

I am a plain Englishman, I approve of the Conduct of Sir Murray Maxwell, in coming forward as he has done - why should you send Sir Samuel Romilly to Parliament? he can find his way into the Den of Corruption - You know the Hero of the Tower, as well as I do, who ran out at the Back Door, when his Friends were waiting for him at the Front. I have hoisted the Cap of Liberty.

... is anxious you should hear me now - I am sure you will hear him resently with pleasure, I am certain my Cause is as popular as his; for I see many Pretty Girls pressing forward to hear me. At all the Day - the Year, none appear more favorable for a British Officer to receive your support, than the Anniversary of Waterloo.
