

The FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

1881-1931

R 95 f

National Library of Scotland

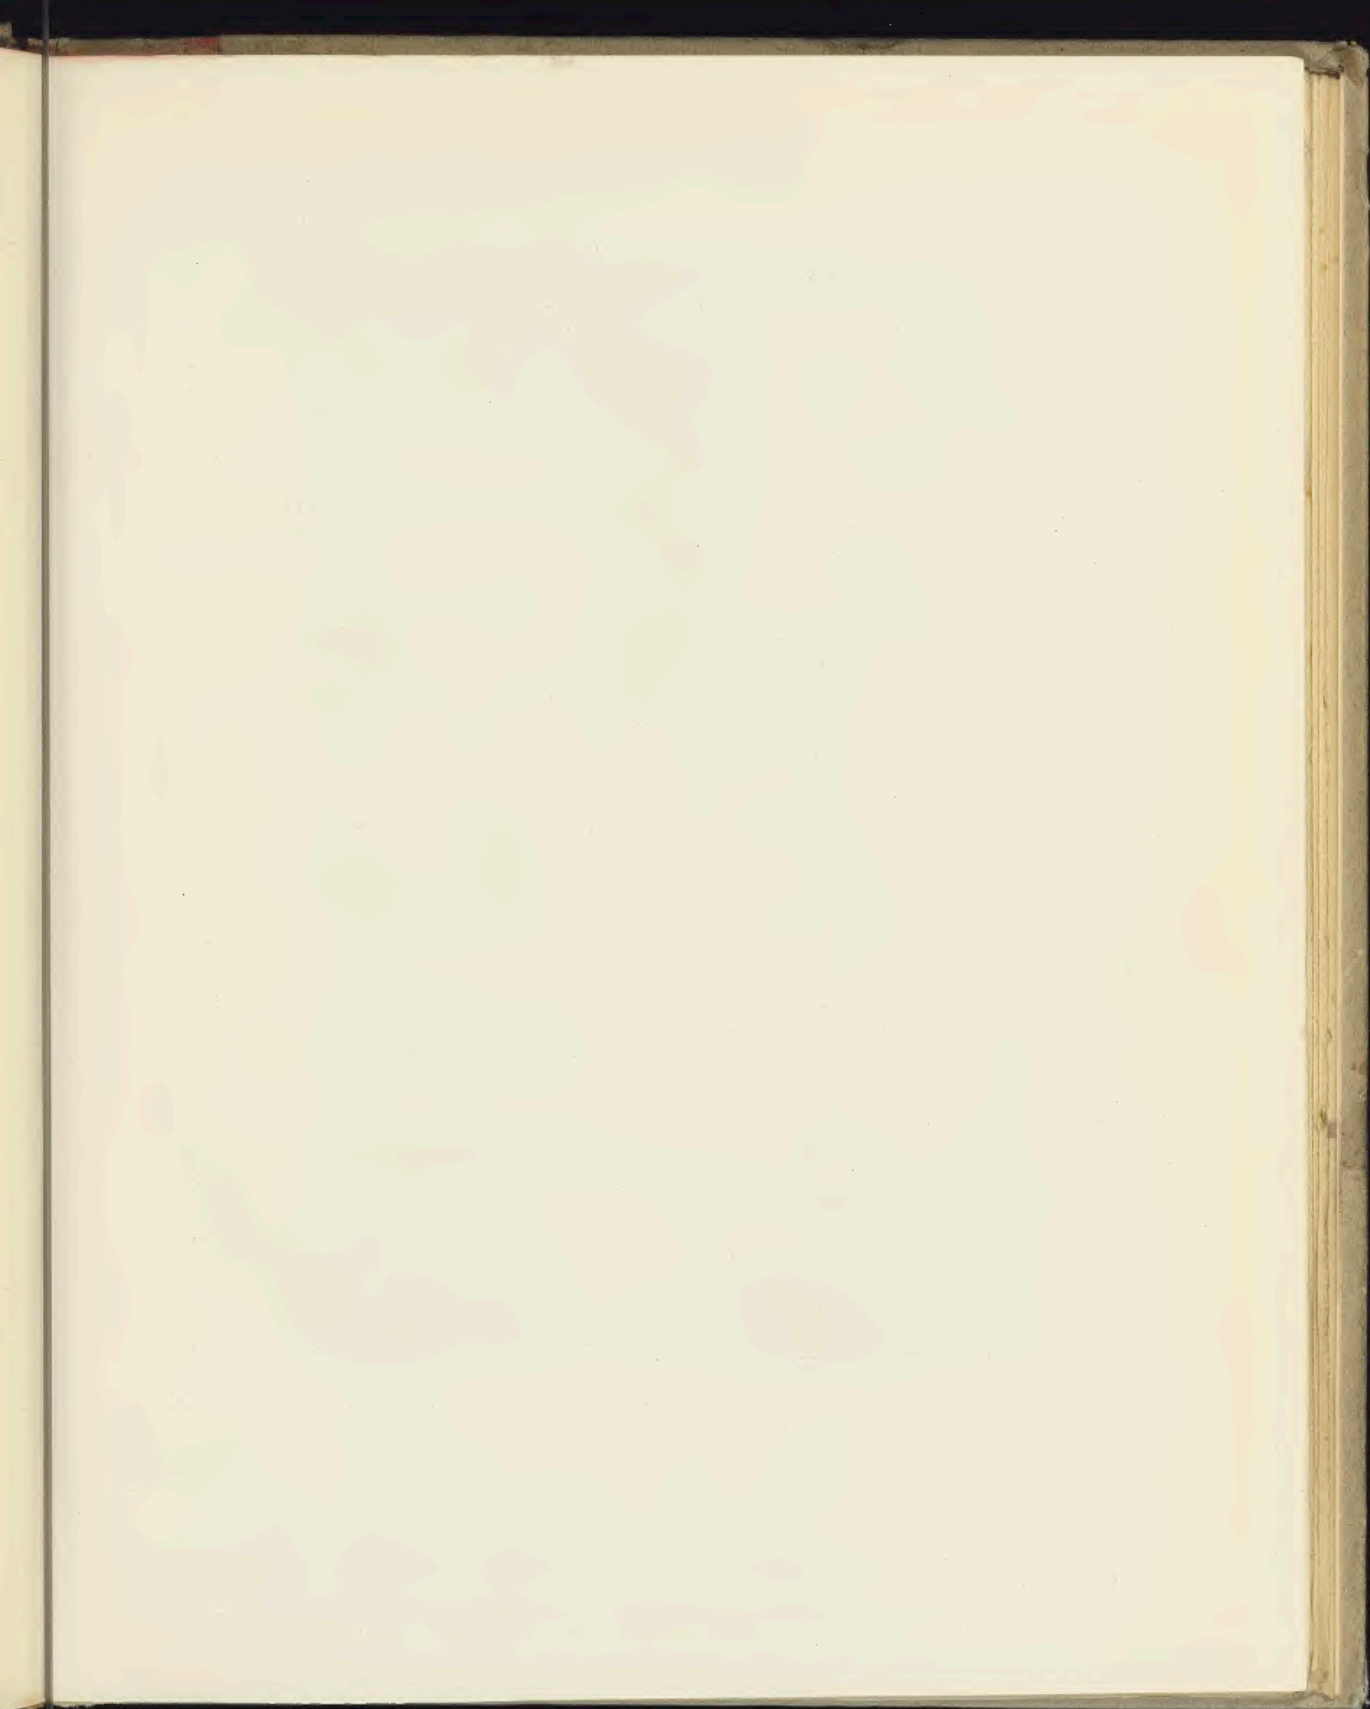

B000594450

The FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB
1881-1931

THE STATIONER & PRINTER
1871

FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN XI. v. HARROGATE—1880

Back Row (left to right): J. H. J. Hornsby, A. Nimmo, J. Steel, J. J. Johnson, W. D. Sellar
 Front Row: W. M. Duncan, C. W. Dunlop, G. Robertson-Chaplin (Capt.), A. R. Don Wauchope, D. J. MacFarlan
 Inset: H. B. Tristram

x

The FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB
1881-1931

EDINBURGH PRIVATELY PRINTED BY
R. & R. CLARK, LIMITED

1931

CONTENTS

	PAGE
THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB	I
THE FOOTBALL TOURS	14
THE CRICKET TOURS	56
PAST AND PRESENT OFFICE-BEARERS	79
LIST OF INTERNATIONAL PLAYERS	82
LIST OF "BLUES"	86
SUMMARIES OF RESULTS	95

CONTENTS

1	The Introduction
2	The History of the
3	The Origin of the
4	The Development of the
5	The Importance of the
6	The Conclusion

ILLUSTRATIONS

FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN XI. v. HARROGATE—1880	.	Frontispiece
FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN XV. v. MANCHESTER—1881	.	face p. 16
FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN TEAM v. MARLBOROUGH NOMADS— MANCHESTER, 1883	„ 20
FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN XV. v. BRADFORD—1885	.	„ 28
FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN XV. v. BRADFORD—1888	.	„ 32
FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN XV. v. BRADFORD—1889	.	„ 36
FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN FOOTBALL TEAM—1900	.	„ 44
FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN FOOTBALL TEAM—1904	.	„ 48
FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN FOOTBALL TEAM—1906	.	„ 52
FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN XI. v. CHESHIRE GENTLEMEN—1889	.	„ 60
FETTESIAN-LORETTONIANS v. OLD REPTONIANS, AT REPTON—1890	.	„ 64

ILLUSTRATIONS

1	General Introduction
2	Geographical Distribution of the Species
3	Historical Notes on the Species
4	Physical Characteristics of the Species
5	Behavioral Characteristics of the Species
6	Reproductive Characteristics of the Species
7	Feeding Habits of the Species
8	Enemies of the Species
9	Conservation Status of the Species
10	Summary and Conclusions

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

THIS year (1931) the Fettesian-Lorettonian Club completes the fiftieth year of its existence, and the celebration of its Jubilee has been deemed a fitting occasion for the publication of an account of its origin and achievements.

Many of the younger members are probably unfamiliar with the circumstances which led to the formation of the Club. The opportunity has therefore been taken to compile this record while many of those who were actively concerned in giving permanent form to a "coalition" that has so well stood the test of time are happily still able to speak on the subject from personal knowledge.

In some respects the F.-L. Club occupies a unique position. This combination of the Old Boys of two Schools which have for nearly sixty years been engaged in keen but friendly rivalry was something in the nature of an experiment in athletic organisation, and the fact that after an existence of over half a century the alliance is so closely knit is the best proof of the soundness of its basis.

Yet the F.-L. Club, like many other organisations which have attained fame and influence, owed its origin to almost fortuitous causes. In the later seventies Mr. C. C. Cotterill, the Second Master at Fettes and a keen cricketer, arranged a short cricket tour on the Borders for a scratch team of Fettesians, who described themselves as the "Fettes Rovers". The following year a "Fettes Rovers" team played a few matches in the Manchester district, with which Fettes at that time had a strong connection, but the tour then lapsed.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

In the summer of 1880, however, George Robertson-Chaplin, who had been captain of cricket at Fettes from 1872 to 1876, and who was then up at Oxford, conceived the idea of reviving the "Fettes Rovers", and a short tour was arranged in North Yorkshire. But as the date drew near he found that he could not collect an eleven of past and present Fettesians, and he decided to ask the Headmaster of Loretto if he would allow some of the Loretto eleven to join the tour. Dr. Almond gave his cordial approval to the suggestion, and the following eleven, consisting of seven Fettesians and four Lorettonians, made the first F.-L. tour:

G. Robertson-Chaplin (F) (captain), A. Nimmo (F), J. H. J. Hornsby (F), A. R. Don Wauchope (F), J. Steel (F), W. M. Duncan (F), W. D. Sellar (F), H. B. Tristram (L), C. W. Dunlop (L), D. J. Macfarlan (L), and J. J. Johnson (L).

A difficulty was found in choosing a suitable title for the combined eleven, which was first advertised as "A Scotch Public Schools Team" and afterwards as "An Eleven of Fettesians and Lorettonians". This designation puzzled the Yorkshire people, and one local newspaper solemnly rebuked the strangers for their presumption in choosing such a high-sounding and meaningless title. The name continued for some years to mystify the North of England people, and when the F.-L. XV. first played in Manchester a local newspaper rashly essayed to solve the puzzle by explaining that "the visitors are not, as is generally supposed, the present pupils of Messrs. Fettes and Loretto's Schools at Edinburgh, but the past".

Matches were played with the Yorkshire Gentlemen at York, where the tour started, and with Malton and Harrogate. The results were:

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

- v.* Yorkshire Gentlemen—F.L.'s 131; Yorkshire Gentlemen 117. Won.
- v.* Malton—Malton 75 and 42 for two wickets; F.L.'s 149. Drawn.
- v.* Harrogate—Harrogate 92 and 66; F.L.'s 64 and 89. Lost.

From the social point of view the tour proved a complete success, and the following year (1881) matches were arranged with the Yorkshire Gentlemen, Scarborough, Harrogate, Malton, and Middlesbrough. But great difficulty was found in getting together a side. Robertson-Chaplin was unable to play, and so many refusals were received that the tour was very nearly abandoned. When the side arrived at York it consisted of J. Steel (F) captain, R. J. Mackenzie (L), D. J. Macfarlan (L), J. H. J. Hornsby (F), and Finlay Dun (L). G. F. Paterson (L) and G. C. Lindsay (L) arrived next day, and Tomlinson, the Loretto professional, who had been taken to umpire, was pressed into active service. W. M. Roland, a well-known Edinburgh cricketer, who happened to be in York, gave his help, and two strangers who were staying in the hotel also accepted an invitation to assist. Whether Messrs. McPhillamy and Kite had ever played cricket before there is no evidence to show; but they faithfully arrived on the ground next morning resplendent in new cricket outfits purchased for the occasion. One day's experience of "leather-hunting", however, was enough for them, and the second day they did not reappear.

The Yorkshire Gentlemen had mustered a strong side, which included the Hon. M. B. Hawke (the future Yorkshire captain, Lord Hawke), who had just left Eton, and who scored 25 and 69. In the circumstances the defeat of the F.L.'s by 178 runs was not surprising.

Against Scarborough J. A. Dun (L) joined the team, which was made up with two fresh substitutes. The F.L.'s gave a much better show and the game was drawn. For the third match Skinner, the Fettes professional, and C. Myrtle (a Lorettonian) completed the eleven, and the F.L.'s won by 23 runs. The match against Malton was drawn. The F.L.'s, who had to play substitutes for Skinner and Myrtle, stayed in all day and scored 299, R. J. Mackenzie, the future Rector of Edinburgh Academy, playing a fine innings of 133. A two days' match with Middlesbrough was also drawn, the F.L.'s scoring 201 and 133 and Middlesbrough 122 and 104 for one wicket.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Another good list of matches was arranged for the following year (1882), as several Yorkshire Clubs had offered fixtures, but it was found impossible at the last moment to raise an eleven and the tour had to be abandoned.

After the experience which the cricket tours had afforded of the advantages of this association of the Old Boys of the two Schools it was decided to put the alliance into more permanent form.

While playing cricket at Lasswade in 1881 J. G. Walker and A. R. Paterson suggested to A. R. Don Wauchope that an effort should be made to form a regular F.-L. Club, and a circular signed by A. R. Paterson as representing Lorettonians, and by A. R. Don Wauchope as representing Fettesians, was sent out inviting former members of the two Schools to attend a meeting to consider the proposal. The Club was actually founded at a meeting held in Dowell's Rooms, Edinburgh, on October 4, 1881, with T. S. Esson (F) in the chair.

The meeting fully appreciated the fact that it was football and not cricket in which the playing strength of the Club would be found. The minutes of the first meeting record that it was decided that the Club should be "principally a Football Club, but a few matches might be arranged during the cricket season".

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

It was further resolved that the uniform of the players should consist of "white jersey with collar and badge, white knickerbockers, and red stockings". The badge was designed by J. W. Parsons (F). Scarlet (the Loretto colour) and light blue (the colour of the Fettes first eleven cap and blazer) were chosen as the Club colours. The first officials elected were:

President: C. W. Cathcart (L).

Vice-President: The Rev. S. G. Ponsonby (F).

Captain of Football: A. R. Don Wauchope (F).

Hon. Secretary: H. F. H. Caldwell (L).

The Club started with a membership of about fifty; its roll now contains the names of 2410 members.

In the season 1881-82 football matches were played with three Scottish clubs—the Wanderers, Edinburgh University, and the West of Scotland—and also with Huddersfield and Manchester, two of the leading clubs in the North of England. The F.-L. team for the Scotch matches was far from representative, and all three were lost. It was the tour in the North of England which established the Club's reputation in the football world. Both matches were handsomely won, and the team's play made a great impression. A writer in the Athletic News of that date spoke of it in the following enthusiastic terms:

Some persons who saw the doings of the Fettes and Loretto boys in Huddersfield and Manchester are willing to swear that a better team never existed, and a general wish was expressed that Don Wauchope should bring his grand team into the North of England once more.

The following season the same fixtures were arranged, with the addition of a match with Richmond, and all were won. This was the beginning of a remarkable record.

Between 1882 and 1895 40 matches were played, and of that number 32 were won, 4 drawn and 4 lost. The only defeats were from the Edinburgh Academicals, who won by a goal to a try; and from Bradford, who won by a dropped goal to nothing in 1889, by a try to nothing in 1891, and by a goal to nothing in 1892. For five seasons the team did not lose a single match.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

In estimating this record it should be borne in mind that every match was played on the opposing Club's ground. This was a particularly heavy handicap at Bradford, as, owing to the use of straw and husks to protect it from frost, the ground in mid-winter was usually soft and heavy—a condition which was very much against the F.L.'s fast backs.

During this period so great were the resources of the Club in the way of players that in a fully representative team all the backs would have been international players, and regular places could not be found for two Scottish International half-backs. The team chosen for the English tour in 1886-87 actually included twelve internationals, but unfortunately not a match could be played owing to the frost.

The number of Blues was also large. Seven of Vassall's famous Oxford XV. (1881-82) were F.L.'s. In 1884 seven of the Oxford XV. (including the captain) and in 1889 one-third of the players in the Varsity match were F.L.'s. On half-a-dozen occasions both the Oxford and Cambridge captains have been F.L.'s. It will be seen from the list of football "Blues" that since 1879 there has not been a year in which at least one F.L. has not played on one side or the other in the Varsity match.

The Club also had the good fortune to possess among its members in its early years players of very exceptional ability, notably A. R. Don Wauchope and H. B. Tristram, who in their own special positions have never been excelled, and who are among the "historic figures" in the game.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

The Rev. F. Marshall's book on the The Rugby Union Game refers to Don Wauchope in the following terms:

Of all the first-class men who have played for the F.L.'s there is not one who stands out so prominently as A. R. Don Wauchope. His brilliant and consistent form through all the years from 1881 to 1888 for his Country, University, and Club dwarfs the performance of almost any other player one could name. Can any person forget the overwhelming excitement and even delight of the Yorkshire and Lancashire crowds when their favourite, "the great Don", got the ball, and the shouts and cries resounding round and round the enclosure as each opponent tried to tackle him, and was left lying on the ground, until at last the ball was carried safely over the line. One of A. R. Don Wauchope's greatest triumphs happened in 1885 at Bradford when he ran behind twice—the only scoring in the game. In 1883 at Huddersfield his play was quite phenomenal. He ran and re-ran the whole of the opposing side, time after time, to what might be called a dead stand-still, to the infinite delight of a huge crowd of genuine Tykes who yelled in desperation, "Why, 'e's like a bloomin' eel; they can't hold him no-how".

Nobody did so much to make the F.L.'s Club famous as A. R. Don Wauchope. He was admittedly the most brilliant half-back of his day. His wonderful running and dodging used to electrify the crowd, and he was usually seen at his best on the F.-L. tours. His services to the Club did not end with his active playing career. For eleven years after resigning the captaincy he continued to serve the Club as Hon. Secretary. In 1908 on his resignation of that office the Club, by way of showing its appreciation of all that he had done for it, entertained him at dinner in the Royal Hotel, Edinburgh, with the President (A. H. Laidlay) in the chair, and at the annual general meeting next spring a resolution was passed thanking him for his "exceptional services" and placing on record the members' "recognition of the fact that it is in a very large measure owing to Mr. Wauchope's brilliant success at football, both individually and as Captain, his great personal popularity, and his successful management as Secretary that the Club has attained its present position”.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

If the later performances of the F.-L. teams have appeared to fall somewhat below the high standard of the earlier period, the reasons are not far to seek. The Club has never been able to send on tour its best possible fifteen, and the difficulties increased when Oxford and Cambridge started their tours, and International matches and trials multiplied. Owing to the claims upon their time or to injuries a certain number of the best players were prevented from playing, so that—paradoxical though it appears—the richer the Club was in first-class players the harder it became to get the strongest team for the tour.

The Club is still rich in good players, and during the last half-dozen years could have been represented—had all the players been available—by a fifteen of which at least a dozen would have been Internationals. If the results of the matches have sometimes been disappointing, they cannot justly be attributed to any decline in the standard of football in the two Schools or to lack of keenness among the playing members of the Club. The greatest of its players have always considered it an honour as well as a duty to represent it, and it is upon the maintenance of this fine tradition that the Club's high reputation in Rugby football depends.

The cricket tours which took place regularly for many years were not so prominent a part of the Club's activities as the football tours; but they were a very enjoyable feature, and helped to strengthen the spirit of good-fellowship among the members. A Hockey Club was also formed some years ago, but in a Club of which the members are so widely scattered over England and Scotland it has not been possible to put teams regularly in the field for any games except football and cricket.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

As might be expected from its Scottish "habitat", the Club has never lacked good golfers among its members. The most illustrious is J. E. Laidlay, who on more than one occasion won the Amateur Championship. In 1885 a Golf Club was formed, and for many years spring and autumn meetings were regularly held on various well-known Scottish courses. The chief prize—the scratch gold medal—was in the early days usually won by J. E. Laidlay, and in later years other good players have been forthcoming to uphold the high standard of golf he established in the Club competitions.

It was felt some years ago that an opportunity might appropriately be given to English members of the Club who were unable to take part in its ordinary golf competitions to hold local meetings for prizes given by the Club in any centre where a reasonable number of entries could be obtained, and in 1909, through the energy of H. D. Tonge, a meeting of this kind, followed by a dinner, was held at Hoylake for Liverpool and Manchester members. Another meeting of a similar character was subsequently held at Formby, but these meetings have not been repeated.

Opportunity has been lacking of fully cultivating the Club's resources in other branches of sport besides those to which reference has been made. But among the members who have won distinction in athletics—including several English and Scottish Championships—may be mentioned J. W. Parsons, E. Storey, A. R. Don Wauchope, A. G. G. Asher, A. S. Blair, N. A. Macleod, J. L. Greig, K. G. Macleod, and G. P. S. Macpherson.

From time to time Club dinners have been held in Edinburgh and Glasgow. The first was held in Edinburgh in December 1886. The late Lord Balfour of Burleigh was in the chair and about forty members were present. A special menu card was designed for the occasion by J. W. Parsons. Dr. Potts, the Headmaster of Fettes, who was the only guest (as Dr. Almond, Headmaster of Loretto, was unable to be present), proposed the Chairman's health and wished the Club success.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

In 1891, the tenth anniversary of the foundation of the Club, a very successful dinner was held in the Central Hotel, Edinburgh. An interesting feature of the occasion was the first performance of "The F.-L. Song", written by H. B. Tristram and set to music by H. F. Caldwell. It was sung by C. W. Berry and received with enthusiasm.

The President (C. J. G. Paterson) gave a most interesting review of the Club's progress and of the influence it had exercised. He said that it now had 560 members and its invested funds amounted to over £500.

We have no ambition [he proceeded], to become a purely social club in the ordinary sense of the word. We are essentially an Athletic Club, but we have an influence outside athletics, as it is impossible for a body with over 500 members scattered all over the world, as we are, not to exert some influence. I would remind you that we are members of a flourishing institution, and one worthy to belong to, and that if we continue to exert ourselves there is no reason why our success in the future should not be as great as it has been in the past. But this continuance of success is only to be obtained by our all taking an interest and all acting together and doing our best for our Schools and our Club. We have heard of late a great deal about union and the strength of union: but I do not know of a better or brighter example of union and its strength than the Fettesian-Lorettonian Club.

The Club "came of age" in 1902 and celebrated the occasion on April 4 by holding a dinner to which all Fettesians and Lorettonians who had served in the South African War were invited, in addition to the Headmasters of the two Schools (Dr. Almond and Dr. Heard). A golf match (twelve a-side) was also played with the Edinburgh Academicals at Gullane.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

The company at the dinner, which was held in the Royal Hotel, Edinburgh, numbered 135, and J. W. Parsons again designed an appropriate menu card. The principal toast, "Our schoolfellows who are, or have been, serving in South Africa", was proposed in an eloquent speech by Sir Ludovic Grant, and Captain J. D. Boswell and Captain W. C. Duncan responded. To the toast of "The Honorary Members", proposed by A. O. M. Mackenzie, Dr. Heard responded. Dr. Almond to the general regret was unable to be present. The Club song was sung by C. W. Berry, with an appropriate extra verse written by the author (H. B. Tristram).

