Preface

IN issuing the Winter Edition of the SCOTTISH ATHLETIC GUIDE, we take this opportunity to thank the many Club Secretaries and Officials for their kind co-operation. Were it not for the valuable assistance rendered to us by the many sportsmen throughout the length and breadth of the land, our GUIDE would not be the successful publication that it is.

We invite criticism of every kind, and where an error is detected in our GUIDE, be it a wrong date or a wrong result, we shall be pleased to be notified of it.

In last season's GUIDE we introduced a new feature in the shape of a list of Scottish International Players with the years of their being capped. The compilation of the list was extremely difficult, and we are specially indebted to those gentlemen who have since been kind enough to put us right in certain matters of detail connected therewith.

PLAN OF PLAYING FIELD

T T T T Touch-Lines. | Q Q Q Q Touch-in-Goal.

The Touch-Lines and Goal-Lines should be cut out of the Turf.

The field of play should not exceed 110 yards in length, nor 75 yards in breadth, and should be as near those dimensions as practicable.

The Committee recommend that all grounds be "roped off," and that the centre and 25-yards flags be placed well back from the touch-lines.

The maximum extent of the dead-ball line is 25 yards.

LAWS OF THE GAME

(As Played by the Scottish Football Union.)

I. INTRODUCTION.

1. The Rugby game of football should be played by fifteen players on each side. The field of play shall not exceed one hundred and ten yards in length, nor seventy-five in breadth, and shall be as near these dimensions as practicable. The lines defining the boundary of the field of play shall be suitably marked, and shall be called the goal-lines at the ends, and the touch-lines at the sides. On each goal-line, and equidistant from the touch-lines, shall be two upright posts, called goal-posts, exceeding eleven feet in height, and placed eighteen feet six inches apart, and joined by a cross-bar ten feet from the ground; and the object of the game shall be to kick the ball over this cross-bar and between the posts. The game shall be played with an oval ball of as nearly as possible the following size and weight, namely:—

Length	11 to 11½ ins.
Length circumference	30 „ 31 „
Width circumference	25½ „ 26 „
Weight...	13 „ 14½ ozs.

Hand sewn and not less than eight stitches to the inch.

Note.—It is the duty of the visiting team to see that the ground complies with Law 1 as to size, and is properly marked, and the dead-ball line is distinct, etc., and it is the duty of each side to see that their opponents do not play more than fifteen men. If they fail to see to these points before the game begins, no appeal can afterwards be entertained in relation thereto, except in regard to the last-mentioned point, which can be objected to during the game, but such objection will not affect any score made prior thereto.

II. GLOSSARY—DUTIES OF OFFICIALS— SCORING.

2. The following terms occur in the laws, and have the respective meanings attached to each:—

Dead-Ball Lines.

Not more than twenty-five yards behind, and equidistant from each goal-line, and parallel thereto, shall be lines which shall be called the dead-ball lines, and if the ball or player holding the ball touch or cross these lines the ball shall be dead and out of play.

In-Goal.

Those portions of the ground immediately at the ends of the field of play and between the touch-lines, produced to the dead-ball lines, are called in-goal. The goal-lines are in-goal.

Note.—As the goal-line is in goal, a try or touch-down may be obtained thereon.

If a player holding the ball in his own in-goal touches the Referee, the ball is dead at the spot, and a drop-out must be taken; except in the case of a player having run back behind his own goal-line, in which case the ball must be scrummaged at the spot whence it was carried back. Similarly a player who crosses the opponent's goal-line with the ball in his possession, and before grounding it touches the Referee, shall be allowed a try at the spot.

Touch.

Those portions of the ground immediately at the sides of the field of play and between the goal-lines, if produced, are called touch. The touch-lines, and all posts and flags marking these lines, or the centre or twenty-five yards lines, are in touch.

Note.—A player may be in touch and yet play the ball with his foot if the ball be not in touch.

A player, provided he is not carrying the ball, may be in touch and yet score a try by touching the ball down with his hands.

The ball blown over the touch-line and blown back shall be considered as in touch.

Touch-in-Goal.

Those portions of the ground immediately at the four corners of the field of play, and between the goal and touch-lines, if respectively produced, are called touch-in-goal. The corner posts and flags are in touch-in-goal.

Note.—If the ball or a player holding it touch one of the corner-posts or flags, prior to touching-down, the ball must be considered as in touch-in-goal. A player may himself be in touch-in-goal and yet play the ball with his foot, if the ball be not in touch-in-goal; or he may, provided he is not carrying the ball, touch it down with his hands and score a try.

A Drop-Kick

is made by letting the ball fall from the hands, and kicking it as it rises.

A Place-Kick

is made by kicking the ball after it has been placed on the ground for the purpose.

A Punt

is made by letting the ball fall from the hands and kicking it before it touches the ground.

A Tackle

is when the holder of the ball is held by one or more players of the opposite side so that he cannot, at any moment while he is so held, pass or play it.

Note.—When a player is tackled with the ball, it can only be brought into play with the foot, but if a player carrying the ball be thrown or knocked over (but not tackled), and the ball touches the ground, he may nevertheless get up with it and continue his run or pass it.

A Scrummage

which can only take place in the field of play is formed by one or more players from each side closing round the ball when it is on the ground, or by their closing up in readiness to allow the ball to be put on the ground between them.

Note.—The Referee may order the ball to be put into the scrummage from either side as he may choose.

A player shall be considered as wilfully preventing the ball being fairly put into a scrummage under Law 11 (l) if before the ball is fairly in the scrummage—

(a) He moves either of his feet beyond the front line of his forwards.

(b) Follows the ball into the scrummage with either foot.

The ball is not fairly in the scrummage until it has passed a player on each side.

A Try

is gained by the player who first puts his hand on the ball on the ground in his opponents' in-goal

Note.—It is a try if a player passes or kicks the ball back behind his own goal-line and the ball is touched down by one of his opponents.

