

What d'ye think Of the New SPANISH WAR

And they're all for clipping clip, clip, clipping
And they're all for clipping the Liberty of Spain

Oh what do'ye think of the new Spanish War
Why, I think they had better not try it by far
For already they've raised our meat and our bread
And I wish all the Frenchmen a thousand years dead

And what d'ye think of the famous Prince Hilt
I think that in Spain he'll get his blood spilt
For if he goes there with his army of men
Its a thousand to one if he gets back again

And what d'ye think of the Old King of France
I think he's a leading his people a prance
For if he would wish to sit quiet on his Throne
He'd better be at Peace and let fighting alone

And what d'ye think of the bold Spaniards there
I think for their liberty they'll all fight like men
For Wellington has taught them to fight if they please
And they'll make the French army fly over the Pyrenees

And what d'ye think of Austria the Great
I think he has got some deep scheme in his pate
And Europe I hope will watch him very smart
For I think he's as ambitious as the Great Bonaparte

And what d'ye think of Napoleon's little son
I think in this war he'd like to make one
I think he'll push forward only let him alone
For he like to sit upon his father's old Throne

And what d'ye think of Old England
I think at present she's quite at a stand For if in this war in it she must be hope she'll back the cause of Liberty

Bishop, Printer, 10, Parker Street, Drury Lane,
London