Dr. Almond, who had always taken a keen interest in the Club, which in some degree owed its inception to his encouragement, died in March 1903. He was succeeded as Headmaster of Loretto by H. B. Tristram, one of the original members of the Club, and at a dinner held in Edinburgh in April 1904, he was entertained by the Club. In replying to the toast of his health he paid a warm tribute to Dr. Almond, and summed up his life in the following sentence: "For ten years he was laughed at, for ten years he was watched, and for twenty years he was imitated". Speaking for himself, he said that, as the only member of the Club who had represented it in all the four athletic branches, he had its welfare very near his heart.

A successful dinner attended by 83 members was held in Glasgow in April 1906 to celebrate the Club's semi-jubilee. Fifteen years later there was a large gathering in the Masonic Hall, Edinburgh, where (in March 1921) the Club had the pleasure of entertaining Mr. Ashcroft, the newly appointed Headmaster of Fettes, whose health was proposed in happy terms by C. J. G. Paterson. Among those present were the Headmaster of Loretto, A. R. Smith (a former playing member of the Club), D. Whitelaw (one of the oldest members), and seven Past Presidents.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Various suggestions have been made from time to time for increasing the personal interest of members in the Club, and a proposal was put forward in 1889 for establishing a club-house in Edinburgh. It was carefully considered by the Committee, but the difficulties and objections—chiefly of a financial character—were deemed to be insurmountable.

During the period of the Great War the normal activities of the Club were, as a matter of course, suspended. Most of the members were engaged in some form of war service or work, and 391 Fettesians and Lorettonians gave their lives for their country. The Club presented a fully equipped ambulance for use at the front.

In 1923 an important development of the Club's activities took place. As the result of an appeal by the Headmasters of Fettes and Loretto (Mr. Ashcroft and Mr. A. R. Smith) it was decided to start a Boys' Club in Edinburgh, to be conducted under the auspices of the F.-L. Club and run largely by the personal service of its members.

The Club was opened in 1924 in excellent premises just off the High Street, and close to the Head Office of the Bank of Scotland, under the management of an F.-L. Committee, and is now a successful and flourishing institution. This success is mainly due to the work and inspiration of the Club leader (Mr. W. Hewetson Brown), who has been in office since the Club's inception. The Club also owes much to the personal interest which R. H. F. Moncrieff has taken in its affairs. The membership now numbers over 100.

Like the two Schools to which it owes its foundation, the Club has quickly made for itself an athletic reputation. The Club's first eleven won in 1930 the Cup for which it was entered, and promotion to a higher League. In these higher circles the Club eleven is at the head of the League, and has so far (April 1931) gone through the season unbeaten.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

This astonishing success may be taken as a fair indication of the spirit of loyalty and comradeship pervading the Club and all its activities. As the Club has a football pitch at Fettes, and a camping site at Drummore, Loretto, the boys in the Schools have opportunity for contact. Senior boys from the Schools are often seen helping at the Club both on ordinary nights and on special occasions. The Committee would welcome additional subscribers to this excellent institution.

This survey gives a general idea of what the Club has done and is doing. Details of its achievements in the field of sport will be found in the following details of the football and cricket tours, the lists of International Rugby players and "Blues", and the tables of results.

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

1881-82

THE first football tour took place in 1881-82. Five matches were arranged, and the opening encounter was with the Edinburgh Wanderers. The following are the names of the players who took part in the first match of the Club:

W. F. Menzies (F), back; J. W. Parsons (F) and R. A. Carruthers (F), three-quarter backs; *A. G. G. Asher (L) and P. A. H. Gethin (F), half-backs; *J. G. Walker (L), *R. S. F. Henderson (F), A. R. Paterson (L), A. O. M. Mackenzie (L), F. J. C. Mackenzie (L), H. F. Caldwell (L), R. S. Moncrieff (F), and C. C. S. Parsons (F), forwards.

The debut of the Club was unfortunate. The fifteen selected was far from representative, and to make matters worse A. R. Don Wauchope (F), the captain, D. A. Macleod (L), and L. G. Fischer (F), did not turn up, as they thought that owing to frost the ground would be too hard for football. Gethin, who happened to be on the ground, was pressed into service, but the team had to play two forwards short, the usual arrangement then being ten forwards and five backs. The defeat, therefore, of the F.L.'s by two tries to nil was not surprising. The matches with Edinburgh University and the West of Scotland were also lost, but the Club was unable to muster a representative side for any of its Scottish engagements.

* At the date when the Club was started three-quarter backs were called "half-backs" and half-backs were called "quarter-backs", but to prevent confusion the present designation has been adopted throughout. The * denotes an International player, but in several cases the player so distinguished had not gained his "cap" when he first played for the F.L.'s.

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

Two matches were also played in the North of England—against Huddersfield and Manchester, which were then in the forefront of English Clubs. On this, the first of the Club's English tours, the F.-L. side was:

J. W. Parsons (F), back; E. Storey (F), R. A. Carruthers (F), and *G. C. Lindsay (L), three-quarter backs; *A. R. Don Wauchope (F) (captain) and *A. G. G. Asher (L), half-backs; *J. G. Walker (L), *R. S. F. Henderson (F), A. R. Paterson (L), A. O. Mackenzie (L), F. J. C. Mackenzie (L), H. F. Caldwell (L), W. J. Maclean (F), C. C. S. Parsons (F), and a substitute, forwards.

The F.L.'s gave a display of football which greatly impressed the sporting Yorkshire crowd against Huddersfield, who were beaten by a goal and three tries to nil, Wauchope being in his most brilliant form. The next day against Manchester, with W. A. Tonge (F) filling the vacant place, Wauchope dropped a goal and got a try. Lindsay also dropped a fine goal and Walker converted Wauchope's try, the F.L.'s winning by three goals to nil.

1882-83

This season six matches were arranged—against Richmond, Manchester, and Huddersfield in England; and against the West of Scotland, Edinburgh University, and Edinburgh Wanderers in Scotland. Against Richmond, which was then one of the two strongest clubs in London, the F.L.'s were unable to muster a full team of members, and two Oxford and English International forwards in C. S. Wooldridge and E. J. Moore completed the side. Richmond were beaten by a goal placed by J. G. Walker from a fine try by Wauchope.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

On the North of England tour the Club was represented against Huddersfield by the following:

*H. B. Tristram (L), back; E. Storey (F), *G. C. Lindsay (L), and R. A. Carruthers (F), three-quarter backs; *A. R. Don Wauchope (F) (captain) and *A. G. G. Asher (L), half-backs; *J. G. Walker (L), *A. Walker (L), A. R. Paterson (L), *W. M. Macleod (F), A. O. Mackenzie (L), F. J. C. Mackenzie (L), H. F. Caldwell (L), A. McNeill (L), and J. Rennie (L), forwards.

The ground was in a very bad condition, but the F.L.'s triumphed over the difficulties, Wauchope being in his best form, and won by a goal and three tries to nil.

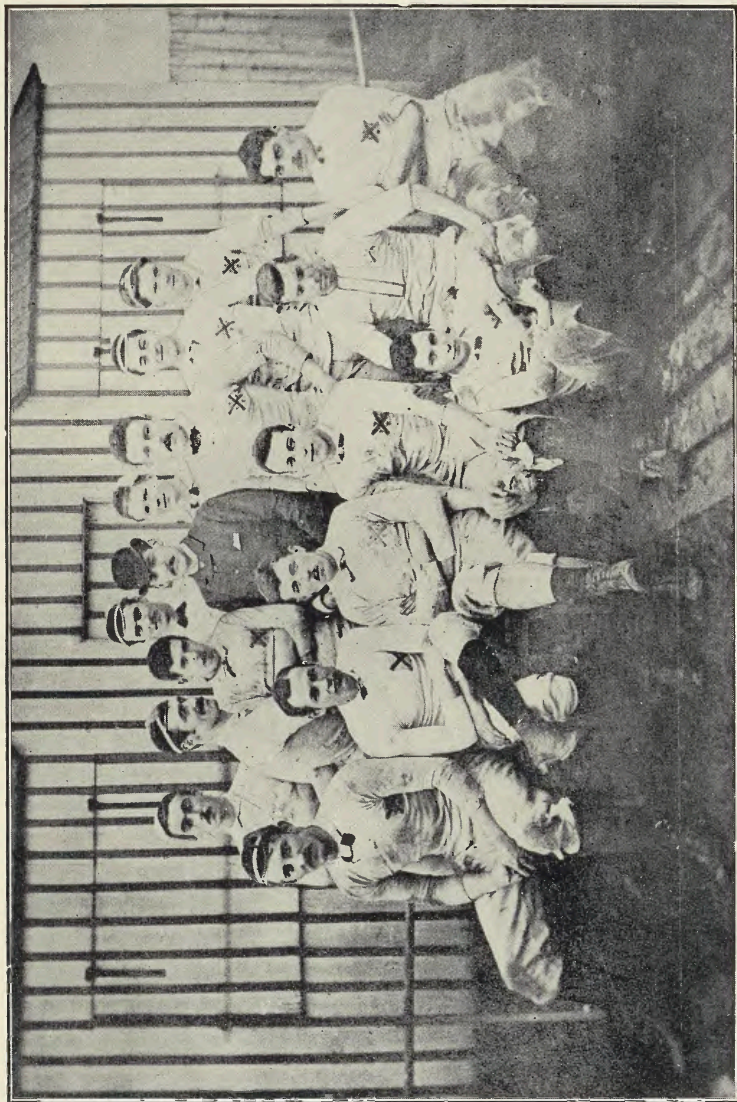

The same team played against Manchester except that J. W. Parsons (F) took Tristram's place. The F.L.'s won by a goal (dropped by Wauchope) and three tries to a goal, which was the only score against the F.L.'s that season.

The Wanderers, the West of Scotland, and Edinburgh University were beaten pointless.

1883-84

The Club's third football season further enhanced its reputation. Eight matches were played, and seven of them were won, the match with the Edinburgh Academicals ending in a pointless draw. Although the F.-L. team was much below full strength Richmond were beaten by a goal and a try to a goal.

For the North of England tour it was not found possible to get anything like a representative side. H. B. Tristram, D. J. Macfarlan, G. C. Lindsay, E. Storey, and the Walkers (five of whom were Internationals) being among the absentees. This was all the more disappointing as a match had been arranged with the Marlborough Nomads, who also were on tour, and by the courtesy of the Manchester Club the game was played on the Whalley Range ground.

FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN XV. v. MANCHESTER—1881

Back Row (left to right): A. O. M. Mackenzie, H. F. H. Caldwell

Second Row: F. J. C. Mackenzie, J. G. Walker, C. C. Parsons, D. A. Bannerman, R. S. F. Henderson, A. G. G. Asher, R. A. Carruthers

Front Row: A. R. Paterson, W. A. Tonge, J. W. Parsons, A. R. Don Wauchope (Capt.), G. C. Lindsay, W. J. McLean, E. Storey

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

The tour started as usual at Huddersfield, who were beaten by a goal and a try to nil by the following team:

W. P. Gornall (L), back; D. J. Gillon (F) and *A. G. G. Asher (L), three-quarter backs; *A. R. Don Wauchope (F) (captain) and D. A. Bannerman (F), half-backs; *W. M. Macleod (F), *C. W. Berry, A. R. Paterson (L), H. F. Caldwell (L), F. J. C. Mackenzie (L), M. W. Douglas (F), H. J. Bramly (F), A. L. Williamson (F), P. A. Williamson (F), and a substitute, forwards.

At Manchester M. F. Reid (L) joined the team, *R. S. F. Henderson (F) took the place of P. A. Williamson and J. Steel (F) filled the vacant place forward.

The Marlborough Nomads had a very heavy lot of forwards, and the F.L.'s decided to play ten forwards and only two three-quarters, although by that time three three-quarters had become the orthodox formation. M. F. Reid partnered Gillon at three-quarters and Asher took his regular place at half. The Nomads had some speedy backs, but they were successfully kept in check and the F.L.'s won a good match by a goal and a try to nil.

Against Manchester Asher was unable to play owing to injury, and Bannerman again stepped into the breach. The F.L.'s won by a goal dropped by Gillon and a try gained by Wauchope to a try.

For once the F.L.'s were able to muster a good team for most of the matches in Scotland, and the Edinburgh Wanderers, Edinburgh University, and the Glasgow Academicals were decisively beaten, chiefly through the superiority of the F.-L. backs, but a weaker side could only draw a pointless game with the Edinburgh Academicals.

1884-85

By this time the reputation of the Club had reached its zenith, and several of the leading English clubs, including Blackheath and Bradford, were eager to arrange matches. For the North of England tour fixtures were made with Manchester, Cheshire, and Bradford, but frost intervened and the only matches played during the season were with Bradford and the Glasgow Academicals.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Bradford were at this time one of the strongest and most enterprising clubs in England, and their regular team included such well-known players as R. Robertshaw, J. Toothill, F. Bonsor, L. Hickson, and J. J. Hawcridge, who were all English Internationals. Bradford's match with Vassall's famous Oxford team was practically an informal contest for the English club championship. Their meeting with the F.L.'s was regarded by the club and its supporters as an important event, and one local newspaper devoted a page to portraits of the F.-L. players and an account of their football careers. Like the rest of Yorkshire at that time the Bradford people were very enthusiastic about Rugby football, and International players were popular idols. Crowds assembled in the streets to see the F.-L. team arrive from Manchester, and the ground was packed with an enthusiastic and sporting crowd of some 14,000 people—a big attendance for a Rugby match in those days.

The F.-L. team was as follows:

*H. B. Tristram (L), back; *G. C. Lindsay (L), D. J. Gillon (F), and J. G. B. Sutherland (F), three-quarter backs; *A. R. Don Wauchope (F) (captain) and *A. G. G. Asher, half-backs; *C. J. B. Milne (F), *C. W. Berry (L), *W. M. Macleod (F), H. F. Caldwell (L), F. J. C. Mackenzie (L), J. Steel (F), A. L. Williamson (F), W. B. MacTier (F), and G. Hardyman (F), forwards.

This was a good but not a fully representative side. The ground was very heavy after a sudden thaw, but chiefly through the magnificent play of Wauchope, who got two tries after splendid runs, the F.L.'s won by two goals, placed by Berry, to nil. The merit of this brilliant performance was enhanced by the fact that the team had spent three idle days in Manchester owing to frost, the thaw setting in late on the night before the match, so that they had no chance of playing together before meeting their strongest opponents.

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

This was the first time Bradford had been defeated that season, and the sport-loving Yorkshiremen were vociferous in their appreciation of Wauchope's dazzling runs. Even on the team's return journey to Manchester, football "fans" were waiting at roadside stations on the chance of being able to shake his hand!

The match against the Glasgow Academicals was won by a goal and four tries to a try, although Tristram, Lindsay, Asher, and others were unable to play.

1885-86

Frost again curtailed the list of matches arranged and only three were played—against Manchester, Cheshire, and Bradford. This was a strong list, but the F.L.'s went through it without defeat, although they had some anxious moments. In the first match against Manchester the team was:

*H. B. Tristram (L), back; *M. F. Reid (L), *P. H. Don Wauchope (F), and J. G. B. Sutherland (F), three-quarter backs; *A. R. Don Wauchope (F) (captain) and *A. G. G. Asher (L), half-backs; *W. M. Macleod (F), *C. J. B. Milne (F), *J. D. Boswell (L), *H. F. Menzies (F), *D. A. Macleod (L), J. Steel (F), H. F. Caldwell (L), P. H. Blyth (L), and J. G. Macpherson (L), forwards.

This was a powerful team, but the F.L.'s were handicapped by losing P. H. Don Wauchope early in the game, and the result hung in doubt till the final whistle went. Manchester were leading by a goal and a try to a goal, and the referee was actually waiting for the ball to be dead in order to signal no-side when Reid dropped a neat goal and robbed Manchester of their first victory over the F.L.'s.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Against Cheshire *D. J. Macfarlan (L) and *J. G. Walker (L) took the places of P. H. Don Wauchope and Macpherson, who were injured, and the side played so well that the county team were beaten by three goals and a try to a try, the backs putting in some splendid work.

For the Bradford match three changes had to be made, *G. C. Lindsay (L) and R. A. D. Sewell (F) coming in for M. F. Reid and Sutherland, and Macpherson returning to the side instead of D. A. Macleod. The F.L.'s showed good form, and Sewell, who had just left Fettes and whose regular place was full-back, played remarkably well on the left wing. It was hard luck on him and on his side that near the end of the match a miss-kick which failed to reach touch enabled Bradford to score a try and secure a rather lucky draw. Wauchope again delighted the Bradford crowd by his brilliant runs. He twice ran in after dodging through his opponents, but to the general surprise in neither case was a try allowed.

1886-87

This season a spell of hard frost prevented any matches being played, although the team travelled to Manchester. This visitation of frost was most unfortunate, as the F.L.'s had one of the strongest sides they had ever got together, no fewer than twelve of the players being Internationals. The team was:

*H. B. Tristram (L), back; *D. J. Macfarlan (L), *M. M. Duncan (F), *G. C. Lindsay (L), three-quarter backs; *A. R. Don Wauchope (F) (captain) and *A. G. G. Asher (L), half-backs; *W. M. Macleod (F), *C. W. Berry (L), *C. J. B. Milne (F), *J. D. Boswell (L), *H. F. Menzies (F), *Alfred Methuen (F), J. Steel (F), James Methuen (F), and John Methuen (F), forwards.

FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN TEAM v. MARLBOROUGH NOMADS—MANCHESTER, 1883

Back Row (left to right): W. P. Gornall, M. W. Douglas, F. J. C. Mackenzie, J. Steel, A. G. G. Asher, W. M. Macleod, R. S. F. Henderson, H. F. H. Caldwell

Middle Row: J. G. Walker, C. W. Berry, A. R. Don Wauchope (Capt.), E. Storey, A. R. Paterson, D. A. Bannerman

Front Row: A. L. Williamson, M. F. Reid, H. J. Bramly, D. J. Gillon

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

1887-88

Once more frost interfered with the English tour. The Liverpool and Manchester matches had to be abandoned, and the Bradford match was only possible owing to a sudden thaw the night before and to the fact that the ground had been protected with straw. The team was:

*H. B. Tristram (L), back; *M. M. Duncan (F), *P. H. Morrison (L), and D. M. Maclay (L), three-quarter backs; *A. R. Don Wauchope (F) and *C. E. Orr (L), half-backs; *C. W. Berry (L) (captain), *C. J. B. Milne (F), *A. Methuen (F), *I. MacIntyre (F), *W. A. Macleod (L), J. Steel (F), James Methuen (F), J. Cowen (F), and R. C. Kitto (L), forwards.

This was a strong side, but it was handicapped by the fact that it had not previously played together. Luck was also against it, as Wauchope received a cut under the eye which compelled him to leave the field for a time. He had not been playing regularly, but had consented to fill the place of his brother, who could not play. The ground was very soft and the backs were at a disadvantage, though Duncan played splendidly. At half-time Bradford led by a goal to a penalty goal and in the second half got another try. Towards the end of the game Duncan made a fine run to near the Bradford line where he lost the ball. Kitto, however, dribbled it over and got a try from which Berry placed a goal, the game thus ending in a draw.

Two matches were also played in Scotland, and the results were rather unhappy. The F.L.'s had a far from representative side, and against the Edinburgh Academicals suffered their first defeat in six years. Soon after the start Maclay had to retire with a broken ankle. The Academicals got a goal and the F.L.'s a try between the posts, but Duncan's place-kick sent the ball below the bar, the Academicals winning by a goal to a try. The Glasgow

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Academicals were beaten by a goal and a try to a try. W. A. Macleod unfortunately had his leg broken near the end of the game.

1888-89

For the fifth year in succession the full programme of matches could not be fulfilled. A new fixture with the North of Scotland at Aberdeen was easily won by a goal and five tries to nothing, and the English tour was equally successful. The Manchester match could not be played owing to the weather, but both Liverpool and District and Bradford were met and beaten. The fifteen which opposed Liverpool and District at Birkenhead was:

*A. G. G. Asher (L), back; *M. M. Duncan (F), *W. Wotherspoon (F), and R. Todd (F), three-quarter backs; *P. H. Don Wauchope (F) (captain) and *C. E. Orr (L), half-backs; *C. W. Berry (L), *A. Methuen (F), *H. F. Menzies (F), J. Steel (F), J. W. Bowhill (F), T. W. Macnee (F), J. L. Jamieson (F), D. MacGregor (F), and A. M. Paterson (L), forwards.

A curious feature of this side was that it contained four Scottish International half-backs, though one played at full-back and the other at wing-three-quarters against Liverpool. The ground at Birkenhead was in excellent condition, which suited the F.-L. backs, of whom Duncan was the most dangerous. The forwards gave them plenty of chances, and the Liverpool team were beaten by five goals and five tries to nothing.

Against Bradford the F.-L. team was strengthened by the presence of *J. D. Boswell (L) and R. C. Kitto (L), who took the places of MacGregor and Paterson. Bradford in the first quarter of an hour got a try and placed a goal, but Boswell kicked a penalty goal and Wotherspoon converted a try by Duncan before half-time. The game was very fast in the second half, but neither side could score, and for the second time the F.L.'s were victorious at Bradford.

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

1889-90

This season, for the first time for six years, the weather permitted the fulfilment of the full list of fixtures. The tour opened at Birkenhead Park with a match against a team selected from the leading clubs in the Liverpool district, and the F.-L. team was:

W. B. Steel (F), back; P. C. Cochran (L), *M. M. Duncan (F), and R. Todd (F), three-quarter backs; *C. E. Orr (L) and C. B. C. Storey (F), half-backs; J. Steel (F) (captain), *C. W. Berry (L), *I. MacIntyre (F), J. W. Bowhill (F), P. Steel (F), T. W. P. Storey (F), P. H. Blyth (L), J. L. Jamieson (F), and A. M. Paterson (L).

*F. W. Spence (F), who played regularly for Birkenhead Park, was one of the District team and the best of their backs. Although the F.L.'s did not play very well together they had, on the whole, the best of the game, and won by a goal to a try.

For the match against Bradford three important changes were made in the team—*G. C. Lindsay (L) for Cochran, Spence for C. B. C. Storey, and *J. D. Boswell (L) for Paterson. This was a strong side, including seven International players, and a splendid match was seen. Towards the end of the second half Bairstow dropped a left-foot goal for Bradford, and during the last quarter of an hour the F.L.'s made desperate efforts to save the game. A good piece of combined handling by the forwards took the ball close to the Bradford line, but the final pass to Lindsay went astray and the F.L.'s suffered their first defeat at Bradford by a dropped goal to nothing. This was also the first time they had lost a match in England over a period of eight years.

Against Manchester C. B. C. Storey, Cochran, and A. M. Paterson played instead of Orr, Berry, and Lindsay, and the F.L.'s won a good match by two goals to one. In almost the last minute of the game Todd in tackling J. E. Orr (the Scottish International forward and brother of C. E. Orr) had the misfortune to break his jaw.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Matches were also played in Scotland with the Midland Counties at St. Andrews and the Edinburgh Academicals, and both resulted in victories.

1890-91

This season frost again intervened and the Scottish matches arranged could not be played. The tour started at Manchester and the F.-L. team was:

P. C. Cochran (L), back; *P. H. Morrison (L), *C. J. N. Fleming (F), and R. Todd (F), three-quarterbacks; *C. E. Orr (L) and *W. Wotherspoon (F), half-backs; J. Steel (F) (captain), *J. D. Boswell (L), *I. MacIntyre (F), *A. Methuen (F), J. W. Bowhill (F), J. L. Jamieson (F), T. W. P. Storey (F), D. MacGregor (F), and G. H. L. Boase (F), forwards.

The backs played extremely well, and the F.L.'s won easily by a goal and four tries to a try.

Against Liverpool and District Todd and Wotherspoon were unable to play owing to injury, and their places were taken by W. B. Steel and a dark horse in "A. Ramsay", who was none other, it may now be revealed, than A. R. Don Wauchope, who in an emergency once more took the field. He showed that he was by no means a spent force, and Liverpool were defeated by three goals and a try to nothing.

Wotherspoon was able to resume his place in the team against Bradford, and a desperately hard match took place. Bradford gained a rather doubtful try near the end of the first half. The F.L.'s were often dangerous in the second half, but the defence of the Bradford backs was very safe, their kicking to touch being extremely accurate. Nothing further was scored, and the F.L.'s were rather unluckily beaten by a try to nothing.