When an attacking side in a scrummage pushes the defending side over the goal-line and touches the ball down a try should be allowed, but if the ball be touched down by the defending side a touch-down should be allowed.

If a player touches the ball down behind his opponents' goal-line and picks it up again he should be allowed a try at the spot where it was first touched down. In the case of the ball rolling over the goal-line and touching a spectator before a player of either side has had time to touch it down, the Referee shall—

(a) Award a touch-down if he considers the ball would have gone dead before any attacking player could have touched it, or that a defending player would have touched it first.

(b) Award a try if he thinks but for the interference a try would have been scored.

(c) If in doubt, give the point against the side responsible for the ground arrangements, and in doing so he shall regard all officials and spectators as offending players on the home side.

A player who crosses the opponents' goal-line with the ball in his possession, and, before grounding it, touches the Referee, shall be allowed to try at the spot.

If the ball, not in possession of a player, strikes the Referee or Touch-Judge when in in-goal, a try should be awarded to the attacking side if, in the Referee's opinion, a try would undoubtedly have been obtained but for the ball touching the Referee or Touch-Judge. The Referee shall award a touch-down if he considers the ball would have gone dead or been touched-down by a defending player before any attacking player could have touched it.

A Touch-Down

is when a player touches down as above in his own in-goal.

A Goal

is obtained by kicking the ball from the field of play by any place-kick except a kick-off, or by any drop-kick except a drop-out without touching the ground or any player of either side, over the opponents' cross-bar, whether it touch such cross-bar or either goal-post or not.

Note.—A goal is scored if the ball has crossed the bar, although it may be blown back afterwards.

A kicker and a placer must be distinct persons, and the kicker may not under any circumstances touch the ball when on the ground, even though the charge has been disallowed.

Knocking-on and Throwing-Forward are propelling the ball by the hand or arm in the direction of the opponents' in-goal; a throw out of touch cannot be claimed as a throw-forward.

Note.—A rebound is not a kick-on, and therefore no fair-catch can be made therefrom, or a penalty given. This is important, as some Referees appear to regard a rebound as a knock-on. If the ball is passed back, but, after alighting on the ground, is blown forward, the pass is good, provided the ball did not alight in front of the passer.

A Fair-Catch

is a catch made direct from a kick, or knock-on, or throw-forward, by one of the opposite side; the catcher must immediately claim the same by making a mark with his heel at the spot where he made the catch.

Note.—If a player kicks the ball with his knee, or any part below it, and an opponent makes a fair-catch, a free-kick should be awarded.

A fair-catch can only be claimed by the catcher making his mark after he has caught the ball; the mark, however, must be made as soon after the ball is caught as possible; and in practice, Referees might allow a claim when the mark was simultaneously made with the catching. A fair-catch can be made in a player's own in-goal.

Kick-off

is a place-kick from the centre of the field of play; the opposite side may not stand within ten yards of the ball, nor charge until the ball be kicked, otherwise another kick-off shall be allowed. If the ball pitches in touch the opposite side may either accept the kick, have the ball kicked off again, or scrummaged in the centre of the ground.

Drop-Out

is a drop-kick from within twenty-five yards of the kicker's goal-line, within which distance the opposite side may not charge, otherwise another drop-out shall be allowed. If the ball pitches in touch the opposite side may either accept the kick, have the ball dropped-out again, or scrummaged at the centre of the twenty-five yards line.

At kick-off the ball must reach the limit of ten yards, and at drop-out must reach the twenty-five yards line. If otherwise the opposite side may have the ball re-kicked or scrummaged at the centre or in the middle of the twenty-five yards line, as the case may be.

Note.—A ball from a kick-off having reached 10 yards, and then been blown back, shall be considered as in play; as also a ball having reached the 25 yards line from a drop-out and blown back.

The limit of 10 yards means that distance parallel with the touch-lines.

If a player goes beyond the 25 yards to drop out, or if he punts, the Referee must blow his whistle and order the player to take a new kick, which must be a drop within the 25 yards limit.

Referees should not allow players to approach within 10 yards of the half-way line at a kick-off.

Off-side. (See Laws 7 and 8.)

Referee and Touch-Judges.

3. In all matches a referee and two touch-judges must be appointed, the former being mutually agreed upon.

Duties of Referee.

The referee must carry a whistle, the blowing of which shall stop the game. He must whistle in the following cases:—

(a) When a player makes and claims a fair-catch.

(b) When he notices rough or foul play or misconduct. For the first offence he shall either caution the player or order him off the ground, but for the second offence he must order him off. If ordered off, the player must be reported by him to this Union.

Note.—Law 3 (b) also covers the case of wilful obstruction or interference.

Referées must deal very sharply with all cases of this nature, as this has been a growing practice through players deciding to take the risk of a penalty to gain or save a try by unfair play. This practice is so contrary to the spirit of the game that it has been decided to deal with it upon the same footing as rough or foul play or misconduct.

If the Referee orders a man off, he must not allow him to take part in the game again, and must report him to the Union. The Referee should also report to this Union any player he has had to warn.

(c) When he considers that the continuation of the play is dangerous.

Note.—This point must be left entirely to the Referee, but the Union wish to point out that if the tackled player played the laws in the spirit in which they are written, and at once fairly parted with the ball, very few cases of danger would arise; but by holding on a short time danger may arise. In such a case the Referee should whistle and award the penalty of a free-kick instead of simply ordering a scrummage on the plea of danger, as by so doing he deprives one side of an advantage and does not inflict a penalty on the other, both of which are deserved.

If a player be hurt, the Referee should not whistle till the ball be dead, unless such hurt player is in a position that the continuance of play might entail further danger, and in no case should he permit a stoppage of play for more than three minutes.

(d) When he wishes to stop the game for any purpose.

Note.—See foot-note under Section (g) of this law.

