Tuilleadh fiosrachaidh aig: www.cnag.org.uk

*Fàilte bho Tearlach McColla
Fear-gairm
Comataidh Mòd Lochabair 2007*

Tha mi airson fàilte chridheil, bhlàth a chur oirbh uile gu Mòd Lochabair 2007.

Seo a' bhliadhna shònraichte airson ar cultar Gàidhealach a chomharrachadh, agus saoidh mise gu bheil am Mòd Nàiseanta Rìoghail cho iomchaidh ri tachartas sam bith eile airson ar cultar a thoirt gu aire a' mhòr-shluagh.

Cathaidh sinn mar aodach e, ithidh agus òlaidh sinn e, seinnidh, dannsaidh agus cleachdaidh sinn e 'nar cleasachd agus 'nar cur-seachad fad seachdain a' Mhòid.

Gabhaidh toileachas ann, agus bithibh mothachail cuideachd, mar Ghàidheil, gur e ar dleasdanas ar dualchas phrìiseil a chumail beò agus fallain airson dìleab luachmhor fliagail aig an òigridh a tha gar seantainn.

Tha sinn air ullachadh mòr a dhèanamh anns an dà bhliadhna a chaidh seachad. Tha e a-nis an urra ribh fhèin a h-uile cothrom a ghabhail airson gum bi am Mòd a' còrdadh ribh agus airson càirdeas agus eòlas a dhèanamh as ùr, agus ath-nuadhachadh.

Tha mi a' guidhe seachdain shona dhuibh.

Fear-Gairm,

*Welcome from Charlie McColl
Convener
Lochaber Mòd Committee 2007*

A warm welcome to the Mòd in Lochaber.

2007 has been chosen as the year to celebrate our Highland culture. I think the Royal National Mòd wholly embraces our culture and will be one of the most enjoyable and sincere events, to bring it to the attention of a great deal of people, locally, nationally and internationally.

We wear, eat, drink, sing and dance to it and indeed use it for our leisure and pleasure for the whole of Mòd week.

Take delight from it, and be aware also, that as Gaels, we have a duty to preserve our traditional Gaelic culture, in order to pass on our precious heritage to our children. The best way to celebrate and honour our past traditions is to give them a future.

There has been a great deal of preparation and organising done over the last two years. It is now up to yourselves, to take every opportunity to partake and enjoy the Mòd. I hope you will enjoy making new friendships and acquaintances and renewing old ones.

I wish you all a pleasant week,

*Charlie McColl,
Convener,
Lochaber Mòd 2007 Committee.*

Fàilte bho Iain Macleòid
Ceann-suidhe
An Comunn Gàidhealach

Fàilte chun 104mh Mòd ann an Lochabair. Tha e na fhiar urram dhòmhsa a bhith an làthair aig Mòd Nàiseanta Rìoghail na bliadhna-sa ann an dreuchd Ceann-suidhe buidheann aig a bheil eachdraidh ainmeil de thaic agus dìlseachd do chumail suas agus leasachadh na Gàidhlig, agus tha e an còmhnaidh na ùrachadh a bhith a cuideachd na h-uidhir de luchd-taic ar cànan. Tapadh leibh airson ur taic leantainneach.

Tha mi airson taing a thoirt do Aonghas Dòmhnallach a bha san dreuchd seo romham airson cho dìcheallach sa bha e a' stiùireadh na buidhne agus a' dèanamh cinnteach gu robh gnìomhachd a' Chomuinn a thaobh na Gàidhlig àrd air a' chlàr-gnothach phoileataigeach agus shòisealta. Is e prìomh fhèis shònraichte airson na Gàidhlig a th' anns a' Mhòd – àm nuair a gheibh gach cuid fileantaich agus luchd-ionnsachaidh buannachd bho “ann-stealladh làidir” bliadhna de chànan agus cultar na Gàidhlig!

An dèidh Achd na Gàidhlig 2005 a chur gnìomh agus Bòrd na Gàidhlig ga chur air bunait reachdail, tha sinn uile a' coimhead air adhart a-nis ri Planaichean Gàidhlig nam buidhnean poblach air feadh na h-Alba. Mar a bhios fìor a thaobh poileasaidhean agus planaichean sam bith, se an ìre gun tèid an toirt gu buil a dhearbhas cho èifeachdach sa tha iad. 'Se ceun mòr air adhart a tha an seo a thaobh taic phoileasaidh phoblaich airson a' chànan, ach tha e a' fàgail dùbhlán mhòr aig ar coimhearsnachd. Ciamar a ni sinn cinnteach gum bi gu leòr òigridh agus inbhich ag ionnsachadh a' chànan gus am bi iad comasach air a cleachdadh anns na suidheachaidhean a tha na planaichean sin a' cruthachadh?

Feumaidh sinn dòighean a lorg airson a bhith a' misneachadh phàrantan gus a bhith a' dèanamh a' Ghàidhlig na cànan teaghlaich san dachaigh, mar a bha i aig aon àm chan ann a-mhàin ann an coimhearsnachdan nan eileanan ach ann an cuid de sgìrean mòra bailteil. An aghaidh doimhneachd cànan na Beurla ann an raointean meadhanan, foghlaim agus ealain, tha feum air oidhirp agus dìoghras, ach is e deagh dhùbhlán a tha ann dhuinn. Feuch an dèan sibh uile oidhirp gus a bhith a' misneachadh pàrantan gu bhith a' dèanamh cinnteach gum bi a' Ghàidhlig na prìomh phàirt de bhith “ag èiridh suas”.

