REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD.

VICTORIA CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 3rd July, 1915.)

War Office,
3rd July 1915.

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Victoria Cross to No. 3026 Lance-Corporal Leonard James Keyworth, 24th (County of London) Battalion, The London Regiment (The Queen's), Territorial Force.

For most conspicuous bravery at Gwenchy on the night of 25th-26th May, 1915.

After the successful assault on the German position by the 24th Battalion, London Regiment, efforts were made by that Unit to follow up their success by a bomb-attack, during the progress of which 68 men out of a total of 75 became casualties.

During this very fierce encounter Lance-Corporal Keyworth stood fully exposed for 2 hours on the top of the enemy's parapet, and threw about 150 bombs amongst the Germans who were only a few yards away.

(Extract from the London Gazette dated 24th July 1915.)

War Office,
24th July, 1915.

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to award the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Officers and Non-commissioned Officers:—

Captain Eustace Jotham, 51st Sikhs (Frontier Force).

For most conspicuous bravery on 7th January, 1915, at Spina Khaisora (Tochi Valley).

During operations against the Khostwal tribesmen, Captain Jotham, who was commanding a party of about a dozen of the North Waziristan Militia, was attacked in a nullah and almost surrounded by an overwhelming force of some 1,500 tribesmen. He gave the order to retire, and could have himself escaped, but most gallantly sacrificed his own life by attempting to effect the rescue of one of his men who had lost his horse.

Second Lieutenant George Raymond Dallas Moor, 3rd Battalion, The Hampshire Regiment.

For most conspicuous bravery and resource on 5th June, 1915, during operations south of Kritbia, Dardanelles. When a detachment of a Battalion on his left, which had lost all its officers, was rapidly retiring before a heavy Turkish attack, Second Lieutenant Moor, immediately grasping the danger to the remainder of the line, dashed back some 200 yards, stemmed the retirement, led back the men, and recaptured the lost trench.

This young Officer, who only joined the Army in October, 1914, by his personal bravery and presence of mind, saved a dangerous situation.

No. 465 Lance-Corporal Albert Jacka, 14th Battalion, Australian Imperial Forces.

For most conspicuous bravery on the night of the 19th-20th May, 1915, at "Courtney's Post," Gallipoli Peninsula.

Lance-Corporal Jacka, while holding a portion of our trench with four other men, was heavily attacked. When all except himself were killed or wounded, the trench was rushed and occupied by seven Turks. Lance-Corporal Jacka at once most gallantly attacked them single-handed, and killed the whole party, five by rifle fire and two with the bayonet.

No. 10073 Lance-Corporal Joseph Tomba, 1st Battalion, The King's (Liverpool Regiment).

For most conspicuous gallantry near Rue du Bois, on 16th June, 1915. On his own initiative he crawled out repeatedly under a very heavy shell and machine gun fire, to bring in wounded men who were lying about 100 yards in front of our trenches. He rescued four men, one of whom he dragged back by means of a rifle sling placed round his own neck and the man's body. This man was so severely wounded that unless he had been immediately attended to he must have died.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—contd.

ORDER OF SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT GEORGE.

---

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 23rd July, 1915.)

Chancery of the Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Downing Street, 21st July, 1915.

THE KING has been graciously pleased to give directions for the following appointment to the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George in recognition of Distinguished Service in the Field: the appointment to date from the 3rd June, 1915:—

To be an Additional Member of the Third Class, or Companions, of the said Most Distinguished Order—

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—contd.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 3rd July, 1915.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the appointment of the undermentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force:—

Captain Amyas Eden Borton, The Black Watch (Royal Highlanders), attached Royal Flying Corps.

Captain Anthony Marshall, 28th Light Cavalry, Indian Army, attached Royal Flying Corps.

When on flying reconnaissance over the neighbourhood of Staden on 7th June, 1915, Captain Borton was wounded in the head and neck by a bullet fired from a hostile aeroplane, and although suffering severely from loss of blood he continued, with the assistance of the Observer, Captain Marshall, to bandage his wounds and completed the reconnaissance on the prescribed course. His injuries are such that he is not yet out of danger.

Captain Marshall continued his observations after rendering all possible aid to the Pilot, who was gradually losing consciousness, notwithstanding that the German aeroplane was persistently attacking.

The valuable report supplied by this Officer is as detailed and complete for the last as it is for the first part of the reconnaissance.

Major George Harold Absell Ing, 2nd Dragoon Guards (Queen's Bays).

At Ypres, on 13th May, 1915, when the line was broken beyond the right flank of his regiment, he came out of his trench in the front line, stood on the road in the open under heavy shell fire, stopped the retirement of 40 men of another unit, and turned them into his section of the defence. The good results of this gallant action were far reaching.

Major Phillip Granville Mason, 3rd (Prince of Wales's) Dragoon Guards.

Whilst in command of Hooge Fort and the adjoining trenches, showed conspicuous gallantry and ability in holding the village and defence line allotted to him, notwithstanding a terrific bombardment for several hours every day from 30th May, till 2nd June, 1915, in which practically all his trenches and dug-outs were blown in.

Capt. John Grey Porter, 9th (Queen's Royal) Lancers.

On May 10th, 1915, when a very heavy attack was made on the front line near Hooge, Captain Porter went up to the infantry line there and brought back very valuable information regarding the situation. On the 13th May he rendered the greatest possible assistance in taking messages under terrific shell fire to various parts of the line and reporting on various local situations. He set an example of coolness and total disregard of danger that was beyond all praise. He has been twice wounded previously in this campaign.

Major Charles William Henry Crichton, 10th (Prince of Wales's Own Royal) Hussars.

Near Ypres on the 13th May, 1915, showed conspicuous gallantry and ability in collecting and rallying men who were retiring under heavy shell fire through the 10th Hussars' position.

In our counter-attack he continued to direct operations, giving great encouragement to his men whilst he lay in the open under heavy shell fire with his leg shattered.

Major John Ross Colville, 55th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

Commanded his battery with great gallantry during the operations 9th and 10th May, 1915, near Rouges Bancs, observing fire from an isolated tree close behind the trenches, which were being heavily shelled. This Officer has been previously brought to notice for valuable work at Neuve Chapelle when he observed fire from the ruined houses and sent excellent information for 36 hours under continuous shell and rifle fire.

Captain The Honourable Bertrand Joseph Russell (Reserve of Officers), 104th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

On 9th May, 1915, near Rue Petillon (Fromelles) this Officer commanded a section in the trenches, greatly helping the infantry. He was heavily shelled all day, the parapet in front of one gun being destroyed. They kept on firing, however, and the success was greatly due to the courage displayed by Captain Russell, who was twice wounded early in the day.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—contd.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER—contd.

Major William Frederick Maxwell, Royal Engineers (attached Lahore Divisional Signal Company).

Near Ypres, during the operations from 24th April to 4th May, 1915, he rendered excellent service when responsible for maintaining the signalling communications of the Division under most trying circumstances. The work was very heavy, and he also had to direct the constant repair of lines cut by the continuous heavy fire.

This Officer has done consistently well throughout the campaign.

Major Edward Metcalfe Beall, 4th Battalion, The King's (Liverpool Regiment).

For excellent work throughout the operations near Ypres from 24th April to 4th May, 1915, especially during the attack of the 27th April, when he was with the leading company in the front line. He returned to Battalion Headquarters for reinforcements and took them forward with him to the front line.

He was also conspicuous in the attack on 1st May.

Captain Singleton Bonner, 1st Battalion, The South Staffordshire Regiment.

For particularly good and gallant services rendered at Festubert from 16th to 18th May, 1915, when he showed a fine example in coolness, bravery and power of command.

Captain Edmund Rochfort Street, 3rd Battalion, The Sherwood Foresters (Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment).