(e) If the ball or a player running with the ball touch him, in which case it shall be scrummaged at the spot.

Note.—A player who crosses the opponents' goal-line with the ball in his possession, and then, before grounding it, touches the Referee, should be allowed a try at the spot where he touched him.

If the ball, not in possession of a player, strikes the Referee or Touch-Judge when in in-goal, a try should be scored for the attacking side if, in the Referee's opinion, a try would undoubtedly have been obtained but for the ball touching the Referee or Touch-Judge; otherwise a drop-out from the 25 should be ordered.

If a player running the ball out from his own in-goal touches the Referee, the ball is dead at the spot where he touches him, and a drop-out must be taken; except in the case of a player having run back behind his own goal-line, in which case the ball must be scrummaged at the spot whence it was carried back.

(f) At half-time and no-side, he being the sole timekeeper, having sole power to allow extra time for delays, but he shall not whistle for half-time or no-side until the ball be held or out of play.

Note.—At half-time the interval is not to exceed five minutes.

(g) When he notices any irregularity of play whereby the side committing such gain an advantage.

Note.—This is a most important law, and at present is not so generally observed by Referees as it should be. There is unfortunately a pronounced tendency on their part to whistle immediately a law has been infringed, without waiting to see who gains the advantage of the infringement. The Referee should not whistle when the non-offending side gain an advantage.

The Union desire to urge Referees to pay particular attention to this law, along with Law 20.

(h) When he notices a breach of Laws 5 and 15.

(i) When he wishes to enforce any penalty

(j) When a goal is kicked.

(k) When the ball goes into touch-in-goal.

Note.—No power is given to a Referee to whistle simply because a player is tackled with the ball, and this is one of the most important points to which the Union wish to direct the attention of players and Referees, as the habit of whistling the moment a man is tackled spoils the game by slowing it down and taking away any advantage a side of quick followers-up would otherwise gain. When a player with the ball is tackled, a Referee may only blow his whistle for one of the following cases:—

(1) Law 11 (b). When such player does not at once fairly put the ball down.

(2) Law 11 (c). When such player is on the ground and he does not at once fairly part with the ball, and either get up or roll away from the ball.

If a player breaks either of the above sub-sections, or interferes with the ball in any way while he is lying on the ground, the penalty of a free-kick should be enforced against him.

(3) Law 11 (d). When a player of the opposite side prevents such player either putting the ball down or getting up, the penalty of a free-kick shall be enforced against him.

Powers of Referee.

The referee shall be sole judge in all matters of fact but as to matters of law there shall be the right of appeal to the Board.

Note.—A Referee, once he has given his decision, cannot alter it, and his decision alone is final; he may, however, consult the Touch-Judges in case of touch and touch-in-goal play, and when they are taking post at kicks at goal, but the fact that it is now the duty of Touch-Judges to stand at the goal-posts when kicks at goal are being taken does not affect the right of the Referee to decide for himself whether a goal has been kicked or not, in the same way as he may decide whether the ball has gone into touch or not, he being the sole judge of matters of fact. Under all circumstances the Referees whistle must stop the game, even if blown inadvertently; and the Referee's decision as to time must be final, even if he has kept it inaccurately. On no account must the Referee consult with any outsider, except in the case of a failure of his watch, when he should in the first instance consult the Touch-Judges.

Duties of Touch-Judges.

The touch-judges shall carry flags, and shall each take one side of the ground, outside the field of play, and the duty of each shall be to hold up his flag when and where the ball goes into touch, or touch-in-goal, and also to assist the referee when kicks at goal from a try, fair-catch or free-kicks are being taken, each standing at a goal-post.

Note.—It may here be emphasised that the Referee is the sole judge as to matters of fact, and if he considers either Touch-Judge is not doing his duty fairly, he not only has the right, but should certainly exercise it, of overruling any decisions such Touch-Judge may give.

It is the duty of the Touch-Judge, subject to the decision of the Referee, to say to which side he considers the ball in touch belongs.

Rules.

4. The captains of the respective sides shall toss for the choice of in-goals or the kick-off. Each side shall play an equal time from each in-goal, and a match shall be won by a majority of points; if no point be scored, or the number be equal, the match shall be drawn.

Scoring.

The following shall be the mode of scoring:—

A try	equals 3 points.
A goal from a try (in which case the try shall not count)	" 5 "
A dropped goal (except from a mark or a penalty-kick)	" 4 "
A goal from a mark or a penalty-kick	" 3 "

Kick-off.

5. At the time of the kick-off all the kicker's side shall be behind the ball; if any be in front, the referee shall blow his whistle and order a scrummage where the kick-off took place. The game shall be started by a kick-off—

(a) After a goal, by the side losing such goal, and

(b) After half-time by the opposite side to that which started the game.

III. MODE OF PLAY—DEFINITIONS.

6. When once the game is started, the ball may be kicked or picked up and run with by any player who is on-side, at the time; except that it may not be picked up—

(a) In a scrummage.

(b) When it has been put down after a tackle.

(c) When it is on the ground after a player has been tackled.

Note.—When a player is tackled with the ball, it can only be brought into play with the foot.

It may be passed or knocked from one player to another provided it be not passed, knocked or thrown forward. If a player while holding or running with the ball be tackled, he must at once put it fairly down between him and his opponents' goal-line.

Off-side.

7. A player is placed off-side if he enters a scrummage from his opponents' side, or if the ball has been kicked, touched, or is being run with by one of his own side behind him. A player can be off-side in his opponents' in-goal, but not in his own, except where one of his side takes a free-kick behind his goal-line, in which case all of his side must be behind the ball when kicked.

Note.—A player may play in any position so long as he is on-side and does not obstruct his opponents. He may come up to a scrummage and attempt to hook the ball out with his foot, provided the other foot is behind the ball.

8. An off-side player is placed on-side—

(a) When an opponent has run five yards with the ball.

