SCOTCH-LOYALTY Exemplify'd, is the Behaviour

 of the Dean of the Faculty', and bis Brethrens; at Edinburgh, in relation to the Reception of a $M E D A E$ of the Precender, prefented to themi by the Duichers of Gourdon, with Heir Grace's, and Their Several SPEECHES thecreupon, as; alfo, the Number of Thofe that were For aind Againit admit: ing it amongst their Rarities.
Fime the $30 t h$.

MR. Robert Bennet, Dean of the Faculty, prefented a MEDAL from the Dutchefs of Gourdon, and made the following Speech.
"Her Grace; the Dutchefs of Gourdon, fends of to you the MEDAL of 'King fames the VIII. "s whom We, and the Englijh, call the "setender: ${ }^{46}$ I hope Thanks are to be return'd for it.

Mr. Alexiander Stevenfon anfwerd, That the Medal frould be returned to Her Grace, for the teceiving it was throwing Dirt in the Face of the Government.

Mr. Robert Alexamder, of Black-Houle, feconded him, and faid, That the receiving of fuch a Meda! was owning a Right contrary to Her Majefty.

Mr. Robert Frazier anfwerd, That niorer Cronim 2vel's Medal', who deferv'd to be hang'd, án the Arms of the Common-Weaith of England had been receivd, and why not this?

Mr. Duncomb Forbes, and Mr. Fobn Humes; Nine bolds, faia, It was Time enough to re ceive the Medal, when the Pretender was hangla. To whom adherd Mr. Hudal Kemple, Son to the Prefident; Mr James Fergufon; Son to Sir Fobn of Korkenme, and Sir fames Stuart of Goo dtree, Her Majefty's Sollicitor.

Mr. Dundaß, of Arm's-Town, rofe up afterwards' and made the following speech:

Mr. Dean of Faculty, Whatever thofe Ge nitlensen fay of their Loy lty, lo bink trbey-affont ibe Queen, ivbo is not anly a Prince of the Blood, but the Firg therreof F ; and if Blood cangure any Righ, "be" is an un doubted Sovereign. I think tbey cail Her Majefty s Ti. tle in queftivi, wibich is not our Buf Pine $\beta$ to difermine. Medals are the Documenis of Hitory, to wibicb all: Hi A orizans refer, and therefore, tho' Th hould give King William's S:amp, यithb, the Derilh ht bis Right-Ear, I Se not bue it would be refuffy feezang an Huadred Pearstence, it will prove ibat /acb CCoyobad been in England: But, Mr. Dean of Faculty, whbat needs jurther. Speech, none oppofing the revervimg the Ne dal, and rturning Thanks to Her Grace but a f te2p pi tiful Scoundrels and Muflerooms not outth tiful Scoundrels and Muffrooms, not worthy our Notice: Let us thes proccèd to name. Some of our Number, to retwrn our bearty Thoinks to the Duicheß of
6. The Dean put it to the Vote, and carried its, That Thanks fhould be returned to Her Grace, by Mi. Dundás, and Mr Horn.

Mr. Dunalaß ask'd in what Terms to which the Dean anfwerd, $\ln$ itbe Name of the whole Socsety that Ibey woid approve what Mr. Dundafs and Mr. Horri fuuld tionk convernient?

According to the Order given, They waited on Her Grace the 3 ! of Yuly 3 and Mr. Dundaß fpoke in this Manner:
"MADAM, We are deputed by the Dean of is the Faculty of the Allvocztes, in their Name and © $\hat{6}$ for Oir felves, to return our mof hedaty $\checkmark$ Thanks to Your Grace for Your Favours and
"particulariy for the Honour You do Us in © 6 prefenting the MEDAL of Our Sovereigr : The King; We fhall always be Proud of all "Opportunities to teftify our Loyalty to His'
"Majefty, and the Honour We have for Your "Grace.

The Dutchers anfwer'd thus:
 "the moft Learned and Geatenanly Society ic in Eurnpe; and feeing they have made, a fine "Collection of BOOKS and MEDAES; I "chink evety Body fhould affit them "Part, whatefer of $V$ alue comes to my Hand " of either Sort, 1 fhall freely beftow them on " 6 the Facilty.

Mr. Dindapereply'd:

- MiADAM, I hope, andam Confident, and if fo do my Conftituents, that Your Grace nat! "have very foon ary Opportunity to Compli's ment the Faculry with a MEDAL, Struck up"on the Reftauration of the King ayd Royal ${ }^{6}$ Famil the Finifhing, Rebellion, Wrarping

THEMEDA己
Treaturaing 11
comingt
Inde, and Infeription, cujus
Serenty Five were for receiving it, only Tuelvc dene againft it.

The Government has given Order for Profe Cuting the Dean, Mr. Frazier, Mr. Dundaß, not excluding the Dutchefs of Gourdon; and other Dijaffected Perfons.