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

1891-92

Some difficulty was found in completing the team for this season's tour, which owing to frost was confined to two matches. For the opening game at Manchester Walter Berry, who had not played for two years, consented to turn out and proved one of the best forwards on the side. The team was:

W. B. Steel (F), back; *G. T. Campbell (F), *C. J. N. Fleming (F), and R. H. Storey (F), three-quarter backs; *C. E. Orr (L) and *W. Wotherspoon (F), half-backs; J. Steel (F) (captain), *C. W. Berry (L), *J. D. Boswell (L), *H. F. Menzies (F), P. Steel (F), J. W. Bowhill (F), C. E. Comrie-Thomson (L), D. MacGregor (F), and W. K. Laidlaw (L), forwards.

The F.-L. backs proved too strong for Manchester, who were beaten by a goal and three tries to nothing.

Unfortunately Campbell injured his knee and could not play against Bradford. His place was taken by *P. R. Clauss (L), and T. W. P. Storey (F) played instead of Berry forward. The game was spoilt by a gale of wind which blew straight down the field. Bradford had its help in the first half, but could not score till just on half-time when they got a try, from which Doyle kicked a goal. Soon after change of ends the F.L.'s nearly scored, but Wotherspoon slipped and fell when almost in. The F.L.'s pressed hard for a time, but Bradford put up a strong defence, and towards the finish the F.L.'s seemed to feel the effects of their hard work against the wind in the first half. Their efforts weakened and Bradford won by a goal to nothing.

1892-93

For the second time in six years frost compelled the cancellation of all the matches. The team travelled to Manchester on hearing that the Bradford Club expected that it would be possible to make the ground playable, but although hot water and salt were used for the purpose, the frost was too keen and the F.L.'s had their journey in vain. The team selected was:

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

W. B. Steel (F), back; *G. T. Campbell (F), *C. J. N. Fleming (F), and M. R. Jardine (F), three-quarter backs; *W. Wotherspoon (F) and *W. P. Donaldson (L), half-backs; *J. D. Boswell (L) (captain), *H. F. Menzies (F), P. Steel (F), W. Burton-Stewart (L), J. A. Smith (L), H. S. Morrison (L), D. MacGregor (F), C. P. Finlay (L), and H. P. Bannerman (F), forwards.

1893-94

For the English tour this season it was found impossible to get a representative side, and the backs were not so strong as usual. This was the more unfortunate, as it had now become the general practice to play four three-quarters instead of three. The team nevertheless did remarkably well. Against Liverpool and District the team was:

D. MacGregor (F), back; *H. T. S. Gedge (L), *P. R. Clauss (L), A. Jackson (F), and R. H. Storey (F), three-quarter backs; *W. P. Donaldson (L) and A. C. Robertson (L), half-backs; *J. D. Boswell (L) (captain), *H. F. Menzies (F), T. W. P. Storey (F), J. A. Smith (L), A. N. Fleming (F), C. P. Finlay (L), H. S. Morrison (L), and B. L. B. Greig (F), forwards.

The F.L.'s narrowly beat Liverpool after a hard game by a goal, kicked by Finlay from a try gained by Gedge after a fine run, to a dropped goal. Donaldson was unable to play against Manchester, and his place was taken by J. D. Howkins (F). It was a very even game and the F.L.'s won by a try gained by R. H. Storey.

At Bradford W. B. Steel (F), who had played for Manchester against the F.L.'s, and *G. T. Campbell (F) took the places of

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

Clauss and Jackson. A most exciting game was seen, and ended in a draw, although according to the rules then prevailing in Scotland the F.L.'s won by a point. The ground was soft, but the game was very fast. The F.L.'s had the best of the first half. R. H. Storey kicked a fine goal from a penalty, and Gedge, intercepting a pass, made a beautiful run right through the Bradford backs. He finished up with a try between the posts and Finlay placed a goal. In the last minute of the first half Bradford got a try and kicked a goal. The second half was well contested, but towards the end Bradford made a desperate effort to avert defeat and the F.L.'s were hard pressed. In the very last minute the ball was kicked over their line. An attempt by one of the defenders to send it dead failed, and Bradford scored a try far out, but the kick at goal failed and the match was drawn.

This was a fitting end to the interesting series of matches between the two clubs. Before another season came round professionalism had been openly adopted by many of the North of England clubs, and as Bradford, like most of their neighbours, joined the Northern Union the fixture lapsed.

1894-95

The dropping of the fixture with Bradford caused a change in the programme of the tour this season, and it was arranged to play, in addition to Manchester, the two leading London clubs of the day—Blackheath and Richmond. Unfortunately hard frost set in after the Manchester game and both the London games had to be cancelled. The captain (*J. D. Boswell) was unfortunately unable to play, and the team was as follows:

A. G. Eadie (L), back; *H. T. S. Gedge (L), *A. R. Smith (L), W. B. Steel (F), and A. M. Adamson (F), three-quarter backs; *W. P. Donaldson (L) and *P. R. Clauss (L), half-backs; *H. F. Menzies (F), M. A. Robertson (L), D. MacGregor (F), H. P. Bannerman (L), H. S. Morrison (L), A. C. Connell (L), W. M. McMillan (F), and W. N. Boase (F), forwards.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

The ground was very soft and wet, and the play of the backs was rather disappointing. The forwards, however, of whom McMillan was still a schoolboy, did remarkably well, and deserved much of the credit for the victory of their side by two goals and a try to nil. A stronger side, including G. T. Campbell, would have been available for the London matches.

1895-96

In regard to the weather the conditions were reversed this season. Sudden frost overnight prevented any play at Manchester, but both the London matches came off. It was unfortunate that for the first visit of the F.L.'s to London since 1883 a fully representative side could not be mobilised, owing to accidents and other causes, and the team were also the victims of misfortune. Against Richmond the following team took the field:

D. MacGregor (F), back; *G. T. Campbell (F) (captain), *H. T. S. Gedge (L), *A. R. Smith (L), and A. Jackson (F), three-quarter backs; *P. R. Clauss (L) and *W. P. Donaldson (L), half-backs; *H. F. Menzies (F), *W. J. Thomson (L), T. W. P. Storey (F), C. P. Finlay (L), Colin Thomson (L), W. M. McMillan (F), M. A. Robertson (L), and H. S. Morrison (L), forwards.

This side was especially strong in three-quarters, and chiefly through their fine work Richmond were beaten by a goal, dropped by Gedge, and a try to a goal.

The F.L.'s display against Blackheath, however, was most disappointing, but there were "extenuating circumstances", which did not, however, save the team from severe, and even harsh,

FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN XV. v. BRADFORD—1885

Back Row (left to right): A. O. M. Mackenzie, W. M. Macleod, J. G. B. Sutherland, A. L. Williamson

Third Row: H. B. Tristram, J. Steel, C. J. B. Milne, G. Hardyman

Second Row: D. A. Bannerman, F. J. C. Mackenzie, C. W. Berry, A. R. Don Wauchope (Capt.), H. F. H. Caldwell,
A. G. G. Asher, A. R. Paterson

Front Row: W. B. MacTier, G. C. Lindsay, D. J. Gillon

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

criticism by some of the London newspapers. Two or three of the team were suffering from injuries, and at the last minute Campbell found himself unable to play. With characteristic pluck and unselfishness A. R. Don Wauchope, who had not been playing regularly for some years and who was in no condition for a hard game, consented to take Campbell's place at three-quarters.

Blackheath had a strong side and the F.L.'s were outplayed. In the first few minutes Wauchope with one of his inimitable runs got over the Blackheath line, but no try was allowed, and after this incident the game and the luck ran steadily against the visitors. MacGregor received an injury to his head and had to retire, Menzies taking his place. Outpaced behind and overweighted forward, the F.L.'s were kept almost entirely on the defensive and Blackheath won by four goals (one dropped) and two tries to a try (gained by Jackson).

This was the heaviest defeat yet sustained by the F.L.'s, and it was very unfortunate that for their first appearance at "classic Blackheath", to quote the words of the Club song, the F.L.'s were unable to secure a more representative side.

1896-97

The tour again started at Manchester, and a rather featureless game, which was chiefly confined to the forwards, ended in a pointless draw. For the London matches the following team was available:

A. Jackson (F), back; *C. J. N. Fleming (F) (captain), *G. T. Campbell (F), *A. R. Smith (L), and A. M. Adamson (F), three-quarter backs; *W. P. Donaldson (L) and H. T. Methuen (F), half-backs; *W. J. Thomson (L), Colin Thomson (L), C. P. Finlay (L), C. E. Comrie-Thomson (L), H. S. Morrison (L), W. M. McMillan (F), B. L. B. Greig (F), and D. M. Maclean (F), forwards.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Owing to dense fog the Richmond game had to be cancelled, but a very hard game took place with Blackheath. There was no repetition of the previous year's fiasco. The F.L.'s had the best of the first half, in which each side scored a try. After change of ends Maclean put the F.L.'s ahead with a try; but the backs were uncertain, and near the end Donaldson had a bone in his hand accidentally broken by a kick. Although he pluckily went on playing he was severely handicapped, and near the end Blackheath got a try from which a goal was kicked, giving them the victory by a goal and a try to two tries.

1897-98

The F.L.'s at this date were passing through one of those rather "lean" periods, so far as football was concerned, which all clubs experience sooner or later. There was no lack of first-class players, but from one cause or another much difficulty was found in getting a representative side together for the tour. This season the team contained a good deal of new blood, and although the results were not brilliant the play showed good promise for the future.

A start was made as usual at Manchester, and against these old opponents the team was:

B. Blacklock (F), back; *C. J. N. Fleming (F) (captain), *A. R. Smith (L), *D. B. Monypenny (F), and G. W. Orr (L), three-quarter backs; J. F. A. Swanston (L) and J. Ward (F), half-backs; *J. A. Campbell (F), W. M. McMillan (F), T. Gowans (F), D. M. Maclean (F), J. Currie (F), J. Wilson (F), A. M. Connell (L), and *J. Ross (F), forwards.

Manchester, who were very keen to beat the F.L.'s for the first time, were again disappointed. Though the F.L.'s did not combine well they won a rather scrambling game by two goals to two tries. Unfortunately Campbell hurt his knee during the match and Gowans, owing to a chill, had to return home.

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

For the London matches *W. P. Donaldson (L) took Swanston's place at half-back, and Swanston and Colin Thomson (L) filled the vacant places forward. It was a fast and open game against Richmond. In the first half the only score was a goal dropped by Smith. In the second half the F.-L. forwards, well led by Thomson, played with great dash against their heavier opponents, but the Richmond backs, among whom W. L. Bunting, the English centre three-quarters, was conspicuous, had the advantage in pace, and scored three tries, one of which was converted, so that the F.L.'s were defeated by a goal and two tries to a dropped goal.

The Blackheath match was a well-fought game. Blackheath had much the heavier forwards, but the F.L.'s held their own, and at half-time Blackheath led by two tries to a goal kicked from a try by Monypenny. The second half was very exciting. A try by Orr put the F.L.'s ahead early in the second half, but towards the end the F.-L. forwards were overpowered, and a try in the last three or four minutes of the game gave Blackheath the victory by a goal and two tries to a goal and a try. Monypenny, who was still a schoolboy, showed brilliant form in all the matches.

1898-99

The promise held out the previous season was to a certain extent fulfilled, and the team were undefeated on tour. The results would probably have been even more satisfactory but for unexpected difficulties in making up the team. *H. Rottenburg (L), *G. T. Campbell (F), *J. R. C. Greenlees (L), B. L. B. Greig (F), and F. A. Davidson (F) were among those who were unable to play, and in order to complete the team against Manchester Hugh Ross, the Loretto half-back, was called up, and two Fettes boys (both Internationals in embryo) in J. Ross and D. R. Bedell-Sivright had to be enlisted. The team was:

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

H. Ross (L), back; *A. R. Smith (L), *D. B. Monypenny (F), G. W. Orr (L), and G. K. Ward (F), three-quarter backs; *W. P. Donaldson (L) (captain) and J. Ward, half-backs; *J. A. Campbell (F), W. M. McMillan (F), T. Gowans (F), J. F. A. Swanston (L), J. H. Beith (F), A. A. Lindsay (L), *J. Ross (F), and *D. R. Bedell-Sivright (F), forwards.

The match was played in heavy rain, and although the F.L.'s had much the best of the game, they failed to score and had to be content with a draw.

For the London matches the team was strengthened by the return of *Sidney Gedge (L)—after an absence of over two years from the football field owing to illness—and the accession of the brothers Colin and *W. J. Thomson (L) forward. Davidson found himself unable to play at the last moment and his place at Richmond was taken by J. S. B. Brough (F), who was picked up on the ground. The team worthily sustained the credit of the Club. Gedge's form was worthy of his best days, and Smith and Monypenny were also very good, while Ross gave a first-rate display at full-back. Colin Thomson and Smith each got tries, both of which were converted, and the F.L.'s were victorious by two goals to nil.

In the Blackheath match J. Ross, the Fettes captain, who had been summoned by telegraph, took Brough's place and the game was drawn, each side scoring a try. The F.-L. try was the result of a splendid run by Gedge right through his opponents. Towards the end the F.L.'s pressed Blackheath hard, but they could not again break through.

FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN XV. v. BRADFORD—1888

Back Row (left to right) : D. A. Macleod, C. J. B. Milne

Second Row : M. M. Duncan, J. Steel, A. R. Paterson, C. E. Orr, P. H. Morrison, James Methuen

Front Row : D. Maclay, Ian MacIntyre, R. C. Kitto, H. B. Tristram, C. W. Berry (Capt.), A. R. Don Wauchope, J. Cowen, A. Methuen

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

1899-1900

The nineteenth tour was the most successful for some years. Frost unfortunately once more prevented the Manchester match, but both the London games were played and Richmond and Blackheath were beaten. The team against Richmond was:

*H. Rottenburg (L), back; *A. R. Smith (L), G. K. Ward (F), E. F. Guthrie (L), and H. Ross (L), three-quarter backs; G. F. Henderson (L) and J. Ward (F), half-backs; Colin Thomson (L) (captain), *W. J. Thomson (L), *W. P. Scott (F), *J. A. Campbell (F), *J. R. C. Greenlees (L), *D. R. Bedell-Sivright (F), *F. W. Henderson (L), and J. F. A. Swanston (L), forwards.

The outstanding feature of the tour was the splendid play of the forwards. The F.L.'s have never had a finer set, and against Blackheath (where *J. Ross (F) took the place of Swanston, who played three-quarters instead of Guthrie) seven of them were Scottish International players. They were well led by their captain, who was quite up to International standard, and the London critics were enthusiastic in their praise. The backs were not quite so representative, and included two schoolboys in Guthrie and H. Ross, but their play was not unworthy of the forwards.

Richmond were beaten by two goals and two tries to nothing. Fog prevailed at Blackheath, but it was decided to play, and after a hard match the F.L.'s won by a single point. They had the best of the first half, but could not score, and just before half-time G. L. Rogers kicked a fine goal for Blackheath from a fair-catch in the centre of the field. Soon after change of ends a good rush of the F.-L. forwards ended in W. J. Thomson gaining a try, from which Swanston kicked a magnificent goal. To the end Blackheath were mostly on the defensive, but although one of their three-quarters had to retire hurt they kept their line intact.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

1900-1

A much younger side represented the Club this season. At Manchester the following played:

*D. G. Schulze (F), back; E. G. Thin (F), H. Ross (L), R. J. Mac-Brayne (F), and J. M. Robertson (F), three-quarter backs; J. Ward (F) and B. Blacklock (F), half-backs; J. F. A. Swanston (L) (captain), *S. H. Osborne (F), *D. R. Bedell-Sivright (F), *J. V. Bedell-Sivright (F), *W. P. Scott (F), *F. W. Henderson (L), *E. J. Ross (F), and T. Couper (F), forwards.

The F.-L. forwards were much too strong for their opponents—E. J. Ross, who was still at Fettes, making a promising debut—and Manchester were defeated by three goals and three tries to a goal.

The London matches started as usual at Richmond, and three changes were made in the team. Schulze was unable to play and H. Ross went full-back, *A. R. Smith (L) taking H. Ross's place at three-quarters. *J. R. C. Greenlees (L) and *J. Ross (F) played forward instead of Couper and E. J. Ross. The F.-L. backs did not play well, and there was too much wild passing, which accounts for the heavy scoring. Richmond took advantage of their opponents' mistakes and at one time led by ten points. But in the last twenty minutes the F.-L. forwards woke up and ran their opponents off their legs. The elder Sivright, Blacklock, Robertson, and Smith got tries, and Swanston dropped a goal, the F.L.'s winning by two goals (one dropped) and three tries to two goals and two tries—18 points to 16.

Against Blackheath J. R. Lumsden (F) played full-back instead of H. Ross, and Couper returned to the team in place of the younger Sivright. The F.L.'s had, on the whole, the best of a scrambling game, but the three-quarters did not make the most of their chances, and Blackheath won by a goal to a try gained by Sivright (who was in great form throughout the tour) after a run half the length of the field.

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

1901-2

For the first time for several years the Club was able to muster almost its full strength for the opening match at Manchester. The game was played on the Manchester Club's new field at Fallowfield, as the famous old ground at Whalley Range had fallen into the clutches of the builders. The team was:

S. Horsley (L), back; J. F. A. Swanston (L), A. H. McNeill (L), J. M. Robertson (F), and *L. M. Macleod (F), three-quarter backs; J. Ward (F) and B. Blacklock (F), half-backs; *J. A. Campbell (F) (captain), *D. R. Bedell-Sivright (F), *J. V. Bedell-Sivright (F), *J. R. C. Greenlees (L), *W. P. Scott (F), *J. Ross (F), *E. J. Ross (F), and *J. B. Waters (L), forwards.

The backs could not be compared with those of some of the earlier teams, but the forwards—all International players—formed a magnificent pack, and chiefly through their fine play all the matches were won.

Owing to frost it was doubtful whether the Manchester match would be played, but a timely thaw made it possible, though there was considerable bone in the ground. Macleod, who was still at Fettes, injured his ankle soon after the start and the younger Sivright took his place, but even with only seven forwards the F.L.'s had the advantage. McNeill and Swanston each dropped a goal and the F.L.'s won by two goals and a try to nil.

Against Richmond G. K. Ward (F) took Macleod's place and the forwards gave another good performance. The brothers Ross each scored a try and the F.L.'s won by two goals to a try.

For the Blackheath match R. Waterhouse (L) played instead of the younger Sivright. The team did not display the same dash as against Richmond, and at half-time Blackheath led by a try to nothing. After change of ends, however, the forwards did themselves justice. They fairly over-ran Blackheath, who had a very good side. "Darkie" Sivright gained a brilliant try and Waterhouse added a second. It was only by strong defence that Blackheath prevented further scoring, and they were beaten by two tries to one.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

This was the most successful tour for several years, and it is safe to say that the Club never put a more powerful set of forwards in the field.

1902-3

For some time past it had been found impossible to get the full team together for the opening match with Manchester, and the Committee reluctantly decided to give up the fixture. There had been some misunderstanding, however, on the subject, and it was found that the Manchester Club expected the usual visit. Rather than disappoint a club with which the F.L.'s had enjoyed such a long and pleasant association, the Hon. Secretary agreed to carry on the match. A good forward team was available, but great difficulty was found in completing the backs. The team that took the field was:

N. M. Kerr (L), back; *H. Rottenburg (L), R. H. Campbell (F), W. W. McCosh (F), and C. G. Ross (L), three-quarter backs; H. N. Briggs (F) and G. W. Anderson (L), half-backs; *J. R. C. Greenlees (L) (captain), *D. R. Bedell-Sivright (F), *J. Ross (F), *W. P. Scott (F), *L. West (F), *E. J. Ross (F), *J. B. Waters (L), and T. W. Allan (F), forwards.

It was a hard, ding-dong struggle, but Manchester had the faster backs and a try by one of their three-quarters in the second half won the game. Thus Manchester at last achieved their

FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN XV. v. BRADFORD—1889

Back Row (left to right): W. Wotherspoon, J. Steel

Second Row: J. B. Brown, W. M. Macleod, A. R. Don Wauchope, M. M. Duncan, H. F. Menzies, H. D. Tonge,
A. R. Paterson, D. MacGregor, J. W. Bowhill

First Row: C. J. N. Fleming, R. C. Kitto, C. E. Orr, P. H. Don Wauchope (Capt.), A. G. G. Asher, A. Methuen,
J. D. Boswell, T. W. Macnee

In Front: J. L. Jamieson, R. Todd

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

ambition, and beat the F.L.'s after twenty-one years of hard endeavour. Even their opponents could hardly grudge them their long-deferred and well-earned success.

For the Richmond match A. H. McNeill (L) came into the team in place of R. H. Campbell. Early in the game C. G. Ross had to retire and Sivright took his place at three-quarters. So well did the seven remaining forwards play that the F.L.'s scored a goal and a try in the first half and kept their lead to the end.

Against Blackheath A. A. Lawrie (F) and J. F. A. Swanston (L) appeared in place of Rottenburg and C. G. Ross. The forwards, although lighter than their opponents and handicapped by the loss of Sivright, who had to go three-quarters for part of the game, again played well; but the backs after so many changes did not possess much combination and Blackheath won by a goal and a try to a try.

Although the results of the tour were rather disappointing, so many refusals were received from players invited to fill positions behind the scrummage, that the team may be considered to have made a very creditable show.

1903-4

After a considerable interval the weather again upset the tour, which was in every respect disappointing. It was found impossible to collect a representative side—J. R. C. Greenlees, D. R. Bedell-Sivright, L. M. Macleod, and H. G. Monteith, all International players, being among the absentees—and frost prevented the Manchester and Richmond matches. Against Blackheath a somewhat disorganised team suffered a severe defeat by three goals and two tries to a goal. They were at a serious disadvantage through having to meet a strong Blackheath team without a previous game and the lameness of their full-back. The team (which was completed by the inclusion of A. L. Purves, who was still at Fettes) was:

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

N. M. Kerr (L), back; E. G. Thin (F), *A. L. Purves (F), A. H. McNeill (L), and A. A. Lawrie (F), three-quarter backs; H. N. Briggs (F) and A. M. P. Lyle (F), half-backs; *J. Ross (F) (captain), *W. P. Scott (F), *G. C. Gowlland (F), *J. V. Bedell-Sivright (F), *E. J. Ross (F), *J. B. Waters (L), R. Waterhouse (L), and J. M. Waters (L), forwards.

It was unfortunate that the Manchester match could not be played, as it was the last fixture arranged between the two Clubs for some years. The association of the F.L.'s with Manchester went back to the Club's earliest days. During the whole period of the Club's visits to the North of England Manchester formed the team's headquarters, and many of the older members retain pleasant and grateful remembrance of the cordial welcome and kind hospitality offered to them by the officials of the Manchester Club and private friends, especially Mr. and Mrs. David Bannerman, who regularly invited the team to dinner on the Sunday evening of their stay in Manchester. The annual New Year's Eve celebration at the Grand Hotel was quite a feature of the tour, and the abandonment of the Manchester match marked the close of an agreeable and memorable chapter in the history of the Club.

1904-5

For the first time for many years new ground was broken this season, and the tour opened at Leicester, which had become a hotbed of Rugby football, and boasted one of the strongest clubs in England. The first visit of the F.L.'s excited almost as much interest as their first appearance at Bradford in the earlier days. Fortunately the F.L.'s were able to put in the field a very good side, although, as usual, a few of the original choices were unable to play. The team was:

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

S. Horsley (L), back; A. A. Lawrie (F), *L. M. Macleod (F), *K. G. Macleod (F), and J. Burt-Marshall (F), three-quarter backs; G. Turner (F) and G. S. Joannides (F), half-backs; *W. P. Scott (F) (captain), *J. V. Bedell-Sivright (F), *G. C. Gowlland (F), *S. H. Osborne (F), *F. W. Henderson (L), R. McCosh (F), R. W. Cassells (F), and R. Steedman (L), forwards.

This was the first appearance in the F.-L. team of K. G. Macleod, one of the greatest players the Club has ever had, and (although he and Burt-Marshall were still schoolboys) his splendid play during the tour afforded convincing evidence of his genius for the game. The play of the backs against Leicester was brilliant, and so competent a critic as Mr. A. O. Jones expressed the opinion that the play of the three-quarters was "perfect". The forwards, well led by Scott, also did their part well, and the F.L.'s won a great victory by two goals and two tries to nothing.

Unfortunately L. M. Macleod was injured near the finish of the match. Against Richmond a good substitute for him was forthcoming in *D. G. Schulze (F), and A. Forman (L) replaced Steedman, who also had been injured. The backs did not play so well as against Leicester, evidently missing L. M. Macleod, but the forwards were better, and the F.L.'s won by a goal and a try, scored in the second half, to nothing.

Owing to frost the Blackheath match could not be played. This was a disappointment, as the team were playing so well that they had great hopes of avenging the previous year's defeat.

1905-6

The matches this season were the same, and a start was made at Leicester. A good team had been secured, but at the last moment *L. M. Macleod and J. Burt-Marshall were unable to play. T. A. Godby, the Loretto captain, took Macleod's place and did remarkably well. The team was:

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

*D. G. Schulze (F), back; *A. L. Purves (F), *K. G. Macleod (F), T. A. Godby (L), and A. A. Lawrie (F), three-quarter backs; J. Ward (F) and A. H. Gallie (F), half-backs; *W. P. Scott (F) (captain), *D. R. Bedell-Sivright, *J. Ross (F), *S. H. Osborne (F), *J. M. Mackenzie (F), R. W. Cassells (F), R. McCosh (F), and T. S. Jobson (F), forwards.

