin. Wrath, Death and Hell. For when it hath done this, the Opinion of Man's own Righteroufiefs and Holinel's vaniheth away, and Chrift with his Benefits beginneth to wax (seet unto him. Wherefore the Law is not againfit the Promities of God, but rather confirmeth them, True it is, that it doth net accomplift the Promite. And bring Righteoufiefs; notwithflanding it humbleth us with his Exercife and Office, and fo maketh us more thirfly and more apt to receive the Benefit of Chrift. Therefore (faith he) if any Law had been given which might have brought Righteoutifiefs, and thro? Righteoutifiefs Life (for no Man en obtain Life except fift he be righteoux), then indeed Righteoutifief hould come by the Law. Moreover, if there were any State of Life, any Work, any Religion, whereby a Man might obtain Remifinon of Sina, Righteoutifiefs, But this is impolible; for,

Verfe 22. The Scripture hath coucluded all under Sin,

The Seripture flutteth all under the Curfe, Eirft, By the Promife, Where ? First in the Promifes themfelves as touching Chrift, as Cent. iii. 15, The Seed of the Women fault bruik the Head of the Serpent. And Cent. 281. 18.  Bleffing is promified, that is, Righteoufnefs, Salvation and eternal ite. Therefore by the contrary it is evident, that they which mult leive the Bleffing are fubject to the Carfe, that is to fay, Sin and eternal eath : For elfs to what End was the Bleffing promifed ?

Secondly, The Scripture thutteth Men under Sin and Secondly, By der the Curle, effecially by the Law, becaufe it is his the Law. cultar Office to reveal Sin and insender Wrath, as we

ve declared throughout this Epifile, but chiefly by this Sentence of ul, For as many as are of the Works of the Law, are under the Curle. I. iii. 10. Alfo by that Place which the Apoftle alledgeth out of cut. XXVii, ult. Curled be he that confirmeth not all the Words of this w to do them, &c. For these Sentences in plain Words do thut unr Sin and under the Curfe, not only those which fin manifettly against Law, or do not outwardly accomplish the Law; but also those uch are under the Law, and with all Endeavour go about to perform I fame, and fuch were the Tews, as before I have faid. Much more in doth the fame Place of Paul that up under Sin and under the Curfe, Monks, Friars, Hermites, Carthulians and fuch like, with their Proions, Rules and Religions, to the which they attributed fuch Holiis, that when a Man had once made a Vow of his Profession, if he d by and by, they dreamed that he went firaight to Heaven. But e ye hear plainly that the Scripture fhutteth all under Sin. Therete neither the Vow nor Religion of the Carthulian, be it never fo anrical, is Righteoufnefs before God ; for the Scripture hath thut all une I Sin, all are accurfed and damned. Who pronounceth this Senthe ? The Scripture. And where ? Firfl. By this Promife. The Seed the Woman shall bruise the Serpent's Head : In thee shall be bleffed, Sec. I fuch like Places : Moreover, by the whole Law, whereof the prinal Office is to make Men guilty of Sin. Therefore no Monk, no athufian, no Celeftine bruifeth the Head of the Serpent, but they abide wifed and broken under the Serpent's Head, that is, under the Power difhe Devil. Who will believe this?

thridly, whatfower is without Chrift and his Promife, inther it be the Law of God or the Law of Man, the camonial or the moral Law, without all Exception is is under Sin: For the Scripture Intuttent all ander Sin. w, he that faith All, exceptent nothing. Therefore meanclude with Paul, that the Policies and Laws of all without the Paul, that the Policies and Laws of all monies and Religions without Paith in Chrift, are it abide under Sin. Death and eternal Damnation, ex-Faith in Jefue Chrift, go without Paith the Telefee, as sowith in the next. Of this Matter we have fpoken melty before.

Thefe thinge were counted fo high a Service to God, that fcarce any Man would believe they could be fo abominable.

Wherefore this is a true Proposition; Only Faith juffifieth without When (which notwithflanding our Adverfaries can by no Means shide;) & Pard here frongly concludent that the Law doth not quicken nor Laic, because it is not given to that End. If then the Law dot not julify and give Life, much left do Works julify. For when Pash faith that the Law giveth not Life, his Meaning is that Works allo do not give Life. For it is more to fay, that the Law quickents and givet mu-Life, then to fay that Works do quicken and give Life. If then the Law uifelf being fulfilled (althoi' the impolfible that it fhould be accomplifuse ed) do not julify, much left do Works julify. I conclude therefore that Faith only julifieth and bringeth Life, without Works. Paul came not fuffer this Addition, Faith joined with Works julifieth ; but he proceedeth fumply by the Negative, Rom, iii. 20. as be doth alfo before in the fecond Chapter ; Therefore by the Deeds of the Law (Litht b) failt m Fifth be julifiete. And again in this Place; The Law is not gisen to bring Life.

Verse 22. That the Promife by Faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

ThePromife given to Abraham what it is. He faid before that the Scripture hath flut all under Sin. What, for ever? No, but until the Promife fhould be given. Now, the Promife is the Inheritance itelf, or the Bleffing promifed to Abraham; to wit, the Deliv verance from the Law, Sin, Beath and the Devil; and a free giving of Grace, Righteoufnels, Salvation and eternal Life. . This Promife (faith he) is not obtained by any Merit, by any Law, or by any Work, but it is given. To whom ? To those that believe. In whom ! In Jefus Chrift, who is the bleffed Seed which hath redeemed all Believers from the Curfe that they might receive the Bleffing. Thefe Words be not obfcure, but plain enough ; notwithstanding we must mark them diligently and weigh well the Force and Weight thereof. For if all be that under Sin, it followeth that all Nations are accurfed and are deftitute of the Grace of God : Allo that they are under the Wrath of God and the Power of the Devil, and that no Man can be delivered from them by any other Means, then by Faith in Jefus Chrift. With thefe Words therefore Paul enveigheth mightily against the fantaffical Opinions of the Papifls and all Jufficiaries touching the Law and Works, when he faith, that the Promife by Faith of Jefus Chrift might be given to them that believe.

Now, how we would answer to thefe Sentences which speak of Works and Rewards, I have fufficiently declared before. And the Matter requireth not now, that we should speak any Thing of Works. For we have not here taken in hand to intreat of Works, but of Julification 3

The Commendation of good Works, out of the Caufe of Juftification. to use, that it is not obtained by the Law and Work's, finnes all Thingsare that under Sin, and under the Curle's but by Faith in Chrift. The Apoles also bringing the Word of Grace and eternal Life to the World, were counted the Offscouring, and the his Benefits. utcafts of the whole World. This is the goodly Re-hard which the World giveth for fo great and unfpeakable Benefits. ut Works done without Faith, altho' they have never to goodly a Shew Holinels, are under the Curfe. Wherefore fo far off it is, that the icers thereof thould deferve Grace, Righteonfnels and eternal Life, that ther they heap Sin upon Sin. After this Manner the Pope, that Child Perdition, and all that follow him, do work. So work all Meritongers and Heriticks which are fallen from the Faith.

Verse 23. But before Faith came,

He proceedeth in declaring the Profit and Neceffity of the Law. He id before that the Law was added for Tranfgreffions : Not that it was e principal Purpofe of God to make a Law that fhould bring Death and mamnation, as he faith, Was then that which is good, made Death unto ?? God forbid, Rom. vii. 12. For the Law is a Word at fheweth Life, and driveth Men unto it. Therefore The Ufe of is not only given as a Minifter of Death, but the prin- the Law. bal Ufe and End thereof is to reveal Death, that fo it light be feen and known how horrible Sin is. Notwithstanding it doth it fo reveal Death as tho' it tended to no other End but to kill and deftroy; but to this End it revealeth Death, that when Men are wrified, caft down, and humbled, they fhould fear God. And this with Exod. xx. 20. declare ; Fear not (faith Mofes) for God is come to. hove you, and that his Fear may be before your Faces, that ye fin not. The fice therefore of the Law is to kill, and yet fo, that God may revive d quicken again. The Law then is not given only to kill ; but beuse Man is proud and dreameth that he is wife, righteous and ho y ; erefore it is neceffary he should be humbled by the Law, that fo this walt the Opinion of Righteousness I fay, might be flain; for otherwise Man can obtain Life.

Albeit then that the Law killeth, yet God ufeth this Fffect of the inw, this Death I mean, to a good End, that is, to bring Life. For God ing that this univerfal Plague of the whole World, to wit, Man's minion of his own Righteoutnefs, his Hypocrify, and Confidence in his own Holinels could not be beaten down by any other Means, he would that it fhould be flain by the Law; not for ever, but that when it is once flain. Man might be tailed up again above and beyond the Law, and there might hear this Voice, Fear not : I have not given the Law, and killed thee by the Law, that thou shouldst abide in this Death : but that thou fhouldft lear me and live. For the prefuming of good Works, and Righteoufnels ftandeth not with the Eear of God : And where the Fear of God is not, there can be no thrifting for Grace or Life. God muft therefore have a ftrong Hammer, or a mighty Maul to break the Rocks, and a hot burning Fire in the midft of Heaven to overthrow the Mountains; that is to fay, to deflroy this furious and obstinate Beast (this Prefumption I fay) that when a Man by this bruifing and breaking is brought to nothing, he fhould defpair of his own Strength, Righteouluels and Holinels, and being thus throughly terrified. thould thirst after Mercy and Remillion of Sins, Verse 23. But before Faith came, we were kept under the Law, but up unto the Faith which bould after. wards be revealed.

This is to fay, before the Time of the Gofpel and Grace came, the Office of the Law was, that we fhould be that up and This Similikept under the fame, as it were in Prifon. This is a tude of the goodly and a fit Similitude, thewing the Effect of the Law, Prifon fhewand how righteous it maketh Men ; therefore it is diligenteth what the ly to be weighed. No Thief, no Murderer, no Adul-Law workterer or other Malefactor loveth the Chains and Fetters, the dark and lothefome Prifon wherein he lieth faft bound : but rather, if he could, he would break and beat into Powder the Prifon with his Irons and Fetters. Indeed whiles he is in Prifon he refraineth from doing of evil; but not of a Good will or for Righteoufnels Sake ; but because the Prifon rettraineth him that he cannot do it : And now being fast fettered he hateth not his Theft and his Murder ; (yea he is forry with all his Heart that he cannot rob and fteal, cut and flay) but he hateth the Prifun, and if he could efcape, he would rob and kill, as he did before.

For then is a Man fhut up in Prifon : is of the which he cannot escape, nor feeth how he may be delivered of these Bonds, that is to fay, these horrible Terrors.

Thus the Law is a Prifon both civilly and fpiritually. For first it piraineth and fhutteth up the Wicked that they run not headlong acidding to their own Luft, into all Kinds of Mifchief. Again, it fhew-" unto us fpiritually our Sin, terrifieth and humbleth us, that when in are fo terrified and humbled, we may learn to know our own Milery I Condemnation. To conclude, fo well we love the Law and the Righteoufnels thereof, as a Murderer loveth the dark Prifon, the Itrait Bond and Irons. How then thould the Law juffify us ?

Verfe 23. And fout up unto the Faith which should afterwards be revealed.

This Paul fpeaketh in respect of the Fulnels of the Time wherein Chrift came. But we mult apply it, not only to that Time, but alfo to the inward Man. For that which is done as an Hiftory and according to the Time wherein Chrift came, abolifhing the Law, and bringing Liberty and eternal Life to Light, is always done fpiritually in every Chriftian, in whom is found continually, fomewhile the Time of the Law, and fomewhile the Time of Grace. accomplift the Work, yet doth it force him mightily thereunto. For albeit a Chriftian Man do not fall into outward and grofs Sins, as Murder, Adultery, Theft and fuch like : vet is he not free from Impatiency, murmuring, leating and blafphoming of God ; which Sins to Reafon and the carnal Man, are altogether unknown. These Sins conftrain him, yea fore againft his Will, to detelt the Law; they compel him to fly from the Prefence of God ; they compel him to hate and blafpheme God. For as carnal Luft is friong in a young Man, in a Man of full Age the Defire and Love of Glory, and in an old Man Covetoufnefs; even fo in a boly and a faithful Man Impatiency, Murmuring, Hatred and Blasphemy against God do mightily prevail. Examples hereof, there are many in the Plaims, in Job, in Jeremiab, and throughout the whole ScripScripture. Paul therefore deferibing and fetting forth this fpiritual Warfare, uleth very vehement Words and fit for the Purpole, as of fighting, rebelling, holding and leading Captive, &c, me Victory and Salvation in Chrift. There is no Caufe therefore why. I thould defpair.

He that is fkilful in this Art and this Counting, may indeed be called a right Divine. The fanallical Spirits and their Diffieles at this Lay, which continually Drag of the Spirit, do performed the Indivises that they are very expert and counting herein. But I and fich as I am have faceful learned the first Principles thereof. It is learned indeed, but fo long as the Fielh and Sin do endure. It can nevec be perfeelly learned and as it fload be. So then a Chrillian is tiviaded into two Times. In that he is Fielh, he is under the Laws: In that he is Spirit, he is under Grace. Concupiferenc, Covetorifets, Ambition and Pride do always cleave to the Fielh, silo Ignorance, Contempt of God, Impatiew, mathuming and gradeping againt God.

because he hindreth and breach of our counder, our Devices and Enterprife, and because he fpactify punithent not fach as are wicked, rebellious and contemprous Perlons, etc. Such Manner of Siza are rooted in the Fleho f the Faithful. Wherefore, if thou behold nothing but the Fleho, thou fhat abids always under the Time of other Law. But these bays mult be fnortned, or elfe no Fleh fhould be faved. The Law muft have his Time appointed, wherein it mult have his End. The Time of the Law therefore is not perpetual, but hath his End, which End is Jefus Chrift. But the Time of Grace is eternal. For Chrift have inserved therefore its allow there are served. For Chrift have interfore the Time of Grace is allo eternal.

Such notable Sentences in Paul, we may not lightly pais over, as the Papills and Sectaries are wont to do. For they contain Words of Life, which do wonderfully comfort and confirm afflided Conficiences ;

Fear maynot always continue, but Fear joined with Faith muft be always in a Chriftian. * How Fear muft be vanquifhed. and they which know and underfland them well, can judge of Faith, they can differ a true Fear from a fails Fear 7 they can judge of all inward Affections of the Heart, and differn all Spirits. The Fear of God is an holy and a precisus Thing, but it moil not always continue. Indeed it ought to be always in a Chriftian, becaule Sin is a dways in him; but it mult not be alone; for then it is the Fear of Gain, Saud and Judar, that is to fay, a fervile and a defperate Fear. * A Chriftian therefore, gudf-waraquift Fear by Faith in the Word of Grace. Hermeftern away his Eges from the Time of the Lax; and look anto Chrift, and unto Faith which is to be revealed. Here begingent Pear to be freee unto est, and maketh us to delight in God. For if a Man do only behold the Law and Sin, fetting Faith afide, he fhall never be able to put away Fear, but shall at length fall to Desperation.

Thus doth Paul very well diffinguilt the Time of the Law and Grace. Let as also learn rightly to diffinguilt the Time of them both, not in Words, Words, but in the inward Affection, which is a very hard Matter. For albeit thefe two Things are feparate far alunder, yet are they most nearly joined together in one Heart. Nothing is more nearly joined together then Fear and Truft, then the Law and the Gofpel, then Sin and Grace. For they are fo united together, that the one is fwallowed up of the other. Wherefore there is no Conjunction like unto this.

At this Place. Wherefore then ferveth the Law? Paul began to diffute of the Law : also of the Ule and the Abule thereof, taking Occasion of that which before he had affirmed, that the Faithful do obtain Righteoufnels by Grace only, and by the Promife, and not by the Law. Upon that Difputation role this Queffion ; Wherefore then ferveth the Law? For Reafon hearing that Righteoufness or the Bleffing is obtained by Grace and by the Promile, by and by inferreth ; then the Law profiteth nothing. Wherefore the Doctrine of the Law mult be diligently confidered, that we may know what and how we ought to judge thereof, left that either we reject the fame altogether, as the fantalfical Spirits do (which in the Year, a thousand five hundred twenty and five, flirring up the ruffical People to Sedition, faid, that the Liberty of the Golpel giveth Freedom to all Men from all Manner of Laws.) or elfe left we should attribute the Force of Justification to the Law. For both Sorts do offend against the Law; the one on the Right-hand, which will be justified by the Law; and the other on the Left-hand, which will be clean delivered from the Law. We must therefore keep the High-Way, fo that we neither reject the Law, nor attribute more unto it then we ought to do.

That which I have before to often repeated concerning both the Ufes of the Law, namely, the civil and the foiritual Ule, do fufficiently declare that the Law is not given for the Righteous; but (as Paul faith in another Place) for the unrighteous and rebellious. Now, of the unrighteous there are two Sorts, that is to fav, they which are to be justified, and they which are not to be juffified. They that are not to be juffified mult be bridled by the civil Ule of the Law; for they must be bound with the Bonds of the Law, as favage and untamed Beafts are bound with Cords and Chains. This Ufe of the Law hath no End, and of this Paul here fpeaketh nothing. But they that are to be justified, are exercised with the fpiritual Ufe of the Law for a Time ; for it doth not always continue, as the civil Ufe of the Law doth; but it looketh to Faith which is to be revealed, and when Chrift cometh, it fhall have his End. Hereby we may plainly fee that all the Sentences wherein Paul intreateth of the fpiritual Use of the Law, mult be underflood of shole which are to be justified, and not of those which are justified atready.

Fear and Faith are feparated far vet are joined together in one Heart.

ready. For they which are justified already, in as much as they abid. in Chrift, are far above all Law. The Law then muft be laid upon those that are to be justified, that they may be shut up in the Priford thereof, until the Righteoufness of Faith come; not that they attain this Righteoufness thro' the Law (for that were not to use the Law rightly, but to abufe it ;) but that when they are caft down and humbled by the Law, they fould fly unto Chrift, Who is the End of the Law for Righteoufnels, to every one that believeth, Rom. x. A.

Law.

Now, the Abufers of the Law, are first, All the Juffici is Who are A- aries and Hypocrites which dream that Men are justified bufers of the by the Law. For that Ufe of the Law doth not exercise and drive a Man to Faith which is to be revealed, but in maketh careless and arrogant Hypocrites, fwelling and prefurning of the Righteoufnels of the Law, and hindereth the Righteoufnels of Faith. Secondly, They abufe the Law which will utterly exempt a Chriftian Man from the Law, as the brainfick Anabaptifts went about to do; which was the Occasion that they raised up that Sedition of the ruffical People. Of this Sort there are very many alfo at this Day which profess the Gofpel with us, who being delivered from the Tyranny of the Pope by the Doctrine of the Gofpel, do dream that the Chriftian Liberty is a diffolute and a carnal Liberty to do whatfoever they lift. These (as Peter faith) have the Liberty of the Spirit, as a Cloke of Malicioufnefs, thro' which the Name of God and the Gofpel of Chrift is flandered every where, I Pet. ii. 16. and therefore they shall once fuffer worthy Punishment for this their Ungodlinefs. Thirdly, Such do also abuse the Law, who seeling the Terrors thereof. do not understand that fuch Terrors ought no longer to continue, but unto Clirift. This Abufe in them is the Caufe that they fall to Defperation ; as in the Hypocrites it is the Caufe of Arrogancy and Prefumption.

Contrariwife, the true Ufe of the Law can never be effeemed and magnified as it is worthy, namely, that when the Confcience that up under the Law, defpaireth not, but being inftructed by the Wildom of the Holy Ghoft, concludeth with itfelf after this Sort ; I am indeed that up as a Prifoner under the Law, but not for ever ; yea this fhutting up to fhall turn to my great Profit. How fo ? Becaufe that I being thus fhut up, shall be driven to figh, and feek the Hand of an Helper, Gc. After this Manner the Law is as an Inforcer, which by Compulsion bringeth the Hungry unto Chrift, that he may fatisfy them with his good Things. Wherefore the true Office of the Law is to fhew unto us our Sins, too make us guilty, to humble us, to kill us, and to bring us down to Hell, and finally to take from us all Help, all Succour, all Comfort ; but yet altogether to this End, that we may be jultified, exalted, quickned to Life, cartied up into Heaven, and obtain all good Things. Therefore it doth not only kill, but it killeth that we may live.

Verse 24. Wherefore the Law was our Schoolmaster to bring us unto Shrift, Here

Hefe again he joineth the Law and the Gofpel together, (which are feparate fo far alunder) as touching the Affections and inward Man, when he faith a the Law is a School mafter to Chrift. This Similitude allo of the School-mafter is worthy to be noted. Altho' a School-mafter be very profitable and neceffary to inftruct and to bring up Children, yet fnew me one Child or Schollar which loveth his Matter. What Love and Obedience the Fews thewed unto their Mofes, it appeareth in that every Hour (as the Hiftory witneffeth) they would with all their Hearts have ftoned him to Death, Exed. xvii. 4. It is not poffible therefore that the Schollar should love his Master. For how can he love him which keepeth him in Prifon, that is to fay, which fuffereth him not to do that which gladly he would ? And if he do any Thing againft his Commandment, by and by he is rebuked and chaftifed, yea, and is confirmined moreover to kils the Rod when he is beaten. Is not this (I pray you) a goodly Righteoninels and Obedience of the Schollar, that he obeyeth his Mafter fo feverely threatning and fo fharply correcting him, and killeth the Rod ? But doth he this with a Good will ? As foon as his Mafter hath turned his Back, he breaketh the Rod, or caffeth it into the Fire. And if he had any Power over his Mafter, he would not fuffer himfelf to be beaten of him, but rather he would beat him. And vet notwithflanding the School-mafter is very neceffary for the Child to inftruct and to chaftife him ; otherwife the Child without his Difcipline, Inftruction and good Education, fhould be utterly loft.

The School-maker therefore is appointed for the Child, to teach hild, to bring him up, and to keep him, as it were in Prifon. But to while End, or how long? Is it to the End that this first and fharp Dealing of the School maller thould always continue, or that the Child Hoold remain in continueal Bondage? Not 16, but only for a Time, that this Obedience, this Prifon and Correction might time to the Profit of the Child, that when the Time cometh, he might be his Father's Heir. For it is not the Father's Will, that his Son thould be always fulped to the School-malter, and always beaten with Rod's, but that by his Influctition and Difcipline he might be made able and meet to be his Father's Succeffor.

Even fo the Law (faith Paul) is nothing elfe but a TheLawisa School-mafter: Not for ever, but until it have brought School-maus to Chrift; as in other Words he faid alfo before; The RettoChrift, Law was added becaufe of Transforeijions, till the Stef Joud vail, and yet few of them came to any Proof. The Law is not fuch School-maffer. For it doth not only terrify and torment (as the foolid School-mafter beateth his Schollars and teacheth them nothing :) but with his Rods he driveth us unto Chrift : like as a good School mafter in frugheth and exerciseth his Schollars in reading and writing, to the Ent they may come to the Knowledge of good Letters and other profitable Things, that afterwards they may have a Delight in doing that, which before when they were confirmined thereunto, they did against their Wills.

By this goodly Similitude, Paul the weth what is the true Ufe of the Law, namely, that it juffifieth not Hypocrites, for they remain with out Chrift in their Prefumption and Security ; and contrariwife, that it leaveth not in Death and Damnation those that are of a contrite Hear

(fo that 'they use it as Paul teacheth) but driveth them? unto Chrift. But they which in these Terrors continue ftill in their Weaknels, and do not apprehend Chrift by Law fet out Faith, do fail at length into Desperation. Paul therefore in the Alle- in this Allegory of the School matter, most lively express feth the true Ufe of the Law. For like as the School mafter reproveth his Schollars, grieveth them and maketh them heavy, and yet not to the End that this Bondage fhould always continue, but that it fhould ceafe when the Children are well brought up and inflructed accordingly, and that afterwards without any Confitraint of the School-mafter, they fould chearfully enjoy their Liberty and their Fathers Goods ; even fo they which are vext and oppreffed with the Law, do know that these Terrors and Vexations shall not always continue, but that thereby they are prepared to come unto Chrift which is to be revealed, and to to receive the Liberty of the Spirit, Cc.

Verse 24. That we might be justified by Faith.

The Law is not a School-mafter to bring us unto another Law-given which requireth good Works, but unto Chrift our Juftifier and Saviour, that by Faith in him we might be justified, and not by Works. But when a Man feeleth the Force and Strength of the Law, he doth not understand nor believe this. Therefore he faith ; I have lived wickedly, for I have transgreffed all the Commandments of God, and therefore I am guilty of eternal Death. If God would prolong my Life certain Years, or at left certain Months, I would amend my Life, and live holily hereafter. Here, of the true Ule of the Law, he maketh an Abule. Reafon being overtaken in these Terrors and Straits, is bold to promile unto God the fulfilling of all the Works of the whole Law. And hereof came to many Sects and Swarms of Monks and religious Hypocrites, fo many Ceremonies and fo many Works, devifed to deferve Grace and Remiffion of Sins. And they which devifed these Things, thought that the Law was a School-mafter to lead them, not unto Chrift, but unte a new Law, or unto Chrift as a Law-giver, and not as one that hath abolifhed the Law.

But the true Ufe of the Law is to teach me that I am brought to the Knowledge of my Sin and humbled, that fo I may come unto Chrift, and may be juffitied by Faith. But Faith is neither Law nor Work, but an affured Confidence which apprehendeth Chrift, who is the End of the Law, Rom. x. s. And how ? Not that he hash abolished the old Law and given a new, or that he is a Judge which must be pacified by Works, as the Papilh have taught ; but he is the End of the Law to all those that believe ; that is to fay, every one that believeth in him is righteous, and the Law thall never accuse him. The Law then is good, holy and juff. fo that a Man use it as he should do. Now, they that abufe the Law, are first the Hypocrites which attribute unto the Law a Power to justify ; and fecondly, they which do defpair, not knowing that the Law is a School matter to lead them unto Chrift : that is to fay, that the Law humbleth them not to their Deftruction, but to their Salvation : For God woundeth that he may heal again : he killeth that he may auicken again.

Now, Paul (as before I have faid) speaketh of those that are to be juftified, and not of those which are jultified already. Therefore when thou goeff about to reafon as concerning the Law, thou muft take the Matter of the Law, or that whereupon the Law worketh, namely, the Sinner and the wicked Perfon, whom the Law jultifieth not, but ferteth Sin before his Eyes, cafteth him down, and bringeth him to the Knowledge of himfelf; it theweth unto him Hell, the Wrath and the Judgment of God. This is indeed the proper Office of the Law. Then followeth the Ufe of this Office ; to wit, that the Sinner may know that the Law doth not reveal Office of the unto him his Sin and thus humbleth him, to the End he Law, and thould defpair, but that by this accusing and bruiking, it may drive him unto Chrift the Saviour and Comforter. When this is done, he is no longer under the School mafter. And this Use is very necessary : For feeing the whole World is overwhelmed with Sin; it hath need of this Miniffry of the Law, that Sin may be revealed ; otherwife no Man should ever attain to Righteoulness, as before we have largely declared. But what worketh the Law in shem that are already juffified by Chrift ? Paul anfwereth by thefe Words ; which are as it were an Addition to that which goeth before.

Verse 25. But after that Faith is come, we are no longer under a School-master.

That is to fay; we are free from the Law, from the Prifon, and from our School malter ; for when Faith is revealed, the Law terrifieth and tormenteth us no more. Paul here fpeaketh of Faith as it was preached and published unto the World by Chrift in the Time before appointed. For Chrift taking upon him our Fleft, some once into the World : be abolifhed the Law with all his Effects, and delivered from eternal Death all those which receive his Benefits by Faith. If therefore ye look unto Chrift and that which he hath done, there is now no Law. For he coming in the Time appointed, took away the Law. Now, fince the Law is gone, we are not kept under the Tyranny thereof any more; but we live in low and Safety under Chrift, who now fweetly reigneth in us by his Spirit. Now, where the Lord reigneth, shere is Liberty. Wherefore, if we could perfectly apprehead Chrift which hath abolished the Law by his Death, and hath reconciled us unto his Father, that School-mafter thould have no Power over us at all. But the Law of the Members rebelling against the Law of the Mind, letteth us that we cannot perfectly lay hold upon Chrift. The Lake therefore is not in Chrift, but in us, which have not yet put off this Flefh, to the which Sin continually cleaveth as long as we live. Wherefore, as touching ourfelves, we are parily free from the Law, and partly under the Law. According to the Spirit, we ferve with Paul the Law of God ; but according to the Flefh, the Law of Sin, Rom. vii. ult.

Hereof it followeth, that as touching the Confcience we are fully delivered from the Law, and therefore that School-mafter must not rule in it, that is, he must not afflict it with his Terrors, Threatnings and Captivity. And albeit it go about fo to do never fo much, yet is not the Confcience moved therewith. For it hath Chrift crucified before her Eyes, who hath removed all the Offices of the Law out of the Confcience : blotting out the Hand-writing of Ordinances that was againft us, &c. Coloff. ii. 14. Therefore, even as a Virgin knoweth no Man ; fo the Confcience mult not only be ignorant of the Law, but alfo it must be utterly dead unto the Law, and the Law likewife unto the Confcience. This is not done by any. Works, or by the Righteoufnels of the Law, but by Faith which apprehendesh and layeth hold upon Chrift. Notwithfanding Sin cleavesh ftill in the Flefh as touching the Effect thereof, which oftentimes accufeth and troubleth the Confcience. So long then as the Fleih doth remain, fo long this School-mafter the Law doth alfo remain, which many Times terrifieth the Confcience, and maketh it heavy by revealing of Sin and threatning of Death. Yet is it raifed up again by the daily coming of Chrift ; who as he came once into the World in the Time before appointed, to redeem us from the hard and tharp Servitude of our School-mafter ; even to he cometh daily unto us fpiritually, to the End that we may increase in Faith and in the Knowledge of him, that the Confcience may apprehend him more fully and perfectly from Day to Day, and that the Law of the Flefh and of Sin with the Terror of Death and all Evils that the Law bringeth with it, may daily be diminished in us more and more. As long then as we live in the Flefh, which is not without Sin, the Law oftentimes returneth and doth his Office, in one more and in another lefs, as their Baith is frong or weak, and yet not to their Deftruction, but to their Salvation. I or this is the Exercise of the Law in the Saints. namely, the costinual Montification of the Fleft, of Reafon, and;

our own Strength, and the daily renewing of our inward Man, as it faid in 2 Cor. iv. 16.

We receive then the first Fruits of the Spirit : the eaven is bid in the Mais of the Dough : but all the ough is not yet leavened; no it is yet but only begun be leavened. If I behold the Leaven, I fee nothing elfe at pure Leaven. But if I behold the whole Mais. I fee nat it is not all pure Leaven : That is to fay. If I behold huft. I am altogether pure and holy, knowing nothing all of the Law ; for Chrift is my Leaven. But if I beold mine own Fleth. I feel in myfelf Covetoninels, Luft.

inger, Pride and Arrogancy; alfo the Fear of Death, Heavinefs, Hatred, lurmuring and Impatiency against God. The more these Sins are in e, the more is Chrift absent from me, or if he be present, he is felt ut a little. Here have we need of a School-mafter to exercise and vex is firong Afs the Fleih, that by this Exercife Sins may be diminifhed, nd a Way prepared unto Chrift. For as Chrift came nce corporally at the Time appointed, abolished the The fpirihole Law, vanquilhed Sin, deftroyed Death and Hell ; tual comven to he cometh foiritually without ceating, and daily ing of Chrift. uencheth and killeth thefe Sins in us.

This I fay, that thou mayeft be able to answer, if any shall thus obact : Chrift came into the World, and at once took away all our Sins, nd cleanfed us by his Blood ; What need we then to hear the Gobel, or to receive the Sacraments? True it is, that as much as thou beholdest Christ, the Law and Sin How farre quite abolished. But Christ is not yet come unto forth the pee ; or if he be come, yet notwithftanding there are Law is abokemnants of Sin in thee; thou are not yet throughly cavened. For where Concupifcence, Heavine's of Spirit, nd Fear of Death is, there is yet also the Law and Sin. Chrift is not et throughly come; but when he cometh indeed, he driveth away ear and Heavinefs, and bringeth Peace and Quietnefs of Confeience. o far forth then as I do apprehend Chrift by Faith, fo much is the aw abolifhed unto me. But my Flefh, the World, and the Devil do inder Faith in me, that it cannot be perfect. Right gladly I would hat that little Light of Faith which is in my Heart, were fpread throughat all my Body, and all the Members thereof; but it is not done; t is not by and by foread, but only beginneth to be foread. In the nean Seafon this is our Confolation, that we having the first Fruits of he Spirit, do now begin to be leavened. But we fhall be throughly eavened when this Body of Sin is diffolved, and we shall rife new Creaarcs wholly, together with Chrift.

Albeit then that Chrift be one and the fame Yefterday, to Day, and hall be for ever, Hob. xiii. ### Verfe 26. For ye are all the Children of God by Faith in Christ Jesus.

Paul as a true and an excellent Teacher of Faith, hath always thefe Words in his Mouth, By Faith, In Faith, Of Faith, which is in Chriff Jefus. He faith not ; Ye are the Children of God, because ye are circumcifed, because ve have heard the Law and have done the Works thercof (as the Fews do imagine, and the falle Apofiles teach ; ) but by Faith in Jefus Chrift. The Law then maketh us not the Children of God, and much lefs Mens Traditions. It cannot beget us into a new Nature or a new Birth : but it ferteth before us the old Birth whereby we were born to the Kingdom of the Devil, and fo it prepareth us to a new Birth which is by Faith in Jefus Chrift, and not by the Law, as Paul plainly witneffeth ; For ye are all the Sons of God by Eaith, &c. As if he laid ; Albeit ve be tormented, humbled and killed by the Law, yet hath not the Law made you righteous, or made you the Children of God : This is the Work of Faith alone : What Faith? Faith in Chrift. Faith therefore in Chrift maketh us the Children of God, and not the Law. The fame Thing witheffeth alfo John, As many as received him, to them gave he Power to become the Sons of God, John i. 12. Rom. viii. 16, 17. What Tongue either of Men or Angels can fufficiently extol and magnify the great Mercy of God towards us, that we which are miferable Sinners and by Nature the Children of Wrath, fhould be called to this Grace and Glory, to be made the Children and Heirs of God, Fellowheirs with the Son of God, and Lords over Heaven and Earth, and that by the only Means of our Faith which is in Chrift Jefus ?

Verse 27. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.

To put on Chrift, is taken two Manner of Ways; according to the Law, and according to the Gofpel. According to the Law, as it its fail in Rom. suit:  $t_4$ . Put ye on the Lord Jojus Chrift ; that is, follow the Example and Vertues of Chrift : Do that which he did, and fuffer that which he fuffered. And in 1 Per. its 2-1 Chrift also fuffered for ut, learning as an Example, that we found follow his Steps-Now we fee to Christ a wonderful Patience, an inclintable Mildons and ove, and a wonderful Modefty in all Things. This goodly Apparel e must put on, that is to fay, follow these Vertues :

But the putting on of Chrift according to the Gofpel, confifteth not Imitation, but in a new Birth and a new Creation ; that is to fay, in atting on Chrift's Innocency, his Righteoufnefs, his Wifdom, his ower, his faving Health, his Life and his Spirit. We are clothed with the Leather-coat of Adam, which is a mortal Garment, and a Garment of a : that is to fay, we are all fubject unto Sin, all fold under Sin : here is in us horrible Blindnefs, Ignorance, Contempt and Hatred of od : mareover, evil Concupifcence, Uncleannefs, Covetoufnefs; ere, 'his Garment, that is to fay, this corrupt and finful Nature, we receive om Adam, which Paul is wont to call the old Man. This old Man suft be put off with all his Works, Ephef. iv. 18. Coloff. ili. 9. that T the Children of Adam, we may be made the Children

God. This is not done by changing of a Gatment, or How the old yany Laws or Works, but by a new Birth, and by the Man muft be encwing of the inward Man, which is done in Baptifm. put off. Paul faith : All ve that are baptized, have but on Chrift.

No: According to his Mercy he laved us by the walking of Regeneratia, and renewing of the Hely Ghoff, Tit. iii, 5. For belides that they hich are baptized, are regenerate and renewed by the Holy Ghoft to a eavenly Righteoufnefs and to eternal Life, there rifeth in them alfo a ew Light and a new Flame ; there rife in them new and holy Affectiins, as the Fear of God, true Faith and affured Hope, Gr. There begineth in them alfo a new Will. . And this is to put on Chrift truly and ecording to the Gofpel.

Therefore the Righteoufnels of the Law or of our own Works, is not iven unto us in Baptifm ; but Chrift himfelf is our Garhent. Now Chrift is no Law, no Law-giver, no Work, hat a divine and an ineftimable Gift, whom God hath iven unto us, that he might be our Juftifier, our Saviour nd our Redeemer. Wherefore to be apparelled with Chrift ecording to the Gofpel, is not to be apparelled with the Law of with Vorks, but with an incomparable Gift ; that is to fay, with Remiffion Sins, Righteoufnels, Peace, Confedation, Joy of Spirit, Salvation, Life, nd Chrift himfelf.

This is diligently to be noted, because of the fond and The Ant untaftical Spirits, which go about to deface the Majelty of babills deaptifm, and speak wickedly of it. Paul contrariwife face the Maommendeth and fetteth it forth with honoprable Titles. icfly of Banalling it, the washing of Regeneration, and renewing of be Holy Ghoft, Tit. iii. 5. And here also he faith, that

I they which are baptized, have put on Chrift. As if he faid : Ye are arried out of the Law into a new Birth, which is wrought in Baptilm. Therefore ye are not now any longer under the Law. but ye are clothed lith a new Garment ; to wit, with the Rightcoufinefs of Chrift. Wherepre Baptilin is a Thing of great Force and Efficacy. Now, when we re apparelled with Chrift, as with the Robe of our Righteoufnels and S3].

In Baptifm we put on

Salvation, then we must put on Chrift also as the Apparel of Imitation and Example. These Things I have handled more largely in another Place, therefore I here briefly pais them over.

Verse 28. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is nei, ther bond nor free, there is neither male nor female : For ye are all one in Chrift Jefus.

Here might be added moreover many moe Names of Perfons and Offaces which are orderined of God, as thefe's There is neither Magiltane nor Subject, neither Matter nor Heater, neither Mither Magiltane Schollar, neither Matter nor Servart, neither Mithefs nor Maid, Go for in Chrift Jeitas all States, year even fuch as are ordeined of God, are nothing. Indeed the male, the female, the bond, the free, the Jew, the Gentics, the Prince, hes Eulycef, are the good Creatures of God', are Chrift, that is, in the Matter of Solvation, they are nothing, with all their Wildow, Rajhbouinfes, Religion and Power.

Wherefore, with their Words, Ther is neither Jew, &c. Paul mighily abolithen the Law. For here, that is, when a Man is renewed by Baptifin, and hath put on Chrift, there is meither Jew nor Greeion, &c. The Apolla fpeakent not here of the Jew according to his Nature and Subfance : but he callet him a Jew which is the Difelpic of  $M/\sigma_c$ , if fubject to the Law, is circumsifed, and with all his Endeavour keepeth the Getemonics commanded in the Law. The Wifdom and Righteoufneis of the Gentiles tejected. Moreovea, when he faith, Nor Greeten, he also rejected and condenneth the Wildom and Righneoutness of the Geniles : For among the Geniles there were miny notable Men, as Xenphon, Themiltoite, Marcus Fohius, Attillins Regular, Gieroe, Pampingent, Mitaria, and many others which being and acd with lingular Vertues, governed Common-weals excellently, and did many worthy adds for the Prefervation thereof; and yer all thefe were nothing before God, with their Wildom, their Power, their notable Acts, their excellent Vertues, Laws, Religions and Ceremonies : For we muft not shink that the Gentiles did contemn all atometry and Religion. Yea all Nations

Sainas of all Ages differifed throughout the World, had their Laws, teligions and Genemonies, without the which it is not pollible that Mandind fhould be governed. All Righteoulines therefore concerning either the iovernment of Families, or Gommon-weak, or divine Mattera (as was he Righteoulines af the Law) with all the Obedience, Execution and Jolineis thereof, he is never to perfed is nothing worth before God ; What then ? The Garment of Chrift which we put on in Baptifin.

So, if the Servant do his Duty, obey his Maßer, ferve in his Vocaion never to digently and faithally, if he that is at Liberty be in Aubority and govern the Common-wealth, or guide his own Family hoeffly and with Braile; if the Man do that persistent ho the Man in, astrying a Wife, in governing his Family, in obeying the Magiltrate, A behaving himlefl decently towards all Men ; if the Woman live chafti, obey her Husband, for well to het Houhold, bring up her Chilken ally (which are indeed excellent-Guits and haly Works.) yet are all kele nothing in Gouparilion of that Rightenularies Michaeles and Yorks in the whole World, yea oi the feru themieleve, which were her fift that had the Kingdom and Prielhood ordained and appointed God, with heir holy Laws, Religions, Ceremonies and Workipings ; all thefe (1 fay) take not away Sin, deliver not from Death, ar purchaft Life.

Therefore your falls apolles do fabrilly feduce you (O ye Calariy) when they teach you that the Law is needfary to Salvation; and this Means they faoil you of that excellent Glory of your new Birth d your Adoption, and call you back to your old Birth and to the molt iferable Servitude of the Law, making you of the Free-children of od, Bond-children of the Law, whiles they will have a Difference of rifons according to the Law. Indeed there is a Difference of Performs the Law, and in the World, and there its a Difference of Performs the Law, and in the World, and there is a Difference of Performs the Free Therefore, the Gentifes, and the whole World keep Silence the Prelence God. God hath indeed many Ordinances, Laws, grees and Knod o Life, but all their help nothing to deferve Grace, d to obtain eternal Life. must be diligently observed. For if the Woman would be the Man, if the Son would be the Father, the Servant would be the Mafter, the Subject would be the Magiffrate, there fhould be nothing elfe but a Confußon of all Effates and all Things. Contrariwife, in Chrift there is no Law, no Difference of Perfons, there is neither Jew nor Grecian, but all are one. For there is but one Body, one Spirit, one Hope of your Calling, there is but one Golpel, one Faith, one Baptifm, one God and Father of all, one Chrift and Lord of all, Eph. iv. 4, 5, 6. We have the fame Chrift, I, thou, and all the Faithful, which Peter, Paul, and all the Saints had. Here therefore the Conficience knoweth nothing of the Law, but hath Chrift only before her Eyes. Therefore Paul is always wont to add this Claufe, In Chrift Jefus : Who, if he be taken out of our Sight, then cometh Anguilh and Terror.

TheOpinion divines concerning Faith.

The Popifh School-divines do dream that Faith is a oftheSchool- Quality cleaving in the Heart without Chrift. This is a devilifh Error. But Christ fhould be fo fet forth, that thou fhouldft fee nothing befides him, and fhouldft think that nothing can be more near unto thee, or more prefent within thy Heart then he is. For he fitteth not idly in Heaven, but is prefent with us, working and living in us, as he faith before in Chap. ii. 20. I live, yet not I, but Chrift liveth in me : And here likewife, Te have put on Chrift. Faith therefore is a certain ftedfaft beholding, which looketh upon nothing elfe but Chrift the Conqueror of Sin and Death, and the Giver of Righteoufnels, Salvation, and eternal Life. This is the Caufe that Paul nameth and fetteth forth Jefus Chrift fo often in his Epiftles, yea almost in every Verse. But he fetteth him forth by the Word, for otherwife he cannot be comprehended then by the Word.

This was notably and lively reprefented by the brafen Scrpent which is a Figure of Chrift. Moles commanded the Jews which were ftung of Serpents in the Defert, to do nothing elfe but ftedfaftly behold the brafen Serpent, and not to turn away their Eyes. They that did fo were healed only by that ftedfaft and conftant beholding o the Serpent, Numb. xxi. 6, 7, 8. But contrariwife, they died which obeyed not the Commandment of Moles, but looked upon their Wounds and not upon the Serpent. So if I would find Comfort when my Can. fcience is afflicted, or when I am at the Point of Death, I must do no. thing but apprehend Chrift by Faith, and fay ; I believe in Jefus Chrift the Son of God, who fuffered, was crucified, and died for me, Oc. in whole Wounds and in whole Death I fee my Sin, and in his Refurrection Victory over Sin, Death, and the Devil, alfo Rightcoufnels and eter nal Life. Befides him I fee nothing, I hear nothing. This is the true Faith concerning Chrift, and in Chrift, whereby we are made Member of his Body, Fleth of his Fleth, and Bone of his Bones, Eph. v. 30. I him therefore we live, and move, and have our Being, Acts xvii. 28 Chrift and our Faith must be throughly joined together : We must be in Heaven; and Chrift must live and work in us. Now, he liveth and work.

worketh in us, not by Speculation and naked Knowledge, but indeed and by a true and fubftantial Prefence.

Verse 29. And if ye be Chrift's, then are ye Abraham's Seed, and Heirs according to the Promise.

That is to fay, if ye believe and be bapized into The Caniller Chrift, if ye believe (I fay) that he is that promied Seed that believe, af Abraham which brought the Belfing to all the Caniller, are the Seed then are ye the Children of Abraham, but by Adoption. For the Scripture attributeth unto him, not only the Children of the Fleih, but alfo of Adoption, and of the Promife, and forefheweth that they fhall receive the Inheritance, and the other thall be caft out of the Houfe. So Paul in few Words tranflateth the whole Glory of Libanus, that is to fay, of the Nation of the Fews unto the Defert, that is, unto the Gentiles. And this Place comprehendeth a fingular Confolation, to wit, that the Gentiles are the Children of Abraham, and confequently the People of God. But they are the Children of Abraham, not by carnal Generation, but by the Promile. The Kingdom of Heaven then, Life, and the eternal Inheritance belongeth to the Gentiles. And this the Scripture fignified long before, when it faith : I have made thee a Father of many Nations. Gen. xviic. Again, In thy Seed fhall all Nations of the Earth be bleffed, Gen. xxii. 18. Now therefore, becaufe we which are Gentiles do believe, and by Faith do receive the Bielling promifed to Abraham and exhibited by Chrift; therefore the Scripture calleth us the Children and Heirs of Abraham, not after the Flefh, but after the Promife. So that Pronife, In thy Seed, &c. belongeth alfo to all the Gentiles, and according o this Promife Chrift is became ours.

Indeed the Promike was made only to the Jewn, and not to us that are Gentiles, P(al. extwit. 19, ac. He themeth bisWord anto Jatob, &c.,He bath not dealt fo with any Nation, &c. NotwithHanding, that whichwas promiked cometh unto us by Paith, by the which only we apprebend the Promike of God. Albeit then that the Promike se not make unto us, yet is it made as tooching us and The Gestiles or us, for we are named in the Promile ; In thy Serd faul are named all Natims of the Earth be blaffed. of the Teltimonies of the Scripture, and of the Time, for that oftentimes he fermeth to renew the whole Matter again. For before, he had in a Manner finished the Disputation concerning luftification. concluding that a Man is justified before God by Faith only and alone ; but because he calleth alfo to Remembrance this political Example of the little Heir, he bringeth the fame allo for the Confirmation of his Matter. Thus trying every Way, he lieth in wait with a certain holy Subtilty to take the Galatians unawares. For the ignorant People are fooner perfwaded with Similitudes and Examples, then with deep and fubtil Difputations : They will rather behold an Image well painted, then a Book well written. Paul therefore now, after that he hath brought the Similitude of a Man's Teffament, of the Prifon, of the School-mafler, uleth allo this Similitude of an Heir (which is familiar and well

ir. They commit not unto him the ordering of his own Goods, but onstrain him to ferve, fo that he is kept and maintained with his own Goods like a Servant. Therefore as long as this Bondage endureth. nat is, fo long as he is under Tutors and Governors, he differeth nos hing from a Servant. And this Subjection and Servitude is very protable for him ; for otherwife thro' Folly he would foon wafte all his goods. This Captivity endureth not always, but hath a certain Time mited and appointed by the Father, wherein it must end.

Verle 2. Even fo we, when we were Children, were in Bondage under the Elements of the World :

In like Manner when we were little Children we were Heirs, having e Promife of the Inheritance to come, which should be given unto us the Seed of Abraham, that is to fay, by Chrift, in hom all Nations should be bleffed. But because the Fulness In the Time Time was not yet come, Moles our Tutor, Governor nd School-mafter came, holding us in Captivity with we were unar Hands bound, fo that we could bear no Rule, nor affels our Inheritance. ope of the Promife to be revealed in the Time appointed ; to wit, hen Chrift fhould come, who by his coming fhould put an End to e Time of the Law, and begin the Time of Grace.

Now the Time of the Law endeth two Manner of Ways : Firft. I faid) by the coming of GBRIST in the Flesh at the Time appointof his Father. Bat when the Fulnels of Time was come, God fem the his Son made of a Woman, made under the Law, To redeem them it were under the Law, &c. Gal. iv. 4, 5. He entred in once into the Place, having obtained eternal Redemption for us, Heb. ix. 12. preover, the fame Chrift who came once in the Time appointed, meth alfo unto us daily and hourly in Spirit. Indeed once with his in Blood he redeemed and fanctified all, Heb. x. 14. But becaufe are not yet perfectly pure (for the Remnants of Sin do yet cleave our Flefh, which itriveth againft the Spirit, Gal. v. 17.) therefore ly he cometh unto us fpiritually, and continually more and more acmolifheth the appointed Time of his Father, abrogating and abolifhthe Law.

So he came also in Spirit to the Fathers of the Old Teltament before appeared in the Fleih. They had Chrift in Spirit. They believed "Chrift which fhould be revealed, as we believe in Chrift which is w revealed, and were faved by him, as we are, according to that. Ming; Jefus Christ is one, Testerday, and to Day, and shall be the fame never. Yesterday, before the Time of his coming in the Flesh, To ir, when he was revealed in the Time before appointed. Now and pyver he is one and the fame Chrift; for even by him only and alone all the Faithful which either have been, be, or fhall be, are delivered from the Law, justified and faved.

In like Manner we also (faith he) when we were Children, Served under the Rudiments of the World, that is to fay, the Law had Dominion " over us, oppreffed us and kept us in a ftrait Bondage, as Servants and a Thepolitick Use of the Law.

The fairityal Ufe of the 1.20.

Captives. For first, it restrained carnal and rebellious in Perfons that they fhould not run headlong into all Kinds of Vice. For the Law threatneth Punifhment to Tranfgreffors, which if they feared not, there is no Mifchief which they would not commit; and over those whom the Law fo bridleth, it ruleth and reigneth. Again, it did accufe us, terrify us, kill us, and condemn us fpiritually and before God ; and this was the principal Dominion H that the Law had over us. Therefore like as an Heir is Subject unto his Tutors, is beaten, and is compelled to obey their Laws, and diligently to execute their Commandments : even fo Mens Confeiences, before Chrift comes, are oppreffed with the fharp Servitade of the Law; that is to fay, they are accused, terrified, and condemned of the Law. But this Dominion, or rather this Tyranny of the Law, is not continual, but muft only endure until the Time of Grace. Wherefore the Office of the Law is to reprove and to increase Sins, not to bring Rightcoufnefs : to kill, not to bring Life, For the Law was our School-mafter to bring us unto Chrift, Gal. iii. 24. Like as therefore the Tutors do handle the Heir being yet a Child, ftraitly and hardly, rule him and command him as a Servant, and he again is conftrained to be fubject unto them ; even to the Law accufeth us, humbleth us, and bringeth us into Bondage, that we may be the Servants of Sin, Death, and of the Wrath of God, which is indeed a most miferable Kind of Bondage. But as the Power of the Tutors, and the Subjection and Bondage of the little Heir is not continual, but only endureth unto the Timer appointed of the Father, which being ended, he needeth not to be governed by his Tutors, nor remaineth under their Subjection any more but with Liberty enjoyeth the Inheritance ; even fo the Law hath Dominion over us, and we are confirained to be Servants and Captives under his Government but not for ever. For this Claufe which followeth muft be added; until the Time appointed of the Father. For Chrift which was promifed, came and redeemed us which were oppreffed with the Tyranny of the Law.

To whom Chrift cometh, and to wittom he cometh not.

Contrariwife, the Coming of Chrift profiteth not the careless Hypocrites, the wicked Contemners of God, not the Defperate which think that nothing elfe remaineth but Terrors of the Law which they feel. His coming only profiteth those that are tormented and terrified with the Law for a Time ; that is to fay, fuch as defpair not in those great and inward Terrors which the Law ftirreth up, but with a fure Truft come unto Chrift the Throne of Grace, which hath redeemee them from the Curfe of the Law, being made a Curfe for them, and fo obtain Mercy and find Grace, Heb. iv. 16. Gal. iii. 13.

"There is a certain Vehemency therefore in this Word, we did force. As if he would fay; Our Condicionce was tighleft to the Law, which holdeth us as Bond-flaves and Capitree, like as a Tyrant holdeth his Priforers, whipped us, and with all his Power exercifed his Tyranny upon us; that is to fay, It brought upon us a Terror and an Heavinefi of Spirit, it made us to tremble and ready to defpair, threating unto us everlafting Death and Damantion - This fightung Bondage and Slavery of the Law, is moft flarp and bitter, and yet (as I have faid) it is not continual, but endureth fo long as we are Children, that is, fo long as Chrift is ablent. Whilf the is ablent, we are servants thut under the Law, definue of Grace, Faith, and all the Gifts of the Holy Ghoft.

Verse 3. Under the Elements (or Rudiments) of the World :

Some have thought that Paul (peaketh here of thofe corporal Elements, the Fire, the Air, the Water and the Earth. But Paul hath his poculiar Manner of Speech, and he (peaketh here even of the Law, of God, which he callent the Elements or Rudiments of the World : Aod his World feem to be very hereical. So is he wont in other Places allo to diminifi and to abafe the Authority of the Law very much, when he callent it the Letter that killeth, the Miniffry of Death and Damnation, and the Power of Sin, 2 Gar. iii. 6, 7, 5). 1 Gar xv. 95. And thele molt odious Names, which finew plainly the Power and Ufe of the Law, he choofest hof Purpole, to admonith us, that in the Terrors of Sin, Wrath and the Judgment of God, Wherefore we trul! not to our own Righteouthels, or to the Righte-Paul abafeth oufnefs of the Law, feeing that the Law in his principal Ufe, can do nothing elle but accule our Conficiences, increafe Sin, threaten Death and eternal Damnation. Wherefore this diminifying and abafing of the Law muft be applied to the Conflict of Conficience, and not to the civil Life, nor to fecure and carelefs Minds.

He calleth therefore the Law, the Elements of the World, that is to fay, the outward Laws and Traditions written in a certain Book. For altho' the Law do civilly bridle a Man from evil, and conftrain him to do well, yet notwithstanding being kept after this Sort, it doth not deliver him from Sin, it juffifieth him not, it prepareth not a Way for him to Heaven, but leaveth him in the World. I do not obtain Righteouinefs and everlaiting Life becaufe I kill not, I commit not Adultery, I do not steal, de. These outward Vertues and honest Conversation be not the Kingdom of Chrift, nor the heavenly Righteoufnels, but the Righteoufnels of the Flefh and of the World ; which also the Gentiles had, and not only the Meritmongers, as in the Time of Chrift the Pharifees, and in our Time the Monks and Friers, &c. This Righteoufnels fome do observe to avoid the Punishment of the Law; fome that they be praifed of Men and effeemed righteous, conftant and patient, and therefore it is rather to be called coloured Hypocrify, then Righteousnels.

do nothing but accuse, terrify, condemn and kill. But where fuch Terror, fuch feeting of Sin, of Death, of the Wrath and Judgment of God is, there is no Righteoufnefs, no divine or heavenly Thing, but all these are mere Things of the World ; which (because it is the Kingdom of the Devil) is nothing elfe but a certain Puddle of Sin, of Death, of Hell, and of all Evils, which the fearful, forrowful and heavy hearted do feel, but the fecure and carelels Contemners do not feel them. Wherefore the Law even in his best and most perfect Ufe, doth nothing elfe but reveal and increase Sin, and frike into us the Terror of Death, and these are but worldly Things. We fee then that the Law giveth no lively, no healthful, no divine or heavenly Thing, but only worldly Things. Wherefore Paul doth very filly call the Law the Elements or Rudiments of the World.

And altho' Paul call the whole Law the Rudiments of the World (as may appear by that I have faid before) yet principally he fpeaketh thus in Contempt of the ceremonial Laws; which altho' they profit never fo much, yet (faith he) they confift only in outward Things, as Meat, Drink, Apparel, Places, Times, the Temple, the Feafts, Wafhings, the Sacrifices, de. which be but mere worldly, and Things ordained of God only for the Ule of this prefent Life, but not to justify or fave before God. Therefore by this Claufe, The Elements of the World, he rejecteth and condemneth the Righteoufnels of the Law. which confilteth in these outward Ceremonies, being notwithstanding ordained and commanded of God to be observed for a Time, and by a contemptible Name calleth it the Rudiments of the World. So the Emperors Laws be Rudiments of the World, for they intreat of worldly Matters, that is to fay, of Things concerning this prefent Life, as of Goods, Poffeffions, Inheritances, Murders, Adulteries, Robberies, c. whereof speaketh also the fecond Table of the Commandments, As for the Pope's Canon Laws, and Decretals, which forbid Marriage and Meats, those Paul in another Place calleth the Doctrines of Devils, I Tim. iv. 1. which are also Rudiments of the World, but that they do molt wickedly bind Mens Confeiences to the Obfervation of outward Things, contrary to the Word of God and Faith.

Whereforothe Law of Moles giveth nothing but worldly Things, that is to fay, it doth only fhew civilly and fpiritually the Evils that be

But out of the Matter of Jultification we ought with mendation Paul to think reverently of the Law, to commend it is highly, to call it holy, righteous, good, fpiritual and di-The Law is vine, Rom. vii. 12, 14. Out of the Cafe of Confcience we should make a God of it, but in the Cafe of Confeience it is a very Devil : For in the left Temptation that can be, it is not able to raife up and comforr the Con-

Hereupon Paul a little after, calleth it weak and beggarly Elements, Gal. iv. 9. Wherefore let us not fuffer the Law in any Cafe to bear Rule in our Confeience, efpecially feeing it coff Chrift fo great a Price to deliver the Confcience from the Tyranny of the Law : For he was made a Curle for us, that he might deliver us from the Curfe of the Law. Let the Godly learn therefore that the Law and Chrift are two contrary Things, whereof the one cannot abide the other. For when Chrift is prefent, the Law may in no Cafe rule, but mult depart out of the Confcience, and leave the Bed (which is fo ftrait that it cannot hold two, as Ifaiah faith, Chap. xxviii. 20.) and give Place only to Chrift. in Chrift, without any feeling of the Law, Sin and Death. Paul here of Purpole uleth this figurative Speech, Elements of the World ; whereby (as I faid) he doth much abale and diminish the Glory and Authority of the Law, to flir up our Minds. For he that readeth Paul attentively, when he heareth that he calleth the Law the Ministry of Death, the Letter that killeth, &c. 2 Cor. iii. 6. by and by he thinketh thus with himfelf ; Why doth he give fuch odious, and (as it appeareth to Reafon) blafphemous Terms to the Law, which is a divine Doctrine revealed from Heaven ? To this Poul answereth, that the Law is both holy, just and good, and that it is also the Ministry of Sin and Death, but in divers Respects. Before Chrift it is holy ; after Chrift it is Death. Therefore when Chrift is come, we ought to know nothing at all of the Law, unless it be in this Refpect, that it hath Power and Dominion over the Flefh, to bridle it and to keep it under. Here is a Conflict between the Law and the Fleih (to whom the Yoke of the Law is hard and grievous) as long as we live.

