REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD.

VICTORIA CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 23rd August, 1915.)

War Office,
23rd August, 1915.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Officers and Non-commissioned Officers in recognition of their most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty in the Field:—

Captain John Fitzhardinge Paul Butler, The King's Royal Rifle Corps, attached Pioneer Company, Golu Coast Regiment, West African Frontier Force.
For most conspicuous bravery in the Cameroons, West Africa.

On 17th November, 1914, with a party of 13 men, he went into the thick bush and at once attacked the enemy, in strength about 100, including several Europeans, defeated them, and captured their machine-gun and many loads of ammunition.

On 27th December, 1914, when on patrol duty, with a few men, he swam the Ekam River, which was held by the enemy, alone and in the face of a brisk fire, completed his reconnaissance on the further bank, and returned in safety. Two of his men were wounded while he was actually in the water.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—*contd.*VICTORIA CROSS—contd.

Captain Charles Calveley Foss, D.S.O., 2nd Battalion, The Bedfordshire Regiment.

For most conspicuous bravery at Neuve Chapelle on 12th March, 1915.

After the enemy had captured a part of one of our trenches, and our counter-attack made with one Officer and 20 men having failed (all but two of the party being killed or wounded in the attempt), Captain Foss, on his own initiative, dashed forward with eight men, under heavy fire, attacked the enemy with bombs, and captured the position, including the 52 Germans occupying it.

The capture of this position from the enemy was of the greatest importance, and the utmost bravery was displayed in essaying the task with so very few men.

Captain John Aidan Liddell, 3rd Battalion, Princess Louise's (Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders), and Royal Flying Corps.

For most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty on 31st July, 1915.

When on a flying reconnaissance over Ostend-Broges-Ghent he was severely wounded (his right thigh being broken), which caused momentary unconsciousness, but by a great effort he recovered partial control after his machine had dropped nearly 3,000 feet, and notwithstanding his collapsed state succeeded, although continually fired at, in completing his course, and brought the aeroplane into our lines—half an hour after he had been wounded.

The difficulties experienced by this Officer in saving his machine, and the life of his observer, cannot be readily expressed, but as the control wheel and throttle control were smashed, and also one of the under-carriage struts, it would seem incredible that he could have accomplished his task.

Lieutenant Frederick William Campbell, 1st Canadian Battalion.

For most conspicuous bravery on 15th June, 1915, during the action at Givenchy.

Lieutenant Campbell took two machine-guns over the parapet, arrived at the German first line with one gun, and maintained his position there, under very heavy rifle, machine-gun, and bomb fire, notwithstanding the fact that almost the whole of his detachment had been killed or wounded. When our supply of bombs had become exhausted, this Officer advanced his gun still further to an exposed position, and, by firing about 1,000 rounds, succeeded in holding back the enemy's counter-attack.

This very gallant Officer was subsequently wounded, and has since died.

No. 9990 Corporal William Cosgrove, 1st Battalion, The Royal Munster Fusiliers.

For most conspicuous bravery in the leading of his section with great dash during our attack from the beach to the east of Cape Helles, on the Turkish positions, on 26th April, 1915.

Corporal Cosgrove on this occasion pulled down the posts of the enemy's high wire entanglements single-handed, notwithstanding a terrific fire from both front and flanks, thereby greatly contributing to the successful clearing of the heights.

No. 168 Acting Corporal Issy Smith, 1st Battalion, The Manchester Regiment.

For most conspicuous bravery on 26th April, 1915, near Ypres, when he left his Company on his own initiative and went well forward towards the enemy's position to assist a severely wounded man, whom he carried a distance of 250 yards into safety, whilst exposed the whole time to heavy machine-gun and rifle fire.

Subsequently Corporal Smith displayed great gallantry, when the casualties were very heavy, in voluntarily assisting to bring in many more wounded men throughout the day, and attending to them with the greatest devotion to duty regardless of personal risk.

*War Office,
24th August, 1915.*

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Officers, Non-commissioned Officer and man, in recognition of their most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty in the field:—

Captain Richard Raymond Willis, 1st Battalion, The Lancashire Fusiliers.

No. 1293 Serjeant Alfred Richards, 1st Battalion, The Lancashire Fusiliers.