The ground was very soft and the backs were much handicapped. The F.-L. forwards, though much lighter than the Leicester pack, were very fast in the open, and Jobson, who had just left Fettes, scored the only try of the match. The F.L.'s had much the best of the game although they won by so small a score.

Against Richmond *L. West (F) and *H. G. Monteith (F) played instead of Sivright (who had been hurt at Leicester) and McCosh. In the first half the forwards again showed excellent form and the backs brought off some brilliant movements. At half-time the F.L.'s led by 22 points to nil. In the second half, although they had the benefit of the wind, they relaxed their efforts and added only one try, while Richmond were able to score twice, so that the F.L.'s won by 25 points to 6.

For the second year in succession the Blackheath match had to be abandoned, this time on account of frost.

1906-7

Fortune was rather unkind to the Club this season. The weather was unfavourable, and the Leicester ground had to be cleared of snow to enable the match to be played. The team was not so representative as in the previous two years, and to make matters worse one of the forwards was snowed up on his journey, and the team had to play one short. The side, which was composed entirely of Fettesians, was:

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

*D. G. Schulze, back; *A. L. Purves, *K. G. Macleod, *G. Cunningham, and H. Harper, three-quarter backs; A. H. Gallie and J. E. McIntyre, half-backs; *W. P. Scott (captain), *D. R. Bedell-Sivright, *H. G. Monteith, *G. C. Gowlland, R. W. Cassells, J. A. Herriot, and N. H. Moncrieff, forwards.

Although short-handed, the F.L.'s played remarkably well, and at half-time each side had scored a try. Early in the second half Schulze was badly hurt and had to retire. The gallant thirteen, however, played so desperately for the rest of the game that they prevented Leicester from adding to their score, and the game was drawn—a most creditable performance.

On their arrival in London the team found frost in command of the situation and the Richmond match had to be abandoned. A heavy fall of snow threatened to prevent the Blackheath match, but a rapid thaw unexpectedly made the ground playable. Unfortunately Schulze and Sivright were both “casualties”. W. W. McCosh (F) played full-back, and the two vacant places forward were filled by *W. D. C. L. Purves (F) and W. C. Currie (F).

Blackheath played eight backs and seven forwards, but they more than held their own in the scrummages. In the first half Blackheath got a couple of tries which were converted, and Cunningham dropped a beautiful goal for the F.L.'s. C. C. Wright's pace enabled Blackheath to gain two more tries in the second half, and the F.L.'s only reply was a goal placed by Macleod from a try by Gowlland, Blackheath winning by 16 points to 9.

1907-8

The tour this season was remarkable for the heavy scores by which Richmond and Blackheath were beaten, and it was stated that the score of 43 points to nil by which Blackheath were defeated was a record in the history of that famous club. These successes were the more gratifying because the start at Leicester did not suggest such a result of the London visit.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

At Leicester the side was:

*D. G. Schulze (F), back; A. A. Lawrie (F), *G. Cunningham (F), P. C. Steinthal (L), and J. H. Currie (F), three-quarter backs; J. E. McIntyre (F) and T. A. Godby (L), half-backs; *D. R. Bedell-Sivright, (F) (captain), *L. Robertson (F), *G. C. Gowlland (F), *W. D. C. L. Purves (F), R. McCosh (F), R. L. D. Kidston (L), W. D. Ward (F), and S. J. McMillan (F), forwards.

The retirement of that great player K. G. Macleod meant, of course, a tremendous loss to the Club, but it was not the fault of the backs that the F.L.'s suffered their first defeat at Leicester. The forwards never settled down, and it was Leicester's superiority in the scrummage that gave them the victory by three goals and two tries to a goal and a try.

The weather in London was favourable, and as Richmond were not at full strength the F.L.'s won in very decisive fashion. Two changes were made in the forwards, *H. G. Monteith (F) and R. D. Cox taking the places of Kidston and McMillan. After starting rather sluggishly the F.-L. forwards showed great dash, and the three-quarters, especially Cunningham, were excellent. In the second half they were brilliant, and the F.L.'s won by four goals and three tries (29 points) to nil.

The same team met Blackheath, after a day's rest, and the weak side opposing them was overwhelmed. Blackheath lost H. Mainprice, one of their half-backs, before half-time, and were quite unable to hold the F.L.'s in check. Sivright, Monteith, and Gowlland were always to the fore among the forwards, and the three-quarters were much too fast and clever for the opposition.

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

No fewer than eleven tries were scored, and the F.L.'s won by five goals and six tries (43 points) to nil, which was a very satisfactory set-off against their previous reverses on the same ground.

1908-9

Owing to frost the Leicester match had to be cancelled and the tour opened at Blackheath. Unfortunately A. A. Lawrie (F), the captain, was unable to play, but Cunningham proved an admirable deputy. The team was:

*D. G. Schulze (F), back; R. M. Grant (L), A. G. Moir (F), *G. Cunningham (F) (captain), and J. N. Hutcheson (F), three-quarter backs; J. E. McIntyre (F) and D. A. MacGregor (F), half-backs; *D. R. Bedell-Sivright (F), *W. G. Lely (F), *W. D. C. L. Purves (F), *E. J. Ross (F), *J. M. Mackenzie (F), W. D. Ward (F), R. W. Cassells (F), and T. E. Campbell (L), forwards.

The forwards, in spite of the absence of *G. C. Gowlland (F) and L. Robertson (F), proved a very strong lot, and in the second half their dribbling was too much for their opponents' defence. At half-time each side had scored a goal, but in the second half Grant gained a couple of tries—the first after an excellent piece of combination—and as the second was converted by Ward the F.L.'s won by two goals and a try to a goal.

It is interesting to record that one of the Blackheath half-backs in this match was the present Headmaster of Fettes (Cambridge University and England), who was chiefly responsible for the try from which Blackheath got their goal. Mr. Ashcroft at the dinner in 1921, when he was the guest of the Club, recalled that it was not his first meeting with the F.L.'s, and humorously remarked that his person still bore some of the marks of their boots!

Against Richmond the forwards again showed splendid form. The F.L.'s had much the best of the game, but there was a lack of scoring power behind (Hutcheson having to retire for almost twenty minutes owing to injury), and the result was a draw, each side scoring a goal in the first half. Schulze was very safe at full-back.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

1909-10

This season a match was arranged with the Harlequins, then the strongest of the London Clubs, in place of Leicester, and the tour started with this fixture. It was unfortunate that the opening game should have been with the F.L.'s most powerful opponents before the team had a chance of settling down. Much difficulty also had been experienced in getting a representative set of backs. To make matters worse, A. B. Clay (L) was absent, and his place at three-quarters had to be filled by H. Whyte, a forward. The team, which played one short, was:

O. S. Moodie (F), back; J. M. Macdonald (F), *D. G. Schulze (F), A. G. Moir (F), and H. Whyte (F), three-quarter backs; *G. Cunningham (F) (captain) and R. M. Grant (L), half-backs; *W. G. Lely (F), *G. C. Gowlland (F), *L. Robertson (F), T. E. Campbell (L), R. L. D. Kidston (L), J. A. Reid (F), and J. F. Carson (F), forwards.

The Harlequins played five three-quarters, and the speed and combination of their backs were too much for their opponents. A. D. Stoop, the English half-back, was ubiquitous, and although the forwards worked hard and Cunningham did heroic work, the Harlequins "ran riot" and won by six goals and four tries (42 points) to nothing.

Some consolation for this rout was afforded by victories over Richmond and Blackheath. *W. D. C. L. Purves (F) filled the vacant place forward and W. Barr (L) played three-quarters in place of Whyte. Against Richmond the F.L.'s showed marked improvement. Cunningham heartened his side by dropping a goal and Richmond responded with a try. In the second half Barr

FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN FOOTBALL TEAM—1900

Back Row (left to right): W. P. Donaldson, D. R. Bedell-Sivright, J. G. Paterson, J. Ward, W. P. Scott,
 F. W. Henderson, W. J. Thomson, J. R. C. Greenlees, G. F. Henderson, Tomlinson
 Second Row: H. Rottenburg, J. A. Campbell, Colin Thomson (Capt.), A. R. Smith, H. F. H. Caldwell
 Front Row: E. F. Guthrie, H. Ross, G. K. Ward. (James Ross absent)

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

and Macdonald gained tries, one of which Cunningham converted, and Richmond scored a try and a penalty goal, the F.L.'s winning by 14 points to 11.

The Blackheath match was an exciting struggle. The forwards again shone, and the backs, especially Cunningham, did remarkably well. Ten minutes before no-side Blackheath were leading by two points, but tries by Macdonald and Cunningham (who after a great run scored between the posts and placed a goal) gave the F.L.'s the victory by a goal and two tries to a goal.

1910-11

The tour this season was from every point of view unsatisfactory and disappointing. Owing to accidents and other causes only about half a dozen of the selected fifteen took the field, and among the absentees was *G. Cunningham (F), the captain. The team was the weakest that had ever represented the Club, and it was defeated in all three matches.

The opening match, played at the Queen's Club, London, was against a strong fifteen representing the Royal Navy, who had a splendid lot of forwards. The F.L.'s were represented by the following side:

*D. G. Schulze (F) (captain), back; T. E. Young (L), P. C. Steinthal (L), R. F. Guthrie (L), and C. A. Salvesen (F), three-quarter backs; M. R. C. Young (F) and J. V. F. Macdonald (F), half-backs; *L. Robertson (F), *A. R. Ross (L), H. Whyte (F), J. M. Pringle (F), J. C. B. Crozier (L), G. G. Powell (L), J. Drew (L), and J. R. Lamberton (F), forwards.

The F.L.'s were outmatched both forward and behind, and the Navy won by five goals and four tries (37 points) to two tries, gained by Salvesen.

Against Richmond W. Barr (L) played instead of T. E. Young, and J. F. Carson (F) and T. E. Campbell took the places of Ross and Crozier, forward. The forwards put up a good fight, but the weakness of the backs enabled Richmond to win by a goal and two tries to a try.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Steinthal was unable to play against Blackheath, and his place was taken by a substitute (L. Wood). The forwards played pluckily, but the weak tackling of their backs let the side down and Blackheath won by two goals and four tries. This was Schulze's last game for the F.L.'s. He had rendered the Club excellent service at full-back and three-quarters for several years.

It must be admitted that the poor display of the F.L.'s on this tour was a severe blow to the Club's prestige, which one writer unkindly described as "now a thing of the past". Although time has proved that this verdict was too sweeping, the increasing difficulty experienced in getting together a representative side (for reasons to which allusion has already been made) caused among the older members of the Club some misgivings about the future of the tours, as it was feared that less readiness was being shown by the younger members to accept places in the team.

1911-12

This season's results did something to remove the unfavourable impression of the previous year. Although the backs consisted chiefly of young players, the forwards were a very useful lot, and a drawn game and a victory were encouraging results. A start was made at Richmond, and the F.-L. team was:

R. C. B. Macindoe (F), back; P. C. Steinthal (L), T. E. Young (L), T. Stout (F), and R. C. B. Hay (F), three-quarter backs; A. C. Williamson (F) and A. W. Blair (F), half-backs; *W. D. C. L. Purves (F) (captain), *L. Robertson (F), *J. M. Mackenzie (F), *P. C. B. Blair (F), J. A. Reid (F), T. E. Campbell (L), P. M. Campbell (F), and R. C. Lindsay (L), forwards.

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

The F.L.'s took some time to settle down, and at half-time Richmond led by a goal and a try to a goal. In the second half the F.-L. forwards showed great improvement and had much the best of the game, but weakness at three-quarters prevented them from reaping the full reward of their efforts, and it was not until the last few minutes that Stout gained an equalising try, the game ending in a draw of eight points each.

Against Blackheath A. B. Ovens (F) took Macindoe's place at full-back. The forwards were again excellent and the backs tackled well, though they lacked scoring power. It was not until half-way through the second half that a neat movement by Williamson and Stout enabled Purves to score a try which gave the F.L.'s a narrow victory.

1912-13

The tour again started at Richmond, and the F.L.'s had a fairly representative side, though three or four of their best players were absent. The team was:

O. S. Moodie (F), back; T. E. Young (L), J. R. Philip (F), J. A. Glegg (F), and T. Stout (F), three-quarter backs; A. C. Williamson (F) and A. W. Blair (F), half-backs, *W. D. C. L. Purves (F) (captain), *P. C. B. Blair (F), *A. R. Ross (L), *E. T. Young (F), *R. A. Gallie (F), A. H. Bowhill (F), R. C. Lindsay (L), and A. L. Mackay (F), forwards.

The F.L.'s, as usual, did not "find their feet" for some time, and Richmond took the lead with a dropped goal and a goal from a try in the first half. After change of ends the forwards got going. Although lighter than their opponents, they were much faster, and some of their dribbling rushes were in the true F.-L. tradition. In the first ten minutes of the second half Bowhill and Philip got tries and T. E. Young placed a goal, reducing the Richmond lead to a single point. The F.L.'s pressed their opponents hard for the rest of the game, but they could not score again and were beaten by 9 points to 8.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Some consolation for this rather unlucky reverse was afforded by a fine victory over Blackheath. Unfortunately Purves and Blair (in view of an International match a few days later) and Philip (injured) were unable to play, and their places were taken by *G. C. Gowlland (F), J. A. McGlashan (F), and T. E. Harris (L).

It was a thrilling game. Blackheath had much the best of it in the first half, and at half-time led by 14 points to 5. Immediately after change of ends they added another three points to their lead with an unconverted try. Then the F.-L. forwards took control of the game. Their dribbling was irresistible and their splendid work decided the game. Blackheath were worn down, and Glegg, Stout (after a splendid run), and Ross gained tries, Moodie placing a goal. Then Glegg dropped a goal and Harris just before the finish got another try, the F.L.'s thus gaining a remarkable triumph by three goals and three tries (23 points) to a goal and four tries (17 points).

1913-14

After the performances of the team the last two seasons the results of this season's tour were very disappointing. On paper the side did not appear much weaker than that of the previous year, but after drawing with Richmond it came sadly to grief against Blackheath. The team against Richmond was:

T. A. G. Millar (F), back; T. Stout (F), I. N. Mackay (F), R. R. Jackson (L), and J. N. Thomson (F), three-quarter backs; A. C. Williamson and A. W. Blair (F), half-backs; *L. Robertson (F) (captain), *G. C. Gowlland (F), *P. C. B. Blair (F), *A. R. Ross (L), J. A. Reid (F), J. A. Young (L), J. A. McGlashan (F), and D. H. Leck (L), forwards.

FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN FOOTBALL TEAM—1904

Back Row (left to right): R. McCosh, G. C. Gowlland, S. H. Osborne, A. A. Lawrie, R. W. Cassells, G. S. Joannides, J. Burt-Marshall

Second Row: S. Horsley, J. V. Bedell-Sivright, W. P. Scott (Capt.), F. W. Henderson, A. Forman

Front Row: K. G. Macleod, D. G. Schulze, G. Turner

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

An even and rather featureless game at Richmond ended in a draw, each side scoring a try, and the debacle at Blackheath came as an unpleasant surprise. The only change in the team was that *E. T. Young (F) took McGlashan's place. Blackheath had whipped up a strong fifteen, including half-a-dozen English Internationals, and the F.L.'s were outplayed. The forwards made some good rushes, but the side seemed to go to pieces, and Blackheath won by five goals and five tries (40 points) to nothing. It was the last match before the war, and an inglorious close to a memorable period.

1920-21

The outbreak of war and its effects caused a suspension of the tours, and it was not until seven years had elapsed that they were resumed. Appropriately, the new epoch in the Club's history was started in Lancashire, which was the scene of its early triumphs. Matches were arranged with Liverpool and Manchester. In the interval a new generation of players had matured, and the only members of the team who had taken part in the last tour before the war were the captain and J. A. Young. The team was:

J. H. Storey (F), back; T. D. Smith (L), G. Todd (F), R. J. Robertson (L), and F. S. Airey (F), three-quarter backs; A. B. S. Young (F) and F. A. Gardiner (L), half-backs; *R. A. Gallie (F) (captain), J. A. Young (L), A. R. Lamberton (F), F. S. Beveridge (L), J. R. Morison (L), J. D. H. Smith-Maxwell (F), J. B. Cumming (F), and G. Hedderwick (L), forwards.

This was not a fully representative side, *G. S. Conway (injured) being one conspicuous absentee, but it proved quite strong enough for its task and gave the Club a good "send-off".

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Liverpool were defeated by four goals and five tries (35 points) to a penalty goal, but it is only fair to Liverpool to mention that three of the F.-L. fifteen (Storey, Airey, and Smith-Maxwell) were regular members of their team.

Manchester offered a stiffer opposition, and it was the superiority of the F.-L. forwards that gave the visitors the victory by a goal and a try to a dropped goal.

1921-22

No tour took place this season, as it was not found possible to raise a team.

1922-23

After a lapse of nine years the F.L.'s made their reappearance on a London ground and celebrated the occasion by beating Richmond by four tries (12 points) to a goal and a try (8 points). This was the only match played. The team was:

J. H. Storey (F), back; W. G. B. Mackenzie (F), W. Gray (L), *H. Waddell (F), and H. F. S. Fraser (L), three-quarter backs; W. Swan (F) and A. B. S. Young (F), half-backs; *G. S. Conway (F), (captain), *D. J. MacMyn (F), J. A. Ross (F), F. F. Ogilvy (F), J. E. Clegg (L), S. Duffus (F), A. T. Prentice (L), and J. A. Young (L), forwards.

This team could not be considered up to the standard of some of the pre-war sides, but it performed creditably. The forwards were rather light, but their footwork was excellent, and the F.L.'s fully deserved their victory.

1923-24

A much stronger side was available for the tour this season, although *H. Waddell, *G. P. S. Macpherson (both in Paris playing for Scotland), and one or two other good men were missing. In the opening match with Richmond the team was as follows:

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

A. S. Dykes (L), back; H. F. S. Fraser (L), F. A. Gardiner (L), C. V. Forslind (L), and W. Gray (L), three-quarter backs; J. C. Russell (F) and *J. C. Dykes (L), half-backs; *G. S. Conway (F) (captain), *D. J. MacMyn (F.), *J. Gilchrist (L), T. G. Rennie (L), R. S. Simpson (L), W. B. Scott (F), G. Hedderwick (L), and A. A. Marr (F), forwards.

Well led by their captain, the forwards gave a display worthy of the F.L.'s great days, and the backs were little inferior, Russell and Dykes being described in one newspaper as the best pair of half-backs seen in London that season. From the very first the players seemed to "fit in", and Richmond were decisively outplayed, the F.L.'s winning by two goals and three tries to a try—the reward of first-class football.

An equally welcome success was achieved at Teddington against the Harlequins, who on the previous occasion of the two clubs meeting had gained an overwhelming victory. Two changes had to be made in the F.-L. team, J. A. Ross (F) taking the place of Gray and A. F. Methuen (F) replacing Marr. The play of the forwards was again of high class, and the speed and combination of the backs were equally notable, Fraser being the most brilliant. The F.L.'s won by two goals and two tries to nothing, and their form on this tour did much to restore the Club's prestige in London.

1924-25

The fact that the opening game of the tour at Richmond clashed with a Scottish International match deprived the F.-L. team of no fewer than eight of the original choices for this season's tour, including six Scottish "caps" in D. J. MacMyn (F), J. R. Paterson (L), G. P. S. Macpherson (F), J. Gilchrist (L), J. C. Dykes (L), and H. Waddell (F). The team which took the field was composed of the following players:

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

A. A. Duncan (F), back; F. A. Gardiner (L), J. A. Ross (F), R. K. Ferguson (F), and H. H. A. Whitson (L), three-quarter backs; J. C. Russell (F) and C. W. Calder (L), half-backs; *G. S. Conway (F) (captain), *W. V. Berkley (F), T. G. Rennie (L), J. M. Dykes (L), J. J. E. Smith (L), C. L. Potts (F), R. A. Macleod (L), and G. Hedderwick (L), forwards.

The game was played under miserable conditions of weather, heavy rain and a gale of wind severely testing the players, but the F.-L. forwards under the inspiring leadership of Conway surpassed themselves. Their footwork and combined rushes won the admiration of all who could appreciate fine forward play, adapted to the prevailing conditions, and the F.L.'s victory by two goals to nothing was in all the circumstances a most praiseworthy achievement.

From London the team proceeded to Portsmouth to meet the United Services, who hospitably entertained several of the players. The side was reinforced by A. S. Dykes (L) at full back; *J. C. Dykes (L), who took Calder's place at stand-off half; and MacMyn, J. R. Paterson, and W. B. Scott, who played instead of Conway, Macleod and Smith forward. Conway's inability to play was a severe loss to the forwards, who did not shape so well as against Richmond. But the backs did well, and J. A. Ross gained two dashing tries. The game was pretty even, but the F.L.'s were rather the better side and won by a goal and two tries to two tries. On the whole it was a very satisfactory tour, and showed that the resources of the Club were once more capable of supplying good substitutes for its International players who were unable to play.

1925-29

The fact that in 1924-25 no fewer than eight of the players who would, if they had been free, have formed the backbone of

FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN FOOTBALL TEAM—1906

Back Row (left to right): J. A. Herriot, D. G. Schulze, W. D. L. Purves, J. E. McIntyre
 Second Row: D. R. Bedell-Sivright, H. Harper, G. Cunningham, A. L. Purves, W. C. Currie, A. H. Gallie,
 R. W. Cassels, G. C. Gowland
 Front Row: W. W. McCosh, H. G. Monteith, W. P. Scott (Capt.), K. G. Macleod, James Ross

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

the team, were absent owing to the claims of the Scottish Union on their services, was an ominous sign of the difficulty—indeed, almost impossibility in these days—of getting a representative side together. In consequence the Football Committee were compelled to abandon the tour for four years, and it was not until 1929 that it was determined to make a fresh start.

Matches were arranged with Richmond and Rosslyn Park, a London club which had firmly established itself in the front rank, and under the enthusiastic captaincy of D. J. MacMyn the following team renewed the F.L.'s encounters with their old and friendly opponents at Richmond:

A. S. Dykes (L), back; A. R. J. Macdonald (F), A. M. Maclean (L), R. K. Ferguson (F), and A. W. J. Murray (L), three-quarter backs; A. A. Duncan (F) and W. Nicholson (L), half-backs; *D. J. MacMyn (F) (captain), *D. Crichton-Miller (F), J. M. Dykes (L), J. J. E. Smith (L), I. F. M. Spence (F), D. H. Simson (F), I. M. Waters (L), and A. M. Paterson (L), forwards.

The F.L.'s have always been a popular side in London and their reappearance was cordially welcomed. Although so many of the Club's best players were not available the team made quite a brilliant rentrée, and gained a decisive victory by five goals and a try to a try (28 points to 3). The forwards showed surprisingly good combination for a scratch side in its first game, and their skilful use of their feet in characteristic F.-L. style was most effective. The backs also gave an excellent display, and some of their passing was first-rate.

In the second match, against Rosslyn Park, Dykes, Macdonald, and Spence were unable to play, and their places were filled by J. T. Campbell (F), P. J. F. Williamson (F), and H. K. Anderson (F). The side did not play with the same dash as against Richmond, and after an even game suffered defeat by three goals and a try (18 points) to two goals and a try (13 points).

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

The results of the tour were sufficiently satisfactory to justify its revival, and an even more pleasing feature was the pleasure which it afforded those who took part in it. This was quite in accord with the traditions of the Club.

1930-31

Two matches were again arranged in London, and for the first time the Old Cranleighians, who have now established themselves in the front rank of Metropolitan clubs, were encountered. This was the first time the F.L.'s had met the Old Boys of an English Public School since their match with the Marlborough Nomads at Manchester in 1883-84. The team was:

A. S. Dykes (L), back; A. W. J. Murray (L), W. G. Nicholson (L), A. W. McLean (L), and A. C. Hogarth (F), three-quarter backs; *H. Waddell (F) (captain) and G. B. Pearce (F), half-backs; *D. J. MacMyn (F), *F. H. Waters (L), D. M. Marr (F), D. W. Dick (F), J. M. Dykes (L), I. B. Spence (F), M. S. Cumming (F), and W. S. Waterhouse (L), forwards.

The Cranleighians had two English Internationals among their backs and put up a strong fight, but on the soft ground the skilful footwork and sound tackling of the F.-L. forwards proved very effective, and a hard and interesting game ended in a victory for the F.L.'s by a single point—two tries to a goal. This was a very good performance, as the F.L.'s were short of fully half a dozen of their best men.