Only Paul among all the Apostles, calleth the Law the Rudiments of the World, weak and beggarly Elements, the Strength of Sin, the Letter that

The Office of Chrift.

A falfe Opinionof Chrift is not eafily caft off. nor to judge Men according to the fame, as Mafes and other Law-givers, but I have a higher and a better Office. The Law killed you, and I again do judge, condemn and kill the Law, and O I deliver you from the Tyranny thereof.

We that are old Men, which have been Io nulled up in this pernicious Doctrine of the Papifli, that it hath taken deep Root even in ose Bones and Marrow, have conceived an Opinion quite contrary to that which Paul bere teacheth. For althow we confided with our Mouth that Chrift redeamed us from the Tyranny of the Law, yet in very Deed in our Heart we thought him to be a Law-giver, a Tyrant, and a Judge more terrible then Moles himfelf. And this perverle Opinion we cannot yet at this Day in fo great Light of the Truth, utterly reject ; fo frongly are those Things rooted in our Hearts which we learn in our Youth. But ye which are yet young, and are not infected with this pernicious Opinion, may learn Chrift purely with lefs Difficulty then we that are old can remove out of our Minds these blasphenoous Imaginations which we have conceived of him. Netwithstanding ve have not utterly escaped the Deceits of the Devil. For altho' you be not as vet infected with this curfed Opinion, that Chrift is a Law-giver. yet have ye in you the Root whereof it foripgeth, that is, we have the Flefh, Reafon, and the Corruption of Nature, which can judge no otherwife of Chrift, but that he is a Law giver. Therefore ye muft endeavour with all your Power to learn fo to know and 10 apprehend Chrift, as Paul hath fet him forth in this Place. But if befides this natural Corruption, there come also corrupt and wicked Teachers (of whom the World is full) they will increase this Corruption of Nature, and fo shall the Evil be doubled, that is to fay, evil Inftruction will increase and confirmathe pernicious Error of blind Reafon, which naturally judgeth Chrift to be a

Wherefore it is very piofitable for us to have always fore our Eyes this fweet and comfortable Sentence, and uch like, which fet out Chrift truly and lively, that in ar whole Life, in all Dangers, in the Confession of our aith before Tyrants, and in the Hour of Death, we may oldly and with fure Confidence fay ; * O Law, thou halt p Power over me, and therefore thou doff accufe and mdemn me in vain. Here the Law, which had before condemned and killed all Men, when it hath nothing wherewith to defend or purge itfelf, is again fo condemned and vanquilhed, that it lofeth his whole Right, not only over Chrift (whom it fo cruelly handled and killed) but alfo over all them that believe in him. For to those Chrift faith ; Come unto me all ye that labour under the Yoke of the Law, Matth. xi. 28. I could have overcome the Law by my abfolute Power, without mine own Smart ; for I am Lord of the Law, and therefore it hath no Right over me. But I have made myfelf fubject unto the Law, for your Caufe which were under the Law, taking your Flefh upon me, that is to fay, of mine ineftimable Love I humbled and yielded myfelf to the fame Prifon, Tyranny and Bondage of the Law, under the which ye ferved as Captives and Bond-flaves, I fuffered the Law to have Dominion over me which was his Lord, to terrify me, to make me Thral and Captive unto Sin, Death, and the Wrath of God, which it ought not to have done. He is not then a Lawgiver, or a Judge after th Law, but in that he made himlelf fubjedt to the Law, baring the Con demnation of the Law.

Now, whereas Chrift in the Gofpel giveth Commandments, an teacheth the Law, or rather expoundeth it, this pertaineth not to th Doctrine of Jultification, but of good Works. Moreover, it is not the proper Office of Chrift (for the which he came principally into the World to teach the Law, but an accidental or by-Office ; like as it was to hear the Weak, to raife up the Dead, Gc. These are indeed excellent and d vine Works ; but yet not the very proper and principal Works ( Chrift. For the Prophets alfo taught the Law, and wrought Miracles. But Chrift is God and Man, who fighting against the Law, luffered the ut termost Cruelty and Tyranny thereof : And in that he fuffered the Ty ranny of the Law, he vanguilhed it in himfelf : And afterwards, bein raifed up again from Death, he condemned and utterly abolifhed the Law which was our deadly Enemy, fo that it cannot condemn and ki the Faithful any more. Wherefore the true and proper Office of Chrile is to wreftle with the Law, with the Sin and the Death of the whole World, and fo to wreftle that he mult fuffer and abide all these Things and by fuffering them in himfelf, conquer and abolifh them, and b this Means deliver the Faithful from the Law and from all Evils. There fore to teach the Law and to work Miracles, are particular Benefits of Chrift, for the which he came not principally into the World. For the Prophets, and especially the Apostles did greater Miracles the Chrift did, John xiv. 12.

Seeing then that Chrift hath overcome the Law in his own Perion, followeth needfarily that has is in naturally God. For there is none, whether he he Man or Angel which is above the Law, but only God. Bu Chrift is above the Law, for he hath vanquilhed it; therefore he is the 'Sabid' God, and naturally God. # Verse 5. That we might receive the Adoption of Sons.

Paul fetteth forth and amplifieth very largely this Place of Gen. xxii. B. In thy Seed Thall all the Nations of the Earth be bleffed. A little fore he called this Bleffing of the Seed of Abraham, Righteoufnefs, Life, e Promife of the Spirit, Deliverance from the Law, the Teffament, ere. lere he calleth it the Adoption and Inheritance of everlafting Life. All sefe, this Word Blelling doth comprehend. For when the Carfe (which Sin, Death, Cc.) is abolithed, then in the Stead thereof succeedeth the leffing, that is, Righteoufnefs, Life and all good Things.

But by what Merit have we received this Bleffing, that is to fay, this doption and Inheritance of everlafting Life ? By none at all. The Holy Shoft is fent two Manner of Ways. In the primitive Church bể was fent in a manifeft and vifible Appearance. So he cam upon Chrid at Jordan in the Likenefi of a Dover, Matthe iii, 16, an in the Likenefi of Fire upon the Apolles and other Bellevers, Afri ii 3. And this was the firth fending of the Holy Gholf, which was need flabilited by many Miracles, becaule of the Unbellevers, as Paul with neelisth, t Corr Sive 3.2. But alter that the Church was gathered together and confirmed with thuble Miracles, i was not neeeflary that this vifable fending of the Holy Gholf thould con time any longer.

Secondly, The Holy Gholt is fant by the Word into the Hearts of the Believers, as here it is faid, God feat the Spirit sf his Son, &cc. This fending is without any vibble Appearance, to wit, when by the hearing of the external Word, we receive an inward Fervency and Light, where by we are changed and become new Greatures ; where's bill ow ereceive a new Judgment, a new Feeling, and a new Moving. This Change and this new Judgment is no Work of Reafon, or of the Power of Man, but is the Git and Operation of the Holy Gholf, which cometh with the Word preached, which purifieth our Hearts by Faith, and bringelt forth in us fipritual Motions. Whetefore let this trooble us nothing at all, that the World (whofe Works we tellify to be evil) judgeth us to be moß pernicious Here icks and follitous Perfons, Deliroy ters of Religion, and Troubless of the Common-peace molt

Felfed of the Devil, forsking in and governing all our Aflions. Againft this perverie and wicked Judgment of the World, let this Teffinony of our Confeience be fufficient, whereby we affurely know that it is the Gift of God, that we do not only believe in Jefus Chrift, but that we silo openly preach and confels him believe the World. As we believe

h our Heart, fo do we fpeak with our Mouth, according to that Sayof P(al. cxvi. 10. I believed, therefore have I /p.ken.

Moreover we exercile ourfelves in the Fear of God, and avoid Sin as the as we may : If we fin, we fin not of Purpole, but of Ignorance, we are fory for it: We may fip, for the Devil lieth in wait for us h Day and Night. Also the Remnants of Sin cleave yet faft in our why therefore as touching the Flefh we are Sinners, yea after that we be received the Holv Gholt. And there is no stret Dif-

since betwigt a Chriftian and a civil honeft Man: For Works of a Chriftian in outward Shew, are but bafe i finple. He doth his Duty according to his Vocatide guideth his Family, he tilleth the Ground, he tigth Congle, he aideth and faccoureth his Neighboursefe Works the carnal Man doth not much efferm, but tyketh them to be common to all Men, and fuch as the worker may alfo do. For the World underflandeth not Things which are of the Spirit of God, and therefore talgeth perverity of the Works of the Godly. But the taffer and the start of Hypocrites and their Willworks of have in great Administon: They count them holy Firks, and figare no Charges in maintaining the fame. Contrarivile, Works of the Painhful, which altho' in outward Appearance they in to be hat vile and nothing worth, yet are they good Works indeed, accepted of God, (hercaule they are done in Painh, with a cheerful ert, and with Obedence and Thankfulned toward God) thefe Works, by they do not only not acknowledge to be good Works, but alfa by defpite and condenn them as moft wicked and abominable. The wirld therefore believenth nothing left then that we have the Holy Off. Notwithlanding in the Time of Tribulation or of the Confer of the Confermion of our Faith (which is the proper and principal rek of thate that believe) when we muft either fortake Wile, Chilby, Goods and Life, or elfe deng Chrift, then it appearet that we we confeffion of our Faith, that we confeis Chrift and his Word, by "Power of the Holy Ghoft.

"We ought not therefore to doubt whether the Holy Ghoft dwelleth is or not ; but to be affurediy perforded that we are the Temple of the Holy Ghoft, as Paul faith, 1 Cor. iii. 16. For if any up feel in hunder a Love towards the Word of God, Signs of the willingly heareth, talketh, writeth and thinketh of Prefence of diff, let that Man know that this is not the Work of the Holy up's Will or Reafon, but the Gift of the Holy Gholl: Gholt. It is imposible that thef: Things flowable dome with-

on the Holy Gloft. Contraining, where Harted and Contempt of the Mrd is, there the Devil the God of this World reigneth, blinding ins Hearts, and holding them Captive, that the Light of the glorious tel of Chrift thould not thine unto them, 2 Ger. iv. 4. Which ing we fee at this Day in the molt Part of the common Peope which a no Love to the Worl, but conternn it as the it pertuined nathing at all unto them. But whofoever do feel any Love or Defire to th Word, let them acknowledge with Thankfulnefs, that this' Affection i poured into them by the Holy Ghoft. For we bring not this Affection and Defire with us, neither can we be taught by any Laws how we ma obtain it ; but this Change is plainly and fimply the Work of the Right hand of the most highest. Therefore when we willingly and glad! hear the Word preached concerning Chrift the Son of God, who for u was made Man, and became fubject to the Law, to deliver us from the Malediction of the Law, Hell, Death and Damnation ; then let us a fure ourfelves that God by and with this Preaching fendeth the Hol Ghoft into our Hearts. Wherefore it is very expedient for the God to know, that they have the Holy Ghoft.

This I fay, to confute that pernicious Doctrine of the Papifls, which taught that no Man can certainly know (altho' his Life be never fo up right and blamelefs) whether he be in the Favour of God or no. Ar this Sentence commonly received, was a fpecial Principle and Article i Faith in the whole Papacy, whereby they utterly defaced the Doftrine Faith, tormented Mens Confciences, banifhed Chrift quite out of th Church, darkned and denied all the Benefits of the Holy Ghoft, abo lifhed the whole Worfhip of God, fet up Idolatry, Contempt of Go and Blasphemy against God in Mens Hearts.

Angustine faith very well and godly, that every Man feeth most ce.

tainly his own Faith, if he have Faith. This do they d The Papifts ny. God forbid (fay they) that I fhould affure myfe damnable that I am under Grace, that I am holy, and that I have Divinity. the Holy Ghoft, yea altho' I live godly and do all good Works. Ye which are young, and are not infected with this pernicious Opinion (whereupon the whole Kingdom of the Pope grounded) take heed and fly from it, as from a most horrible Plage We that are old Men have been trained up in this Error even from and Youth, and have been to nuffed therein, that it hath taken deep Ret in our Hearts. Therefore it is to us no lefs Labour to unlearn and fe get the fame, then to learn and lay hold upon true Faith. But a must be affured and out of Doubt that we are under Grace, that v pleafe God for Chrift's Sake, and that we have the Holy Ghoft ; For eny Man have not the Spirit of Chrift, he is none of his, Rom. viii: 9. "Wherefore, whether thou be a Minifter of God's Word, or a Mar .

How thou may it affure thyfelf that not only thy Office, but : ilfo thy Perfon pleafeth God.

ftrate in the Common-wealth, thou must affuredly thin that thy Office pleafeth God; but this canft thou neve do, unless thou have the Holy Ghoft. But thou wilt far the I doubt not but that my Office pleafeth God, becaufe is God's Ordinance ; but I doubt of mine own Perl at whether it pleafe God or no. Here thou must refort the the Word of God, which teacheth and afforeth us, that not only the Office of the Perfon, but alfo the Perfon felf pleafeth God. For the Perfon is baptized, believe in Chrift, is purged in his Blood from all his Sins, live in the Communion and Fellowship of his Church. Moreover, he do ot only love the pure Doctrine of the Word, but also he is plad and areatly rejoiceth when he feeth it advanced, and the Number of the aithful increafed. Contrariwife, he detefteth the Pope and all Sectaes with their wicked Doctrine, according to that Saying of Plal. cxix. 12. I hate vain Thoughts ; but thy Law do I love.

We ought therefore to be furely perfwaded, that not only our Office, at alfo our Perfon pleafeth God: Yea, whatfeever it faith, doth, or hinketh particularly, the fame pleafeth God, not for our own Sakes, ut for Chrift's Sake, who was made under the Law for us. Now, we re fure that Chrift pleafeth God, that he is holy, &c. For as much pen as Chrift pleafeth God, and we are in him, we also pleafe God and re holy. And altho' Sin do ftill remain in our Flefh, and we also daily Il and offend, yet Grace is more abundant and ftronger then Sin: The lercy and Truth of the Lord reigneth over us for ever. Wherefore in cannot terrify us and make us doubtful of the Grace of God which in us. For Chrift that most mighty Giant hath quite abolished the aw, condemned Sin, vanquished Death and all Evils : So long as he at the Right-hand of God, making Interceffion for us, we cannot pubt of the Grace and Favour of God towards us.

Moreover, God hath alfo fent the Spirit of his Son into our Hearts. Paul here faith. But Chrift is molt certain in his Spirit, that he leafeth God, dc. therefore we also having the fame Spirit of Chrift; suft be affured that we are under Grace for his Sake which is most afwred. This I have faid concerning the inward Teffimony, whereby a whriftian Man's Heart ought to be fully perfwaded that he under Grace, and hath the Holy Ghoft. Now, the Outward utward Signs (as before I have faid) are gladly to hear Tokens that F Chrift, to preach and teach Chrift, to render Thanks we are in the nto him, to praife him, to confess him, yea, with the Favour of ofs of Goods and Life. Moreover, to do our Duty ac- God. ording to our Vocation as we are able, to do it (I fay)

Faith, Joy, Gc. Not to delight in Sin, nor to thruft ourfelves into mother Man's Vocation, but to attend upon our own, to help our needy mother, to comfort the heavy-hearted, de. By these Signs as by cerin Effects and Confequents, we are fully affured and confirmed, that e are in God's Favour. The Wicked alfo do imagine that they have me fame Signs, but they have nothing lefs. Hereby we may plainly the that the Pope with his Doctrine, doth nothing elfe, but trouble and mirment Mens Confciences, and at length driveth them to Defperation : par he not only teacheth, but also commandeth Men to doubt. Thereore as Plal. v. o. faith, There is no FaithFulnels in their Mouth. And another Place ; Under bis Tongue is Milchief and Vanity, Pfal. x. 7. Here we may fee what great Infirmity is yet in the Faith of the God-

. For if we could be fully perfwaded that we are under Grace, that anar Sins are forgiven, that we have the Spirit of Chrift, that we are the inhildren of God; then doubtlefs we fhould be joyful, and thankful to biod for this ineftimable Gift. But becaufe we feel contrary Motions, i mat is to fay, Fear, Doubtfulnels, Anguith and Heavinels of Heart, and ET A fuch like; therefore we cannot affine ourfelves hereof: Yea our Confeience judgeth it a great Prefumption and Pride to challenge this Glory. Wherelore, if we will underfind this Thing rightly and as we thould do, we mult put it in Practice; for without Experience and Practice it can never be learned.

Wherefore, let every Man fo prafile with himfelf, that his Conficanc may be fully affurd that he is under Grace, and that his Perfon and his Works do pleafe God. And if he feel in himfelf any surviring of doubting, let him exercise his Paith, and wreftle againft this doubting, and let him labour to attain more Streeght and Affurance of Paith, for that he may be able to fay: I know that I am accepted, and that I have the Holy Ghoff; not for mine own Worthinels, my Work, my Merit, but for Chrift's Sake, who of his ineftimable Love towards us, made himfelf That and Subject to the Law, and took away the Sins of the World; i in him do I believe; if I be a Sinner and er, he is righteous and cannot er. Moreover, I gladly hear, read, fing and write of him; and I define nothing more then that this Golpel may be known to: the whole World, and that many may be converted unto him.

Thefe Things do plainly winnfs that the Holy Ghoft is prefert with ye and in us. For fuch Things are not wought in the Heart by Man's Strength, nor gotten by Man's Induitry or Travail, but are obtained by Chrift slone, who firft maketh us righteous by the Knowledge of himfelf in his holy Gofpel, and afterwards be created a new Heart in us, bringeth forth new Morions, and giverh unto us that Alfurance whereby we are perfused that we plevel the Father for his Sake. Alf ohe giveth us a true Jadgment whereby we prove and try thole Things which before we knew not, or clie altogether defpield. It behove the ust transform and attain to a full Perfusion and Certainty of God's Favour toward us, rooting out of our Hearts this curled Opinion, that a Man ought to doubt of the Grace and Favour of God, which hath infected the whole World.

Verfe 6. Crying, Abba, Father.

Paul might have faid; God fent the Spirit of hit Son into are Hearts, calling, Abba, Father. He faith not fo, but crying, Abba, Father, that he might thew and lef forth the Temptation of a Chriftian, which yet is but weak, and weakly believeth. In Rom. wit, 26. he calleth this crying, an unforcabable growning. Likewith the fully the Spirit alfo but the spirit infelf makets Intercoffice for us which unfpeakable Growning, & &c.

And this is a fingular Confolation when he faith, that the Spirit of Chrift is fent into our Hearts, crying, Abda, Father : And again, that he helpsh our Infimities, making Intercefilon for us with unfpekable Groanings. He that could affaredly believe this, finuld never be over-me with any Afficiton, were it never fo great. But sere are many Things that hinder this Faith in us. First, The Hinar Heart is born in Sin. Moreover, this Evil is natuderances of ly grafed in us, that we doubt of the Good will of . Faith. ad towards us, and cannot affice ourfelves that we pleake nod, erc. Belides all this, the Devil our Adverfary rangeth about with wrible Roarings, 1 Pet. v. 8. and faith ; Thou art a Sinner ; therere God is anery with thee, and will deftroy thee for ever. Againft efe horrible and intollerable Roarings, we have nothing whereupon to old and ftay ourfelves, but only the Word, which fetteth Chrift before as a Conqueror over Sin and Death, and over all Evils. But to cleave it to the Word in this Tentation and these Terrors of Confcience, rein flandeth all the Difficulty : For then Chrift appeareth to no. mfe : We fee him not, the Heart feeleth not his Prefence or Succour Temptation ; but rather it feemeth that he is angry with us, and that forfaketh us. Moreover, when a Man is tempted and afflicted, he eleth the Strength of Sin and the Infirmity of the Flefh, he doubteth, feeleth the fiery Darts of the Devil, the Terrors of Death, the Anor and Judgment of God. All thefe Things cry out horribly again ft B, fo that we fee nothing elfe but Desperation and eternal Death. But et in the Midft of thefe Terrors of the Law, Thundrings of Sin, Affaults Death, and Roarings of the Devil, the Holy Ghoff (faith Paul) crih in our Hearts, Abba, Father. And this Cry furmounteth those ighty and horrible Cries of the Law, Sin, Death, the Devil, Cc. it serceth the Clouds and the Heavens, and alcendeth up into the Ears

Paul fignifiedt therefore by the Words, that there is yet Infirmir in the Godly: As he doth allo in Rem. viii. 25. when he faith; he Spirit beleft our Infirmiter. Forafmuch therefore as the Sendle ad Feeling of the contrary is itrong in us; that is to fay, forafmuch we feel more the Diplezitire of God, then his God-

ill and Favour towards us; therefore the Holy Ghoff is Why the nt into our Hearts, which doth not only figh and make. Holy Ghoff equelf for us, but mightily crieth, Abba, Father, and is fent into rayeth for us according to the Will of God with Tears our Hearts, at unfpeakable Groanings. And how is this done 3.

When we are in Terrors and in the Conflict of Conficience, we take pid of Chrift and believe that he is our Saviour, but them do the Law and Sin territy and torment as moft of all. Moreover, the Devil aflieth us with all his Engines and fary Daret, and gath about with this Power to take away Chrift and all Confolations from us. Here e feel ourfelves almosting gone, and at the Point of Delperation, s for them e we that builded Reed and finaking Plast which filed fipekelt of, hap. Klii 3. firmity of the Flefh, it conceiveth Comfort again, and faith: Abba, Father. This groaning which then we feantly feel, Paul calleth a crying and unipeateble groaning, which filleth both Heaven and Barth. Moreover he calleth it the crying and groaning of the Spirit, becaule the Holy Ghoft firreth up the fame in our Hearts when we are weak and opperfield with Tentation and Terror.

"Altho' then the Law, Sin and the Devil cry out againft us never for much with great and terrible Roarings, which feem to fill Heaven and

The Profit of Temptations. Earth, and far to exceed this groaning of our Heart, yet can they not hurt us. For the more fiercely they affail us, accule and torment us with their Cryings, 16 much the more do we groan, and in groaning lay hold upon Chrift, call upon him with Heart and Mouth. cleave unto bim, and believe that he was made under the Law, that he might deliver us from the Curfe of the Law, and deftroy both Sin and Death,  $C_{el}$  ive, 4, 5. And thus when we have taken hold upon Chrift by Faith, we cry thro' him, dtba, Faiter. And this our Cry doth far furmount the Roaring of the Law, Sin, the Devil,  $c_{e.}$

But fo far off is it, that we think this groaning which we make in thefe Terrors and this our Weakness, to be a Cry, that scarcely we perceive it to be a groaning. For our Faith which in Tentation thus groaneth unto Chrift is very weak, if we confider our own Senfe and Feeling. and therefore we hear not this Cry. We have but only the Word, which when we apprehend in this Conflict, we have a little breathing. and then we groan. Of this groaning fome little Feeling we have, but the Cry we hear not. But he (faith Paul) that fearcheth the Hearts, knoweth what is the Mind of the Spirit, &c. Rom. vili. 27. To this Searcher of the Hearts, this fmall and feeble groaning (as it feemeth unto us) is a loud and mighty Cry, and an unspeakable groaning; in Comparison whereof the great and horrible Roarings of the Law, of Sin, of Death, of the Devil, and of Hell, are nothing, neither can they be once heard, Paul therefore, not without Caufe, calleth this groaning of a godly afflicted Heart, a Cry and a groaning of the Spirit which cannot be expressed. For it filleth Heaven, fo that the Angels think they hear nothing elfe but this Cry.

How we are affected in the Terrors of Confcience. But in us there is a clean contrary Feeling. For it feemeth anto us that this our finall groaning doth not fa pierce the Clouds, that there is nothing clie heard in Heaven of God and his Angels. Nay, we think, and effeccially during the Time of Tentation, that the Devil horribly roareth againfl us, that the Heavens thunder and the Earth trembleth, that all will fall upon us, that all Creatures threaten our Defluction, that Hell is open and ready to fwallow us up. This Reeling is in our Heart, thefe horrible Voices and this fearful Shew we hear and we fee. And this is it that Pael faith in 2 Gar. sai,  $o_{2}$ That the Strength of Garli is made perfeit theo any Weakani. For then is Chritt Almighty indeed, then don he truly reign and triumph in ut, when we are for weak that we can factory group. But Paul faith that this groaning is in the Ears of God, a most mighty Gry, which filleth both Heaven and Earth.

Chrift alfo in Lake xviii. 6, 7, 8. in the Parable of the wicked Judge, calleth this groaning of a faithful Heart, a Cry, yea and fuch a Cry as ceafeth not Day and Night to cry unto God, where he faith : Hear what the unjust Judge faith. And shall not God avenge his own Elect, which cry Day and Night unto him, the' he bear long with them ? I tell you, that he will avenge them freedily. We at this Day in fo great Perfecution and Contradiction of the Pope, of Tyrants and Sectaries which fight against us both on the Right-hand and on the Left, can do nothing elfe but utter fuch Groanings. And these were our Guns and Attillery wherewith we have fo many Years feattered the Counfels and Enter- wherewith prifes of our Adverfaries; whereby alfo we have begun to overthrow the Kingdom of Antichrift. They alfo thall provoke Chrift to haften the Day of his glorious Coming, wherein he fhall abolifh all Rule, Authority and Power, and shall put all his Enemies under his Feet. So be it.

The Weapons of the Godly they overthrow the Kingdom of the Pope. 976.

In Exod. xiv. 15. the Lord speaketh unto Moles at the Red-fea, faying ; Wherefore crieft thou unto me ? Yet Moles cried not, but trembled and almost despaired, for he was in great Trouble. It feemed that Infidelity reigned in him, and not Faith. For he faw the People of I/rael fo compalled and inclosed with the Egyptians Hoft and with the Sea, that there was no Way whereby they might elcape. Here Moles durft not open his Mouth. How then did he cry ? We muft not ludge therefore according to the Feeling of our own Heart, but according to the Word of God, which teacheth us that the The Office Holy Gholt is given to those that are afflicted, terrified, of the Holy and ready to defpair, to raife them up and to comfort Ghoft. them, that they'be not overcome in their Tentations and Afflictions, but may overcome them, and yet not without great Terrors and Troubles.

The Papills dreamed that holy Men had the Holy Ghoft in fuch Sort that they never had nor felt any Tentation. They fpake of the Holy Ghoft only by Speculation and naked Knowledge. But Paul faith, That the Strength of Christ is made perfect thro' our Weakness : Allo, That the Spirit helpeth our Infirmities, and maketh Interceffion for us with, unspeakable Groanings. Therefore we have then most need of the Help and Comfort of the Holy Ghoft, yes and then In whom the is he molt ready to help us, when we are molt weak Holy Ghoft and nearest to Desperation. The Fenta- faw prefent Death in the Waters, and on every Side whitherfoever he turned his Face. He was therefore in extreme Anguifh and Desperation, and (no doubt) he felt in his Heart a mighty Cry of the Devil against him, faving : All this People shall this Day perilh, for they can efcape no Way, and of this great Calamity thou only fhalt be found to be the Author, because thou halt led them out of Egypt. Belides all this, the People cried out against him, faying; Were there no Graves in Egypt ? Thou hall brought us out that we (bould die bere in the Wildernels. Had it not been better for us to have ferved the Egyptians, then here wretchedly to die in the Wilderne's ? Exod. xiv. 11. 12. The Holy Ghoft was not here in Moles by bare Speculation and Knowledge only. but truly and effectually, who made Intercellion for him with an unfpeakable groaning, fo that he fighed unto the Lord, and faid ; O Lord, at thy Commandment have I led forth this People ; help us therefore. This groaning and fighing unto God, the Scripture calleth a crying

This Matter I have the more largely profocuted, that I might plainly fhew what the Office of the Holy Ghoft is, and when he fuecially exercifeth the fame. In Temptation therefore we mult in no ways judge thereof according to our own Senfe and Feeling, or by the crying of the Law, Sin and the Devil. erc. If we here follow our own Senfe and believe those Cryings, we shall think ourfelves to be destitute of all Help and Succour of the Holy Ghoft, and utterly caft away from the Prefence of God. Nay rather let us then remeraber what Paul faith. The Spirit helpeth our Infirmities, &c. Alfo, it cristh, Abba, Father, that is to fay, it uttereth a certain feeble fighing and groaning of the Heart (as it feemeth unto us) which notwithftanding before God is a loud Cry and an un-fpeakable groaning. Wherefore in the midft of thy Temp-The Groan- tation and Infirmity, cleave only unto Chrift and groan ings of the unto him; he giveth the Holy Ghoft, which crieth, Abba, Faithful be-Father : And this feeble Groaning is a mighty Cry in the Ears of God, and fo filleth Heaven and Earth, that God fore God. heareth nothing elfe : And moreover, it ftoppeth the Cries are great Cries. of all other Things whatfoever.

Thou must mark alfe that Paul faith, that the Spirit maketh Interceffion for us in our Temptation ; not with many Words or long Prayer, but only with a groaning, which not with ftanding cannot be expressed; and that he crieth not aloud with Tears, faying; Have Mercy upon me, O God, &c. Pfal. li. 1. but only uttereth a little Sound and a feeble groaning, as, Ab Father : This is but a little Word, and yet notwithftanding it comprehendeth all Things. The Mouth speaketh not, but the Affection of the Heart speaketh after this Mannor : Altho' I be opprefied with Anguifh and Terror on every Side, and feem to be forfaken and utterly calt away from thy Prefence, yet am I thy Child, and thou art my Father for Chrift's Sake ; I am beloved becaufe of the Beloved. Wherefore this little Word, Father, conceived effectually in the Heart, paffeth all the Eloquence of Demosthenes, Cicore, and of the most eloquent Rhetoricians that ever were in the World. This

This Matter is not expressed with Words, but with Groanings, which Broanings cannot be uttered with any Words or Elequence, for no Tongue can express them.

I have used many Words to declare that a Chriftian must affure himfelf that he is in the Favour of God, and that he hath the crying of the Holy Ghoft in his Heart. This have I done that we may learn to releft and utterly to abandon that devilish Opinion of the whole Kingdom of the Pope, which taught that a Man ought to be uncertain and to fland n Doubt of the Grace and Favour of God towards him. If this Opinion be received, then Chrift profiteth nothing. For he hat doubteth of God's Fayour towards him, must needs loust alfo of the Promifes of God, and fo confequently of the Will of God, and of the Benefats of Chrift : namely, that he was born, fuffered, died, and role again for us, But there can be no greater Blafohemy againft God. da to deny his Promifes, to deny God himfelf, to deny Wherefore it was not only an extreme Madcis but an horrible Impiety that the Monks did fo earleifly entice the Youth both Men and Women to their Monafteries, and to their holy Orders (as they called hem) as to a molt certain State of Salvation : and vet when they had thus done, they bad them doubt of the Frace and Favour of God towards them.

He fpeaketh not here of that doubting which fometime rifeth of Infirmity in the Godly a but of wilful doubting which the Papifis teach and maintain.

Moreover, the Pope called all the World to the Obeience of the holy Church of Rome, as to an holy State, in the which hey might undoubtedly attain Salvation ; and yet after he had brought nem under the Obedience of his Laws, he commanded them to doubt f their Salvation. So the Kingdom of Antichrift braggeth and vauntth at the first, of the Holine's of his Orders, his Rules and his Laws, nd affuredly promifeth everlafting Life to fuch as observe and keep nem. But afterwards when these miferable Men have long afflicted their odies with watching, fafting and fuch like Exercifes, according to the raditions and Ordinances of Men, this is all that they gain thereby, that they are uncertain whether this Obedience pleafe God or no. Thus itan molt horribly dallied in the Death and Deftruction of Souls thro' The Pope, and therefore is the Papacy a Slaughter-house of Confciences, ad the very Kingdom of the Devil.

Now, to establish and confirm this permicious and curfed Error, they heledged the Saying of Solomon, Ecclef. ix. 1. The just and the wife Men is in the Hands of God ; and yet no Man knoweth whether he be worthy Love or of Hatred. Some understand this of that Hatred which is to some, and fome again of that which is prefent ; but neither of them derftand Solomon, who in that Place meaneth nothing is then that which they dream. Moreover, the whole impture teacheth us, efpecially and above all Things, with we should not doubt, but affure ourfelves and un- Scripture, in doubtedly doubtedly believe that God is merciful, loving and patient; that he is meither Diffembler nor Deceiver ; but that he is faithful and true, and keepeth his Promife ; yea and hath performed that he promifed, in delivering his only begotten Son to Death for our Sins, that every one that believeth in him might not perifh; but have everlafting Life. John jii, 16. Here we cannot doubt but that God is pleased with us, that he loveth us indeed, that the Hatred and Wrath of God is taken away, feeing he fuffered his Son to die for us wretched Sinners. Altho' this Matter be fet out and often repeated throughout the whole Goldel, yet it profited nothing at all. This one Saving of Solomon perverfly underfided, did more prevail (efpecially among the Votaries and Hypocrites of the Itraiter Religion) then all the Promifes and Confolations of the whole Scripture, yea then Chrift himfelf. They abufed the Scriptures therefore to their own Deffruction, and were most justly punifhed for defpiling the Scriptures and rejecting the Golpel.

It is expedient for us to know these Things : First. Because the Papills vannt of their Holinels, as if they had never committed any Evil. Therefore they must be convinced by their own Abominations, wherewith they have filled the whole World, as their own Books do witnefs. whereof there is yet an infinite Number. Secondly, That we thay be fully certified that we have the pure Doctrine of the Gofpel ; of which Certainty the Pope cannot glory : In whole Kingdom the' all Things elfe were found and uncorrupt, yet this monffrous Doctrine of doubting of God's Grace and Favour, paffeth all other Monfters. And altho' it be manifeft, that the Enemies of Chrift's Golpel teach uncertain Things. because they command that Mens Conficiences should remain in Doubt vet notwithfanding they condemn and kill us as Hereticks, becaufe we diffent from them, and teach those Things which are certain. And this they do with fuch devilifh Rage and Cruelty, as if they were most af-

How we may know that we ste in God's Favour and have the Holy Ghoft. fured of their Doctrine.

Let us therefore give Thanks unto God, that we ard delivered from this monftrons Doctrine of doubting, and can now affure ourfelves that the Holy Ghoft crieth and bringeth forth in our Hearts unspeakable Groanings. And this is our Anker-hold and our Foundation. This Gofpel commandeth us to behold, not our own good Works, our own Perfection ; but God the Promiler, and Chrift the Mediator. Contrariwife, the Pope commandeth us to look, not unto God the Promifer, nor anto Chrift our high Bifhop, but unto our Works and Merits. Here, on the one Side. Doubting and Deficiration mult needs follow; but on the other Side; Affurance of God's Favour and Joy of the Spirit. For we cleave unto God who cannot lie. For he faith; Behold, I deliver my Son to Death, that thro' his Blood, he may redeem thee from thy Sins and from eternal Death.

The Doctrine which we profels is certain.

In this Cafe I cannot doubt, unless I will utterly deny God. And this is the Reafon that our Doctrine is molt fure and certain, because it carrieth us out of ourfelves, that we should not lean to our own Strength, our own Canfeiende. Donficience, our own Peeling, our own Perton, and our own Works ; int to that which is without as, that is to fay, the Promife and Truth of God which cannot decive us. This the Pope knoweth not, said herefore he wickedly imagineth that no Man knoweth, he he never fo silt or fo wife, whether he be worthy of Love or of Harted. But if fhe le juft and wife, he knoweth affordly that he is beloved of God, or life he is nother luft nor wife.

Moreover, this Sentence of Solomar (peaketh nothing it all of the Mared or Favour of God (baward Men, but it is a moral Sentence reproving the Ingratitude of Men, for fuch is the Perverine's and Ingratitude of the World, wat the batter a Man defervent, the left Fanks he final nave; and offentimes he that floodid be his moil Friend, will be his moil Enemy : Contraining, fuch as left de-

To conclude, the Hiftories of all Nations witness, that nany Men well deferving of their Country, were caft into Banifhment w their own Citizens, and there lived in great Mifery, and fome alio hamefully perifhed in Prifon : Wherefore Solomon in this Place fpeak th not of the Confcience having to do with God, nor of the Favour r Judgment, the Love or Hatred of God ; but of the Judgment and Affecion of Men among themfelves. As tho' he would fay ; There are many off and wife Men, by whom God worketh much good, and giveth Peace nd Ouietness unto Men. But fo far off are they from acknowledging the fame, that oftentimes they requite them again most unkindly and ncourteoully for their well Doings and Defervings. Therefore altho Man do all Things well and never fo well, yet he knoweth not whether ty this his Diligence and Faithfulnefs he deferve the Hatred or Favour f Men.

So we at this Day, when we thought we fhould have found Favour mong our own Country-men, for that we preach unto them the Gosel of Peace, Life and teaml Salvation, inflead of Favour we have mund bitter and cruel Hatred. Indeed at the first many were greatly eligibted with our Doftme, and received it gially. We thought they would have been our Friends and Brethren, and that with one Confent ogether with us, they would have planed this Doftme to others, but now we find that they are faile Brethren and our deally Enemies, which fow and fpread abroad faile Dottine, and that which we teach well tad godly, they wickedly perver and overthow, diring

CHAP. IV

The Page therefore with this devilift Doftrine, whereby he command, ed Men to doubt of the Favour of God towards them, took away Go and all his Promites out of the Church, buried all the Benefits of Chrift and abclifhed the whole Golpel. Thele Inconveniencies do neceliaril follow, for Men do not lean to the Promites of God, bur to their own Works and Mergis. Therefore they cannot be affured of the Goodwi of God towards them, but mult needs doubt thereof, and to at lengt defpair, -No Man can underfland what God's Will is, and what ples feth him, bot in his Word, This Word affurch us that God hat cail wary all the Anger and Difpleafure which he had conceived againft as when he gave his only begotten Son for our Sins, &c. Wherefore le We interly abandon this devilla doubting, wherewith the whole Papacy was policined, and let us be fully affured that God is in merciful unto us that we pletel him, that he light a Care our us, that we have the Ho Jy God, which maketh Interdellon for as with fuch erying and gromting as cannot be experied.

Now, this is the true crying and groaning indeed, when a Man in Tentation calleth upon God; not as a Tyrant, not as an angry Judge, not as a Tormentor ; but as a Father : Altho' this groaning be fo fof and to fecret, that it can fcantly be perceived. For in ferious Tentations, and in the Time of Trial where the Confcience wreftleth with the Judgment of God, it is wont to call God not a Father, but an unjuft, an angry, a cruel Tyrant and Judge. And this crying which Satan Girreth up in the Heart, far paffeth the Cry of the Spirit, and is ftrongly felt, For then it feemeth that God hath forfaken us, and will throw us down into Hell, So the Faithful complain oftentimes in the Plalms, 1 and cut off from before thine Eyes, Pfal. xxxi. 22. Allo, I am like a broken Veffel, &c. This is not indeed the groaning that crieth, Abba, Fathers but the roaring of God's Wrath, which crieth flrongly, O cruel Judge, O crael Tormentor, Cc. Here it is now Time that thou turn away thine Eyes from the Law, from Works, and from the Senfe and Feel ing of thine own Confcience, and lay hold by Faith on the Promile, that is to fay, on the Word of Grace and Life, which raifeth up the Confer ence again, fo that now it beginneth to groan, and fay ; Altho' the Law accufe me. Sin and Death terrify me never fo much, yet O my God thou promifeft Grace, Righteoulnels and everlatting Life thro' Jelus Chrift : And fo the Promife bringeth a fighing and groaning, which cri eth, Abba, Father.

Veric 7. Wherefore thou art no more a Servant, but Son ;

This is the flutting up and the Conclution of that which he faid before. As if he should far: This being rate that we have exceeded the Spirit by the Golpel, whereby we cry, Absa, Father: Then is this De tree pronounced in Heaven, that there is now no Boadage, and more ildly Heatt do affent unto this Name, Father. Here then the Father d the Son meet, and the Marriage is made up without all Pomp and lemnity, that is to fay, nothing at all cometh between, no Law nor ork is here required. For what should a Man do in the le Terrors and arrible Darkness of Tentations ? Here is nothing else but the Father omifing, and calling me his Son by Chrift, who was made under the w. crc. And I receiving and antiwering by this progning, faving, Faar. Here then is no exacting, nothing is required, but only that fildly groaning that apprehendeth a fare Hope and Truft in Tribulain, and faith ; Thou promifeft, and calleft me thy Child for Chriff's ke, and I again receive they Promife, and call thee Father. . This is fleed to be made Children fimply and without any Works. But thefe bings without Experience and Practice cannot be underflood.

Paul in this Place taketh this Word Servant, otherwise then he did fore in the third Chapter, where he faith ; There is neither band nor re. &c. Here he calleth him a Servant of the Law which is fobject to e Law, as he did a little before, We are in Bondage un-or the Eléments of the World. Wherefore to be a Servant What Paul cording to Paul in this Place, is to be guilty and cap- calleth a Serwe under the Law, under the Wtath of God and Death ; want itt this behold God, not as a merciful Father, but as a Tur- Place. entor, an Enemy, and a Tyrant. This is indeed to kept in Bondage and babylonical Captivity, and to be croelly torented therein. For the Law delivereth not from Sin and Death, but vealeth and increaseth Sin, and ingendreth Wrath, Rom. iii. 20. . 15. This Bondage (faith Paul) continueth no longer, it oppreffeils not, not maketh us heavy any more, erc. Paul faith ; Thou alt be no more a Sermant. Bix the Sentence is more general if we fay: where shall be no Bondage in Christ any more, but more Freedom and doption. For when Faith cometh, that Bondage ceafeth, as he faid fore in the third Chapter.

Now, if we by the Spirit of Chrift crying in our Hearts, Abba, Fater, be no more Servants, but Children, then it followeth that we are t only delivered from the Pope and all the Abominations of Mens raditions, but allo from all the furildiction and Power of the Law God. . Wherefore we ought in no wife to fuffer the Law to reign in ir Confeience, and much lefs the Pope with his vain Threathings and verrors. Indeed he roateth mightily as a Lion, Apor. to. and threatth to all those that obey not his Laws, the Wrath and Indignation of mighty God, and of his bleffed Apofiles, erc. But here Paul armeth d comforteth us against these Roarings, when he faith : Thou art no we a Servient, but a Sen. Take hold of this Confolation by Faith,

The Law hath no Power over the Confcience, but over the Flefh,

Let not Mofe therefore with hint Laws, (much lefs the Pope) afcend up into the Bridgechamber, there to 1v, that is to fav. to reion in the Con-

Gence, which Chrift hath delivered from the Law, to the End that is fhould not be fubject to any Bondage. Lef the Servants abide with the Als in the Valley 1 Let none but Jaca Stend up into the Mountain with bis Father Alraham, Gen. xxii, 5. That is, let the Law have Dominion over the Body, and over the old Man, let him be under the Law, and fuffer the Burden to be laid upon him, let him fuffer himself to be scarcified and vesced with the Law = let the Law lumit and preferibe unato him what the ought to do, what he ought to fuffer, and how he oughts to live and to govern himfelf among Men. But let in to desile the Bedein which Chrift Hould reft and lieep alone, that is to fay, let it not trouble the Conficience. For the alone ought to live with Chrift her Spotle in the Kingdom of Liberty and Adoption.

If then (faith he) by the Spirit of Chrift, ye cry, Abba, Father, then a are ye indeed no longer Servants, but free Men and Sons. Therefore ye are without the Law, without Sin, without Death, that is to fay, ye are faved, and we are now quite delivered from all Evils. Wherefore in the Adoption bringeth with it the eternal Kingdom, and all the heaven in ly Inheritance. Now, how ineffimable the Glory of this Gift is, Man's Heart is not able to conceive, and much lefs to utter. In the mean Time we fee this but darkly, and as it were afar off, 1 Cor. xiii. 12. We have this little groaning and feeble Faith which only refteth upon the hearing and the Sound of the Voice of Chrift in giving the Promife, by Therefore we muft not measure this Thing by Reafon or by our own Feeling, but by the Promife of God. Now becaufe he is infinite, therefore his Promife is also infinite, altho' it feem to be never fo much inst clofed in these narrow Straits, these Anguishes I mean ; wherefore there is nothing that can now accufe, terrify, or bind the Confcience any more. For there is no more Servitude but Adoption, which not only bringeth unto us Liberty from the Law, Sin and Death, but also the Inheritancen of everlasting Life. 23 followeth.

Like as therefore a Son in the polinck grid houthold Gorument is made an Heir by his only Birth; fo here Pálth only maken us Sons of God, born of the Word, which is the Wordb of od, wherein we are conceived, carried, born and nourified up, ôre, this Birth then we are made new Creatures, formed by Faith in the 'ord', we are made Chritikans, Children and Hairs of God thro' Jefus unit. Now, being Heirs we are delivered from Death, Sin and the 'vil, and we have Ruptecounces and enertial Life.

But this far paffeth all Man's Capacity, that he calleth us Heirs ; not fome rich and mighty Prince, not of the Emperor, not of the Wolld's t of God the Almighty Creator of all Things. This our Inheritance en (as Paul faith in another Place) is ineftimable. And if a Man uld comprehend the great Excellency of this Matter, that he is the in and Heir of God, and with a conftant Faith believe the fame, this an would effeem all the Power and Riches of all the Kingdoms of the 'orld, but as filthy Dung in Comparison of his eternal Inheritance. e would abhor whatfoever is high and glorious in the World ; yea: e greater the Pomp and Glory of the World is, the more would he te it; To conclude, whatfoever the World m ff highly effectiveth d magnifieth, that fhould be in his Eyes most vile and abomisable. or what is all the World; with all his Power. But the Law of the Members fitiving against the Law of the Mind. ndreth Faith in us, and fuffereth it not to be perfect. Therefore we we need of the Help and Comfort of the Holy Ghoft, which in our roubles and Afflictions may make Interceffion for us with unfpeaka-Groanings, as before I have faid : Sin yet remaineth in the Fleihi thich oftentimes oppressent the Conficience, and to hindreth Faithy that annot with Joy perfectly behold and defire those eternal Riches hich God hath given unto us thro' Chrift. Paul hath Chiff always in his Mouth, be cannot forget him : For be did well fore feerhat nothing flowld be lefs known in the World (yes alwring them which flowld profes themfelves to be Chriftian) then Chift and his Golfel. Therefore he talketh of him and fetteth him before our Eyes coatinually: And as often as he fpeaketh of Grace, Rightbouffieft, the Promife, Adoption and 'Inheritance, he is always wont to add, In Chrift, or thr's Chrift, covertly impugning the Law, As if he would fay : Thefe Things come unto as, neither by the Law, nor by the Works thereof, much lefs by our own Strength, or by the Works of Mess Traditions, but only by Chrift.

Verfes 8, 9. Howbeit, then when ye knew not God, ye did Service unto them which by Nature are no gods. But now after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, How turn ye again to the weak and beggarly Elements, whereunto ye defire again to be in Bondage?

. This is the Conclusion of Paul's Disputation. From this Phace anto the Ead, of the Epifile he doth not much difpute, but only giveth Precepts as touching Manners. NotwithHanding he full reprove the Genlarianty being fore difpleaded that this divide and heavenly Doftring ould be fo fuddenly and eafily removed out of their Hearts. As a he would fay; Ye have Teachers which will bring you tick again into the Bondage of the Law. This did not I. What the lat by my Doctrine I called you out of Darkness and out Gofoel the Ignorance of God, into a wonderful Light and bringeth. nowledge of him. I brought you out of Bondage and fet you in the Freedom of the Sons of God, not by preaching unto you the Vorks of the Law, or the Merits of Men, but the Grace and Righteafnels of God, and the giving of heavenly and eternal Bleffings thro? hrift. Now, feeing this is true, Why do ye fo foon forfake the Light ad return to Darkness ? Why do ye fuffer yourfelves to eafily to be ought from Grace unto the Law, from Freedom to Bondage ?

Here again we fee (as before I have faid) that to fall in Faith is an My Matter, as the Example of the Galatians witneffeth. The Exame of the Anabaptifis, Libertines, and fuch other Hereticks witneffeth le fame alfo at this Day. We for our Part do fet forth the Doctrine Faith with continual Travail, by preaching, by reading and by writig; we purely and plainly diffinguish the Gospel from e Law, and yet do we little prevail. This corneth of e Devil, who goeth about by all fubtil Means to feduce Iten, and to hold them in Error, he can abide nothing is then the true Knowledge of Grace and Faith in Chrift. "herefore to the End he may take Chrift clean out of Sight, e fetteth before them other Shews, wherewith he fo dereiveth them, that by little and little he leadeth them from Faith, and ac Knowledge of Grace, to the Difputation of the Law : When he hath ought this about, then is Chrift taken away. It is not without Caule merefore that Paul foeaketh fo much and fo often of Chrift, and that he beth about fo purely to fet forth the Doctrine of Faith, whereunto he tributeth Righteoufnels only and alone, and taketh it from the Law; claring that the Law hath a clean contrary Effect, that is, to ingender Vrath, to increase Sin, drc. For he would gladly perfwade us, that he thould not fuffer Chrift to be plucked out of our Heart ; that the moule thould not fuffer her Husband to depart out of her Arms, but would always embrace him and cleave falt unto him, who being prefent. mere is no Danger ; yea, there is the faithful Groaning, fatherly Goodlill, Adoption and Inheritance.

But why faith Poul that the Galatians turned back again to weak and ggarly Rudiments or Ceremonies, that is to fay, to the Law, where-, they never had the Law ; for they were Gentiles (notwithstanding "e wrote thefe Things to the Jews allo, as afterwards we will declare) r why fpeaketh he not rather after this Manner ? Once when ye knew ist God, ye did Service unto them which by Nature were no gods : But wow, feeing ye know God, Why turn ye back again, forfaking the true od, to worthip Idols ? Doth Paul take it to be all one Thing, to fall om the Promife to the Law, from Faith to Works, and to do Service outo gods which by Nature are no gods? I answer, Whofoever is fallen om the Article of Juftification, is ignorant of GoJ, and an Idolater. There. 226

Therefore it is all one Thing whether he afterwards turn again to the Law, or ta the worthipping of Idols; it is all one whether he be called a Monk, a Turk, a Jew. or an Andepairle. For when this Article a taken away, there remaineth nothing elle but Error, Hypocrify, Impiety and Idolatry, how much foever it feem in outward Appearance to be the very Truth, the true Service of God, and true Holmels, &c.

The Resion is, becaule God will or can be known no otherwise then by Chrift, according to that Saying of John 1.8. The and begates Say which is in the Bgim of the Fatter, he hath declared him. He is the Seed promified unto Afrekam, in whom God hath efabilithed all his Promifies Wherefore Chrift is the only Mean, and as ye would fay, the Glafs by the which we fee God, that is to fay, we know his Will. For in Chrift we fee that God is not a crael Exector or a Judge, but a met. 'froutrable, loving and merciful Father, who to the End he might bldf us, that is to fay, deliver as from the Law, Sin, Death and all Eviland might ender us with Greec Rightcouliefs and everlating Life. 'a fared new his own Son, but gave him for us all, ec. Kom, win, 22: "This is a true Knowledge of God, and a divine Peripation, which deelivent us not, but paineth out God unou to lively.

He that is fallen from this Knowledge, muft needs conceive this Fantafy in his Heart , I will fet up fuch a Service of God ; I will enter into fuch an Order : I will choose this or that Work, and fo will I ferve God, and I doubt not but God will accept this, and reward me with e verlafting Life for the fame. For he is merciful and liberal, giving al good Things even to the unworthy and unthankful, much more will he give unto me Grace and everlafting Life for my great and manifold good Deeds and Merits. This is the higheft Wildom, Rightcoulness and Religion that Reafon can judge of ; which is common to all Nations, to the Papifts, Jews, Turks, Hereticks, &c. They can go no higher then that Pharifee did, of whom Mention is made in the Gofpel, Luke xvii. 11, 12. They have no Knowledge of the Chriftian Righteoufnefs. or of the Righteoufness of Faith. For the natural Man receiveth not the Things of the Spirit of God. 1 Cor. ii. 14. Allo, There is none that understandeth, there is none that feeketh after God, &c. Rom. iii. 11. Therefore there is no Difference at all between a Popift, a Jew, a Turk, and an Heretick. Indeed there is a Difference of the Perfons, the Places, Rites, Religions, Works and Worfhippings; notwithftanding there is all one and the fame Reafon, the fame Heart, Opinion and Cogitation in them all. For the Turk thinketh the felf-fame Thing that the Charter-house Mone doth ; namely, if I do this or that Work, God will be merciful unto me; if I do it not, he will be angry. There is no Mean between Man's Working, and the Knowledge of Chrift. If this Knowledge be darkned or defaced, it is all one whether thou be a Monk, a Turk, a Jew, &c.

Wherefore it is an extreme Madneß that the Papift and Turks do fo firive among themfelves about the Religion and Service of God, contending that both of them, have the true Religion and true Working of God. - And the Mask themfelves agree not together. For one of them fill be accounted more holy then another, for certain foolifh outward deremonies, and yet in their Hearts the Opinion of them all is fo like, hat one Egg is not more like to another. For this is the Imagination of mien all : If I do this Work, God will have Mercy upon me ; if I do not, he will be angry. And therefore every Man that revolteth from he Knowledge of Chrift muft needs fall into Idolarry, and conceive fuch n Imagination of God as is not agreeable to his Nature; as the Charteroule Monk for the observing of his Rule, the Turk for the keeping of his Alcoran, hath this Affiance, that he pleafeth God, and shall receive a Reward of him for his Labour.

Such a God as after this Sort forgiveth Sins and juffifith Sinners, can no where be found; and therefore this is but a vain Imagination, a Dream and an Idol of the Heart. For God hath not promifed that he will fave and uffify Men for the Religions, Obfervations, Geremonies, and Ordinances devifed by Men ; yea God abhorreth nothing more (as the whole Scripture witneffeth) then fuch wher, him do I accept, justify and fave. All other abide under Wrath, pecause they worship that Thing which by Nature is no god.

Whofoever forfaketh this Doctrine, must needs fall into the Ignorance of God ; he underfrandeth not what whe true Christian Righteoufnefs, Wildom and Service of God is; he is an Idolater abiding under the Law, Sin. Death, and the Power of the Devil, and all Things that the doth, are accurfed and condemned. Therefore the Anabaptifi imagining with himfelf that he pleafeth God if the be rebaptized, if he forfake his Houfe, Wife and Children, if he mortify his Flesh and fuffer much Adversity, mand at length Death itfelf, yet there is not one Drop of the Knowledge of Chrift in him, but feeluding Chrift, he dreameth altogether of his own WWorks, of the forfaking of his Goods, of his Affliction and Mortification, mand now differeth nothing from the Turk, Jew or Papifl in Spirit or in Ficart, but only in the outward Appearance, Works and Ceremonies which he hath chofen to himfelf. The fame Confidence in Works have liall the Monks and other religious Orders ; notwithstanding their Appairel and other outward Things there is a Difference.

There are at this Day very many like unto thefe, which notwith-Randing would be counted among the true Profeffors and Teachers of the Golpel and as touching the Words, they teach that Men are deli-X

vered from their Sins by the Death of Chrift. But becaufe they teach Faith in fuch Sort, that they attribute more to Charity then to Faith, they highly diffionour Chriff and wickedly pervert his Word. For they dream that God regardeth and accepteth us for our-Charity's Sake, whereby we being reconciled to God, do love God and our Neighbour, If this be true, then have we no need of Chrift at all. Such Men ferve not the true God, but an Idol of their own Heart, which they themfelves have deviled. For the true God doth not regard or accept us for our Charity, Vertues, or Newnels of Life, but for Chrift's Sake, Ge. "But they make this Objection : Yet notwithftanding the Scripture commandeth that we thould love God with all our Heart, ec. It is true, But it followeth not, that becaufe God commandeth us, therefore we do it. If we did love God with all our Heart, dre. Then, no doubt, we fhould be juftified, and live thro' this Obedience, as it is written ; He That tha'l do thele Things Thall live in them. Levit, xviii, 5. Rom. X. 2. But the Gofpel faith ; Thou doft not thefe Things ; therefore thou fhalt not live in them. For this Sentence. Thou Balt love the Lord thy God. Sc. requireth a perfect Obedience, a perfect Fear, Truft and Love towards God. These Things Men neither do nor can perform in this corrupt Nature. Therefore this Law, Thou thalt love the Lord thy God, &c. juffifieth not, but accufeth and condemneth all Men. according to the Saying, The Law worketh Wrath, &c. Rom. iv. 15. Contrariwife, Chrift is the End of the Law for Righteou/ne/s to every one that believeth, Rom. x. 4. Of this we have fooken largely before.

In like Manndr the Few keeping the Law with this Opinion, that he by this Obedience will pleafe God, ferveth not the true God, but is an Idolater, worthipping a Dream and an Idol of his own Heart, which is no where to be found: For the God of his Fathers, whom he faith he worthippeth, promiled to Abraham a Seed, thro' the which all Nations thould be bleffed." Therefore God is known and the Bleffing is given, not by the Liw, but by the Golpel of Chrift. Altho' Paul fpeak thefe Words. Then when ye knew not God, ye did Service, &c. properly and principally to the Galatiant, which were Gentiles ; yet notwithstanding by the Tame Words he alfo toucheth the Jews, who the' they had reof the time works me and souchen the Jewy, who the they had re-jected their finds untwardly, wet in their Hearts they worthipped them more then did the Comfire, as he faid, Rom. ii. 22. Theu abhareft List, and committed Sarthage. The Contiles were not the People of God, they had not his Word, and therefore their Idolatry was grofs. But the idolatrous fews clocked their idolatry with the Name and Word of God (as all lufriciaries which feek Righteoufnefs by Works, are wont to do) and fo with this outward Shew of Holinels they deceived many. Therefore Idolatry the more hely and fpiritual it is, the more hurtful it is. + But how may there two contrary Sayings which the Apolle here Tetteth down, be reconciled together ? Te knew not God; and ye worfhipped God. I answer? All then narurally have this general Knowledge, that there is a God, according to that Saying, Rom. i. 19. Farafmuch as the which may be Frien H God, was manifelt in them. For God was made manifell into ment, in that the invikible Things of him did appear by the the Creation of the World. Moreover, the Ceremonies and Religions. which were and always remained among all Nations, fufficiently witnets, that all Men have had a certain general Knowledge of God. But whether they had it by Nature or by the Traditions of their Fore-fathers. I will not here difoute.