For conspicuous good work under heavy fire between 13th and 16th May, 1915, near Le Touquet, and for going down a gassed mine to assist in the rescue of men.

Captain Percy Wood, 5th Battalion, The Durham Light Infantry, Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry displayed in rallying troops under heavy bomb and hand grenade fire, and for holding an advanced trench partly occupied by the enemy for four hours, until ordered to retire to a new line.

He greatly impeded the enemy by building obstacles and entanglements in the trench down which the retirement took place.

Captain David Bannerman Burt-Marshall, Seaforth Highlanders (Ross-shire Buffs, The Duke of Albany's) Signal Service.

During the heavy fighting and gassing east of Ypres, early on the morning of 24th May, 1915, he was sent forward to get in touch with the front line and to remain there, keeping his Brigadier-General informed of the progress of events. This he did with conspicuous success, continually travelling over fire swept ground to establish communication.

Every Commanding Officer has brought his name to notice for the good work done on that day. His reports were valuable and always perfectly clear. He was wounded in the shoulder about midday, but continued to carry on duties, not even waiting to have the wound dressed.

Captain John Patrick Michael Ingham, 4th Battalion, The Connaught Rangers.

On 26th April 1915, in the action near Ypres, displayed great gallantry in leading his men forward beyond the last piece of cover, and when the few men who had reached him were finally stopped by very heavy close-range fire (most of them being wounded), exposed himself time after time in re-organising them, and later in the afternoon in assisting in bringing under cover those who were helpless from their wounds.

When night fell he was indefatigable in assisting to organise the defence of the line held.

This Officer has been brought to notice before for the excellence of his work since October, 1914.

Major George James Christie, 9th (The Dumbartonshire) Battalion, Princess Louise's (Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders), Territorial Force

Showed conspicuous bravery in rallying his men near Wleltjo on the 24th May, 1915, and leading about 50 of them up to the front line through the gas and heavy shell fire. It is understood that this Officer did excellent work on 10th May when attached to another Brigade, but owing to his Colonel being killed on that day his good work was not mentioned.

Captain Henry George Moreton Railston, 1st Battalion, The Rifle Brigade (The Prince Consort's Own).

For great gallantry at Hannebeck on 3rd May, 1915. He was in command of a section of the front trench 200 yards long. The trench and all the traverses were smashed by shell fire and all the garrison except three men killed or wounded. Captain Railston had been slightly wounded and had been buried by a shell, but he continued to defend the trench and displayed the greatest coolness throughout, keeping back the enemy with rapid fire. He held the trench with his small party for several hours until it was impossible to reinforce him, and when the question of retirement was mooted he refused to entertain the suggestion.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—*contd.*DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER—contd.

Captain Alfred John Hamilton Bowen, 2nd Battalion, The Monmouth Regiment, Territorial Force.

On the 13th May, 1915, east of Ypres, though wounded in two places in the head before dawn, refused to leave his company, and continued to command it with conspicuous ability. After the action was over and the Battalion returned to La Belgique he was found to be suffering from two other wounds in the body. He was then sent to hospital.

Captain William George Clarke, 4th (City of London) Battalion, The London Regiment (Royal Fusiliers), Territorial Force.

Near Ypres, on 27th May, 1915, while under very heavy shell and rifle fire he collected men of his own and other companies, gallantly led them forward and held the position he gained until ordered to retire after dark.

Captain Edmund Gibbs Kimber, 1/13th (County of London) Princess Louise's Kensington Battalion, The London Regiment, Territorial Force.

For conspicuous ability and coolness in leading his company and getting it into position under a heavy fire south of Farm Delangre on 9th May, 1915. He held on to his position for six hours, with heavy casualties, until nearly surrounded by the enemy, and then extricated the remnants of his company.

Captain Donald Whitely Figg, 24th (County of London) Battalion, The London Regiment (The Queen's), Territorial Force.

For conspicuous and continuous gallantry on the night of 25th-26th May, 1915, and following day at Givenchy, when, after taking part in an assault on a trench, he led repeated rushes with bombs into a German work, and when most of the bombers were killed continued the attack single-handed. His extraordinary bravery and disregard of danger enabled the dangerous flank he commanded to hold its own against constant assaults by the German bombers and riflemen. On the 26th May, when his line was enfiladed by rifle and very heavy shell fire, his determination held his men to their ground until relieved four hours later. For seventeen hours his conduct was a brilliant example to the hard pressed men around him, and more than anyone in the Battalion he contributed to the successful retention of the position won.

With reference to the notification in the London Gazette of the 3rd June, 1915, the acts of gallantry and distinguished services at the Dardanelles for which the rewards of the Distinguished Service Order were granted by His Majesty The KING are as follows:—

Companions of the Distinguished Service Order.

Lieutenant-Colonel Walter Ramsey McNicoll, 6th Australian Infantry Battalion (Victoria).

On the night of 25th-26th April, 1915, during operations near Gaba Tepe, for repeatedly exhibiting great gallantry and skill in the command of his Battalion.

Lieutenant-Colonel Cyril Brudenell Bingham White, Royal Australian Garrison Artillery, Staff.

During the operations near Gaba Tepe on 25th April, 1915, and subsequently for his distinguished service in co-ordinating staff work, and in reorganisation after the inevitable dislocation and confusion arising from the first landing operations. He displayed exceptional ability.

Major Arthur Thackeray Beckwith, The Hampshire Regiment.

On 26th April, 1915, at Sedd-el-Bahr, for brilliant and gallant leading of troops in the attack on the fort and town. Showed exceptional coolness and efficiency.

Major Charles Henry Brand, 3rd Infantry Brigade (Australian Forces).

On 25th April, 1915, during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for conspicuous gallantry and ability in organising stragglers under heavy fire, and for organising and leading an attack resulting in the disablement of three of the enemy's guns. Major Brand conveyed messages himself on many occasions under fire during emergencies.

Major James Samuel Denton, 11th Australian Infantry Battalion (West Australia).

During the operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe on the 25th April, 1915, for valuable services in obtaining and transmitting information to ships' guns and mountain batteries, and subsequently for holding a trench, with about 20 men, for over six days, repulsing several determined attacks.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—*contd.*DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER—contd.

Major Herbert Hart, Wellington Battalion, 17th (Ruahine) Regiment, New Zealand Forces.

On 26th April, 1915, during operations near Gaba Tepe, for distinguished service in rallying men and digging into an important forward position in the face of an extremely severe fire. The country was wooded and difficult, and unreconnoitred, and his force was subject to constant surprise attacks.

Major James Heane, 4th Australian Infantry Battalion (New South Wales).

On 1st May, 1915, during the operations near Gaba Tepe, for displaying conspicuous gallantry in leading his company to the support of a small force which, in an isolated trench, was without means of reinforcement, replenishment, or retreat. He attained his object at a heavy sacrifice.

Major William Owen Mansbridge, 16th Australian Infantry Battalion.

On 25th April, 1915, during operations near Gaba Tepe, for exceptional gallantry and resource during the first assault, and again on the 2nd and 3rd May during an assault on a difficult position.

Major Eugene Joseph O'Neill, F.R.C.S., New Zealand Medical Corps.

On 25th and 26th April, 1915, during operations near Gaba Tepe, for exceptionally good service, and exhibiting initiative and resource in command of a bearer sub-division.

Major Robert Rankine, 14th Australian Infantry Battalion (Victoria).

On the night of 26th-27th April, 1915, during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for gallantly leading an assault resulting in the capture of a most important post, and subsequently for holding that position against repeated attacks for five days without relief.

Major Frederick Waite, New Zealand Engineers, Territorial Force.

On the night of 2nd-3rd May, 1915, during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for gallantry and resource in rallying his men and leading them forward at critical moments.

Captain Edward William Atkinson, 1st Battalion, The Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers.

