An Account of the Grounds and Reasons on which Protestant Differenters desire their Liberty.

(1)

A Lthough it be fufficiently known both at home and abroad among all the Reformed Churches, what Religion we profefs, by the Confeffion of our Faith long fince made and publifhed in our own and fundry other Languages; Yet on this occafion of our Defire of Deliverance from all Penal Laws in matters of Religion, we efteem our felves obliged to declare; and do declare,

1. That we are Protestants firmly adhering unto the Doctrine of the Protestant Religion, as declared and established by Law in the 39 Articles, excepting only such of them as concern Rites and Ceremonies, Grc. and as it is explained in the publickly Authorized Writings of the most Learned Divines of this Nation in the Reigns of Q. Eliz. and K. James.

2. That we are ready to make the Renunciation of Popifh Principles eftablifhed by Law; and not only fo, but (as God fhall affift us) to give our Teftimony with our Lives in Oppofition unto Popery, and in the Defence of the Protestant Religion against it, with all other good Protestant Subjects of the Kingdom, when we fhall be called thereunto.

3. Unto this Refolution of a stedfast Adherence unto the Protestant Religion, in Opposition unto Popery, We have many peculiar Ingagements. For

1. Our Principles concerning Church Order, Rule, and Worfhip, wherein we differ from the Church of England, are not capable of a Compliance with, or Reconciliation unto those of the Papacy, but are contradictory unto them, and utterly inconfistent with them. Where there is an Agreement in general Principles, and men differ only in their Application unto fome Particulars, those Differences are capable of a Reconciliation; But where the Principles themselves are directly contradictory, as it is betweem us and the Papists in this Matter, they are capable of no Reconciliation.

2. We have no Interest that may be practised on by the Arts or Infinuations of the Papists. For we are neither capable of any Advantages by Ecclesiastical Domination, Power, Promotions, with Dignities and Revenues belonging thereunto; which are the principal Allurements of the Papacy; Nor are ingaged in any such Combination Political or Ecclesiastical, as that the Contrivance of a few, should draw on the Compliance of the whole Party; These things being utterly contrary unto, and inconfistent with our Principles, the Papists have no way of attempting us, but by meer Force and Violence.

3. Our fixed Judgment being the fame with that of all the first Reformers, namely, that in the Idolatrous Apostacy of 'the Papal Church, with bloody Persecutions, the Antichristian State foretold in the Scripture doth confist, We are for ever excluded from all thoughts of Compliance with them or Reconciliation. unto them.

4. Whereas our Principles concerning Church Order, Rule and Worfhip, are directly fuited unto the Diffolution and Ruine of the Papal Church State, whence the Papifts take their Warrantyfor all the evil Contrivances, which fome of them are Guilty of in this Kingdom, and will fo far as they are taken out of the Scripture, at length effect it; We can have no other expectation from the Prevalency of their Intereft in this Nation, but utter Extirpation and Deftruction. We are therefore fully fatisfied, that our Intereft and Duty in Self-prefervation confifts in a firm Adherence unto the Protestant Religion as established in this Nation, and the Defence thereof, against all the Attempts of the Papacy.

3. We own and acknowledge the Power of the King or Supreme Magistrate in this Nation, as it is declared in the 37th. Article of Religion, and are ready to defend and affift in the Administration of the Government in all Causes according unto the Law of the Land, with all other Good Protestant Subjects of the Kingdom.

We do therefore humbly defire, (1.) That we may have an Exemption from all Laws and Penalties Civil or Ecclefiaftical for our Diffent in fome things from the Church of England as at prefent eftablifhed in the Rule of it, a Liberty to Worfhip God peaceably in our own Affemblies, upon our Renunciation of Popery, by Law prefcribed, and the Subfcription of our Minifters or publick Teachers unto the Articles of Religion, as before expressed.

(2.) That as unto Oaths, Offices, and Payment of Duties, none whereof we do refule, that we may be left unto the fame Laws and Rules with all other Protestant Subjects, that there may be the least of Difference remaining between us and them, and the greatest Evidence of our being united in the Defence of the Protestant Religion and Interest in the Nation.