But here fome will object again : If all Men knew God, Whereform then doth Paul fay, that the Galatians knew not God before the Preaching of the Gofoel ? I answer : There is a double Knowledge of God, general and particular. All Men have the A general general Knowledge, namely, that there is a God, that he and particucreated Heaven and Earth, that he is just, that he punishlar Knoweth the Wicked ... But what God thinketh of us, what ledge of his Will is towards us, what he will give or what he will God. do, to the End we may be delivered from Sin and Death.

and be faved (which is the true Knowledge of God indeed) this they know not. As it may be that I know fome Man by Sight, whom yes indeed I know not throughly, because I underfland not what Affection he beareth towards me. So Men know naturally that there is a God but what his Will is, or what is not his Will, they do not know. For it is written. There is none that understandeth God, Rom. iii. 11. And in another Place ; No Man hath feen God, John i. 18. that is to fay, no Man hath known what is the Will of God. Now, what doth it avail thee if thou know that there is a God, and yet art ignorant what is his Will towards thee ? Here fome think one Tinng, and fome another. The Jews imagine this to be the Will of God, if they worthin him according to the Rule of Moles's Laws, the Turk if he observe his Alcoran, the Mont if he keeps his Order, and perform his Vows. But all these are deceived and become vain in their own Cogitations, as Paul faith, Rom. i. 21. Not knowing what pleafeth or difpleafeth God ; therefore initead of the true and natural God, they worthip the Dreams and Imaginations of their own Heart,

This is it that Poul meaneth when he faith, When ye knew not God ; that is, when ye knew not the Will of God, ye ferved those which by Nature were no gods, that is to fay, ye ferved the Dreams and Imaginations of your own Heart, whereby ye imagined without the Word, that God was to be worthipped with this or that Work, with this or that Rite or Ceremony. For upon this Propolition, which all Men do naturally hold, namely, that there is a God, hath fprung all Idolatry, which without the Knowledge of the Divinity Whence could never have come into the World. But becaufe Men Idolatry had this natural Knowledge of God, they conceived vain came. and wicked Imaginations of God without and against the

He much marvelleth therefore, that feeing they knew God truly by the Goloel, they returned to fuddenty to weak and beggarly Rudiments, by the Perfusion of the falle Apoffles. As I myfelf also should greatly marvel if our Church (which by the Grace of God is godly reformed in oure Doctrine and Faith) thould be feduced and perverted by fome fond and frantick Head, thro' the Preaching of one or two Sermons, that they should not acknowledge me for their Pastor any more. Which Thing notwithstanding shall one Day come to pass, if whilft we five, yet when we are dead and gope : For many shall then rife up, which will be Mafters and Teachers ; who under a Colour of true Religion fhall teach falle and perverse Doctrine, and shall quickly overthrow all that we in fo long Time and with fo great Travel have builded. We are not better then the Apoffles, who whiles they yet lived, faw (not without their great Grief and Sorrow) the Subverfion of those Churches which they themfelves have planted thro' our Miniftry. Therefore it is no great marvel if we be confirmined to behold the like evil at this Day in those Churches, where Sectaries do reign, who hereafter when we are dead, fhall poffers those Churches which we have won and planted by our Ministry, and with their Poifon infect and fubvert the fame. And yet notwithstanding Chriff shall remain and reign to the End of the World, and that marvelloufly, as he did under the Papacy.

Paul feements to fipcak very fpirefully of the Law when be calleds it Radinents (as the did alfo before in the Beginning of this Chapter) and not only Radiments, but weak and begualry Rudinents and Caremonies. Is it not Blafphemy to give fuch odious Names to the Law of God! The Law being in his true Ule, ought to field the Promites and to fland with the Promites and Grace. But if it fight againft them, it is no more the holy Law of God, but afile and a devilift DoRthe, and doth nothing elie but drive Men to Defperation, and therefore mult be rejected.

Wherefore when he callet the Law weak and beggarly Rodiments, he fpeaketh of the Law in refpect of proud and predimptions "Ryporties which would be juffined by it, and not of the Law being fpiritually underflood, which ingendreth Wrath, Rom. iv. 15. weak and beggarly. For it is to tender a Thing, that for a finall Sin it is to troubled and terrified, that it utterly defpaireth, onlefs it be raifed up again. Wherefore the Law in his proper. Use hath more Strengthand Riches, then Heaven and Parth is able to contain; infomuch that one Letter or one Title of the Law is able to kill all Mankind, as the ar-Hilbory of the Law given by  $M/c_1$ . Exod axe, 20, doth withefs. This is the true and dying Ule of the Law, of which Paul Ipeaketh not in a this Place.

Paul therefore intreaseth here of Hypotries, which are fallen from Grace, or which have not yet attained to Grace. Thefe, aboling Juy Law, Jeek to be julified by it. They exercice and tyre themlelves Day and Night in the Works thereof, as Paul winnellaw of the Jean,  $R_{\rm ex}$ . s. z. For 1 bear them Recard, (lish he) that they have a Zeal of God, but not according to Knowledge. For they being ignacant of God's  $R_{\rm ex}$  through the second of the theory have a Seal of the Law, that they may be able to fet their Power and Reltes which they have gouten by the Righteoufned thereof, againfit the W rath and Judgment of God, and fo to appeal? God, and to be faved thereby. In this Releged then we may well fay that the Law is a weak and a beg garby Rudiment ; that is to fay, which can give neither Help nor Counfel.

And whofe lifeth to amplify this Matter, may further fay, that the Law is a vest and a begarity Rudiment, because it makenb. Men more weak and begarity: again, becarie that of itieff it hath no Power, or Richer wherehy it is able to give or to bring Righteoufnefs; and moreover, that it is not only weak and beggarity. Lut even Weaknefs and Beggary itieff. How then fhall it enrich or fitrengthen thole, which were before both weak and beggarity? Interestore to be juiltied by the Law, is as much as if a Man being weak and feeble already, would feek fome other greater evil whereby be might overcome his Weaknefs and Poverty, which notwithitsading would bring unto him uter Defluction. As if he which hath the Falling-fakenefs, would feek to join unto it the Pefilence for a Remedy; no if a Leaper hould, form to a Leaper, or a Beggen to a Beggars, the one to help and enrich the other.

The more Men feek to be jultified by the Law, the more they are drowned in Sin. Paul therefore flowersh, that they which field to be justified by the Law, have this Committy thereby, thus daily they become more and more weak and beggriy. For they be weak and beggedy of them fielves i that is to fay, they are by Nature the Children of Wasth, fubjed to Death and everlating Domantion, and yet they lay hold upon that which is nothing elie but mere Weakeds and Beggary. focking to be frengthead and enriched thereby. As many therefore as do the Works of the Law to the End they may be juffiled thereby, are not only not made righteous, but twice more unrightrous then they were before, that is (as I have faid) more weak and begarity, and more anapt to do any good Work. This have I proved to be true both in myleff and in many others. I have known many Mask in the Papacy', which with great Zeal have done many great Works for the Stating of Righteouthers and Salvation, and yet were they more impaint, more weak more milienable, more faithlefs, more featful, and more ready to default then any other. The civil Mayifrates who were ever occupied in great and weighty Affairs, were not fo impairiest, for leafs that-heated, Ya Euperflutous and fo faithlefs is shee Jufficiaries and Meritmongers were Whofoever then feeketh Righteopfnels by the Law, What can he imagine elfe, but that God being angry, must needs be pacified with Works ? Now, when he hath once conceived this Fantafy, he beginneth to work. But he can never find fo many good Works as are able to quiet his Confcience, but ftill he defireth moe. Yes he findeth Sins in those Works that he hath done already. Therefore his Confeience. can never be certified, but must needs be always in doubt, and thus think with itfelf : Thou halt not facrificed as thou fhouldft do: thou halt not prayed aright ; this thou halt left undone; this or that Sim thou haft committed. Here the Heart trembleth and feeleth itfelf oppreffed with infrumerable Sins which ftill increase without End, fo that he fwarveth from Righteoufnels more and more until at length he fall to Defperation. Hereof it cometh that many being at the Point of Death, have uttered thefe desperate Words : O Wretch that I am ; I have not kept mine Order: Whither shall I fly from the Wrath of Chrift, that angry Judge ? Would to God I had been a Swine-herd, of the vileft Wretch in the whole World.

Thus the Hands in the End of Nis Life is more weak, more begavity, more fuithlefs and faurilu then he was at the Beginning when he fuit entred into his Order. The Resion is, becaule he would fittengthen himfelf thro' Weaknefs, and enrich himfelf thro' Poverty. The Law, or Mens Traditions, or the Kule of Nis Order, fhould have healed himf when he was fick, and enriched him when ife was poor, but he is become more feelbe and more poor then the Publican's and Harlets, Lude xwith 73. The Publicans and Harlets have not an Heap of good Work's to truff unto as the Mank have, but althro' they feel their Sins never for much, yet they can fay with the Publican's O Lord be merciful to me a Sinner. Wherefore, whoffever falleth from Faith and followeth the Law, in like to 6/6/9 Dog, which forgoeth the Flefh, and fantcheth at the Shadow. Wherefore it is imposfible that fuch as feek Righteondneis and Skitation by the Law (whereanto Men are naurally iniclined) should ever find Quietnels and Peace of Confeiences yea, they do nothing elfe but heap Laws upoit Laws, whereby they torment both themfelves and others, and afflict Mens Confeiopes fo militarby, that thro' estreme Anguin of Heart many die before the Time. For one Law always bringeth forth ten mos, and fo the's increals without Number and without End.

Now, who would have thought that the Galdiani which had learned ia found and fo pure Dodrine of forth an excellent Apolle and Teacher, could be fo faddenly led away form the fine, and uterly pervented by the fall Apolles 1 is not without Caube that 1 repart this fo often, that to fall away from the Truth of the Gofpel is an asiy Matter. The Reafon is, becaule Men do not fulficiently confider; me not the over Faithful, what an excellent and a precloss Treating the true. Knowledge of Chrift is. Therefore they do not labour to ddingently and fo carefully as they fhould do, to obtain and to text in the fame. Moreover, the greater Part of thole that hear the Word, are executed with no. Chof or Afficient y they wreftle not againt 5 m;

They that are not tried, with Afflictions and Tentations, never feel the Power of the Word. Death and the Devil, but live in Security without any Conflict. Such Men becaufe they are not proved and tried with Tentations, and therefore are not armed with the Word of God againf, the Subtilities of the Devil, never feel the Ufe and Power of the Word, Indeed whiles they are among faithful Minifters and Preachtray they can follow their Words and fay as they, performing themfelves that they perfectly underfland the Matter of Juffification. But when they are gone, and Wolfes in Sheers. Cloatting are come in their Plake, it happretthe unto them is it did to the Galatians; that is to fay, they are fuddenly feduced and eafly turned back to weak and beggarly Rudiments.

Paul hath here his peculiar Manner of Speech, which the other Aprofiles did not use. For there was none of them belides. Paul, that gavetuch Marnes to the Law, ho way, that it is a weak and begalary Rudge ment, that is to fay, utterly unprofileable to Rightconfectur. And favely I durit not have given fuch Terms anto the Law, but floud have thought it great Blafphemy againfd God, if Paul had not do those batters But of this 5 have intreated more largely before, where 5 theweat when the c. Law is weak and beggarly, and when it is moft firong and rich, dear ow if the Law of God be weak and unprofitable to Julification, much, ore are the Laws and Decrees of the Pope, weak and unprofitable to ulification. Therefore we give Sentence againft the Ordinances, Laws and Decrees of the Pope, with fach Roldners and Affremance, as Paul d againft the Law of God, that they are not only weak and beggerly udiments, and uterly unprofisable to Righteonifiefs, but allo exernite, accuricd, devilifi and damaable; for they blafpheme Grace, they werthrow the Gofeel, abolin Faults, also wave Chrift, de.

For as much then as the Pope requireth that we should keep his Laws. as neceffary to Salvation, he is very Antishrift and the Vicar of Satan f and as many as cleave unto him, and confirm his Abominations and lasphemies, or keep them to this End, that thereby they may merit he Forgiveness of their Sins, are the Servants of Antichrill and of the Devil. Now, fuch hath the Doctrine of the Papifical Church been of long Time, that these Laws ought to be kept as necessary to Salvations Thus the Pope futeth in the Temple of God, vaniting himfelf as Goda' e fetteth himfelf against God, and exalteth himfelf above all that is alled God or worthipped, drc. 2 Theff. n. 4. And Mens Conficiences nore feared and reverenced the Laws and Ordinances of the Pope, then he Word of God and his Ordinances. By this Means he was made the Lord of Heaven, of Earth, and of Hell, and bear a triple Grown upon is Head. The Cardinals also and Bishops his Creatures, were made kings and Princes of the World ; and therefore if he did not burden Iens Confciences with his Laws, he could not long maintain his terrile Power, his Dignity and his Riches; but his whole Kingdom would mickly fall.

This Place which Paul here handleth, is weighty and of great Imoratance, and therefore the more dilgently to be marked; is 6 with, that hey which fall from Grace to the Law, do utterly loofs the Knowledge if the Truth, they fee not their own Sins, they neither know God not the Devil, nor themfelves, and moreover they underfland not the Force and Ufs of the Law, althor they brag never for much that they keep and obfyre the fame. For without the Knowledge of Grace, that is o fay, without the Gofpel of Climit, it is impossible for a Man to give this Definition of the Law: that it is a weak and a begar-

y Rudiment, and unprofitible to Righteoufnerfs. But he ather judgeth quite contrary of the Law; to wit; that it is not only neceliary to Salvation, but align that it fittengthteth fuch as are weak, and eurichteth fuch as are poor ind begarly. It that is to fay, that fuch as a bey and obirve time fame, final be able to merit Righteoufficis and workfalling Salvation. If this Opinion termain, the Promife of God is denied, Chrift is taken away, Lyring, Imiliety and Holdary is established. Now, the Pope with all its Bulkops, his School and whole Synagogue, taught that as Laws are necelify to Salvation. Therefore he was a Teachet of weak and begarly Elements, whereby he masie "the set of the set of th

Verse 9. Whereunto ye defire again to be in Bondage?

This he addeth, to declare that he fpeaketh of proud and prelimptuous Hypocrites, which feek to be jultified by the Law, as I have fixeware de bakre. For otherwise he called hite Law, holy and good. As 17 Jine, is 8. We know that the Law is good, if a Man of it lawfally, that is to fay, civilly to bridle evil Docts, and fprinually to increase Tranfgreficons, Gal, iii. 19. But whofoever obfervent the Law to obtain Rightepoinfesh before God, maketh the Law which is good, damable and burt's ful unto himfelf. He reproves the Galatiase therefore, becaufe they would be in Bondage to the Law again, which doth not take sawy Sin, but increafeth Sin. For whill a Sinner, being weak and poor of himfelf, feeken to be jultified by the Law, he findeth nothing in it but, Weaknefs and Poverty itielf. And hete two fick and fielde Beggard meet together, of whom the one is not able to help and heis the other,

We as being firing in Chrift, will gladly ferce the Law; nor her weak and begarly, but the mighty and risk Law, that is to fay, fold at forth as it hash Fower and Dominion over the Body : For then we fixed the Law but only in our Rody and outward Members, and not in our Conficience. But the Pope requires that we fload obey his Law with this Opioion, that if we do this or that, we are righteous; if we do it not, we are domed. Here the Law is more then a weak and beggarly Element. For whiles this Bondage of the Conference continuets under the Law, there can be nothing but mere Weskenfs and Poverty. Where fore all the Weight of the Matter fieth in this Word, 75 Jerse. The Meaning therefore of Paul is this, that he would not have the Conference to ferve under the Law as a Capive, but to be free and have Dosminion over the Law : Aro the Conference. Whereof we have gone largely interacted afore in the fecond Chapter.

Truth of the Golpel purely taught, which God hath now sigain in thele latter Days revealed by us unto this unthankful World ; which Thing fhould rather provoke them to love us then to hate us. I marvel therefore not without Caufe, whereof this Change cometh. Verily there is no other Caufe, but that they have gotten unto themfelves new Mafters, and hearkned to new Teachers, whole Poilon hath to infected them, that now of very Friends they are become our mortal Enemies. And I fee the Condition of the Apofiles, and of all other faithful Minifters to be fuch, that their Difciples and Hearers being once infected with the Errors of the falle Apoilles and Hereticks, have and do fet themfelves against them, and become their Enemies. There were very few amongst the Galatians which continued in the found Doctrine of the Apofile; all the reft being feduced by the falle Apoftles, did not ackno eledge Paul for their Paltor and Teacher any more ; yea, there was nothing more odious unto them then the Name and Doctrine of Paul. And I fear me, that this Epifile brought very few of them back again from their

If the like Cafe floudd happen onto us; that is to fay, if in our Abfence our Church floudd be jeduced by fanaflicat Heads, and we floudd write hluber, not one or two, but many Epilles, we floudd prevail little or nothing at all. Our Men (a few only excepted of the fitnager Sort) would uic henfelleves no otherwise towards us, then they do at bils Day which are feduced by the Selfarier, who would somer worthin the Pope, then they would obey our Admonitons, or approve our Dokine-No Man fhall perforde them that they reject Chrift, and return again to weak and begraphy Elements, and to thole which by Nature are no gods. They can ábide nothing lefs, then to hear that their Teachers by whom they are feduced, are Overthrowess of the Gofpel of Chrift, and Tropblers of Mens Conferences. The Landeran (isy they) are not only wife, they alone do not preach Chrift, they alone have not the Holy Cholt, the Gif of Prophely, and the true to Adering g of the Scriptures. Our Teachers are in nohling inferior into them; yea, in many Things they excel them, becaule they follow the Spirit, and teach fiptitual Things. Contrariville, they never yet tälled what tree Divinity means, but fick. In the letter, and therefore they teach nothing but the Catechilm, Paith and Charity. &c. Wherefore (as I am when to fay) like as to fall in Paith is an eafly Matter; Io it is molt perilos, pour, even from the high Heaven into the deep Pit of Hell. It is not fuch as properly followeth the Nature of Man, as Murder, Adultery, and fuch like; but devilin, and the proper Work of the Devil., For they which Defail, cannot be cally recovered, but molt commanly they continue pererfer and offinate in their Ertor. Therefore the letter End of thefa Men is work then the Beginning, as our Saviour Christi witneffeth, when the fault ; The unclean Spirit being call out of his Houfe, when he restumeth, he entreth in again not alone, but taketh unto him foren Spirits work then himfelf, and there dwelleth, cir. Matth. xii. 437-457.

Paul therefore serceiving thro' the Revelation of the Holy Ghoff. that it was to be feared left the Minds of the Galatians, whom of a godly Zeal he had called foolifh and bewitched, &c. by this fharp chiding should rather be stirred up against him, then amended, especially fince he now knew that the falfe Apoffles were among them, who would expound this fharp chiding, which proceeded from a fatherly Affection. unto the worft, crying out : Now Paul which fome of you fo greatly praife, the weth what he is, and with what Spirit he is led; who when he was with you, would feem to be unto you a Father, but his Letters thew in his Absence that he is a Tyrant, de.) Therefore he is fo troubled thro' a godly Care and fatherly Affection, that he cannot well tell how and what to write to them. For it is a dangerous Thing for a Man to defend his Caufe against those which are absent, and have now begun to hate him, and are perfwaded by others that his Caufe is not good. Therefore being in great Perplexity, he faith a little after; I am troubled and at my Wits End for your Caufe, that is, I know not what to do, or how to deal with you.

Verfe 12. Be as I am; for I am as ye are:

These Words are to be underflood, not of Dockrine, but of Affedions. Therefore the Meaning is not; Be ye ar I an, that is to fay, think of Dockrine as I do; but bear fuch an Affection towards me, as I do towards you. As tho' he would fay; Perhaps I have too fiharply childen you, but pardon this my Sharpnefs, and judge not my Heart by my Words, but my Words by the Affection of my Heart is Iowing and fatherly. Therefore (O my Galatian) take this my childing with fuch a Mind as I bear towards you: For the Matter required that I flouid fiber wngleIfO fange and fevere towards you.

Even fo may we alfo fay of curfelves. Our Correction is fevere, and our Manner of writing fharp and vehement; but certainly there is no Bitternefs in our Heart, no Envy, no Defire of Revenge againft our Adverfaries; but there is in us a godly Carefulnefs and Sorrow of Spirit. We do not fo hate the Pope and other erronious Spirits, that we with a ny Evil unto them, or defire their Destruction ; but rather we defire that they may return again to the right Way, and be faved togethe with us. The School-mafter chaftifeth his Schollar, not to hurt him but to reform him. The Rod is sharp, but Correction is necessary for the Child, and the Heart of him that correcteth, loving and friendly So the Father chaffileth his Son, not to deftroy him, but to reform and amend him : Stripes are fharp and grievous to the Child, but the Fa ther's Heart is loving and kind : And unlefs he loved his Child, he would not chaftife him, but caft him off, defpair of his Welfare, and fuffer him to perifh. This Correction therefore which he giveth to hi Child, is a Token of fatherly Affection, and is profitable for the Child Even fo, O my Galatians, think ye likewife of my dealing towards you then will ye not judge my chiding to be fharp and bitter, but profitabl for you. Chaflifement for the prefent feemeth not to be joyous, but grievous : Nevertheless, afterward, it yieldeth the peaceable Fruit of Righteouinels. unto them which are exercised thereby. Heb. xii. 11. Let the fame Affection therefore be in you towards me, which I bear towards you. I bear a loving Heart, towards you; the fame I defire again of you.

Thus he speaketh them fair, and with this fair Speech he fill contipueth, that he might pacify their Minds which were firred up againft him by his fharp chiding. Notwithstanding he revoketh not his fevere Words. Indeed he confeffeth that they were fharp and bitter ; but Neceffiny (faith he) compelled me to reprehend you fornewhat tharply and feverely ; but that which I did, proceeded of a fincere and loving Heart towards you. The Phylician giveth a bitter Potion to his Patient, not to hurt him, but to cure him. If then the Bitternels of the Medicine, which is given to the fick Body, is not to be imputed to the Phylician, but to the Medicine and the Malady : Judge ve alfo in like Manner of my fevere and fharp Reprehenfion.

Verle 12. Brethren, I befeech you :-----Ye baye not injured me at all.

Is this to befeech the Galatians, when he calleth them bewitched, disobedient to the Truth, and Crucifiers of Christ? It feemeth rather to be a great Rebuke. But contrariwife, The Stripes Paul faith, that it is no Rebuke, but an earneft befeeching, of a Friend and indeed fo it is. And it is as much as if he faid ; I are better confess that I have chidden you fomewhat bitterly, but then the Kiftake it in good Part, and then shall ve find this my chidfes of an Eing, to be no chiding, but a praying and a befeeching. If nemy. Father likewife do fharply correct his Son, it is as much is he faid; My Son, I pray thee be a good Child, Ge. It feemeth inleed to be a Correction, but if ye refpect the Father's Heart, it is a genble and an earneft befeeching.

Verfe 12. Te have not injured me at all.

As if he faid; Why fhould I be angry with you, or of a malicious Aind speak evil of you, feeing ye have nothing offended ne ? Why then fayeft thou that we are perverted, that An Objectiwe have forfaken thy Doctrine, that we are foolifh, beon. itched, de. These Things do witness that we have ffended thee. He answereth, Ye have not offended me but yourfelves, nd therefore I am thus troubled, not for mine own Caufe, but for the love I bear unto you. Think not therefore that my chiding did proged of Malice or any evil Affection. For I take God to Witnefs, ye ave done me no wrong, but contrariwife ve have beftowed great Beneits upon me. 8 3

Thus fpeaking them fair, he prepareth their Minds to fuffer his fatherly Chaltifement with a childlike Affection. And this is to temper Wormwood or a bitter Potion with Hony and Sugar, to make it fweet again. So Parents fpeak their Children fair when they have well beaten them, giving them Apples. Pears and other like Things, whereby their Children know that their Parents love them and feek to do them good, how tharp foever their Correction doth appear.

Verles 12, 14. Ye know how through Infirmity of the Flefh, I preached the Gospel unto you at the first. And my Temptation which was in my Flefb, ye defpifed not, nor rejected; but received me as an Angel of God, even as Chrift Fefus.

He praifeth the Galatians becaufe they were not offended with his -Infirmity.

Now he declareth what Pleafure he had received of the Galatians. The fuft Bonefit (faith he) which I effectin as the greateft of all, was this. When I began first to preach the Gofpel amongft you, and that thro' Infirmity of the Flefh and great Tentations, my Crofs did nothing at all offend you ; but ye flewed yourfelves to loving, fo kind and fo friendly towards me, that not only ye were not offended with this my Infirmity of the Fleih, with my Tentations and Afflictions wherewith I was almost overwhelmed ; but alfo ye loved me dearly; and received me as an Angel of God, yea rather as Chrift Jefus himfelf. This is indeed a great Commendation of the Galatians, that they received the Gofpel of a Man fo contemptible and afflicted on every Side as Paul was. For where he preached the Go-Ipel amongst them, both the Yews and Gentiles murmured and raged against him. For all the mighty, wife, religious and learned Men, hated, perfecuted and blasphemed Paul. With all this the Galatians were no whit offended, but turning their Eyes from the beholding of this Infirmity, these Tentations and Dangers, they did not only hear that poor, defpifed, wretched and afflicted Paul; and acknowledged themfelves to be his Difciples, but also they received and heard him as an Angel of God, yea as Chrift Jefus himfelf. This is a worthy Commendation and a fingular Vertue of the Galatians ; and indeed it is fuch a Commendation as he giveth to none of all those to whom he wrote, befides the Galatians.

Terome and certain other of the ancient Fathers, expound this Infirmity of the Flefh in Paul, to be fome Difease of the Body or fome Tentation of Luft. These Men lived when the Church was outwardly in a peaceable and profperous Effate without any Crofs or Perfecution. For then the Bifhops began to increase in Riches, Effimation and Glory in the World. And many alle exercifed exercifed Tyranny over the People which were committed to their Charge, as the Ecclefahiral Hiflory winneffeth. Few did their Duty, and they that would feem to do it, forfaking the Doftme of the Golpel, fet forth their own Decrees to the People, now when the Paffors and Bithops are not exercifed in the Word of God, but neglect the pure and fincere Preaching thereof, they mult needs fall into Scen-sity : For they are not exercised with Tentations, with the Crois and Perfections, which are wont always undoubtedly to follow the pure Preaching of the Word. Therefore it was impossible that they fhould underfland Paul. But we by the Grace of God, have found and fincere Dottring, which allo we preach and teach freely, and there fore are compelled to fuffer the bitter Hatred, Afflictions and Perfecutions of the Devil and the World. And if we were not exerciced outwardly by Tyrats and Scharies with Force and Sublity, and inwardly with Terrors and the fiery Darts of the Devil, Paul thould be as obficure and unknown unto us, as the was in Times path to the whole World, and yet is to the Paylin; the Auabaptift and other car Adverta-wies. Therefore the Gift of Knowledge and Interpretation The Profit of the Scriptures, and our Study, together with our inward and outward Tentations, open unto us the Menning of Tentati-Paul, and the Senfe of all the holy Scriptures.

Paul therefore calleth the Infirmity of the Flefth no Diffeste of the Body or Tentation of Luit, but his fuffering and Affiction which he fulfataned in his Body; which he fatteth againft the Verue and Power of the Spirit. But left we hould feem to wreft and pervert Paul? Words, et us hear himfelf speaking in 2 Cor. xii. 9. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my Infirmities, that the Rower of Christ may rell upon me. Wer. 10. Therefore I take Pleasure in Infirmities, in Reproaches, in Nerefities, in Perfocutions, in Distreffes for Christ's Sake ; for when I am weak, then am I flrong. And in the 11th Chap. Ver. 23. In Labours more abundant, in Stripes above Measure, in Prisons more frequent, in Deaths oft. Ver. 24. Of the Jews five Times received I forty Stripes Wave one. Ver. 25. Thrice was I beaten with Rods, once was I floned, whrice I fuffered Shipwrack, &c. These Afflictions which he suffered in this Body, he calleth the Infirmity of the Flefh, and not any corporal Difeafe. As the' he would fay : When I preached the Gofpel amongst wou, I was oppressed with fundry Tentations and Afflictions. I was why ways in Danger both of the Jews and of the Gentiles, and also of falle Brethren. I fuffered Hunger, and wanted all Things. I was as the pery Filth and Offscouring of the World. He maketh mention of that mais Infirmity in many Places, as in 1 Cor. iv. 2 Cor. iv. 9, 11, 12. and in many other. 20

We fee then that Paul calleth Affidions the Infirmities of the Flefh which he furfered in the Flefh, like as the other Apofles, the Prophets and all gody Men did ; notwithfanding he was mighty in Spirit. For the Power of Chrift was in him, which always reigned and iniumphed hnc'him. Which Thing he teilificht in a Car. xii, too. in the Words; For when I am wenk, then am I fireng. Allo, thick judy therefore will I rather gifgra ia my Jehrmites, that the Power of Gorift may refl upon me. And in the 2d Chap. Ver. 14. Thom's fee unto Cod, which always capter has it strimph in Gorift. As there is no be would by; Indeed the Devil, the Jeans and the Genrier rage cruelly againft us; notwith landing we continue conflant and invincible againft all their Affaults, and will they nill they, our Dodrine prevailed and triampheth. This was the Strength and Bower of the Spirit in Paul, againft the which he fetter hhere the Infirmity and Bondage of the Fleft.

Now, this Infirmity of the Fleth in the Godly doth wonderfully offend Reafon. Therefore Paul to highly commendeth the Galatians. because they were not offended with this great Infirmity, and with this vile and contemptible Form of the Crofs which they faw in him; but received him as an Angel, yea as Chrift Jefus. And Chrift himfelf alfo armeth the Faithful against this bale and contemptible Form of the Crofs in which he appeared, when he faith ; Bleffed is he wholoever (hall not be offended in me, Matth. xi. 6. And furely it is a great Matter that they which believe in him do acknowledge him to be Lord of all, and Saviour of the World, P/al. xii. 7. whom notwithflanding they hear to have been the most miferable of all others, the left of Men, yes a very Scorn of Men, and a Contempt of the World ; briefly, defpiled and hated of all Men, and condemined to the Death of the Crofs, and even of his own People, and especially of those that were effeemed the beft, the wifeft, the holieft of all others. This is a great Matter (I fay) not to be moved with these great Offences, and to be able, not only to contemn them, but also to effeem this poor Chrift fo fpitefully fcorned, fpit upon, whipped and crucified, more then the Riches of all the richeft, the Strength of all the ftrongeft, the Wildom of all the wifelt, the Holinefs of all the holieft Men, with all the Crowns. and Sceptres of all the Kings and Princes of the whole World. They therefore are worthily called bleffed of Chrift, which are not offended in him.

Now, Paul had not only outward Tentations (whereof I have fooken already) but alfo inward and fpiritual Tentations, as Chrift had in the Garden; fuch as that was whereof he complaineth in 2 Cor. xii. 7. That he felt a Thorn or Sting in the Flefh, and the Meffenger of Satan which buffeted him. This I fay by the Way, becaufe the Papifls expound this to be a Motion of flefhly Luft ; but it was a fpiritual Tentation. And herein is no Repugnance in that he addeth this Word Flefb, faying; A Tharn was given me in the Flefb. Yea he calleth it of Purpose a Thorn in the Flefb. For the Galatians and others which were conversant with Paul, had feen him oftentimes in great Heavinels, Anguilh, and Terror : Wherefore the Apoliles had not only bodily, but allo foiritual Tentations, which allo he confesseth in 2 Cor. vii. 5. with these Words; Fightings without, and Eears within. And Luke faith in the laft of the Afts, that Paul when he had long firiven in the Tempelts of the Sea, even unto the Heavinels of the Spirit, was again. refreih-

It, ary, he confettett, that God had Mercy upon him, in that he reflored Epspirobius to weak and near to Death, unto Health again, left he fhould have Sorrow upon Sorrow. Therefore belies outward. Tentrions, the Apolles allo fuifered great Anguith, Heavine's and Terrors.

But why faith Paul, that he was not defoiled of the Galatians? It feemeth that they defpifed him, when they fell away from his Gofpel. Paul expoundeth himfelf. When I first preached the Gospel (faith he) ve did not as other People have done, who being greatly offended thro? this my Infirmity and Tentation of the Fleh, have defpifed and rejected me. For Man's Reafon is foon offended with this vile and contemptible Form of the Crofs, and judgeth those to be flark mad, which being to afflicted, will go about to comfort, to help and to fuccour others : Alfo, those that boaft of their great Riches, that is to fay, of Righteoufnefs, Strength, Victory over Sin, Death and all Evils, of Joy, Salvation and everlafting Life, and yet notwithflanding are needy, weak, heavy hearted and defpifed, evil intreated and flain, as very noiforn Poilons both of Common-weals and Religion, and they which kill them, whink they do high Service unto God, John xvi. 2. Therefore, when they promife unto others eternal Treasures, and they themfelves perifh. to wretchedly before the World, they are laughed to Scorn and compelled to hear ; Phylician beal thylelf. Luke iv. 22. And hereof come thefe Complaints which are every where in the Pfalms ; I am a Worm, and no Man, &c. Pfal. xxii. 6. Again ; Be not far from me, for Trouble is near; for there is none to help. Ver. 11.

This is therefore a great Commendation of the Galatians, that they were not offended with this Infirmity and Tentation of Paul, but received him as an Angel of God, yea as Chrift Jelus. It is indeed a great Vertue and worthy of great Praile to hear the Apostle. But it is a greater, and a true Chriffian Vertue, to give ear unto one fo miferable, weak and contemptible as Paul was among the Galatians (as here he witneffeth of himfelf) and to receive him as an Angel from Heaven, and to give him fuch Honour as if he had been Chrift Jefus himfelf, and not to be offended with his Afflictions, being fo great and fo many. Wherefore, by these Words he highly commendeth the Vertue of the Galations, which he faith, he will keep in perpetual Remembrance, and fo greatly efteemeth the fame, that he defireth it may be known unto all Men. Notwithstanding in fetting forth fo highly their Benefits and Praifes, he Theweth covertly how entirely they loved him before the coming of the falfe Apoftles, and therewithal he moveth them to continue as they began, and to embrace him with no lefs Love and Reverence then they aid before. And hereby it may also appear, that the falle Apolites had greater Authority among the Galatians then Paul himfelf had. For the Galatians being moved with their Authority, preferred them far above Paul, whom before they to dearly loved and received as an Angel of God. Cc.

.Verle 15. Where is then the Bleffedness you spake of?

As if he would fay : How happy were ye counted ? How much were ye then praifed, and commended ? The like Manner of Speech we have in the Song of the Virgin Mary : All Generations [hell call me ble]fed, Lukei . 48. And the'e Words . Were is the well fight of song how of ? Contain inthem a certain Vehemency. As if he would hay : Ye were, not only bleffed, but in all Things molt bleffed and highly commended. with; especially, feeing he knew that the falle Apofiles would fander him, and molt fpitefully interpret his Words. For this is the Quality and Nature of thefe Vipers, that they will flander and malicioully pervert thofe Words which proceed from a fimple and fincere Heart, and wrell them clean contrary to the true Senfe and Meaning thereof. They are marvellous cunning Workmen in this Matter, far pafiling all the Wit and Eloquence of all the Rhetoricians in the World. For they are led with a wicked Spirit, which fo bewitcheth them, that they being influmed with a devilifik Rage againfit the Faithful, can no otherwile do, but malicioufly interpret and wickedly pervert their Words and Writings. Therefore they are like unto the Spider, that fucketh Venom out of fuset and pleafant Flowers, which proceedeth not of the Flowers, but of their own venomous Nature, which turneth that into Polion, that of their own venomous Nature, which therefore by thefe mild and fraget Words goeth about & prevent the file Apolles, to the End mey fhould have no Occafion to flander and pervert his Words after this Manner : Paul handleth you very ungently, he callett you foolidh, bewitched, and dilobedient to the Trath, which is a fure Token that he fecketh not your Salvation, but secounteth you as danned and rejefed from Chrift.

Verfe 15. For I bear you Record, that if it bad been possible, ye would have plucked out your own Eyes, and have given them to me.

He praifeth the Galatians above Meafure. Ye did not only intreat me (faith he) most coartecoulty and with all Reverence, receiving me as an Angel of God, &c. but alfo if Neceffity had required, ye would have plucked out your own Eyes, and have given them to me; yea, you would have belowed your Lives for me. And indeed the Galatians befowed their Lives for him: For in that they received and maintained Paul (whom the World accounted monit exertiske and accufed) they turned upon their own Heafs, as Receivers and Maintainers of Paul, the cruel Hatter and Indiguation of all the Faur and Gripilet.

VERSES 16, 17. To the GALATIANS.

So that at this Day the Name of Lasher is molf odious to the World. He that pasifeth me, finneth worfe then any Idolater, Blafphemer, Perjuer, Whoremonger, Adulteer, Murderer or Thief. In wift needs be therefore that the Galatians were well eftablished in the Dockine and Faith of Chrift, feeing that they with fo great Danger of their. Lives, received and maintained Paul which was hated throughout all the World. For effe they would never have fulfained that cruel Hatred of the whole World.

Verse 16. Am I therefore become your Enemy, because I tell you the Iruth?

Here he floweth the Reafon, why he fpeaketh the Galations fo fair. For he fulpedeth that they take him for their Enemy, becaude he had reproved them fo flarply. I pray you (faith he) fet apart their Rebukes, and fenanate them from Doctmes, and ye final find that my Purpole was not to rebuke you, but to teach you the Truth. Indeed Toonfest that my Epithe is harp and lever, but by this Severity Igo about to call you back again to the Truth of the Golpel, from the which, ye are fallen, and to keep you in the fame, therefore apply this Sharphefs and this bitter Pound, not to your Perfors, but to your Dislase. And judge me not to be your Enemy in rebuking you for flarphy, but rather think that I am your Pather. For unlefs I loved you dearly as my Children, and knew alfn that I am beloved of you, I would not have reproved you fo famply.

It is the Part of a Friend, freely to admoniff his Friend if he do amiff, and when he is to admonified, if he be wife his not angry with the other which hash fo Friendly admonified him and told hum the Truth, but giveth him Thanks. It is commonly feen in the World that Truth brought Hatted, and that he is accounted an Enemy which fights eth the Truth. But amongft Friends it is not for, much lefs amongft Chriftians. Seeing threafter I have reprehended you of mere Love, to the End ye might abide in the Truth, ye ought hot to be offended with me not loofe the Truth, or think me-yout Enemy, becaufe of my friendly and fatherly Reprehension. All their Things are fooken of Paul, to confirm that which he faid before ; Be ye as I am ; ye hove an injerad me, &c.

Verfe 17. They zealoufly affect you, but not well, &c.

He reprove there the Flattery of the falle Apolles. The Nature For Satan is wont by his Miniflers, thro' wonderfal Subitaly and crafty Sights to beguine the Simple: As Paul faith, Rom, xvi. 18. By good Words and fair Speecher they decive the Hearts of the Simple. For faith of all, they make great Proteslations that they feek nothing elfe but the Advancement of God's Glory; and moreover that they are moved by the Spirit (becault the mitrajke People are negleched, or clic becault the Truth is not purely taught of enters) to teach the infilibile Truth, that by this Meani the Elech may be delivered from Error, and may come to the true Light and Knowledge of the Truth. Moreover, they promific undoubled Salvation to thole that receive their Dodtine. If vigilant and ginkhal Palkors do not withful and their avenue Wolver, they will do great fisem to the Church under this Pretence of Godlinelis, and under this Sheeps Clothing. For the Galariau might fay; Why doi thou inveigh fo bitterly againd our Teachers for that they be justous over us. For that which they do, they do of Zeal and mere Love; this ought not to offield thee, &c. Indeed (faith he) they are jealous over you, but their jealou'ji is not god.

Here note that Zeal or Jealoufy, properly fignifieth an angry Love, or, as you would fay, a godly Envy. Elijab faith ; I have been very realous for the Lord God of Hofts, I Kings xix. 14. After this Manner the Husband is lealous towards his Wife, the Father towards the Son. the Brother towards his Brother, that is to fay, they love him entirely; yet fo that they hate their Vices, and go about to amend them. Such a Zeal the faile Apoltles pretended to bear towards the Galatians. Paul indeed confelleth that they were very zealous towards the Galatians, but their Zeal (faith he) was not good. Now, by this Colour and fubtil Pretence the Simple are deceived, when these Seducers do make them to believe that they bear's great Zeal and Affection toward them, and that they are very careful for them : Paul therefore warneth us here to put a Difference betwixt a good Zeal and an evil Zeal. Indeed a good Zeal is to be commended, but not an eyil Zeal. I am as zealous over you (faith Paul) as they. Now judge ye which of our Zeals is better, mine or theirs ; which is good and godly, which is evil and carnal. Therefore let not their Zeal fo eafily feduce you.

Verle 17. Yea, they would exclude you, that you might effect them.

The Zeal of As if he faid: True it is, that they are very zealous the faife Atowards you, but by this Means they feek that ye again flould be zealous towards them, and reject me. If their Zeal were fincere and godly, then furely they would be content that 1 alfo final do belowed of you as well as they. But they, hatcour Dockine, and therefore their Defire is, that it may be utterly abolithed, and their own prescied amongh you. Now, to the End they might bring this to paff, hey go aboat by this Jealouf to pluck your Hearts from me, and to make me odious unto you, that when yo have conceived an Harted again the and my Dockine, and turned your Affedion and Zeal towards them, ye thould love them only, and receive no other Dockine b .n thers. Thus be bringeth the faile Apolles into Sufficient among the Galatiant, thewing that by this goodly Pretence they they they are the set of the hey go about to deceive them. So our Saviour Chrift allo warneth us laying, Beware of falle Praphets, which come to you in Shreps Clothing, Matth. vii. 15.

VERSE 17.

Paul fuffered the fame Tentation which we fuffer at this Day. He was marvelloully troubled with this Enormity, that after the Preaching of his Doctrine, which was divine and holy, he faw fo many Sects, Commotions, Diffipations of Common-weals, Changes of Kingdoms and other like Things to enfue which were the Caule of Infinite Evils and Offences. He was accused by the Tews to be a permicious Fellow, a Mover of Sedition in his whole Nation, and to be an Author of the Sect of Nazarites. Acts xxiv. c. As if they had faid ; This is a fedicious and a blafphemous Fellow : for he preacheth fach Things whereby he not only overthroweth the Tewifh Common-wealth, excellently well ordered and eftablished by the Laws of God ; but also abolished even the Ten Commandments, the Religion and Service of God, and our Priefthood. and published throughout the World, the Gospel (as he calleth it) whereof are forung infinite Evils, Seditions, Offences and Sects. He was compelled to hear of the Gentiles also which cried out against him in Philippi, that he was a Troubler of the City, Afts xvi. 20: and preached Ordinances which were not lawful for them to receive, dr.

Such Troubles of Common-weak and other Calamities, as Famine, Wars, Differings and Seels, the freux and Genilei imputed to the Doctime of P and and of the other Apollles 1, and therefore they perfected them as Common Plagues, and Enemiss of the publick Perce and Religion. The Apolles notwith/Endma all this did not case to do rheir Office, but mole confinite yeached and confified Chrifts. For they knew that they fload rather obey God them Men, Affis v. 20, and that it was better that the whole World fload he troubled and in an Uproar, then that Chrift Jacual not be preached, or that one Soul fload be neglected and perifi.

In the mean Time it was (no doubt) a heavy Crofs to the Apofiles to fee thefe Offences; for they were not made of Iron. It was a wonderfall Grief unto them, that that People for whole Sakes Poul withed to be feparate from Chritt, Rom. ix. 2, should perifh, with all their Ornaments. that he is our High Prieft and our Redeemer. Moreover, our Adverfaries are conftrained (if they will confess the Truth) to grant us this, that we have given no Occasion thro' our Doctrine, of Seditions, Wars or Tumults ; but always have taught that Honour and Reverence muft be given to the Magistrate, because God hath fo commanded. Neither are we the Authors of Offences ; but in that the Wicked are offended; the Fault is in themfelves and not in us. God hath commanded us to preach the Doctrine of the Goldel without any reforct of Offence. But because this Doctrine condemneth the wicked Doctrine and Idolatry of our Adverfaries, they being provoked thereby, raife Offences of themfelves, which the School-men called Offences taken, which they faid, ought not to be avoided, nor can be avoided.

When Chrift and his Apoltles preached, the fame was faid likewife of them. Not long after, the Romans came, and according to their own Prophecy, deftroyed both the Place and the Nation. So be it.

With thefe Offences which the Wicked alledge, the Godly are nothing word. For they know that the Davih hasth nothing more then the ure Dodrine of the Gofpel, and thesefore he goeth about to deface it ith innumerable Offences, that by this Means he might root it out of lens Heasts for ever. Before, when nothing elle was taught in the fluxer but Mean Traditions, the Devil did not for age. For whilf be floor glank kept the Houlds, all that he polfield was in Peace. Vetle 18. But it is good to be zealoufly affected always in a good Abing, and not only when I am prefent with you.

As if he fhould fay: I commend you for his, that ye loved me far entirely when I preached the Golpel amongft you in the Infirmity of the Flefh. Ye ought to bear the fame Affection towards me how when I im alfent, even as if I had never departed from you. For altho? Therefore I mult now again carefully travel to bring you back, from the Law to the Faith of Chrift. This be calleth to travel.

Verse 20. I defire to be prefent with you now, and to change my Voice, &c.

Thefe are the true Cares of an Apoftle. It is a common Saying, that a Letter is a dead Meffenger ; for it can give no more then it hath. And no Epiftle or Letter is written fo exactly, wherein there is not formewhat lacking. For the Circumstances are divers, there is a Diversity of Times, Places, Perfons, Manners and Affections ; all which no Epiftle can express. Therefore it moveth the Reader diversly, making him now fad, now merry, as he himfelf is difpofed. But if any Thing be fpoken fharply or out of Time, the lively Voice of a Man may expound, mitigate, or correct the fame. Therefore the Apostle wisheth that he were with them, to the End he might temper and change his Voice, as he should fee it needful by the Qualities of their Affections. As if he should fee any of them very much troubled, he might fo temper his Words, that they fhould not be opprefied thereby with more Heavinefs. Contrariwife, if he fhould fee others high-minded, he might fharply reprehend them, left they should be too' fecure and careles, and fo at length become Contemners of God.

Wherefore he could not devife how he being abfent, final deal with them by Latens. As if he fload fay; if my Foille be too fnapt, fear tifhall more offind then amend fome of you. Again, if is be too gentle, it will not profit throle which are perverted and oblinitate; for deal Latters and Words give no more then they have. Contraining, the lively Voice of a Man, compared to an Epilite, is a Queen; For it can add and driminila; it can change itielf into all Manner of Affections. Times, places and Perfors. To be brief, I would glady convert you by Letters, that is to fay, call you back from the Law to the Faith of Jelius Chrift; but I fear that I hall not fo do by my deal Letters. But if I were with yoo, I could change my Voice, I could reprove

Verse 20. For I stand in doubt of you.

That is to first . I am for toubled in my Spirit, that I know not how by Lotters to behave myleft towards you. Here is a lively Defirition of the true Affection of an Apofile : He omitteth nothing; he chideff the Galatians; he intreateth them; he fpeaketh them fair; he highly commendeth hier Faith, Jahouring by all Means to bring them back again to the Truth of the Golpel, and to deliver them out of the Snares of the filte Apolles. Thele are vehement Words, proceeding from am Heart flirred up and enflamed with a hot burning Zeal, and therefore iospht diligently to be conditored.

Verse 21. Tell me, ye that defire to be under the Law, Do ye not bear the Law?

Here would Paul have clofed up his Epifile, for he defired not to write any more, but rather to be prefent with the Calatians, and to fpeak unto them himfelf. But he being in great Perplexity and very careful for this Matter, taketh by the Way this Allego-ey, which then came into his Mind. For the People are The greatly delighted with Allegories and Similitudes, and Alleg Interefore Christianies ufeith them. For they and are as it were certain Pictures which fit forth Things as take if they were pointed before the Eves of the finnele, and therefore they move and perfwade very much, effocially the fimple and gnorant. Firfl, Therefore he firmeth up the Galatians with Words and Writings. Secondly, He painterh out the Matter itfelf before their Eyes with this goodly Allegory.

Now, Pául was a marvellous cunning Workman in How Paul andling of Allegories; for he is wont to apply them to handleth Alhe Doftrine of Faith, to Grace, and to Chrift, and not legories. Is the Law and the Works thereof, as Origen and Hiewhere do, who are worthily repretended for that they turned the plain tentences of the Scaipture where Allegories have no Place, into unfit and solifh Allegories. Therefore to ule Allegories, it is oftentimes a very ingerous Thing. For unlefs a Man have the perfect Koowledge of Chriftian Dottine, he cannot the Allegories rightly and as he thould do. On a part. But why doth Paul call the Book of Genefit, out of the which he alledgeth the Hiltory of Jimael and Jimae, the Law, foring that Place which he alledgeth the thread that Jimael and Jimae, the Law, for an under the alledgeth the Value of Christian Delaw to Children? Verfes 22, 23. For it is written, that Abraham had two Sons; the one by a Bond-maid, the other by a Free-woman. But he who was of the Bond-woman, was horn after the Flefh: But he of the Free-woman was hy Promife.

As if he faid; Ye forfake Grace, Faith and Chrili, and turn back again to the Law, ye will be under the Law, and become wife thro' it. Therefore I will talk with you of the Law. I pray you confider the Law dilgently. Ye fhall find that Araham had two Sons. If Immal by Agar, and Iface by Sarah. They were both the true Sons of Abraham. If Immael was as well the true Son of Abraham as Iface was, for both came of one Father, of one Flefh, and of one Seed. What was then the Difference? This maketh not the Difference (faith Faul)

I/bmael was a Son after the Flefh, and I/aac after the Promife.

that the Mother of the one was free, and the other bond, (albeit it pertaineth to the Allegory) but that lifmael which was born of the Bond-worman, was born after the Flefh, that is to fay, without the Promife and the Word of God. But Jiaar was not only born of the Free-worman, but alfo according to the Promife. O a rect. What then ? Yet was liface notwithflaading as well born of the Seed of Strethan as lifmaer was. A risw. I grant that they were both the Children of one Father, and yet notwithflanding there is a Difference. For altho? J/aac was born of the Flelh, yet the Promife went before. None obferved this Difference but only Paal, which he gathered out of the Text of Genefis after this Manner.

Whereas Agar conceived and brought forth Ifamael, there was no Word of God that forefhewed that this flould come to pafs; but by the Permiflion of Sarah, Abraham went in to his Servant Agar, whom Sa-

Sarah had i heard the t Promife of c God as conberning the . r Seed, but free waiteth rab, being barren, had given to Wife unito Abraham, as it is faid in the Book of Genefit. For Sarab had heard that Abraham by the Promite of God, hould have Seed of his Body, and the hoped that the thould have Seed of this Seed. But when the had waited now for the Promite. many Years with great Anguith of Spirit, and faw that the Matter was to long deferred, the was out of Hope. This not for God's appointed Time.

This holy Woman therefore giveth Place for the Honour of her Hufband, and refigneth her Right to another, that is to fay, to her Maid. Notwithstanding the fuffereth not her Husband to marry another Wife but of his Houfe, but the giveth unto him in Marriage her Servant, to the End the might be builded by her : For fo faith the Hiftory, Gen. svi. 1, 2. Now Sarai Abraham's Wife bare him no Children : And the had in Hand-maid an Egyptian, whole Name was Hagar. And Sarai faid unto Abraham. Behold now, the Lord bath restrained me from bearing : I pray thee go in unto my Maid ; it may be that I may obtain Children by her. This was a great Humility of Sarai, who fo abafed herfelf, and ook in good Part this Tentation and Trial of her Faith. For thus fhe hought, God is no Liar; that which he hath promifed to my Husband he will furely perform. But peradventure God will not that I shall be he Mother of that Seed. It shall not grieve me that Agar should have his Honour, unto whom let my Lord enter, for I may peradventure be builded by her.

Ishmael therefore is born without the Word at the only Request of Sarah. For there is no Word of God which ommanded Abraham thus to do, or promifed unto him a on, but all this is done at # adventure. Which also the Nords of Sarah do declare : It may be (faid fhe) that I ball be builded by her. Seeing therefore there was no Word of God fooken to Abraham before, as there was when Sarab fhould bring forth Ilaac, but only the Word f. Sarah; it is evident enough that I (bmael was the Son f Abraham after the Flesh only without the Word of od ; therefore he was born at adventure, and unlooked or as another Child is. This Paul obferved and diligently bufidered.

In the 9th Chapter to the Romans, he profecuteth the mie Argument which here he repeateth and fetteth forth an Allegory, and concludeth ftrongly, that all the Sons Abraham are not the Sons of God, Abraham (faith he) ath two Sorts of Children. Some are born of his Flefh ad Blood, but the Word and Promife of God goeth bere, as Ifaac. Other are born without the Promife as bmael. Therefore not the Children of the Flefh (faith he) but the wildren of the Promife, are the Children of God, Gc. And by this Arguent he mightily floppeth the Mouths of the proud Jews, which glorithat they were the Seed and Children of Abraham ; As also Chrift oth in Matth. iii. 9, and in the 8th of John, as if he faid ; It followin not, I am the carnal Seed of Abraham, therefore I am the Child of od. Efau is the natural Son, therefore the Heir. Nay rather (faith (c) they that will be the Children of Abraham, belides eir carnal Birth, must be also the Sons of the Promise, Who be the d must believe. And they are the true Children of true Sons of braham, and confequently of God, who have the Pro-Abraham. fe and believe. 23

Ilmaal was the Son of Abraham 2Ccording to the Flefh. *That is faid to be done at adventure or by Chance. whereof Man knowetb not the Caufe ; altho' unto God it be fore-known and appointed.

But Ifomael, becaufe he was not promifed of God to Abroham, its Son after the Fields only, and not after the Promife, and therefore he was born at adventure, as other Children be. For no Mother knowsh witching in that have a Child er no, or if the perceive herfelf to be witch Child, yet the cannot tell whether it thall be a Son or a Daugiter-But I Jace was expredly named, Gen xvii. 19. Sarah thy Wife (faith the Angel to Abroham) falls bear the a Satindeed, and thu falls call its Name I Jace. Here the Son and the Mother are exprelly named. Thus, for this Humility of Sarah, becaufe the gave up her Right and Infired the Contempt of Bager, Gen. xvi. 3. God requited her with this Honour, that the fould be the Mother of the promifed Son, &c.

An Allegory is that whereby one Thing is fpoken, and another Thing meant.

Allegories do not fitrongly perfuvade in Divinity, but as certain Pidures they beautify and fet out the Matter. For if Paul had not proved the Righteonfinds of Faith againft the Righteonfield of Works by floring and pithy Arguments, the fload have little provaled by this Allegotry. But becaufe he had fortified his Caufe before with invincible Arguments taken of Experimeer, of the Example of Alreaham, the Teltimonies of the Striptures and Similitudes 1; now in the End of his Dipfuration he added an Allegory, to give a Beauty to all the reft. For it is a feemly Thing fometimes to add an Allegory when the Foundation is well laid, and the Matter throughly proved. For as Painting is an Ornsment to fet forth and garanth an Houfe already builded; to is an Allegory the Light of a Matter which is already otherwise proved and confirmed.

Verfes 24, 25. For thefe are the two Covenants ; the one from the Mount Sinai, which gendreth to Bondage, which is Agar. For this Agar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, Alreadam is a Figure of God, which hash two Sons, that is to fay, two Sonts of People are represented by lipmed and lians. So the Mount which Mifes calleth Hermon of the Sidonian is called Siries, and of the Amorites Seirie.

Now, this ferveth very well to the Purpofe, that Mount Sinai in the Arabians Language fignifieth as much as an Hand-maid ; and I think the

VERSES 34, 25. To the GALATIANS.

Likenefs of this Name gave Paul Light and Occafion to feek out this Alegory. Likewife then as Apar the Bond-maid brought forth to Abranam a Son, and yet not an Heir but a Servant : fo Singi the allegorical Agar, brought forth to God a Son, that is to fay, a carnal People, Atain, as Ilbmael was the true Son of Abraham, fo the People of Ilrael had the true God to be their Father, which gave them his Law, his Dracles, Religion and true Service, and the Temple ; as it is faid in Plal. extvii. 10. He lbeweth his Word unto Jacob, his Statutes and his Judements unto Ifrael. Notwithstanding this only was the Difference : Ilbmael was born of a Bond-maid after the Fleih, that is to fay, without the Promife, and could not therefore be the Heir. he Old Teftament ordained, brought forth to God the The People reat Abraham's People, but without the Promife, that of the Law, to fay, a carnal and a fervile People, and not the Heir of God. For the Promiles as touching Chrift the Giver of all Bleffings, ind as touching the Deliverance from the Curfe of the Law, from Sin nd Death, alfo as touching the free Remiffion of Sins, of Righteoufnefs nd everlasting Life, are not added to the Law, but the Law faith ; He hat thall do thefe. Things thall live in them, Levit. xviii. 5. Rom. x. 5. Therefore the Promifes of the Law are conditional, pro-nifing Life, not freely, but to fuch as fulfil the Law, and The Promiherefore they leave Mens Confciences in doubt ; for no fes of the Ian fulfilleth the Law, But the Promifes of the New Teftament have no fuch Condition joined unto them, Gofpel. or require any Thing of us, nor depend upon any Con-

Law and the

ition of our Worthinefs, but bring and give unto us freely Forgivenefs. f Sins, Grace, Righteoufnels and Life everlafting for Chrift's Sake, as I ave faid more largely in another Place.

Therefore the Law or the Old Teftament containeth only condition-Promifes ; for it hath always fuch Conditions as thefe are, joined to ; If ye hearken to my Voice ; if ye keep my Statutes ; if ye walk in my Vays, ye shall be my People, &c. The Jews not confidering this, laid old of these conditional Promiles as if they had been absolute and withut all Condition ; which they supposed that God could never revoke. ut must needs keep them. Hereupon, when they heard the Prophets prefliew the Deltruction of the City of Jerufalem, of the Temple, of he Kingdom and Priesthood, (which could well differn betwixt the brioral Promifes of the Law, and the fpiritual Promifes concerning tirift and his Kingdom ; ) they perfecuted and killed them as Herecks and Blasphemers of God : For they faw not this Condition that as annexed ; If you keep my Commandments, it fball go well with you. C.

Therefore Agar the Bond-mail bringeth forth but a Bond fervant. Ismael then is not the Heir, altho' he be the natural Son of Abraham, at remaineth a Bond-fervant. What is here lacking ? The Promife ad the Bleffing of the Word. So then the Law given in Mount Sinai, thich the Arabians call Agar, begetteth none but Servants. For the Promife made as concerning Chrift, was not annexed to the Law. Wherefore, (O ye Galatians) if ye, forfaking the Promife and Faith, fall back to the Law and Works, ye fhall always continue Servants; that is, ye shall never be delivered from Sin and Death, but ye shall always abide under the Curfe of the Law. For Agar gendreth not the Seed of the Promife and Heirs, that is to fay, the Law justifieth not, it bringeth not the Adoption and Inheritance, but rather it hindreth the Inheritance, and worketh Wrath.

Verle 25. And answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in Bondage with her Children.

This is a wonderful Allegory. As Paul a little before made Agan of Sinai, fo now of Ferufalem he would gladly make Sarah; but he dawith not, neither can he fo do; but is compelled to join Jerufalem with Mount Singi. For he faith : the fame belongeth to Agar, feeing Mount Agar reacheth even to Jerufalem. And it is true that there be continual Mountains, reaching from Arabia-petrea, unto Kadefb-barnea, He faith then that this Jerufalem which now is, that is to of Jurie.

fay, this earthly and temporal Jerusalem is not Sarah, The earthly but pertaineth to Agar, for there Agar, reigneth. For in it is the Law begetting unto Bondage ; in it is the Worthin and Ceremonies, the Temple, the Kingdom, the Priefthood : and whatfoever was ordained in Sinai, by the Mother which is the Law, the fame is done in Jeru/alem.

Therefore I join her with Sinai, and I comprehend both in one Word, to wit. Sinai or Agar.

