

A U T H O R S and B O O K S.

Part I.

1. Brownrig of Exon's first and second Tome
Yield you good Sermon-notes, apply them home.
2. Alcham restor'd pure, Latin, S<sup>r</sup>. John Cheek
Restor'd the true pronouncing of the Greek.
3. Eastern tongu'd Pocock, in his writing quick,
'mong many Works, made Grotius Arabick.
4. Savilian Bernard, a good Learned man
Will give us his Josephus when he can.
5. Walton hath written Lives, and doth deserve
To have a fair Memorial of himself.
6. Spelman did greatly (Father and the Son)
Serve th' English Church, by good things they have done.
7. The Linguist Wheelock hath taught us to read,
Saxon and Latin venerable Bede.
8. Patrick, in's Pilgrim, Pray'r's, Advice, Debate,
Is learned, pious friendly, moderate.
9. Wotton, long time Ambassador, at last
His mind at Eaton had a sweet repast.
10. George Herbert, noble both in Arts and Birth;
No Parson equals His in all the Earth. (then)
11. Cave's Books to Auction? God forbid, how Shall he write th' History of all learned Men?
12. Hales sold his Books to live upon: this thing
Shall not befall Cave under a good King.
13. Wake the Orator, King James's Ambassador;
His Rex Platonicus he had wrote before.
14. Eulman a Country Parson, and yet he
Can judge of all Books, all Antiquity.
15. Perinchief, write his Dionysius durst,
Wrote at return the Life of Charles the first,
16. Excellent Brierwood hath great favour done's
By's Numms, by's Languages, and Religions.
17. Cotton himself, a noble Antiquary,
Friend to all such by his rare Library,
18. The great Son of great Vossius, is ours,
Prebend of that Church, known by Royal Tow'rs.
19. The famous Rauleigh's History General,
We glory in; grieve, that we have not all.
20. Smith's Law fed both the Universities,
Deserves our Universal Memories.
21. Fuxon great Tresuror, Primate and a Friend,
Waited on Charles the Martyr at his end.
22. Moulin of Canterbury, (as his Father was)
Many good learned pieces written has.
23. Goodman for's old Religion and therest,
Chiefly the Parable of the Prodigal, is blest;
24. Whitmore & Adams (friends of Learning) prime
Aldermen, faithful to's Majesty at worst time.
25. The admirable Grotius stands in these lines
For the great love, he had for our Divines
26. Lord Vernum! his Works the Learned please
He is admir'd here and beyond the Seas.
27. Lord Faulkland slain, lamented is by all;
With him, Vertue and Learning had a fall.
28. John Oxon Patron of Arts, no time can
His Name Extinguish, nor his Cyprian.
29. Spotswood Scots loyal Primate, and his Son,
For Charles the first have suffer'd much, much doe.
30. Grave and mild Tuckson, of deep thoughts,
great sense,
High Phrase, above common Intelligence.
31. For's Primitive Christianity, our Cave
And for his Fathers lasting praise will have.
32. Sweet Chillingworth by Preaching won the day,
A Conqueror again by his safe way.
33. Brave More for Godliness, for Antichrist &c
I long to see his state of Philadelphia.
34. Dean Field in writers of the Church is one
Of the best; see the best Edition.
35. Sheldon the Dean, first entertains his King
At the Chapel, with David's Thanksgiving.
36. Nicolsons worth, Bishop of Gloucester,
In his Defense of our Church does appear.
37. Frampton our Bishop made against his will,
A Bishops Office does with praise fulfill.
38. Dean Marshals foreign learning, he that lists,
May perceive, by the Gotth Evangelists
39. The senior Prebend Walsbourn's Devotions,
We expect with his holy Meditations
40. Two Samways Cofin-Germans, both we see
In Studies and Devotions agree
41. Vesey, a primate wrote Bramhal's life: his name,
And Bishops vertues commend him to Fame.
42. Thrice noble Boyl, of Royal Society,
Hath led his fellows to Theology.
43. That reverend man, Bishop of Chester, Fern,
Hath written whence obedience we may learn.
44. Arch deacon Hyde hath merited a good Lot
In Bodley's Catalogue, Walton's Polyglot.
45. The Primate Usher did revive Hierom,
And the most eloquent Preacher Chryostom.
46. Humfrey of Bangor, Warren's friend and mine,
In Life and Learning is a true Divine.
47. Bedel of Kilmore with Wotton the Seas crost,
'Tis pitty his great Irish Bible's lost.
48. Dodwel a writer rational and profound,
By various Works, hath Love and Glory found.
49. Heylin of Westminster, smart Man, see's life,
Well writ by my friend Vernon, with some strife.
50. Godwin of Abingdon deserves of me,
Thanks for Roman and Hebrew Antiquity.

“Reader, take these from me, I leave the rest
 “To those who have more light and see’em best.
 “I beg no pardon for what I have done,
 “Out of my Love and Admiration.

C. B.

