

EDINBURGH

69/12 11th NOVEMBER 17

TABLE

Of the Fish-Market Customs, and Board-Mails.

	L.	sh.	d.
FOR every Fish-Board within the Market yearly, attour the Customs underwritten,	6	13	4
Every Cobler's Board each Market Day,	0	01	0
Every Load of Salmon, Mackarels, Killing, Codlings, Turbet, Ling, Had-docks, Whittings, Trouts, Pearches, Podlays, Skait, Spirlings, Partans,	0	03	0
Red Herring,	0	01	6
Every Burden thereof,	0	00	6
Each Burden of Cockles, Spouts, Lobsters, Muffels, Oysters, Buckies, Clams, and Wilks,	0	00	6
Every Dozen of dry Killing, dried Salmon, and all other dry Fishes coming in or going out, and proportionally for greater or lesser Quantities,	0	01	0
Each Load of Herring fresh and salt coming in or going out, sold or unfold,	0	01	0
Every Burden thereof above a Hundred,	0	00	8
Each Hundred of the same,	0	00	6
Each Sole stick,	0	00	4
Every Load of Barrel'd Herring from Glasgow or Greenock , coming in to, or going out of the Market,	0	01	0
Every Barrel of Herring, or other Barrel'd Fish going from Leith to the Country,	0	01	0
Every Draught of Fish going from Leith to the Country,	0	04	0

The Council ordains,

That all Fish coming to Edinburgh, and not for Sale, shall be free of all Custom.

That all Hucksters, or Retailers of Herring, or any other Fishes within this City or within any Part of its Liberties other than the Fish-Market, whether they be Burgeses or not, shall pay yearly to the Tacksman for every Barrel of Herring, or other Fish they shall happen to sell, Three Shillings Scots.

That no Kind of Fish be sold in the Fish-market-Clofs or at the Fish-Market-Clofs Head, but only in the Fish-Market, Shell-Fishes excepted, under the Penalty of Ten Merks, toties quoties, to be paid by the Contraveeners.

The Tacksman is ordained to shew a Table sign'd by the Treasurer then in Office, to such Persons as require it, and is discharged to exact more than is stated in the Table, under the Penalty of Ten Merks, toties quoties; and in Case of Refusal, they are hereby declared free of Custom.

7
70 25
99