I durit not have been fo bold to handle this Allegory after this Manper, but would rather have called Jerufalem Sarah or the New Teftament, efpecially feeing the Preaching of the Golpel began in it, the Holy Ghoft was there given, and the People of the New Teftament were there born ; and I would have thought that I had found out a very fit Allegory. Wherefore it is not for every Man to use Allegories at his Pleafure ; for a goodly outward Shew may foon deceive a Man and caufe him to err. Who would not think it a very fit Thing to call Sinai Agar, and Ferufalem Sarah ? Indeed Paul maketh Jerufalem Sarah, but not this corporal Jerufalem, which he fimply joineth unto Agar ; but that fpiritual and heavenly Jerufalem in which the Law reigneth not, nor the carnal People, as in that Jerufalem which is in Bondage with her Children, but wherein the Promife reigneth, wherein is also a spiritual and a free People.

And to the End that the Law should be quite abolished, and that whole Kingdom which was effablished in Agar, the earthly Jerusalem was horribly deftroyed, with all her Ornaments, the Temple, the Ceremonies, Ge. Now, altho' the New Teffament began in it, and fo was fpread throughout the whole World, yet not with flanding it appertaineth to Ager ; that is to fay, it is the City of the Law, of the Ceremonies and of the Prisfhood inflituted by Moyer. Briefly, it is gendred of Ager the Bond-woman, and therefore is in Boadage with her Children, that is to fay, it walketh in the Works of the Law, and never attaineth to the Liberty of the Spirit, but abideth continually under the Law, Sin, an evil. Conficience, the Wrath and Judgment of God, and under the Guilt of Death and Hell. Indeed it hath the Liberty of the Flefh, it hath a corporal Kingdom; it hath Magiltates, Riches and Poffeffions, and fuch like Things, but we fpeak of the Liberty of the Spirit, whereby we are dead to the Law, to Sin and Death, and we leave and reign in Grace, Forgivenefs of Sins, Righteoulnefis and everlating Life. This cannot the earthly Jerujalem perform, and therefore it abideth with Ager.

Verle 26. But Jerufalem which is above, is free, which is the Mother of us all.

That earthly Jerufulem (linth he) which is beneath, having the Pokey and Ordinances of the Law, is Agar, and is in Bondage with her Children; that is to lay, the is not delivered from the Law, Sin and Death. But Jerufalem which is above, that is to fay, the fiprinal Jerufalem, is Stareb (abiet) Head addeth for the proper Name of Sarab, but given her another Name, calling her the Free-woman) that is to fay, that true Levy and Free-woman, which is the Mother of us all, gendring us unto Liberty, and not unto Bondage as Agar doth. Now, this heavenly Jerufalem, which is above, is the Church, that is to fay, the Faithful diperfield throughout the whole World, which have one and the fame Golpel, one and the fame Faith in Chrift, the fame Holy Ghoft, and the fame Sacaments.

Therefore underfland not this Word [Allowed] of the triumphant Church (as the School-men call it) in Heaven; but of the militant Church in Earth. For the Goldy are faid to have their Converfision in Heaven, Phil. iii. 20. Our Converfation is in Heaven, not locally ; but in that a Chiftian believent, in that the layeth hold of thole inelimable, thole heavenly and eternal Gifts, he is in Heaven, Ephef, i. g. Who hath bloffed ur with all fpirinal Bloffings in heavenly Places in Chrift. We mult before difficupit the heavenly and finitual

Bleffing, from the earthly. For the earthly Bleffing is to have a good civil Government both in common Weals and Pamilies, to have Chiden, Peace, Riches, Fruits of Jy Bleffing, the Earth, and other corporal Commodities. But the heavenly Bleffing is to be delivered from the Law, Sin and Death, to be juiltied and quickhed to Life; to have Peace with God; to have a fainful Heart, a joyful Conficience, and a foritual Confision; to have the Knowledge of Jeffs Coffs; to have the Gift of Prophely and the Revelation of the Scripturgs; to have the Gifts of the Holy Ghoft, and to rejoice in God. Thefe are the heavenby Biellings which Chrift given to his Church.

CHAP. IV.

The four Senfes of the Scriptures, according to the Papifis.

Wherefore Jerufalem which is above, that is to fay, the heavenly Ferulalem, is the Church which is now in the World, and not the City of the Life to come, or the Church triumphant ; as the idle and unlearned Monks and School-docters dreamed, which taught that the Scripture hath four Senfes ; the literal Senfe, the figurative Senfe, the allegorical Senfe, and the moral Senfe ; and according to thefe Senfes they have foolifhly interpreted almost all the Words of the Scriptutes : As this Word Jeru/alem lite-sally fignified that City which was fo named ; figuratively a pure Confcience ; allegorically the Church militant ; morally the celeftial City or the Church triumphant. With these trifling and foolish Fables they rent the Scriptutes into fo many and divers Senfes, that filly poor Confciences could receive no certain Doctrine of any Thing. But Paul faith here, that the old and earthly Ferufalem belongeth unto Agar, and that it is in Bondage with her Children, and is utterly abolished. But the new and heavenly Jerufalem, which is a Queen and a free Woman, is appointed of God in Earth and not in Heaven, to be the Mother of us all, of whom we have been gendred, and yet daily are gendred. Therefore it is neceffary that this our Mother should be in Earth among Men, as also her Generation is. Notwithflanding the gendreth by the Holy Ghoft, by the Ministry of the Word and Sacraments, and not in the Flefh.

By the heavenly Jeru-Calem, he . meaneth the fpiritaal Jerulalem. which he fetteth againft the earthly 7erufalem. The foiritual Jeru/alem difperfed throughout the whole World.

This I fay to the End that in this Matter we should not be carried away with our Cogitations into Heaven, but that we should know that Paul fetteth the Jerufalom which is above, against the earthly Jerufalem, not locally, but fpiritually. For there is a Diffinction between those Things which are spiritual, and those which are corporal or earthly. The fpiritual Things are above, the earthly are beneath : So Jerufalem which is above, is diffinguished from the carnal and temporal Jerufalem which is beneath, not locally (as I have faid) but fpiritually. For this fpiritual Jerusalem which took her Beginning in the corporal Jerufalem, hath not any certain Place as hath the other in Judea ; but it is difperfed throughout the whole World, and may be in Babylon, in Turky, in Tartary, in Scythia, in Judea, in Italy, in Germany, in the Ifles of the Sea, in the Mountains and Valleys, and in all Places of the World where Men dwell which have the Gofpel, and believe in Jefus Chrift.

Wherefore Sarah or Jerufalem our free Mother, is the Church itfelf, the Spoule of Chrift, of whom we all are gendred. This Mother gendreth free Children without cealing to the End of the World, as long as the exercifeth the Ministry of the Word, that is to fay, as long as the preacheth and publitheth the Golpel; for this is truly to gender. Now.

Now, the teacheth the Golpel after this Manner; is a wir, The Church har we are delivered from the Gurfe of the Law, from begetteth sin, Death, and all other Ewis by Jelius Chrift, and not Children by by the Law, neither by Works. Therefore Jernfalem teaching which is above, that is to fay, the Church, is not full-fed to the Law and Works, but the is free, and a Mother without the Law, Sin and Death. Now fuch a Mother as the is, fuch Children the gendreth.

<sup>9</sup> This Allegory teacheth very apply that the Church Juaci is Heir thould do nothing elle but teach and preach the Golpel thro'theProreury and fincerely, and by this Means fhould gender' mile, Gen. Children. So, we are all Fathers and Children one to amother; for we are begotten one of another. I being be-

potten by other thro' the Golpel, do now beget other, which shall also beget other hereafter, and fo this begetting shall endure to the End of the World. Now, I fpeak of the Generation, not of Agar the Bondmaid, which gendreth her Bond-fervants by the Law; but of Sarah the Free-woman, who gendreth Heirs without the Law, and without Man's Works or Endeavours. For in that Ifaac is Heir and not I/bmael (albeit notwithflanding that both of them were the natural Sons of Abraham) Ilaac had the Inheritance by the Word of Promile, namely, Sarah thy Wife Iball bear thee a Son, and thou Ibalt call his Name Ijaac. This did Sarah well understand, and therefore the faith : Call out the Bond-woman and her Son : And Paul also alledgeth these Words afterwards. Wherefore as I/aac hath the Inheritance of his Father only by the Promile and by his Birth, without the Law and without Works : Even fo we are born thro the Gofpel of that Free-woman Sarah, that is to fay, the Church, true Heirs of the Promife. She inftructeth us, nourifheth us, and carrieth us in her Womb, in her Lap, and in her Arms : fhe formeth and fathioneth us to the Image of Chrift, until we grow up to a perfect Man, Ge. Eph. iv. 13. So all Things are done by the Ministry of the Word. Wherefore the Office of the Free-woman is to gender Children to God her Husband, without ceafing and without End; that is to fay, fuch Children as know that they are juffified by Faith, hand not by the Law.

Verfe 27. For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that beareft not; beak forth and cry, thou that travaileft not For the defolate bath many Ia. liv. 1. more Children than she which bath an Hushand.

Paul alledgeth this Place out of Moiab the Prophet, Chop. liv.  $\epsilon$ , which is altogether allegorical. It is written (faith he) that the Mother of many Children, and fine which hath an Husband, mult be fick and die ; and contrariwife, that the barren and fite which hath no Children, mult

The Apolle fheweth by this Allegory of the Prophet Ijaiah, the Difference which is between Agar and Sarah, that is to lay, between the Synagogue and the Church, or between the Law and the Golpel. The Law being the Husband of the fruitful Woman, that is to lay, of the

The Righteouinefs of the Law is well known to Reafon. Synagoue, begetteth very may Children. For Men of all Ages, not only Idiots, but allo the wifeft and beft (that is to fay, all Mankind, except the Children of the Free-wortan) do neither fee nor know any other Rightes" outlieft then the Righteoutients of the Law, much leis do they know any which is more excellent: Wherefore they think therefi-frees righteous if they follow the Law and outwardly perform the Works thereof,

Thefe, sinks the function, have many Diciples, and thine in the Righteoutifiels and glorious Works of the Law, yet notwithflanding are not free, but Bondsleivants : For they are the Children of Agar, which gendreth to Bondsgë. Now, if they be Servants, they cannot be Partakers of the Inheritance, but thall be call out of the Houle': for Servants remain not in the Houfe for ever, fabr viii. 35. Yea, they are already call out of the Houle': for Servants is condemined already. John iii. 18. They remain therefore under the Malediciion of the Law, under Sin and Death, under the Power of the Devil, and under the Want hand Judgment of God.

Now, if the moral Law infelf or the Ten Commandments of God, en do nothing elfe but gender Servants, that is to fay, cannot julify, hat only terrify, accufe, condemn, and drive Mens Canfeienes' to Defperation; How that (I pray you) thall the Laws of Men, or the Law of God as needing to the conditions of Devils 'They therefore that teach and left forth either the Traditions of Men, or the Law of God as needing you could replay the Bolor God, do nothing elfe but gender Bond-fervants. Notwithilanding fuch Teachers are counted the belf Men, they obtain the Favour of the World, and are molf fuuiful Mothers, for they have an infinite Number of Dificiples : For Man's Readon underlandeth not what Faith and true Godlinefs of Works, not neglective this Righteoufich is in fay, to the Righteouffied of Worgerfif, thin and Hypogriff, that is to fay, to the Righteouffied of Works, Now, becaufe this Righteouffies finieth and flourifieth every where; ERSE 27.

erefore it is a mighty Emptels of the whole World. They therefore hich teach the Rightconfields of Works by the Law, beget many Chilen which outwardly feem to be free, and have a glorious Shew of exillent Vertues, but in Confeience they are Servants and Bond flaves of n : therefore they are to be call out of the Houfe and condemned.

Contrariwife. Sarah the Free woman, that is to fay, the true Church emeth to be barren. For the Gofpel which is the Word of the Crofs ad Affliction, which the Church preacheth, fhineth not fo brightly as te Doctrine of the Law and Works, and therefore the bath not fo may Difciples to cleave unto her. Moreover, the beareth this Title, that e forbiddeth good Works, maketh Men fecure, idle and negligent, ifeth up Herefies and Seditions, and is the Caufe of all Mifchief; and ierefore the feemeth to bring no Succefs or Profperity, but all Things em to be full of Barrennels, Defolation, and Defoeration. Therefore wicked are certainly perfinaded that the Church with her Doctrine mnot long endure. The Tews affored themfelves, that the Church hich was planted by the Apolities, fhould fhortly be overthrown : the hich by an odious Name they called a Sect. For thus they fpeak to aul in Acts xxviii. 22. As concerning this Sect, we know that every here it is /poken againfl. In like Manner, How often (I pray you) we our Adverfaries been deceived, which fome whiles appointed one. "ime, and fomewhiles another, when we fhould be certainly deflroyed ? hrift and his Apoftles were oppreffed ; but after their Death the Docine of the Gofpel was further foread abroad then it was during their ife. In like Manner our Adverfaries may opprefs us at this Day, but, e Word of God fhall abide for ever. How much foever then the hurch feemeth to be barren and forfaken, weak and defpifed, and outardly to fuffer Perfecution; and moreover be compelled to hear this eproach, that her Doctrine is heretical and feditions, notwithflanding e alone is fruitful before God ; the gendreth by the Ministry of the Vord an infinite Number of Children. Heirs of Righteoufnels and everting Life; and tho' outwardly they fuffer Perfecution, yet in Spirit ey are most free ; who not only are Judges over all Doctrines and Forks, but also are most victorious Conquerors against the Gates of

The Prophet therefore confelfsh, that the Church is in Heavinefs . te elfe he would not exhort here to rejoice. He granted that he is tren before the World; for elfe he would not call her barren and forten having no Children; but before God, faith he, the is fruitfal, and refore he biddeth her to rejoice. As the' he would fay; Thou art deed forisken and barren, and halt not the Law for thy Husband, and refore theo halt no Children. But rejoice; for altho' thou halt nec te Law for thy Husband, but art forfaken as a Virgin that is ready to arry (for he will not call her a Widdw) which fhould have an Hufnd, if he were not forfaken of him, or if he were not flain, thou (I p) which art foliary and forfaken of thy Husband the Law, and mov bjekt to the Marriage of the Law, fulls be a Mother of innumerable siden. Widterfore the Porele of the Giurch of the New Tellament is altogether without the Law as southing the Conference, and therefore the feemeth to be forfaken in the Sight of the World. But altho' the feem to be never to barren without the Law and without Works, yet notwithflanding the is most fuulful before God, and bringeth forth an infinite Number of Children, not in Bondage but in Freedom. By what Means ? Not by the Law, but by the Word and Spirit Orhift which is given by the Gofiel, thro' the which the conceiveth, bringeth forth and nourither ther Children.

Paul therefore plainly the ween the Law and the Goipel. Fir/R, When he calleth Agar the Old Teflament, and Sarab the New. Again, When he calleth Agar the Old Teflament, and Sarab the New. Again, When he calleth the one a Bond-mail, the other a Free-woman. Moreover, when he faith that the married and frainful is become barren, and caft out of the Houfe with her Children. Contraiwife, when the barren and forfaken is becomp fruitful, and bringeth. Forth an infimite Number of Children, and thole alfo Inheritors. By theie Differences are refembled the two Sorth of People, of Faith and of the Law I mean. The People of Faith have not the Law for their Husband, they ferve not in Bondage, they are not non of that Mother Jers/alew which now is; but they have the Promilie, they are free, and are born of free Sarab.

He feparate the therefore the fpiritual People of the New Teflament from the other People of the Law, when he faint, that the fpiritual People are not the Childeen of Agar the Bond-maid, but of Sarab the Freewoman, which knoweth nonling of the Law. And by this Means he placeth the People of Faith, far above and without the Law. Now, i they be above and without the Law, then are they juftified by the fpirritual Birth only, which is nothing elfe but Faith, and not by the Law or by the Works thereof. Now, as the People of Grace, neither have nor can have the Law, is the People of Brace, neither have and have Grace : for it is impossible that the Law and Grace fhould fland to gether. Therefore we mult be juftified by Faith, and lofe the Nightcouffies of the Law, or elfe be juftified by the Law, and lofe the Nightcouffies of the Law. Contrarivife, it is an happy and bleffef Lafs to lofe the Law, hold loff Grace.

We therefore (following the Example and Diligence of Paul) do and dervour as much as is pollible to let forth plainly the Difference between the Law and the Golpel; which is very eafy as touching the Words. For who feeth not that Agar is not Sarah, and that Sarah is not Agar Alfo, that Jámad is not Jáza, and that he hath not that which Jáza hatb ; a Man may eafily differen thefe Things. But in great Terrors and in the Agary of Death, when the Conficience werefilter with the Jadgment of God, it is the harded! Thing of all others to fay with a fure and fieldiff Hope; I am not the Son of Agar, but of Sarah, then is to fay, the Law belongeth nothing anto me : For Sarah is my Mother, who bringeth forth fiele Childen and Heirs, and not Servan its

Paul then by this Tellimony of Ifaiab hath proved that Sarab, that is to fay, the Church, is the true Mother which bringeth forth free Childeen deen

ren and Heirs. Contrariwife, that Agar, that is to fay, the Synagogue endreth many Children indeed, but they are Servants and muft be cafe ut. Moreover, becaufe this Place fpeaketh alfo of the abolishing of he Law and of Chriftian Liberty, it ought to be diligently confidered. for as it is the moft principal and fpecial Article of Chriftian Doctrine. b know that we are juffined and faved by Chrift, fo is it alfo very neeffary to know and understand well the Doctrine concerning the Abofhment of the Law. For it helpeth very much to confirm our Docine as touching Faith, and to attain found and certain Confolation of conficience, when we are affured that the Law is abolifhed, and foecial. in great Terrors and ferious Conflicta.

I have often faid before, and now I fay again (for it cannot be too ften reveated) that a Chriftian laying hold of the Benefit of Chrift thro' aith, hath no Law, but all the Law is to him abolifhed with all his Ferrors and Torments. This Place of Ifaiab teacheth the fame Thing. nd therefore it is very notable and full of Comfort, flirring up the baren and forfaken to rejoice, which was counted worthy to be mocked or itied according to the Law. For fuch as were barren, were accurfed coording to the Law. But the Holy Ghoft turneth this Sentence, and ronounceth the barren worthy of Praife and Bleffing ; and contrariwife, he fruitful and fuch as bring forth Children, accurfed, when he faith a ling. Q barren, thou that did not bear; break forth into Singing, and ry aloud, thou that didit not travail with Child : For more are the Chilren of the defolate, than the Children of the married Wife, Ifa, liv, 1. lowfoever then Sarah, that is to fay, the Church feemeth to be forfake n and barren before the World, not having the Righteoufness and Works of the Law ; yet notwithflanding the is a most fruitful Mother. aving an infinite Number of Children before God, as the Prophet witeffeth. Contrariwife, altho' Agar feem never fo fruitful and to bring orth never fo many Children, yet notwithftanding fhe hath no Iffue reaining : for the Children of the Bond woman are caft out of the Houfe ogether with their Mother, and receive not the Inheritance with the children of the Free-woman, as Paul faith afterwards, Becaufe therefore we are the Children of the Free-woman, the Law or old Husband is abolished, Rom. vii. Who as long as he had nominion over us, it was impossible for us to bring forth Children free a Spirit, or knowing Grace ; but we remained with the o-her in Bondage. True it is, that as long as the Law reign- The People th. Men are not idle, but they labour fore, they bear the of the Law urden and the Heat of the Day, Matth. xx. 12. they laborious ring forth and gender many Children; but as well the and painful. athers as the Children are Baffards, and do not belong the Free-mother. Therefore they are at the length caft out of the loufe and Inheritance with Ifomael; they die and are damned. It is apoffible therefore that Men thould attain to the Inheritance, that is to y, that they should be justified and faved by the Law, altho' they traail never fo much, and be never fo fruitful therein. Accurfed therethre be that Deftrine, Life and Religion, which endeavoureth to get Righteoufnels before God by the Law or the Work's thereof. But let us profecute our Purpole as touching the Abolifhment of the Law.

The School-doctors speaking of the Abolishment of the Law, fay, that the judicial and the ceremonial Laws are pernicious and deadly fince the coming of Chrift, and therefore they are abolifhed ; but not the mo-These blind Doctors knew not what they faid. But if thou tal Law. wilt fpeak of the Abolishment of the Law, talk of it as it is in his own proper Ufe and Office, and as it is fpiritually taken; and comprehend withal the whole Law, making no Diffinction at all between the judicial, ceremonial and moral Law. For when Paul faith, that we are delivered from the Curfe of the Law by Chrift, he fpeaketh of the whole Law, and principally of the moral Law, which only accufeth, curfeth and condemneth the Confcience, which the other two do not. Wherefore we fay that the moral Law or the Law of the Ten Commandments hath no Power to accufe and terrify the Confcience, in which lefus Chrift reigneth by his Grace ; for he hath abolifhed the Power therepf.

The godly Man feeleth the Terrors of the Law, but by Faith in Chrift he is raifed up and comforted again. Not that the Conficience doit not at all fiel the Terrors of the L4w. (For indeed it feeleth them) but that they cannot condemn it, nor bring it to Defperation. For there it was no Condemnations to them which are in Chrift Jefar, Rom. viii. t. Alfo, Jf the Son therefore head make yas free, ye fault be free indeed, John viii. 26. Howfoever then a Chriftian Man be terrified thro' the Law flewing unto him his Sin, notwithfanding he definite horized in him ad Clamfed by his Blood, he hath Remiffion of all his Sins. Now, when our Sin is pardoned thro' Chirk, who is the Lord of the Law, (and yet fo pardoned that he gave himfelf for it) the Law being a Servent hain no more Power to actule and condemn us for Sin, feeing it is forgiven us, and we are now made free, forafmuch as the Son hath delivered us from Bondage. Wherefore the Law is wholly abolified to them that believe in Chrift.

But thou wilt fay; I do nothing. True it is that thou can't do nothing, whereby thou mavel be delivered from the Tymmy of the Law. But hear this joyfal Tidings which the Holy Ghoft bringeth unto there out of the Words of the Prophet; Rejates that that art barren, &c. As if he would fay: Wh yar thou to heavy, why do thou to mount frace there is no Caule why thou thould't fo do? But I am barren and forfaken. Well, altho' thou be never fo barren and forfaken, no thaying the Rightcoulfiels of the Law, notwithItaoding Chritti is thy Right toufnets it, was made a Culfe for their to deliver the from the Culf of the Law. If thou believe in him, the Law is dead unto the: And look how much Chrift is greater than the Law, for much half thou a more excellent Rightcoulfiels then the Rightcoulfiels of the Law. More over, thou art fruinfial and not barren; for thou half many more Chifdren then fine which hat an Hasband. There is allo another Abolihment of the Law which is outward ; wir, that the politick Laws of Mger 40 nothing belong unto ur. Wherefore we ought not to call them back again, nor fuperflicioully and ourfelves unto them; as a forme wara about to do in Timmes path, being porant of this Liberty. Now, althof the Goffel make us not fubjeck the judicial Laws of Mger, ye notwithflanding it doth not exempt from the Obeliance of all politick Laws, but make the situbjeck in this input Life, to the Laws of that Government wherein we live, that is indy, it commandeth every one to obey his Magilitate and Laws, not by for Mrath, but alig for Coglicance Safe, Rom. still 5, 1 Pet ii, And e Emperor, or any other Prince floud hour offend, if the uled fome of a judicial Laws of Mger, yea he might ule them freely and without frence. Therefore the Pophi School-men are deceived, which dream at the judicial Laws of Mger are pernicious and deadly fince the oming of Chrift.

TERSE 27.

Likewife we are not bound to the Ceremonies of  $M_2(\varepsilon)$ ; much lefs the Ceremonies of the Pope. But becaufe this bodily Life cannot be ogether without Ceremonies (for there mult needs be forme Introducn, ) therefore the Gofpel fuffereth Ordinances to be made in the aurch as touching Days, Times, Places, cc. that the People may how upon what Day, in what Hour, and in what Place affemble together to hear the Word of God. It pertreth alfo that Leffons and Readings flouid be appointas in the Schools, effective flouid the Initraction of address and fach as are ignorant. Thefe Things it pertreth, to the End that all may be done comely and derly in the Church, I Gr. sitv. not that they which ep fuch Ordinaces thereby merit Remittion of Sinsoreover they may be changed or comitted without Sin, that it be done without Offence of the weak.

Now Paul Geaketh here effectally of the Abolihment the moral Law; which is diligently to be confidered. ir he fpeaketh againfl the Righteouthefs of the Law, is he might effablich the Righteouthefs of Faith, concludg thus: If only Grace or Faith in Chrift julify, then the whole Law abolified without any Exception. And this he cenmeth by the Telfinnony of Usiab, whiteyby he exherted the barren of UsiAken to rejoice; for it fermeth that fie hash no Child, nor hope er to have any, that is to fay, file hath no Difciples, no favour nor 'unstance of the World, becauf: the preacherh the Worl of the offsof Chrift crucified, againf all the Wildom of the Flefh. But thou t art barren (faith the Frophet) let not this any whit routble theç; a rather Uir up thy Voice and rejoice, for file that is forfaken hath we Children then file that hat an Husband; that is to fay, file that unarried and hath a great Number of Children thall be made weak, 14 file that is forfaken final have many Children.

He calleth the Church barren, because her Churdren are not begotten in the Law, by Works, by any Industry or Endeavour of Man : but but by the Word of Faith in the Spirit of God. Here is nothing elfer but Birth ; no Working at all. Contrariwife, they that are fruitful, 14bour and exercise themselves with great Travel in bearing and bringing forth. Here is altogether Working, and no Birth. and never receive the Inheritance, no tho' they tire them- the felves to Death with continual Travel. For they go aver bout to obtain that by their own Works against the Willie of God, which God of his mere Grace will give to all Believers for Chrift's Sake. The Faithful work well alfo, but they are not thereby made Sons and Heirs (for this their Birth bringeth unto them) but this they do to the End that they being now made Children and Heirs

Verse 28. Now we, Brethren, as Isaac was, are the Children of Promise.

That is to fay, we are not Children of the Fleih, as Ilhmael, or as all the flefhly Hrael, which gloried that they were the Seed of Abraham and the the People of God. But Christ answered them, If ye were the Sons of Abraham, ye would not feek to kill me which speak the Truth unto you. John viii. 39, 40. Alfo, Ver. 42. If God were your Father, then would ye love the and receive my Word. As if he would fay : Brethren born and brought up together in one Houfe, know one anothers Voice: But ye be of your Father the Devil, &c. We are not fuch Children (faith he) as they are which remain Servants, and at length shall be caft out of the Houfe ; but we are Children of the Promife as Ifaat was ; that is to fay, of Grace and of Faith, born only of the Promife. Concerns ing this I have spoken sufficiently before in the 3d Chapter, intrease ing upon this Place ; In thy Seed thall all Nations of the Earth be bleffed Therefore we are pronounced righteous ; not by the Law, by Works, or our own Righteoufnefs, but by the mere Mercy and Grace of God. Paul repeateth very often, and diligently fetteth forth the Promife which is received by Faith alone ; for he knew that it was very neceffary fo 10 do.

Hitherto as touching the Allegory out of Genefis; to which Paul annexeth the Place of Ifaiah as an Interpretation. Now he applieth the Hiftory of Ifbmael and Ifaac for our Example and Confolation.

Verfe 29. But as then he that was born after the Flefh, persecuted him that was born after the Spirit ; even so it is now.

This Place containeth a fingular Confedation. Whofeever are born and live in Chrift, and rejoice in this Birth and Inheri- Immael altance of God, have Ilbmael for their Enemy and their Perfecutor. This we learn at this Day by Experience : For we fee that all the World is full of Tumults. Perfe-cutions, Sects and Offences. Wherefore, if we did not arm ourfelves with this Confolation of Paul, and fuch like, and well underfland this Articleof Juffification, we fhould never beable to withfrand the Violence and fubtil Slights of Satan. For who fhould not be troubled with thefe cruel Perfecutions of our Adverfaries, and with thefe Sects and infinite Offences which a Sort of bufy and fantastical Spirits flir up at this Day? Verily it is no fmall Grief unto us, when we are confrained to hear that all Things were in Peace and Tranquility before the Gofpel came abroad ; but fince the preaching and publishing thereof, all Things are unquiet, and the whole World is in an Uproar, fo that every one armeth himfelf against another. When a Man that is not indued with the Spirit of God heareth this, by and by he is offended, and judgeth that the Difobedience of subjects against their Magistrates, that Seditions, Wars, Plagues and Famine, that the overthrowing of Commonweals, Kingdoms and Countries, that Sects, Offences, nd fuch other infinite Evils do proceed altogether of he Doctrine of the Gofpel.

Against this great Offence we must comfort and arm purfelves with this fweet Confolation, that the Faithful must bear this Name and this Title in the World, that bey are feditious and Schifmaticks, and the Authors of mumorable Evils. And hereof it cometh, that our Adverfaries think they have a just Caufe against us, yea hat they do God good Service, when they hate, perfe-ute and kill us, John xvi. 2. It cannot be then but that Ilhmael mult refecure 1/aac; but 1/aac again perfecuteth not 1/hmael. Whofo will ot fuffer the Perfecution of Ifbmael, let him not profess himself to be Chriftian.

But let our Adverfaries (which fo mightily amplify thefe Evils at his Day) tell us what good Things infued the Preaching of the Gofpel Chrift and his Apoltles. Did not the Destruction of the Kingdom If the Jews follow ? Was not the Roman Empire overthrown ? Was tot the whole World in an Uproar ? And yet the Golpel was not the laufe hereof, which Chrift and his Apoffles preached for the Profit and alvation of Men, and not for their Deftruction. But thefe Things dlowed thro' the Iniquity of the People, the Nations, the Kings and rinces, who being poffeffed of the Devil would not heatken to the Word of Grace, Life, and eternal Salvation ; but deteiled and condemand it as a Doctrine most pernicious and hurtful to Religion and Comon-weals. And that this should fo come to pais, the Holy Ghost fore-Ad by David, when he faish, Why do the Heathen rage, and the Peos imagine a vein Thing ? &c. Pfal. ii. I.

CHAP. IV.

Such Tumults and Hurly burlies we hear and fee at this Day. The Adverfaries lay the Fault on our Doctrine. But the Doctrine of Grace and Peace firreth not up thefe Troubles ; but the People, Nations, Kings and Princes of the Earth (as the Plalmift faith) rage, murmur, confinite and take Counfel, not againft us (as they think) nor againft our Doctrine, which they blafpheme as falfe and feditious ; but againft the Lord and his Anointed. Therefore all their Counfels and Practices are and shall be difappointed and brought to nought, He that fitteth in the Heavens shall laugh : The Lord shall have them in Derision, Pfal. ii. 4. Let them cry out therefore as long as they lift, that we raife up thefe Tumults and Seditions; notwithftanding this Plalm comforteth us, and faith, that they themfelves are the Authors of thefe Troubles. They cannot believe this, and much lefs can they believe that it is they which murmur, rife up, and take Counfel against the Lord and his Anointed ; nay rather they think that they maintain the Lord's Caufe, that they defend his Glory, and do him acnefs of the ceptable Service in perfecuting us, John xvi. 2. But the Adverfaries, Pialm lieth not, and that shall the End declare. Here we do nothing, but we only fuffer, as our Confcience beareth us witness in the Holy Ghoft. Moreover, the Doctrine for the which they raife up fuch Tumults and Offences is not ours, but it is the Doctrine of Chrift. This Doctrine we cannot deny, nor forfake the Defence thereof, feeing Chrift faith ; Whofeever (hall be afhamed of me, and of my Words, in this adulterous and finful Nation; of him shall the Son of Man be alhamed, when he shall come in his own Glory, and in his Fathers, and of his holy Angels, Luke ix. 26.

He therefore that will preach Chrift truly, and confess him to be our Righteoufnels, must be content to hear that he is a pernicious Fellow, and that he troubleth all Things. They which have troubled the World (faid the Jews of Paul and Silas, Acts xvii. 6, 7. ) are alfo come unto us, and have done contrary to the Decrees of Cafar. And in Alts xxiv. 5. We have found this Man a pestilent Fellow, and a Mover of Sedition among all the Jews throughout the World, and a Ringleader of the Self of the Nazarens, &c. In like Manner alfo the Gentiles complain in Acts xvi. 20. These Men being Jews do exceedingly trouble our City. So at this Day they accuse Luther to be a Troublet of the Papacy and of the Roman Empire. If I would keep filence, then all Things thould be in Peace which the ftrong Man poffeffeth, Luke xi, 21, 22, and the Pope would not perfecute me any more. But by this Means the Gospel of Jefus Chrift should be blemished and defaced. If I speak, the Pope is troubled, and cruelly rageth. Either we must lose the Pope. an earthly and mortal Man, or elfe the immortal God, Chrift Jefus, Life and eternal Salvation. Let the Pope periffs then, and let God be exalted, let Chrift reign and triumph for ever.

are one (faith hey) to feat Fire as the Earth, and subst will  $I_i$  if it be already kindled? Luke Xii,  $A_p$ . In like Manner we fee at this Day that great Troubles follow the Preaching of the Golpel hro'the Perfecution and Blajbremy our Adverfaires, and the Ingratitude of the World. This Matter fo grieveth us, that offentimes after the Fleft, and after the Judgment of Reafon, we think it had been better that the Doftrine of the Golpel and not been publiked, then that after the Preaching thereof the publick Peace fhould be for toubled. But according to the ipirit we fay boldly with Christ? I came to feed Fire apart the Earth's ad wohat will I, but that it flowed new be kindled? Now, after that this Fire is kindled, there follow forthwith great Commonions. For it is not a King or an Emperor that is thus provoked , but the God of this World, which is a most mighty Spirit, and the Lord of the whole World. This weak Word, preaching Christ reutified, Depth of the Sea to boil like a Pot,  $\frac{7}{26}$  xli. 31. Hereof bone all thefe Tumults. all thefe furious and cruel Rages of the World.

Wherefore let it not trouble us that our Adverfaries are offended and rry out, that there cometh no Good by the Preaching of the Gofpel. They are Infidels, they are blind and obstinate, and therefore it is impoffible that they fhould fee any Fruit of the Gofpel. But contrariwife. we which believe, do fee the ineftimable Profits and Fruits thereof ; Itho' outwardly for a Time we be opprefied with infinite Evils, defpied, fpoiled, accused, condemned as the Outcasts and filthy Dung of he whole World, and put to Death, and inwardly afflicted with the feeling of our Sin, and veged with Devils. For we live in Chrift, in hom, and by whom we are made Kings and Lords over Sin, Death, he Fleih, the World, Hell, and all Evils. In whom, and by whom fo we tread under our Feet the Dragon and Bafilifk, which is the King f Sin and Death. How is this done? In Faith. For the Bleffedlefs which we hope for, is not yet revealed, which in the mean Time re wait for in Patience, and yet notwithflanding do now affuredly pof-Is the fame by Faith.

We ought therefore diligently to learn the Article of Jufification 2 ir that only is able to (upport us againft thefe infinite Shanders and Ofhores, and to comfort us in all our Tennations and Perfecution. For e fee that it cannot otherwile be, but that the World will be offended full the pure Dochrine of the Golgel, and continually cry out that no bod counch of it. ### CHAP. IV.

On the contrary Part, we ought to flav and comfort ourfelves in this, that our Adversaries do not accuse and condemn us for any manifest Wickedness which we have committed, as Adultery, Murder, Theft and fuch like, but for our Doctrine. And what do we teach? That Chrift the Son of God, by the Death of the Crofs hath redeemed us from our Sins, and from everlafting Death. Therefore they do not impugn our Life, but our Doctrine ; yea the Doctrine of Chrift, and not ours. Therefore if there be any Offence, it is Chrift's Offence, and not ours a and fo the Fault wherefore they perfecute us. Chrift hath committed, and not we. Now, whether they will condemn Chrift, and pluck him out of Heaven as an Heretick and feditious Person for this Fault, that he is our only Juftifier and Saviour, let them look to that. As for us, we commending this his own Caufe unto himfelf, are quiet Beholders whether of them thall have the Victory. Chrift or they. Indeed after the Flefh it grieveth us that these Ilbmaelites hate and perfecute us to fusioully ; notwithftanding according to the Spirit we glory in these Afflictions, both becaufe we know that we fuffer them not for our Sins, but for Chrift's Caufe, whole Benefit and whole Glory we let forth, and alfo because Paul giveth us Warning aforehand, that Ilbmael must mock Ifaac and perfecute him.

The free expound this Place, which Paul alledgeth out of Gen. sxi. 9. of Ulmael mocking and perfecting Ifae after this Manner, that Ulmael conditained Ifae to commit Idolaty. If he did 6, yet 1 believe not that it was any fach groß Idolaty as the Jenu dream of: 10 wit, that Ifamed rade Image's of Clay after the Manner of the Genitic.

What Manner of Man Ishmael was.

which he compelled Jace to working: For this Alraham would in no wile have fufficred. But I think that Ilham ef was in outwald Shew a holy Man, as Cuin was, who allo perfecuted his Brother, and at length killed him; not for any corporal Thing, but becaule he faw that God effermed him above the other. In like Manne I Jimmel Was outwardly a Lover of Religion, he factificed, and exercised himmelf in well-doing. Therefore he mocked his Bouher I Joac, and would be eltermed a better Man then he for two Reafons. Firfl, For his Religion and Service of God. Secondly, For his civil Government and Inheritance. And thefe two Things he fermed julity to challenge to himfelf. For he thought that the Kingdom and Prieffbood pertained to him by the Right of God'a Law as the fifth born; and therefore he perfecuted Jiace fpiritually because of Religion, and corporally becaute of his Inheritance.

This Perfecution always remains h h the Church, effectially when the Dockrine of the Goffeel flourisherts is wirk, that the Children of the Elefn mock the Children of the Promite, and perfectute them. The Popifit perfectue us at this Day, and for none other Caule, but for that we teach that Righteoufierfs cometh by the Promite. For it vexets the Papifit that we will not working their Idols, that is to fay, that we fer not forth: their Righteoufierfs, their Works and Worthippings deviled and ordined by Men, as available to obtain Grase and Forgiventh 50 Sins. And for this Caule they go about to caft us out of the Hours, we have at is to fay, they vaunt that they are the Church, the Children and ople of God, and that the Inheritance belongeth unto them, ere. intrariwife, they excommunicate and banifh us as Hereticks and fedius Perfons, and if they can, they kill us alfo; and in fo dos, they think they do God good Service. So as much as in them lih, they caft us out of this Life, and the Life to come. The Anabapis and fuch other do have us deadly, because we impugn and deteft eir Errors and Herefies which they foread abroad, and daily renue in e Church, and for this Caufe they judge us to be far worfe then the spifts, and therefore they have conceived a more cruel Hatred against then against the Pupifts.

As foun therefore as the Word of God is brought to The Devil ight, the Devil is angry, and uleth all his Force and perfecuteth buil Slight to perfecute it, and utterly to abolish it. herefore he can no otherwife do, but raife up infinite by Violence Ets, horrible Offences, cruel Perfecutions, and abominae Murders : For he is the Father of Lying and of Mur-

ir. He foreadeth his Lies throughout the World by falle Teachers, d he killeth Men by Tyrants. By these Means he poffeffeth both the iritual and the corporal Kingdom ; the fpiritual Kingdom by the lying falfe Teachers (ftirring up alfo without ceafing every Man, particurly by his fiery Darts, to Herefies and wicked Opinions ;) the corpo-Kingdom by the Sword of Tyrants. Thus this Father of Lying and Murder, flirreth up Perfecution on every Side, both fpiritual and corwral, against the Children of the Free woman. The spiritual Ferfecuon which we are at this Day confirained to fuffer of Hereticks, is to molt grievous and intollerable, because of the infinite Offences and anders wherewith the Devil goeth about to deface our Doctrine. For e are enforced to hear, that the Errors and Herefies of the Anabaptifis id other Hereticks, and all other Enormities do proceed from our Docine. The corporal Perfecution, by which Tyrants ly in wait for our bods and Lives, is more intollerable ; for they perfecute us not for our ns, but for the Teftimony of the Word of God. Let us learn therere, even by the Title which Chrift giveth to the Devil, to. wit, that is the Father of Lying and Murder, John vili. 44. that when the ofpel flourisheth, and Chrift reigneth, then Sects of Perdition mult beds fpring up, and Murderers perfecuting the Golpel, muft rage evewhere. And Paul faith; That there mult be also Herefies, I Cor. xi. D. He that is ignorant of this is foon offended, and falling away from e true God, and true Faith, he returneth to his old God, and old falfe

Paul therefore in this Place armeth the Godly before Hand, that they could not be offended with those Perfecutions, Sects and Offences, fayg; But as then he that was born after the Flefh, &c. As if he would y; If we be the Children of the Promife, and born after the Spirit, e must furely look to be perfecuted of our Brother which is born after he Fleih ; that is to fay, not only our Enemies which are manifeftly icked, fhall perfecute us, but allo fuch as at the full were our dear Friends,

Friends, with whom we were familiarly converfant in one Houfe, which received from us the true Doctrine of the Gofnel, fhall become our deadly Enemies, and perfecute us extreamly. For they are Brethren after the Flefh, and mult perfecute their Brethren which are born after the Spirit. So Chrift in Plal. xli. g. complaineth of Judas ; Mine own familiar Friend in whom. I truffed, which did eat of my Bread, bath life up his Heel against me. But this is our Confolation, that we have not given any Occasion to our Immaelites to perfecute us. The Papills perfecute us, becaufe we teach the pure and fincere Doctrine of the Gofpel : which if we would forfake, they would perfecute us no more. Mereover, if we would approve the pernicious Herefies of the Sectaries, they would praife us. But becaufe we deteft and abhor the Impiety both of the one and the other, therefore do they fo fpitefully hate, and fo cruelly perfecute us.

But not only Paul (as I have faid) armeth us against fuch Perfecutions and Off nces, but Chrift himfelf also most fweetly comforteth us in w John XV. 19, faying, If ye were of the World, the World would love his own ; but becaule ye are not of the World, but I have cholen you out of the World, therefore the World bateth you. As if he would fay ; I am the Caufe of all these Perfecutions which we endure ; and if ye be killed, it is I for whofe Sake ye are killed. For if ye did not preach my Word and con-w fels me, the World would not perfecute you. But it goeth well with you; For the Servant is not greater then his Lord, Matth. x. 24. 11 they have perfecuted me, they will also perfecute you for my Names Seke. John XV. 20, 21,

By these Words Chrift layeth all the Fault upon himself, and delivereth us from all Fear. ! As if he would fay ; Ye are not the Caufe why the World hateth and perfecuteth you, but my Name which ye. preach and confels, is the Caufe thereof. But be of good Comfort, I have overcome the World. This Comfort upholdeth us, fo that we doubt nothing but that Chrift is ftrong enough, not only to bear, but alfo tool vanquifh all the Cruelty of Tyrants, and the fubtil Slights of Hereticks, and this he hath declared in flewing forth his Power against the a

Tews and Romans, whole Tyranny and Perfecutions he for fuffered for a Time. He alfo, fuffered the fubril and crafty Practices of Hereticks, but in Time and Place he overthrew them all, and remained King and Conqueror. Let the Papifls then rage as much as they will ; Let the Sectaries flander and corrupt the Goffiel of Chrift as much as it. they can; notwithftanding Chrift fhall reign-eternally, and his Word fhall fland for ever, when all his Enemies fhall be brought to nought. Moreover, this is a fingular Confelation that the Perfecution of Ilemael against Ifaat fhall not always continue, but fhall endure for a little while, and when a that is ended, the Sentence fhall be pronounced as followeth.

To the GALATIANS. ERSE 20.

Jerse 20. Nevertheles, what faith the Scripture? Caft out the Bond-woman and ber Son: For Gen. wwi. the Son of the Bond-woman (ball not be Heir with the Son of the Free-woman.

This Word of Sarah was very grievous to Abraham; and no doubt. when he heard this Sentence, his fatherly Bowels were moved with Compaffion towards his Son Ilbmael; for he was born of his Fleih. And his the Scripture plainly witheffeth, Gen. xxi. 11. when it faith; And the Thing was very grievous in Abraham's Sight, becaufe of his Son. But Bod confirmed the Sentence which Sarah pronounced, faying to Abraam; Let it not be grievous in thy Sight, because of the Lad, and because f the Bond-woman : In all that Sarah hath faid unto thee, hearken unte er Voice, for in Ifaac fball thy Seed be called, Ver. 12.

The I/rasites hear in this Place the Sentence pronounced against them, which overthroweth the Jews, Grecians, Romans, and all others which perfecute the Church of Chrift. The felf-fame Sentence alfo thall o. verthrow the Papifis, and as many as truft in their own Works, which at this Day boaft themfelves, to be the People of God and the Church ; which alfo truft that they Thall furely receive the Inheritance, and judge us which reft upon the Promife of God, not only to be barren and forfiken, but alfo Hereticks caft out of the Church, and that it is impoffible that we thould be Sons and Heirs'. But God overthroweth their Judgment, and pronounceth this Sentence against them, that because they are the Children of the Bond woman, and perfecute the Children of the Free-woman, therefore they shall be caft out of the Houfe, and shall have no Inheritance with the Children of Promile, to whom only the Inheritance belongeth; becaufe they are the Children of the Free-woman. This Sentence is ratified, and can never be revoked; wherefore it fhall affuredly come to pals, that our libmaelites thall not only lofe the ecclefiaffical and politiek Government which now they have, but also everlafting Life. For the Scripture hath foretold, that the Children of the Bond-woman shall be caft out of the Houfe, that is to fay, out of the Kingdom of Grace; for they cannot be Heirs together with the Children of the Free-woman.

Now, here it is to be noted, that the Holy Ghoft calleth the People of the Law and Works, as it were in Confempt, the Child of the Bondwoman. As if he faid ; Why do ye vaunt of the Righteoufnels of the Law and Works, and why do ye glory that ye are the People and Children of God for the fame? If ye know not of whom ye are born, I will tell you; you are Bond-fervants of a Bond-woman. And what Servants ? The Bond-fervants of the Law, and confequently of Sin, of Death, and of everlafting Damnation. Now, a Servant is no Inheritor, but is call out of the Houfe. Wherefore the Pope with all his Kingdom, and all other Jufficieries siories (what outward Appearance of Holinefs forewr they have) which hope to obtain Grace and Salvation by the Law, are Servants of that Bond-woman, and have no inheritance with the Children of the Freewoman. If peak nose, not to the Poper, Cardinali, Biylopt and Monks that were, manifelfly wicked, who have mude their Ballies their god, and have committed fuch horrible Sins as I will not willingly name; but of the beff of them, fuch I mean as lived holily, and wave about having great Labour and Travel by keeping of their Monkift Order, to pacify the Wrath of God, and to merit Remittion of their Sins, and everlaiting Life. Thefe hear their Sentence have pronounced, that the Sons of the Bond-woman mult be calt out of the Houfe with their Mother the Bond-woman.

Such Sentences diligently confidered, make us certain of our Doctrine. and confirm us in the Rightconfnels of Faith, againft the Doctrine and Righteoufnels of Works which the World embraceth and magnifieth. condemning and defpifing the other. And this troubleth and offendeth weak Confciences ; which albeit they plainly fee the Impiety, the execrable Wickednefs, and horrible Abominations of the Papills, yet notwithitanding, they are not cafily perfwaded, that all the Multitude which beareth the Name and Title of the Church do err, and that there are but few of them which have a found and right Opinion of the Doctrine of Faith. And if the Papacy had the fame Holinefs and Aufterity of Life which it had in the Time of the ancient Fathers, Hierome, Ambrole, Augustine, and others, when the Clergy had not yet fo evil a Name for their Simony, Excels, Abundance of Riches, diffolute living, Veluptuoufnels, Whoredom, Sodomitry, and fuch other infinite Abominations, but lived after the Rules and Decrees of the Fathers religiously, and holily in outward Shew, and unmarried. What could we do now againft the Papacy ?

The fingle Lite which the Clergy kept very firsightly in the Time of the Fathers, was a goodly Thing, and made of Men very Angels in the Sight of the World, and therefore Paul in the 2d Chapter to the Co-

The contemplative Life of Monkr and fach other, which fequelted themfelves from the World and all worldly Affairs. Agliarr, calleth it the Religion of Angels. And the  $P_{ac}$ pils ing thus of their Virgins : Heled an angelical Life wildlike lived in the Fleid, and yet lived contrary to the Fleih. Moreover, the Life which they call the contemplative Life (whereauch the Clergy Men were then very much given, utterly neglecting all civil and houthold Government) had a goodly Shew of Holinefs. Wherefore, if that outward Shew and Appearance of the old Papacy remained at this Day, we fhould peradventure do but little againft it by our Doftme of Faith, feeing we do now fo little prevail when (that old Shew of outward Holinefs and fevere Dickipine being utterly abulified) interis nothing to be feen but a very Sink and Puddle of all Vices and Abourniations.

But admit the Cafe that the old Difcipline and Religion of the Papacy were yet remaining ; notwithflaoding we ought by the Example of Paul (who vehemently purfued the fails Apolities, which outwardly appeared ited to be very godly and holy Men) to fight againft the Meringers of the Papillical Kingdom, and to fay, Alho' ye live a fingle, yrying and conformig your Bodles with continual Travel, and King in the Humility and Religion of Angels : Yet are ye Servans of Law, of Sin and of the Devil, and mult be calt out of the Hoafe : ye feek Righteoufices and Salvation by your Works, and not by fift.

Wherefore we ought not fo much to confider the wicked Life of the  $p^{i}/\mu_{s}$  as their abominable Dockine and Hypocrify, againft the which (pocially fight. Let us toppofe then that the Religion and Difeine of the old Papery doth yet [full floarifh, and that it is now objectwith as much Severity and Strainfes as zever it was:

t muft we fay notwithflanding : If ye have nothing t this Holineis and Chaftity of Life to fer againft the Tath and Judgment of God, ye are in very deed the ns of the Bond woman which muft be caft out of the ngdorn of Heaven and be danned. No Holinels of Life can be fet againft God's Judgment.

And now they themfelves do not defend their wicked  $f_c$ , may rather, they which are the beft and the foundeft of them all do test, it; but they fight for the Maintenance and Defence of the Docine of Devils, for Hypporify, and for the Kighteoninfes of Works. ere they alledge the Authority of Councils, and the Examples of holy thers, whem they affirm to have been the Authors of their holy Orders of Statutes. Therefore we fight not againft the marifed Wickedneffs of Abominations of the Papacy, but againft the grateft Holinefs, and Dieft Saints threeof, which thick they lead an angelical

Life, but he took hold of that one Thing which was necefficy, and was faved. I think that Jerome, Gregory, and many other of the Fithers were faved after the fame Sort. And it is not to be doubled, by that also in the Old Techament, many Kings of Jfred and other Idolates in were faved in like Manner, who at the Hour of Detth catting are autheir vain. Truft which they had in Idols, took hold of the Promiter e Gold, which was made unto the Seed of Jaraham. that is to fay, Chrit in whom all Nations thould be bleffed. #### Veric 31. So then, Brøthren, we are not Children of the Bond-woman, but of the free.

Paul here conclude the Allegory of the barren Church, and of the faultful People of the Law. We are not (faith the) the Children of the Bond woman; that is to fay, we are not under the Law which begettette uso Bondase, that is, which terrifieth, accufeth, and bringeth to Defect peration ; but we are delivered from it by Chifi ; therefore it cannot terrify nor condema us. Of this we have flocken enough before. Moreover, althout the Sons of that Bond woman do perfectute us never fo much for a Time yet this is one Comfort, that they flall be compelled to live the Inheritance unto us, which belongeth unto us that are the Sons of the Free woman, and flall at length be call into uter Darknefs, Masth., xxx, 41.

Paul therefore by thefe Words [Bond woman and Free-woman] took Occasion (as we have heard) to reject the Righteoufness of the Law, and to confirm the Ductrine of Juffification. And of Purpole he taketh hold of this Word (Free-woman) vehemently urging and amplifying the fame, especially in the Beginning of the Chapter following. Whereupon he taketh Occasion to reason of Chriftian Liberty, the Knowledge whereof is very necessary : For the Pope hath in a Manner quite overthrown it, and made the Church fubject to Man's Traditions and Ceremonies, and to a most miferable and filthy Bondage. That Liberty which is purchased by Chrift, is unto us at this Day a most firong Fort and Munition whereby we defend ourfelves against the Tyranny of the Pope. Wherefore we must diligently confider this Doctrine of Christian Liberty, as well to confirm the Doctrine of Juflification, as alfo to raife up and comfort weak Confciences, against to many Troubles and Offences, which our Adverfaries do impute unto the Gofpel. Now, Chriftian Liberty is a very fpiritual Thing, which the carnal Man doth not underftand. Yca they which have the first Fruits of the Spirit, and can talk well thereof, do very hardly retain it in their Heart, Rom. viii. 26. It feemeth to Reafon that it it a Matter of fmall Importance. Therefore if the Holy Ghoft do not magnify it that it may be effected accordingly, it is contemned.

publick Charges. Moreover, there is a fieldly, or rather a devilish Liberty, whereby the Devil chiefly reigneth throughout the whole World. For they that enjoy think Liberty, obey neither God nor Laws, but do what they lift. This Liberty the People feek and embrace at this Day ; and to do the Sectories, which will be at Liberty alu in their Opinions and in all their Doings, to the End they may teach and do whatfoever they dream to be good and found, without Reprehension. These stand in that Li berty wherein the Devil hath made them free. But we fneak not here of this Liberty : albeit the whole World feeketh no o-li ther Liberty. Neither do we fpeak of the civil Liberty, but of a far other Manner of Liberty, which the Devil hateth and relifteth with all his Power.

This is that Liberty whereby Chrift hath made us free : hot from an earthly Bondage, or from the Babylonical Captivity, or from the Tyranny of the Turks, but from God's everlafting Wrath. And where is this done? In the Confcience. There refteth our Liberty, and goeth no fariher. For Chrift hath made us free, not civilly, nor carnally, but divinely : that is to fay, we are made free in fuch Sort, that our Confcience is now free and quiet, not fearing the Wrath of God to come. This is that true and ineftimable Liberty, to the Excellency and Majefty whereof if we compare the other, they are but as one Drop of Water in refpect of the whole Sea. For who is able to express what a Thing it is when a Man is affured in his Heart, that God neither is nor will be angry with him, but will be for ever a merciful and loving Father unto him for Chrift's Sake ? This is indeed a matvellous and an incomprehensible Liberty, to have the most high and fovereign Majefty to favourable unto us, that he doth not only defend, maintain and fuccour us in this Life, but alfo as touching our Bodies will fo deliver us, that our Bodies which are fown in Corruption, in Difhonour and Infirmity. (hall rife again in Incorruption, in Glory and Power, 1 Cor. xv. 42, 43, 44. Wherefore this is an ineftimable Liberty, that we are made free from the Wrath of God for ever, and is greater then Heaven and Earth, and all other Creatures.

Of this Liberty there followeth another, whereby thro' Chrift we are made free from the Law, Sin, Death, the Power of the Devil, Hell, be. For as the Wrath of God cannot terrify us, for that Chrift hath delivered us from the fame ; fo the Law, Sin and Death, cannot accuse a) ad condemn us. And slibb' the Law scufe us, and Sin terrify us, at they cannot drive us to Defperation. For Faith, which overcometh to World, by and by faith : The's Things belong nou unto me : For hrift hath made me free, and delivered me from them all. Likewife us taking the Molecular and the state of the Majely of this Chritthan Liberty is highly to be effected, utterly vanquilhed in the Concience by this Liberty of the Spirit. Varcefore the Majely of this Chritthan Liberty is highly to be effected, and diligently confidered. It is an eafy Matter for a Man to fpeak life Worlds [Freedom from the Wrath of God, Sin and Death.] but the Thing of Tentarion, Experience and Practice to apply them too minfield, and to fed the Excellency of this Liberty, and the Fruit there, i, it is a harder Matter then can be experience.

Therefore our Conficience muft be infrueded and preared before Hand, that when we fed the Acculation of ag the Law, the Terrors of Sin, the Horror of Death, and A the Wrath of Gud, we may remove thele heavy Sights, Tud feartil Pantaies out of our Minds, and fer in the the lace thereof the Freedom purchafed by Chrift, the Foruvenesh of Sins, Righteounies, Life, and the everified-ig Mercy of God. And albeit the Feeling of the contrary be very toog, yet let us affure ourleves that it thall not long endure ; acronding to that Saying of the Propher; is a lattle Wrath I hid my Face on three, for a Maneet : Bat with zerefolding Kindney's will I have large on three, for a Maneet : Bat with zerefolding Kindney's will I have large on three, for a Maneet : Bat with zerefolding Kindney's will i have large on three, for a Maneet : Bat with zerefolding Kindney's will i have large on the start is a serie of foon believed as is maned. If it could be appehended with a fure and a ledisht Paith, en no Rage or Terror of the World, of the Law, Sin, Death, or the evil, could be fog great, but by and by it hould be fouldwed up as a tel Drop of Water is fwillowei of the main Sea. And certainly this brillian Liberty fwalloweit up at once and taketh quite away the whole eap of Evils, the Law, Sin, Death, God's Wrath, and briefly, the rpent himleff with his Head and whole Poweet, and in the Stead, steed fit placeth Righteoufneds, Peace, and evertaling Life, éze. Bat eifed is beinthal and believelt, Law zh.

Let us learn therefore to magnify this our Liberty, Chriffian trchafed by Jefus Chrift the Son of God, by whom all Liberty, pings were created both in Heaven and Earth. Which berip he hash purchafed with no other Proce then with histown Blod, deliver us, not form any bodily or temporal servitude, but from a fpinal and everlafting Bondage under mighty and invitable Tyrants, mit, the Law, Sim Death and the Devil, and fo to reconcile us unto ed his Fatter. Now, fince thele Bondings are overcome, and we reacided unto God by the Death of his Son, it is certain that we are hictous before God, and that whatflower we do, pleafed him. And no' there he certain Remnants of Sin yet Hill in us, they are not haid our Charge but pardoned for Chrift's Sake.

Paul alieth Words of great Force and Vehemency. Stand fall (faith in the Liberty wherewith Chrift hash made us free. This Liberty then then is not given unto us by the Law, or for our Righteoufnefs, but freely for Chrift's Sake : Which Thing Paul here witneffeth, and plain ly declareth throughout his whole Epiftle. Chrift alfo faith, John viii, 12 16. If the Son therefore (ball make you free, ye (ball be free indeed. Hein) only is fet betwixt us and the Evils which trouble and afflict us : here hath overcome them and taken them away, fo that they can no more Rich opprefs us, nor condemn us. In the Stead of Sin and Death he give that unto us Righteoufnels and everlafting Life ; and by this Means he chang-rate eth the Bondage and Terrors of the Law, into the Liberty of Confcience and Confolation of the Gofpel, which faith ; Be of good Cheer, my Son, thy Sins are forgiven thee, Matth. ix. g. Whofoever then believeth in Chrift the Son of Gop, he bath this Liberty.