No. 1809 Private William Keneally, 1st Battalion, The Lancashire Fusiliers.

On the 25th April, 1915, three Companies and the Headquarters of the 1st Battalion, Lancashire Fusiliers, in effecting a landing on the Gallipoli Peninsula to the West of Cape Helles, were met by a very deadly fire from hidden machine guns which caused a great number of casualties. The survivors, however, rushed up to and cut the wire entanglements, notwithstanding the terrific fire from the enemy, and, after overcoming supreme difficulties, the cliffs were gained and the position maintained.

Amongst the many very gallant officers and men engaged in this most hazardous undertaking, Captain Willis, Serjeant Richards and Private Keneally have been selected by their comrades as having performed the most signal acts of bravery and devotion to duty.

Captain Lance George Hawker, D.S.O., Royal Engineers, and Royal Flying Corps.

For most conspicuous bravery and very great ability on 25th July, 1915.

When flying alone he attacked three German aeroplanes in succession. The first managed eventually to escape, the second was driven to ground damaged, and the third, which he attacked at a height of about 10,000 feet, was driven to earth in our lines, the pilot and observer being killed.

The personal bravery shown by this Officer was of the very highest order, as the enemy's aircraft were armed with machine guns, and all carried a passenger as well as the pilot.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—contd.

ORDER OF THE BATH.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 11th August, 1915.)

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office,
St. James's Palace, S.W.,
11th August, 1915.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following promotion in the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, in recognition of distinguished service in the Field:—

To be an Additional Member of the Military Division of the Second Class or Knights Commanders of the said Most Honourable Order.

Major-General Aymer Gould Hunter Weston, C.B., D.S.O.

* * * * *

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER.

(Extract from the London Gazette dated 25th August, 1915.)

*War Office,
25th August, 1915.*

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the appointment of the undermentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order, in recognition of their gallantry and distinguished service in the Field:—

Major Manners Ralph Willmot Nightingale, 1st Battalion, 5th Gurkha Rifles (Frontier Force).

For most conspicuous gallantry on 4th June, 1915, during operations in the neighbourhood of Krithia, Dardanelles, in leading an attack up a difficult spur after he had been wounded. He reached the crest and was again wounded, but coming back a few yards rallied his men and again led them on. He was then wounded a third time, but still endeavoured to advance until he fainted.

Capt. Frank Berkeley Abbott, 1st Battalion, 6th Gurkha Rifles.

For gallant and distinguished conduct on 28th and 29th June, 1915, during operations on the Gallipoli Peninsula.

He showed great skill in organising bombing attacks which resulted in regaining a portion of a trench which had been captured by the enemy. Advancing single handed, he cleared the enemy out of one-third of the trench. He was wounded for the third time during the war when leading a bayonet charge after the bombs were exhausted.

He showed exceptionally fine leadership, dash and resource.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—*contd.*DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER—contd.

Captain Stanley John Anderson, 5th Canadian Infantry Battalion.

For conspicuous gallantry at Festubert on 20th May, 1915, when he refused to go to the ambulance after being wounded until his tour of duty was completed.

Captain Anderson was again wounded in the head on 24th May, but remained the whole day and night gallantly leading his men in the attacks.

Captain Hugh Griffith Coke Fowler, 2nd Battalion, The South Wales Borderers.

For great gallantry on the 18th and 19th June, 1915, during operations on the Gallipoli Peninsula. In a counter-attack on a Turkish trench he led the party which eventually cleared it. This Officer himself threw some 30 bombs, some of which were enemy bombs which he picked up and threw back at great personal risk.

Captain Russell Mortimer Luckock, The King's Own (Royal Lancaster Regiment).

For gallantry during the fighting at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March, 1915, when he performed excellent work as a Brigade Major, showing marked ability as a Staff Officer.

Captain Frank Morison, 16th Canadian Infantry Battalion.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability on 20th May, 1915, when he commanded the leading company in the attack on the orchard at La Quinque Rue.

Captain Morison captured the enemy's position, which was of primary importance, under heavy shrapnel, rifle and machine gun fire.

Captain John Foster Paton Nash, 5th Canadian Infantry Battalion.

For conspicuous gallantry throughout the action at Festubert, 22nd-24th May, 1915. He repaired the telephone wires personally under very heavy fire.