(b) When the ball has been kicked by or has touched an opponent.

(c) When one of his side has run in front of him with the ball.

(d) When one of his side has run in front of him, having kicked the ball when behind him.

Note.—A player must be in the field-of-play when he puts his men on-side after kicking the ball when behind them. Whilst he is not debarred from starting running up in touch, he must get into the field-of-play as soon as possible. It must be observed that only the kicker can place the off-side players on-side.

An off-side player shall not play the ball, nor actively or passively obstruct an opponent, nor approach, nor wilfully remain within ten yards of any opponent waiting for the ball. On any breach of this law, the opposite side shall be awarded, at their option—

(1) A free-kick, the place of such breach being taken as the mark.

(2) A scrummage at the spot where the ball was last played by the offending side before such breach occurred.

Note.—It is important that Referees should more strictly enforce these penalties, and it should be observed that a Referee must award a free-kick if he thinks a fair-catch would have been made had not an off-side player, through his proximity and not retiring beyond the 10 yards limit, rendered such catch more difficult. For instance, a player waiting to receive the ball fails to catch it properly, and it drops from his hands to the ground. An opponent who is off-side, and who is standing or has approached within 10 yards of him, immediately pounces upon him and prevents him recovering and playing the ball. A free-kick should be awarded, as it was the duty of the off-side player to have retired beyond the 10 yards limit.

Except in the case of unintentional off-side, when a scrummage shall be formed where such breach occurred.

Referees too often give offending players the benefit of unintentional off-side, instead of inflicting the free-kick penalty.

A player when off-side can intercept a pass from an opposing player, but he can only make a mark for a fair-catch if the pass intercepted is a forward one.

It has been ruled that a player who has made a miskick when the opposite side are charging, and the ball hits one of his off-side players, cannot claim a scrummage for unintentional off-side, provided the charging side gain an advantage, even though that be a try.

Fair-Catch.

9. If a player makes a fair-catch a free-kick shall be awarded even though the whistle has been blown for a knock-on or a throw-forward. Any player on the same side may take the kick or place the ball.

Free-Kicks.

10. All free-kicks may be place-kicks, drop-kicks or punts, but must be in the direction of the opponents' goal-line, and across the kicker's goal-line, if kicked from behind the same. They may be taken at any spot behind the mark in a line parallel to the touch-lines. In all cases the kicker's side must be behind the ball when it is kicked, except the player who may be placing the ball for a place-kick, and it is the duty of the referee to see that the ball be kicked from the parallel line. In case of any infringement of this law the referee shall order a scrummage at the mark. The opposite side may come up to and charge from anywhere on or behind a line drawn through the mark and parallel to the goal-lines, and may charge as soon as the kicker commences to run or offers to kick, or the ball be placed on the ground for a place-kick, but in case of a drop-kick or punt the kicker may always draw back, and unless he has dropped the ball the opposite side must retire to the line of the mark. But if any of the opposite side do charge before the player having the ball commences to run or offers to kick, or the ball has touched the ground for a place-kick (and this applies to tries at goal as well as free-kicks), provided the kicker has not taken his kick, the charge may be disallowed.

Note.—In cases of players waiting to charge when a kick after a try, fair-catch, or a free-kick is about to be taken, they must remain behind the goal-line or behind the mark with both feet, and any standing over the goal-line or over the mark with one foot shall be considered to have charged, and the Referee shall blow his whistle and award no-charge; the Referee shall also be particular that any side waiting behind the mark do not gradually come up beyond the mark, which act shall be considered as a charge. When a player is placing the ball he shall not wilfully do anything which may lead his opponents to think he has put the ball down when he has not; if he does, the charge shall not be disallowed. Even when a charge has been disallowed, the would-be chargers may, provided they remain behind the mark, jump up and attempt to stop or touch the ball; if they so touch it, no goal can be scored.

If a Referee whistles to disallow a charge just as a kicker takes his kick, such kicker shall have the option of another kick: that is, if he has kicked a goal he can allow it to stand; if he has not, he can take a second kick.

If a free-kick has been granted, and, after a charge by the defending side has been disallowed, the kicker touches the ball when it is on the ground, the Referee must order a scrummage.

Any player except the kicker may place or, after a charge has been disallowed, replace the ball or alter the spot for a place-kick.

IV. PENALTIES.

II. Free-kicks by way of penalties shall be awarded if any player—

(a) Intentionally either handles the ball or falls down in a scrummage, or picks the ball out of a scrummage, or picks it up in a scrummage either by hands, feet, or legs.

(b) Does not immediately put the ball down in front of him on being tackled.

(c) Being on the ground, does not immediately get up.

Note.—Players must understand that the penalty will be inflicted if they interfere with the ball in any way while they are lying on the ground.

(d) Prevents an opponent getting up or putting down the ball.

(e) Illegally tackles, charges or obstructs as in Law 8.

(f) Wilfully holds an opponent who has not got the ball.

(g) Wilfully hacks, hacks-over or trips-up.

Note.—Although a penalty of a free-kick is now given, the Referee should still caution a player or even order him off the ground if such hacking or tripping-up constitutes rough play.

(h) Wilfully puts the ball unfairly into a scrummage, or, the ball having come out, wilfully returns it by hand or foot into the scrummage.

(i) Not himself running for the ball, charges or obstructs an opponent not holding the ball.

Note.—In cases where two opposing players are running for the ball, a player overtaking another may not shove the over-taken player from behind. If he does, it is illegal, and should be penalised by a free-kick. This would not, however, apply when the overtaken player had reached the ball and was stooping down to pick it up. A player running at the ball may charge an opponent also running at the ball, but such charge may only be shoulder to shoulder.

(j) Shouts "all on-side," or words to that effect, when his players are not on-side.

Note.—This is intended to apply chiefly to a back having kicked the ball and, while following up, he or others of his side shout "on-side" when he has not yet placed his side on-side.

