PREFACE.

A DESIRE has been frequently expressed for information regarding Results and Records of the principal Competitions in former years at the Aboyne Highland Games.

I have, with considerable difficulty, been able to make out the following tables, compiled from such Official Records as are in existence (many of which have unfortunately been lost), newspaper cuttings, etc. I believe the only errors to be occasional inaccuracies in the initials and spelling of Competitors' names, these being often casually given and recorded. I hope in future years these may be corrected.

My thanks are due to my brother, Mr. James Dyce Nicol, for his valuable assistance, particularly with regard to the first ten years, he having records which I was unable to find elsewhere.

PREFACE TO 2ND EDITION.

IN the original Preface a hope was expressed that errors might, in future years, be corrected. I believe that hope is now fulfilled.

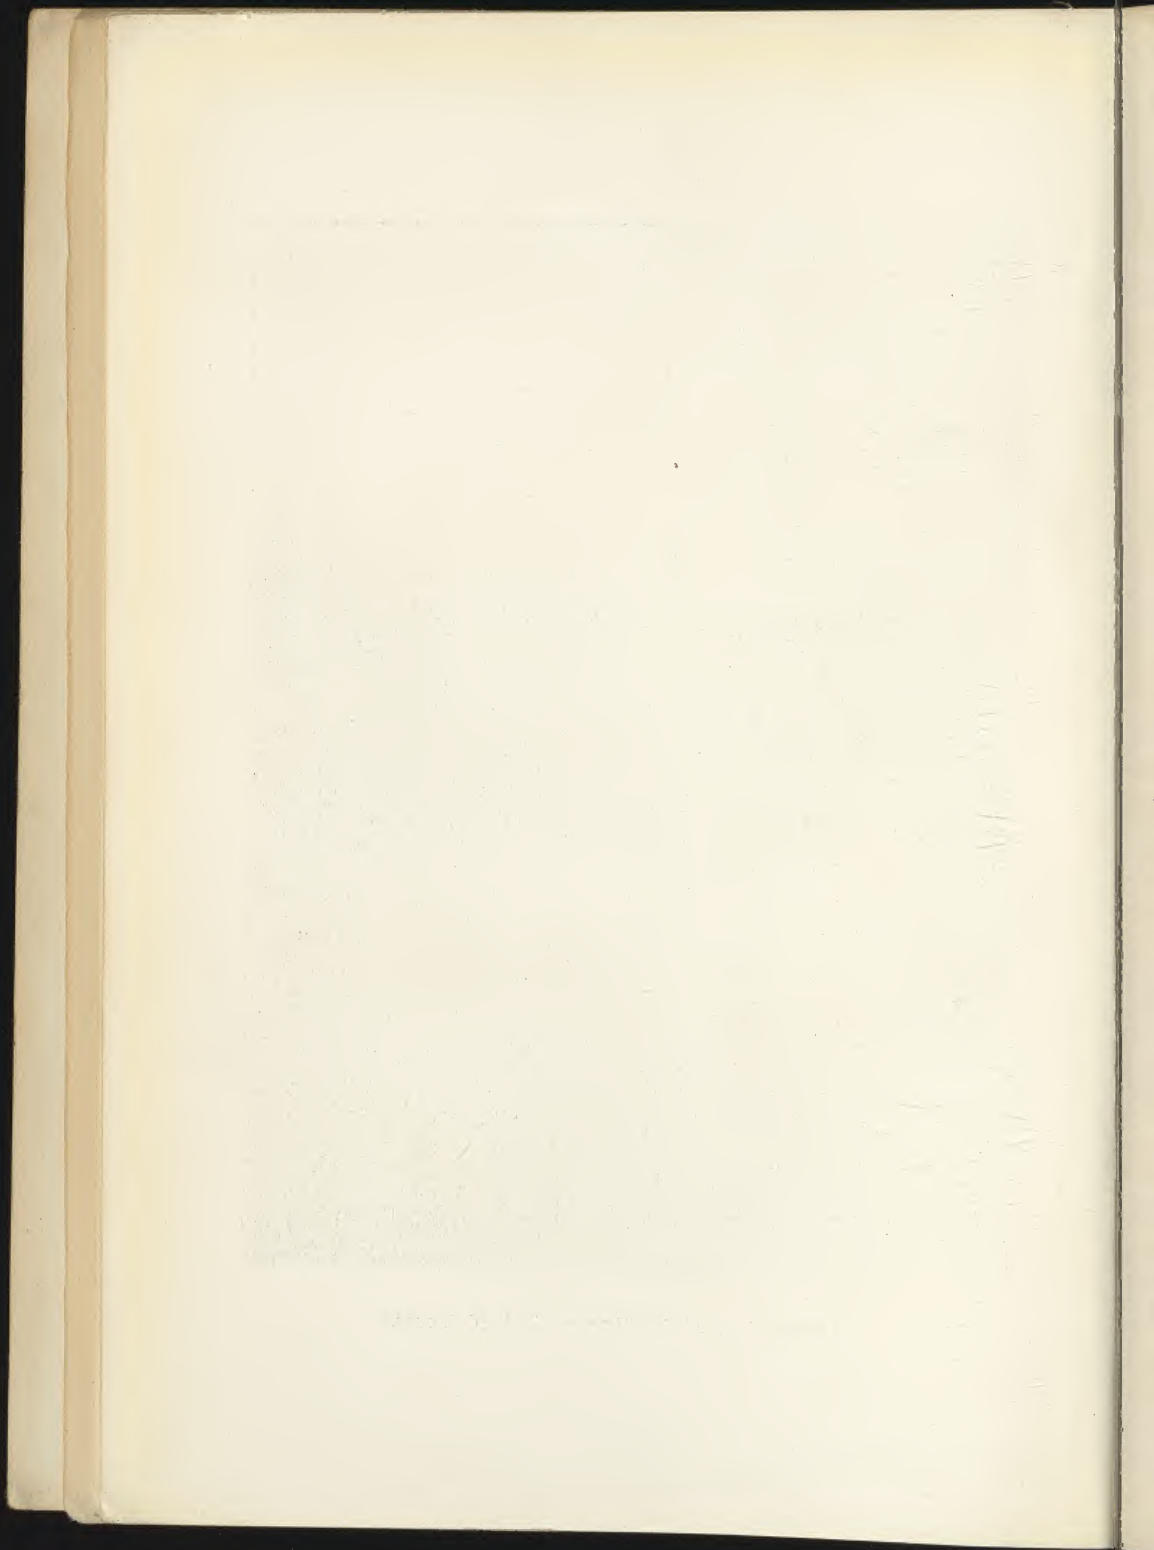

I desire to thank several old Competitors—Mr. W. M'Combie Smith in particular, and Mr. A. G. Anderson, Secretary to the Games Committee—for their valuable assistance.

PREFACE TO 3RD EDITION.

