How to Remit

The rules of this office require that remittances be made in advance of shipment of publications, either by coupons, sold in sets of 20 for $1 and good until used, or by check, money order, or postal note payable to the Superintendent of Documents. Currency may be sent at sender's risk. Foreign money, defaced or smooth coins are not acceptable. Do not send postage stamps.

Deposits of $5 or more are accepted against which orders may be placed without making individual remittances or first obtaining quotations. Order blanks are provided which should be submitted in duplicate, one copy of which is returned showing the publications supplied, explanations regarding those not sent, the amount of charge and the balance on deposit.

Postage is not required for shipment within the continental United States or its possessions. Shipments to foreign countries require postage amounting to about one-third of the purchase price. Remittances from foreign countries should be made by international money order, or draft on an American bank, payable to the Superintendent of Documents.

Promptness in handling correspondence is insured by sending separate requests for information instead of embodying them in cash order. Full name and address should be given on request for additional information.

The Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C., is authorized by law to sell copies of Government publications and to allow a discount of 25 percent to book dealers. This discount is also allowed to other purchasers of 100 or more copies of a single publication to be mailed to one address. A few publications are offered at a special low price and under special conditions, and for this group, no discount can be allowed. All discount sales are granted on condition that the purchasers will adhere to the public sales price set by the Superintendent of Documents and that publications shall not be overprinted with any advertising matter.