The second match was with Rosslyn Park. The F.-L. team was reinforced by *G. P. S. Macpherson (F) and R. K. Ferguson (F), who played three-quarters in place of Murray and McLean. Two changes were also made in the forwards. *D. Crichton-Miller (F) and G. W. Mackie (L) playing instead of Waters and Waterhouse. Rosslyn Park had the heavier pack, but in the open the

THE FOOTBALL TOURS

F.-L. forwards excelled and the backs got plenty of the ball. They made the most of their opportunities and at half-time the F.L.'s led by 22 points to 3. In the early part of the second half Rosslyn Park by strong play got three tries, all of which were converted, but the F.L.'s rallied and ran out easy winners by 35 points to 18.

A most successful tour ended with a dinner at the Café Royal. Among its pleasing features was the presence of the President of the Club (Ian MacIntyre), M. R. Jardine (a Past President), and other members and friends. This practical evidence of their interest in the team was much appreciated by the players, and marked a revival of one of the Club's traditions which had much to do with the success and pleasure of the earlier tours, and which, it is to be hoped, will not be permitted to lapse.

In this account of the Club's football reference has not been made to matches played against Fettes and Loretto, as these games were more of an educational than of a competitive character, and the F.-L. fifteens were not representative sides. The same remark applies to the cricket matches.

THE CRICKET TOURS

1883-88

J. G. WALKER was the first captain of cricket, and held that office for fifteen years. He had got his Blue at Oxford in 1882 and played for Middlesex for several years. He was also chosen to play for the Gentlemen against the Players at the Oval. During the first eight years the only matches played were with the Edinburgh Academicals and Edinburgh University. In 1884 the Academicals were beaten by eight wickets—J. H. Aitken scoring a century for the F.L.'s—and the University were beaten by an innings and eight runs. In a match against Fettes in 1885 the F.L.'s scored 502 for eight wickets—A. G. G. Asher playing a brilliant innings of 261 (a record for the Fettes ground) and J. H. Aitken contributing 106.

The next two seasons matches were again arranged with the Academicals and the University. The batting was stronger than the bowling on both sides, and the result in each case was a draw.

1889

In 1886-88 no matches were arranged, but in 1889 it was decided to have an English tour, and fixtures were made with Liverpool, Birkenhead Park, and the Cheshire Gentlemen. A fairly representative eleven was available, and the tour was in every respect most successful. The eleven was:

THE CRICKET TOURS

J. G. Walker (captain), H. B. Tristram, M. R. Jardine, A. R. Don Wauchope, A. G. G. Asher, H. F. H. Caldwell, A. G. Pearson, D. L. Evans, W. Wotherspoon, and J. F. Dunlop.

At Liverpool Jardine, who that season had gained his Blue at Oxford, played a magnificent innings of 178. Tristram (121) and Walker also batted well. The total was over 400, but the F.L.'s were unable to get Liverpool out twice and the game was drawn greatly in their favour.

Birkenhead Park were beaten by ten wickets, and the Cheshire Gentlemen were beaten in an innings. The F.L.'s scored 412, J. Steel (who played instead of Dunlop) making 78, Tristram 70, and Jardine 50. The fielding of the side was very good, Wauchope and Jardine at cover and extra-cover being brilliant.

1890

The following year matches with Liverpool, Manchester, and the Old Reptonians were played, and again the F.L.'s put a strong side in the field, though it was rather weak in bowling and Asher was unable to play. At Aigburth Jardine played a splendid innings of 217, and the F.L.'s made the huge score of 563 for six wickets, A. D. Dunlop contributing 89 and H. T. S. Gedge 86. Liverpool were dismissed for 188 and 228.

Owing to heavy rain, which prevented any play on the first day at Old Trafford, the wicket was difficult, and the F.L.'s were all out for 110. Manchester, whose eleven included A. C. Maclaren, the Lancashire and English captain, replied with 152, A. S. Caldwell taking eight wickets for 47 runs—a really first-rate piece of bowling.

Going on to Repton, where the team were the guests of the Rev. A. F. E. Forman at the School, the F.L.'s met a very strong Old Reptonian eleven which included L. C. H. and R. C. N. Palairat, A. H. J. Cochrane, C. B. Fry, and F. G. J. Ford. The wicket, owing to heavy dew, gave the bowlers some help, and the F.L.'s were dismissed by the two left-handers, Ford and Cochrane, for 105. Everyone expected the Reptonians to make light of this total, but another splendid piece of bowling by Alfred Caldwell, who took five wickets for 39 runs, gave his side an unexpected lead of 18 runs. The wicket had improved when the F.L.'s batted a second time, but they fared badly against Cochrane's bowling and were all out for 176, Wauchope (49) being the highest scorer. Jardine, who was suffering from neuralgia, was unable to do himself justice, and was dismissed for 0 and 3. The Reptonians knocked off the 195 runs needed to win for the loss of only two wickets, G. B. Barrington making 96 not out.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

The fielding of the side was again very good, and won warm praise from the Manchester critics. The bowling of Alfred Caldwell also was of a high order, and so fine a judge of the game as Mr. A. G. Steel, who watched the Liverpool match, spoke of it in the highest terms. The other bowling, however, was not strong.

1891

For the 1891 tour only two matches were arranged—at Manchester and Liverpool, and the weather was unfavourable. The bowling was strengthened by the presence of F. A. Adam and J. H. J. Hornsby.

At Manchester the F.L.'s batted first and scored 216, to which F. E. Woodhead (60), A. S. Caldwell (42), and A. R. Don Wauchope (36) were the chief contributors. Manchester could score only 92 against some good bowling by Caldwell and Adam, but did better when they followed on, and scored 232. The F.L.'s were left to get 109, and Tristram batted so brilliantly for 69 that the F.L.'s won by seven wickets.

THE CRICKET TOURS

The Liverpool match was spoilt by rain. The F.L.'s, batting between showers on a soft patch, made 250. The highest scorers were Woodhead (61) and Jardine (46), but eight of the team got double figures. After Liverpool had scored 136 for six wickets the game was abandoned.

1892

The matches in 1892 were with Liverpool, the Yorkshire Gentlemen, and the Gentlemen of Durham at Norton.

At Liverpool (where M. R. Jardine was unable to assist) the wicket, owing to rain, was very difficult and A. S. Caldwell and A. N. Fleming were almost unplayable. They dismissed Liverpool for 38 and 48, only two batsmen getting double figures. Whitehead, the Liverpool professional slow bowler, was equally hard to play, but the F.L.'s put together 81 in their first innings and won the match by ten wickets.

At York Jardine, who that summer had made 140 for Oxford against Cambridge at Lord's, joined the team and made his presence felt by scoring 45 and 81. In their first innings the F.L.'s scored 188, J. G. Walker heading the list with a well-played 50. Fleming and F. E. Woodhead then dismissed their opponents for 152. After scoring 211 for five wickets, G. T. Campbell hitting hard for 59, the F.L.'s closed their innings, but the Yorkshire Gentlemen saved the game by making 130 for the loss of three wickets.

The F.L.'s gave a good display of batting against the Gentlemen of Durham, Walker (66), Jardine (66), and Campbell (41) being the principal contributors to a total of 324 for eight wickets. The team was, as usual, rather short of change bowling, but Caldwell and Fleming did all that was necessary by getting rid of the Durham men for 97 and 200, the F.L.'s winning by an innings and 27 runs.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

1893

This year a start was made at Preston, where the local club were beaten by an innings and 14 runs. A. N. Fleming and R. B. Pearson's slow bowling proved too much for the Preston batsmen, who in their first innings were all out for 82. The F.L.'s put on 257 (A. G. G. Asher 73, H. B. Tristram 52, and M. R. Jardine 44). Preston did little better at their second attempt until their ninth wicket made a good stand, but they could not save the game and were all out for 161.

In a low-scoring match Liverpool were beaten by seven wickets. The F.L.'s made 153, Jardine's 57 being much the best innings, and good bowling by Fleming and Pearson dismissed Liverpool for 94. Following on, Liverpool failed by four runs to reach even that modest total, Pearson taking seven wickets at small cost, and the F.L.'s won by seven wickets. Jardine was caught at the wicket without getting a run.

The Birkenhead Park match was drawn. The Park eleven were all out for 76, of which T. R. Hubback made 40. Pearson bowled splendidly, taking seven wickets at trifling cost. The F.L.'s made 172 (A. G. G. Asher 64) and when stumps were drawn the Park had lost five wickets for 112 runs.

1894

The matches this year were with Preston, Liverpool, and the Yorkshire Gentlemen. The tour was marred by wet weather.

FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN XI. v. CHESHIRE GENTLEMEN—1889

Back Row (left to right): H. F. H. Caldwell, D. L. Evans, A. G. G. Asher, Tomlinson (Umpire), W. Wotherspoon, J. Steel, H. B. Tristram, M. R. Jardine

Front Row: C. J. G. Paterson, A. R. Don Wauchope, J. G. Walker (Capt.), A. S. Caldwell, N. MacLachlan

THE CRICKET TOURS

The eleven also was not so strong as in previous years, and the absence of Jardine, who had gone to India, was a severe loss.

At Preston the F.L.'s found the bowling of Holmes, the local professional, very difficult and were all out for 106, only A. R. Don Wauchope (46 not out) and J. G. Walker (33) getting double figures. Holmes took all ten wickets—nine of them clean bowled—for 46 runs. Fleming and Pearson got rid of Preston for 80, but the F.L.'s did even worse in their second innings, only Wauchope (20) getting double figures, and Preston won by nine wickets.

The Liverpool match was cut short by rain and ended in a draw. The F.L.'s closed their first innings after scoring 159 for six wickets, and Fleming and Pearson skittled out Liverpool for 48 before stumps were drawn.

The York match was equally disappointing. The F.L.'s made 155 and the Yorkshire Gentlemen, whose team included three County players in Lord Hawke, F. S. Jackson, and F. Mitchell, and also G. H. Aitken, the Old Fettesian, had scored 85 for four wickets when rain stopped the game. Lord Hawke made 51, but Pearson bowled Jackson, the England captain, after he had made two runs.

1895

The fixtures were the same as in the previous year, but the eleven was very weak in batting, Jardine, Tristram, Asher, Campbell, and Gedge being among the absentees. The bowling, however, was strengthened by the presence of M. Berkley, the Essex slow bowler.

The Preston professional bowlers dismissed the F.L.'s for 55 and 73, and although Berkley took nine wickets at small cost—two batsmen contributing 65 of the Preston total of 115—the F.L.'s were beaten by ten wickets.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Against Liverpool the side was strengthened by the arrival of Asher, Gedge, and F. A. Adam. Liverpool made 166 in their first innings and the F.L.'s responded with 294, nine of the batsmen getting double figures (Wauchope 60 and D. MacLachlan 46). Liverpool in their second innings made 223 for nine wickets and the game was drawn.

The F.L.'s also had much the best of a drawn game at York against the Yorkshire Gentlemen, who had not such a strong side as in the previous year. Asher's 54 was the feature of the F.L.'s first innings of 170, and another splendid piece of bowling by Berkley, who took eight wickets, was responsible for the dismissal of the Yorkshire Gentlemen for 115. The F.L.'s closed their second innings after scoring 225 for five wickets, Asher and Gedge each contributing 75 runs; but, although Berkley again proved irresistible and took eight wickets, they just failed to win, as when stumps were drawn the Yorkshire Gentlemen's last two men were still in, with the total standing at 141 for nine wickets.

Berkley's bowling throughout the tour was remarkable. He took thirty-one wickets out of forty-five at a cost of 8.52 runs each.

1896

A new fixture was arranged this year with the Northern Nomads, in place of the Yorkshire Gentlemen. Unfortunately Berkley was not able to play, and J. G. Walker took part in only one match. The tour started at Liverpool. The home Club scored 194, of which P. J. T. Henery, the Cambridge and Middlesex cricketer, made no less than 108. The F.L.'s exceeded this total by 103, W. Greenstock (88), A. G. G. Asher (52), and W. J. Thomson (42) being the chief contributors to the total of 297.

THE CRICKET TOURS

Liverpool in their second innings made 183, against some good bowling by Pearson and Fleming, and the game was drawn.

The Northern Nomads match was played on Mr. Jacob Wakefield's private ground at Sedgwick House, near Kendal. The Nomads batted first and made 214, Fleming bowling well and taking seven wickets. The F.-L. batsmen failed badly and were all out for 121, of which Wauchope, always a good man at a pinch, scored 45 not out. Following on, the F.L.'s made 85 for three wickets and the game was drawn.

J. G. Walker made a welcome reappearance in the eleven at Preston and played the highest innings for his side. Preston opened with an innings of 251, and by good all-round batting, nine men getting double figures, the F.L.'s scored 366. Walker played a first-rate innings of 95 not out, and with the assistance of A. N. Fleming put on no fewer than 106 for the last wicket. Greenstock (61) and Gedge (44) also batted well. Preston in playing out time made 26 for no wickets. Thus all three matches of the tour were drawn.

1897

The Yorkshire Gentlemen match was restored to the fixture list this year, and the tour opened at York in brilliant fashion under Asher's captaincy. The eleven was fairly representative, and Berkley's return made up for the absence of A. N. Fleming. Alfred Caldwell also rejoined the team after a considerable interval. The F.L.'s batted first, and a great stand by W. MacFarlan (113 not out) and R. B. Pearson (100) made up for other batting failures, the total reaching 387. The Yorkshire Gentlemen put on 225, and the result of this free scoring was a drawn game.

The Liverpool game also was drawn. A strong Liverpool eleven was dismissed for 186, Berkley taking seven wickets.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

When the F.L.'s went in J. A. Campbell gave a brilliant display of hitting and scored 131 out of a total of 255. Liverpool in their second innings made 81 for one wicket, the game being drawn.

The Preston match had an exciting finish. Preston led in the first innings by 207 runs to 125. The F.L.'s in their second innings scored 204. Greenstock carrying his bat through the innings for a masterly 79. In Preston's second innings Pearson and Berkley bowled so well that Preston lost nine wickets for 46 runs and just managed to escape defeat.

1898

The same matches were arranged as in the preceding year. The F.-L. eleven was much weaker in both batting and bowling, although the absence of such good bowlers as A. N. Fleming, R. B. Pearson, F. A. Adam, and A. S. Caldwell was to some extent balanced by the presence of F. Hunter and H. V. Hesketh-Prichard, one of the best amateur fast bowlers in the country, who did great work. Against Preston in the opening match he took twelve wickets, Preston being dismissed for 70 and 96. The F.L.'s made 176 (J. G. Walker playing a good not-out innings of 57), and won the match by ten wickets.

Rain curtailed the Liverpool match, which was consequently drawn. Liverpool scored 206, of which W. Bowring made 104 not out. The other batsmen offered little resistance to the bowling of Prichard, who took seven wickets. The F.L.'s made 155 for six wickets, W. Greenstock (61) and F. E. Woodhead (44) being the chief scorers.

The feature of the match at York was the brilliant batting of A. G. G. Asher, who made 106 out of a total of 219 for four wickets, when the F.L.'s innings was declared closed. The York-

FETTESIAN-LORETTONIANS v. OLD REPTONIANS, AT REPTON—1890

Back Row (left to right): G. B. Barrington (O.R.), M. R. Jardine (F.-L.), J. F. Dunlop (F.-L.), J. Steel (F.-L.), Scotter (Umpire)

Third Row: R. H. Dun (F.-L.), J. H. Kelsey (O.R.), L. C. H. Palairt (O.R.), E. A. Surtees (O.R.), E. M. Forbes (O.R.), Tomlinson (Umpire) shire Gentlemen's innings owing to rain lasted only a short time, during which they made 30 for the loss of one wicket.

Second Row: H. T. S. Gedge (F.-L.), T. Horton (O.R.), A. H. J. Cochran (O.R.), R. C. N. Palairt (O.R.), P. G. Exham (O.R.), F. G. J. Ford (O.R.), F. R. Marriott, H. B. Tristram (F.-L.)

Front Row: A. R. Don Wauchope (F.-L.), J. G. Walker (F.-L., Capt.), A. S. Caldwell (F.-L.), Rev. A. F. E. Forman, Mrs. Forman, C. B. Fry (O.R.), H. F. H. Caldwell (F.-L.), G. T. Campbell (F.-L.)

THE CRICKET TOURS

1899

The eleven this year was again far from representative, as Hesketh - Prichard, Berkley, Greenstock, and Woodhead were absent, but R. B. Pearson and A. N. Fleming were fortunately able to play.

The first match was with Preston, who would have fared badly but for a fine innings of 102 by W. F. Best, the total of their first innings being only 207. The F.L.'s had to face some good bowling by Sutton, the Preston professional, and were all out for 178, J. A. Campbell's 46 being the top score. In their second innings Preston were dismissed for 96, and so vigorously did Woodhead (56), J. F. A. Swanston (49 not out), and J. A. Campbell (17 not out) bat in the second innings that the F.L.'s, racing the clock, made the winning hit in the last over of the game and won by nine wickets.

The Liverpool match was remarkable for high scoring. Liverpool on a fast wicket put together 304 runs, but this total was exceeded by the F.L.'s by 82 runs, Woodhead (127), R. B. Pearson (72) and Asher (71) batting very well. Liverpool in their second innings made 100 for two wickets and the match was drawn.

The third match was with the Northern Nomads on the Aigburth ground, and another draw was the result. The F.L.'s scored 253 in their first innings (A. R. Don Wauchope 59) and the Nomads 205. The F.L.'s hit up 113 for five wickets in their second innings and then closed. In the remaining time the Nomads made 71 for two wickets.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

1900

In place of the Northern Nomads match a new fixture was arranged this year with the Western Club, Manchester. The F.-L. eleven was not representative, though Berkley reappeared. In the opening match at Liverpool the batting broke down badly, and the F.L.'s were twice dismissed on a good wicket for the moderate scores of 134 and 118, R. B. Pearson's 53 being the best innings. Liverpool made 238 and won by nine wickets. This was the first time in twelve years Liverpool had beaten the F.L.'s.

At Preston high scoring produced a drawn game. Preston made 342, of which W. F. Best scored 88, but this large total was eclipsed by the F.L.'s, who scored 417. W. Greenstock (89), J. M. Waters (72), J. H. Orr (69), F. W. Henderson (45), and A. G. G. Asher (41) were the most successful batsmen.

The Western match was played at Eccles, and the local eleven included two Fettesians, the brothers F. G. and E. C. Maclaren. On account of rain no play was possible on the first day, and it was agreed to make the game a one-day match. The F.L.'s led off with a total of 276, of which Asher by dashing cricket scored 125, and as the Western team were all out for 173 the F.L.'s won by 103 runs.

1901-2

A tour did not take place in 1901, and when it was resumed in 1902 the eleven contained many new faces, though H. B. Tristram returned to the side and captained it. Fresh ground was broken, and the Midlands, instead of Lancashire, was the battleground. Unfortunately the weather was wet and greatly interfered with the cricket.

A promising start was made at Repton, where the F.L.'s were again hospitably entertained, as on the occasion of their previous visit. The Old Reptonians on a difficult wicket were cheaply dismissed for 99 by C. W. Wordsworth and D. J. T. Jamieson (who was still at Fettes). The bowlers were supported by good fielding. The F.L.'s got 194, J. T. Turner (48) and J. A. Campbell (37) doing best. In the second innings the Old Reptonians, who were greatly helped by dropped catches, scored 166. The F.L.'s won by five wickets, though they had some anxious moments before they got the necessary 72 runs.

THE CRICKET TOURS

The other two matches—against Ashby Hastings and the Warwickshire Gentlemen at Warwick—were almost literally “washed out”, and the play calls for little comment. Ashby Hastings scored 133 and the F.L.'s 39 for two wickets (H. B. Tristram 24 not out). Against the Warwickshire Gentlemen the F.L.'s made 233 for eight wickets (innings declared), J. A. Campbell scoring 63, J. M. Waters 50 not out, and W. J. Thomson 49. The Warwickshire Gentlemen made 69 for eight wickets.

1903

The Midlands was again the scene of the tour, which started at Repton, where the F.L.'s spent a delightful week-end through the kindness of their hosts at the School. W. Greenstock had a fairly strong eleven under him and D. J. T. Jamieson and A. M. P. Lyle bowled extremely well. The Old Reptonians were dismissed for 128, of which R. A. Young scored 52, but the F.-L. total reached only 117, of which J. T. Turner made 43. The Reptonians in their second effort scored 141 (R. A. Young 43), and the F.L.'s were left with 153 to get in an hour and a half. A thunderstorm in the middle of their innings threatened to stop the game, but a fresh wicket was pitched and at the finish the F.L.'s had lost seven wickets for 73.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

From Repton the F.L.'s proceeded to Burton and won a low-scoring match by 135 runs. They were all out for 90 in their first innings, but Jamieson and Lyle ran through the Burton eleven, whose total was only 30. The F.L.'s made 160 in their second innings (J. Bruce-Kerr 45 not out) and then got Burton out for 85.

Another victory was gained at Warwick against the Warwickshire Gentlemen. The F.L.'s did none too well in their first innings and were all out for 122, which their opponents exceeded by 10 runs. In their second innings, however, the F.L.'s gave a fine display of batting and ran up the large total of 316 for the loss of only three wickets (J. M. Waters 83, J. Bruce-Kerr 79 not out, J. H. Orr 56, J. T. Turner 47, and A. M. P. Lyle 34 not out). They then closed their innings and dismissed their opponents for 95, winning handsomely by 211 runs.

1904

At Repton the F.L.'s always received a cordial welcome and enjoyed some good cricket. This year was no exception to the rule.

Tristram had a fairly representative eleven under his command, and the Old Reptonians mustered a good batting side, though it was weak in bowling. Through the brilliant hitting of J. N. Crawford, the Surrey and England batsman (162), F. G. J. Ford, the Middlesex player and one of three brothers playing (64), and the Rev. L. G. B. J. Ford, Headmaster of Repton (49), the Reptonians on a slow wicket scored 401. The F.L.'s replied with 293 for seven wickets, a good score on a difficult wicket. J. T. Turner (74), A. M. P. Lyle (70), and H. B. Tristram (55) all batted well. Rain afterwards caused delay and the match was drawn.

THE CRICKET TOURS

Four matches had been arranged this year, and the remaining three were against old opponents in Lancashire. At Liverpool the F.L.'s had much the best of a drawn game. They scored 267 in their first innings, Tristram contributing 75, A. M. P. Lyle 66, W. J. Thomson 44, and F. G. Maclaren 41. Liverpool got 187, of which the veteran D. Q. Steel made 53. The F.L.'s, after scoring 256 for seven wickets (J. T. Turner 98 and F. G. Maclaren 56), closed their second innings with a lead of 346. They had not left themselves enough time, however, to get their opponents out, and when time was called Liverpool had scored 161 for nine wickets.

The Preston match was cut short by a deluge on the second day. The F.L.'s batted feebly in their first innings and were out for 90. Preston got 158 and a good innings of 56 by G. Turner (the Fettes captain that year) enabled the F.L.'s to make a better show in their second innings. When rain stopped the game Preston had lost two wickets for 22 and needed 99 to win.

The last match was against the Western Club, who claimed F. G. Maclaren (one of their regular players). His place on the F.-L. side was filled by K. G. Macleod, and as W. J. Thomson was not well enough to play J. M. Waters completed the eleven. The game was played in very windy weather and good bowling by D. J. T. Jamieson (seven wickets for 47 runs) got rid of the Western for 107. The F.L.'s made light of this total, Lyle (79 not out), G. Turner (75) and Waters (75) showing excellent form. When the total had reached 282 for six wickets the F.-L. captain declared. The Western at their second attempt were out for 110, the F.L.'s winning by an innings and 65 runs. Members of the Western Club kindly put up the F.L.'s for the match.

1905

The same four matches were played this year, and although some of their best cricketers were unable to assist the F.L.'s did fairly well. D. J. T. Jamieson was in excellent form with the ball, and the fielding and some of the batting were good.

A bad start, however, was made at Preston. The home Club scored 265 and the F.-L. batting failed. A total of 99 on a good wicket was a losing score, and as rain fell during the night the F.L.'s had to play their second innings on a drying wicket. Tristram (64) and J. T. Turner (63) made a plucky effort to save the game, but a total of 203 left Preston with only 38 runs to get. Quickly knocking up 40, they won by nine wickets.

The F.L.'s had the best of a drawn game at Liverpool. Jamieson and K. G. Macleod accomplished a good performance in getting Liverpool out for 165 on a batsman's wicket, and the F.L.'s by scoring 227 (W. J. Thomson 56 and Macleod 50) gained a useful lead of 62. Liverpool made 224 in their second innings and managed to save the game. A. M. P. Lyle played a good forcing innings of 57, but time was called when five wickets had fallen for 136, and the F.L.'s still needed 24 runs to win.

Rain seriously interfered with the match against the Western Club, whose members again kindly received the F.L.'s as their guests. A great innings of 127 by J. H. Orr and a useful 50 by D. MacLachlan were the chief features of the F.L.'s total of 288, but owing to rain the match had to be abandoned when the Western had scored 116 for seven wickets.

