

Die Jovis, 25 April. 1650.

BE it Enacted and Ordained by authority of this present Parliament, That the Commissioners for Sequestrations, or any two of them, which are or shall be nominated or appointed in the severall Counties and places of this Common-wealth, by the Commissioners for Compounding with Delinquents, shall be and hereby are Enabled and Authorized to examine upon Oath all such matters as are or shall be, referred to them by Instructions from the said Commissioners for Compounding with Delinquents: And the said Commissioners for Sequestrations, or any two of them, are hereby likewise impowered to give Acquittances for all moneys which they shal at any time receive from any person or persons, by vertue of their said Instructions.

Hen. Scobell, Cleric. Parliament.