On 2nd May, 1915, during operations south of Krithia, for gallantly leading a counter-attack, capturing a Turkish trench 300 yards to his front, and for the efficient command of his Battalion, all the senior officers having become casualties.

Captain Arthur Graham Butler, Australian Army Medical Corps (attached 9th Australian Infantry Battalion).

During operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe on 25th April, 1915, and subsequent dates, for conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in attending wounded under heavy fire, continuously displaying courage of a high order.

Captain Arthur Cunliffe Bernard (Critchley-Salmonson, The Royal Munster Fusiliers (attached New Zealand Forces).

During operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe on 25th April, 1915, for great gallantry and resource in command of a small party, and saving a difficult situation. Again, on the night of 2nd-3rd May, he successfully led a small party to an advanced trench under great difficulties.

Captain Guy Westland Geddes, 1st Battalion, The Royal Munster Fusiliers.

On 25th April, 1915, at Sedd-el-Bahr, for gallantly leading his men into lighters and then swimming ashore under heavy fire. He continued doing duty till nightfall, although wounded early in the day.

Captain Richard Haworth, The Lancashire Fusiliers.

On 25th April, 1915, at Sedd-el-Bahr, for gallantly leading 50 men to the wire entanglements of a strongly held redoubt. Although wounded, he refused to be removed until more troops arrived, and continued to command with a bullet through his back.

Captain Cecil Ridings, 1st Battalion, The Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers.

On 28th April, 1915, during operations south of Krithia, for exceptionally gallant and capable leading under difficult conditions, maintaining a forward position in spite of heavy losses at a critical moment, although unsupported on either flank, and being himself severely wounded.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—*contd.*DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER—contd.

Lieutenant Henry Desmond O'Hara, 1st Battalion, The Royal Dublin Fusiliers.

On 25th April, 1915, at Sedd-el-Bahr, took command of his Battalion when all other officers had been killed or wounded. At night, when the enemy broke through the line, he displayed great initiative and resource in organising a successful counter-attack, restoring the line and causing great loss to the enemy.

(Extract from the London Gazette dated 24th July, 1915).

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the undermentioned rewards for gallantry and devotion to duty in the Field:—

To be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order.

Lieutenant-Colonel James Thomas Rankine Wilson, 1st/5th Battalion, The Royal Scots (Lothian Regiment) (Queen's Edinburgh Rifles), Territorial Force.

For conspicuous ability and resource on 19th June, 1915, during operations in the neighbourhood of Krithia, Dardanelles, where he reorganised and carried out the recapture of a Turkish trench from which the troops of another division had been forced back. The success gained was due to Lieutenant-Colonel Wilson's skilful and bold leading and his prompt assumption of responsibility.

Captain Charles Leathley Armitage, 6th Battalion, The Worcestershire Regiment (attached 2nd Battalion).

For conspicuous coolness and gallantry in an assault on the German lines at Richebourg on the night of 15th May, 1915. He led the assault in the face of a heavy rifle and machine gun fire, and, after his assault had been forced back he skilfully withdrew and reorganised the attack behind our breast-works. He also showed conspicuous ability in organising the rescue of the wounded under heavy fire throughout the night.

Captain Alec Walter Saumarez Brock, 2nd Battalion, The Leicestershire Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry, near Neuve Chapelle, on May 1st, 1915, when in command of a company containing 50 per cent. of reinforcements who had not previously been under fire. His trench was heavily bombarded and several casualties occurred, while he himself was knocked down and badly bruised by the explosion of a big shell. It was owing to his coolness and skill in getting his men under cover that the casualties were not much heavier and that his company was ready to receive and repulse an infantry attack made later by the enemy. Captain Brock displayed the highest qualities of a company commander under very trying circumstances.

Captain Harold Brown, 5th Battalion, Alexandra, Princess of Wales's Own (Yorkshire Regiment) Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability on several occasions, notably near Hooge, on the night of June 11th, 1915, when he made a very successful reconnaissance of the German trenches. He remained out close to the German barbed wire for 1½ hours, although fired at several times. Both before and since this occasion Captain Brown has made similar daring and successful reconnaissances.

Captain William Malcolm Lingard Escombe, 20th (County of London) Battalion, The London Regiment (Blackheath and Woolwich) Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry and skill in establishing himself on the crest of the Giverny bluff on May 28th, 1915, under very heavy fire, and from there directing bomb-throwers with great success for an hour. His prompt action not only repelled a hostile attack, but secured fresh ground, which was consolidated.

Captain Lewis Pugh Evans, 1st Battalion, The Black Watch (Royal Highlanders).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on June 16th, 1915, at Hooge, when, after troops had become much mixed up, he continually moved up and down the firing line under heavy fire from 10 a.m. till midnight reorganising Units and bringing back their reports.

Captain Harry Granville Lee-Warner, 9th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during the operations near Rue du Bois, from 9th to 19th May, 1915. Although wounded on the 9th he remained in command of his battery till forced to give in on the 19th, and during this period he was indefatigable in reconnoitring and reporting on the situation. He was twice shelled out of his observation stations, and did excellent work under heavy shell fire.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—*contd.*DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER—Contd.

Captain Maurice Clive Radford, 1st Battalion, Princess Charlotte of Wales's (Royal Berkshire) Regiment).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Cuinchy on the night of 21st June, 1915, when the Germans pumped gas into a mine in which four of our men were on listening post. Under direction of Captain Radford, who displayed great gallantry and resource, the efforts of two N.C.O.'s and two men, who bravely went down the mine, were successful in getting the men out. At about 4.15 a.m. on 22nd June, following their gas attack, the Germans exploded a mine in front of our own, in which were a serjeant and about eight of our men, but owing to the gallant efforts of Captain Radford, another officer and a few men, who repeatedly went down among the fumes, all the men were rescued, though the rescuers suffered considerably.

Captain Charles Douglas Roe, 1st/4th Gurkha Rifles.

For conspicuous gallantry and resource near the Bois de Blez on 2nd and 4th July, 1915, when reconnoitring the enemy's positions by day. He collected information of great value, and, on one occasion, though opposed by overwhelming numbers, he kept them at bay by bombs and rifle fire, and brought back his party with only one wounded after inflicting considerable loss on the enemy.

Captain James Morison Scott, 7th Battalion, Princess Louise's (Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders), Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry and resource on many occasions. He was the only officer left with his Battalion at the end of the day on 24th May, 1915, near Wiertje, where his conduct, when in charge of machine guns, was marked by the highest ability and bravery.

Captain Charles Herbert Mansfield Sturges, 1st Siege Battery, Royal Garrison Artillery.

For conspicuous gallantry and general good work as an observing officer throughout the campaign, notably during the attack on Givenchy on March 19th, 1915, the attack at the Rue du Bois on May 9th, and during attacks on May 15th and 16th. During these last attacks he was shelled out of two houses in succession, but proceeded to a third, where, although blown down the ladder by the force of a shell, he still continued to observe and correct the fire of his battery.

Captain Austin Bradford Woodgate, 3rd Battalion, The King's Own (Royal Lancaster Regiment) (attached 1st Battalion).

For conspicuous gallantry on 24th May, 1915, when, after the Germans had captured the trenches held by the Battalion on his right, he with another officer and three men held up the enemy from working along the trench. Although the enemy was in force and with an unlimited supply of hand grenades, he not only held them up, but succeeded under heavy shell fire in capturing two traverses and a German flag which had been put up to mark their position.

Captain Woodgate also rendered invaluable service throughout the winter, especially during the underground fight in the mine gallery at Le Toquet.

MILITARY CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 3rd July, 1915.)

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Military Cross on the undermentioned Officers and Warrant Officer in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force:—

Captain Ralph Leycester McCall, 2nd Battalion, The Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders.