The tour concluded with the Repton match. It was a splendid performance by Jamieson and Macleod to dismiss the Old Reptonians (whose team included R. A. Young, the brothers Palairer, and F. G. J. Ford) for 72 runs in their first innings.

THE CRICKET TOURS

Although the F.L.'s started badly they eventually made 202, giving them the useful lead of 130, chiefly owing to a dashing innings of 65 by MacLachlan. The Reptonians did better in their second innings, scoring 128 for three wickets (L. C. H. Palairret 44 and F. G. J. Ford 39 not out), but rain prevented any play on the second day and the match was drawn.

1906

The Preston match was dropped this year, but although the tour was thus shortened great difficulty was found in getting up the eleven—Tristram, Jamieson, and the brothers Turner being among the absentees.

Donald MacLachlan was unable to play in the first match at Liverpool, where the team were once more entertained by Mr. E. Roper, who for many years had shown the Club much kindness. W. J. Thomson, who acted as MacLachlan's deputy, performed a captain's first duty by winning the toss, and thanks to good batting by Macleod (65) and Thomson (58) the F.L.'s made the respectable total of 224. Liverpool were out for 158, and the F.L.'s did even better in their second innings, Thomson (52) and A. A. Lawrie (48) not out, being the top scorers in a total of 236 for eight wickets. The F.L.'s declared and so well did Macleod bowl (six wickets for 56) that Liverpool just managed to avert defeat, the last two men defying the bowling for ten minutes.

The Western Club were beaten by three wickets, mainly owing to the deadly bowling of Lyle, who in the two innings took fifteen wickets for 142 runs, in spite of having several catches off his bowling dropped. The Western lost eight wickets for 83 runs, but the ninth wicket nearly doubled the score and the total reached 165. The F.L.'s hit up 224, of which Lyle made 76 and Thomson 40. In the second innings Lyle carried all before him. Although he had to bowl with a wet ball he captured nine wickets for 81 runs. The Western in their second innings got 211, and the F.L.'s made the 156 runs they required to win for the loss of seven wickets, with five minutes to spare.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

MacLachlan joined the side for the Reptonians' match. The Old Reptonians had not nearly so strong a side as usual, but they nevertheless put together 259 in their first innings. They had 187 on the board with only three wickets down, but Lyle and Macleod got rid of the "tail" cheaply. T. A. Godby (57) and Macleod (46) were the most successful of the F.-L. batsmen, and the innings realised 220. Fine bowling by Lyle, who took seven wickets for 47, caused a breakdown of the Reptonian batting in the second innings, and the total was only 121. This left the F.L.'s with the apparently easy task of getting 161 to win. The wicket was good, but the batting failed miserably against the bowling of E. A. Greswell and L. G. B. J. Ford. Macleod (35) alone batted with any confidence, and as the total was only 97 the Reptonians won easily by 63 runs.

The feature of the tour was the excellent all-round cricket of Lyle.

1907

W. J. Thomson had succeeded to the captaincy, and an interesting feature of the tour was a first visit to the historic "Close" of Rugby School to play the Old Rugbeians. The eleven was not so strong as could have been wished for such an occasion.

Liverpool was the starting-place. After Berkley and Bruce-Kerr had got rid of Liverpool for 225 the F.L.'s were tumbled out for 90. When they followed on P. C. Steinthal played a beautiful innings of 102, and useful scores by K. G. Macleod (46) and Bruce-Kerr (46 not out) enabled the F.L.'s to make a creditable draw. They scored 353 for nine wickets, and after declaring their innings closed got down six of their opponents' wickets for 118.

THE CRICKET TOURS

An easy victory over the Western Club at Eccles followed. The wicket was treacherous, and Berkley and Lyle took full advantage of it. The Western in their first innings were dismissed for only 31, Berkley taking five wickets for 10 runs and Lyle four for 19. Steinthal (69) and Macleod (42) again showed excellent form with the bat and the F.-L. total reached 217. The Western in their second innings again found Berkley too much for them and were all out for 91, the F.L.'s winning by an innings and 95 runs. Berkley's six wickets cost only 45 runs.

After this victory the failure of the side at Rugby was very disappointing. Thomson, whose luck had deserted him, again lost the toss and the Rugbeians batted first on a good wicket. They scored 198, nearly all the runs being made by two batsmen. A. Lindsay was the most effective bowler and had the excellent analysis of six wickets for 31. Macleod (49) and Steinthal (46) were again the backbone of the visitors' batting, and a total of 231 gave the F.L.'s a useful little lead. The Rugbeians scored 189 in their second innings, Berkley taking seven wickets for 53. The F.L.'s therefore needed 156 to win, but on a tricky wicket their batting collapsed against the bowling of C. S. Hannay, who took six wickets for 34 and did the "hat trick". The total of their innings was only 77, and the Rugbeians won by 79 runs.

1908

Liverpool, the Northern Club (Liverpool)—a new fixture—and the Rugbeians formed this year's programme. Great difficulty was found in completing the eleven, and it was far from representative. Donald MacLachlan, the captain, was unable to play in the opening match at Liverpool, and Harper Orr deputised for him. He won the toss, and thanks mainly to F. G. Maclaren's well-played innings of 55 the total reached 211, to which Liverpool replied with 195, Maclaren taking four wickets for 64. The F.L. second innings would have been a complete failure but for a timely contribution of 50 by a substitute (T. E. Cunningham). Liverpool wanted 153 to win and had two hours to get the runs, but so steadily did Berkley and Maclaren bowl that when time was up Liverpool had lost eight wickets for 143.

The Northern match was spoilt by rain and ended in a draw as no play was possible on the second day. The Northern batted first and scored 175. The F.L.'s made 157 for six wickets, A. A. Lawrie being the top scorer with 57.

In happy contrast to this experience the weather at Rugby was perfect and the Rugbeians took advantage of a fast wicket to score 269. They lost nine wickets for 140, but the last wicket actually put on 129, J. C. Cunningham taking out his bat for 131. The F.L.'s easily passed this total, W. Greenstock (who was able to play only in this match) making 90, F. G. Maclaren 90, and J. H. Orr 56 not out. With the total at 394 for nine wickets the innings was declared. Against Maclaren's bowling no stand was made by the Rugbeians in their second innings until J. C. Cunningham came in and collared the bowling. He was not dismissed until he had made 117, but he had several "lives". Bad catching robbed the F.L.'s of their chance of retrieving the previous year's defeat, as when the game was abandoned as a draw the Rugbeians had scored 311 for eight wickets. Maclaren took seven of these wickets, but they cost 141 runs.

THE CRICKET TOURS

1909

The fixtures this year were with the Northern Nomads (on Mr. John Stanning's ground at Leyland), Liverpool, and the Northern. It was a very weak and unrepresentative side which made the journey, although D. J. T. Jamieson reappeared and showed that he had not lost his bowling.

For the opening match at Leyland the F.L.'s found themselves with only nine men—an experience recalling the early days before the Club was formally established—and a low-scoring match ended in a victory for the Nomads by two wickets. The highest individual score in the match was J. C. Cunningham's 30 and the totals were: F.L.'s 70 and 80; Nomads 83 and 68 for eight wickets. F. G. Maclaren took six wickets for 53 runs in the Nomads' first innings and Jamieson six wickets for 16 in their second innings.

Against Liverpool play was limited to one day. The F.L.'s batted first and scored 178, of which W. W. McCosh, who took Harper Orr's place, made 96 not out by sound cricket. Liverpool found no difficulty in heading this total and scored 270 for the loss of eight wickets.

A narrow victory over the Northern at Blundellsands by 23 runs brought the tour to a close. The F.L.'s scored 117 and 125 and the Northern 85 and 134. The best feature of the F.-L. cricket was the bowling of S. G. Millar, who in the match took thirteen wickets for 88 runs.

1910

It had been evident for the last two or three years that, although the cricket tours had afforded much pleasure to the players in the past and had been conducive to good-fellowship, it was no longer possible for many of the best players to assist the Club, and at the annual meeting in 1909 J. G. Walker, who had captained the team for so many years, suggested that, unless the Club could rely upon getting fairly representative elevens it would be better to give up the tour—at least temporarily—as sending weak sides into England did the Club no good. He was expressing the general feeling, and after this year it was decided to drop the tour. As things turned out twenty years were to elapse before it was resumed.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

K. G. Macleod was able to return to the side this year and to captain it. The two Turners also were available and their presence added strength to the side, but several other good players, including F. G. Maclaren, were unable to assist.

The first match was with the Northern Nomads at Leylands. The F.-L. batsmen found difficulty in coping with the bowling of E. R. Wilson and P. H. Mellor, and were dismissed for 109 and 175, Macleod's 58 being much the best and highest innings on his side. Wilson's 68 was the best individual score for the Nomads, who with totals of 251 and 35 for two wickets gained an easy victory.

At Liverpool a one-day match ended in a draw. The F.L.'s gave a bright display of batting, and after making 270 for five wickets declared. J. T. Turner played a fine innings of 106; A. A. Lawrie (64 not out) and Macleod (59) also batted well. Liverpool in playing out time scored 134 for six wickets.

There was an exciting finish to the Northern match at Blundellsands. The F.L.'s made only the moderate score of 102 in their first innings, but good bowling by S. G. Millar (six wickets for 60) kept the Northern total down to 143. G. Turner's stylish 68 was the largest item in the F.L.'s second innings score of 222. This set the Northern the task of getting 181 to win, and against the steady bowling of Millar and J. T. Turner, who shared the wickets equally between them, it proved beyond the powers of the Northern, who were beaten after a thrilling finish by five runs. On the whole, therefore, the tour was fairly successful.

THE CRICKET TOURS

1930

This year the tours were resumed under the captaincy of K. G. Macleod, who had been captain in the last year before the break. The revival proved a great success in both its playing and its social aspects.

Matches were arranged with Mr. A. D. Macalpine's Eleven on his private ground at Wrexham, and also with Oxton (Cheshire), Liverpool, and Formby, but wet weather rather upset the programme.

At Wrexham play was limited to the afternoon and a time-limit match was played. The Oxton match had to be abandoned owing to rain, and for the same reason the Formby game ended in a draw. At Liverpool the tourists had the unusual experience of arriving with thirteen men, and twelve a-side were played, D. I. Brown on this occasion becoming a "Liverpudlian". The F.L.'s had a good batting and fielding side, but they were short of bowling. The scores were:

At Wrexham. Mr. Macalpine's Eleven 144 for nine wickets; F.L.'s 160 for seven (J. F. Jones 89). Won.

At Liverpool. F.L.'s 232 (J. T. Campbell 83, G. L. Hunting 52) and 191 for ten wickets (G. L. Hunting 40); Liverpool 298 for seven wickets, innings declared (R. S. Turner 100 not out). Drawn.

At Formby. F.L.'s 150 for six wickets, innings declared (J. T. Campbell 77, R. K. Ferguson 45); Formby 29 for two wickets. Drawn.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

1931

This year a strong eleven under the captaincy of K. G. Macleod had a successful and enjoyable tour in the North of England, and played matches with the Cheshire Gentlemen, the Liverpool Club, and the Northern Nomads. They were beaten by Liverpool, drew with the Northern Nomads, and defeated the Cheshire Gentlemen at Chelford by an innings and 39 runs. Details:

v. Cheshire Gentlemen at Chelford. Score:

Fettesian-Lorettonians, 275 (J. F. Jones 119, K. G. Macleod 47). Cheshire Gentlemen, 93 (A. D. Baxter four wickets for 34) and 143 (A. C. Hogarth three wickets for 21, J. F. Jones four for 47, and A. D. Baxter four for 66). Won.

v. Liverpool at Aigburth. Score:

Liverpool, 176 for four wickets (innings declared) and 183 for five wickets (innings declared). Fettesian-Lorettonians, 120 and 144. Liverpool won by 95 runs.

v. Northern Nomads at Aigburth. Score:

Fettesian-Lorettonians, 243 for eight wickets (innings declared) (G. L. Hunting 84, A. C. Hogarth 46). Northern Nomads, 228 for seven wickets (A. I. S. Macpherson four wickets for 66 runs). Drawn.

PAST AND PRESENT OFFICE-BEARERS

PRESIDENTS

C. W. Cathcart .	1881-1884	Sir Ludovic J. Grant	1909-1911
G. Robertson-Chaplin	1884-1887	Sir A. G. G. Asher .	1911-1913
D. Mackenzie .	1887-1890	P. H. Don Wauchope	1913-1915
E. Storey .	1890-1891	A. O. M. Mackenzie	1915-1917
C. J. G. Paterson	1891-1895	James Methuen .	1917-1919
T. S. Esson .	1895-1898	C. W. Berry .	1919-1921
A. H. Laidlay .	1898-1899	C. J. N. Fleming .	1921-1923
A. R. Don Wauchope	1899-1902	A. S. Blair .	1923-1925
A. R. Paterson .	1902-1905	M. R. Jardine .	1925-1927
James Steel .	1905-1907	J. R. C. Greenlees .	1927-1929
J. G. Walker .	1907-1909	Ian MacIntyre .	1929-1931

VICE-PRESIDENTS

Rev. S. G. Ponsonby	1881-1884	Sir A. G. G. Asher .	1909-1911
N. MacLachlan .	1884-1887	P. H. Don Wauchope	1911-1913
E. Storey .	1887-1890	A. O. M. Mackenzie	1913-1915
C. J. G. Paterson	1890-1891	James Methuen .	1915-1917
A. Nimmo .	1891-1894	C. W. Berry .	1917-1919
T. S. Esson .	1894-1895	C. J. N. Fleming .	1919-1921
A. H. Laidlay .	1895-1898	A. S. Blair .	1921-1923
A. R. Don Wauchope	1898-1899	M. R. Jardine .	1923-1925
A. R. Paterson .	1899-1901	J. R. C. Greenlees .	1925-1927
James Steel .	1902-1904	Ian MacIntyre .	1927-1929
J. G. Walker .	1905-1906	Sir Thomas B.
Sir Ludovic J. Grant	1907-1909	Whitson .	1929-1931

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

HON. TREASURERS

T. S. Esson . . .	1881-1884	A. A. Lawrie and J. A.
A. H. Laidlay . . .	1884-1885	Young (Joint Secre-
H. L. Sanderson . . .	1885-1920	taries and Treasurers) 1920-1923
		A. A. Lawrie . . . 1923-1931

HON. SECRETARIES

H. F. Caldwell . . .	1881-1884	A. A. Lawrie and
A. O. M. Mackenzie . . .	1884-1885	J. A. Young (Joint
W. M. Macleod . . .	1885-1887	Secretaries and
A. R. Don Wauchope . . .	1887-1898	Treasurers) . . . 1920-1923
Ian MacIntyre . . .	1898-1901	A. A. Lawrie and
G. F. Henderson . . .	1902-1907	H. H. A. Whitson 1923-1924
A. A. Lawrie . . .	1908-1913	H. H. A. Whitson . 1924-1929
J. M. Mackenzie . . .	1914	A. S. Dykes . . . 1929-1931
A. A. Lawrie . . .	1914-1920

CAPTAINS OF FOOTBALL

A. R. Don Wauchope . . .	1881-1887	D. R. Bedell-Sivright . . .	1907-1908
C. W. Berry . . .	1887-1888	A. A. Lawrie . . .	1908-1909
P. H. Don Wauchope . . .	1888-1889	G. Cunningham . . .	1909-1910
James Steel . . .	1889-1892	D. G. Schulze . . .	1910-1911
C. E. Orr . . .	1892-1893	J. M. Mackenzie . . .	1911-1912
J. D. Boswell . . .	1893-1895	W. D. C. L. Purves . . .	1912-1913
G. T. Campbell . . .	1895-1896	L. Robertson . . .	1913-1914
C. J. N. Fleming . . .	1896-1898
W. P. Donaldson . . .	1898-1899	R. A. Gallie . . .	1920-1921
Colin Thomson . . .	1899-1900	G. S. Conway . . .	1921-1923
A. R. Smith . . .	1900-1901	J. C. Dykes . . .	1924-1926
J. A. Campbell . . .	1901-1902	G. P. S. Macpherson . . .	1926-1928
J. R. C. Greenlees . . .	1902-1903	J. R. Paterson . . .	1928-1929
James Ross . . .	1903-1904	D. J. MacMyn . . .	1929-1930
W. P. Scott . . .	1904-1907	H. Waddell . . .	1930-1931

PAST AND PRESENT OFFICE-BEARERS

CAPTAINS OF CRICKET

J. G. Walker .	1881-1896	W. J. Thomson .	1907
A. G. G. Asher .	1897-1901	Donald MacLachlan .	1908-1909
R. B. Pearson .	1902	K. G. Macleod .	1910
H. B. Tristram .	1903-1904	_____
Donald MacLachlan	1905-1906	K. G. Macleod .	1930

LIST OF INTERNATIONAL PLAYERS

FOR SCOTLAND

Bedell-Sivright, D. R. (F), 1900, 1901, 1902, 1904, 1905 (v. New Zealand), 1906 (v. S. Africans), 1907, 1908.
Bedell-Sivright, J. V. (F), 1902.
Berkley, W. V. (F), 1926, 1929.
Berry, C. W. (L), 1884, 1885, 1887, 1888.
Blair, P. C. B. (F), 1912 (v. S. Africa), 1913.
Boswell, J. D. (L), 1889, 1890, 1891, 1892, 1893 (Capt.), 1894 (Capt.).
Campbell, G. T. (F), 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897, 1900.
Campbell, J. A. (F), 1900.
Cathcart, C. W. (L), 1872, 1873, 1876.
Clauss, P. R. (L), 1891, 1892, 1893.
Crichton-Miller, D. (F), 1931.
Cunningham, G. (F), 1908, 1909 (Capt.), 1910, 1911.
Donaldson, W. P. (L), 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1899 (Capt.).
Don Wauchope, A. R. (F), 1881, 1882, 1883, 1884, 1885, 1886, 1888.
Don Wauchope, P. H. (F), 1885, 1886, 1887.
Duncan, M. M. (F), 1888.
Dykes, J. C. (L), 1922, 1924, 1925, 1926, 1927, 1928, 1929.
Fleming, C. J. N. (F), 1896, 1897.
Gallie, R. A. (F), 1920, 1921.
Gedge, H. T. S. (L), 1894, 1896, 1899.
Gilchrist, J. (L), 1925.
Gowlland, G. C. (F), 1908, 1909, 1910.
Grant-Asher, A. G. (L), 1882, 1884, 1885, 1886.
Greenlees, J. R. C. (L), 1900, 1902, 1903 (Capt.).
Henderson, F. W. (L), 1900.
Hill, C. C. P. (F), 1912.
Hunter, F. (F), 1882.
Lely, W. G. (F), 1909.
Lindsay, G. C. (L), 1884, 1887.
Macdonald, J. M. (F), 1911.

LIST OF INTERNATIONAL PLAYERS

- Macfarlan, D. J. (L), 1883, 1884, 1886, 1887, 1888.
 MacIntyre, I. (F), 1890, 1891.
 Mackenzie, J. M. (F), 1905 (v. New Zealand), 1909, 1910, 1911.
 Macleod, D. A. (L), 1886.
 Macleod, K. G. (F), 1905 (v. New Zealand), 1906, 1907, 1908.
 Macleod, L. M. (F), 1904, 1905 (v. New Zealand), 1906.
 Macleod, W. M. (F), 1886.
 MacMyn, D. J. (F), 1925, 1926, 1927, 1928.
 Macpherson, G. P. S. (F), 1922, 1924, 1925, 1927, 1928, 1929, 1930, 1931.
 Marshall, A. (L), 1875.
 Menzies, H. F. (F), 1893, 1894.
 Methuen, A. (F), 1889.
 Milne, C. J. B. (F), 1886.
 Monteith, H. G. (F), 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908.
 Monypenny, D. B. (F), 1899.
 Orr, C. E. (L), 1887, 1888, 1889, 1890, 1891, 1892 (Capt.).
 Paterson, J. R. (L), 1925, 1926, 1927, 1928, 1929.
 Purves, A. B. H. L. (F), 1906, 1907, 1908.
 Purves, W. D. C. L. (F), 1912, 1913.
 Reid, M. F. (L), 1883.
 Robertson, L. (F), 1908, 1911, 1912, 1913.
 Ross, A. R. (L), 1911, 1912.
 Ross, E. J. (F), 1904.
 Ross, J. (F), 1901, 1902.
 Rottenburg, H. (L), 1899, 1900.
 Schulze (now Miller), D. G. (F), 1905, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911.
 Scott, W. P. (F), 1900, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905 (Capt. v. New Zealand), 1906
 (v. S. Africans), 1907.
 Simpson, R. S. (L), 1923.
 Smith, A. R. (L), 1895, 1896, 1897, 1898 (Capt.), 1900.
 Symington, A. W. (F), 1914.
 Taylor, E. G. (L), 1927, 1928 (captained team against Cambridge).
 Thomson, W. J. (L), 1899, 1900.
 Torrie, T. J. (F), 1877.
 Waddell, H. (F), 1924, 1925, 1926, 1927, 1930.
 Walker, A. (L), 1881, 1882, 1883.
 Walker, J. G. (L), 1882, 1883.
 Waters, F. H. (L), 1930.
 Waters, J. B. (L), 1904.
 West, L. (F), 1903, 1905, 1906 (Capt.).
 Wotherspoon, W. (F), 1891, 1892, 1893, 1894.
 Young, E. T. (F), 1914.
 Young, T. E. B. (L), 1911.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

FOR ENGLAND

Conway, G. S. (F), 1920, 1921, 1922, 1923, 1924, 1925, 1927.
Henderson, R. S. F. (F), 1882, 1883, 1884.
Morrison, P. H. (L), 1890, 1891.
Osborne, S. H. (F), 1905.
Spence, F. W. (F), 1890.
Tristram, H. B. (L), 1883, 1884, 1885, 1887.

FOR IRELAND

Cunningham, D. M. (F), 1923, 1925.

NUMBER OF MATCHES PLAYED FOR SCOTLAND

	Matches		Matches
Bedell-Sivright, D. R.	22	Greenlees, J. R. C.	7
Bedell-Sivright, J. V.	1	Henderson, F. W.	2
Berkley, W. V.	4	Hill, C. C. P.	2
Berry, C. W.	8	Hunter, F.	1
Blair, P. C. B.	5	Lely, W. G.	1
Boswell, J. D.	15	Lindsay, G. C.	3
Campbell, G. T.	17	Macdonald, J. M.	1
Campbell, J. A.	1	Macfarlan, D. J.	9
Cathcart, C. W.	3	MacIntyre, I.	6
Clauss, P. R.	6	Mackenzie, J. M.	9
Crichton-Miller, D.	1	Macleod, D. A.	2
Cunningham, G.	8	Macleod, K. G.	10
Donaldson, W. P.	6	Macleod, L. M.	6
Don Wauchope, A. R.	12	Macleod, W. M.	2
Don Wauchope, P. H.	5	MacMyn, D. J.	11
Duncan, M. M.	1	Macpherson, G. P. S.	23
Dykes, J. C.	20	Marshall, A.	1
Fleming, C. J. N.	3	Menzies, H. F.	4
Gallie, R. A.	8	Methuen, A.	2
Gedge, H. T. S.	6	Milne, C. J. B.	3
Gilchrist, J.	1	Monteith, H. G.	8
Gowlland, G. C.	7	Monypenny, D. B.	3
Grant-Asher, A. G.	7	Orr, C. E.	16

LIST OF INTERNATIONAL PLAYERS

Matches				Matches
Paterson, J. R.	.	.	21	Symington, A. W.	.	.	2
Purves, A. B. H. L.	.	.	10	Taylor, E. G.	.	.	2
Purves, W. D. C. L.	.	.	6	Thomson, W. J.	.	.	3
Reid, M. F.	.	.	1	Torrie, T. J.	.	.	1
Robertson, L.	.	.	9	Waddell, H.	.	.	15
Ross, A. R.	.	.	4	Walker, A.	.	.	5
Ross, E. J.	.	.	1	Walker, J. G.	.	.	2
Ross, J.	.	.	5	Waters, F. H.	.	.	4
Rottenburg, H.	.	.	5	Waters, J. B.	.	.	2
Schulze, D. G.	.	.	13	West, L.	.	.	9
Scott, W. P.	.	.	21	Wotherspoon, W.	.	.	7
Simpson, R. S.	.	.	1	Young, E. T.	.	.	1
Smith, A. R.	.	.	11	Young, T. E. B.	.	.	1

NUMBER OF MATCHES PLAYED FOR ENGLAND

Conway, G. S.	.	.	18	Osborne, S. H.	.	.	1
Henderson, R. S. F.	.	.	5	Spence, F. W.	.	.	1
Morrison, P. H.	.	.	4	Tristram, H. B.	.	.	5

Matches include:

v. England.	v. S. Africa, 1906.	v. Scotland played Nov. 17, 1906.
v. Scotland.	v. S. Africa, 1912-13.	v. Scotland played Nov. 23, 1912.
v. Ireland.	v. New Zealand, 1924-25.	Scotland did not play New Zealand.
v. Wales.	v. New South Wales, 1927-28.
v. France.
v. New Zealand, 1905-6. Match with Scotland was played Nov. 18, 1905.

