

£1,000 REWARD.

SIR CHARLES C—,

Who offered the above Reward by Bill, bearing date Sept. 11th, is assured that the accidental meeting and fortunate result, at Valerie-sur-Somme, in 1851, are not forgotten

Should Sir Charles be sincere in his desire to again meet with the Lady, he can do so on the following conditions:--

The sum of £100 shall be deposited with Messrs. Lutwyche and Greensill, Solicitors, Paper Buildings, Temple, and should it appear that Sir Charles is actuated by frivolous or improper motives, the same shall be paid to the trustees of the Patriotic Fund.

Should this be done on or before Tuesday, Oct. 2nd, at noon, the Lady will be at the STRAND THEATRE in the Evening of that day, and also on the Thursday evening should Tuesday be inconvenient.

The Lady would have again visited the Lyceum Theatre, but that the publicity given to her last visit might cause notice and impertinent curiosity.

Sir Charles must understand the determination here expressed to be final.

Sept. 27th.