Captain Nash was again brought to notice for excellent work performed under fire at Fleurbaix and at Gravelstafen.

Captain Creswell Duffield Rawson, Royal Artillery, 21st Kohat Mountain Battery (Frontier Force), Indian Army.

For gallant conduct and distinguished service on 14th May, 1915, during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, Dardanelles. Having discovered that the enemy had constructed an emplacement enfilading an important position, he constructed a position for one gun in the firing-line facing the enemy's gun at a range of 650 yards. He then arranged with neighbouring Field Artillery to occupy the attention of other enemy guns whilst he knocked down the parapet in front of his own gun, and engaged the enemy by direct fire and without cover, and succeeded in destroying the new emplacement he had observed. He distinguished himself by unceasing good work from 26th April to 26th June, on which latter day he was wounded.

Captain Denis George Jocelyu Ryan, 1st Battalion, 6th Gurkha Rifles.

On the 13th May, 1915, during operations near Krithia, Dardanelles, for carrying out a daring and well executed reconnaissance of the enemy's position. The success of the subsequent attack leading to the capture of the Turkish position was due in a great measure to this Officer's work. He was again brought to notice for gallant work on the 28th and 29th June.

Captain Stanley Alwyn Smith, No. 3 Field Ambulance, Canadian Army Medical Corps.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Festubert on the night of 20th May, 1915.

Captain Smith, with a party of eight men, went out voluntarily to remove the wounded from an orchard whilst under heavy fire, and eventually succeeded in bringing all into safety. Four of the eight men of the rescue party were wounded, and two of these have since died.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—*contd.*DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER—contd.

Captain (temporary Major) George Butler Stoney (Egyptian Army), 1st Battalion, The King's Own Scottish Borderers.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability during operations south-west of Krithia, Dardanelles, from the 4th to 7th June, 1915. He showed great coolness and good leading, holding together in a most praiseworthy manner the Battalion, which had suffered greatly. He had been previously brought to notice for gallant conduct during the operations up to May 5th.

Captain John Herbert Thom, Royal Artillery, 21st Kohat Mountain Battery (Frontier Force), Indian Army.

For exceptionally gallant conduct on 21st June, 1915, near Gaba Tepe, Dardanelles. He engaged two of the enemy's guns at a range of 450 yards with one 10 pr. B.L. gun, which he had concealed in a tunnelled emplacement in the firing line parapet, and put them out of action. During this duel, which lasted about an hour, he was knocked down by a high explosive shell from other guns. Recovering, he continued to direct the fire of his gun, and, having won the fight, withdrew it undamaged and without casualty.

Again, on 26th June, he was in an observation station with another Officer and gunner. Both Officers were wounded and the gunner killed by a shell, but Capt. Thom remained at duty until the following day, when a large piece of metal was removed from his head.

Captain Oscar Clayton Downes, 1st Battalion, The Rifle Brigade (The Prince Consort's Own.)

For conspicuous gallantry and ability when organising and leading the assault on the enemy's trenches south of Pilkem, on 6th July, 1915. He carried out his duties with great bravery and efficiency until he was wounded.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—contd.

MILITARY CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 25th August, 1915.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Military Cross on the undermentioned Officers and Warrant Officers in recognition of their gallantry and distinguished service in the Field:—

Captain Frederick Norman Chambers Rossiter, Royal Artillery, 26th Jacob's Mountain Battery, Indian Army.

For conspicuous gallantry on 13th June, 1915, in the operations on the Gallipoli Peninsula, when the enemy's high explosive shells had set fire to a gun emplacement and ammunition boxes; he extinguished the fire at great personal risk from the enemy's heavy fire as well as from our own ammunition, some of which exploded.

Captain Everard Le Grice Whitting, Royal Artillery, 26th Jacob's Mountain Battery, Indian Army.

For consistently good and gallant service during operations near Gaba Tepe, Dardanelles, from 25th April, 1915, and especially on 27th April, in directing the fire of a warship whilst exposed to the enemy's heavy rifle fire.

Captain Whitting again displayed conspicuous gallantry on 13th June; when his emplacement came under severe fire he withdrew the whole of his men and remained himself in the position as an Observer, under heavy fire the whole time and at great personal risk.