LIST OF "BLUES"

(* Triple Blue)

RUGBY FOOTBALL

Atkinson, M. L. (F), 1908, 1909	Cambridge
Bedell-Sivright, D. R. (F), 1899, 1900, 1901 (Capt.), 1902 (Capt.)	Cambridge
Bedell-Sivright, J. V. (F), 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903	Cambridge
Berkley, W. V. (F), 1924, 1925, 1926	Oxford
Berry, C. W. (L), 1883, 1884	Oxford
Blair, A. S. (L), 1884	Oxford
Blair, P. C. B. (L), 1911, 1912, 1913	Cambridge
Blyth, P. H. (L), 1885, 1886	Oxford
Boswell, J. D. (L), 1885, 1886, 1887	Oxford
Bowhill, J. W. (F), 1888, 1889	Cambridge
Burt-Marshall, J. (F), 1905	Cambridge
Campbell, J. A. (F), 1897, 1898, 1899 (Capt.)	Cambridge
Campbell, J. D. (F), 1927	Cambridge
Clauss, P. R. (L), 1889, 1890, 1891 (Capt.)	Oxford
Cochran, P. C. (L), 1889, 1891	Oxford
Conway, G. S. (F), 1919, 1920 (Capt.), 1921	Cambridge
Couper, T. (F), 1899, 1900	Oxford
Cox, F. L. (F), 1879	Cambridge
Crichton-Miller, D. (F), 1928	Cambridge
Cunningham, G. (F), 1907, 1908, 1909 (Capt.)	Oxford
Currie, W. C. (F), 1905	Cambridge
Donaldson, D. W. (L), 1893	Oxford
Donaldson, W. P. (L), 1892, 1893, 1894	Oxford
Don Wauchope, A. R. (F), 1880, 1881 (Capt. in 1882, unable to play v. Oxford)	Cambridge
Duncan, M. M. (F), 1885, 1886, 1887 (Capt.)	Cambridge
Fleming, C. J. N. (F), 1887, 1888, 1889, 1890 (Capt.)	Oxford
Forman, A. (L), 1904, 1905	Cambridge
Gardiner, F. A. (L), 1921, 1922, 1923	Cambridge

LIST OF "BLUES"

Gedge, H. T. S. (L), 1893	Oxford
Godby, T. A. (L), 1906, 1907	Cambridge
Grant, A. H. (F), 1892	Oxford
*Grant-Asher, A. G. (L), 1881, 1882, 1883, 1884 (Capt.)	Oxford
Greenlees, J. R. C. (L), 1898, 1899, 1900 (Capt.), 1901	Cambridge
Horsley, S. (L), 1901, 1902, 1903 (Capt.)	Cambridge
Hunter, R. S. (F), 1888, 1889	Oxford
Kay, A. R. (F), 1889, 1890, 1891	Oxford
Kitto, R. C. M. (L), 1884, 1885, 1886, 1887 (Capt.)	Oxford
Lawrie, A. A. (F), 1903, 1905	Oxford
Lely, W. G. (F), 1906, 1907, 1908 (Capt.)	Cambridge
Lindsay, G. C. (L), 1882, 1883, 1884, 1885 (Capt.)	Oxford
Lyle, A. M. P. (F), 1902, 1904, 1905	Oxford
McCosh, E. (F), 1910	Cambridge
McCosh, R. (F), 1905, 1906, 1907	Cambridge
Macdonald, N. L. (L), 1926	Oxford
MacEwen, D. L. (F), 1887	Cambridge
MacEwen, G. L. (L), 1895	Oxford
McGibbon, R. R. (F), 1930	Oxford
Mackenzie, A. O. M. (L), 1880, 1881	Oxford
Mackenzie, F. J. C. (L), 1882, 1883	Oxford
Mackenzie, W. G. B. (F), 1922	Cambridge
Maclachlan, N. (L), 1879, 1880	Oxford
Maclay, J. P. (F), 1920	Cambridge
*Macleod, K. G. (F), 1905, 1906, 1907 (Capt.), 1908	Cambridge
Macleod, L. M. (F), 1903, 1904, 1905 (Capt.)	Cambridge
Macleod, W. M. (F), 1880, 1882	Cambridge
MacMyn, D. J. (F), 1921, 1922, 1923, 1924	Cambridge
McNeill, A. (L), 1884	Oxford
McNeill, A. H. (L), 1902, 1903	Cambridge
Macpherson, G. P. S. (F), 1922, 1923 (Capt.), 1924	Oxford
Macpherson, N. M. S. (F), 1928	Oxford
Marr, D. M. (F), 1929, 1930	Cambridge
Methuen, A. (F), 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888 (Capt.)	Cambridge
Miller, J. L. H. (F), 1920	Cambridge
Milne, C. J. B. (F), 1882, 1883, 1884 (Capt.)	Cambridge
Monteith, H. G. (F), 1903, 1904, 1905	Cambridge
Morrison, P. H. (L), 1887, 1888, 1889 (Capt.), 1890	Cambridge
Ogilvy, F. J. L. (F), 1887	Cambridge
Osborne, S. H. (F), 1900, 1901, 1902	Oxford
Ovens, A. B. (F), 1910, 1911	Cambridge
Paterson, A. M. (L), 1889, 1890	Oxford
Paterson, A. R. (L), 1879, 1880, 1881	Oxford

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Paterson, L. R. (L), 1886, 1887	Oxford
Purves, W. D. C. L. (F), 1907, 1908, 1909 (Capt.)	Cambridge
Robertson, M. A. (L), 1894, 1896	Oxford
Rottenburg, H. (L), 1898	Cambridge
Scott, J. M. (F), 1927	Cambridge
Scott, W. B. (F), 1923, 1924	Cambridge
Smith, A. R. (L), 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897 (Capt.)	Oxford
Smith, J. A. (L), 1892, 1893	Oxford
Smith, J. J. E. (L), 1926	Cambridge
Stewart, W. B. (L), 1892	Oxford
Storey, E. (F), 1878, 1879, 1880	Cambridge
Storey, T. W. P. (F), 1889, 1890, 1891 (Capt.), 1892	Cambridge
Sutherland, J. G. B. (F), 1885	Oxford
Swanston, J. F. A. (L), 1897, 1898, 1899, 1900 (Capt.)	Oxford
Symington, A. W. (F), 1911, 1912, 1913	Cambridge
Taylor, E. G. (L), 1926, 1927 (Acting-Capt.), 1928 (Capt.)	Oxford
Thomson, C. (L), 1896	Oxford
Thomson, W. J. (L), 1895, 1896	Oxford
Todd, T. (F), 1888	Cambridge
Tristram, H. B. (L), 1882, 1883, 1884	Oxford
Walker, A. (L), 1880	Oxford
Walker, J. G. (L), 1879, 1880, 1881	Oxford
Waters, F. H. (L), 1927, 1928, 1929	Cambridge
Waters, J. B. (L), 1902, 1903, 1904	Cambridge
Williamson, A. C. (F), 1913	Oxford
Wordsworth, C. W. (L), 1902	Oxford
Wotherspoon, W. (F), 1888, 1889	Cambridge
Young, A. B. S. (F), 1919, 1920	Cambridge

COMPARATIVE TABLE SHOWING THE F.-L. PLAYERS IN EACH MATCH

Oxford	Cambridge
1878	1878 E. Storey (F)
1879 N. Maclachlan (L)	1879 E. Storey (F)
J. G. Walker (L)	F. L. Cox (F)
A. R. Paterson (L)
1880 N. Maclachlan (L)	1880 E. Storey (F)
A. R. Paterson (L)	A. R. Don Wauchope (F)
J. G. Walker (L)	W. M. Macleod (F)
A. Walker (L)
A. O. M. Mackenzie (L)

LIST OF "BLUES"

Oxford

- 1881 A. G. Grant-Asher (L)
J. G. Walker (L)
A. R. Paterson (L)
A. O. M. Mackenzie (L)
- 1882 H. B. Tristram (L)
G. C. Lindsay (L)
A. G. Grant-Asher (L)
F. J. C. Mackenzie (L)
- 1883 H. B. Tristram (L)
G. C. Lindsay (L)
A. G. Grant-Asher (L)
F. J. C. Mackenzie (L)
C. W. Berry (L)
- 1884 H. B. Tristram (L)
G. C. Lindsay (L)
A. S. Blair (L)
A. G. Grant-Asher (L), Capt.
C. W. Berry (L)
A. McNeill (L)
R. C. M. Kitto (L)
- 1885 J. G. B. Sutherland (F)
G. C. Lindsay (L), Capt.
R. C. M. Kitto (L)
P. H. Blyth (L)
J. D. Boswell (L)
- 1886 L. R. Paterson (L)
R. C. M. Kitto (L)
P. H. Blyth (L)
J. D. Boswell (L)
- 1887 C. J. N. Fleming (F)
L. R. Paterson (L)
R. C. M. Kitto (L), Capt.
J. D. Boswell (L)
- 1888 C. J. N. Fleming (F)
R. S. Hunter (F)
- 1889 P. C. Cochran (L)

Cambridge

- 1881 A. R. Don Wauchope (F)¹
- 1882 W. M. Macleod (F)
C. J. B. Milne (F)
- 1883 C. J. B. Milne (F)
- 1884 C. J. B. Milne (F), Capt.
- 1885 M. M. Duncan (F)
- 1886 M. M. Duncan (F)
A. Methuen (F)
- 1887 M. M. Duncan (F), Capt.
P. H. Morrison (L)
A. Methuen (F)
F. J. L. Ogilvy (F)
D. L. MacEwen (F)
- 1888 P. H. Morrison (L)
T. Todd (F)
W. Wotherspoon (F)
A. Methuen (F), Capt.
J. W. Bowhill (F)
- 1889 P. H. Morrison (L), Capt.

¹ A. R. Don Wauchope (F) was captain but unable to play in Varsity Match.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Oxford

- 1889 C. J. N. Fleming (F)
P. R. Clauss (L)
R. S. Hunter (F)
A. R. Kay (F)
A. M. Paterson (L)
- 1890 C. J. N. Fleming (F), Capt.
P. R. Clauss (L)
A. R. Kay (F)
A. M. Paterson (L)
- 1891 P. C. Cochran (L)
P. R. Clauss (L), Capt.
A. R. Kay (F)
- 1892 W. P. Donaldson (L)
J. A. Smith (L)
W. B. Stewart (L)
A. H. Grant (F)
- 1893 H. T. S. Gedge (L)
W. P. Donaldson (L)
J. A. Smith (L)
D. W. Donaldson (L)
- 1894 A. R. Smith (L)
W. P. Donaldson (L)
M. A. Robertson (L)
- 1895 A. R. Smith (L)
G. L. MacEwen (L)
W. J. Thomson (L)
- 1896 A. R. Smith (L)
W. J. Thomson (L)
M. A. Robertson (L)
C. Thomson (L)
- 1897 A. R. Smith (L), Capt.
J. F. A. Swanston (L)
- 1898 J. F. A. Swanston (L)
- 1899 J. F. A. Swanston (L)
T. Couper (F)
- 1900 J. F. A. Swanston (L), Capt.
T. Couper (F)
S. H. Osborne (F)

Cambridge

- 1889 W. Wotherspoon (F)
J. W. Bowhill (F)
T. W. P. Storey (F)
- 1890 P. H. Morrison (L)
T. W. P. Storey (F)
- 1891 T. W. P. Storey (F), Capt.
- 1892 T. W. P. Storey (F)
- 1893
- 1894
- 1895
- 1896
- 1897 J. A. Campbell (F)
- 1898 H. Rottenburg (L)
J. A. Campbell (F)
J. R. C. Greenlees (L)
- 1899 J. A. Campbell (F), Capt.
D. R. Bedell-Sivright (F)
J. R. C. Greenlees (F)
- 1900 J. R. C. Greenlees (F), Capt.
D. R. Bedell-Sivright (F)
J. V. Bedell-Sivright (F)

LIST OF "BLUES"

Oxford

- 1901 S. H. Osborne (F)
- 1902 A. M. P. Lyle (F)
S. H. Osborne (F)
C. W. Wordsworth (L)
- 1903 A. A. Lawrie (F)
- 1904 A. M. P. Lyle (F)
- 1905 A. A. Lawrie (F)
A. M. P. Lyle (F)
- 1906
- 1907 G. Cunningham (F)
- 1908 G. Cunningham (F)
- 1909 G. Cunningham (F), Capt.

Cambridge

- 1901 S. Horsley (L)
D. R. Bedell-Sivright (F), Capt.
J. V. Bedell-Sivright (F)
J. R. C. Greenlees (F)
- 1902 S. Horsley (L)
A. H. McNeill (L)
D. R. Bedell-Sivright (F), Capt.
J. V. Bedell-Sivright (F)
J. B. Waters (L)
- 1903 S. Horsley (L), Capt.
L. M. Macleod (F)
A. H. McNeill (L)
J. V. Bedell-Sivright (F)
H. G. Monteith (F)
J. B. Waters (L)
- 1904 L. M. Macleod (F)
J. B. Waters (L)
A. Forman (L)
H. G. Monteith (F)
- 1905 L. M. Macleod (F), Capt.
K. G. Macleod (F)
J. Burt-Marshall (F)
H. G. Monteith (F)
R. McCosh (F)
W. C. Currie (F)
A. Forman (L)
- 1906 K. G. Macleod (F)
T. A. Godby (L)
R. McCosh (F)
W. G. Lely (F)
- 1907 K. G. Macleod (F), Capt.
T. A. Godby (L)
W. G. Lely (F)
R. McCosh (F)
W. D. C. L. Purves (F)
- 1908 M. L. Atkinson (F)
K. G. Macleod (F)
W. G. Lely (F), Capt.
W. D. C. L. Purves (F)
- 1909 M. L. Atkinson (F)
W. D. C. L. Purves (F), Capt.

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Oxford	Cambridge
1910	1910 E. McCosh (F) A. B. Ovens (F) P. C. B. Blair (F)
1911	1911 A. B. Ovens (F) P. C. B. Blair (F) A. W. Symington (F)
1912	1912 P. C. B. Blair (F) A. W. Symington (F)
1913 A. C. Williamson (F)	1913 P. C. B. Blair (F) A. W. Symington (F)
1914-1918 No Matches during the war
1919	1919 A. B. S. Young (F) G. S. Conway (F)
1920	1920 J. P. Maclay (F) } Half- A. B. S. Young (F) } backs J. L. H. Miller (F) G. S. Conway (F)
1921	1921 F. A. Gardiner (L) G. S. Conway (F) D. J. MacMyn (F)
1922 G. P. S. Macpherson (F)	1922 F. A. Gardiner (L) W. G. B. Mackenzie (F) D. J. MacMyn (F)
1923 G. P. S. Macpherson (F), Capt.	1923 F. A. Gardiner (F) D. J. MacMyn (F) W. B. Scott (F)
1924 G. P. S. Macpherson (F) W. V. Berkley (F)	1924 D. J. MacMyn (F) W. B. Scott (F)
1925 W. V. Berkley (F)	1925
1926 E. G. Taylor (L) N. L. Macdonald (L) W. V. Berkley (F)	1926 J. J. E. Smith (L)
1927 E. G. Taylor (L), Acting-Capt. for D. F. Landale	1927 J. D. Campbell (F) J. M. Scott (F) F. H. Waters (L)
1928 N. M. S. Macpherson (F) E. G. Taylor (L), Capt.	1928 F. H. Waters (L) D. Crichton-Miller (F)
1929	1929 F. H. Waters (L) D. M. Marr (F)
1930 R. R. McGibbon (F)	1930 D. M. Marr (F)

LIST OF "BLUES"

ROWING

- Adie, C. J. M. (F and Camb.), 1900 (No. 2).
Heard, W. T. (F and Oxf.), 1907 (bow).
Hutton, N. K. (F and Oxf.), 1930 (No. 3).
Paterson, A. R. (L and Oxf.), 1881 (No. 3), 1882 (No. 4), 1883 (No. 6).
(President, October 1881 to June 1883.)
Rowlatt, J. F. (F and Camb.), 1890 (No. 4), 1891 (No. 6). (President, June term 1891.)
Shields, H. J. S. (L and Camb.), 1910 (stroke).
Stewart, W. B. (L and Oxf.), 1894 (No. 3), 1895 (No. 5).
Swanston, A. W. (L and Camb.), 1898 (No. 5).
Swanston, H. E. (L and Camb.), 1909 (No. 2).

CRICKET

- *Grant-Asher, A. G. (L and Oxf.), 1883.
Jardine, M. R. (F and Oxf.), 1889, 1890, 1891 (Capt.), 1892.
MacLachan, N. (L and Oxf.), 1879, 1880, 1881, 1882 (Capt.).
*MacLeod, K. G. (F and Camb.), 1908, 1909.
Pearson, Alexander (L and Oxf.), 1876, 1877. (Afterwards at Rugby School, XI. 1873-74-75, Capt.)
Walker, J. G. (L and Oxf.), 1882, 1883.

HOCKEY

- Bailey, P. D. (F and Camb.), 1898.
Turner, J. T. (F and Camb.), 1902.
Wordsworth, C. W. (L and Oxf.), 1902, 1903.

ATHLETICS

- Blair, A. S. (L and Oxf.), 1884 (Quarter Mile), 1885 (100 Yards, Quarter Mile, winner, 51 $\frac{1}{8}$ secs.), 1886 (100 Yards).
Boswell, J. D. (L and Oxf.), 1888 (Hammer).
Campbell, J. A. (F and Camb.), 1899 (Weight).
Don Wauchope, A. R. (F and Camb.), 1881 (Hurdles, 120 Yards), 1882 (Hurdles), 1883 (Hurdles).
Fischer, F. S. (F and Camb.), 1894 (Three Miles).
Fraser, W. E. (F and Camb.), 1881 (Three Miles), 1882 (Three Miles), 1883 (Three Miles).

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

- Fyson, P. F. (L and Camb.), 1900 (Mile).
 Gedge, H. T. S. (L and Oxf.), 1892 (Hurdles, 120 Yards), 1893 (Hurdles, 120 Yards, tied with an Oxonian, $16\frac{2}{5}$ secs.).
 *Grant-Asher, A. G. (L and Oxf.), 1885 (Long Jump, winner, 19 ft. $10\frac{1}{2}$ in.).
 Greig, J. L. (F and Camb.), 1888 (High Jump, Long Jump, and 120 Yards Hurdles), 1889 (Long Jump, winner, 21 ft. $\frac{1}{2}$ in.; Hurdles, 120 Yards, winner, $16\frac{2}{5}$ secs.), 1890 (Long Jump, winner, 22 ft. $7\frac{3}{4}$ in.; Hurdles, 120 Yards, winner, $16\frac{2}{5}$ secs.) (President).
 Lindsay, G. C. (L and Oxf.), 1886 (Quarter Mile).
 Lyle, A. M. P. (F and Oxf.), 1904 (Hurdles, 120 Yards), 1905 (Hurdles, 120 Yards), 1906 (Hurdles, 120 Yards, Weight).
 Mackenzie, K. (F and Oxf.), 1905 (Hammer).
 *Macleod, K. G. (F and Camb.), 1906 (100 Yards, winner, $10\frac{3}{5}$ secs.; Long Jump), 1907 (100 Yards, winner, tied with an Oxonian, $10\frac{1}{2}$ secs.; Long Jump), 1908 (100 Yards, winner, $10\frac{2}{5}$ secs.).
 Macleod, L. M. (F and Camb.), 1904 (Weight).
 McNeill, A. (L and Oxf.), 1882 (Hurdles, 120 Yards), 1883 (Hurdles, 120 Yards), 1884 (Hurdles, 120 Yards), 1885 (Hurdles, 120 Yards, winner, $17\frac{2}{5}$ secs.).
 Macrae, C. M. (L and Oxf.), 1914 (Weight).
 Monypenny, C. J. B. (F and Camb.), 1890 (100 Yards), 1891 (100 Yards), winner, tied with an Oxonian, $10\frac{2}{5}$ secs.; Quarter Mile), 1892 (100 Yards, Quarter Mile, winner, $49\frac{4}{5}$ secs.) (President).
 Storey, E. (F and Camb.), 1879 (100 Yards), 1881 (100 Yards, Weight and Long Jump, winner, 21 ft. $\frac{1}{2}$ in.), 1882 (Weight). (President).
 Wills, J. T. (F and Oxf.), 1878 (Three Miles).

SUMMARIES OF RESULTS

FOOTBALL

Season	Opponents	Place	Result	Score
1881-1882	Edinburgh Wanderers	Edinburgh	Lost	0 to 6
	Huddersfield	Huddersfield	Won	14 to 0
	Manchester	Whalley Range	Won	13 to 3
	West of Scotland	Glasgow	Lost	0 to 3
1882-1883	Edinburgh University	Edinburgh	Lost	0 to 5
	Richmond	Richmond	Won	5 to 0
	Edinburgh Wanderers	Edinburgh	Won	16 to 0
	Huddersfield	Huddersfield	Won	14 to 0
1883-1884	Manchester	Whalley Range	Won	13 to 5
	West of Scotland	Glasgow	Won	7 to 0
	Edinburgh University	Edinburgh	Won	8 to 0
	Richmond	Richmond	Won	8 to 5
1884-1885	Edinburgh Academicals	Edinburgh	Drawn	No scoring
	Huddersfield	Huddersfield	Won	8 to 0
	Marlborough Nomads	Whalley Range	Won	8 to 0
	Manchester	Whalley Range	Won	7 to 3
1885-1886	Glasgow Academicals	Glasgow	Won	18 to 3
	Edinburgh Wanderers	Edinburgh	Won	16 to 11
	Edinburgh University	Edinburgh	Won	11 to 0
	Bradford	Bradford	Won	10 to 0
1886-1887	Glasgow Academicals	Glasgow	Won	17 to 3
	Manchester	Whalley Range	Won	9 to 8
	Cheshire	Liscard	Won	18 to 3
	Bradford	Bradford	Drawn	3 to 3
1886-1887	No Matches on account of frost
1887-1888	Bradford	Bradford	Drawn	8 to 8
	Edinburgh Academicals	Edinburgh	Lost	3 to 5
	Glasgow Academicals	Glasgow	Won	8 to 3
	North of Scotland	Aberdeen	Won	20 to 0
1888-1889	Liverpool and District	Liverpool	Won	40 to 0
	Bradford	Bradford	Won	8 to 5
	Midland Counties	St. Andrews	Won	15 to 0
	Liverpool and District	Birkenhead	Won	5 to 3
1889-1890	Bradford	Bradford	Lost	0 to 4
	Manchester	Whalley Range	Won	10 to 0
	Edinburgh Academicals	Edinburgh	Won	10 to 0
	Manchester	Whalley Range	Won	17 to 3
1890-1891	Liverpool and District	Birkenhead	Won	18 to 0
	Bradford	Bradford	Lost	0 to 3

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Season	Opponents	Place	Result	Score
1891-1892	Manchester	Whalley Range	Won	14 to 0
	Bradford	Bradford	Lost	0 to 5
1892-1893	No Matches on account of frost
1893-1894	Liverpool and District	Birkenhead	Won	5 to 4
	Manchester	Whalley Range	Won	3 to 0
	Bradford	Bradford	Drawn	8 to 8
1894-1895	Manchester	Whalley Range	Won	13 to 0
1895-1896	Richmond	Richmond	Won	7 to 5
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Lost	3 to 26
1896-1897	Manchester	Whalley Range	Drawn	No scoring
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Lost	6 to 8
1897-1898	Manchester	Whalley Range	Won	10 to 6
	Richmond	Richmond	Lost	4 to 11
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Lost	8 to 11
1898-1899	Manchester	Whalley Range	Drawn	No scoring
	Richmond	Richmond	Won	10 to 0
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Drawn	3 to 3
1899-1900	Richmond	Richmond	Won	16 to 0
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Won	5 to 4
1900-1901	Manchester	Fallowfield	Won	24 to 5
	Richmond	Richmond	Won	18 to 16
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Lost	3 to 5
1901-1902	Manchester	Fallowfield	Won	11 to 0
	Richmond	Richmond	Won	10 to 3
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Won	6 to 3
1902-1903	Manchester	Fallowfield	Lost	0 to 3
	Richmond	Richmond	Won	10 to 0
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Lost	3 to 8
1903-1904	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Lost	5 to 21
1904-1905	Leicester	Leicester	Won	16 to 0
	Richmond	Richmond	Won	8 to 0
1905-1906	Leicester	Leicester	Won	3 to 0
	Richmond	Richmond	Won	25 to 6
1906-1907	Leicester	Leicester	Drawn	3 to 3
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Lost	9 to 16
1907-1908	Leicester	Leicester	Lost	8 to 21
	Richmond	Richmond	Won	29 to 0
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Won	43 to 0
1908-1909	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Won	13 to 5
	Richmond	Richmond	Drawn	5 to 5
1909-1910	Harlequins	Twickenham	Lost	0 to 42
	Richmond	Richmond	Won	12 to 9
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Won	11 to 5
1910-1911	The Navy	Queen's Club	Lost	6 to 35
	Richmond	Richmond	Lost	3 to 11
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Lost	0 to 22
1911-1912	Richmond	Richmond	Drawn	8 to 8
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Won	3 to 0
1912-1913	Richmond	Richmond	Lost	8 to 9
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Won	23 to 17
1913-1914	Richmond	Richmond	Drawn	3 to 3
	Blackheath	Rectory Field	Lost	0 to 40

