The Presentment of the Grand-Jury at the Assizes held at Northampton, July 17. 1683.

WE the Grand-Jury sworn to enquire for the Body of the County of Northampton at the Assizes held at Northampton for the said County, &c. Have with great Horrour and Detestation receiv'd an account of the most Impious and Bloody Conspiracy against the person of His most Sacred Majesty, and his Royal Brother, which (thanks be to God,) He, by his providential Care has prevented, and brought to light their Hellish purposes; And not knowing how far their wicked Designs may proceed, We held it our Duty in this juncture of Affairs, to present, that we have strong apprehensions of great Danger from a disaffected party in this County, who did openly shew their Principles, by presenting a Seditious Address to Miles Fleetwood and John Parkhurst Esqs; at the last Election of Knights of the Shire, tending to the alteration of the Succession of the Crown, and an Intended Association in it to that purpose; with an assurance that they would stand by them with their Lives and Fortunes, without any regard or notice taken of the Kings Authority, or their Allegiance or Duty towards their Sovereign. And having observ'd, that since that time, they have had and held several Meetings, Clubs and Cabals, which We cannot but think was to carry on the said purposes, and other dangerous Designs against the Government; and their Discourses being notoriously bold, and their Party generally furnisht with a proportion of Arms rather for some Dangerous Designs, than for the use of Private Persons, which, upon Search could not be found, but were hid and conceal'd. We therefore Present it very Expedient and Necessary for securing the Peace of this County, that all Ill-affected Persons may give Security for the Peace, and particularly,

Ralph Mountague Esq;	John Parkhurst.	John Coombs.	Thomas Freeman	Fane Denny.	Sir Sam. Clarke	Edward Pierce
Sir William Langham.	Edward Stratford.	Thomas Colthurst	John Allen.	Robert Mansel.	Tho. Whitthorne	Rector of Cot-