At Hooge, on the 11th May, 1915, during a violent attack, his company and the company on his right were forced to evacuate their trenches owing to heavy shelling and gas.

Captain McCall, together with a junior Officer, rallied the men and made three counter attacks driving the enemy out of the trenches at the point of the bayonet. He then, although wounded, successfully repulsed all further attacks.

During this period his left flank was entirely unprotected.

Captain Stewart Grahame Menzies, D.S.O., 2nd Life Guards.

Near Ypres, on 13th May, 1915, after his Commanding Officer had been wounded, displayed conspicuous ability, coolness and resource in controlling the action of his regiment and in rallying the men.

Captain Guy Franklin Reynolds, 9th (Queen's Royal) Lancers.

For splendid work on May 24th, 1915, near Hooge. When the Headquarters of the 9th Lancers were gassed he constantly brought reports from the trenches under very heavy fire, and helped to reorganise the defence of the left section. Also when the enemy attempted to enter Louve Wood he was invaluable in helping to reorganise the defence.

He set the finest possible example of calmness, coolness and courage, although suffering from gas and twice slightly wounded.

Captain Edward Archibald Ruggles Brise, Essex Yeomanry, Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability near Ypres on 13th May, 1915, when he held a position gained in a counter-attack, although entirely isolated, until ordered to withdraw at night.

He had only 50 men under his command.

Captain Charles Joseph Leicester Stanhope, 15th (The King's) Hussars.

For gallant conduct and skilful handling of his squadron near Hooge on 24th May, 1915, with most valuable results. His squadron having been badly gassed he took forward the remnants, together with stragglers he collected, and, on his own initiative, under very heavy shell fire, reinforced the front line.

He remained in action all day, and when the line on his left gave way he doubled back his flank with great skill and continued with the utmost gallantry to hold the position.

Lieutenant Vyvian Augustine Cairns Clery, 4th Signal Company, Royal Engineers.

For great gallantry in personally superintending the laying of the telephone lines every night over a large area of country which was continually shelled. It was due to his personal exertions and example during the period of 27th April to 3rd May, 1915, that the communications with the Brigade were kept up so well.

Lieutenant Leslie Stuart Clinton, 23rd (County of London) Battalion, The London Regiment Territorial Force.

At Glyenchy, on 25th and 26th May, 1915, showed extreme gallantry in working his machine guns under very heavy fire in the captured German trench. After being wounded in the leg he returned to the trench after the wound had been dressed, and carried out his gun himself when it was ordered to be withdrawn. In doing this he was again wounded.

Lieutenant Alexander Edward Drysdale, 47 Sikhs, Indian Army.

Near Ypres, on 26th April, 1915, showed conspicuous gallantry in the attack. When all senior Officers became casualties he continued to lead the regiment to within seventy yards of the enemy's trenches, and there held on. His conduct throughout the day and night was marked by great coolness and resource.

Lieutenant James Archibald Garton, North Somerset Yeomanry, Territorial Force.

Near Ypres, on 13th May, 1915, showed great coolness and daring. Held his position throughout the day notwithstanding that his trenches had been blown in, and inspired all ranks by his behaviour. After all senior Officers were killed or wounded he assumed command of the Regiment, displaying great judgment and initiative throughout.

Temporary Lieutenant John Marchbank Gillispie, M.B., Royal Army Medical Corps.

On 24th and 25th May, 1915, at Ypres, he displayed conspicuous gallantry in ministering to the wounded under fire. He traversed the ground many times while under heavy shell and rifle fire, and dressed the wounded in the open. On the night of the 25th May he went up to a wood near Bellegarde Farm and searched for wounded men close up to the German trenches.

In every action his gallantry has been conspicuous.

Lieutenant George Stuart Henderson, 1st Battalion, The Manchester Regiment.
Near Ypres on 26th April, 1915, after his Company Commander had been wounded, he led his company up to within 70 yards of the enemy's trenches with great gallantry and determination, and held on through several hours of daylight, and finally established himself there. Throughout the operations he set a fine example, after most of the senior Officers had become casualties.

Lieutenant William Murray Hutchison, 3rd (attached 1st) Battalion, The King's (Liverpool Regiment).

During the action on 16th May, 1915, near Rue du Bois, at 3 p.m., in response to calls for ammunition, he led a party of men across the open under a very heavy machine gun fire, and succeeded in getting through with most of his men. The last part of the journey had to be done on hands and knees.

On the 18th May he organised and conducted an attack and led the bombing party, and by his work forced the surrender of 200 Germans and caused 200 more to retreat, leaving their arms and equipment.

Lieutenant Noel Mackintosh Stuart Irwin, 2nd Battalion, The Essex Regiment.

On 2nd May, 1915, east of Ypres, when in reserve trenches with his company, seeing that the men in the front trenches were overcome by gas and were retiring, with great initiative and courage and under heavy fire, he at once advanced with his company and seized the front trenches before the Germans could occupy them, and drove back the enemy's attack.

On 13th May in the counter-attack he handled his company with great skill and determination.

Lieutenant William Spurrett Fielding Johnson, Leicestershire Yeomanry, Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry near Ypres on 13th May, 1915. Was with Major Martin, and continued the action until the squadron was reduced to 13 men. Afterwards displayed great coolness in withdrawing to a flank and joining a cavalry brigade.

Lieutenant Kenneth Douglas Lorne MacLaine of Lochbuie, 15th (The King's) Hussars (Special Reserve).

Near Ypres, for good work in command of his squadron under trying circumstances on 13th May, 1915. For gallant and skilful leading of a patrol on 14th May, by which he gained information of great value. He volunteered to lead this patrol, and pushed forward by day, a mile in front of our line, and returned with a good report as to the actual line then held by the enemy.

For coolness, determination and skill in handling his squadron under difficult circumstances near Hooze on 24th May, 1915. He had been ordered up with his squadron to reinforce the left of another cavalry regiment, when the line the north of the Menin Road gave way and the situation became critical. Lieutenant MacLaine showed great skill in taking up a new position facing north and west to meet the new situation, and maintained his position under most critical circumstances until relieved at 2.15 the next morning.

His action contributed greatly towards maintaining intact the line south of the road.

Temporary Lieutenant John Hart McNichol, M.B., Royal Army Medical Corps.

On the 24th and 25th May, 1915, at Ypres, with untiring energy and gallantry attended to wounded men under heavy rifle and shell fire, saving the lives of many men.

On the night of 25th May he searched a wood near Bellegarde for the wounded, attended to them, and had them brought in. This wood was close up to the German trenches.

He has shown the greatest courage in attending to the wounded in ac

Lieutenant Desbrisay Blundell Mein, 55th Coke's Rifles (Frontier Force), Indian Army.

Near Ypres, during operations from 24th April to 4th May, 1915, he displayed the greatest ability and coolness in bringing up rations and ammunition for the regiment under heavy shell fire. When only two Officers were left with the regiment he came up from behind and took part in the second attack on the 27th May.

He divided his time between assisting in the front line, where he was of the greatest help, and going back through Ypres under heavy shell fire to arrange for rations, &c.

Lieutenant Austin Timaus Miller, 1st Battalion, The Sherwood Foresters (Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment).

When, owing to high explosive shells falling for fourteen hours amongst the battalion, a retirement began, he immediately ran along the line under heavy fire, stopped the retirement, and by his coolness and personal example saved the situation.

Lieutenant Herbert Francis Otway, The Prince of Wales's Leinster Regiment (Royal Canadians), attached Army Cyclist Corps.

During the recent fighting to the east of Ypres in April and May, 1915, he showed conspicuous ability in making important reconnaissances under heavy shell fire. His reconnaissances were of the greatest value to the Divisional Commander at Potijze, and were always carried out at considerable risk.

