By these Instances it may appear, these present Ministers have no reason to complain of short and discouraging Maintenance; especially if it be considered that upon the next avoidance in the United Parishes, the whole Profits, as well of Tithes, Glebe, as other Advantages of Two Parishes, will be enjoyed by one Incumbent, which hath happened already in Ten Parishes. Moreover, if the Late Plague, Fire, and vast Expences in Rebuilding be duly weighed, and that it hath been offered to the present Ministers that all the Tithes enjoyed by any their Predecessors, or themselves, should be ascertained and made good unto them by the Respective Parishes, it is submitted to every Indifferent Judgment, if there be any reasonable ground for their desire of Augmentation, either for themselves or Successors.