Lieutenant Bernard Montague Basil Bateman, 108th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

For conspicuous gallantry on 10th June, 1915, near Ypres, when he was dangerously wounded in endeavouring to restore telephone communication under very severe fire.

Lieutenant Bateman has been noted for consistent gallantry, and was wounded on two previous occasions.

Lieutenant Charles Stuart Craig, 4th Battery, 1st Canadian Field Artillery.

For conspicuous gallantry, resource and ability on many occasions, especially on 15th June, 1915, at Givenchy, when he used an 18-pounder gun in the trenches with great effect, destroying 40 yards of the enemy's parapet, two of their machine-guns, and a stretch of 75 yards of the wire entanglements.

Lieutenant Craig was seriously wounded on this date after he had completed his task, and was twice wounded on previous occasions.

Lieutenant Eric Edwin Longfield Lloyd, 1st Battalion (New South Wales) Australian Imperial Force.

For exceptionally gallant conduct on 5th June, 1915, during the operations in the Gallipoli Peninsula, in personally leading a party of 100 men to take a trench from which an enemy machine-gun was severely harassing his position. Although unable to remove the machine-gun owing to the heavy head cover, he destroyed it with rifle fire.

He personally shot two Turks with his own pistol, and with his party inflicted severe losses on the enemy.

Lieutenant Donald John MacDonald, Lord Strathcona's Horse (Royal Canadians).

For conspicuous gallantry and ability near Festubert on 24th May, 1915. Although wounded in three places he continued to lead his men with great dash in the advance to the attack on the enemy's position, and succeeded in entering their redoubt accompanied by two men.

Lieutenant Terence Patrick McSharry, 2nd Australian Light Horse Regiment (Queensland).

For exceptional bravery and resource on many occasions since 25th April, 1915, especially on night of 28th-29th May, during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, Dardanelles, in organising several assaults, and at great personal risk, making several valuable reconnaissances. He was again brought to notice for gallant conduct on the night 4th-5th June.

Lieutenant William Disraeli Sprinks (Brigade Grenadier Officer), 1st Canadian Infantry Brigade).

For conspicuous gallantry and ability at Festubert on 21st-22nd May, 1915, in organising and directing the grenade company in the attack carried out by the 2nd Canadian Infantry Brigade.

Lieutenant Sprinks maintained the position gained by continuous bombing for twenty hours, during the whole time being subjected to very severe shelling, machine-gun and rifle fire.

Lieutenant Reginald Graham Trower, formerly 9th Battalion, The Border Regiment, attached 170th Company, Royal Engineers.

For conspicuous gallantry, ability and resource when temporarily in command of the 170th Company, Royal Engineers, during two minor enterprises, (which included mine explosions) on 24th and 29th June, 1915, at Cuinchy. The success of these enterprises is mainly due to the manner in which Lieutenant Trower organised the offensive mining operations. His resource and courage were beyond praise and inspired the greatest confidence.

Lieutenant Robert Leigh Withington, 9th Field Company, Royal Engineers.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability during operations south of Pilkem between 6th and 8th July, 1915, when he assisted in bringing an 18-pounder gun across the Yser Canal under fire, and in getting it into position in a gun pit which he had dug in the fire trenches within 60 yards of the enemy's sap. When the enemy's sap was blown in he superintended the joining up of our sap with that of the enemy under heavy and close fire.

Second Lieutenant Geoffrey Rowley Cassels, 175th Company, Royal Engineers.

For very valuable services, during the months of June and July, 1915, in conducting the mining operations at Hooge with conspicuous ability and energy, which materially contributed to the success achieved.

Second Lieutenant James Dickens, 4th Battalion, The Worcestershire Regiment.

For distinguished and gallant conduct on 4th June, 1915, during the action south-west of Krithia, Dardanelles. When his battalion's line was being consolidated after the attack a party of Turks threatened the left flank, and he at once organised a party and led a bayonet charge against them, which was entirely successful.

This Officer has done consistent good work since 25th April. He was previously brought to notice for coolness and gallantry on 18th and 19th June.

Second Lieutenant Richard Frank Parkinson, 63rd Field Company, Royal Engineers (Special Reserve).

For conspicuous gallantry at La Quinze Rue on the night of 1st July, 1915.