Lieutenant Orfeur Kilvington Parker, 2nd Battalion, The Northamptonshire Regiment.

On 9th May, 1915, during the operations near Rouges Bancs, with conspicuous gallantry he led his company to the assault under an extremely heavy enfilade fire, and when nearly all his company had become casualties he collected 20 men and seized a portion of the enemy's trench and held it for over three hours. He was driven out by the enemy and at once occupied a shell crater just outside the enemy's parapet, although heavily bombed, and held out till dark, when he got back with five men. Previous to the commencement of operations he carried out a daring reconnaissance across the line of attack, and rendered a very accurate and useful report.

Lieutenant Gerald Waldon Browne Tarleton, 2nd Battalion, The Royal Dublin Fusiliers.

On the 24th May, 1915, near Shell Trap Farm, north of Wieltje, his company was in the advanced trenches. Two orderlies who had been sent back to Battalion Headquarters with a message were wounded and unable to get through. Lieutenant Tarleton had also been wounded and was suffering from the effects of gas, but volunteered to take back the message, and, as he was not fit to command his platoon owing to his wounds, his Company Commander allowed him to try. He managed to crawl back, though he was hit again on the way, and on arrival he was unable to speak owing to his wounds and exhaustion, but managed to deliver his message in writing.

Second Lieutenant (temporary Lieutenant) Charles William Trevelyan 5th (City of London) Battalion, The London Regiment (London Rifle Brigade), Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability on 18th May, 1915, when in charge of a trench to the east of Ypres.

The troops on his right having been compelled to fall back owing to the destruction of their trench, Lieutenant Trevelyan with great skill reorganised the defence of his position and, although unsupported, succeeded in maintaining the safety of our line at a very critical time.

Lieutenant Nigel Kennedy Worthington, 3rd (Prince of Wales's) Dragoon Guards (Special Reserve).

Near Ypres, on the 12th May, 1915, showed great coolness and daring. He took over a new line of trenches just before dark, and to get round the line in daylight he had to cross several open and fire-swept zones. On 13th May, at great risk, he came back several times to report.

Second Lieutenant James Ball, 3rd Battalion, The Royal Fusiliers (City of London Regiment).

Did specially good work on 25th April, 1915, near Ypres, in holding on to the left trench, and occupying a portion of the trenches evacuated by other troops. He was the only Officer left alive in his trench, and took effective command of the situation.

Second Lieutenant Alfred Cyril Curtis, Unattached List, Indian Army (attached 1st Battalion, The Bedfordshire Regiment).

Between 1st and 7th May, 1915, was in the trenches near "Hill 60," and was twice subjected to attacks by asphyxiating gas. After his senior Officer was wounded he took charge of the trenches and, in spite of sickness, held on to No. 47 trench, though the enemy got round his right flank and enfiladed him. He withstood all efforts of the enemy to work down the trench and bomb the garrison out, and organized frequent counter-attacks with hand grenades. No. 47 trench was also subjected to artillery fire from various directions, which caused considerable loss, and during the 6th May was cut off from the remainder of the line and unable to obtain rations or water. The casualties in this trench were very heavy, and the strain intense.

Second Lieutenant (temporary Lieutenant) William Edward Dickson, 1st London Divisional Train (attached 28th Army Service Corps, Territorial Force).

Displayed gallantry in taking up a load of explosives to Zonnebeke under a very heavy shell fire on the night of 25th-26th April, 1915, within 1,200 yards of the fire trenches.

Second Lieutenant Bernard Gibbs, 6th (attached 1st) Battalion, The Rifle Brigade (The Prince Consort's Own).

For the cool and capable way in which he commanded the Canadian Dressing Station and outbuildings while the Germans sapped to within 40 yards of it. He opened enfilade fire on a considerable force attacking his left, bringing them to a standstill. Later he ran into the open and threw hand grenades at the German sapping party, compelling them to retire.

Second Lieutenant William Edmund Gray, 2nd Battalion, The Rifle Brigade (The Prince Consort's Own).

For leading reinforcements forward to the captured trench on 9th May, 1915, near Rouges Bancs under heavy flanking rifle and machine gun fire. Only about 25 per cent. of his party reached their destination, the remainder being killed or wounded.

He was of the greatest assistance to his Commanding Officer in making good the captured position, using a captured German machine gun with great effect.

This Officer was the last to retire when the enemy's trench had to be abandoned, and he kept up a continuous machine gun fire until the enemy were within a few yards from the position.

Second Lieutenant Henry Porter Wolsley Hinton, 59th Field Company, Royal Engineers.

At Ypres, on May 8th, 1915, for coolness and gallantry in reconnoitring a barricade across our fire trench (No. 40), and laying and firing a charge against it. The enemy were only 20 yards away behind a second barricade, and this Officer was knocked down by a German bomb while assisting to lay the charge, but continued working. He has shown coolness under fire, and carried out dangerous work on many occasions during the winter trench warfare.

Temporary Second Lieutenant Arthur Ladenburg, Intelligence Corps.

Has carried out a series of reconnaissances of a highly dangerous nature, and succeeded in obtaining valuable information. On the night of 16th-17th June, 1915, and on several previous occasions he crawled out to the German wire entanglements in the neighbourhood of Touquet to listen to the enemy's conversation in order to locate the districts from which the various Units were drawn. On these occasions he has had to lie out the greater part of the night, often under heavy fire.

Second Lieutenant Roger C. Leach, Reserve of Officers, attached 1st Battalion, The King's Own (Royal Lancaster Regiment).

On the 24th May, 1915, when the enemy captured the trenches of the regiment on the right of the Royal Lancaster Regiment, near Shell Trap Farm, north of Wietje, it was entirely due to the individual efforts of Second Lieutenant Leach and a few men that the enemy were prevented from working along their trench, and so making the retention of the remainder of the position possible. The position was a very difficult one, the enemy were in force, they appeared to have an unlimited supply of hand grenades, and this part of the trench was being heavily shelled and the parapet was breached in several places, exposing anyone passing to hostile fire from the German trench in front. In spite of these difficulties and the inevitable delay in collecting sufficient hand grenades, Second Lieutenant Leach, his Captain, and a few men succeeded in not only stopping the Germans, but in recapturing two traverses and capturing a German flag, which they had put up to mark their position.

MILITARY CROSS—contd.

Second Lieutenant Leach fought till midnight, when he was badly wounded in the legs by a hand grenade.

This Officer rendered invaluable service throughout the winter, especially during the underground fight in the mine gallery at Le Touquet.

Second Lieutenant Henry Grovo Morton Mansel-Pleydell, 3rd (attached 1st) Battalion, The Dorsetshire Regiment.

Showed gallantry and ability on " Hill 60," near Ypres, on 5th May, 1915. Although wounded early in the attack, he commanded his platoon in the trenches (which had been vacated by the Unit holding them in the morning) with great skill and coolness, and later took charge of the whole of his company after his Captain had been wounded.

It was largely due to him that a considerable length of trench, which had been occupied by the enemy, was gradually regained.

Second Lieutenant John Millar, 1st Battalion, The Black Watch (Royal Highlanders).

At Rue du Bois, on 9th May, 1915, he established flag communication under intense fire with our signallers on the German parapet, and did much gallant and invaluable work. His previous reconnaissances by night close to the German trenches were of the greatest assistance.

On the 8th and 9th May he loosened all the enemy's wire in front of our trench.

Second Lieutenant John Neill, 1st Battalion, Princess Louise's (Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders).

Has done continuous good work since 19th December, 1914, and especially on the 11th May, 1915, near Hooge, when his coolness and skill in the handling of his men were most marked. He also showed great gallantry in leading a counter-attack, in the course of which he was severely wounded. He collected and took forward about 100 men who were falling back in some disorder, at a very critical moment.