(k) Not in a scrummage, wilfully obstructs his opponents' backs by remaining on his opponents' side of the ball when it is in a scrummage.

Note.—This prohibits forwards as well as backs standing in front of the ball so as to mark opposing backs, and should be strictly enforced. While wishful to emphasise this, the Union would also point out that it is not intended thereby to penalise a half-back who unintentionally overruns the ball in a scrummage.

(l) Wilfully prevents the ball being fairly put into a scrummage.

Note.—Loose-head is to be dealt with as "wilfully preventing" under this head.

A player shall be considered as wilfully preventing the ball being fairly put into the scrummage if before the ball is fairly in the scrummage—

(a) He moves either of his feet beyond the front line of his forwards.

(b) Follows the ball into the scrummage with either foot.

The ball is not fairly in the scrummage until it has passed a player on each side.

(m) If any player or team wilfully and systematically breaks any law or laws for which the penalty is only a scrummage, or causes unnecessary loss of time.

(n) Being in a scrummage, lifts a foot from the ground before the ball has been put into such scrummage.

The places of infringement shall be taken as the mark, and any one of the side granted the free-kick may place or kick the ball.

On breach of sub-section (j) the opposite side shall be awarded at their option—

(1) A scrummage where the ball was last played.

(2) A free-kick at the place of infringement.

V. GENERAL—BALL-IN-TOUCH.

12. The ball is in-touch when it, or a player carrying it, touches or crosses the touch-line; it shall then belong to the side opposite to that last touching it in the field of play except when a player carrying the ball is forced into touch by an opponent. One of the side to whom the ball belongs shall bring it into play at the spot where it went into touch by one of the following methods:—

Throw-out.

(a) Throwing it out so as to alight at right angles to the touch-line; or

Touch.

(b) Scrummaging it at any spot at right angles to the touch-line, ten yards from the place where it went into touch.

If the referee blows his whistle because the ball has been thrown out so as not to alight at right angles to the touch-line, the opposite side shall bring it out as in (b).

Note.—It is the duty of the Referee when the ball is taken out of touch, as in (b), to see that it is scrummaged 10 yards from the touch-line.

“Forced into touch by an opponent” means “physically” forced. When a player is penalised for illegally throwing the ball out of touch, the penalty kick should be given 10 yards from the touch-line.

Try-at-Goal.

13. When a side has scored a try, the ball shall be brought from the spot where the try was gained into the field of play in a line parallel to the touch-lines, such distance as the placer thinks proper, and there he shall place the ball for one of his side to try to kick a goal; this place-kick is governed by Law 10 as to charging, etc., the mark being taken as on the goal-line. It is the duty of the referee to see that the ball is taken out straight.

In the case of a kick for goal from mark, penalty or try, if, in the opinion of the referee, the ball is illegally stopped after the kick has been taken, and he is of opinion that a goal would otherwise undoubtedly have been gained, he shall have power to award the goal.

Note.—Any player except the kicker may place, or, after a charge has been disallowed, he or another of his side (other than the kicker) may replace the ball or alter the spot for a place-kick. If a try has been scored, and after a charge by the defending side has been disallowed, the kicker touches the ball when it is on the ground, the Referee must order a "drop-out," the illegal act of the kicker in so handling the ball making it an unsuccessful try within the meaning of Law 15.

This instruction also applies to a kick at goal from a free-kick, but in that case a scrummage should be ordered.

Unfair Play—Allowing or Disallowing a Try.

The referee shall award a try, if in his opinion one would undoubtedly have been obtained but for unfair play or interference of the defending side. Or he shall disallow a try, and adjudge a touch-down, if in his opinion a try would undoubtedly not have been gained but for unfair play or interference of the attacking side. In case of a try so allowed the kick at goal shall be taken at any point on a line parallel to the touch-lines, and passing through the spot where the ball was when such unfair play or interference took place.

In case of any dispute relative to a try, where it is possible an appeal may be made to the Union, Referees are recommended to allow a kick at goal, so that if the Union afterwards allows the try, the goal points may be added if the kick was successful.

Ball Held in In-Goal.

14. If the ball, when over the goal-line and in possession of a player, be fairly held before it is grounded, it shall be scrummaged five yards from the goal-line, opposite the spot where the ball was held.

Drop-Out.

15. After an unsuccessful try or touch-down, or if the ball after crossing the goal-line go into touch-in-goal or touch or cross the dead-ball line, it shall be brought into play by means of a drop-out, when all the kicker's side must be behind the ball when kicked; in case any are in front, the referee shall order a scrummage on the twenty-five yards line and equidistant from the touch-lines.

Knock-on, Throw-forward.

16. In case of a throw-forward or knock-on, the ball shall be brought back to the place where such infringement occurred and there be scrummaged, unless a fair-catch has been allowed, or the opposite side gain an advantage, or unless in the opinion of the referee such throw-forward or knock-on is wilful, when he may award a free-kick to be taken at the spot where such infringement occurred. This shall not apply to a wilful throw-forward or knock-on into touch, which must be dealt with under Law 16 (a).

16a. If a player shall wilfully pass, knock, or throw, the ball into touch, the opposite side may claim either a free kick or scrummage. Such free kick or scrummage is to be taken at their option, either

(a) At a spot at right angles to the touch-line ten yards from the place where the ball went into touch, or

(b) At the spot where such pass, knock, or throw occurred.

In the case of a free-kick the "spot," whether under (a) or (b) shall be taken as the mark.

This Law shall not over-ride the power of the referee to allow or disallow a try under Law 13.

Pass or Carry Back over own Goal-Line.

17. If a player shall wilfully kick, pass, knock, or carry the ball back across his own goal-line, and it there be made dead, the opposite side may claim that the ball shall be brought back and a scrummage formed at the spot whence it was kicked, passed, knocked or carried back. Under any other circumstances a player may touch the ball down in his own in-goal.

