When His MAJESTY

KING GEORGE

Makes his Entry into the City of LONDON :

Being the first Six Verses of the twenty first Psalm.

From the Version of the Honourable Sir JOHN DENHAM, KNIGHT of the BATH.

1. THE King whom thy Support has blest,
Shall in thy saving Health rejoice ;
2. Thou grantest him his Heart's Request,
And of his Pray'r hast heard the Voice.

*Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah,
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah,
Hallelujah.*

3. Thy Favours his Desire prevent,
A Crown of Gold his Head has grac'd ;
4. He ask'd for Life, which thou hast lent,
A Life that shall for ever last.

5. In thy Salvation he shall rest,
With Dignity and Honour clad ;
6. By thee he stands for ever blest,
Thy Favour still shall make him glad.