Second Lieutenant Wilfred Austin Salt, Special Reserve, attached 1st Battalion, The East Lancashire Regiment.

East of Ypres, on 9th May, 1915, he held his breastwork against bomb throwers in a very gallant way. Suddenly he found he was being enveloped from Shell Trap Farm, into which the Germans were penetrating; he threw back half his men to face the farm, and over a traverse he fired at the enemy at the close range of 30 yards. He shot one German, and was then wounded in the head and had two other bullet holes through his cap. A German officer shouted to him to surrender, but for answer he shot him through the head.

Second Lieutenant Salt continued to command his post in spite of his wound until a lull in the attack, when he was ordered by his senior to hand over his command and go to the dressing station.

Second Lieutenant Henry Marrant Stanford, 32nd Battery Royal Field Artillery.

For consistently gallant conduct both at Neuve Chapelle and again, on 9th May, 1915, during operations near Rouges Bancs, in keeping up communication by mending telephone wires under heavy fire. He has done excellent work as Observing Officer for the last six months, and the accuracy of the wire-cutting by the 32nd Battery, Royal Field Artillery, on 9th May, was due to his precise observations.

Second Lieutenant William Watson, 2nd Battalion, The Northumberland Fusiliers.

At Ypres on 8th May, 1915. The Captain commanding " A " Company, 2nd Northumberland Fusiliers, was killed, and the whole of No. 4 Platoon killed or wounded. Second Lieutenant Watson, with the three remaining platoons of the company, continued to hold the trench, in spite of very heavy fire, both frontal and enfilade. Owing to the other three companies of the battalion being either casualties or captured, he retired his three platoons to the reserve line, but finding no room there returned to his original trench, and held it until relieved the following morning.

Assistant Surgeon Edwin Bunkall Messinier, Indian Subordinate Medical Department.

For consistent good work, gallant conduct and devotion to duty, when " X " Battery, Royal Horse Artillery, was in action on 9th and 10th May, 1915. He went under shell fire to assist the wounded and, although twice wounded, continued to perform his duties after having his wounds dressed.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—contd.
MILITARY CROSS—contd.

With reference to the notification in the London Gazette of the 3rd June, 1915, the acts of gallantry and distinguished services at the Dardanelles for which the rewards of the Military Cross were granted by His Majesty the KING, are as follows:—

Awarded the Military Cross.

Captain Herbert Charles Crozier, 1st Battalion, The Royal Dublin Fusiliers.

On 26th April, 1915, at Sedd-el-Bahr, for exceptional bravery in leading the way in the assault, encouraging the men by example. The success of the attack was largely due to him, and he was the first to lead when clearing the streets and houses.

Captain Horace Augustus Kirby, Royal Artillery (26th Jacob's Mountain Battery).

On 25th April, 1915, during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for exceptional gallantry in continuing to conduct the withdrawal of his battery from a forward position, although wounded in the head by a shrapnel shot. This he continued to do until he fainted from the loss of blood. He voluntarily returned to duty the next day.

Captain Jasper Kenneth Gordon Magee, 4th Australian Infantry Battalion (New South Wales).

On 25th April, 1915, and subsequent dates, during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for gallantry in leading his men, and exhibiting sound judgment and ability on several occasions, under a constant and harassing fire.

Captain Arthur Guy Leslie Pepys, 1st Battalion, The Essex Regiment.

From 25th to 28th April, 1915, during landing operations, for conspicuous good work; and again on 1st May, during operations south of Krithia, for gallantly capturing trenches held by the enemy and retaining possession of them.

Captain Clifford Russell Richardson, 2nd Australian Infantry Battalion (New South Wales).

On 28th April, 1915, during operations near Gaba Tepe, for displaying great coolness and courage, and leading a charge against superior numbers under a heavy cross fire resulting in the flight of the enemy in disorder.

Captain James William Albert Simpson, 13th Australian Infantry Battalion (New South Wales).

On 2nd May, 1915, during an attack in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for showing conspicuous bravery and skill in directing the battalion through unrecognised scrub. He was conspicuously active in consolidating the position gained under heavy fire.

Captain Jesse Alfred Wallingford, New Zealand Staff Corps.

On 25th and 26th April, 1915, during operations near Gaba Tepe, for exceptionally good services with the New Zealand Brigade machine-gun and sharpshooters, and for conspicuous coolness and resource on several critical occasions.

Lieutenant Walter Donald Bush, The Worcestershire Regiment.

On 29th April, 1915, during operations south of Krithia, showed great gallantry in leading his platoon in two charges, and gave great encouragement to the troops in the advance.

Lieutenant Alfred Plumley Derham, 5th Australian Infantry Battalion (Victoria).

On 25th April, 1915, and subsequently during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for acting with great bravery and ability, and continuing to do duty until 30th April, although shot through the thigh on 25th April.

Lieutenant Charles Fortescue, 9th Australian Infantry Battalion (Queensland).

From 25th to 29th April, 1915, during operations near Gaba Tepe, for conspicuous gallantry. He twice led charges against the enemy, and rendered good service in collecting reinforcements and organising stragglers.

Lieutenant Reginald George Legge, 13th Australian Infantry Battalion (New South Wales).

On 1st and 2nd May, 1915, during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for conspicuous ability and courage in the successful handling of his machine-gun section. On several occasions he inflicted severe losses on the enemy, and was himself severely wounded in the neck.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—*contd.*MILITARY CROSS—contd.

Lieutenant Lionel Bassett Lipscombe Seckham, 1st Battalion, The Lancashire Fusiliers.

On 25th April, 1915, during the first landing operations at Cape Helles, for great gallantry in leading and continuing the attack when he himself was wounded and all but ten of his men killed or wounded.

Lieutenant Alfred John Shout, 1st Australian Infantry Battalion (New South Wales).

On 27th April, 1915, during operations near Gaba Tepe, for showing conspicuous courage and ability in organising and leading his men in a thick, bushy country, under very heavy fire. He frequently had to expose himself to locate the enemy, and led a bayonet charge at a critical moment.

Second Lieutenant (temporary Lieutenant) George Geoffrey Needham, 1st Battalion, The Lancashire Fusiliers.

On 28th April, 1915, during operations south of Krithia, for acting with great dash and gallantry during the attack on Krithia.

No. 8/1048 Serjeant-Major A. W. Porteous, 10th (North Otago) Regiment, New Zealand Forces.

On 26th April, 1915, during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for gallantry in action, and again on the night of 2nd-3rd May, for exceptional bravery and devotion to duty. All the officers of his company being killed or wounded, he organised and led the company, continually exposing himself for four hours, and showing fine military spirit and powers of leadership.

No. 96 Serjeant-Major D. Smith, 5th Battalion, 2nd Australian Brigade.

On 8th May, 1915, during operations south of Krithia, for conspicuous gallantry and good services in rallying and leading men forward to the attack. Although wounded in both arms, he continued to direct his men, setting a valuable example of devotion to duty.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 24th July, 1915.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the undermentioned rewards for gallantry and devotion to duty in the Field:—

Awarded the Military Cross.

Captain Herbert Davies, 1st/8th Battalion, The Royal Warwickshire Regiment, Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry and resource on many occasions when on patrol duty in front of the trenches, notably on the night of 20th-21st June, 1915, when he carried out a very daring reconnaissance close to the River Douve. From his knowledge of German he obtained very valuable information from the enemy's conversation after passing over ground lit by flares and constantly swept by machine-gun fire.

Lieutenant Arthur Brooks Close-Brooks, 3rd Battalion, The Manchester Regiment (attached 2nd Battalion).

For conspicuous gallantry at Ypres on 10th June, 1915, in attempting to rescue a Non-commissioned Officer belonging to his regiment. The Non-commissioned Officer was lying 35 yards in front of the enemy's trench, but Lieutenant Close-Brooks crawled out to him in broad daylight. When he found that he was already dead he attached a cord to his body, which was recovered.