Tha sinn air leth taingeil airson an taic iomhais agus cuideachadh a tha am Mòd a' faighinn gach bliadhna agus gu sònraichte am-bliadhna tha sinn a' toirt taing do Chaledonian Mac a' Bhriuthainn, Banca Rìoghail na h-Alba, Comhairle na Gàidhealtachd, Companaidh Iomairt Loch Abar is nan Eilean, Am Posta Rìoghail, EventScotland agus Black Bottle.

Tha am Mòd a' toirt cothrom do gach cuid òigridh agus inbhich an cànan a chleachdadh. Tha mi'n dòchas gun còrd ur turas gu Lochabair ruibh far a faigh sibh aoigheachd agus fàilte chridheil.

*Welcome from John Macleod
President
An Comunn Gàidhealach*

Welcome to the 104th Mod in Lochaber. It's a particular privilege to attend this year's Royal National Mod in the role of President of an organisation with a great history of commitment to the maintenance and development of Gaelic, and it is always refreshing to be in the company of so many loyal supporters of our language. Thank you for your continuing support.

I wish to pay tribute to the drive, enthusiasm and leadership of my predecessor Angus Macdonald who in his period of office ensured that An Comunn's commitment to the future of our language remained high on the political and social agenda. The Mod is a great showcase for Gaelic – a time when fluent speakers and learners can benefit from an annual “booster injection” of Gaelic language and culture!

Following the Gaelic Language (S) Act 2005 and the statutory foundation of Bòrd na Gàidhlig, we look forward to the rolling out process of Gaelic Language Plans throughout Scotland. As with all policies and plans their implementation will be the key to their effectiveness. This is a great step forward in terms of public policy support for the language, but it leaves our community with an immense challenge. How do we now ensure that sufficient youngsters and adults learn the language in order to use it in situations made available by these plans?

We need to find ways of encouraging parents to make Gaelic the home language of the family, as once it was not only in island communities but also in some large urban areas. Against the tide of English-language domination of the media, education, and the arts, that takes effort and determination, but it's a challenge worth taking on. Let us all make the effort to encourage and support parents in making Gaelic speaking an essential part of “growing up”.

We are most grateful for all the sponsorship and support that the Mod receives each year, and our particular thanks this year go to Caledonian MacBrayne, The Royal Bank of Scotland, Highland Council, HIE Lochaber, Royal Mail, EventScotland and Black Bottle.

The Mod gives young and old a good opportunity to use their language. Enjoy your visit to Lochaber where you are assured of a warm Highland welcome.

John M Macleod, President, An Comunn Gàidhealach

The Skylark by Pilgrim Harps

Our finest craftsmanship...

The low-cost harp with the expensive sound!

We've distilled the essence of a professional quality harp whilst keeping the cost to a minimum, without resorting to nylon strings, inferior materials or cheaper finishes!

The Skylark is hand-made craftsmanship to the core combining a full, sumptuous tone with ease of use.

A 'no-frills' approach proved an exciting challenge; the basis of which was no compromise to the performance, finish, reliability and especially the quality of tone.

The play focuses on the brutalities of a regime which forbids a minority of its people to speak their own language.

Is this a play of few words and of lost hope?

Is there a glimmer in this dark world of violence and threats in which human utterance is banned?

of the Mod in
Falkirk in 2008

One of Scotland's
premier shopping
destinations, Falkirk has all the leading stores you
would expect in its fantastic shopping centres and on the pedestrianised High Street.
Differentiating Falkirk from many other towns is the amazing choice of smaller,
independent stores located just off the High Street - well worth exploring.

Unwind in Falkirk, and choose from a tremendously varied
selection of fine restaurants,
licensed pubs and clubs. You can stay over in one of the area's many fine hotels, B&Bs
or guest houses.

THE deputy Scottish education minister came under fire in Inverness this week after admitting he was unaware the arrival of thousands of Eastern European workers posed challenges beyond the central belt.

During a visit to Millbank Academy, Robert Brown, a Liberal Democrat MP for Glasgow, admitted he was surprised that schools in the Highland Capital were the only ones in the country to have English as a second language classes before their regular education could begin.

"I have picked up these changes, which are echoed in the urban centres, but until today I haven't realised it was a challenge in Inverness," he commented.

Saturday lessons plan to tackle course axe threat

SATURDAY classes for senior secondary pupils are set to act under way in Inverness later this year as a bid to encourage the aging of Advanced Higher courses.

Under the current rules, all students taking Advanced Higher groupings will be brought to either the weekend classes at Millers Academy or to the city centre.

Consultation is currently taking place with parents and pupils on the issue. The decision was made Saturday to avoid problems of travelling during the week. But the move has not been welcomed by everyone with anxiety about the prospect of weekend classes.

One parent, whose son is at Millers Academy, said: "I'm not sure about the success of the classes would depend on how many pupils are prepared to come in Saturday morning."

"It's all about the distance. It is a very important factor in this. It is a very important factor in this. It is a very important factor in this."

Other factors, when Mr. Spruce revealed to the Inverness Courier that the school could only guarantee offering Advanced Highers in Gaelic and Maths, the school is now planning to run all three courses as well as French, History and English.

Students from each school and a viable solution to withdrawing to the city centre class at Millers Academy.

"Millers has always been able to take in the city centre, but it's not clear what can be done, for the weekend classes will be brought to either the weekend classes at Millers Academy or to the city centre."

The exercise will be one of a test case for the education authorities.