This Officer was in charge of a party Royal Engineers engaged in erecting wire entanglements under very severe fire, and they were eventually driven in after losing 50 per cent. in casualties.

Second Lieutenant Parkinson then went out twice and rescued two wounded men whilst exposed to heavy fire.

Second Lieutenant George Streynsham Rawstorne, 2nd Battalion, Seaforth Highlanders (Ross-shire Buffs, the Duke of Albany's).

For conspicuous gallantry and ability on 4th July, 1915, north of Ypres, when he commanded the storming party which captured a German sap and covered the Royal Engineer party detailed to destroy the sap. He showed the greatest dash in carrying out this difficult task, and finally, although wounded, carried out the withdrawal most satisfactorily.

Second Lieutenant Arthur William Roberts, 4th Battalion, The Worcestershire Regiment.

For gallantry and coolness during the operations in the Gallipoli Peninsula in leading his men across the open in face of a very heavy fire and capturing some Turkish trenches on 18th-19th June, 1915.

Second Lieutenant William Parr Aldous Robinson, 135th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability during operations between 6th and 8th July 1915, south of Pilekem.

He rafted his 18-pounder gun across the Yser Canal under fire, placed it in the fire trenches within 60 yards of the enemy's sap, and blew in the sap and some 30 yards of thick wire entanglements under very heavy shell fire, thus greatly assisting our infantry in capturing the enemy's position.

He showed great enterprise, and inspired confidence by his coolness. The gun was safely brought back the following night.

Second Lieutenant Arthur Enstace Stevens, 2nd Battalion, The Prince of Wales's Volunteers (South Lancashire Regiment), attached 1st Battalion, The Hampshire Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry in the operations south of Pilekem, on 6th July, 1915, when in charge of the grenadier platoon of the Hampshire Regiment, he led his men with the greatest courage, was the first man into the German trenches, and used his grenades with deadly effect until he was wounded.

Temporary Second Lieutenant George Wheldon Wanstall, Royal Engineers.

For conspicuous gallantry on several occasions during the operations on the Gallipoli Peninsula, especially on the 19th June, 1915, when he successfully repaired telegraph lines, with the assistance of three men, making 35 joints in a space of 150 yards, whilst under heavy shell fire.

Lieutenant Wanstall performed similar valuable service on 5th and 7th July, on all occasions under shell fire.

Second Lieutenant Eric Fitzwater Wilkinson, 1st/8th Battalion, West Yorkshire Regiment (Leeds Rifles), Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry and coolness on 15th July, 1915, near St. Julien, in assisting to carry a wounded soldier for a distance of 120 yards into cover under circumstances of great difficulty and danger.

Serjeant-Major George Edward Framingham, 1st Battalion, The Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers.

For conspicuous gallantry on 18th and 19th June, 1915, during operations on the Gallipoli Peninsula. In the final counter-attack on the Turkish trench he played a conspicuous part in bomb-throwing and in driving out the enemy. His gallantry on this occasion was very marked, and he has done excellent work throughout the operations since 25th April.

Serjeant-Major Edgar Paul, 1st Battalion, Prince Albert's (Somerset Light Infantry).

For conspicuous ability and gallantry throughout the period of the campaign.

Has rendered very valuable service at all times in the firing line, especially near Pilekem on 6th July, 1915, when he organised carrying and working parties and supervised them under heavy shell fire.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 28th August, 1915.)

AMENDMENT.

The correct name of Lieutenant Withington, 9th Field Company, Royal Engineers, who was awarded the Military Cross in the Gazette of 25th instant, is Richard Leigh Withington, and not as stated therein.

DISTINGUISHED CONDUCT MEDAL.