Reafon cannot perceive the Excellency of this Matter ; which when we * Man confidereth in Soirit, he fhall fee that it is ineffimable. For who we is able to conceive in his Mind how great and unfpeakable a Gift it is to have the Forgiveness of Sins, Righteousness and everlasting Life, in a the Stead of the Law, Sin, Death and the Wrath of God, and to have an

God himfelf favourable and merciful for ever ? The Paylin Hypocrites pills and the Hypocrites that feek the Righteoufnefs of the brag much the Law, or their own Righteoufnels, do glory that they at likewife have Remiffion of Sins, Righteoufnels, Life and an the Grace of God. For they yaunt that they also have this Liberty, and they promife the fame unto others ; but in very deed to they are the Servants of Corruption, and in the Time of Tentation all their vain Confidence vanisheth away even in a Moment. For they trust unto the Works and Satisfaction of Men, and not to the Word of God. nor unto Chrift. Wherefore it is impossible for the Jufficiaries which we feek to win Heaven, Life and Salvation by Works and Merits, to know what the Liberty and Deliverance from Sin is.

Contratiwife, our Liberty hath for her Foundation Chrift himfelf, who is our everlasting High Bishop, fitting at the Right-hand of God, and making Interceffion for us. Wherefore the Forgivenels of Sins, Rightcoufnefs, Life and Liberty which we have thro' him, is fure, certain and perpetual, fo that we believe the fame. Wherefore if we cleave unto Chrift with a ftedfaft Faith, and fland faft in that Liberty wherein he hath made us free, we fhall obtain those incltimable Gifts ; but if we be carelefs and negligent, we fhall lofe them. It is not without Caufe that Paul biddeth us watch and ftand falt ; for he knew that the Devil feeketh nothing more, then to fpoil us of this Liberry which coff Chrift fo great a Price, and to intangle us again by his Minifters in the Thke of Bondage, as followeth.

To the GALATIANS.

It the Galatians to continue in the fame ; for it is eafily loft. Thereare he hiddeth them fland fait, left that thro' Negligence or Security, revery fall back again from Grace and Faith, to the Law and Works. ow, becaule Reafon ludgeth that there can be no Danger in preferring se Righteoufnels of the Law before the Righteoufnels of Faith ; thereire with a certain Indignation he enveigheth against the Law, and with reat Contempt he calleth it a Yoke, yea, a Yoke of Bondage. So Per calleth it alfo. Acts xv. 10. Why tempt ye God, to put a Toke upon the leck of the Difciples, which neither our Fathers, nor we were able to ar ? And thus he turneth all Things to the contrary. For the falle Apoles did abase the Promise, and magnified the Law and the Works there-I in this wife ; If ye will be made free (fay they) from Sin and Death, ad obtain Righteoufnels and Life, fulfil the Law, be circumcifed, obrve Days, Months, Times and Years, offer Sacrifices, and do fuch oier like Things; then shall this Obedience of the Law justify and fave pu. But Paul faith the contrary. They (faith he) that teach the aw after this Sort, do not fet Mens Confciences at Liberty, but friare d intangle them with a Yoke, yea, and that with a Yoke of Bondage. He fpeaketh therefore of the Law very bafely and contemptuoufly, d calleth it a hard Bondage, and a fervile Yoke. And this he doth ot without great Caufe. For this petnicious Opinion of the Law, that justifieth and maketh Men rightcous before God, is deeply rooted in an's Reafon, and all Mankind is fo wrapped in it, that it can hardly t out. And Paul feemeth here to compare those that feck Rightcoufis by the Law, unto Oxen that be tied to the Yoke, to the End he ight take from it the Glory of juffifying and of Righteoufnels. For te as Oxen do draw in the Yoke with great Toil, receive nothing ereby but Forrage and Paffure, and when they be able to draw the oke no more, are appointed to the Slaughter : Even fo they that feek ghteoufnefs by the Law, are Captives and oppreffed with the Yoke of indage, that is to fay, with the Law ; and when they have tyred themves a long Time in the Works of the Law with great and grievous Toil. the End this is their Reward, that they are milerable and perpetual rvants. And whereof ! Even of Sin, Death, God's Wrath, and of e Devil. Wherefore there is no greater or harder Bondage, then the indage of the Law. It is not without Caufe then, that Paul calleth the Yoke of Boridage. For as we have often faid before, the Law doth t reveal, increase and aggravate Sin, accuse, terrify, condemn and nder Wrath, and finally it driveth poor Confciences into Desperation, ich is the most milerable and most grievous Bondage that can be, m. 111. 4, 5.

He useth therefore very vehement. Words. For he would gladly fwade them that they should not fuffer this intollerable Burden to be I upon their Shoulders by the falle Apolles, or be intangled again th the Yoke of Bondage. As if he fhould fay ; We fland not here on a Matter of fmall Importance, but either of everlafting Liberty, everlafting Bondage. For like as Freedom from God's Wrath and Evils is not temporal or carnal, but everlafting : Even fo the Bon-Rb dage of Sin, Death, the Devil, and Damnation (wherewithal they be opprefield which will be made rightcom and faved by the Law) is not corported and fuch as continuents for a Time, but everlating. For fuch Workers, of the Law as go about to perform and accomplish all Things precisely and exactly (for of fuch Pauf peakett) can never fund Quiernefs and, Peace of Conficience in this Life. They always doubt of the Good-will (God towards them; i they are always in Feac of Death, the Workh and Judgment of God, and after this Life they full be punithed for the: (Duelief with everlating Damnation.

Therefore the Doen of the Law, and fuch as fland altogether upon the Righteoufnels and Works thereof, are rightly called the Devil's Martyrs. They take more Pains and punish themselves more in purchaling Hell (according to the Proverb) then the Martyrs of Chrift de in obtaining Heaven. For they are tormented two Manner of Ways. Firll. They milerably afflict themfelves whill they live here, by doing of many hard and great Works, and all in vain ; and afterwards when they die, they reap for a Recompence, everlafting Damnation. Thus are they molt miferable Martyrs, both in this Life, and in the Life to come, and their Bondage is everlafting. Contrariwife, the Godly have Troubles in this World, but in Chrift they have Peace, because they believe that he hath overcome the World, John xvi. 33. Wherefore we must stand fast in that Freedom which Christ hath purchased for us by his Death, and we must take good heed that we be not intangled again with the Yoke of Bondage : As it happeneth at this Day to the fantaffical Spirits, who falling away from Faith, and from this Freedom, have procured unto themfelves here a temporal Bondage, and in the World to come thall be opprefield with an everlating Bondage. As for the Papili, the molt Part of them are become at this Day plain Epicores. Therefore whiles they may, they use the Liberty of the Fielh, finging this carelefs song: Eck, bies, take, pol Mortem wills evaluate a That is, Eat, drint, and make goad Cheer, for after this Life there is no Plegine. But they are the very Bondy flaves of the Devil, by whom they are holden Captives at his Will and Pleature; therefore they final feel this everylating Bondage in Hell. Hitherto Paul's Exitoration hath been vehement and earnells but that which followeth dott his pafs it.

Verfe 2. Behold, I Paul fay unto you, that if ye be circumcifed, Chrift fhall profit you nothing.

Paul here wonderfully flirred up with Zeal and Fervency of Spirit hundreth againly the Law and Carolimcilion ; and these thundring Words proceeding of great Zeal, the Holy Gholy wreften from him when has hith; Bobold, I Paul, &c. I (I hay) who know that I have not reaccirced size Gainel by Man, batby the Revelation of Jelias Chrift, and have have Commillion and Authority from above, to publish and preach the fame unto you, do tell you, that if ye be circumcifed. Chrift fhall profit you nothing at all. This is a very hard Sentence ; whereby Paul declareth, that to be circumcifed, is as much as to make Chrift utterly unprofitable : not in refpect of himfelf, but of the Galatians, who being deceived by the Subtilities of the falle Apofilies, believed that beliedes Faith in Chrift, it was needful for the Faithful to be circumcifed, without the which they could not obtain Salvation.

This Place is as it were a Touch-flone, whereby we may most certainly and freely judge of all Doctrines, Works, Religions and Ceremonies of all Men. Whofoever teach that there is any Thing necessary to Salvation (whether they be Papifls, Turks, Jews or Sectaries) befides Faith in Chrift, or fhall devife any Work or Religion, or observe any Rule, Tradition or Ceremony whatfoever, with this Opinion that by fuch Things they fhall obtain Forgiveness of Sins, Righteousness and everlasting Life; they hear in this Place the Sentence of the Holy Ghoft pronounced against them by the Apoftle, that Chrift profiteth them nothing. Seeing Paul durft give this Sentence against the Law and Circumcifion, which were wordained of God himfelf. What durft he not do againft the Chaff and the Drofs of Mens Traditions?

Wherefore this Place is a terrible Thunder-bolt against all the Kingdom of the Pope., For all the Priefts, Monks and Heremites that live in their Cloifters (I fpeak of the beft of them) reposed all their Truff and Confidence in their own Works, Righteoufnels, Vows and Merits, and not in Chrift, whom they most wickedly and blasphemously imagined to be an angry Judge, an Accufer and Condemner ; and therefore there they hear their Judgment, that Chrift profiteth them nothing. For if they can put away Sins, and deferve Forgiveness of Sins, and everafting Life thro' their own Righteoufnels and Straitnels of Life : then, To what Purpofe was Chrift born ! What Profit have they by his Death and Blood fhedding, by his Refurrection, Victory over Sin, Death and the Devil, feeing they are able to overcome these Monfters by their own strength ! And what Tongue can express, or what Heart can conceive how horrible a Thing it is to make Chrift unprofitable ? Therefore the Apostle casteth out these Words with great Displeasure and Indignation ; If ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing ; that is to fay, no Proht should redound unto you of all his Benefits; but he hath beflowed them all upon you in vain.

Hereby it appeareth fufficiently, that nothing under the Sun is more nurtful then the Doctrine of Mens Traditions and Works; for they uterly abolish and overthrow at once the Truth of the Gospel, Faith, the rue Worfhipping of God, and Chrift himfelf in whom the Father hath redained all Things, Col. ii. 3,--9. In Chrift are hid all the Treafurst of Wildom and Knowledge. In him dwelleth all the Fulnefs of the Godwead bodily. Wherefore all they that are either Authors or Maintainers of the Doctrine of Works, are Oppreffors of the Gofpel, make the Death and and Victory of Chrift unprofitable, blemifh and deface his Sacraments. and utterly take away the true Ufe thereof, and briefly, they are Blafa pliemers, Enemies and Deniers of God, and of all his Promifes and Benefits. Who fo is not moved with these Words of Paul (which calleth the Law a Yoke of Bondage, and faith, that they which affirm the keeping of Circumcifion to be neceffary to Salvation, make Chrift unprofitable) and cannot be driven from the Law and Circumcifion, nor yet from the Confidence which he hath in his own Righteoufnels and Works, nor be ftirred up to feek that Liberty which is in Chrift, his Heart is harder then Stone and Iron.

This is therefore a most certain and clear Sentence, that Christ is unprofitable, that is to fay, he is born, crucified and rifen again in vain to him that is circumcifed, that is, which putteth his Truft in Circumcifion. For (as I have faid before) Paul speaketh not here of the Work of Circumcifion (which hurteth not him that hath no Affiance or Opinion of Righteouf-Confidence nefs in it) but of the Ufe of the Work, that is to fav. of the Confidence and Righteoufness that is annexed to the Work : For we mult understand Paul according to the Matter whereof he intreateth, or according to the Argument which he hath in Hand ; which is, that Men be not juffified by the Law, by Works, by Circumcifion or fuch like. He faith not, that Works of themfelves are nothing, but the Confidence and Righteoufnefs of Works are nothing ; for that maketh Chrift unprofitable. Therefore who fo receiveth Circumcifion, with this Opinion that it is neceffary to Juftification, to him Chrift availeth nothing.

Let us bear this well in Mind in our private Tentations when the Devil accuseth and terrifieth our Confcience to drive it to Desperation. For he is the Father of Lying, and the Enemy of Chriftian Liberty : therefore he tormenteth us every Moment with falfe Fears, that when our Confcience hath loft this Chriftian Liberty, it fhould feel the Remorfe of Sin and Condemnation, and always remain in Anguish and Terror. When that great Dragon (I fay) that old Serpent the Devil (who deceiveth the whole World, and acculeth our Brethren in the Prefence of God Day and Night, Rev. xii. 10.) cometh and layeth unto thy Charge, that shou haft not only done no good, but haft alfo tranfgreffed the Law of God, fay unto him ; Thou troubleft me with the Remembrance of my Sins paft ; Thou putteft me alfo in Mind that I have done no good. But this is nothing to me ; for if either I truffed in mine own good cufeth and Deods, or diffrusted because I have done none, Christ frould both Ways profit me nothing at all. Therefore whether thou lay my Sins before me, or my good Works,

I pals not ; but removing both far out of Sight, I only reft in that Liberty wherein Chrift hath made me free. I know him to be profitable unto me ; therefore I will not make him unprofitable ; which I fhould do, if either I fhould prefume to purchase myfelf Favour and everlaftina ng Life by my good Deeds, or fhould defpair of my Salvation, becaufe f my Sins.

Wherefore let th learn with all Diligence to feparate Chrift far from ill Works, as well good as evit; from all Laws both of God and Man, and from all troubled Conficiences; for with all thefe Chrift hath nohing to do. He hash to do (I gram) with afficked Conficiences; howieit not to affield them more, but to raife them up, and in their Afficion to comfort them. Therefore if Chrift appear in the Likenefs of an angry Judge, or of a Lawgiver that requireth a frait Account of ur Life pair, then let us affue confileves that it is not Chrift, but a raging Fiend. For the Scripture painteth A true ut Chrift to be our Reconsiliation, our Advocate and our Picture of Comforter. Such an one he is and ever fhall be, he canchrift, jot be unlike himfell.

Therefore whenfoever the Devil transforming himfelf into the Likehels of Chrift, difputeth with us after this Manner : This thou oughtif being admonished by my Word to have done, and hast not done it : and this thou oughteft not to have done, and haft done it ; know thou herefore that I will take Vengeance on thee, Gc. let this nothing at all move us, but by and by let us thus think with ourfelves; Chrift fpeaketh not to poor afflicted and defpairing Confciences after this Manner a He addeth nat Affliction to the Afflicted, Ifa. xlii. 3. He breaketh not the bruised Reed, neither quencheth he the Imoking Flax, Matth. xli. 20. Indeed to the hard hearted he speaketh sharply ; but such as are terrifiand afflicted, he most lovingly and comfortably allureth unto him. Taying ; Come unto me, all ye that labour, and are heavy laden, and I will nive you Reft, Matth. xi. 28. For I am not come to call the Righteous, but Sinners to Repentance, Matth. ix. 13. Be of good Cheer, my Son, by Sins be forgiven thee, Matth. ix. 2. Be of good Gheer, I have overcome the World, John xvi. 33. The Son of Man is come to feek and to lave that which was loft, Luke xix. 10. We must take good heed therefore left that we being deceived by the wonderful Slights and infinite Subtilities of Satan, do receive an Acculer and Condemner, in the Stead of a Comforter and Saviour ; and fo under the Vifour of a falfe Chrift. hat is to fay, of the Devil, we loofe the true Chrift, and make him unprofitable unto us. Thus much have we faid as touching private and particular Temptations, and how we should use ourfelves therein.

Yerle 3. For I testify again to every Man that is circumcifed, that he is a Debtor to do the whole Law.

The first Inconveniency is indeed very great, where Paul faith, that Chrift profiteth them nothing which are circumcified; and this that followsch is nothing lefs, where he faith, that they which are circumcified, are bound to keep the whole Law. He (peakent hele Words with fach Earnedness and Vebennengy of Spirit, that he confirment them with an Path; I teflify, that is to kay, I fiwere by the living God. For thele

Bb 3

Words may be expounded two Ways, negatively and affirmatively. Negatively, After this Manner ; I tellify unto every Man which is circumcifed, that he is bound to keep the whole Law, that is to fay, that he performeth no Piece of the Law ; yea, that in the very Work of Circumcifion he is not circumcifed, and even in the fulfilling of the Law he fulfilleth it not, but transgreffeth it. And this feemeth to me to be the fimple and true Meaning of Paul in this Place. Afterwards in Chap. vi. 12. he expoundeth himfelf, faving : They themfelves who are circumcifed, keep not the Law. So he faith alfo before in Chap. iii. 10. Wholeever are of the Works of the Law, are under the Curle. As if he faid; Altho' ye be circumcifed, yet are ye not righteous and free from the Law ; but by this Deed ye are rather Debtors and Bond-fervants of the Law; and the more ye go about to fatisfy the Law, and to be fet free from it, the more ye intangle and fnare yourfelves in the Yoke thereof. To that it hath more Power to accuse and condemn you. This is to go backward like the Crab, and to wafh away Filth with Filth.

And this which I fay, by Occafion of Paul's Words, I have learned both in myfelf and others. I have feen many which have painfully travelled, and upon mere Conficience have done as much as was pollible for thenr to do, in fafting, in Prayer, in wearing of Hair, in punifhing and tormenting their Bodies with fundry Exercifes (whereby at length they must needs have utterly confumed them, yea altho" they had been made of Iron) and all to this End that they might obtain Quietness and Peace of Conscience ; notwithstanding the more they travelled, the more they were firicken down with Fear, and specially when the Hour of Death approached they were fo fearful, that I have feen many Murderers, and other Malefactors condemned to Death, dying more couragioully then they did, which notwithstanding had lived very holily.

Therefore it is most true, that they which do the Law, do it not. For the more they go about to fulfil the Law, the more they tranfgrefs it. Even to we fay and judge of Mens Traditions. The more a Man friveth to pacify his Confcience thereby, the more he troubleth and tormenteth it. When I was a Mank, I endeavoured as much as was polfible, to live after the firait Rule of mine Order, I was wont to fhrive myfelf with great Devotion, and to reckon up all my Sins (yet being always very contrite before) and I returned to Confession very often, and throughly performed the Penance that was enjoined unto me : Yet for all this my Confcience could never be fully certified, but was always in doubt, and faid ; This or that thou halt not done rightly, thou walt not contrite and forrowful enough, this Sin thou didft omit in thy Confession, drc. Therefore the more I went about to help my weak, wavering and afflicted Conficience by Mens Traditions, the more weak and doubtful, and the more afflicted I was. And thus the more I observed Mens Traditions, the more I transgreated them, and in feeking after Righteoufnels by mine Order, I could never attain unto it; for it is impossible (as Paul faith) that the Confcience should be pacified by the Works of the Law,

Wherefore they that feek to be justified and quickned by the Laws re much further off from Righteoufnefs and Life, then the Publicans, inners and Harlots. For they cannot truff their own Works, feeing hey be fuch, that they cannot hope to obtain Grace and Forgiveness of Sins thereby. For if Righteoufnefs and Works done according to he Law do not juftify. How can Sins juftify which are tommitted contrary to the Law ? Therefore in this Point Confidence hey are in far better Cafe then the Jufficiaries ; for they in Works att have no Affiance in their own Works, which greatly hin- terly takethy sreth true Faith in Chrift, if it do not utterly take it a- away Faithy way. Contrariwife, the Juliciaries which abftain out- or at left hinwardly from Sins, and live holily and without blame in drethit inust the Sight of the World, cannot be without the Opinion of their own Righteoufnefs, with which the true Faith in Chrift cannot fland; and for this Caufe they be more miferable then the Publicans and Harlots, who offer not their good Works to God in his Diff pleafure, that for the fame he may recompence them with everlaßing Life (as the Jufficiaries do.) for they have none to offer ; but defire that their Sins may be pardoned for Chrift's Sake, dre.

The other Exposition is affirmative; he that is circumcifed, is also bound to keep the whole Law. For he that receiveth Mofes in one Point, muft of Neceffity receive him in all. And it helpeth nothing to Tay, that Circumcifion is neceffary, and not the reft of Moles's Laws For by the fame Reafon that thou art bound to keep Circumcifion, thou part alfo bound to keep the whole Law. Now, to be bound to keep the whole Law is nothing elfe but to fhew in Effect, that Chrift is not yet come. If this be true, then are we bound to keep all the Fewilb Ceremonies and Laws touching Meats, Places and Times ; and Chrift muft be looked for as yet to come, that he may abolifh the Jours Kingdom and Priefthood, and fet up a new Kingdom throughout the whole World. But the whole Scripture witneffeth, and the Sequel thereof plainly declareth that Chrift is already come, that by his Death he hath redeemed Mankind, that he hath abolifhed the Law, and that he hath fulfilled all Things which all the Prophets have foretold of him. Therefore the Law being clean abolifhed and quite taken away, he hath given unto us Grace and Truth. It is not then the Law, nor the Works thereof, but hit is Faith in Jefus Chrift that.maketh a Man righteous.

Some would bind as at this Day to certain of Moles's Laws that like them belt, as the falle Apoftles would have done at that Time. But this is in no wife to be fuffered. For if we give Mofes leave to rule over us in any Thing, we are bound to obey him in all Things. Wherefore we will not be burdened with any Chriftians . Law of Males. We grant that he is to be read amonght situs, and to be heard as a Prophet and a Witnefs-bearer of the Policy of Chrift : And moreover, that out of him, we may take Bb good good Examples of good Laws and holy Life. But we will not fuffer him in any wife to have Dominion over our Conficience. In this Cafe let him be dead and buried, and let no Man know where his Grave is, Deut, xxxiv, 6.

The former Exposition, that is to fay, the Negative feemeth to me to be more apt and more fpiritual; notwith@anding both are good, and both do condemn the Rightcoulines of the Law. The first is, That we are fo far from obtaining Rightcoulines by the Law, that the more we go about to accomplish the Law, the more we transpress the Law. The fecand is, That he which will perform any Piece of the Law, is bound to keep the whole Law. And to conclude, that Chrift profiteth them nothing at all which will be juditied by the Law.

Hereby is appearent han Paul meaneth nothing ells, but that the Law is a plain Denial of Chrift. Now, it is a wonderfal Thing that Paul dare affirm, that the Law of Misfer which was given by God to the People of Jirael, is a Denial of Chrift. Why then did God give it? Before the Coming of Chrift, and before his Manifeltation in the Flehk, the Law was neceffary. For the Law is our School mafter to bring us unto Chrift. But now that Chrift is revealed, in that we believe in him, we are no longer under the School-mafter. Hereof we have [poken largely enough before the End of the 24 Chapter. Wholo teacheth then that the Law is neceffary to Rightcoufnefs, teacheth a plain Denial of Chrift and of all his Benefits, he maketh God a Liar, yea he maketh the Law allos Liar: For the Law fielf bearent winelds of Chrift, and of the Promifes made as concerning Chrift, and hath forefold that he floudd be a King of Grace, and not of the Law.

Verse 4. Christ is become of no Effect unto you, whofoever of you are justified by the Law; ye are fallen from Grace, Here Paul expondeth himfelf, and fleweth that he speaketh not fimply of the Law nor of the Work of Circomcillon, but of the Confidence and Opinion that Men have to be juffixed thereby. As if he would fay; I do not utterly condemn the Law or Gircumcilion, (for it is lawful for me to drink, to eat and to keep Company with the Jecur according to the Law; It is lawful for me to circumcife Immitp) but to feek to be luffixed by the Law, as if Chriff were not yet come, or being now preferst, he alone were not able to justify, this is it which I condemn; for this is to be feparated from Chriff. Therefore (faith be) ye are abolithed; that is, 'ye are utterly void of Chriff, Chriff is not I'r you, he worketh not in you any more; 'Ye are not Partakers of the Knowledge, the Spirit, the Fellowfilty, the Favous, the Liberty, the Life, or the Doings of Chriff, but ye are utterly forarate from him, fo that he hafty no more'to do with you, nor ye with him.

These Words of Poul are diligently to be noted; that to feek Righteousness by the Law, is nothing elle but to be separated from Christ, nd to make him utterly unprofitable. What can be fooken more nightily against the Law? What can be fet against this Thunder-bolt ? Wherefore it is impossible that Chrift Chrift and nd the Law should dwell together in one Heart; for ither the Law or Chrift must give Place. But if thou hink that Chrift and the Law can dwell together, then he thou fure that Chrift dwelleth not in thy Heart, but he Devil in the Likenels of Chrift, acouting and terrifying thee, and traitly exacting of thee the Law, and the Works thereof. For the true Chrift (as I faid before) neither calleth thee to a Reckoning for thy Sins, or biddeth thee to truft to thine own Works. And the true Knowledge of Chrift or Faith difputeth not whether thou haft done good Works to Righeoufnefs, or evil Works to Condemnation ; but fimply concludeth after his Sort : If thou have done good Works, thou art not therefore juffified. or if thou have done evil Works, thou art not therefore condemned, I heither take from good Works their Praife, nor commend evil Works, But in the Matter of Juffification, I fay, we must look how we may hold Chrift, left if we feek to be juffified by the Law we make him unprofitable unto us. For it is Chrift alone that juftifieth me both abainft my evil Deeds, and without my good Deeds. If I have this Perfwafion of Chrift, I lay hold of the true Chrift. But if I think that he exacted the Law and Works of me to Salvation, then he becometh unprofitable unto me, and I am utterly feparated from him.

These are dreadful Sentences and Threatnings against the Righteousnefs of the Law and Man's own Righteoufnefs. Moreover, they are al-To most certain Principles which confirm the Article of Justification. This is then the final Conclusion : Either thou must forgo Christ, or the Righteoufnels of the Law. If thou retain Chrift, thou art rightepus before God ; but if thou flick to the Law, Chrift availeth thee nothing : Thou art bound to keep the whole Law, and thou haft now Sentence already pronounced against thee, Curfed be be that confirmeth not all the Words of this Law to do them, Deut. xxvii. 26. As we have faid of the Law, fo we fay alfo of Mens Traditions. Either the Pope with his religious Rout mult reject all those Things wherein hitherto he hath put his Truft, or elfe Chrift fhall be unprofitable to them. And thereby we may plainly fee how peroicious and pellilent the Popilh Doctrine hath been. For it hath led Men clean away from Chrift, and made him altogether unprofitable. God complaineth in the 22d of Jeremiah, that the Prophets prophetied Lies and the Dreams of their own Heart, to the End that his People fhould forget his Name. Therefore like as the falle Prophets leaving the right Interpretation of the Law, and the true Doctrine concerning the Seed of Abraham, in whom all Nations of the Earth fhould be bleffed, preached their own Dreams, I to the End that the People should forget their God ; even to the Papifls having darkned and defaced the Doctrine of Chrift, fo that they made it of none Effect, taught and fet forth nothing elfe but the Doctrine of Works; whereby they drew the whole World away from Chrift. Whofo earneftly confidereth this Matter, cannot but fear and tremble. · · Verfe

Verle 4. Ye are fallen from Grace.

That is to fay : Ye are no longer in the Kingdom of Grace. For like as he that is in a Ship, on which Side foever he falleth into the Sea, is drowned; even to he which is fallen from Grace mult needs perifh. He therefore that will be juffified by the Law is fallen into the Sea, and hath caft himfelf into Danger of eternal Death : Now, if they fall from Grace which will be juffified by the moral Law; 'Whither thall they fall (I pray you) which will be juffified by their own Traditions and Vows ? Even to the Bottom of Hell. No forfooth ; they fly up into Heaven ; for fo they themfelves have taught us. Whofoever live (iav they) according to the Rule of S. Francis, Dominick, Benedict or fuch other, the Peace and Mercy of God is upon them. Again, All they that obferve and keep Chaftity, Obedience, de. fuall have everlafting Life. But let thefe Toys go to the Devil from whence they came, and hearken what Paul teacheth thee here ; and what Chrift teacheth, faying ; He that believeth on the Son, hath everlasting Life : And he that believeth not the Son, Shall not fee Life : But the Wrath of God abideth on him, John iii. 36. Again, He that believeth not is condemned already, Ver. 18.

The Pope's Kingdom is grounded upon Mens Traditions. Now like  $s^{2}$  all the Doctrine of the Papifit (to note this by the Way) concerning Mens Traditions, Works, Vors, and Merits, was moft common in the World; fo was it thought to be the belf and moft certain of all others; whereby the Devil hath both fer up and efablified his Kingdom moft mightly. Therefore when we at this Day do impugn and vanquith this Dochrine by the Power of God's Word, as Chaff is driven away by the Wind, it is no marvel that Satan rageth fo cruelly against us, raifeth up Slanders and Offences every where, and fetteth thu whole World in our Tops. Then, will fame Man fay: It had been better to have held our Peace, for then had none of thefe Evils been raifed up. But we ought more to elscem the Fayour of God, whole Glory we fet forth, then to care for the Tyranny of the World which perfectuate thus. For what is the Pope and the whole World in Comparison of God ? Indeed we are weak, and bare an heaxenly Treafure in brittle and earthly Veffels, a Cor. iv. 7. but altio' the Veffels be never to brittle, yet is the Treafure inclimable.

Thefe Words, Tr are falles from Grace, muft not be coldly or floriderly confidented ; for they are weighly and of great Importance. He that falleth from Grace, utterly lofeth the Attonement, the Forgivenefs of Sins, the Righteoutinels, Liberry and Life that Jefus Chrift hath merited for us by his Death and Referrection; and in Stead thereof he purchafelt to himfelf the Wrath and Judgment of God, Sin, Death, the Bondage of the Devil and everlafting Darmation. And this Place fitnogly confirment and fortifieth our Doctrine concerning Faith or the Article of Julification, and marvelloubly conforteth us againft the cruel Rage of the Papifls, that perfecute and condemn us as Hereticks, becale we texth ich this Article. Indeed this Place ought to fear the Enemies of ith and Grave, that is to fay, all that feek Righteoufinelis by Works, im perfocuting and blafphenning the Word of Grace. Lie and everling Salvation. But they be fo hard-hearted and obflinate, that feeg they fee not, and hearing they hear not, and when they read this eadful Sentence of the Apolle pronounced againft them, they underind it not. Let us leave them therefore unto themfelves: For they bind I raders of the Blind, Matth Xv. 14.

erse 5. For we through the Spirit wait for the Hope of Righteoussies by Faith.

Pau' here knitten up the Matter with a notable Conclution, fayings e will be juftified by the Law, by Circumcilon and by Work's; but is ficek not to be juftified by this Means, left Chriff thould be made terly unprofitable unto us, and we become Debtors to perform the hole Law, and to finally fail away from Crace, but we wait in Spirit no' Faith for the Hope of Rightconfinedin. Every Word is here dilisently to be noted, for they are pithy and fail of Power. He donh not ally fay, as he is wont: We are juftified by Faith, or in Spiritby Faith, at moreover he addeth; We wait for the Hope of Rightconfindf, includg Hope alfo, that he may comprehend the whole Matter of Faith.

Hope, after the Manner of the Scriptures, is taken two Ways, amely, for the Thing that is hoped for, and for the Affection of him hat hopeth. For the Thing that is hoped for, it is taken in the if hapter to the Coloffians; For the Hope's Sake which is laid up for you in Teaven ; that is to fay, the Thing which ye hope for. For the Affecon of him that hopeth, it is taken in the 8th Chapter to the Romans. for we are faved by Hope. So Hope in this Place also may be taken wo Ways, and fo it yieldeth a double Senfe : The first is : We wait in pirit thro' Faith for the Hope of Righteoufnefs ; that is to fay, the Righteoufnefs hoped for, which shall be certainly revealed in fuch Time is it pleafeth the Lord to give it. The fecand : We wait in Spirit y Faith for Rightcoulnels with Hope and Defire ; that is to fay, we are righteous; howbeit our Righteoufnels is not yet revealed, but hangth yet in Hope. For as long as we live here, Sin remaineth in our Flefh ; there is also a Law in our Flefh and Members, rebelling against the Law of our Mind, and leading us Captives unto the Service of Sin, Rom. vii. 23. Now when these Affections of the Flesh do rage and reign, and we on the other Side do thro' the Spirit wreftle against the ame, then there is a Place for Hope. Indeed we have begun to be "uftified thro' Faith ; whereby also we have received the first Fruits of the Spirit, and the Mortification of the Flesh is also begun in us; but we be not yet perfectly rightcous. It remainsth then that we be perfeetly juftified, and this is it which we hope for. So our Righteoufnels is not yet in actual Poffeffion, but lieth under Hope.

This is a fweet and a found Confolation, whereby afflicted and interest troubled Confciences feeling their Sin and terrified with every fiery Dart and of the Devil, may be marvelloully comforted. For the Feeling of Sin, find h the Wrath of God, Death, Hell and all other Terrors, are wonderful that ftrong in the Conflict of Confcience; as I myfelf being taught by Ex- with perience do know. Then Counfel muft be given to the poor Afflicted whith in this wife : Brother thou defireft to have a fenfible Feeling of thy data Jultification ; that is, thou wouldft have fuch a Feeling of God's Fayour, as thou haft of thine own Sin; but that will not be. But thy man

Righteoufnels ought to furmount all Feeling of Sin ; man that is to fay, thy Righteoufnefs or Juflification whereupon thou holdeft, ftandeth not upon thine own Feeling, but upon thy hoping that it shall be revealed when with it pleafeth the Lord. Wherefore thou mull not judge according to the Feeling of Sin which troubleth and terfamil 1 rifieth thee, but according to the Promife and Doctrine of it Faith, whereby Chrift is promifed unto thee who is thy perfect and everlatting Righteoufnefs. Thus the Hope of the Afflicted confilteth in the inward Affection, is flirred up by Faith in the Midft of all Terrors and Feeling of Sin, to hope that he is righteous. Moreover, if Hope be here taken for the Thing which is hoped for, it is thus to be underflood, that that which a Man now feeth not, he hopeth in Time shall be made perfect and clearly revealed.

Either Senfe may well fland; but the first touching the inward Defire and Affection of hoping, bringeth more plentiful Confolation. For my Righteoulnels is not yet perfect, it cannot yet be felt; yet I do not delpair : For Faith theweth unto me Chrift in whom I truft, and when I have laid hold of him by Faith. I wreftle against the hery Darts of the Devil, and I take a good Heart thro' Hope against the Feeling of Sin, affuring myfelf that I have a perfect Righteoufnefs prepared for me in Heaven. So both these Savings are true, that I am made righteous already by that Righteoufnefs which is begun in me; and alfo I am raifed up in the fame Hope against Sin, and wait for the full Confummation of perfect Righteoufnefs in Heaven. These Things are not rightly underftood, but when they be put in Practice. Here arifeth a Queftion, what Difference there is beence be- tween Faith and Hope. The Sophifters and School-Men have laboured very much in this Matter, but they could and Hope. never fhew any certainly. Yea, to us which travel in the holy Scriptures with much Diligence, and alfo with more Fulnels and Power of Spirit, (be it fpoken without any Brag) it is hard to find any Difference. For there is fo great Affinity between Faith" and Hope, that the one cannot be feparate from the other. Notwithfanding there is a Difference between them, which is gathered of their feveral Offices, Divertity of Working, and of their Ends.

Firl, They differ in refpect of their Subject, that is, of the Ground wherein they reft : For Faith refteth in the Understanding, and Hope refteth in the Will ; but in very deed they cannot be feparated, the one . have ring Refpect to the other, as the two Cherubims of the Mercy-feat. wich could not be divided, Exad. xxv. 20.

Secondly, They differ in refpect of their Office, that is, of their Working, Faith telleth what is to be done, it teacheth, prefcribeth, and directern, it is a Knowledge. Hope is an Exhortation which flirreth up the and that it may be ftrong, bold, and conragious a that it may fuffer d endure Adverfiry, and in the Midft thereof wait for better Things. Thirdly, They differ as touching their Object, that is, the forecial atter whereunto they look. For Faith hath for her Object the Truth, ching us to cleave furely thereto, and looketh upon the Word and omife of the Thing that is promifed. Hope hath for her Object the sodnefs of God, and looketh upon the Thing which is promifed in Word, that is, upon fuch Matters as Faith teacheth us to be hoped Fourthly, They differ in Order : For Faith is the Beginning of Life fore all Tribulation, Heb. xi. 1. But Hope cometh afterwards, proeding of Tribulation, Rom. v. 2.

Fifthly, They differ by the Diversity of Working : For Faith is a Teacher d a Judge, fighting against Errors and Herefies, judging Spirits and octrines : But Hope is as it were the General or Captain of the Field. hting against Tribulation, the Cross, Impatiency, Heaviness of Spi-, Weaknefs Desperation and Blasphemy, and it waiteth for good hings even in the Midft of all Evils.

Therefore, when I am inftructed by Faith in the Word of God, and y hold of Chrift, believing in him with the whole Heart, then am I phteous by this Knowledge. When I am fo juffified by Faith or by is Knowledge, by and by cometh the Devil the Father of Lies, and boureth to extinguish my Faith by Wiles and Subtilities ; that is to y, by Lies, Errors and Herefies. Moreover, becaufe he is a Murder-, he goeth about alfo to opprefs it by Violence. Here Hope wreftling, siyeth hold on the Thing revealed by Faith, and overcometh the Devil that warreth against Faith ; and after this Victory followeth Peace and voy in the Holy Ghoft ; So that in very deed Faith and Hope can fearcew be difcerned the one from the other, and yet is there a certain Differince between them. And that it may be the better perceived, I will at out the Matter by a Similitude.

In civil Government, Prudence and Fortitude do differ, and yet nefe two Vertues are fo joined together, that they cannot eafily be evered. Now, Fortitude is a Conftancy of Mind, which is not difcouraizd in Adverfity, but endureth valiantly, and waiteth for better Things. ut if Fortitude be not guided by Prudence, it is but Temerity and tafhnefs. On the other Side, if Fortitude be not joined with Prudence, that Prudence is but in vain and unpro- The Differtable. Therefore like as in Policy, Prudence is but vain ence bewithout Fortitude ; even fo in Divinity, Faith without tween Faith Tope is nothing : For Hope endureth Adverfity, and is and Hope in ionstant therein, and in the End overcometh all Evils. Divinity, is that is between Fortitude and Prudence in Policy.

- And the fame

And on the other Side, likess Fortinude without Prudence is Rallneft, even fo Hope without Faith is a Prefumption in Spirit, and a tempting of God ; for it han hos Knowledge of Chrill and of the Truth which Faith teacheth, and therefore it is but a blind Raffnef and Arrogancy. fructed by Faith, according to the which the Mind may be guided in Affliction, that it may hope for those good Things which Faith hath revealed and taught.

To be fhort. Faith is conceived by teaching ; for thereby the Mind is inftructed what the Truth is. Home is conceived by Exhortation : for by Exhortation Hope is ftirred up in Afflictions, which confirmeth him that is already jultified by Faith, that he be not overcome by Adverfities, but that he may be able more ftrongly to refift them. Notwithftanding, if the Spark of Faith fhould not give Light to the Will, it could not be perfwaded to lay hold upon Hope. We have Faith then. whereby we are taught, we underftand and know the heavenly Wildom apprehend Chrift, and continue in his Grace. But as foon as we law hold upon Chrift by Faith, and confess him, forthwith out Enemies, the World, the Fleih and the Devil rife up against us, hating and perfer cuting us most cruelly both in Body and Spirit. Wherefore we thus believing and juffified by Faith in Spirit, do wait for the Hope of our Righteoufnels : And we wait thro' Patience ; for we fee and feel the flat contrary. For the World with his Prince the Devil, affaileth us mightily both within and without. Moreover, Sin yet fill remaineth in us, which driveth us into Heavinefs. Notwithstanding we give not over for all this, but raile up our Minds ftrongly thro' Faith, which lightneth, teacheth and guideth the fame. And thus we abide firm and constant, and overcome all Adversities thro' him which hath loved us, until our Righteoufnels which we believe and wait for, be revealed. By Faith therefore we began, by Hope we continue, and by Revelation we shall obtain the whole. In the mean Time whilst we live here, becaufe we believe, we teach the Word and publish the Knowledge of Chrift unto others. Thus doing we fuffer Perfecution (according to this Text ; I believed, therefore have I (poken ; I was greatly afflicted, Pfal. cxvi. 10.) with Patience, being frengthned and encouraged thro' Hope ; whereunto the Scripture exhorteth us with most fweet and comfortable Promifes taught and revealed unto us by Faith. And thus doth Hope fpring up and increase in us, That we through Patience and Comfort of the Scriptures might have Hope, Rom. XV. 4.

Paut thesefore, not without Gaufe joineth Patience in Tribulations, and Hope together, in the 5th and 8th to the Rouma, and in other Placet allo, for by them Hope is fittired up. But Path (as alfo I have flawed before) goeth before Hope; for it is the Beginning of Life, and begins neth, before all Tribulation; for it learneth Chriff and apprehendeth him without the Croßs. Notwithflanding the Knowledge of Chrift care not be long without the Croßs, without Troubles and Conflids. In this Gafe the Mind mult be firred up to a Fortiude of Spirit (For Hope is nothing elfe but a fpiritual Fortitude, as Faith is nothing elfe but a fpirinterfaced and the fortigenetic set of the set ual Pudence) which confifteth in fuffering, according to this Saving ; hat through Patience, &c. Thefe three Things then dwell together in . Faithful : Faith which teacheth the Truth, and defendeth from Eris : Hope which enduieth and overcometh all Advertities, as well dily as ghoftly ; And Charity which worketh all good Things, as it loweth in the Text. And fo is a Man entire and perfect in this Life, well within as without, until the Righteoufners be revealed which he liteth for ; and this shall be a perfect and an everlasting Righteousnels-Moreover, this Place containeth both a fingular Doctrine and Confotion. As touching the Doctrine, it fheweth that we are made rightes, not by the Works, Sacrifices or Ceremonies of Moles's Law, much Is by the Works and Traditions of Men, but by Chrift alone. Whatever is in us befides him, is of the Flefh and not of the Spirit. Whatever then the World counteth to be good and holy without Chrift, is othing elfe but Sin, Error, and Flefh. Wherefore Circumcifion and e Observation of the Law; also the Works, Religions and Vows of e Monks and of all fuch as trult in their own Righteoufnels, are altother carnal. But we (faith Paul) are far above all these Things in the birit and inward Man : For we poffers Chrift by Faith, and in the lidft of our Afflictions thro' Hope we wait for that Righteouinels which e poffefs already by Faith.

The Comfort is this, that in ferioses Conflicts and Terers, wherein the Feeling of Sia, Heavinefi of Spirit, elperation and fuch like, is very firong (for they eater seply into the Heart, and mightily affail it) thou muft by follow thine own Seeling. For if thou do, thuu wilt  $y_i$  I feel the horrible Terrors of the Law and the Tymy of Sin, not only rebelling again fit me, but also (Gabmy of Sin, not only rebelling again fit me, but also (Gab-

Thefe Things then canft not deny, (except then will openly flew thyfelf to be wicked and blaftenous againf God, and utterly to defpife God, all his Promiles, Jefus Chrift with all his Benefits ) and fo confequently thou canft not deny but that thou art righteous.

Let us learn therefore in great and horrible Terrors, when our Confcience feeleth nothing but Sin, and judgeth that God is angry with us, and that Chrift hath turned his Face from us, not to follow the Senfe and Feeling of our own Heart, but to flick to the Word of God, which faith that God is not angry, but looketh to the Afflicted and to fuch as are troubled in Spirit, and tremble at his Word, I/a. lxvi. 2. and that Chrift turneth not himfelf away from fuch as labour and are heavy loaden, but refresheth and comforteth them, Matth. xr. 28. This Place therefore teacheth plainly, that the Law and Works bring unto us no Righteoufnels or Comfort at all; but this doth the Holy Ghofl only in the Faith of Chrift, who raifeth up Hope in Terrors and Tribulations. which endureth and overcometh all Advertities. Very few there be that know how weak and feeble Faith and Hope are under the Crofs, and in the Conflict. For it feemeth they are but as intoaking Flax, 1/a. xlii. 2. which is ready by and by to be put out with a vehement Wind. But the Faithful, who believe in the Midft of these Affaults and Terrors, hoping against Hope ; that is to fay, fighting thro' Faith in the Promife as touching Chrift, against the Feeling of Sin and of the Wrath of God ; do afterwards find by Experience, that this Spark of Faith being very little (as it appeareth to natural Reafon ; for Reafon can fcarceby feel it) is as a mighty Fire, and fwalloweth up all out Sins and all bur Errors.

The Treafure of the Faithful. There is nothing more dear or precious in all the World to the true Children of God, then this Doctrine. For they that underfland this Doctrine, do know that where of all the World is ignorith; namely, that Sin, Death and all other Miferies, Affilions and Calamities, as well corporal as phiritual, do turn to the Benefit and Profit of the Elect. Moreover, turby know that God is then moft near anto them, when he fement ho be furthered off, and that he is then a moft mereiful and loving Saviour when

That is to fay, Faith which is not feigned nor hypocritical, but true d lively. This is that Faith which exercifeth and requireth good Forks thro' Love. It is as much to fay as ; He that will be a true priftian indeed, or one of Chrift's Kingdom, muft be a

And altho' it be true that only Faith Justifieth, yet he eaketh here of Faith in another Respect, that is to fay, that after it th jullified, it is not idle, but occupied and exercifed in working thro we. Paul therefore in this Place fetteth forth the whole Life of a wriftian Man, namely, that inwardly it confifteth in Faith towards od, and outwardly in Charity and good Works towards our Neighpur. So that a Man is a perfed Chriftian inwardly thro' Faith before ad, who hath no Need of our Works, and outwardly before Men, om our Faith profiteth nothing, but our Charity or our Works. berefore when we have heard or understood of this Form of Christian fe ; to wit, that it is Faith and Charity (as I have faid) it is not yet islared what Faith or what Charity is; for this is another Queftion. # Vetle 7. Ye did run well, Who did hinder you, that ye fould not obey the Truth?

Thefe are plain Words, Paul affirmeth that he teacheth them the Truth, and the fellfame Thing that he taught them before, and that they ran well fo long as they obeyed the Truth, that is, they believed and lived rightly; but now they do not fo, fince they were milled by the faile Apofiels. Moreover, he ufeth here a new Kind of Speech, in calling the Chritian Life a Courie or a Race. For among the Heirent, to trun or to walk, fignifieth as much as to live or to be converiant. The Teachers do run when they teach purely, and the Hearers or Learner do run when they receive the Word with Joy, and when the Fruits of the Spirit do follow. Which Thing was done as long as Paul was préfent, as he winneffed before in the 3d and 4th Chapters. And here the Shith; 1*Te* dair arm well, that is to fay, all Things went forward well and happily among you, ye lived very well, ye went on the tight Wal to everiafiting Life, which the Word of do promifed you, de.

Thefe Words, Te iid ran well, contain in them a fingular Comfort. This Tentation oftentimes exercisicn the Golly, that their Life ferme eth unto them to be rather a certain flow creeping, then a running. But if they abide in found Dottine, and walk in the Spirit, let this not hing trouble them, tho' their Doings feem to go flowly forward, or rither creep, Gol judgeth far otherwise. For that which feemeth was us to be very flow and farcedy to creep, runneth within God's Sight Again, that which is to us nothing elle but Sorrow, Mourning and Death, is before Gol yoi, Mirth and true Happinefs. Therefore Chrift faith Ellefield are ye that movers ; fry effault be comforted, Mutth. v. 4. Te final langh, for Lukev io: 1. All Things thail turn to the belt to them which believe in the Son of God, be it Sorrow, ro be it Death itief. Therefore they be true Runness indeed, and whatforevr they do, it run neth well and goeth happily forward by the Furtherance of God's Spirit, which cannot feill of flow Proceedings.

Verse 7. Who did hinder you, that ye flould not obey the Truth?

They are hindred in this Courle which fall away from Faith and Grace to the Law and Works ; as it happeneth to the Calatian; being mild and feduced by the fift Apofiles, whom covertly be repredended with thefe Words; Who did hinder yea, that ye boald nat, obey the Truth & Gal. iii. 7. In like Manner, he faid before in the 2d Caapter, Who hath bewirtchel syme, that ye footal on y obs; the Truth ? And here, Paul haveth

y the Way, that Men are fo ftrongly bewitched with falle Doctrine, hat they embrace Lies and Herefies in the Stead of the Truth and fpitual Doctrine. And on the other Side, they fay and fwear that the aund Doctrine which before they loved, is erronious ; and that their fror is found Doctrine, maintaining and defending the fame with all seir Power. Even fo the falle Apoftles brought the Galatians (which in well at the beginning) into this Opinion, to believe that they erred ad went very flowly forward when Paul was their Teacher. But aftertards they being feduced by the falfe Apoftles, and falling clean away om the Truth, were fo ftrongly bewitched with their falfe Perfwahons, hat they thought themfelves to be in an happy State, and that they ran ery well. The fame happeneth at this Day to fuch as are feduced by ne Sectaries and fantaffical Spirits. Therefore I am wont to fay, that dling in Ductrine cometh not of Man, but of the Devil, and is molt crilous ; to wit, even from the high Heavens to the Bottom of Hell, or they that continue in Error, are fo far off from acknowledging their in, that they maintain the fame to be high Righteoufnels. Wherebre it is impossible for them to obtain Pardon.

erle 8. This Ferfwasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

This is a great Confolation and a fingular Doctrine, whereby Paul

r wicked Teachers, may be rooted out of their Hearts. The faile Apofiles were jolly Fellows, and in outward Aprity arance far paffing Paul both in Learning and Godlineis. fail he Galatiant being deceived with this goodly Shew, fupied that when they heard them, hey heard Chrift him-

If, and therefore they judged their Perfwshon to be of Chrift. Connivide, Paul flaweth that this Perfwshon and Doftrine was no of wrift, who had called them in Grace, but of the Devil; and by this means he won many of them from this falle Perfwshon. Likewife we this Day revoke many from Error that were feduced, when we firew at their Opinions are fantaficial, wicked and full of Blafhemies.

Again, this Confolation pertainent to all thole that are affilted, sinch thro' Transian concerve a full Copinion of Chritt. For the Deisa marvellous perfunder, and knoweth how to amplify the left Sia, a very Triffs, in fuch Sort that he which is tempted final think it be a moft hannous and horrible Crime, and worthy of external Damanm. Here the troubled Conficme mult be comforted and raifed up fuch Sort as Paul raifed up the Calatians; ro wirk, that this Cogination Perfusation cometh not of Chriff, forafimuch as it fighteth again the ord of the Copiel, which painterh out Chriff, not as an Accofer, a sele Exactor, c'se but as a meek humble-hearted, and a mercful Saviy and Comforter.

But if Satan (who is a conning Workman, and will leave no Way bri-C c a effayed)

Here let hum that is tempted comfort limited fafter this Manner.

AOA

The Scripture fetteth out Chrift unto us two Manner of Ways. Firfl, as a Gift 1 H I take hold of him in this Sort, I can want nothing; For in Chrift are hid all the Treoface of Wifdom and Koroledge, Col. ii. 3. He, with all that is in him, is made anto me of God, Wifdom, Right teoufinefs, Sandification, and Redemption, I Cor. i. 30. Therefore altho? I have committed both many and grievous Sins ; yet novinification if believe in him, they flatible kushlowed up by his Righteoufnels. Secondly, The Scripture letter him forth as an Example to be followed. Notwithilanding I will not the ferthis Chriff (I mean as he is an Example) to be fer before me, but only in the Time of Joy and Glanders when I am out of Tentation (where a I can facreely follow the thouland Part of his Example) that I may have ahim as Alfronz to behold and view how much is yet wanting in me, that I become not fecture and carelefs. But in the Time of Tribulation I will not hear nor admit Chrift, but as Gift, who dying for my Sins, hath befowed upon me his Rightcouffiefs, and hath done and accomplified that farme, which was wanting in my Life; For he is the End of the Lawafr Rightcouffiel to every and that before heat to be End of the Lawa-

It is good to know these Things, not only to the End that every one of us may have a fure and a certain Remedy in the Time of Tentation whereby we may efchew that Venom of Defperation, wherewith Satan thinketh to poifon us ; but alfo to the End we may be able to refift the furious Sectaries and Schifmaticks of our Time. For the Anabaptifis count nothing more glorious in their whole Doctrine, then that they feat verely urge the Example of Chrift and the Crofs ; especially feeing the Sentences are manifest wherein Chrift commendeth the Crofs to his Die fciples. We must learn therefore how we may withstand this Satan transforming himfelf into the Likenels of an Angel : Which we shall de if we make a Difference between Chrift fet forth unto us fometimes as a Gift, and fometimes as an Example. The Preaching of him both Way bath his convenient Time, which if it be not observed, the Preaching of Salvation may be turned into Poifon. Chrift therefore must be fe forth unfo those which are already cast down and bruiled thro' the heavy Weight and Burden of their Sins, as a Saviout and a Gift, and not un VERSE 9.

To the GALATIANS,

an Example of a Law-giver. But to those that are fecure and obffinate. the muft be fet forth as an Example. Alfo the hard Sentences of the Scripture, and the horrible Examples of the Wrath of God must be layed before them ; as of the drowning of the whole World, of the De-Itruction of Sodom and Gomorrab, and fuch other like, that they may repent. Let every Chriftian therefore when he is terrified and afflicted. learn to caft away the falfe Perfwafions which he hath conceived of Chrift. and let him fay : O curfed Satan, Why doft thou now diffoute with me of Doing and Working, feeing I am terrified and afflicted for my Sins Iready ? Nay rather, feeing I now labour and am heavy loaden, Matthki. 28. I will not hearken to thee which art an Acculer and a Deftrovr, But to Chrift the Saviour of Mankind, which faith, that he came into the World to fave Sinners, to comfort fuch as are in Terror. Anonith and Defperation, and to preach Deliverance to the Captives, drc. This is the true Chrift, and there is none other but he. I can feek Exambles of holy Life of Abraham, Ifaiah, John Baptift, Paul and other Saints = sut they cannot forgive my Sins, they cannot deliver me from the Power of the Devil and from Death, they cannot fave me and give me everlafting Life. For these Things belong to Chrift alone, whom God the Father hath fealed : therefore I will not hear thee nor acknowedge thee for my Teacher, O Satan, but Chrift, of whom the Father ath faid ; This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleafed : Hear ye im, Matth. xvii. c. Let us learn in this wife to comfort ourfelves hro' Faith in Tentation, and in the Perswalion of falle Doctrine : elfe he Devil will either feduce us by his Ministers, or kill us with hit ery Darts.

Verse 9. A little Leaven leaveneth the whole Lump.

This whole Epiffle fufficiently wineffeth how Paal was grieved with the Fall of the Galarians, and how often the best into their Heads (fomemes chiding, and fometimes intreating them) the expecting great and ornible Enormities that flouid enfue upon this their Fall, unlife they pented. This fatherly and Apoleticia: Care and Admonition of Paul over forme of them nothing at all : For many of them acknowledged and no more for their Teacher, bit preferred the falle Apolfles for above m; of whom they thought themlelves to have received the true Docine, and nore of Paul. Moreover, the falle Apolfles (no doubt) flandered and among the Gelatians, faying that he was an obfinate and contenbus Fellow, which for a fight Matter would break the Unity of the hurches, and for no other Calle, but that the slaton would be counted d be magnified of them. Thro' this falls Ascufation they made Paul ity odious unot many.

Some other which had not yet utterly forfaken his Doftrine, thought as there was no Danger in differing a little from him in the Doftrine' Juftification and Faith. Wherefore when they heard that Paul' made hainous a Matter of that which feemed unto them to be but light and finall Importance, they mavelled, and thuy they thoughe with themfolves: Be it fo that we have four of fourthing from the DoRinne of Paul, and that there hash been fome Fault in us; yet that being but a finall Matter, he ought to wink thereat, or at left not for vehemently to amplify it, left by the Occafion thereof the Concord of the Churches finald be broken. Whereanto he anfvertent with this Sentrece: A little Learen leaveneth [or maketh faur] the whole Lamp of Dough. And this is a Gavest or Admonstron while Neuro part of the American verifaries in like Amarer object againt us, that we are contentious, oblimate, and intractable in defending our Doftme, and even in Matters of no great Importance. But thele are the crafty Fetches of the Devil, whereby he goot habour uterly to overtherwo our Doftme. To this we anfwer therefore with Paul, that a little Leaven maketh four the whole Lamp.

In Philotophy, a finall Fault in the Beginning, is a great and foul Fault in the End. So in Divinity, one little Error overlinoweth the whole Dockrine. Wherefore we mult feparate Life and Dockrine far afunder. The Dockrine is not ours, but God's, whole Miniflers only we are called; therefore we may not change or diminifly one Tile thereof: The Life is ours; therefore as touching that, we are ready to do, to fuffer, to forgive, dec. Whatfoever our Advertisire that require of al, fo that Faith and Dockrine may remain found and uncorrupt; of the which we fay always with Paul; A fitthe Loseen Learneath, Rec.

But we proteft that we defire nothing more thein to be at Unity with all Men ; to that they leave uno us the Docknie of Faith entire and uncorrupt: to the which all Things ought to give Place, be it Cliarity, an Apolfle, or an Angel from Lieven.

Let us fuffer them therefore to extol Charity and Concord as much as they lift ; but on the other Side, let us magnify the Majely of the Word and Faith. Therefore it is not offended, but continueth flill conftant in Welldoing, yea even towards the Unthankful and Unworthy. Contrariwife, in the Matter of Faith and Salvation, when Men teach Lies and Errors under the Colour of the Truth, and feduce many, here hath Charity no Place : For here we lofe not any Benefit be-flowed upon the Unthankful, but we lofe the Word, Faith, Chrift and everlafting Life. Let it not move us cife Charity, therefore that they urge fo much the keeping of Charity and when and Concord : For whofo loveth not God and his Word. it is no Matter what or how much he loveth. not.

Paul therefore, by this Sentence admonisheth, as well Teachers as Hearers, to take heed that they effeem not the Doctrine of Faith as a light Matter, wherewith they may dally at their Pleafure. It is as a bright Sun-Beam coming down from Heaven, which lightneth. directeth and guideth us. Now, like as the World with all his Wifdom and Power, is not able to ftop or turn away the Beams of the Sun coming down from Heaven to the Earth : even fo can there nothing be added to the Doctrine of Faith, or taken from it; for that is an utter defacing and overthrowing of the whole.

Verse 10. I have Confidence in you through the Lord,

As if be would fay : I have taught, admonifhed and reproved your enough, fo that ye would hearken unto me. Notwithstanding I hope well of you in the Lord. Here rifeth a Queftion, Whether Paul doth well when he faith, he hath a good Hope or Truft of the Galatist ans, feeing the holy Scripture forbiddeth any Truft to be put in Men. Both Faith and Charity have their Truft and Belief, but after divers Sorts, by reafon of the Diverfity of their Objects. Faith trufteth in God, and therefore it cannot be deceived ; Charity believeth Man, and therefore it is often deceived. Now, this Faith that fpringeth of Charity is fo neceffary to this prefent Life, that without it Life cannot continue in the World. For if one Man fhould not believe and truft another, What Life thould we live upon Earth ? The true Christians do fooner believe and give Credit thro' Charity, then the Children of this World do. For Faith towards Men is a Fruit of the Spirit or of Chriftian Faith in the Godly. Hereupon Paul had a Truft in the Galatians, yea, tho' they were fallen from his Doctrine; but yet in the Lord. As if I thould fay : I have a Truft in you fo far forth as the Lord is in you, and ye in him ; that is to fay, fo far forth as ye abide in the Truth. From which if you fall away, feduced by the Ministers of Satan, I will not truft unto you any more. Thus it is lawful for the Godly to truft and believe Men.

