

London Octob. 20. A New Express from HOLLAND,

Giving a Particular Account of the Contents of the Holland Mail Arrived this Morning.

Hague, October the 26th.

OUR Letters from Hungary say the Malecontents have been Defeated in several Rencontres, particularly in an Action within 3 Leagues of Pest, they Lost 107 Troopers, besides 9 that were made Prisoners; and in another near Halas, they were Defeated, and lost some Pieces of Cannon and Baggage.

On the 18th Inst. Count Stirum broke up with his Army from Kirkheim, and marched towards Rollen in order to go further to Heydenheim. P. L. of Baden is also marched from Augsburg to Norndorf upon the Dannbe, but has left 4000 Foot, and 2000 Horse in Augsburg.

The Saxon Troops under Gen. Schuylenberg, met on their March to joyn P. Louis, a Fr. Convoy of 1500 men, with 39000 Pistoles in Money, and Mounting for 15000 men cut off the whole Convoy, and took off the whole Money and Mounting. Mar. Villars is advanced to Ulm, and seems to have a design to break through into Wirtemberg, or give the Elector of Bavaria an opportunity of invading Franconia.

'Tis said Landau is now formally Besieged, and the Batteries already in such forwardness, that six Cannon were to be mounted on the 11th Inst. and they designed to Play upon the place from 100 pieces of Cannon, and 60 Mortars.

'Tis said, the Elector Palatine has presented the King of Spain with a Regiment of 1600 Foot, and the Elector of Hannover with 4 Regiments of Horse for his Guards.

The Grand Army lyes still at Tongeren, but the D. of Marlborough was to leave the Army on the 23d or 24th Inst. in order to be at the Hague before the K. of Spain, who has not yet set out from Dusseldorp.

They Write from Nismes, that Marshal Montrevel understanding that the Engl. and Dutch Fleet was seen off of Cete, was marched thitherwards; and that the Camisaars being advertis'd of the continual Motions of the Enemy, took their opportunities to Annoy them, and have Burnt the Church of St. Amant, with the Priest's House, and 7 or 8 more.

'Tis Confirmed from Genoua, That the Confederate Fleet under Sir Clovelly Shovel and Admiral Allimond, is arrived to the number of 80 Sail, in the Harbour of Leghorn.

'Tis Confirmed from Geneva, That the City of Castres had Declared for the Camisaars,

They tell us from Nancy in Lorrain, That they had Advice there from Paris, that the Duke de Vendosme was Marching with half his Army towards Asti in Piedmont, to Oblige the D. of Savoy to enter into new Engagements with France, and to break those lately Concluded with the Enemy, as also to deliver up some Cautionary Towns for his performance, and to execute the Treaty Concluded at the time of the Marriage of the Dutches of Burgundy, by which His Royal Highness Reserves to himself but 10000 Foot, and 1500 Horse, The M. Montrevel has sent Six Battalions towards Savoy.

On the 14th Inst. the City of Thoorn Surrendered to the K. of Sweden at Discretion; but it appears that the Garison which at first was 5000 Strong, is reduced to 1500; and the City is still full of Sick, as well Soldiers as Inhabitants. 'Tis said that Elbing has taken in the Prussian Troops.