*(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 10th August, 1915.)*War Office,
5th August, 1915.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Conduct Medal to the undermentioned Warrant Officers for acts of gallantry and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Expeditionary Forces in France and Flanders, The Dardanelles, and Turkey in Asia.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
3947	Company Serjeant-Major	Allister, B. .. ..	1/6th Battalion, Lancashire Fusiliers (T.F.)	For good leading of his platoon on the 4th June, 1915, south of Krithia (Dardanelles), under heavy rifle and shrapnel fire, to take a Turkish trench. He cleared one flank himself, killing eight Turks.
	*	*	*	* * *
2710	Company Serjeant-Major	Apsey, W. .. ..	4th Battalion, Rifle Brigade.	For conspicuous gallantry and ability on the 8th May, 1915, near Hooge, in collecting about ten men of his Company and taking them to a point where there was grave danger of the enemy breaking through the line. He repulsed the enemy with heavy loss, taking one prisoner. This gallant act undoubtedly saved the situation until reinforcements arrived.
	*	*	*	* * *
12835	Battery Serjeant-Major	Armitage, J. .. ..	458th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.	For conspicuous gallantry, ability and resource throughout the operations from the 18th April to the 16th May, 1915, around Ypres. He invariably showed exceptional courage and coolness under fire. On one or two occasions of unusual emergency he acted with great ability and judgment, and rendered invaluable service.
	*	*	*	* * *
179	Company Serjeant-Major	Cameron, F. .. ..	7th Battalion, Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry on the 24th May, 1915, at Wieltje. When the gas appeared he displayed the greatest coolness in getting hold of the men and ordering them to fire into it. His courage and devotion to duty exercised, throughout the day, the greatest influence over his men and kept them steady.
	*	*	*	* * *
5810	Company Serjeant Major	Carter, G. J. .. ..	2nd Battalion, The Royal Fusiliers (City of London Regiment)	For conspicuous ability on the night 1st-2nd May, 1915, south-west of Krithia (Dardanelles), in the handling of a platoon after the Officer commanding it had been shot during a counter-attack.

DISTINGUISHED CONDUCT MEDAL—contd.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
6701	Company Serjeant Major	Daniels, W. . . .	2nd Battalion, Dorsetshire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Barjisiyah (Turkey in Asia) on 14th April, 1915, throughout the action. He took back a message to his Commanding Officer explaining the situation, and returned to the firing line carrying a box of ammunition on his shoulder. He bound up three wounded men under heavy fire, and twice went back and brought up reinforcements. He was eventually shot in the knee.
	*	*	*	* * *
C. 40380	Serjeant-Major	Donaldson, J. W. A.	1st Brigade Canadian Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry on the 22nd April, 1915, at St. Julien, and on the following days near Ypres, when being in charge of the ammunition supply of the battery, he kept up the supply under a continuous and heavy shell fire, and gave a fine example of courage and devotion to duty.
9071	Serjeant-Major	Evans, R. . . .	1st Battalion, Royal Welsh Fusiliers	For conspicuous gallantry and ability on the 7th November, 1914, at Zillebeke, in continuing to lead his men in a charge on the enemy's position when all the Officers and Senior Non-Commissioned Officers had been killed or wounded. The charge was successful, and, with the aid of another regiment, three maxim guns were captured.
	*	*	*	* * *
8736	Serjeant-Major	Fleming, R. . . .	2nd Battalion, Gordon Highlanders	For conspicuous gallantry, ability, and resource from the 26th October to the 7th November, 1914, at Ypres, during which period he continually supplied his battalion with ammunition under heavy fire. On many occasions he assisted to collect stragglers of various units, keeping them well in hand at critical times. He gave a splendid example of courage and cheerfulness under the most trying conditions.
	*	*	*	* * *
111	Company-Serjeant-Major	Hammond, T. . . .	23rd County of London Battalion, The London Regiment (Territorial Force)	For conspicuous gallantry on the 25th and 26th May, 1915, at Givenchy. Serjeant-Major Hammond, by his coolness and bravery, gave the greatest encouragement to the men of his Company. He led an assault and was the first man in the German trenches. Throughout these days he gave a fine example to all with him of great devotion to duty.