Note.—Heeling back over own goal-line shall be considered as wilfully kicking back. If, when a ball is passed back, the would-be receiver fumbles it so that it goes over his own goal-line, the Referee shall decide whether such fumble was intentional or not, and decide accordingly.

Hacking, Tripping, Dress.

18. Hacking, hacking-over or tripping-up are illegal. The referee shall have full power to decide what part of a player's dress, including boots and projections thereon, buckles, rings, etc., are dangerous, and having once decided that any part is dangerous shall order such player to remove the same, and shall not allow him to take further part in the game until such be removed.

If studs are worn, such may be cylindrical, not more than three-quarter inch long, measured from the sole of the boot, and not less than three-quarter inch in diameter at the base and one-half inch at the top, and shall be fastened with not less than three nails.

Note—It is the duty of the Referee to see that this law is complied with by players.

Irregularities in In-Goal, not otherwise provided for.

19. In case of any law being infringed in in-goal by the attacking side, a touch-down shall be awarded, but where such breach is committed by the defending side, a scrummage shall be awarded five yards from the goal-line opposite to the spot where the breach occurred.

Other Irregularities, not provided for.

20. If when a law is broken, or any irregularity of play occurs not otherwise provided for, and any advantage is gained therefrom by the opposite side, the referee shall not blow his whistle, but shall allow the game to proceed; but if no advantage is gained by such side, and if no other procedure is provided, the ball shall be taken back to the place where the breach of the law or irregularity occurred, and a scrummage formed there.

REVIEW OF SEASON 1912-13

Nothing was more curious in regard to the International matches of 1912-13 season than that England, playing at Twickenham, could beat Scotland by only a try to nothing, after being able to boast decisive victories over Wales, Ireland, and France. Scotland's only successes were against France and Ireland. Unpleasantness arose out of the French match, played at Paris, and, as a consequence, the Scottish Football Union decided that there should be no fixture with that country this season.

A South African team visited Great Britain and defeated all of the home nations, the victory over Scotland being by 16 points to 0. Wales was beaten by only a penalty goal to nil, which was the closest result returned by the Colonials in the International series of games.

Glasgow Academicals had the best record among Scottish clubs, so far as actual wins and losses were concerned. Hawick won the Border Championship, with Jedforest runners-up; Merchiston College and Edinburgh Academy tied for the Public Schools Championship; while Edinburgh beat Glasgow in the Inter-City match, and now has 18 victories to Glasgow's 15.

N.B.—The twenty-five yards line must not be fully drawn, but only its extremities (seven yards only to be marked at each end), as shown in this plan.

HOCKEY

RULES OF THE GAME

Teams.

1. A game of hockey shall be played by two teams of eleven players. The correct constitution of a team is five forwards, three half-backs, two backs, and a goalkeeper, but this formation shall not be compulsory. The duration of the game shall be seventy minutes (unless otherwise agreed by the respective captains), half-time being called after thirty-five minutes' play, when the teams shall change ends.

Captains.

2. The captains shall (1) toss for choice of ends; (2) act as umpires, if there be no umpires, or delegate the duties of umpires to one member of their respective teams; and (3) indicate the goalkeepers for their respective teams before starting play, and after any change of goalkeeper.

Ground.

3. The ground shall be rectangular, one hundred yards long and not more than sixty yards nor less than fifty-five yards wide. The ground shall be marked with white lines in accordance with plan on page 208; the longer boundary lines to be called the side-lines, and the shorter boundary lines to be called the goal-lines. A flag-post shall be placed for the whole game at each corner, also at the centre of each side-line, one yard outside the line, and any other flag-posts must be a yard outside the line. All flag-posts shall be at least four feet high.

Goals, Posts, etc.

4. A goal shall be in the centre of each goal-line, and shall consist of two posts four yards apart (inside measurement), joined together by a horizontal cross-bar seven feet from the ground. The goal-posts shall not extend upward beyond the cross-bar, nor the cross-bar sideways beyond the goal-posts. The posts shall be two inches broad, and not more than three inches in depth, and the cross-bars shall have rectangular edges. Nets shall be attached to the posts, cross-bars, and to the ground behind the goals.

Striking-Circle.

5. In front of each goal shall be drawn a white line four yards long, parallel to, and fifteen yards from, the goal-line. This line shall be continued each way to meet the goal-line by quarter circles having the goal-posts as centres. The space enclosed by these lines and the goal-lines, including the lines themselves, shall be called the striking-circle.

Ball.

6. The ball shall be a leather cricket ball painted white or made of white leather.

Umpires shall forbid the use of any other ball.

Sticks.

7. A stick shall have a flat face on its left-hand side only. The head of a stick (that is the part below the top of the splice) shall not be edged with or have insets or fittings of hard wood or of any other substance, nor shall there be any sharp edges or dangerous splinters. Each stick must be of such size that it can be passed through a two-inch ring. An india-rubber ring, four inches in external diameter when on the stick, may be used, but, everything included, the total weight must not exceed twenty-eight ounces. The extremity of the stick must not be cut square or pointed, but must have rounded edges.

Umpires shall prohibit play with a stick which does not comply with this rule.

NOTE.—Surgical binding on the head of the stick is allowed, subject to its not preventing the head passing through a two-inch ring.

Boots, etc.

8. No player shall wear any dangerous material such as spikes or nails, etc.

Bully-off.

9. The game shall be started by one player of each team together bullying the ball in the centre of the ground (and after each goal and half-time). To bully the ball each player shall strike first the ground on his own side of the ball, and then his opponent's stick three times alternately; after which one of these two players must strike the ball before it is in general play. In all cases of bullying, the two players who are bullying shall stand squarely facing the side-lines. Every other player shall be nearer to his own goal-line than the ball is (except in the case of a penalty-bully), and shall not (except in the case of a bully in the circle) stand within three yards of the players participating in the bully.

