

Engraved by Chas. Thomson 42. High Street Edin.

REFERENCES.

----- The direction in which the Radicals marched from Bonny Bridge to the Moor.

..... The direction in which the Cavalry pursued them.

A The Hill on which the Radicals rested before the Cavalry came up.

B A substantial Stone Dyke-nearly 5 Feet high, extending about 300 Yards long; behind which the Radicals took their position when they saw the Cavalry advancing.

C The place where the Cavalry halted, while Lieu^t Hodgson advanced to request the Radicals to lay down their Arms.

++ Represent the distance between the Lieutenant and the leader of the Radicals when he first addressed him.

D Is a gap at the east end of the Dyke, where the Cavalry entered

N.B. The Delinicator had his information on the spot from a labourer who witnessed the engagement.