Lieutenant Armar Valentine Lowry Corry, 2nd Battalion, Grenadier Guards.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability in the attack at Rue du Bois on 18th May, 1915. When his Company Commander was killed and all the other Officers wounded he reorganised and commanded the Company with great coolness. He has also done good work with patrols near Givinchy.

Lieutenant Thomas Barrie Erskine, 4th Battalion, Princess Louise's (Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders), attached 1st Battalion, The Gordon Highlanders.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability. Between 12th and 20th May, 1915, he obtained definite information of the enemy's dispositions near "Hill 60" by personal reconnaissance by day and night, and, after locating the enemy's nearest occupied trench from a distance of 10 to 20 yards, he checked their activities by incessantly bombing their working parties. His work was marked by equal boldness and judgment.

He also has shown since conspicuous energy and skill in the construction of defences in Hooge Village.

Lieutenant William Kelsey Fry, Royal Army Medical Corps.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Festubert between 16th and 18th May, 1915, while carrying out his work under heavy fire. He was himself wounded while attending to others.

Lieutenant Henry Malkin Hance, Indian Army, Reserve of Officers, attached 176th (Mining) Company, Royal Engineers.

For excellent work and great determination in the preparation of a mine which was successfully sprung at Duck's Bill (near Givenchy) on 15th June, 1915. The success of the mine was largely due to Lieutenant Hance's personal efforts and his fine example under very difficult circumstances.

Lieutenant Maurice Luby, 2nd Field Company, Royal Engineers.

For conspicuous ability and coolness between 26th April and 6th May, 1915, while superintending by night the construction of an advanced trench within from 100 to 200 yards of the enemy. His working party was constantly subjected to sniping, and occasionally to machine gun fire, and it was mainly owing to his coolness and careful instructions that it was possible to complete the work.

Lieutenant Eric Grant Miles, The King's Own Scottish Borderers (attached 5th Signal Company, Royal Engineers).

For conspicuous gallantry. During a critical period in the attack on "Hill 60" and neighbouring trenches on May 1st, 1915, he succeeded in mending the telephone wire along the railway cutting under such heavy shell fire that messengers were unable to get through.

Lieutenant Denys Max Thomson Morland, 3rd London Field Company, Royal Engineers, Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry on 25 May, 1915, at Givenchy, when he accompanied a London battalion in an assault on the German trenches, and, finding the entrance of a mine, explored it alone, making prisoners of 18 Germans who were hiding in it. Throughout the night he displayed great energy and bravery in endeavouring to consolidate the newly-won position.

Lieutenant David James Sheires Stephen, M.D., Royal Army Medical Corps.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in attending to the wounded under heavy shell fire on several occasions, notably on the night of 23rd April and on the 8th May, 1915.

He has usually performed his gallant work single-handed, and by his cheerfulness and pluck has encouraged all around him.

Lieutenant Lord Allstair St. Clair Sutherland-Leveson-Gower, Royal Horse Guards.

For conspicuous gallantry near Ypres on 13th May, 1915, when he led up his men to the enemy's trench, and, although wounded, continued to direct their fire and movements.

Lieutenant Oscar Taunton, 1st East Lancashire Field Company, Royal Engineers, Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry on June 4th, 1915, during operations S. of Krithia, Dardanelles, when he held back the enemy from advancing along a trench on the left flank, which was much exposed. By means of bombs and hand grenades he personally held his position for over two hours. He picked up several of the enemy's bombs and threw them back before they exploded.

Second Lieutenant John Hugh Vaudrey Barker-Mill, 1st Battalion The Duke of Edinburgh's (Wiltshire Regiment).

For conspicuous gallantry on 16th June, 15, at Hooge, when, after leading an assault with great dash, he succeeded in taking some 300 yards of the enemy's trench, capturing many prisoners and two machine guns. Although wounded he remained with his company consolidating the position gained.

Second Lieutenant Edward William Bryan, 1st Battalion, The Welsh Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on 7th and 8th of May, 1915. His company dug a trench during the night of the 7th, and held it all next day under such heavy shell that the trench became obliterated, and two machine guns were buried. He not only kept his company in hand and cheerful, but rendered assistance to another regiment, and on being relieved, refused to quit his position till the machine guns, one of which was 12 feet underground, were dug out. This work was done under heavy fire.

Second Lieutenant Eric Krabbe Colbourne, 3rd Battalion, Princess Charlotte of Wales's (Royal Berkshire Regiment) (attached 1st Battalion).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Culnchy on the early morning of 22nd June, 1915. The Germans, following a gas attack, exploded a mine in front of one of our own, in which was a sergeant and about eight of our men, but, owing to the gallant efforts of Second Lieutenant Colbourne, another officer and a few men, who repeatedly went down among the fumes, all the men were rescued, although the rescuers suffered considerably.

Second Lieutenant Herbert Cutbush, 47th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

For conspicuous devotion to duty at Givenchy on 24th and 25th May, 1915, when our front trenches were heavily shelled and many casualties had occurred. On both days he rendered great assistance in rallying the infantry, in re-establishing the front line of trenches, and in tending and getting away the wounded.

Second Lieutenant Carlton Griffith Davies, 24th (County of London) Battalion, The London Regiment (The Queen's) Territorial Force.

For excellent work on 25th and 26th May, 1915, at Givenchy, in leading bombers and himself throwing bombs up a trench, thereby keeping the enemy's bombers at bay at a critical moment. Subsequently he took a leading part in capturing 20 Germans in a mine.

Second Lieutenant Leonard Alsager Elgood, 1st/4th (Angus and Dundee) Battalion, The Black Watch (Royal Highlanders) Territorial Force.

For excellent work when in charge of a working party clearing away wire previous to the attack on May 9th, 1915, near Rouges Bancs. For four nights his party worked in spite of machine gun and rifle fire, and in the last night continued to work all night although suffering heavy casualties.

Second Lieutenant Oliver Dwight Filley, Royal Flying Corps (Special Reserve).

For conspicuous gallantry on July 6th, 1915, when he and his observer were co-operating with our artillery. On two occasions, although they were not in a special fighting machine, they attacked German aeroplanes and, after driving them away, resumed their artillery work. Finally two hostile aeroplanes came up simultaneously, and, although they had only five rounds of ammunition left, they at once proceeded to attack. In this encounter the observer was killed in the act of firing, and the engine damaged, but Second Lieutenant Filley landed safely in our lines.

Second Lieutenant Richard Percival Gatehouse, 24th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

For conspicuous gallantry and skill as forward observing officer in the attack on Bellewaarde trenches on 16th June, 1915. He succeeded at great personal risk in obtaining and getting back valuable information to his battery and to the infantry battalion with which he was working. When his wires were cut and his signallers wounded or away with messages, he himself personally took back information, thus enabling fire to be brought on objectives as they presented themselves.

Second Lieutenant Geoffrey Malcolm Gatherne-Hardy, 1st/4th Battalion, Princess Charlotte of Wales's (Royal Berkshire Regiment), Territorial Force.

For excellent reconnaissance work along the German front, whereby much very valuable information has been obtained, notably on 15th June, 1915, when, with a lance-corporal, he crawled out by day and brought back most useful information regarding the German lines.

Second Lieutenant Edward Longsdon Jerwood, 1st Battalion, Princess Charlotte of Wales's (Royal Berkshire Regiment).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during an attack on the enemy's trenches south of Richebourg L'Avoue on the night of May 15th, 1915, when in charge of machine guns. He established a machine gun in position in the second captured German trench under rifle and machine gun fire, and also recovered a machine gun that had been lost between the first and second German trenches.

On 17th May he gallantly led a section which established two machine guns in the firing line under shell fire, and set a fine example to the men under his command.