For any breach of this rule the bully shall be taken again.

Goal.

10. A goal is scored when the whole ball has passed entirely over the goal-line under the bar, the ball, whilst within the striking-circle, having been hit by or glanced off the stick of an attacker. Should the goal-posts or bar become displaced, and the ball pass at a point which, in the opinion of the umpire, is between where the posts or below where the bar should have been, he shall give a goal.

Off-side.

11. When a player hits or rolls-in the ball, any other player of the same team who is nearer his opponents' goal-line than the striker or roller-in at the moment when the ball is hit or rolled-in is off-side, unless there be at least three of his opponents nearer to their own goal-line than he is. He may not play the ball nor in any way interfere with any other player until the ball has been touched or hit by one of his opponents. No player, however, shall be off-side in his own half of the ground, nor if the ball was last touched or hit by one of his opponents, or by one of his own team who, at the time of hitting, is nearer his opponents' goal-line than himself.

Inside or outside the circles—For any breach the penalty shall be a free hit by one of the opposing team on the spot where the breach occurred.

General Details.

12. The ball may be caught (but must be immediately released to fall perpendicularly to the ground) or stopped, but may not be picked up, carried, kicked, thrown or knocked on or back, except with the stick. No player shall gain an advantage by the use of any part of his person or apparel except such as may accrue from stopping the ball; the foot, if used for that purpose, shall be taken away immediately. There shall be no play with the rounded back of the stick, no charging, kicking, shoving, shinning, tripping, personal handling or hooking. Hooking sticks is allowed only when the stick hooked is within striking distance of the ball. There shall be no striking at sticks. A player may not obstruct by running in between his opponent and the ball, nor cross his opponent's left, unless he touches the ball before his opponent's person or stick, nor may he in any way interpose himself as an obstruction.

The goalkeeper shall not be penalised if, in stopping a hit at goal, the ball does not fall perpendicularly to the ground, having in the umpire's opinion merely rebounded off his open hand. He shall also be allowed to kick the ball, but only in his own striking-circle. In the event of his taking part in a penalty-bully these two privileges shall not be allowed him. No player shall in any way interfere with the game unless his stick is in his hand.

(1) Outside the circles—For any breach the penalty shall be a free hit for one of the opposing team on the spot where the breach occurred.

(2) Inside the circles—(a) For any breach by the attacking team the penalty shall be a free hit for the defending team. (b) For any breach by the defending team the penalty shall be a "penalty-corner" or a "penalty-bully" on the spot where the breach occurred. A penalty-bully should only be given for a wilful breach of a rule, or when a goal would most probably have been scored but for the occurrence of the breach of the rule.

(3) Inside or outside the circles—In the event of two players being simultaneously at fault, the umpire shall give a bully at the spot where the breach of rule occurred.

Sticks.

13. When a player strikes at the ball no part of his stick must in any event rise above his shoulders at either the beginning or end of the stroke.

(1) Inside or outside the circles—In the event of two players being simultaneously at fault, the umpire shall give a bully at the spot where the breach of rule occurred.

(2) Outside the circles—For any breach the penalty shall be a free hit for one of the opposing team on the spot where the breach occurred.

(3) Inside the circles—(a) For any breach by the attacking team the penalty shall be a free hit for the defending team. (b) For any breach by the defending team the penalty shall be a penalty-corner or a penalty-bully (except in the case of sticks, when a penalty-corner only shall be allowed). A penalty-bully should only be given for a wilful breach of a rule, or when a goal would most probably have been scored but for the occurrence of the breach of the rule.

Undercutting.

14. No player shall intentionally undercut the ball.

NOTE.—This rule is not intended to penalise the "scoop" stroke which raises the ball, nor the hitting of the ball when in the air, except as provided for in Rule 15.

Penalties same as Nos. (2) and (3) of Rule 13.

Free Hit.

15. On the occasion of a free hit, no other player than the striker shall be within five yards of the spot where such hit is made. Should, however, the umpire consider that a player is standing within five yards to gain time he shall not stop the game. After taking such hit the striker shall not participate in the game until the ball has been touched or hit by another player. He must fairly hit the ball, "scooping-up" not being allowed. If the striker hit at but miss the ball, the stroke shall be taken again by him, provided that he has not given "sticks."

If any player other than the striker be within five yards of the ball at the time of a free hit, the umpire shall order the hit to be taken again, except as specially provided for in this rule.

If the striker, after taking such hit, participates in the game again before the ball has been touched or hit by another player—

(1) Inside the circles—The umpire shall give a penalty-corner. (2) Outside the circles—The umpire shall give a free hit to one of the opposite team to the offender.

If the ball is scooped-up—

(1) Outside the circles—The umpire shall give a free hit to one of the opposite team to the offender. (2) Inside the circles—The umpire shall give a "penalty-corner."

Penalty-Bully.

16. A penalty-bully shall be played by the offender, and by any player selected by the other team on the spot where the breach occurred. All other players shall be beyond the nearer twenty-five yards line in the field of play, and shall not cross such twenty-five yards line, or take any further part in the game until the penalty-bully is completed. If, during the progress of a penalty-bully, the ball goes over any part of the goal-line other than that between the goal-posts off the stick or person of the offender, the penalty-bully shall be taken again; if the ball goes over the goal-line between the goal-posts off the stick of the attacker or stick or person of the offender, a penalty goal shall be awarded to the attacking team; in all other cases as soon as the ball has passed wholly over the goal-line (not between the goal-posts) or outside the striking circle, the game shall be restarted by a bully on the centre of the nearer twenty-five yards line.

(a) Breach of any rule by the offender (except Rule 9).
The attacking team shall be awarded a penalty goal which shall be of the same value as an ordinary goal.

- (b) Breach of any rule by the player selected by the attacking team (except Rule 9). The defending team shall be allowed a free hit.
- (c) Simultaneous breach of any rule by both players. The bully shall be taken again.

