

THE WATCH-
MANS

Warning peeces.

OR,
PARLIAMENT

Souldiers

Prediction.

HEWING,

THAT If our ARMIES
lay down ARMS,

before the Work
is at an end,

We may expect
yet worser Harms,

More pretious lives and States
to spend.

An Emblem of this Age, fore all is set, } Smile not thereon, for sure it is a sad one;
To shew the thing that is not ended yet : } For good men to be cheated by Abaddon,

The Relation.

Here vvvas a plain, just, dovvrnright man indeed,
Armed for Truhs defence in time of need;
is foes he conquer'd, thought the storm was o're,
nam'd himselfe of vvveapons vvvhich he vvvorc.

When on a sudden comes the Dragon fierce,
With open mouth, and arrovved tongue to pierce,
The Leopard 'gainst the Lamb appear'd most cruell :
Venemous Serpent acts his part in Duell.

The Hare did start, the Lamb did stand in feare,
When vvvide beafts came vvvhich open mouthes to When Reason savv it he vvvas at a stand, (care, and vvvent to take vvvhich vvvas at his left hand.

The Description.

And vvvhich is by this EMBLEM represented ?
The STATE (by PLOTS of Papiests) circumvented,
Shall I demonstrate still, to make you knowv,
That these (PPP) are Papiests all arovv.

The Dragons Head, the POPE doth represent,
His sharp tongu'd shaft, Curses vvvhich he doth vent,
His Teeth are ENVY, and his Horns are Power,
The Dragons Body, is Romes Church, that vvvhore;

The Spotted Lespard also hath his Doom,
This body pleads for Prelats Brats of Rome.
His lawves are Malice, Head EPISCOPALL,
A gaping Mouth, Teeth, Power, tyrannicall.

The Crooked Serpens creeps upon the Earth.
The Antichristian Presbyter by birth,
His Head's from Rome, his Taile and Body to.
VVith them to Aye-Perdition he shall go.

But all the choyseest Friends to Parliament, } A blessing may expect on their Designes :
Unanimous Consent, } Where Wifdom guarded with an Army, shines.