4066	Squadron Serjeant- Major	Hannington, W. J.	12th Lancers (attached Permanent Staff, Northumber- land Hussars) Territorial Force)	For conspicuous gallantry and coolness on the 15th October, 1914, near Zandvoorde. When on patrol duty alone he met a large enemy patrol, shot the officer and caused the rest to retire. Also on two other occasions, on 22nd and 24th October, near Zonnebeke, he showed exceptional courage and gallantry under very heavy fire, and gave a fine example to his squadron of devotion to duty.
	*	*	*	* * *
44	Company- Serjeant- Major	Hay, F. .. ..	1/6th Battalion, Man- chester Regiment (T.F.)	For gallant conduct on the 4th June, 1915, during operations south of Krithia (Dardanelles). Owing to casualties he was left in command of his Company and held the advanced line until compelled to fall back owing to flank retirement. He then brought his Company back in good order. He was twice wounded in the arm and later received a third slight wound but still continued to do duty.
	*	*	*	* * *
170	Company- Serjeant- Major	Heggie, A. C. ..	23rd County of Lon- don Battalion, The London Regi- ment (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry on the 25th and 26th May, 1915, at Givenchy. After all the Officers of his Company had been wounded, he led it with the greatest courage and ability, and set a fine example to his men of devotion to duty.
	*	*	*	* * *
6885	Company Serjeant- Major	Lavery, A. .. ..	1st Battalion, Liver- pool Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and ability on the 16th May, 1915, at Richebourg. After his Company Officer had been shot, he commanded the Company in a very exposed and difficult situation with great skill and gallantry. He shot several Germans himself. His cheerfulness and bravery under very trying conditions set a splendid example to the men under his command.
	*	*	*	* * *
6401	Company Serjeant- Major	Lawrence, T. ..	2nd Battalion, Gordon High- landers	For conspicuous gallantry and ability on the 16th May, 1915, at Festubert. He organized and repaired the first line German trench for defence under a heavy shell and rifle fire. He also assisted to carry in wounded men under a heavy fire, and set a splendid example to all under him of the greatest bravery and devotion to duty.
	*	*	*	* * *
3	Company Serjeant- Major	Lindsay, C. C. ..	1/4th Battalion, Loyal North Lancashire Regi- ment (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry at Rue d'Ouvert on the 15th June, 1915. When his Battalion was retiring to take up a new position, he observed a machine gun which had been abandoned by another Unit, and immediately brought the gun into action against the enemy, who were then advancing, and continued an effective fire until it became jammed. Company Serjeant-Major Lindsay rendered excellent service with his Company in the advance under heavy fire.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
C.41434	Quarter-master-Serjeant	Millhörn, A. R. ..	2nd Brigade, Canadian Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry on the 24th April, 1915, at Wietje, in bringing up ammunition under heavy shell fire. He also saved a wagon of ammunition under heavy fire after the drivers and horses had been killed.
	*	*	*	* * *
6401	Company Serjeant-Major	Miller, G. ..	1st Battalion, King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry	For gallant conduct and resource on the 8th May, 1915, at Frezenberg. All his Company Officers having been killed or wounded, Serjeant-Major Miller took command of the Company, and by his prompt action kept them well in hand under difficult circumstances.
	*	*	*	* * *
613	Company Serjeant-Major	Murray, E. F. H. ..	Honourable Artillery Company (Territorial Force)	For conspicuous gallantry and marked ability on 16 June, 1915, at Hooge, in carrying the wounded into safety whilst under fire. He subsequently organised a party of men belonging to various units, led them forward, and occupied trenches which had been vacated. Later he took command of the trench after his Officer had been wounded.
	*	*	*	* * *
149	Company Serjeant-Major.	Norris, H. W. ..	24th County of London Battalion, The London Regiment (The Queen's) (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry on the 25th and 26th May, 1915, at Givenchy. He repeatedly crossed a fire-wrept zone from a captured trench with messages, each time giving valuable personal estimates of the situation. Subsequently he took control of two platoons which were without an Officer. Throughout the operations his extraordinary coolness under fire and his devotion to duty afforded a splendid example, and gave great encouragement to all the men with him.
	*	*	*	* * *
474	Company Serjeant-Major	Peat, R. J. ..	8th City of London Battalion, The London Regiment (Post Office Rifles) (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry on the 25th and 26th May, 1915, at Festubert. The supply of bombs running short, he collected as many as he could find, and took them himself, under heavy fire, to supply the grenadiers, and when they had all been killed he threw bombs himself, without any previous experience, until he was wounded.
	*	*	*	* * *
7145	Serjeant (Acting Company Serjeant-Major)	Robinson, I. ..	1st Battalion, Northumberland Fusiliers	For conspicuous gallantry on 16th June, 1915, at Hooge. When all his Officers had become casualties he took command of the parties of men of various regiments in the trench, and handled them with ability, although himself wounded.
