

Death

OF THE KING.

It is with deep and most heartfelt sorrow and regret, that we have to announce the death of our much beloved Sovereign, which took place at Windsor, on Saturday morning June 26, 1830, at a quarter past 3 o'clock, having reigned in peace ten years, four months and twenty-seven days.

His Majesty was born on the 12th, and created Prince of Wales on the 17th August 1762; was married on 7th April 1795, to his cousin, Princess Charolene Amelia of Brunswick, by whom he had the late much lamented Princess Charlotte Augusta, who died in childbed on the 6th November 1817; was appointed Regent in February 1811; succeeded his father on 29th January 1820; was crowned on the 19th July 1821; visited Scotland August 1822.

The late King is succeeded by Prince William Henry, Duke of Clarence and St Andrews, &c. who was born on 21st August 1765; married on the 11th July 1818, to the Princess Adelaide Louisa Thereas Carøline Amelia, eldest daughter of the late and sister to the present Duke of Saxe Meinenges.—The issue of the merrage was, the Princess Charlotte Augusta, born and died 27th March 1819, and the Princess Elizabeth, born 10th December 1820, and died 4th March the following year.

The Earl of Errol, the Hon. John Erskine Kennedy (second son of the Earl of Cassilis), Mr Philip Sydney. M. P. for Eye, and Liet.-Colonel Charles Fox of the 34th Regiment of Foot, stand in relation of sons-in-law to the present King, having married the Misses Elizabeth, Augusta, Sophia and Mary Fitzclarence. Colonel Fitzclarence, of the Royal Fusileers, married in 1821, Lady Augusta Boyle, daughter of the Earl of Glasgow, and Colonel George Fitzclarence is son-in-law to the Earl of Egremont. Caprain Adolphus Fitzclarence, R.N., and the Reverend Adolphus Fitzclarence, rector of Maple-Durham, are unmarried.