Roll-in.

17. When a ball passes wholly over the side-line, it shall be rolled-in along the ground (and not bounced) into play by hand from the point where it crossed the side-line in any direction by one of the team opposite to that of the player who last touched it. Players may cross the five yards line immediately the ball leaves the hand of the roller-in. The ball may be rolled-in at once, but no other player shall stand (himself or his stick) within the five yards line or outside the side-line; should, however, the umpire consider that a player is standing within the five yards line or outside the side-line to gain time, he shall not stop the game. The roller-in must have both feet and stick behind the side-line, and may only play the ball again after another player.

- (a) Breach of the rule by the player who rolls-in.
The roll-in shall be taken by a player of the other team.
- (b) Breach of the rule by any other player.
The roll-in shall be taken again, except as specially provided for in this rule.

Behind.

18. (a) If the ball is sent behind the goal-line by a player of the attacking team, or glance off the stick or person of, or be unintentionally, in the umpire's opinion, sent behind the goal-line by one of the defending team who is farther away from his own goal-line than the twenty-five yards line, it shall be brought out twenty-five yards in a direction at right angles to the goal-line from the point where it crossed the line and there bullied.

(b) If the ball glances off, or is, in the umpire's opinion, unintentionally sent behind the goal-line by any player of the defending team behind the twenty-five yards line, he (the umpire) shall give a corner to the attacking team.

(c) If, however, the ball is intentionally, in the umpire's opinion, sent behind the goal-line by any player of the defending team, the umpire shall give a penalty-corner to the attacking team.

Corner.

19. A player of the attacking team shall have a hit from a point on the side or goal line within three yards of the nearest corner-flag, and at the moment of such hit all the defending team (their sticks and feet) must be behind their own goal-line, and all the attacking team must be outside the circle in the field of play.

Provided that no player shall stand within five yards of a striker when a corner hit is taken, and that no goal can be scored from a corner hit by the attacking team unless the ball has been stopped (not necessarily motionless) on the ground by one of the attacking team, or has touched the person or stick of one of the defending team before the last stroke of the attacking team. A player taking a corner hit cannot participate in the game again until the ball has been touched or hit by another player. On taking a corner hit, if the striker miss the ball he shall take the hit again, provided he does not contravene Rule 13.

If the striker after taking such hit participates in the game again before the ball has been touched or hit by another player, the umpire shall give a free hit to one of the opposite team to the offender.

If any player, when the corner is hit out, without attempting to stop the ball, takes a flying hit at goal, the umpire shall award a free hit to the defending team.

Penalty-Corner.

20. A player of the attacking team shall have a hit from any point on the goal-line he may choose, and at the moment of such hit all the defending team (their sticks and feet) must be behind their own goal-line; also all the attacking team must be outside the striking-circle in the field of play.

Provided that no player shall stand within five yards of the striker when a penalty-corner hit is taken, and that no penalty-corner hit shall be taken at a less distance than ten yards from the nearest goal-post, and that no goal can be scored from a corner hit by the attacking team unless the ball has been stopped (not necessarily motionless) on the ground by one of the attacking team, or has touched the person or stick of one of the defending team before the last stroke of the attacking team. A player hitting a penalty-corner hit cannot participate in the game again until the ball has been touched or hit by another player. On taking a penalty-corner hit, if the striker miss the ball he shall take the hit again, provided he does not contravene Rule 13.

If the striker after taking such hit participates in the game again before the ball has been touched or hit by another player, the umpire shall give a free hit to one of the opposite team to the offender.

If any player, when the corner is hit out, without attempting to stop the ball, takes a flying hit at goal, the umpire shall award a free hit to the defending team.

Umpires.

21. Each umpire shall take half the ground for the whole game without changing ends. He shall also take one side-line, and give decisions as to the roll-in (but not the corner hit) in both halves of the ground. The umpire shall allow (the elements permitting) the full or agreed time, neither more nor less, deducting all wastage, and keep a record of the game. In the event of a penalty bully falling to be taken on the call of half-time or time, an umpire shall allow extra time until either a goal has been scored or the penalty bully has been completed. Until a decision is given the ball is in play. If there be only one umpire there should be two linesmen to give decisions as to the ball passing over the side-lines, and as to where and by which team the ball shall be rolled-in.

Umpires and linesmen are debarred from coaching during a game.

The umpire shall refrain from putting the provision of any rule into effect in cases where he is satisfied that by enforcing it he would be giving an advantage to the offending team. The umpires shall give all decisions without waiting for an appeal.

Rough Play and Misconduct.

22. For rough play or misconduct the umpire shall have a discretionary power to warn the offending player, or to suspend him from further participation in the game.

Accidents.

23. When a player is temporarily incapacitated, the umpire shall suspend the game. When it is resumed the ball shall be bullied off on a spot to be chosen by the umpire in whose half of the ground the player was hurt.

REVIEW OF SEASON 1912-13

It was the old, old story last season of England's invincibility in the series of international games. Ireland, Scotland, and Wales had each to bow the knee to her. Scotland beat Wales by 3 goals to 1, lost to Ireland by 2 goals to 1, and lost to England by 5 goals to 0. This season Scotland plays her match against England at home, also the Welsh fixture.

In club hockey, the Western H.C. enjoyed an unique distinction for them, as they finished with the best record of the clubs in the East and West of Scotland. Edinburgh University had also a successful team, and of the Eastern clubs created the best record.

It is unfortunate that we have to record the dissolution of more than one prominent club during the close season, notably Carlton and Edinburgh, yet there is reason to hope that the game during the new season will have a good measure of prosperity.

A few alterations in the Rules of the Game will be observed, the rules affected being Nos. 16, 17, 19, and 20.

This is the New Chesterfield, and is a style which has been decreed "correct" for this season. —
