There are likewise One Thousand Volumes of curious and scarce Books from the Library of the late Mr. PETER BUCHAN of Peterhead, the distinguished and indefatigable Editor of the 'Ancient Ballads and Songs of the North of Scotland,'—to whose merit in this department of literature Sir Walter Scott has borne such ample testimony in his 'Introductory Remarks on Popular Poetry,' prefixed to the last edition of the Minstrelsy of the Scottish Border. Purchased from his Son, PATRICK BUCHAN, Esq.

To be Sold by Auction, at 62, Union Street,

(OPPOSITE THE ROYAL HOTEL),

ON THURSDAY, 22^d NOVEMBER, AND FOLLOWING EVENINGS.

BOOKS.—In the best books great men talk to us, give us their most precious thoughts, and pour their souls into ours. God be thanked for books! They are the voices of the distant and the dead, and make us heirs of the spiritual life of past ages. Books are the true levellers. No matter how poor I am—no matter though the prosperous of my own time will not enter my obscure dwelling; if the sacred writers will enter and take up their abode under my roof—if Milton will cross my threshold, to sing to me of Paradise—and Shakspeare, to open to me the worlds of imagination and the workings of the human heart—and Franklin, to enrich me with his practical wisdom—I shall not pine for want of intellectual companionship, and I may become a cultivated man, though excluded from what is called "the best society" in the place where I live.—Dr. Channing.

The Books, &c. will be on view from Twelve till Three o'clock during the Days of Sale.

Sale to begin each Evening at half-past Six o'clock.

JOHN CHRISTIE.