In like Manner Chrift alfo comforteth his Difciples in Matth. v. 11, 12. Bieffed are ye (faith he) when Men foalt revile you, and perfecute you, and (ball lay all Manner of Evil addingt you failly for my Sake. Reioice, and be exceeding plad : For great is your Reward in Heaven : For To perfecuted they the Prophets which were before tou. The Church cannot fuffer this rejoicing to be wrefted from her. Wherefore I would not with to be at Concord with the Pope, the Bilhops, the Princes, and the Sectaries, unless they would confent unto our Doctrine. For fuch Concord were a certain Token that we had loft the true Doctrine. To be fhort, as long as the Church teacheth the Gofpel, it must fuffer Perfecution. For the Gofpel fetteth forth the Mercy and Glory of God : it difclofeth the Malice and Slights of the Devil, painteth him out in his right Colours, and plucketh from him the counterfeit Vilour of God's Majefty, whereby he deceiveth the whole World; that is to fay, it the weth that all Worthippings, religious Orders invented by Men, and Traditions concerning fingle Life, Meats and fuch other Things, whereby Men think to deferve Forgivenels of Sins, and everlafting Life, are wicked. Things and devilifh Doctrines. There is nothing then that more flirreth up the Devil, then the Preaching of the Gofpel. For that plucketh from him the diffembled Vifour of God, and bewraveth him to be as he is indeed, that is to fay, the Devil, and not Gud. Wherefore it cannot he but that as long as the Gofpel flourisheth, the Crois and the Offence thereof must needs follow it, or elfe truly the Devil is not rightly touched, but flenderly tickled. But if he be rightly hit indeed, he refleth not, but beginneth horribly to rage, and to raife up Troubles every where.

If Chritians then will hold the Word of Life, let them not be afraid or offinded when they for that we begin is bridgen hold: and regeth 4-3wery where, that all the World is in an Uproar, that Tyrants exercise their Cranely, and Herefies firing up; but het them affare themfelves that thefe are Signs, not of Terror, but of Jev, are Chrift himfelf expoundent them, laying, Rejner, and be exceeding plad, kee. Math v. 12. God forbid therefore that the Office of the Crois fhould be taken away. Which Thing fhould come to park, if we fhould preach that which the Prince of this World and his Members would gladily hear, that is to fay, the Rightcounders of Works. Then fhould we have a gentle Devil, a favourable World, a gracious Pope, and merciol Princes. But becaufe we fer forth for the Renchis and Glory of Chrift, they perfected and fpoil us both of our Goods and Lives.

Verfe 12. I would they were even cut off which trouble you.

Is this the Part of an Apolite, not only to denounce the faile Apolites to be Troublers of the Church, to condemn them and to deliver them its Satan, but allo ho with that they might be utterly tooled out ind petion?? And what is this elfe but plain Curing? Peul (as I fuppels) at holet Judeth here to Circumcifion. As if he would fay; They compel you go cut off the Fore-fkin of your Plefh; but I would that they themfelves might be utterly cut off by the Root.

There rifeth a Quelian, Whenher it be lawful for Chriftians to carfe ? Why not ? Howbeit not always, nor for every Caufe ? but when the Matter is come to this Point, that God's Word mult be evil fpoken of, and his Dod'rine blafpherned, and fo confequently God himilell, then mult we turn this Sentence, and fay: Bleffelde God and his Word, and whatficever is without God and his Word, accurfed be it; yea tho' it be an Apoffle or an Angel from Heaven. So the faid before in Gal. i. 3. The' une, or an Angel from Heaven. So the faid before in Gal. is a. They use, or an Angel from theseen, preach any other Goffel unto you, thus that which we have preached unto you, let him for a carfed.

Hereby it may appear how great a Matter Poul made of a little Leaven, which for the fame durit curfe the faile Apolite, who in outward Appearance were Men of great Authority and Holuefa. Let not us therefore make little Account of the Leaven of Doffring : For althor it be never fo little, yet if it be neglefede, it will be the Caule that by Irtle and Irtle the Truth and our Salvation fhall be loit, and God him Ailf be denied. For when the Word is corrupted, and God denied and Biafphemed (which mult needs follow if the Word be corrupted) there remainent no thope of Salvation. But for our Parts, if we be curfed, brilde upon and flain, there is yet one that can raife us. up again, and deliver an from the Curfe, Death and Hell.

Wherefore let us learn to advance and extol the Majeffy and Authority of God's Word. For it is no finall Trifle (as branklick Heads formile at this Day;) but every Tile thereof is greater than Heaven and Earth. Wherefore in this Refpect we have no Regard of Chriftian Charity or Concord, but we fit as it were on the Jadgment-fear, that is to fay, we earlie and condemn all Men, which in the left Point do deface or corrupt the Majeffy of God's Word; For a little Leasen maketh four the whick Lump. But if they leave us God's Word entire and found, we are not only ready to keep Charity and the call down into Hell; and not only they, but even the whole World alfo, fo that God and his pare Word do remain. For as long as be remained, Life, Salvation, and the Faithful ful all alfo remain.

Paul therefore doth well in curfing thofe Troublers of the Galatians, and in pronouncing Sentence againft them, is wit, that they are accurfed with all that they teach and do, and in willing that they might be cur off, effectially that they might be rooted out of the Church of G op, that is, that God floudd not govern nor paofper their Dodrine, nor their Doings. And this curfing proceeded h from the Holy Gholt. As Peter

Hitherto Paul hash fortiked the Place of Julification with firong and mighty Arguments. Moreover, to the End he might omit nothing, here and there he hash intermingled Childings, Printings, Exhortations, Threatnings and fuch like. In the End he addeth allo his own Example, namely, that he fufferent Perfecution for this DoAtine, thereby admonifying all the Faithful, not to be offended nor diffnayed when they thall fee fuch Uproars, Sects and Offences raifed up in the Time of the Gofel, but rather to rejoice and be glad. For the more the Word tageth againfl the Goffel, the more the Goffel profesent and goeth happily forwards.

This Confolation ought at this Day to encourage us; for it is certain that the World hateth and perfecuteth us for none other Caufe, but for that we profess the Truth of the Gospel. It doth not accule us for Theft, Murder, Whoredom and fuch like; but it deteffeth and abhorreib us becaufe we teach Chrift faithfully and purely, and give not over the Defence of the Truth. Therefore we may be out of all deauly, that this our Dochrine is holy and of God, becaufe the World hatesth it fo bitterly : For otherwife there is no Dochrine fo wicked, fo foolifh and pernicious, which the World doth not gladly admit, embrace and defend : And moreover, it reverently entertaineth, cherisheth and flattereth the Professors thereof, and doth all that may be done for them. Only the true Doctrine of the Gofpel, Life and Salvation, and the Minifters thereof, it utterly abhorreth and worketh all the Spite that may be devifed against them. It is an evident Token therefore, that the World is fo cruelly bent against us for no other Thing. but becaufe it hateth the Word, Wherefore when our Adverfarics charge us, that there rifeth nothing of this Dockrine but Wars, Seditions, Offences, Sects, and other fuch infinite Enormities : Let us answer, Bleffed be the Day wherein we may fee thefe Things. But the whole World is in an Uproar. And well done : For if the World were not fo troubled; if the Devil did not rage and ftir up fuch Broils, we should not have the pure Doctrine of the Gofpel, which cannot be preached, but these Broils and Turmoils must needs follow. Therefore that which ye count to be a great Evil, we take to be a forcial Happinels.

The Doctrine of good Works.

Now follow Exhortations and Precepts of Life and good Works. For it is the Cuftom of the Apolles, after they have taught Faith and inflructed Mens Conficiences, to add Precepts of good Works, whereby they exhort the Faithful to exercife the Duties of Cinaity one towards mother. Votic 13. For, Bretbren, ye have been called unto Liberty; only use not Liberty for an Occasion to the Flesh, but by Love serve one another.

As if he would fays Ye have now obtained Liberty thro' Chrift; that is to fay, ye be far above all Laws as touching Conficience and before God; ye be bleffed and faved, Chrift is your Life,

Ed. (iii, a., "Therefore almo' the Law, Sin and Death trons- The Liberty ble and terrify you, yet can they not hurr you nor drive of the Faithyou to defpart." And this is your excellent and mefitima- ful. ble Liberty. Now findeth it you in Hand to take good heed, hat ye use not that Liberty as an Occision to the Field.

This Evil is common and the molt permisions of all others, that Sae tan fitterata up in the Dockrine of Faith, namely, that in very many he turneth this Liberty, wherewish Chrift hash made us free, into the Lie berty of the Elefs. Of this the Apolle Jude allo complaineth in his Epilite. There, are certain which all Mee cerep in unawares; (faith he') hurning the Groce of our Gad into LaGicinsofiely, Jude 4. For the Fleft is utrefy ignorant of the Dochrine of Grace, that is to fay, it knoweth not that we are made rightcours, nor by Works, but by Faith only, and that the Law hath no Authonity ever us. Therefore when it heareth by and by rhus it galaereths. How be without the Law, let us the lives a we lift, let us do no good, let us give nothing to rhencely, and let us into fuffer any Evil, for there is no Law to confirm us or bind us fo to do.

Wherefore there is Danger on either Side ; albeit the one is more to learble then the other. If Grace or Faith ten on pre-check, no Man can be faved ; for it is Faith alone that julifieth and faveth. On the other Side, if Faith the presched (as of Necality it mult be) the more Partof Men underfland the DigRine of Faith cannally, and draw the Liberty. of the Spirit into the Liberty of the Fleh. These mont fails of the fails of the Golpel. These Man tegen Liber we have been they when the Affairs of this present Libe, for ingether bard below the Ministry bard that they that they find by Experience in Time to come.

For as much then as we know that the Devil lich in wait molf of all for as that hate the World (for the relt he holderli in Ospilivity and slavery at his Pleafure) and laboureth with Might and Main to take from us the Liberty of the Spirit, or at left wife, to term the fame into the Liberty of the Fleft, we teach and exhort our Brethern with figure ar Care and Dilgence by the Example of Paul, that they think not this Liberty of the Spirit, or the Derah of Chrift, to be given unto them, that they flould make it an Occafion of carhal Liberty, or (as Peter faith) flould ule the fame as a Cloke for their Wickednefs, at Pet. in 1.6 but that they flould farve one another thric' Lover.

To the End therefore that Chriffians should not abufe this Liberty (as I have faid) the Apolle layeth a Yoke and Bondage

ipon their Fleih by the Law of murual Love. Whereisers let the Goldy remember that in Conficience before God, they be free from the Carfe of the Law, from Sin and from Death, for Chrift's Sake ; but as touching the Body they are Servants and mult ferve one another thro' Zharity, according to this Commandment of Paul. Heads of carnal Men, nor fink into their Hearts. The Chailtians do gladly: receive and obey this Doctrine: Others as foon a Liberty is preached; by and by do thus infer ; II I be free, then may I do what I lift : This Thing is mine own ; Why then fhould I not fell it for as much as I may get ! Moreover, feeing we obtain not Salvation by out good Works, Why fhould we give any Thing to the Poor ! Thus do they most carelelly shake off the Yoke of Love and good Works, and gurn the Liberty of the Spirit into Wantonnels and fleihly Liberty. But we tell fuch careless Contemners (altho' they believe us not, but laugh us to fcorn) that if they use their Bodies and their Goods after their own Luft, (as indeed they do, for they neither help the Poor, nor lend to the Needy, but beguile their Brethren in bargaining, fnatching and fcrape ing unto themfelves by Hook or by Grook whatfoever they can get ) we tell them (I fay) that they be not free, brag they never fo much of their Liberty, but have loft Chrift and Chriftian Liberty, are become Bond-flaves of the Devil, and are feven Times worfe under the Name of Chriftian Liberty, then they were before under the Tyranny of the Pope. For the Devil which was driven out of them, hath taken unto him feven other Fiends worfe then himfelf, and is returned into them again ; therefore the End of these Men is-worse then the Beginning.

As touching us, we have a Commandment of God to preach the Gofpel, which offereth to all Men Liberty from the Law, Sin, Death and

Contrariwife, let him know that this outward Bondage is laid upon his Body, that he fhould ferve his Neighbour thro' Love. They that une lerftand Chriftian Liberty otherwife, enjoy the Commodities of the Gohel to their own Deftruction, and are worfe Idolaters under the Name f Chrift, then they were before under the Pope. Now Paul goeth ayout to declare out of the Ten Commandments, what it is to ferve one inother thro' Love.

Verfe 14. For all the Law is fulfilled in one Word. even in this : Thou thalt love thy Neighbour as thyfelf.

Paul, after that he hath once laved the Foundation of Chriftian Docrine, is wont to build Gold, Silver and precious Stones upon it. Now, here is no other Foundation, as he himfelf faith, 1 Cor. iii, 11. then, felus Chrift, or the Righteoufnels of Chrift. Upon this Foundation he uildeth now good Works, yea good Works in deed; all which he omprehendeth in one Precept : They that love thy Neighbour as thy/elf. evit. xix. 18. As if he should fay ; When I fay that ye mult ferveine another thro' Love, I mean the fame Thing that the Law faith in ; nother Place; Thou Shalt love thy Neighbour as thyself. And this is ruly to interpret the Scripture and God's Commandments.

Now, in giving Precepts of Love, he coverily toucheth by the Way he falle Teachers; against whom he fetteth himfelf mightily, that he, nay defend and ftablish his Doctrine of good Works against them. AS he faid, O ye Galatians, I have hitherto taught you the true and fpiitual Life, and now alfo I will teach you what be good Works indeed. and this will I do, to the End ye may know, that the vain and foolifie . Norks of Ceremonies which the falle Apoltles do only irge, are far inferior to the Works of Charity. For fuch the Foolifhness and Madness of all wicked Teachers ind fantaffical Spirits, that not only they leave the true oundation and pure Doctrine; but also continuing alrays in their Superflitions, they never attain to good Works. Therefore (as Paul faith, 1 Cor. iii. 12, 13.) bey build nothing but Wood, Hay and Stubble upon the oundation. So the falle Apofiles which were the moft arnest Defenders of Works, did not teach or require the

For after they have deftroyed the Foundation which is "hrift, and darkned the Doctrine of Faith, it was impollible that there mould remain any true Ufe, Exercife or Opinion of good Works. Take way the Tree, and the Fruit must needs perifh. The

The Apolle therefore dilgently exhorten the Chrillians to exercife themfelves in good Works, after that they have heard and received the pine Dokine of Haith. For the Remants of Sin do yet till remain ewen in those that be jultified; which, as they are contrary to Paith and hinder it for do they binder us from doing good Works. Moreover, Man's Reafon and the Fleft, which in the Saints themfelves refiltent the Spirit, and in the Wicked doth mightily reign, is naturally delighted with Pharifacial Superflitions; that is to fay, it taketh more Pleasure in meatating God by her own Imagination then by his Word, and doth the Works that the herieff hath chofen, with fur greater Zeal then those which God hath commanded. Wherefore it is necelfary that the godly Preachers fhould as diligently teach and uge the Doctrine of good Works, as the Dochrine of Faith; for Sain is a deadly Enemy to both. NorwithInding Faith milt be firth planted; if ownthout Faith is is impainble to underfland what a good Work is or what

Therefore these Words : Stree ye one antiser thro Love : And these allor : Those fault have the Main bown as the fail, are full of Spirit, and none of the Faithing do fulficiently confider uge and exe ercifs the fame. And (which is wonderful) the Faithful have this Tempration, that if they comin never fo lights A Matter which they ought to do, by and by their Conficience is wounded , but they are not for troubled if they neglect the Duties of Charity (as dairy hey do) or bear Natural Corruption and Superfition remaining in the Faithful. not a fincere and brotherly Love and Affection towards their Neighbour. For they do not fo much regard the Commandment of Charity, as their own Seperitiions, from the which they be not altogether free during this Life.

Paul therefore reprehendeth the Galatians in the Words; For all the Law is fulfilled in one Word. As if he had faid, Ye are drowned in your Superfitions and Ceremonies concerning Places and Times, which profit neither yourfleves nor others; and in the mean while ye negled Charity which ye ought only to have Aept. What Madnefs is this. So faith Jerese: We weat and comfisme our Bodies with Watching, Failing and Labour; but we negled Charity, which is the only Lady and Millets of Works. And this may be well leen in the Mosk, who firstly objerve the Traditions concerning their Geremonies, Failing. Watching, Apparel, and fach fike. In this Gale if they onit any Thing, be in aver to little, hey fin deadly. But when they do not only negled Charity, but allo have can another to the Peeth, they fin not, nor offend God at all.

Therefore by this Commandment Paul not only teacheth good Works, Fut also condemneth fantaftical and superfittious Works. He not only buildeth unlident Gold, silver and precious Stones upon the Foundation, but diffo throws the down the Wood, and burneth up the Hay and Stubble. God winteffed by Examples in the Old Teffament how much he did laways effect of Charity: whereauto he would have the very Law iteff, and the Caremonies thereof to give Place. to raife up him that is weak, to help thy Neighbour by all Means polifible, to bear with his Infirmities, to endure Troubles, Labours, Ingratitude and Contempt in the Church i; and in civil Life and Convertition to obey the Magilfrate, to give due Honour to thy Parents, to be patient at Home with a froward Wife and an unruly Family, é.c. thefe (I fay) are Works which Reafon judgeth to be of no Valae. But, indeed they are fuch Works, that the whole World is not able to comprehend the Excellency and Worthinefi thereof (for it doth not measure Works or any Thing by the World of God, but by the Jadgmeth of wicked, bill and foolin Reafon i Y es, it knoweth not the Value of any one of the leff good Works that can be, which are true good Works' indeed.

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, when Men dream that they know well enough the Confmandment of Charity, they are uterly deceived. Indeed they have it written in their Heart; for they naturally judge that a Man ought to do' unto another, as he would another fhould do unto him. But it followeth

A Defcription of an Hypocrite. not therefore that they underfload it; for if they did, they would also perform it indeed, and would prefer Love and Charity before all their Works. They would not fo highly effeem their own fuperflitions Toys, as to gf with an heavy Countenance hanging down the Head, to Five unmarried, to live with Bread and Water, to dwell in the Wildernefs, to be poorly apparelled. Sc. Thefe monitrous and fuperfitious Works, which they have devifed and chofen unto themfelves, God neither commanding nor approving the fame, they effect to be fo hot Jy and fo excellent, that they furmount and darken Charity, which is as it were the Sun of all good Works. So great and incomprehenfible is the Blindnefs of Man's Reafon, that it is unable, not only to judge rightly of the Doctrine of Faith, but also of external Conversation and Works. Wherefore we must fight strongly, as well against the Opinit ons of our own Hearts, (to the which we are naturally more inclined in the Matter of Salvation then to the Word of God, ) as also against the counterfeit Vizor and holy Shew of our own Will works; that fo we mad fearn to magnify the Works which every Man doth in his Vocation, altho' they feem outwardly never fo bafe and contemptible, if they have the Warrant of God's Word: and contrariwife, to defpife those Works which Reafon choofeth without the Commandment of God, feen they never fo excellent and holy.

Of this Commandment I have largely intreated in another Pince, and therefore I will now but lightly over-run it. Indeed this is briefly focken; Low by Weighbour as thy/eff, but yet very aptly and to the Purpole. 'No Man can give a more certain, a better or a neure Eximple then a Mans own fell. Therefore, if thou would know how thy Neighbour ought to be lowed, and would have a plain Example there of, confider well how thou lowelt thyfelf. If thou fhould be in Nee effity or Darger, thou would the glad to have the Love and Friendfrip of all Men, to be holpen with the Couried, the Goots and the Strength of all Men and of all Greatures. Wherefore thou hall hot need Fury Book to infruct and to admanifi the bow thou suphisft to love by Neighbour; for thou haft in excellent Book of all Laws even in gl entr. Thou needeft no School-mafter in this Matter; alk Coundionly of thise own Heart, and that fhall teach thee fulficiently that har i hou oughteft to love thy Neighbour as thyfelf. Monover, Lover Charity is an excellent Veruse, which not only maketh a Man willing nd ready to ferve his Neighbour with Tongen, with Handy, with Money, nd worldly Goods; but with his Body, and even with his Life allo, and thus to do, it is not provoked by good Deferts or any Thing elfe, either is it hindered thro' evil Deferts or Ingratude. The Mother but therefore nourifh and cherifi her Child, becauf fic horeth it.

Now, my Neighbour is every Man, cfpecially which hath need of ny Help, as Chrift expoundeth it in Lake x. Who altho' he bath one me fonie wrong or hurt me by any Manner of Way, yet notchihlanding he hath not put off the Nature of Man, or ceafed to be Heth and Blood, and the Creature of God molf like unto myfelf, briefy, he carieth not to be my Neighbour. As long then as the Nature i Man remaineth in him, 'fo long alfo remaineth the Commandment of Love, which requireth at my Hand, that I hould not defpile minewm Flefh, not render Evil for Evil, but overcome Evil with Good ; qe Ife hall Love never be as Paul deferibeth to  $L_{or}$ , xiji,

Paul therefore commendeth Chariy to the Galarian, and to all the faithful (for they only love indeed.) and exhortent hum that thro? Charity one of them thould farve another. As if he would fay: Ye need not to burden yourfelves with Circumcifion, and with the Cremeonies of Mojer's Law, but above all Things, continue in the Doftine of Faith which ye have received of me. Afterwards, if ye will do good Works, I will in one Word thew you the phileft and greatent Works, and how ye thall fulfil all Laws: Serves ye are another thro? Low. Ye hall no take them to whome ye may do good, for the World is full for uch as need the Help of others. This is a perfect and a found Doerine of Faith and Love; and alio the fhorteft and the longelt Divinity. Paul therefore teacheth that fuch Occasions of Difcord are to be avoided, and he sheweth how they may be avoided. This (faith he) is the Way to Unity and Concord : Let every Man do his Duty in that Kind of Life which God hath called him unto. Let him not lift up fimfelf above others, nor find Fault at other Mens Works, and commend his own, but let every one ferve another thro' Love. This is a true and fimple Dostrine touching good Works. This do not they teach which have made Shipwrack of Faith, and have conceived fans taffical Opinions concerning Faith and good Works ; but difagreeing among themfelves as touching the Doctrine of Faith and Works, they bite and devour, that is to fay, they accuse and condemn one another, as Paul here faith of the Galatians ; If ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not confumed one of another. As if he would fay ; Do not accuse and condemn one another for Circmcifion, for observing of holy Days or other Ceremonies, but rather give yourfelves to ferve and help one another thro' Charity ; or elfe if ye continue in biting and de-his whole Epiftle taketh away Righteoufnels from the Law : For faith he, By the Works of the Law shall no Flesh be justified, Gal. II. 16. Alfo. As many as are of the Works of the Law, are under the Carfe, Chap. iii. 10. But now when he faith that the whole Law is fulfilled in one Word, he feemeth to have forgotten the Matter whereof he hath intreated in all this Epifile, and to be of a quite contrary Opinion, to wit, that they which do the Works of Charity, fulfil the Law, and be righteous. To this Objection he answereth after this Manner :

Verse 16. This I fay then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye Iball not fulfil the Luft of the Flesh.

As if he should have faid ; I have not forgotten my former Difcourfe concerning Faith, neither do I now revoke the fame in that I exhort you to mutual Love, faying ; that the whole Law is fulfilled thro' Love, but I am still of the fame Mind and Opinion that I was before. To the End therefore that ye may rightly understand me, I add this moreover, Walk in the Spirit, and ye (ball not fulfil the Luft of the Flefh.

A Confutation of the Argument of the Schoolmen: Love is the fulfilling of the Law : therefore the Law justifieth.

Altho' Paul speaketh here exprelly and plainly enough, yet hath he little prevailed ; for the School-men not understanding this Place of Paul, Love is the fulfilling of the Law, have gathered out of it after this Manner ; If Love be the fulfilling of the Law, it followeth then that Love is Righteoufnefs ; therefore if we love, we be righteous. Thefe profound Clarks do argue from the Word to the Work, from Doctring or Precepts, to Life, after this Sort ; The Law hath commanded Love. therefore the Work of Love followeth out of Hand. But this is a foolish Confequence, to draw an Argument from Precepts, and to ground the Conclution upon Works.

True it is that we ought to fulfil the Law, and to be justified thro? the fulfilling thereof ; but Sin hindreth us. Indeed the Law prefcribeth and commandeth that we should love God with all our Heart, Go. and that we should love our Neighbour as ourselves; but it followeth not ; This is written, therefore it is done ; the Law commandeth Love, therefore we love. There is fequence of not one Man to be found upon the whole Earth, which to loveth God and his Neighbour, as the Law requireth. But in the Life to come, where we shall be throughly cleanfed from all Vices and Sins, and fhall be made as pure and as clear as the Sun, we shall love perfectly, and thall be rightcous thro' perfect Love. But in this Life that Purity is hindred by the Flefh ; for as long as we live, Sin remaineth in our Plefh ; by Reafon whereof, the corrupt Love of ourfelves is So mighty, that it far furmounteth the Love of God and of our Neighbour. In the mean Time notwithfanding, that we may be tighteous bit in this Life alfo, we have Chrift the Mercy feat and Throne of Grace, and becaufe we believe in him. Sin is not imputed unto us. Faith therefore is our Righteoufsels in this Life. But in the Life to come when we shall be throughly cleanfed and delivered from all Sins and Concupifcence, we fhall have no more Need of Faith and Hope, but we fhall then love perfectly.

It is a great Error therefore to attribute Juftification, or Righteoufnels to Love, which is nothing ; or if it be any Thing, yet is it not fo great that it can pacify God ; for Love even in the Faithful (as I have faid) is imperfect and impure. But no unclean Thing fhall enter into the Kingdom of God. Notwitt.ftanding in the mean while this Truft and Confidence fuffaineth us, that Chrift, who alonely committed no Sin, and in whole Mouth was never found any Guile, I/a. hill.

He alludeth to the Place of Exodus xiii. 21.

9. 1 Pet. ii. 22. doth overfhadow us with his Righteoufnefs. We being covered with this * Cloud, and fhrowded under this Shadow, this Heaven or Remifion of Sins and Throne of Grace, do begin to love and to fulfil the Law. Yet for this fulfilling we are not justified nor accepted of God whilft we live here. But when Chrift hath delivered up the Kingdom to God his Father, and abolifhed all Principality, and God fhall be All in All ; then fhall Faith and Hope ceafe, and ed with Charity, is Righteoufsiels.

Love shall be perfect and everlasting, I Cor. xili, This Faith adorn- Thing the Popifh School men underftand not, and therefore when they hear that Love is the Sum of the whole Law, by and by they infer ; Brgo, the Law juffifieth. Of the Papifts contrariwife, when they read in Paul that Faith maketh a Man righteous ; yea, fay they, Faith formed and furnished with Charity. But that is not the Meaning of Paul as I have largely declared before.

If we were pure from all Sin, and were inflamed with perfect Love both towards God and our Neighbour, then thould we indeed be righteous and holy thro' Love, and God could require no more of us. This is not done in this prefent Life, but is differred until the Life to come, Rom. viii. 23. Indeed we receive here the Gift and first Fruits of the Spirit, fo that we begin to love, howbeit very flenderly. But if we lowed God truly and perfectly as the Law of God requireth, which faith a Thou fhalt love the Lord thy God with all thine Heart, and with all thy Soul, and with all thy Might, Deut. vi. 5. Matth. xxii. 37. Then thall we be as well contented with Poverty as with Wealth, with Pain as with Pleasure, and with Death as with Life. Yea, he that could love God truly and perfectly indeed, fhould not long continue in this Life, . but fhould ftraightway be fwallowed up by this Charity.

But now Man's Nature is fo corrupt and drowned in Sin, that it connot have any right Senfe or Cogitation of God. It loveth not God, but hateth him deadly. Wherefore as John faith ; Herein is Love ; not that 2/19

we beset God, but that he laced us, and fant hit Sarts be the Proprinting for our Sin, i John y: 10. And as Paul faith before in Chapt, is 20, Chrift bath bare me, and given binglif for me. And in God, v. q. ex. But when the Falmipi of the Time was energe. God fort forth hit Son made, of a Woman, made under the Law, to redeen them that mere under the Law. We being redeemed and julihed by the Son, begin to love a seconding to that Saying of Paul in Non, while 3, 4. For what the Law evolution is that it was wask they the Flex, God fraining his own Son, in the Likeogi of field Flex, and for Sin contenned Sam, it is, Pelpo That the Rightenning of the Law might be fulfilled in us, that is, might begin to be kulliked. They are mere Dreams therefore with the Say publicers and School-men have jaught concerning the fulfilled of the Law.

Wherefore Paul flaweth by thefe Words, Wolk in the Spirit, how the would have that Sentonce to be underflood, where he fails an awher they Lowe. And again, Low is the following of the Low, the sentence of the sentence of the sentence of the sentence is that Frequies of you, that ye walk in the Spirit. For I know that yee fail nor full the Law, becaule Sin dwelleth in you as long as ye live, and therefore it is impossible that ye fload fulfil the Law. Notwiths Banding in the mean while anderwoor yourdelves difigently to yak in the respirit, that is, werkle in Spirit againft the Fleh, and follow fpirital Motions, Gos

It appeareth then that he had not forgotten the Matter of Juftificatia For when he biddeth them to walk in the Spirit, he plainly deniash that Works do juftify. As if he would fay ; When I fpeak of the fulfilling of the Law. I mean not that we are julified by the Laws but this I mean, that there be two contrary Captains in you, the Spirie and the Fleih. God hath ftirred up in your Bodies a Strife and a Baty tle : for the Spirit wreftleth againff the Fleih, and the Fleih adaloft the Spirit, Gol. 9. 17. Here I require nothing elfe of you, but that ye follow the Spirit as your Captain and Guide, and that ye refult that Captain the Flefh's for the is all that we be able to do; Obey the Spirit. and fight againft the Flefh. Therefore when I teach you to observe the Law, and exhort you to love one another, think not that I go about to. revoke that which I have taught concerning the Doctrine of faith, and that now I attribute Jultification to the Law or to Charity ; but my Meaning is, that ye thould walk in the Spirit, and that ye thould not fulfil the Lufts of the Flefh.

- Paul dicth very fit Words and to the Porpole. As if he would far-We come not yes to the fulfilling of the Law s therefore we muft walk in the Spirit and be exected therein, that we may think, fay, and do shold Things which are of the Spirit, and refill thole Things which are of the Pfeld. Therefore he addeth :

Verfe 16. And ye shall not fulfil the Luft of the Flesh.

Defires and Lufts of the Flefh even in the Godly.

As if he would fay; The Defires or Lufts of the Flefh be not yet dead in us, but firing up again and fight a gainft the Spirit. The Flefh of no faithful Man is fo good, which being offended would not bite and devour, or at the left omit fomewhat of that Commandment of Love. Yea, even at the first Brunt he cannot refrain himfelf, but is angry with his Neighbour, défireth to be revenged, and hatch him as an Enemy, or at the left loveth him not 6 much as he fhould do, and as this Commandment requireth. And this hapenent even to the Faithful.

Therefore the Apolle hash given his Rule for the Faithful, that they fhould ferve one another thro' Love, that they fhould bear the Bordens and Infimities one of another, and that they fhould forgive one another. And without this bearing and forbearing thro' Love, it is impofible that Peace and Genord fhould continue amongft Chriftians. For it cannot be but that thou mult needs often diffind, and be offended. Thou feeeft many Things in me which offend thee, and I again fee many Things in the which millike me. Here if one bear not with another thuo' Love, there finall be no End of Diffention, Difford, Envy, Hatred and Malice.

Wherefore Paul would have us to walk in the Spirit, left we fulfil the Lufts of the Flefth. As if he fhould fay; Altho' ye be moved with Wrath and Difpleafure againft yous Brother, offending you, or doing any Thing hainoully againft you, yet notwithflanding refulf and reprefs thefe violent Motions-thro' the Spirit. Bear with his Weaknefs and love him according to that Commandment, Thus flat love thy Neighbear, at 1/hg/f. For thy Brother doth not therefore ceeds to be thy Neighbour, becaufe he lippeth, or offendeth thee; but then hat he molt Need that those floadift exercise and five they Ansight to wards than And this Commandment; Theu fast leve thy Neighbear as thyfelf, requireth the felf-fame Thing; to wit, that thou thouldft not obey the Fleft , which when it is offended, hateth, biteth and devoreth. But wreflie againft it in Spirit, and continue thro' the fame in the Love of thy Neighbour, altho' thou find nothing in him worthy of Love.

The School-men take the Concupilence of the Flefh for carnal Luft. Indeed it is true that even the Godly, efpecially the younger Sort are tempted with fielhly Luft. Yea, they also that be martied (for corrupt and pelilient is Flefh) are not without luch carnal Luft. Here let every one (I fpeak now to the Godly being married, both-Man and Wife) diligently examine himfelf, and no doubt, many fhall find this in themfelves, that the Beauty and Gonditions of another Man's Wife pleafch him better them of his own a and fo contrarivife, his own lawful Wife he loatheth or milliketh, and loveth her which is unlawful.

And this commonly is wont to happen, not in Marriage. only, but in all other Matters. Men fet Light by that which they have, and are in Love with that which they have not; as the Poer faith; Nitimar

CHAP. VI

Nitimur invetitum femper cupimufque negata : That is, Of Things most forbidden we always are fain ; And Things most denied we feek to obtain.

I do not deny therefore but that the Concupifcence of the Flefh come brehendeth carnal Luft, but not that only. For Concupifcence comwehendeth all other corrupt Affections, wherewith the very Faithful are nfected, fome more, fome lefs : as Pride, Hatred, Covetoufnefs, Ime patiency and fuch like. Yea, Paul rehearfeth afterwards among the Works of the Flefh, not only thefe grofs Vices, but also Idolatry, Heat tefies and fuch other. It is plain therefore that he fpeaketh of the whole Concupifcence of the Flefh, and of the whole Dominion of Sin, which triveth even in the Godly who have received the first Fruits of the Spisit, against the Dominion of the Spirit. He speaketh therefore not ony of carnal Luft, Pride, Covetoufnels, &c. but alfo of Incredulity, Dillruft, Defpair, Hatred and Contempt of God, Idolatry, Herefies and fuch other, when he faith ; And ye Iball not fulfil the Luft of the Flefh. As if he fhould fay ; I write unto you that you fhould love one another. This ye do not, neither can ye do it because of the Fleih, which is infected and corrupted with Concupifcence, and doth not only ftir up Sin in you, but also is Sin itfelf. For if ye had perfect Charity, no Heavimels, no Adverfity could be fo great, which should be able to hurt of hinder that Charity ; for it would be fpread throughout the whole Body. There thould be no Wife were the never to hard-favoured, whom her Husband would not love entirely, loathing all other Women, tho they were never fo fair and beautiful. But this is not done, therefore it is impossible for us to be made righteous thro' Love.

Wherefore think me not to twoke and unfay that which I have taught concerning Faith, for Faith and Hope muft continue, that by the one we may be jultified, and by the other we may be railed up in Advergflies, and endure to the End. Moreover, we ferve one another thro' Charity, becaufe Faith is not idle; but Charity is weak and little, Therefore when I bid you walk in the Spirit, I do fufficiently declare that ye are not jultified thro' Charity.

And when I extern you to walk in the Spirit, that ye fulfil not the Concupifence of the Flefh ; I do not require of you that ye fload duterly put off the Flefh or kill it, but that ye fload bille and fubble it's for God will have Mankind to endure, even to the Laft Day : And this cannot be done withour Parents, which do beget and bring up Children. Thefe Means continuing, it mult needs be that Flefh alfo mult continue, and confequently. Sin, for Flehh is not without Sin. Therefore in relpect of the Flefh we are Sinners, but in relpect of the Spirit we are rightcous ; and Go we are partly Sinners, and partly rightcous. Notwithflanding our Rightcoufnefs is much more pleatiful then our Sin, becaufe the Sin of the whole World ; and the Forgivenefs Sins which we have thru's him is fo great, fo large, and fo infinite, that it eafly finallowsth we al Sins, for the we walk according to the Spirit, der.

But the Wicked to not complain of the Rebelium of their Fields, of any Bastle or Conflict, or of the Captivity and Bondage of Sin ; for Sin mighilly reigneth in them. This is therefore the very Complaint of Paul and of all the Pathfald. Wherefore they have done very wickedly which have excuted Paul and all the Pathfalt to have no Sin. For by Uhis Performation (which proceedin of Ignorance of the Dottrine of Pault) they have robbed the Church of a fingular Confolgion ; they have abolined the Pargivench of Sins, and praide Chiff (or hoke Effect)

CHAP. V.

Wherefore when Paul faith; I fee another Law in my Members. &c. he denieth not that he hath Flefh, and the Vices of the Flefh in him. It is likely therefore that he felt fometimes the Motions of carnal Luft. But yet (no doubt) these Motions were well suppressed in him by the great and grievous Afflictions and Temptations both of Mind and Body. wherewith he was in a Manner continually exercifed and vexed, as his Epifiles do declare. Or, if he at any Time being merry and ftrong. felt the Lult of the Flefh, Wrath, Impatiency or fuch like ; yet he refifted them by the Spirit, and fuffered not those Motions to bear Rule in him. Therefore let us in no wife fuffer fuch comfortable Places (whereby Paul defcribeth the Battle of the Flefh againft the Spirit in his own Body) to be corrupted with fuch foolifh Gloffes. The Schoolmen, the Monks, and fuch other, never felt any fpiritual Tentations. and therefore they fought only for the reprefling and overcoming of flefhly Lufts and Lechery, and being proud of that Victory which they never yet obtained, they thought themfelves far better and more holy then married Men. I will not fay, that under this holy Pretence they nourifhed and maintained all Kinds of horrible Sins, as Diffention, Pride, Hatred, Difdain and defpifing of their Neighbours. Truft in their own Righteoufnefs, Prefumption, Contempt of all Godlinefs and of the Word of God, Infidelity, Blafphemy and fuch like. Against thefe Sins they never fought, nay rather they took them to be no Sins at all ; they put Righteoufnels in the keeping of their foolifh and wicked Vows, and Unrighteousness in the neglecting and contemning of the fame.

But this mult be our Ground and Anker-hold, that Chrift is our only and perfect Righteoofinefs. If we have nothing whereanto we may trait, yet thefeather Things (as Paul faith, tCar. xili, 13.) Faith, Hope and Love do remain. Therefore we mult always believe, and always hope; we mult always take hold of Chrift as the Head and Fountain of our Righteoufnefs. He that believeth in him, fhall not be alfanned. Moreover, we mult lalow to be outwardly righteous alfo; that is to fay, not to confent to the Flefh, which always entifieth us to fome evil, but to refult it by the Spirit. We mult not be overcome with Impatience for the Unthankfundefs and Contempt of the People, which ableth the Chriftian Liberty, but thro' the Spirit we mult overcome this and all other Tempations. Look then how much we firite againft the Flefh by the Spirat, for much are we outwardly righteous. Albeit this Righteoufnefs doth not commend us befure God.

The Godly feeling the Corruptions of the Flefh, muft not defpair. Let no Man therefore defpair if he feel the Flefh oftentimes to flir up new Battles againft the Spirit, or if he cannot by and by flobdue the Flefh, and make it obedient unto the Spirit. I alfo do with myfelf, to have a more valiant and conftant Heart, which might be able, not only bodily to contemm the Threatmings of Tyrants, the Herefice, Offinces and Turnults which Statan aldh bis Soldiers the Enemies of the Gofpel fir up; but allo might by and by fhake off the Vexation and Angaih of Spirit, and briefly, might not fear the Sharpnefs of Death, but receive and embraco it as a moff iendly Gueft. But I find another Law in my Membert, warring againft he Law of my Mind, &c. Some other do wreftle with inferior Tempations, as Poverty, Reproach, Impatiency and fuch like.

Let no Man marvel therefore to be difinated when he feeleth in his ody this Battle of the Flefh againft the Spirit; but let him pluck up is Heart and comfort himfelf with thefe Words of Paul;

The Flefs lufteth againft the Spirit. Allo ; Thefe are conrary the one to the other; j 5 that ye cannot do the Things bat ye would. For by the Sentences he construct the muhat be tempted. As if he fload fay: It is impolible or you to follow the guiding of the Spirit in all Things without any Feeling or Hinderance of the Fleff: Nay,

Here it that be cough, if ye, effit the Fleth and fulfill not the Lack thereof; that is to fiy, if ye folby the Spirit and and the Fleth, which esfilly is overthrown by Impatincy, coverted to revenge, bitch, gradgeth, hateth 'God, is angy with him, defpaireth, drc. Therefore when a Man feeleth this Battle of the Fleth, let him not be difcouraged therewith, but let him refift in Spirite and Spirit and an effect on the Fleth, in which Sin dwelleth for large at it liveth-

But I will obey the Spirit and not the Flefh , abat is, I To walk in will by Faith and Hope lay hold upon Chrift, and by his the Spirit, if Word I will raife up myfelf, and being fo raifed up, I will not fulfill the Luft of the Flefh.

It is very profitable for the Godly to know this, and to-ber it well a Mind; far it wonderfully comfortet the then when they are tempted. When I was a Mark I thought by and by that I was utterly call away, if at any Time I felt the Luft of the Fleht, that is to fay, if T Gel any evil Motion, fieldhy Luft, Wrath, Hatted or Envy againit my Brother. I affayed many Works to help to quiet my Confeience, but it would not be: For the Concupifence and Luft of my Fleh did always return, fo that I could not reft, but was continually vexed with theft Thoughts: This or that Sin thou faht committed; thoo at infedeed with Envy, with Impatiency, and fuch other Sias: therefore thou at entred into this holy Order in vain, and all thy good Works or Paul. The Paintful therefore receive great Confolation by this Doftrine of Paul, in that they know themfelves to have Part of the Flefl, and Part of the Spirit, but yet fo notwithflanding that the Spirit roleth, and the Flefl is fabdad and kepr under awe, that Righteouffels reigneth, and Sin ferveth. Therefore it profate the server much to feel formeimes the Wickednets of our Nature and Grirreptus of our Fleh, that yet by this Means we may be waked and fittered up to Faith, and to call upon Chrit. And by this Occafion which of Heavingfis can make Joy. of Terror Comfort, of Sin Righteouffolfs, and of Death Life, when he by this Means reprefing and bridling the Flehh, make the infolged to the Systems. To the GALATIANS.

Wherefore let not them which feel the Luft of the Flefh, defpair of teir Salvation. Let them feel it and all the Force thereof, fo that they onfent not to it. Let the Paffions of Luft, Wrath and fuch other Vices take them, fo that they do not overthrow them. Let Sin affail them, that they do not accomplifh it. Yea the more godly a Man is, the here doth he feel that Battle. And hereof come those lamentable Comlaints of the Faithful in the Pfalms and in the whole Scripture. Of ais Battle the Hermites, the Monks, and the School-men, and all that tek Righteousness and Salvation by Works, know nothing at all.

But here may fome Man fay ; that it is a dangerous Matter to teach hat a Man is not condemned, if by and by he overcome not the Motins and Paffions of the Flefh which he feeleth. For when this Doctrine taught among the common People, it maketh them carelefs, negligent nd flothful. This is it which I faid a little before, that if we teach aith, then carnal Men neglect and reject Works : If Works be requied, then is Faith and Confolation of Confcience loft. Here no Man can e compelled, neither can there be any certain Rule prefcribed. But at every Man diligently try himfelf to what Pallion of the Flesh he is noft fubject, and when he findeth that, let him not be carelefs, nor flate. er himfelf; but let him watch and wreftle in Spirit againft it, that if he annot altogethet bridle it, yet at left he do not fulfil the Luft thereof,

This Battle of the Flesh against the Spirit, all the Children of God. ave had and felt : And the felf fame do we alfo feel and prove. He hat fearcheth his own Confcience, if he be not an Hypocrite, fhall well erceive that to be true in himfelf which Paul here faith, that the Fleft ufteth against the Spirit. All the Faithful therefore do feel and confess hat their Flesh refisteth against the Spirit, and that these two are forconte rary the one to the other in themfelves, that they do what they can, they are not able to perform that which they would do. Therefore the Flein indreth us that we cannot keep the Commandments of God, that we annot love our Neighbours as ourfelves, much lefs can we love God with all our Heart : Therefore it is impossible for us to become righteous ly the Works of the Law. Indeed there is a Good will in us, and fo muft there be (for it is the Spirit it(elf which refifteth the Flefh) which would gladly do good, fulfil the Law, love God and his Neighbournd fuch like, but the Fleih obeyeth not this Good-will, but relifteth ; and yet God imputeth not unto us this Sin : For he is merciful to hofe that believe, for Chrift's Sake,

But it followeth not therefore that thou fhouldit make a light Matter I Sin, because God doth not impute it. True it is that he doth not impute it : But to whom, and for what Caufe ? To fuch as repent and lay ald by Faith upon Chrift the Mercy feat, for whofe Sake, as all their ins are forgiven them ; even fo the Rempants of Sin which are in them e not imputed unto them. They make not their Sin lefs then it is, at amplify it and fet it out as it is indeed; for they know that it car-. int be put away by Satisfaction, Works; or Righteoufnels, but only, y the Death of Chrift. And yet notwithstanding the Greatness and, normity of their Sin doth not caufe them to despair, but they affurd Re themthemfelves, that the fame shall not be imputed unto them, or laid to their Charge.

CHAP VE

This I fay, left any Man fould think that after Faith is received. there is little Account to be made of Sin. Sin is truly Sin whether a sin Man commit it before he hath received the Knowledge of Chrift, on after. And God always hateth Sin : yea all Sin is damnable as touching the Fact itfelf. But in that it is not dammable to him that believeth, it cometh of Chrift, who by his Death hath taken away Sin. But it to him that believeth not in Chrift, not only all his Sins are damnable ; when but even his good Works also are Sin, according to that Saving ; Whatfoever is not of Faith is Sin, Rom. xiv. 23. Therefore the Error of the School-men is molt pernicious, which do diffinguish Sins according to the Fact, and not according to the Perfon. He that believeth hath as great Sin as the Unbeliever. But to him that believeth, it is forgiven and not imputed ; to the Unbeliever it is not pardoned, but imputed. To the Believer it is venial; to the Unbeliever it is mortal and damnable : Not for any Difference of Sins, or becaufe the Sin of the Believer is lefs, and the Sin of the Unbeliever greater ; but for the has Difference of the Perfons. For the Faithful affureth himfelf by Faith" that his Sin is forgiven him, forafmuch as Chrift hath given himfelf for it. Therefore altho' he have Sin in him and daily finneth, yet he continueth godly; but contrariwife, the Unbeliever continueth wicked. And this is the true Wifdom and Confolation of the Godly, that although they have and commit Sins, yet they know that for Chrift's Sake they are not imputed unto them.

This I fay for the Comfort of the Godly. For they only feel indeed that they have and do commit Sins ; that is to fay, they feel that they do not love God fo fervently as they fhould do ; that they do not believe him to heartily as they would, but rather they oftentimes doubt whether God have a Care of them or no; they are impatient and are angry with God in Adverfity. Hereof (as I have faid) proceed the forrowful Complaints of the Faithful in the Scriptures, and specially in the Pfalms. And Paul himfelf complaineth that he is fold under Sin, Rom. vii. 14. And here he faith, that the Flefh refriteth and rebelleth against the Spirit. But because they mortify the Deeds of the Flesh by the Spirit (as he faith in another Place, and alfo in the End of this Chapter. They crucify the Flefb with the Defires and Lufts thereof; ) therefore thefe Sins do not hurt them nor condemn them. But if they obey the Flefh in fuifilling the Lufts thereof, then do they lofe Frith and the Holy Ghoft. And if they do not abhor their Sin, and return unto Chrift (who hath given Power to his Church, to receive and raife up those that be fallen, that fo they may recover Faith and the Sentences Holy Ghoft) they die in their Sins. Wherefore we fpeak pronounced not of them which dream that they have Faith," and yet againft fuch continue fill in their Sins. These Men have their Judgas obey the ment already : They that five ofter the Flefs thall die, Rom." Lufts of the vill. 12. Hereby we may fee who be the very Saints indeed. They be not tocks and Stones (as the Monks and School men dream) fo that they renever moved with any Thing, never feel any Lufts or Defires of the leih; but as Paul faith, their Eleih lufteth against the Spirit, and therewe they have Sin, and both can and do Sin. And the and Plalm ineffeth, that the Faithful do confess their Unrighteousness, and pray hat the Wickedness of their Sin may be forgiven, where he faith a ser. 5. Moreover, the whole Church, which indeed is oly, prayeth that her Sins may be forgiven her, and it believeth the orgiveness of Sins. And in Plalm cxliii. 2. David prayeth : O ord, enter not into Judgment with thy Servant : For in thy Sight (hall no Man living be juffified. And in Plalm CXXX. 2. 4. If thou, Lord. Ihouldf ark Iniquities; Q Lord, Who (ball fland ? But there is Forgiveness with see, &c. Thus do the chiefeft Saints and Children of God fpeak and ray; as David, Paul, Sc. All the Eaithful therefore do speak and ray the fame Thing, and with the fame Spirit. The Popifh Sophifters ad not the Scriptures, or if they read tlam; they have a Vail before peir Eyes; and therefore as they cannot judge rightly of any Thing can they not judge rightly either of Sin, or of Holinefs.

ctic 18. But if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not under the Law.

Paul cannot forget his Doctrine of Faith, but fill repeateth it and atesh it into their Heads; yes even when he treatesh of good Works. ere fome Man may object : How can it be that we fitould not be unis the Law ? And yet thou notwithstanding, O Paul, teacheth us, that have Flefh which lufteth against the Spirit, and fighteth against us. amenteth and bringeth us into Bondage. And indeed we feel Sin, and mnot be delivered from the Feeling thereof, the' we would never for in. And what is this elfe, but to be under the Law ? But faith he : it this nothing trouble you ; only do your Endeayour that ye may be d by the Spirit, that is to fay; thew yourfelves willing to follow and ey that Will which refifteth the Flefh, and doth not accomplish the uffs thereof, (for this is to be led and to be drawn by the Spirit ; ) then e ye under the Law. So Paul fyeaketh of himfelf, Rom. vii. 25. my Mind I forwe the Law of Gal; that is to fay, in Spirit 1 am not biect to any Sin; but yet in my Flesh I ferve the Law of Si . The withful then are not under the Law, that is to fay, in Spirit ; for the uw cannot accule them, nor pronounce Sentence of Death against am, altho' they feel Sin, and confets themfelves to be Sinners; for Ee 2 the

the Power and Strength of the Law is taken from it by Chrift, Whatter was made under the Law, that he might redeem them which were under the the Law, Gal. iv. 4, 5. Therefore the Law cannot accuse that for the Sin in the Faithful, which is Sin indeed and committed against the Law with

So great then is the Power and Dominion of the Spirit, that the Lawis cannot accuse the Godly, tho' they commit that which is Sin indeed. For the Chrift is our Righteoufnels, whom we apprehend by Faith ; he is with out all Sin, and therefore the Law cannot accufe him to As long as we cleave fast unto him, we are led by the Spirit, and are free from the Law. And fo the Apoftle even when he teacheth good Works, forgetteth not his Doctrine concerning Juffification ; but always fheweth n that it is impoffible for us to be justified by Works. For the Rem was nants of Sin cleave faft in our Flefh, and therefore fo long as our Flefhing liveth, it ceafeth not to luft contrary to the Spirit. Notwithftanding there cometh no Danger unto us thereby; becaufe we be free from the Law, fo that we walk in the Spirit.

And with these Words; If ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not underly the Law, thou mayeft greatly comfort thyfelf and others that be grievoully tempted. For it oftentimes cometh to pafs, that a Man is for vehemently affailed with Wrath, Hatred, Impatiency, carnal Defire Terror and Anguifh of Spirit, or fome other Luft of the Fleih, that he cannot fhake them off, tho' he would never fo fain. What fhould he do in this Cafe? Should he defpair ? No. bled Mind God forbid ; but let him fay thus with himfelf : Thy Flefh fighteth and rageth against the Spirit. Let it rage: comforted. as long as it lifteth ; only fee thou that in any Cafe thou confent not to it, to fulfil the Lufts thereof, but-walk wifely and follow the leading of the Spirit. In fo doing, thou art free, from the Law. It accufeth and terrifieth thee (I grant) but altogether in vain. In this Conflict therefore of the Flefh againft the Spirit, therein is nothing better, then to have the Word of God before thine Eyes and therein to feek the Comfort of the Spirit.

And let not him which fuffereth this Temptation, be difmayed, in that the Devil can fo aggravate Sin, that during the Conflict he thinkethe himfelf to be utterly overthrown, and feeleth nothing elfe but the Wrath of God and Defperation. Here in any wife let him not follow his own Feeling and the Judgment of Reafon, but let him take fure hold of this Saying of Paul ; If ye be led by the Spirit, that is, to wit, if ye raife up and comfort yourfelves thro' Faith in Chrift, ye be not under the Law. So fhall he have a ftrong Buckler wherewith he may beat back all the fiery Darts which the wicked Fiend affaileth him withal, How much foever then the Flefh doth boil and rage, yet cannot hen to fay, the Word of Salvation, (which is, That God would not the Death of a Sinner, but that he convert and live) and to fight against them : Which if we do, let us not doubt but we shall obtain the Victory, altho' fo long as the Battle endureth, we feel the Pain contrary. But fet the Word out of Sight, and there is no Counfel nor Help remaining. Of this that I fay, I myfelf have good Experience. I have fuffered maby great Paffions, and the fame alfo very vehement and great. But fo foon as I laid hold of any Place of Scripture, and flayed myfelf upon it as upon my chief Anker-hold, ftraight ways my Tentations did vanifh away : which without the Word it had been impoffible for me to endure any little Space, and much lefs to overcome them.

The Sum or Effect therefore of all that which Paul hath taught in this Difputation or Difcourfe concerning the Conflict or Battle between the Fleih and the Spirit, is this; That the Saints and the Elect of God cannot perform that which the Spirit defireth. For the Spirit would gladly be altogether pure, but the Flesh being joined unto the Spirit will not fuffer that. Notwithstanding they be faved by the Remission of Sins, which is in Chrift Jefus, Moreover, because they walk in the Spirit, and are led by the Spirit, they be not under the Law; that is to fay, the Law cannot accufe or terrify them : yea, altho' it go about never fo much fo to do, yet shall it never be able to drive them to Defperation.

Verfe 10. Now the Works of the Flesh are manifest, which are these. &c.

This Place is not unlike to this Sentence of Chrift ; Te thall know them by their Fruits : Do Men gather Grapes of Thorns, or Figs of Thifles? Even fo every good Tree bringeth forth good Fruit : But a corrupt Tree bringeth forth evil Fruit, &c. Matth. vii. 16, 17. Paul teacheth the very fame Thing which Chrift taught, that is, to wit, that Works and Fruits do fufficiently teltify whether the Trees be good or evil ; whether Men follow the guiding of the Fleih or of the Spirit. As if he should fay ; Left fome of you might fay for himfelf, that he understandeth me not now when I treat of the Battle between the Fleih and the Spirit. I will fet before your Eyes first the Works of the Flesh, whereof many are known even to the Ungodly ; and then alfo the Works of the Spirit.

And this doth Paul, because there were many Hypocrites amongst the Galatians, (as there are alfo at this Day among us) which outwardly pretended to be godly Men, and boaffed much of the Spirit, and as touching the Words, they understood the true Doctrine of the Goipel; but they walked not according to the Spirit, but according to the Fleih, and performed the Works thereof. Whereby Paul manifeltly convinceth them to be no fuch holy Men indeed as they boafted themfelves to be. And left they should defpife this his Admonition, he pronounceth against them this dreadful Sentence, that they shall not be Inheritors of the Kingdom of Heaven, to the End, that being thus admonified, they might a-Ee 2 mend. Every Age even in the Falthful, hath his peculiar Temptations; as flefaly Lufts affail a Man moft of all in his Youth, in his middle Age Ambition and Vain-plory, and in his old Age Covetoufnels, There w: : never yet uny of the Paithful, whom the Flefh hath not often in-1 s Life-time provoked to Impatiency, Anger, Vain-glory, &c. Paul therefore fpeaking here of the Faithful, faith, that the Fleth lufteth in them against the Spirit, erc, therefore they shall never be without the Defires and Battles of the Flefh ; notwithftanding they do not hurt them. But of this Matter we must thus judge, that it is one Thing to be provoked of the Flefh, and yet not willingly to yield to the Lufts and Defires thereof, but to walk after the leading of the Spirit. and to refift the Flefh ; and another Thing to affent unto the Flefh, and without all Fear or Remorfe to perform and fulfil the Works thereof and to continue therein, and yet not with flanding to counterfeit Holinefs, and to brag of the Spirit. The first he comforteth, when he faith, that they be led by the Spirit, and be not under the Law. The other he threatneth with everlafting Deftruction.

Notwithstanding fometimes it happeneth that the Saints also do fall and perform the Lufts of the Flefh : As David fell horribly into Adultery. Alfo, he was the Caufe of the Slaughter of many Men, when he caufed Uriah to be flain in the fore-front of the Battle ; and thereby alto he gave Occafion to the Enemies to glory and triumph over the People of God, to worthip their Idols, and to blafpheme the God of Ifrael. Peter alfo fell moft grievoully and horribly when he denied Chrift. But altho' thefe Sins were great and hainous, yet were they not committed upon any Contempt of God, or of a wilful and obflinate Mind, but thro' Infirmity and Weaknefs. Again, when they were admonifhed, they did not obffinately continue in their Sins, but repented. Such the willeth afterwards in Gal. vi. 1. to be received, inftructed and reftored, faying; If a Man be overtaken in a Fault, ye which are spiritual, reflore such an ane in the Spirit of Meeknofs; confidering thyself, left thou also be tempted. the Fear of God or Remote of Conference in accomplishing the Defines and Luilt thereof; let him know that he pertaineth not unto Chrift : And altho he brag of the Name of a Chriftian never fo much, yet doth is but deceive himsleft. For they which are of Chrift, do enacify their Fleb with the Affections and Lufts thereof.

Who be rightly called Saints, and be foindeed.

This Place, (as I have allo forewarded you by the Way) constanct in it a fingular Confolation : for it teacheth us, that the Saints and mode holy Men is this World live not withour Concupifence and Tempatihus of the Flefb, nor yet without Sins. It warneth us therefore to ake lead that us do not as forme did, of whom Carfor writesh, which laboured to rate to fuck Perfection, that they might be without all feeling of Tempations or Sins, i that is to fay, very Stocks and Stones.

The like Imagination the Monks and School-men had of their Saints. as tho' they had been very fenfelefs Blocks and without all Affections. The Virgin Mary felt great Grief and Sorrow of Spirit when the miffed her Son, Luke ii. David in the Pfalms complaineth that he is almost fwallowed up with excelline Sorrow for the Greatness of his Temprations and Sins. Paul alfo complaineth that he hath Battles without, and Terrors within, 2 Cor. vii 5. and that in his Flesh he ferveth the Law of Sin. He faith that he is careful for all the Churches, 2 Cor. xi. 28. and that God fhewed great Mercies towards him, in that he deliwered Epaphroditus being at the Point of Death, to Life again, left he thould have had Sorrow upon Sorrow. Therefore the Saints of the Paciffs are like to the Stoicks, who imagined fuch wife Men, as in all the World were never yet to be found. And by this foolifh and devilifh Perfuation which proceedeth of the Ignorance of this Doctrine of Paul, the School-men brought both themfelves and others without Number, into horrible Defperation.