IN endeavouring to bring up to date these records commenced by my brother in 1898, it may interest those who study them to know the names of the original Patrons and Committee in 1867, namely—

PATRONS.

The Marquis of Huntly.

F. J. Cochran, Esq., of Balfour.

Francis Farquharson, Esq., of Finzean.

J. Dyce Nicol of Ballogie, M.P.

COMMITTEE.

The Marquis of Huntly.

Dr. Keith.

Mr. Macintosh.

Mr. Middleton.

Mr. Paterson.

Mr. Geo. Young.

Of these the Marquis of Huntly alone survives.

In his book, "The Athletes and Athletic Sports of Scotland," on page 126, Mr. W. M'Combie Smith (himself a competitor in the Donald Dinnie days) wrote—"In the experience of some 25 years at Games in most counties in Scotland and a few in England, the writer knows of only one really well-managed Gathering—that at Aboyne, under the superintendence of Mr. W. E. Nicol of Ballogie."

It is to be hoped that the Aboyne Gathering has, since the above was written, continued to deserve this praise, and may do so in the future.

In bringing these records up to date, I have to thank Mr. Adrian L. Stronach, the Secretary to the Games Committee, for his very valuable and willing assistance, and also Mr. James Watt for his advice in connection with heavy events records.

J. DYCE NICOL.
