Unto his Grace Her Majesties high Commissioner and the right Honourable the Estates of Parliament

The PETITION of William Wilson one of the Under-Clerks of Session.

Humbly [heweth]

THAT where the Petitioner did ferve as Under Clerk of Privy Council, from the 27 Day of May 1689, till November 1690, and that during that fpace it is not unknown to many of the Honourable Effates of Parliament, with what Fatigue, Diligence and Application the Petitioner did Difcharge the vaft Croud of publick Affairs; that then occurred, as will appear by the Regifters of Privy Council; Which during the time of his Service was more than what was infert in the publick Regifters, for the fpace of feven Years, for many Years preceeding that Time: And the Petitioner was Engaged, for the Exigency of the Government and Difpatch of publick Bufinefs, many times to imploy and fatisfy feveral Perfons that had no Dependance on the Office, to fit up many Nights to Write Extracts of publick Orders; And yet albeit both before and fince the time of the petitioners Service, there was a Sallary of Twenty pound flerling yearly allowed to the Under-Clerk of Council for Paper, Pen and Ink to the Office, befide a fuitable Reward upon extraordinary Occafions; yet during the Petitioners Abode in that Office, there being no eftablifhment for payment thereof; the petitioner, to this Hour, has neither received the Sallary for the fpace of a Year and a half, nor of the Sum of Fifty pound Sterling, which he has expended for the fpeedy difpatch of publick Matters, neither has got allowance for his fo extraordinary Service.

May it therefore please your Grace and the Honourable Estates of Parliament to modifie what un your Grace and Lordships shall think fit to be payed to the petitioner, in such way and manner as your Grace and the Estates of Parliament please. And your petitioner shall ever pray, &c.