SUMMARIES OF RESULTS

Season	Opponents	Place	Result	Score
1914-1919	No Matches
1920-1921	Liverpool	Liverpool	Won	35 to 3
	Manchester	Kersal	Won	8 to 4
1921-1922	No Matches
1922-1923	Richmond	Richmond	Won	12 to 8
1923-1924	Richmond	Richmond	Won	19 to 3
	Harlequins	Teddington	Won	16 to 0
1924-1925	Richmond	Richmond	Won	10 to 0
	United Services	Portsmouth	Won	11 to 6
1925-1929	No Matches
1929-1930	Richmond	Richmond	Won	28 to 3
	Rosslyn Park	Richmond	Lost	13 to 18
1930-1931	Old Cranleighians	London	Won	6 to 5
	Rosslyn Park	Richmond	Won	35 to 18

SUMMARY

Matches Played	Won	Drawn	Lost	Points For	Points Against
100	65	11	24	1032	575

CRICKET

Season	Opponents	Place	Result
1884	Edinburgh Academicals	Edinburgh	Won by 7 wickets
1885	Edinburgh University	Edinburgh	Drawn
	Edinburgh Academicals	Edinburgh	Drawn
1886	Edinburgh University	Edinburgh	Drawn
	Edinburgh Academicals	Edinburgh	Drawn
1889	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Birkenhead Park	Birkenhead	Won by 10 wickets
	Cheshire Gentlemen	Chelford	Won by an innings and 189
1890	Liverpool	Liverpool	Won by an innings and 202
	Manchester	Manchester	Drawn
	Old Reptonians	Repton	Lost by 8 wickets
1891	Manchester	Manchester	Won by 7 wickets
	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
1892	Liverpool	Liverpool	Won by 10 wickets
	Yorkshire Gentlemen	York	Drawn
	Gentlemen of Durham	Norton	Won by an innings and 27
1893	Preston	Preston	Won by an innings and 14
	Liverpool	Liverpool	Won by 7 wickets
	Birkenhead Park	Birkenhead	Drawn
1894	Preston	Preston	Lost by 9 wickets
	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Yorkshire Gentlemen	York	Drawn
1895	Preston	Preston	Lost by 10 wickets
	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Yorkshire Gentlemen	York	Drawn
1896	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Northern Nomads	Sedgwick, Kendal	Drawn
1897	Preston	Preston	Drawn

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Season	Opponents	Place	Result
1897	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Yorkshire Gentlemen	York	Drawn
1898	Preston	Preston	Won by 10 wickets
	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Yorkshire Gentlemen	York	Drawn
1899	Preston	Preston	Won by 9 wickets
	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Northern Nomads	Liverpool	Drawn
1900	Liverpool	Liverpool	Lost by 9 wickets
	Preston	Preston	Drawn
	Western	Eccles	Won by 103 runs
1901	No Matches
1902	Old Reptonians	Repton	Won by 5 wickets
	Ashby Hastings	Ashby Hastings	Drawn
	Warwickshire Gentlemen	Warwick	Drawn
1903	Old Reptonians	Repton	Drawn
	Burton	Burton	Won by 135 runs
	Warwickshire Gentlemen	Warwick	Won by 211 runs
1904	Old Reptonians	Repton	Drawn
	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Preston	Preston	Drawn
	Western	Eccles	Won
1905	Preston	Preston	Lost by 9 wickets
	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Western	Eccles	Drawn
	Old Reptonians	Repton	Drawn
1906	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Western	Eccles	Won by 3 wickets
	Old Reptonians	Repton	Lost by 63 runs
1907	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Western	Eccles	Won by an innings and 5
	Old Rugbeians	Rugby	Lost by 79 runs
1908	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Northern Club	Blundellsands	Drawn
	Old Rugbeians	Rugby	Drawn
1909	Northern Nomads	Leyland	Lost by 2 wickets
	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Northern Club	Blundellsands	Won by 23 runs
1910	Northern Nomads	Leyland	Lost by 8 wickets
	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Northern Club	Blundellsands	Won by 5 runs
1911 to 1929	No Matches
1930	Mr. A. D. Macalpine's XI.	Wrexham	Won by 34 runs
	Liverpool	Liverpool	Drawn
	Formby	Formby	Drawn
1931	Liverpool	Liverpool	Lost by 95 runs
	Northern Nomads	Liverpool	Drawn
	Cheshire Gentlemen	Chelford	Won by an innings and 39

SUMMARY

Matches Played	Won	Drawn	Lost
75	22	43	22

SUMMARIES OF RESULTS

GOLF

Date	Links	Winner of Medal	Strokes
1885 Spring	Musselburgh	J. E. Laidlay	81
Autumn	"	"	78
1886 Spring	"	W. J. Mure	85
Autumn	"	J. E. Laidlay	78
1887 Spring	"	"	87
Autumn	"	"	88
1888 Spring	"	"	76
Autumn	"	"	82
1889 Spring	"	"	85
Autumn	"	"	84
1890 Spring	North Berwick	"	77
Autumn	Musselburgh	"	79
1891 Spring	"	"	82
Autumn	North Berwick	A. R. Paterson	82
1892 Spring	"	L. S. Anderson	81
Autumn	"	C. P. Finlay, jun.	84
1893 Spring	St. Andrews	"	89
Autumn	"	"	82
1894 Spring	Gullane	F. M. Marshall	82
Autumn	Muirfield	J. F. Bayley	85
1895 Spring	Prestwick	W. N. Boase	86
Autumn	North Berwick	C. L. Dalziel	83
1896 Spring	St. Andrews	J. F. Bayley	91
Autumn	North Berwick	W. J. Mure	87
1897 Spring	"	J. W. Tod	87
Autumn	Muirfield	A. C. Cowan	90
1898 Spring	Gullane	A. R. Paterson	79
Autumn	Muirfield	J. E. Laidlay	84
1899 Spring	"	"	84
Autumn	St. Andrews (New Course)	G. L. M'Ewen	88
1900 Spring	Muirfield	J. E. Laidlay	84
Autumn	"	"	84
1901 Spring	Prestwick	A. E. Orr	87
Autumn	Muirfield	J. E. Laidlay	82
1902 Spring	New Luffness	Gordon Caldwell	86
Autumn	Gullane	W. N. Boase	79
1903 Spring	Musselburgh	A. E. Orr	88
Autumn	Troon	E. D. Prothero	82
1904 Spring	Muirfield	J. P. Jopp	84
Autumn	St. Andrews	E. W. B. Scratton	82
1905 Spring	New Luffness	A. R. Paterson	81
Autumn	Muirfield	D. Johnstone	84
1906 Spring	Prestwick	E. D. Prothero	79
Autumn	New Luffness	J. W. Struthers	85
1907 Spring	Muirfield	G. V. M. Boyd	83
Autumn	Turnberry	"	80
1908 Spring	Muirfield	J. E. Laidlay (after a tie with J. E. M'Intyre)	80
Autumn	Turnberry	E. R. Needham	89

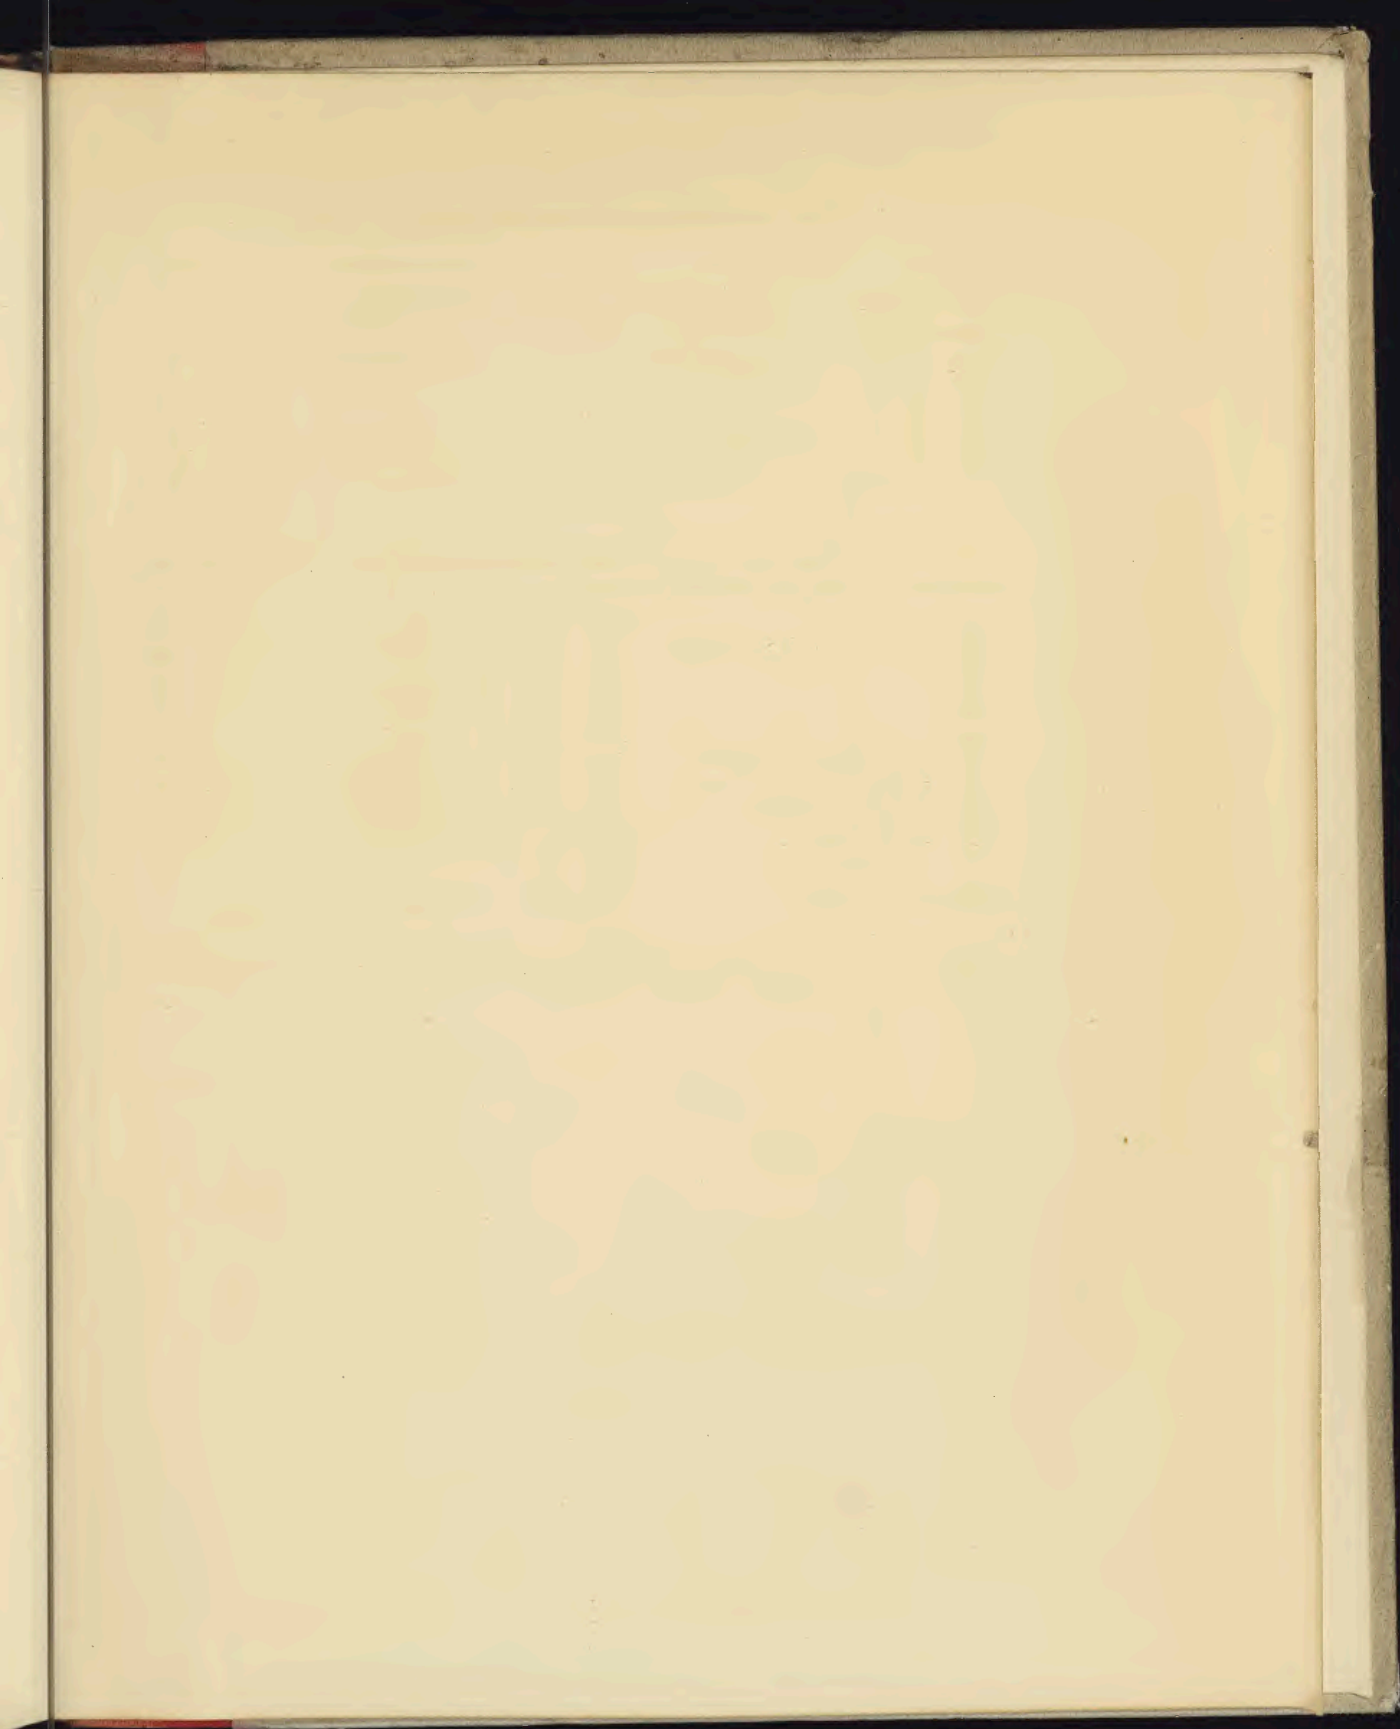

THE FETTESIAN-LORETTONIAN CLUB

Date	Links	Winner of Medal	Strokes
1909 Spring	New Luffness	G. Cunningham	82
Autumn	Prestwick	G. V. M. Boyd	79
1910 Spring	Gullane (No. 2)	Frank Mackenzie	87
Autumn
1911 Spring	Muirfield	J. P. Jopp	79
Autumn
1912 Spring	Prestwick	G. V. M. Boyd	83
Autumn
1913 Spring	New Luffness	P. Campbell	74
Autumn

The following have been winners of the Gibson-Carmichael Prize for the best aggregate score for the Spring and Autumn Meetings:

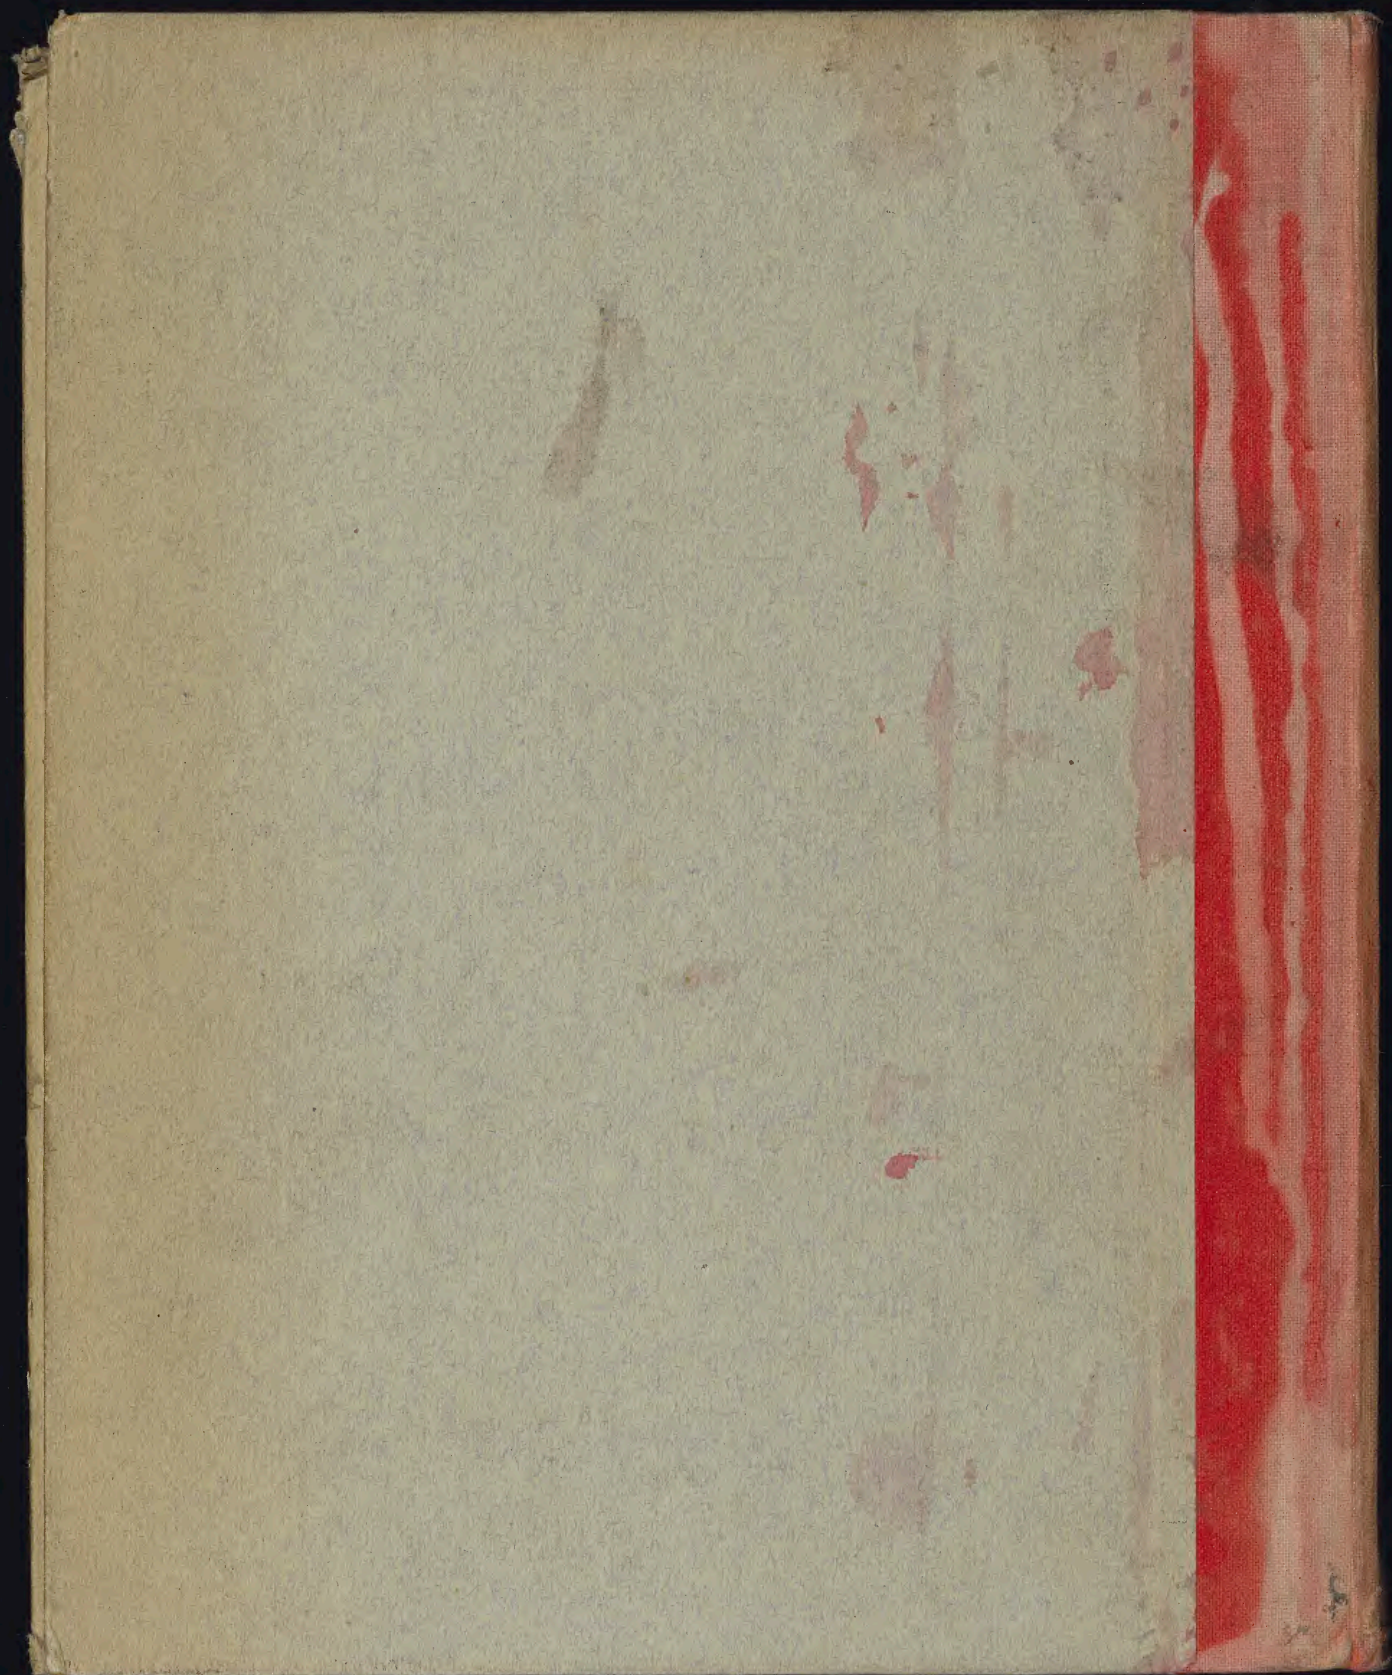

1885 J. E. Laidlay 158	1899 F. M. Orr 186
1886 " 167	1900 J. E. Laidlay 168
1887 " 175	1901 J. P. Jopp 183
1888 " 158	1902 W. N. Boase 166
1889 " 169	1903 A. E. Orr 174
1890 " 156	1904 J. P. Jopp 170
1891 G. H. Gibson-Carmichael 194	1905 A. R. Paterson 173
1892 L. S. Anderson 174	1906 J. W. Struthers 172
1893 C. P. Finlay, jun. 171	1907 G. V. M. Boyd 163
1894 F. M. Marshall 173	1908 E. R. Needham 185
1895 W. N. Boase 191	1909 J. H. Orr 180
1896 J. F. Bayley 184	1910
1897 " 181	1911
1898 A. R. Paterson 169	1912 J. P. Jopp

[Since 1914 competitions have been held, but not regularly, and it has been found impossible to give complete details of the results.]

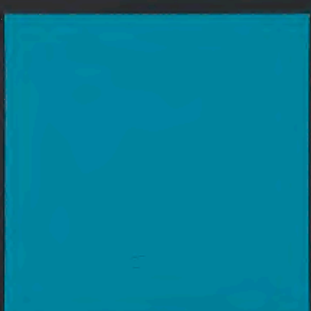

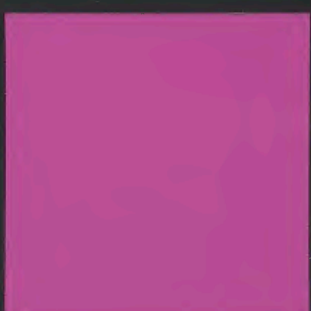

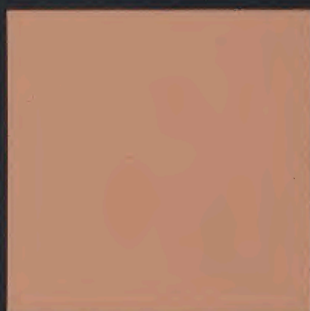

X

+ x-rite

+ color checker chart

100mm

colorchecker CLASSIC

x-rite

mm