When I was a Monk I did oftentimes moft heartily with, that I might once be fo happy, as to fee the Conversation and Life of some Saint or holy Man. But in the mean Time, I imagined fuch a Saint as lived in the Wildernefs, abstaining from Meat or Drink, and living only with Roots of Herbs and cold Water ; and this Opinion of those monftrous Saints, I had learned not only out of the Books of the Sophiflers and School-men, but alfo out of the Books of the Fathers. For thus write eth Hierome in a certain Place ; As touching Meats and Drinks I fay nothing, for as much as it is Excels, that even fuch as are weak and feeble fhould use cold Water, or eat any fodden Thing, or. But now in the Light of the Golpel we plainly fee who they are whom Chrift and his Apostles call Saints : Not they which live a fole and a fingle Life, or ftraitly observe Days, Meats, Apparel and fuch other Things, or in putward Appearance do other great and monftrous Works, (as we read of many in the Lives of the Fathers ;) but they which being called by the Sound of the Golpel and baptized, do believe that they be justified and cleanfed by the Death of Chrift. So Paul every where writing to the Chriftians, calleth them holy, the Children and Heirs of God, dre: Wholeever then do believe in Chrift, whether they be Men or Women; with bond or free, are all Saints ; not by their own Works, but by the Works of God, which they, receive by Faith ; as his Word, the Sacraments, the Paffion of Chrift, his Death, Refurrection, Victory, the fending of the Holy Ghoft. To conclude, they are Saints thro' fuch a Holineis as they freely receive, not thro' fuch a Holinefs as they themfelves have gotten by their own Industry, good Works and Merius.

So the Minifters of the Word, the Magiftrates of Common-weals, Parents, Children, Mafters, Servants, drc. are true Saints, if first and bebigs. fore all Things, they affure themfelves that Chrift is their Wildom, Righteoufnefs, Sanctification and Redemption. Secondly, If every one art: do his Duty in his Vocation according to the Rule of God's Word, and obey not the Flefh, but reprefs the Lufts and Defires thereof by the Spirit. Now, whereas all be not of like Strength to refift Temptations, but many Infirmities and Offences are feen in the moft Part of Men; this nothing hindreth their Holinefs, fo that their Sins proceed not of an obftinate Wilfulnels, but only of Frailty and Infirmity. For (as I have faid before) the Godly do feel the Defires and Lufts of the Flefh, but they refift them, to the End that they accomplish them not. Alfo, if they at any Time unadvifedly fall into Sin, yet notwithftanding they obtain Forgiveness thereof, if by Faith in Chrift they be raifed up again; who would not that we fhould drive away, but feek out and bring home the (traying and loft Sheep, &c. Therefore God forbid that I should ftraightway judge those which are weak in Faith and Manners, to be prophane or unholy, if I fee that they love and reverence the Word of God, come to the Supper of the Lord, &c. For thefe God hath received, and counteth them righteous thro' the Remiffion of Sins; to him they fland or fall, drc.

Wherefore with great rejoicing I give Thanks to God, for that he hath abundantly and above Meafure granted that unto me, which I fo earneftly defired of him when I was a Monk : For he hath given unto me the Grace to fee, not one but many Saints, yea, an infinite Number of the true Saints ; not fuch as the Sophifters have devifed, but fuch as Chrift himfelf and his Apoltles do describe. Of the which Number I affure myfelf to be one. For I am baptized, and I do believe that Chrift is my Lord, by his Death hath redeemed and delivered me from all my Sins, and hath given to me eternal Rightcoufnefs and Holinefs. And let him be holden accurfed, whofoever shall not give this Honour unto Chrift, to believe that by his Death, his Word, oc. he is juffified and fanctified.

Wherefore rejecting this foolifh and wicked Opinion concerning the Name of Saints (which in the Time of Popery and Ignorance we thought to pertain only to the Saints which are in Heaven and in Earth to the Heromites and Monks, which did certain great and ftrange Works ;) let us now learn by the holy Scripture, that all they which faithfully believe in Chrift are Saints. The World hath in great Admiration the Holinels of Benedict, Gregory, Bernard, Francis and fuch like, becaufe

t heareth that they have done, in outward Appearance and in the Judge ment of the World, certain great and excellent Works. Doubtlefs Hillarie, Cyril, Athanalius, Ambrole, Augustine and others were Saints alfo, which lived not fo frait and fevere a Life as they did, but were converfant amonglt Men, and did eat common Meats, drink Wine, and used cleanly and comely Apparel, fo that in a Manner there was no Difference between them and other honeft Men as touching the common Cuftom, and the Ufe of Things necessary for this Life; and yet were they to be preferred far above the other. These Men taught the Docwine and Faith of Chrift fincerely and purely, without any Superflitionthey refitted Hereticks, they purged the Church from innumerable Erwors; their Company and Familiarity was comfortable to many, and efpecially to those which were afflicted and heavy-hearted, whom they raifed up and comforted by the Word of God. For they did not withdraw themfelves from the Company of Men, but they executed their Offices even where most Refort of People was. Contrariwife, the other not only taught many Things contrary to the Faith, but alfo were themfelves the Authors and first Inventors of many Superstitions, Errors, abominable Ceremonies and wieked Worfhippings. Therefore except at the Hour of Death they laid hold of Chrift, and reposed their whole Truft in his Death and Victory, their ftrait and painful Life availed them pothing at all.

• Thefe Things do fufficiently declare who be the true Saints indeed, and which is to be called a holy Life : Not the Life of thole which luck in Caves and Dens, which make their Bodies lerm with falling, which wear Hain, and do other like Things with this Perfwafion and Truft, that they full have fome fingular Reward in Heaven above all other Chriftians ; but of thofe which be baptized and believe in Chrift, which put off the old Man with his Works, but not at cace ; for Concupifcence and Loft remained in them fo long as they live ; the feeling whereof doth hurt them nothing at all, if they fuffer it not to reign in them, but folds at it othe Spine.

This Dockrine bringeth great Confolation to godly Minds, that when they feel theic Daras of the Field, wherewith Satam affaileth the Spirit, they flouid not defpair ; as it happeneth to many in the Pepacy, which thought that they ought to feel no Concupificence of the Fleih, whereas inouvinit/Maning Hisrone, Cregory, Banedia, Bernard and others (whom the Minds fit before them, as a perfect Example of Chaftiy and of all Chriftian Vertues) could never come fo far as to feel no Concupificence of Luft of the Fleih. Yea, they feit it, and that very fitongly : Whigh Thing they acknowledge and plainly confels in divers Places of their Books.

Therefore we rightly confels in the Articles of our Bellief, that we believe there is an holy Church. - For it is invifible, dwelling in Spirit in a Place that none can atrain unto, and therefore her Holmels cannot be feren : For God doth fo hide her and cover her with Infirmities, with Sins, with Brores, with divers Forms of the Crofs and Offences, that are equing to the Judgment of Reafon it is no where to be ferm. that are ignorant of this, when they fee the Infirmities and Sins of those in the which are baptized, which have the Word and believe it are by and with by offended, and judge them not to pertain to the Church. And in the 14 h mean while, they dream that the Heremites, the Monks, and fuch other Shavellings are the Church, which honour God with their Lips, and worthip him in vain, becaufe they follow not the Word of God, but the Doctrines and Commandments of Men, and teach others to do the fame, And because they do certain superstitious and monstrous Works, which carnal Reafon magnifieth and highly effeemeth; therefore they judge them only to be Saints and to be the Church! And in fo doing, they change and turn this Article of the Faith clean contrary : I believe that there is a boly Church, &c. and in the Stead of this Word I do not fee, Il believel they put in [1 fee.] These Kinds of Rightebut I believe. oufnefs and Holinefs of Man's own devifing, are nothing Hypocritical elfe but foiritual Sorceries wherewith the Eyes and Minds Holinefs. of Men are blinded, and led from the Knowledge of true Holinefs.

But thus teach we, that the Church hath no Spot nor Wrinkle, but is holy, and yet thro' Faith only in Chrift Jelus : Again, that the is holy in Life and Converfation, by abitaining from the Lufts of the Flefh. and Exercise of fpiritual Works ; but yet not in fuch Sort that five is delivered from all evil Defires, or purged from all wicked Opinions and Errors. For the Church always confelleth her Sins, and prayeth that her Faults may be pardoned : Alfo the believeth the Forgivenels of Sins. The Saints therefore do fin, fall, and alfo err ; but yet thro' Ignorance: For they would not willingly deny Chrift, forfake the Gofpel, ere. therefore they have Remiflion of Sins. And if thro' Ignorance they err alfo in Doctrine, yet is this pardoned ; for in the End they acknowledge their Error, and relt only upon the Truth, and the Grace of God offered in Chrift, as Hierome, Gregory, Bernard and others did. Let Chriflians then endeavour to avoid the Works of the Flesh : but the Defires or Lufts of the Flesh they cannot avoid.

It is very profitable therefore for them to feel the unclean Lufts of the Flefh, left they fhould be puffed up with fome vain and wicked Qpinion of the Righteousness of their own Works, as tho' they were ancepted before God for the fame. The Monks being puffed up with this Opinion of their own Righteoufnels, thought themfelves to be fo holy, that they fold their Rightcoufnels and Holinels to others, altho' they were convinced by the Telfimonies of their own Hearts, that they were unclean. So pernicious and peflilent a Poilon it is for a Man to truft in his own Righteoufnels, and to think himfelf to be clean. But the Godly, because they feel the Uncleanness of their own Hearts, therefore they cannot truft to their own Righteoufnels. This feeling fo maketh them to floop, and to humblesh them, that they cannot truft to their own good Works, but are constrained to fly unto Christ their Mercyfeat and only Succour ; who hath not a corrupt and finful, but a moft pure and holy Fleih, which he hath given for the Life of the World, John vi. 51. in him they find a found and perfect Righteoufnels. Thus ney continue in Humility; not conterfeit and monkish, but true and unfeigned, because of the Uncleannels which yet remaineth in their left ; for the which if God would firaitly judge them, they fhould be mund quilty of eternal Death. But because they lift not up themselves frendly spainft God, but with a broken and a contrite Heart humbly cknowledging their Sins, and refting wholly upon the Benefit of the Mediator Chrift, they come forth into the Prefence of God, and pray hat for his Sake their Sins may be forgiven them; God foreadeth over hem an infinite Heaven of Grace, and doth not impute unto them their tins for Chrift's Sake.

This I fay to the End that we may take heed of the pernicious Erfors of the Papifls touching the Holinefs of Life, wherein our Minds were fo wrapped, that without great Difficulty we could not wind ourelves out of them. Wherefore do you endeavour with Diligence, that re may differn and rightly judge between true Righteoulnels and Holirefs, and that which is hypocritical; then shall ye behold the Kingdom of Chrift with other Eyes then carnal Reafon doth, that is, with fpiritg-I Eyes, and certainly judge those to be true Saints indeed which are naptized and believe in Chrift, and afterwards in the fame Faith whereby they are jultified, and their Sins both paft and prefent are forgiven, lo abftain from the Defires of the Flefh But from these Defires they are not throughly cleanfed : for the Flefh lufteth againft the Spirit. Notwithftanding these unclean and rebellious Lufts do ftill remain in them. to this End that they may be humbled, and being to humbled, they may feel the Sweetness of the Grace, and Benefit of Chrift.

to thefe Remnants of unclean Lufts and Sins do nothing To the Godit all hinder, bu greatly further the Godly : for the more ty those hey feel their Infirmities and Sint, fo much the more Things hey fly unto Chrift the Throne of Grace, and more hear- which are lity crave his Aid and Succour : to wit, that he will cover them with his Righteoufnefs, that he will increase unto good. heir Faith, that he will endue them with his holy Spirit, by whole gracious leading and guiding they may overcome the Lufts of he Flesh that they rule and reign not over them, but may be subject into them. Thus true Christians do continually wrefile with Sin, and wet notwithfianding in wrettling they are not overcome, but obtain the Victory.

This have I faid, that ye may understand, not by Mens Dreams, but by the Word of God, who be true Saints indeed. We fee then how greatly Christian Doctrine helpeth to the raifing up and comforting of weak Confciences ; which treateth not of Couls, Shavings, Shearings, Fraternities and fuch like Toys, but of theh and weighty Matters, as now we may overcome the Flefh, Sin, Death and the Devil. This Doctrine as it is unknown to all Julicipries and fuch as truft to their own Works, fo it is impossible for them to instruct or bring into the ight Way one poor Confcience wandring and going aftray; or to patify and comfort the fame when it is in Heavinels, Terror or Defpeation.

Verles 10, 20. Now the Works of the Flesh are manifeft, which are thefe, Adultery, Fornication, Uncleanness, Lasciviousness, Idolatry, Witchcraft, &c.

Paul doth not recite all the Works of the Flefh, but ufeth a certain Number for a Number uncortain. Firfl. He reckoneth up the Kinds of Lufts, as Adultery, Fornication, Uncleannels, Lafcivioufnels, &c. Now, not only carnal Luft is a Work of the Flefh, as the Papifls dreamed, who called Marriage alfo a Work of the Flefh, (fo chaft and holy are thefe Men) whereof God himfelf is the Author, which also they themfelves reckoned among their Sacraments; but he numbreth allo amongst the Works of the Fleih (as I have faid before) Idolatry, Witchcraft, Hatred and fuch other, which hereafter follow. Wherefore this Place atone doth fufficiently they what Paul meaneth by the Fleth. Thefe

Idolatry.

Words are fo well known that they need no Interpretation. All the higheft Religions, the Holinefs and moft fervent Devotions of those which do reject Chrift the Mediator, and worthip God without his Word and Commandment, are nothing elfe but plain Idolatry. As in Popery it was counted a most holy and fpiritual Act, when the Monks being that up in their Selles did mufe and njedinate of God or of his Works, and when they being inflamed with moft earnest Devotions, kneeled down, prayed, and were fo ravished with the Contemplation of heavenly Things, that they wept for Joy. There was no thinking of Women or of any other Creature, but only of God the Creator, and of his wonderful Works; and yet this molt spiritual Work (as Reason effectmenth it) is according to Paul, a Work of the Fleih and plain Idolatry. Wherefore all fuch Religion whereby God is worthipped without his Word and Commandment is Idolatry. And the more holy and fpiritual it feemeth to be in outward Shew, fo much the more dangerous and pernicious it is. For it turneth Men away from Faith in Chrift, and caufeth them to truft to their own Strength, Works and Righteoufnefs. And fuch is the Religion of the Anabaptifis at this Day; albeit they daily more and more bewray themfelves to be poffeffed with the Devil, and to be feditious and bloody Men.

Therefore the falling, the wearing of Hair, holy Works, ftrait Rule, and whole Life of the Carthufians, or Charter-house-Manks, whole Order notwithstanding is of all other the straitest and sharpest, be very Works of the Fleih, yes plain Idolatry. For they imagine themfelves to be Saints, and to be faved, not by Chrift (whom they fear as a fevere and cruel Judge) but by obferving of their Rules and Orders. Indeed they think of God, of Chrift and of heavenly Things, but after sheir own Reason, and not after the Word of God ; to wit, that their Apparel, their Manner of living, and their whole Converlation is holy and pleafeth Chrift ; whom not only they hope to pacify by this Straitnels of Life, but alfo to be rewarded of him for their good Deeds and Rightcoufnels. Therefore their molt fpiritual Thoughts (as they dream of of them) are not only moft flefuly, but also moft wicked; for they would wipe away their Sins, and obtain Grace and Life eventating; by the Truft and Affiance they have in their own Righteoufnels, rejecting and defping the Word, Faith and Chrift. All the Worhippings and Services of God therefore, and all Religions without Chritit are Idolatry and Idol-fervice. In Chriti alone the Father is well pleafed; who fo heareth him and doth that which he hath commanded, the fame is beloved becaule of the Beloved. He commandeth us to believe his Word and to be baptized, dc. and not to devife any new Worfhipping or Service of God.

I have faid before that the Works of the Flefi be manifelt; as Adultery, Fornication, and fuch like, be manifeltly known to all Men. But Idolatry hath fuch a goodly Shew and is for fpiritual, that it is known but to very few, that is to the Faithful, to be a Work of the Flefi. For the Mask when he liver the chafty, faitheth, prayeth or faith Maff, is fo far from thinking himfelf to be an Idolater, or that the fulfilleth any Work of the Flefi, that he is affuredly perforaded that he is led and governed by the Spirit, that he walketh according to the Spirit, that he thinketh, Ipeaketh and doth nothing elfe but mere fpiritual Things, and that he doth (uch service unto God as is moft acceptable unto him. No Man can at this Day perfeade the Pa $pi\beta$ , that their  $Ma\beta$  is a great Birliphemy againft God and Idolary, yet and that io horrible as never was any in the Church fince the Apollies Time. For they are blind and oblightmate, and therefore they judge to perverify of God and of God's Matters, thinking Idolary to be the true Service of God, and contrainvief. Faith to be Idolary

try. But we which believe in Chrift and know his Mind, are able to judge and to difeern all Things, and cannot truly and before God be judged of any Man.

<sup>4</sup> Hereby it is plain that Paul calleth Fielh whatfoever is in Man, comprehending all the three Powers of the Soul, that is, the Will that lufterth, the Will that is inclined to Anger, and the Underflanding. The Works of the Will inclined to Ward, are Adultery, Fornication, Unclearnees and fuch like. The Works of the Will inclined to Ward, are Quarrelings, Contentions, Murder, and fuch other. The Works of fulfordinanding or Readion, are Errors, faile Religions, Superflittons, Lodatry, Herefris; that is to fay, Secta and fuch like. It is very needlary for us to know thefe Things; for this Word [Ele/b] is fo darkned in the whole Kingdom of the pope, that they have taken the Work of the Flefn to be nothing elfe but the accomplifning of the flefnly Luft or the Ačt of Lechery : Therefore it was not polible for them them to understand Paul. But here we may plainly fee, that

This Vice was very common in thefe our Day's before the Light and Truth of the Golpel was revealed. When I was a Child there were many V itches and Soreeres which beniched both Cartle and Men, but fpecially Children, and did great Harm, allo otherwife. But now in the Light of the Golpel thefe Things he not fo commonly heard of, for the Golpel thrufteth the Devil out of his Seat with all his Illusions. But now he bewitcheth Men much more horribly, namely, with fairfuld Socrey and Witcherfe.

Paul reckoneth Witchcraft among the Works of the Flefh, which, notwithftanding, as all Men know, is not a Work of flefhly Luft or Lechery, but a Kind of Idolatry. For Witchcraft covenanteth with the Devil ; Superfition or Idolatry covenanteth with God, albeit not with the true God, but with a counterfeit God. Wherefore Idulativy is indeed. 2 fpiritual Witcheraft ; for as Witches do inchant Caule and Men ; fo Idolaters, that is to fay, all Jufficiaries or Juffifiers of themfelves, go, about to bewitch God, and to make him fuch an one as they do imagine. Now, they imagine him to be fuch an one as will juftify them, not of his mere Grace and Mercy, and thro' Fauth in Chrift, but in refpect of their Will-worfhipping and Works of their own chooling, and in recompence thereof will give them Rightenafnels and Life everlate But whiles they go about to bewitch God, they bewitch them-MIZ. felves. For if they continue in this wicked Opinion which they conceive of God; they shall die in their Idolarry and he damned. The Works of the Flefh are well known for the malt Part, therefore they fhall not need any further Declaration.

Sects.

By the Name of Sects Paul meaneth here, not thole. Divisions or Contentions which rife fometimes in the Gowernment of Houfholds or of Common weaks for workly and carbly Narters, but thole which rife in the Church about Doctrine, Faith and Works. Herefies, that is to fay. Seeks, have always been in the Church, as we have fail before in divers. Plays. Notwithlanding the Pope is an Arch-hertick, and the Head of all Herefields, for the hat hilled the Ward (as it were with an huge Flood of infinite Sects and Errors. What Concord and Unity was there in fo great Diverging of the Mondes and other religious Orders 1. No one Sort or Sect of them could agree with an other, for they mediured their Holizefs by the Sarinds of their Orders. Hereof is competh that the Carthofan will needs be counted holier then the Principana, and fo likeways the ref. Wherefore there is no Unity of the Spirit, pace Concord of Minde, hat great Differed in: the Papilitical Church. There is no Conformity in their DoRtine, with, Religion or fevring of God, tut all Things are clean convaryomtranswic, amonght Chritians, the Word, Fauth, Religion, Sacrarichnet, Service, Chrift, God, Heart, Soud, Mind and Underthandaug, he Diverfury of States, Degrees and Conditions of Life, hindrich the phritual Concend and Unity nothing at all, as before Thave faid. And hey which have this Unity of the Spirit, can cartanly judge of all Sechs, which otherways no Man underrikinden , as indeed no Drivo in the Papar underliked at the Papar in the Place condemneth all the Worthippings, Religions, Continency, honelt Convertion and holy Life moutward Appearance, of all the Papifit, SetBarier and SetMusitar out they all thought that he fpacketh of the groß Liolary and Herchies of the Gentile and Tarks, which manifeltly blafpheme the Name of Chrift.

Paul doth not fay, that to eat and drink be Works of Drunkenne/r, the Flefh, but to be drunken and to furfeit, which of all Glattony. 4 other Vices are mode common at this Day. Wholo are given to this beaffly Diffolutenels and Excels, let them know that they are not fpiritual, how much foever they boalt themfelves fo to be, but they follow the Fleih and perform the filthy Works thereof. Therefore is this horrible Sentence pronounced against them, that they shall not be Jaheritors of the Kingdom of God. Peal would therefore that Chriftians thould fly Drunkennels and Surfeiting, living foberly and moderately without all Excefs, left by pampering the Flefh, they fhould be provoked to Wantonnels : As indeed after Surfeiting and Belly-Cheer, withe Fleih is wont to wax wanton and to be inflamed with outragious Luft. But it is not fufficient only to reftrain this outragious Wentonnels and Luft of the Flefh which followeth Drunkenness and Surfeiting, or any Manner of Excels. but also the Fleih when it is molt fober and in his best Temperance, must be fubdued and repressed, left it fulfil his Lufts and Defires. For it oftentimes cometh to pais, that even they which are most fober, are tempted most of all : As Hierome writeth of himfeif : My Face, faith he, was pale with faiting, and my Mind was i finflamed with fieldly Defires in my cold Body, and altho' my Flefh was half dead already, yet the Flames of unclean Luft boiled within me. Hereof I mylifiallo had Experience when I was a Mont. The Heat therefore of unclean Lufts is not quenched by failing only, but we mult be aided aldo by the Spirit, that is, by the Mediatation of God's Wood, Faith and Prayer: Indeed Failing repreficit the gods Affaults to fieldly Lufts, but the Defires of the Fleth are overcome by no Abliances from Meats and Dinks, but only by the Mediatation of the Word of God and Invocation of Carril

When Paul here reckoneth Faith amongst the Fruits of the Spirit it is manual that he fpeaketh not of Faith which is in Chrift, but of the Fidelity and Humanity of one Man towards another. Hereupon be faith in I Cor, xiii, 7, that Charity believeth all Things. Therefore he that hath this Faith is not fulpicious, but mild. and taketh all Things to the beft. And altho' he be deceived and findeth himfelf to be mocked, yet fuch is his Patience and Sofinels, that he letteth it pals : briefly, he is ready to believe all Men, but he truffeth not all. On the contrary, where this Vertue is lacking, there Men are fulpicious, froward, wayward, dogged, and fo neither will believe any Thing, nor give Place to any Body. They can fuffer nothing, what-Toever a Man faith or doth never fo well, they cavil and flander it, fo that whole ferveth not their Humour, can never pleafe them. Therefore it is impossible for them to keep Charity, Friendship, Concord and Peace with Men. But if thefe Vertues be taken away, What is this Life, but biting and devouring one of another ? Faith therefore in this Place is, when one Man giveth Credit to another in Things pertaining to this prefent Life. For what Manner of Life thould we lead in this World, if one Man fhouid not credit another ?

Now, as nothing is more dangerous to the Church then this exeprable Vice, fo is there nothing more common : For when God fendeth forth Labourers into the Harveft, by and by Satan raifeth up his Mimifters alfo, who will in no Cafe be counted inferiour to those that are rightly called. Here fraightways rifeth Diffention. The Wicked will pot yield one Hairs breadth to the Godly ! For they dream that they far pals them in Wit, in Learning, in Godlinels, in Spirit and other Vertues. Much lefs ought the God'y to yield to the Wicked, left the Doc-Rine of Faith come in Danger. Moreover, fuch is the Nature of the Minifters of Satan, that they can make a goodly Shew that they are very charitable, humble, Lovers of Concord, and are endued with other Fruits of the Spirit ; also they proteft that they feek nothing elfe but the Glory of God and the Salvation of Mens Souls ; and yet are they full of Vainplory, doing all Things for none other End but to get Praife and Effimation among Men. To be fhort, they think that Gain is Godfinefs. 1. Tim. vi. 5. and that the Ministry of the Word is delivered unto them that they may get Fame and Effimation thereby. Wherefore they cannot but be Authors of Diffention and Sects.

Foralmuch as the Vain glory of the falle Apolities was the Caufe that the Churches of Galatia were troubled and foorfook Paul, therefore in this Chapter, fpecially his Purpole was to Suppress that exectable Vice ; yea, this Mifchief gave the Apoffle Occafion to write this whole Epifile. And if he had not to done, all his Travel bestowed in Preaching of the Golpel among the Galatians had been fornt in vain. For in his Ablence the falle Apoffles, which were Men in outward Shew of great Authority, reigned in Galatia ; who belides that they would feem to feek the Glory of Chrift, and the Salvation of the Galatians, pretended allo that they had been converfant with the Apollies, and that they followed their Footflops, faying that Paul had not seen Chrift in the Flein, nor had been convertant with the rell of the Apoffles, and therefore they made no Account of him, but rejected his Doctrine, and boafted their own to be true and fincere. Thus they troubled the Galatians and raifed Sects among them, fo that they provoked and envied one another ; which was a fore Token, that neither the Teachers nor Hearers lived and walked after the Spirit, but followed the Fleih and fulfilled the Works thereof; and fo confequently loft the true Doctrine. the Minifters thereof : but to the End that the Benefit and Glory of Chrift might be preached and published, and that the Father might be glorified in his Mercy offered unto us in Chrift his Son, whom he delivered for us all, and with him hath he given us all Things. Wherefore the Gofpel is a Doctrine wherein we ought to feek nothing lefs then our own Glory. It fetteth forth unto us heavenly and eternal Things ; which are not our own, which we have neither done nor deferved ; but it offereth the fame unto us, to us (I fay) which are unworthy, and that thro' the mere Goodness and Grace of God. Why thould we then feek Praife and Glory thereby ! He therefore that feeketh his own Glory in the Gofpel, fpeaketh of himfelf, and be that Ipeaketh of himfelf is a Liar, and there is Unrightcoulnels in him. Contratiwile, he that feeketh the Glory of him that fent him is true, and there is no Unrighteoufnels in him, John vil. 18:

What it is Paul therefore giveth cornell Charge to all the Minifers of the Word, faying ; If we live in the Spirit, telus, walk in the Spirit ; that is to fay, Let us abide in the to walk in the Spirit. Why God layeth the Crofs.upon the Preachers of the Gofpel.

Hereby we may understand, that God of his special Grace maketh the Teachers of the Gofpel fubject to the Crois and to all Kinds of Afflictions for the Salvation of themfelves and of the Pcople ; for otherways they could by no Means repreis and beat down this Beat which is called Vain-glory. For if no Perfecution, no Crofs or Reproach followed the Doctripe of the Golpel, but only Praife, Reputation and Glory amongs Men; then would all the Pra-fellors thereof be intected and peak this the Pollon of Man colory.

But as for the Pope's Synagogue, like as in all other Matters it hath both taught and done clean contrary to the Commandment and Example of Paul, even to hath it done in this Thing alfo. The Pope with all his Bifhops have been very Tyrants and Butchers of Mens Confciences. For they have burdened them from Time to Time with new Traditions, and for every light Matter have vexed them with their Excommunications; and that they might the more cally obey their vain "Terrors, they annexed thereunto thefe Sentences of Pope Gregory : It is the Part and Property of good Minds to be afraid of a Fault where no Fault is. Verfe 4. But let every Man prove his own Work, and aben he fall bave rejoicing in bimfelf alone, and not in another.

He goth forward in Painting cut of thole proud and vain-glorings Fellium. For the Define of Vain glory is an edious and curfed Vice, it is the Occifient of all Evils, and moubleth both Common weak and Comferences, and forcially in formal Matters it is fact an Evil as is incurable. And albeit that thus Place may be underthed of the Wolks of this Life or civil Convertation, yrt principally the Apollic foreketh of the Wolk of the Minifry, and enverging the agoing the wing formous Heads, which with their fancialitical Opmions do trouble well infranced Conferences

And whis is the Property of those which are infected with this Poilon of Vain-glory, that they have no Regard whether their Works, that is to fay, their Ministry be pure, fimple and faithful, or not; but this they only feek, that they may have the Praife of the People. So the falle Apofiles, when they faw that Paul preached the Gofpel purely to the Galatians, and that they could not bring any better Doctrine, they began to find Pault at the le things which he had godly and faithfully taught, and to prefer their own Doctrine before the Doctrine of Paul, and by this Subtility they won the Favour of the Galatians, and brought Paul into Hatred among them. Therefore the proud and vain glorious do join these three Vices together. First, They are greedy of Glory. Secondly, They are marvellous witty and wily in finding Fault with other Mens Doings and Sayings, thereby to purchase the Love, the well Liking and Praife of the People. And thirdly, When they have once gotten a Name (tho' it be by other Mens Travail) they become fo flout and full of Stomack that they done venture upon all Things. There-fore they are perticious and perfilent Fellows, whom I have even with my very Heart , for they fee, they own, and not that which is of Jefus Chill, Ot, Phil. B. 21.

Thus it ought not to be (faith he) but let every Man be faithful in his Office ; let him not feek his own Glory, nor depend upon the Praife m and Commendation of the People, but let his only Care be to do his Work truly, that is, let him teach the Golpel purely. And if his his Work be fincere and found, let him affure himfelf that he shall lack note Praife either before God, or among the Godly. In the mean Space, it he be not commended of the unthankful World, let this nothing move it him ; for he knoweth that the End of his Ministry is, not that he, but that Chrift should be glorified thereby. Wherefore being furnished with the Armour of Rightcoufness on the Right hand and on the Left, let him fay; I began not to teach the Gofpel to the End that the World Ihould magnity me, and therefore I will not fhrink from that which I have begon, if the World hate, flander or perfecute me. He that is fuch an one, teacheth the Word, and attendeth upon his Office faithfully, without any worldly Refpect, that is, without Regard of Glory or Gain, a without the Strength, Wildom or Authority of any Man. He leaneth not to the Praife of other Men, for he hath it in himfelf.

Wherefore he that traly and faithfully executed his Offer, careful not what the World fpeaks of him, he careful nor whether the World pratie or diprate him, but he hash Pratie in himfelf, which is the Teftrinory of his Conference, and Pratie on Groy in God. He may therefore fay with Prad. This is one regional finits is one Pratie and Clary, even the Teftimony of our Conference, that in Simplicity and Sincerity before Cod, and not in fifthly Wridern, but in the Grace of God. we have had our Converfation in the Vorld. What is the Glory of Hereticks. The other Glory which these proud Spirits do feek, is uncertain and molt perillous, for that they have a not in themfelves, but it confiftent in the Mouth and Opinion of the People. Therefore can they not have the Telli-mony of their own Conference, that they have done all Things with Simplicity and Sincerity for the advancing of the Glory of God obly, VTRAB B and the Salvation of Sonk. For this is it which they feek, that they inay be counted famous thro' the Work and Labour of their Preiching and be praifed of Men. They have therefore a Glory, a Truft, and a Tellimony, but before Men, not in themfelves nor before God. The Godly do not define Glory after this Manners If Paul had had this Praife pafore Men, and not in himfelf, he fhould have been commilled to des main, when he faw many Cities, Countries, and all Afra fall from him a when he faw fo many Offences or Slanders, and fo many Herefies to fol low his Preaching. So at this Day if our Truft, our Glory, and Rejoicing did depend une the Indoment and Favour of Men, we flould die with very Anguilh and Sorrow of Heart. For fo far off is it Phil. iv 4. that the Papills, Sectories and the whole World do judge The World this worthy of any Reverence or Praife, that they hate and diffionopreth perfecute us most bitterly ; yea, they would gladly over- the rodly Mithe hrow our Ministry, and root out our Doctrine for ever, nifters of the We have therefore nothing before Men but Reproach ; Word, Hout we rejoice and we glory in the Lord, and therefore we attend upon our Office cheerfully and faithfully, which we know is acceptable to him. Thus doing we care not whether our Work do please or difpleafe the Devil ; whether the World love us or hate us. For swe wknowing our Work to be well done, and having a good Confeience be-Hore God, go forward by Honour and Dihonour, by evil Report and good Report, de. 2 Cor. vi. S. This faith Paul, is to have Rejoicing or Glos ty in thyle.

And this Admonition is very necelfary against that exectable Vice of Vain glory. The Gofpel is a Doctrine which both of itfelf. and also by the Malice of the Devil bringeth with it the Crofs and Perfection. Therefore Paul is wont to call it the Word of the Crofs and of Offenne. Cor. 1. 18. It hath not always fledfaft and conftant Difciples. Many there be that to Day make Profession thereof and embrace it, which To morrow being offended with the Grofs, will fall from it and deny it. They therefore that teach the Gofpel, to the End that they may obtain he Favour and Praile of Men, must needs perifh, and their Glory be urned unto Shame, when the People ceafe to reverence and magnify hem. Wherefore let all Paffors and Minifters of the Word learn to nave Glory and Rejoining in themfelves, and not in the Mouth of other fich. If there be any that praife them, as the Godly are wont to do. By eaul Report and good Report, faith Paul) yet let them receive this alory but as a Shadow of true Glory; and let them think the Subflance of Glory to be indeed the Teftimony of their own Confeience. This Sentence may alfo be well applied to those Works which are done of the Faithful in every State of Life. Moreover, Satan turneth Men particularly alfo from the Golinel by owennuch Fulnels. For when the Golpel is diligently and daily preaches the ed, many being glutted therewith begin to loath it, and by hithe and loa little become negligent and untoward to all codly Exercifes. Again: mit chere is no Man that will now bring up his Children in good Learning, and much lefs in the Study of the Holy Scripture, but they employ them wholly to gainful Arts or Occupations. All thefe are Satans Practiles, to no other End but that he may opprefs the Gofpel in this our Country with any Violence of Tyrants, or fubtil Devices of Hereticks. It is not without Caufe therefore that Paul warneth the Hearers of the Golpel to make their Paffors and Teachers Partakers with them in all good Things. ## VERSES 13, 13. To the GALATIANS

Veric 12. As many as defire to make a fair Shew on the Fleft, they confirm you to be circumsifed; only top they should fuffer Perfecution for the Crofs of Chrift.

Before he curfied the falls Apofiles. Now as it were repetiting the fame Thing spain that with other Words, he accuse the them very thatply, to the End he may fear and turn away the Galatient from sheir Dodrine, nowith flanding the great Authority which they fectual to have a The Teachars which ye have (Kath Bootminikk he) are fact as first, Regard not the Glory of Chrift and the Sa verice of syster Souls, but only feek their two Glor Apolita, ry : Scenady, They face the Crofs : Thirdly, They unbe average defland not the Things which they teach.

Those falle Teachers being accused of the Apollies for three fueb execrable Enormitics, were worthy to be avoided of all Men. But yet all the Galatians obeyed not this Warning of Paul. And Paul doth the falle Apofiles no wrong, when he to vehemently inveigheth againft them : but he justly condemneth them by his apostolick Authority. Jo like Manner when we call the Pope Antichriff, his Bilhops and his Shavolings a surfed Generation, we flander them not, but by God's Anthonsy we judge them to be accurfed, according to that which is faid in the 1A Chapter ; But though we, or an Angel from Heaven, preach any other Golpel unto you, then that which we have preached unto you, let him be accurled. For they hate, perfecute and overthrow the Doctrine of Chrift. Wonr Teachers (faith he) are vain Heads, and not regarding the Glory of Chuin and your Salvation, they leek only their own Glory. Again, begaufe they are afraid of the Grofs, they preach Circumcifion and the Righteoninels of the Flefh, left they fould provoke the Jenus to hate and perfecute them. Wherefore, altho' ye hear them neven to gladly and never fo long ; yet fhall we hear but fuch as make their Belly their God, feek their own Glory, and fhun the Crofs, Phil. iii. 19. And here is to be hoted a certain Veltemency in this Word dompel, For Circumcifion is nothing of infelf ; but to be compelled to Circumcifion, and when a Man hath received it, to put Righteonfnels and Holinefs, therein, and if it be not received to make it a Sin, that is an Injury anto Chrift. Of this Matter I have fooken largely enough here colore.

This is against Mofes, who faith, that to be circumcifed is to keep the Law, Ges. xvii. 10. and not to be circumcifed, is to make the Covenant void, Gen. xvii. 14." And the Jews were circumcifed for none other Caufe but to keep the Law, which commanded that every male Child fhould be circumcifed the eight Day. Hereof we have before intreated at large, and therefore we need not now to repeat the fame again. Now, thefe Things ferve to the condemning of the false Apofiles, that the Galatians may be feared from hearing of them, as if he thould fay; Behold, I fet before your Eyes what Manner of Teachers ye have. Firft, They are vain-glotions Men, which leek nothing but their own Profit, and care for nothing but their own Belly, Phil. ii. 21. Secondly, They flee the Crofs ! And finally, they teach no Truth or Certainty, but all their Saying and Doings are counterfeit and full of Hypocrify. Wherefore altho" they keep the Law outwardly, yet in keeping it they keep it not. Therefore is this horrible Sentence pronounced against them, that they shall not be Inheritors of the Kingdom of God. Paul would therefore that Chriftians thould fly Drunkennels and Surfeiting, living foberly and moderately without all Excefs, left by pampering the Flefh, they fhould be provoked to Wantonnels : As indeed after Surfeiting and Belly Cheer, the Flefh is wont to wax wanton and to be inflamed with outragious Luft. But it is not fufficient only to reftrain this outragious Wantonnels and Luft of the Flefh which followeth Drunkennels and Surfeiting, or any Manner of Excefs. but also the Fleih when it is molt fober and in his best Temperance, must be subdued and repressed, left it fulfil his Lufts and Defires. For it oftentimes cometh to pals, that even they which are molt fober, are tempted moft of all : As Hierome writeth of hispfeif: My Face, faith he, was pale with faiting, and my Mind was inflamed with fleihly Defires in my cold Body, and altho' my Fleih was half dead already, yet the Flames of unclean Luft builed within me. This is Poul's Manner of Speaking; The World is crucified to me. that is, I judge the World to be damaed. And I am crucified to the World, that is, the World again judgeth me to be damned. Thus we crucify and condemn one another. I abhor all the Doctrine, Righteoulness and Works of the World as the Poilon of the Devil. The -World again detefteth my Doctrine and Deeds, and judgeth me to be feditions, a pernicious, a peftilent Fellow, and an Heretick. So at this Day the World is crucified to us, and we unto the World. We curfe and condemn all Man's Traditions concerning Mals, Orders, Vows, Will-worthippings, Works, and all the Abominations of the Pope and other Hereticks as the Dirt of the Devil. They again do perfective and kill us as Deftroyers of Religion, and Troublers of the publick Peace.

The Monks dreamed that the World was crucified to them, when they entred into their Monafteries ; but by this Means Chrift is crucified and not the World, yea the World is delivered from crucifying, and is the more quickned by that Opinion of Holine's and Trag which they had in their own Righteoufnels that entred into Religion. Molt fool-Thly and wickedby therefore was this Semence of the Apofeles wrefted to the entring into Monatteries. He fpeaketh here of an high Matter 15

ment on their Side; for the fpiritual Man judgeth all Things, 1 Cor. ii. 15. Wherefore the Judgment of the World touching Religion and Righteouínefs before God, is contrary to the Judgment of the Godly, as God and the Devil are contrary the one to the other. For as God is crucified to the Devil, and the Devil to God; that is to fay, as God condemneth the Doctrine and Works of the Devil (for the Son of God appeared, as I John iii. 8. faith, to deftroy the Works of the Devil; ). and contrariwife, the Devil condemneth the Word and the Works of God, for he is a Murderer and a Father of Lics, I John viii. 44. fo the World condemneth the Doctrine and Life of the Godly, calling them molt pernicious Hereticks and Troublers of the publick Peace. And again, the Faithful call the World the Son of the Devil, which rightly followeth his Fathers Steps, that is to fay, which is as great a Murderer and Liar as his Father is. This is Paul's Meaning when he faith ; Whereby the World is crucified unto me, and I unto the World. Now, the World doth not only fignify in the Scriptures ungodly and wicked Men, but the very beft, the wifelt and holieft Men that are of the World.

And here by the Way he coverily togeheth the falls Apofiles. Verle 15. For in Chrift Jefus neither Circumeiston at vaileth any Thing, nor Uncircumcision, but a news Creature.

This is a wonderful Kind of Speech which Paul here ufert when her with ; Neither Gramméjne and Unarrametriken senite that any Thing. Its may feam that he fload rather have faid ; Einher Circumédina or Unebramidina availeth fonewhat, feeing thefe are two contrary Things-But now he denieth that either the case on the other do any Thing atbut now he denieth that either the case on the other do any Thing at-Vall. As if he fload have faid : Ye mult mount up highers for Dirational Davierumention are Things of no fuch Importance that they are able to obtain Rightcouline's before God. True if is that hey are contrary the one to the other ; but this is nothing as touching Chridina Rightcouled's, which is not earthly but heavenly, and therefore troundifted or uncircumcifed, it is all one Thing; for in Chrift Jeluin meither the out or the other wailth any Thing at 11.

The Tews were greatly offended when they heard that Circumcifion availed nothing. They eafily granted that Uncircumcifion availed nothing ; but they could not abide to hear that fo much should be faid of Circumcifion, for they fought even unto Blood for the Delence of the Law and Circumcifion. The Papifis alfo at this Day do vehemently contend for the Maintenance of their Traditions as touching the cating of Flefh, fingle Life, Holy Days and fuch other; and they excommunicate and curfe us which teach that in Chrift Jefus these Things do nothing avail. But Paul faith that we must have another Thing which is much more excellent and precious, whereby we may obtain Righteoulnels before God. In Chrift Jefus (faith he) neither Circumcifion nor Uncircumcifion, neither fingle Life, nor Marriage, neither Meat nor Faking do any whit avail. Meat maketh us not acceptable before God. We are neither the better by abstaining, nor the worfe by eating, All these Things, yea the whole World with all the Laws and Rightepufnefs thereof avail nothing to Juffification.

Reafon and the Willow of the Fleft do not underfland this ; for it percentsh not their Things which are of the Sport of God, 1 Cor, it is a Therefore it will needs have Righteoulings to thand in outward Things. But we are taught out of the Ward of God, that there is globing under sim.

sentimets before God. We may use these Things both good and new ceffary, but in their Place and Time. But if we talk of the Matter of fulfilication, they avail nothing but hurt very much.

And by thefe two Things ; Circumcifion and Uncircumcifion, Pounts rejecteth all other Things whatfoever, and denieth that they avail any Thing in Chriff Jefus, that is, in the Caule of Faith and Salvation.

Uncircumcilion Gonifieth all the Gentiles : Circumcifion, all the Tews.

For he taketh here a Part for the whole, that is, by Uneircumcifion he understandeth all the Gentiles, by Circumcifion all the Tews, with all their Force and all their Glory. As if he faid ; Whatfoever the Gentiles can do with all their Wildom, Righteoufness, Laws, Power, Kingdoms, Empires, it availeth nothing in Chrift Jefus. Alfo what foever the Tews are able to do with their Moles. their Law, their Circumcifion, their Worthippings, their Temple, their Kingdom and Prieft-hood, it nothing avail-

eth. Wherefore in Chrift Jefus or in the Matter of Juffification, we muft por difpute of the Laws either of the Gentiles or of the Jews, but we must fimply pronounce that neither Circumcifion nor Uncircumcifion availeth any Thing.

Are the Laws then of no Effect ? Not fo. They be good and profitable; albeit in their Place and Time, that is, in corporal and civil Things, which without Laws cannot be guided. Moreover, we ule al-So in the Churches certain Ceremonies and Laws; not that the keeping of them availeth unto Righteousness, but for good Order, Example Quietness and Concord, according to that Saying ; Let all Things be done decently, and in order, 1 Cor. xiv. 40. But if the Laws be to fet. forth and urged as tho' the keeping of them did justify a Man, or the breaking thereof did condemn him, they ought to be taken away and to be abolished; for then Chrift loseth his Office and his Glory, who only juffifieth us, and giveth unto us the Holy Ghoff. The Apollie therefore by these Words plainly affirmeth, that neither Circumcifion nor Uneircumcifion availeth any Thing, but the new Creature, Co. Now, fince that neither the Laws of the Gentiles por of the Jews avail any Thing, the Pope hath done most wickedly, in that he hash con-Strained Men to keep his Laws with the Opinion of Righteoufnefs.

Now, a new Creature whereby the Image of God is renewed, is not made by any Colour or Counterfeiting of good Works, (for in Chrift Jelus neither Circumcifion svaileth any Thing, nor Uncircumcifion) but by Chrift, by whom it is created after the Image of God, in Righteoufnels and true Holinels, Ephef. iv: 24. When Works are done, they bring indeed a new Shew and outward Appearance wherewith the World and the Flefh are delighted, but not a new Creature ; for the Heart remaineth wicked as it was before, fall of the Contempt of God and Infidelity. Therefore those Words which we have already mentioned. As if he should fay a Wherefore should it grieve us to deferve fo well of all Men, when as God hath before dealt to bountifully, kindly and gently with us, with whom without Comparison, we are lefs, and have lefs of him descryed, then any being compared to us can be, or can deferve of us ? As therefore God hath with exceeding Bountifulness and Kindness most gently behaved behaved himfell toward us, of his Mercy graning and giving unto our all Things to ought we to do all Things with all Charley and Goodwill toward our Neighbours, albeit they have otherwise deferved, forage much as ye were like anto them, fubject to all Sins and evil Definers. Here we fee how the Apolle will have us to be affected towards Men at 156 will have us fubject to them that be in Authority, kind unto others, and ready to do well unto them with all Genthenes, althout they be exit. Mind, and in Error, that we grudge not to bear thefe Things, and ass much as jept in us, endeavour to do them good, taking all Things in good Part, confidering that God Bath fo dealt with us, when we were evil and witch, like unto them.

This Word, appeared, we have elfewhere declared to fightfy the Revelation of the Gofpel, whereby Chrift appeared in the World, Tit, ii. 11. Albeit the Unfkilfulnefs of Miniflers hath wrefted it to the carnal Nativity of Chrift. He ufeth not here the Word Grace, which he ufeth before, but hath fer inflead thereof two other Words, of marvellous Comfort, TKindwiefs, and Love toward Men ] which he attributeth to our God. 100 The firft is called of the Grecians Chreftotes, and is that Kindnefs, Gentlenels and Sweetnels of Conditions, wherewith they that be endued, with them all of us are with Pleafure converfant, and marvelloufly delighted with their Company. fo that they do with this their Gentlenels and Kindmels allure, and greatly provoke all Men to love them : For fuch can fuffer all without Grief ; they contemn no Man ; they repel or put none from them with bitter, hard, and difordered Conditions; Accefs unto them is not hard, but they are fo open, and ready for all, that every one dare refort unto them, and defire their Help. And to conclude, they are fuch Men as the Gofpels defcribe Chrift unto us, whom they declare to be gentle to all, a Defpifer of none, which denieth no Benefit to any, pliant, prepared and ready to do good to all. So God alfo by the Golpel is preached and offered unto us wholly good, bountiful and fweet, open to all, rejecting none, bearing all our Sins and Offences, repelling no Man from him with excellive Severity. For we read and hear nothing to be declared in the Golpel but mere Grace, and mere Goodnels, whereby he doth most mercifully bear us, and most gently handle us, and not any Man according to his Deferts. This is the Time of Grace, wherein it is granted to all to go with great Boldneis unto the Throne of Grace, as it is written Heb. iv. 16. and Pfol. xxxiv. 5. They looked unto him, and were lightned: And their Faces were not alhamed, that is, he will not fuffer you to pray and come in vain, neither to teturn with Confusion being frustrate.

The other Word is Philambrepia, Love of Men, as Coveronfelf may be called Love of Money, as David x Sam. is a 6. called the Defae of Women, the Love of Women. And the PhiloSophers call evertain laying Creatures Philambreps, that is, loving roward Men, as are Thorfso.Dogs, Jolphins. For their Creatures are by Nature delighted with Man, shey, desire his Company, and do willingly fave him, as tho they were moved with from Reafon and Senfe of Humanity. This Blance, and fuch Love the Apolle here attributeth to our God, which Mole  adjór alfo did before him, Dazi zaxvili a. 3. where he fpeaketh there of God. The Lord appeared memory in hir Kynth-dod a Lord of Pieze and a clear disc deer deer disc deer

Now let no Man reftrain these two Words [Kindness, and Love toward Men] to the Perfons, for God is plainly without Refpect of Perfons bountiful to all, and a Lover of all, otherwife if we should here make a Difference between Men, we fhould acknowledge that fomething is received thro' our Merits, and not all Things thro' his Mercy. Where it must be well marked, that God is faid to be a Lover of Men, not of this or that Nature only, not held with Love of the Perfon, and therefore these two, Kindness and Love toward Men, must be taken after a general Sort, that in all Things the chief Praife may be attributed to his Mercy, that no Man truft in his own Merits, neither be terrified with Sins, but that altogether do truft to his Grace, which he voluntarily offereih unto us with fo great Kindness and Love toward us. For if any Respect of Person might be had here, it should furely be had of them. which are rich in the Works of Righteoufnels, but Paul exprelly rejecteth thefe, faying ; Not by Works of Righteousness, which we have done, How much lefs then shall this Kindness and Love of our God toward Men appear becaufe of any Man's Wildom, Power, Nobility, Riches or any fuch Thing, whereas no Refpect is had of Works of Righteoufnels ! Great is the Grace of God toward us which appeareth in the Galpel, yes and nothing but Grace, which admitteth no Merit at all of ours, utterly taketh away all boafting and glorying, and fetteth forth the Glory of God alone, who freely giveth it unto us being unworthy. So in this Text their two, Faith and Love, are taught to receive Benefite of God, and befrow them on our Neighbours, which the Scripture doth very often repeat, fo that even the Doctrine of Salvation confifteth wholly in them, neither can one be feparated from the other. For he that dath not firmly truft in the divine Grace, cannot but be remifs and flow to do well to his Neighbour, and fo witness the Faintness and Weakness of Faith, which is the Fountain of all Duties and Benefits. As contraviwife, the flronger Faith that one is endued with, fo much more dutifully and, with readier Mind he endeavoureth to deferve well of his Neighbours.

I All both Doctrine and Life worthy of Chrift, (that all Things may be declared most briefly, manifestly and fufficiently) confist of these two. Faith and Love : whereby Man is made as it were a Mean hetween God and his Neighbour, that he may receive of God from above, and may give to his Neighbours beneath, and be as it were a conduit Pine, three which the Founiain of the divine Goodness doth continually flow to his Neighbours. And fuch Men are like unto God, which in Chriff receive of God whatfoever he hath, and do again by their good Deeds declare themfelves as it were the gods of other, and fulfil the Prophefy of the Prophet, Pfal. Ixxxii. 6. I bave faid, ye are gods : And all of you are Chiklten of the mall High. We are Children of the molt High by Faith. whereby of nothing we are made the Heirs of God. And we are gods by Love, which maketh us beneficial to our Neighbour ; forafmuch as the Nature of God is nothing but Kindnefs, and Paul here faith -The Kindnels and Love of God toward Men, which he doth with incomparable Plenty, daily pour forth upon every one, as we fee. We mult only endeavour, that every one do nothing doubt that these Things afe fooken to him, that the Kindnels and Love of God to Man-ward is revealed and offered to every one, that by these Words he may eftablift, exercise and ftrengthen his Faith, being certain that they are moff true, and that Ged both undoubtedly is, and always will be bountiful and lowing toward him. If they canft believe this, it will affuredly for come anto thee - thou mayeft then with a full Confidence pray and defire of him whatfoever thou wilt, and complain unto him of whatfoever doth frieve thee or other. But if thou want this Faith, it had been better for thee never to have heard any Thing hereof, for that by thy Infidehiv thou reprovent of Falthood these Words to precious and full of Confolation and Grace, making to light Account of them, as not believing that they be true. Which furely is a great Contempt and Difhonour of God, that fcarce a more grievous Sin can be committed of thee. Contrariwife, if thou be endued with this Faith, it cannot be, but that thy Heart being thereby cheered, fhould even as it were laugh and leap for hely Joy in God, being void of all Care and Trouble, and be made above Meafure confident. For how can any Difcouragement, any Whit of Sorrow remain in that Heart which doubteth not that God is gracious and bountiful unto it, and beareth a fingular Affection of Love toward it, that it is a Delight and Pleasure unto him to do it good, and enjoy it as a Friend ? Surely the Heart is neceffarily delighted with this fbiritu-SI Joy and Pleafure, or undoubtedly it wanteth Faith. Paul in the E-Bille to the Galatians calleth this, to receive the Holy Ghoft by the Gofpel. For the Gofpel is fo pleafant a Preaching of the Grace and Goodmets of God, that while it is preached and heard, it bringeth the Holy Ghoff with it, no otherwife then the Beams of the Sun do naturally bring Meat with them.

How could the Apolle use more pleafant and fiver Words? I date fay that I have in the whole Scripture read more invert pleafant, and fo fiver: Words of the Grace of God, as their work, Christians and Philms thropia, that is, Kindsofs and Leve toward Man, in which the Grace of God ised in 6 definited, as whereby he doub not only forgive our Gesil, but oth allo define to be converting with us, and is receivable to be here a set of the set of

Thou canft not in this Cafe be idle, as furely that Love of God and Pleafure which thou enjoyeft in him will not fuffer thee to be idle. Thou halt be enflamed with a marvellous Study and Defire to do what Things foever thou canft know will be an Honour unto thy God, fo loving and bountiful unto thee, and will turn to Praife, Glory and Thankfgiving unto him. Thou thalt have no Choice of Works, thou thalt pais for no Precept, thou thait feel no Compution of the Law, having a moft ready Will and Pleafure to do, whatfoever Things thou faalt know to be acceptable up to God, whether they be contemptible or noble, fmall or great, thou fhalt count them alike. But firft of all, it fhall be the Defire, that this bleffed Knowledge of God may be common alfo to the reft, whereupon by and by thy Love will here fhew itfelf, and will effay all Means, to make this Truth of Salvation manifeft unto all, it will publifh and repeat it, wherefoever it fhall be able, receiving and condomning whatfoever other either teach or fay, that agreeth not with this Truth. Whereby it will come to pafs, that Satan and the World, which hear nothing fo unwillingly as this Truth, and cannot abide that their Things should be condemned, will rife against thee with all their Might, will by and by trouble thee, all the great, learned, rich and mighty of the World will condemn thee of Herefy and Madnefs, and will leave no Mean unattempted until if they be able they have difpacht thee of thy Thus with Chrift thy Lord thou shalt be perfecuted, and fuffer Life. extreme Ignominy, thy Body, Life, Goods, Name, Friends and all Things, being brought into Peril, until they have thruft thee from them out of this Life into the eternal and bleffed Life : In the mean Seafon thou muft fuffer all these Things with a patient Mind, and take them in good Part, lohng none of the fpiritual Joy, which thon haft of Chrift in thy God, and for thy Part flewing to thy Perfecutors all Kindnels and Love, being always mindful that thou a little before was not much unlike them before God. All which Things thou fhalt do thro' Faith and Love, albeit they exceed the Strength of Nature. And this indeed is a true Chriftian Life, wherein thou doft endeavour to do fo to other, as God hath done to theere at any to avoid avoid and

Not

He Nor by Works of Righteoufnels, which we have done. In these Words the Apofile fignifieth that which we have now faid, and proveth it as it were by rendring a Reafon. For if the Kindnels and Love of God te Man-ward hath appeared, and he hath faved us of his Mercy, and not becaufe of our own Righteoufnels, yea we being by all Means unworthy, and fubject to innumerable Sins, it is meet that we also do good to them that have not deferved to much of us, and are unworthy thereof. For we which are become the Sons of God, muft refemble God our Father, and bellow Benefits according to our Ability as well upon our Enemies and Perfecutors, as upon our Friends and them that do good unto us. Whereof Chrift alfo bath admonifhed us. Matth. v. 44, 45, 46. Love your Enemies, that ye may be the Children of your Father which is in Heaven s Who maketh his Sun to rife on the evil, and on the good : And fendeth Rain on the just, and on the uniull. For if ye love them which love you, What Reward have ye? Do not even the Publicans the fame? Now the Apolile doth not only exprelly condemn us for evil Works, but faith ; Nor by Works of Righteoulne's, or, which we have done in Righteoulne's. Where he also rejecteth those Works which we counted righteous, and were thought both of us and others to have been done in Righteoufnels, when as they were fo far from being righteous, that they made us more unworthy of the Grace of God, and more unfit to receive it, for they are deceltful Works, whereanto we add this Sin, that we think them righrecord, and truft in them, whereby God is provoked to Anger more then can be faid, even as our Enemies are wont to move us to Anger, when as they will avouch those Things to be juft, wherein they fin and do' unjufflyi But even as God, when we being unwife, by Error moved him to Anger, counting our Sins Works of Righteoufnels, did not therefore reject us, but of his mere Mercy delivered us from this Error and Sins for we neglecting the Foolifhnels and Dotege of our Adverlaries, whereby they contend that Sins are to be counted for Righteoufnels, ought neverthelefs of mere Love, having no Refpect of evil or good Deferts, to be beneficial unto them, and endeavour to do them good in all Things, looking for Fruit of our Benefits not of them, but of God alone. Let thele Things fuffice to have been fpoken for a compendious and general Exposition of this Text.

Now let us also briefly weigh the Words, wherein he fetteth forth and commendeth the Grace of God. First, He for gereity excellent in, that in refpect of it he condemneth all our good Works and Righteoulinetis ; neither doth he condemnet is faull Thing, when he condemneth our Righreoulinetis or righteouts Works, the molt excellent Thing that Man can have in Fasth. For if all Men with all their Might thould labour and endoavour to strain to molt excellent Thing that Man can done; as Socretze, Trainaux and many other, whole Fame the whole done; as Socretze, Trainaux and many other, whole Fame the whole World hath long fince fprend stroad both by Words and Writings ; neverthelefs all fuch Wildom, and all fich Verues are pothing but Sint before God, furth Vertues are ignorent of God, and therefore they emod nonour him by their Studies and Endeavours, they think they have all Things of themfelves, when as no Man can have any good Thing stall, but of this Grace alone, which the Golpel preacheth. So Paul glorieth, that he, before he knew Chrift, lived a blameleis Life, and was more zealous toward the Law then those of his Age, that he alfo thought, that he did a Thing acceptable to God by perfecuting the Chriftians, which andemned that blameles Life which he led, but afterward when he had starned Chrift, he faith, that he counteth that Righteouineis to be but Dung, that he might be found not in fuch Righteoufnels, but in Chaiff by Faith, Phil. iii. 9. The fame Thing he wheneffeth and entreaterth of at large in the Epiftles to the Galatians and Coloffians. Here therefore is condemned all boalting of Free will. Man's Strength. Righteoufnefs and good Works, and it is concluded, that they are all nothing but Sins, and certain Deftruction, altho' they have a fair Shew; that they are faved by the only Grace of God, as many of us as believe, and call for it, with acknowledging of our own Vanity and Perdition.