Second Lieutenant Charles Claude Edmonstoune Manson, Indian Army, Reserve of Officers, attached 1st-4th Gurkha Rifles.

For conspicuous gallantry and coolness on reconnaissance duty by day near Bois de Biez, when assistant to another Officer on 2nd and 4th July, 1915. By his prompt action on one occasion he enabled his patrol to retire without loss after acquiring very valuable information.

Second Lieutenant Lawrence William McArthur, Honourable Artillery Company, Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry on June 16th, 1915, at Hooge. When our troops were forced to retire from the 3rd line of German trenches he rallied part of the retiring troops and re-occupied and held the vacated trench under heavy fire until he was himself forced later to withdraw owing to retirements on his flanks. He was severely wounded on this occasion.

Second Lieutenant Hillgrove McCormick, 1st Battalion, The Prince of Wales's Leinster Regiment (Royal Canadians) (formerly Captain 3rd Battalion).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. During the second battle of Ypres, under heavy fire, and when himself suffering from the effects of gas, he personally assisted in the removal of the wounded, and materially helped to repulse an attack by moving single-handed his machine gun from a damaged emplacement and mounting it elsewhere.

Also at Le Toquet, during the nights of 30th and 31st May, 1915, he made a gallant and very useful reconnaissance in front of our trenches.

Second Lieutenant John Brown Savage, 1st Battalion, The Royal Welsh Fusiliers.

For conspicuous gallantry at Festubert, on 16 May, 1915, when, as Acting Adjutant of his battalion, he displayed the greatest bravery in cheering his men forward although severely wounded near the German parapet. At Neuve Chapelle also he displayed marked ability and courage.

Second Lieutenant Hugh Urquhart Scrutton, 1st Battalion, The Northumberland Fusiliers.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Hooge on 16th June, 1915. He led his platoon with great dash under heavy fire against the enemy's line, and later, though wounded in the head, continued to direct the work of a bombing party. Although again wounded in the head, knocked down and rendered deaf, he returned to his trench after his wounds had been bound up, and remained at his post till dark.

Second Lieutenant Carleton Stuart Searle, Unatt'd. List, Indian Army, attached 1st Battalion, Princess Charlotte of Wales's (Royal Berkshire Regiment).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on several occasions, notably on the night of 15th May, 1915, near Richebourg L'Avoue, when, although wounded, he took over command of his company and remained at his post all night and all the next day consolidating a captured trench. He has also displayed great coolness and skill in handling patrols, especially at Cuinchy on the night of 27th April.

Second Lieutenant Francis Arthur Sutton, Royal Engineers.

For conspicuous gallantry during operations west of Krithia, Dardanelles, on 22nd May, 1915, when attached to the Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers. During a counter-attack, which he led, he picked up and threw back into the enemy's trenches, at great personal risk, a number of bombs, thereby probably saving many lives. He threw six bombs, and the seventh exploded in his hand.

Second Lieutenant Alfred Marshall Thom, 1st Battalion, The Gordon Highlanders.

For excellent reconnaissance work on many occasions, notably between May 12th and 20th, 1915, north of "Hill 60," between May 26th and June 8th, in front of Hooge, and also between 14th and 16th June, near Hooge. He has since been severely wounded.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—*contd.*MILITARY CROSS—contd.

Second Lieutenant Thomas Wallace, 3rd Battalion, The Border Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry on the night of June 10th-11th, during operations S.W. of Kiritlia, Dardanelles, when he volunteered to lead a party to clear the enemy out of a trench in which they were constructing a sap. He advanced under heavy fire, and rushed the trench at the head of his men, bayoneting some and driving the remainder away. He afterwards led his men down a communication trench, showing great coolness, and remained there until the enemy evacuated it. The success of this enterprise was mainly due to his personal bravery and gallant leading.

Second Lieutenant (temporary Lieutenant) Neville West, 2nd Battalion, Princess Charlotte of Wales's (Royal Berkshire Regiment.)

For conspicuous gallantry on the 9th May, 1915, near Rouges Bancs. When the leading line of his battalion was unable to advance, all the Officers having been shot, he rushed forward and attempted to lead the men on. He was almost immediately shot down, but picking himself up, he went forward again till he was hit a second time.

Second Lieutenant (temporary Lieutenant) Ernest Hamilton Whitfeld, 2nd Battalion, The Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry.

For conspicuous gallantry on 16th May, 1915, at Richebourg L'Avoue, when, with a small party, he entered the German trenches, and, after being wounded, attacked a detachment still working a machine gun, killing seven men, taking three prisoners, and capturing the gun.

AMENDMENTS.

In line 41, column 1, page 6536 of the London Gazette, dated 3 July 1915, the words "Blackheath and Woolwich" to be deleted. (Gaz. 7 July.)

The announcements of the award of the Military Cross to the Reverend William Keatinge, 1st Class Chaplain to the Forces, on page 6127 of the London Gazette, dated 23rd June, 1915, and to Second Lieutenant J. H. Musson, 2nd Battalion, Royal West Surrey Regiment, on page 6121 of the same Gazette, are hereby cancelled. (Gaz. 23 July.)

The correct description of the Officer whose name appears on line 19 in the list of awards of the Military Cross, page 6119, column 2, of the London Gazette, dated 23rd June, 1915, is as follows. (Gaz. 23 July):—

Lieutenant J. L. H. Turner, Royal New Zealand Artillery, attached 40th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

DISTINGUISHED CONDUCT MEDAL.

Extract from the London Gazette, dated 3rd July, 1915.

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Conduct Medal to the undermentioned Warrant Officers for acts of gallantry and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Mediterranean Expeditionary Force at the Dardanelles.

These names were announced in the London Gazette of 3rd June, 1915, page 5332 :—

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
94	Staff Serjeant-Major	Corbett, M. E. E. ..	15th Australian Infantry Battalion (Queensland)	On 3rd May, 1915, during operations near Kaba Tepe, for exceptional gallantry in serving his machine-gun after he had been wounded, until it was put out of action, and again for rallying men and leading them to a second attack, retrieving a difficult situation.
*	*	*	*	* * *
4827	Company Serjeant-Major	Dimsey, W. .. ..	1st Battalion, The Essex Regiment	On 28th and 29th April, 1915, during operations near Krithia, for exceptional gallantry and ability throughout the engagement.
*	*	*	*	* * *
4833	Serjeant-Major	Feliz, C. .. ..	4th Battalion, The Worcestershire Regiment	On 28th April, 1915, during operations near Krithia, for very exceptional and meritorious conduct on several occasions, rallying and re-forming broken groups and leading them into the firing line. He repeatedly brought up ammunition under heavy fire and exhibited marked coolness and bravery.
*	*	*	*	* * *
4096	Serjeant-Major	Holdway, T. .. ..	2nd Battalion, The Hampshire Regiment	On 28th April, 1915, during operations near Krithia, for distinguished service and ability in organising a line of defence and superintending ammunition supply. Exhibited great personal bravery.
*	*	*	*	* * *
6666	Company Serjeant Major	Mage, W. .. ..	1st Battalion, The Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers	On the night of the 1st-2nd May, 1915, during the operations near Krithia, for taking charge of and holding a trench throughout the night, although exposed to enfilade fire. It was due to his bravery and vigilance that the enemy's attack was repulsed. Again, on 2nd May, although wounded by shrapnel, he continued his work with the same courage and cheerfulness shown by him since the commencement of operations.
*	*	*	*	* * *
41	Staff Serjeant-Major	Steele, A. .. ..	9th Australian Infantry Battalion (Queensland)	From 25th to 29th April, 1915, during operations near Kaba Tepe, for distinguished conduct in manning and maintaining his machine gun which he continued to work after the remainder of his section had been killed or wounded.