Now we must accustom ourfelves to the Scripture, which maketh Mention of two Sorts of Righteoufnels, one humane, which Paul here and in many other Places hath mentioned, the other divine, even that Grace of Salwation, which iuflifieth us by Faith, whereof he fpeaketh in the End, of this Text; That being justified by his Grace, we loculd be Heirs of esernal Life. Here thou feelt plainly that the Grace of God is our true Righteoufnels, whereby we are juffified, which is therefore called the Righteousnels of God, for that it is given unto us of God, and is made ours, when we are made Partakers thereof by Faith. Of this he fpeaketh alfo, Rom. i. 17. In the Gofpel is revealed the Righteoufness of God from Faith to Faith: As it is written, The Just fall live by Faith. And Gen. xv. 6. Abraham believed, and it was counted to him for Righteoufme/s. Whereupon the Scripture concludeth, that no Man is counted ; righteous before God, but he that believeth, as the Apoffle teffinish, where he reciteth that Saying of Habaktuk, The Juft fhall live by Faith ... So it appeareth that Faith, Grace, Mercy, Truth, Righteoufpels, that all these are that fame which God worketh in us by Chrift and the God fpel. Whereupon it is faid Pfal. xxv. 10. All the Paths of the Lord are Mercy and Truth. For those are the Ways of the Lord in which we observing his Commandments, do walk, and he again in us, now those Ways most be directed by his Mercy and Truth alone, not by our . Strength and Induftry, forafmuch as our Ways being ordered hereby. are nothing but Vanity before God, and do deferve his Wrath, Ac- .. cording to that which the Lord faith, I/a. 1v. 9. As the Heavens are a higher than the Earth, to are my Ways higher than your Ways. As if he should fay ; Your Rightcoufnels is earthly and of no Value, wherefore we must bid it farewel and wolk in mine, if ye hope for Salvation - the term

But according to bit, Marcy be faced us. It is a marvel have the Greet dit of thefe Words can fland, wherein the Apolle affimeth that we are already faced, althof living yet in Earth, and therefore is continual Jair. flery. But he ded, to (peak, that he might more fully expects the Rower, alf the divine Grape, and the Nature of Faith sparing Hypercurates, who ack the' Salvation were yet far off, do in vain endeavour to get and obtain it by their Works. For Chrift hath already faved us; he hath performed all Things which are required hereunto, that we may be faved ; he hath overcome and fubdued Sin, Death, Hell, Gc. fo that he hath left nothing, for any Man to care for, he hath alfo given all these Things unto us in Baptifm, that whofoever believeth in Chrift, that he hath performed them, hath them together in the fame Moment, fo that he hatin Need of nothing more unto Salvation, but Faith alone, that he may firmw believe that these Things are fo performed. But mark how incomparable Riches of his Grace God hath poured upon us in Baptifm, who hath delivered us even from those Works, whereby those toolish holy ones go about to merit Heaven, and to be faved. For we muft have Heaven, and be faved before we can do any good Works, for that Works cannot merit Heaven, but Heaven being before given of mere Grace, caufeth us to do good Works, and that for no Hope of Merit or Reward, but only to the Commodity of our Neighbours, and the Glory of God, until this Body alfo be delivered from Sin and Death.

Wherefore all the Life of a Chriftian after Baptifm is nothing elfe, but an Expectation of Salvation and Felicity to be revealed, which they that believe in Chrift do now poffers, alibo' hidden. They have all Things now certainly, but they are yet hid in Faith, which when as it is changed. Knowledge being revealed, all Things as they now have them, fhall appear, which shall come to pass, when pleafant and wished Death com-eth, according to that Saying of John ; Beloved, now are we the Sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we thall be : But we know, that when he shall appear, we shall be like him. And every Man that bath this Hope in thim, purifieth himfelf, even as he is pure, 1 John iii. 2, 3. Wherefore fuffer not thyfelf to be deceived, and to be feduced from this Truth by those Hypocrites, which contemning Faith, do fally affirm' that Salvation is far from thee, and teach thee to endeavour in vain to attain unto it by thy Works. It is in thyfelf, if thou believe that all Things are performed by Chrift, even as he himfelf witneffeth ; The Kingdom of God is within you, Luke Xvii. 21. So that all our Life after Baptifur ought to be nothing elfe but an Expectation that that thould be revealed which is already in us, and that we may comprehend, as we are comprehended, as Paul faith, Phil. iii. 12. I follow after, if that I may apprehended that for which also I am apprehended of Chriff Jesus, that is, that I may at length fee those Things which are given me, being as yet in the fhut Clofet of Faith. He coveteth, and burneth with Defire? to fee the Treasure which by Faith he received both given and leaded in Baptifm. Whereupon he addeth in the fame Place ; Our Converfation? is in Herman, from whence also we look for the Sariour, the Lord Jefus Chrifts Who (ball change our wile Body, that it may be fallhioned like unto his glorinas Body. Herewith alfo agreeth that which he faith, Gal. iv. 9. To bates and war God, and by and by he doth as it were correct that which he bad faid, Yes faith he, rather are known of God, both which are mue, altho' not after the like Sort : We are now known of God, fo that he comprehendeth us, and we indeed know God, but we do not yet coma prehend, for that our Knowledge is as yet hidden and clofed up in Faith. He faith moreover. Rom. viii. 24. We are faved by Hope, that is, we are faved, altho' we ye fee it not, for that which one feeth, he hopeth not for, but if we hope for those Things which we ke not, we do with Patience abide for them. Chrift confirmeth this, Luke xii. 25, 26. Let your Loin's be girded about, and your Light burning ; and ye your felves like unto Men that wait for their Lord, when he will return from the Wedding. that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately ... In which Words he only biddeth them that be his to be ready to look for him the Bridegroom, as which are already faved being admitted into the Number of his Minifters. Hereunto allo pertaineth that which the Apostle faith, Tit. ii. 12, 12. Let us live foberly, righteoufly, and godly in shis prefent World : looking for that bleffed Hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jejus Chrig. In these and fach like Places whereof thou mayell read many here and there in the holy Scrintures, he witheffeth that we are already faved, and that it doth not behove, that a Chriftian Man should full feek to attain to Salvation by his Works. This Opinion and devilish Doctrine blindeth the Eyes of Chri-Rians, extinguisheth the Knowledge of Faith, and carrieth Mon from the Way of Truth and Salvarion. We must cleave unto that which the Apostle here faith, He hath faved us according to his Mercy, and that which he addeth in the End of this Text, that we are Heirs, according to the Hope of eternal Life. We are now Heirs, but that is hidden in Faith, but we look with a certain Hope, that hereafter it thall be reveated ad. And God will have us fo to look for the Revelation of this Inheria tance, and to live a certain Time after Baptifm, that he may chaffife our Body by our Minifiry, and declare the Power of his Grace in fight against the Flesh, the World and the Devil, but effectially for this Casife. that by us he may help our Neighbours, and both by Doctrine, and alfo by our Life which he liveth in us, may bring them to the Communion of Faith. And albeit he can do this by Angels, yet it pleafeth him rather that it should be done by us Men, that both the Manner of Faith may be the better known, and that all Things may be done fweets. ly and lovingly. For if Angels fhould always have to do with us, there. fhould not be fo much Faith, neither should it be fo pleafant, as when we are taught and guided by them that are Partakers of our Nature, whom we do better know, and with whom we do more familiarly affor ciate ourfelves. And fo, that there may be fome, by whom other alfo. may be converted both by Dochrine, and good Examples, it is not meet that we fhould by and by after Baptilm be taken into Heaven, wherein potwithstanding we are already admitted Citizens.

Hereupon if one weigh all Things rightly, it cannot be doubted, that: it is a Practice and Minacle of Satan and Autobrill, that for much isfound for Purpose state, fuch Faith as this being put quite out of Mens. Minds. For Men are taught by their Works to fave themfelves from : Purgatory, or at the left to deliver themfelves out from thence, as tho Salvation were not yet given us, and it were needing to come unto it: by other Means then by Faith alone, which how it different more Strip Scripture and a Christian Life, there is no Man that doth not fee, but he that feeth nothing in the Scripture. For thus the holy Scripture de teach every where, that whofever doth not receive Salvation by mere Grace, thro' Faith before all Works, he shall never be Partaker thereof. And that whofoever refer their good Works, not to the Profit of their Neighbours, but to their own Commodity, being more careful of their own Salvation then of their Neighbours, have no good Works at all. All the Works of these are void of Faith, and infected with permicious Error. It had been greatly to be wifhed that Purgatory had never been invented, and never Mention made thereof in the Pulpit, for it hath been fuch Caufe of Hindrance to Chriftian Verity and fincere Truth, as cannot be recovered. For we fee it now brought to pais by the Means of Satan, that almost all Prayers are directed to only Purgatory, with this ungodly and peffilent Opinion, whereby miferable Men think that they shall be redeemed from thence, and obtain Salvation by the Works of Men. Whereby the Riches of Baptifm and Faith are had in no Reputation, and they at the laft of Chriftians become Heathen. O most pernicious Abomination! Chriffians should be taught as Chrift and Paul teach them, that after Baptism and Absolution from Sin they foodd fo live, that they foodd be ready every Hour to receive Death, with Define looking for the Revelation of Salvation already received. Now by the Opinion of Purgatory they are made fecure and flothful, fo that they defer the Study of Godline's even to their Death, and think by Contrition and Confeffion they fhall amend all Things, as tho' there were fome Sins remaining for which they mult go into Purgatory, they hope that by Maffes for the departed, and other Bequefts that they are perfwaded to make in their Teffaments or Laft-Wills, they shall be redeemed out of Purgatory, but thefe milerable Men are in thefe Things utterly deceived, and thall at length try them to be far otherwife. By the Walbing of Regeneration. He fetteth forth the Grace of God given to us in Baptifm, with Words very full of Praife and Commendation. He calleth Baptifm a Wafhing, whereby not the Feet and Hands, but the whole Man is at once walhed, purified and faved, fo that to the Sum and Inheritance of Salvation there is Need of nothing but only Faith in this Grace of God, that it may remain and be acknowledged the Work of Grace alone, that we are faved without all our Works and Merits, and to also there may remain in us pure Love, Praife, giving of Thanks, and Glory of the divine Mercy, without all Glory, and pleafing of ourfelves in our own Strength and Endeavour, as it hath been already faid often and at large. Humane Righteousness is also a Washing. but not whereby the whole Man is fo washed, but that Pharifaical Washing, whereby only the Apparel and Veffels which are outward, are made clean, whereof it is spoken, Matth. xxiii. 26. Whereby it comein to pals that Men feem unto themfelves pure, but inwardly neverthelefs they remain full of Filthinefs. Therefore he called Baptism not a corporal or outward Washing, but the Washing of Regeneration or new Birth, by which not those Things that are outward, are walhed, and only the outward Man made clean, but the whole Nature of Man is attered.

were and changed impo an other Nature, that is, the carnel Mativity is thereby defroyed, with all the Inheritance of Sins and Pertailon. Whatis a not to be gotten by Works. For not one or two Members are shout to be born, as the Hands or Feet, but the whole Man, which kannot work this that he may be born a Man, but is fift born that he may yourd: Likewife our Works de not purify or fave m, but when as before we are pure, juithfiel and faved, we wark fielly thole Things which anybe Provide to our Neighbour, and Honour to God L and this is hare in the home of the thermal state of the the state of the state of the know both God and himfelf, to praife God alone, to humble and full down himfelf, to truth in God, to defpair of humble. This Doeting I state of Works, and teach them to feet, hurey be no knowl.

And the renewing, That this walking and new Birth may be more fully understood, he hath added, the renewing, that thou mayft understand, that he that is truly baptized, is become a new Man, and a new Creature, endued with a new Disposition, which now is far otherwise affected, loveth, liveth, speaketh and doth far otherwise then he was wont or could before. So the Apoltle faith, Gal. via 15. In Chrift Jefus meither Circumcision availed any Thing, nor Uncircumcision, that is, no Works of the Law are of any Value or Importance, but a new Creature. As if he fhould fay ; Salvation cannot be perfected by joining together certain good Works, but the whole Man muff be at once senewed, and his Nature changed, whereupon true good Works will follow of themfelves, not by Piece-male, but together with great Plenty. Of this new Birth, whereby the whole Man is renewed, Chritt fpeaketh John fii. 2. He that is not born again, cannot fee the Kingdom of God. Here again it manifeltly appeareth, that nothing is here done by our Works; but that it behoveth, that Man, how great foever he be, must die, and be changed into another, which is done in Baptifm, if we believe. The condemned also shall be born again in the Last Day, but they shall not be renewed, they shall remain unclean, as they were here, and as they were born of Adam. Therefore that he might fpeak rightly of Baptim, he calleth it the Walling of the new Birth, whereby they that are born egain are also renewed. Of this new Birth many Things are to be found here and there in the Scripture, becaufe of which God calleth his Word and Gospel a Womb and Matrix, as Ifa. xlvi. 3. Heatken all ye that remain of the Houfe of Ifreel, whom I have born in my Womb, as Mothers are wont to fpeak of their Children. He therefore that believeth the Gofpel, is as it were conceived in the Womb of God, and from thence born a new Man, and like unto God : Whereof we will in another Place Speak more. Now it shall be fufficient, to have learned by sliefe Words, how our Works are nothing in fulfilling the Commands ments of God, and that it is a mad Thing to attribute here never fo little to our own Strength, feeing that it is Faith alone, whereby Man is at once born again, and renewed. Wherefore underftand this, that good Watks

No otherwife is the Grace of God wont to renew Man, then as if God frould sum fome dry and withered Block into a new, green and flourifhing Tree, which may afterward bring forth Fruit plentifully. For the st Grace of God is a great, frong, very mighty, and marvellous, effectual Thing, it lieth not in the Mind, as the School men dreamed, it fleepeth in not, or is born, as a painted Table beareth a Picture ; itfelf beareth, guideth, urgeth, draweth, citangeth and worketh all Things in Men, fo that every one may feel and have Experience of it : Itielf indeed is hid, but h the Works of it cannot be hid, but do witnefs of it, as the Leaves and Fruits do of the Tree, of what Nature it is. Wherefore the Schoolmen Thomas and Scotus do ungodly detract from it, who attribute no more unto it, then that it doth adom the Works of Nature, and is a Help that they be brought to Perfection. For it doth not adorn or help only, but it alone workerh those Things that be good, neither doth it work them only, but doth rather change and renew the Perfon. For it. exhibiteth the Washing of the new Birth, and of renewing, not of Works only, but much rather of the whole Man. He that thall preach thefe Things of Grace, fhall truly and fully commend it ; which Paul endeavoured to do when he faid ; He hath faved us by the Walbing of Re-generation, and renewing of the Holy Gholt. Nothing can be done here by joining of Works together, the Nature mult needs be changed, whereupon it cometh to paf, that they that Truly believe must fuffer many Things ; for Grace worketh in them, and declareth itfelf prefent. Hereupon pertaineth that Saying of Pfal. cxi. 2. The Works of the Lord are great - fought out of all them that have Pleasure therein. What are these Works? We are they, by Grace in Baptifm made the great, new and regenerate Works of God. Is it not a great Thing for a Man by and. by to be faved, and delivered from Sins, Death and Hell ? Therefore he faith fought out of all them that have Pleasure therein. For by this new Birth God hath found out, and done whatfoever Men can defire, For what elfe do Men covet and defire, but to obtain Salvation, to be delivered from Sin, Death and Hell ?

(Jether Fish Gieff. Laff), That he may the more express the Creatmais and Vermise of Grace. As attributed this Washing O Kreensanian, and zenewing, to the Holy Ghoft. For this Washing O Kreensanian, of D weightey Importance, that no Grastife but the Holy Ghoft along is shak to perform it. But how may, most excellent Fast, doi, thou condown, Free-weigh the gent good Works of the proub holy Duce, that, is, the Mainer of Hyporchies? In how high a Place doit thou fast out is, the Mainer environment of How party and Diracer's doit thou lei-John vations? And again. How doit is Dirac doit thou lei-John Grassing the Works? Wherefore work whatforer and hew auch facere phonymil, it is imposible for a Man to be reneyed, and the Farin changed (without which no Works acceptable to God can be done), but, buy ain Withing of Regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghoft. That we may plainly for in their hyportitical Counterfeiters of Works. For thou failt find none harder, none prouder, none fo rath and hafty Spirits. For they are broken, and not renewed, indurate, obffinate, confirmed by Continuance, covering indeed, and fomewhat adoming that told Adam by those their counterfeit good Works, but in the mean Seafon there doth not any whit appear any Change of Nature in them, they continue fill in the Oldness of their corrupt Fleih. O what a peftilent People is this, and in how great Indignation of God are they, when as in the mean Time they think that they fit in God's Lap ? Now whereas the Apofile attributeth this Walhing of Regeneration, and renewing to the Holy Ghoft, he faith the fame which Chrift doth John iti. 5. where The faith ; Except a Man be born of Water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. For that which Chrift fignified by Water, the Apofile calleth the Washing, fo both made Mention of Regeneration, and of the Holy Ghoft. And we muft mark that that which is spoken here of the Holy Ghoft both by Chrift and the Apoftle, muft not be referred to that Papifical Confirmation, as they call it, for both of them referred to Baptilm, that which is here mentioned concerning the Holy Ghoff, who when the Body is walked with Water doth bimfelf work the new Birth, and renewing by Faith, which Chrift called, to be born again of the Spirit. We read in the Afts of the Apoffles; abat the Apostles did oftimes lay their Hands on them that were baptized, and that fo the Holy Ghoft came upon them by a vilible Sign. which the Papifls also fnatch to-their Confirmation. But as that was done, that the Believers might by a visible Sign be endued with the Hoby Ghoft, to preach the Goloel in divers Languages, fo it continued only the Time thereof, until the Doctrine of the Gofpel was commended to the World by fufficient Signs, wherefore it is now long fince worn out of ufe ; but that a certain Ceremony hath come from thence even unto us, of loying Hands on them, which are ordained Ministers or Preachers, which is now brought into an uncodly and permicious Ufe ; but of abefe Things in another Place.

Which he fied on us abundantly. See how notably the Apofile fetteth forth Grace, he faith not that the Holy Ghoft was given, but fhed, and not that only, but fhed abundantly. For he cannot fufficiently extol and magnify Grace, and the Work thereof, and we, alas, count it fo wile in respect of our Works. It were a Dishonour to God and to his Holy Spirit, if when he hath plentifully fhed it upon us, there fhould as yet be fomething wanting necessary to Righteousness and Salvation, 22 which we are able to perform, as tho' the Works of fo incomparable ? Grate could not be fufficient. And Paul furely might be reproved of lying, which had not fooken all Things whereby we mult be fulfified ? and faved, when he affirmeth that he doth it. But as he writeth, foit is ; no Man can attribute fo great Things to this Walhing and Regencration, no Man can fo much prefume of them, but greater Things may 10 be attributed unto them, and thou oughtelt to promife to thyicif moe Things of them, no Man shall believe fo great Things, but he shall rebeive greater. Forafmuch as those good Things which God hath given, are is great and fo unipeakable, he would have them here come unto us Ii 2 being being included and hol in his Words and Faith, for the Nature of our pretent Life cannot bear them being manifell, and therefore it mult perifh, when they begin to be revealed, that Nam may by thefe intellines ble Riches, which he now poffelish by Faith, be as it were fealloyed up, and vanith away. We are already abundantly juffields by Faith, without all our own Merit, therefore Chrift faith, John iii. 16. Golf folored the Hard, that be grave his sub begrets Sor, their woheren's two levels have and hole without all their own Labour or Means, that thou are julified and hole without all their own Labour or Means, that thou may il fee, that entang but Grace and Mercy is plentifully poured upon up, and what our Works could avail nothing hereunto.

Thou wilt perhaps fay ; Thou canft not preach fufficiently, that the Grace and Mercy of God doth work all Things in us, and that no Refpect is to be had of our Works, to the attaining of Salvation, But how cometh it to pais then, that the Scripture to often witneffeth that they shall be faved which have wrought good Works ? As John v. 29. They fball come forth, they that have done good, unto the Refurrettion of Life, and they that have done evil, unto the Refurrection of Damnation. And Rom. in 9, 19, Honour and Glory to them that do well, Wrath and Indigstatiant to them that do ill. We read many Sentences here and there in the Scripture like unto thefe. I answer, As the Words found, fo take them without all Glafs, for it is even fo, they that do well shall be fawed, they that do otherwife fhall be condemned. But herein many err from the Truth of the Scripture, in that they judge Works according to the outward Appearance, contrary to the Scripture, which teacheth that no Man can do good, who is not himfelf good before, and by Works no Man can become good, but Works take their Goodnels of the Worker. and he becometh good by the Walhing of Regeneration, and by nothing elfe. This Chrift meant Matth, vii. 18. faving ; A good Tree cannot bring forth evil Fruit, neither can a corrupt Tree bring forth good Fruit. Wherefore make the Tree either good or evil, and it will bring forth like Fruits. Hypocrites oftentimes do Works like to the Works of the Godly, yea fometime having a goodlier Shew, for they diligently pray, fail, give Ahns, and pretend a marvellous Holinels, but Chrift calleth shele Sheeps Clothing, wherewith moft hurtful Wolves are clothed and hidden. For none of them is of a true humble, meek and bountiful Heart, which they chiefly declare when they are rebuked, when their Holincis is reproved ; for then bring they forth their natural Fruits, whereby they are known. Those are rafh Judgments, Impatiency, Stubbomnels, Oblinacy, Slandering and fuch like. It is true therefore, be that doth well, shall be faved, that is, his Salvation shall be manifelt, but he can do no good at all if he be not before regenerate by the Wafting of Regeneration. For what good Works can one work in the Oldnels of the Fleih, and by the Strength proceeded from Adam, they are the good Works which Paul here condemneth, faying; Not by Works of Righteoufacfs, which we have dans. They are indeed good Works done in Righteoulnels, but not before God, who full hath Refpect to the Perfor

15) sion, and then to the Works, as we read Gen. iv. 4. that he had Refpect irft to Abel, then to his Sacrifice, as he first turneth himfelf from Gaing Ind then from his Sacrifice, altho' according to the outward Appearance a was as pood a Sacrifice and Work, as the Sacrifice of Abel.

Through Telus Chrift our Saviour. This he added that he may keep us under the Wings of Chrift, as Chickens are wont to be preferved under the Wings of the Hen ; for thus Chrift faith Matth. xxiii. 27. Jerufaallem, Ferufalem, how often would I have gathered thy Children together, zben as a Hen gathereth ber Chickens under ber Wings, and ye would not ? And hereby the Nature of a true and right Faith is taught. For it is nothing which fome fay; I believe in God Almighty, as the Jews and many other are wont, and do therefore receive corporal Benefits of God. It is a true and lively Faith, whereby thou believeft in God, howbeit by Jefus Chrift. Firft, That thou doubt not that God is become a merciful Father unto thee, which hath pardoned all thy Sins, and in Baptifm hath adopted thee for his Son and Heir, that thou mayfe certainly know that thou art faved. Again, thou must also know this, that that was not done freely, neither without Satisfaction made to the divine Iuffice. For there can be no Place in thee for the divine Grace and Mercy to work Salvation, and to give thee eternal good Things, unless thely-Itice of God be before most fully fatisfied. For Christ faith Matth. v. 18. One Fot, or one Title thall in no wife pais from the Law, till all be fulfilled. That which is spoken of the Grace and Goodness of God, cannot come but to them which do most purely and exactly observe his Commandments, according to that Saving, Micah ii. when as the Jews did prefume of the Goodnels of God toward them, and did always promife unto themfelves Peace, faying ; How can God be always any gry, is the Spirit of the Lord (hortned? It is answered them a Are not my Words good unto him that walketh uprightly ? Wherefore it fhall be lawful for none to attain unto the Abundance of Grace, unless he hath before most exactly fatisfied the Commandments of God. Now it hath been fpoken at large, that our Works are nothing before God, whereby we cannot fulfil fo much as the leaft Commandment of God. How much lefs thall we be able to to fatisfy the Justice of God, that we may become worthy of his Grace? Moreover, if we were able to fulfil all the Commandments of God, and in all Things to fatisfy his Juffice, notwithstanding we had not as yet deferved Grace and Salvation, neither thould he therefore owe it unto us, for that he may by the right of Greation require as due Service, all those Things of us his Creatures, created to live unto him. Wherefore it fhould yet come of Grace and Mercy, whatfoever should come from him to us. This Chrift declared very well Luke xvii. 7, 8, 9, 10. fpeaking in a Parable; Which of you baving a Servant plowing, or feeding Cattle, will lay unto him by and by. when be is come from the Field, Go, and fit down to Meat? And will not rather (ay unto him, Male ready wherewith I may fup, and gird thyfelf. and ferve me, till I have eaten and drunken : And afterward they fall eat and drink. Doth he thank that Servant, because he did the Things that sucre commanded him? I trow not. So likewife ye, when ye thall have done IF 3 ( 716 )) all these Things which are commanded you, fay, We are unprofitable Some w mants ; we have done that which was our Duty to do. .... to some to the Seeing then that Heaven is given of Grace, and for no Merit, even inter unto those, if there were any fuch, which have done all these Things that were commanded them, according to that Promife : If thew will anter into Life, keep the Commandments; What shall we boatt of our wood he Works, which altho' they were most absolute, yet thould they be enworthy of Heaven, but inafmuch as it is given us by the free and therciful Promife ? Hereupon (for that we mult fo fatisfy the divine Julifee, and yet not with fanding our Works are not able to attain thereward, whereunto if they should attain, yet should they deferve no Grace or Salvation, for that they are before due) God first gave unto as a Man, which thould fatisfy the divine Juffice for us in all Things. Again, he bath by the fame Man befrowed this Grace and Bountifulnels upon us, that albeit we without our own Merit and Worthinels, yea having evil deferved and being unworthy, to receive Grace, yet it cometh not unto us altogether freely and without all Merit, for we have it this? the Merit and Satisfaction of Chrift. Whereupon Poul faith, Rom. v. 18. For as by the Offence of one, Judgment came upon all Men to Condemnation : Even to by the Rightenutnels of one, that is, of lefus Chrift, the free Gift came upon all Men unto Juffification of Life. That is 2 As without all our Merit, and own Work we fell into Sin, being born Sinners, fo again without all our Merit and Means, we are redeemed from-Sins, by the walking of the Spirit born again the Sons of God, Partakers of Grace and Salvation. And this is the Caufe why the Apofile where he fpeaketh of Faith and Grace, is wont to add, by Jefus Chrift : whereby furely he would give us to underftand, that none fhould count it fufficient, if he fay, I believe in God, Chrift being neglected. He that truly believeth, muft acknowledge, that his Faith can not be acceptable to God, yes that it can be no Faith at all, if all she Commandments of God be not before fulfilled, which feeing it is above thy Ability, (and if it were not, yet notwithftanding thou haft performed nothing, but that thou oughteft, and hadit as yet merited nothing, having fulfilled even all the Commandments of God) those haft need of an other, which in all Things may fatisfy the divine Juffice for thee, and may alfo merit Heaven for thee. Now this other is our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift, who hash for thee fulfilled the whole Law, and merited for thee, that God now according to his Juffice cannot bur give Heaven unto thee, and in all Things acknowledge thee for his Son and Fleir, And this is a true and found Faith, which truffeth h God by Chrift, and is certain that by his Merit it hath already received of God Salvation, which thortly after thall be revealed with bleffed Abundance of Felicity.

Neither can any other be called Chriffian Failt, but that, whereby it is balaved, that by Chriff do come unto un both Satisfeition, which we owe cather juffice of God, and the Glif of Salvation, which we carfelves by no Means, if the Law ofield even be fulfilled of us, can merit. Whereyon Passi faith, Ren. ir va.5, Chriff euter Administry for an Offmerz has and was railed again for our Justification. That is, by Christ we have received, not only Remillion of our Sins, but moreover alfo, that before God we are accounted sighteous, and the Sons of his Grace. To the Tame Effect also tendeth that which he faith, Rom. iii. 25. Whom God bith fet forth to be a Propitiation, through Faith in his Blood. Where agan we learn, that it is true Faith, which trufteth in the Blood of Chrift, and believeth that thereby it fhall obtain Grace. Whereas thou believed that he hath thed his Blood for thee, thou received Satisfa Cion ; it that then acknowledged him the Recompiliation, thou conferf ft that by his Merit the divine Grace and Salvation do come unto thee. We have all Things without our own Merit and Means, but not without the Merit and Means of Chrift, who hath for this Caufe thed his Blood. Whetefore that we may allude unto the Parable of Chrift, we must contain ourfelves under his Wings, and not upon Truk in ourfelves flee out and contend to come unto God: otherwife we shall be a Prey to the helligh Kite. For as it hath been oft faid, our Righteeuf nels, our Merits, yea and our Faith shall prevail nothing, without this our Mediator Chrift. And therefore he faith, John xiv. 6. No. Man cometh unto the Father but by me. And in the whole Gofpel what other Thing doth he, but endeavour to take us out of ourfelves, and to tranffer us to himfelf under his Wings, that we may truft only in his Satiffaction and Merit ? The fame Apolile also teacheth in the Words following :

That we being jullified by his Grace fould be made Heirs according to the Hope of eternal Life. He faith that we are juffified, not by Darown Works, but by the Grace of the fame Jelus Chrift. That is, we ate therefore julified, for that Chrift hath the Grace of the Father, having fulfilled his Will in all Things, and thereby merited etomal Life. For feeing that he hath no need of this Merit, he giveth it unto us which do be-Heve in him, that before God all his Things may be imputed to us and by them we may receive Silvation. See, how rich a Thing found Faith is, and how great good Things it bringeth with it. See allo how precious a Thing the Gafpel is, and how great a Treasure it is to have it purely preached ; and contrariwife, how great a Difcommodity there is. where it is not preached, or not rightly preached, the Inventions of Men being mingled with it, or thruft in Stead of it. Take heed therefore of fuch Deceivers, and of their counterfeit Faith, reft not in thyfelf, but get thee under the Wings of Chrift, keep thyfelf under his Protection, will that thou art Heir of sternal Life, not by thy own Righteoufnefs, or Grace which mou haft received, but whereby he is ? righteous and acceptable before God. Hereunto pertaineth this Gaving Plal. xci. 4. He lhall cover thee with his Feathers, and under his Wings fbalt thou truft. And in the Song of Solomon it is faid, My Spanfe is a lo Dowe, building ber Naft in the Coves of the Rocks, and in the Holes of the Wall, that is, in the Wounds of Chrift. And this indeed is b true Chriftian Faith, which reffect not in itfelf as the Schoolmen dreamed. but repoteth itfelf wholly in Chrift, and as it trufteth in him, for refteth in him, having received eternal Salvation. Whereas he faith that we are made Heirs of eternal Life according to Hope, helide that he preseth, that we without all our own Merits, by only Hope of Grace are boar again Heirs of eternal Life, and do not become Heirs by Working, whereof we have already fpoken at large, he allo treachesh this, the our solution and eternal Life is a syst this, althol, if we believe, yo do verily polifis it, and this Body being put off, and the Kingdoar of Chridt evended, all Things hold appear manifelity.

The Weapons of this Text.

This Text fighteth most mightily, and with most plain Words against all Righteoufners and good Works of Man's Reafon, and free Will. For the Words are plain; Not by the Works of Righteoufnefs, which we had done, but according to his Mercy he hath faved us, by the walhing, &c. All which Words do utterly overthrow our Righteoufnels, attributing all Things to the walking of the new Birth, and the renewing of the Holy Ghoft, to Chrift and his Grace. How can there no: with landing any Prefumption as yet remain in us ? Wherefore let all facred and prophane Laws have a fair Shew; let all Sacrificing Priefls, Monks, and Nuns boatt of themfelves; let all religious and hopeft Men and Women feen goodly in outward Appearance ; let them even raife the dead : if Faith in Chriff be abfent, whereof we have now fooken fo much. all thefe Things are to no Purpole. Thefe moft falle Shews do as yet deceive the whole World, and feduce almost every one : they make the Gofpel obfcure, and extinguifh the Faith of Chrift : All their Works and Orders, altho" they appear goodly, and they think them to have merited never to much, do avail no more unto Salvation, then the Works of Beafts, or of Artificers, whereby they de maintain themfelves and theirs, yea they do most hurtfully hinder it. Therefore that I may conclude, take heed as much as thou art able, of these Wolves, which under a fair Pretence counterfeit themfelves Sheep, and learn am accultom thyfelf with a found Faith to cleave unto Chrift alone.

Teaching that Salvation cometh by Chrift alone.

The Sum of this Text.

1. CHRISTik horms of nuce, but of him maken the Father derensely, Not is, except the Father teach us that Knowledge inwardly in the Heart. Therefore Chriff faith is Deter, Matth. xvi. 17. Fich and Blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in Heaven.

2. Chrift is the Wifdom of God, which is of more Price then precious Stonet, and whatfoever can be wilhed, is not to be compared unto it, as Solomon faith in Prov. viil. 11.

3. The old heavenly Bread, that is, the Righteoufnefs of the Law doth not juffify : But Chrift, if we believe in him, juftifieth for ever.

The Exposition of the Text.

HIS Text teachent us nothing effs but Christian Faith, and flitteth it up in ux, as farely 76m. Into 1is Goled, dota almolt no other Thing but influt2 us, how we muft believe in the Lord Chrift. And facts a Faith as is grounded on the true Promile of God made unou us in Chrift, shall fave us, as this Text plainly declareth. Alfo they are here all proved Pools, which have taucht

We sny other, Way and Means to obtain Righteonfuels. Whatflewere Man's Mind can invert, althor' is be holy, althor' it have a fair Shew before, Men, it muft needs startly fall, if that he will have Salvation to come thereby. For albeit that Man is excerded with the Daties of Godlinefs, he thall not be able to attain unta Heaven, anlefs God prevent him with his Word, which may offer his divine Grace unto him, and lighten his Heart, that he may walk in the right Way. Now this Way is the Lord Jelus Chrift, he that will feek another Way, as the molt Part of Men with their outward Works commonly do, bath now cred from the sight and high Way. For Paul faith Gal. is at. J.Rightenhefiltenese by the Law, that is, by the Works of the Law, then Chrift is deal main and Therefore T fay, that a Man mult by the Gofpel be as it were bruiled and broken, and humbled even from the Bottom of his Heart, a being frail and weak, which can move neither Hands not Fert, bear only only jush profinite and crich. It fells me O armipatent God, merelfal Father, I am not oble to help myfelf: Help O Lord Chrift, mineles own Help is nothing. That is againd this Corner-flore which is Chrift all may be broken, as he faith of hindff in Late xxx. 17, when he affeed the Pharies and Scriver, Late xx. 17, 18. What meaned this them that is written: The States that the Builder refield, that is made them that distributers if the Half and the Builder refield, that is made them that distributers if the Half and the Builder refield. The state them and on whomforcer it field fail, is will grind him to Powder. Wherefore either her us fail upon it by our Imbecility and Weaknefs, by denying its correlates, and to be broken, or eith far will break to by charging Brit Judgment. But it is better that we fail upon it, then that it fail upon this. Topon this Foundation Chrift failt here in this Texe.

No Man can come unto me, except the Father which hath fent me, draw him, and I will raife him up at the last Day. Now he whom the Father draweth not, shall furely perifh. It is also concluded that he which corneth not to this Son, shall be damned for ever, he is the only Son given unto us, which may fave us, without him there is no Salvation a if he help not, our Cafe is most miferable : Of him Peter allo speaketh, to the fame Effect in the Acts of the Apoftles, Chap. iv. 11, 12. This is the Stane subich was let at noacht of you Builders, which is become the Head of the Carner, Neither is there Saluation in any other : For there is none other Name under Heaven given among Men, whereby we must be faved ..... Whither would our Divines and School-men turn themfelves here, which have taught us that by many Works we mult attain ante Righteouineis } Here is that high Mafter Ariflotle confounded, who hath taught us that Reafon endeavoureth to do the beft Things and is always ready to the better. But this Chrift doth here deny ; for unlefs the Father poffels and draw us we shall perish for ever. Here all Men muft confess their Imbecillity and Slownel's to good Things. If fo be that any perfwade himfelf that he is able to do any good Thing by his own Strength, truly he hath reproved Chrift of Fallhood, and with great Arrogancy prefumeth to come to Heaven, albeit he is not drawn of the Father. Wherefore where the Word of God is in his Courfe, and foundly preached, whatfoever Things are high and great, it caffeth themdown, it maketh all Mountains even with the Vallies, and overthroweth all Hills, as the Prophet Maiab faith, that all Hearts hearing the Word may delpair of themfelves, otherwife they cannot come unto Chrift. The Works of God are fuch, that while they kill, they make alive, while they condemn, they fave ; as Hanna the Mother of Samuel fingeth of the Lotd, 1 Sam. ii. 6, 7. The Lord killeth, and maketh alive s he bringeth down to the Grave and bringeth up. The Lord maketh paper. and maketh rich ; be bringeth low, and lifteth up. Wherefore if a Man be this firiken of God in his Heart, that he acknowledgeth himfelf fuch a one as ought for his Sins to be condemned, he furely is even that very Man, whom God by his Word hath Briken, and by this Stroke hath ; faitned upon him the Bond of his divine Grace, whereby he draweth him, that he may provide for his Soul, and have care of him. He could ... first find with himfelf no Help or Counfel, neither did he will for any ( 21 ) but now he bath found the foreial Confolation and Promile of God. which is after this Sort ; He that afterth receiveth, he that feeketh findelb, and to him that knocketh it is opened. By fuch a Promife Man is more and more lifted up in Mind, and conceiveth a greater Truft and Confidence in God. For as foon as he heareth that this is the Work of God alone, he'defireth of God, as at the Hand of his merciful Father, that he will vouct fafe to draw him. If fo be that he be drawn of God unto Chrift, a b undoubtedly that also shall come unto him, whereof the Lord maketh Mention here, namely, that he will raife him up at the laft Day. For he layed hold on the Word of God, and truffeth in God, whereby he hath a certain Teffimony, that he is he whom God hath drawn : As John faith in his first Epiffic, Chao. v. 10. He that believeth on the Son of God, hath the Witness in himself. Hereupon it must needs follow, that he is taught of God, and in Verity now knoweth God to be no other, but a Helper, a Comforter, and a Saviour. Hereby is it now manifest, that if we believe. God will be no other toward us but a Saviour, Helper, and Giver of all Felicity, who requireth and alketh powhing of us, but will only give and offer unto us as he himfelf faith unto Ifrael, Pfal. INXXI: 10. I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the Land of Egypt : Open the Mouth wide, and I will fill it. Who would not love fuch a God, which theweth himfelf gentle and loving unto us, and offereth fo readily his Grace and Goodness ?

They shall not be able to efeape the fevere and eternal Judgment of God, which do unadviledly neglect fo great Grace, as the Epittle to the Hebrews faith ; If they that transgreffed the Law of Males, efcaped not unpunished, but died without Mercy, How much more grievourly shall God punifs them, which count the Blood of the Teftament as an unhole Thing, and tread under Foot the Son of God ? O how diligent is Paul in all his Epiffles to teach how the Knowledge of God may rightly be conceived ! O how often doth he with Increase in the Knowledge of God ! As if he would fay : If ye only knew and understood what God is, ye should then be fafe. Then ye would love him, and do all Things that are approved of him. This he faith Gold[1.1.9, 1.6, 11, 12. We donot coole to pray for you, and so defire that ye might be filled with the Rwavledge of his Will, in all Wildom, and fpiritual Underflanding ? That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good Work, and increasing in the Knowledge of God a Strengthed with all Might according to his glorious Power, unto all Patience and Long-Juffering with Joyfulnefs ; Giving Thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be Partakers of the Inheritance of the Saints in Light : And Pfal. cxix. 24. David faith, Give me Underflanding, and I fhalt keep thy Law; yea, I (hall observe it with my whole Heart. And thus ye have out of the first Sentence of this Text, that the Knowledge of God doth come from the Father. It is needful that he lay the first Stone in our Building, otherways we shall labour in vain; But that is done thus, God fendeth unto us Preachers whom he hath taught, and provideth that his Will be preached unto us. First that all our Life and Condition, althou it have a fair Shew and be holy outwardly, is of no

Effinition before him, yes is oblowed and loobsdop him. And this is called the Preaching of the Law. A fireward he maketh Grace to be preached unto us, ro war, that he will not have us attery condemned and calf off, but that he will not have us attery condemned py receive us, ro war, that he will not have us attery over all Things which are in Heaven and Earth. This now is called the Pracefing of Grace or of the Gorden. And all this is of God, which raifed up and lendeth forth Preachers. This St. Paul fignifieth when he faith thus Rom. x, ry. Faith council heaving by the Word of God. This allo the Words of the Lord mean here in the Goi focl, when he faith :

It is written in the Prophets, And they thall be all taught of Gad. Envery Man therefore that bath heard and bath learned of the Eather cometh wave me , Not that any Man hath Gen the Father. Jave he which is of God, he hath feen the Father. When as we hear the first Preaching, that is, the Preaching of the Law, how we are condemned with all our Works, then Man figheth unto God and knoweth not what to do. his Confcience is evil and fearful, and except Help fhould come in Time, he flould defpair for ever. Wherefore the other Preaching muft not be long differred, the Gofpel muft be preached unto him, and the Way unto Chrift must be thewed, whom God hath given unto us a Mediator, that thro' him alone we may be faved, by mere Grace and Mercy, without all our own Works and Merits. Then the Heatt is made loyful, and halteth unto fuch Grace, as the thirfty Hart runnethunto the Water. David had a notable Feeling hereof, when he faid thus, Plat. xlii, 1, 2. As the Hart panteth after the Water-brooks, fa panteth my Soul after thee, O God. My Soul thirsteth for God, for the living God, When therefore a Man cometh to Chrift, thro' the Gofpel, then heareth he the Voice of the Lord Chrift, which ftrengtheneth the Knowledge that God hath taught him ; to wit, that God is nothing elfe but a Saviour abounding with Grace, who will be favourable and merciful to all them, which call upon him in his Son. Therefore the Lord faith moreover :

Verify, verify 1 fy anto you, He that halfmosts as min, half aggridfing Life. I am has Bread of Life. Ture Fashers did and Madma in the Wildering', and one dead. This is the Bread which cameth dama from Hanne, that a flas may call therefy, and what die. J am the living Bread wilder and shown part at the thread what at the living Bread are for the Life of the World. In thele World the Souli findenh a gree for the Life of the World. In thele World state Souli findenh a Table daiming furnithed, whereby it may like all Hunges. For its Knowch alteredly that he that if packets their World state of the World, it reflet huos him, and 6 depareth not from this goodly Table. This is that Supper, to the preparing whered the heavenip Fasher Kield hit Oxen and Fastings, and hash bolden us all une it. The Breing Bried whereoi the Lind here maketh mention, is Chrill hundelf, what we for find. It we key hold but of a Moriel of this Breid.

in our Figures, and keep it, we shall be fatisfied for ever, neither cars we ever be plucked from God. Moreover fuch an eating is nothing elfe, but to believe in the Lord Chrift, that he is made unto us of God, as Paul faith, 1 Car, is 20. Wildom, Rightcoulnels, Sanctifieation, and Redemption. He that eateth this Meat, liveth for ever. Wherefore by and by after this Text, when the Tews were at Contennion about these his Words, he faith : Verily, verily I fay unto you, Except ye cat the Flefb of the Son of Man, and drink his Blood, ye have no Life in you. Whofeever eateth my Fleib, and drinketh my Blood. bath starnal Life, and I will raife him up at the laft Day. Manna which the Fathers did eat in the Defert (as Chrift here faith) could not fave from Death ; but this Bread maketh us immortal. If we believe in Chrift, Death shall not hurt us any Thing at all, yes there is po more Death. This the Lord meaneth by these Words in an other Place, where he faith to the Jews, John vill. 15. Verily, verily I fay unto you, If a Man keep my Saying, be (ball never fee Death ; where it is certain, that he speaketh of the Word of Faith, and of the Gospel.

But fome Man may fay that the Holy die notwithftanding, for Abraham and the holy Prophets are dead, as the Jews faid unto him. I answer : The Death of Chriftians is only a Sleep, as the Scripture alfo commonly calleth it : For a Chriftian taffeth and feeth no Death, that is, he hath the Feeling of no Death. For this Saviour Chriff Tefus, in whom he believeth, hath overcome Death, that afterwards he fhould not feel or tafte it, but Death is unto him only a Paffage and Gate to Life, as Chrift himfelf witneffeth John v. 24. Verily, verily I fay unto you, He that heareth my Word, and believeth on him that lent me, bath everlasting Life, and shall not come into Condemnation ; but is passed from Death unto Life. Wherefore the Life of a Christian is Merry, and on every Side replenished with Joy, and the Yoke of Christ is cafy and fweet. But that it feemeth heavy and guevous unto us, this is the Caufe, for that the Father hath not yet drawn us ; hereupon it cometh to pais that we take no Pleafure thereof, neither is the Gofpel comfortable unto us. If fo be that we would lay up the Words of Chrift well in our least, they would be unto us an exceeding Comfort. And thus ye have heard how we must feed on this Bread which came down from Heaven, that is, on the Lord Chrift, to wit, by Faith, which we then do, when we believe in him, that he is our Saviour.

The whole Chapter out of which this Text is taken, commendeth unto us nothing elie but formal Mest. For when the Multitude followed Chrilt, that they might again eat and drink, which the Lord himfall fignisch, he taketh Occafoon of the corporal Meat, which they fought, and almosh throt the whole Chapter foreketh of formal Meat, as he faid: The World which I frenk, are Spirit cul Life. Whereby he would fignify, that he therefore fet them, that they hould believe in him : and at they did eat the beddily Meat, to they could of the fiptitual. Here let us weigh and mark this, that the Lord doth for genty and gracioutly apply himefil to us, and offer himelt in function gentle Words, that it ought worthily to move our Hearts to believe in film, to wit, that that Bread, was therefore given for us, inafinuch an it was believeful that he firmelt afte Death and fuffer heldith Pains Alfo through hear Sins which he never had committed, as the he had committed them, and had been his own ; and he did allo the fame will lingly for our Sakes, and took us as Brethrin and Sifters. This if we believe, we do the Will of the heavenly Fathers which is nothing elfe but to believe in his Son, and to be faved. As Chrift himsfelf faith a little before ; This is the Will of him that fent me, that every one which loeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting Life. It now therefore appeareth that he that hath Faith doth the Will of God, and eateth of this heavenly Bread, As Augufline faith : What doft thou prepare thy Mouth? Believe, and thou haft eaten. Of this fairitual SubBer the whole New Teltament fpeaketh, but efpecially in this Place of White The Sacrament of Chrift's Body and Blood is a certain Telwindby and Pledge of this true Supper, whereby we ought to firengthen ow Faith, and to be affured, that this Body and this Blood, whereof we feed in the Sacrament, delivereth us from Sin, Death, Satan, and all Evil.

But how may a Man perceive and know, that he alfo doth pertain to this heavenly Bread, and is called to this fpiritual Supper ? Let him confider the Cafe in his own Heart, which if he find to affected, that he doth as it were feel a Sweetness in the Promise of God, and is undoubtedly perfwaded, that he is of the Company of them which pertain to this Supper, he is affuredly fuch a one indeed. For as we believe, fo cometh it anto us. Such a Man hath alfo by and by a Regard of his Neighbour, and helpeth him as his Brother, careth for him, giveth unto him, lendeth him, comforteth him, briefly doth to etherwife to him then he defireth to be done unto himfelf. And all this proceedeth from hence, for that the Bountifulnels and Goodnels of Chrift hath replepithed his Heart with Sweetness and Love, that it is a Pleafure and Joy unto him to do good to his Neighbour, yes and he is grieved if there be none toward whom he may be ferviceable. And befide all this, he is tractable and lowly towards all Men, he doth not effeem the temporal Pleafure and Pride of Life, he judgeth no Man, he defameth no Minin he interpretch all Things in the better Part. When as he feeth that the Matter goeth not well with his Neighbour, as that he fainteth in Faith, waxeth cold in Love, and that his Life is not on every Side approvable, he prayeth for him, and is fore grieved if any commit any Thing againft God and his Neighbour. In a Sum, the Root and Sap are found, for they are in a fourithing Vine, to wit, Chrift, and therefore fuch Fruits come forth. But if any be void of Faith, and not taught of God, fuch a one doth not feed on this heavenly Bread, neither bringeth forth thefe Fruits ; for where a right Faith is not, there fach Fruits are always wanting. And therefore St. Poter teacheth us to make our Calling unto Salvation, fure by good Worke, where he fpeaketh property of the Works of Love, namely, that we do good to ust Neighbour, and be affected toward him, as toward out own Flefit and Blodd, Thus much thall fuffice concerning this Text. Let us wall to God for his Grace. of this Reat that the Concerning the bidding of Guefls to the great Supper.

LUKE XIV.

Ver. 16. A certain Man made a great Supper, and kade many : Ver. 17. And fent his Servant at Supper time, to fay to them that were bidden, Come, for all Things are now ready.

Wer. 18. And they all with one Confent begin to make excufe: The first faid auto him, I have bought a Piece of Grund, and I must needs go and fac it: I pray these howe me executed.

Wer. 19. And another faid, I have bought five Toke of Oxen, and I go to prove them: 1 pray thee have me excuted.

Wer. 20. And author faid, I have married a Wife, and therefore I cannot come.

Nev. 21. So that Servant came, and forwed his Lord thefe Things. Then the Maller of the Haufs being angry, faid to his Servant, Go as quickly into the Streets and Lames of the City, and bring in hither the Pear, and the maimed, and the bady, and the Sind.

Ver. 22. And the Servant field, Lord, it is done as thou halk commanded, and yet there is Room.

Ver. 23, And the Lord faid was the Saroant, Co out into the High-ways and Hedres, and campel them to come in, that my Hoofe may be filled. Ver. 24, For I far anto you, hat wour of the fe Men which ware bloken, full talk of my Supper.

S in the whole Scripture, fo in this Text also we mult endeavour, that according to out Ability, isa ye have offestimes hered heretofore) we may underdand the true and fimple Meaning, and thereupon fettle our Hear and Confeience. For ho that fhull encounter with Satar, mult not wave and fugger this Way and that Way, but mult he certain of his Gates, and Influeded with mainfeld fince as Scripture, otherwise when the Devil find by an uncertain Place 5 Scripture draw him to his Fork, he will tolk him this Way and that Xay, as the Wind doth a dry Leas. Wherefore out of this Text we ult gather a contain Meaning, whereby we may perfit and find funcformer it is not to be tindefined of the reversed Euchrich, or the contain the Lord's Table; althof out Papil's have militably weighd in, i they have done many other Aminorithms of Scripture. But this nither Pape, this is the Sum of this Text; that the Gofpel is preached and the set of the Sum of this Text; that the Gofpel is preached and published thro' the whole World, but few receive and embrace it. And it is therefore here called a Supper, for that the Golpel mult be the laff Word, which thall continue to the End of the World. Wherefore the Supper here is nothing elfe, but a very rich and fumptuous Feaft, which God hath made thro' Chrift by the Golpel, which fetteth before us great good Things and rich Treasures. And he fent his Servant to bid Men to this fumptuous Supper. That is, The Apolites were altogether fens with one Word anto the whole World, that they might bid and call Men to this Supper, with one Voice, with one Gofpel, with one Amboffage ; after luch Sort, that if St. Peter had come, and preached the Gofpel of God in that Place where Paul had preached it before, yet had it been one Word, and the fame Preaching, that the Heaters should have been compelled to fay ; Behold he preacheth the fame that we heard before of the other, they wholly confent and agree, and the Thing that they publish is all one. That the Evangelist might infinuate this Con-They point is an effect of the second secon alfo was rifen again from Death, the Holy Ghoft was given : And briefly, all Things were prepared which pertained unto that great Supper. All Things were ready without all our Coft. For the Father by Chrifthath paid the Price of all Things, that without all our Merit and Labour we might enjoy his Goodnels, and be nourifhed and enriched. He fendeth his Servant therefore furft to the Jews, to bid them to this great Supper, unto whom the Promife was made of God. For the Law and all the Prophets were directed hereunto, that they might prepare the People of God. . As the Angel Gabriel declared of John the Baptifi to his Pather Zacharias, Luke 1. 15, 16, 17. He that be filled with the Holy Ghoft, even from his Mother's Womb. And many of the Children of Urael Iball he turn to the Lord their God. And he Iball go before him in the Spirit and Power of Elias, to turn the Hearts of the Fathers to the Children, and the Difobedient to the Wildom of the Juft, to make ready a People prepared for the Lord. But what did the Guefis answer so the Meffage of the Servant? The Text following declareth :

And they all with an Calcul segments made except. This is that whereof the Lord Speaketh, Marth. X. 37, 38. He that heads beta nor Abather more than me, is not werefly of met And be that ranks four or Daughter more than me, is not werefly of met. And be that ranks and the Graft, and followed fore me, is not worth of met. For he team will be Parseker of this Supper, mult put all Things into Danger for the Golpel's Sake, Body, Gonda, Wife, Chiltero, Friends, de .: Moreover he mult lacer all things substitution of the team of the team of the team of the beit they Gorn good, jult, right and holy. Neither think ye that theb Mam which Brete excel the therefolees, were guilty of gherovis Sins, or occopied about unjud Matters and Works. For it is not unjuft to buy, to und: Erized of Meethandit, to maintain thinkfth menthy, to marry Wife, to be joined in Manterson. But therefore the not put with is Supper, for that they will not forfake thefe Things, but will rather tave to them in their Heart. How they must be utterly forfaken and r, when the Gofpel to requireth. Thou wilt perhaps fay; I would deed willingly follow the Gofpel. I would cleave unto it, and do all oer Things whatfoever, but to forlake Goods, Houfes, Family, Wife, aildren, Sc. furely this is a hard Matter. God hath commanded me labour, to maintain my Wife and Children, Gc. Behold therefore is is the Scope and Sum, that the Golpel is the Word of Faith and Tence, because of which every faithful Man doth bear Offence willing-Indeed God bath willed thee to do these Things, how beit he bath to commanded, that thou prefer him before all Creatures, and love m above all Things, and think him higher then all Things which pu canft know, even as the chief and greateft Commandment givenh to understand ; Thou thalt love the Lord thy God with all thine Heart, d with all thy Sout, and with all thy Might, Deut. vi. 5. Wherefore ou mult forfake all Things before thou fuffer thyfelf to be pluckt away om the Love of him, or his Word ; altho' indeed he lofeth nothing, pich forfaketh any Thing for the Gofpel's Sake. If for the Gofpel's ke thou lofe this temporal Life, God will give thee another far better, wit, eternal Life, as Chrift faith Matth. x. 39. He that findeth his fe, thall loje it : And he that Joseth his Life for my Sake, fall find it. thou be compelled to forfake the Wite together with thy Children, reember that God hath a Cate of them, he will be a better Father unto em then thyfelf, which undoubtedly cometh to pais, if to be thou beve. For we have very great and rich Promiles that he will not fuffer s Wo I to fail, but will always fulfil it, if we can freely and confiently truft in him, and commit outfelves wholly to him. Chrift faith ier this Sort, Matth. xix. 29. Whofeever shall forfake Houfes, or Breren, or Siflers, or Father, or Mother, or Wife, or Children, or Lands; my Names Sake, Iball receive an bundred Fold, and Iball inberis erlasting Life. We have here his Words and Promife ; What would have more, or what can we defire more ? Wherein therefore do we 1? Only in our Eaith. Wherefore no Man cometh to this Supper, t he that bringeth with him a fincere Faith, which God preferreth and veth above all Creatures. But how doth the Lord recompense them tich excufed themfelves that they could not come to the Supper? The ext itfelf declareth.

This the Mafter of the Houfe being energy, faid to his Servent, Ge quickly into the Steests and Lance of the City, and bring in hither the energy of the massed, and the ball, and the blind. Go into the Sterest at Lances is nothing elic, but that whereas the Freur make themfelves worthy of the Golpel, and did refuel it, the Diffelper stumed to the miller. For it was enjoined them of Chrift, that they flouid not turn smalleres to the Gentile, not preach the Kingdom of God in the Cities the Samericans, but flouid go only to the Sheep of the Maine for the Samericans, but mould go only to the Sheep of the Maine of the Samericans, but mould go only to the Sheep of the Maine of the Maine and theoded feed them only, as they did. here holen to put : But feeing be put if fram you, and judge pureficies not over thy of contabling Life : b, we turn to the Gentiles. For fo hath the Lord commanded on, foring, I have for these to be a Light-of the Gentiler, that them familed to for Selvation with the Earls of the Earls. But what mainsten that which he Sith propriose to the Servant 2

. Go out into the High-ways and Hedges, and combel them to come in, that my Moufe may be filled. This is to be understood of desperate and weak Confeiences, which alfo pertain unto this Supper, and are compelled un te it, but this Compulsion is not outward, but inward and spiritual, and is done after this Sort. When the Law is preached, Sin is fet befor our Eyes and revealed, that a Man may come to Knowledge of him felf, fo that to compel, to enter of come in, doth rightly fignify, t drive Sin into the Confeience, whereby a Man may know that he is no thing, that all his Works are Sins, and fubject to Damnation, and fuddenly his Confcience, may become defparate, and his Heart fair and terrified, that all that Confidence and Opinion of Help may depart and Man himfelf be able no where to comfort himfelf in any Thing and at the laft be driven to defpair of himfelf. If fo be that one be one after this Sort compelled, then do not long delay to let him come in but deliver the Man out of Defperation. That cometh to pais, when the comfortest him by the Gofpel, and loclarest that he is delivered from his Sins, faying ; Believe in Christ, that the hath made thee free from th Sins. then thalt thou be delivered and free from Sin. And this is the Meaning of that which he faith ; Compel them to come in. It is not to b understood of outward Compulsion, as some interpret it, that wicked an ungodly ones (hould be violently driven to the Supper, for this prevail eth nothing, neither is it fo meant in this Place. Wherefore it is to be referred only to the Confcience, and is inward and fpiritual. Now he goeth on to fpeak to the Servant and the reft :

For I fay unto you, that none of those Men which were bidden, shall tak of my Supper. This is the Conclusion, that they which think then felves molt certain that they thall come to the Supper, and tafte of a shall not tafte of it. The Reafon ye have heard. Now briefly, the Guefts that are bidden and do not come, are they, which think the they thall obtain the Supper by their own Works, very much wearvin shemfelves, thinking afforedly, that they shall taste of it. But the Lor mightily concludeth and faith ; Not one of these Men shall take of m Supper. Wherefore most genile Lord ! They have committed no wicke Thing, neither have been occupied shout unjust Matters. Behald, th is the Reafon, for that they have forfaken Faith and have not confel it freely before every one, neither have preferred that rich and fumpt ous Supper before all Creatures. For feeing it is fumptuous, it requi ath those Men that do judge it to be fo, and do put any Thing in Det ger, whatfoever it be, that they may be Partakers of It. Thus ye hav the compendious Meaning of this Text, which I have only briefly re over, if any will expound it more at large, I am well content he fo de
